INTRODUCTION TO THE CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE®

The Bible is God's revelation to humanity. It is our only source for completely reliable information about God, what happens when we die, and where history is headed. The Bible does these things because it is God's inspired Word, inerrant in the original manuscripts. Bible translation brings God's Word from the ancient languages (Hebrew, Greek, and Aramaic) into today's world. In dependence on God's Spirit to accomplish this sacred task, the CSB Translation Oversight Committee and Holman Bible Publishers present the Christian Standard Bible.

Textual Base of the CSB

The textual base for the New Testament (NT) is the Nestle-Aland Novum Testamentum Graece, 28th edition, and the United Bible Societies' Greek New Testament, 5th corrected edition. The text for the Old Testament (OT) is the Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia, 5th edition.

Where there are significant differences among Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek manuscripts, the translators follow what they believe is the original reading and indicate the main alternative(s) in footnotes. The CSB uses the traditional verse divisions found in most Protestant Bibles.

Goals of This Translation

- Provide English-speaking people worldwide with an accurate translation in contemporary English.
- Provide an accurate translation for personal study, sermon preparation, private devotions, and memorization.
- Provide a text that is clear and understandable, suitable for public reading, and shareable so that all may access its life-giving message.
- Affirm the authority of Scripture and champion its absolute truth against skeptical viewpoints.

Translation Philosophy of the CSB

Most discussions of Bible translations speak of two opposite approaches: formal equivalence and dynamic equivalence. This terminology is meaningful, but Bible translations cannot be neatly sorted into these two categories. There is room for another category of translation philosophy that capitalizes on the strengths of the other two.

1. Formal Equivalence:

Often called "word-for-word" (or "literal") translation, the principle of formal equivalence seeks as nearly as possible to preserve the structure of the original language. It seeks to represent each word of the original text with an exact equivalent word in the translation so that the reader can see word for word what the original human author wrote. The merits of this approach include its consistency with the conviction that the Holy Spirit did inspire the very words of Scripture in the original manuscripts. It also provides the English Bible student some access to the structure of the text in the original language. Formal equivalence can achieve accuracy to the degree that English has an exact equivalent for each word and that the grammatical patterns of the original language can be reproduced in understandable English. However, it can sometimes result in awkward, if not incomprehensible, English or in a misunderstanding of the author's intent. The literal rendering of ancient idioms is especially difficult.

2. Dynamic or Functional Equivalence:

Often called "thought-for-thought" translation, the principle of dynamic equivalence rejects as misguided the attempt to preserve the structure of the original language. It proceeds by extracting the meaning of a text from its form and then translating that meaning so that it makes the same impact on modern readers that the ancient text made on its original readers. Strengths of this approach include a high degree of clarity and readability, especially in places where the original is difficult to render word for word. It also acknowledges that accurate and effective translation may require interpretation. However, the meaning of a text cannot always be neatly separated from its form, nor can it always be precisely determined. A biblical author may have intended multiple meanings, but these may be lost with the elimination of normal structures. In striving for readability, dynamic equivalence also sometimes overlooks and loses some of the less prominent elements of meaning. Furthermore, lack of formal correspondence to the original makes it difficult to verify accuracy and thus can affect the usefulness of the translation for in-depth Bible study.

3. Optimal Equivalence:

In practice, translations are seldom if ever purely formal or dynamic but favor one theory of Bible translation or the other to varying degrees. Optimal equivalence as a translation philosophy recognizes that form cannot always be neatly separated from meaning and should not be changed unless comprehension demands it. The primary goal of translation is to convey the sense of the original with as much clarity as the original text and the translation language permit. Optimal equivalence appreciates the goals of formal equivalence but also recognizes its limitations.

Optimal equivalence starts with an exhaustive analysis of the text at every level (word, phrase, clause, sentence, discourse) in the original language to determine its original meaning and intention (or purpose). Then, relying on the latest and best language tools and experts, the nearest corresponding semantic and linguistic equivalents are used to convey as much of the information and intention of the original text with as much clarity and readability as possible. This process assures the maximum transfer of both the words and the thoughts contained in the original.

The CSB uses optimal equivalence as its translation philosophy. In the many places throughout the Bible where a word-for-word rendering is understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used. The Christian Standard Bible places equal value on fidelity to the original and readability for a modern audience, resulting in a translation that achieves both goals.

The Gender Language Use in Bible Translation

The goal of the translators of the Christian Standard Bible has not been to promote a cultural ideology but to translate the Bible faithfully. Recognizing modern usage of English, the CSB regularly translates the plural of the Greek word ανθρωπος ("man") as "people" instead of "men," and occasionally the singular as "one," "someone," or "everyone," when the supporting pronouns in the original languages validate such a translation. While the CSB avoids using "he" or "him" unnecessarily, the translation does not restructure sentences to avoid them when they are in the text.

History of the CSB

After several years of preliminary development, Holman Bible Publishers, the oldest Bible publisher in North America, assembled an international, interdenominational team of 100 scholars, editors, stylists, and proofreaders, all of whom were committed to biblical inerrancy. Outside consultants and reviewers contributed valuable suggestions from their areas of expertise. Working with the original languages, an executive team of translators edited, polished, and reviewed the final manuscript, which was first published as the Holman Christian Standard Bible (HCSB) in 2004.

A standing committee was also formed to maintain the HCSB translation and look for ways to improve readability without compromising accuracy. As with the original translation team, the committee that prepared this revision of the HCSB, renamed the Christian Standard Bible, is international and interdenominational, comprising evangelical scholars who honor the inspiration and authority of God's written Word.

Traditional Features Found in the CSB

In keeping with a long line of Bible publications, the CSB has retained a number of features found in traditional Bibles:

1. Traditional theological vocabulary (for example, justification, sanctification, redemption) has been retained since such terms have no other translation equivalent that adequately communicates their exact meaning.
2. Traditional spellings of names and places found in most Bibles have been used to make the CSB compatible with most Bible study tools.
3. Some editions of the CSB will print the words of Christ in red letters to help readers easily locate the spoken words of the Lord Jesus Christ.
4. Descriptive headings, printed above each section of Scripture, help readers quickly identify the contents of that section.
5. OT passages quoted in the NT are indicated. In the CSB, they are set in boldface type.

GENESIS

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.
² Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness covered the surface of the watery depths, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters. ³ Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. ⁴ God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." There was an evening, and there was a morning: one day.

⁹ Then God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. ¹⁰ God called the dry land "earth," and the gathering of the water he called "seas." And God saw that it was good. ¹¹ Then God said, "Let the earth produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and fruit trees on the earth bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds." And it was so. ¹² The earth produced vegetation: seed-bearing plants according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good. ¹³ Evening came and then morning: the third day.

¹⁴ Then God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night. They will serve as signs for seasons and for days and years. ¹⁵ They will be lights in the expanse of the sky to provide light on the earth." And it was so. ¹⁶ God made the two great lights — the greater light to rule over the day and the lesser light to rule over the night — as well as the stars. ¹⁷ God placed them in the expanse of the sky to provide light on the earth, ¹⁸ to rule the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ Evening came and then morning: the fourth day.

²⁴ Then God said, "Let the earth produce living creatures according to their kinds: livestock, creatures that crawl, and the wildlife of the earth according to their kinds." And it was so. ²⁵ So God made the wildlife of the earth according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and all the creatures that crawl on the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

²⁶ Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, according to our likeness. They will rule the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the livestock, the whole earth, and the creatures that crawl on the earth."

²⁸ God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. Rule the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, and every creature that crawls on the earth." ²⁹ God also said, "Look, I have given you every seed-bearing plant on the surface of the entire earth and every tree whose fruit contains seed. This will be food for you, ³⁰ for all the wildlife of the earth, for every bird of the sky, and for every creature that crawls on the earth — everything having the breath of life in it — I have given every green plant for food." And it was so. ³¹ God saw all that he had made, and it was very good indeed. Evening came and then morning: the sixth day.

2 So the heavens and the earth and everything in them were completed. ² On the seventh day God had completed his work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. ³ God blessed the seventh day and declared it holy, for on it he rested from all his work of creation.

⁴ These are the records of the heavens and the earth, concerning their creation. At the time that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, ⁵ no shrub of the field had yet grown on the land, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not made it rain on the land, and there was no man to work the ground. ⁶ But mist would come up from the earth and water all the ground. ⁷ Then the LORD God formed the man out of the dust from the ground and breathed the breath of life into his nostrils, and the man became a living being.

¹⁰ A river went out from Eden to water the garden. From there it divided and became the source of four rivers. ¹¹ The name of the first is Pishon, which flows through the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold. ¹² Gold from that land is pure; bdellium and onyx are also there. ¹³ The name of the second river is Gihon, which flows through the entire land of Cush. ¹⁴ The name of the third river is Tigris, which runs east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

²⁰ The man gave names to all the livestock, to the birds of the sky, and to every wild animal; but for the man no helper was found corresponding to him. ²¹ So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to come over the man, and he slept. God took one of his ribs and closed the flesh at that place. ²² Then the LORD God made the rib he had taken from the man into a woman and brought her to the man. ²³ And the man said:

This one, at last, is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh;
this one will be called "woman,"
for she was taken from man.

²⁴This is why a man leaves his father and mother and bonds with his wife, and they become one flesh. ²⁵Both the man and his wife were naked, yet felt no shame.

3 Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the wild animals that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You can't eat from any tree in the garden?'"

²The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat the fruit from the trees in the garden. ³But about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, God said, 'You must not eat it or touch it, or you will die.'"

⁴"No! You will not die," the serpent said to the woman.

⁵"In fact, God knows that when you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

⁶The woman saw that the tree was good for food and delightful to look at, and that it was desirable for obtaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. ⁷Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

⁸Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden. ⁹So the LORD God called out to the man and said to him, "Where are you?"

¹⁰And he said, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid."

¹¹Then he asked, "Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

¹²The man replied, "The woman you gave to be with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate."

¹³So the LORD God asked the woman, "What is this you have done?"

And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

¹⁴So the LORD God said to the serpent:

Because you have done this,
you are cursed more than any livestock and more than any wild animal.
You will move on your belly and eat dust all the days of your life.

¹⁵ I will put hostility between you and the woman,
and between your offspring and her offspring.
He will strike your head,
and you will strike his heel.

¹⁶He said to the woman:

I will intensify your labor pains;
you will bear children with painful effort.
Your desire will be for your husband,
yet he will rule over you.

¹⁷And he said to the man, "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, 'Do not eat from it':

The ground is cursed because of you.
You will eat from it by means of painful labor
all the days of your life.

¹⁸ It will produce thorns and thistles for you,
and you will eat the plants of the field.

¹⁹ You will eat bread by the sweat of your brow until you return to the ground, since you were taken from it.

For you are dust,
and you will return to dust."

²⁰The man named his wife Eve because she was the mother of all the living. ²¹The LORD God made clothing from skins for the man and his wife, and he clothed them.

²²The LORD God said, "Since the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil, he must not reach out, take from the tree of life, eat, and live forever." ²³So the LORD God sent him away from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken. ²⁴He drove the man out and stationed the cherubim and the flaming, whirling sword east of the garden of Eden to guard the way to the tree of life.

4 The man was intimate with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain. She said, "I have had a male child with the LORD's help." ²She also gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel became a shepherd of flocks, but Cain worked the ground. ³In the course of time Cain presented some of the land's produce as an offering to the LORD. ⁴And Abel also presented an offering—some of the firstborn of his flock and their fat portions. The LORD had regard for Abel and his offering, ⁵but he did not have regard for Cain and his offering. Cain was furious, and he looked despondent.

⁶Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you furious? And why do you look despondent? If you do what is right, won't you be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it."

⁸Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

⁹Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?"

"I don't know," he replied. "Am I my brother's guardian?"

¹⁰Then he said, "What have you done? Your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground! ¹¹So now you are cursed, alienated from the ground that opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood you have shed. ¹²If you work the ground, it will never again give you its yield. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth."

¹³But Cain answered the LORD, "My punishment is too great to bear! ¹⁴Since you are banishing me today from the face of the earth, and I must hide from your presence and become a restless wanderer on the earth, whoever finds me will kill me."

¹⁵Then the LORD replied to him, "In that case, whoever kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over." And he placed a mark on Cain so that whoever found him would not kill him. ¹⁶Then Cain went out from the LORD's presence and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

¹⁷Cain was intimate with his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Enoch. Then Cain became the builder of a city, and he named the city Enoch after his son. ¹⁸Irak was born to Enoch, Irak fathered Mehujael, Mehujael fathered Methushael, and Methushael fathered Lamech. ¹⁹Lamech took two wives for himself, one named Adah and the other named Zillah. ²⁰Adah bore Jubal; he was the father of the nomadic herdsmen. ²¹His brother was named Jubal; he was the father of all who play the lyre and the flute. ²²Zillah bore Tubal-cain, who made all kinds of bronze and iron tools. Tubal-cain's sister was Naamah.

²³Lamech said to his wives:

Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
wives of Lamech, pay attention to my words.
For I killed a man for wounding me,
a young man for striking me.

²⁴ If Cain is to be avenged seven times over,
then for Lamech it will be seventy-seven times!

²⁵ Adam was intimate with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son and named him Seth, for she said, "God has given me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him." ²⁶ A son was born to Seth also, and he named him Enosh. At that time people began to call on the name of the LORD.

5 This is the document containing the family records of Adam. On the day that God created man, he made him in the likeness of God; ² he created them male and female. When they were created, he blessed them and called them mankind.

³ Adam was 130 years old when he fathered a son in his likeness, according to his image, and named him Seth.

⁴ Adam lived 800 years after he fathered Seth, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ⁵ So Adam's life lasted 930 years; then he died.

⁶ Seth was 105 years old when he fathered Enosh. ⁷ Seth lived 807 years after he fathered Enosh, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ⁸ So Seth's life lasted 912 years; then he died.

⁹ Enosh was 90 years old when he fathered Kenan. ¹⁰ Enosh lived 815 years after he fathered Kenan, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ¹¹ So Enosh's life lasted 905 years; then he died.

¹² Kenan was 70 years old when he fathered Mahalalel. ¹³ Kenan lived 840 years after he fathered Mahalalel, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ¹⁴ So Kenan's life lasted 910 years; then he died.

¹⁵ Mahalalel was 65 years old when he fathered Jared. ¹⁶ Mahalalel lived 830 years after he fathered Jared, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ¹⁷ So Mahalalel's life lasted 895 years; then he died.

¹⁸ Jared was 162 years old when he fathered Enoch. ¹⁹ Jared lived 800 years after he fathered Enoch, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ²⁰ So Jared's life lasted 962 years; then he died.

²¹ Enoch was 65 years old when he fathered Methuselah. ²² And after he fathered Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years and fathered other sons and daughters. ²³ So Enoch's life lasted 365 years. ²⁴ Enoch walked with God; then he was not there because God took him.

²⁵ Methuselah was 187 years old when he fathered Lamech. ²⁶ Methuselah lived 782 years after he fathered Lamech, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ²⁷ So Methuselah's life lasted 969 years; then he died.

²⁸ Lamech was 182 years old when he fathered a son. ²⁹ And he named him Noah, saying, "This one will bring us relief from the agonizing labor of our hands, caused by the ground the LORD has cursed." ³⁰ Lamech lived 595 years after he fathered Noah, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ³¹ So Lamech's life lasted 777 years; then he died.

6 When mankind began to multiply on the earth and daughters were born to them, ² the sons of God saw that the daughters of mankind were beautiful, and they took any they chose as wives for themselves. ³ And the LORD said, "My Spirit will not remain with mankind forever, because they are corrupt. Their days will be 120 years."

⁴ The Nephilim were on the earth both in those days and afterward, when the sons of God came to the daughters of mankind, who bore children to them. They were the powerful men of old, the famous men.

⁵ When the LORD saw that human wickedness was widespread on the earth and that every inclination of the human mind was nothing but evil all the time, ⁶ the LORD regretted that he had made man on the earth, and he was deeply grieved. ⁷ Then the LORD said, "I will wipe mankind, whom I created, off the face of the earth, together with the animals, creatures that crawl, and birds of the sky — for I regret that I made them." ⁸ Noah, however, found favor with the LORD.

¹⁷ "Understand that I am bringing a flood — floodwaters on the earth to destroy every creature under heaven with the breath of life in it. Everything on earth will perish. ¹⁸ But I will establish my covenant with you, and you will enter the ark with your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives. ¹⁹ You are also to bring into the ark two of all the living creatures, male and female, to keep them alive with you. ²⁰ Two of everything — from the birds according to their kinds, from the livestock according to their kinds, and from the animals that crawl on the ground according to their kinds — will come to you so that you can keep them alive. ²¹ Take with you every kind of food that is eaten; gather it as food for you and for them." ²² And Noah did this. He did everything that God had commanded him.

7 Then the LORD said to Noah, "Enter the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you alone are righteous before me in this generation. ² You are to take with you seven pairs, a male and its female, of all the clean animals, and two of the animals that are not clean, a male and its female, ³ and seven pairs, male and female, of the birds of the sky — in order to keep offspring alive throughout the earth. ⁴ Seven days from now I will make it rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and every living thing I have made I will wipe off the face of the earth." ⁵ And Noah did everything that the LORD commanded him.

8 God remembered Noah, as well as all the wildlife and all the livestock that were with him in the ark. God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the water began to subside. ²The sources of the watery depths and the floodgates of the sky were closed, and the rain from the sky stopped. ³The water steadily receded from the earth, and by the end of 150 days the water had decreased significantly. ⁴The ark came to rest in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat.

⁵The water continued to recede until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were visible. ⁶After forty days Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made, ⁷and he sent out a raven. It went back and forth until the water had dried up from the earth. ⁸Then he sent out a dove to see whether the water on the earth's surface had gone down, ⁹but the dove found no resting place for its foot. It returned to him in the ark because water covered the surface of the whole earth. He reached out and brought it into the ark to himself. ¹⁰So Noah waited seven more days and sent out the dove from the ark again. ¹¹When the dove came to him at evening, there was a plucked olive leaf in its beak. So Noah knew that the water on the earth's surface had gone down. ¹²After he had waited another seven days, he sent out the dove, but it did not return to him again. ¹³In the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the water that had covered the earth was dried up. Then Noah removed the ark's cover and saw that the surface of the ground was drying. ¹⁴By the twenty-seventh day of the second month, the earth was dry.

¹⁵Then God spoke to Noah, ¹⁶"Come out of the ark, you, your wife, your sons, and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁷Bring out all the living creatures that are with you — birds, livestock, those that crawl on the earth — and they will spread over the earth and be fruitful and multiply on the earth."

¹⁸So Noah, along with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, came out. ¹⁹All the animals, all the creatures that crawl, and all the flying creatures — everything that moves on the earth — came out of the ark by their families.

²⁰Then Noah built an altar to the LORD. He took some of every kind of clean animal and every kind of clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar. ²¹When the LORD smelled the pleasing aroma, he said to himself, "I will never again curse the ground because of human beings, even though the inclination of the human heart is evil from youth onward. And I will never again strike down every living thing as I have done.

²² As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night will not cease."

9 God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth. ²The fear and terror of you will be in every living creature on the earth, every bird of the sky, every creature that crawls on the ground, and all the fish of the sea. They are placed under your authority. ³Every creature that lives and moves will be food for you; as I gave the green plants, I have given you everything. ⁴However, you must not eat meat with its lifeblood in it. ⁵And I will require a penalty for your lifeblood; I will require it from any animal and from any human; if someone murders a fellow human, I will require that person's life.

⁶ Whoever sheds human blood, by humans his blood will be shed, for God made humans in his image.

⁸Then God said to Noah and his sons with him, ⁹"Understand that I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, ¹⁰and with every living creature that is with you — birds, livestock, and all wildlife of the earth that are with you — all the animals of the earth that came out of the ark. ¹¹I establish my covenant with you that never again will every creature be wiped out by floodwaters; there will never again be a flood to destroy the earth."

¹²And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant I am making between me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all future generations: ¹³I have placed my bow in the clouds, and it will be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. ¹⁴Whenever I form clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, ¹⁵I will remember my covenant between me and you and all the living creatures; water will never again become a flood to destroy every creature. ¹⁶The bow will be in the clouds, and I will look at it and remember the permanent covenant between God and all the living creatures on earth." ¹⁷God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and every creature on earth."

¹⁸Noah's sons who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan. ¹⁹These three were Noah's sons, and from them the whole earth was populated.

²⁰Noah, as a man of the soil, began by planting a vineyard. ²¹He drank some of the wine, became drunk, and uncovered himself inside his tent. ²²Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father naked and told his two brothers outside.²³ Then Shem and Japheth took a cloak and placed it over both their shoulders, and walking backward, they covered their father's nakedness. Their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father naked.

²⁴ When Noah awoke from his drinking and learned what his youngest son had done to him, ²⁵ he said:

Canaan is cursed.

He will be the lowest of slaves to his brothers.

²⁶ He also said:

Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem;

Let Canaan be Shem's slave.

²⁷ Let God extend Japheth;

let Japheth dwell in the tents of Shem;

let Canaan be Shem's slave.

²⁸ Now Noah lived 350 years after the flood. ²⁹ So Noah's life lasted 950 years; then he died.

10 These are the family records of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. They also had sons after the flood.

² Japheth's sons: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. ³ Gomer's sons: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. ⁴ And Javan's sons: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. ⁵ From these descendants, the peoples of the coasts and islands spread out into their lands according to their clans in their nations, each with its own language.

²⁰ These are Ham's sons by their clans, according to their languages, in their lands and their nations.

²¹ And Shem, Japheth's older brother, also had sons. Shem was the father of all the sons of Eber. ²² Shem's sons were Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram.

²³ Aram's sons: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.

11 The whole earth had the same language and vocabulary. ² As people migrated from the east, they found a valley in the land of Shinar and settled there. ³ They said to each other, "Come, let us make oven-fired bricks." (They used brick for stone and asphalt for mortar.) ⁴ And they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the sky. Let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise, we will be scattered throughout the earth."

⁵ Then the LORD came down to look over the city and the tower that the humans were building. ⁶ The LORD said, "If they have begun to do this as one people all having the same language, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them. ⁷ Come, let's go down there and confuse their language so that they will not understand one another's speech." ⁸ So from there the LORD scattered them throughout the earth, and they stopped building the city. ⁹ Therefore it is called Babylon, for there the LORD confused the language of the whole earth, and from there the LORD scattered them throughout the earth.

¹⁰ These are the family records of Shem. Shem lived 100 years and fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood. ¹¹ After he fathered Arpachshad, Shem lived 500 years and fathered other sons and daughters. ¹² Arpachshad lived 35 years and fathered Shelah. ¹³ After he fathered Shelah, Arpachshad lived 403 years and fathered other sons and daughters. ¹⁴ Shelah lived 30 years and fathered Eber. ¹⁵ After he fathered Eber, Shelah lived 403 years and fathered other sons and daughters. ¹⁶ Eber lived 34 years and fathered Peleg. ¹⁷ After he fathered Peleg, Eber lived 430 years and fathered other sons and daughters. ¹⁸ Peleg lived 30 years and fathered Reu. ¹⁹ After he fathered Reu, Peleg lived 209 years and fathered other sons and daughters. ²⁰ Reu lived 32 years and fathered Serug. ²¹ After he fathered Serug, Reu lived 207 years and fathered other sons and daughters. ²² Serug lived 30 years and fathered Nahor. ²³ After he fathered Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and fathered other sons and daughters. ²⁴ Nahor lived 29 years and fathered Terah. ²⁵ After he fathered Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and fathered other sons and daughters. ²⁶ Terah lived 70 years and fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

³¹ Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot (Haran's son), and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they set out together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan. But when they came to Haran, they settled there. ³² Terah lived 205 years and died in Haran.

12 The LORD said to Abram:

Go out from your land, your relatives, and your father's house to the land that I will show you.

² I will make you into a great nation,

I will bless you,

I will make your name great,

and you will be a blessing.

³ I will bless those who bless you,

I will curse anyone who treats you with contempt, and all the peoples on earth will be blessed through you.

⁴ So Abram went, as the LORD had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran. ⁵ He took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all the possessions they had accumulated, and the people they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan. When they came to the land of Canaan, ⁶ Abram passed through the land to the site of Shechem, at the oak of Moreh. (At that time the Canaanites were in the land.) ⁷ The LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your offspring I will give this land." So he built an altar there to the LORD who had appeared to him. ⁸ From there he moved on to the hill country east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. He built an altar to the LORD there, and he called on the name of the LORD. ⁹ Then Abram journeyed by stages to the Negev.

¹⁰ There was a famine in the land, so Abram went down to Egypt to stay there for a while because the famine in the land was severe. ¹¹ When he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, "Look, I know what a beautiful woman you are. ¹² When the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' They will kill me but let you live. ¹³ Please say you're my sister so it will go well for me because of you, and my life will be spared on your account." ¹⁴ When Abram entered Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. ¹⁵ Pharaoh's officials saw her and praised her to Pharaoh, so the woman was taken to Pharaoh's household. ¹⁶ He treated Abram well because of her, and Abram acquired flocks and herds, male and female donkeys, male and female slaves, and camels.

¹⁷ But the LORD struck Pharaoh and his household with severe plagues because of Abram's wife Sarai. ¹⁸ So Pharaoh sent for Abram and said, "What have you done to me? Why didn't you tell me she was your wife? ¹⁹ Why did you say, 'She's my sister,' so that I took her as my wife? Now, here is your wife. Take her and go!" ²⁰ Then Pharaoh gave his men orders about him, and they sent him away with his wife and all he had.

13 Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev — he, his wife, and all he had, and Lot with him. ² Abram was very rich in livestock, silver, and gold. ³ He went by stages from the Negev to Bethel, to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had formerly been, ⁴ to the site where he had built the altar. And Abram called on the name of the LORD there.

⁵ Now Lot, who was traveling with Abram, also had flocks, herds, and tents. ⁶ But the land was unable to support them as long as they stayed together, for they had so many possessions that they could not stay together, ⁷ and there was quarreling between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. (At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land.)

⁸ So Abram said to Lot, "Please, let's not have quarreling between you and me, or between your herdsmen and my herdsmen, since we are relatives. ⁹ Isn't the whole land before you? Separate from me: if you go to the left, I will go to the right; if you go to the right, I will go to the left."

¹⁰ Lot looked out and saw that the entire plain of the Jordan as far as Zoar was well watered everywhere like the LORD's garden and the land of Egypt. (This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) ¹¹ So Lot chose the entire plain of the Jordan for himself. Then Lot journeyed eastward, and they separated from each other. ¹² Abram lived in the land of Canaan, but Lot lived in the cities on the plain and set up his tent near Sodom. ¹³ (Now the men of Sodom were evil, sinning immensely against the LORD.)

¹⁴ After Lot had separated from him, the LORD said to Abram, "Look from the place where you are. Look north and south, east and west, ¹⁵ for I will give you and your offspring forever all the land that you see. ¹⁶ I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust of the earth, then your offspring could be counted. ¹⁷ Get up and walk around the land, through its length and width, for I will give it to you."

¹⁸ So Abram moved his tent and went to live near the oaks of Mamre at Hebron, where he built an altar to the LORD.

14 In those days King Amraphel of Shinar, King Arioch of Ellasar, King Chedorlaomer of Elam, and King Tidal of Goiim ² waged war against King Bera of Sodom, King Birsha of Gomorrah, King Shinab of Admah, and King Shemeber of Zeboiim, as well as the king of Bela (that is, Zoar). ³ All of these came as allies to the Siddim Valley (that is, the Dead Sea). ⁴ They were subject to Chedorlaomer for twelve years, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled. ⁵ In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and defeated the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim, ⁶ and the Horites in the mountains of Seir, as far as El-paran by the wilderness. ⁷ Then they came back to invade En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and they defeated the whole territory of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who lived in Hazazon-tamar.

¹⁷ After Abram returned from defeating Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in the Shaveh Valley (that is, the King's Valley). ¹⁸ Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine; he was a priest to God Most High. ¹⁹ He blessed him and said:

Abram is blessed by God Most High,
Creator of heaven and earth,

²⁰ and blessed be God Most High who has handed over your enemies to you.

And Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

²¹ Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people, but take the possessions for yourself."

²² But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have raised my hand in an oath to the LORD, God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, ²³ that I will not take a thread or sandal strap or anything that belongs to you, so you can never say, 'I made Abram rich.' ²⁴ I will take nothing except what the servants have eaten. But as for the share of the men who came with me — Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre — they can take their share."

15 After these events, the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision:
Do not be afraid, Abram.
I am your shield;
your reward will be very great.

² But Abram said, "Lord God, what can you give me, since I am childless and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" ³ Abram continued, "Look, you have given me no offspring, so a slave born in my house will be my heir."

⁴ Now the word of the LORD came to him: "This one will not be your heir; instead, one who comes from your own body will be your heir." ⁵ He took him outside and said, "Look at the sky and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "Your offspring will be that numerous."

⁶ Abram believed the LORD, and he credited it to him as righteousness.

⁷ He also said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to possess."

⁸ But he said, "Lord God, how can I know that I will possess it?"

¹⁷ When the sun had set and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch appeared and passed between the divided animals. ¹⁸ On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "I give this land to your offspring, from the Brook of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates River: ¹⁹ the land of the Kenites, Kenizites, Kadmonites, ²⁰ Hethites, Perizzites, Rephaim, ²¹ Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites, and Jebusites."

16 Abram's wife Sarai had not borne any children for him, but she owned an Egyptian slave named Hagar. ² Sarai said to Abram, "Since the LORD has prevented me from bearing children, go to my slave; perhaps through her I can build a family." And Abram agreed to what Sarai said. ³ So Abram's wife Sarai took Hagar, her Egyptian slave, and gave her to her husband Abram as a wife for him. This happened after Abram had lived in the land of Canaan ten years. ⁴ He slept with Hagar, and she became pregnant. When she saw that she was pregnant, her mistress became contemptible to her. ⁵ Then Sarai said to Abram, "You are responsible for my suffering! I put my slave in your arms, and when she saw that she was pregnant, I became contemptible to her. May the LORD judge between me and you."

⁶ Abram replied to Sarai, "Here, your slave is in your hands; do whatever you want with her." Then Sarai mistreated her so much that she ran away from her.

⁷ The angel of the LORD found her by a spring in the wilderness, the spring on the way to Shur. ⁸ He said, "Hagar, slave of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?"

She replied, "I'm running away from my mistress Sarai."

⁹ The angel of the LORD said to her, "Go back to your mistress and submit to her authority." ¹⁰ The angel of the LORD said to her, "I will greatly multiply your offspring, and they will be too many to count."

¹¹ The angel of the LORD said to her, "You have conceived and will have a son. You will name him Ishmael, for the LORD has heard your cry of affliction. ¹² This man will be like a wild donkey. His hand will be against everyone, and everyone's hand will be against him; he will settle near all his relatives."

¹³ So she named the LORD who spoke to her: "You are El-roi," for she said, "In this place, have I actually seen the one who sees me?" ¹⁴ That is why the well is called Beer-lahai-roi. It is between Kadesh and Bered.

17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him, saying, "I am God Almighty. Live in my presence and be blameless. ² I will set up my covenant between me and you, and I will multiply you greatly."

³ Then Abram fell facedown and God spoke with him: ⁴ "As for me, here is my covenant with you: You will become the father of many nations. ⁵ Your name will no longer be Abram; your name will be Abraham, for I will make you the father of many nations. ⁶ I will make you extremely fruitful and will make nations and kings come from you. ⁷ I will confirm my covenant that is between me and you and your future offspring throughout their generations. It is a permanent covenant to be your God and the God of your offspring after you. ⁸ And to you and your future offspring I will give the land where you are residing — all the land of Canaan — as a permanent possession, and I will be their God."

⁹ God also said to Abraham, "As for you, you and your offspring after you throughout their generations are to keep my covenant. ¹⁰ This is my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you, which you are to keep: Every one of your males must be circumcised. ¹¹ You must circumcise the flesh of your foreskin to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and you. ¹² Throughout your generations, every male among you is to be circumcised at eight days old — every male born in your household or purchased from any foreigner and not your offspring.

¹³ Whether born in your household or purchased, he must be circumcised. My covenant will be marked in your flesh as a permanent covenant. ¹⁴ If any male is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that man will be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant."

¹⁵ God said to Abraham, "As for your wife Sarai, do not call her Sarai, for Sarah will be her name. ¹⁶ I will bless her; indeed, I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she will produce nations; kings of peoples will come from her."

Can Sarah, a ninety-year-old woman, give birth?"¹⁸ So Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael were acceptable to you!"

¹⁹ But God said, "No. Your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will name him Isaac. I will confirm my covenant with him as a permanent covenant for his future offspring."²⁰ As for Ishmael, I have heard you. I will certainly bless him; I will make him fruitful and will multiply him greatly. He will father twelve tribal leaders, and I will make him into a great nation.²¹ But I will confirm my covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this time next year."²² When he finished talking with him, God withdrew from Abraham.

²³ So Abraham took his son Ishmael and those born in his household or purchased — every male among the members of Abraham's household — and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskin on that very day, just as God had said to him.²⁴ Abraham was ninety-nine years old when the flesh of his foreskin was circumcised,²⁵ and his son Ishmael was thirteen years old when the flesh of his foreskin was circumcised.²⁶ On that same day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised.²⁷ And all the men of his household — whether born in his household or purchased from a foreigner — were circumcised with him.

18 The LORD appeared to Abraham at the oaks of Mamre while he was sitting at the entrance of his tent during the heat of the day.² He looked up, and he saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them, bowed to the ground,³ and said, "My lord, if I have found favor with you, please do not go on past your servant.⁴ Let a little water be brought, that you may wash your feet and rest yourselves under the tree.⁵ I will bring a bit of bread so that you may strengthen yourselves. This is why you have passed your servant's way. Later, you can continue on."

"Yes," they replied, "do as you have said."

⁶ So Abraham hurried into the tent and said to Sarah, "Quick! Knead three measures of fine flour and make bread."⁷ Abraham ran to the herd and got a tender, choice calf. He gave it to a young man, who hurried to prepare it.⁸ Then Abraham took curds and milk, as well as the calf that he had prepared, and set them before the men. He served them as they ate under the tree.

⁹ "Where is your wife Sarah?" they asked him.

"There, in the tent," he answered.

¹⁰ The LORD said, "I will certainly come back to you in about a year's time, and your wife Sarah will have a son!" Now Sarah was listening at the entrance of the tent behind him.

¹¹ Abraham and Sarah were old and getting on in years. Sarah had passed the age of childbearing.¹² So she laughed to herself: "After I am worn out and my lord is old, will I have delight?"

¹³ But the LORD asked Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Can I really have a baby when I'm old?'"¹⁴ Is anything impossible for the LORD? At the appointed time I will come back to you, and in about a year she will have a son."

¹⁵ Sarah denied it. "I did not laugh," she said, because she was afraid.

But he replied, "No, you did laugh."

¹⁶ The men got up from there and looked out over Sodom, and Abraham was walking with them to see them off.¹⁷ Then the LORD said, "Should I hide what I am about to do from Abraham?"¹⁸ Abraham is to become a great and powerful nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed through him.¹⁹ For I have chosen him so that he will command his children and his house after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just. This is how the LORD will fulfill to Abraham what he promised him."²⁰ Then the LORD said, "The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is immense, and their sin is extremely serious.²¹ I will go down to see if what they have done justifies the cry that has come up to me. If not, I will find out."

²² The men turned from there and went toward Sodom while Abraham remained standing before the LORD.²³ Abraham stepped forward and said, "Will you really sweep away the righteous with the wicked?²⁴ What if there are fifty righteous people in the city? Will you really sweep it away instead of sparing the place for the sake of the fifty righteous people who are in it?²⁵ You could not possibly do such a thing: to kill the righteous with the wicked, treating the righteous and the wicked alike. You could not possibly do that! Won't the Judge of the whole earth do what is just?"

²⁶ The LORD said, "If I find fifty righteous people in the city of Sodom, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

²⁷ Then Abraham answered, "Since I have ventured to speak to my lord — even though I am dust and ashes —²⁸ suppose the fifty righteous lack five. Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?"

²⁹ He replied, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there."

³⁰ Then he spoke to him again, "Suppose forty are found there?"

He answered, "I will not do it on account of forty."

³¹ Then he said, "Let my lord not be angry, and I will speak further. Suppose thirty are found there?"

He answered, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

³² Then he said, "Since I have ventured to speak to my lord, suppose twenty are found there?"

He replied, "I will not destroy it on account of twenty."

³³ Then he said, "Let my lord not be angry, and I will speak one more time. Suppose ten are found there?"

He answered, "I will not destroy it on account of ten."

³⁴ When the LORD had finished speaking with Abraham, he departed, and Abraham returned to his place.

19 The two angels entered Sodom in the evening as Lot was sitting in Sodom's gateway. When Lot saw them, he got up to meet them. He bowed with his face to the ground² and said, "My lords, turn aside to your servant's house, wash your feet, and spend the night. Then you can get up early and go on your way."

"No," they said. "We would rather spend the night in the square."³ But he urged them so strongly that they followed him and went into his house. He prepared a feast and baked unleavened bread for them, and they ate.

⁴ Before they went to bed, the men of the city of Sodom, both young and old, the whole population, surrounded the house.⁵ They called out to Lot and said, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Send them out to us so we can have sex with them!"

⁶ Lot went out to them at the entrance and shut the door behind him.⁷ He said, "Don't do this evil, my brothers.⁸ Look, I've got two daughters who haven't been intimate with a man. I'll bring them out to you, and you can do whatever you want to them. However, don't do anything to these men, because they have come under the protection of my roof."

⁹ "Get out of the way!" they said, adding, "This one came here as an alien, but he's acting like a judge! Now we'll do more harm to you than to them." They put pressure on Lot and came up to break down the door.¹⁰ But the angels reached out, brought Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.¹¹ They struck the men who were at the entrance of the house, both young and old, with blindness so that they were unable to find the entrance.

¹² Then the angels said to Lot, "Do you have anyone else here: a son-in-law, your sons and daughters, or anyone else in the city who belongs to you? Get them out of this place, ¹³ for we are about to destroy this place because the outcry against its people is so great before the LORD, that the LORD has sent us to destroy it."

¹⁴ So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were going to marry his daughters. "Get up," he said. "Get out of this place, for the LORD is about to destroy the city!" But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

¹⁵ At daybreak the angels urged Lot on: "Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city."¹⁶ But he hesitated. Because of the LORD's compassion for him, the men grabbed his hand, his wife's hand, and the hands of his two daughters. They brought him out and left him outside the city.

¹⁷ As soon as the angels got them outside, one of them said, "Run for your lives! Don't look back and don't stop anywhere on the plain! Run to the mountains, or you will be swept away!"

¹⁸ But Lot said to them, "No, my lords — please. ¹⁹ Your servant has indeed found favor with you, and you have shown me great kindness by saving my life. But I can't run to the mountains; the disaster will overtake me, and I will die. ²⁰ Look, this town is close enough for me to flee to. It is a small place. Please let me run to it — it's only a small place, isn't it? — so that I can survive."

²¹ And he said to him, "All right, I'll grant your request about this matter too and will not demolish the town you mentioned. ²² Hurry up! Run to it, for I cannot do anything until you get there." Therefore the name of the city is Zoar.

³⁰ Lot departed from Zoar and lived in the mountains along with his two daughters, because he was afraid to live in Zoar. Instead, he and his two daughters lived in a cave. ³¹ Then the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to sleep with us as is the custom of all the land. ³² Come, let's get our father to drink wine so that we can sleep with him and preserve our father's line." ³³ So they got their father to drink wine that night, and the firstborn came and slept with her father; he did not know when she lay down or when she got up.

³⁴ The next day the firstborn said to the younger, "Look, I slept with my father last night. Let's get him to drink wine again tonight so you can go sleep with him and we can preserve our father's line." ³⁵ That night they again got their father to drink wine, and the younger went and slept with him; he did not know when she lay down or when she got up.

³⁶ So both of Lot's daughters became pregnant by their father. ³⁷ The firstborn gave birth to a son and named him Moab. He is the father of the Moabites of today. ³⁸ The younger also gave birth to a son, and she named him Ben-ammi. He is the father of the Ammonites of today.

20 From there Abraham traveled to the region of the Negev and settled between Kadesh and Shur. While he was staying in Gerar, ² Abraham said about his wife Sarah, "She is my sister." So King Abimelech of Gerar had Sarah brought to him.

³ But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night and said to him, "You are about to die because of the woman you have taken, for she is a married woman."

⁴ Now Abimelech had not approached her, so he said, "Lord, would you destroy a nation even though it is innocent? ⁵ Didn't he himself say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself said, 'He is my brother.' I did this with a clear conscience and clean hands."

⁶ Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that you did this with a clear conscience. I have also kept you from sinning against me. Therefore I have not let you touch her. ⁷ Now return the man's wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you will certainly die, you and all who are yours."

⁹ Then Abimelech called Abraham in and said to him, "What have you done to us? How did I sin against you that you have brought such enormous guilt on me and on my kingdom? You have done things to me that should never be done." ¹⁰ Abimelech also asked Abraham, "What made you do this?"

¹¹ Abraham replied, "I thought, 'There is absolutely no fear of God in this place. They will kill me because of my wife.' ¹² Besides, she really is my sister, the daughter of my father though not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife. ¹³ So when God had me wander from my father's house, I said to her: Show your loyalty to me wherever we go and say about me: 'He's my brother.'"

¹⁴ Then Abimelech took flocks and herds and male and female slaves, gave them to Abraham, and returned his wife Sarah to him. ¹⁵ Abimelech said, "Look, my land is before you. Settle wherever you want." ¹⁶ And he said to Sarah, "Look, I am giving your brother one thousand pieces of silver. It is a verification of your honor to all who are with you. You are fully vindicated."

21 The LORD came to Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah what he had promised. ² Sarah became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time God had told him. ³ Abraham named his son who was born to him — the one Sarah bore to him — Isaac. ⁴ When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him, as God had commanded him.

⁵ Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

⁶ Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and everyone who hears will laugh with me." ⁷ She also said, "Who would have told Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne a son for him in his old age."

⁸ The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham held a great feast on the day Isaac was weaned. ⁹ But Sarah saw the son mocking—the one Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham. ¹⁰ So she said to Abraham, "Drive out this slave with her son, for the son of this slave will not be a coheir with my son Isaac!"

¹¹ This was very distressing to Abraham because of his son. ¹² But God said to Abraham, "Do not be distressed about the boy and about your slave. Whatever Sarah says to you, listen to her, because your offspring will be traced through Isaac, ¹³ and I will also make a nation of the slave's son because he is your offspring."

¹⁷ God heard the boy crying, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What's wrong, Hagar? Don't be afraid, for God has heard the boy crying from the place where he is. ¹⁸ Get up, help the boy up, and grasp his hand, for I will make him a great nation." ¹⁹ Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well. So she went and filled the waterskin and gave the boy a drink. ²⁰ God was with the boy, and he grew; he settled in the wilderness and became an archer. ²¹ He settled in the Wilderness of Paran, and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

²² At that time Abimelech, accompanied by Phicol the commander of his army, said to Abraham, "God is with you in everything you do. ²³ Swear to me by God here and now, that you will not break an agreement with me or with my children and descendants. As I have been loyal to you, so you will be loyal to me and to the country where you are a resident alien."

²⁴ And Abraham said, "I swear it." ²⁵ But Abraham complained to Abimelech because of the well that Abimelech's servants had seized.

²⁶ Abimelech replied, "I don't know who did this thing. You didn't report anything to me, so I hadn't heard about it until today."

²⁷ Abraham took flocks and herds and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant. ²⁸ Abraham separated seven ewe lambs from the flock. ²⁹ And Abimelech said to Abraham, "Why have you separated these seven ewe lambs?"

³⁰ He replied, "You are to accept the seven ewe lambs from me so that this act will serve as my witness that I dug this well." ³¹ Therefore that place was called Beer-sheba because it was there that the two of them swore an oath. ³² After they had made a covenant at Beer-sheba, Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, left and returned to the land of the Philistines.

³³ Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-sheba, and there he called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. ³⁴ And Abraham lived as an alien in the land of the Philistines for many days.

22 After these things God tested Abraham and said to him, "Abraham!"

"Here I am," he answered.

² "Take your son," he said, "your only son Isaac, whom you love, go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains I will tell you about."

³ So Abraham got up early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took with him two of his young men and his son Isaac. He split wood for a burnt offering and set out to go to the place God had told him about. ⁴ On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. ⁵ Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go over there to worship; then we'll come back to you." ⁶ Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac. In his hand he took the fire and the knife, and the two of them walked on together.

⁷ Then Isaac spoke to his father Abraham and said, "My father."

And he replied, "Here I am, my son."

Isaac said, "The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?"

⁸ Abraham answered, "God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." Then the two of them walked on together.

⁹ When they arrived at the place that God had told him about, Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood. He bound his son Isaac and placed him on the altar on top of the wood. ¹⁰ Then Abraham reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son.

¹¹ But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!"

He replied, "Here I am."

¹² Then he said, "Do not lay a hand on the boy or do anything to him. For now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your only son from me." ¹³ Abraham looked up and saw a ram caught in the thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram and offered it as a burnt offering in place of his son. ¹⁴ And Abraham named that place The LORD Will Provide, so today it is said: "It will be provided on the LORD's mountain."

¹⁵ Then the angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven ¹⁶ and said, "By myself I have sworn, this is the LORD's declaration: "Because you have done this thing and have not withheld your only son, ¹⁷ I will indeed bless you and make your offspring as numerous as the stars of the sky and the sand on the seashore. Your offspring will possess the city gates of their enemies. ¹⁸ And all the nations of the earth will be blessed by your offspring because you have obeyed my command."

¹⁹ Abraham went back to his young men, and they got up and went together to Beer-sheba. And Abraham settled in Beer-sheba.

²⁰ Now after these things Abraham was told, "Milchah also has borne sons to your brother Nahor: ²¹ Uz his first-born, his brother Buz, Kemuel the father of Aram, ²² Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidaph, and Bethuel." ²³ And Bethuel fathered Rebekah. Milchah bore these eight to Nahor, Abraham's brother. ²⁴ His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

23 Now Sarah lived 127 years; these were all the years of her life. ² Sarah died in Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

³ Then Abraham got up from beside his dead wife and spoke to the Hethites: ⁴ "I am an alien residing among you.

Give me burial property among you so that I can bury my dead.”

⁵The Hethites replied to Abraham, ⁶“Listen to us, my lord. You are a prince of God among us. Bury your dead in our finest burial place. None of us will withhold from you his burial place for burying your dead.”

⁷Then Abraham rose and bowed down to the Hethites, the people of the land. ⁸He said to them, “If you are willing for me to bury my dead, listen to me and ask Ephron son of Zohar on my behalf ⁹to give me the cave of Machpelah that belongs to him; it is at the end of his field. Let him give it to me in your presence, for the full price, as burial property.”

¹⁰Ephron was sitting among the Hethites. So in the hearing of all the Hethites who came to the gate of his city, Ephron the Hethite answered Abraham: ¹¹“No, my lord. Listen to me. I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. I give it to you in the sight of my people. Bury your dead.”

¹²Abraham bowed down to the people of the land ¹³and said to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, “Listen to me, if you please. Let me pay the price of the field. Accept it from me, and let me bury my dead there.”

¹⁴Ephron answered Abraham and said to him, ¹⁵“My lord, listen to me. Land worth four hundred shekels of silver — what is that between you and me? Bury your dead.”

24 Abraham was now old, getting on in years, and the LORD had blessed him in everything. ²Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his household who managed all he owned, “Place your hand under my thigh, ³and I will have you swear by the LORD, God of heaven and God of earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I live, ⁴but will go to my land and my family to take a wife for my son Isaac.”

⁵The servant said to him, “Suppose the woman is unwilling to follow me to this land? Should I have your son go back to the land you came from?”

⁶Abraham answered him, “Make sure that you don’t take my son back there. ⁷The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from my native land, who spoke to me and swore to me, ‘I will give this land to your offspring’ — he will send his angel before you, and you can take a wife for my son from there. ⁸If the woman is unwilling to follow you, then you are free from this oath to me, but don’t let my son go back there.” ⁹So the servant placed his hand under his master Abraham’s thigh and swore an oath to him concerning this matter.

¹⁰The servant took ten of his master’s camels, and with all kinds of his master’s goods in hand, he went to Aram-naharaim, to Nahor’s town. ¹¹At evening, the time when women went out to draw water, he made the camels kneel beside a well outside the town.

¹²“LORD, God of my master Abraham,” he prayed, “make this happen for me today, and show kindness to my master Abraham. ¹³I am standing here at the spring where the daughters of the men of the town are coming out to draw water. ¹⁴Let the girl to whom I say, ‘Please lower your water jug so that I may drink,’ and who responds, ‘Drink, and I’ll water your camels also’ — let her be the one you have appointed for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master.”

¹⁸She replied, “Drink, my lord.” She quickly lowered her jug to her hand and gave him a drink. ¹⁹When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I’ll also draw water for your camels until they have had enough to drink.” ²⁰She quickly emptied her jug into the trough and hurried to the well again to draw water. She drew water for all his camels ²¹while the man silently watched her to see whether or not the LORD had made his journey a success.

²²As the camels finished drinking, the man took a gold ring weighing half a shekel, and for her wrists two bracelets weighing ten shekels of gold. ²³“Whose daughter are you?” he asked. “Please tell me, is there room in your father’s house for us to spend the night?”

²⁴She answered him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.” ²⁵She also said to him, “We have plenty of straw and feed and a place to spend the night.”

²⁶Then the man knelt low, worshiped the LORD, ²⁷and said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not withheld his kindness and faithfulness from my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the journey to the house of my master’s relatives.”

²⁸The girl ran and told her mother’s household about these things. ²⁹Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban, and Laban ran out to the man at the spring. ³⁰As soon as he had seen the ring and the bracelets on his sister’s wrists, and when he had heard his sister Rebekah’s words — “The man said this to me!” — he went to the man. He was standing there by the camels at the spring.

³¹Laban said, “Come, you who are blessed by the LORD. Why are you standing out here? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels.” ³²So the man came to the house, and the camels were unloaded. Straw and feed were given to the camels, and water was brought to wash his feet and the feet of the men with him.

³³A meal was set before him, but he said, “I will not eat until I have said what I have to say.”

So Laban said, “Please speak.”

³⁴“I am Abraham’s servant,” he said. ³⁵“The LORD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become rich. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female slaves, and camels and donkeys. ³⁶Sarah, my master’s wife, bore a son to my master in her old age, and he has given him everything he owns. ³⁷My master put me under this oath: ‘You will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites in whose land I live ³⁸but will go to my father’s family and to my clan to take a wife for my son.’ ³⁹But I said to my master, ‘Suppose the woman will not come back with me?’ ⁴⁰He said to me, ‘The LORD before whom I have walked will send his angel with you and make your journey a success, and you will take a wife for my son from my clan and from my father’s family.’ ⁴¹Then you will be free from my oath if you go to my family and they do not give her to you — you will be free from my oath.’

⁴²“Today when I came to the spring, I prayed: LORD, God of my master Abraham, if only you will make my journey successful! ⁴³I am standing here at a spring. Let the young woman who comes out to draw water, and I say to her, ‘Please let me drink a little water from your jug,’ ⁴⁴and who responds to me, ‘Drink, and I’ll draw water for your camels also’ — let her be the woman the LORD has appointed for my master’s son.

⁴⁵“Before I had finished praying silently, there was Rebekah coming with her jug on her shoulder, and she went down to the spring and drew water. So I said to her, ‘Please let me have a drink.’ ⁴⁶She quickly lowered her jug from her shoulder and said, ‘Drink, and I’ll water your camels also.’ So I drank, and she also watered the camels. ⁴⁷Then I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ She responded, ‘The daughter of Bethuel son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.’ So I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists. ⁴⁸Then I knelt low, worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who guided me on the right way to take the granddaughter of my master’s brother for his son. ⁴⁹Now, if you are going to show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me; if not, tell me, and I will go elsewhere.”

⁵⁰Laban and Bethuel answered, “This is from the LORD; we have no choice in the matter. ⁵¹Rebekah is here in front of you. Take her and go, and let her be a wife for your master’s son, just as the LORD has spoken.”

⁵²When Abraham’s servant heard their words, he bowed to the ground before the LORD. ⁵³Then he brought out objects of silver and gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious gifts to her brother and her mother. ⁵⁴Then he and the men with him ate and drank and spent the night.

When they got up in the morning, he said, “Send me to my master.”

⁵⁵But her brother and mother said, “Let the girl stay with us for about ten days. Then she can go.”

⁵⁶But he responded to them, “Do not delay me, since the LORD has made my journey a success. Send me away so that I may go to my master.”

⁵⁷So they said, “Let’s call the girl and ask her opinion.”

⁵⁸They called Rebekah and said to her, “Will you go with this man?”

She replied, “I will go.” ⁵⁹So they sent away their sister Rebekah with the one who had nursed and raised her, and Abraham’s servant and his men.

⁶⁰They blessed Rebekah, saying to her:

Our sister, may you become thousands upon ten thousands.
May your offspring possess
the city gates of their enemies.

⁶¹Then Rebekah and her female servants got up, mounted the camels, and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and left.

⁶²Now Isaac was returning from Beer-lahai-roi, for he was living in the Negev region. ⁶³In the early evening Isaac went out to walk in the field, and looking up he saw camels coming. ⁶⁴Rebekah looked up, and when she saw Isaac, she got down from her camel ⁶⁵and asked the servant, “Who is that man in the field coming to meet us?”

The servant answered, “It is my master.” So she took her veil and covered herself. ⁶⁶Then the servant told Isaac everything he had done.

⁶⁷And Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah and took Rebekah to be his wife. Isaac loved her, and he was comforted after his mother’s death.

25 Abraham had taken another wife, whose name was Keturah, ²and she bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. ³Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. Dedan’s sons were the Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim. ⁴And Midian’s sons were Ephah, Epher, Hanoah, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were sons of Keturah. ⁵Abraham gave everything he owned to Isaac. ⁶But Abraham gave gifts to the sons of his concubines, and while he was still alive he sent them eastward, away from his son Isaac, to the land of the East.

⁷This is the length of Abraham’s life: 175 years. ⁸He took his last breath and died at a good old age, old and contented, and he was gathered to his people. ⁹His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah near Mamre, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hethite. ¹⁰This was the field that Abraham bought from the Hethites. Abraham was buried there with his wife Sarah. ¹¹After Abraham’s death, God blessed his son Isaac, who lived near Beer-lahai-roi.

¹²These are the family records of Abraham’s son Ishmael, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah’s slave, bore to Abraham.

¹³These are the names of Ishmael’s sons; their names according to the family records are Nebaioth, Ishmael’s firstborn, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, ¹⁴Mishma, Dumah, Massa, ¹⁵Hadaa, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. ¹⁶These are Ishmael’s sons, and these are their names by their settlements and encampments: twelve leaders of their clans. ¹⁷This is the length of Ishmael’s life: 137 years. He took his last breath and died, and was gathered to his people. ¹⁸And they settled from Havilah to Shur, which is opposite Egypt as you go toward Asshur. He stayed near all his relatives.

¹⁹These are the family records of Isaac son of Abraham.

Abraham fathered Isaac. ²⁰Isaac was forty years old when he took as his wife Rebekah daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan-aram and sister of Laban the Aramean. ²¹Isaac prayed to the LORD on behalf of his wife because she was childless. The LORD was receptive to his prayer, and his wife Rebekah conceived. ²²But the children inside her struggled with each other, and she said, “Why is this happening to me?” So she went to inquire of the LORD. ²³And the LORD said to her:

Two nations are in your womb;
two peoples will come from you and be separated.
One people will be stronger than the other,
and the older will serve the younger.

²⁴When her time came to give birth, there were indeed twins in her womb. ²⁵The first one came out red-looking, covered with hair like a fur coat, and they named him Esau.

²⁶After this, his brother came out grasping Esau’s heel with his hand. So he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when they were born.

²⁷When the boys grew up, Esau became an expert hunter, an outdoorsman, but Jacob was a quiet man who stayed at home. ²⁸Isaac loved Esau because he had a taste for wild game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

²⁹Once when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau came in from the field exhausted. ³⁰He said to Jacob, “Let me eat some of that red stuff, because I’m exhausted.” That is why he was also named Edom.

³¹Jacob replied, “First sell me your birthright.”

26 There was another famine in the land in addition to the one that had occurred in Abraham's time. And Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, at Gerar.² The LORD appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt. Live in the land that I tell you about;³ stay in this land as an alien, and I will be with you and bless you. For I will give all these lands to you and your offspring, and I will confirm the oath that I swore to your father Abraham.⁴ I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of the sky, I will give your offspring all these lands, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed by your offspring,⁵ because Abraham listened to me and kept my mandate, my commands, my statutes, and my instructions."⁶ So Isaac settled in Gerar.

⁷ When the men of the place asked about his wife, he said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say "my wife," thinking, "The men of the place will kill me on account of Rebekah, for she is a beautiful woman."⁸ When Isaac had been there for some time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked down from the window and was surprised to see Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah.

⁹ Abimelech sent for Isaac and said, "So she is really your wife! How could you say, 'She is my sister'?"

Isaac answered him, "Because I thought I might die on account of her."

¹⁰ Then Abimelech said, "What is this you've done to us? One of the people could easily have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us."¹¹ So Abimelech warned all the people, "Whoever harms this man or his wife will certainly be put to death."

¹⁷ So Isaac left there, camped in the Gerar Valley, and lived there.¹⁸ Isaac reopened the wells that had been dug in the days of his father Abraham and that the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died. He gave them the same names his father had given them.¹⁹ Then Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found a well of spring water there.²⁰ But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen and said, "The water is ours!" So he named the well Esek because they argued with him.²¹ Then they dug another well and quarreled over that one also, so he named it Sitnah.²² He moved from there and dug another, and they did not quarrel over it. He named it Rehoboth and said, "For now the LORD has made space for us, and we will be fruitful in the land."

²³ From there he went up to Beer-sheba,²⁴ and the LORD appeared to him that night and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your offspring because of my servant Abraham."

²⁵ So he built an altar there, called on the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there. Isaac's servants also dug a well there.

²⁶ Now Abimelech came to him from Gerar with Ahuzath his adviser and Phicol the commander of his army.

²⁷ Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me? You hated me and sent me away from you."

²⁸ They replied, "We have clearly seen how the LORD has been with you. We think there should be an oath between two parties — between us and you. Let us make a covenant with you:²⁹ You will not harm us, just as we have not harmed you but have done only what was good to you, sending you away in peace. You are now blessed by the LORD."

³⁰ So he prepared a banquet for them, and they ate and drank.³¹ They got up early in the morning and swore an oath to each other. Isaac sent them on their way, and they left him in peace.³² On that same day Isaac's servants came to tell him about the well they had dug, saying to him, "We have found water!"³³ He called it Sheba. Therefore the name of the city is still Beer-sheba today.

27 When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could not see, he called his older son Esau and said to him, "My son."

And he answered, "Here I am."

² He said, "Look, I am old and do not know the day of my death.³ So now take your hunting gear, your quiver and bow, and go out in the field to hunt some game for me.⁴ Then make me a delicious meal that I love and bring it to me to eat, so that I can bless you before I die."

⁵ Now Rebekah was listening to what Isaac said to his son Esau. So while Esau went to the field to hunt some game to bring in,⁶ Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Listen! I heard your father talking with your brother Esau. He said, '⁷ Bring me game and make a delicious meal for me to eat so that I can bless you in the LORD's presence before I die.'"⁸ Now, my son, listen to me and do what I tell you.⁹ Go to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, and I will make them into a delicious meal for your father — the kind he loves.¹⁰ Then take it to your father to eat so that he may bless you before he dies."

¹¹ Jacob answered Rebekah his mother, "Look, my brother Esau is a hairy man, but I am a man with smooth skin.¹² Suppose my father touches me. Then I will be revealed to him as a deceiver and bring a curse rather than a blessing on myself."

¹³ His mother said to him, "Your curse be on me, my son. Just obey me and go get them for me."

¹⁴ So he went and got the goats and brought them to his mother, and his mother made the delicious food his father loved.¹⁵ Then Rebekah took the best clothes of her older son Esau, which were in the house, and had her younger son Jacob wear them.¹⁶ She put the skins of the young goats on his hands and the smooth part of his neck.¹⁷ Then she handed the delicious food and the bread she had made to her son Jacob.

¹⁸ When he came to his father, he said, "My father."

And he answered, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"

¹⁹ Jacob replied to his father, "I am Esau, your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of my game so that you may bless me."

²⁰ But Isaac said to his son, "How did you ever find it so quickly, my son?"

He replied, "Because the LORD your God made it happen for me."

²¹Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come closer so I can touch you, my son. Are you really my son Esau or not?"

²²So Jacob came closer to his father Isaac. When he touched him, he said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau." ²³He did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him. ²⁴Again he asked, "Are you really my son Esau?"

And he replied, "I am."

²⁵Then he said, "Bring it closer to me, and let me eat some of my son's game so that I can bless you." Jacob brought it closer to him, and he ate; he brought him wine, and he drank.

²⁶Then his father Isaac said to him, "Please come closer and kiss me, my son." ²⁷So he came closer and kissed him. When Isaac smelled his clothes, he blessed him and said:

Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.

²⁸ May God give to you —
from the dew of the sky and from the richness of the land — an abundance of grain and new wine.

²⁹ May peoples serve you and nations bow in worship to you.
Be master over your relatives;
may your mother's sons bow in worship to you.
Those who curse you will be cursed,
and those who bless you will be blessed.

³⁰As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob and Jacob had left the presence of his father Isaac, his brother Esau arrived from his hunting. ³¹He had also made some delicious food and brought it to his father. He said to his father, "Let my father get up and eat some of his son's game, so that you may bless me."

³²But his father Isaac said to him, "Who are you?"
He answered, "I am Esau your firstborn son."

³³Isaac began to tremble uncontrollably. "Who was it then," he said, "who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it all before you came in, and I blessed him. Indeed, he will be blessed!"

³⁴When Esau heard his father's words, he cried out with a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me too, my father!"

³⁵But he replied, "Your brother came deceitfully and took your blessing."

³⁶So he said, "Isn't he rightly named Jacob? For he has cheated me twice now. He took my birthright, and look, now he has taken my blessing." Then he asked, "Haven't you saved a blessing for me?"

³⁷But Isaac answered Esau, "Look, I have made him a master over you, have given him all of his relatives as his servants, and have sustained him with grain and new wine. What then can I do for you, my son?"

³⁸Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me too, my father!" And Esau wept loudly.

³⁹His father Isaac answered him, Look, your dwelling place will be away from the richness of the land, away from the dew of the sky above.

⁴⁰ You will live by your sword,
and you will serve your brother.
But when you rebel,
you will break his yoke from your neck.

⁴¹Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. And Esau determined in his heart: "The days of mourning for my father are approaching; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

⁴²When the words of her older son Esau were reported to Rebekah, she summoned her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Listen, your brother Esau is consoling himself by planning to kill you." ⁴³So now, my son, listen to me. Flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran, ⁴⁴and stay with him for a few days until your brother's anger subsides — ⁴⁵until your brother's rage turns away from you and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send for you and bring you back from there. Why should I lose you both in one day?"

28 So Isaac summoned Jacob, blessed him, and commanded him, "Do not marry a Canaanite girl. ²Go at once to Paddan-aram, to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father. Marry one of the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother. ³May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you so that you become an assembly of peoples. ⁴May God give you and your offspring the blessing of Abraham so that you may possess the land where you live as a foreigner, the land God gave to Abraham." ⁵So Isaac sent Jacob to Paddan-aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

⁶Esau noticed that Isaac blessed Jacob and sent him to Paddan-aram to get a wife there. When he blessed him, Isaac commanded Jacob, "Do not marry a Canaanite girl." ⁷And Jacob listened to his father and mother and went to Paddan-aram. ⁸Esau realized that his father Isaac disapproved of the Canaanite women, ⁹so Esau went to Ishmael and married, in addition to his other wives, Mahalath daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son. She was the sister of Nebaioth.

¹⁶When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he said, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it." ¹⁷He was afraid and said, "What an awesome place this is! This is none other than the house of God. This is the gate of heaven."

¹⁸Early in the morning Jacob took the stone that was near his head and set it up as a marker. He poured oil on top of it ¹⁹and named the place Bethel, though previously the city was named Luz. ²⁰Then Jacob made a vow: "If God will be with me and watch over me during this journey I'm making, if he provides me with food to eat and clothing to wear, ²¹and if I return safely to my father's family, then the LORD will be my God.²² This stone that I have set up as a marker will be God's house, and I will give to you a tenth of all that you give me."

29 Jacob resumed his journey and went to the eastern country.² He looked and saw a well in a field. Three flocks of sheep were lying there beside it because the sheep were watered from this well. But a large stone covered the opening of the well.³ The shepherds would roll the stone from the opening of the well and water the sheep when all the flocks were gathered there. Then they would return the stone to its place over the well's opening.

⁴ Jacob asked the men at the well, "My brothers! Where are you from?"

"We're from Haran," they answered.

⁵ "Do you know Laban grandson of Nahor?" Jacob asked them.

They answered, "We know him."

⁶ "Is he well?" Jacob asked.

"Yes," they said, "and here is his daughter Rachel, coming with his sheep."

⁷ Then Jacob said, "Look, it is still broad daylight. It's not time for the animals to be gathered. Water the flock, then go out and let them graze."

¹³ When Laban heard the news about his sister's son Jacob, he ran to meet him, hugged him, and kissed him. Then he took him to his house, and Jacob told him all that had happened.

¹⁴ Laban said to him, "Yes, you are my own flesh and blood."

After Jacob had stayed with him a month,¹⁵ Laban said to him, "Just because you're my relative, should you work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be."

¹⁶ Now Laban had two daughters: the older was named Leah, and the younger was named Rachel.¹⁷ Leah had tender eyes, but Rachel was shapely and beautiful.¹⁸ Jacob loved Rachel, so he answered Laban, "I'll work for you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel."

¹⁹ Laban replied, "Better that I give her to you than to some other man. Stay with me."²⁰ So Jacob worked seven years for Rachel, and they seemed like only a few days to him because of his love for her.

²⁵ When morning came, there was Leah! So he said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Wasn't it for Rachel that I worked for you? Why have you deceived me?"

²⁸ And Jacob did just that. He finished the week of celebration, and Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife.²⁹ And Laban gave his slave Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her slave.³⁰ Jacob slept with Rachel also, and indeed, he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he worked for Laban another seven years.

³¹ When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, he opened her womb; but Rachel was unable to conceive.³² Leah conceived, gave birth to a son, and named him Reuben, for she said, "The LORD has seen my affliction; surely my husband will love me now."

³³ She conceived again, gave birth to a son, and said, "The LORD heard that I am unloved and has given me this son also." So she named him Simeon.

³⁴ She conceived again, gave birth to a son, and said, "At last, my husband will become attached to me because I have borne three sons for him." Therefore he was named Levi.

³⁵ And she conceived again, gave birth to a son, and said, "This time I will praise the LORD." Therefore she named him Judah. Then Leah stopped having children.

30 When Rachel saw that she was not bearing Jacob any children, she envied her sister. "Give me sons, or I will die!" she said to Jacob.

² Jacob became angry with Rachel and said, "Am I in God's place, who has withheld offspring from you?"

⁹ When Leah saw that she had stopped having children, she took her slave Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

¹² When Leah's slave Zilpah bore Jacob a second son,¹³ Leah said, "I am happy that the women call me happy," so she named him Asher.

¹⁵ But Leah replied to her, "Isn't it enough that you have taken my husband? Now you also want to take my son's mandrakes?"

"Well then," Rachel said, "he can sleep with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes."

¹⁶ When Jacob came in from the field that evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come with me, for I have hired you with my son's mandrakes." So Jacob slept with her that night.

¹⁷ God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.¹⁸ Leah said, "God has rewarded me for giving my slave to my husband," and she named him Issachar.

¹⁹ Then Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.²⁰ "God has given me a good gift," Leah said. "This time my husband will honor me because I have borne six sons for him," and she named him Zebulun.²¹ Later, Leah bore a daughter and named her Dinah.

²² Then God remembered Rachel. He listened to her and opened her womb.²³ She conceived and bore a son, and she said, "God has taken away my disgrace."²⁴ She named him Joseph and said, "May the LORD add another son to me."

²⁵ After Rachel gave birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me on my way so that I can return to my homeland. ²⁶ Give me my wives and my children that I have worked for, and let me go. You know how hard I have worked for you."

²⁷ But Laban said to him, "If I have found favor with you, stay. I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you."²⁸ Then Laban said, "Name your wages, and I will pay them."

²⁹ So Jacob said to him, "You know how I have served you and how your herds have fared with me. ³⁰ For you had very little before I came, but now your wealth has increased. The LORD has blessed you because of me. And now, when will I also do something for my own family?"

³¹ Laban asked, "What should I give you?"

And Jacob said, "You don't need to give me anything. If you do this one thing for me, I will continue to shepherd and keep your flock. ³² Let me go through all your sheep today and remove every sheep that is speckled or spotted, every dark-colored sheep among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the female goats. Such will be my wages. ³³ In the future when you come to check on my wages, my honesty will testify for me. If I have any female goats that are not speckled or spotted, or any lambs that are not black, they will be considered stolen."

31 Now Jacob heard what Laban's sons were saying: "Jacob has taken all that was our father's and has built this wealth from what belonged to our father."² And Jacob saw from Laban's face that his attitude toward him was not the same as before.

³ The LORD said to him, "Go back to the land of your fathers and to your family, and I will be with you."

⁴ Jacob had Rachel and Leah called to the field where his flocks were. ⁵ He said to them, "I can see from your father's face that his attitude toward me is not the same as before, but the God of my father has been with me. ⁶ You know that with all my strength I have served your father ⁷ and that he has cheated me and changed my wages ten times. But God has not let him harm me. ⁸ If he said, 'The spotted sheep will be your wages,' then all the sheep were born spotted. If he said, 'The streaked sheep will be your wages,' then all the sheep were born streaked. ⁹ God has taken away your father's herds and given them to me.

¹⁰ "When the flocks were breeding, I saw in a dream that the streaked, spotted, and speckled males were mating with the females. ¹¹ In that dream the angel of God said to me, 'Jacob!' and I said, 'Here I am.' ¹² And he said, 'Look up and see: all the males that are mating with the flocks are streaked, spotted, and speckled, for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you. ¹³ I am the God of Bethel, where you poured oil on the stone marker and made a solemn vow to me. Get up, leave this land, and return to your native land.'"

¹⁴ Then Rachel and Leah answered him, "Do we have any portion or inheritance in our father's family? ¹⁵ Are we not regarded by him as outsiders? For he has sold us and has certainly spent our purchase price. ¹⁶ In fact, all the wealth that God has taken away from our father belongs to us and to our children. So do whatever God has said to you."

²² On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled. ²³ So he took his relatives with him, pursued Jacob for seven days, and overtook him in the hill country of Gilead. ²⁴ But God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night. "Watch yourself!" God warned him. "Don't say anything to Jacob, either good or bad."

²⁵ When Laban overtook Jacob, Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban and his relatives also pitched their tents in the hill country of Gilead. ²⁶ Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? You have deceived me and taken my daughters away like prisoners of war! ²⁷ Why did you secretly flee from me, deceive me, and not tell me? I would have sent you away with joy and singing, with tambourines and lyres, ²⁸ but you didn't even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters. You have acted foolishly. ²⁹ I could do you great harm, but last night the God of your father said to me: 'Watch yourself! Don't say anything to Jacob, either good or bad.' ³⁰ Now you have gone off because you long for your father's family — but why have you stolen my gods?"

³¹ Jacob answered, "I was afraid, for I thought you would take your daughters from me by force. ³² If you find your gods with anyone here, he will not live! Before our relatives, point out anything that is yours and take it." Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the idols.

³⁵ She said to her father, "Don't be angry, my lord, that I cannot stand up in your presence; I am having my period." So Laban searched, but could not find the household idols.

³⁶Then Jacob became incensed and brought charges against Laban. "What is my crime?" he said to Laban. "What is my sin, that you have pursued me? ³⁷You've searched all my possessions! Have you found anything of yours? Put it here before my relatives and yours, and let them decide between the two of us. ³⁸I've been with you these twenty years. Your ewes and female goats have not miscarried, and I have not eaten the rams from your flock. ³⁹I did not bring you any of the flock torn by wild beasts; I myself bore the loss. You demanded payment from me for what was stolen by day or by night. ⁴⁰There I was — the heat consumed me by day and the frost by night, and sleep fled from my eyes. ⁴¹For twenty years in your household I served you — fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks — and you have changed my wages ten times! ⁴²If the God of my father, the God of Abraham, the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, certainly now you would have sent me off empty-handed. But God has seen my affliction and my hard work, and he issued his verdict last night."

⁴³Then Laban answered Jacob, "The daughters are my daughters; the sons, my sons; and the flocks, my flocks! Everything you see is mine! But what can I do today for these daughters of mine or for the children they have borne? ⁴⁴Come now, let's make a covenant, you and I. Let it be a witness between the two of us."

⁴⁵So Jacob picked out a stone and set it up as a marker. ⁴⁶Then Jacob said to his relatives, "Gather stones." And they took stones and made a mound, then ate there by the mound. ⁴⁷Laban named the mound Jegar-sahadutha, but Jacob named it Galeed.

⁴⁸Then Laban said, "This mound is a witness between you and me today." Therefore the place was called Galeed ⁴⁹and also Mizpah, for he said, "May the LORD watch between you and me when we are out of each other's sight. ⁵⁰If you mistreat my daughters or take other wives, though no one is with us, understand that God will be a witness between you and me." ⁵¹Laban also said to Jacob, "Look at this mound and the marker I have set up between you and me. ⁵²This mound is a witness and the marker is a witness that I will not pass beyond this mound to you, and you will not pass beyond this mound and this marker to do me harm. ⁵³The God of Abraham, and the gods of Nahor — the gods of their father — will judge between us." And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac. ⁵⁴Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and invited his relatives to eat a meal. So they ate a meal and spent the night on the mountain. ⁵⁵Laban got up early in the morning, kissed his grandchildren and daughters, and blessed them. Then Laban left to return home.

32 Jacob went on his way, and God's angels met him. ²When he saw them, Jacob said, "This is God's camp." So he called that place Mahanaim.

⁶When the messengers returned to Jacob, they said, "We went to your brother Esau; he is coming to meet you — and he has four hundred men with him." ⁷Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; he divided the people with him into two camps, along with the flocks, herds, and camels. ⁸He thought, "If Esau comes to one camp and attacks it, the remaining one can escape."

⁹Then Jacob said, "God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD who said to me, 'Go back to your land and to your family, and I will cause you to prosper,' ¹⁰I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness you have shown your servant. Indeed, I crossed over the Jordan with my staff, and now I have become two camps. ¹¹Please rescue me from my brother Esau, for I am afraid of him; otherwise, he may come and attack me, the mothers, and their children. ¹²You have said, 'I will cause you to prosper, and I will make your offspring like the sand of the sea, too numerous to be counted.'"

¹⁷And he told the first one: "When my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'Who do you belong to? Where are you going? And whose animals are these ahead of you?' ¹⁸then tell him, 'They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau. And look, he is behind us.'"

¹⁹He also told the second one, the third, and everyone who was walking behind the animals, "Say the same thing to Esau when you find him. ²⁰You are also to say, 'Look, your servant Jacob is right behind us.' For he thought, 'I want to appease Esau with the gift that is going ahead of me. After that, I can face him, and perhaps he will forgive me.'"

²¹So the gift was sent on ahead of him while he remained in the camp that night. ²²During the night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two slave women, and his eleven sons, and crossed the ford of Jabbok. ²³He took them and sent them across the stream, along with all his possessions.

²⁴Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. ²⁵When the man saw that he could not defeat him, he struck Jacob's hip socket as they wrestled and dislocated his hip. ²⁶Then he said to Jacob, "Let me go, for it is daybreak."

But Jacob said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

²⁷"What is your name?" the man asked.

"Jacob," he replied.

²⁸"Your name will no longer be Jacob," he said. "It will be Israel because you have struggled with God and with men and have prevailed."

²⁹Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name."

But he answered, "Why do you ask my name?" And he blessed him there.

³⁰Jacob then named the place Peniel, "For I have seen God face to face," he said, "yet my life has been spared."

³¹The sun shone on him as he passed by Peniel — limping because of his hip. ³²That is why, still today, the Israelites don't eat the thigh muscle that is at the hip socket: because he struck Jacob's hip socket at the thigh muscle.

33 Now Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming toward him with four hundred men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two slave women. ²He put the slaves and their children first, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph last. ³He himself went on ahead and bowed to the ground seven times until he approached his brother.

⁴ But Esau ran to meet him, hugged him, threw his arms around him, and kissed him. Then they wept. ⁵ When Esau looked up and saw the women and children, he asked, "Who are these with you?"

He answered, "The children God has graciously given your servant." ⁶ Then the slaves and their children approached him and bowed down. ⁷ Leah and her children also approached and bowed down, and then Joseph and Rachel approached and bowed down.

⁸ So Esau said, "What do you mean by this whole procession I met?"

"To find favor with you, my lord," he answered.

⁹ "I have enough, my brother," Esau replied. "Keep what you have."

¹⁰ But Jacob said, "No, please! If I have found favor with you, take this gift from me. For indeed, I have seen your face, and it is like seeing God's face, since you have accepted me. ¹¹ Please take my present that was brought to you, because God has been gracious to me and I have everything I need." So Jacob urged him until he accepted.

¹³ Jacob replied, "My lord knows that the children are weak, and I have nursing flocks and herds. If they are driven hard for one day, the whole herd will die. ¹⁴ Let my lord go ahead of his servant. I will continue on slowly, at a pace suited to the livestock and the children, until I come to my lord at Seir."

¹⁵ Esau said, "Let me leave some of my people with you."

But he replied, "Why do that? Please indulge me, my lord."

¹⁶ That day Esau started on his way back to Seir, ¹⁷ but Jacob went to Succoth. He built a house for himself and shelters for his livestock; that is why the place was called Succoth.

⁵ Jacob heard that Shechem had defiled his daughter Dinah, but since his sons were with his livestock in the field, he remained silent until they returned. ⁶ Meanwhile, Shechem's father Hamor came to speak with Jacob. ⁷ Jacob's sons returned from the field when they heard about the incident and were deeply grieved and very angry. For Shechem had committed an outrage against Israel by raping Jacob's daughter, and such a thing should not be done.

⁸ Hamor said to Jacob's sons, "My son Shechem has his heart set on your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife. ⁹ Intermarry with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. ¹⁰ Live with us. The land is before you. Settle here, move about, and acquire property in it."

¹¹ Then Shechem said to Dinah's father and brothers, "Grant me this favor, and I'll give you whatever you say. ¹² Demand of me a high compensation and gift; I'll give you whatever you ask me. Just give the girl to be my wife!"

¹³ But Jacob's sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully because he had defiled their sister Dinah. ¹⁴ "We cannot do this thing," they said to them. "Giving our sister to an uncircumcised man is a disgrace to us. ¹⁵ We will agree with you only on this condition: if all your males are circumcised as we are. ¹⁶ Then we will give you our daughters, take your daughters for ourselves, live with you, and become one people. ¹⁷ But if you will not listen to us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go."

²⁴ All the men who had come to the city gates listened to Hamor and his son Shechem, and all those men were circumcised. ²⁵ On the third day, when they were still in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords, went into the unsuspecting city, and killed every male. ²⁶ They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with their swords, took Dinah from Shechem's house, and went away. ²⁷ Jacob's sons came to the slaughter and plundered the city because their sister had been defiled. ²⁸ They took their flocks, herds, donkeys, and whatever was in the city and in the field. ²⁹ They captured all their possessions, dependents, and wives and plundered everything in the houses.

³⁰ Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me, making me odious to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites. We are few in number; if they unite against me and attack me, I and my household will be destroyed."

³¹ But they answered, "Should he treat our sister like a prostitute?"

35 God said to Jacob, "Get up! Go to Bethel and settle there. Build an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau."

² So Jacob said to his family and all who were with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods that are among you. Purify yourselves and change your clothes. ³ We must get up and go to Bethel. I will build an altar there to the God who answered me in my day of distress. He has been with me everywhere I have gone."

⁴ Then they gave Jacob all their foreign gods and their earrings, and Jacob hid them under the oak near Shechem. ⁵ When they set out, a terror from God came over the cities around them, and they did not pursue Jacob's sons. ⁶ So Jacob and all who were with him came to Luz (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan. ⁷ Jacob built an altar there and called the place El-bethel because it was there that God had revealed himself to him when he was fleeing from his brother.

⁹ God appeared to Jacob again after he returned from Paddan-aram, and he blessed him. ¹⁰ God said to him, "Your name is Jacob; you will no longer be named Jacob, but your name will be Israel." So he named him Israel. ¹¹ God also said to him, "I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation, indeed an assembly of nations, will come from you, and kings will descend from you. ¹² I will give to you the land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac. And I will give the land to your future descendants." ¹³ Then God withdrew from him at the place where he had spoken to him.

¹⁴ Jacob set up a marker at the place where he had spoken to him — a stone marker. He poured a drink offering on it and anointed it with oil. ¹⁵ Jacob named the place where God had spoken with him Bethel.

²¹ Israel set out again and pitched his tent beyond the Tower of Eder. ²² While Israel was living in that region, Reuben went in and slept with his father's concubine Bilhah, and Israel heard about it.

Jacob had twelve sons:

²³ Leah's sons were Reuben (Jacob's firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.

²⁴ Rachel's sons were Joseph and Benjamin.

²⁵ The sons of Rachel's slave Bilhah were Dan and Naphtali.

²⁶ The sons of Leah's slave Zilpah were Gad and Asher.

These are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

36 These are the family records of Esau (that is, Edom). ² Esau took his wives from the Canaanite women: Adah daughter of Elion the Hethite, Oholibamah daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite, ³ and Basemath daughter of Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth. ⁴ Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, Basemath bore Reuel, ⁵ and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These were Esau's sons, who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

⁶ Esau took his wives, sons, daughters, and all the people of his household, as well as his herds, all his livestock, and all the property he had acquired in Canaan; he went to a land away from his brother Jacob. ⁷ For their possessions were too many for them to live together, and because of their herds, the land where they stayed could not support them. ⁸ So Esau (that is, Edom) lived in the mountains of Seir.

⁹ These are the family records of Esau, father of the Edomites in the mountains of Seir.

¹⁰ These are the names of Esau's sons:

Eliphaz son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel son of Esau's wife Basemath.

¹¹ The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.

¹² Timna, a concubine of Esau's son Eliphaz, bore Amalek to Eliphaz.

These are the sons of Esau's wife Adah.

¹³ These are Reuel's sons:

Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

These are the sons of Esau's wife Basemath.

¹⁴ These are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon: She bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah to Edom.

¹⁵ These are the chiefs among Esau's sons: the sons of Eliphaz, Esau's firstborn:

chief Teman, chief Omar, chief Zepho, chief Kenaz,

¹⁶ chief Korah, chief Gatam, and chief Amalek. These are the chiefs descended from Eliphaz in the land of Edom.

These are the sons of Adah.

¹⁷ These are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son:

chief Nahath, chief Zerah, chief Shammah, and chief Mizzah.

These are the chiefs descended from Reuel in the land of Edom.

These are the sons of Esau's wife Basemath.

¹⁸ These are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah: chief Jeush, chief Jalam, and chief Korah.

These are the chiefs descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

¹⁹ These are the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these are their chiefs.

²⁰ These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land:

Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

²¹ Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

These are the chiefs among the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.

²² The sons of Lotan were Hori and Heman.

Timna was Lotan's sister.

²³ These are Shobal's sons:

Aivan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

²⁴ These are Zibeon's sons: Aiah and Anah.

This was the Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness

while he was pasturing the donkeys of his father Zibeon.

²⁵ These are the children of Anah:

Dishon and Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

²⁶ These are Dishon's sons:

Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

²⁷ These are Ezer's sons:

Bilhan, Zaaavan, and Akan.

²⁸ These are Dishan's sons: Uz and Aran.

²⁹ These are the chiefs among the Horites:

chief Lotan, chief Shobal, chief Zibeon, chief Anah,

³⁰ chief Dishon, chief Ezer, and chief Dishan.

These are the chiefs among the Horites, clan by clan, in the land of Seir.

³¹ These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelites:

³² Bela son of Beor reigned in Edom; the name of his city was Dinhabah.

- ³³ When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah reigned in his place.
- ³⁴ When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.
- ³⁵ When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad reigned in his place.
He defeated Midian in the field of Moab; the name of his city was Avith.
- ³⁶ When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah reigned in his place.
- ³⁷ When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the Euphrates River reigned in his place.
- ³⁸ When Shaul died, Baal-hanan son of Achbor reigned in his place.
- ³⁹ When Baal-hanan son of Achbor died, Hadar reigned in his place.
His city was Pau, and his wife's name was Mehetabel
- ⁴⁰ These are the names of Esau's chiefs, according to their families and their localities, by their names:
chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth, chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pilon, chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar,
- ⁴¹ chief Magdiel, and chief Iram.
- ⁴² These are Edom's chiefs, according to their settlements in the land they possessed.
- ⁴³ Esau was father of the Edomites.

37 Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan. ²These are the family records of Jacob.

At seventeen years of age, Joseph tended sheep with his brothers. The young man was working with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives, and he brought a bad report about them to their father.

³Now Israel loved Joseph more than his other sons because Joseph was a son born to him in his old age, and he made a robe of many colors for him. ⁴When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not bring themselves to speak peaceably to him.

⁵Then Joseph had a dream. When he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. ⁶He said to them, "Listen to this dream I had: ⁷There we were, binding sheaves of grain in the field. Suddenly my sheaf stood up, and your sheaves gathered around it and bowed down to my sheaf."

⁸"Are you really going to reign over us?" his brothers asked him. "Are you really going to rule us?" So they hated him even more because of his dream and what he had said.

⁹Then he had another dream and told it to his brothers. "Look," he said, "I had another dream, and this time the sun, moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me."

¹⁰He told his father and brothers, and his father rebuked him. "What kind of dream is this that you have had?" he said. "Am I and your mother and your brothers really going to come and bow down to the ground before you?" ¹¹His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

¹²His brothers had gone to pasture their father's flocks at Shechem. ¹³Israel said to Joseph, "Your brothers, you know, are pasturing the flocks at Shechem. Get ready. I'm sending you to them."

"I'm ready," Joseph replied.

¹⁴Then Israel said to him, "Go and see how your brothers and the flocks are doing, and bring word back to me." So he sent him from the Hebron Valley, and he went to Shechem.

¹⁵A man found him there, wandering in the field, and asked him, "What are you looking for?"

¹⁶"I'm looking for my brothers," Joseph said. "Can you tell me where they are pasturing their flocks?"

¹⁸They saw him in the distance, and before he had reached them, they plotted to kill him. ¹⁹They said to one another, "Oh, look, here comes that dream expert! ²⁰So now, come on, let's kill him and throw him into one of the pits. We can say that a vicious animal ate him. Then we'll see what becomes of his dreams!"

²¹When Reuben heard this, he tried to save him from them. He said, "Let's not take his life." ²²Reuben also said to them, "Don't shed blood. Throw him into this pit in the wilderness, but don't lay a hand on him" — intending to rescue him from them and return him to his father.

²³When Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped off Joseph's robe, the robe of many colors that he had on.

²⁴Then they took him and threw him into the pit. The pit was empty, without water.

²⁵They sat down to eat a meal, and when they looked up, there was a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead. Their camels were carrying aromatic gum, balsam, and resin, going down to Egypt.

²⁶Judah said to his brothers, "What do we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? ²⁷Come on, let's sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay a hand on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh," and his brothers agreed.

²⁹When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not there, he tore his clothes. ³⁰He went back to his brothers and said, "The boy is gone! What am I going to do?" ³¹So they took Joseph's robe, slaughtered a male goat, and dipped the robe in its blood. ³²They sent the robe of many colors to their father and said, "We found this. Examine it. Is it your son's robe or not?"

³³His father recognized it. "It is my son's robe," he said. "A vicious animal has devoured him. Joseph has been torn to pieces!" ³⁴Then Jacob tore his clothes, put sackcloth around his waist, and mourned for his son many days. ³⁵All his sons and daughters tried to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. "No," he said. "I will go down to Sheol to my son, mourning." And his father wept for him.

³⁶Meanwhile, the Midianites sold Joseph in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and the captain of the guards.

38 At that time Judah left his brothers and settled near an Adullamite named Hirah. ²There Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite named Shua; he took her as a wife and slept with her. ³She conceived and gave birth to a son, and he named him Er. ⁴She conceived again, gave birth to a son, and named him Onan. ⁵She gave birth to another son and named him Shelah. It was at Chezib that she gave birth to him.

⁶Judah got a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. ⁷Now Er, Judah's firstborn, was evil in the LORD's sight, and the LORD put him to death.⁸ Then Judah said to Onan, "Sleep with your brother's wife. Perform your duty as her brother-in-law and produce offspring for your brother."⁹ But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his, so whenever he slept with his brother's wife, he released his semen on the ground so that he would not produce offspring for his brother.¹⁰ What he did was evil in the LORD's sight, so he put him to death also.

¹¹ Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Remain a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up." For he thought, "He might die too, like his brothers." So Tamar went to live in her father's house.

¹⁶ He went over to her and said, "Come, let me sleep with you," for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.

She said, "What will you give me for sleeping with me?"

¹⁷ "I will send you a young goat from my flock," he replied.

But she said, "Only if you leave something with me until you send it."

¹⁸ "What should I give you?" he asked.

She answered, "Your signet ring, your cord, and the staff in your hand." So he gave them to her and slept with her, and she became pregnant by him.¹⁹ She got up and left, then removed her veil and put her widow's clothes back on.

²⁰ When Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite in order to get back the items he had left with the woman, he could not find her.²¹ He asked the men of the place, "Where is the cult prostitute who was beside the road at Enaim?"

"There has been no cult prostitute here," they answered.

²² So the Adullamite returned to Judah, saying, "I couldn't find her, and besides, the men of the place said, 'There has been no cult prostitute here.'"

²³ Judah replied, "Let her keep the items for herself; otherwise we will become a laughingstock. After all, I did send this young goat, but you couldn't find her."

²⁴ About three months later Judah was told, "Your daughter-in-law, Tamar, has been acting like a prostitute, and now she is pregnant."

"Bring her out," Judah said, "and let her be burned to death!"

²⁵ As she was being brought out, she sent her father-in-law this message: "I am pregnant by the man to whom these items belong." And she added, "Examine them. Whose signet ring, cord, and staff are these?"

²⁶ Judah recognized them and said, "She is more in the right than I, since I did not give her to my son Shelah." And he did not know her intimately again.

²⁹ But then he pulled his hand back, out came his brother, and she said, "What a breakout you have made for yourself!" So he was named Perez.³⁰ Then his brother, who had the scarlet thread tied to his hand, came out, and was named Zerah.

39 Now Joseph had been taken to Egypt. An Egyptian named Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and the captain of the guards, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him there.² The LORD was with Joseph, and he became a successful man, serving in the household of his Egyptian master.³ When his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD made everything he did successful,⁴ Joseph found favor with his master and became his personal attendant. Potiphar also put him in charge of his household and placed all that he owned under his authority.⁵ From the time that he put him in charge of his household and of all that he owned, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house because of Joseph. The LORD's blessing was on all that he owned, in his house and in his fields.⁶ He left all that he owned under Joseph's authority; he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate.

Now Joseph was well-built and handsome.⁷ After some time his master's wife looked longingly at Joseph and said, "Sleep with me."

⁸ But he refused. "Look," he said to his master's wife, "with me here my master does not concern himself with anything in his house, and he has put all that he owns under my authority."⁹ No one in this house is greater than I am. He has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. So how could I do this immense evil, and how could I sin against God?"

¹⁰ Although she spoke to Joseph day after day, he refused to go to bed with her.¹¹ Now one day he went into the house to do his work, and none of the household servants were there.¹² She grabbed him by his garment and said, "Sleep with me!" But leaving his garment in her hand, he escaped and ran outside.¹³ When she saw that he had left his garment with her and had run outside,¹⁴ she called her household servants. "Look," she said to them, "my husband brought a Hebrew man to make fools of us. He came to me so he could sleep with me, and I screamed as loud as I could."¹⁵ When he heard me screaming for help, he left his garment beside me and ran outside."

¹⁹ When his master heard the story his wife told him — "These are the things your slave did to me" — he was furious²⁰ and had him thrown into prison, where the king's prisoners were confined. So Joseph was there in prison.

²¹ But the LORD was with Joseph and extended kindness to him. He granted him favor with the prison warden.²² The warden put all the prisoners who were in the prison under Joseph's authority, and he was responsible for everything that was done there.²³ The warden did not bother with anything under Joseph's authority, because the LORD was with him, and the LORD made everything that he did successful.

40 After this, the king of Egypt's cupbearer and baker offended their master, the king of Egypt.² Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker,³ and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guards in the prison where Joseph was confined.⁴ The captain of the guards assigned Joseph to them as their personal attendant, and they were in custody for some time.

⁵The king of Egypt's cupbearer and baker, who were confined in the prison, each had a dream. Both had a dream on the same night, and each dream had its own meaning. ⁶When Joseph came to them in the morning, he saw that they looked distraught. ⁷So he asked Pharaoh's officers who were in custody with him in his master's house, "Why do you look so sad today?"

⁸"We had dreams," they said to him, "but there is no one to interpret them."

Then Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams."

⁹So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph: "In my dream there was a vine in front of me. ¹⁰On the vine were three branches. As soon as it budded, its blossoms came out and its clusters ripened into grapes. ¹¹Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

¹²"This is its interpretation," Joseph said to him. "The three branches are three days. ¹³In just three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position. You will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand the way you used to when you were his cupbearer. ¹⁴But when all goes well for you, remember that I was with you. Please show kindness to me by mentioning me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this prison. ¹⁵For I was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing that they should put me in the dungeon."

¹⁶When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was positive, he said to Joseph, "I also had a dream. Three baskets of white bread were on my head. ¹⁷In the top basket were all sorts of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

¹⁸"This is its interpretation," Joseph replied. "The three baskets are three days. ¹⁹In just three days Pharaoh will lift up your head — from off you — and hang you on a tree. Then the birds will eat the flesh from your body."

41 At the end of two years Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing beside the Nile, ²when seven healthy-looking, well-fed cows came up from the Nile and began to graze among the reeds. ³After them, seven other cows, sickly and thin, came up from the Nile and stood beside those cows along the bank of the Nile. ⁴The sickly, thin cows ate the healthy, well-fed cows. Then Pharaoh woke up. ⁵He fell asleep and dreamed a second time: Seven heads of grain, plump and good, came up on one stalk. ⁶After them, seven heads of grain, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouted up. ⁷The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven plump, full ones. Then Pharaoh woke up, and it was only a dream.

⁸When morning came, he was troubled, so he summoned all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could interpret them for him.

and he put me and the chief baker in the custody of the captain of the guards. ¹¹He and I had dreams on the same night; each dream had its own meaning. ¹²Now a young Hebrew, a slave of the captain of the guards, was with us there. We told him our dreams, he interpreted our dreams for us, and each had its own interpretation. ¹³It turned out just the way he interpreted them to us: I was restored to my position, and the other man was hanged."

¹⁴Then Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and they quickly brought him from the dungeon. He shaved, changed his clothes, and went to Pharaoh.

¹⁵Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said about you that you can hear a dream and interpret it."

¹⁶"I am not able to," Joseph answered Pharaoh. "It is God who will give Pharaoh a favorable answer."

¹⁷So Pharaoh said to Joseph: "In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile, ¹⁸when seven well-fed, healthy-looking cows came up from the Nile and grazed among the reeds. ¹⁹After them, seven other cows — weak, very sickly, and thin — came up. I've never seen such sickly ones as these in all the land of Egypt. ²⁰Then the thin, sickly cows ate the first seven well-fed cows. ²¹When they had devoured them, you could not tell that they had devoured them; their appearance was as bad as it had been before. Then I woke up. ²²In my dream I also saw seven heads of grain, full and good, coming up on one stalk. ²³After them, seven heads of grain — withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind — sprouted up. ²⁴The thin heads of grain swallowed the seven good ones. I told this to the magicians, but no one can tell me what it means."

²⁵Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Pharaoh's dreams mean the same thing. God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do. ²⁶The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads are seven years. The dreams mean the same thing. ²⁷The seven thin, sickly cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven worthless, scorched heads of grain are seven years of famine.

²⁸"It is just as I told Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do. ²⁹Seven years of great abundance are coming throughout the land of Egypt. ³⁰After them, seven years of famine will take place, and all the abundance in the land of Egypt will be forgotten. The famine will devastate the land. ³¹The abundance in the land will not be remembered because of the famine that follows it, for the famine will be very severe. ³²Since the dream was given twice to Pharaoh, it means that the matter has been determined by God, and he will carry it out soon.

³⁷The proposal pleased Pharaoh and all his servants, ³⁸and he said to them, "Can we find anyone like this, a man who has God's spirit in him?" ³⁹So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has made all this known to you, there is no one as discerning and wise as you are. ⁴⁰You will be over my house, and all my people will obey your commands.

Only I, as king, will be greater than you.”⁴¹ Pharaoh also said to Joseph, “See, I am placing you over all the land of Egypt.”⁴² Pharaoh removed his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph’s hand, clothed him with fine linen garments, and placed a gold chain around his neck.⁴³ He had Joseph ride in his second chariot, and servants called out before him, “Make way!” So he placed him over all the land of Egypt.⁴⁴ Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh and no one will be able to raise his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt without your permission.”⁴⁵ Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-paneah and gave him a wife, Asenath daughter of Potiphra, priest at On. And Joseph went throughout the land of Egypt.

⁵³ Then the seven years of abundance in the land of Egypt came to an end,⁵⁴ and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in every land, but in the whole land of Egypt there was food.⁵⁵ When the whole land of Egypt was stricken with famine, the people cried out to Pharaoh for food. Pharaoh told all Egypt, “Go to Joseph and do whatever he tells you.”⁵⁶ Now the famine had spread across the whole region, so Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.⁵⁷ Every land came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, for the famine was severe in every land.

42 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, “Why do you keep looking at each other? ² Listen,” he went on, “I have heard there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us so that we will live and not die.”³ So ten of Joseph’s brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. ⁴ But Jacob did not send Joseph’s brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he thought, “Something might happen to him.”

⁵ The sons of Israel were among those who came to buy grain, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. ⁶ Joseph was in charge of the country; he sold grain to all its people. His brothers came and bowed down before him with their faces to the ground. ⁷ When Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he treated them like strangers and spoke harshly to them.

“From the land of Canaan to buy food,” they replied.

⁸ Although Joseph recognized his brothers, they did not recognize him. ⁹ Joseph remembered his dreams about them and said to them, “You are spies. You have come to see the weakness of the land.”

¹⁰ “No, my lord. Your servants have come to buy food,” they said. ¹¹ “We are all sons of one man. We are honest; your servants are not spies.”

¹⁴ Then Joseph said to them, “I have spoken: ‘You are spies!’ ¹⁵ This is how you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here. ¹⁶ Send one from among you to get your brother. The rest of you will be imprisoned so that your words can be tested to see if they are true. If they are not, then as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies!” ¹⁷ So Joseph imprisoned them together for three days.

¹⁸ On the third day Joseph said to them, “I fear God—do this and you will live. ¹⁹ If you are honest, let one of you be confined to the guardhouse, while the rest of you go and take grain to relieve the hunger of your households. ²⁰ Bring your youngest brother to me so that your words can be confirmed; then you won’t die.” And they consented to this.

²¹ Then they said to each other, “Obviously, we are being punished for what we did to our brother. We saw his deep distress when he pleaded with us, but we would not listen. That is why this trouble has come to us.”

²² But Reuben replied: “Didn’t I tell you not to harm the boy? But you wouldn’t listen. Now we must account for his blood!”

²³ They did not realize that Joseph understood them, since there was an interpreter between them. ²⁴ He turned away from them and wept. When he turned back and spoke to them, he took Simeon from them and had him bound before their eyes. ²⁵ Joseph then gave orders to fill their containers with grain, return each man’s silver to his sack, and give them provisions for their journey. This order was carried out. ²⁶ They loaded the grain on their donkeys and left there.

²⁹ When they reached their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them: ³⁰ “The man who is the lord of the country spoke harshly to us and accused us of spying on the country. ³¹ But we told him: We are honest and not spies. ³² We were twelve brothers, sons of the same father. One is no longer living, and the youngest is now with our father in the land of Canaan. ³³ The man who is the lord of the country said to us, ‘This is how I will know if you are honest: Leave one brother with me, take food to relieve the hunger of your households, and go. ³⁴ Bring back your youngest brother to me, and I will know that you are not spies but honest men. I will then give your brother back to you, and you can trade in the country.’”

³⁶ Their father Jacob said to them, “It’s me that you make childless. Joseph is gone, and Simeon is gone. Now you want to take Benjamin. Everything happens to me!”

³⁷ Then Reuben said to his father, “You can kill my two sons if I don’t bring him back to you. Put him in my care, and I will return him to you.”

³⁸ But Jacob answered, "My son will not go down with you, for his brother is dead and he alone is left. If anything happens to him on your journey, you will bring my gray hairs down to Sheol in sorrow."

43 Now the famine in the land was severe. ² When they had used up the grain they had brought back from Egypt, their father said to them, "Go back and buy us a little food."

³ But Judah said to him, "The man specifically warned us: 'You will not see me again unless your brother is with you.' ⁴ If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you. ⁵ But if you will not send him, we will not go, for the man said to us, 'You will not see me again unless your brother is with you.'"

⁶ "Why have you caused me so much trouble?" Israel asked. "Why did you tell the man that you had another brother?"

⁸ Then Judah said to his father Israel, "Send the boy with me. We will be on our way so that we may live and not die — neither we, nor you, nor our dependents. ⁹ I will be responsible for him. You can hold me personally accountable! If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, I will be guilty before you forever. ¹⁰ If we had not delayed, we could have come back twice by now."

¹¹ Then their father Israel said to them, "If it must be so, then do this: Put some of the best products of the land in your packs and take them down to the man as a gift — a little balsam and a little honey, aromatic gum and resin, pistachios and almonds. ¹² Take twice as much silver with you. Return the silver that was returned to you in the top of your bags. Perhaps it was a mistake. ¹³ Take your brother also, and go back at once to the man. ¹⁴ May God Almighty cause the man to be merciful to you so that he will release your other brother and Benjamin to you. As for me, if I am deprived of my sons, then I am deprived."

¹⁶ When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to his steward, "Take the men to my house. Slaughter an animal and prepare it, for they will eat with me at noon." ¹⁷ The man did as Joseph had said and brought them to Joseph's house.

²⁰ They said, "My lord, we really did come down here the first time only to buy food. ²¹ When we came to the place where we lodged for the night and opened our bags of grain, each one's silver was at the top of his bag! It was the full amount of our silver, and we have brought it back with us. ²² We have brought additional silver with us to buy food. We don't know who put our silver in the bags."

²³ Then the steward said, "May you be well. Don't be afraid. Your God and the God of your father must have put treasure in your bags. I received your silver." Then he brought Simeon out to them. ²⁴ The steward brought the men into Joseph's house, gave them water to wash their feet, and got feed for their donkeys. ²⁵ Since the men had heard that they were going to eat a meal there, they prepared their gift for Joseph's arrival at noon. ²⁶ When Joseph came home, they brought him the gift they had carried into the house, and they bowed to the ground before him.

²⁷ He asked if they were well, and he said, "How is your elderly father that you told me about? Is he still alive?"

²⁸ They answered, "Your servant our father is well. He is still alive." And they knelt low and paid homage to him.

²⁹ When he looked up and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, he asked, "Is this your youngest brother that you told me about?" Then he said, "May God be gracious to you, my son." ³⁰ Joseph hurried out because he was overcome with emotion for his brother, and he was about to weep. He went into an inner room and wept there.

³¹ Then he washed his face and came out. Regaining his composure, he said, "Serve the meal."

³² They served him by himself, his brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who were eating with him by themselves, because Egyptians could not eat with Hebrews, since that is detestable to them. ³³ They were seated before him in order by age, from the firstborn to the youngest. The men looked at each other in astonishment. ³⁴ Portions were served to them from Joseph's table, and Benjamin's portion was five times larger than any of theirs. They drank and became drunk with Joseph.

44 Joseph commanded his steward, "Fill the men's bags with as much food as they can carry, and put each one's silver at the top of his bag. ² Put my cup, the silver one, at the top of the youngest one's bag, along with the silver for his grain." So he did as Joseph told him.

³ At morninglight, the men were sent off with their donkeys. ⁴ They had not gone very far from the city when Joseph said to his steward, "Get up. Pursue the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good?' ⁵ Isn't this the cup that my master drinks from and uses for divination? What you have done is wrong!'"

⁷ They said to him, "Why does my lord say these things? Your servants could not possibly do such a thing. ⁸ We even brought back to you from the land of Canaan the silver we found at the top of our bags. How could we steal silver or gold from your master's house? ⁹ If it is found with one of us, your servants, he must die, and the rest of us will become my lord's slaves."

¹⁰ The steward replied, "What you have said is right, but only the one who is found to have it will be my slave, and the rest of you will be blameless."

¹⁴ When Judah and his brothers reached Joseph's house, he was still there. They fell to the ground before him. ¹⁵ "What is this you have done?" Joseph said to them. "Didn't you know that a man like me could uncover the truth by divination?"

¹⁶ "What can we say to my lord?" Judah replied. "How can we plead? How can we justify ourselves? God has exposed your servants' iniquity. We are now my lord's slaves — both we and the one in whose possession the cup was found."

¹⁷ Then Joseph said, "I swear that I will not do this. The man in whose possession the cup was found will be my slave. The rest of you can go in peace to your father."

¹⁸ But Judah approached him and said, "My lord, please let your servant speak personally to my lord. Do not be angry with your servant, for you are like Pharaoh." ¹⁹ My lord asked his servants, "Do you have a father or a brother?" ²⁰ and we answered my lord, "We have an elderly father and a younger brother, the child of his old age. The boy's brother is dead. He is the only one of his mother's sons left, and his father loves him." ²¹ Then you said to your servants, "Bring him to me so that I can see him." ²² But we said to my lord, "The boy cannot leave his father. If he were to leave, his father would die." ²³ Then you said to your servants, "If your younger brother does not come down with you, you will not see me again."

³⁰ "So if I come to your servant my father and the boy is not with us — his life is wrapped up with the boy's life — ³¹ when he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die. Then your servants will have brought the gray hairs of your servant our father down to Sheol in sorrow. ³² Your servant became accountable to my father for the boy, saying, 'If I do not return him to you, I will always bear the guilt for sinning against you, my father.' ³³ Now please let your servant remain here as my lord's slave, in place of the boy. Let him go back with his brothers. ³⁴ For how can I go back to my father without the boy? I could not bear to see the grief that would overwhelm my father."

45 Joseph could no longer keep his composure in front of all his attendants, so he called out, "Send everyone away from me!" No one was with him when he revealed his identity to his brothers. ² But he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and also Pharaoh's household heard it. ³ Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph! Is my father still living?" But they could not answer him because they were terrified in his presence.

⁴ Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Please, come near me," and they came near. "I am Joseph, your brother," he said, "the one you sold into Egypt." ⁵ And now don't be grieved or angry with yourselves for selling me here, because God sent me ahead of you to preserve life. ⁶ For the famine has been in the land these two years, and there will be five more years without plowing or harvesting. ⁷ God sent me ahead of you to establish you as a remnant within the land and to keep you alive by a great deliverance. ⁸ Therefore it was not you who sent me here, but God. He has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of his entire household, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

⁹ "Return quickly to my father and say to him, 'This is what your son Joseph says: "God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me without delay." ¹⁰ You can settle in the land of Goshen and be near me — you, your children, and your grandchildren, your flocks, your herds, and all you have. ¹¹ There I will sustain you, for there will be five more years of famine. Otherwise, you, your household, and everything you have will become destitute.'" ¹² Look! Your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin can see that I'm the one speaking to you. ¹³ Tell my father about all my glory in Egypt and about all you have seen. And bring my father here quickly."

¹⁴ Then Joseph threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin wept on his shoulder. ¹⁵ Joseph kissed each of his brothers as he wept, and afterward his brothers talked with him.

¹⁶ When the news reached Pharaoh's palace, "Joseph's brothers have come," Pharaoh and his servants were pleased. ¹⁷ Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and go on back to the land of Canaan. ¹⁸ Get your father and your families, and come back to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you can eat from the richness of the land.'" ¹⁹ You are also commanded to tell them, 'Do this: Take wagons from the land of Egypt for your dependents and your wives and bring your father here. ²⁰ Do not be concerned about your belongings, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.'"

²⁵ So they went up from Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. ²⁶ They said, "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt!" Jacob was stunned, for he did not believe them. ²⁷ But when they told Jacob all that Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to transport him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

²⁸ Then Israel said, "Enough! My son Joseph is still alive. I will go to see him before I die."

46 Israel set out with all that he had and came to Beer-sheba, and he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. ² That night God spoke to Israel in a vision: "Jacob, Jacob!" he said.

And Jacob replied, "Here I am."

³ God said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there. ⁴ I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also bring you back. Joseph will close your eyes when you die."

⁵ Jacob left Beer-sheba. The sons of Israel took their father Jacob in the wagons Pharaoh had sent to carry him, along with their dependents and their wives. ⁶ They also took their cattle and possessions they had acquired in the land of Canaan. Then Jacob and all his offspring with him came to Egypt. ⁷ His sons and grandsons, his daughters and granddaughters, indeed all his offspring, he brought with him to Egypt.

⁸ These are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt — Jacob and his sons:

Jacob's firstborn: Reuben.

⁹ Reuben's sons: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

¹⁰ Simeon's sons: Gemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.

¹¹ Levi's sons: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

¹² Judah's sons: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

¹³ Issachar's sons: Tola, Puvah, Jashub, and Shimron.

¹⁴ Zebulun's sons: Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.

¹⁵ These were Leah's sons born to Jacob in Paddan-aram, as well as his daughter Dinah. The total number of persons: thirty-three.

¹⁶ Gad's sons: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.

¹⁷ Asher's sons: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah. Beriah's sons were Heber and Malchiel.

¹⁸ These were the sons of Zilpah — whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah — that she bore to Jacob: sixteen persons.

¹⁹ The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

²⁰ Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt. They were born to him by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, a priest at On.

²¹ Benjamin's sons: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muphim, Huphim, and Ard.

²² These were Rachel's sons who were born to Jacob: fourteen persons.

²³ Dan's son: Hushim.

²⁴ Naphtali's sons: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.

²⁵ These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel. She bore to Jacob: seven persons.

²⁶ The total number of persons belonging to Jacob — his direct descendants, not including the wives of Jacob's sons — who came to Egypt: sixty-six.

²⁷ And Joseph's sons who were born to him in Egypt: two persons.

All those of Jacob's household who came to Egypt: seventy persons.

³¹ Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's family, "I will go up and inform Pharaoh, telling him, 'My brothers and my father's family, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. ³² The men are shepherds; they also raise livestock. They have brought their flocks and herds and all that they have.' ³³ When Pharaoh addresses you and asks, 'What is your occupation?' ³⁴ you are to say, 'Your servants, both we and our fathers, have raised livestock from our youth until now.' Then you will be allowed to settle in the land of Goshen, since all shepherds are detestable to Egyptians."

47 So Joseph went and informed Pharaoh: "My father and my brothers, with their flocks and herds and all that they own, have come from the land of Canaan and are now in the land of Goshen."

² He took five of his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh. ³ And Pharaoh asked his brothers, "What is your occupation?"

They said to Pharaoh, "Your servants, both we and our fathers, are shepherds." ⁴ And they said to Pharaoh, "We have come to stay in the land for a while because there is no grazing land for your servants' sheep, since the famine in the land of Canaan has been severe. So now, please let your servants settle in the land of Goshen."

⁵ Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Now that your father and brothers have come to you, ⁶ the land of Egypt is open before you; settle your father and brothers in the best part of the land. They can live in the land of Goshen. If you know of any capable men among them, put them in charge of my livestock."

⁷ Joseph then brought his father Jacob and presented him to Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. ⁸ Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many years have you lived?"

⁹ Jacob said to Pharaoh, "My pilgrimage has lasted 130 years. My years have been few and hard, and they have not reached the years of my fathers during their pilgrimages." ¹⁰ So Jacob blessed Pharaoh and departed from Pharaoh's presence.

¹³ But there was no food in the entire region, for the famine was very severe. The land of Egypt and the land of Canaan were exhausted by the famine. ¹⁴ Joseph collected all the silver to be found in the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan in exchange for the grain they were purchasing, and he brought the silver to Pharaoh's palace. ¹⁵ When the silver from the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan was gone, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us food. Why should we die here in front of you? The silver is gone!"

¹⁶ But Joseph said, "Give me your livestock. Since the silver is gone, I will give you food in exchange for your livestock." ¹⁷ So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for the horses, the flocks of sheep, the herds of cattle, and the donkeys. That year he provided them with food in exchange for all their livestock.

¹⁸ When that year was over, they came the next year and said to him, "We cannot hide from our lord that the silver is gone and that all our livestock belongs to our lord. There is nothing left for our lord except our bodies and our land. ¹⁹ Why should we die here in front of you — both us and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food. Then we with our land will become Pharaoh's slaves. Give us seed so that we can live and not die, and so that the land won't become desolate."

²⁰ In this way, Joseph acquired all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh, because every Egyptian sold his field since the famine was so severe for them. The land became Pharaoh's, ²¹ and Joseph moved the people to the cities from one end of Egypt to the other. ²² The only land he did not acquire belonged to the priests, for they had an allowance from Pharaoh. They ate from their allowance that Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their land.

²³ Joseph said to the people, "Understand today that I have acquired you and your land for Pharaoh. Here is seed for you. Sow it in the land. ²⁴ At harvest, you are to give a fifth of it to Pharaoh, and four-fifths will be yours as seed for the field and as food for yourselves, your households, and your dependents."

²⁵ "You have saved our lives," they said. "We have found favor with our lord and will be Pharaoh's slaves." ²⁶ So Joseph made it a law, still in effect today in the land of Egypt, that a fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. Only the priests' land does not belong to Pharaoh.

²⁷ Israel settled in the land of Egypt, in the region of Goshen. They acquired property in it and became fruitful and very numerous. ²⁸ Now Jacob lived in the land of Egypt 17 years, and his life span was 147 years. ²⁹ When the time approached for him to die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "If I have found favor with you, put your hand under my thigh and promise me that you will deal with me in kindness and faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt. ³⁰ When I rest with my fathers, carry me away from Egypt and bury me in their burial place."

Joseph answered, "I will do what you have asked."

³¹ And Jacob said, "Swear to me." So Joseph swore to him. Then Israel bowed in thanks at the head of his bed.

48 Some time after this, Joseph was told, "Your father is weaker." So he set out with his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. ² When Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph has come to you," Israel summoned his strength and sat up in bed.

³ Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me. ⁴ He said to me, 'I will make you fruitful and numerous; I will make many nations come from you, and I will give this land as a permanent possession to your future descendants.' ⁵ Your two sons born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt are now mine. Ephraim and Manasseh belong to me just as Reuben and Simeon do. ⁶ Children born to you after them will be yours and will be recorded under the names of their brothers with regard to their inheritance. ⁷ When I was returning from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died along the way, some distance from Ephrath in the land of Canaan. I buried her there along the way to Ephrath" (that is, Bethlehem).

⁸ When Israel saw Joseph's sons, he said, "Who are these?"

⁹ And Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons God has given me here."

So Israel said, "Bring them to me and I will bless them."

¹⁰ Now his eyesight was poor because of old age; he could hardly see. Joseph brought them to him, and he kissed and embraced them. ¹¹ Israel said to Joseph, "I never expected to see your face again, but now God has even let me see your offspring." ¹² Then Joseph took them from his father's knees and bowed with his face to the ground.

The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,
the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day,

¹⁶ the angel who has redeemed me from all harm — may he bless these boys.

And may they be called by my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they grow to be numerous within the land.

¹⁷ When Joseph saw that his father had placed his right hand on Ephraim's head, he thought it was a mistake and took his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to

¹⁹ But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know! He too will become a tribe, and he too will be great; nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his offspring will become a populous nation." ²⁰ So he blessed them that day, putting Ephraim before Manasseh when he said, "The nation Israel will invoke blessings by you, saying, 'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.'"

²¹ Israel said to Joseph, "Look, I am about to die, but God will be with you and will bring you back to the land of your fathers. ²² Over and above what I am giving your brothers, I am giving you the one mountain slope that I took from the Amorites with my sword and bow."

49 Then Jacob called his sons and said, "Gather around, and I will tell you what will happen to you in the days to come.

² Come together and listen, sons of Jacob; listen to your father Israel:

³ Reuben, you are my firstborn, my strength and the firstfruits of my virility, excelling in prominence, excelling in power.

⁴ Turbulent as water, you will not excel, because you got into your father's bed and you defiled it — he got into my bed.

⁵ Simeon and Levi are brothers; their knives are vicious weapons.

⁶ May I never enter their council; may I never join their assembly. For in their anger they kill men, and on a whim they hamstring oxen.

⁷ Their anger is cursed, for it is strong, and their fury, for it is cruel! I will disperse them throughout Jacob and scatter them throughout Israel.

⁸ Judah, your brothers will praise you. Your hand will be on the necks of your enemies; your father's sons will bow down to you.

⁹ Judah is a young lion — my son, you return from the kill. He crouches; he lies down like a lion or a lioness — who dares to rouse him?

¹² His eyes are darker than wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk.

¹³ Zebulun will live by the seashore and will be a harbor for ships, and his territory will be next to Sidon.

¹⁴ Issachar is a strong donkey lying down between the saddlebags.

¹⁵ He saw that his resting place was good and that the land was pleasant, so he leaned his shoulder to bear a load and became a forced laborer.

¹⁶ Dan will judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan will be a snake by the road,
a viper beside the path,
that bites the horse's heels
so that its rider falls backward.

18 I wait for your salvation, LORD.

19 Gad will be attacked by raiders,
but he will attack their heels.

20 Asher's food will be rich, and he will produce royal delicacies.

21 Naphtali is a doe set free that bears beautiful fawns.

22 Joseph is a fruitful vine, a fruitful vine beside a spring;
its branches climb over the wall.

23 The archers attacked him,
shot at him, and were hostile toward him.

24 Yet his bow remained steady, and his strong arms were made agile
by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob,
by the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,

25 by the God of your father who helps you,
and by the Almighty who blesses you with blessings of the heavens above, blessings of the deep that lies below,
and blessings of the breasts and the womb.

26 The blessings of your father excel
the blessings of my ancestors and the bounty of the ancient hills.
May they rest on the head of Joseph,
on the brow of the prince of his brothers.

27 Benjamin is a wolf; he tears his prey.
In the morning he devours the prey,
and in the evening he divides the plunder."

28 These are the tribes of Israel, twelve in all, and this is what their father said to them. He blessed them, and he blessed each one with a suitable blessing.

29 Then he commanded them: "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hethite. 30 The cave is in the field of Machpelah near Mamre, in the land of Canaan. This is the field Abraham purchased from Ephron the Hethite as burial property. 31 Abraham and his wife Sarah are buried there, Isaac and his wife Rebekah are buried there, and I buried Leah there. 32 The field and the cave in it were purchased from the Hethites." 33 When Jacob had finished giving charges to his sons, he drew his feet into the bed, took his last breath, and was gathered to his people.

50 Then Joseph, leaning over his father's face, wept and kissed him. 2 He commanded his servants who were physicians to embalm his father. So they embalmed Israel. 3 They took forty days to complete this, for embalming takes that long, and the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

4 When the days of mourning were over, Joseph said to Pharaoh's household, "If I have found favor with you, please tell Pharaoh that 5 my father made me take an oath, saying, 'I am about to die. You must bury me there in the tomb that I made for myself in the land of Canaan.' Now let me go and bury my father. Then I will return."

6 So Pharaoh said, "Go and bury your father in keeping with your oath."

7 Then Joseph went to bury his father, and all Pharaoh's servants, the elders of his household, and all the elders of the land of Egypt went with him, 8 along with all Joseph's family, his brothers, and his father's family. Only their dependents, their flocks, and their herds were left in the land of Goshen. 9 Horses and chariots went up with him; it was a very impressive procession. 10 When they reached the threshing floor of Atad, which is across the Jordan, they lamented and wept loudly, and Joseph mourned seven days for his father. 11 When the Canaanite inhabitants of the land saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a solemn mourning on the part of the Egyptians." Therefore the place is named Abel-mizraim. It is across the Jordan.

12 So Jacob's sons did for him what he had commanded them. 13 They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave at Machpelah in the field near Mamre, which Abraham had purchased as burial property from Ephron the Hethite. 14 After Joseph buried his father, he returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had gone with him to bury his father.

15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said to one another, "If Joseph is holding a grudge against us, he will certainly repay us for all the suffering we caused him."

16 So they sent this message to Joseph, "Before he died your father gave a command: 17 'Say this to Joseph: Please forgive your brothers' transgression and their sin — the suffering they caused you.' Therefore, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when their message came to him. 18 His brothers also came to him, bowed down before him, and said, "We are your slaves!"

19 But Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid. Am I in the place of God? 20 You planned evil against me; God planned it for good to bring about the present result — the survival of many people. 21 Therefore don't be afraid. I will take care of you and your children." And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

22 Joseph and his father's family remained in Egypt. Joseph lived 110 years. 23 He saw Ephraim's sons to the third generation; the sons of Manasse's son Machir were recognized by Joseph.

24 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die, but God will certainly come to your aid and bring you up from this land to the land he swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." 25 So Joseph made the sons of Israel take an oath: "When God comes to your aid, you are to carry my bones up from here."

26 Joseph died at the age of 110. They embalmed him and placed him in a coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS

1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob; each came with his family:

² Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;

³ Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;

⁴ Dan and Naphtali; Gad and Asher.

⁶ Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation eventually died. ⁷ But the Israelites were fruitful, increased rapidly, multiplied, and became extremely numerous so that the land was filled with them.

⁸ A new king, who did not know about Joseph, came to power in Egypt. ⁹ He said to his people, "Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and powerful than we are. ¹⁰ Come, let's deal shrewdly with them; otherwise they will multiply further, and when war breaks out, they will join our enemies, fight against us, and leave the country." ¹¹ So the Egyptians assigned taskmasters over the Israelites to oppress them with forced labor. They built Pithom and Rameses as supply cities for Pharaoh. ¹² But the more they oppressed them, the more they multiplied and spread so that the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites. ¹³ They worked the Israelites ruthlessly ¹⁴ and made their lives bitter with difficult labor in brick and mortar and in all kinds of fieldwork. They ruthlessly imposed all this work on them.

¹⁵ The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives — the first whose name was Shiphrah and the second whose name was Puah — ¹⁶ "When you help the Hebrew women give birth, observe them as they deliver. If the child is a son, kill him, but if it's a daughter, she may live." ¹⁷ The midwives, however, feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt had told them; they let the boys live. ¹⁸ So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, "Why have you done this and let the boys live?"

²⁰ So God was good to the midwives, and the people multiplied and became very numerous. ²¹ Since the midwives feared God, he gave them families. ²² Pharaoh then commanded all his people: "You must throw every son born to the Hebrews into the Nile, but let every daughter live."

2 Now a man from the family of Levi married a Levite woman. ² The woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son; when she saw that he was beautiful, she hid him for three months. ³ But when she could no longer hide him, she got a papyrus basket for him and coated it with asphalt and pitch. She placed the child in it and set it among the reeds by the bank of the Nile. ⁴ Then his sister stood at a distance in order to see what would happen to him.

⁵ Pharaoh's daughter went down to bathe at the Nile while her servant girls walked along the riverbank. She saw the basket among the reeds, sent her slave girl, took it, ⁶ opened it, and saw him, the child — and there he was, a little boy, crying. She felt sorry for him and said, "This is one of the Hebrew boys."

⁷ Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Should I go and call a Hebrew woman who is nursing to nurse the boy for you?"

⁸ "Go," Pharaoh's daughter told her. So the girl went and called the boy's mother. ⁹ Then Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will pay your wages." So the woman took the boy and nursed him. ¹⁰ When the child grew older, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses, "Because," she said, "I drew him out of the water."

¹¹ Years later, after Moses had grown up, he went out to his own people and observed their forced labor. He saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his people. ¹² Looking all around and seeing no one, he struck the Egyptian dead and hid him in the sand. ¹³ The next day he went out and saw two Hebrews fighting. He asked the one in the wrong, "Why are you attacking your neighbor?"

¹⁴ "Who made you a commander and judge over us?" the man replied. "Are you planning to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?"

Then Moses became afraid and thought, "What I did is certainly known."

¹⁵ When Pharaoh heard about this, he tried to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and went to live in the land of Midian, and sat down by a well.

¹⁶ Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came to draw water and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. ¹⁷ Then some shepherds arrived and drove them away, but Moses came to their rescue and watered their flock. ¹⁸ When they returned to their father Reuel, he asked, "Why have you come back so quickly today?"

¹⁹ They answered, "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds. He even drew water for us and watered the flock."

²⁰ "So where is he?" he asked his daughters. "Why then did you leave the man behind? Invite him to eat dinner."

²¹ Moses agreed to stay with the man, and he gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses in marriage. ²² She gave birth to a son whom he named Gershom, for he said, "I have been a resident alien in a foreign land."

²³ After a long time, the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned because of their difficult labor; and they cried out; and their cry for help because of the difficult labor ascended to God. ²⁴ And God heard their groaning; and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob; ²⁵ and God saw the Israelites; and God knew.

3 Meanwhile, Moses was shepherding the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. He led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. ² Then the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire within a bush. As Moses looked, he saw that the bush was on fire but was not consumed. ³ So Moses thought, "I must go over and look at this remarkable sight. Why isn't the bush burning up?"

⁴ When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called out to him from the bush, "Moses, Moses!"

"Here I am," he answered.

⁵ "Do not come closer," he said. "Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground." ⁶ Then he continued, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." Moses hid his face because he was afraid to look at God.

⁷Then the LORD said, "I have observed the misery of my people in Egypt, and have heard them crying out because of their oppressors. I know about their sufferings,⁸ and I have come down to rescue them from the power of the Egyptians and to bring them from that land to a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the territory of the Canaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.⁹ So because the Israelites' cry for help has come to me, and I have also seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them,¹⁰ therefore, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh so that you may lead my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt."

¹¹But Moses asked God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and that I should bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"

¹²He answered, "I will certainly be with you, and this will be the sign to you that I am the one who sent you: when you bring the people out of Egypt, you will all worship God at this mountain."

¹³Then Moses asked God, "If I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what should I tell them?"

¹⁴God replied to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM. This is what you are to say to the Israelites: I AM has sent me to you."

¹⁵God also said to Moses, "Say this to the Israelites: The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my name forever; this is how I am to be remembered in every generation.

¹⁹"However, I know that the king of Egypt will not allow you to go, even under force from a strong hand.²⁰ But when I stretch out my hand and strike Egypt with all my miracles that I will perform in it, after that, he will let you go.²¹ And I will give these people such favor with the Egyptians that when you go, you will not go empty-handed.²² Each woman will ask her neighbor and any woman staying in her house for silver and gold jewelry, and clothing, and you will put them on your sons and daughters. So you will plunder the Egyptians."

4 Moses answered, "What if they won't believe me and will not obey me but say, 'The LORD did not appear to you?'"

²The LORD asked him, "What is that in your hand?"

"A staff," he replied.

³"Throw it on the ground," he said. So Moses threw it on the ground, it became a snake, and he ran from it.⁴The LORD told Moses, "Stretch out your hand and grab it by the tail." So he stretched out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand.⁵"This will take place," he continued, "so that they will believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."

⁶In addition the LORD said to him, "Put your hand inside your cloak." So he put his hand inside his cloak, and when he took it out, his hand was diseased, resembling snow.⁷"Put your hand back inside your cloak," he said. So he put his hand back inside his cloak, and when he took it out, it had again become like the rest of his skin.⁸"If they will not believe you and will not respond to the evidence of the first sign, they may believe the evidence of the second sign.⁹ And if they don't believe even these two signs or listen to what you say, take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. The water you take from the Nile will become blood on the ground."

¹⁰But Moses replied to the LORD, "Please, Lord, I have never been eloquent—either in the past or recently or since you have been speaking to your servant—because my mouth and my tongue are sluggish."

¹¹The LORD said to him, "Who placed a mouth on humans? Who makes a person mute or deaf, seeing or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?¹² Now go! I will help you speak and I will teach you what to say."

¹³Moses said, "Please, Lord, send someone else."

¹⁴Then the LORD's anger burned against Moses, and he said, "Isn't Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, he is on his way now to meet you. He will rejoice when he sees you.¹⁵ You will speak with him and tell him what to say. I will help both you and him to speak and will teach you both what to do.¹⁶ He will speak to the people for you. He will serve as a mouth for you, and you will serve as God to him.¹⁷ And take this staff in your hand that you will perform the signs with."

¹⁸Then Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, "Please let me return to my relatives in Egypt and see if they are still living."

Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."

¹⁹Now in Midian the LORD told Moses, "Return to Egypt, for all the men who wanted to kill you are dead."²⁰ So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey, and returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took God's staff in his hand.

²¹The LORD instructed Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, make sure you do before Pharaoh all the wonders that I have put within your power. But I will harden his heart so that he won't let the people go.²² And you will say to Pharaoh: This is what the LORD says: Israel is my firstborn son.²³ I told you: Let my son go so that he may worship me, but you refused to let him go. Look, I am about to kill your firstborn son!"

²⁵So Zipporah took a flint, cut off her son's foreskin, threw it at Moses's feet, and said, "You are a bridegroom of blood to me!"²⁶ So he let him alone. At that time she said, "You are a bridegroom of blood," referring to the circumcision.

²⁷Now the LORD had said to Aaron, "Go and meet Moses in the wilderness." So he went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.²⁸ Moses told Aaron everything the LORD had sent him to say, and about all the signs he had commanded him to do.²⁹ Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the Israelites.³⁰ Aaron repeated everything the LORD had said to Moses and performed the signs before the people.³¹ The people believed, and when they heard that the LORD had paid attention to them and that he had seen their misery, they knelt low and worshipped.

5 Later, Moses and Aaron went in and said to Pharaoh, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Let my people go, so that they may hold a festival for me in the wilderness."

² But Pharaoh responded, "Who is the LORD that I should obey him by letting Israel go? I don't know the LORD, and besides, I will not let Israel go."

³ They answered, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go on a three-day trip into the wilderness so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God, or else he may strike us with plague or sword."

⁴ The king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why are you causing the people to neglect their work? Get to your labor!" ⁵ Pharaoh also said, "Look, the people of the land are so numerous, and you would stop them from their labor."

¹⁰ So the overseers and foremen of the people went out and said to them, "This is what Pharaoh says: 'I am not giving you straw. ¹¹ Go get straw yourselves wherever you can find it, but there will be no reduction at all in your workload.'" ¹² So the people scattered throughout the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. ¹³ The overseers insisted, "Finish your assigned work each day, just as you did when straw was provided." ¹⁴ Then the Israelite foremen, whom Pharaoh's slave drivers had set over the people, were beaten and asked, "Why haven't you finished making your prescribed number of bricks yesterday or today, as you did before?"

¹⁵ So the Israelite foremen went in and cried for help to Pharaoh: "Why are you treating your servants this way?"

¹⁶ No straw has been given to your servants, yet they say to us, 'Make bricks!' Look, your servants are being beaten, but it is your own people who are at fault."

¹⁷ But he said, "You are slackers. Slackers! That is why you are saying, 'Let us go sacrifice to the LORD.' ¹⁸ Now get to work. No straw will be given to you, but you must produce the same quantity of bricks."

²¹ "May the LORD take note of you and judge," they said to them, "because you have made us reek to Pharaoh and his officials — putting a sword in their hand to kill us!"

²² So Moses went back to the LORD and asked, "Lord, why have you caused trouble for this people? And why did you ever send me?" ²³ Ever since I went in to Pharaoh to speak in your name he has caused trouble for this people, and you haven't rescued your people at all."

6 But the LORD replied to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: because of a strong hand he will let them go, and because of a strong hand he will drive them from his land."

² Then God spoke to Moses, telling him, "I am the LORD.

³ I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty, but I was not known to them by my name 'the LORD.' ⁴ I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, the land they lived in as aliens. ⁵ Furthermore, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are forcing to work as slaves, and I have remembered my covenant.

⁶ Therefore tell the Israelites: I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from the forced labor of the Egyptians and rescue you from slavery to them. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and great acts of judgment. ⁷ I will take you as my people, and I will be your God. You will know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from the forced labor of the Egyptians. ⁸ I will bring you to the land that I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and I will give it to you as a possession. I am the LORD." ⁹ Moses told this to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him because of their broken spirit and hard labor.

¹² But Moses said in the LORD's presence: "If the Israelites will not listen to me, then how will Pharaoh listen to me, since I am such a poor speaker?" ¹³ Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them commands concerning both the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁴ These are the heads of their fathers' families:

The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These are the clans of Reuben.

¹⁵ The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman. These are the clans of Simeon.

¹⁶ These are the names of the sons of Levi according to their family records; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. Levi lived 137 years.

¹⁷ The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, by their clans.

¹⁸ The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years.

¹⁹ The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the clans of the Levites according to their family records.

²⁰ Amram married his father's sister Jochebed, and she bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 137 years.

²¹ The sons of Izhar: Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.

²² The sons of Uzziel: Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.

²³ Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon. She bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

²⁴ The sons of Korah: Assir, Ekanah, and Abiasaph. These are the clans of the Korahites.

²⁵ Aaron's son Eleazar married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the Levite families by their clans.

²⁶ It was this Aaron and Moses whom the LORD told, "Bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt according to their military divisions." ²⁷ Moses and Aaron were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt in order to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

²⁸ On the day the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, ²⁹ he said to him, "I am the LORD; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I am telling you."

³⁰ But Moses replied in the LORD's presence, "Since I am such a poor speaker, how will Pharaoh listen to me?"

7 The LORD answered Moses, "See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother will be your prophet. ² You must say whatever I command you; then Aaron your brother must declare it to Pharaoh so that he will let the Israelites go from his land. ³ But I will harden Pharaoh's heart and multiply my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt. ⁴ Pharaoh will not listen to you, but I will put my hand into Egypt and bring the military divisions of my people the Israelites out of the land of Egypt by great acts of judgment. ⁵ The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I stretch out my hand against Egypt and bring out the Israelites from among them."

⁶ So Moses and Aaron did this; they did just as the LORD commanded them. ⁷ Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

¹⁰ So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and did just as the LORD had commanded. Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a serpent. ¹¹ But then Pharaoh called the wise men and sorcerers — the magicians of Egypt, and they also did the same thing by their occult practices. ¹² Each one threw down his staff, and it became a serpent. But Aaron's staff swallowed their staffs. ¹³ However, Pharaoh's heart was hard, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

¹⁴ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is hard: He refuses to let the people go. ¹⁵ Go to Pharaoh in the morning. When you see him walking out to the water, stand ready to meet him by the bank of the Nile. Take in your hand the staff that turned into a snake. ¹⁶ Tell him: The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to tell you: Let my people go, so that they may worship me in the wilderness, but so far you have not listened. ¹⁷ This is what the LORD says: Here is how you will know that I am the LORD. Watch. I am about to strike the water in the Nile with the staff in my hand, and it will turn to blood. ¹⁸ The fish in the Nile will die, the river will stink, and the Egyptians will be unable to drink water from it."

¹⁹ So the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt — over their rivers, canals, ponds, and all their water reservoirs — and they will become blood. There will be blood throughout the land of Egypt, even in wooden and stone containers."

²⁰ Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded; in the sight of Pharaoh and his officials, he raised the staff and struck the water in the Nile, and all the water in the Nile was turned to blood. ²¹ The fish in the Nile died, and the river smelled so bad the Egyptians could not drink water from it. There was blood throughout the land of Egypt.

²² But the magicians of Egypt did the same thing by their occult practices. So Pharaoh's heart was hard, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said. ²³ Pharaoh turned around, went into his palace, and didn't take even this to heart. ²⁴ All the Egyptians dug around the Nile for water to drink because they could not drink the water from the river. ²⁵ Seven days passed after the LORD struck the Nile.

8 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh and tell him: This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me. ² But if you refuse to let them go, then I will plague all your territory with frogs. ³ The Nile will swarm with frogs; they will come up and go into your palace, into your bedroom and on your bed, into the houses of your officials and your people, and into your ovens and kneading bowls. ⁴ The frogs will come up on you, your people, and all your officials."

⁸ Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Appeal to the LORD to remove the frogs from me and my people. Then I will let the people go and they can sacrifice to the LORD."

⁹ Moses said to Pharaoh, "You may have the honor of choosing. When should I appeal on behalf of you, your officials, and your people, that the frogs be taken away from you and your houses, and remain only in the Nile?"

¹⁰ "Tomorrow," he answered.

Moses replied, "As you have said, so that you may know there is no one like the LORD our God, ¹¹ the frogs will go away from you, your houses, your officials, and your people. The frogs will remain only in the Nile." ¹² After Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, Moses cried out to the LORD for help concerning the frogs that he had brought against Pharaoh. ¹³ The LORD did as Moses had said: the frogs in the houses, courtyards, and fields died. ¹⁴ They piled them in countless heaps, and there was a terrible odor in the land. ¹⁵ But when Pharaoh saw there was relief, he hardened his heart and would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

¹⁶ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron: Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the land, and it will become gnats throughout the land of Egypt." ¹⁷ And they did this. Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff, and when he struck the dust of the land, gnats were on people and animals. All the dust of the land became gnats throughout the land of Egypt. ¹⁸ The magicians tried to produce gnats using their occult practices, but they could not. The gnats remained on people and animals.

¹⁹ "This is the finger of God," the magicians said to Pharaoh. But Pharaoh's heart was hard, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

²⁰ The LORD said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning and present yourself to Pharaoh when you see him going out to the water. Tell him: This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me. ²¹ But if you will not let my people go, then I will send swarms of flies against you, your officials, your people, and your houses. The Egyptians' houses will swarm with flies, and so will the land where they live. ²² But on that day I will give special treatment to the land of Goshen, where my people are living; no flies will be there. This way you will know that I, the LORD, am in the land. ²³ I will make a distinction between my people and your people. This sign will take place tomorrow."

²⁴ And the LORD did this. Thick swarms of flies went into Pharaoh's palace and his officials' houses. Throughout Egypt the land was ruined because of the swarms of flies. ²⁵ Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Go sacrifice to your God within the country."

²⁶ But Moses said, “It would not be right to do that, because what we will sacrifice to the LORD our God is detestable to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice what the Egyptians detest in front of them, won’t they stone us? ²⁷ We must go a distance of three days into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as he instructs us.”

²⁹ “As soon as I leave you,” Moses said, “I will appeal to the LORD, and tomorrow the swarms of flies will depart from Pharaoh, his officials, and his people. But Pharaoh must not act deceptively again by refusing to let the people go and sacrifice to the LORD.” ³⁰ Then Moses left Pharaoh’s presence and appealed to the LORD. ³¹ The LORD did as Moses had said: He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, his officials, and his people; not one was left. ³² But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also and did not let the people go.

9 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh and say to him: This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me. ² But if you refuse to let them go and keep holding them, ³ then the LORD’s hand will bring a severe plague against your livestock in the field — the horses, donkeys, camels, herds, and flocks. ⁴ But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing of all that the Israelites own will die.” ⁵ And the LORD set a time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.” ⁶ The LORD did this the next day. All the Egyptian livestock died, but none among the Israelite livestock died. ⁷ Pharaoh sent messengers who saw that not a single one of the Israelite livestock was dead. But Pharaoh’s heart was hard, and he did not let the people go.

⁸ Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take handfuls of furnace soot, and Moses is to throw it toward heaven in the sight of Pharaoh. ⁹ It will become fine dust over the entire land of Egypt. It will become festering boils on people and animals throughout the land of Egypt.” ¹⁰ So they took furnace soot and stood before Pharaoh. Moses threw it toward heaven, and it became festering boils on people and animals. ¹¹ The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians as well as on all the Egyptians. ¹² But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had told Moses.

¹³ Then the LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning and present yourself to Pharaoh. Tell him: This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me. ¹⁴ For this time I am about to send all my plagues against you, your officials, and your people. Then you will know there is no one like me on the whole earth. ¹⁵ By now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with a plague, and you would have been obliterated from the earth. ¹⁶ However, I have let you live for this purpose: to show you my power and to make my name known on the whole earth. ¹⁷ You are still acting arrogantly against my people by not letting them go. ¹⁸ Tomorrow at this time I will rain down the worst hail that has ever occurred in Egypt from the day it was founded until now. ¹⁹ Therefore give orders to bring your livestock and all that you have in the field into shelters. Every person and animal that is in the field and not brought inside will die when the hail falls on them.”

²² Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven and let there be hail throughout the land of Egypt — on people and animals and every plant of the field in the land of Egypt.” ²³ So Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven, and the LORD sent thunder and hail. Lightning struck the land, and the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt. ²⁴ The hail, with lightning flashing through it, was so severe that nothing like it had occurred in the land of Egypt since it had become a nation. ²⁵ Throughout the land of Egypt, the hail struck down everything in the field, both people and animals. The hail beat down every plant of the field and shattered every tree in the field. ²⁶ The only place it didn’t hail was in the land of Goshen, where the Israelites were.

²⁷ Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. “I have sinned this time,” he said to them. “The LORD is the righteous one, and I and my people are the guilty ones. ²⁸ Make an appeal to the LORD. There has been enough of God’s thunder and hail. I will let you go; you don’t need to stay any longer.”

²⁹ Moses said to him, “When I have left the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD. The thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know the earth belongs to the LORD. ³⁰ But as for you and your officials, I know that you still do not fear the LORD God.”

³¹ The flax and the barley were destroyed because the barley was ripe and the flax was budding, ³² but the wheat and the spelt were not destroyed since they are later crops.

³³ Moses left Pharaoh and the city, and spread out his hands to the LORD. Then the thunder and hail ceased, and rain no longer poured down on the land. ³⁴ When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail, and thunder had ceased, he sinned again and hardened his heart, he and his officials. ³⁵ So Pharaoh’s heart was hard, and he did not let the Israelites go, as the LORD had said through Moses.

10 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials so that I may do these miraculous signs of mine among them, ² and so that you may tell your son and grandson how severely I dealt with the Egyptians and performed miraculous signs among them, and you will know that I am the LORD.”

³ So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and told him, “This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may worship me. ⁴ But if you refuse to let my people go, then tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory. ⁵ They will cover the surface of the land so that no one will be able to see the land. They will eat the remainder left to you that escaped the hail; they will eat every tree you have growing in the fields. ⁶ They will fill your houses, all your officials’ houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians — something your fathers and grandfathers never saw since the time they occupied the land until today.” Then he turned and left Pharaoh’s presence.

⁷ Pharaoh’s officials asked him, “How long must this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, so that they may worship the LORD their God. Don’t you realize yet that Egypt is devastated?”

⁸ So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. “Go, worship the LORD your God,” Pharaoh said. “But exactly who will be going?”

¹² The LORD then said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt, and the locusts will come up over it and eat every plant in the land, everything that the hail left." ¹³ So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD sent an east wind over the land all that day and through the night. By morning the east wind had brought in the locusts. ¹⁴ The locusts went up over the entire land of Egypt and settled on the whole territory of Egypt. Never before had there been such a large number of locusts, and there never will be again. ¹⁵ They covered the surface of the whole land so that the land was black, and they consumed all the plants on the ground and all the fruit on the trees that the hail had left. Nothing green was left on the trees or the plants in the field throughout the land of Egypt.

²¹ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven, and there will be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness that can be felt." ²² So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was thick darkness throughout the land of Egypt for three days. ²³ One person could not see another, and for three days they did not move from where they were. Yet all the Israelites had light where they lived.

²⁴ Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, "Go, worship the LORD. Even your families may go with you; only your flocks and herds must stay behind."

²⁵ Moses responded, "You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings to prepare for the LORD our God. ²⁶ Even our livestock must go with us; not a hoof will be left behind because we will take some of them to worship the LORD our God. We will not know what we will use to worship the LORD until we get there."

²⁷ But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was unwilling to let them go. ²⁸ Pharaoh said to him, "Leave me! Make sure you never see my face again, for on the day you see my face, you will die."

²⁹ "As you have said," Moses replied, "I will never see your face again."

11 The LORD said to Moses, "I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that, he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he will drive you out of here.

² Now announce to the people that both men and women should ask their neighbors for silver and gold items." ³ The LORD gave the people favor with the Egyptians. In addition, Moses himself was very highly regarded in the land of Egypt by Pharaoh's officials and the people.

12 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: ² "This month is to be the beginning of months for you; it is the first month of your year. ³ Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month they must each select an animal of the flock according to their fathers' families, one animal per family. ⁴ If the household is too small for a whole animal, that person and the neighbor nearest his house are to select one based on the combined number of people; you should apportion the animal according to what each will eat. ⁵ You must have an unblemished animal, a year-old male; you may take it from either the sheep or the goats. ⁶ You are to keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembly of the community of Israel will slaughter the animals at twilight. ⁷ They must take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses where they eat them. ⁸ They are to eat the meat that night; they should eat it, roasted over the fire along with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ⁹ Do not eat any of it raw or cooked in boiling water, but only roasted over fire — its head as well as its legs and inner organs. ¹⁰ You must not leave any of it until morning; any part of it left until morning you must burn. ¹¹ Here is how you must eat it: You must be dressed for travel, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. You are to eat it in a hurry; it is the LORD's Passover.

¹² "I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night and strike every firstborn male in the land of Egypt, both people and animals. I am the LORD; I will execute judgments against all the gods of Egypt. ¹³ The blood on the houses where you are staying will be a distinguishing mark for you; when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No plague will be among you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

¹⁴ "This day is to be a memorial for you, and you must celebrate it as a festival to the LORD. You are to celebrate it throughout your generations as a permanent statute. ¹⁵ You must eat unleavened bread for seven days. On the first day you must remove yeast from your houses. Whoever eats what is leavened from the first day through the seventh day must be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶ You are to hold a sacred assembly on the first day and another sacred assembly on the seventh day. No work may be done on those days except for preparing what people need to eat — you may do only that.

divisions out of the land of Egypt. You must observe this day throughout your generations as a permanent statute.¹⁸ You are to eat unleavened bread in the first month, from the evening of the fourteenth day of the month until the evening of the twenty-first day.¹⁹ Yeast must not be found in your houses for seven days. If anyone eats something leavened, that person, whether a resident alien or native of the land, must be cut off from the community of Israel.²⁰ Do not eat anything leavened; eat unleavened bread in all your homes."

²¹Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Go, select an animal from the flock according to your families, and slaughter the Passover animal.²² Take a cluster of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and brush the lintel and the two doorposts with some of the blood in the basin. None of you may go out the door of his house until morning.²³ When the LORD passes through to strike Egypt and sees the blood on the lintel and the two doorposts, he will pass over the door and not let the destroyer enter your houses to strike you.

³³Now the Egyptians pressured the people in order to send them quickly out of the country, for they said, "We're all going to die!"³⁴ So the people took their dough before it was leavened, with their kneading bowls wrapped up in their clothes on their shoulders.

³⁷The Israelites traveled from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand able-bodied men on foot, besides their families.³⁸ A mixed crowd also went up with them, along with a huge number of livestock, both flocks and herds.³⁹ The people baked the dough they had brought out of Egypt into unleavened loaves, since it had no yeast; for when they were driven out of Egypt, they could not delay and had not prepared provisions for themselves.

⁴⁰The time that the Israelites lived in Egypt was 430 years.⁴¹ At the end of 430 years, on that same day, all the LORD's military divisions went out from the land of Egypt.⁴² It was a night of vigil in honor of the LORD, because he would bring them out of the land of Egypt. This same night is in honor of the LORD, a night vigil for all the Israelites throughout their generations.

⁴³The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the statute of the Passover: no foreigner may eat it.⁴⁴ But any slave a man has purchased may eat it, after you have circumcised him.⁴⁵ A temporary resident or hired worker may not eat the Passover.⁴⁶ It is to be eaten in one house. You may not take any of the meat outside the house, and you may not break any of its bones.⁴⁷ The whole community of Israel must celebrate it.⁴⁸ If an alien resides among you and wants to observe the LORD's Passover, every male in his household must be circumcised, and then he may participate; he will become like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat it.⁴⁹ The same law will apply to both the native and the alien who resides among you."

⁵⁰Then all the Israelites did this; they did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.⁵¹ On that same day the LORD brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt according to their military divisions.

13 The LORD spoke to Moses:² "Consecrate every firstborn male to me, the firstborn from every womb among the Israelites, both man and domestic animal; it is mine."

³Then Moses said to the people, "Remember this day when you came out of Egypt, out of the place of slavery, for the LORD brought you out of here by the strength of his hand. Nothing leavened may be eaten.⁴ Today, in the month of Abib, you are going out.⁵ When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which he swore to your fathers that he would give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you must carry out this ceremony in this month.⁶ For seven days you must eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there is to be a festival to the LORD.⁷ Unleavened bread is to be eaten for those seven days. Nothing leavened may be found among you, and no yeast may be found among you in all your territory.⁸ On that day explain to your son, 'This is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.'⁹ Let it serve as a sign for you on your hand and as a reminder on your forehead, so that the LORD's instruction may be in your mouth; for the LORD brought you out of Egypt with a strong hand.¹⁰ Keep this statute at its appointed time from year to year.

¹⁴"In the future, when your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' say to him, 'By the strength of his hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the place of slavery.¹⁵ When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed every firstborn male in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of humans and the firstborn of livestock. That is why I sacrifice to the LORD all the firstborn of the womb that are males, but I redeem all the firstborn of my sons.'¹⁶ So let it be a sign on your hand and a symbol on your forehead, for the LORD brought us out of Egypt by the strength of his hand."

¹⁷When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them along the road to the land of the Philistines, even though it was nearby; for God said, "The people will change their minds and return to Egypt if they face war."¹⁸ So he led the people around toward the Red Sea along the road of the wilderness. And the Israelites left the land of Egypt in battle formation.

¹⁹ Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, because Joseph had made the Israelites swear a solemn oath, saying, "God will certainly come to your aid; then you must take my bones with you from this place."

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses: ² "Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp in front of Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea; you must camp in front of Baal-zephon, facing it by the sea. ³ Pharaoh will say of the Israelites: They are wandering around the land in confusion; the wilderness has boxed them in. ⁴ I will harden Pharaoh's heart so that he will pursue them. Then I will receive glory by means of Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD." So the Israelites did this.

⁵ When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about the people and said: "What have we done? We have released Israel from serving us." ⁶ So he got his chariot ready and took his troops with him; ⁷ he took six hundred of the best chariots and all the rest of the chariots of Egypt, with officers in each one. ⁸ The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the Israelites, who were going out defiantly. ⁹ The Egyptians — all Pharaoh's horses and chariots, his horsemen, and his army — chased after them and caught up with them as they camped by the sea beside Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon.

¹⁰ As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and there were the Egyptians coming after them! The Israelites were terrified and cried out to the LORD for help. ¹¹ They said to Moses: "Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt? ¹² Isn't this what we told you in Egypt: Leave us alone so that we may serve the Egyptians? ¹³ It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness."

¹³ But Moses said to the people, "Don't be afraid. Stand firm and see the LORD's salvation that he will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians you see today, you will never see again. ¹⁴ The LORD will fight for you, and you must be quiet."

¹⁵ The LORD said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to break camp. ¹⁶ As for you, lift up your staff, stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground. ¹⁷ As for me, I am going to harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them, and I will receive glory by means of Pharaoh, all his army, and his chariots and horsemen. ¹⁸ The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I receive glory through Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen."

¹⁹ Then the angel of God, who was going in front of the Israelite forces, moved and went behind them. The pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and stood behind them. ²⁰ It came between the Egyptian and Israelite forces. There was cloud and darkness, it lit up the night, and neither group came near the other all night long.

²¹ Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The LORD drove the sea back with a powerful east wind all that night and turned the sea into dry land. So the waters were divided, ²² and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with the waters like a wall to them on their right and their left.

²⁶ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the water may come back on the Egyptians, on their chariots and horsemen." ²⁷ So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea returned to its normal depth. While the Egyptians were trying to escape from it, the LORD threw them into the sea. ²⁸ The water came back and covered the chariots and horsemen, plus the entire army of Pharaoh that had gone after them into the sea. Not even one of them survived.

²⁹ But the Israelites had walked through the sea on dry ground, with the waters like a wall to them on their right and their left. ³⁰ That day the LORD saved Israel from the power of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. ³¹ When Israel saw the great power that the LORD used against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD and believed in him and in his servant Moses.

15 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD. They said:

- I will sing to the LORD,
for he is highly exalted;
he has thrown the horse
and its rider into the sea.
- ² The LORD is my strength and my song;
he has become my salvation.
This is my God, and I will praise him,
my father's God, and I will exalt him.
- ³ The LORD is a warrior;
the LORD is his name.
- ⁴ He threw Pharaoh's chariots and his army into the sea;
the elite of his officers were drowned in the Red Sea.
- ⁵ The floods covered them;
they sank to the depths like a stone.
- ⁶ LORD, your right hand is glorious in power.
LORD, your right hand shattered the enemy.
- ⁷ You overthrew your adversaries
by your great majesty.
You unleashed your burning wrath;
it consumed them like stubble.
- ⁸ The water heaped up at the blast
from your nostrils;
the currents stood firm like a dam.
The watery depths congealed in the heart of the sea.
- ⁹ The enemy said:
"I will pursue, I will overtake,
I will divide the spoil.
My desire will be gratified at their expense.
I will draw my sword;
my hand will destroy them."

- ¹⁰ But you blew with your breath,
and the sea covered them.
They sank like lead
in the mighty waters.
- ¹¹ LORD, who is like you among the gods?
Who is like you, glorious in holiness,
revered with praises, performing wonders?
- ¹² You stretched out your right hand,
and the earth swallowed them.
- ¹³ With your faithful love,
you will lead the people
you have redeemed;
you will guide them to your holy dwelling with your strength.
- ¹⁴ When the peoples hear, they will shudder;
anguish will seize the inhabitants of Philistia.
- ¹⁵ Then the chiefs of Edom will be terrified;
trembling will seize the leaders of Moab;
all the inhabitants of Canaan will panic;
terror and dread will fall on them.
- ¹⁶ They will be as still as a stone because of your powerful arm until your people pass by, LORD, until the people whom you purchased pass by.
- ¹⁷ You will bring them in and plant them
on the mountain of your possession;
LORD, you have prepared the place
for your dwelling;
LORD, your hands have established the sanctuary.
- ¹⁸ The LORD will reign forever and ever!

¹⁹When Pharaoh's horses with his chariots and horsemen went into the sea, the LORD brought the water of the sea back over them. But the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground. ²⁰Then the prophetess Miriam, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women came out following her with tambourines and dancing. ²¹Miriam sang to them:

Sing to the LORD,
for he is highly exalted;
he has thrown the horse

²²Then Moses led Israel on from the Red Sea, and they went out to the Wilderness of Shur. They journeyed for three days in the wilderness without finding water. ²³They came to Marah, but they could not drink the water at Marah because it was bitter—that is why it was named Marah. ²⁴The people grumbled to Moses, "What are we going to drink?" ²⁵So he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree. When he threw it into the water, the water became drinkable.

The LORD made a statute and ordinance for them at Marah, and he tested them there. ²⁶He said, "If you will carefully obey the LORD your God, do what is right in his sight, pay attention to his commands, and keep all his statutes, I will not inflict any illnesses on you that I inflicted on the Egyptians. For I am the LORD who heals you."

²⁷Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy date palms, and they camped there by the water.

16 The entire Israelite community departed from Elim and came to the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had left the land of Egypt. ²The entire Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. ³The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the LORD's hand in the land of Egypt, when we sat by pots of meat and ate all the bread we wanted. Instead, you brought us into this wilderness to make this whole assembly die of hunger!"

⁴Then the LORD said to Moses, "I am going to rain bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day. This way I will test them to see whether or not they will follow my instructions. ⁵On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days."

⁶So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites: "This evening you will know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, ⁷and in the morning you will see the LORD's glory because he has heard your complaints about him. For who are we that you complain about us?" ⁸Moses continued, "The LORD will give you meat to eat this evening and all the bread you want in the morning, for he has heard the complaints that you are raising against him. Who are we? Your complaints are not against us but against the LORD."

⁹Then Moses told Aaron, "Say to the entire Israelite community, 'Come before the LORD, for he has heard your complaints.'"¹⁰ As Aaron was speaking to the entire Israelite community, they turned toward the wilderness, and there in a cloud the LORD's glory appeared.

¹¹The LORD spoke to Moses, ¹²"I have heard the complaints of the Israelites. Tell them: At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will eat bread until you are full. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God."

¹³So at evening quail came and covered the camp. In the morning there was a layer of dew all around the camp. ¹⁴When the layer of dew evaporated, there were fine flakes on the desert surface, as fine as frost on the ground. ¹⁵When the Israelites saw it, they asked one another, "What is it?" because they didn't know what it was.

Moses told them, "It is the bread the LORD has given you to eat. ¹⁶This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Gather as much of it as each person needs to eat. You may take two quarts per individual, according to the number of people each of you has in his tent.'"

¹⁷So the Israelites did this. Some gathered a lot, some a little. ¹⁸When they measured it by quarts, the person who gathered a lot had no surplus, and the person who gathered a little had no shortage. Each gathered as much as he needed to eat. ¹⁹Moses said to them, "No one is to let any of it remain until morning." ²⁰But they didn't listen to Moses; some people left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and stank. Therefore Moses was angry with them.

²¹They gathered it every morning. Each gathered as much as he needed to eat, but when the sun grew hot, it melted. ²²On the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, four quarts apiece, and all the leaders of the community came and reported this to Moses. ²³He told them, "This is what the LORD has said: 'Tomorrow is a day of complete rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you want to bake, and boil what you want to boil, and set aside everything left over to be kept until morning.'"

²⁴So they set it aside until morning as Moses commanded, and it didn't stink or have maggots in it. ²⁵"Eat it today," Moses said, "because today is a Sabbath to the LORD. Today you won't find any in the field. ²⁶For six days you will gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none."

²⁷Yet on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, but they did not find any. ²⁸Then the LORD said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep my commands and instructions? ²⁹ Understand that the LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore on the sixth day he will give you two days' worth of bread. Each of you stay where you are; no one is to leave his place on the seventh day." ³⁰ So the people rested on the seventh day.

³¹ The house of Israel named the substance manna. It resembled coriander seed, was white, and tasted like wafers made with honey. ³² Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded: Two quarts of it are to be preserved throughout your generations, so that they may see the bread I fed you in the wilderness when I brought you out of the land of Egypt."

17 The entire Israelite community left the Wilderness of Sin, moving from one place to the next according to the LORD's command. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. ² So the people complained to Moses, "Give us water to drink."

"Why are you complaining to me?" Moses replied to them. "Why are you testing the LORD?"

³ But the people thirsted there for water and grumbled against Moses. They said, "Why did you ever bring us up from Egypt to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?"

⁴ Then Moses cried out to the LORD, "What should I do with these people? In a little while they will stone me!"

⁵ The LORD answered Moses, "Go on ahead of the people and take some of the elders of Israel with you. Take the staff you struck the Nile with in your hand and go. ⁶ I am going to stand there in front of you on the rock at Horeb; when you hit the rock, water will come out of it and the people will drink." Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel. ⁷ He named the place Massah and Meribah because the Israelites complained, and because they tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

¹⁴ The LORD then said to Moses, "Write this down on a scroll as a reminder and recite it to Joshua: I will completely blot out the memory of Amalek under heaven."

¹⁵ And Moses built an altar and named it, "The LORD Is My Banner." ¹⁶ He said, "Indeed, my hand is lifted up toward the LORD's throne. The LORD will be at war with Amalek from generation to generation."

18 Moses's father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian, heard about everything that God had done for Moses and for God's people Israel when the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt.

² Now Jethro, Moses's father-in-law, had taken in Zipporah, Moses's wife, after he had sent her back, ³ along with her two sons, one of whom was named Gershom (because Moses had said, "I have been a resident alien in a foreign land") ⁴ and the other Eliezer (because he had said, "The God of my father was my helper and rescued me from Pharaoh's sword").

⁵ Moses's father-in-law Jethro, along with Moses's wife and sons, came to him in the wilderness where he was camped at the mountain of God. ⁶ He sent word to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."

⁷ So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down, and then kissed him. They asked each other how they had been and went into the tent. ⁸ Moses recounted to his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardships that confronted them on the way, and how the LORD rescued them.

⁹ Jethro rejoiced over all the good things the LORD had done for Israel when he rescued them from the power of the Egyptians. ¹⁰ "Blessed be the LORD," Jethro exclaimed, "who rescued you from the power of Egypt and from the power of Pharaoh. He has rescued the people from under the power of Egypt! ¹¹ Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods, because he did wonders when the Egyptians acted arrogantly against Israel."

¹² Then Jethro, Moses's father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat a meal with Moses's father-in-law in God's presence.

¹⁴ When Moses's father-in-law saw everything he was doing for them he asked, "What is this thing you're doing for the people? Why are you alone sitting as judge, while all the people stand around you from morning until evening?"

¹⁵ Moses replied to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God. ¹⁶ Whenever they have a dispute, it comes to me, and I make a decision between one man and another. I teach them God's statutes and laws."

¹⁷ "What you're doing is not good," Moses's father-in-law said to him. ¹⁸ "You will certainly wear out both yourself and these people who are with you, because the task is too heavy for you. You can't do it alone. ¹⁹ Now listen to me; I will give you some advice, and God be with you. You be the one to represent the people before God and bring their cases to him. ²⁰ Instruct them about the statutes and laws, and teach them the way to live and what they must do. ²¹ But you should select from all the people able men, God-fearing, trustworthy, and hating dishonest profit. Place them over the people as commanders of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens. ²² They should judge the people at all times. Then they can bring you every major case but judge every minor case themselves. In this way you will lighten your load, and they will bear it with you. ²³ If you do this, and God so directs you, you will be able to endure, and also all these people will be able to go home satisfied."

²⁴ Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said. ²⁵ So Moses chose able men from all Israel and made them leaders over the people as commanders of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens.²⁶ They judged the people at all times; they would bring the hard cases to Moses, but they would judge every minor case themselves.

²⁷ Moses let his father-in-law go, and he journeyed to his own land.

19 In the third month from the very day the Israelites left the land of Egypt, they came to the Sinai Wilderness.² They traveled from Rephidim, came to the Sinai Wilderness, and camped in the wilderness. Israel camped there in front of the mountain.

³ Moses went up the mountain to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain: "This is what you must say to the house of Jacob and explain to the Israelites:⁴ 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.⁵ Now if you will carefully listen to me and keep my covenant, you will be my own possession out of all the peoples, although the whole earth is mine,⁶ and you will be my kingdom of priests and my holy nation.' These are the words that you are to say to the Israelites."

⁷ After Moses came back, he summoned the elders of the people and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him.⁸ Then all the people responded together, "We will do all that the LORD has spoken." So Moses brought the people's words back to the LORD.

⁹ The LORD said to Moses, "I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people will hear when I speak with you and will always believe you." Moses reported the people's words to the LORD,¹⁰ and the LORD told Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. They must wash their clothes¹¹ and be prepared by the third day, for on the third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.¹² Put boundaries for the people all around the mountain and say: Be careful that you don't go up on the mountain or touch its base. Anyone who touches the mountain must be put to death.¹³ No hand may touch him; instead he will be stoned or shot with arrows and not live, whether animal or human. When the ram's horn sounds a long blast, they may go up the mountain."

¹⁴ Then Moses came down from the mountain to the people and consecrated them, and they washed their clothes.¹⁵ He said to the people, "Be prepared by the third day. Do not have sexual relations with women."

¹⁶ On the third day, when morning came, there was thunder and lightning, a thick cloud on the mountain, and a very loud trumpet sound, so that all the people in the camp shuddered.¹⁷ Then Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.¹⁸ Mount Sinai was completely enveloped in smoke because the LORD came down on it in fire. Its smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain shook violently.¹⁹ As the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and God answered him in the thunder.

²⁰ The LORD came down on Mount Sinai at the top of the mountain. Then the LORD summoned Moses to the top of the mountain, and he went up.²¹ The LORD directed Moses, "Go down and warn the people not to break through to see the LORD; otherwise many of them will die.²² Even the priests who come near the LORD must consecrate themselves, or the LORD will break out in anger against them."

²³ Moses responded to the LORD, "The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, since you warned us: Put a boundary around the mountain and consecrate it."²⁴ And the LORD replied to him, "Go down and come back with Aaron. But the priests and the people must not break through to come up to the LORD, or he will break out in anger against them."²⁵ So Moses went down to the people and told them.

20 Then God spoke all these words:

- ²¹ I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery.
- ³ Do not have other gods besides me.
- ⁴ Do not make an idol for yourself, whether in the shape of anything in the heavens above or on the earth below or in the waters under the earth.⁵ Do not bow in worship to them, and do not serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the fathers' iniquity, to the third and fourth generations of those who hate me,⁶ but showing faithful love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commands.
- ⁷ Do not misuse the name of the LORD your God, because the LORD will not leave anyone unpunished who misuses his name.
- ⁸ Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy:⁹ You are to labor six days and do all your work,¹⁰ but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. You must not do any work — you, your son or daughter, your male or female servant, your livestock, or the resident alien who is within your city gates.¹¹ For the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and everything in them in six days; then he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and declared it holy.
- ¹² Honor your father and your mother so that you may have a long life in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.
- ¹³ Do not murder.
- ¹⁴ Do not commit adultery.
- ¹⁵ Do not steal.
- ¹⁶ Do not give false testimony against your neighbor.
- ¹⁷ Do not covet your neighbor's house. Do not covet your neighbor's wife, his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.
- ¹⁸ All the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain surrounded by smoke. When the people saw it they trembled and stood at a distance.¹⁹ "You speak to us, and we will listen," they said to Moses, "but don't let God speak to us, or we will die."
- ²⁰ Moses responded to the people, "Don't be afraid, for God has come to test you, so that you will fear him and will not sin."²¹ And the people remained standing at a distance as Moses approached the total darkness where God was.
- ²² Then the LORD told Moses, "This is what you are to say to the Israelites: You have seen that I have spoken to you from heaven.²³ Do not make gods of silver to rival me; do not make gods of gold for yourselves.
- ²⁴ "Make an earthen altar for me, and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, your flocks and herds. I will come to you and bless you in every place where I cause my name to be remembered.²⁵ If you make a stone altar for me, do not build it out of cut stones. If you use your chisel on it, you will defile it.²⁶ Do not go up to my altar on steps, so that your nakedness is not exposed on it.

21 “These are the ordinances that you are to set before them:

² “When you buy a Hebrew slave, he is to serve for six years; then in the seventh he is to leave as a free man without paying anything. ³ If he arrives alone, he is to leave alone; if he arrives with a wife, his wife is to leave with him. ⁴ If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children belong to her master, and the man must leave alone.

⁵ “But if the slave declares, ‘I love my master, my wife, and my children; I do not want to leave as a free man,’ ⁶ his master is to bring him to the judges and then bring him to the door or doorpost. His master will pierce his ear with an awl, and he will serve his master for life.

⁷ “When a man sells his daughter as a concubine, she is not to leave as the male slaves do. ⁸ If she is displeasing to her master, who chose her for himself, then he must let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to foreigners because he has acted treacherously toward her. ⁹ Or if he chooses her for his son, he must deal with her according to the customary treatment of daughters. ¹⁰ If he takes an additional wife, he must not reduce the food, clothing, or marital rights of the first wife. ¹¹ And if he does not do these three things for her, she may leave free of charge, without any payment.

¹² “Whoever strikes a person so that he dies must be put to death. ¹³ But if he did not intend any harm, and yet God allowed it to happen, I will appoint a place for you where he may flee. ¹⁴ If a person schemes and willfully acts against his neighbor to murder him, you must take him from my altar to be put to death.

¹⁵ “Whoever strikes his father or his mother must be put to death.

¹⁶ “Whoever kidnaps a person must be put to death, whether he sells him or the person is found in his possession.

¹⁷ “Whoever curses his father or his mother must be put to death.

¹⁸ “When men quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or his fist, and the injured man does not die but is confined to bed, ¹⁹ if he can later get up and walk around outside leaning on his staff, then the one who struck him will be exempt from punishment. Nevertheless, he must pay for his lost work time and provide for his complete recovery.

²² “When men get in a fight and hit a pregnant woman so that her children are born prematurely but there is no injury, the one who hit her must be fined as the woman’s husband demands from him, and he must pay according to judicial assessment. ²³ If there is an injury, then you must give life for life, ²⁴ eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, ²⁵ burn for burn, bruise for bruise, wound for wound.

²⁸ “When an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox must be stoned, and its meat may not be eaten, but the ox’s owner is innocent. ²⁹ However, if the ox was in the habit of goring, and its owner has been warned yet does not restrain it, and it kills a man or a woman, the ox must be stoned, and its owner must also be put to death. ³⁰ If instead a ransom is demanded of him, he can pay a redemption price for his life in the full amount demanded from him. ³¹ If it gores a son or a daughter, he is to be dealt with according to this same law. ³² If the ox gores a male or female slave, he must give thirty shekels of silver to the slave’s master, and the ox must be stoned.

³³ “When a man uncovers a pit or digs a pit, and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it, ³⁴ the owner of the pit must give compensation; he must pay to its owner, but the dead animal will become his.

³⁵ “When a man’s ox injures his neighbor’s ox and it dies, they must sell the live ox and divide its proceeds; they must also divide the dead animal. ³⁶ If, however, it is known that the ox was in the habit of goring, yet its owner has not restrained it, he must compensate fully, ox for ox; the dead animal will become his.

22 “When a man steals an ox or a sheep and butchers it or sells it, he must repay five cattle for the ox or four sheep for the sheep. ² If a thief is caught in the act of breaking in, and he is beaten to death, no one is guilty of bloodshed. ³ But if this happens after sunrise, the householder is guilty of bloodshed. A thief must make full restitution. If he is unable, he is to be sold because of his theft. ⁴ If what was stolen — whether ox, donkey, or sheep — is actually found alive in his possession, he must repay double.

¹⁰ “When a man gives his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any other animal to care for, but it dies, is injured, or is stolen, while no one is watching, ¹¹ there must be an oath before the LORD between the two of them to determine whether or not he has taken his neighbor’s property. Its owner must accept the oath, and the other man does not have to make restitution. ¹² But if, in fact, the animal was stolen from his custody, he must make restitution to its owner. ¹³ If it was actually torn apart by a wild animal, he is to bring it as evidence; he does not have to make restitution for the torn carcass.

¹⁴ “When a man borrows an animal from his neighbor, and it is injured or dies while its owner is not there with it, the man must make full restitution. ¹⁵ If its owner is there with it, the man does not have to make restitution. If it was rented, the loss is covered by its rental price.

¹⁶ “If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged, and he sleeps with her, he must certainly pay the bridal price for her to be his wife. ¹⁷ If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he must pay an amount in silver equal to the bridal price for virgins.

¹⁸ "Do not allow a sorceress to live.

¹⁹ "Whoever has sexual intercourse with an animal must be put to death.

²⁰ "Whoever sacrifices to any gods, except the LORD alone, is to be set apart for destruction.

²¹ "You must not exploit a resident alien or oppress him, since you were resident aliens in the land of Egypt.

²² "You must not mistreat any widow or fatherless child.

²³ If you do mistreat them, they will no doubt cry to me, and I will certainly hear their cry. ²⁴ My anger will burn, and I will kill you with the sword; then your wives will be widows and your children fatherless.

²⁵ "If you lend silver to my people, to the poor person among you, you must not be like a creditor to him; you must not charge him interest.

²⁶ "If you ever take your neighbor's cloak as collateral, return it to him before sunset. ²⁷ For it is his only covering; it is the clothing for his body. What will he sleep in? And if he cries out to me, I will listen because I am gracious.

³¹ "Be my holy people. You must not eat the meat of a mauled animal found in the field; throw it to the dogs.

23 "You must not spread a false report. Do not join the wicked to be a malicious witness.

² "You must not follow a crowd in wrongdoing. Do not testify in a lawsuit and go along with a crowd to pervert justice. ³ Do not show favoritism to a poor person in his lawsuit.

⁴ "If you come across your enemy's stray ox or donkey, you must return it to him.

⁵ "If you see the donkey of someone who hates you lying helpless under its load, and you want to refrain from helping it, you must help with it.

⁶ "You must not deny justice to a poor person among you in his lawsuit. ⁷ Stay far away from a false accusation. Do not kill the innocent and the just, because I will not justify the guilty. ⁸ You must not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and corrupts the words of the righteous. ⁹ You must not oppress a resident alien; you yourselves know how it feels to be a resident alien because you were resident aliens in the land of Egypt.

¹⁰ "Sow your land for six years and gather its produce.

¹¹ But during the seventh year you are to let it rest and leave it uncultivated, so that the poor among your people may eat from it and the wild animals may consume what they leave. Do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.

¹² "Do your work for six days but rest on the seventh day so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female slave as well as the resident alien may be refreshed.

¹³ "Pay strict attention to everything I have said to you. You must not invoke the names of other gods; they must not be heard on your lips.

¹⁴ "Celebrate a festival in my honor three times a year.

¹⁵ Observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread. As I commanded you, you are to eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, because you came out of Egypt in that month. No one is to appear before me empty-handed. ¹⁶ Also observe the Festival of Harvest with the firstfruits of your produce from what you sow in the field, and observe the Festival of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather your produce from the field. ¹⁷ Three times a year all your males are to appear before the LORD God.

¹⁸ "You must not offer the blood of my sacrifices with anything leavened. The fat of my festival offering must not remain until morning.

¹⁹ "Bring the best of the firstfruits of your land to the house of the LORD your God.

"You must not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

²⁰ "I am going to send an angel before you to protect you on the way and bring you to the place I have prepared. ²¹ Be attentive to him and listen to him. Do not defy him, because he will not forgive your acts of rebellion, for my name is in him. ²² But if you will carefully obey him and do everything I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes. ²³ For my angel will go before you and bring you to the land of the Amorites, Hethites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and Jebusites, and I will wipe them out. ²⁴ Do not bow in worship to their gods, and do not serve them. Do not imitate their practices. Instead, demolish them and smash their sacred pillars to pieces. ²⁵ Serve the LORD your God, and he will bless your bread and your water. I will remove illnesses from you. ²⁶ No woman will miscarry or be childless in your land. I will give you the full number of your days.

²⁷ "I will cause the people ahead of you to feel terror and will throw into confusion all the nations you come to. I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you in retreat. ²⁸ I will send horns in front of you, and they will drive the Hivites, Canaanites, and Hethites away from you. ²⁹ I will not drive them out ahead of you in a single year; otherwise, the land would become desolate, and wild animals would multiply against you. ³⁰ I will drive them out little by little ahead of you until you have become numerous and take possession of the land. ³¹ I will set your borders from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, and from the wilderness to the Euphrates River. For I will place the inhabitants of the land under your control, and you will drive them out ahead of you. ³² You must not make a covenant with them or their gods. ³³ They must not remain in your land, or else they will make you sin against me. If you serve their gods, it will be a snare for you."

24 Then he said to Moses, "Go up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of Israel's elders, and bow in worship at a distance. ² Moses alone is to approach the LORD, but the others are not to approach, and the people are not to go up with him."

³ Moses came and told the people all the commands of the LORD and all the ordinances. Then all the people responded with a single voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has commanded." ⁴ And Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. He rose early the next morning and set up an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel at the base of the mountain. ⁵ Then he sent out young Israelite men, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed bulls as fellowship offerings to the LORD. ⁶ Moses took half the blood and set it in basins; the other half of the blood he splattered on the altar. ⁷ He then took the covenant scroll and read it aloud to the people. They responded, "We will do and obey all that the LORD has commanded."

⁸ Moses took the blood, splattered it on the people, and said, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you concerning all these words."

¹²The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and stay there so that I may give you the stone tablets with the law and commandments I have written for their instruction."

25 The LORD spoke to Moses: ²"Tell the Israelites to take an offering for me. You are to take my offering from everyone who is willing to give. ³This is the offering you are to receive from them: gold, silver, and bronze; ⁴blue, purple, and scarlet yarn; fine linen and goat hair; ⁵ram skins dyed red and fine leather; acacia wood; ⁶oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense; ⁷and onyx along with other gemstones for mounting on the ephod and breastpiece.

⁸"They are to make a sanctuary for me so that I may dwell among them. ⁹You must make it according to all that I show you — the pattern of the tabernacle as well as the pattern of all its furnishings.

¹⁰"They are to make an ark of acacia wood, forty-five inches long, twenty-seven inches wide, and twenty-seven inches high. ¹¹Overlay it with pure gold; overlay it both inside and out. Also make a gold molding all around it. ¹²Cast four gold rings for it and place them on its four feet, two rings on one side and two rings on the other side. ¹³Make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. ¹⁴Insert the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark in order to carry the ark with them. ¹⁵The poles are to remain in the rings of the ark; they must not be removed from it. ¹⁶Put the tablets of the testimony that I will give you into the ark. ¹⁷Make a mercy seat of pure gold, forty-five inches long and twenty-seven inches wide. ¹⁸Make two cherubim of gold; make them of hammered work at the two ends of the mercy seat. ¹⁹Make one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other end. At its two ends, make the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat. ²⁰The cherubim are to have wings spread out above, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and are to face one another. The faces of the cherubim should be toward the mercy seat. ²¹Set the mercy seat on top of the ark and put the tablets of the testimony that I will give you into the ark. ²²I will meet with you there above the mercy seat, between the two cherubim that are over the ark of the testimony; I will speak with you from there about all that I command you regarding the Israelites.

at its four legs. ²⁷The rings should be next to the frame as holders for the poles to carry the table. ²⁸Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, and the table can be carried by them. ²⁹You are also to make its plates and cups, as well as its pitchers and bowls for pouring drink offerings. Make them out of pure gold. ³⁰Put the Bread of the Presence on the table before me at all times.

³¹"You are to make a lampstand out of pure, hammered gold. It is to be made of one piece: its base and shaft, its ornamental cups, and its buds and petals. ³²Six branches are to extend from its sides, three branches of the lampstand from one side and three branches of the lampstand from the other side. ³³There are to be three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a bud and petals, on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a bud and petals, on the next branch. It is to be this way for the six branches that extend from the lampstand. ³⁴There are to be four cups shaped like almond blossoms on the lampstand shaft along with its buds and petals. ³⁵For the six branches that extend from the lampstand, a bud must be under the first pair of branches from it, a bud under the second pair of branches from it, and a bud under the third pair of branches from it. ³⁶Their buds and branches are to be of one piece. All of it is to be a single hammered piece of pure gold.

26 "You are to construct the tabernacle itself with ten curtains. You must make them of finely spun linen, and blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, with a design of cherubim worked into them. ²Each curtain should be forty-two feet long and six feet wide; all the curtains are to have the same measurements. ³Five of the curtains should be joined together, and the other five curtains joined together. ⁴Make loops of blue yarn on the edge of the last curtain in the first set, and do the same on the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set. ⁵Make fifty loops on the one curtain and make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain in the second set, so that the loops line up together. ⁶Also make fifty gold clasps and join the curtains together with the clasps, so that the tabernacle may be a single unit.

⁷"You are to make curtains of goat hair for a tent over the tabernacle; make eleven of these curtains. ⁸Each curtain should be forty-five feet long and six feet wide. All eleven curtains are to have the same measurements. ⁹Join five of the curtains by themselves, and the other six curtains by themselves. Then fold the sixth curtain double at the front of the tent. ¹⁰Make fifty loops on the edge of one curtain, the outermost in the first set, and make fifty loops on the edge of the corresponding curtain of the second set. ¹¹Make fifty bronze clasps; put the clasps through the loops and join the tent together so that it is a single unit. ¹²As for the flap that remains from the tent curtains, the left-over half curtain is to hang over the back of the tabernacle. ¹³What remains along the length of the tent curtains — a half yard on one side and a half yard on the other side — should hang over the sides of the tabernacle on either side to cover it. ¹⁴Make a covering for the tent from ram skins dyed red and a covering of fine leather on top of that.

and twenty-seven inches wide.¹⁷ Each support will have two tenons for joining. Do the same for all the supports of the tabernacle.¹⁸ Make the supports for the tabernacle as follows: twenty supports for the south side,¹⁹ and make forty silver bases under the twenty supports, two bases under the first support for its two tenons, and two bases under the next support for its two tenons;²⁰ twenty supports for the second side of the tabernacle, the north side,²¹ along with their forty silver bases, two bases under the first support and two bases under each support;²² and make six supports for the west side of the tabernacle.²³ Make two additional supports for the two back corners of the tabernacle.²⁴ They are to be paired at the bottom, and joined together at the top in a single ring. So it should be for both of them; they will serve as the two corners.²⁵ There are to be eight supports with their silver bases: sixteen bases; two bases under the first support and two bases under each support.

27 You are to construct the altar of acacia wood. The altar must be square, 7 ½ feet long, and 7 ½ feet wide; it must be 4 ½ feet high.² Make horns for it on its four corners; the horns are to be of one piece. Overlay it with bronze.³ Make its pots for removing ashes, and its shovels, basins, meat forks, and firepans; make all its utensils of bronze.⁴ Construct a grate for it of bronze mesh, and make four bronze rings on the mesh at its four corners.⁵ Set it below, under the altar's ledge, so that the mesh comes halfway up the altar.⁶ Then make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze.⁷ The poles are to be inserted into the rings so that the poles are on two sides of the altar when it is carried.⁸ Construct the altar with boards so that it is hollow. They are to make it just as it was shown to you on the mountain.

⁹ You are to make the courtyard for the tabernacle. Make hangings for the south side of the courtyard out of finely spun linen, 150 feet long on that side¹⁰ including twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and silver bands for the posts.¹¹ And so make hangings 150 feet long for the north side, including twenty posts and their twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and silver bands for the posts.¹² For the width of the courtyard, make hangings 75 feet long for the west side, including their ten posts and their ten bases.¹³ And for the width of the courtyard on the east side toward the sunrise, 75 feet,¹⁴ make hangings 22 ½ feet long for one side of the gate, including their three posts and their three bases.¹⁵ And make hangings 22 ½ feet long for the other side, including their three posts and their three bases.¹⁶ The gate of the courtyard is to have a 30-foot screen embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely spun linen. It is to have four posts and their four bases.

¹⁷ All the posts around the courtyard are to be banded with silver and have silver hooks and bronze bases.¹⁸ The courtyard is to be 150 feet long, 75 feet wide at each end, and 7 ½ feet high, all of it made of finely spun linen. The bases of the posts are to be bronze.¹⁹ All the utensils of the tabernacle for every use and all its tent pegs as well as all the tent pegs of the courtyard are to be made of bronze.

28 Have your brother Aaron, with his sons, come to you from the Israelites to serve me as priest — Aaron, his sons Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.² Make holy garments for your brother Aaron, for glory and beauty.³ You are to instruct all the skilled artisans, whom I have filled with a spirit of wisdom, to make Aaron's garments for consecrating him to serve me as priest.⁴ These are the garments that they must make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a specially woven tunic, a turban, and a sash. They are to make holy garments for your brother Aaron and his sons so that they may serve me as priests.⁵ They should use gold; blue, purple, and scarlet yarn; and fine linen.

⁶ They are to make the ephod of finely spun linen embroidered with gold, and with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn.⁷ It must have two shoulder pieces attached to its two edges so that it can be joined together.⁸ The artistically woven waistband that is on the ephod must be of one piece, according to the same workmanship of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely spun linen.

¹⁵ You are to make an embroidered breastpiece for making decisions. Make it with the same workmanship as the ephod; make it of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely spun linen.¹⁶ It must be square and folded double, nine inches long and nine inches wide.¹⁷ Place a setting of gemstones on it, four rows of stones:

The first row should be a row of carnelian, topaz, and emerald;
 18 the second row,
 a turquoise, a lapis lazuli, and a diamond;
 19 the third row,
 a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
 20 and the fourth row,
 a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper.

They should be adorned with gold filigree in their settings.

²²"You are to make braided chains of pure gold cord work for the breastpiece. ²³Fashion two gold rings for the breastpiece and attach them to its two corners. ²⁴Then attach the two gold cords to the two gold rings at the corners of the breastpiece. ²⁵Attach the other ends of the two cords to the two filigree settings, and in this way attach them to the ephod's shoulder pieces in the front. ²⁶Make two other gold rings and put them at the two other corners of the breastpiece on the edge that is next to the inner border of the ephod. ²⁷Make two more gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the ephod's two shoulder pieces on its front, close to its seam, and above the ephod's woven waistband. ²⁸The artisans are to tie the breastpiece from its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue yarn, so that the breastpiece is above the ephod's waistband and does not come loose from the ephod.

³⁵The robe will be worn by Aaron whenever he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he enters the sanctuary before the LORD and when he exits, so that he does not die.

³⁹"You are to weave the tunic from finelinen, make a turban of fine linen, and make an embroidered sash. ⁴⁰Make tunics, sashes, and headbands for Aaron's sons to give them glory and beauty. ⁴¹Put these on your brother Aaron and his sons; then anoint, ordain, and consecrate them, so that they may serve me as priests. ⁴²Make them linen undergarments to cover their naked bodies; they must extend from the waist to the thighs. ⁴³These must be worn by Aaron and his sons whenever they enter the tent of meeting or approach the altar to minister in the sanctuary area, so that they do not incur guilt and die. This is to be a permanent statute for Aaron and for his future descendants.

29 "This is what you are to do for them to consecrate them to serve me as priests. Take a young bull and two unblemished rams, ²with unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers coated with oil. Make them out of fine wheat flour, ³put them in a basket, and bring them in the basket, along with the bull and two rams. ⁴Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the tent of meeting and wash them with water. ⁵Then take the garments and clothe Aaron with the tunic, the robe for the ephod, the ephod itself, and the breastpiece; fasten the ephod on him with its woven waistband. ⁶Put the turban on his head and place the holy diadem on the turban. ⁷Take the anointing oil, pour it on his head, and anoint him. ⁸You must also bring his sons and clothe them with tunics. ⁹Tie the sashes on Aaron and his sons and fasten headbands on them. The priesthood is to be theirs by a permanent statute. This is the way you will ordain Aaron and his sons.

²⁶"Take the breast from the ram of Aaron's ordination and present it as a presentation offering before the LORD; it is to be your portion. ²⁷Consecrate for Aaron and his sons the breast of the presentation offering that is presented and the thigh of the contribution that is lifted up from the ram of ordination. ²⁸This will belong to Aaron and his sons as a regular portion from the Israelites, for it is a contribution.

It will be the Israelites' contribution from their fellowship sacrifices, their contribution to the LORD.

³⁵“This is what you are to do for Aaron and his sons based on all I have commanded you. Take seven days to ordain them.³⁶ Sacrifice a bull as a sin offering each day for atonement. Purify the altar when you make atonement for it, and anoint it in order to consecrate it.³⁷ For seven days you must make atonement for the altar and consecrate it. The altar will be especially holy. Whatever touches the altar will be consecrated.

30 “You are to make an altar for the burning of incense; make it of acacia wood.² It must be square, eighteen inches long and eighteen inches wide; it must be thirty-six inches high. Its horns must be of one piece with it.³ Overlay its top, all around its sides, and its horns with pure gold; make a gold molding all around it.⁴ Make two gold rings for it under the molding on two of its sides; put these on opposite sides of it to be holders for the poles to carry it with.⁵ Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

⁶“You are to place the altar in front of the curtain by the ark of the testimony — in front of the mercy seat that is over the testimony — where I will meet with you.⁷ Aaron must burn fragrant incense on it; he must burn it every morning when he tends the lamps.⁸ When Aaron sets up the lamps at twilight, he must burn incense. There is to be an incense offering before the LORD throughout your generations.⁹ You must not offer unauthorized incense on it, or a burnt or grain offering; you are not to pour a drink offering on it.

¹⁰“Once a year Aaron is to perform the atonement ceremony for the altar. Throughout your generations he is to perform the atonement ceremony for it once a year, with the blood of the sin offering for atonement on the horns. The altar is especially holy to the LORD.”

¹¹The LORD spoke to Moses:¹²“When you take a census of the Israelites to register them, each of the men must pay a ransom for his life to the LORD as they are registered. Then no plague will come on them as they are registered.¹³ Everyone who is registered must pay half a shekel according to the sanctuary shekel (twenty gerahs to the shekel). This half shekel is a contribution to the LORD.¹⁴ Each man who is registered, twenty years old or more, must give this contribution to the LORD.¹⁵ The wealthy may not give more and the poor may not give less than half a shekel when giving the contribution to the LORD to atone for your lives.¹⁶ Take the atonement price from the Israelites and use it for the service of the tent of meeting. It will serve as a reminder for the Israelites before the LORD to atone for your lives.”

¹⁷The LORD spoke to Moses:¹⁸“Make a bronze basin for washing and a bronze stand for it. Set it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.¹⁹ Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and feet from the basin.²⁰ Whenever they enter the tent of meeting or approach the altar to minister by burning an offering to the LORD, they must wash with water so that they will not die.²¹ They must wash their hands and feet so that they will not die; this is to be a permanent statute for them, for Aaron and his descendants throughout their generations.”

³¹“Tell the Israelites: This will be my holy anointing oil throughout your generations.³² It must not be used for ordinary anointing on a person's body, and you must not make anything like it using its formula. It is holy, and it must be holy to you.³³ Anyone who blends something like it or puts some of it on an unauthorized person must be cut off from his people.”

³⁴The LORD said to Moses:“Take fragrant spices: stacte, onycha, and galbanum; the spices and pure frankincense are to be in equal measures.³⁵ Prepare expertly blended incense from these; it is to be seasoned with salt, pure and holy.³⁶ Grind some of it into a fine powder and put some in front of the testimony in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with you. It must be especially holy to you.³⁷ As for the incense you are making, you must not make any for yourselves using its formula. It is to be regarded by you as holy — belonging to the LORD.³⁸ Anyone who makes something like it to smell its fragrance must be cut off from his people.”

31 The LORD also spoke to Moses:²“Look, I have appointed by name Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.³ I have filled him with God's Spirit, with wisdom, understanding, and ability in every craft⁴ to design artistic works in gold, silver, and bronze,⁵ to cut gemstones for mounting, and to carve wood for work in every craft.⁶ I have also selected Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, to be with him. I have put wisdom in the heart of every skilled artisan in order to make all that I have commanded you:⁷ the tent of meeting, the ark of the testimony, the mercy seat that is on top of it, and all the other furnishings of the tent — ⁸ the table with its utensils, the pure gold lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense, ⁹ the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, the basin with its stand — ¹⁰ the specially woven garments, both the holy garments for the priest Aaron and the garments for his sons to serve as priests, ¹¹ the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense for the sanctuary. They must make them according to all that I have commanded you.”

¹²The LORD said to Moses:¹³ “Tell the Israelites: You must observe my Sabbaths, for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, so that you will know that I am the LORD who consecrates you. ¹⁴ Observe the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Whoever profanes it must be put to death. If anyone does work on it, that person must be cut off from his people. ¹⁵ Work may be done for six days, but on the seventh day there must be a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to the LORD. Anyone who does work on the Sabbath day must be put to death. ¹⁶ The Israelites must observe the Sabbath, celebrating it throughout their generations as a permanent covenant. ¹⁷ It is a sign forever between me and the Israelites, for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, but on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed.”

¹⁸When he finished speaking with Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the testimony, stone tablets inscribed by the finger of God.

32 When the people saw that Moses delayed in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said to him, “Come, make gods for us who will go before us because this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt — we don’t know what has happened to him!”

² Aaron replied to them, “Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters and bring them to me.” ³ So all the people took off the gold rings that were on their ears and brought them to Aaron. ⁴ He took the gold from them, fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it into an image of a calf.

Then they said, “Israel, these are your gods, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!”

⁷The LORD spoke to Moses: “Go down at once! For your people you brought up from the land of Egypt have acted corruptly. ⁸ They have quickly turned from the way I commanded them; they have made for themselves an image of a calf. They have bowed down to it, sacrificed to it, and said, ‘Israel, these are your gods, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.’” ⁹ The LORD also said to Moses: “I have seen this people, and they are indeed a stiff-necked people. ¹⁰ Now leave me alone, so that my anger can burn against them and I can destroy them. Then I will make you into a great nation.”

eliminate them from the face of the earth’? Turn from your fierce anger and relent concerning this disaster planned for your people. ¹³ Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel — you swore to them by yourself and declared, ‘I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of the sky and will give your offspring all this land that I have promised, and they will inherit it forever.’” ¹⁴ So the LORD relented concerning the disaster he had said he would bring on his people.

¹⁵Then Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hands. They were inscribed on both sides — inscribed front and back. ¹⁶ The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was God’s writing, engraved on the tablets.

¹⁷When Joshua heard the sound of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a sound of war in the camp.”

¹⁸But Moses replied:

It’s not the sound of a victory cry
and not the sound of a cry of defeat;
I hear the sound of singing!

¹⁹As he approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moses became enraged and threw the tablets out of his hands, smashing them at the base of the mountain.

²⁰He took the calf they had made, burned it up, and ground it to powder. He scattered the powder over the surface of the water and forced the Israelites to drink the water.

²¹Then Moses asked Aaron, “What did these people do to you that you have led them into such a grave sin?”

²²“Don’t be enraged, my lord,” Aaron replied. “You yourself know that the people are intent on evil. ²³ They said to me, ‘Make gods for us who will go before us because this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt — we don’t know what has happened to him!’” ²⁴ So I said to them, ‘Whoever has gold, take it off,’ and they gave it to me. When I threw it into the fire, out came this calf!”

²⁵Moses saw that the people were out of control, for Aaron had let them get out of control, making them laughingstock to their enemies. ²⁶ And Moses stood at the camp’s entrance and said, “Whoever is for the LORD, come to me.” And all the Levites gathered around him. ²⁷ He told them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says, ‘Every man fasten his sword to his side; go back and forth through the camp from entrance to entrance, and each of you kill his brother, his friend, and his neighbor.’” ²⁸ The Levites did as Moses commanded, and about three thousand men fell dead that day among the people. ²⁹ Afterward Moses said, “Today you have been dedicated to the LORD, since each man went against his son and his brother. Therefore you have brought a blessing on yourselves today.”

³⁰The following day Moses said to the people, “You have committed a grave sin. Now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I will be able to atone for your sin.”

³¹So Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Oh, these people have committed a grave sin; they have made a god of gold for themselves. ³² Now if you would only forgive their sin. But if not, please erase me from the book you have written.”

³³The LORD replied to Moses: “Whoever has sinned against me I will erase from my book. ³⁴ Now go, lead the people to the place I told you about; see, my angel will go before you. But on the day I settle accounts, I will hold them accountable for their sin.” ³⁵ And the LORD inflicted a plague on the people for what they did with the calf Aaron had made.

33 The LORD spoke to Moses: "Go up from here, you and the people you brought up from the land of Egypt, to the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying: I will give it to your offspring. ² I will send an angel ahead of you and will drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hethites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. ³ Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not go up with you because you are a stiff-necked people; otherwise, I might destroy you on the way." ⁴ When the people heard this bad news, they mourned and didn't put on their jewelry.

⁵ For the LORD said to Moses: "Tell the Israelites: You are a stiff-necked people. If I went up with you for a single moment, I would destroy you. Now take off your jewelry, and I will decide what to do with you." ⁶ So the Israelites remained stripped of their jewelry from Mount Horeb onward.

⁷ Now Moses took a tent and pitched it outside the camp, at a distance from the camp; he called it the tent of meeting. Anyone who wanted to consult the LORD would go to the tent of meeting that was outside the camp. ⁸ Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would stand up, each one at the door of his tent, and they would watch Moses until he entered the tent. ⁹ When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and remain at the entrance to the tent, and the LORD would speak with Moses. ¹⁰ As all the people saw the pillar of cloud remaining at the entrance to the tent, they would stand up, then bow in worship, each one at the door of his tent. ¹¹ The LORD would speak with Moses face to face, just as a man speaks with his friend, then Moses would return to the camp. His assistant, the young man Joshua son of Nun, would not leave the inside of the tent.

¹² Moses said to the LORD, "Look, you have told me, 'Lead this people up,' but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor with me.' ¹³ Now if I have indeed found favor with you, please teach me your ways, and I will know you, so that I may find favor with you. Now consider that this nation is your people."

¹⁵ "If your presence does not go," Moses responded to him, "don't make us go up from here. ¹⁶ How will it be known that I and your people have found favor with you unless you go with us? I and your people will be distinguished by this from all the other people on the face of the earth."

¹⁷ The LORD answered Moses, "I will do this very thing you have asked, for you have found favor with me, and I know you by name."

¹⁸ Then Moses said, "Please, let me see your glory."

¹⁹ He said, "I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim the name 'the LORD' before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion." ²⁰ But he added, "You cannot see my face, for humans cannot see me and live." ²¹ The LORD said, "Here is a place near me. You are to stand on the rock, ²² and when my glory passes by, I will put you in the crevice of the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by. ²³ Then I will take my hand away, and you will see my back, but my face will not be seen."

34 The LORD said to Moses, "Cut two stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. ² Be prepared by morning. Come up Mount Sinai in the morning and stand before me on the mountaintop. ³ No one may go up with you; in fact, no one should be seen anywhere on the mountain. Even the flocks and herds are not to graze in front of that mountain."

⁴ Moses cut two stone tablets like the first ones. He got up early in the morning, and taking the two stone tablets in his hand, he climbed Mount Sinai, just as the LORD had commanded him.

⁵ The LORD came down in a cloud, stood with him there, and proclaimed his name, "the LORD." ⁶ The LORD passed in front of him and proclaimed:

The LORD — the LORD is a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger and abounding in faithful love and truth, ⁷ maintaining faithful love to a thousand generations, forgiving iniquity, rebellion, and sin. But he will not leave the guilty unpunished, bringing the fathers' iniquity on the children and grandchildren to the third and fourth generation.

⁸ Moses immediately knelt low on the ground and worshiped. ⁹ Then he said, "My Lord, if I have indeed found favor with you, my Lord, please go with us (even though this is a stiff-necked people), forgive our iniquity and our sin, and accept us as your own possession."

¹⁰ And the LORD responded: "Look, I am making a covenant. I will perform wonders in the presence of all your people that have never been done in the whole earth or in any nation. All the people you live among will see the LORD's work, for what I am doing with you is awe-inspiring. ¹¹ Observe what I command you today. I am going to drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hethites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. ¹² Be careful not to make a treaty with the inhabitants of the land that you are going to enter; otherwise, they will become a snare among you. ¹³ Instead, you must tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, and chop down their Asherah poles. ¹⁴ Because the LORD is jealous for his reputation, you are never to bow down to another god. He is a jealous God.

¹⁵ "Do not make a treaty with the inhabitants of the land, or else when they prostitute themselves with their gods and sacrifice to their gods, they will invite you, and you will eat their sacrifices. ¹⁶ Then you will take some of their daughters as brides for your sons. Their daughters will prostitute themselves with their gods and cause your sons to prostitute themselves with their gods.

¹⁷ "Do not make cast images of gods for yourselves.

¹⁸ "Observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread. You are to eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, as I commanded you, for you came out of Egypt in the month of Abib.

¹⁹ "The firstborn male from every womb belongs to me, including all your male livestock, the firstborn of cattle or sheep. ²⁰ You may redeem the firstborn of a donkey with a sheep, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. You must redeem all the firstborn of your sons. No one is to appear before me empty-handed.

²¹ "You are to labor six days but you must rest on the seventh day; you must even rest during plowing and harvesting times.

²² "Observe the Festival of Weeks with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Festival of Ingathering at the turn of the agricultural year. ²³ Three times a year all your males are to appear before the Lord God, the God of Israel. ²⁴ For I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your territory. No one will covet your land when you go up three times a year to appear before the Lord your God.

²⁵ “Do not present the blood for my sacrifice with anything leavened. The sacrifice of the Passover Festival must not remain until morning.

²⁶ “Bring the best firstfruits of your land to the house of the LORD your God.

²⁷ The LORD also said to Moses, “Write down these words, for I have made a covenant with you and with Israel based on these words.”

35 Moses assembled the entire Israelite community and said to them, “These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to do: ² For six days work is to be done, but on the seventh day you are to have a holy day, a Sabbath of complete rest to the LORD. Anyone who does work on it must be executed. ³ Do not light a fire in any of your homes on the Sabbath day.”

⁴ Then Moses said to the entire Israelite community, “This is what the LORD has commanded: ⁵ Take up an offering among you for the LORD. Let everyone whose heart is willing bring this as the LORD’s offering: gold, silver, and bronze; ⁶ blue, purple, and scarlet yarn; fine linen and goat hair; ⁷ ram skins dyed red and fine leather; acacia wood; ⁸ oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense; ⁹ and onyx with gemstones to mount on the ephod and breastpiece.

¹⁰ “Let all the skilled artisans among you come and make everything that the LORD has commanded: ¹¹ the tabernacle — its tent and covering, its clasps and supports, its crossbars, its pillars and bases; ¹² the ark with its poles, the mercy seat, and the curtain for the screen; ¹³ the table with its poles, all its utensils, and the Bread of the Presence; ¹⁴ the lampstand for light with its utensils and lamps as well as the oil for the light; ¹⁵ the altar of incense with its poles; the anointing oil and the fragrant incense; the entryway screen for the entrance to the tabernacle; ¹⁶ the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grate, its poles, and all its utensils; the basin with its stand; ¹⁷ the hangings of the courtyard, its posts and bases, and the screen for the gate of the courtyard; ¹⁸ the tent pegs for the tabernacle and the tent pegs for the courtyard, along with their ropes; ¹⁹ and the specially woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary — the holy garments for the priest Aaron and the garments for his sons to serve as priests.”

²⁰ Then the entire Israelite community left Moses’s presence. ²¹ Everyone whose heart was moved and whose spirit prompted him came and brought an offering to the LORD for the work on the tent of meeting, for all its services, and for the holy garments. ²² Both men and women came; all who had willing hearts brought brooches, earrings, rings, necklaces, and all kinds of gold jewelry — everyone who presented a presentation offering of gold to the LORD. ²³ Everyone who possessed blue, purple, or scarlet yarn, fine linen or goat hair, ram skins dyed red or fine leather, brought them. ²⁴ Everyone making an offering of silver or bronze brought it as a contribution to the LORD. Everyone who possessed acacia wood useful for any task in the work brought it. ²⁵ Every skilled woman spun yarn with her hands and brought it: blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen. ²⁶ And all the women whose hearts were moved spun the goat hair by virtue of their skill. ²⁷ The leaders brought onyx and gemstones to mount on the ephod and breastpiece, ²⁸ as well as the spice and oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense. ²⁹ So the Israelites brought a freewill offering to the LORD, all the men and women whose hearts prompted them to bring something for all the work that the LORD, through Moses, had commanded to be done.

³⁰ Moses then said to the Israelites: “Look, the LORD has appointed by name Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. ³¹ He has filled him with God’s Spirit, with wisdom, understanding, and ability in every kind of craft ³² to design artistic works in gold, silver, and bronze, ³³ to cut gemstones for mounting, and to carve wood for work in every kind of artistic craft. ³⁴ He has also given both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others. ³⁵ He has filled them with skill to do all the work of a gem cutter; a designer; an embroiderer in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen; and a weaver. They can do every kind of craft and design artistic designs.

36 Bezalel, Oholiab, and all the skilled people are to work based on everything the LORD has commanded. The LORD has given them wisdom and understanding to know how to do all the work of constructing the sanctuary.”

² So Moses summoned Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skilled person in whose heart the LORD had placed wisdom, all whose hearts moved them, to come to the work and do it. ³ They took from Moses’s presence all the contributions that the Israelites had brought for the task of making the sanctuary. Meanwhile, the people continued to bring freewill offerings morning after morning.

⁴ Then all the artisans who were doing all the work for the sanctuary came one by one from the work they were doing ⁵ and said to Moses, “The people are bringing more than is needed for the construction of the work the LORD commanded to be done.”

⁶ After Moses gave an order, they sent a proclamation throughout the camp: “Let no man or woman make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary.” So the people stopped. ⁷ The materials were sufficient for them to do all the work. There was more than enough.

⁸ All the skilled artisans among those doing the work made the tabernacle with ten curtains. Bezalel made them of finely spun linen, as well as blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, with a design of cherubim worked into them. ⁹ Each curtain was forty-two feet long and six feet wide; all the curtains had the same measurements. ¹⁰ He joined five of the curtains to each other, and the other five curtains he joined to each other. ¹¹ He made loops of blue yarn on the edge of the last curtain in the first set and did the same on the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set. ¹² He made fifty loops on the one curtain and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain in the second set, so that the loops lined up with each other. ¹³ He also made fifty gold clasps and joined the curtains to each other, so that the tabernacle became a single unit.

¹⁴ He made curtains of goat hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven of them. ¹⁵ Each curtain was forty-five feet long and six feet wide. All eleven curtains had the same measurements. ¹⁶ He joined five of the curtains together, and the other six together. ¹⁷ He made fifty loops on the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set and fifty loops on the edge of the corresponding curtain in the second set. ¹⁸ He made fifty bronze clasps to join the tent together as a single unit. ¹⁹ He also made a covering for the tent from ram skins dyed red and a covering of fine leather on top of it.

²⁰ He made upright supports of acacia wood for the tabernacle. ²¹ Each support was fifteen feet long and twenty-seven inches wide. ²² Each support had two tenons for joining one to another. He did the same for all the supports of the tabernacle. ²³ He made supports for the tabernacle as follows: twenty for the south side, ²⁴ and he made forty silver bases to put under the twenty supports, two bases under the first support for its two tenons, and two bases under each of the following supports for their two tenons; ²⁵ for the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, he made twenty supports, ²⁶ with their forty silver bases, two bases under the first support and two bases under each of the following ones; ²⁷ and for the back of the tabernacle, on the west side, he made six supports. ²⁸ He also made two additional supports for the two back corners of the tabernacle. ²⁹ They were paired at the bottom and joined together at the top in a single ring. This is what he did with both of them for the two corners. ³⁰ So there were eight supports with their sixteen silver bases, two bases under each one.

37 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood, forty-five inches long, twenty-seven inches wide, and twenty-seven inches high. ² He overlaid it with pure gold inside and out and made a gold molding all around it. ³ He cast four gold rings for it, for its four feet, two rings on one side and two rings on the other side. ⁴ He made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. ⁵ He inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark for carrying the ark.

¹⁷ Then he made the lampstand out of pure hammered gold. He made it all of one piece: its base and shaft, its ornamental cups, and its buds and petals. ¹⁸ Six branches extended from its sides, three branches of the lampstand from one side and three branches of the lampstand from the other side. ¹⁹ There were three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a bud and petals, on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a bud and petals, on the next branch. It was this way for the six branches that extended from the lampstand. ²⁰ There were four cups shaped like almond blossoms on the lampstand shaft along with its buds and petals. ²¹ For the six branches that extended from it, a bud was under the first pair of branches from it, a bud under the second pair of branches from it, and a bud under the third pair of branches from it. ²² Their buds and branches were of one piece with it. All of it was a single hammered piece of pure gold. ²³ He also made its seven lamps, snuffers, and firepans of pure gold. ²⁴ He made it and all its utensils of seventy-five pounds of pure gold.

²⁵ He made the altar of incense out of acacia wood. It was square, eighteen inches long and eighteen inches wide; it was thirty-six inches high. Its horns were of one piece with it. ²⁶ He overlaid it, its top, all around its sides, and its horns with pure gold. Then he made a gold molding all around it. ²⁷ He made two gold rings for it under the molding on two of its sides; he put these on opposite sides of it to be holders for the poles to carry it with. ²⁸ He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

38 Bezalel constructed the altar of burnt offering from acacia wood. It was square, 7 1/2 feet long and 7 1/2 feet wide, and was 4 1/2 feet high. ² He made horns for it on its four corners; the horns were of one piece with it. Then he overlaid it with bronze.

holders for the poles. ⁶ He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze. ⁷ Then he inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar in order to carry it with them. He constructed the altar with boards so that it was hollow.

⁹ Then he made the courtyard. The hangings on the south side of the courtyard were of finely spun linen, 150 feet long, ¹⁰ including their twenty posts and their twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and silver bands for the posts. ¹¹ The hangings on the north side were also 150 feet long, including their twenty posts and twenty bronze bases. The hooks and bands of the posts were silver. ¹² The hangings on the west side were 75 feet long, including their ten posts and their ten bases, with silver hooks and silver bands for the posts. ¹³ And for the east side toward the sunrise, 75 feet long, ¹⁴ the hangings on one side of the gate were 22 ½ feet, including their three posts and their three bases. ¹⁵ It was the same for the other side of the courtyard gate. The hangings were 22 ½ feet, including their three posts and their three bases. ¹⁶ All the hangings around the courtyard were of finely spun linen. ¹⁷ The bases for the posts were bronze; the hooks and bands of the posts were silver; and the plating for the tops of the posts was silver. All the posts of the courtyard were banded with silver.

²⁴ All the gold of the presentation offering that was used for the project in all the work on the sanctuary, was 2,193 pounds, according to the sanctuary shekel. ²⁵ The silver from those of the community who were registered was 7,544 pounds, according to the sanctuary shekel — ²⁶ one-fifth of an ounce per man, that is, half a shekel according to the sanctuary shekel, from everyone twenty years old or more who had crossed over to the registered group, 603,550 men. ²⁷ There were 7,500 pounds of silver used to cast the bases of the sanctuary and the bases of the curtain — one hundred bases from 7,500 pounds, 75 pounds for each base. ²⁸ With the remaining 44 pounds he made the hooks for the posts, overlaid their tops, and supplied bands for them.

39 They made specially woven garments for ministry in the sanctuary, and the holy garments for Aaron from the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

² Bezalel made the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely spun linen. ³ They hammered out thin sheets of gold, and he cut threads from them to interweave with the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and the fine linen in a skillful design. ⁴ They made shoulder pieces for attaching it; it was joined together at its two edges. ⁵ The artistically woven waistband that was on the ephod was of one piece with the ephod, according to the same workmanship of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely spun linen, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

⁸ He also made the embroidered breastpiece with the same workmanship as the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely spun linen. ⁹ They made the breastpiece square and folded double, nine inches long and nine inches wide. ¹⁰ They mounted four rows of gemstones on it.

The first row was

a row of carnelian, topaz, and emerald;

¹¹ the second row,

a turquoise, a lapis lazuli, and a diamond;

¹² the third row,

a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

¹³ and the fourth row,

a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper.

They were surrounded with gold filigree in their settings.

¹⁴ The twelve stones corresponded to the names of Israel's sons. Each stone was engraved like a seal with one of the names of the twelve tribes.

¹⁵ They made braided chains of pure gold cord for the breastpiece. ¹⁶ They also fashioned two gold filigree settings and two gold rings and attached the two rings to its two corners. ¹⁷ Then they attached the two gold cords to the two gold rings on the corners of the breastpiece.

¹⁸ They attached the other ends of the two cords to the two filigree settings, and in this way they attached them to the ephod's shoulder pieces in front. ¹⁹ They made two other gold rings and put them at the two other corners of the breastpiece on the edge that is next to the inner border of the ephod. ²⁰ They made two more gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the ephod's two shoulder pieces on its front, close to its seam, above the ephod's woven waistband. ²¹ Then they tied the breastpiece from its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue yarn, so that the breastpiece was above the ephod's waistband and did not come loose from the ephod. They did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²² They made the woven robe of the ephod entirely of blue yarn. ²³ There was an opening in the center of the robe like that of body armor with a collar around the opening so that it would not tear. ²⁴ They made pomegranates of finely spun blue, purple, and scarlet yarn on the lower hem of the robe. ²⁵ They made bells of pure gold and attached the bells between the pomegranates, all around the hem of the robe between the pomegranates, ²⁶ a bell and a pomegranate alternating all around the lower hem of the robe to be worn for ministry. They made it just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²⁷ They made the tunics of fine woven linen for Aaron and his sons. ²⁸ They made the turban and the ornate headbands of fine linen, the linen undergarments of finely spun linen, ²⁹ and the sash of finely spun linen expertly embroidered with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. They did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

³² So all the work for the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, was finished. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses. ³³ They brought the tabernacle to Moses: the tent with all its furnishings, its clasps, its supports, its crossbars, and its pillars and bases; ³⁴ the covering of ram skins dyed red and the covering of fine leather; the curtain for the screen; ³⁵ the ark of the testimony with its poles and the mercy seat; ³⁶ the table, all its utensils, and the Bread of the Presence; ³⁷ the pure gold lampstand, with its lamps arranged and all its utensils, as well as the oil for the light; ³⁸ the gold altar; the anointing oil; the fragrant incense; the screen for the entrance to the tent; ³⁹ the bronze altar with its bronze grate, its poles, and all its utensils; the basin with its stand; ⁴⁰ the hangings of the courtyard, its posts and bases, the screen for the gate of the courtyard, its ropes and tent pegs, and all the furnishings for the service of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting; ⁴¹ and the specially woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary, the holy garments for the priest Aaron and the garments for his sons to serve as priests. ⁴² The Israelites had done all the work according to everything the LORD had commanded Moses. ⁴³ Moses inspected all the work they had accomplished. They had done just as the LORD commanded. Then Moses blessed them.

40 The LORD spoke to Moses: ² "You are to set up the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, on the first day of the first month. ³ Put the ark of the testimony there and screen off the ark with the curtain. ⁴ Then bring in the table and lay out its arrangement; also bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps. ⁵ Place the gold altar for incense in front of the ark of the testimony. Put up the screen for the entrance to the tabernacle. ⁶ Position the altar of burnt offering in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting. ⁷ Place the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it. ⁸ Assemble the surrounding courtyard and hang the screen for the gate of the courtyard.

¹² "Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the tent of meeting and wash them with water. ¹³ Clothe Aaron with the holy garments, anoint him, and consecrate him, so that he can serve me as a priest. ¹⁴ Have his sons come forward and clothe them in tunics. ¹⁵ Anoint them just as you anointed their father, so that they may also serve me as priests. Their anointing will serve to inaugurate a permanent priesthood for them throughout their generations."

¹⁶ Moses did everything just as the LORD had commanded him. ¹⁷ The tabernacle was set up in the first month of the second year, on the first day of the month. ¹⁸ Moses set up the tabernacle: He laid its bases, positioned its supports, inserted its crossbars, and set up its pillars. ¹⁹ Then he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent on top of it, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

³⁰ He set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing. ³¹ Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and feet from it. ³² They washed whenever they came to the tent of meeting and approached the altar, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

³⁶ The Israelites set out whenever the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle throughout all the stages of their journey. ³⁷ If the cloud was not taken up, they did not set out until the day it was taken up. ³⁸ For the cloud of the LORD was over the tabernacle by day, and there was a fire inside the cloud by night, visible to the entire house of Israel throughout all the stages of their journey.

LEVITICUS

1 Then the LORD summoned Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting: ² "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When any of you brings an offering to the LORD from the livestock, you may bring your offering from the herd or the flock.

³ "If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he is to bring an unblemished male. He will bring it to the entrance to the tent of meeting so that he may be accepted by the LORD. ⁴ He is to lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering so it can be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him. ⁵ He is to slaughter the bull before the LORD; Aaron's sons the priests are to present the blood and splatter it on all sides of the altar that is at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ⁶ Then he is to skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces. ⁷ The sons of Aaron the priest will prepare a fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire. ⁸ Aaron's sons the priests are to arrange the pieces, the head, and the fat on top of the burning wood on the altar. ⁹ The offerer is to wash its entrails and legs with water. Then the priest will burn all of it on the altar as a burnt offering, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

2 "When anyone presents a grain offering as an offering to the LORD, it is to consist of fine flour. He is to pour olive oil on it, put frankincense on it, ² and bring it to Aaron's sons the priests. The priest will take a handful of fine flour and oil from it, along with all its frankincense, and will burn this memorial portion of it on the altar, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD. ³ But the rest of the grain offering will belong to Aaron and his sons; it is the holiest part of the fire offerings to the LORD.

⁴ "When you present a grain offering baked in an oven, it is to be made of fine flour, either unleavened cakes mixed with oil or unleavened wafers coated with oil. ⁵ If your offering is a grain offering prepared on a griddle, it is to be unleavened bread made of fine flour mixed with oil. ⁶ Break it into pieces and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering. ⁷ If your offering is a grain offering prepared in a pan, it is to be made of fine flour with oil. ⁸ When you bring to the LORD the grain offering made in any of these ways, it is to be presented to the priest, and he will take it to the altar. ⁹ The priest will remove the memorial portion from the grain offering and burn it on the altar, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD. ¹⁰ But the rest of the grain offering will belong to Aaron and his sons; it is the holiest part of the fire offerings to the LORD.

¹¹ "No grain offering that you present to the LORD is to be made with yeast, for you are not to burn any yeast or honey as a fire offering to the LORD. ¹² You may present them to the LORD as an offering of firstfruits, but they are not to be offered on the altar as a pleasing aroma. ¹³ You are to season each of your grain offerings with salt; you must not omit from your grain offering the salt of the covenant with your God. You are to present salt with each of your offerings.

¹⁴ "If you present a grain offering of firstfruits to the LORD, you are to present fresh heads of grain, crushed kernels, roasted on the fire, for your grain offering of firstfruits. ¹⁵ You are to put oil and frankincense on it; it is a grain offering. ¹⁶ The priest will then burn some of its crushed kernels and oil with all its frankincense as a fire offering to the LORD.

¹² "If his offering is a goat, he is to present it before the LORD. ¹³ He must lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the tent of meeting. Aaron's sons will splatter its blood on all sides of the altar. ¹⁴ He will present part of his offering as a fire offering to the LORD: the fat surrounding the entrails, all the fat that is on the entrails, ¹⁵ and the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins; he will also remove the fatty lobe of the liver with the kidneys. ¹⁶ Then the priest will burn the food on the altar, as a fire offering for a pleasing aroma.

"All fat belongs to the LORD. ¹⁷ This is a permanent statute throughout your generations, wherever you live: you must not eat any fat or any blood."

4 Then the LORD spoke to Moses: ²“Tell the Israelites: When someone sins unintentionally against any of the LORD’s commands and does anything prohibited by them — ³“If the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, he is to present to the LORD a young, unblemished bull as a sin offering for the sin he has committed. ⁴ He is to bring the bull to the entrance to the tent of meeting before the LORD, lay his hand on the bull’s head, and slaughter it before the LORD. ⁵ The anointed priest will then take some of the bull’s blood and bring it into the tent of meeting. ⁶ The priest is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of it seven times before the LORD in front of the curtain of the sanctuary. ⁷ The priest is to apply some of the blood to the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is before the LORD in the tent of meeting. He must pour out the rest of the bull’s blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ⁸ He is to remove all the fat from the bull of the sin offering: the fat surrounding the entrails, all the fat that is on the entrails, ⁹ and the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins. He will also remove the fatty lobe of the liver with the kidneys, ¹⁰ just as the fat is removed from the ox of the fellowship sacrifice. The priest is to burn them on the altar of burnt offering. ¹¹ But the hide of the bull and all its flesh, with its head and legs, and its entrails and waste — ¹² all the rest of the bull — he must bring to a ceremonially clean place outside the camp to the ash heap, and must burn it on a wood fire. It is to be burned at the ash heap.

¹³“Now if the whole community of Israel errs, and the matter escapes the notice of the assembly, so that they violate any of the LORD’s commands and incur guilt by doing what is prohibited, ¹⁴ then the assembly must present a young bull as a sin offering. They are to bring it before the tent of meeting when the sin they have committed in regard to the command becomes known. ¹⁵ The elders of the community are to lay their hands on the bull’s head before the LORD and it is to be slaughtered before the LORD. ¹⁶ The anointed priest will bring some of the bull’s blood into the tent of meeting. ¹⁷ The priest is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the curtain. ¹⁸ He is to apply some of the blood to the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the tent of meeting. He will pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ¹⁹ He is to remove all the fat from it and burn it on the altar. ²⁰ He is to offer this bull just as he did with the bull in the sin offering; he will offer it the same way. So the priest will make atonement on their behalf, and they will be forgiven. ²¹ Then he will bring the bull outside the camp and burn it just as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the assembly.

²²“When a leader sins and unintentionally violates any of the commands of the LORD his God by doing what is prohibited, and incurs guilt, ²³ or someone informs him about the sin he has committed, he is to bring an unblemished male goat as his offering. ²⁴ He is to lay his hand on the head of the goat and slaughter it at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD. It is a sin offering. ²⁵ Then the priest is to take some of the blood from the sin offering with his finger and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering. The rest of its blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering. ²⁶ He must burn all its fat on the altar, like the fat of the fellowship sacrifice. In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf for that person’s sin, and he will be forgiven.

²⁷“Now if any of the common people sins unintentionally by violating one of the LORD’s commands, does what is prohibited, and incurs guilt, ²⁸ or if someone informs him about the sin he has committed, then he is to bring an unblemished female goat as his offering for the sin that he has committed. ²⁹ He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place of the burnt offering. ³⁰ Then the priest is to take some of its blood with his finger and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering. He is to pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar. ³¹ He is to remove all its fat just as the fat is removed from the fellowship sacrifice. The priest is to burn it on the altar as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf, and he will be forgiven.

³²“Or if the offering that he brings as a sin offering is a lamb, he is to bring an unblemished female. ³³ He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it as a sin offering at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered. ³⁴ Then the priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering. He is to pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar. ³⁵ He is to remove all its fat just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the fellowship sacrifice. The priest will burn it on the altar along with the fire offerings to the LORD. In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

5 “When someone sins in any of these ways: If he has seen, heard, or known about something he has witnessed, and did not respond to a public call to testify, he will bear his iniquity.

² Or if someone touches anything unclean — a carcass of an unclean wild animal, or unclean livestock, or an unclean swarming creature — without being aware of it, he is unclean and incurs guilt.

⁴ Or if someone swears rashly to do what is good or evil — concerning anything a person may speak rashly in an oath — without being aware of it, but later recognizes it, he incurs guilt in such an instance.

⁵ If someone incurs guilt in one of these cases, he is to confess he has committed that sin. ⁶ He must bring his penalty for guilt for the sin he has committed to the LORD: a female lamb or goat from the flock as a sin offering. In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf for his sin.

⁷“But if he cannot afford an animal from the flock, then he may bring to the LORD two turtledoves or two young pigeons as penalty for guilt for his sin — one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. ⁸ He is to bring them to the priest, who will first present the one for the sin offering. He is to twist its head at the back of the neck without severing it. ⁹ Then he will sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood is to be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering. ¹⁰ He will prepare the second bird as a burnt offering according to the regulation. In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

¹¹“But if he cannot afford two turtledoves or two young pigeons, he may bring two quarts of fine flour as an offering for his sin. He must not put olive oil or frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.¹² He is to bring it to the priest, who will take a handful from it as its memorial portion and burn it on the altar along with the fire offerings to the LORD; it is a sin offering.¹³ In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf concerning the sin he has committed in any of these cases, and he will be forgiven. The rest will belong to the priest, like the grain offering.”

¹⁴ Then the LORD spoke to Moses:¹⁵ “If someone offends by sinning unintentionally in regard to any of the LORD’s holy things, he must bring his penalty for guilt to the LORD: an unblemished ram from the flock (based on your assessment of its value in silver shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel) as a guilt offering.¹⁶ He is to make restitution for his sin regarding any holy thing, adding a fifth of its value to it, and give it to the priest. Then the priest will make atonement on his behalf with the ram of the guilt offering, and he will be forgiven.

¹⁷ “If someone sins and without knowing it violates any of the LORD’s commands concerning anything prohibited, he is guilty, and he will bear his iniquity.¹⁸ He must bring an unblemished ram from the flock according to your assessment of its value as a guilt offering to the priest. Then the priest will make atonement on his behalf for the error he has committed unintentionally, and he will be forgiven.¹⁹ It is a guilt offering; he is indeed guilty before the LORD.”

6 The LORD spoke to Moses:² “When someone sins and offends the LORD by deceiving his neighbor in regard to a deposit, a security, or a robbery; or defrauds his neighbor;³ or finds something lost and lies about it; or swears falsely about any of the sinful things a person may do — ⁴ once he has sinned and acknowledged his guilt — he must return what he stole or defrauded, or the deposit entrusted to him, or the lost item he found,⁵ or anything else about which he swore falsely. He will make full restitution for it and add a fifth of its value to it. He is to pay it to its owner on the day he acknowledges his guilt.⁶ Then he is to bring his guilt offering to the LORD: an unblemished ram from the flock according to your assessment of its value as a guilt offering to the priest.⁷ In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf before the LORD, and he will be forgiven for anything he may have done to incur guilt.”

¹⁴ “Now this is the law of the grain offering: Aaron’s sons will present it before the LORD in front of the altar.¹⁵ The priest is to remove a handful of fine flour and olive oil from the grain offering, with all the frankincense that is on the offering, and burn its memorial portion on the altar as a pleasing aroma to the LORD.¹⁶ Aaron and his sons may eat the rest of it. It is to be eaten in the form of unleavened bread in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.¹⁷ It must not be baked with yeast; I have assigned it as their portion from my fire offerings. It is especially holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering.¹⁸ Any male among Aaron’s descendants may eat it. It is a permanent portion throughout your generations from the fire offerings to the LORD. Anything that touches the offerings will become holy.”

¹⁹ The LORD spoke to Moses:²⁰ “This is the offering that Aaron and his sons are to present to the LORD on the day that he is anointed: two quarts of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening.²¹ It is to be prepared with oil on a griddle; you are to bring it well-kneaded. You are to present it as a grain offering of baked pieces, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.²² The priest, who is one of Aaron’s sons and will be anointed to take his place, is to prepare it. It must be completely burned as a permanent portion for the LORD.²³ Every grain offering for a priest will be a whole burnt offering; it is not to be eaten.”

²⁴ The LORD spoke to Moses:²⁵ “Tell Aaron and his sons: This is the law of the sin offering. The sin offering is most holy and must be slaughtered before the LORD at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered.²⁶ The priest who offers it as a sin offering will eat it. It is to be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.²⁷ Anything that touches its flesh will become holy, and if any of its blood spatters on a garment, then you must wash that garment in a holy place.²⁸ A clay pot in which the sin offering is boiled is to be broken; if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, it is to be scoured and rinsed with water.²⁹ Any male among the priests may eat it; it is especially holy.³⁰ But no sin offering may be eaten if its blood has been brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place; it must be burned.

7 “Now this is the law of the guilt offering; it is especially holy.² The guilt offering is to be slaughtered at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, and the priest is to splatter its blood on all sides of the altar.³ The offerer is to present all the fat from it: the fat tail, the fat surrounding the entrails,⁴ and the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins; he will also remove the fatty lobe of the liver with the kidneys.⁵ The priest will burn them on the altar as a fire offering to the LORD; it is a guilt offering.⁶ Any male among the priests may eat it. It is to be eaten in a holy place; it is especially holy.

⁷ “The guilt offering is like the sin offering; the law is the same for both. It belongs to the priest who makes atonement with it.⁸ As for the priest who presents someone’s burnt offering, the hide of the burnt offering he has presented belongs to him; it is the priest’s.⁹ Any grain offering that is baked in an oven or prepared in a pan or on a griddle belongs to the priest who presents it; it is his.¹⁰ But any grain offering, whether dry or mixed with oil, belongs equally to all of Aaron’s sons.

¹¹ “Now this is the law of the fellowship sacrifice that someone may present to the LORD:¹² If he presents it for thanksgiving, in addition to the thanksgiving sacrifice, he is to present unleavened cakes mixed with olive oil, unleavened wafers coated with oil, and well-kneaded cakes of fine flour mixed with oil.¹³ He is to present as his offering cakes of leavened bread with his thanksgiving sacrifice of fellowship.¹⁴ From the cakes he is to present one portion of each offering as a contribution to the LORD. It will belong to the priest who splatters the blood of the fellowship offering; it is his.¹⁵ The meat of his thanksgiving sacrifice of fellowship must be eaten on the day he offers it; he may not leave any of it until morning.

²²The LORD spoke to Moses: ²³“Tell the Israelites: You are not to eat any fat of an ox, a sheep, or a goat. ²⁴The fat of an animal that dies naturally or is mauled by wild beasts may be used for any other purpose, but you must not eat it. ²⁵If anyone eats animal fat from a fire offering presented to the LORD, the person who eats it is to be cut off from his people. ²⁶Wherever you live, you must not eat the blood of any bird or animal. ²⁷Whoever eats any blood is to be cut off from his people.”

²⁸The LORD spoke to Moses: ²⁹“Tell the Israelites: The one who presents a fellowship sacrifice to the LORD is to bring an offering to the LORD from his sacrifice. ³⁰His own hands will bring the fire offerings to the LORD. He will bring the fat together with the breast. The breast is to be presented as a presentation offering before the LORD. ³¹The priest is to burn the fat on the altar, but the breast belongs to Aaron and his sons. ³²You are to give the right thigh to the priest as a contribution from your fellowship sacrifices. ³³The son of Aaron who presents the blood of the fellowship offering and the fat will have the right thigh as a portion. ³⁴I have taken from the Israelites the breast of the presentation offering and the thigh of the contribution from their fellowship sacrifices, and have assigned them to the priest Aaron and to his sons as a permanent portion from the Israelites.”

³⁷This is the law for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the ordination offering, and the fellowship sacrifice, ³⁸which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai on the day he commanded the Israelites to present their offerings to the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai.

8 The LORD spoke to Moses: ²“Take Aaron, his sons with him, the garments, the anointing oil, the bull of the sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread, ³and assemble the whole community at the entrance to the tent of meeting.” ⁴So Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the community assembled at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ⁵Moses said to them, “This is what the LORD has commanded to be done.”

⁶Then Moses presented Aaron and his sons and washed them with water. ⁷He put the tunic on Aaron, wrapped the sash around him, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him. He put the woven band of the ephod around him and fastened it to him. ⁸Then he put the breastpiece on him and placed the Urim and Thummim into the breastpiece. ⁹He also put the turban on his head and placed the gold medallion, the holy diadem, on the front of the turban, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²²Next he presented the second ram, the ram of ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. ²³Moses slaughtered it, took some of its blood, and put it on Aaron’s right earlobe, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ²⁴Moses also presented Aaron’s sons and put some of the blood on their right earlobes, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Then Moses splattered the blood on all sides of the altar. ²⁵He took the fat — the fat tail, all the fat that was on the entrails, the fatty lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat — as well as the right thigh. ²⁶From the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD he took one cake of unleavened bread, one cake of bread made with oil, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat portions and the right thigh. ²⁷He put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and presented them before the LORD as a presentation offering.

²⁸Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar with the burnt offering. This was an ordination offering for a pleasing aroma, a fire offering to the LORD. ²⁹He also took the breast and presented it before the LORD as a presentation offering; it was Moses’s portion of the ordination ram as the LORD had commanded him.

³⁰Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his garments, as well as on his sons and their garments. In this way he consecrated Aaron and his garments, as well as his sons and their garments.

³¹Moses said to Aaron and his sons, “Boil the meat at the entrance to the tent of meeting and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket for the ordination offering as I commanded: Aaron and his sons are to eat it.³² Burn up what remains of the meat and bread.³³ Do not go outside the entrance to the tent of meeting for seven days, until the time your days of ordination are completed, because it will take seven days to ordain you.³⁴ The LORD commanded what has been done today in order to make atonement for you.³⁵ You must remain at the entrance to the tent of meeting day and night for seven days and keep the LORD's charge so that you will not die, for this is what I was commanded."³⁶ So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD had commanded through Moses.

9 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron, his sons, and the elders of Israel.² He said to Aaron, "Take a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and present them before the LORD.³ And tell the Israelites: Take a male goat for a sin offering; a calf and a lamb, male yearlings without blemish, for a burnt offering; a ram for a fellowship offering to sacrifice before the LORD; and a grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD is going to appear to you."

⁵ They brought what Moses had commanded to the front of the tent of meeting, and the whole community came forward and stood before the LORD.⁶ Moses said, "This is what the LORD commanded you to do, that the glory of the LORD may appear to you."⁷ Then Moses said to Aaron, "Approach the altar and sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering; make atonement for yourself and the people. Sacrifice the people's offering and make atonement for them, as the LORD commanded."

¹² Then he slaughtered the burnt offering. Aaron's sons brought him the blood, and he splattered it on all sides of the altar.¹³ They brought him the burnt offering piece by piece, along with the head, and he burned them on the altar.¹⁴ He washed the entrails and the legs and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.

¹⁵ Aaron presented the people's offering. He took the male goat for the people's sin offering, slaughtered it, and made a sin offering with it as he did before.¹⁶ He presented the burnt offering and sacrificed it according to the regulation.¹⁷ Next he presented the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning burnt offering.

¹⁸ Finally, he slaughtered the ox and the ram as the people's fellowship sacrifice. Aaron's sons brought him the blood, and he splattered it on all sides of the altar.¹⁹ They also brought the fat portions from the ox and the ram — the fat tail, the fat surrounding the entrails, the kidneys, and the fatty lobe of the liver —²⁰ and placed these on the breasts. Aaron burned the fat portions on the altar,²¹ but he presented the breasts and the right thigh as a presentation offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.

²² Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them. He came down after sacrificing the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the fellowship offering.²³ Moses and Aaron then entered the tent of meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people, and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.²⁴ Fire came from the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. And when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell facedown.

10 Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu each took his own firepan, put fire in it, placed incense on it, and presented unauthorized fire before the LORD, which he had not commanded them to do.² Then fire came from the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.³ Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD has spoken:

I will demonstrate my holiness to those who are near me, and I will reveal my glory before all the people."

And Aaron remained silent.

⁴ Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel, and said to them, "Come here and carry your relatives away from the front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp."⁵ So they came forward and carried them in their tunics outside the camp, as Moses had said.

⁶ Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not let your hair hang loose and do not tear your clothes, or else you will die, and the LORD will become angry with the whole community. However, your brothers, the whole house of Israel, may weep over the conflagration the LORD ignited.⁷ You must not go outside the entrance to the tent of meeting or you will die, for the LORD's anointing oil is on you." So they did as Moses said.

⁸ The LORD spoke to Aaron:⁹ "You and your sons are not to drink wine or beer when you enter the tent of meeting, or else you will die; this is a permanent statute throughout your generations.¹⁰ You must distinguish between the holy and the common, and the clean and the unclean,¹¹ and teach the Israelites all the statutes that the LORD has given to them through Moses."

¹⁶ Then Moses inquired carefully about the male goat of the sin offering, but it had already been burned up. He was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's surviving sons, and asked, ¹⁷ "Why didn't you eat the sin offering in the sanctuary area? For it is especially holy, and he has assigned it to you to take away the guilt of the community and make atonement for them before the LORD.¹⁸ Since its blood was not brought inside the sanctuary, you should have eaten it in the sanctuary area, as I commanded."

¹⁹ But Aaron replied to Moses, "See, today they presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD. Since these things have happened to me, if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been acceptable in the LORD's sight?" ²⁰When Moses heard this, it was acceptable to him.

11 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: ²"Tell the Israelites: You may eat all these kinds of land animals. ³You may eat any animal with divided hooves and that chews the cud. ⁴But among the ones that chew the cud or have divided hooves you are not to eat these:

camels, though they chew the cud, do not have divided hooves — they are unclean for you;

⁵ hyraxes, though they chew the cud, do not have hooves — they are unclean for you;

⁶ hares, though they chew the cud, do not have hooves — they are unclean for you;

⁸ Do not eat any of their meat or touch their carcasses — they are unclean for you.

⁹"This is what you may eat from all that is in the water: You may eat everything in the water that has fins and scales, whether in the seas or streams. ¹⁰But these are to be abhorrent to you: everything in the seas or streams that does not have fins and scales among all the swarming things and other living creatures in the water. ¹¹They are to remain abhorrent to you; you must not eat any of their meat, and you must abhor their carcasses. ¹²Everything in the water that does not have fins and scales will be abhorrent to you.

¹³"You are to abhor these birds. They must not be eaten because they are abhorrent:

eagles, bearded vultures, Egyptian vultures, ¹⁴kites,

¹⁵ any kind of falcon, every kind of raven, ¹⁶ostriches, short-eared owls, gulls, any kind of hawk, ¹⁷little owls, cormorants, long-eared owls, ¹⁸barn owls, eagle owls, ospreys, ¹⁹storks, any kind of heron,

hoopoes, and bats.

²⁰"All winged insects that walk on all fours are to be abhorrent to you. ²¹But you may eat these kinds of all the winged insects that walk on all fours: those that have jointed legs above their feet for hopping on the ground. ²²You may eat these:

any kind of locust, katydid, cricket, and grasshopper.

²³All other winged insects that have four feet are to be abhorrent to you.

²⁴"These will make you unclean. Whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean until evening, ²⁵and whoever carries any of their carcasses is to wash his clothes and will be unclean until evening. ²⁶All animals that have hooves but do not have a divided hoof and do not chew the cud are unclean for you. Whoever touches them becomes unclean. ²⁷All the four-footed animals that walk on their paws are unclean for you. Whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean until evening, ²⁸and anyone who carries their carcasses is to wash his clothes and will be unclean until evening. They are unclean for you.

²⁹"These creatures that swarm on the ground are unclean for you:

weasels, mice,

any kind of large lizard, ³⁰geckos, monitor lizards, common lizards, skinks, and chameleons.

³¹These are unclean for you among all the swarming creatures. Whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean until evening. ³²When any one of them dies and falls on anything it becomes unclean — any item of wood, clothing, leather, sackcloth, or any implement used for work. It is to be rinsed with water and will remain unclean until evening; then it will be clean. ³³If any of them falls into any clay pot, everything in it will become unclean; you are to break it. ³⁴Any edible food coming into contact with that unclean water will become unclean, and any drinkable liquid in any container will become unclean. ³⁵Anything one of their carcasses falls on will become unclean. If it is an oven or stove, it is to be smashed; it is unclean and will remain unclean for you. ³⁶A spring or cistern containing water will remain clean, but someone who touches a carcass in it will become unclean. ³⁷If one of their carcasses falls on any seed that is to be sown, it is clean; ³⁸but if water has been put on the seed and one of their carcasses falls on it, it is unclean for you.

⁴¹"All the creatures that swarm on the earth are abhorrent; they must not be eaten. ⁴²Do not eat any of the creatures that swarm on the earth, anything that moves on its belly or walks on all fours or on many feet, for they are abhorrent. ⁴³Do not become contaminated by any creature that swarms; do not become unclean or defiled by them. ⁴⁴For I am the LORD your God, so you must consecrate yourselves and be holy because I am holy. Do not defile yourselves by any swarming creature that crawls on the ground. ⁴⁵For I am the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt to be your God, so you must be holy because I am holy.

⁴⁶"This is the law concerning animals, birds, all living creatures that move in the water, and all creatures that swarm on the ground, ⁴⁷in order to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, between the animals that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten."

12 The LORD spoke to Moses: ²"Tell the Israelites: When a woman becomes pregnant and gives birth to a male child, she will be unclean seven days, as she is during the days of her menstrual impurity. ³The flesh of his foreskin must be circumcised on the eighth day. ⁴She will continue in purification from her bleeding for thirty-three days. She must not touch any holy thing or go into the sanctuary until completing her days of purification. ⁵But if she gives birth to a female child, she will be unclean for two weeks as she is during her menstrual impurity. She will continue in purification from her bleeding for sixty-six days.

⁶"When her days of purification are complete, whether for a son or daughter, she is to bring to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting a year-old male lamb for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle dove for a sin offering. ⁷He will present them before the LORD and make atonement on her behalf; she will be clean from her discharge of blood. This is the law for a woman giving birth, whether to a male or female. ⁸But if she doesn't have sufficient means for a sheep, she may take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering. Then the priest will make atonement on her behalf, and she will be clean."

13 The Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron:² "When a person has a swelling, scab, or spot on the skin of his body, and it may be a serious disease on the skin of his body, he is to be brought to the priest Aaron or to one of his sons, the priests.³ The priest will examine the sore on the skin of his body. If the hair in the sore has turned white and the sore appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is in fact a serious skin disease. After the priest examines him, he must pronounce him unclean.⁴ But if the spot on the skin of his body is white and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest will quarantine the stricken person for seven days.⁵ The priest will then reexamine him on the seventh day. If he sees that the sore remains unchanged and has not spread on the skin, the priest will quarantine him for another seven days.⁶ The priest will examine him again on the seventh day. If the sore has faded and has not spread on the skin, the priest is to pronounce him clean; it is a scab. The person is to wash his clothes and will become clean.⁷ But if the scab spreads further on his skin after he has presented himself to the priest for his cleansing, he is to present himself again to the priest.⁸ The priest will examine him, and if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest must pronounce him unclean; he has a serious skin disease.

⁹ "When a case of serious skin disease may have developed on a person, he is to be brought to the priest.¹⁰ The priest will examine him. If there is a white swelling on the skin that has turned the hair white, and there is a patch of raw flesh in the swelling,¹¹ it is a chronic serious disease on the skin of his body, and the priest must pronounce him unclean. He need not quarantine him, for he is unclean.¹² But if the skin disease breaks out all over the skin so that it covers all the skin of the stricken person from his head to his feet so far as the priest can see,¹³ the priest will look, and if the skin disease has covered his entire body, he is to pronounce the stricken person clean. Since he has turned totally white, he is clean.¹⁴ But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he will be unclean.¹⁵ When the priest examines the raw flesh, he must pronounce him unclean. Raw flesh is unclean; this is a serious skin disease.¹⁶ But if the raw flesh changes and turns white, he is to go to the priest.¹⁷ The priest will examine him, and if the sore has turned white, the priest must pronounce the stricken person clean; he is clean.

reddish-white or white,²⁵ the priest is to examine it. If the hair in the spot has turned white and the spot appears to be deeper than the skin, it is a serious skin disease that has broken out in the burn. The priest must pronounce him unclean; it is a serious skin disease.²⁶ But when the priest examines it, if there is no white hair in the spot and it is not beneath the skin but is faded, the priest will quarantine him seven days.²⁷ The priest will reexamine him on the seventh day. If it has spread further on the skin, the priest must pronounce him unclean; it is in fact a case of serious skin disease.²⁸ But if the spot has remained where it was and has not spread on the skin but is faded, it is the swelling from the burn. The priest is to pronounce him clean, for it is only the scar from the burn.

²⁹ "When a man or woman has a condition on the head or chin,³⁰ the priest is to examine the condition. If it appears to be deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and sparse, the priest must pronounce the person unclean. It is a scaly outbreak, a serious skin disease of the head or chin.³¹ When the priest examines the scaly condition, if it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, the priest will quarantine the person with the scaly condition for seven days.³² The priest will reexamine the condition on the seventh day. If the scaly outbreak has not spread and there is no yellow hair in it and it does not appear to be deeper than the skin,³³ the person is to shave himself but not shave the scaly area. Then the priest will quarantine the person who has the scaly outbreak for another seven days.³⁴ The priest will examine the scaly outbreak on the seventh day, and if it has not spread on the skin and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, the priest is to pronounce the person clean. He is to wash his clothes, and he will be clean.³⁵ But if the scaly outbreak spreads further on the skin after his cleansing,³⁶ the priest is to examine the person. If the scaly outbreak has spread on the skin, the priest does not need to look for yellow hair; the person is unclean.³⁷ But if as far as he can see, the scaly outbreak remains unchanged and black hair has grown in it, then it has healed; he is clean. The priest is to pronounce the person clean.

³⁸ "When a man or a woman has white spots on the skin of the body,³⁹ the priest is to make an examination. If the spots on the skin of the body are dull white, it is only a rash that has broken out on the skin; the person is clean.

⁴⁵ "The person who has a case of serious skin disease is to have his clothes torn and his hair hanging loose, and he must cover his mouth and cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!'⁴⁶ He will remain unclean as long as he has the disease; he is unclean. He must live alone in a place outside the camp.

⁴⁷ "If a fabric is contaminated with mildew — in wool or linen fabric,⁴⁸ in the warp or weft of linen or wool, or in leather or anything made of leather —⁴⁹ and if the contamination is green or red in the fabric, the leather, the warp, the weft, or any leather article, it is a mildew contamination and is to be shown to the priest.⁵⁰ The priest is to examine the contamination and quarantine the contaminated fabric for seven days.⁵¹ The priest is to reexamine the contamination on the seventh day. If it has spread in the fabric, the warp, the weft, or the leather, regardless of how it is used, the contamination is harmful mildew; it is unclean.⁵² He is to burn the fabric, the warp or weft in wool or linen, or any leather article, which is contaminated. Since it is harmful mildew it must be burned.

⁵³ "When the priest examines it, if the contamination has not spread in the fabric, the warp or weft, or any leather article,⁵⁴ the priest is to order whatever is contaminated to be washed and quarantined for another seven days.⁵⁵ After it has been washed, the priest is to reexamine the contamination. If the appearance of the contaminated article has not changed, it is unclean. Even though the contamination has not spread, you must burn the fabric. It is a fungus on the front or back of the fabric.

⁵⁶ If the priest examines it, and the contamination has faded after it has been washed, he is to cut the contaminated section out of the fabric, the leather, or the warp or weft.⁵⁷ But if it reappears in the fabric, the warp or weft, or any leather article, it has broken out again. You must burn whatever is contaminated.⁵⁸ But if the contamination disappears from the fabric, the warp or weft, or any leather article, which have been washed, it is to be washed again, and it will be clean.

14 The LORD spoke to Moses:² "This is the law concerning the person afflicted with a skin disease on the day of his cleansing. He is to be brought to the priest,³ who will go outside the camp and examine him. If the skin disease has disappeared from the afflicted person,⁴ the priest will order that two live clean birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop be brought for the one who is to be cleansed.⁵ Then the priest will order that one of the birds be slaughtered over fresh water in a clay pot.⁶ He is to take the live bird together with the cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop, and dip them all into the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the fresh water.⁷ He will then sprinkle the blood seven times on the one who is to be cleansed from the skin disease. He is to pronounce him clean and release the live bird over the open countryside.⁸ The one who is to be cleansed must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and bathe with water; he is clean. Afterward he may enter the camp, but he must remain outside his tent for seven days.⁹ He is to shave off all his hair again on the seventh day: his head, his beard, his eyebrows, and the rest of his hair. He is to wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; he is clean.

¹⁰ "On the eighth day he must take two unblemished male lambs, an unblemished year-old ewe lamb, a grain offering of six quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil, and one-third of a quart of olive oil.¹¹ The priest who performs the cleansing will place the person who is to be cleansed, together with these offerings, before the LORD at the entrance to the tent of meeting.¹² The priest is to take one male lamb and present it as a guilt offering, along with the one-third quart of olive oil, and he will present them as a presentation offering before the LORD.¹³ He is to slaughter the male lamb at the place in the sanctuary area where the sin offering and burnt offering are slaughtered, for like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest; it is especially holy.¹⁴ The priest is to take some of the blood from the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.¹⁵ Then the priest will take some of the one-third quart of olive oil and pour it into his left palm.¹⁶ The priest will dip his right finger into the oil in his left palm and sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.¹⁷ From the oil remaining in his palm the priest will put some on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering.¹⁸ What is left of the oil in the priest's palm he is to put on the head of the one to be cleansed. In this way the priest will make atonement for him before the LORD.¹⁹ The priest is to sacrifice the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he will slaughter the burnt offering.²⁰ The priest is to offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. The priest will make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

²¹ "But if he is poor and cannot afford these, he is to take one male lamb for a guilt offering to be presented in order to make atonement for him, along with two quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering, one-third of a quart of olive oil,²² and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, whatever he can afford, one to be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.²³ On the eighth day he is to bring these things for his cleansing to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting before the LORD.²⁴ The priest will take the male lamb for the guilt offering and the one-third quart of olive oil, and present them as a presentation offering before the LORD.²⁵ After he slaughters the male lamb for the guilt offering, the priest is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the right earlobe of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.²⁶ Then the priest will pour some of the oil into his left palm.²⁷ With his right finger the priest will sprinkle some of the oil in his left palm seven times before the LORD.²⁸ The priest will also put some of the oil in his palm on the right earlobe of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the same place as the blood of the guilt offering.²⁹ What is left of the oil in the priest's palm he is to put on the head of the one to be cleansed to make atonement for him before the LORD.³⁰ He is to then sacrifice one type of what he can afford, either the turtledoves or young pigeons,³¹ one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, sacrificing what he can afford together with the grain offering. In this way the priest will make atonement before the LORD for the one to be cleansed.³² This is the law for someone who has a skin disease and cannot afford the cost of his cleansing."

³³ The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron:³⁴ "When you enter the land of Canaan that I am giving you as a possession, and I place a mildew contamination in a house in the land you possess,³⁵ the owner of the house is to come and tell the priest: Something like mildew contamination has appeared in my house.³⁶ The priest must order them to clear the house before he enters to examine the contamination, so that nothing in the house becomes unclean. Afterward the priest will come to examine the house.³⁷ He will examine it, and if the contamination in the walls of the house consists of green or red indentations that appear to be beneath the surface of the wall,³⁸ the priest is to go outside the house to its doorway and quarantine the house for seven days.³⁹ The priest is to return on the seventh day and examine it. If the contamination has spread on the walls of the house,⁴⁰ the priest must order that the stones with the contamination be pulled out and thrown into an unclean place outside the city.⁴¹ He is to have the inside of the house completely scraped, and have the plaster that is scraped off dumped in an unclean place outside the city.⁴² Then they are to take different stones to replace the former ones and take additional plaster to replaster the house.

⁴³ "If the contamination reappears in the house after the stones have been pulled out, and after the house has been scraped and replastered,⁴⁴ the priest is to come and examine it. If the contamination has spread in the house, it is harmful mildew; the house is unclean.⁴⁵ It must be torn down with its stones, its beams, and all its plaster, and taken outside the city to an unclean place.⁴⁶ Whoever enters the house during any of the days the priest quarantines it will be unclean until evening.⁴⁷ Whoever lies down in the house is to wash his clothes, and whoever eats in it is to wash his clothes.

⁴⁸ "But when the priest comes and examines it, if the contamination has not spread in the house after it was replastered, he is to pronounce the house clean because the contamination has disappeared.⁴⁹ He is to take two birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop to purify the house,⁵⁰ and he is to slaughter one of the birds over a clay pot containing fresh water.⁵¹ He will take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn, and the live bird, dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.⁵² He will purify the house with the blood of the bird, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet yarn.⁵³ Then he is to release the live bird into the open countryside outside the city. In this way he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.

⁵⁴ "This is the law for any skin disease or mildew, for a scaly outbreak,⁵⁵ for mildew in clothing or on a house,⁵⁶ and for a swelling, scab, or spot,⁵⁷ to determine when something is unclean or clean. This is the law regarding skin disease and mildew."

15 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron:² "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When any man has a discharge from his member, he is unclean.³ This is uncleanness of his discharge: Whether his member secretes the discharge or retains it, he is unclean. All the days that his member secretes or retains anything because of his discharge, he is unclean.⁴ Any bed the man with the discharge lies on will be unclean, and any furniture he sits on will be unclean.⁵ Anyone who touches his bed is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening.⁶ Whoever sits on furniture that the man with the discharge was sitting on is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening.⁷ Whoever touches the body of the man with a discharge is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening.⁸ If the man with the discharge spits on anyone who is clean, he is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening.⁹ Any saddle the man with the discharge rides on will be unclean.¹⁰ Whoever touches anything that was under him will be unclean until evening, and whoever carries such things is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening.¹¹ If the man with the discharge touches anyone without first rinsing his hands in water, the person who was touched is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening.¹² Any clay pot that the man with the discharge touches must be broken, while any wooden utensil is to be rinsed with water.

¹³ "When the man with the discharge has been cured of it, he is to count seven days for his cleansing, wash his clothes, and bathe his body in fresh water; he will be clean.¹⁴ He must take two turtledoves or two young pigeons on the eighth day, come before the LORD at the entrance to the tent of meeting, and give them to the priest.¹⁵ The priest is to sacrifice them, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for him before the LORD because of his discharge.

¹⁹ "When a woman has a discharge, and it consists of blood from her body, she will be unclean because of her menstruation for seven days. Everyone who touches her will be unclean until evening.²⁰ Anything she lies on during her menstruation will become unclean, and anything she sits on will become unclean.²¹ Everyone who touches her bed is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening.²² Everyone who touches any furniture she was sitting on is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening.²³ If discharge is on the bed or the furniture she was sitting on, when he touches it he will be unclean until evening.²⁴ If a man sleeps with her, and blood from her menstruation gets on him, he will be unclean for seven days, and every bed he lies on will become unclean.

²⁵ "When a woman has a discharge of her blood for many days, though it is not the time of her menstruation, or if she has a discharge beyond her period, she will be unclean all the days of her unclean discharge, as she is during the days of her menstruation.²⁶ Any bed she lies on during the days of her discharge will be like her bed during menstrual impurity; any furniture she sits on will be unclean as in her menstrual period.²⁷ Everyone who touches them will be unclean; he must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening.²⁸ When she is cured of her discharge, she is to count seven days, and after that she will be clean.²⁹ On the eighth day she must take two turtledoves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting.³⁰ The priest is to sacrifice one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for her before the LORD because of her unclean discharge.

³¹ "You must keep the Israelites from their uncleanness, so that they do not die by defiling my tabernacle that is among them.³² This is the law for someone with a discharge: a man who has an emission of semen, becoming unclean by it;³³ a woman who is in her menstrual period; anyone who has a discharge, whether male or female; and a man who sleeps with a woman who is unclean."

16 The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of two of Aaron's sons when they approached the presence of the LORD and died.² The LORD said to Moses:³ "Tell your brother Aaron that he may not come whenever he wants into the holy place behind the curtain in front of the mercy seat on the ark or else he will die, because I appear in the cloud above the mercy seat.

¹⁵ When he slaughters the male goat for the people's sin offering and brings its blood inside the curtain, he will do the same with its blood as he did with the bull's blood: He is to sprinkle it against the mercy seat and in front of it. ¹⁶ He will make atonement for the most holy place in this way for all their sins because of the Israelites' impurities and rebellious acts. He will do the same for the tent of meeting that remains among them, because it is surrounded by their impurities. ¹⁷ No one may be in the tent of meeting from the time he enters to make atonement in the most holy place until he leaves after he has made atonement for himself, his household, and the whole assembly of Israel. ¹⁸ Then he will go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it. He is to take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on the horns on all sides of the altar. ¹⁹ He is to sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times to cleanse and set it apart from the Israelites' impurities.

²⁰ When he has finished making atonement for the most holy place, the tent of meeting, and the altar, he is to present the live male goat. ²¹ Aaron will lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the Israelites' iniquities and rebellious acts — all their sins. He is to put them on the goat's head and send it away into the wilderness by the man appointed for the task. ²² The goat will carry all their iniquities into a desolate land, and the man will release it there.

²³ Then Aaron is to enter the tent of meeting, take off the linen garments he wore when he entered the most holy place, and leave them there. ²⁴ He will bathe his body with water in a holy place and put on his clothes. Then he must go out and sacrifice his burnt offering and the people's burnt offering; he will make atonement for himself and for the people. ²⁵ He is to burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar. ²⁶ The man who released the goat for an uninhabitable place is to wash his clothes and bathe his body with water; afterward he may reenter the camp. ²⁷ The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought into the most holy place to make atonement, must be brought outside the camp and their hide, flesh, and waste burned. ²⁸ The one who burns them is to wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterward he may reenter the camp.

²⁹ This is to be a permanent statute for you: In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month you are to practice self-denial and do no work, both the native and the alien who resides among you. ³⁰ Atonement will be made for you on this day to cleanse you, and you will be clean from all your sins before the LORD. ³¹ It is a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you must practice self-denial; it is a permanent statute. ³² The priest who is anointed and ordained to serve as high priest in place of his father will make atonement. He will put on the linen garments, the holy garments, ³³ and make atonement for the most holy place. He will make atonement for the tent of meeting and the altar and will make atonement for the priests and all the people of the assembly. ³⁴ This is to be a permanent statute for you, to make atonement for the Israelites once a year because of all their sins. And all this was done as the LORD commanded Moses.

17 The LORD spoke to Moses: ² "Speak to Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites and tell them: This is what the LORD has commanded: ³ Anyone from the house of Israel who slaughters an ox, sheep, or goat in the camp, or slaughters it outside the camp, ⁴ instead of bringing it to the entrance to the tent of meeting to present it as an offering to the LORD before his tabernacle — that person will be considered guilty. He has shed blood and is to be cut off from his people. ⁵ This is so the Israelites will bring to the LORD the sacrifices they have been offering in the open country. They are to bring them to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting and offer them as fellowship sacrifices to the LORD. ⁶ The priest will then splatter the blood on the LORD's altar at the entrance to the tent of meeting and burn the fat as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. ⁷ They must no longer offer their sacrifices to the goat-demons that they have prostituted themselves with. This will be a permanent statute for them throughout their generations.

⁸ Say to them: Anyone from the house of Israel or from the aliens who reside among them who offers a burnt offering or a sacrifice ⁹ but does not bring it to the entrance to the tent of meeting to sacrifice it to the LORD, that person is to be cut off from his people.

¹⁰ Anyone from the house of Israel or from the aliens who reside among them who eats any blood, I will turn against that person who eats blood and cut him off from his people. ¹¹ For the life of a creature is in the blood, and I have appointed it to you to make atonement on the altar for your lives, since it is the lifeblood that makes atonement. ¹² Therefore I say to the Israelites: None of you and no alien who resides among you may eat blood.

¹³ Any Israelite or alien residing among them, who hunts down a wild animal or bird that may be eaten must drain its blood and cover it with dirt. ¹⁴ Since the life of every creature is its blood, I have told the Israelites: You are not to eat the blood of any creature, because the life of every creature is its blood; whoever eats it must be cut off.

¹⁵“Every person, whether the native or the resident alien, who eats an animal that died a natural death or was mauled by wild beasts is to wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will remain unclean until evening; then he will be clean. ¹⁶But if he does not wash his clothes and bathe himself, he will bear his iniquity.”

18 The LORD spoke to Moses: ²“Speak to the Israelites and tell them: I am the LORD your God. ³Do not follow the practices of the land of Egypt, where you used to live, or follow the practices of the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you. You must not follow their customs. ⁴You are to practice my ordinances and you are to keep my statutes by following them; I am the LORD your God. ⁵Keep my statutes and ordinances; a person will live if he does them. I am the LORD.

⁶“You are not to come near any close relative for sexual intercourse; I am the LORD. ⁷You are not to violate the intimacy that belongs to your father and mother. She is your mother; you must not have sexual intercourse with her. ⁸You are not to have sex with your father’s wife; she is your father’s family. ⁹You are not to have sexual intercourse with your sister, either your father’s daughter or your mother’s, whether born at home or born elsewhere. You are not to have sex with her. ¹⁰You are not to have sexual intercourse with your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter, for they are your family. ¹¹You are not to have sexual intercourse with your father’s wife’s daughter, who is adopted by your father; she is your sister. ¹²You are not to have sexual intercourse with your father’s sister; she is your father’s close relative. ¹³You are not to have sexual intercourse with your mother’s sister, for she is your mother’s close relative. ¹⁴You are not to violate the intimacy that belongs to your father’s brother by approaching his wife to have sexual intercourse; she is your aunt. ¹⁵You are not to have sexual intercourse with your daughter-in-law. She is your son’s wife; you are not to have sex with her. ¹⁶You are not to have sexual intercourse with your brother’s wife; she is your brother’s family. ¹⁷You are not to have sexual intercourse with a woman and her daughter. You are not to marry her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter and have sex with her. They are close relatives; it is depraved. ¹⁸You are not to marry a woman as a rival to her sister and have sexual intercourse with her during her sister’s lifetime.

²⁴“Do not defile yourselves by any of these practices, for the nations I am driving out before you have defiled themselves by all these things. ²⁵The land has become defiled, so I am punishing it for its iniquity, and the land will vomit out its inhabitants. ²⁶But you are to keep my statutes and ordinances. You must not commit any of these detestable acts — not the native or the alien who resides among you. ²⁷For the people who were in the land prior to you have committed all these detestable acts, and the land has become defiled. ²⁸If you defile the land, it will vomit you out as it has vomited out the nations that were before you. ²⁹Any person who does any of these detestable practices is to be cut off from his people. ³⁰You must keep my instruction to not do any of the detestable customs that were practiced before you, so that you do not defile yourselves by them; I am the LORD your God.”

19 The LORD spoke to Moses: ²“Speak to the entire Israelite community and tell them: Be holy because I, the LORD your God, am holy.

³“Each of you is to respect his mother and father. You are to keep my Sabbaths; I am the LORD your God. ⁴Do not turn to idols or make cast images of gods for yourselves; I am the LORD your God.

⁵“When you offer a fellowship sacrifice to the LORD, sacrifice it so that you may be accepted. ⁶It is to be eaten on the day you sacrifice it or on the next day, but what remains on the third day must be burned. ⁷If any is eaten on the third day, it is a repulsive thing; it will not be accepted. ⁸Anyone who eats it will bear his iniquity, for he has profaned what is holy to the LORD. That person is to be cut off from his people.

⁹“When you reap the harvest of your land, you are not to reap to the very edge of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. ¹⁰Do not strip your vineyard bare or gather its fallen grapes. Leave them for the poor and the resident alien; I am the LORD your God.

¹¹“Do not steal. Do not act deceptively or lie to one another. ¹²Do not swear falsely by my name, profaning the name of your God; I am the LORD.

¹³“Do not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages due a hired worker must not remain with you until morning. ¹⁴Do not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block in front of the blind, but you are to fear your God; I am the LORD.

¹⁷“Do not harbor hatred against your brother. Rebuke your neighbor directly, and you will not incur guilt because of him. ¹⁸Do not take revenge or bear a grudge against members of your community, but love your neighbor as yourself; I am the LORD.

²⁰“If a man has sexual intercourse with a woman who is a slave designated for another man, but she has not been redeemed or given her freedom, there must be punishment. They are not to be put to death, because she had not been freed. ²¹However, he must bring a ram as his guilt offering to the LORD at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ²²The priest will make atonement on his behalf before the LORD with the ram of the guilt offering for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven for the sin he committed.

²³“When you come into the land and plant any kind of tree for food, you are to consider the fruit forbidden. It will be forbidden to you for three years; it is not to be eaten. ²⁴In the fourth year all its fruit is to be consecrated as a praise offering to the LORD. ²⁵But in the fifth year you may eat its fruit. In this way its yield will increase for you; I am the LORD your God.

²⁶“You are not to eat anything with blood in it. You are not to practice divination or witchcraft. ²⁷You are not to cut off the hair at the sides of your head or mar the edge of your beard.²⁸ You are not to make gashes on your bodies for the dead or put tattoo marks on yourselves; I am the LORD.

²⁹ Do not debase your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the land will be prostituted and filled with depravity. ³⁰ Keep my Sabbaths and revere my sanctuary; I am the LORD.

³¹ Do not turn to mediums or consult spiritists, or you will be defiled by them; I am the LORD your God.

³³ When an alien resides with you in your land, you must not oppress him. ³⁴ You will regard the alien who resides with you as the native-born among you. You are to love him as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.

³⁵ Do not be unfair in measurements of length, weight, or volume. ³⁶ You are to have honest balances, honest weights, an honest dry measure, and an honest liquid measure; I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. ³⁷ Keep all my statutes and all my ordinances and do them; I am the LORD.

20 The LORD spoke to Moses: ² Say to the Israelites: Any Israelite or alien residing in Israel who gives any of his children to Molech must be put to death; the people of the country are to stone him. ³ I will turn against that man and cut him off from his people, because he gave his offspring to Molech, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name. ⁴ But if the people of the country look the other way when that man gives any of his children to Molech, and do not put him to death, ⁵ then I will turn against that man and his family, and cut off from their people both him and all who follow him in prostituting themselves with Molech.

⁶ Whoever turns to mediums or spiritists and prostitutes himself with them, I will turn against that person and cut him off from his people. ⁷ Consecrate yourselves and be holy, for I am the LORD your God. ⁸ Keep my statutes and do them; I am the LORD who sets you apart.

¹³ If a man sleeps with a man as with a woman, they have both committed a detestable act. They must be put to death; their death is their own fault. ¹⁴ If a man marries a woman and her mother, it is depraved. Both he and they must be burned, so that there will be no depravity among you. ¹⁵ If a man has sexual intercourse with an animal, he must be put to death; you are also to kill the animal. ¹⁶ If a woman approaches any animal and mates with it, you are to kill the woman and the animal. They must be put to death; their death is their own fault. ¹⁷ If a man marries his sister, whether his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, and they have sexual relations, it is a disgrace. They are to be cut off publicly from their people. He has had sexual intercourse with his sister; he will bear his iniquity. ¹⁸ If a man sleeps with a menstruating woman and has sexual intercourse with her, he has exposed the source of her flow, and she has uncovered the source of her blood. Both of them are to be cut off from their people. ¹⁹ You must not have sexual intercourse with your mother's sister or your father's sister, for it is exposing one's own blood relative; both people will bear their iniquity. ²⁰ If a man sleeps with his aunt, he has violated the intimacy that belongs to his uncle; they will bear their guilt and die childless. ²¹ If a man marries his brother's wife, it is impurity. He has violated the intimacy that belongs to his brother; they will be childless.

²² You are to keep all my statutes and all my ordinances, and do them, so that the land where I am bringing you to live will not vomit you out. ²³ You must not follow the statutes of the nations I am driving out before you, for they did all these things, and I abhorred them. ²⁴ And I promised you: You will inherit their land, since I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God who set you apart from the peoples. ²⁵ Therefore you are to distinguish the clean animal from the unclean one, and the unclean bird from the clean one. Do not become contaminated by any land animal, bird, or whatever crawls on the ground; I have set these apart as unclean for you. ²⁶ You are to be holy to me because I, the LORD, am holy, and I have set you apart from the nations to be mine.

21 The LORD said to Moses: "Speak to Aaron's sons, the priests, and tell them: A priest is not to make himself ceremonially unclean for a dead person among his relatives, ² except for his immediate family: his mother, father, son, daughter, or brother. ³ He may make himself unclean for his unmarried virgin sister in his immediate family. ⁴ He is not to make himself unclean for those related to him by marriage and so defile himself.

⁵ Priests may not make bald spots on their heads, shave the edge of their beards, or make gashes on their bodies. ⁶ They are to be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God. For they present the fire offerings to the LORD, the food of their God, and they must be holy. ⁷ They are not to marry a woman defiled by prostitution. They are not to marry one divorced by her husband, for the priest is holy to his God. ⁸ You are to consider him holy since he presents the food of your God. He will be holy to you because I, the LORD who sets you apart, am holy. ⁹ If a priest's daughter defiles herself by promiscuity, she defiles her father; she must be burned to death.

¹⁰ The priest who is highest among his brothers, who has had the anointing oil poured on his head and has been ordained to wear the clothes, must not dishevel his hair or tear his clothes. ¹¹ He must not go near any dead person or make himself unclean even for his father or mother. ¹² He must not leave the sanctuary or he will desecrate the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is on him; I am the LORD.

¹⁶ The LORD spoke to Moses: ¹⁷ Tell Aaron: None of your descendants throughout your generations who has a physical defect is to come near to present the food of his God. ¹⁸ No man who has any defect is to come near: no man who is blind, lame, facially disfigured, or deformed; ¹⁹ no man who has a broken foot or hand, ²⁰ or who is a hunchback or a dwarf, or who has an eye defect, a festering rash, scabs, or a crushed testicle.²¹ No descendant of the priest Aaron who has a defect is to come near to present the fire offerings to the LORD. He has a defect and is not to come near to present the food of his God.²² He may eat the food of his God from what is especially holy as well as from what is holy.²³ But because he has a defect, he must not go near the curtain or approach the altar. He is not to desecrate my holy places, for I am the LORD who sets them apart.”²⁴ Moses said this to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites.

22 The LORD spoke to Moses:² “Tell Aaron and his sons to deal respectfully with the holy offerings of the Israelites that they have consecrated to me, so they do not profane my holy name; I am the LORD.³ Say to them: If any man from any of your descendants throughout your generations is in a state of uncleanness yet approaches the holy offerings that the Israelites consecrate to the LORD, that person will be cut off from my presence; I am the LORD.⁴ No man of Aaron’s descendants who has a skin disease or a discharge is to eat from the holy offerings until he is clean. Whoever touches anything made unclean by a dead person or by a man who has an emission of semen,⁵ or whoever touches any swarming creature that makes him unclean or any person who makes him unclean — whatever his uncleanness —⁶ the man who touches any of these will remain unclean until evening and is not to eat from the holy offerings unless he has bathed his body with water.⁷ When the sun has set, he will become clean, and then he may eat from the holy offerings, for that is his food.⁸ He must not eat an animal that died naturally or was mauled by wild beasts, making himself unclean by it; I am the LORD.⁹ They must keep my instruction, or they will be guilty and die because they profane it; I am the LORD who sets them apart.

sacrifice as a freewill offering any animal from the herd or flock that has an elongated or stunted limb, but it is not acceptable as a vow offering.²⁴ You are not to present to the LORD anything that has bruised, crushed, torn, or severed testicles; you must not sacrifice them in your land.²⁵ Neither you nor a foreigner are to present food to your God from any of these animals. They will not be accepted for you because they are deformed and have a defect.”

²⁶ The LORD spoke to Moses:²⁷ “When an ox, sheep, or goat is born, it is to remain with its mother for seven days; from the eighth day on, it will be acceptable as an offering, a fire offering to the LORD.²⁸ But you are not to slaughter an animal from the herd or flock on the same day as its young.²⁹ When you sacrifice a thank offering to the LORD, sacrifice it so that you may be accepted.³⁰ It is to be eaten on the same day. Do not let any of it remain until morning; I am the LORD.

³¹ “You are to keep my commands and do them; I am the LORD.³² You must not profane my holy name; I must be treated as holy among the Israelites. I am the LORD who sets you apart,³³ the one who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am the LORD.”

23 The LORD spoke to Moses:² “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: These are my appointed times, the times of the LORD that you will proclaim as sacred assemblies.

³ “Work may be done for six days, but on the seventh day there is to be a Sabbath of complete rest, a sacred assembly. You are not to do any work; it is a Sabbath to the LORD wherever you live.

⁹ The LORD spoke to Moses:¹⁰ “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you enter the land I am giving you and reap its harvest, you are to bring the first sheaf of your harvest to the priest.¹¹ He will present the sheaf before the LORD so that you may be accepted; the priest is to present it on the day after the Sabbath.¹² On the day you present the sheaf, you are to offer a year-old male lamb without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD.¹³ Its grain offering is to be four quarts of fine flour mixed with oil as a fire offering to the LORD, a pleasing aroma, and its drink offering will be one quart of wine.¹⁴ You must not eat bread, roasted grain, or any new grain until this very day, and until you have brought the offering to your God. This is to be a permanent statute throughout your generations wherever you live.

¹⁵ “You are to count seven complete weeks starting from the day after the Sabbath, the day you brought the sheaf of the presentation offering.¹⁶ You are to count fifty days until the day after the seventh Sabbath and then present an offering of new grain to the LORD.¹⁷ Bring two loaves of bread from your settlements as a presentation offering, each of them made from four quarts of fine flour, baked with yeast, as firstfruits to the LORD.¹⁸ You are to present with the bread seven unblemished male lambs a year old, one young bull, and two rams. They will be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offerings and drink offerings, a fire offering of a pleasing aroma to the LORD.¹⁹ You are also to prepare one male goat as a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old as a fellowship sacrifice.²⁰ The priest will present the lambs with the bread of firstfruits as a presentation offering before the LORD; the bread and the two lambs will be holy to the LORD for the priest.²¹ On that same day you are to make a proclamation and hold a sacred assembly. You are not to do any daily work. This is to be a permanent statute wherever you live throughout your generations.²² When you reap the harvest of your land, you are not to reap all the way to the edge of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Leave them for the poor and the resident alien; I am the LORD your God.”

²³The LORD spoke to Moses:²⁴ “Tell the Israelites: In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you are to have a day of complete rest, commemoration, and trumpet blasts — a sacred assembly.²⁵ You must not do any daily work, but you must present a fire offering to the LORD.”

²⁶The LORD again spoke to Moses:²⁷ “The tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. You are to hold a sacred assembly and practice self-denial; you are to present a fire offering to the LORD.²⁸ On this particular day you are not to do any work, for it is a Day of Atonement to make atonement for yourselves before the LORD your God.²⁹ If any person does not practice self-denial on this particular day, he is to be cut off from his people.³⁰ I will destroy among his people anyone who does any work on this same day.³¹ You are not to do any work. This is a permanent statute throughout your generations wherever you live.³² It will be a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you must practice self-denial. You are to observe your Sabbath from the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening.”

³³The LORD spoke to Moses:³⁴ “Tell the Israelites: The Festival of Shelters to the LORD begins on the fifteenth day of this seventh month and continues for seven days.³⁵ There is to be a sacred assembly on the first day; you are not to do any daily work.³⁶ You are to present a fire offering to the LORD for seven days. On the eighth day you are to hold a sacred assembly and present a fire offering to the LORD. It is a solemn gathering; you are not to do any daily work.

³⁹“You are to celebrate the LORD’s festival on the fifteenth day of the seventh month for seven days after you have gathered the produce of the land. There will be complete rest on the first day and complete rest on the eighth day.⁴⁰ On the first day you are to take the product of majestic trees — palm fronds, boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook — and rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.⁴¹ You are to celebrate it as a festival to the LORD seven days each year. This is a permanent statute for you throughout your generations; celebrate it in the seventh month.⁴² You are to live in shelters for seven days. All the native-born of Israel must live in shelters,⁴³ so that your generations may know that I made the Israelites live in shelters when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.”⁴⁴ So Moses declared the LORD’s appointed times to the Israelites.

24 The LORD spoke to Moses:² “Command the Israelites to bring you pure oil from crushed olives for the light, in order to keep the lamp burning regularly.³ Aaron is to tend it continually from evening until morning before the LORD outside the curtain of the testimony in the tent of meeting. This is a permanent statute throughout your generations.⁴ He must continually tend the lamps on the pure gold lampstand in the LORD’s presence.

¹⁰Now the son of an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father was among the Israelites. A fight broke out in the camp between the Israelite woman’s son and an Israelite man.¹¹ Her son cursed and blasphemed the Name, and they brought him to Moses. (His mother’s name was Shelomith, a daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan.)¹² They put him in custody until the LORD’s decision could be made clear to them.

¹³Then the LORD spoke to Moses:¹⁴ “Bring the one who has cursed to the outside of the camp and have all who heard him lay their hands on his head; then have the whole community stone him.¹⁵ And tell the Israelites: If anyone curses his God, he will bear the consequences of his sin.¹⁶ Whoever blasphemes the name of the LORD must be put to death; the whole community is to stone him. If he blasphemes the Name, he is to be put to death, whether the resident alien or the native.

²³After Moses spoke to the Israelites, they brought the one who had cursed to the outside of the camp and stoned him. So the Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

25 The LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai:² “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you enter the land I am giving you, the land will observe a Sabbath to the LORD.³ You may sow your field for six years, and you may prune your vineyard and gather its produce for six years.⁴ But there will be a Sabbath of complete rest for the land in the seventh year, a Sabbath to the LORD; you are not to sow your field or prune your vineyard.⁵ You are not to reap what grows by itself from your crop, or harvest the grapes of your untended vines. It is to be a year of complete rest for the land.⁶ Whatever the land produces during the Sabbath year can be food for you — for yourself, your male or female slave, and the hired worker or alien who resides with you.⁷ All of its growth may serve as food for your livestock and the wild animals in your land.

⁸ You are to count seven sabbatical years, seven times seven years, so that the time period of the seven sabbatical years amounts to forty-nine. ⁹ Then you are to sound a trumpet loudly in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month; you will sound it throughout your land on the Day of Atonement. ¹⁰ You are to consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim freedom in the land for all its inhabitants. It will be your Jubilee, when each of you is to return to his property and each of you to his clan. ¹¹ The fiftieth year will be your Jubilee; you are not to sow, reap what grows by itself, or harvest its untended vines. ¹² It is to be holy to you because it is the Jubilee; you may only eat its produce directly from the field.

²³ The land is not to be permanently sold because it is mine, and you are only aliens and temporary residents on my land. ²⁴ You are to allow the redemption of any land you occupy. ²⁵ If your brother becomes destitute and sells part of his property, his nearest relative may come and redeem what his brother has sold. ²⁶ If a man has no family redeemer, but he prospers and obtains enough to redeem his land, ²⁷ he may calculate the years since its sale, repay the balance to the man he sold it to, and return to his property. ²⁸ But if he cannot obtain enough to repay him, what he sold will remain in the possession of its purchaser until the Year of Jubilee. It is to be released at the Jubilee, so that he may return to his property.

³⁹ If your brother among you becomes destitute and sells himself to you, you must not force him to do slave labor. ⁴⁰ Let him stay with you as a hired worker or temporary resident; he may work for you until the Year of Jubilee. ⁴¹ Then he and his children are to be released from you, and he may return to his clan and his ancestral property. ⁴² They are not to be sold as slaves, because they are my servants that I brought out of the land of Egypt. ⁴³ You are not to rule over them harshly but fear your God. ⁴⁴ Your male and female slaves are to be from the nations around you; you may purchase male and female slaves. ⁴⁵ You may also purchase them from the aliens residing with you, or from their families living among you — those born in your land. These may become your property. ⁴⁶ You may leave them to your sons after you to inherit as property; you can make them slaves for life. But concerning your brothers, the Israelites, you must not rule over one another harshly.

⁴⁷ If an alien or temporary resident living among you prospers, but your brother living near him becomes destitute and sells himself to the alien living among you, or to a member of the resident alien's clan, ⁴⁸ he has the right of redemption after he has been sold. One of his brothers may redeem him. ⁴⁹ His uncle or cousin may redeem him, or any of his close relatives from his clan may redeem him. If he prospers, he may redeem himself. ⁵⁰ The one who purchased him is to calculate the time from the year he sold himself to him until the Year of Jubilee. The price of his sale will be determined by the number of years. It will be set for him like the daily wages of a hired worker. ⁵¹ If many years are still left, he must pay his redemption price in proportion to them based on his purchase price. ⁵² If only a few years remain until the Year of Jubilee, he will calculate and pay the price of his redemption in proportion to his remaining years. ⁵³ He will stay with him like a man hired year by year. A resident alien is not to rule over him harshly in your sight. ⁵⁴ If he is not redeemed in any of these ways, he and his children are to be released at the Year of Jubilee. ⁵⁵ For the Israelites are my servants. They are my servants that I brought out of the land of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.

26 Do not make idols for yourselves, set up a carved image or sacred pillar for yourselves, or place a sculpted stone in your land to bow down to it, for I am the LORD your God. ² Keep my Sabbaths and revere my sanctuary; I am the LORD.

³ If you follow my statutes and faithfully observe my commands, ⁴ I will give you rain at the right time, and the land will yield its produce, and the trees of the field will bear their fruit. ⁵ Your threshing will continue until grape harvest, and the grape harvest will continue until sowing time; you will have plenty of food to eat and live securely in your land. ⁶ I will give peace to the land, and you will lie down with nothing to frighten you. I will remove dangerous animals from the land, and no sword will pass through your land. ⁷ You will pursue your enemies, and they will fall before you by the sword.⁸ Five of you will pursue a hundred, and a hundred of you will pursue ten thousand; your enemies will fall before you by the sword.

⁹“I will turn to you, make you fruitful and multiply you, and confirm my covenant with you.¹⁰ You will eat the old grain of the previous year and will clear out the old to make room for the new.¹¹ I will place my residence among you, and I will not reject you.¹² I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be my people.¹³ I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, so that you would no longer be their slaves. I broke the bars of your yoke and enabled you to live in freedom.

¹⁴“But if you do not obey me and observe all these commands — ¹⁵if you reject my statutes and despise my ordinances, and do not observe all my commands — and break my covenant,¹⁶ then I will do this to you: I will bring terror on you — wasting disease and fever that will cause your eyes to fail and your life to ebb away. You will sow your seed in vain because your enemies will eat it.¹⁷ I will turn against you, so that you will be defeated by your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee even though no one is pursuing you.

¹⁸“But if after these things you will not obey me, I will proceed to discipline you seven times for your sins.¹⁹ I will break down your strong pride. I will make your sky like iron and your land like bronze,²⁰ and your strength will be used up for nothing. Your land will not yield its produce, and the trees of the land will not bear their fruit.

²⁷“And if in spite of this you do not obey me but act with hostility toward me,²⁸ I will act with furious hostility toward you; I will also discipline you seven times for your sins.²⁹ You will eat the flesh of your sons; you will eat the flesh of your daughters.³⁰ I will destroy your high places, cut down your shrines, and heap your lifeless bodies on the lifeless bodies of your idols; I will reject you.³¹ I will reduce your cities to ruins and devastate your sanctuaries. I will not smell the pleasing aroma of your sacrifices.³² I also will devastate the land, so that your enemies who come to live there will be appalled by it.³³ But I will scatter you among the nations, and I will draw a sword to chase after you. So your land will become desolate, and your cities will become ruins.

³⁴“Then the land will make up for its Sabbath years during the time it lies desolate, while you are in the land of your enemies. At that time the land will rest and make up for its Sabbaths.³⁵ As long as it lies desolate, it will have the rest it did not have during your Sabbaths when you lived there.

flees from a sword, and fall though no one is pursuing them.³⁷ They will stumble over one another as if fleeing from a sword though no one is pursuing them. You will not be able to stand against your enemies.³⁸ You will perish among the nations; the land of your enemies will devour you.³⁹ Those who survive in the lands of your enemies will waste away because of their iniquity; they will also waste away because of their fathers’ iniquities along with theirs.

⁴⁶These are the statutes, ordinances, and laws the LORD established between himself and the Israelites through Moses on Mount Sinai.

27 The LORD spoke to Moses: ²“Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When someone makes a special vow to the LORD that involves the assessment of people,³ if the assessment concerns a male from twenty to sixty years old, your assessment is fifty silver shekels measured by the standard sanctuary shekel.⁴ If the person is a female, your assessment is thirty shekels.⁵ If the person is from five to twenty years old, your assessment for a male is twenty shekels and for a female ten shekels.⁶ If the person is from one month to five years old, your assessment for a male is five silver shekels, and for a female your assessment is three shekels of silver.⁷ If the person is sixty years or more, your assessment is fifteen shekels for a male and ten shekels for a female.⁸ But if one is too poor to pay the assessment, he is to present the person before the priest and the priest will set a value for him. The priest will set a value for him according to what the one making the vow can afford.

⁹“If the vow involves one of the animals that may be brought as an offering to the LORD, any of these he gives to the LORD will be holy.¹⁰ He may not replace it or make a substitution for it, either good for bad, or bad for good. But if he does substitute one animal for another, both that animal and its substitute will be holy.

¹¹“If the vow involves any of the unclean animals that may not be brought as an offering to the LORD, the animal must be presented before the priest.¹² The priest will set its value, whether high or low; the price will be set as the priest makes the assessment for you.¹³ If the one who brought it decides to redeem it, he must add a fifth to the assessed value.

¹⁴“When a man consecrates his house as holy to the LORD, the priest will assess its value, whether high or low. The price will stand just as the priest assesses it.¹⁵ But if the one who consecrated his house redeems it, he must add a fifth to the assessed value, and it will be his.

¹⁶“If a man consecrates to the LORD any part of a field that he possesses, your assessment of value will be proportional to the seed needed to sow it, at the rate of fifty silver shekels for every five bushels of barley seed. ¹⁷If he consecrates his field during the Year of Jubilee, the price will stand according to your assessment. ¹⁸But if he consecrates his field after the Jubilee, the priest will calculate the price for him in proportion to the years left until the next Year of Jubilee, so that your assessment will be reduced. ¹⁹If the one who consecrated the field decides to redeem it, he must add a fifth to the assessed value, and the field will transfer back to him. ²⁰But if he does not redeem the field or if he has sold it to another man, it is no longer redeemable. ²¹When the field is released in the Jubilee, it will be holy to the LORD like a field permanently set apart; it becomes the priest’s property.

²²“If a person consecrates to the LORD a field he has purchased that is not part of his inherited landholding, ²³then the priest will calculate for him the amount of the assessment up to the Year of Jubilee, and the person will pay the assessed value on that day as a holy offering to the LORD. ²⁴In the Year of Jubilee the field will return to the one he bought it from, the original owner. ²⁵All your assessed values will be measured by the standard sanctuary shekel, twenty gerahs to the shekel.

²⁸“Nothing that a man permanently sets apart to the LORD from all he owns, whether a person, an animal, or his inherited landholding, can be sold or redeemed; everything set apart is especially holy to the LORD. ²⁹No person who has been set apart for destruction is to be ransomed; he must be put to death.

³⁴These are the commands the LORD gave Moses for the Israelites on Mount Sinai.

1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the tent of meeting in the Wilderness of Sinai, on the first day of the second month of the second year after Israel's departure from the land of Egypt:² "Take a census of the entire Israelite community by their clans and their fathers' families, counting the names of every male one by one.³ You and Aaron are to register those who are twenty years old or more by their military divisions—everyone who can serve in Israel's army.⁴ A man from each tribe is to be with you, each one the head of his ancestral family.⁵ These are the names of the men who are to assist you:

- ⁶ Elizur son of Shedeur from Reuben;
- ⁷ Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai from Simeon;
- ⁸ Nahshon son of Amminadab from Judah;
- ⁹ Nethanel son of Zuar from Issachar;
- ¹⁰ Eliab son of Helon from Zebulun;
- from the sons of Joseph:
 - Elishama son of Ammiud from Ephraim,
 - Gamaliel son of Pedahzur from Manasseh;
- ¹¹ Abidan son of Gideon from Benjamin;
- ¹² Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai from Dan;
- ¹³ Pagiel son of Ochran from Asher;
- ¹⁴ Eliasaph son of Deuel from Gad;
- ¹⁵ Ahira son of Enan from Naphtali.

¹⁶ These are the men called from the community; they are leaders of their ancestral tribes, the heads of Israel's clans."

²⁸ The descendants of Issachar: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral families, counting the names of those twenty years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army,

²⁹ those registered for the tribe of Issachar numbered 54,400.

³⁰ The descendants of Zebulun: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral families, counting the names of those twenty years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army,³¹ those registered for the tribe of Zebulun numbered 57,400.

³² The descendants of Joseph:

The descendants of Ephraim: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral families, counting the names of those twenty years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army,³³ those registered for the tribe of Ephraim numbered 40,500.

³⁴ The descendants of Manasseh: according to their family records by their clans and their ancestral families, counting the names of those twenty years old or more, everyone who could serve in the army,³⁵ those registered for the tribe of Manasseh numbered 32,200.

⁴⁴ These are the men Moses and Aaron registered, with the assistance of the twelve leaders of Israel; each represented his ancestral family.⁴⁵ So all the Israelites twenty years old or more, everyone who could serve in Israel's army, were registered by their ancestral families.⁴⁶ All those registered numbered 603,550.

⁴⁷ But the Levites were not registered with them by their ancestral tribe.⁴⁸ For the LORD had told Moses:⁴⁹ "Do not register or take a census of the tribe of Levi with the other Israelites.⁵⁰ Appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, all its furnishings, and everything in it. They are to transport the tabernacle and all its articles, take care of it, and camp around it.⁵¹ Whenever the tabernacle is to move, the Levites are to take it down, and whenever it is to stop at a campsite, the Levites are to set it up. Any unauthorized person who comes near it is to be put to death.

2 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: ²“The Israelites are to camp under their respective banners beside the flags of their ancestral families. They are to camp around the tent of meeting at a distance from it:

3 These are the family records of Aaron and Moses at the time the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai. ² These are the names of Aaron’s sons: Nadab, the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³ These are the names of Aaron’s sons, the anointed priests, who were ordained to serve as priests. ⁴ But Nadab and Abihu died in the LORD’s presence when they presented unauthorized fire before the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai, and they had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests under the direction of Aaron their father.

⁵ The LORD spoke to Moses: ⁶ “Bring the tribe of Levi near and present them to the priest Aaron to assist him. ⁷ They are to perform duties for him and the entire community before the tent of meeting by attending to the service of the tabernacle. ⁸ They are to take care of all the furnishings of the tent of meeting and perform duties for the Israelites by attending to the service of the tabernacle. ⁹ Assign the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they have been assigned exclusively to him from the Israelites. ¹⁰ You are to appoint Aaron and his sons to carry out their priestly responsibilities, but any unauthorized person who comes near the sanctuary is to be put to death.”

¹¹ The LORD spoke to Moses: ¹² “See, I have taken the Levites from the Israelites in place of every firstborn Israelite from the womb. The Levites belong to me, ¹³ because every firstborn belongs to me. At the time I struck down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, I consecrated every firstborn in Israel to myself, both man and animal. They are mine; I am the LORD.”

¹⁴ The LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai: ¹⁵ “Register the Levites by their ancestral families and their clans. You are to register every male one month old or more.” ¹⁶ So Moses registered them in obedience to the LORD as he had been commanded:

²⁷ The Amramite clan, the Izharite clan, the Hebronite clan, and the Uzzielite clan came from Kohath; these were the Kohathites. ²⁸ Counting every male one month old or more, there were 8,600 responsible for the duties of the sanctuary. ²⁹ The clans of the Kohathites camped on the south side of the tabernacle, ³⁰ and the leader of the families of the Kohathite clans was Elizaphan son of Uzziel.³¹ Their duties involved the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the sanctuary utensils that were used with these, and the screen — and all the work relating to them.³² The chief of the Levite leaders was Eleazar son of Aaron the priest; he had oversight of those responsible for the duties of the sanctuary.

³⁸Moses, Aaron, and his sons, who performed the duties of the sanctuary as a service on behalf of the Israelites, camped in front of the tabernacle on the east, in front of the tent of meeting toward the sunrise. Any unauthorized person who came near it was to be put to death.

³⁹The total number of all the Levite males one month old or more that Moses and Aaron registered by their clans at the LORD's command was 22,000.

⁴⁰The LORD told Moses: "Register every firstborn male of the Israelites one month old or more, and list their names.

⁴¹You are to take the Levites for me — I am the LORD — in place of every firstborn among the Israelites, and the Levites' cattle in place of every firstborn among the Israelites' cattle."⁴² So Moses registered every firstborn among the Israelites, as the LORD commanded him.⁴³ The total number of the firstborn males one month old or more listed by name was 22,273.

⁴⁴The LORD spoke to Moses again: ⁴⁵"Take the Levites in place of every firstborn among the Israelites, and the Levites' cattle in place of their cattle. The Levites belong to me; I am the LORD. ⁴⁶As the redemption price for the 273 firstborn Israelites who outnumber the Levites, ⁴⁷collect five shekels for each person, according to the standard sanctuary shekel — twenty gerahs to the shekel. ⁴⁸Give the silver to Aaron and his sons as the redemption price for those who are in excess among the Israelites."

4 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: ²"Among the Levites, take a census of the Kohathites by their clans and their ancestral families, ³men from thirty years old to fifty years old — everyone who is qualified to do work at the tent of meeting.

⁷They are to spread a blue cloth over the table of the Presence and place the plates and cups on it, as well as the bowls and pitchers for the drink offering. The regular bread offering is to be on it. ⁸They are to spread a scarlet cloth over them, cover them with a covering made of fine leather, and insert the poles in the table.

¹³"They are to remove the ashes from the bronze altar, spread a purple cloth over it, ¹⁴and place all the equipment on it that they use in serving: the firepans, meat forks, shovels, and basins — all the equipment of the altar. They are to spread a covering made of fine leather over it and insert its poles.

¹⁵"Aaron and his sons are to finish covering the holy objects and all their equipment whenever the camp is to move on. The Kohathites will come and carry them, but they are not to touch the holy objects or they will die. These are the transportation duties of the Kohathites regarding the tent of meeting.

¹⁷Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: ¹⁸"Do not allow the Kohathite tribal clans to be wiped out from the Levites. ¹⁹Do this for them so that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy objects: Aaron and his sons are to go in and assign each man his task and transportation duty. ²⁰The Kohathites are not to go in and look at the holy objects as they are covered or they will die."

²¹The LORD spoke to Moses: ²²"Take a census of the Gershonites also, by their ancestral families and their clans. ²³Register men from thirty years old to fifty years old, everyone who is qualified to perform service, to do work at the tent of meeting. ²⁴This is the service of the Gershonite clans regarding work and transportation duties: ²⁵They are to transport the tabernacle curtains, the tent of meeting with its covering and the covering made of fine leather on top of it, the screen for the entrance to the tent of meeting, ²⁶the hangings of the courtyard, the screen for the entrance at the gate of the courtyard that surrounds the tabernacle and the altar, along with their ropes and all the equipment for their service. They will carry out everything that needs to be done with these items.

²⁷"All the service of the Gershonites, all their transportation duties and all their other work, is to be done at the command of Aaron and his sons; you are to assign to them all that they are responsible to carry. ²⁸This is the service of the Gershonite clans at the tent of meeting, and their duties will be under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

crossbars, pillars, and bases,³² the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, and ropes, including all their equipment and all the work related to them. You are to assign by name the items that they are responsible to carry.³³ This is the service of the Merarite clans regarding all their work at the tent of meeting, under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.”

5 The LORD instructed Moses:² “Command the Israelites to send away anyone from the camp who is afflicted with a skin disease, anyone who has a discharge, or anyone who is defiled because of a corpse.³ Send away both male or female; send them outside the camp, so that they will not defile their camps where I dwell among them.”⁴ The Israelites did this, sending them outside the camp. The Israelites did as the LORD instructed Moses.

⁵ The LORD spoke to Moses:⁶ “Tell the Israelites: When a man or woman commits any sin against another, that person acts unfaithfully toward the LORD and is guilty.⁷ The person is to confess the sin he has committed. He is to pay full compensation, add a fifth of its value to it, and give it to the individual he has wronged.⁸ But if that individual has no relative to receive compensation, the compensation goes to the LORD for the priest, along with the atonement ram by which the priest will make atonement for the guilty person.⁹ Every holy contribution the Israelites present to the priest will be his.¹⁰ Each one’s holy contribution is his to give; what each one gives to the priest will be his.”

she wasn’t caught in the act;¹⁴ and if a feeling of jealousy comes over the husband and he becomes jealous because of his wife who has defiled herself — or if a feeling of jealousy comes over him and he becomes jealous of her though she has not defiled herself —¹⁵ then the man is to bring his wife to the priest. He is also to bring an offering for her of two quarts of barley flour. He is not to pour oil over it or put frankincense on it because it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering for remembrance to draw attention to guilt.

¹⁶ The priest is to bring her forward and have her stand before the LORD.¹⁷ Then the priest is to take holy water in a clay bowl, take some of the dust from the tabernacle floor, and put it in the water.¹⁸ After the priest has the woman stand before the LORD, he is to let down her hair and place in her hands the grain offering for remembrance, which is the grain offering of jealousy. The priest is to hold the bitter water that brings a curse.¹⁹ The priest will require the woman to take an oath and will say to her, ‘If no man has slept with you, if you have not gone astray and become defiled while under your husband’s authority, be unaffected by this bitter water that brings a curse.²⁰ But if you have gone astray while under your husband’s authority, if you have defiled yourself and a man other than your husband has slept with you’ —²¹ at this point the priest will make the woman take the oath with the sworn curse, and he is to say to her — ‘May the LORD make you into an object of your people’s cursing and swearing when he makes your womb shrivel and your belly swell.²² May this water that brings a curse enter your stomach, causing your belly to swell and your womb to shrivel.’

²³ Then the priest is to write these curses on a scroll and wash them off into the bitter water.²⁴ He will require the woman to drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and it will enter her to cause bitter suffering.²⁵ The priest is to take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman, present the offering before the LORD, and bring it to the altar.²⁶ The priest is to take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar. Afterward, he will require the woman to drink the water.

²⁷ When he makes her drink the water, if she has defiled herself and been unfaithful to her husband, the water that brings a curse will enter her to cause bitter suffering; her belly will swell, and her womb will shrivel. She will become a curse among her people.²⁸ But if the woman has not defiled herself and is pure, she will be unaffected and will be able to conceive children.

6 The LORD instructed Moses:² “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When a man or woman makes a special vow, a Nazirite vow, to consecrate himself to the LORD,³ he is to abstain from wine and beer. He must not drink vinegar made from wine or from beer. He must not drink any grape juice or eat fresh grapes or raisins.⁴ He is not to eat anything produced by the grapevine, from seeds to skin, during the period of his consecration.

⁵ You must not cut his hair throughout the time of his vow of consecration. He may be holy until the time is completed during which he consecrates himself to the LORD; he is to let the hair of his head grow long.⁶ He must not go near a dead body during the time he consecrates himself to the LORD.⁷ He is not to defile himself for his father or mother, or his brother or sister, when they die, while the mark of consecration to his God is on his head.⁸ He is holy to the LORD during the time of consecration.

⁹If someone suddenly dies near him, defiling his consecrated head, he must shave his head on the day of his purification; he is to shave it on the seventh day.¹⁰ On the eighth day he is to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting.¹¹ The priest is to offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to make atonement on behalf of the Nazirite, since he incurred guilt because of the corpse. On that day he is to consecrate his head again.¹² He is to rededicate his time of consecration to the LORD and to bring a year-old male lamb as a guilt offering. But do not count the initial period of consecration because it became defiled.

¹⁶The priest is to present these before the LORD and sacrifice the Nazirite's sin offering and burnt offering.¹⁷ He will also offer the ram as a fellowship sacrifice to the LORD, together with the basket of unleavened bread. Then the priest will offer the accompanying grain offering and drink offering.

¹⁸The Nazirite is to shave his consecrated head at the entrance to the tent of meeting, take the hair from his head, and put it on the fire under the fellowship sacrifice.¹⁹ The priest is to take the boiled shoulder from the ram, one unleavened cake from the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and put them into the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his consecrated head.²⁰ The priest is to present them as a presentation offering before the LORD. It is a holy portion for the priest, in addition to the breast of the presentation offering and the thigh of the contribution. After that, the Nazirite may drink wine.

²¹These are the instructions about the Nazirite who vows his offering to the LORD for his consecration, in addition to whatever else he can afford; he must fulfill whatever vow he makes in keeping with the instructions for his consecration."

²²The LORD spoke to Moses:²³ "Tell Aaron and his sons, 'This is how you are to bless the Israelites. You should say to them, ²⁴ "May the LORD bless you and protect you;

²⁵ may the LORD make his face shine on you and be gracious to you;

²⁶ may the LORD look with favor on you and give you peace."

²⁷In this way they will pronounce my name over the Israelites, and I will bless them."

7 On the day Moses finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed and consecrated it and all its furnishings, along with the altar and all its utensils. After he anointed and consecrated these things,² the leaders of Israel, the heads of their ancestral families, presented an offering.

They were the tribal leaders who supervised the registration.³ They brought as their offering before the LORD six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart from every two leaders and an ox from each one, and presented them in front of the tabernacle.

⁶So Moses took the carts and oxen and gave them to the Levites.⁷ He gave the Gershonites two carts and four oxen corresponding to their service,⁸ and gave the Merarites four carts and eight oxen corresponding to their service, under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.⁹ But he did not give any to the Kohathites, since their responsibility was service related to the holy objects carried on their shoulders.

³⁰On the fourth day Elizur son of Shedeur, leader of the Reubenites, presented an offering.³¹ His offering was one silver dish weighing 3 ¼ pounds and one silver basin weighing 1 ¾ pounds, measured by the standard sanctuary shekel, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;³² one gold bowl weighing four ounces, full of incense;³³ one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;³⁴ one male goat for a sin offering;³⁵ and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old, for the fellowship sacrifice. This was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;⁶² one gold bowl weighing four ounces, full of incense;⁶³ one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;⁶⁴ one male goat for a sin offering;⁶⁵ and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old, for the fellowship sacrifice. This was the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni.

⁸⁴ This was the dedication gift from the leaders of Israel for the altar when it was anointed: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver basins, and twelve gold bowls. ⁸⁵ Each silver dish weighed $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds, and each basin $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds. The total weight of the silver articles was 60 pounds measured by the standard sanctuary shekel. ⁸⁶ The twelve gold bowls full of incense each weighed four ounces measured by the standard sanctuary shekel. The total weight of the gold bowls was 3 pounds. ⁸⁷ All the livestock for the burnt offering totaled twelve bulls, twelve rams, and twelve male lambs a year old, with their grain offerings, and twelve male goats for the sin offering. ⁸⁸ All the livestock for the fellowship sacrifice totaled twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty male goats, and sixty male lambs a year old. This was the dedication gift for the altar after it was anointed.

⁸⁹ When Moses entered the tent of meeting to speak with the Lord, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim. He spoke to him that way.

8 The LORD spoke to Moses: ²“Speak to Aaron and tell him: When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps are to give light in front of the lampstand.” ³ So Aaron did this; he set up its lamps to give light in front of the lampstand just as the LORD had commanded Moses. ⁴ This is the way the lampstand was made: it was a hammered work of gold, hammered from its base to its flower petals. The lampstand was made according to the pattern the LORD had shown Moses.

⁸ “They are to take a young bull and its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you are to take a second young bull for a sin offering. ⁹ Bring the Levites before the tent of meeting and assemble the entire Israelite community. ¹⁰ Then present the Levites before the LORD, and have the Israelites lay their hands on them. ¹¹ Aaron is to present the Levites before the LORD as a presentation offering from the Israelites, so that they may perform the LORD’s work. ¹² Next the Levites are to lay their hands on the heads of the bulls. Sacrifice one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

¹³ “You are to have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons, and you are to present them before the LORD as a presentation offering. ¹⁴ In this way you are to separate the Levites from the rest of the Israelites so that the Levites will belong to me. ¹⁵ After that the Levites may come to serve at the tent of meeting, once you have ceremonially cleansed them and presented them as a presentation offering. ¹⁶ For they have been exclusively assigned to me from the Israelites. I have taken them for myself in place of all who come first from the womb, every Israelite firstborn. ¹⁷ For every firstborn among the Israelites is mine, both man and animal. I consecrated them to myself on the day I struck down every firstborn in the land of Egypt. ¹⁸ But I have taken the Levites in place of every firstborn among the Israelites. ¹⁹ From the Israelites, I have given the Levites exclusively to Aaron and his sons to perform the work for the Israelites at the tent of meeting and to make atonement on their behalf, so that no plague will come against the Israelites when they approach the sanctuary.”

9 In the first month of the second year after their departure from the land of Egypt, the LORD told Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai: ² “The Israelites are to observe the Passover at its appointed time. ³ You must observe it at its appointed time on the fourteenth day of this month at twilight; you are to observe it according to all its statutes and ordinances.” ⁴ So Moses told the Israelites to observe the Passover, ⁵ and they observed it in the first month on the fourteenth day at twilight in the Wilderness of Sinai. The Israelites did everything as the LORD had commanded Moses.

⁶ But there were some men who were unclean because of a human corpse, so they could not observe the Passover on that day. These men came before Moses and Aaron the same day ⁷ and said to him, “We are unclean because of a human corpse. Why should we be excluded from presenting the LORD’s offering at its appointed time with the other Israelites?”

⁸ Moses replied to them, “Wait here until I hear what the LORD commands for you.”

⁹ Then the LORD spoke to Moses: ¹⁰ “Tell the Israelites: When any one of you or your descendants is unclean because of a corpse or is on a distant journey, he may still observe the Passover to the LORD. ¹¹ Such people are to observe it in the second month, on the fourteenth day at twilight. They are to eat the animal with unleavened bread and bitter herbs; ¹² they may not leave any of it until morning or break any of its bones. They must observe the Passover according to all its statutes.

¹³ “But the man who is ceremonially clean, is not on a journey, and yet fails to observe the Passover is to be cut off from his people, because he did not present the LORD’s offering at its appointed time. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.

¹⁴ “If an alien resides with you and wants to observe the Passover to the LORD, he is to do it according to the Passover statute and its ordinances. You are to apply the same statute to both the resident alien and the native of the land.”

10 The LORD spoke to Moses: ² “Make two trumpets of hammered silver to summon the community and have the camps set out. ³ When both are sounded in long blasts, the entire community is to gather before you at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ⁴ However, if one is sounded, only the leaders, the heads of Israel’s clans, are to gather before you.

⁵When you sound short blasts, the camps pitched on the east are to set out. ⁶When you sound short blasts a second time, the camps pitched on the south are to set out. Short blasts are to be sounded for them to set out. ⁷When calling the assembly together, you are to sound long blasts, not short ones. ⁸The sons of Aaron, the priests, are to sound the trumpets. Your use of these is a permanent statute throughout your generations.

⁹When you enter into battle in your land against an adversary who is attacking you, sound short blasts on the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the LORD your God and be saved from your enemies. ¹⁰You are to sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings and your fellowship sacrifices and on your joyous occasions, your appointed festivals, and the beginning of each of your months. They will serve as a reminder for you before your God: I am the LORD your God."

²⁹Moses said to Hobab, descendant of Reuel the Midianite and Moses's relative by marriage: Reuel the Midianite: "We're setting out for the place the LORD promised: 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well, for the LORD has promised good things to Israel."

³⁰But he replied to him, "I don't want to go. Instead, I will go to my own land and my relatives."

³¹"Please don't leave us," Moses said, "since you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you can serve as our eyes. ³²If you come with us, whatever good the LORD does for us we will do for you."

³³They set out from the mountain of the LORD on a three-day journey with the ark of the LORD's covenant traveling ahead of them for those three days to seek a resting place for them. ³⁴Meanwhile, the cloud of the LORD was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

³⁵Whenever the ark set out, Moses would say:

Arise, LORD!

Let your enemies be scattered,
and those who hate you flee from your presence.

³⁶When it came to rest, he would say:

Return, LORD,

to the countless thousands of Israel.

11 Now the people began complaining openly before the LORD about hardship. When the LORD heard, his anger burned, and fire from the LORD blazed among them and consumed the outskirts of the camp. ²Then the people cried out to Moses, and he prayed to the LORD, and the fire died down. ³So that place was named Taberah, because the LORD's fire had blazed among them.

⁴The riffraff among them had a strong craving for other food. The Israelites wept again and said, "Who will feed us meat? ⁵We remember the free fish we ate in Egypt, along with the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic. ⁶But now our appetite is gone; there's nothing to look at but this manna!"

¹⁰Moses heard the people, family after family, weeping at the entrance of their tents. The LORD was very angry; Moses was also provoked. ¹¹So Moses asked the LORD, "Why have you brought such trouble on your servant? Why are you angry with me, and why do you burden me with all these people? ¹²Did I conceive all these people? Did I give them birth so you should tell me, 'Carry them at your breast, as a nanny carries a baby,' to the land that you swore to give their fathers? ¹³Where can I get meat to give all these people? For they are weeping to me, 'Give us meat to eat!' ¹⁴I can't carry all these people by myself. They are too much for me. ¹⁵If you are going to treat me like this, please kill me right now if I have found favor with you, and don't let me see my misery anymore."

¹⁶The LORD answered Moses, "Bring me seventy men from Israel known to you as elders and officers of the people. Take them to the tent of meeting and have them stand there with you. ¹⁷Then I will come down and speak with you there. I will take some of the Spirit who is on you and put the Spirit on them. They will help you bear the burden of the people, so that you do not have to bear it by yourself.

¹⁸"Tell the people: Consecrate yourselves in readiness for tomorrow, and you will eat meat because you wept in the LORD's hearing, 'Who will feed us meat? We were better off in Egypt.' The LORD will give you meat and you will eat. ¹⁹You will eat, not for one day, or two days, or five days, or ten days, or twenty days, ²⁰but for a whole month—until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes nauseating to you—because you have rejected the LORD who is among you, and wept before him: 'Why did we ever leave Egypt?'"

²¹But Moses replied, "I'm in the middle of a people with six hundred thousand foot soldiers, yet you say, 'I will give them meat, and they will eat for a month.' ²²If flocks and herds were slaughtered for them, would they have enough? Or if all the fish in the sea were caught for them, would they have enough?"

²³ The LORD answered Moses, "Is the LORD's arm weak? Now you will see whether or not what I have promised will happen to you."

²⁴ Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD. He brought seventy men from the elders of the people and had them stand around the tent. ²⁵ Then the LORD descended in the cloud and spoke to him. He took some of the Spirit that was on Moses and placed the Spirit on the seventy elders. As the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they never did it again. ²⁶ Two men had remained in the camp, one named Eldad and the other Medad; the Spirit rested on them — they were among those listed, but had not gone out to the tent — and they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷ A young man ran and reported to Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

²⁸ Joshua son of Nun, assistant to Moses since his youth, responded, "Moses, my lord, stop them!"

²⁹ But Moses asked him, "Are you jealous on my account? If only all the LORD's people were prophets and the LORD would place his Spirit on them!" ³⁰ Then Moses returned to the camp along with the elders of Israel.

³¹ A wind sent by the LORD came up and blew quail in from the sea; it dropped them all around the camp. They were flying three feet off the ground for about a day's journey in every direction. ³² The people were up all that day and night and all the next day gathering the quail — the one who took the least gathered fifty bushels — and they spread them out all around the camp.

³³ While the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the LORD's anger burned against the people, and the LORD struck them with a very severe plague. ³⁴ So they named that place Kibroth-hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had craved the meat.

³⁵ From Kibroth-hattaavah the people moved on to Hazeroth and remained there.

12 Miriam and Aaron criticized Moses because of the Cushite woman he married (for he had married a Cushite woman). ² They said, "Does the LORD speak only through Moses? Does he not also speak through us?" And the LORD heard it. ³ Moses was a very humble man, more so than anyone on the face of the earth.

⁴ Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, "You three come out to the tent of meeting." So the three of them went out. ⁵ Then the LORD descended in a pillar of cloud, stood at the entrance to the tent, and summoned Aaron and Miriam. When the two of them came forward, ⁶ he said:

"Listen to what I say:

If there is a prophet among you from the LORD,
I make myself known to him in a vision;
I speak with him in a dream.

⁷ Not so with my servant Moses;
he is faithful in all my household.

⁸ I speak with him directly,
openly, and not in riddles;
he sees the form of the LORD.

So why were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses? ⁹ The LORD's anger burned against them, and he left.

¹⁰ As the cloud moved away from the tent, Miriam's skin suddenly became diseased, resembling snow. When Aaron turned toward her, he saw that she was diseased ¹¹ and said to Moses, "My lord, please don't hold against us this sin we have so foolishly committed. ¹² Please don't let her be like a dead baby whose flesh is half eaten away when he comes out of his mother's womb."

¹⁴ The LORD answered Moses, "If her father had merely spit in her face, wouldn't she remain in disgrace for seven days? Let her be confined outside the camp for seven days; after that she may be brought back in." ¹⁵ So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until Miriam was brought back in. ¹⁶ After that, the people set out from Hazeroth and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

13 The LORD spoke to Moses: ² "Send men to scout out the land of Canaan I am giving to the Israelites. Send one man who is a leader among them from each of their ancestral tribes." ³ Moses sent them from the Wilderness of Paran at the LORD's command. All the men were leaders in Israel. ⁴ These were their names:

- ⁵ Shammua son of Zaccur from the tribe of Reuben;
- ⁶ Shaphat son of Hori from the tribe of Simeon;
- ⁷ Caleb son of Jephunneh from the tribe of Judah;
- ⁸ Igal son of Joseph from the tribe of Issachar;
- ⁹ Hoshea son of Nun from the tribe of Ephraim;
- ¹⁰ Palti son of Raphu from the tribe of Benjamin;
- ¹¹ Gaddiel son of Sodi from the tribe of Zebulun;
- ¹² Gaddi son of Susi from the tribe of Manasseh (from the tribe of Joseph);
- ¹³ Ammiel son of Gemalli from the tribe of Dan;
- ¹⁴ Sethur son of Michael from the tribe of Asher;
- ¹⁵ Nahbi son of Vophsi from the tribe of Naphtali;
- ¹⁶ Geuel son of Machi from the tribe of Gad.

²¹ So they went up and scouted out the land from the Wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob near the entrance to Hamath. ²² They went up through the Negev and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, were living. Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt. ²³ When they came to the Valley of Eshcol, they cut down a branch with a single cluster of grapes, which was carried on a pole by two men. They also took some pomegranates and figs. ²⁴ That place was called the Valley of Eshcol because of the cluster of grapes the Israelites cut there. ²⁵ At the end of forty days they returned from scouting out the land.

²⁶ The men went back to Moses, Aaron, and the entire Israelite community in the Wilderness of Paran at Kadesh. They brought back a report for them and the whole community, and they showed them the fruit of the land. ²⁷ They reported to Moses: "We went into the land where you sent us. Indeed it is flowing with milk and honey, and here is some of its fruit. ²⁸ However, the people living in the land are strong, and the cities are large and fortified. We also saw the descendants of Anak there. ²⁹ The Amalekites are living in the land of the Negev; the Hethites, Jebusites, and Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live by the sea and along the Jordan."

³⁰Then Caleb quieted the people in the presence of Moses and said, "Let's go up now and take possession of the land because we can certainly conquer it!"

³¹But the men who had gone up with him responded, "We can't attack the people because they are stronger than we are!" ³²So they gave a negative report to the Israelites about the land they had scouted: "The land we passed through to explore is one that devours its inhabitants, and all the people we saw in it are men of great size. ³³We even saw the Nephilim there — the descendants of Anak come from the Nephilim! To ourselves we seemed like grasshoppers, and we must have seemed the same to them."

14 Then the whole community broke into loud cries, and the people wept that night. ²All the Israelites complained about Moses and Aaron, and the whole community told them, "If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or if only we had died in this wilderness! ³Why is the LORD bringing us into this land to die by the sword? Our wives and children will become plunder. Wouldn't it be better for us to go back to Egypt?" ⁴So they said to one another, "Let's appoint a leader and go back to Egypt."

⁵Then Moses and Aaron fell facedown in front of the whole assembly of the Israelite community. ⁶Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who scouted out the land, tore their clothes ⁷ and said to the entire Israelite community: "The land we passed through and explored is an extremely good land. ⁸If the LORD is pleased with us, he will bring us into this land, a land flowing with milk and honey, and give it to us. ⁹Only don't rebel against the LORD, and don't be afraid of the people of the land, for we will devour them. Their protection has been removed from them, and the LORD is with us. Don't be afraid of them!"

¹⁰While the whole community threatened to stone them, the glory of the LORD appeared to all the Israelites at the tent of meeting.

¹¹The LORD said to Moses, "How long will these people despise me? How long will they not trust in me despite all the signs I have performed among them? ¹²I will strike them with a plague and destroy them. Then I will make you into a greater and mightier nation than they are."

¹³But Moses replied to the LORD, "The Egyptians will hear about it, for by your strength you brought up this people from them. ¹⁴They will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you, LORD, are among these people, how you, LORD, are seen face to face, how your cloud stands over them, and how you go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night. ¹⁵If you kill this people with a single blow, the nations that have heard of your fame will declare, ¹⁶'Since the LORD wasn't able to bring this people into the land he swore to give them, he has slaughtered them in the wilderness.'

¹⁷"So now, may my Lord's power be magnified just as you have spoken: ¹⁸The LORD is slow to anger and abounding in faithful love, forgiving iniquity and rebellion. But he will not leave the guilty unpunished, bringing the consequences of the fathers' iniquity on the children to the third and fourth generation. ¹⁹Please pardon the iniquity of this people, in keeping with the greatness of your faithful love, just as you have forgiven them from Egypt until now."

²⁰The LORD responded, "I have pardoned them as you requested. ²¹Yet as surely as I live and as the whole earth is filled with the LORD's glory, ²²none of the men who have seen my glory and the signs I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tested me these ten times and did not obey me, ²³will ever see the land I swore to give their fathers. None of those who have despised me will see it. ²⁴But since my servant Caleb has a different spirit and has remained loyal to me, I will bring him into the land where he has gone, and his descendants will inherit it. ²⁵Since the Amalekites and Canaanites are living in the lowlands, turn back tomorrow and head for the wilderness in the direction of the Red Sea."

²⁶Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: ²⁷"How long must I endure this evil community that keeps complaining about me? I have heard the Israelites' complaints that they make against me. ²⁸Tell them: As surely as I live — this is the LORD's declaration — I will do to you exactly as I heard you say. ²⁹Your corpses will fall in this wilderness — all of you who were registered in the census, the entire number of you twenty years old or more — because you have complained about me. ³⁰I swear that none of you will enter the land I promised to settle you in, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun. ³¹I will bring your children whom you said would become plunder into the land you rejected, and they will enjoy it. ³²But as for you, your corpses will fall in this wilderness. ³³Your children will be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years and bear the penalty for your acts of unfaithfulness until all your corpses lie scattered in the wilderness. ³⁴You will bear the consequences of your iniquities forty years based on the number of the forty days that you scouted the land, a year for each day. You will know my displeasure. ³⁵I, the LORD, have spoken. I swear that I will do this to the entire evil community that has conspired against me. They will come to an end in the wilderness, and there they will die."

³⁶So the men Moses sent to scout out the land, and who returned and incited the entire community to complain about him by spreading a negative report about the land — ³⁷those men who spread the negative report about the land were struck down by the LORD. ³⁸Only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh remained alive of those men who went to scout out the land.

³⁹When Moses reported these words to all the Israelites, the people were overcome with grief. ⁴⁰They got up early the next morning and went up the ridge of the hill country, saying, "Let's go to the place the LORD promised, for we were wrong."

⁴¹But Moses responded, "Why are you going against the LORD's command? It won't succeed. ⁴²Don't go, because the LORD is not among you and you will be defeated by your enemies. ⁴³The Amalekites and Canaanites are right in front of you, and you will fall by the sword. The LORD won't be with you, since you have turned from following him."

15 The LORD instructed Moses: ²"Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you enter the land I am giving you to settle in, ³and you make a fire offering to the LORD from the herd or flock — either a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow, or as a freewill offering, or at your appointed festivals — to produce a pleasing aroma for the LORD, ⁴the one presenting his offering to the LORD is also to present a grain offering of two quarts of fine flour mixed with a quart of oil.⁵ Prepare a quart of wine as a drink offering with the burnt offering or sacrifice of each lamb.

¹⁷The LORD instructed Moses:¹⁸ “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: After you enter the land where I am bringing you,¹⁹ you are to offer a contribution to the LORD when you eat from the food of the land.²⁰ You are to offer a loaf from your first batch of dough as a contribution; offer it just like a contribution from the threshing floor.²¹ Throughout your generations, you are to give the LORD a contribution from the first batch of your dough.

²²“When you sin unintentionally and do not obey all these commands that the LORD spoke to Moses — ²³ all that the LORD has commanded you through Moses, from the day the LORD issued the commands and onward throughout your generations — ²⁴ and if it was done unintentionally without the community’s awareness, the entire community is to prepare one young bull for a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD, with its grain offering and drink offering according to the regulation, and one male goat as a sin offering.²⁵ The priest will then make atonement for the entire Israelite community so that they may be forgiven, for the sin was unintentional. They are to bring their offering, one made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD for their unintentional sin.²⁶ The entire Israelite community and the alien who resides among them will be forgiven, since it happened to all the people unintentionally.

²⁷“If one person sins unintentionally, he is to present a year-old female goat as a sin offering.²⁸ The priest will then make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the person who acts in error sinning unintentionally, and when he makes atonement for him, he will be forgiven.²⁹ You are to have the same law for the person who acts in error, whether he is an Israelite or an alien who resides among you.

³²While the Israelites were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering wood on the Sabbath day.³³ Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses, Aaron, and the entire community.³⁴ They placed him in custody because it had not been decided what should be done to him.³⁵ Then the LORD told Moses, “The man is to be put to death. The entire community is to stone him outside the camp.”³⁶ So the entire community brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

³⁷The LORD said to Moses,³⁸ “Speak to the Israelites and tell them that throughout their generations they are to make tassels for the corners of their garments, and put a blue cord on the tassel at each corner.³⁹ These will serve as tassels for you to look at, so that you may remember all the LORD’s commands and obey them and not prostitute yourselves by following your own heart and your own eyes.⁴⁰ This way you will remember and obey all my commands and be holy to your God.⁴¹ I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am the LORD your God.”

⁴When Moses heard this, he fell facedown.⁵ Then he said to Korah and all his followers, “Tomorrow morning the LORD will reveal who belongs to him, who is set apart, and the one he will let come near him. He will let the one he chooses come near him.⁶ Korah, you and all your followers are to do this: take firepans, and tomorrow ⁷ place fire in them and put incense on them before the LORD. Then the man the LORD chooses will be the one who is set apart. It is you Levites who have gone too far!”

⁸ Moses also told Korah, “Now listen, Levites! ⁹ Isn’t it enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the Israelite community to bring you near to himself, to perform the work at the LORD’s tabernacle, and to stand before the community to minister to them?¹⁰ He has brought you near, and all your fellow Levites who are with you, but you are pursuing the priesthood as well.¹¹ Therefore, it is you and all your followers who have conspired against the LORD! As for Aaron, who is he that you should complain about him?”

¹² Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, but they said, “We will not come! ¹³ Is it not enough that you brought us up from a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness? Do you also have to appoint yourself as ruler over us?¹⁴ Furthermore, you didn’t bring us to a land flowing with milk and honey or give us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you gouge out the eyes of these men? We will not come!”

¹⁵Then Moses became angry and said to the LORD, “Don’t respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them or mistreated a single one of them.”¹⁶ So Moses told Korah, “You and all your followers are to appear before the LORD tomorrow — you, they, and Aaron.¹⁷ Each of you is to take his firepan, place incense on it, and present his firepan before the LORD — ²⁵⁰ firepans. You and Aaron are each to present your firepan also.”

¹⁸ Each man took his firepan, placed fire in it, put incense on it, and stood at the entrance to the tent of meeting along with Moses and Aaron.¹⁹ After Korah assembled the whole community against them at the entrance to the tent of meeting, the glory of the LORD appeared to the whole community.²⁰ The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron,²¹ "Separate yourselves from this community so I may consume them instantly."

²² But Moses and Aaron fell facedown and said, "God, God who gives breath to all, when one man sins, will you vent your wrath on the whole community?"

²³ The LORD replied to Moses,²⁴ "Tell the community: Get away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram."

²⁵ Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.²⁶ He warned the community, "Get away now from the tents of these wicked men. Don't touch anything that belongs to them, or you will be swept away because of all their sins."²⁷ So they got away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Meanwhile, Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the entrance of their tents with their wives, children, and infants.

²⁸ Then Moses said, "This is how you will know that the LORD sent me to do all these things and that it was not of my own will:²⁹ If these men die naturally as all people would, and suffer the fate of all, then the LORD has not sent me."

³⁰ But if the LORD brings about something unprecedented, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them along with all that belongs to them so that they go down alive into Sheol, then you will know that these men have despised the LORD."

³¹ Just as he finished speaking all these words, the ground beneath them split open.³² The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and their households, all Korah's people, and all their possessions.³³ They went down alive into Sheol with all that belonged to them. The earth closed over them, and they vanished from the assembly.³⁴ At their cries, all the people of Israel who were around them fled because they thought, "The earth may swallow us too!"³⁵ Fire also came out from the LORD and consumed the 250 men who were presenting the incense.

³⁸ As for the firepans of those who sinned at the cost of their own lives, make them into hammered sheets as plating for the altar, for they presented them before the LORD, and the firepans are holy. They will be a sign to the Israelites."

³⁹ So the priest Eleazar took the bronze firepans that those who were burned had presented, and they were hammered into plating for the altar,⁴⁰ just as the LORD commanded him through Moses. It was to be a reminder for the Israelites that no unauthorized person outside the lineage of Aaron should approach to offer incense before the LORD and become like Korah and his followers.

⁴¹ The next day the entire Israelite community complained about Moses and Aaron, saying, "You have killed the LORD's people!"⁴² When the community assembled against them, Moses and Aaron turned toward the tent of meeting, and suddenly the cloud covered it, and the LORD's glory appeared.

⁴³ Moses and Aaron went to the front of the tent of meeting,⁴⁴ and the LORD said to Moses,⁴⁵ "Get away from this community so that I may consume them instantly." But they fell facedown.

⁴⁶ Then Moses told Aaron, "Take your firepan, place fire from the altar in it, and add incense. Go quickly to the community and make atonement for them, because wrath has come from the LORD; the plague has begun."⁴⁷ So Aaron took his firepan as Moses had ordered, ran into the middle of the assembly, and saw that the plague had begun among the people. After he added incense, he made atonement for the people.⁴⁸ He stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was halted.⁴⁹ But those who died from the plague numbered 14,700, in addition to those who died because of the Korah incident.⁵⁰ Aaron then returned to Moses at the entrance to the tent of meeting, since the plague had been halted.

17 The LORD instructed Moses:² "Speak to the Israelites and take one staff from them for each ancestral tribe, twelve staffs from all the leaders of their tribes. Write each man's name on his staff.³ Write Aaron's name on Levi's staff, because there is to be one staff for the head of each tribe.⁴ Then place them in the tent of meeting in front of the testimony where I meet with you.⁵ The staff of the man I choose will sprout, and I will rid myself of the Israelites' complaints that they have been making about you."

¹² Then the Israelites declared to Moses, "Look, we're perishing! We're restless; we're all lost!¹³ Anyone who comes near the LORD's tabernacle will die. Will we all perish?"

18 The LORD said to Aaron,² "You, your sons, and your ancestral family will be responsible for iniquity against the sanctuary. You and your sons will be responsible for iniquity involving your priesthood.³ But also bring your relatives with you from the tribe of Levi, your ancestral tribe, so they may join you and assist you and your sons in front of the tent of the testimony.⁴ They are to perform duties for you and for the whole tent. They must not come near the sanctuary equipment or the altar; otherwise, both they and you will die.⁵ They are to join you and guard the tent of meeting, doing all the work at the tent, but no unauthorized person may come near you."

⁶ "You are to guard the sanctuary and the altar so that wrath may not fall on the Israelites again.⁷ Look, I have selected your fellow Levites from the Israelites as a gift for you, assigned by the LORD to work at the tent of meeting.⁸ But you and your sons will carry out your priestly responsibilities for everything concerning the altar and for what is inside the curtain, and you will do that work. I am giving you the work of the priesthood as a gift, but an unauthorized person who comes near the sanctuary will be put to death."

⁹ Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, "Look, I have put you in charge of the contributions brought to me. As for all the holy offerings of the Israelites, I have given them to you and your sons as a portion and a permanent statute."

⁹ A portion of the holiest offerings kept from the fire will be yours; every one of their offerings that they give me, whether the grain offering, sin offering, or guilt offering will be most holy for you and your sons. ¹⁰ You are to eat it as a most holy offering. Every male may eat it; it is to be holy to you.

¹⁴ "Everything in Israel that is permanently dedicated to the LORD belongs to you. ¹⁵ The firstborn of every living thing, human or animal, presented to the LORD belongs to you. But you must certainly redeem a human firstborn, and redeem the firstborn of an unclean animal. ¹⁶ You will pay the redemption price for a month-old male according to your assessment: five shekels of silver by the standard sanctuary shekel, which is twenty gerahs.

¹⁷ "However, you must not redeem the firstborn of an ox, a sheep, or a goat; they are holy. You are to splatter their blood on the altar and burn their fat as a fire offering for a pleasing aroma to the LORD. ¹⁸ But their meat belongs to you. It belongs to you like the breast of the presentation offering and the right thigh.

¹⁹ "I give to you and to your sons and daughters all the holy contributions that the Israelites present to the LORD as a permanent statute. It is a permanent covenant of salt before the LORD for you as well as your offspring."

²⁰ The LORD told Aaron, "You will not have an inheritance in their land; there will be no portion among them for you. I am your portion and your inheritance among the Israelites.

²¹ "Look, I have given the Levites every tenth in Israel as an inheritance in return for the work they do, the work of the tent of meeting. ²² The Israelites must never again come near the tent of meeting, or they will incur guilt and die. ²³ The Levites will do the work of the tent of meeting, and they will bear the consequences of their iniquity. The Levites will not receive an inheritance among the Israelites; this is a permanent statute throughout your generations. ²⁴ For I have given them the tenth that the Israelites present to the LORD as a contribution for their inheritance. That is why I told them that they would not receive an inheritance among the Israelites."

²⁵ The LORD instructed Moses, ²⁶ "Speak to the Levites and tell them: When you receive from the Israelites the tenth that I have given you as your inheritance, you are to present part of it as an offering to the LORD — a tenth of the tenth. ²⁷ Your offering will be credited to you as if it were your grain from the threshing floor or the full harvest from the winepress. ²⁸ You are to present an offering to the LORD from every tenth you receive from the Israelites. Give some of it to the priest Aaron as an offering to the LORD. ²⁹ You must present the entire offering due the LORD from all your gifts. The best part of the tenth is to be consecrated.

³⁰ "Tell them further: Once you have presented the best part of the tenth, and it is credited to you Levites as the produce of the threshing floor or the winepress, ³¹ then you and your household may eat it anywhere. It is your wage in return for your work at the tent of meeting. ³² You will not incur guilt because of it once you have presented the best part of it, but you must not defile the Israelites' holy offerings, so that you will not die."

19 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, ² "This is the legal statute that the LORD has commanded: Instruct the Israelites to bring you an unblemished red cow that has no defect and has never been yoked. ³ Give it to the priest Eleazar, and he will have it brought outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence. ⁴ The priest Eleazar is to take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the tent of meeting. ⁵ The cow is to be burned in his sight. Its hide, flesh, and blood, are to be burned along with its waste. ⁶ The priest is to take cedar wood, hyssop, and crimson yarn, and throw them onto the fire where the cow is burning. ⁷ Then the priest must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; after that he may enter the camp, but he will remain ceremonially unclean until evening. ⁸ The one who burned the cow must also wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and he will remain unclean until evening.

¹⁴ "This is the law when a person dies in a tent: everyone who enters the tent and everyone who is already in the tent will be unclean for seven days, ¹⁵ and any open container without a lid tied on it is unclean. ¹⁶ Anyone in the open field who touches a person who has been killed by the sword or has died, or who even touches a human bone, or a grave, will be unclean for seven days. ¹⁷ For the purification of the unclean person, they are to take some of the ashes of the burnt sin offering, put them in a jar, and add fresh water to them. ¹⁸ A person who is clean is to take hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle the tent, all the furnishings, and the people who were there. He is also to sprinkle the one who touched a bone, a grave, a corpse, or a person who had been killed.

¹⁹ "The one who is clean is to sprinkle the unclean person on the third day and the seventh day. After he purifies the unclean person on the seventh day, the one being purified must wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he will be clean by evening. ²⁰ But a person who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person will be cut off from the assembly because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean. ²¹ This is a permanent statute for them. The person who sprinkles the water for impurity is to wash his clothes, and whoever touches the water for impurity will be unclean until evening. ²² Anything the unclean person touches will become unclean, and anyone who touches it will be unclean until evening."

20 The entire Israelite community entered the Wilderness of Zin in the first month, and they settled in Kadesh. Miriam died and was buried there.

²There was no water for the community, so they assembled against Moses and Aaron. ³The people quarreled with Moses and said, "If only we had perished when our brothers perished before the LORD. ⁴Why have you brought the LORD's assembly into this wilderness for us and our livestock to die here? ⁵Why have you led us up from Egypt to bring us to this evil place? It's not a place of grain, figs, vines, and pomegranates, and there is no water to drink!"

⁶Then Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the doorway of the tent of meeting. They fell facedown, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them. ⁷The LORD spoke to Moses, ⁸"Take the staff and assemble the community. You and your brother Aaron are to speak to the rock while they watch, and it will yield its water. You will bring out water for them from the rock and provide drink for the community and their livestock."

⁹So Moses took the staff from the LORD's presence just as he had commanded him. ¹⁰Moses and Aaron summoned the assembly in front of the rock, and Moses said to them, "Listen, you rebels! Must we bring water out of this rock for you?" ¹¹Then Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff, so that abundant water gushed out, and the community and their livestock drank.

¹²But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not trust me to demonstrate my holiness in the sight of the Israelites, you will not bring this assembly into the land I have given them." ¹³These are the Waters of Meribah, where the Israelites quarreled with the LORD, and he demonstrated his holiness to them.

¹⁴Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, "This is what your brother Israel says, 'You know all the hardships that have overtaken us. ¹⁵Our fathers went down to Egypt, and we lived in Egypt many years, but the Egyptians treated us and our fathers badly. ¹⁶When we cried out to the LORD, he heard our plea, and sent an angel, and brought us out of Egypt. Now look, we are in Kadesh, a city on the border of your territory. ¹⁷Please let us travel through your land. We won't travel through any field or vineyard, or drink any well water. We will travel the King's Highway; we won't turn to the right or the left until we have traveled through your territory.'"

¹⁸But Edom answered him, "You will not travel through our land, or we will come out and confront you with the sword."

¹⁹"We will go on the main road," the Israelites replied to them, "and if we or our herds drink your water, we will pay its price. There will be no problem; only let us travel through on foot."

²⁰Yet Edom insisted, "You may not travel through." And they came out to confront them with a large force of heavily-armed people. ²¹Edom refused to allow Israel to travel through their territory, and Israel turned away from them.

²²After they set out from Kadesh, the entire Israelite community came to Mount Hor. ²³The LORD said to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor on the border of the land of Edom, ²⁴"Aaron will be gathered to his people; he will not enter the land I have given the Israelites, because you both rebelled against my command at the Waters of Meribah. ²⁵Take Aaron and his son Eleazar and bring them up Mount Hor. ²⁶Remove Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar. Aaron will be gathered to his people and die there."

21 When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming on the Atharim road, he fought against Israel and captured some prisoners. ²Then Israel made a vow to the LORD, "If you will hand this people over to us, we will completely destroy their cities." ³The LORD listened to Israel's request and handed the Canaanites over to them, and Israel completely destroyed them and their cities. So they named the place Hormah.

⁴Then they set out from Mount Hor by way of the Red Sea to bypass the land of Edom, but the people became impatient because of the journey. ⁵The people spoke against God and Moses: "Why have you led us up from Egypt to die in the wilderness? There is no bread or water, and we detest this wretched food!" ⁶Then the LORD sent poisonous snakes among the people, and they bit them so that many Israelites died.

⁷The people then came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you. Intercede with the LORD so that he will take the snakes away from us." And Moses interceded for the people.

⁸Then the LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake image and mount it on a pole. When anyone who is bitten looks at it, he will recover." ⁹So Moses made a bronze snake and mounted it on a pole. Whenever someone was bitten, and he looked at the bronze snake, he recovered.

¹⁰The Israelites set out and camped at Obboth. ¹¹They set out from Obboth and camped at Iye-abarim in the wilderness that borders Moab on the east. ¹²From there they went and camped at Zered Valley. ¹³They set out from there and camped on the other side of the Arnon River, in the wilderness that extends from the Amorite border, because the Arnon was the Moabite border between Moab and the Amorites. ¹⁴Therefore it is stated in the Book of the LORD's Wars:

Waheb in Suphah
and the ravines of the Arnon, ¹⁵ even the slopes of the ravines that extend to the site of Ar and lie along the border of Moab.

¹⁶From there they went to Beer, the well the LORD told Moses about, "Gather the people so I may give them water." ¹⁷Then Israel sang this song:

Spring up, well — sing to it!

¹⁸ The princes dug the well;
the nobles of the people hollowed it out with a scepter and with their staffs.

They went from the wilderness to Mattanah, ¹⁹ from Mattanah to Nahaiel, from Nahaiel to Bamoth, ²⁰ from Bamoth to the valley in the territory of Moab near the Pisgah highlands that overlook the wasteland.

²¹Israel sent messengers to say to King Sihon of the Amorites: ²²"Let us travel through your land. We won't go into the fields or vineyards. We won't drink any well water. We will travel the King's Highway until we have traveled through your territory." ²³But Sihon would not let Israel travel through his territory. Instead, he gathered his whole army and went out to confront Israel in the wilderness. When he came to Jahaz, he fought against Israel.

²⁴ Israel struck him with the sword and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, but only up to the Ammonite border, because it was fortified.

²⁵ Israel took all the cities and lived in all these Amorite cities, including Heshbon and all its surrounding villages. ²⁶ Heshbon was the city of King Sihon of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken control of all his land as far as the Arnon. ²⁷ Therefore the poets say:

Come to Heshbon, let it be rebuilt;
let the city of Sihon be restored.

²⁸ For fire came out of Heshbon,
a flame from the city of Sihon.
It consumed Ar of Moab,
the citizens of Arnon's heights.

²⁹ Woe to you, Moab!
You have been destroyed, people of Chemosh!
He gave up his sons as refugees,
and his daughters into captivity to Sihon the Amorite king.

³⁰ We threw them down;
Heshbon has been destroyed as far as Dibon.
We caused desolation as far as Nophah, which reaches as far as Medeba.

³³ Then they turned and went up the road to Bashan, and King Og of Bashan came out against them with his whole army to do battle at Edrei. ³⁴ But the LORD said to Moses, "Do not fear him, for I have handed him over to you along with his whole army and his land. Do to him as you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon." ³⁵ So they struck him, his sons, and his whole army until no one was left, and they took possession of his land.

22 The Israelites traveled on and camped in the plains of Moab near the Jordan across from Jericho. ² Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. ³ Moab was terrified of the people because they were numerous, and Moab dreaded the Israelites. ⁴ So the Moabites said to the elders of Midian, "This horde will devour everything around us like an ox eats up the green plants in the field."

Since Balak son of Zippor was Moab's king at that time, ⁵ he sent messengers to Balaam son of Beor at Pethor, which is by the Euphrates in the land of his people. Balak said to him: "Look, a people has come out of Egypt; they cover the surface of the land and are living right across from me. ⁶ Please come and put a curse on these people for me because they are more powerful than I am. I may be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I know that those you bless are blessed and those you curse are cursed."

⁷ The elders of Moab and Midian departed with fees for divination in hand. They came to Balaam and reported Balak's words to him. ⁸ He said to them, "Spend the night here, and I will give you the answer the LORD tells me." ⁹ So the officials of Moab stayed with Balaam.

¹⁰ Then God came to Balaam and asked, "Who are these men with you?"

¹¹ Balaam replied to God, "Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent this message to me: 'Look, a people has come out of Egypt, and they cover the surface of the land. Now come and put a curse on them for me. I may be able to fight against them and drive them away.'"

¹² Then God said to Balaam, "You are not to go with them. You are not to curse this people, for they are blessed."

¹³ So Balaam got up the next morning and said to Balak's officials, "Go back to your land, because the LORD has refused to let me go with you."

¹⁵ Balak sent officials again who were more numerous and higher in rank than the others. ¹⁶ They came to Balaam and said to him, "This is what Balak son of Zippor says: 'Let nothing keep you from coming to me, for I will greatly honor you and do whatever you ask me. So please come and put a curse on these people for me!'"

¹⁷ But Balaam responded to the servants of Balak, "If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go against the command of the LORD my God to do anything small or great. ¹⁸ Please stay here overnight as the others did, so that I may find out what else the LORD has to tell me."

¹⁹ God came to Balaam at night and said to him, "Since these men have come to summon you, get up and go with them, but you must only do what I tell you." ²⁰ When he got up in the morning, Balaam saddled his donkey and went with the officials of Moab.

²¹ But God was incensed that Balaam was going, and the angel of the LORD took his stand on the path to oppose him. Balaam was riding his donkey, and his two servants were with him. ²² When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing on the path with a drawn sword in his hand, she turned off the path and went into the field. So Balaam hit her to return her to the path. ²³ Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow passage between the vineyards, with a stone wall on either side. ²⁴ The donkey saw the angel of the LORD and pressed herself against the wall, squeezing Balaam's foot against it. So he hit her once again. ²⁵ The angel of the LORD went ahead and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn to the right or the left. ²⁶ When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she crouched down under Balaam. So he became furious and beat the donkey with his stick.

²⁷ Then the LORD opened the donkey's mouth, and she asked Balaam, "What have I done to you that you have beaten me these three times?"

²⁸ Balaam answered the donkey, "You made me look like a fool. If I had a sword in my hand, I'd kill you now!"

²⁹ But the donkey said, "Am I not the donkey you've ridden all your life until today? Have I ever treated you this way before?"

"No," he replied.

³⁰ Then the LORD opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the path with a drawn sword in his hand. Balaam knelt low and bowed in worship on his face. ³¹ The angel of the LORD asked him, "Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? Look, I came out to oppose you, because I consider what you are doing to be evil. ³² The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If she had not turned away from me, I would have killed you by now and let her live."

³³ Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know that you were standing in the path to confront me. And now, if it is evil in your sight, I will go back."

³⁴ Then the angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but you are to say only what I tell you." So Balaam went with Balak's officials.

³⁵ When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the Moabite city on the Arnon border at the edge of his territory.³⁷ Balak asked Balaam, "Did I not send you an urgent summons? Why didn't you come to me? Am I really not able to reward you?"

³⁸ Balaam said to him, "Look, I have come to you, but can I say anything I want? I must speak only the message God puts in my mouth."³⁹ So Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth.⁴⁰ Balak sacrificed cattle, sheep, and goats and sent for Balaam and the officials who were with him.

23 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Build me seven altars here and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."² So Balak did as Balaam directed, and they offered a bull and a ram on each altar.³ Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here by your burnt offering while I am gone. Maybe the LORD will meet with me. I will tell you whatever he reveals to me." So he went to a barren hill.

⁴ God met with him and Balaam said to him, "I have arranged seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar."⁵ Then the LORD put a message in Balaam's mouth and said, "Return to Balak and say what I tell you."

⁶ So he returned to Balak, who was standing there by his burnt offering with all the officials of Moab.

⁷ Balaam proclaimed his poem:

Balak brought me from Aram;
the king of Moab, from the eastern mountains:
"Come, put a curse on Jacob for me;
come, denounce Israel!"

⁸ How can I curse someone God has not cursed?
How can I denounce someone the LORD has not denounced?

⁹ I see them from the top of rocky cliffs,
and I watch them from the hills.
There is a people living alone;
it does not consider itself among the nations.

¹⁰ Who has counted the dust of Jacob or numbered even one-fourth of Israel?
Let me die the death of the upright;
let the end of my life be like theirs.

¹¹ "What have you done to me?" Balak asked Balaam. "I brought you to curse my enemies, but look, you have only blessed them!"

¹² He answered, "Shouldn't I say exactly what the LORD puts in my mouth?"

¹³ Then Balak said to him, "Please come with me to another place where you can see them. You will only see the outskirts of their camp; you won't see all of them. From there, put a curse on them for me."¹⁴ So Balak took him to Lookout Field on top of Pisgah, built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

¹⁵ Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here by your burnt offering while I seek the LORD over there."

¹⁶ The LORD met with Balaam and put a message in his mouth. Then he said, "Return to Balak and say what I tell you."

¹⁷ So he returned to Balak, who was standing there by his burnt offering with the officials of Moab. Balak asked him, "What did the LORD say?"

¹⁸ Balaam proclaimed his poem:

Balak, get up and listen;
son of Zippor, pay attention to what I say!

¹⁹ God is not a man, that he might lie, or a son of man, that he might change his mind.

Does he speak and not act, or promise and not fulfill?

²⁰ I have indeed received a command to bless;
since he has blessed, I cannot change it.

²¹ He considers no disaster for Jacob;
he sees no trouble for Israel.

The LORD their God is with them,
and there is rejoicing over the King among them.

²² God brought them out of Egypt;
he is like the horns of a wild ox for them.

²³ There is no magic curse against Jacob and no divination against Israel.
It will now be said about Jacob and Israel,
"What great things God has done!"

²⁴ A people rise up like a lioness;
they rouse themselves like a lion.
They will not lie down until they devour the prey and drink the blood of the slain.

²⁵ Then Balak told Balaam, "Don't curse them and don't bless them!"

²⁶ But Balaam answered him, "Didn't I tell you: Whatever the LORD says, I must do?"

²⁷ Again Balak said to Balaam, "Please come. I will take you to another place. Maybe it will be agreeable to God that you can put a curse on them for me there."²⁸ So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which overlooks the wasteland.

²⁹ Balaam told Balak, "Build me seven altars here and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."³⁰ So Balak did as Balaam said and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

24 Since Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go to seek omens as on previous occasions, but turned toward the wilderness.² When Balaam looked up and saw Israel encamped tribe by tribe, the Spirit of God came on him,³ and he proclaimed his poem:

The oracle of Balaam son of Beor,
the oracle of the man whose eyes are opened,
⁴ the oracle of one who hears the sayings of God,
who sees a vision from the Almighty,
who falls into a trance with his eyes uncovered:

⁵ How beautiful are your tents, Jacob,
your dwellings, Israel.

⁶ They stretch out like river valleys,
like gardens beside a stream,
like aloes the LORD has planted,
like cedars beside the water.

⁷ Water will flow from his buckets,
and his seed will be by abundant water.
His King will be greater than Agag,
and his kingdom will be exalted.

⁸ God brought him out of Egypt;
he is like the horns of a wild ox for them.

He will feed on enemy nations and gnaw their bones;

he will strike them with his arrows.

⁹ He crouches, he lies down like a lion or a lioness — who dares to rouse him?
Those who bless you will be blessed,
and those who curse you will be cursed.

¹⁰ Then Balak became furious with Balaam, struck his hands together, and said to him, "I summoned you to put a curse on my enemies, but instead, you have blessed them these three times.¹¹ Now go to your home! I said
I would reward you richly, but look, the LORD has denied you a reward."

¹² Balaam answered Balak, "Didn't I previously tell the messengers you sent me: ¹³ If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go against the LORD's command, to do anything good or bad of my own will? I will say whatever the LORD says. ¹⁴ Now I am going back to my people, but first, let me warn you what these people will do to your people in the future."

¹⁵ Then he proclaimed his poem:

The oracle of Balaam son of Beor,
the oracle of the man whose eyes are opened;

¹⁶ the oracle of one who hears the sayings of God and has knowledge from the Most High,
who sees a vision from the Almighty,
who falls into a trance with his eyes uncovered:

¹⁷ I see him, but not now;
I perceive him, but not near.

A star will come from Jacob,
and a scepter will arise from Israel.
He will smash the forehead of Moab and strike down all the Snehithes.

¹⁸ Edom will become a possession;
Seir will become a possession of its enemies,
but Israel will be triumphant.

¹⁹ One who comes from Jacob will rule;
he will destroy the city's survivors.

²⁰ Then Balaam saw Amalek and proclaimed his poem:
Amalek was first among the nations,
but his future is destruction.

²¹ Next he saw the Kenites and proclaimed his poem:
Your dwelling place is enduring;
your nest is set in the cliffs.

²² Kain will be destroyed
when Asshur takes you captive.

²³ Once more he proclaimed his poem:
Ah, who can live when God does this?

²⁴ Ships will come from the coast of Kittim;
they will carry out raids against Asshur and Eber,
but they too will come to destruction.

25 While Israel was staying in the Acacia Grove, the people began to prostitute themselves with the women of Moab. ² The women invited them to the sacrifices for their gods, and the people ate and bowed in worship to their gods. ³ So Israel aligned itself with Baal of Peor, and the LORD's anger burned against Israel. ⁴ The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of the people and execute them in broad daylight before the LORD so that his burning anger may turn away from Israel."

¹⁰ The LORD spoke to Moses, ¹¹ "Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my wrath from the Israelites because he was zealous among them with my zeal, so that I did not destroy the Israelites in my zeal.

¹² Therefore declare: I grant him my covenant of peace. ¹³ It will be a covenant of perpetual priesthood for him and his future descendants, because he was zealous for his God and made atonement for the Israelites."

¹⁶ The LORD told Moses: ¹⁷ "Attack the Midianites and strike them dead. ¹⁸ For they attacked you with the treachery that they used against you in the Peor incident. They did the same in the case involving their sister Cozbi, daughter of the Midianite leader who was killed the day the plague came at Peor."

26 After the plague, the LORD said to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, ² "Take a census of the entire Israelite community by their ancestral families of those twenty years old or more who can serve in Israel's army."

³ So Moses and the priest Eleazar said to them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, ⁴ "Take a census of those twenty years old or more, as the LORD had commanded Moses and the Israelites who came out of the land of Egypt."

⁵ Reuben was the firstborn of Israel.
Reuben's descendants:

the Hanochite clan from Hanoch;
the Palluite clan from Pallu;

⁶ the Hezronite clan from Hezron;
the Carmite clan from Carmi.

⁷ These were the Reubenite clans, and their registered men numbered 43,730.

⁸ The son of Pallu was Eliab.

⁹ The sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram.

(It was Dathan and Abiram, chosen by the community, who fought against Moses and Aaron; they and Korah's followers fought against the LORD. ¹⁰ The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them with Korah, when his followers died and the fire consumed 250 men. They serve as a warning sign. ¹¹ The sons of Korah, however, did not die.)

¹² Simeon's descendants by their clans:

the Nemuelite clan from Nemuel;
the Jaminite clan from Jamin;

the Jachinite clan from Jachin;
the Zerahite clan from Zerah;

the Shaulite clan from Shaul.

¹⁴ These were the Simeonite clans, numbering 22,200 men.

¹⁵ Gad's descendants by their clans:

- 51 These registered Israelite men numbered 601,730.

⁵²The LORD spoke to Moses, ⁵³"The land is to be divided among them as an inheritance based on the number of names. ⁵⁴Increase the inheritance for a large tribe and decrease it for a small one. Each is to be given its inheritance according to those who were registered in it. ⁵⁵The land is to be divided by lot; they will receive an inheritance according to the names of their ancestral tribes. ⁵⁶Each inheritance will be divided by lot among the larger and smaller tribes."

- ⁵⁷ These were the Levites registered by their clans:
the Gershonite clan from Gershon;
the Kohathite clan from Kohath;
the Merarite clan from Merari.

- ⁵⁸ These were the Levite family groups:
the Libnite clan,
the Hebronite clan,
the Mahlite clan,
the Mushite clan,
and the Korahite clan.

Kohath was the ancestor of Amram. ⁵⁹The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, a descendant of Levi, born to Levi in Egypt. She bore to Amram: Aaron, Moses, and their sister Miriam. ⁶⁰Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar were born to Aaron, ⁶¹but Nadab and Abihu died when they presented unauthorized fire before the LORD. ⁶²Those registered were 23,000, every male one month old or more; they were not registered among the other Israelites, because no inheritance was given to them among the Israelites.

⁶³These were the ones registered by Moses and the priest Eleazar when they registered the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho. ⁶⁴But among them there was not one of those who had been registered by Moses and the priest Aaron when they registered the Israelites in the Wilderness of Sinai. ⁶⁵For the LORD had said to them that they would all die in the wilderness. None of them was left except Caleb son of Jephthuneh and Joshua son of Nun.

27 The daughters of Zelophehad approached; Zelophehad was the son of Hephher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh from the clans of Manasseh, the son of Joseph. These were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ²They stood before Moses, the priest Eleazar, the leaders, and the entire community at the entrance to the tent of meeting and said, ³"Our father died in the wilderness, but he was not among Korah's followers, who gathered together against the LORD. Instead, he died because of his own sin, and he had no sons.⁴ Why should the name of our father be taken away from his clan? Since he had no son, give us property among our father's brothers."

¹² Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go up this mountain of the Abarim range and see the land that I have given the Israelites. ¹³ After you have seen it, you will also be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was. ¹⁴ When the community quarreled in the Wilderness of Zin, both of you rebelled against my command to demonstrate my holiness in their sight at the waters." Those were the Waters of Meribah-kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin.

¹⁵ So Moses appealed to the LORD, ¹⁶ "May the LORD, the God who gives breath to all, appoint a man over the community ¹⁷ who will go out before them and come back in before them, and who will bring them out and bring them in, so that the LORD's community won't be like sheep without a shepherd."

¹⁸ The LORD replied to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man who has the Spirit in him, and lay your hands on him. ¹⁹ Have him stand before the priest Eleazar and the whole community, and commission him in their sight. ²⁰ Confer some of your authority on him so that the entire Israelite community will obey him. ²¹ He will stand before the priest Eleazar who will consult the LORD for him with the decision of the Urim. He and all the Israelites with him, even the entire community, will go out and come back in at his command."

²² Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua, had him stand before the priest Eleazar and the entire community, ²³ laid his hands on him, and commissioned him, as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

28 The LORD spoke to Moses, ² "Command the Israelites and say to them: Be sure to present to me at its appointed time my offering and my food as my fire offering, a pleasing aroma to me. ³ And say to them: This is the fire offering you are to present to the LORD:

"Each day present two unblemished year-old male lambs as a regular burnt offering. ⁴ Offer one lamb in the morning and the other lamb at twilight, ⁵ along with two quarts of fine flour for a grain offering mixed with a quart of olive oil from crushed olives. ⁶ It is a regular burnt offering established at Mount Sinai for a pleasing aroma, a fire offering to the LORD. ⁷ The drink offering is to be a quart with each lamb. Pour out the offering of beer to the LORD in the sanctuary area. ⁸ Offer the second lamb at twilight, along with the same kind of grain offering and drink offering as in the morning. It is a fire offering, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

¹⁶ "The Passover to the LORD comes in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month. ¹⁷ On the fifteenth day of this month there will be a festival; unleavened bread is to be eaten for seven days. ¹⁸ On the first day there is to be a sacred assembly; you are not to do any daily work. ¹⁹ Present a fire offering, a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old. Your animals are to be unblemished. ²⁰ The grain offering with them is to be of fine flour mixed with oil; offer six quarts with each bull and four quarts with the ram. ²¹ Offer two quarts with each of the seven lambs ²² and one male goat for a sin offering to make atonement for yourselves. ²³ Offer these with the morning burnt offering that is part of the regular burnt offering. ²⁴ You are to offer the same food each day for seven days as a fire offering, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. It is to be offered with its drink offering and the regular burnt offering. ²⁵ On the seventh day you are to hold a sacred assembly; you are not to do any daily work.

²⁶ "On the day of firstfruits, you are to hold a sacred assembly when you present an offering of new grain to the LORD at your Festival of Weeks; you are not to do any daily work. ²⁷ Present a burnt offering for a pleasing aroma to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, ²⁸ with their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, six quarts with each bull, four quarts with the ram, ²⁹ and two quarts with each of the seven lambs, ³⁰ and one male goat to make atonement for yourselves. ³¹ Offer them with their drink offerings in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering. Your animals are to be unblemished.

29 "You are to hold a sacred assembly in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, and you are not to do any daily work. This will be a day of trumpet blasts for you. ² Offer a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old — all unblemished — ³ with their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, six quarts with the bull, four quarts with the ram, ⁴ and two quarts with each of the seven male lambs. ⁵ Also offer one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for yourselves. ⁶ These are in addition to the monthly and regular burnt offerings with their prescribed grain offerings and drink offerings. They are a pleasing aroma, a fire offering to the LORD.

⁷ "You are to hold a sacred assembly on the tenth day of this seventh month and practice self-denial; do not do any work. ⁸ Present a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old. All your animals are to be unblemished. ⁹ Their grain offering is to be of fine flour mixed with oil, six quarts with the bull, four quarts with the ram, ¹⁰ and two quarts with each of the seven lambs. ¹¹ Offer one male goat for a sin offering. The regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offerings are in addition to the sin offering of atonement.

¹²“You are to hold a sacred assembly on the fifteenth day of the seventh month; you do not do any daily work. You are to celebrate a seven-day festival for the LORD. ¹³ Present a burnt offering, a fire offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old. They are to be unblemished. ¹⁴ Their grain offering is to be of fine flour mixed with oil, six quarts with each of the thirteen bulls, four quarts with each of the two rams, ¹⁵ and two quarts with each of the fourteen lambs. ¹⁶ Also offer one male goat as a sin offering. These are in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

30 Moses told the leaders of the Israelite tribes, “This is what the LORD has commanded: ² When a man makes a vow to the LORD or swears an oath to put himself under an obligation, he must not break his word; he must do whatever he has promised.

⁹ “Every vow a widow or divorced woman puts herself under is binding on her.

¹⁰ “If a woman in her husband’s house has made a vow or put herself under an obligation with an oath, ¹¹ and her husband hears about it, says nothing to her, and does not prohibit her, all her vows are binding, and every obligation she put herself under is binding. ¹² But if her husband cancels them on the day he hears about it, nothing that came from her lips, whether her vows or her obligation, is binding. Her husband has canceled them, and the LORD will release her. ¹³ Her husband may confirm or cancel any vow or any sworn obligation to deny herself. ¹⁴ If her husband says nothing at all to her from day to day, he confirms all her vows and obligations, which are binding. He has confirmed them because he said nothing to her when he heard about them. ¹⁵ But if he cancels them after he hears about them, he will be responsible for her commitment.”

31 The LORD spoke to Moses, ² “Execute vengeance for the Israelites against the Midianites. After that, you will be gathered to your people.”

⁷ They waged war against Midian, as the LORD had commanded Moses, and killed every male. ⁸ Along with the others slain by them, they killed the Midianite kings — Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword. ⁹ The Israelites took the Midianite women and their dependents captive, and they plundered all their cattle, flocks, and property. ¹⁰ Then they burned all the cities where the Midianites lived, as well as all their encampments, ¹¹ and took away all the spoils of war and the captives, both people and animals.¹² They brought the prisoners, animals, and spoils of war to Moses, the priest Eleazar, and the Israelite community at the camp on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

¹³ Moses, the priest Eleazar, and all the leaders of the community went to meet them outside the camp. ¹⁴ But Moses became furious with the officers, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, who were returning from the military campaign. ¹⁵ "Have you let every female live?" he asked them. ¹⁶ "Yet they are the ones who, at Balaam's advice, incited the Israelites to unfaithfulness against the LORD in the Peor incident, so that the plague came against the LORD's community. ¹⁷ So now, kill every male among the dependents and kill every woman who has gone to bed with a man, ¹⁸ but keep alive for yourselves all the young females who have not gone to bed with a man.

²¹ Then the priest Eleazar said to the soldiers who had gone to battle, "This is the legal statute the LORD commanded Moses: ²² The gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead — ²³ everything that can withstand fire — you are to pass through fire, and it will be clean. It must still be purified with the purification water. Anything that cannot withstand fire, pass through the water. ²⁴ On the seventh day wash your clothes, and you will be clean. After that you may enter the camp."

²⁵ The LORD told Moses, ²⁶ "You, the priest Eleazar, and the family heads of the community are to take a count of what was captured, people and animals. ²⁷ Then divide the captives between the troops who went out to war and the entire community. ²⁸ Set aside a tribute for the LORD from what belongs to the fighting men who went out to war: one out of every five hundred people, cattle, donkeys, sheep, and goats. ²⁹ Take the tribute from their half and give it to the priest Eleazar as a contribution to the LORD. ³⁰ From the Israelites' half, take one out of every fifty from the people, cattle, donkeys, sheep, and goats, all the livestock, and give them to the Levites who perform the duties of the LORD's tabernacle."

³¹ So Moses and the priest Eleazar did as the LORD commanded Moses. ³² The captives remaining from the plunder the army had taken totaled:

- ³³ 675,000 sheep and goats,
- ³⁴ 72,000 cattle,
- ³⁵ 61,000 donkeys,
- ³⁶ and 32,000 people, all the females who had not gone to bed with a man.

³⁶ The half portion for those who went out to war numbered:

- ³⁷ 337,500 sheep and goats, and the tribute to the LORD was 675 from the sheep and goats;
- ³⁸ from the 36,000 cattle, the tribute to the LORD was 72;
- ³⁹ from the 30,500 donkeys, the tribute to the LORD was 61;
- ⁴⁰ and from the 16,000 people, the tribute to the LORD was 32 people.

⁴¹ Moses gave the tribute to the priest Eleazar as a contribution for the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

⁴² From the Israelites' half, which Moses separated from the men who fought, ⁴³ the community's half was:

- ⁴⁴ 337,500 sheep and goats,
- ⁴⁵ 36,000 cattle,
- ⁴⁶ 30,500 donkeys,
- ⁴⁷ and 16,000 people.

⁵¹ Moses and the priest Eleazar received from them all the articles made out of gold. ⁵² All the gold of the contribution they offered to the LORD, from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, was 420 pounds. ⁵³ Each of the soldiers had taken plunder for himself. ⁵⁴ Moses and the priest Eleazar received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.

32 The Reubenites and Gadites had a very large number of livestock. When they surveyed the lands of Jazer and Gilead, they saw that the region was a good one for livestock. ² So the Gadites and Reubenites came to Moses, the priest Eleazar, and the leaders of the community and said: ³ "The territory of Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon, ⁴ which the LORD struck down before the community of Israel, is good land for livestock, and your servants own livestock." ⁵ They said, "If we have found favor with you, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Don't make us cross the Jordan."

⁶ But Moses asked the Gadites and Reubenites, "Should your brothers go to war while you stay here? ⁷ Why are you discouraging the Israelites from crossing into the land the LORD has given them? ⁸ That's what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land. ⁹ After they went up as far as Eschol Valley and saw the land, they discouraged the Israelites from entering the land the LORD had given them. ¹⁰ So the LORD's anger burned that day, and he swore an oath: ¹¹ 'Because they did not remain loyal to me, none of the men twenty years old or more who came up from Egypt will see the land I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob — ¹² none except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, because they did remain loyal to the LORD.' ¹³ The LORD's anger burned against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years until the whole generation that had done what was evil in the LORD's sight was gone. ¹⁴ And here you, a brood of sinners, stand in your fathers' place adding even more to the LORD's burning anger against Israel. ¹⁵ If you turn back from following him, he will once again leave this people in the wilderness, and you will destroy all of them."

¹⁶ Then they approached him and said, "We want to build sheep pens here for our livestock and cities for our dependents. ¹⁷ But we will arm ourselves and be ready to go ahead of the Israelites until we have brought them into their place. Meanwhile, our dependents will remain in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁸ We will not return to our homes until each of the Israelites has taken possession of his inheritance.¹⁹ Yet we will not have an inheritance with them across the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance will be across the Jordan to the east.”

²⁰ Moses replied to them, “If you do this — if you arm yourselves for battle before the LORD,²¹ and every one of your armed men crosses the Jordan before the LORD until he has driven his enemies from his presence,²² and the land is subdued before the LORD — afterward you may return and be free from obligation to the LORD and to Israel. And this land will belong to you as a possession before the LORD.²³ But if you don’t do this, you will certainly sin against the LORD; be sure your sin will catch up with you.²⁴ Build cities for your dependents and pens for your flocks, but do what you have promised.”

³¹ The Gadites and Reubenites replied, “What the LORD has spoken to your servants is what we will do.³² We will cross over in battle formation before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but we will keep our hereditary possession across the Jordan.”

³⁹ The descendants of Machir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it, and drove out the Amorites who were there.⁴⁰ So Moses gave Gilead to the clan of Machir son of Manasseh, and they settled in it.⁴¹ Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, went and captured their villages, which he renamed Jair’s Villages.⁴² Nobah went and captured Kenath with its surrounding villages and called it Nobah after his own name.

33 These were the stages of the Israelites’ journey when they went out of the land of Egypt by their military divisions under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.² At the LORD’s command, Moses wrote down the starting points for the stages of their journey; these are the stages listed by their starting points:

³ They traveled from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the month. On the day after the Passover the Israelites went out defiantly in the sight of all the Egyptians.⁴ Meanwhile, the Egyptians were burying every firstborn male the LORD had struck down among them, for the LORD had executed judgment against their gods.⁵ The Israelites traveled from Rameses and camped at Succoth.

⁶ They traveled from Succoth and camped at Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness.

⁷ They traveled from Etham and turned back to Pi-hahiroth, which faces Baal-zephon, and they camped before Migdol.

⁹ They traveled from Marah and came to Elim. There were twelve springs and seventy date palms at Elim, so they camped there.

¹⁰ They traveled from Elim and camped by the Red Sea.

¹¹ They traveled from the Red Sea and camped in the Wilderness of Sin.

¹² They traveled from the Wilderness of Sin and camped in Dophkah.

¹³ They traveled from Dophkah and camped at Alush.

¹⁴ They traveled from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

¹⁵ They traveled from Rephidim and camped in the Wilderness of Sinai.

¹⁶ They traveled from the Wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth-hattaavah.

¹⁷ They traveled from Kibroth-hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.

¹⁸ They traveled from Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah.

¹⁹ They traveled from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon-perez.

²⁰ They traveled from Rimmon-perez and camped at Libnah.

²¹ They traveled from Libnah and camped at Rissah.

²² They traveled from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.

²³ They traveled from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.

²⁴ They traveled from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.

²⁵ They traveled from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.

²⁶ They traveled from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.

²⁷ They traveled from Tahath and camped at Terah.

²⁸ They traveled from Terah and camped at Mithkah.

²⁹ They traveled from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.

³⁰ They traveled from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.

³¹ They traveled from Moseroth and camped at Bene-jaakan.

³² They traveled from Bene-jaakan and camped at Hor-haggidgad.

³³ They traveled from Hor-haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah.

³⁴ They traveled from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.

³⁵ They traveled from Abronah and camped at Ezion-geber.

³⁶ They traveled from Ezion-geber and camped in the Wilderness of Zin (that is, Kadesh).

³⁷ They traveled from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor on the edge of the land of Edom.³⁸ At the LORD’s command, the priest Aaron climbed Mount Hor and died there on the first day of the fifth month in the fortieth year after the Israelites went out of the land of Egypt.³⁹ Aaron was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor.⁴⁰ At that time the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev in the land of Canaan, heard the Israelites were coming.

⁴¹They traveled from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.

⁴²They traveled from Zalmonah and camped at Punon.

⁴³They traveled from Punon and camped at Oboth.

⁴⁴They traveled from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim on the border of Moab.

⁴⁵They traveled from Iyim and camped at Dibon-gad.

⁴⁶They traveled from Dibon-gad and camped at Almon-diblathaim.

⁴⁷They traveled from Almon-diblathaim and camped in the Abarim range facing Nebo.

⁴⁸They traveled from the Abarim range and camped on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.⁴⁹ They camped by the Jordan from Beth-jeshimoth to the Acacia Meadow on the plains of Moab.

⁵⁰The LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho,⁵¹ "Tell the Israelites: When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,⁵² you must drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you, destroy all their stone images and cast images, and demolish all their high places.⁵³ You are to take possession of the land and settle in it because I have given you the land to possess.⁵⁴ You are to receive the land as an inheritance by lot according to your clans. Increase the inheritance for a large clan and decrease it for a small one. Whatever place the lot indicates for someone will be his. You will receive an inheritance according to your ancestral tribes.⁵⁵ But if you don't drive out the inhabitants of the land before you, those you allow to remain will become barbs for your eyes and thorns for your sides; they will harass you in the land where you will live.⁵⁶ And what I had planned to do to them, I will do to you."

34 The LORD spoke to Moses,² "Command the Israelites and say to them: When you enter the land of Canaan, it will be allotted to you as an inheritance with these borders:

³Your southern side will be from the Wilderness of Zin along the boundary of Edom. Your southern border on the east will begin at the east end of the Dead Sea.

⁴Your border will turn south of the Scorpions' Ascent, proceed to Zin, and end south of Kadesh-barnea. It will go to Hazar-addar and proceed to Azmon.⁵ The border will turn from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, where it will end at the Mediterranean Sea.

⁶Your western border will be the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea; this will be your western border.

⁷This will be your northern border: From the Mediterranean Sea draw a line to Mount Hor;⁸ from Mount Hor draw a line to the entrance of Hamath, and the border will reach Zedad.⁹ Then the border will go to Ziphron and end at Hazar-enan. This will be your northern border.

¹⁰For your eastern border, draw a line from Hazar-enan to Shepham.¹¹ The border will go down from Shepham to Riblah east of Ain. It will continue down and reach the eastern slope of the Sea of Chinnereth.

¹²Then the border will go down to the Jordan and end at the Dead Sea. This will be your land defined by its borders on all sides."

¹³So Moses commanded the Israelites, "This is the land you are to receive by lot as an inheritance, which the LORD commanded to be given to the nine and a half tribes.¹⁴ For the tribe of Reuben's descendants and the tribe of Gad's descendants have received their inheritance according to their ancestral families, and half the tribe of Manasseh has received its inheritance.¹⁵ The two and a half tribes have received their inheritance across the Jordan east of Jericho, toward the sunrise."

¹⁶The LORD spoke to Moses,¹⁷ "These are the names of the men who are to distribute the land as an inheritance for you: the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun.¹⁸ Take one leader from each tribe to distribute the land.¹⁹ These are the names of the men:

Caleb son of Jephunneh from the tribe of Judah;

²⁰Shemuel son of Ammihud from the tribe of Simeon's descendants;

²¹Elidad son of Chislon from the tribe of Benjamin;

²²Bukki son of Jogli, a leader from the tribe of Dan's descendants;

²³from the sons of Joseph:

Hanniel son of Ephod, a leader from the tribe of Manasseh's descendants, ²⁴Kemuel son of Shiptan, a leader from the tribe of Ephraim's descendants;

²⁵Eli-zaphan son of Parnach, a leader from the tribe of Zebulun's descendants;

²⁶Paltiel son of Azzan, a leader from the tribe of Issachar's descendants;

²⁷Ahitud son of Shelomi, a leader from the tribe of Asher's descendants;

²⁸Pedahel son of Ammihud, a leader from the tribe of Naphtali's descendants."

²⁹These are the ones the LORD commanded to distribute the inheritance to the Israelites in the land of Canaan.

35 The LORD again spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho:² "Command the Israelites to give cities out of their hereditary property for the Levites to live in and pastureland around the cities.³ The cities will be for them to live in, and their pasturelands will be for their herds, flocks, and all their other animals.⁴ The pasturelands of the cities you are to give the Levites will extend from the city wall five hundred yards on every side.⁵ Measure a thousand yards outside the city for the east side, a thousand yards for the south side, a thousand yards for the west side, and a thousand yards for the north side, with the city in the center. This will belong to them as pasturelands for the cities.

⁶"The cities you give the Levites will include six cities of refuge, which you will provide so that the one who kills someone may flee there; in addition to these, give forty-two other cities.⁷ The total number of cities you give the Levites will be forty-eight, along with their pasturelands.⁸ Of the cities that you give from the Israelites' territory, you should take more from a larger tribe and less from a smaller one. Each tribe is to give some of its cities to the Levites in proportion to the inheritance it receives."

⁹The LORD said to Moses,¹⁰ "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,¹¹ designate cities to serve as cities of refuge for you, so that a person who kills someone unintentionally may flee there.¹² You will have the cities as a refuge from the avenger, so that the one who kills someone will not die until he stands trial before the assembly.¹³ The cities you select will be your six cities of refuge.¹⁴ Select three cities across the Jordan and three cities in the land of Canaan to be cities of refuge.¹⁵ These six cities will serve as a refuge for the Israelites and for the alien or temporary resident among them, so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there.

¹⁶ If anyone strikes a person with an iron object and death results, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.¹⁷ If anyone has in his hand a stone capable of causing death and strikes another person and he dies, the murderer must be put to death.¹⁸ If anyone has in his hand a wooden object capable of causing death and strikes another person and he dies, the murderer must be put to death.¹⁹ The avenger of blood himself is to kill the murderer; when he finds him, he is to kill him.²⁰ Likewise, if anyone in hatred pushes a person or throws an object at him with malicious intent and he dies,²¹ or if in hostility he strikes him with his hand and he dies, the one who struck him must be put to death; he is a murderer. The avenger of blood is to kill the murderer when he finds him.

²⁶ If the one who kills someone ever goes outside the border of the city of refuge he fled to,²⁷ and the avenger of blood finds him outside the border of his city of refuge and kills him, the avenger will not be guilty of bloodshed,²⁸ for the one who killed a person was supposed to live in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. Only after the death of the high priest may the one who has killed a person return to the land he possesses.²⁹ These instructions will be a statutory ordinance for you throughout your generations wherever you live.

³⁰ If anyone kills a person, the murderer is to be put to death based on the word of witnesses. But no one is to be put to death based on the testimony of one witness.³¹ You are not to accept a ransom for the life of someone who is guilty of murder; he must be put to death.³² Neither should you accept a ransom for the person who flees to his city of refuge, allowing him to return and live in the land before the death of the high priest.

³³ Do not defile the land where you live, for bloodshed defiles the land, and there can be no atonement for the land because of the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of the person who shed it.³⁴ Do not make the land unclean where you live and where I dwell; for I, the LORD, reside among the Israelites."

36 The family heads from the clan of the descendants of Gilead — the son of Machir, son of Manasseh — who were from the clans of the sons of Joseph, approached and addressed Moses and the leaders who were heads of the Israelite families.² They said, "The LORD commanded my lord to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the Israelites. My lord was further commanded by the LORD to give our brother Zelophehad's inheritance to his daughters.³ If they marry any of the men from the other Israelite tribes, their inheritance will be taken away from our fathers' inheritance and added to that of the tribe into which they marry. Therefore, part of our allotted inheritance would be taken away."⁴ When the Jubilee comes for the Israelites, their inheritance will be added to that of the tribe into which they marry, and their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of our ancestral tribe."

¹³ These are the commands and ordinances the LORD commanded the Israelites through Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

DEUTERONOMY

1 These are the words Moses spoke to all Israel across the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazereth, and Di-zahab. ² It is an eleven-day journey from Horeb to Kadesh-barnea by way of Mount Seir. ³ In the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, Moses told the Israelites everything the LORD had commanded him to say to them. ⁴ This was after he had defeated King Sihon of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and King Og of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth, at Edrei. ⁵ Across the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying:

⁶ "The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb: 'You have stayed at this mountain long enough. ⁷ Resume your journey and go to the hill country of the Amorites and their neighbors in the Arabah, the hill country, the Judean foothills, the Negev and the sea coast — to the land of the Canaanites and Lebanon as far as the great river, the Euphrates River. ⁸ See, I have set the land before you. Enter and take possession of the land the LORD swore to give to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and their future descendants.'

⁹ "I said to you at that time: 'I can't bear the responsibility for you on my own. ¹⁰ The LORD your God has so multiplied you that today you are as numerous as the stars of the sky. ¹¹ May the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase you a thousand times more, and bless you as he promised you. ¹² But how can I bear your troubles, burdens, and disputes by myself? ¹³ Appoint for yourselves wise, understanding, and respected men from each of your tribes, and I will make them your leaders.

²⁶ "But you were not willing to go up. You rebelled against the command of the LORD your God. ²⁷ You grumbled in your tents and said, 'The LORD brought us out of the land of Egypt to hand us over to the Amorites in order to destroy us, because he hates us. ²⁸ Where can we go? Our brothers have made us lose heart, saying: The people are larger and taller than we are; the cities are large, fortified to the heavens. We also saw the descendants of the Anakim there.'

²⁹ "So I said to you: 'Don't be terrified or afraid of them! ³⁰ The LORD your God who goes before you will fight for you, just as you saw him do for you in Egypt. ³¹ And you saw in the wilderness how the LORD your God carried you as a man carries his son all along the way you traveled until you reached this place. ³² But in spite of this you did not trust the LORD your God, ³³ who went before you on the journey to seek out a place for you to camp. He went in the fire by night and in the cloud by day to guide you on the road you were to travel.

³⁴ "When the LORD heard your words, he grew angry and swore an oath: ³⁵ 'None of these men in this evil generation will see the good land I swore to give your fathers, ³⁶ except Caleb the son of Jephunneh. He will see it, and I will give him and his descendants the land on which he has set foot, because he remained loyal to the LORD.'

³⁷ "The LORD was angry with me also because of you and said: 'You will not enter there either. ³⁸ Joshua son of Nun, who attends you, will enter it. Encourage him, for he will enable Israel to inherit it. ³⁹ Your children, whom you said would be plunder, your sons who don't yet know good from evil, will enter there. I will give them the land, and they will take possession of it. ⁴⁰ But you are to turn back and head for the wilderness by way of the Red Sea.'

⁴¹ "You answered me, 'We have sinned against the LORD. We will go up and fight just as the LORD our God commanded us.' Then each of you put on his weapons of war and thought it would be easy to go up into the hill country.

⁴² "But the LORD said to me, 'Tell them: Don't go up and fight, for I am not with you to keep you from being defeated by your enemies.' ⁴³ So I spoke to you, but you didn't listen. You rebelled against the LORD's command and defiantly went up into the hill country. ⁴⁴ Then the Amorites who lived there came out against you and chased you like a swarm of bees. They routed you from Seir as far as Hormah. ⁴⁵ When you returned, you wept before the LORD, but he didn't listen to your requests or pay attention to you. ⁴⁶ For this reason you stayed in Kadesh as long as you did.

2 "Then we turned back and headed for the wilderness by way of the Red Sea, as the LORD had told me, and we traveled around the hill country of Seir for many days. ² The LORD then said to me, ³ 'You've been traveling around this hill country long enough; turn north. ⁴ Command the people: You are about to travel through the territory of your brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, so be very careful. ⁵ Don't provoke them, for I will not give you any of their land, not even a foot of it, because I have given Esau the hill country of Seir as his possession. ⁶ You may purchase food from them, so that you may eat, and buy water from them to drink. ⁷ For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands.

He has watched over your journey through this immense wilderness. The LORD your God has been with you this past forty years, and you have lacked nothing.'

⁸"So we bypassed our brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. We turned away from the Arabah road and from Elath and Ezion-geber. We traveled along the road to the Wilderness of Moab. ⁹The LORD said to me, 'Show no hostility toward Moab, and do not provoke them to battle, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession, since I have given Ar as a possession to the descendants of Lot.'"

¹⁰The Emim, a great and numerous people as tall as the Anakim, had previously lived there. ¹¹They were also regarded as Rephaim, like the Anakim, though the Moabites called them Emim. ¹²The Horites had previously lived in Seir, but the descendants of Esau drove them out, destroying them completely and settling in their place, just as Israel did in the land of its possession the LORD gave them.

¹³"The LORD said, 'Now get up and cross the Zered Valley.' So we crossed the Zered Valley. ¹⁴The time we spent traveling from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed the Zered Valley was thirty-eight years until the entire generation of fighting men had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them. ¹⁵Indeed, the LORD's hand was against them, to eliminate them from the camp until they had all perished.

¹⁶"When all the fighting men had died among the people, ¹⁷the LORD spoke to me, ¹⁸'Today you are going to cross the border of Moab at Ar. ¹⁹When you get close to the Ammonites, don't show any hostility to them or provoke them, for I will not give you any of the Ammonites' land as a possession; I have given it as a possession to the descendants of Lot.'"

²⁰This too used to be regarded as the land of the Rephaim. The Rephaim lived there previously, though the Ammonites called them Zamzummim, ²¹a great and numerous people, tall as the Anakim. The LORD destroyed the Rephaim at the advance of the Ammonites, so that they drove them out and settled in their place. ²²This was just as he had done for the descendants of Esau who lived in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites before them; they drove them out and have lived in their place until now. ²³The Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed the Avites, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, and settled in their place.

²⁴"The LORD also said, 'Get up, move out, and cross the Arnon Valley. See, I have handed the Amorites' King Sihon of Heshbon and his land over to you. Begin to take possession of it; engage him in battle. ²⁵Today I will begin to put the fear and dread of you on the peoples everywhere under heaven. They will hear the report about you, tremble, and be in anguish because of you.'

²⁶"So I sent messengers with an offer of peace to King Sihon of Heshbon from the Wilderness of Kedemoth, saying, ²⁷'Let us travel through your land; we will keep strictly to the highway. We will not turn to the right or the left. ²⁸You can sell us food in exchange for silver so we may eat, and give us water for silver so we may drink. Only let us travel through on foot, ²⁹just as the descendants of Esau who live in Seir did for us, and the Moabites who live in Ar, until we cross the Jordan into the land the LORD our God is giving us.' ³⁰But King Sihon of Heshbon would not let us travel through his land, for the LORD your God had made his spirit stubborn and his heart obstinate in order to hand him over to you, as has now taken place.

3"Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan, and King Og of Bashan came out against us with his whole army to do battle at Edrei. ²But the LORD said to me, 'Do not fear him, for I have handed him over to you along with his whole army and his land. Do to him as you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon.' ³So the LORD our God also handed over King Og of Bashan and his whole army to us. We struck him until there was no survivor left. ⁴We captured all his cities at that time. There wasn't a city that we didn't take from them: sixty cities, the entire region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. ⁵All these were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a large number of rural villages. ⁶We completely destroyed them, as we had done to King Sihon of Heshbon, destroying the men, women, and children of every city. ⁷But we took all the livestock and the spoil from the cities as plunder for ourselves.

¹²"At that time we took possession of this land. I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites the area extending from Areroer by the Arnon Valley, and half the hill country of Gilead along with its cities. ¹³I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh the rest of Gilead and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og. The entire region of Argob, the whole territory of Bashan, used to be called the land of the Rephaim. ¹⁴Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took over the entire region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites. He called Bashan by his own name, Jair's Villages, as it is today. ¹⁵I gave Gilead to Machir, ¹⁶and I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites the area extending from Gilead to the Arnon Valley (the middle of the valley was the border) and up to the Jabbok River, the border of the Ammonites. ¹⁷The Arabah and Jordan are also borders from Chinnereth as far as the Sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah on the east.

¹⁸"I commanded you at that time: The LORD your God has given you this land to possess. All your valiant men will cross over in battle formation ahead of your brothers the Israelites. ¹⁹But your wives, dependents, and livestock—I know that you have a lot of livestock—will remain in the cities I have given you ²⁰until the LORD gives rest to your brothers as he has to you, and they also take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving them across the Jordan. Then each of you may return to his possession that I have given you.

²¹“I commanded Joshua at that time: Your own eyes have seen everything the LORD your God has done to these two kings. The LORD will do the same to all the kingdoms you are about to enter. ²²Don’t be afraid of them, for the LORD your God fights for you.

4 ¹“Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and ordinances I am teaching you to follow, so that you may live, enter, and take possession of the land the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. ²You must not add anything to what I command you or take anything away from it, so that you may keep the commands of the LORD your God I am giving you. ³Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at Baal-peor, for the LORD your God destroyed every one of you who followed Baal of Peor. ⁴But you who have remained faithful to the LORD your God are all alive today. ⁵Look, I have taught you statutes and ordinances as the LORD my God has commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to possess. ⁶Carefully follow them, for this will show your wisdom and understanding in the eyes of the peoples. When they hear about all these statutes, they will say, “This great nation is indeed a wise and understanding people.” ⁷For what great nation is there that has a god near to it as the LORD our God is to us whenever we call to him? ⁸And what great nation has righteous statutes and ordinances like this entire law I set before you today?

⁹“Only be on your guard and diligently watch yourselves, so that you don’t forget the things your eyes have seen and so that they don’t slip from your mind as long as you live. Teach them to your children and your grandchildren.

¹⁰The day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, the LORD said to me, “Assemble the people before me, and I will let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me all the days they live on the earth and may instruct their children.” ¹¹You came near and stood at the base of the mountain, a mountain blazing with fire into the heavens and enveloped in a totally black cloud. ¹²Then the LORD spoke to you from the fire. You kept hearing the sound of the words, but didn’t see a form; there was only a voice. ¹³He declared his covenant to you. He commanded you to follow the Ten Commandments, which he wrote on two stone tablets. ¹⁴At that time the LORD commanded me to teach you statutes and ordinances for you to follow in the land you are about to cross into and possess.

an idol for yourselves in the shape of any figure: a male or female form, ¹⁷or the form of any animal on the earth, any winged creature that flies in the sky, ¹⁸any creature that crawls on the ground, or any fish in the waters under the earth. ¹⁹When you look to the heavens and see the sun, moon, and stars — all the stars in the sky — do not be led astray to bow in worship to them and serve them. The LORD your God has provided them for all people everywhere under heaven. ²⁰But the LORD selected you and brought you out of Egypt’s iron furnace to be a people for his inheritance, as you are today.

²¹“The LORD was angry with me on your account. He swore that I would not cross the Jordan and enter the good land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance. ²²I won’t be crossing the Jordan because I am going to die in this land. But you are about to cross over and take possession of this good land. ²³Be careful not to forget the covenant of the LORD your God that he made with you, and make an idol for yourselves in the shape of anything he has forbidden you. ²⁴For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

²⁵“When you have children and grandchildren and have been in the land along time, and if you act corruptly, make an idol in the form of anything, and do what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, angering him, ²⁶I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today that you will quickly perish from the land you are about to cross the Jordan to possess. You will not live long there, but you will certainly be destroyed. ²⁷The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be reduced to a few survivors among the nations where the LORD your God will drive you. ²⁸There you will worship man-made gods of wood and stone, which cannot see, hear, eat, or smell. ²⁹But from there, you will search for the LORD your God, and you will find him when you seek him with all your heart and all your soul. ³⁰When you are in distress and all these things have happened to you, in the future you will return to the LORD your God and obey him. ³¹He will not leave you, destroy you, or forget the covenant with your fathers that he swore to them by oath, because the LORD your God is a compassionate God.

³²“Indeed, ask about the earlier days that preceded you, from the day God created mankind on the earth and from one end of the heavens to the other: Has anything like this great event ever happened, or has anything like it been heard of? ³³Has a people heard God’s voice speaking from the fire as you have, and lived? ³⁴Or has a god attempted to go and take a nation as his own out of another nation, by trials, signs, wonders, and war, by a strong hand and an outstretched arm, by great terrors, as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? ³⁵You were shown these things so that you would know that the LORD is God; there is no other besides him. ³⁶He let you hear his voice from heaven to instruct you. He showed you his great fire on earth, and you heard his words from the fire. ³⁷Because he loved your fathers, he chose their descendants after them and brought you out of Egypt by his presence and great power, ³⁸to drive out before you nations greater and stronger than you and to bring you in and give you their land as an inheritance, as is now taking place. ³⁹Today, recognize and keep in mind that the LORD is God in heaven above and on earth below; there is no other. ⁴⁰Keep his statutes and commands, which I am giving you today, so that you and your children after you may prosper and so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you for all time.”

⁴¹Then Moses set apart three cities across the Jordan to the east. ⁴²Someone could flee there who committed manslaughter, killing his neighbor accidentally without previously hating him. He could flee to one of these cities and stay alive: ⁴³Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau land, belonging to the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead, belonging to the Gadites; or Golan in Bashan, belonging to the Manassites.

⁴⁴This is the law Moses gave the Israelites. ⁴⁵These are the decrees, statutes, and ordinances Moses proclaimed to them after they came out of Egypt, ⁴⁶across the Jordan in the valley facing Beth-peor in the land of King Sihon of the Amorites. He lived in Heshbon, and Moses and the Israelites defeated him after they came out of Egypt. ⁴⁷They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings who were across the Jordan to the east, ⁴⁸from Arero on the rim of the Arnon Valley as far as Mount Sion (that is, Hermon) ⁴⁹and all the Arabah on the east side of the Jordan as far as the Dead Sea below the slopes of Pisgah.

5 Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, "Israel, listen to the statutes and ordinances I am proclaiming as you hear them today. Learn and follow them carefully. ²The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb. ³He did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with all of us who are alive here today. ⁴The LORD spoke to you face to face from the fire on the mountain. ⁵At that time I was standing between the LORD and you to report the word of the LORD to you, because you were afraid of the fire and did not go up the mountain. And he said:

⁶ I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery.

⁷ Do not have other gods besides me.

¹² Be careful to remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy as the LORD your God has commanded you.

¹³You are to labor six days and do all your work, ¹⁴but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. Do not do any work — you, your son or daughter, your male or female slave, your ox or donkey, any of your livestock, or the resident alien who lives within your city gates, so that your male and female slaves may rest as you do.

¹⁵ Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out of there with a strong hand and an outstretched arm. That is why the LORD your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

¹⁶ Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live long and so that you may prosper in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

¹⁷ Do not murder.

¹⁸ Do not commit adultery.

¹⁹ Do not steal.

²⁰ Do not give dishonest testimony against your neighbor.

²²"The LORD spoke these commands in a loud voice to your entire assembly from the fire, cloud, and total darkness on the mountain; he added nothing more. He wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me. ²³All of you approached me with your tribal leaders and elders when you heard the voice from the darkness and while the mountain was blazing with fire. ²⁴You said, 'Look, the LORD our God has shown us his glory and greatness, and we have heard his voice from the fire. Today we have seen that God speaks with a person, yet he still lives. ²⁵But now, why should we die? This great fire will consume us and we will die if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer. ²⁶For who out of all mankind has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the fire, as we have, and lived? ²⁷Go near and listen to everything the LORD our God says. Then you can tell us everything the LORD our God tells you; we will listen and obey.'

²⁸"The LORD heard your words when you spoke to me. He said to me, 'I have heard the words that these people have spoken to you. Everything they have said is right.

²⁹If only they had such a heart to fear me and keep all my commands always, so that they and their children would prosper forever. ³⁰Go and tell them: Return to your tents.

³¹But you stand here with me, and I will tell you every command — the statutes and ordinances — you are to teach them, so that they may follow them in the land I am giving them to possess.'

6 "This is the command — the statutes and ordinances — the LORD your God has commanded me to teach you, so that you may follow them in the land you are about to enter and possess. ²Do this so that you may fear the LORD your God all the days of your life by keeping all his statutes and commands I am giving you, your son, and your grandson, and so that you may have a long life. ³Listen, Israel, and be careful to follow them, so that you may prosper and multiply greatly, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you a land flowing with milk and honey.

⁴"Listen, Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. ⁵Love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. ⁶These words that I am giving you today are to be in your heart. ⁷Repeat them to your children. Talk about them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸Bind them as a sign on your hand and let them be a symbol on your forehead. ⁹Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your city gates.

¹⁰"When the LORD your God brings you into the land he swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob that he would give you — a land with large and beautiful cities that you did not build, ¹¹houses full of every good thing that you did not fill them with, cisterns that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant — and when you eat and are satisfied,¹² be careful not to forget the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery.¹³ Fear the LORD your God, worship him, and take your oaths in his name.¹⁴ Do not follow other gods, the gods of the peoples around you,¹⁵ for the LORD your God, who is among you, is a jealous God. Otherwise, the LORD your God will become angry with you and obliterate you from the face of the earth.¹⁶ Do not test the LORD your God as you tested him at Massah.¹⁷ Carefully observe the commands of the LORD your God, the decrees and statutes he has commanded you.¹⁸ Do what is right and good in the LORD's sight, so that you may prosper and so that you may enter and possess the good land the LORD your God swore to give your fathers,¹⁹ by driving out all your enemies before you, as the LORD has said.

²⁰ "When your son asks you in the future, 'What is the meaning of the decrees, statutes, and ordinances that the LORD our God has commanded you?'²¹ tell him, 'We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand.²² Before our eyes the LORD inflicted great and devastating signs and wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his household,²³ but he brought us from there in order to lead us in and give us the land that he swore to our fathers.²⁴ The LORD commanded us to follow all these statutes and to fear the LORD our God for our prosperity always and for our preservation, as it is today.²⁵ Righteousness will be ours if we are careful to follow every one of these commands before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us.'

7 "When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess, and he drives out many nations before you — the Hethites, Gergashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, seven nations more numerous and powerful than you —² and when the LORD your God delivers them over to you and you defeat them, you must completely destroy them. Make no treaty with them and show them no mercy.³ You must not intermarry with them, and you must not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons,⁴ because they will turn your sons away from me to worship other gods. Then the LORD's anger will burn against you, and he will swiftly destroy you.⁵ Instead, this is what you are to do to them: tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, cut down their Asherah poles, and burn their carved images.⁶ For you are a holy people belonging to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be his own possession out of all the peoples on the face of the earth.

⁷ "The LORD had his heart set on you and chose you, not because you were more numerous than all peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples.⁸ But because the LORD loved you and kept the oath he swore to your fathers, he brought you out with a strong hand and redeemed you from the place of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt.⁹ Know that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps his gracious covenant loyalty for a thousand generations with those who love him and keep his commands.¹⁰ But he directly pays back and destroys those who hate him. He will not hesitate to pay back directly the one who hates him.¹¹ So keep the command — the statutes and ordinances — that I am giving you to follow today.

¹² "If you listen to and are careful to keep these ordinances, the LORD your God will keep his covenant loyalty with you, as he swore to your fathers.¹³ He will love you, bless you, and multiply you. He will bless your offspring, and the produce of your land — your grain, new wine, and fresh oil — the young of your herds, and the newborn of your flocks, in the land he swore to your fathers that he would give you.¹⁴ You will be blessed above all peoples; there will be no infertile male or female among you or your livestock.¹⁵ The LORD will remove all sickness from you; he will not put on you all the terrible diseases of Egypt that you know about, but he will inflict them on all who hate you.¹⁶ You must destroy all the peoples the LORD your God is delivering over to you and not look on them with pity. Do not worship their gods, for that will be a snare to you.

¹⁷ "If you say to yourself, 'These nations are greater than I; how can I drive them out?'¹⁸ do not be afraid of them. Be sure to remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and all Egypt:¹⁹ the great trials that you saw, the signs and wonders, the strong hand and outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples you fear.²⁰ The LORD your God will also send hornets against them until all the survivors and those hiding from you perish.²¹ Don't be terrified of them, for the LORD your God, a great and awesome God, is among you.²² The LORD your God will drive out these nations before you little by little. You will not be able to destroy them all at once; otherwise, the wild animals will become too numerous for you.²³ The LORD your God will give them over to you and throw them into great confusion until they are destroyed.²⁴ He will hand their kings over to you, and you will wipe out their names under heaven. No one will be able to stand against you; you will annihilate them.²⁵ Burn up the carved images of their gods. Don't covet the silver and gold on the images and take it for yourself, or else you will be ensnared by it, for it is detestable to the LORD your God.²⁶ Do not bring any detestable thing into your house, or you will be set apart for destruction like it. You are to abhor and detest it utterly because it is set apart for destruction.

8 "Carefully follow every command I am giving you today, so that you may live and increase, and may enter and take possession of the land the LORD swore to your fathers.² Remember that the LORD your God led you on the entire journey these forty years in the wilderness, so that he might humble you and test you to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commands.³ He humbled you by letting you go hungry; then he gave you manna to eat, which you and your fathers had not known, so that you might learn that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD.⁴ Your clothing did not wear out, and your feet did not swell these forty years.⁵ Keep in mind that the LORD your God has been disciplining you just as a man disciplines his son.⁶ So keep the commands of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and fearing him.⁷ For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with streams, springs, and deep water sources, flowing in both valleys and hills;⁸ a land of wheat, barley, vines, figs, and pomegranates; a land of olive oil and honey;⁹ a land where you will eat food without shortage, where you will lack nothing; a land whose rocks are iron and from whose hills you will mine copper.¹⁰ When you eat and are full, you will bless the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.

your heart doesn't become proud and you forget the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery. ¹⁵ He led you through the great and terrible wilderness with its poisonous snakes and scorpions, a thirsty land where there was no water. He brought water out of the flint rock for you. ¹⁶ He fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers had not known, in order to humble and test you, so that in the end he might cause you to prosper. ¹⁷ You may say to yourself, 'My power and my own ability have gained this wealth for me,' ¹⁸ but remember that the LORD your God gives you the power to gain wealth, in order to confirm his covenant he swore to your fathers, as it is today. ¹⁹ If you ever forget the LORD your God and follow other gods to serve them and bow in worship to them, I testify against you today that you will perish. ²⁰ Like the nations the LORD is about to destroy before you, you will perish if you do not obey the LORD your God.

9 "Listen, Israel: Today you are about to cross the Jordan to enter and drive out nations greater and stronger than you, with large cities fortified to the heavens. ² The people are strong and tall, the descendants of the Anakim. You know about them and you have heard it said about them, 'Who can stand up to the sons of Anak?' ³ But understand that today the LORD your God will cross over ahead of you as a consuming fire; he will devastate and subdue them before you. You will drive them out and destroy them swiftly, as the LORD has told you. ⁴ When the LORD your God drives them out before you, do not say to yourself, 'The LORD brought me in to take possession of this land because of my righteousness.' Instead, the LORD will drive out these nations before you because of their wickedness. ⁵ You are not going to take possession of their land because of your righteousness or your integrity. Instead, the LORD your God will drive out these nations before you because of their wickedness, in order to fulfill the promise he swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ⁶ Understand that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a stiff-necked people.

¹² "The LORD said to me, 'Get up and go down immediately from here. For your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly. They have quickly turned from the way that I commanded them; they have made a cast image for themselves.' ¹³ The LORD also said to me, 'I have seen this people, and indeed, they are a stiff-necked people. ¹⁴ Leave me alone, and I will destroy them and blot out their name under heaven. Then I will make you into a nation stronger and more numerous than they.'

¹⁵ "So I went back down the mountain, while it was blazing with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my hands. ¹⁶ I saw how you had sinned against the LORD your God; you had made a calf image for yourselves. You had quickly turned from the way the LORD had commanded for you. ¹⁷ So I took hold of the two tablets and threw them from my hands, shattering them before your eyes. ¹⁸ I fell down like the first time in the presence of the LORD for forty days and forty nights; I did not eat food or drink water because of all the sin you committed, doing what was evil in the LORD's sight and angering him. ¹⁹ I was afraid of the fierce anger the LORD had directed against you, because he was about to destroy you. But again the LORD listened to me on that occasion. ²⁰ The LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him. But I prayed for Aaron at that time also. ²¹ I took the sinful calf you had made and burned it. I crushed it, thoroughly grinding it to powder as fine as dust, and threw its dust into the stream that came down from the mountain.

²² "You continued to provoke the LORD at Taberah, Mas-sah, and Kibroth-hattaavah. ²³ When the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, he said, 'Go up and possess the land I have given you'; you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God. You did not believe or obey him. ²⁴ You have been rebelling against the LORD ever since I have known you.

²⁵ "I fell down in the presence of the LORD forty days and forty nights because the LORD had threatened to destroy you. ²⁶ I prayed to the LORD:

LORD GOD, do not annihilate your people, your inheritance, whom you redeemed through your greatness and brought out of Egypt with a strong hand. ²⁷ Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Disregard this people's stubbornness, and their wickedness and sin. ²⁸ Otherwise, those in the land you brought us from will say, 'Because the LORD wasn't able to bring them into the land he had promised them, and because he hated them, he brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.'

10 "The LORD said to me at that time, 'Cut two stone tablets like the first ones and come to me on the mountain and make a wooden ark. ² I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets you broke, and you are to place them in the ark.' ³ So I made an ark of acacia wood, cut two stone tablets like the first ones, and climbed the mountain with the two tablets in my hand. ⁴ Then on the day of the assembly, the LORD wrote on the tablets what had been written previously, the Ten Commandments that he had spoken to you on the mountain from the fire. The LORD gave them to me, ⁵ and I went back down the mountain and placed the tablets in the ark I had made. And they have remained there, as the LORD commanded me."

¹⁰“I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights like the first time. The LORD also listened to me on this occasion; he agreed not to annihilate you. ¹¹Then the LORD said to me, ‘Get up. Continue your journey ahead of the people, so that they may enter and possess the land I swore to give their fathers.’

¹²“And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you except to fear the LORD your God by walking in all his ways, to love him, and to worship the LORD your God with all your heart and all your soul? ¹³Keep the LORD’s commands and statutes I am giving you today, for your own good. ¹⁴The heavens, indeed the highest heavens, belong to the LORD your God, as does the earth and everything in it. ¹⁵Yet the LORD had his heart set on your fathers and loved them. He chose their descendants after them — he chose you out of all the peoples, as it is today. ¹⁶Therefore, circumcise your hearts and don’t be stiff-necked any longer. ¹⁷For the LORD your God is the God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, mighty, and awe-inspiring God, showing no partiality and taking no bribe. ¹⁸He executes justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the resident alien, giving him food and clothing. ¹⁹You are also to love the resident alien, since you were resident aliens in the land of Egypt. ²⁰You are to fear the LORD your God and worship him. Remain faithful to him and take oaths in his name. ²¹He is your praise and he is your God, who has done for you these great and awe-inspiring works your eyes have seen. ²²Your fathers went down to Egypt, seventy people in all, and now the LORD your God has made you numerous, like the stars of the sky.

11 “Therefore, love the LORD your God and always keep his mandate and his statutes, ordinances, and commands. ²Understand today that it is not your children who experienced or saw the discipline of the LORD your God:

His greatness, strong hand, and outstretched arm; ³his signs and the works he did in Egypt to Pharaoh king of Egypt and all his land; ⁴what he did to Egypt’s army, its horses and chariots, when he made the water of the Red Sea flow over them as they pursued you, and he destroyed them completely; ⁵what he did to you in the wilderness until you reached this place; ⁶and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when in the middle of the whole Israelite camp the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their households, their tents, and every living thing with them.

⁷Your own eyes have seen every great work the LORD has done.

⁸“Keep every command I am giving you today, so that you may have the strength to cross into and possess the land you are to inherit, ⁹and so that you may live long in the land the LORD swore to your fathers to give them and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰For the land you are entering to possess is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and irrigated by hand as in a vegetable garden. ¹¹But the land you are entering to possess is a land of mountains and valleys, watered by rain from the sky. ¹²It is a land the LORD your God cares for. He is always watching over it from the beginning to the end of the year.

will provide grass in your fields for your livestock. You will eat and be satisfied. ¹⁶Be careful that you are not enticed to turn aside, serve, and bow in worship to other gods. ¹⁷Then the LORD’s anger will burn against you. He will shut the sky, and there will be no rain; the land will not yield its produce, and you will perish quickly from the good land the LORD is giving you.

¹⁸“Imprint these words of mine on your hearts and minds, bind them as a sign on your hands, and let them be a symbol on your foreheads. ¹⁹Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ²⁰Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your city gates, ²¹so that as long as the heavens are above the earth, your days and those of your children may be many in the land the LORD swore to give your fathers. ²²For if you carefully observe every one of these commands I am giving you to follow — to love the LORD your God, walk in all his ways, and remain faithful to him — ²³the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will drive out nations greater and stronger than you are. ²⁴Every place the sole of your foot treads will be yours. Your territory will extend from the wilderness to Lebanon and from the Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea. ²⁵No one will be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will put fear and dread of you in all the land where you set foot, as he has promised you.

²⁶“Look, today I set before you a blessing and a curse: ²⁷there will be a blessing, if you obey the commands of the LORD your God I am giving you today, ²⁸and a curse, if you do not obey the commands of the LORD your God and you turn aside from the path I command you today by following other gods you have not known. ²⁹When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess, you are to proclaim the blessing at Mount Gerizim and the curse at Mount Ebal. ³⁰Aren’t these mountains across the Jordan, beyond the western road in the land of the Canaanites, who live in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, near the oaks of Moreh? ³¹For you are about to cross the Jordan to enter and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you possess it and settle in it, ³²be careful to follow all the statutes and ordinances I set before you today.

12 “Be careful to follow these statutes and ordinances in the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess all the days you live on the earth. ²Destroy completely all the places where the nations that you are driving out worship their gods — on the high mountains, on the hills, and under every green tree. ³Tear down their altars, smash their sacred pillars, burn their Asherah poles, cut down the carved images of their gods, and wipe out their names from every place. ⁴Don’t worship the LORD your God this way. ⁵Instead, turn to the place the LORD your God chooses from all your tribes to put his name for his dwelling and go there. ⁶You are to bring there your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and personal contributions, your vow offerings and freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks. ⁷You will eat there in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice with your household in everything you do, because the LORD your God has blessed you.

⁸“You are not to do as we are doing here today; everyone is doing whatever seems right in his own sight. ⁹Indeed, you have not yet come into the resting place and the inheritance the LORD your God is giving you. ¹⁰When

you cross the Jordan and live in the land the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, and he gives you rest from all the enemies around you and you live in security, ¹¹ then the LORD your God will choose the place to have his name dwell. Bring there everything I command you: your burnt offerings, sacrifices, offerings of the tenth, personal contributions, and all your choice offerings you vow to the LORD. ¹² You will rejoice before the LORD your God — you, your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves, and the Levite who is within your city gates, since he has no portion or inheritance among you. ¹³ Be careful not to offer your burnt offerings in all the sacred places you see. ¹⁴ You must offer your burnt offerings only in the place the LORD chooses in one of your tribes, and there you must do everything I command you.

¹⁵ "But whenever you want, you may slaughter and eat meat within any of your city gates, according to the blessing the LORD your God has given you. Those who are clean or unclean may eat it, as they would a gazelle or deer, ¹⁶ but you must not eat the blood; pour it on the ground like water. ¹⁷ Within your city gates you may not eat the tenth of your grain, new wine, or fresh oil; the firstborn of your herd or flock; any of your vow offerings that you pledge; your freewill offerings; or your personal contributions. ¹⁸ You are to eat them in the presence of the LORD your God at the place the LORD your God chooses — you, your son and daughter, your male and female slave, and the Levite who is within your city gates. Rejoice before the LORD your God in everything you do, ¹⁹ and be careful not to neglect the Levite, as long as you live in your land.

²⁰ "When the LORD your God enlarges your territory as he has promised you, and you say, 'I want to eat meat' because you have a strong desire to eat meat, you may eat it whenever you want. ²¹ If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put his name is too far from you, you may slaughter any of your herd or flock he has given you, as I have commanded you, and you may eat it within your city gates whenever you want. ²² Indeed, you may eat it as the gazelle and deer are eaten; both the clean and the unclean may eat it. ²³ But don't eat the blood, since the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the meat. ²⁴ Do not eat blood; pour it on the ground like water. ²⁵ Do not eat it, so that you and your children after you will prosper, because you will be doing what is right in the LORD's sight.

13 "If a prophet or someone who has dreams arises among you and proclaims a sign or wonder to you, ² and that sign or wonder he has promised you comes about, but he says, 'Let us follow other gods,' which you have not known, 'and let us worship them,' ³ do not listen to that prophet's words or to that dreamer. For the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and all your soul. ⁴ You must follow the LORD your God and fear him. You must keep his commands and listen to him; you must worship him and remain faithful to him. ⁵ That prophet or dreamer must be put to death, because he has urged rebellion against the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the place of slavery, to turn you from the way the LORD your God has commanded you to walk. You must purge the evil from you.

⁶ "If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son or daughter, or the wife you embrace, or your closest friend secretly entices you, saying, 'Let us go and worship other gods' — which neither you nor your fathers have known, ⁷ any of the gods of the peoples around you, near you or far from you, from one end of the earth to the other — ⁸ do not yield to him or listen to him. Show him no pity, and do not spare him or shield him. ⁹ Instead, you must kill him. Your hand is to be the first against him to put him to death, and then the hands of all the people. ¹⁰ Stone him to death for trying to turn you away from the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery. ¹¹ All Israel will hear and be afraid, and they will no longer do anything evil like this among you.

¹² "If you hear it said about one of your cities the LORD your God is giving you to live in, ¹³ that wicked men have sprung up among you, led the inhabitants of their city astray, and said, 'Let us go and worship other gods,' which you have not known, ¹⁴ you are to inquire, investigate, and interrogate thoroughly. If the report turns out to be true that this detestable act has been done among you, ¹⁵ you must strike down the inhabitants of that city with the sword. Completely destroy everyone in it as well as its livestock with the sword. ¹⁶ You are to gather all its spoil in the middle of the city square and completely burn the city and all its spoil for the LORD your God. The city is to remain a mound of ruins forever; it is not to be rebuilt. ¹⁷ Nothing set apart for destruction is to remain in your hand, so that the LORD will turn from his burning anger and grant you mercy, show you compassion, and multiply you as he swore to your fathers. ¹⁸ This will occur if you obey the LORD your God, keeping all his commands I am giving you today, doing what is right in the sight of the LORD your God.

14 "You are sons of the LORD your God; do not cut yourselves or make a bald spot on your head on behalf of the dead, ² for you are a holy people belonging to the LORD your God. The LORD has chosen you to be his own possession out of all the peoples on the face of the earth.

³ "You must not eat any detestable thing. ⁴ These are the animals you may eat:

- oxen, sheep, goats,
- ⁵ deer, gazelles, roe deer, wild goats, ibexes, antelopes, and mountain sheep.

⁶ You may eat any animal that has hooves divided in two and chews the cud. ⁷ But among the ones that chew the cud or have divided hooves, you are not to eat these: camels, hares, and hyraxes, though they chew the cud, they do not have hooves—

they are unclean for you;

- ⁸ and pigs, though they have hooves, they do not chew the cud—
they are unclean for you.

Do not eat their meat or touch their carcasses.

⁹You may eat everything from the water that has fins and scales,¹⁰ but you may not eat anything that does not have fins and scales—it is unclean for you.

¹¹You may eat every clean bird,¹² but these are the ones you may not eat:

eagles, bearded vultures,
black vultures,¹³ the kites,

any kind of falcon,

- ¹⁴ every kind of raven,¹⁵ ostriches,
short-eared owls, gulls,
any kind of hawk,

- ¹⁶ little owls, long-eared owls,
barn owls,¹⁷ eagle owls, ospreys, cormorants,¹⁸ storks,
any kind of heron,
hoopoes, and bats.

¹⁹All winged insects are unclean for you; they may not be eaten.²⁰ But you may eat every clean flying creature.

²¹You are not to eat any carcass; you may give it to a resident alien within your city gates, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a holy people belonging to the LORD your God. Do not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

²²Each year you are to set aside a tenth of all the produce grown in your fields.²³ You are to eat a tenth of your grain, new wine, and fresh oil, and the firstborn of your herd and flock, in the presence of the LORD your God at the place where he chooses to have his name dwell, so that you will always learn to fear the LORD your God.²⁴ But if the distance is too great for you to carry it, since the place where the LORD your God chooses to put his name is too far away from you and since the LORD your God has blessed you,²⁵ then exchange it for silver, take the silver in your hand, and go to the place the LORD your God chooses.²⁶ You may spend the silver on anything you want: cattle, sheep, goats, wine, beer, or anything you desire. You are to feast there in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice with your family.
²⁷Do not neglect the Levite within your city gates, since he has no portion or inheritance among you.

²⁸At the end of every three years, bring a tenth of all your produce for that year and store it within your city gates.²⁹ Then the Levite, who has no portion or inheritance among you, the resident alien, the fatherless, and the widow within your city gates may come, eat, and be satisfied. And the LORD your God will bless you in all the work of your hands that you do.

15 At the end of every seven years you must cancel debts.² This is how to cancel debt: Every creditor is to cancel what he has lent his neighbor. He is not to collect anything from his neighbor or brother, because the LORD's release of debts has been proclaimed.³ You may collect something from a foreigner, but you must forgive whatever your brother owes you.

⁴There will be no poor among you, however, because the LORD is certain to bless you in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance—⁵ if only you obey the LORD your God and are careful to follow every one of these commands I am giving you today.⁶ When the LORD your God blesses you as he has promised you, you will lend to many nations but not borrow; you will rule many nations, but they will not rule you.

⁷If there is a poor person among you, one of your brothers within any of your city gates in the land the LORD your God is giving you, do not be hardhearted or tightfisted toward your poor brother.⁸ Instead, you are to open your hand to him and freely loan him enough for whatever need he has.⁹ Be careful that there isn't this wicked thought in your heart, 'The seventh year, the year of canceling debts, is near,' and you are stingy toward your poor brother and give him nothing. He will cry out to the LORD against you, and you will be guilty.¹⁰ Give to him, and don't have a stingy heart when you give, and because of this the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in everything you do.
¹¹For there will never cease to be poor people in the land;
that is why I am commanding you, 'Open your hand willingly to your poor and needy brother in your land.'

¹²'If your fellow Hebrew, a man or woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, you must set him free in the seventh year.¹³ When you set him free, do not send him away empty-handed.¹⁴ Give generously to him from your flock, your threshing floor, and your winepress. You are to give him whatever the LORD your God has blessed you with.
¹⁵Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you; that is why I am giving you this command today.¹⁶ But if your slave says to you,
'I don't want to leave you,' because he loves you and your family, and is well off with you,¹⁷ take an awl and pierce through his ear into the door, and he will become your slave for life. Also treat your female slave the same way.
¹⁸Do not regard it as a hardship when you set him free, because he worked for you six years—worth twice the wages of a hired worker. Then the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

¹⁹Consecrate to the LORD your God every firstborn male produced by your herd and flock. You are not to put the firstborn of your oxen to work or shear the firstborn of your flock.²⁰ Each year you and your family are to eat it before the LORD your God in the place the LORD chooses.
²¹But if there is a defect in the animal, if it is lame or blind or has any serious defect, you may not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.²² Eat it within your city gates; both the unclean person and the clean may eat it, as though it were a gazelle or deer.²³ But you must not eat its blood; pour it on the ground like water.

16 Set aside the month of Abib and observe the Passover to the LORD your God, because the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night in the month of Abib.² Sacrifice to the LORD your God a Passover animal from the herd or flock in the place where the LORD chooses to have his name dwell.³ Do not eat leavened bread with it.
For seven days you are to eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of hardship—because you left the land of Egypt in a hurry—so that you may remember for the rest of your life the day you left the land of Egypt.⁴ No yeast is to be found anywhere in your territory for seven days, and none of the meat you sacrifice in the evening of the first day is to remain until morning.⁵ You are not to sacrifice the Passover animal in any of the towns the LORD your God is giving you.
⁶Sacrifice the Passover animal only at the place where the LORD your God chooses to have his name dwell. Do this in the evening as the sun sets at the same time of day you departed from Egypt.⁷ You are to cook and eat it in the place the LORD your God chooses, and you are to return to your tents in the morning. ⁸ Eat unleavened bread for six days. On the seventh day there is to be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God; do not do any work.

⁹ You are to count seven weeks, counting the weeks from the time the sickle is first put to the standing grain. ¹⁰ You are to celebrate the Festival of Weeks to the LORD your God with a freewill offering that you give in proportion to how the LORD your God has blessed you. ¹¹ Rejoice before the LORD your God in the place where he chooses to have his name dwell — you, your son and daughter, your male and female slave, the Levite within your city gates, as well as the resident alien, the fatherless, and the widow among you. ¹² Remember that you were slaves in Egypt; carefully follow these statutes.

¹³ You are to celebrate the Festival of Shelters for seven days when you have gathered in everything from your threshing floor and winepress. ¹⁴ Rejoice during your festival — you, your son and daughter, your male and female slave, as well as the Levite, the resident alien, the fatherless, and the widow within your city gates. ¹⁵ You are to hold a seven-day festival for the LORD your God in the place he chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, and you will have abundant joy.

¹⁸ Appoint judges and officials for your tribes in all your towns the LORD your God is giving you. They are to judge the people with righteous judgment. ¹⁹ Do not deny justice or show partiality to anyone. Do not accept a bribe, for it blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous. ²⁰ Pursue justice and justice alone, so that you will live and possess the land the LORD your God is giving you.

²¹ Do not set up an Asherah of any kind of wood next to the altar you will build for the LORD your God, ²² and do not set up a sacred pillar; the LORD your God hates them.

17 Do not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or sheep with a defect or any serious flaw, for that is detestable to the LORD your God.

² If a man or woman among you in one of your towns that the LORD your God will give you is discovered doing evil in the sight of the LORD your God and violating his covenant ³ and has gone to serve other gods by bowing in worship to the sun, moon, or all the stars in the sky — which I have forbidden — ⁴ and if you are told or hear about it, then investigate it thoroughly. If the report turns out to be true that this detestable act has been done in Israel, ⁵ you are to bring out to your city gates that man or woman who has done this evil thing and stone them to death. ⁶ The one condemned to die is to be executed on the testimony of two or three witnesses. No one is to be executed on the testimony of a single witness. ⁷ The witnesses' hands are to be the first in putting him to death, and after that, the hands of all the people. You must purge the evil from you.

⁸ If a case is too difficult for you — concerning bloodshed, lawsuits, or assaults — cases disputed at your city gates, then go up to the place the LORD your God chooses. ⁹ You are to go to the Levitical priests and to the judge who presides at that time. Ask, and they will give you a verdict in the case. ¹⁰ You must abide by the verdict they give you at the place the LORD chooses. Be careful to do exactly as they instruct you. ¹¹ You must abide by the instruction they give you and the verdict they announce to you. Do not turn to the right or the left from the decision they declare to you. ¹² The person who acts arrogantly, refusing to listen either to the priest who stands there serving the LORD your God or to the judge, must die. You must purge the evil from Israel. ¹³ Then all the people will hear about it, be afraid, and no longer behave arrogantly.

¹⁴ When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, take possession of it, live in it, and say, 'I will set a king over me like all the nations around me,' ¹⁵ you are to appoint over you the king the LORD your God chooses. Appoint a king from your brothers. You are not to set a foreigner over you, or one who is not of your people. ¹⁶ However, he must not acquire many horses for himself or send the people back to Egypt to acquire many horses, for the LORD has told you, 'You are never to go back that way again.' ¹⁷ He must not acquire many wives for himself so that his heart won't go astray. He must not acquire very large amounts of silver and gold for himself. ¹⁸ When he is seated on his royal throne, he is to write a copy of this instruction for himself on a scroll in the presence of the Levitical priests. ¹⁹ It is to remain with him, and he is to read from it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to observe all the words of this instruction, and to do these statutes. ²⁰ Then his heart will not be exalted above his countrymen, he will not turn from this command to the right or the left, and he and his sons will continue reigning many years in Israel.

18 The Levitical priests, the whole tribe of Levi, will have no portion or inheritance with Israel. They will eat the LORD's fire offerings; that is their inheritance. ² Although Levi has no inheritance among his brothers, the LORD is his inheritance, as he promised him. ³ This is the priests' share from the people who offer a sacrifice, whether it is an ox, a sheep, or a goat; the priests are to be given the shoulder, jaws, and stomach. ⁴ You are to give him the firstfruits of your grain, new wine, and fresh oil, and the first sheared wool of your flock. ⁵ For the LORD your God has chosen him and his sons from all your tribes to stand and minister in his name from now on. ⁶ When a Levite leaves one of your towns in Israel where he was staying and wants to go to the place the LORD chooses, ⁷ he may serve in the name of the LORD his God like all his fellow Levites who minister there in the presence of the LORD. ⁸ They will eat equal portions besides what he has received from the sale of the family estate.

⁹ When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, do not imitate the detestable customs of those nations. ¹⁰ No one among you is to sacrifice his son or daughter in the fire, practice divination, tell fortunes, interpret omens, practice sorcery, ¹¹ cast spells, consult a medium or a spiritist, or inquire of the dead. ¹² Everyone who does these acts is detestable to the LORD, and the LORD your God is driving out the nations before you because of these detestable acts. ¹³ You must be blameless before the LORD your God. ¹⁴ Though these nations you are about to drive out listen to fortune-tellers and diviners, the LORD your God has not permitted you to do this.

this great fire any longer, so that we will not die!’¹⁷ Then the LORD said to me, ‘They have spoken well.’¹⁸ I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers. I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him.¹⁹ I will hold accountable whoever does not listen to my words that he speaks in my name.²⁰ But the prophet who presumes to speak a message in my name that I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods — that prophet must die.’²¹ You may say to yourself, ‘How can we recognize a message the LORD has not spoken?’²² When a prophet speaks in the LORD’s name, and the message does not come true or is not fulfilled, that is a message the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously. Do not be afraid of him.

19 “When the LORD your God annihilates the nations whose land he is giving you, so that you drive them out and live in their cities and houses,² you are to set apart three cities for yourselves within the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess.³ You are to determine the distances and divide the land the LORD your God is granting you as an inheritance into three regions, so that anyone who commits manslaughter can flee to these cities.

⁴ Here is the law concerning a case of someone who kills a person and flees there to save his life, having killed his neighbor accidentally without previously hating him:⁵ If, for example, he goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut timber, and his hand swings the ax to chop down a tree, but the blade flies off the handle and strikes his neighbor so that he dies, that person may flee to one of these cities and live.⁶ Otherwise, the avenger of blood in the heat of his anger might pursue the one who committed manslaughter, overtake him because the distance is great, and strike him dead. Yet he did not deserve to die, since he did not previously hate his neighbor.⁷ This is why I am commanding you to set apart three cities for yourselves.⁸ If the LORD your God enlarges your territory as he swore to your fathers, and gives you all the land he promised to give them —⁹ provided you keep every one of these commands I am giving you today and follow them, loving the LORD your God and walking in his ways at all times — you are to add three more cities to these three.¹⁰ In this way, innocent blood will not be shed, and you will not become guilty of bloodshed in the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.¹¹ But if someone hates his neighbor, lies in ambush for him, attacks him, and strikes him fatally, and flees to one of these cities,¹² the elders of his city are to send for him, take him from there, and hand him over to the avenger of blood and he will die.¹³ Do not look on him with pity but purge from Israel the guilt of shedding innocent blood, and you will prosper.

¹⁵ One witness cannot establish any iniquity or sin against a person, whatever that person has done. A fact must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.

¹⁶ If a malicious witness testifies against someone accusing him of a crime,¹⁷ the two people in the dispute are to stand in the presence of the LORD before the priests and judges in authority at that time.¹⁸ The judges are to make a careful investigation, and if the witness turns out to be a liar who has falsely accused his brother,¹⁹ you must do to him as he intended to do to his brother. You must purge the evil from you.²⁰ Then everyone else will hear and be afraid, and they will never again do anything evil like this among you.²¹ Do not show pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, and foot for foot.

20 “When you go out to war against your enemies and see horses, chariots, and an army larger than yours, do not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, is with you.² When you are about to engage in battle, the priest is to come forward and address the army.³ He is to say to them: ‘Listen, Israel: Today you are about to engage in battle with your enemies. Do not be cowardly. Do not be afraid, alarmed, or terrified because of them.’⁴ For the LORD your God is the one who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies to give you victory.’

⁵ The officers are to address the army, ‘Has any man built a new house and not dedicated it? Let him leave and return home. Otherwise, he may die in battle and another man dedicate it.’⁶ Has any man planted a vineyard and not begun to enjoy its fruit? Let him leave and return home. Otherwise he may die in battle and another man enjoy its fruit.⁷ Has any man become engaged to a woman and not married her? Let him leave and return home. Otherwise he may die in battle and another man marry her.’⁸ The officers will continue to address the army and say, ‘Is there any man who is afraid or cowardly? Let him leave and return home, so that his brothers won’t lose heart as he did.’⁹ When the officers have finished addressing the army, they will appoint military commanders to lead it.

¹⁰ When you approach a city to fight against it, make an offer of peace.¹¹ If it accepts your offer of peace and opens its gates to you, all the people found in it will become forced laborers for you and serve you.¹² However, if it does not make peace with you but wages war against you, lay siege to it.¹³ When the LORD your God hands it over to you, strike down all its males with the sword.¹⁴ But you may take the women, dependents, animals, and whatever else is in the city — all its spoil — as plunder. You may enjoy the spoil of your enemies that the LORD your God has given you.¹⁵ This is how you are to treat all the cities that are far away from you and are not among the cities of these nations.¹⁶ However, you must not let any living thing survive among the cities of these people the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.¹⁷ You must completely destroy them — the Hethite, Amorite, Canaanite, Perizzite, Hivite, and Jebusite — as the LORD your God has commanded you,¹⁸ so that they won’t teach you to do all the detestable acts they do for their gods, and you sin against the LORD your God.

21 “If a murder victim is found lying in a field in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him,² your elders and judges are to come out and measure the distance from the victim to the nearby cities.³ The elders of the city nearest to the victim are to get a young cow that has not been yoked or used for work.⁴ The elders of that city will bring the cow down to a continually flowing stream, to a place not tilled or sown, and they will break its neck there by the stream.³ Then the priests, the sons of Levi, will come forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to serve him and pronounce blessings in his name, and they are to give a ruling in every dispute and case of assault.⁶ All the elders of the city nearest to the victim will wash their hands by the stream over the young cow whose neck has been broken.⁷ They will declare, 'Our hands did not shed this blood; our eyes did not see it.'⁸ LORD, wipe away the guilt of your people Israel whom you redeemed, and do not hold the shedding of innocent blood against them.' Then the responsibility for bloodshed will be wiped away from them.⁹ You must purge from yourselves the guilt of shedding innocent blood, for you will be doing what is right in the LORD's sight.

¹⁰When you go to war against your enemies and the LORD your God hands them over to you and you take some of them prisoner, and ¹¹if you see a beautiful woman among the captives, desire her, and want to take her as your wife, ¹²you are to bring her into your house. She is to shave her head, trim her nails, ¹³remove the clothes she was wearing when she was taken prisoner, live in your house, and mourn for her father and mother a full month. After that, you may have sexual relations with her and be her husband, and she will be your wife.¹⁴ Then if you are not satisfied with her, you are to let her go where she wants, but you must not sell her or treat her as merchandise, because you have humiliated her.

¹⁸If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who does not obey his father or mother and doesn't listen to them even after they discipline him, ¹⁹his father and mother are to take hold of him and bring him to the elders of his city, to the gate of his hometown.²⁰ They will say to the elders of his city, 'This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he doesn't obey us. He's a glutton and a drunkard.'²¹ Then all the men of his city will stone him to death. You must purge the evil from you, and all Israel will hear and be afraid.

²²If anyone is found guilty of an offense deserving the death penalty and is executed, and you hang his body on a tree,²³ you are not to leave his corpse on the tree overnight but are to bury him that day, for anyone hung on a tree is under God's curse. You must not defile the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

22 If you see your brother Israelite's ox or sheep straying, do not ignore it; make sure you return it to your brother.² If your brother does not live near you or you don't know him, you are to bring the animal to your home to remain with you until your brother comes looking for it; then you can return it to him.³ Do the same for his donkey, his garment, or anything your brother has lost and you have found. You must not ignore it.⁴ If you see your brother's donkey or ox fallen down on the road, do not ignore it; help him lift it up.

⁶If you come across a bird's nest with chicks or eggs, either in a tree or on the ground along the road, and the mother is sitting on the chicks or eggs, do not take the mother along with the young.⁷ You may take the young for yourself, but be sure to let the mother go free, so that you may prosper and live long.⁸ If you build a new house, make a railing around your roof, so that you don't bring bloodguilt on your house if someone falls from it.⁹ Do not plant your vineyard with two types of seed; otherwise, the entire harvest, both the crop you plant and the produce of the vineyard, will be defiled.¹⁰ Do not plow with an ox and a donkey together.¹¹ Do not wear clothes made of both wool and linen.¹² Make tassels on the four corners of the outer garment you wear.

²²If a man is discovered having sexual relations with another man's wife, both the man who had sex with the woman and the woman must die. You must purge the evil from Israel.²³ If there is a young woman who is a virgin engaged to a man, and another man encounters her in the city and sleeps with her,²⁴ take the two of them out to the gate of that city and stone them to death — the young woman because she did not cry out in the city and the man because he has violated his neighbor's fiancée. You must purge the evil from you.²⁵ But if the man encounters an engaged woman in the open country, and he seizes and rapes her, only the man who raped her must die.²⁶ Do nothing to the young woman, because she is not guilty of an offense deserving death. This case is just like one in which a man attacks his neighbor and murders him.²⁷ When he found her in the field, the engaged woman cried out, but there was no one to rescue her.²⁸ If a man encounters a young woman, a virgin who is not engaged, takes hold of her and rapes her, and they are discovered,²⁹ the man who raped her is to give the young woman's father fifty silver shekels, and she will become his wife because he violated her. He cannot divorce her as long as he lives.

³⁰A man is not to marry his father's wife; he must not violate his father's marriage bed.

23 No man whose testicles have been crushed or whose penis has been cut off may enter the LORD's assembly.² No one of illegitimate birth may enter the LORD's assembly; none of his descendants, even to the tenth generation, may enter the LORD's assembly. ³ No Ammonite or Moabite may enter the LORD's assembly; none of their descendants, even to the tenth generation, may ever enter the LORD's assembly. ⁴ This is because they did not meet you with food and water on the journey after you came out of Egypt, and because Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in Aram-naharaim was hired to curse you. ⁵ Yet the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam, but he turned the curse into a blessing for you because the LORD your God loves you. ⁶ Never pursue their welfare or prosperity as long as you live. ⁷ Do not despise an Edomite, because he is your brother. Do not despise an Egyptian, because you were a resident alien in his land. ⁸ The children born to them in the third generation may enter the LORD's assembly.

⁹ When you are encamped against your enemies, be careful to avoid anything offensive. ¹⁰ If there is a man among you who is unclean because of a bodily emission during the night, he must go outside the camp; he may not come anywhere inside the camp. ¹¹ When evening approaches, he is to wash with water, and when the sun sets he may come inside the camp. ¹² You are to have a place outside the camp and go there to relieve yourself. ¹³ You are to have a digging tool in your equipment; when you relieve yourself, dig a hole with it and cover up your excrement. ¹⁴ For the LORD your God walks throughout your camp to protect you and deliver your enemies to you; so your encampments must be holy. He must not see anything indecent among you or he will turn away from you.

¹⁷ No Israelite woman is to be a cult prostitute, and no Israelite man is to be a cult prostitute. ¹⁸ Do not bring a female prostitute's wages or a male prostitute's earnings into the house of the LORD your God to fulfill any vow, because both are detestable to the LORD your God.

¹⁹ Do not charge your brother interest on silver, food, or anything that can earn interest. ²⁰ You may charge a foreigner interest, but you must not charge your brother Israelite interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in everything you do in the land you are entering to possess.

²¹ If you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not be slow to keep it, because he will require it of you, and it will be counted against you as sin. ²² But if you refrain from making a vow, it will not be counted against you as sin. ²³ Be careful to do whatever comes from your lips, because you have freely vowed what you promised to the LORD your God.

²⁴ When you enter your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat as many grapes as you want until you are full, but do not put any in your container. ²⁵ When you enter your neighbor's standing grain, you may pluck heads of grain with your hand, but do not put a sickle to your neighbor's grain.

24 If a man marries a woman, but she becomes displeasing to him because he finds something indecent about her, he may write her a divorce certificate, hand it to her, and send her away from his house. ² If after leaving his house she goes and becomes another man's wife, ³ and the second man hates her, writes her a divorce certificate, hands it to her, and sends her away from his house or if he dies, ⁴ the first husband who sent her away may not marry her again after she has been defiled, because that would be detestable to the LORD. You must not bring guilt on the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

⁵ When a man takes a bride, he must not go out with the army or be liable for any duty. He is free to stay at home for one year, so that he can bring joy to the wife he has married.

⁶ Do not take a pair of grindstones or even the upper millstone as security for a debt, because that is like taking a life as security.

¹⁰ When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbor, do not enter his house to collect what he offers as security. ¹¹ Stand outside while the man you are making the loan to brings the security out to you. ¹² If he is a poor man, do not sleep with the garment he has given as security. ¹³ Be sure to return it to him at sunset. Then he will sleep in it and bless you, and this will be counted as righteousness to you before the LORD your God.

¹⁶ Fathers are not to be put to death for their children, and children are not to be put to death for their fathers; each person will be put to death for his own sin. ¹⁷ Do not deny justice to a resident alien or fatherless child, and do not take a widow's garment as security. ¹⁸ Remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you from there. Therefore I am commanding you to do this.

¹⁹ When you reap the harvest in your field, and you forget a sheaf in the field, do not go back to get it. It is to be left for the resident alien, the fatherless, and the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. ²⁰ When you knock down the fruit from your olive tree, do not go over the branches again. What remains will be for the resident alien, the fatherless, and the widow. ²¹ When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, do not glean what is left. What remains will be for the resident alien, the fatherless, and the widow. ²² Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. Therefore I am commanding you to do this.

25 If there is a dispute between men, they are to go to court, and the judges will hear their case. They will clear the innocent and condemn the guilty. ² If the guilty party deserves to be flogged, the judge will make him lie down and be flogged in his presence with the number of lashes appropriate for his crime. ³ He may be flogged with forty lashes, but no more. Otherwise, if he is flogged with more lashes than these, your brother will be degraded in your sight.

⁴ Do not muzzle an ox while it treads out grain.

go to the elders at the city gate and say, 'My brother-in-law refuses to preserve his brother's name in Israel. He isn't willing to perform the duty of a brother-in-law for me.'⁸ The elders of his city will summon him and speak with him. If he persists and says, 'I don't want to marry her,'⁹ then his sister-in-law will go up to him in the sight of the elders, remove his sandal from his foot, and spit in his face. Then she will declare, 'This is what is done to a man who will not build up his brother's house.'¹⁰ And his family name in Israel will be 'The house of the man whose sandal was removed.'

¹¹ If two men are fighting with each other, and the wife of one steps in to rescue her husband from the one striking him, and she puts out her hand and grabs his genitals,¹² you are to cut off her hand. Do not show pity.

¹³ Do not have differing weights in your bag, one heavy and one light.¹⁴ Do not have differing dry measures in your house, a larger and a smaller.¹⁵ You must have a full and honest weight, a full and honest dry measure, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.¹⁶ For everyone who does such things and acts unfairly is detestable to the LORD your God.

¹⁷ Remember what the Amalekites did to you on the journey after you left Egypt.¹⁸ They met you along the way and attacked all your stragglers from behind when you were tired and weary. They did not fear God.¹⁹ When the LORD your God gives you rest from all the enemies around you in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance, blot out the memory of Amalek under heaven. Do not forget.

26 When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you take possession of it and live in it,² take some of the first of all the land's produce that you harvest from the land the LORD your God is giving you and put it in a basket. Then go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to have his name dwell.³ When you come before the priest who is serving at that time, say to him, 'Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have entered the land the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.'

⁴ Then the priest will take the basket from you and place it before the altar of the LORD your God.⁵ You are to respond by saying in the presence of the LORD your God: My father was a wandering Aramean. He went down to Egypt with a few people and resided there as an alien. There he became a great, powerful, and populous nation.⁶ But the Egyptians mistreated and oppressed us, and forced us to do hard labor.⁷ So we called out to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our cry and saw our misery, hardship, and oppression.⁸ Then the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, with terrifying power, and with signs and wonders.⁹ He led us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.¹⁰ I have now brought the first of the land's produce that you, LORD, have given me.

You will then place the container before the LORD your God and bow down to him.¹¹ You, the Levites, and the resident aliens among you will rejoice in all the good things the LORD your God has given you and your household.

¹² When you have finished paying all the tenth of your produce in the third year, the year of the tenth, you are to give it to the Levites, resident aliens, fatherless children and widows, so that they may eat in your towns and be satisfied.¹³ Then you will say in the presence of the LORD your God:

I have taken the consecrated portion out of my house; I have also given it to the Levites, resident aliens, fatherless children, and widows, according to all the commands you gave me. I have not violated or forgotten your commands.¹⁴ I have not eaten any of it while in mourning, or removed any of it while unclean, or offered any of it for the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God; I have done all you commanded me.¹⁵ Look down from your holy dwelling, from heaven, and bless your people Israel and the land you have given us as you swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

¹⁶ The LORD your God is commanding you this day to follow these statutes and ordinances. Follow them carefully with all your heart and all your soul.¹⁷ Today you have affirmed that the LORD is your God and that you will walk in his ways, keep his statutes, commands, and ordinances, and obey him.¹⁸ And today the LORD has affirmed that you are his own possession as he promised you, that you are to keep all his commands,¹⁹ that he will elevate you to praise, fame, and glory above all the nations he has made, and that you will be a holy people to the LORD your God as he promised."

27 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, "Keep every command I am giving you today.² When you cross the Jordan into the land the LORD your God is giving you, set up large stones and cover them with plaster.³ Write all the words of this law on the stones after you cross to enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you.⁴ When you have crossed the Jordan, you are to set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I am commanding you today, and you are to cover them with plaster.⁵ Build an altar of stones there to the LORD your God—do not use any iron tool on them.⁶ Use uncut stones to build the altar of the LORD your God and offer burnt offerings to the LORD your God on it.⁷ There you are to sacrifice fellowship offerings, eat, and rejoice in the presence of the LORD your God.⁸ Write clearly all the words of this law on the plastered stones."

⁹ Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, "Be silent, Israel, and listen! This day you have become the people of the LORD your God.¹⁰ Obey the LORD your God and follow his commands and statutes I am giving you today."

¹⁶ The one who dishonors his father or mother is cursed.¹ And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

¹⁷ The one who moves his neighbor's boundary marker is cursed.¹ And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

¹⁸ The one who leads a blind person astray on the road is cursed.¹

And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

¹⁹ 'The one who denies justice to a resident alien, a fatherless child, or a widow is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

²⁰ 'The one who sleeps with his father's wife is cursed, for he has violated his father's marriage bed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

²¹ 'The one who has sexual intercourse with any animal is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

²² 'The one who sleeps with his sister, whether his father's daughter or his mother's daughter is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

²³ 'The one who sleeps with his mother-in-law is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

²⁴ 'The one who secretly kills his neighbor is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

²⁵ 'The one who accepts a bribe to kill an innocent person is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

²⁶ 'Anyone who does not put the words of this law into practice is cursed.'

And all the people will say, 'Amen!'

28 "Now if you faithfully obey the LORD your God and are careful to follow all his commands I am giving you today, the LORD your God will put you far above all the nations of the earth. ² All these blessings will come and overtake you, because you obey the LORD your God:

³ You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country.

⁴ Your offspring will be blessed, and your land's produce, and the offspring of your livestock, including the young of your herds and the newborn of your flocks.

⁵ Your basket and kneading bowl will be blessed.

⁸ The LORD will grant you a blessing on your barns and on everything you do; he will bless you in the land the LORD your God is giving you. ⁹ The LORD will establish you as his holy people, as he swore to you, if you obey the commands of the LORD your God and walk in his ways. ¹⁰ Then all the peoples of the earth will see that you bear the LORD's name, and they will stand in awe of you. ¹¹ The LORD will make you prosper abundantly with offspring, the offspring of your livestock, and your land's produce in the land the LORD swore to your fathers to give you. ¹² The LORD will open for you his abundant storehouse, the sky, to give your land rain in its season and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow. ¹³ The LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you will only move upward and never downward if you listen to the LORD your God's commands I am giving you today and are careful to follow them. ¹⁴ Do not turn aside to the right or the left from all the things I am commanding you today, and do not follow other gods to worship them.

¹⁵ "But if you do not obey the LORD your God by carefully following all his commands and statutes I am giving you today, all these curses will come and overtake you:

¹⁶ You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country.

¹⁷ Your basket and kneading bowl will be cursed.

²⁰ The LORD will send against you curses, confusion, and rebuke in everything you do until you are destroyed and quickly perish, because of the wickedness of your actions in abandoning me. ²¹ The LORD will make pestilence cling to you until he has exterminated you from the land you are entering to possess. ²² The LORD will afflict you with wasting disease, fever, inflammation, burning heat, drought, blight, and mildew; these will pursue you until you perish. ²³ The sky above you will be bronze, and the earth beneath you iron. ²⁴ The LORD will turn the rain of your land into falling dust; it will descend on you from the sky until you are destroyed. ²⁵ The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies. You will march out against them from one direction but flee from them in seven directions. You will be an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. ²⁶ Your corpses will be food for all the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the earth, with no one to scare them away.

²⁷ "The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt, tumors, a festering rash, and scabies, from which you cannot be cured. ²⁸ The LORD will afflict you with madness, blindness, and mental confusion, ²⁹ so that at noon you will grope as a blind person gropes in the dark. You will not be successful in anything you do. You will only be oppressed and robbed continually, and no one will help you. ³⁰ You will become engaged to a woman, but another man will rape her. You will build a house but not live in it. You will plant a vineyard but not enjoy its fruit. ³¹ Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will not eat any of it. Your donkey will be taken away from you and not returned to you. Your flock will be given to your enemies, and no one will help you. ³² Your sons and daughters will be given to another people, while your eyes grow weary looking for them every day. But you will be powerless to do anything. ³³ A people you don't know will eat your land's produce and everything you have labored for. You will only be oppressed and crushed continually. ³⁴ You will be driven mad by what you see. ³⁵ The LORD will afflict you with painful and incurable boils on your knees and thighs — from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

⁴⁵All these curses will come, pursue, and overtake you until you are destroyed, since you did not obey the LORD your God and keep the commands and statutes he gave you. ⁴⁶These curses will be a sign and a wonder against you and your descendants forever. ⁴⁷Because you didn't serve the LORD your God with joy and a cheerful heart, even though you had an abundance of everything, ⁴⁸you will serve your enemies the LORD will send against you, in famine, thirst, nakedness, and a lack of everything. He will place an iron yoke on your neck until he has destroyed you. ⁴⁹The LORD will bring a nation from far away, from the ends of the earth, to swoop down on you like an eagle, a nation whose language you won't understand, ⁵⁰a ruthless nation, showing no respect for the old and not sparing the young. ⁵¹They will eat the offspring of your livestock and your land's produce until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain, new wine, fresh oil, young of your herds, or newborn of your flocks until they cause you to perish. ⁵²They will besiege you within all your city gates until your high and fortified walls, that you trust in, come down throughout your land. They will besiege you within all your city gates throughout the land the LORD your God has given you.

⁵⁸"If you are not careful to obey all the words of this law, which are written in this scroll, by fearing this glorious and awe-inspiring name — the LORD, your God — ⁵⁹he will bring wondrous plagues on you and your descendants, severe and lasting plagues, and terrible and chronic sicknesses. ⁶⁰He will afflict you again with all the diseases of Egypt, which you dreaded, and they will cling to you. ⁶¹The LORD will also afflict you with every sickness and plague not recorded in the book of this law, until you are destroyed. ⁶²Though you were as numerous as the stars of the sky, you will be left with only a few people, because you did not obey the LORD your God. ⁶³Just as the LORD was glad to cause you to prosper and to multiply you, so he will also be glad to cause you to perish and to destroy you. You will be ripped out of the land you are entering to possess. ⁶⁴Then the LORD will scatter you among all peoples from one end of the earth to the other, and there you will worship other gods, of wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known. ⁶⁵You will find no peace among those nations, and there will be no resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and a despondent spirit. ⁶⁶Your life will hang in doubt before you. You will be in dread night and day, never certain of survival. ⁶⁷In the morning you will say, 'If only it were evening!' and in the evening you will say, 'If only it were morning!' — because of the dread you will have in your heart and because of what you will see. ⁶⁸The LORD will take you back in ships to Egypt by a route that I said you would never see again. There you will sell yourselves to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you."

29 These are the words of the covenant the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant he had made with them at Horeb. ²Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, "You have seen with your own eyes everything the LORD did in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to his entire land. ³You saw with your own eyes the great trials and those great signs and wonders. ⁴Yet to this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand, eyes to see, or ears to hear. ⁵I led you forty years in the wilderness; your clothes and the sandals on your feet did not wear out; ⁶you did not eat food or drink wine or beer — so that you might know that I am the LORD your God. ⁷When you reached this place, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan came out against us in battle, but we defeated them. ⁸We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh. ⁹Therefore, observe the words of this covenant and follow them, so that you will succeed in everything you do.

¹⁰"All of you are standing today before the LORD your God — your leaders, tribes, elders, officials, all the men of Israel, ¹¹your dependents, your wives, and the resident aliens in your camps who cut your wood and draw your water — ¹²so that you may enter into the covenant of the LORD your God, which he is making with you today, so that you may enter into his oath ¹³and so that he may establish you today as his people and he may be your God as he promised you and as he swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ¹⁴I am making this covenant and this oath not only with you, ¹⁵but also with those who are standing here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God and with those who are not here today.

¹⁶"Indeed, you know how we lived in the land of Egypt and passed through the nations where you traveled. ¹⁷You saw their abhorrent images and idols made of wood, stone, silver, and gold, which were among them. ¹⁸Be sure there is no man, woman, clan, or tribe among you today whose heart turns away from the LORD our God to go and worship the gods of those nations. Be sure there is no root among you bearing poisonous and bitter fruit. ¹⁹When someone hears the words of this oath, he may consider himself exempt, thinking, 'I will have peace even though I follow my own stubborn heart.' This will lead to the destruction of the well-watered land as well as the dry land. ²⁰The LORD will not be willing to forgive him. Instead, his anger and jealousy will burn against that person, and every curse written in this scroll will descend on him. The LORD will blot out his name under heaven, ²¹and single him out for harm from all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the law.

the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which he had made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt. ²⁶ They began to serve other gods, bowing in worship to gods they had not known — gods that the LORD had not permitted them to worship. ²⁷ Therefore the LORD's anger burned against this land, and he brought every curse written in this book on it. ²⁸ The LORD uprooted them from their land in his anger, rage, and intense wrath, and threw them into another land where they are today. ²⁹ The hidden things belong to the LORD our God, but the revealed things belong to us and our children forever, so that we may follow all the words of this law.

30 "When all these things happen to you — the blessings and curses I have set before you — and you come to your senses while you are in all the nations where the LORD your God has driven you, ² and you and your children return to the LORD your God and obey him with all your heart and all your soul by doing everything I am commanding you today, ³ then he will restore your fortunes, have compassion on you, and gather you again from all the peoples where the LORD your God has scattered you. ⁴ Even if your exiles are at the farthest horizon, he will gather you and bring you back from there. ⁵ The LORD your God will bring you into the land your fathers possessed, and you will take possession of it. He will cause you to prosper and multiply you more than he did your fathers. ⁶ The LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the hearts of your descendants, and you will love him with all your heart and all your soul so that you will live. ⁷ The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies who hate and persecute you. ⁸ Then you will again obey him and follow all his commands I am commanding you today. ⁹ The LORD your God will make you prosper abundantly in all the work of your hands, your offspring, the offspring of your livestock, and the produce of your land. Indeed, the LORD will again delight in your prosperity, as he delighted in that of your fathers, ¹⁰ when you obey the LORD your God by keeping his commands and statutes that are written in this book of the law and return to him with all your heart and all your soul.

¹¹ "This command that I give you today is certainly not too difficult or beyond your reach. ¹² It is not in heaven so that you have to ask, 'Who will go up to heaven, get it for us, and proclaim it to us so that we may follow it?' ¹³ And it is not across the sea so that you have to ask, 'Who will cross the sea, get it for us, and proclaim it to us so that we may follow it?' ¹⁴ But the message is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, so that you may follow it. ¹⁵ See, today I have set before you life and prosperity, death and adversity. ¹⁶ For I am commanding you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commands, statutes, and ordinances, so that you may live and multiply, and the LORD your God may bless you in the land you are entering to possess. ¹⁷ But if your heart turns away and you do not listen and you are led astray to bow in worship to other gods and serve them, ¹⁸ I tell you today that you will certainly perish and will not prolong your days in the land you are entering to possess across the Jordan. ¹⁹ I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, ²⁰ love the LORD your God, obey him, and remain faithful to him. For he is your life, and he will prolong your days as you live in the land the LORD swore to give to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

31 Then Moses continued to speak these words to all Israel, ² saying, "I am now 120 years old; I can no longer act as your leader. The LORD has told me, 'You will not cross the Jordan.' ³ The LORD your God is the one who will cross ahead of you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you will drive them out. Joshua is the one who will cross ahead of you, as the LORD has said. ⁴ The LORD will deal with them as he did Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and their land when he destroyed them. ⁵ The LORD will deliver them over to you, and you must do to them exactly as I have commanded you. ⁶ Be strong and courageous; don't be terrified or afraid of them. For the LORD your God is the one who will go with you; he will not leave you or abandon you."

⁷ Moses then summoned Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you will go with this people into the land the LORD swore to give to their fathers. You will enable them to take possession of it. ⁸ The LORD is the one who will go before you. He will be with you; he will not leave you or abandon you. Do not be afraid or discouraged."

¹⁶ The LORD said to Moses, "You are about to rest with your fathers, and these people will soon prostitute themselves with the foreign gods of the land they are entering. They will abandon me and break the covenant I have made with them. ¹⁷ My anger will burn against them on that day; I will abandon them and hide my face from them so that they will become easy prey. Many troubles and afflictions will come to them. On that day they will say, 'Haven't these troubles come to us because our God is no longer with us?' ¹⁸ I will certainly hide my face on that day because of all the evil they have done by turning to other gods. ¹⁹ Therefore write down this song for yourselves and teach it to the Israelites; have them sing it, so that this song may be a witness for me against the Israelites. ²⁰ When I bring them into the land I swore to give their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey, they will eat their fill and prosper. They will turn to other gods and worship them, despising me and breaking my covenant. ²¹ And when many troubles and afflictions come to them, this song will testify against them, because their descendants will not have forgotten it. For I know what they are prone to do, even before I bring them into the land I swore to give them." ²² So Moses wrote down this song on that day and taught it to the Israelites.

²³The LORD commissioned Joshua son of Nun, "Be strong and courageous, for you will bring the Israelites into the land I swore to them, and I will be with you."

²⁴When Moses had finished writing down on a scroll every single word of this law, ²⁵he commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the LORD's covenant, ²⁶"Take this book of the law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God so that it may remain there as a witness against you. ²⁷For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are. If you are rebelling against the LORD now, while I am still alive, how much more will you rebel after I am dead! ²⁸Assemble all your tribal elders and officers before me so that I may speak these words directly to them and call heaven and earth as witnesses against them. ²⁹For I know that after my death you will become completely corrupt and turn from the path I have commanded you. Disaster will come to you in the future, because you will do what is evil in the LORD's sight, angering him with what your hands have made." ³⁰Then Moses recited aloud every single word of this song to the entire assembly of Israel:

32 Pay attention, heavens, and I will speak; listen, earth, to the words from my mouth.

² Let my teaching fall like rain and my word settle like dew, like gentle rain on new grass and showers on tender plants.

³ For I will proclaim the LORD's name. Declare the greatness of our God!

⁴ The Rock — his work is perfect; all his ways are just. A faithful God, without bias, he is righteous and true.

⁵ His people have acted corruptly toward him; this is their defect — they are not his children but a devious and crooked generation.

⁶ Is this how you repay the LORD, you foolish and senseless people? Isn't he your Father and Creator? Didn't he make you and sustain you?

⁷ Remember the days of old; consider the years of past generations. Ask your father, and he will tell you, your elders, and they will teach you.

⁸ When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance and divided the human race, he set the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the people of Israel.

⁹ But the LORD's portion is his people, Jacob, his own inheritance.

¹⁰ He found him in a desolate land, in a barren, howling wilderness; he surrounded him, cared for him, and protected him as the pupil of his eye.

¹¹ He watches over his nest like an eagle and hovers over his young; he spreads his wings, catches him, and carries him on his feathers.

¹² The LORD alone led him, with no help from a foreign god.

¹³ He made him ride on the heights of the land and eat the produce of the field. He nourished him with honey from the rock and oil from flinty rock,

¹⁴ curds from the herd and milk from the flock, with the fat of lambs, rams from Bashan, and goats, with the choicest grains of wheat; you drank wine from the finest grapes.

¹⁵ Then Jeshurun became fat and rebelled — you became fat, bloated, and gorged. He abandoned the God who made him and scorned the Rock of his salvation.

¹⁶ They provoked his jealousy with different gods; they enraged him with detestable practices.

¹⁷ They sacrificed to demons, not God, to gods they had not known, new gods that had just arrived, which your fathers did not fear.

¹⁸ You ignored the Rock who gave you birth; you forgot the God who gave birth to you.

¹⁹ When the LORD saw this, he despised them, angered by his sons and daughters.

²⁰ He said: "I will hide my face from them; I will see what will become of them, for they are a perverse generation — unfaithful children.

²² For fire has been kindled because of my anger and burns to the depths of Sheol; it devours the land and its produce, and scorches the foundations of the mountains.

²³ "I will pile disasters on them; I will use up my arrows against them.

²⁴ They will be weak from hunger, ravaged by pestilence and bitter plague; I will unleash on them wild beasts with fangs, as well as venomous snakes that slither in the dust.

²⁵ Outside, the sword will take their children, and inside, there will be terror; the young man and the young woman will be killed, the infant and the gray-haired man.

²⁶ "I would have said: I will cut them to pieces and blot out the memory of them from mankind, if I had not feared provocation from the enemy, or feared that these foes might misunderstand and say: 'Our own hand has prevailed; it wasn't the LORD who did all this.'"

²⁸ Israel is a nation lacking sense with no understanding at all.

²⁹ If only they were wise, they would comprehend this; they would understand their fate.

³⁰ How could one pursue a thousand, or two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, unless the LORD had given them up? But their "rock" is not like our Rock, as even our enemies concede.

³² For their vine is from the vine of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah. Their grapes are poisonous; their clusters are bitter.

- 33 Their wine is serpents' venom,
the deadly poison of cobras.
- 34 "Is it not stored up with me,
sealed up in my vaults?
- 35 Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay.
In time their foot will slip,
for their day of disaster is near,
and their doom is coming quickly."
- 36 The LORD will indeed vindicate his people and have compassion on his servants
when he sees that their strength is gone and no one is left — slave or free.
- 37 He will say: "Where are their gods,
the 'rock' they found refuge in?
- 38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings?
Let them rise up and help you;
let it be a shelter for you.
- 39 See now that I alone am he;
there is no God but me.
I bring death and I give life;
I wound and I heal.
No one can rescue anyone from my power.
I raise my hand to heaven and declare:
As surely as I live forever,
when I sharpen my flashing sword,
and my hand takes hold of judgment,
I will take vengeance on my adversaries and repay those who hate me.
- 42 I will make my arrows drunk with blood
while my sword devours flesh —
the blood of the slain and the captives,
the heads of the enemy leaders."
- 43 Rejoice, you nations, concerning his people,
for he will avenge the blood of his servants.
He will take vengeance on his adversaries;
he will purify his land and his people.
- 44 Moses came with Joshua son of Nun and recited all the words of this song in the presence of the people. 45 After Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel, 46 he said to them, "Take to heart all these words I am giving as a warning to you today, so that you may command your children to follow all the words of this law carefully. 47 For they are not meaningless words to you but they are your life, and by them you will live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess."
- 48 On that same day the LORD spoke to Moses, 49 "Go up Mount Nebo in the Abarim range in the land of Moab, across from Jericho, and view the land of Canaan I am giving the Israelites as a possession. 50 Then you will die on the mountain that you go up, and you will be gathered to your people, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people. 51 For both of you broke faith with me among the Israelites at the Waters of Mer-ibath-kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin by failing to treat me as holy in their presence. 52 Although from a distance you will view the land that I am giving the Israelites, you will not go there."
- 33 This is the blessing that Moses, the man of God, gave the Israelites before his death. 2 He said:
The LORD came from Sinai
and appeared to them from Seir;
he shone on them from Mount Paran and came with ten thousand holy ones, with lightning from his right hand for them.
- 3 Indeed he loves the people.
All your holy ones are in your hand,
and they assemble at your feet.
Each receives your words.
- 4 Moses gave us instruction,
a possession for the assembly of Jacob.
- 5 So he became King in Jeshurun when the leaders of the people gathered with the tribes of Israel.
- 6 Let Reuben live and not die
though his people become few.
- 7 He said this about Judah:
LORD, hear Judah's cry and bring him
to his people.
He fights for his cause with his own hands,
but may you be a help against his foes.
- 8 He said about Levi:
Your Thummim and Urim belong to your faithful one;
you tested him at Massah and contended with him at the Waters of Meribah.
- 9 He said about his father and mother,
"I do not regard them."
He disregarded his brothers and didn't acknowledge his sons, for they kept your word
and maintained your covenant.
- 10 They will teach your ordinances to Jacob and your instruction to Israel;
they will set incense before you
and whole burnt offerings on your altar.
- 11 LORD, bless his possessions, and accept the work of his hands.
Break the back of his adversaries and enemies,
so that they cannot rise again.
- 12 He said about Benjamin:
The LORD's beloved rests securely on him.
He shields him all day long,
and he rests on his shoulders.
- 13 He said about Joseph:
May his land be blessed by the LORD with the dew of heaven's bounty and the watery depths that lie beneath;
with the bountiful harvest from the sun
and the abundant yield of the seasons;
with the best products of the ancient mountains and the bounty of the eternal hills;
- 14 with the choice gifts of the land
and everything in it;
and with the favor of him
who appeared in the burning bush.
May these rest on the head of Joseph,
on the brow of the prince of his brothers.
- 17 His firstborn bull has splendor,
and horns like those of a wild ox;
he goes all the peoples with them
to the ends of the earth.
Such are the ten thousands of Ephraim,
and such are the thousands of Manasseh.
- 18 He said about Zebulun:
Rejoice, Zebulun, in your journeys,
and Issachar, in your tents.
- 19 They summon the peoples to a mountain;
there they offer acceptable sacrifices.

For they draw from the wealth of the seas and the hidden treasures of the sand.

²⁰ He said about Gad:

The one who enlarges Gad's territory will be blessed.
He lies down like a lion
and tears off an arm or even a head.

²¹ He chose the best part for himself, because a ruler's portion was assigned there
for him.

He came with the leaders of the people;
he carried out the LORD's justice and his ordinances for Israel.

²² He said about Dan:

Dan is a young lion,
leaping out of Bashan.

²³ He said about Naphtali:

Naphtali, enjoying approval,
full of the LORD's blessing, take possession to the west and the south.

²⁴ He said about Asher:

May Asher be the most blessed of the sons;
may he be the most favored among his brothers and dip his foot in olive oil.

²⁵ May the bolts of your gate be iron and bronze, and your strength last as long as you live.

²⁶ There is none like the God of Jeshurun, who rides the heavens to your aid,
the clouds in his majesty.

²⁷ The God of old is your dwelling place,
and underneath are the everlasting arms.
He drives out the enemy before you and commands, "Destroy!"

²⁸ So Israel dwells securely;
Jacob lives untroubled
in a land of grain and new wine;

even his skies drip with dew.

²⁹ How happy you are, Israel!

Who is like you,
a people saved by the LORD?
He is the shield that protects you,
the sword you boast in.

Your enemies will cringe before you,
and you will tread on their backs.

34 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which faces Jericho, and the LORD showed him all the land: Gilead as far as Dan, ² all of Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Mediterranean Sea, ³ the Negev, and the plain in the Valley of Jericho, the City of Palms, as far as Zoar. ⁴ The LORD then said to him, "This is the land I promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have let you see it with your own eyes, but you will not cross into it."

⁹ Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him. So the Israelites obeyed him and did as the LORD had commanded Moses. ¹⁰ No prophet has arisen again in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face. ¹¹ He was unparalleled for all the signs and wonders the LORD sent him to do against the land of Egypt — to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to all his land, ¹² and for all the mighty acts of power and terrifying deeds that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

1 After the death of Moses the LORD's servant, the LORD spoke to Joshua son of Nun, Moses's assistant: ²"Moses my servant is dead. Now you and all the people prepare to cross over the Jordan to the land I am giving the Israelites. ³I have given you every place where the sole of your foot treads, just as I promised Moses. ⁴Your territory will be from the wilderness and Lebanon to the great river, the Euphrates River—all the land of the Hittites—and west to the Mediterranean Sea. ⁵No one will be able to stand against you as long as you live. I will be with you, just as I was with Moses. I will not leave you or abandon you.

⁶"Be strong and courageous, for you will distribute the land I swore to their fathers to give them as an inheritance. ⁷Above all, be strong and very courageous to observe carefully the whole instruction my servant Moses commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right or the left, so that you will have success wherever you go. ⁸This book of instruction must not depart from your mouth; you are to meditate on it day and night so that you may carefully observe everything written in it. For then you will prosper and succeed in whatever you do. ⁹Haven't I commanded you: be strong and courageous? Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

¹⁰Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people: ¹¹"Go through the camp and tell the people, 'Get provisions ready for yourselves, for within three days you will be crossing the Jordan to go in and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you to inherit.'"

¹²Joshua said to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh: ¹³"Remember what Moses the LORD's servant commanded you when he said, 'The LORD your God will give you rest, and he will give you this land.'

¹⁴Your wives, dependents, and livestock may remain in the land Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan. But your best soldiers must cross over in battle formation ahead of your brothers and help them ¹⁵until the LORD gives your brothers rest, as he has given you, and they too possess the land the LORD your God is giving them. You may then return to the land of your inheritance and take possession of what Moses the LORD's servant gave you on the east side of the Jordan."

¹⁶They answered Joshua, "Everything you have commanded us we will do, and everywhere you send us we will go. ¹⁷We will obey you, just as we obeyed Moses in everything. Certainly the LORD your God will be with you, as he was with Moses. ¹⁸Anyone who rebels against your order and does not obey your words in all that you command him, will be put to death. Above all, be strong and courageous!"

2 Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two men as spies from the Acacia Grove, saying, "Go and scout the land, especially Jericho." So they left, and they came to the house of a prostitute named Rahab, and stayed there.

²The king of Jericho was told, "Look, some of the Israelite men have come here tonight to investigate the land." ³Then the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab and said, "Bring out the men who came to you and entered your house, for they came to investigate the entire land."

⁴But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. So she said, "Yes, the men did come to me, but I didn't know where they were from. ⁵At nightfall, when the city gate was about to close, the men went out, and I don't know where they were going. Chase after them quickly, and you can catch up with them!" ⁶But she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them among the stalks of flax that she had arranged on the roof. ⁷The men pursued them along the road to the fords of the Jordan, and as soon as they left to pursue them, the city gate was shut.

⁸Before the men fell asleep, she went up on the roof ⁹and said to them, "I know that the LORD has given you this land and that the terror of you has fallen on us, and everyone who lives in the land is panicking because of you. ¹⁰For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to Sihon and Og, the two Amorite kings you completely destroyed across the Jordan. ¹¹When we heard this, we lost heart, and everyone's courage failed because of you, for the LORD your God is God in heaven above and on earth below. ¹²Now please swear to me by the LORD that you will also show kindness to my father's family, because I showed kindness to you. Give me a sure sign ¹³that you will spare the lives of my father, mother, brothers, sisters, and all who belong to them, and save us from death."

¹⁴The men answered her, "We will give our lives for yours. If you don't report our mission, we will show kindness and faithfulness to you when the LORD gives us the land."

¹⁵Then she let them down by a rope through the window, since she lived in a house that was built into the wall of the city. ¹⁶"Go to the hill country so that the men pursuing you won't find you," she said to them. "Hide there for three days until they return; afterward, go on your way."

¹⁷The men said to her, "We will be free from this oath you made us swear, ¹⁸unless, when we enter the land, you tie this scarlet cord to the window through which you let us down. Bring your father, mother, brothers, and all your father's family into your house. ¹⁹If anyone goes out the doors of your house, his death will be his own fault, and we will be innocent. But if anyone with you in the house should be harmed, his death will be our fault. ²⁰And if you report our mission, we are free from the oath you made us swear."

²¹"Let it be as you say," she replied, and she sent them away. After they had gone, she tied the scarlet cord to the window.

²²So the two men went into the hill country and stayed there three days until the pursuers had returned. They searched all along the way, but did not find them. ²³Then the men returned, came down from the hill country, and crossed the Jordan. They went to Joshua son of Nun and reported everything that had happened to them. ²⁴They told Joshua, "The LORD has handed over the entire land to us. Everyone who lives in the land is also panicking because of us."

3 Joshua started early the next morning and left the Acacia Grove with all the Israelites. They went as far as the Jordan and stayed there before crossing. ²After three days the officers went through the camp ³and commanded the people: "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God carried by the Levitical priests, you are to break camp and follow it. ⁴But keep a distance of about a thousand yards between yourselves and the ark. Don't go near it, so that you can see the way to go, for you haven't traveled this way before."

⁵ Joshua told the people, "Consecrate yourselves, because the LORD will do wonders among you tomorrow."

⁶ Then he said to the priests, "Carry the ark of the covenant and go on ahead of the people." So they carried the ark of the covenant and went ahead of them.

⁷ The LORD spoke to Joshua: "Today I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so they will know that I will be with you just as I was with Moses." ⁸ Command the priests carrying the ark of the covenant: When you reach the edge of the water, stand in the Jordan."

⁹ Then Joshua told the Israelites, "Come closer and listen to the words of the LORD your God."¹⁰ He said: "You will know that the living God is among you and that he will certainly dispossess before you the Canaanites, Hethites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites ¹¹ when the ark of the covenant of the LORD of the whole earth goes ahead of you into the Jordan. ¹² Now choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe. ¹³ When the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of the whole earth, come to rest in the Jordan's water, its water will be cut off. The water flowing downstream will stand up in a mass."

⁴ So Joshua summoned the twelve men he had selected from the Israelites, one man for each tribe, ⁵ and said to them, "Go across to the ark of the LORD your God in the middle of the Jordan. Each of you lift a stone onto his shoulder, one for each of the Israelite tribes, ⁶ so that this will be a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask you, 'What do these stones mean to you?' ⁷ you should tell them, 'The water of the Jordan was cut off in front of the ark of the LORD's covenant. When it crossed the Jordan, the Jordan's water was cut off.' Therefore these stones will always be a memorial for the Israelites."

⁸ The Israelites did just as Joshua had commanded them. The twelve men took stones from the middle of the Jordan, one for each of the Israelite tribes, just as the LORD had told Joshua. They carried them to the camp and set them down there. ⁹ Joshua also set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan where the priests who carried the ark of the covenant were standing. The stones are still there today.

¹⁰ The priests carrying the ark continued standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was completed that the LORD had commanded Joshua to tell the people, in keeping with all that Moses had commanded Joshua.

The people hurried across, ¹¹ and after everyone had finished crossing, the priests with the ark of the LORD crossed in the sight of the people. ¹² The Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh went in battle formation in front of the Israelites, as Moses had instructed them. ¹³ About forty thousand equipped for war crossed to the plains of Jericho in the LORD's presence.

5 When all the Amorite kings across the Jordan to the west and all the Canaanite kings near the sea heard how the LORD had dried up the water of the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed over, they lost heart and their courage failed because of the Israelites.

² At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelite men again." ³ So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelite men at Gibeath-haaraloth. ⁴ This is the reason Joshua circumcised them: All the people who came out of Egypt who were males — all the men of war — had died in the wilderness along the way after they had come out of Egypt. ⁵ Though all the people who came out were circumcised, none of the people born in the wilderness along the way were circumcised after they had come out of Egypt. ⁶ For the Israelites wandered in the wilderness forty years until all the nation's men of war who came out of Egypt had died off because they did not obey the LORD. So the LORD vowed never to let them see the land he had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. ⁷ He raised up their sons in their place; it was these Joshua circumcised. They were still uncircumcised, since they had not been circumcised along the way. ⁸ After the entire nation had been circumcised, they stayed where they were in the camp until they recovered. ⁹ The LORD then said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the disgrace of Egypt from you." Therefore, that place is still called Gilgal today.

¹³When Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua approached him and asked, "Are you for us or for our enemies?"

¹⁴"Neither," he replied. "I have now come as commander of the LORD's army."

Then Joshua bowed with his face to the ground in worship and asked him, "What does my lord want to say to his servant?"

¹⁵The commander of the LORD's army said to Joshua, "Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy." And Joshua did that.

6 Now Jericho was strongly fortified because of the Israelites — no one leaving or entering. ²The LORD said to Joshua, "Look, I have handed Jericho, its king, and its best soldiers over to you. ³March around the city with all the men of war, circling the city one time. Do this for six days. ⁴Have seven priests carry seven ram's-horn trumpets in front of the ark. But on the seventh day, march around the city seven times, while the priests blow the trumpets. ⁵When there is a prolonged blast of the horn and you hear its sound, have all the troops give a mighty shout. Then the city wall will collapse, and the troops will advance, each man straight ahead."

⁶So Joshua son of Nun summoned the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant and have seven priests carry seven trumpets in front of the ark of the LORD." ⁷He said to the troops, "Move forward, march around the city, and have the armed men go ahead of the ark of the LORD."

¹⁵Early on the seventh day, they started at dawn and marched around the city seven times in the same way. That was the only day they marched around the city seven times. ¹⁶After the seventh time, the priests blew the trumpets, and Joshua said to the troops, "Shout! For the LORD has given you the city. ¹⁷But the city and everything in it are set apart to the LORD for destruction. Only Rahab the prostitute and everyone with her in the house will live, because she hid the messengers we sent. ¹⁸But keep yourselves from the things set apart, or you will be set apart for destruction. If you take any of those things, you will set apart the camp of Israel for destruction and make trouble for it. ¹⁹For all the silver and gold, and the articles of bronze and iron, are dedicated to the LORD and must go into the LORD's treasury."

²⁰So the troops shouted, and the trumpets sounded. When they heard the blast of the trumpet, the troops gave a great shout, and the wall collapsed. The troops advanced into the city, each man straight ahead, and they captured the city. ²¹They completely destroyed everything in the city with the sword — every man and woman, both young and old, and every ox, sheep, and donkey.

²²Joshua said to the two men who had scouted the land, "Go to the prostitute's house and bring the woman out of there, and all who are with her, just as you swore to her." ²³So the young men who had scouted went in and brought out Rahab and her father, mother, brothers, and all who belonged to her. They brought out her whole family and settled them outside the camp of Israel.

²⁴They burned the city and everything in it, but they put the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron into the treasury of the LORD's house. ²⁵However, Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, her father's family, and all who belonged to her, because she hid the messengers Joshua had sent to spy on Jericho, and she still lives in Israel today.

²⁶At that time Joshua imposed this curse:

The man who undertakes
the rebuilding of this city, Jericho, is cursed before the LORD.

He will lay its foundation
at the cost of his firstborn;
he will finish its gates at the cost of his youngest.

²⁷And the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

7 The Israelites, however, were unfaithful regarding the things set apart for destruction. Achan son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of what was set apart, and the LORD's anger burned against the Israelites.

³After returning to Joshua they reported to him, "Don't send all the people, but send about two thousand or three thousand men to attack Ai. Since the people of Ai are so few, don't wear out all our people there." ⁴So about three thousand men went up there, but they fled from the men of Ai. ⁵The men of Ai struck down about thirty-six of them and chased them from outside the city gate to the quarries, striking them down on the descent. As a result, the people lost heart.

⁶Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell facedown to the ground before the ark of the LORD until evening, as did the elders of Israel; they all put dust on their heads. ⁷"Oh, Lord God," Joshua said, "why did you ever bring these people across the Jordan to hand us over to the Amorites for our destruction? If only we had been content to remain on the other side of the Jordan! ⁸What can I say, Lord, now that Israel has turned its back and run from its enemies? ⁹When the Canaanites and all who live in the land hear about this, they will surround us and wipe out our name from the earth. Then what will you do about your great name?"

¹⁰The LORD then said to Joshua, "Stand up! Why have you fallen facedown? ¹¹Israel has sinned. They have violated my covenant that I appointed for them. They have taken some of what was set apart. They have stolen, deceived, and put those things with their own belongings. ¹²This is why the Israelites cannot stand against their enemies. They will turn their backs and run from their enemies, because they have been set apart for destruction. I will no longer be with you unless you remove from among you what is set apart.

¹³“Go and consecrate the people. Tell them to consecrate themselves for tomorrow, for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: There are things that are set apart among you, Israel. You will not be able to stand against your enemies until you remove what is set apart.” ¹⁴In the morning, present yourselves tribe by tribe. The tribe the LORD selects is to come forward clan by clan. The clan the LORD selects is to come forward family by family. The family the LORD selects is to come forward man by man. ¹⁵The one who is caught with the things set apart must be burned, along with everything he has, because he has violated the LORD’s covenant and committed an outrage in Israel.”

¹⁶Joshua got up early the next morning. He had Israel come forward tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was selected. ¹⁷He had the clans of Judah come forward, and the Zerahite clan was selected. He had the Zerahite clan come forward by heads of families, and Zabdi was selected. ¹⁸He then had Zabdi’s family come forward man by man, and Achan son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was selected.

¹⁹So Joshua said to Achan, “My son, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and make a confession to him. I urge you, tell me what you have done. Don’t hide anything from me.”

²⁰Achan replied to Joshua, “It is true. I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. This is what I did: ²¹When I saw among the spoils a beautiful cloak from Babylon, five pounds of silver, and a bar of gold weighing a pound and a quarter, I coveted them and took them. You can see for yourself. They are concealed in the ground inside my tent, with the silver under the cloak.” ²²So Joshua sent messengers who ran to the tent, and there was the cloak, concealed in his tent, with the silver underneath. ²³They took the things from inside the tent, brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites, and spread them out in the LORD’s presence.

²⁴Then Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan son of Zerah, the silver, the cloak, and the bar of gold, his sons and daughters, his ox, donkey, and sheep, his tent, and all that he had, and brought them up to the Valley of Achor. ²⁵Joshua said, “Why have you brought us trouble? Today the LORD will bring you trouble!” So all Israel stoned them to death. They burned their bodies, threw stones on them, ²⁶and raised over him a large pile of rocks that remains still today. Then the LORD turned from his burning anger. Therefore that place is called the Valley of Achor still today.

8 The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid or discouraged. Take all the troops with you and go attack Ai. Look, I have handed over to you the king of Ai, his people, city, and land. ²Treat Ai and its king as you did Jericho and its king, except that you may plunder its spoil and livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city.”

³So Joshua and all the troops set out to attack Ai. Joshua selected thirty thousand of his best soldiers and sent them out at night. ⁴He commanded them: “Pay attention. Lie in ambush behind the city, not too far from it, and all of you be ready. ⁵Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. When they come out against us as they did the first time, we will flee from them. ⁶They will come after us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, ‘They are fleeing from us as before.’ While we are fleeing from them, ⁷you are to come out of your ambush and seize the city. The LORD your God will hand it over to you. ⁸After taking the city, set it on fire. Follow the LORD’s command—see that you do as I have ordered you.” ⁹So Joshua sent them out, and they went to the ambush site and waited between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai. But he spent that night with the troops.

¹⁰Joshua started early the next morning and mobilized them. Then he and the elders of Israel led the troops up to Ai. ¹¹All those who were with him went up and approached the city, arriving opposite Ai, and camped to the north of it, with a valley between them and the city. ¹²Now Joshua had taken about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city. ¹³The troops were stationed in this way: the main camp to the north of the city and its rear guard to the west of the city. And that night Joshua went into the valley.

¹⁴When the king of Ai saw the Israelites, the men of the city hurried and went out early in the morning so that he and all his people could engage Israel in battle at a suitable place facing the Arabah. But he did not know there was an ambush waiting for him behind the city. ¹⁵Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten back by them and fled toward the wilderness. ¹⁶Then all the troops of Ai were summoned to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city. ¹⁷Not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel, leaving the city exposed while they pursued Israel.

¹⁸Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Hold out the javelin in your hand toward Ai, for I will hand the city over to you.” So Joshua held out his javelin toward it. ¹⁹When he held out his hand, the men in ambush rose quickly from their position. They ran, entered the city, captured it, and immediately set it on fire.

²⁰The men of Ai turned and looked back, and smoke from the city was rising to the sky! They could not escape in any direction, and the troops who had fled to the wilderness now became the pursuers. ²¹When Joshua and all Israel saw that the men in ambush had captured the city and that smoke was rising from it, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai. ²²Then men in ambush came out of the city against them, and the men of Ai were trapped between the Israelite forces, some on one side and some on the other. They struck them down until no survivor or fugitive remained, ²³but they captured the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

²⁴When Israel had finished killing everyone living in Ai who had pursued them into the open country, and when every last one of them had fallen by the sword, all Israel returned to Ai and struck it down with the sword. ²⁵The total of those who fell that day, both men and women, was twelve thousand—all the people of Ai. ²⁶Joshua did not draw back his hand that was holding the javelin until all the inhabitants of Ai were completely destroyed. ²⁷Israel plundered only the cattle and spoil of that city for themselves, according to the LORD’s command that he had given Joshua.

²⁸Joshua burned Ai and left it a permanent ruin, still desolate today. ²⁹He hung the body of the king of Ai on a tree until evening, and at sunset Joshua commanded that they take his body down from the tree. They threw it down at the entrance of the city gate and put a large pile of rocks over it, which still remains today.

³⁰At that time Joshua built an altar on Mount Ebal to the LORD, the God of Israel, ³¹just as Moses the LORD’s servant had commanded the Israelites. He built it according to what is written in the book of the law of Moses: an altar of uncut stones on which no iron tool has been used. Then they offered burnt offerings to the LORD and sacrificed fellowship offerings on it. ³²There on the stones, Joshua copied the law of Moses, which he had written in the presence of the Israelites.³³ All Israel — resident alien and citizen alike — with their elders, officers, and judges, stood on either side of the ark of the LORD's covenant facing the Levitical priests who carried it. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the LORD's servant had commanded earlier concerning blessing the people of Israel.³⁴ Afterward, Joshua read aloud all the words of the law — the blessings as well as the curses — according to all that is written in the book of the law.³⁵ There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read before the entire assembly of Israel, including the women, the dependents, and the resident aliens who lived among them.

9 When all the kings heard about Jericho and Ai, those who were west of the Jordan in the hill country, in the Judean foothills, and all along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea toward Lebanon — the Hethites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites — ² they formed a unified alliance to fight against Joshua and Israel.

⁷ The men of Israel replied to the Hivites, "Perhaps you live among us. How can we make a treaty with you?"

⁸ They said to Joshua, "We are your servants."

Then Joshua asked them, "Who are you and where do you come from?"

⁹ They replied to him, "Your servants have come from a faraway land because of the reputation of the LORD your God. For we have heard of his fame, and all that he did in Egypt,¹⁰ and all that he did to the two Amorite kings beyond the Jordan — King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan, who was in Ashtaroth.¹¹ So our elders and all the inhabitants of our land told us, 'Take provisions with you for the journey; go and meet them and say, 'We are your servants. Please make a treaty with us.'"¹² This bread of ours was warm when we took it from our houses as food on the day we left to come to you; but see, it is now dry and crumbly.¹³ These wineskins were new when we filled them; but see, they are cracked. And these clothes and sandals of ours are worn out from the extremely long journey."¹⁴ Then the men of Israel took some of their provisions, but did not seek the LORD's decision.¹⁵ So Joshua established peace with them and made a treaty to let them live, and the leaders of the community swore an oath to them.

¹⁶ Three days after making the treaty with them, they heard that the Gibeonites were their neighbors, living among them.¹⁷ So the Israelites set out and reached the Gibeonite cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Cephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim.¹⁸ But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the community had sworn an oath to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Then the whole community grumbled against the leaders.

¹⁹ All the leaders answered them, "We have sworn an oath to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we cannot touch them.²⁰ This is how we will treat them: we will let them live, so that no wrath will fall on us because of the oath we swore to them."²¹ They also said, "Let them live." So the Gibeonites became woodcutters and water carriers for the whole community, as the leaders had promised them.

²² Joshua summoned the Gibeonites and said to them, "Why did you deceive us by telling us you live far away from us, when in fact you live among us?"²³ Therefore you are cursed and will always be slaves — woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God."

²⁴ The Gibeonites answered him, "It was clearly communicated to your servants that the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you. We greatly feared for our lives because of you, and that is why we did this.²⁵ Now we are in your hands. Do to us whatever you think is right."²⁶ This is what Joshua did to them: he rescued them from the Israelites, and they did not kill them.²⁷ On that day he made them woodcutters and water carriers — as they are today — for the community and for the LORD's altar at the place he would choose.

10 Now King Adoni-zedek of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai and completely destroyed it, treating Ai and its king as he had Jericho and its king, and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were living among them.² So Adoni-zedek and his people were greatly alarmed because Gibeon was a large city like one of the royal cities; it was larger than Ai, and all its men were warriors.³ Therefore King Adoni-zedek of Jerusalem sent word to King Hoham of Hebron, King Piram of Jarmuth, King Japhia of Lachish, and King Debir of Eglon, saying, ⁴ "Come up and help me. We will attack Gibeon, because they have made peace with Joshua and the Israelites."⁵ So the five Amorite kings — the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon — joined forces, advanced with all their armies, besieged Gibeon, and fought against it.

⁶ Then the men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal: "Don't give up on your servants. Come quickly and save us! Help us, for all the Amorite kings living in the hill country have joined forces against us."⁷ So Joshua and all his troops, including all his best soldiers, came from Gilgal.

⁸ The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for I have handed them over to you. Not one of them will be able to stand against you."

¹² On the day the LORD gave the Amorites over to the Israelites, Joshua spoke to the LORD in the presence of Israel:

"Sun, stand still over Gibeon, and moon, over the Valley of Aijalon."

¹³ And the sun stood still and the moon stopped until the nation took vengeance on its enemies.

Isn't this written in the Book of Jashar?

So the sun stopped in the middle of the sky and delayed its setting almost a full day.

¹⁴There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD listened to a man, because the LORD fought for Israel. ¹⁵Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal.

¹⁶Now the five defeated kings had fled and hidden in the cave at Makkedah. ¹⁷It was reported to Joshua: "The five kings have been found; they are hiding in the cave at Makkedah."

¹⁸Joshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and station men by it to guard the kings. ¹⁹But as for the rest of you, don't stay there. Pursue your enemies and attack them from behind. Don't let them enter their cities, for the LORD your God has handed them over to you."

²²Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings to me out of there." ²³That is what they did. They brought the five kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon to Joshua out of the cave. ²⁴When they had brought the kings to him, Joshua summoned all the men of Israel and said to the military commanders who had accompanied him, "Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings." So the commanders came forward and put their feet on their necks. ²⁵Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid or discouraged. Be strong and courageous, for the LORD will do this to all the enemies you fight."

²⁶After this, Joshua struck them down and executed them. He hung their bodies on five trees and they were there until evening. ²⁷At sunset Joshua commanded that they be taken down from the trees and thrown into the cave where they had hidden. Then large stones were placed against the mouth of the cave, and the stones are still there today.

²⁸On that day Joshua captured Makkedah and struck it down with the sword, including its king. He completely destroyed it and everyone in it, leaving no survivors. So he treated the king of Makkedah as he had the king of Jericho.

²⁹Joshua and all Israel with him crossed from Makkedah to Libnah and fought against Libnah. ³⁰The LORD also handed it and its king over to Israel. He struck it down, putting everyone in it to the sword, and left no survivors in it. He treated Libnah's king as he had the king of Jericho.

³¹From Libnah, Joshua and all Israel with him crossed to Lachish. They laid siege to it and attacked it. ³²The LORD handed Lachish over to Israel, and Joshua captured it on the second day. He struck it down, putting everyone in it to the sword, just as he had done to Libnah. ³³At that time King Horam of Gezer went to help Lachish, but Joshua struck him down along with his people, leaving no survivors.

³⁴Then Joshua crossed from Lachish to Eglon and all Israel with him. They laid siege to it and attacked it. ³⁵On that day they captured it and struck it down, putting everyone in it to the sword. He completely destroyed it that day, just as he had done to Lachish.

³⁶Next, Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it. ³⁷They captured it and struck down its king, all its villages, and everyone in it with the sword. He left no survivors, just as he had done at Eglon. He completely destroyed Hebron and everyone in it.

³⁸Finally, Joshua turned toward Debir and attacked it. And all Israel was with him. ³⁹He captured it — its king and all its villages. They struck them down with the sword and completely destroyed everyone in it, leaving no survivors. He treated Debir and its king as he had treated Hebron and as he had treated Libnah and its king.

⁴⁰So Joshua conquered the whole region — the hill country, the Negev, the Judean foothills, and the slopes — with all their kings, leaving no survivors. He completely destroyed every living being, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded. ⁴¹Joshua conquered everyone from Kadesh-barnea to Gaza, and all the land of Goshen as far as Gibeon. ⁴²Joshua captured all these kings and their land in one campaign, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. ⁴³Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

11 When King Jabin of Hazor heard this news, he sent a message to: King Jobab of Madon, the kings of Shimron and Achshaph, ² and the kings of the north in the hill country, the Arabah south of Chinnereth, the Judean foothills, and the Slopes of Dor to the west, ³ the Canaanites in the east and west, the Amorites, Hethites, Perizzites, and Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites at the foot of Hermon in the land of Mizpah. ⁴ They went out with all their armies — a multitude as numerous as the sand on the seashore — along with a vast number of horses and chariots. ⁵ All these kings joined forces; they came and camped together at the Waters of Merom to attack Israel.

⁶The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for at this time tomorrow I will cause all of them to be killed before Israel. You are to hamstring their horses and burn their chariots." ⁷ So Joshua and all his troops surprised them at the Waters of Merom and attacked them. ⁸ The LORD handed them over to Israel, and they struck them down, pursuing them as far as greater Sidon and Misrephoth-maim, and to the east as far as the Valley of Mizpeh. They struck them down, leaving no survivors. ⁹ Joshua treated them as the LORD had told him; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.

¹² Joshua captured all these kings and their cities and struck them down with the sword. He completely destroyed them, as Moses the LORD's servant had commanded. ¹³ However, Israel did not burn any of the cities that stood on their mounds except Hazor, which Joshua burned. ¹⁴ The Israelites plundered all the spoils and cattle of these cities for themselves. But they struck down every person with the sword until they had annihilated them, leaving no one alive. ¹⁵ Just as the LORD had commanded his servant Moses, Moses commanded Joshua. That is what Joshua did, leaving nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

¹⁶ So Joshua took all this land — the hill country, all the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the foothills, the Arabah, and the hill country of Israel with its foothills — ¹⁷ from Mount Halak, which ascends to Seir, as far as Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon at the foot of Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings and struck them down, putting them to death. ¹⁸ Joshua waged war with all these kings for a long time. ¹⁹ No city made peace with the Israelites except the Hivites who inhabited Gibeon; all of them were taken in battle. ²⁰ For it was the LORD's intention to harden their hearts, so that they would engage Israel in battle, be completely destroyed without mercy, and be annihilated, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²¹ At that time Joshua proceeded to exterminate the Anakim from the hill country — Hebron, Debir, Anab — all the hill country of Judah and of Israel. Joshua completely destroyed them with their cities. ²² No Anakim were left in the land of the Israelites, except for some remaining in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.

²³ So Joshua took the entire land, in keeping with all that the LORD had told Moses. Joshua then gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal allotments. After this, the land had rest from war.

12 The Israelites struck down the following kings of the land and took possession of their land beyond the Jordan to the east and from the Arnon River to Mount Hermon, including all the Arabah eastward:

² King Sihon of the Amorites lived in Heshbon. He ruled from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon River, along the middle of the valley, and half of Gilead up to the Jabbok River (the border of the Ammonites), ³ the Arabah east of the Sea of Chinnereth to the Sea of Arabah (that is, the Dead Sea), eastward through Beth-jeshimoth and southward below the slopes of Pisgah.

13 Joshua was now old, advanced in age, and the LORD said to him, "You have become old, advanced in age, but a great deal of the land remains to be possessed. ² This is the land that remains:

All the districts of the Philistines and the Geshurites: ³ from the Shihor east of Egypt to the border of Ekron on the north (considered to be Canaanite territory) — the five Philistine rulers of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron, as well as the Avvites ⁴ in the south; all the land of the Canaanites, from Arah of the Sidonians to Aphek and as far as the border of the Amorites; ⁵ the land of the GEBALITES; and all Lebanon east from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath — ⁶ all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians.

I will drive them out before the Israelites, only distribute the land as an inheritance for Israel, as I have commanded you. ⁷ Therefore, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh."

⁸ With the other half of the tribe of Manasseh, the Reubenites and Gadites had received the inheritance Moses gave them beyond the Jordan to the east, just as Moses the LORD's servant had given them:

Moses struck them down and drove them out, ¹³ but the Israelites did not drive out the Geshurites and Maacathites. So Geshur and Maacath still live in Israel today.

¹⁴ He did not, however, give any inheritance to the tribe of Levi. This was their inheritance, just as he had promised: the offerings made by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel.

¹⁵ To the tribe of Reuben's descendants by their clans, Moses gave ¹⁶ this as their territory:

From Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Valley, along with the city in the middle of the valley, the whole plateau as far as Medeba, ¹⁷ with Heshbon and all its cities on the plateau — Dibon, Bamoth-baal, Beth-baal-meon, ¹⁸ Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, ¹⁹ Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth-shahar on the hill in the valley, ²⁰ Beth-peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth — ²¹ all the cities of the plateau, and all the kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon. Moses had killed him and the chiefs of Midian — Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba — the princes of Sihon who lived in the land. ²² Along with those the Israelites put to death, they also killed the diviner, Balaam son of Beor, with the sword.

²⁴To the tribe of the Gadites by their clans, Moses gave ²⁵this as their territory:

Jazer and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites to Aroer, near Rabbah; ²⁶from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir; ²⁷in the valley: Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon — the rest of the kingdom of King Sihon of Heshbon. Their land also included the Jordan and its territory as far as the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth on the east side of the Jordan.

²⁸This was the inheritance of the Gadites by their clans, with the cities and their settlements.

²⁹And to half the tribe of Manasseh (that is, to half the tribe of Manasseh's descendants by their clans) Moses gave ³⁰this as their territory:

From Mahanaim through all Bashan — all the kingdom of King Og of Bashan, including all of Jair's Villages that are in Bashan — sixty cities. ³¹But half of Gilead, and Og's royal cities in Bashan — Ashtaroth and Edrei — are for the descendants of Machir son of Manasseh (that is, half the descendants of Machir by their clans).

³²These were the portions Moses gave them on the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan east of Jericho. ³³But Moses did not give a portion to the tribe of Levi. The LORD, the God of Israel, was their inheritance, just as he had promised them.

14 The Israelites received these portions that the priest Eleazar, Joshua son of Nun, and the family heads of the Israelite tribes gave them in the land of Canaan. ²Their inheritance was by lot as the LORD commanded through Moses for the nine and a half tribes, ³because Moses had given the inheritance to the two and a half tribes beyond the Jordan. But he gave no inheritance among them to the Levites. ⁴The descendants of Joseph became two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. No portion of the land was given to the Levites except cities to live in, along with pasturelands for their cattle and livestock. ⁵So the Israelites did as the LORD commanded Moses, and they divided the land.

⁶The descendants of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know what the LORD promised Moses the man of God at Kadesh-barnea about you and me. ⁷I was forty years old when Moses the LORD's servant sent me from Kadesh-barnea to scout the land, and I brought back an honest report. ⁸My brothers who went with me caused the people to lose heart, but I followed the LORD my God completely. ⁹On that day Moses swore to me: 'The land where you have set foot will be an inheritance for you and your descendants forever, because you have followed the LORD my God completely.'

¹⁰"As you see, the LORD has kept me alive these forty-five years as he promised, since the LORD spoke this word to Moses while Israel was journeying in the wilderness. Here I am today, eighty-five years old. ¹¹I am still as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me out. My strength for battle and for daily tasks is now as it was then. ¹²Now give me this hill country the LORD promised me on that day, because you heard then that the Anakim are there, as well as large fortified cities. Perhaps the LORD will be with me and I will drive them out as the LORD promised."

¹³Then Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave him Hebron as an inheritance. ¹⁴Therefore, Hebron still belongs to Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite as an inheritance today because he followed the LORD, the God of Israel, completely. ¹⁵Hebron's name used to be Kiriath-arba; Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. After this, the land had rest from war.

15 Now the allotment for the tribe of the descendants of Judah by their clans was in the southernmost region, south to the Wilderness of Zin and over to the border of Edom.

²Their southern border began at the tip of the Dead Sea on the south bay ³and went south of the Scorpions' Ascent, proceeded to Zin, ascended to the south of Kadesh-barnea, passed Hezron, ascended to Addar, and turned to Karka. ⁴It proceeded to Azmon and to the Brook of Egypt and so the border ended at the Mediterranean Sea. This is your southern border.

⁵Now the eastern border was along the Dead Sea to the mouth of the Jordan.

The border on the north side was from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan. ⁶It ascended to Beth-hoglah, proceeded north of Beth-arabah, and ascended to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

⁷Then the border ascended to Debir from the Valley of Achor, turning north to the Gilgal that is opposite the Ascent of Adummim, which is south of the ravine. The border proceeded to the Waters of Enshemesh and ended at En-rogel. ⁸From there the border ascended Ben Hinnom Valley to the southern Jebusite slope (that is, Jerusalem) and ascended to the top of the hill that faces Hinnom Valley on the west, at the northern end of Rephaim Valley. ⁹From the top of the hill the border curved to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah, went to the cities of Mount Ephron, and then curved to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-yearim). ¹⁰The border turned westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, went to the northern slope of Mount Yearim (that is, Chesalon), descended to Beth-shemesh, and proceeded to Timnah. ¹¹Then the border reached to the slope north of Ekron, curved to Shikkeron, proceeded to Mount Baalah, went to Jabneel, and ended at the Mediterranean Sea.

¹²Now the western border was the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea.

This was the boundary of the descendants of Judah around their clans.

¹³He gave Caleb son of Jephunneh the following portion among the descendants of Judah based on the LORD's instruction to Joshua: Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron; Arba was the father of Anak). ¹⁴Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, descendants of Anak. ¹⁵From there he marched against the inhabitants of Debir, which used to be called Kiriath-sepher, ¹⁶and Caleb said, "Whoever attacks and captures Kiriath-sepher, I will give my daughter Achsah to him as a wife." ¹⁷So Othniel son of Caleb's brother, Kenaz, captured it, and Caleb gave his daughter Achsah to him as a wife. ¹⁸When she arrived, she persuaded Othniel to ask her father for a field. As she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What can I do for you?" ¹⁹She replied, "Give me a blessing. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me the springs also." So he gave her the upper and lower springs.

²⁰This was the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Judah by their clans.

²¹These were the outermost cities of the tribe of the descendants of Judah toward the border of Edom in the Negev: Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, ²²Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,²³ Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,²⁴ Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,²⁵ Hazor-hadattah, Kerioth-hezron (that is, Hazor),²⁶ Amam, Shema, Moladah,²⁷ Hazar-gaddah, Heshmon, Beth-pelet,²⁸ Hazar-shual, Beer-sheba, Biziothiah,²⁹ Baalah, Iim, Ezem,³⁰ Etloaid, Chesil, Hormah,³¹ Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,³² Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon — twenty-nine cities in all, with their settlements.

⁶¹ In the wilderness: Beth-arabah, Middin, Secacah,⁶² Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En-gedi — six cities, with their settlements.

16 The allotment for the descendants of Joseph went from the Jordan at Jericho to the Waters of Jericho on the east, through the wilderness ascending from Jericho into the hill country of Bethel.² From Bethel it went to Luz and proceeded to the border of the Archites by Ataroth.³ It then descended westward to the border of the Japhletites as far as the border of lower Beth-horon, then to Gezer, and ended at the Mediterranean Sea.⁴ So Ephraim and Manasseh, the sons of Joseph, received their inheritance.

⁵ This was the territory of the descendants of Ephraim by their clans:

The border of their inheritance went from Ataroth-addr on the east to Upper Beth-horon.⁶ In the north the border went westward from Michmethath; it turned eastward from Taanath-shiloh and passed it east of Janoah.⁷ From Janoah it descended to Ataroth and Naarah, and then reached Jericho and went to the Jordan.⁸ From Tappuah the border went westward along the Brook of Kanah and ended at the Mediterranean Sea.

This was the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Ephraim by their clans, together with⁹ the cities set apart for the descendants of Ephraim within the inheritance of the descendants of Manasseh — all these cities with their settlements.¹⁰ However, they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer. So the Canaanites still live in Ephraim today, but they are forced laborers.

17 This was the allotment for the tribe of Manasseh as Joseph's firstborn. Gilead and Bashan were given to Machir, the firstborn of Manasseh and the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war.² So the allotment was for the rest of Manasseh's descendants by their clans, for the sons of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. These are the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, by their clans.

³ Now Zelophehad son of Hepher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, had no sons, only daughters. These are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.⁴ They came before the priest Eleazar, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders, saying, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our male relatives." So they gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers, in keeping with the LORD's instruction.⁵ As a result, ten tracts fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which are beyond the Jordan,⁶ because Manasseh's daughters received an inheritance among his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of Manasseh's sons.

¹⁴ Joseph's descendants said to Joshua, "Why did you give us only one tribal allotment as an inheritance? We have many people, because the LORD has been blessing us greatly."

¹⁵ "If you have so many people," Joshua replied to them, "go to the forest and clear an area for yourselves there in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, because Ephraim's hill country is too small for you."

¹⁶ But the descendants of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who inhabit the valley area have iron chariots, both at Beth-shean with its surrounding villages and in the Jezreel Valley."

¹⁷ So Joshua replied to Joseph's family (that is, Ephraim and Manasseh), "You have many people and great strength. You will not have just one allotment,¹⁸ because the hill country will be yours also. It is a forest; clear it and its outlying areas will be yours. You can also drive out the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and are strong.”

18 The entire Israelite community assembled at Shiloh and set up the tent of meeting there. The land had been subdued before them, ² but seven tribes among the Israelites were left who had not divided up their inheritance. ³ So Joshua asked the Israelites, “How long will you delay going out to take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, gave you? ⁴ Appoint for yourselves three men from each tribe, and I will send them out. They are to go and survey the land, write a description of it for the purpose of their inheritance, and return to me. ⁵ Then they are to divide it into seven portions. Judah is to remain in its territory in the south and Joseph’s family in their territory in the north. ⁶ When you have written a description of the seven portions of land and brought it to me, I will cast lots for you here in the presence of the LORD our God. ⁷ But the Levites among you do not get a portion, because their inheritance is the priesthood of the LORD. Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have taken their inheritance beyond the Jordan to the east, which Moses the LORD’s servant gave them.”

¹⁴ On the west side, from the hill facing Beth-horon on the south, the border curved, turning southward, and ended at Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a city of the descendants of Judah. This was the west side of their border.

¹⁵ The south side began at the edge of Kiriath-jearim, and the border extended westward; it went to the spring at the Waters of Nephtoah. ¹⁶ The border descended to the foot of the hill that faces Ben Hinnom Valley at the northern end of Rephaim Valley. It ran down Hinnom Valley toward the south Jebusite slope and downward to En-rogel. ¹⁷ It curved northward and went to En-shemesh and on to Geliath, which is opposite the Ascent of Adummim, and continued down to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben. ¹⁸ Then it went north to the slope opposite the Arabah and proceeded into the plains. ¹⁹ The border continued to the north slope of Beth-hoglah and ended at the northern bay of the Dead Sea, at the southern end of the Jordan. This was the southern border.

²⁰ The Jordan formed the border on the east side.

This was the inheritance of Benjamin’s descendants, by their clans, according to its surrounding borders.

²¹ These were the cities of the tribe of Benjamin’s descendants by their clans:

Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-kezi, ²² Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, ²³ Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, ²⁴ Chephar-ammoni, Ophni, and Geba — twelve cities, with their settlements; ²⁵ Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, ²⁶ Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, ²⁷ Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, ²⁸ Zela, Haeleph, Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kiriath — fourteen cities, with their settlements.

This was the inheritance for Benjamin’s descendants by their clans.

19 The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of his descendants by their clans, but their inheritance was within the inheritance given to Judah’s descendants.

² Their inheritance included

Beer-sheba (or Sheba), Moladah, ³ Hazar-shual, Balah, Ezem, ⁴ Eitolah, Bethul, Hormah, ⁵ Ziklag, Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susah, ⁶ Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhem — thirteen cities, with their settlements; ⁷ Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan — four cities, with their settlements; ⁸ and all the settlements surrounding these cities as far as Baalath-beer (Ramah in the south).

This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon’s descendants by their clans. ⁹ The inheritance of Simeon’s descendants was within the territory of Judah’s descendants, because the share for Judah’s descendants was too large. So Simeon’s descendants received an inheritance within Judah’s portion.

¹⁰ The third lot came up for Zebulun’s descendants by their clans.

The territory of their inheritance stretched as far as Sarid; ¹¹ their border went up westward to Maralah, reached Dabbesheth, and met the brook east of Jokneam. ¹² From Sarid, it turned due east along the border of Chisloth-tabor, went to Daberath, and went up to Japhia. ¹³ From there, it went due east to Gath-hepher and to Eth-kazin; it extended to Rimmon, curving around to Neah. ¹⁴ The border then circled around Neah on the north to Hannathon and ended at Iphtah-el Valley, ¹⁵ along with Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem — twelve cities, with their settlements.

¹⁶ This was the inheritance of Zebulun’s descendants by their clans, these cities, with their settlements.

¹⁷ The fourth lot came out for the tribe of Issachar’s descendants by their clans.

²³ This was the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar’s descendants by their clans, the cities, with their settlements.

²⁴ The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher’s descendants by their clans.

²⁵ Their boundary included Helkath, Hai, Beten, Achshaph, ²⁶ Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal and reached westward to Carmel and Shihor-libnath. ²⁷ It turned eastward to Beth-dagon, reached Zebulun and Iphthah-el Valley, north toward Beth-emek and Neiel, and went north to Cabul.²⁸ Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, as far as greater Sidon.

²⁹The boundary then turned to Ramah as far as the fortified city of Tyre; it turned back to Hosah and ended at the Mediterranean Sea, including Mahalab, Achzib,³⁰ Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob — twenty-two cities, with their settlements.

³¹This was the inheritance of the tribe of Asher's descendants by their clans, these cities with their settlements.

³²The sixth lot came out for Naphtali's descendants by their clans.

³³Their boundary went from Heleph and from the oak in Zaanannim, including Adami-nekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, and ended at the Jordan.

³⁹This was the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali's descendants by their clans, the cities with their settlements.

⁴⁰The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan's descendants by their clans.

⁴¹The territory of their inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir-shemesh,⁴² Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah,⁴³ Elon, Timnah, Ekron,⁴⁴ Eitekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,⁴⁵ Jehud, Bene-berak, Gath-rimmon,⁴⁶ Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the territory facing Joppa.

⁴⁹When they had finished distributing the land into its territories, the Israelites gave Joshua son of Nun an inheritance among them.⁵⁰ By the LORD's command, they gave him the city Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim, which he requested. He rebuilt the city and lived in it.

⁵¹These were the portions that the priest Eleazar, Joshua son of Nun, and the family heads distributed to the Israelite tribes by lot at Shiloh in the LORD's presence at the entrance to the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing up the land.

20 Then the LORD spoke to Joshua,² "Tell the Israelites: Select your cities of refuge, as I instructed you through Moses,³ so that a person who kills someone unintentionally or accidentally may flee there. These will be your refuge from the avenger of blood.⁴ When someone flees to one of these cities, stands at the entrance of the city gate, and states his case before the elders of that city, they are to bring him into the city and give him a place to live among them.⁵ And if the avenger of blood pursues him, they must not hand the one who committed manslaughter over to him, for he killed his neighbor accidentally and did not hate him beforehand.⁶ He is to stay in that city until he stands trial before the assembly and until the death of the high priest serving at that time. Then the one who committed manslaughter may return home to his own city from which he fled."

⁷So they designated Kedesh in the hill country of Naphtali in Galilee, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

⁸Across the Jordan east of Jericho, they selected Bezer on the wilderness plateau from Reuben's tribe, Ramoth in Gilead from Gad's tribe, and Golan in Bashan from Manasseh's tribe.

⁹These are the cities appointed for all the Israelites and the aliens residing among them, so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there and not die at the hand of the avenger of blood until he stands before the assembly.

21 The Levite family heads approached the priest Eleazar, Joshua son of Nun, and the family heads of the Israelite tribes.² At Shiloh, in the land of Canaan, they told them,³ "The LORD commanded through Moses that we be given cities to live in, with their pasturelands for our livestock."⁴ So the Israelites, by the LORD's command, gave the Levites these cities with their pasturelands from their inheritance.

⁶Gershon's descendants received thirteen cities by lot from the clans of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and half the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

⁷Merari's descendants received twelve cities for their clans from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

⁸The Israelites gave these cities with their pasturelands around them to the Levites by lot, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

¹⁷From the tribe of Benjamin they gave: Gibeon with its pasturelands, Geba with its pasturelands,¹⁸ Anathoth with its pasturelands, and Almon with its pasturelands — four cities.¹⁹ All thirteen cities with their pasturelands were for the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

²⁰The allotted cities to the remaining clans of Kohath's descendants, who were Levites, came from the tribe of Ephraim.²¹ The Israelites gave them:

Shechem, the city of refuge for the one who commits manslaughter, with its pasturelands in the hill country of Ephraim, Gezer with its pasturelands,²² Kibzaim with its pasturelands, and Beth-horon with its pasturelands — four cities.

²³ From the tribe of Dan they gave: Eiteke with its pasturelands, Gibbethon with its pasturelands,²⁴ Ajjalon with its pasturelands, and Gath-rimmon with its pasturelands — four cities.

²⁵ From half the tribe of Manasseh they gave: Taanach with its pasturelands and Gath-rimmon with its pasturelands — two cities.

²⁶ All ten cities with their pasturelands were for the clans of Kohath's other descendants.

²⁸ From the tribe of Issachar they gave: Kishion with its pasturelands, Daberath with its pasturelands,²⁹ Jarmuth with its pasturelands, and En-gannim with its pasturelands — four cities.

³⁰ From the tribe of Asher they gave: Mishal with its pasturelands, Abdon with its pasturelands,³¹ Helkath with its pasturelands, and Rehob with its pasturelands — four cities.

³² From the tribe of Naphtali they gave: Kedesh in Galilee, the city of refuge for the one who commits manslaughter, with its pasturelands, Hammoth-dor with its pasturelands, and Kartan with its pasturelands — three cities.

³³ All thirteen cities with their pasturelands were for the Gershonites by their clans.

³⁶ From the tribe of Reuben they gave: Bezer with its pasturelands, Jahzah with its pasturelands,³⁷ Kedemoth with its pasturelands, and Mephaath with its pasturelands — four cities.

⁴³ So the LORD gave Israel all the land he had sworn to give their fathers, and they took possession of it and settled there.⁴⁴ The LORD gave them rest on every side according to all he had sworn to their fathers. None of their enemies were able to stand against them, for the LORD handed over all their enemies to them.⁴⁵ None of the good promises the LORD had made to the house of Israel failed. Everything was fulfilled.

22 Joshua summoned the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh² and told them, "You have done everything Moses the LORD's servant commanded you and have obeyed me in everything I commanded you.³ You have not deserted your brothers even once this whole time but have carried out the requirement of the command of the LORD your God.⁴ Now that he has given your brothers rest, just as he promised them, return to your homes in your own land that Moses the LORD's servant gave you across the Jordan.⁵ Only carefully obey the command and instruction that Moses the LORD's servant gave you: to love the LORD your God, walk in all his ways, keep his commands, be loyal to him, and serve him with all your heart and all your soul."

¹³ The Israelites sent Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest to the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead.¹⁴ They sent ten leaders with him — one family leader for each tribe of Israel. All of them were heads of their ancestral families among the clans of Israel.¹⁵ They went to the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and told them,¹⁶ "This is what the LORD's entire community says: 'What is this treachery you have committed today against the God of Israel by turning away from the LORD and building an altar for yourselves, so that you are in rebellion against the LORD today?'¹⁷ Wasn't the iniquity of Peor, which brought a plague on the LORD's community, enough for us? We have not cleansed ourselves from it even to this day,¹⁸ and now would you turn away from the LORD? If you rebel against the LORD today, tomorrow he will be angry with the entire community of Israel.¹⁹ But if the land you possess is defiled, cross over to the land the LORD possesses where the LORD's tabernacle stands, and take possession of it among us. But don't rebel against the LORD or against us by building for yourselves an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God.²⁰ Wasn't Achan son of Zerah unfaithful regarding what was set apart for destruction, bringing wrath on the entire community of Israel? He was not the only one who perished because of his iniquity."

²¹ The Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh answered the heads of the Israelite clans,²² "The Mighty One, God, the LORD! The Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows, and may Israel also know. Do not spare us today, if it was in rebellion or treachery against the LORD²³ that we have built for ourselves an altar to turn away from him. May the LORD himself hold us accountable if we intended to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings on it, or to sacrifice fellowship offerings on it. ²⁴We actually did this from a specific concern that in the future your descendants might say to our descendants, 'What relationship do you have with the LORD, the God of Israel?' ²⁵For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you descendants of Reuben and Gad. You have no share in the LORD! So your descendants may cause our descendants to stop fearing the LORD.

²⁶"Therefore we said: Let us take action and build an altar for ourselves, but not for burnt offering or sacrifice. ²⁷Instead, it is to be a witness between us and you, and between the generations after us, so that we may carry out the worship of the LORD in his presence with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and fellowship offerings. Then in the future, your descendants will not be able to say to our descendants, 'You have no share in the LORD!' ²⁸We thought that if they said this to us or to our generations in the future, we would reply: Look at the replica of the LORD's altar that our fathers made, not for burnt offering or sacrifice, but as a witness between us and you. ²⁹We would never ever rebel against the LORD or turn away from him today by building an altar for burnt offering, grain offering, or sacrifice, other than the altar of the LORD our God, which is in front of his tabernacle."

³⁰When the priest Phinehas and the community leaders, the heads of Israel's clans who were with him, heard what the descendants of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh had to say, they were pleased. ³¹Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest said to the descendants of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh, "Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this treachery against him. As a result, you have rescued the Israelites from the LORD's power."

³²Then the priest Phinehas son of Eleazar and the leaders returned from the Reubenites and Gadites in the land of Gilead to the Israelites in the land of Canaan and brought back a report to them. ³³The Israelites were pleased with the report, and they blessed God. They spoke no more about going to war against them to ravage the land where the Reubenites and Gadites lived. ³⁴So the Reubenites and Gadites named the altar: It is a witness between us that the LORD is God.

23 A long time after the LORD had given Israel rest from all the enemies around them, Joshua was old, advanced in age. ²So Joshua summoned all Israel, including its elders, leaders, judges, and officers, and said to them, "I am old, advanced in age, ³and you have seen for yourselves everything the LORD your God did to all these nations on your account, because it was the LORD your God who was fighting for you. ⁴See, I have allotted these remaining nations to you as an inheritance for your tribes, including all the nations I have destroyed, from the Jordan westward to the Mediterranean Sea. ⁵The LORD your God will force them back on your account and drive them out before you so that you can take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

God was fighting for you, as he promised. ¹¹So diligently watch yourselves! Love the LORD your God! ¹²If you ever turn away and become loyal to the rest of these nations remaining among you, and if you intermarry or associate with them and they with you, ¹³know for certain that the LORD your God will not continue to drive these nations out before you. They will become a snare and a trap for you, a sharp stick for your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you disappear from this good land the LORD your God has given you.

¹⁴"I am now going the way of the whole earth, and you know with all your heart and all your soul that none of the good promises the LORD your God made to you has failed. Everything was fulfilled for you; not one promise has failed. ¹⁵Since every good thing the LORD your God promised you has come about, so he will bring on you every bad thing until he has annihilated you from this good land the LORD your God has given you. ¹⁶If you break the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow in worship to them, the LORD's anger will burn against you, and you will quickly disappear from this good land he has given you."

24 Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel at Shechem and summoned Israel's elders, leaders, judges, and officers, and they presented themselves before God. ²Joshua said to all the people, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Long ago your ancestors, including Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the Euphrates River and worshiped other gods. ³But I took your father Abraham from the region beyond the Euphrates River, led him throughout the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants. I gave him Isaac, ⁴and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave the hill country of Seir to Esau as a possession.

"Jacob and his sons, however, went down to Egypt. ⁵I sent Moses and Aaron, and I defeated Egypt by what I did within it, and afterward I brought you out. ⁶When I brought your fathers out of Egypt and you reached the Red Sea, the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen as far as the sea. ⁷Your fathers cried out to the LORD, so he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea over them, engulfing them. Your own eyes saw what I did to Egypt. After that, you lived in the wilderness a long time.

⁸"Later, I brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived beyond the Jordan. They fought against you, but I handed them over to you. You possessed their land, and I annihilated them before you. ⁹Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, set out to fight against Israel. He sent for Balaam son of Beor to curse you, ¹⁰but I would not listen to Balaam. Instead, he repeatedly blessed you, and I rescued you from him.

¹¹"You then crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. Jericho's citizens — as well as the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hethites, Gergashites, Hivites, and Jebusites — fought against you, but I handed them over to you. ¹²I sent hornets ahead of you, and they drove out the two Amorite kings before you. It was not by your sword or bow. ¹³I gave you a land you did not labor for, and cities you did not build, though you live in them; you are eating from vineyards and olive groves you did not plant.'

¹⁴"Therefore, fear the LORD and worship him in sincerity and truth. Get rid of the gods your fathers worshiped beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt, and worship the LORD. ¹⁵But if it doesn't please you to worship the LORD, choose for yourselves today: Which will you worship — the gods your fathers worshiped beyond the Euphrates River or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living? As for me and my family, we will worship the LORD.”

¹⁶The people replied, “We will certainly not abandon the LORD to worship other gods! ¹⁷For the LORD our God brought us and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery, and performed these great signs before our eyes. He also protected us all along the way we went and among all the peoples whose lands we traveled through. ¹⁸The LORD drove out before us all the peoples, including the Amorites who lived in the land. We too will worship the LORD, because he is our God.”

¹⁹But Joshua told the people, “You will not be able to worship the LORD, because he is a holy God. He is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions and sins. ²⁰If you abandon the LORD and worship foreign gods, he will turn against you, harm you, and completely destroy you, after he has been good to you.”

²¹“No!” the people answered Joshua. “We will worship the LORD.”

²²Joshua then told the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you yourselves have chosen to worship the LORD.”

“We are witnesses,” they said.

²³“Then get rid of the foreign gods that are among you and turn your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel.”

²⁴So the people said to Joshua, “We will worship the LORD our God and obey him.”

²⁵On that day Joshua made a covenant for the people at Shechem and established a statute and ordinance for them. ²⁶Joshua recorded these things in the book of the law of God; he also took a large stone and set it up there under the oak at the sanctuary of the LORD. ²⁷And Joshua said to all the people, “You see this stone — it will be a witness against us, for it has heard all the words the LORD said to us, and it will be a witness against you, so that you will not deny your God.” ²⁸Then Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.

²⁹After these things, the LORD’s servant, Joshua son of Nun, died at the age of 110. ³⁰They buried him in his allotted territory at Timnath-serah, in the hill country of Ephraim north of Mount Gaash. ³¹Israel worshiped the LORD throughout Joshua’s lifetime and during the lifetimes of the elders who outlived Joshua and who had experienced all the works the LORD had done for Israel.

³²Joseph’s bones, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem in the parcel of land Jacob had purchased from the sons of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for a hundred pieces of silver. It was an inheritance for Joseph’s descendants.

³³And Eleazar son of Aaron died, and they buried him at Gibeah, which had been given to his son Phinehas in the hill country of Ephraim.

JUDGES

1 After the death of Joshua, the Israelites inquired of the LORD, "Who will be the first to fight for us against the Canaanites?"

²The LORD answered, "Judah is to go. I have handed the land over to him."

³Judah said to his brother Simeon, "Come with me to my allotted territory, and let us fight against the Canaanites. I will also go with you to your allotted territory." So Simeon went with him.

⁴When Judah attacked, the LORD handed the Canaanites and Perizzites over to them. They struck down ten thousand men in Bezek. ⁵They found Adoni-bezek in Bezek, fought against him, and struck down the Canaanites and Perizzites.

⁶When Adoni-bezek fled, they pursued him, caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes. ⁷Adoni-bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to pick up scraps under my table. God has repaid me for what I have done." They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

⁸The men of Judah fought against Jerusalem, captured it, put it to the sword, and set the city on fire. ⁹Afterward, the men of Judah marched down to fight against the Canaanites who were living in the hill country, the Negev, and the Judean foothills. ¹⁰Judah also marched against the Canaanites who were living in Hebron (Hebron was formerly named Kiriath-arba). They struck down Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi. ¹¹From there they marched against the residents of Debir (Debir was formerly named Kiriath-sepher).

¹²Caleb said, "Whoever attacks and captures Kiriath-sepher, I will give my daughter Achsah to him as a wife."

¹³So Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's youngest brother, captured it, and Caleb gave his daughter Achsah to him as his wife.

¹⁴When she arrived, she persuaded Othniel to ask her father for a field. As she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What do you want?" ¹⁵She answered him, "Give me a blessing. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me springs also." So Caleb gave her both the upper and lower springs.

¹⁶The descendants of the Kenite, Moses's father-in-law, had gone up with the men of Judah from the City of Palms to the Wilderness of Judah, which was in the Negev of Arad. They went to live among the people.

¹⁷Judah went with his brother Simeon, struck the Canaanites who were living in Zephath, and completely destroyed the town. So they named the town Hormah. ¹⁸Judah captured Gaza and its territory, Ashkelon and its territory, and Ekron and its territory. ¹⁹The LORD was with Judah and enabled them to take possession of the hill country, but they could not drive out the people who were living in the valley because those people had iron chariots.

²⁰Judah gave Hebron to Caleb, just as Moses had promised. Then Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak who lived there.

²¹At the same time the Benjaminites did not drive out the Jebusites who were living in Jerusalem. The Jebusites have lived among the Benjaminites in Jerusalem to this day.

²²The house of Joseph also attacked Bethel, and the LORD was with them. ²³They sent spies to Bethel (the town was formerly named Luz). ²⁴The spies saw a man coming out of the town and said to him, "Please show us how to get into town, and we will show you kindness." ²⁵When he showed them the way into the town, they put the town to the sword but released the man and his entire family. ²⁶Then the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a town, and named it Luz. That is its name still today.

²⁷At that time Manasseh failed to take possession of Beth-shean and Taanach and their surrounding villages, or the residents of Dor, Ibleam, and Megiddo and their surrounding villages; the Canaanites were determined to stay in this land. ²⁸When Israel became stronger, they made the Canaanites serve as forced labor but never drove them out completely.

²⁹At that time Ephraim failed to drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer, so the Canaanites have lived among them in Gezer.

³⁰Zebulun failed to drive out the residents of Kitron or the residents of Nahalol, so the Canaanites lived among them and served as forced labor.

³¹Asher failed to drive out the residents of Acco or of Sidon, or Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob. ³²The Asherites lived among the Canaanites who were living in the land, because they failed to drive them out.

³³Naphtali did not drive out the residents of Beth-she-mesh or the residents of Beth-anath. They lived among the Canaanites who were living in the land, but the residents of Beth-she-mesh and Beth-anath served as their forced labor.

³⁴The Amorites forced the Danites into the hill country and did not allow them to go down into the valley. ³⁵The Amorites were determined to stay in Har-heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim. When the house of Joseph got the upper hand, the Amorites were made to serve as forced labor. ³⁶The territory of the Amorites extended from the Scorpions' Ascent, that is from Sela upward.

2 The angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bochim and said, "I brought you out of Egypt and led you into the land I had promised to your fathers. I also said: I will never break my covenant with you. ²You are not to make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land. You are to tear down their altars. But you have not obeyed me. What is this you have done? ³Therefore, I now say: I will not drive out these people before you. They will be thorns in your sides, and their gods will be a trap for you." ⁴When the angel of the LORD had spoken these words to all the Israelites, the people wept loudly. ⁵So they named that place Bochim and offered sacrifices there to the LORD.

⁶Previously, when Joshua had sent the people away, the Israelites had gone to take possession of the land, each to his own inheritance. ⁷The people worshiped the LORD throughout Joshua's lifetime and during the lifetimes of the elders who outlived Joshua. They had seen all the LORD's great works he had done for Israel.

¹¹The Israelites did what was evil in the LORD's sight. They worshiped the Baals¹² and abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of Egypt. They followed other gods from the surrounding peoples and bowed down to them. They angered the LORD,¹³ for they abandoned him and worshiped Baal and the Ashtoreths.

¹⁴The LORD's anger burned against Israel, and he handed them over to marauders who raided them. He sold them to the enemies around them, and they could no longer resist their enemies.¹⁵ Whenever the Israelites went out, the LORD was against them and brought disaster on them, just as he had promised and sworn to them. So they suffered greatly.

²⁰The LORD's anger burned against Israel, and he declared, "Because this nation has violated my covenant that I made with their fathers and disobeyed me,²¹ I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations Joshua left when he died.²² I did this to test Israel and to see whether or not they would keep the LORD's way by walking in it, as their fathers had."²³ The LORD left these nations and did not drive them out immediately. He did not hand them over to Joshua.

3 These are the nations the LORD left in order to test all those in Israel who had experienced none of the wars in Canaan.² This was to teach the future generations of the Israelites how to fight in battle, especially those who had not fought before.³ These nations included the five rulers of the Philistines and all of the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived in the Lebanese mountains from Mount Baal-hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath.⁴ The LORD left them to test Israel, to determine if they would keep the LORD's commands he had given their fathers through Moses.⁵ But they settled among the Canaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.⁶ The Israelites took their daughters as wives for themselves, gave their own daughters to their sons, and worshiped their gods.

⁷The Israelites did what was evil in the LORD's sight; they forgot the LORD their God and worshiped the Baals and the Asherahs.⁸ The LORD's anger burned against Israel, and he sold them to King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram-naharaim, and the Israelites served him eight years.

⁹The Israelites cried out to the LORD. So the LORD raised up Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's youngest brother, as a deliverer to save the Israelites.¹⁰ The Spirit of the LORD came on him, and he judged Israel. Othniel went out to battle, and the LORD handed over King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram to him, so that Othniel overpowered him.¹¹ Then the land had peace for forty years, and Othniel son of Kenaz died.

¹²The Israelites again did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He gave King Eglon of Moab power over Israel, because they had done what was evil in the LORD's sight.

¹³After Eglon convinced the Ammonites and the Amalekites to join forces with him, he attacked and defeated Israel and took possession of the City of Palms.¹⁴The Israelites served King Eglon of Moab eighteen years.

¹⁵Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, and he raised up Ehud son of Gera, a left-handed Benjaminite, as a deliverer for them. The Israelites sent him with the tribute for King Eglon of Moab.

¹⁶Ehud made himself a double-edged sword eighteen inches long. He strapped it to his right thigh under his clothes¹⁷ and brought the tribute to King Eglon of Moab, who was an extremely fat man.¹⁸When Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he dismissed the people who had carried it.¹⁹At the carved images near Gialgal he returned and said, "King Eglon, I have a secret message for you." The king said, "Silence!" and all his attendants left him.²⁰Then Ehud approached him while he was sitting alone in his upstairs room where it was cool. Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you," and the king stood up from his throne.²¹Ehud reached with his left hand, took the sword from his right thigh, and plunged it into Eglon's belly.²²Even the handle went in after the blade, and Eglon's fat closed in over it, so that Ehud did not withdraw the sword from his belly. And the waste came out.²³Ehud escaped by way of the porch, closing and locking the doors of the upstairs room behind him.

²⁴Ehud was gone when Eglon's servants came in. They looked and found the doors of the upstairs room locked and thought he was relieving himself in the cool room.²⁵The servants waited until they became embarrassed and saw that he had still not opened the doors of the upstairs room. So they took the key and opened the doors — and there was their lord lying dead on the floor!

²⁶Ehud escaped while the servants waited. He passed the Jordan near the carved images and reached Seirah.²⁷After he arrived, he sounded the ram's horn throughout the hill country of Ephraim. The Israelites came down with him from the hill country, and he became their leader.²⁸He told them, "Follow me, because the LORD has handed over your enemies, the Moabites, to you." So they followed him, captured the fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross over.²⁹At that time they struck down about ten thousand Moabites, all stout and able-bodied men. Not one of them escaped.³⁰Moab became subject to Israel that day, and the land had peace for eighty years.

³¹After Ehud, Shamgar son of Anath became judge. He also delivered Israel, striking down six hundred Philistines with a cattle prod.

4 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD after Ehud had died.²So the LORD sold them to King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera who lived in Harosheth of the Nations.³Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, because Jabin had nine hundred iron chariots, and he harshly oppressed them twenty years.

⁴Deborah, a prophetess and the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at that time.⁵She would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites went up to her to settle disputes.

⁶She summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, "Hasn't the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded you: 'Go, deploy the troops on Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men from the Naphthalites and Zebulunites?⁷ Then I will lure Sisera commander of Jabin's army, his chariots, and his infantry at the Wadi Kishon to fight against you, and I will hand him over to you."

⁸ Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, I will go. But if you will not go with me, I will not go."

⁹ "I will gladly go with you," she said, "but you will receive no honor on the road you are about to take, because the LORD will sell Sisera to a woman." So Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kadesh. ¹⁰ Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kadesh; ten thousand men followed him, and Deborah also went with him.

¹² It was reported to Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up Mount Tabor. ¹³ Sisera summoned all his nine hundred iron chariots and all the troops who were with him from Harosheth of the Nations to the Wadi Kishon. ¹⁴ Then Deborah said to Barak, "Go! This is the day the LORD has handed Sisera over to you. Hasn't the LORD gone before you?" So Barak came down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

¹⁷ Meanwhile, Sisera had fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because there was peace between King Jabin of Hazor and the family of Heber the Kenite. ¹⁸ Jael went out to greet Sisera and said to him, "Come in, my lord. Come in with me. Don't be afraid." So he went into her tent, and she covered him with a blanket. ¹⁹ He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink for I am thirsty." She opened a container of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him again. ²⁰ Then he said to her, "Stand at the entrance to the tent. If a man comes and asks you, 'Is there a man here?' say, 'No.'" ²¹ While he was sleeping from exhaustion, Heber's wife Jael took a tent peg, grabbed a hammer, and went silently to Sisera. She hammered the peg into his temple and drove it into the ground, and he died.

²² When Barak arrived in pursuit of Sisera, Jael went out to greet him and said to him, "Come and I will show you the man you are looking for." So he went in with her, and there was Sisera lying dead with a tent peg through his temple!

²³ That day God subdued King Jabin of Canaan before the Israelites. ²⁴ The power of the Israelites continued to increase against King Jabin of Canaan until they destroyed him.

5 On that day Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang:

- ² When the leaders lead in Israel,
when the people volunteer,
blessed be the LORD.
- ³ Listen, kings! Pay attention, princes!
I will sing to the LORD;
I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.
- ⁴ LORD, when you came from Seir,
when you marched from the fields of Edom,
the earth trembled,
the skies poured rain,
and the clouds poured water.
- ⁵ The mountains melted before the LORD,

even Sinai, before the LORD, the God of Israel.

- ⁶ In the days of Shamgar son of Anath,
in the days of Jael,
the main roads were deserted
because travelers kept to the side roads.
- ⁷ Villages were deserted,
they were deserted in Israel,
until I, Deborah, arose,
a mother in Israel.
- ⁸ Israel chose new gods,
then there was war in the city gates.
Not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.
- ⁹ My heart is with the leaders of Israel,
with the volunteers of the people.
Blessed be the LORD!
- ¹⁰ You who ride on white donkeys,
who sit on saddle blankets,
and who travel on the road, give praise!
- ¹¹ Let them tell the righteous acts of the LORD,
the righteous deeds of his warriors in Israel,
with the voices of the singers
at the watering places.
Then the LORD's people went down to the city gates.
- ¹² "Awake! Awake, Deborah!
Awake! Awake, sing a song!
Arise, Barak,
and take your prisoners,
son of Abinoam!"
- ¹³ Then the survivors came down to the nobles;
the LORD's people came down to me with the warriors.
- ¹⁴ Those with their roots in Amalek came from Ephraim;
Benjamin came with your people after you.
The leaders came down from Machir, and those who carry a marshal's staff came from Zebulun.
- ¹⁵ The princes of Issachar were with Deborah;
Issachar was with Barak;
they were under his leadership in the valley.
There was great searching of heart
among the clans of Reuben.
- ¹⁶ Why did you sit among the sheep pens
listening to the playing of pipes for the flocks?
There was great searching of heart
among the clans of Reuben.
- ¹⁷ Gilead remained beyond the Jordan.
Dan, why did you linger at the ships?
Asher remained at the seashore and stayed in his harbors.
- ¹⁸ The people of Zebulun defied death,
Naphtali also, on the heights of the battlefield.
- ¹⁹ Kings came and fought.
Then the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the Waters of Megiddo, but they did not plunder the silver.
- ²⁰ The stars fought from the heavens;
the stars fought with Sisera from their paths.
- ²¹ The river Kishon swept them away,
the ancient river, the river Kishon.
March on, my soul, in strength!
- ²² The horses' hooves then hammered —
the galloping, galloping of his stallions.

- 23 "Curse Meroz," says the angel of the LORD,
"Bitterly curse her inhabitants,
for they did not come to help the LORD,
to help the LORD with the warriors."
- 24 Jael is most blessed of women,
the wife of Heber the Kenite;
she is most blessed among tent-dwelling women.
- 25 He asked for water; she gave him milk.
She brought him cream in a majestic bowl.
- 26 She reached for a tent peg,
her right hand, for a workman's hammer.
Then she hammered Sisera —
she crushed his head;
she shattered and pierced his temple.
- 27 He collapsed, he fell, he lay down between her feet;
he collapsed, he fell between her feet;
where he collapsed, there he fell — dead.
- 28 Sisera's mother looked through the window;
she peered through the lattice, crying out:
"Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why don't I hear the hoofbeats of his horses?"
- 29 Her wisest princesses answer her;
she even answers herself:
- 30 "Are they not finding and dividing the spoil —
a girl or two for each warrior,
the spoil of colored garments for Sisera, the spoil of an embroidered garment or two for my neck?"
- 31 LORD, may all your enemies perish as Sisera did.
But may those who love him
be like the rising of the sun in its strength.

And the land had peace for forty years.

6 The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD handed them over to Midian seven years,² and they oppressed Israel. Because of Midian, the Israelites made hiding places for themselves in the mountains, caves, and strongholds.³ Whenever the Israelites planted crops, the Midianites, Amalekites, and the Qedemites came and attacked them.⁴ They encamped against them and destroyed the produce of the land, even as far as Gaza. They left nothing for Israel to eat, as well as no sheep, ox, or donkey.⁵ For the Midianites came with their cattle and their tents like a great swarm of locusts. They and their camels were without number, and they entered the land to lay waste to it.⁶ So Israel became poverty-stricken because of Midian, and the Israelites cried out to the LORD.

⁷When the Israelites cried out to him because of Midian,⁸ the LORD sent a prophet to them. He said to them, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'I brought you out of Egypt and out of the place of slavery.⁹ I rescued you from the power of Egypt and the power of all who oppressed you. I drove them out before you and gave you their land.¹⁰ I said to you: I am the LORD your God. Do not fear the gods of the Amorites whose land you live in. But you did not obey me.'"

¹¹The angel of the LORD came, and he sat under the oak that was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash, the Abiezrite. His son Gideon was threshing wheat in the winepress in order to hide it from the Midianites.¹² Then the angel of the LORD appeared to him and said: "The LORD is with you, valiant warrior."

¹³Gideon said to him, "Please, my lord, if the LORD is with us, why has all this happened? And where are all his wonders that our fathers told us about? They said, 'Hasn't the LORD brought us out of Egypt?' But now the LORD has abandoned us and handed us over to Midian."

¹⁴The LORD turned to him and said, "Go in the strength you have and deliver Israel from the grasp of Midian. I am sending you!"

¹⁵He said to him, "Please, Lord, how can I deliver Israel? Look, my family is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my father's family."

¹⁶"But I will be with you," the LORD said to him. "You will strike Midian down as if it were one man."

¹⁷Then he said to him, "If I have found favor with you, give me a sign that you are speaking with me.¹⁸ Please do not leave this place until I return to you. Let me bring my gift and set it before you."

And he said, "I will stay until you return."

¹⁹So Gideon went and prepared a young goat and unleavened bread from a half bushel of flour. He placed the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot. He brought them out and offered them to him under the oak.

²⁰The angel of God said to him, "Take the meat with the unleavened bread, put it on this stone, and pour the broth on it." So he did that.

²¹The angel of the LORD extended the tip of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread. Fire came up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.

²²When Gideon realized that he was the angel of the LORD, he said, "Oh no, Lord God! I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!"

²³But the LORD said to him, "Peace to you. Don't be afraid, for you will not die."²⁴ So Gideon built an altar to the LORD there and called it The LORD Is Peace. It is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites today.

²⁵On that very night the LORD said to him, "Take your father's young bull and a second bull seven years old. Then tear down the altar of Baal that belongs to your father and cut down the Asherah pole beside it.²⁶ Build a well-constructed altar to the LORD your God on the top of this mound. Take the second bull and offer it as a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah pole you cut down."

²⁷So Gideon took ten of his male servants and did as the LORD had told him. But because he was too afraid of his father's family and the men of the city to do it in the daytime, he did it at night.

²⁸When the men of the city got up in the morning, they found Baal's altar torn down, the Asherah pole beside it cut down, and the second bull offered up on the altar that had been built.²⁹ They said to each other, "Who did this?" After they made a thorough investigation, they said, "Gideon son of Joash did it."

³⁰Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son. He must die, because he tore down Baal's altar and cut down the Asherah pole beside it."

³¹But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Would you plead Baal's case for him? Would you save him? Whoever pleads his case will be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him plead his own case because someone tore down his altar."³² That day he was called Jerubbaal, since Joash said, "Let Baal contend with him," because he tore down his altar.

³³All the Midianites, Amalekites, and Qedemites gathered together, camped over the Jordan, and camped in the Jezreel Valley.

³⁴The Spirit of the LORD enveloped Gideon, and he blew the ram's horn and the Abiezrites rallied behind him. ³⁵He sent messengers throughout all of Manasseh, who rallied behind him. He also sent messengers throughout Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, who also came to meet him.

³⁶Then Gideon said to God, "If you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you said, ³⁷I will put a wool fleece here on the threshing floor. If dew is only on the fleece, and all the ground is dry, I will know that you will deliver Israel by my strength, as you said." ³⁸And that is what happened. When he got up early in the morning, he squeezed the fleece and wrung dew out of it, filling a bowl with water.

³⁹Gideon then said to God, "Don't be angry with me; let me speak one more time. Please allow me to make one more test with the fleece. Let it remain dry, and the dew be all over the ground." ⁴⁰That night God did as Gideon requested: only the fleece was dry, and dew was all over the ground.

7 Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the troops who were with him, got up early and camped beside the spring of Harod. The camp of Midian was north of them, below the hill of Moreh, in the valley. ²The LORD said to Gideon, "You have too many troops for me to hand the Midianites over to them, or else Israel might elevate themselves over me and say, 'My own strength saved me.' ³Now announce to the troops: 'Whoever is fearful and trembling may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.'" ⁴So twenty-two thousand of the troops turned back, but ten thousand remained.

⁴Then the LORD said to Gideon, "There are still too many troops. Take them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. If I say to you, 'This one can go with you,' he can go. But if I say about anyone, 'This one cannot go with you,' he cannot go." ⁵So he brought the troops down to the water, and the LORD said to Gideon, "Separate everyone who laps water with his tongue like a dog. Do the same with everyone who kneels to drink." ⁶The number of those who lapped with their hands to their mouths was three hundred men, and all the rest of the troops knelt to drink water. ⁷The LORD said to Gideon, "I will deliver you with the three hundred men who lapped and hand the Midianites over to you. But everyone else is to go home."

⁸So Gideon sent all the Israelites to their tents but kept the three hundred troops, who took the provisions and their trumpets. The camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

⁹That night the LORD said to him, "Get up and attack the camp, for I have handed it over to you." ¹⁰But if you are afraid to attack the camp, go down with Purah your servant. ¹¹Listen to what they say, and then you will be encouraged to attack the camp." So he went down with Purah his servant to the outpost of the troops who were in the camp.

¹²Now the Midianites, Amalekites, and all the Qedemites had settled down in the valley like a swarm of locusts, and their camels were as innumerable as the sand on the seashore. ¹³When Gideon arrived, there was a man telling his friend about a dream. He said, "Listen, I had a dream: a loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the Midianite camp, struck a tent, and it fell. The loaf turned the tent upside down so that it collapsed."

¹⁴His friend answered: "This is nothing less than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God has handed the entire Midianite camp over to him."

¹⁵When Gideon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship. He returned to Israel's camp and said, "Get up, for the LORD has handed the Midianite camp over to you." ¹⁶Then he divided the three hundred men into three companies and gave each of the men a trumpet in one hand and an empty pitcher with a torch inside it in the other hand.

¹⁷"Watch me," he said to them, "and do what I do. When I come to the outpost of the camp, do as I do. ¹⁸When I and everyone with me blow our trumpets, you are also to blow your trumpets all around the camp. Then you will say, 'For the LORD and for Gideon!'"

²⁴Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim with this message: "Come down to intercept the Midianites and take control of the watercourses ahead of them as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan." So all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they took control of the watercourses as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan. ²⁵They captured Oreb and Zeeb, the two princes of Midian; they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb, while they were pursuing the Midianites. They brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon across the Jordan.

8 The men of Ephraim said to him, "Why have you done this to us, not calling us when you went to fight against the Midianites?" And they argued with him violently.

²So he said to them, "What have I done now compared to you? Is not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the grape harvest of Abiezer? ³God handed over to you Oreb and Zeeb, the two princes of Midian. What was I able to do compared to you?" When he said this, their anger against him subsided.

⁴Gideon and the three hundred men came to the Jordan and crossed it. They were exhausted but still in pursuit. ⁵He said to the men of Succoth, "Please give some loaves of bread to the troops under my command, because they are exhausted, for I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

⁶But the princes of Succoth asked, "Are Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hands that we should give bread to your army?"

⁷Gideon replied, "Very well, when the LORD has handed Zebah and Zalmunna over to me, I will tear your flesh with thorns and briars from the wilderness!" ⁸He went from there to Penuel and asked the same thing from them. The men of Penuel answered just as the men of Succoth had answered. ⁹He also told the men of Penuel, "When I return safely, I will tear down this tower!"

¹⁰Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and with them was their army of about fifteen thousand men, who were all those left of the entire army of the Qedemites. Those who had been killed were one hundred twenty thousand armed men. ¹¹Gideon traveled on the caravan route east of Nobah and Jogbehah and attacked their army while the army felt secure.¹² Zebah and Zalmunna fled, and he pursued them. He captured these two kings of Midian and routed the entire army.

¹³ Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle by the Ascent of Heres.¹⁴ He captured a youth from the men of Succoth and interrogated him. The youth wrote down for him the names of the seventy-seven leaders and elders of Succoth.¹⁵ Then he went to the men of Succoth and said, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna. You taunted me about them, saying, 'Are Zebah and Zalmunna now in your power that we should give bread to your exhausted men?'"¹⁶ So he took the elders of the city, and he took some thorns and briers from the wilderness, and he disciplined the men of Succoth with them.¹⁷ He also tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

"They were like you," they said. "Each resembled the son of a king."

¹⁹ So he said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother! As the LORD lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you."²⁰ Then he said to Jether, his firstborn, "Get up and kill them." The youth did not draw his sword, for he was afraid because he was still a youth.

²² Then the Israelites said to Gideon, "Rule over us, you as well as your sons and your grandsons, for you delivered us from the power of Midian."

²³ But Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the LORD will rule over you."

²⁴ Then he said to them, "Let me make a request of you: Everyone give me an earring from his plunder." Now the enemy had gold earrings because they were Ishmaelites.

²⁵ They said, "We agree to give them." So they spread out a cloak, and everyone threw an earring from his plunder on it.²⁶ The weight of the gold earrings he requested was forty-three pounds of gold, in addition to the crescent ornaments and ear pendants, the purple garments on the kings of Midian, and the chains on the necks of their camels.²⁷ Gideon made an ephod from all this and put it in Ophrah, his hometown. Then all Israel prostituted themselves by worshiping it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his household.

²⁸ So Midian was subdued before the Israelites, and they were no longer a threat. The land had peace for forty years during the days of Gideon.²⁹ Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) son of Joash went back to live at his house.

³⁰ Gideon had seventy sons, his own offspring, since he had many wives.³¹ His concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.³² Then Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

³³ When Gideon died, the Israelites turned and prostituted themselves by worshiping the Baals and made Baal-berith their god.³⁴ The Israelites did not remember the LORD their God who had rescued them from the hand of the enemies around them.³⁵ They did not show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) for all the good he had done for Israel.

9 Abimelech son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem and spoke to his uncles and to his mother's whole clan, saying, "Please speak in the hearing of all the citizens of Shechem, 'Is it better for you that seventy men, all the sons of Jerubbaal, rule over you or that one man rule over you?' Remember that I am your own flesh and blood."

³ His mother's relatives spoke all these words about him in the hearing of all the citizens of Shechem, and they were favorable to Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother."⁴ So they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the temple of Baal-berith. Abimelech used it to hire worthless and reckless men, and they followed him.⁵ He went to his father's house in Ophrah and killed his seventy brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, on top of a large stone. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, because he hid.⁶ Then all the citizens of Shechem and of Beth-millo gathered together and proceeded to make Abimelech king at the oak of the pillar in Shechem.

⁷ When they told Jotham, he climbed to the top of Mount Gerizim, raised his voice, and called to them:

Listen to me, citizens of Shechem, and may God listen to you:

⁸ The trees decided to anoint a king over themselves.

They said to the olive tree, "Reign over us."

⁹ But the olive tree said to them,

"Should I stop giving my oil that people use to honor both God and men, and rule over the trees?"

¹⁰ Then the trees said to the fig tree,

"Come and reign over us."

¹¹ But the fig tree said to them,

"Should I stop giving my sweetness and my good fruit, and rule over trees?"

¹² Later, the trees said to the grapevine,

"Come and reign over us."

¹³ But the grapevine said to them,

"Should I stop giving my wine that cheers both God and man, and rule over trees?"

¹⁴ Finally, all the trees said to the bramble,

"Come and reign over us."

¹⁵ The bramble said to the trees,

"If you really are anointing me as king over you, come and find refuge in my shade.

But if not,

may fire come out from the bramble and consume the cedars of Lebanon."

¹⁶ "Now if you have acted faithfully and honestly in making Abimelech king, if you have done well by Jerubbaal and his family, and if you have rewarded him appropriately for what he did — ¹⁷ for my father fought for you, risked his life, and rescued you from Midian, ¹⁸ and now you have attacked my father's family today, killed his seventy sons on top of a large stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his slave woman, king over the citizens of Shechem 'because he is your brother' — ¹⁹ so if you have acted faithfully and honestly with Jerubbaal and his house this day, rejoice in Abimelech and may he also rejoice in you. ²⁰ But if not, may fire come from Abimelech and consume the citizens of Shechem and Beth-millo, and may fire come from the citizens of Shechem and Beth-millo and consume Abimelech." ²¹ Then Jotham fled, escaping to Beer, and lived there because of his brother Abimelech.

²² When Abimelech had ruled over Israel three years, ²³ God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the citizens of Shechem. They treated Abimelech deceitfully, ²⁴ so that the crime against the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come to justice and their blood would be avenged on their brother Abimelech, who killed them, and on the citizens of Shechem, who had helped him kill his brothers. ²⁵The citizens of Shechem rebelled against him by putting men in ambush on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed everyone who passed by them on the road. So this was reported to Abimelech.

²⁶Gaal son of Ebed came with his brothers and crossed into Shechem, and the citizens of Shechem trusted him. ²⁷So they went out to the countryside and harvested grapes from their vineyards. They trampled the grapes and held a celebration. Then they went to the house of their god, and as they ate and drank, they cursed Abimelech. ²⁸Gaal son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech and who is Shechem that we should serve him? Isn't he the son of Jerubbaal, and isn't Zebul his officer? You are to serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem. Why should we serve Abimelech? ²⁹If only these people were in my power, I would remove Abimelech." So he said to Abimelech, "Gather your army and come out."

³⁰When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed, he was angry. ³¹So he secretly sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, "Beware! Gaal son of Ebed, with his brothers, have come to Shechem and are turning the city against you. ³²Now tonight, you and the troops with you, come and wait in ambush in the countryside. ³³Then get up early, and at sunrise attack the city. When he and the troops who are with him come out against you, do to him whatever you can." ³⁴So Abimelech and all the troops with him got up at night and waited in ambush for Shechem in four units.

³⁵Gaal son of Ebed went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate. Then Abimelech and the troops who were with him got up from their ambush. ³⁶When Gaal saw the troops, he said to Zebul, "Look, troops are coming down from the mountaintops!" But Zebul said to him, "The shadows of the mountains look like men to you."

³⁷Then Gaal spoke again, "Look, troops are coming down from the central part of the land, and one unit is coming from the direction of the Diviners' Oak." ³⁸Zebul replied, "What do you have to say now? You said, 'Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?' Aren't these the troops you despised? Now go and fight them!"

⁴²The next day when the people of Shechem went into the countryside, this was reported to Abimelech. ⁴³He took the troops, divided them into three companies, and waited in ambush in the countryside. He looked, and the people were coming out of the city, so he arose against them and struck them down. ⁴⁴Then Abimelech and the units that were with him rushed forward and took their stand at the entrance of the city gate. The other two units rushed against all who were in the countryside and struck them down. ⁴⁵So Abimelech fought against the city that entire day, captured it, and killed the people who were in it. Then he tore down the city and sowed it with salt.

⁴⁶When all the citizens of the Tower of Shechem heard, they entered the inner chamber of the temple of El-berith. ⁴⁷Then it was reported to Abimelech that all the citizens of the Tower of Shechem had gathered. ⁴⁸So Abimelech and all the troops who were with him went up to Mount Zalmon. Abimelech took his ax in his hand and cut a branch from the trees. He picked up the branch, put it on his shoulder, and said to the troops who were with him, "Hurry and do what you have seen me do." ⁴⁹Each of the troops also cut his own branch and followed Abimelech. They put the branches against the inner chamber and set it on fire; about a thousand men and women died, including all the men of the Tower of Shechem.

⁵⁰Abimelech went to Thebez, camped against it, and captured it. ⁵¹There was a strong tower inside the city, and all the men, women, and citizens of the city fled there. They locked themselves in and went up to the roof of the tower. ⁵²When Abimelech came to attack the tower, he approached its entrance to set it on fire. ⁵³But a woman threw the upper portion of a millstone on Abimelech's head and fractured his skull. ⁵⁴He quickly called his armor-bearer and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, or they'll say about me, 'A woman killed him.'" So his armor-bearer ran him through, and he died. ⁵⁵When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they all went home.

⁵⁶In this way, God brought back Abimelech's evil—the evil that Abimelech had done to his father when he killed his seventy brothers. ⁵⁷God also brought back to the men of Shechem all their evil. So the curse of Jotham son of Jerubbaal came upon them.

10 After Abimelech, Tola son of Puah, son of Dodo became judge and began to deliver Israel. He was from Issachar and lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim. ²Tola judged Israel twenty-three years and when he died, was buried in Shamir.

³After him came Jair the Gileadite, who judged Israel twenty-two years. ⁴He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys. They had thirty towns in Gilead, which are still called Jair's Villages today. ⁵When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

⁶Then the Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. They worshiped the Baals and the Ash-toreths, the gods of Aram, Sidon, and Moab, and the gods of the Ammonites and the Philistines. They abandoned the LORD and did not worship him. ⁷So the LORD's anger burned against Israel, and he sold them to the Philistines and the Ammonites. ⁸They shattered and crushed the Israelites that year, and for eighteen years they did the same to all the Israelites who were on the other side of the Jordan in the land of the Amorites in Gilead. ⁹The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, Benjamin, and the house of Ephraim. Israel was greatly oppressed, ¹⁰so they cried out to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against you. We have abandoned our God and worshiped the Baals."

¹¹The LORD said to the Israelites, "When the Egyptians, Amorites, Ammonites, Philistines, ¹²Sidonians, Amalekites, and Maonites oppressed you, and you cried out to me, did I not deliver you from them? ¹³But you have abandoned me and worshiped other gods. Therefore, I will not deliver you again. ¹⁴Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them deliver you whenever you are oppressed."

¹⁵But the Israelites said, "We have sinned. Deal with us as you see fit; only rescue us today!" ¹⁶So they got rid of the foreign gods among them and worshiped the LORD, and he became weary of Israel's misery.

¹⁷The Ammonites were called together, and they camped in Gilead. So the Israelites assembled and camped at Mizpah.¹⁸ The rulers of Gilead said to one another, "Which man will begin the fight against the Ammonites? He will be the leader of all the inhabitants of Gilead."

11 Jephthah the Gileadite was a valiant warrior, but he was the son of a prostitute, and Gilead was his father.² Gilead's wife bore him sons, and when they grew up, they drove Jephthah out and said to him, "You will have no inheritance in our father's family, because you are the son of another woman."³ So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Then some worthless men joined Jephthah and went on raids with him.

⁴ Some time later, the Ammonites fought against Israel.⁵ When the Ammonites made war with Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.⁶ They said to him, "Come, be our commander, and let's fight the Ammonites."

⁷ Jephthah replied to the elders of Gilead, "Didn't you hate me and drive me out of my father's family? Why then have you come to me now when you're in trouble?"

⁸ They answered Jephthah, "That's true. But now we turn to you. Come with us, fight the Ammonites, and you will become leader of all the inhabitants of Gilead."

⁹ So Jephthah said to them, "If you are bringing me back to fight the Ammonites and the LORD gives them to me, I will be your leader."

¹⁰ The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD is our witness if we don't do as you say."¹¹ So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead. The people made him their leader and commander, and Jephthah repeated all his terms in the presence of the LORD at Mizpah.

¹² Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites, asking, "What do you have against me that you have come to fight me in my land?"

¹⁴ Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites¹⁵ to tell him, "This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites.¹⁶ But when they came from Egypt, Israel traveled through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh.¹⁷ Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Please let us travel through your land,' but the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent messengers to the king of Moab, but he refused. So Israel stayed in Kadesh.

¹⁹ Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon. Israel said to him, 'Please let us travel through your land to our country,'²⁰ but Sihon would not trust Israel to pass through his territory. Instead, Sihon gathered all his troops, camped at Jahaz, and fought with Israel.²¹ Then the LORD God of Israel handed over Sihon and all his troops to Israel, and they defeated them. So Israel took possession of the entire land of the Amorites who lived in that country.²² They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

Chemosh conquers for you, and we can have whatever the LORD our God conquers for us?²⁵ Now are you any better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever contend with Israel or fight against them?²⁶ While Israel lived three hundred years in Heshbon and Aroer and their surrounding villages, and in all the cities that are on the banks of the Arnon, why didn't you take them back at that time?²⁷ I have not sinned against you, but you are doing me wrong by fighting against me. Let the LORD who is the judge decide today between the Israelites and the Ammonites."²⁸ But the king of the Ammonites would not listen to Jephthah's message that he sent him.

²⁹ The Spirit of the LORD came on Jephthah, who traveled through Gilead and Manasseh, and then through Mizpah of Gilead. He crossed over to the Ammonites from Mizpah of Gilead.³⁰ Jephthah made this vow to the LORD: "If you in fact hand over the Ammonites to me,³¹ whoever comes out the doors of my house to greet me when I return safely from the Ammonites will belong to the LORD, and I will offer that person as a burnt offering."

³⁴ When Jephthah went to his home in Mizpah, there was his daughter, coming out to meet him with tambourines and dancing! She was his only child; he had no other son or daughter besides her.³⁵ When he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "No! Not my daughter! You have devastated me! You have brought great misery on me. I have given my word to the LORD and cannot take it back."

³⁶ Then she said to him, "My father, you have given your word to the LORD. Do to me as you have said, for the LORD brought vengeance on your enemies, the Ammonites."³⁷ She also said to her father, "Let me do this one thing: Let me wander two months through the mountains with my friends and mourn my virginity."

12 The men of Ephraim were called together and crossed the Jordan to Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, "Why have you crossed over to fight against the Ammonites but didn't call us to go with you? We will burn your house with you in it!"

² Then Jephthah said to them, "My people and I had a bitter conflict with the Ammonites. So I called for you, but you didn't deliver me from their power.³ When I saw that you weren't going to deliver me, I took my life in my own hands and crossed over to the Ammonites, and the LORD handed them over to me. Why then have you come today to fight against me?"

⁴ Then Jephthah gathered all of the men of Gilead. They fought and defeated Ephraim, because Ephraim had said, "You Gileadites are Ephraimite fugitives in the territories of Ephraim and Manasseh."⁵ The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan leading to Ephraim. Whenever a fugitive from Ephraim said, "Let me cross over," the Gileadites asked him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he answered,

"No,"⁶ they told him, "Please say Shibboleth." If he said, "Sibboleth," because he could not pronounce it correctly, they seized him and executed him at the fords of the Jordan. At that time forty-two thousand from Ephraim died.

⁷Jephthah judged Israel six years, and when he died, he was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

⁸Ibzan, who was from Bethlehem, judged Israel after Jephthah⁹ and had thirty sons. He gave his thirty daughters in marriage to men outside the tribe and brought back thirty wives for his sons from outside the tribe. Ibzan judged Israel seven years,¹⁰ and when he died, he was buried in Bethlehem.

¹¹Elon, who was from Zebulun, judged Israel after Ibzan. He judged Israel ten years,¹² and when he died, he was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

¹³After Elon, Abdon son of Hillel, who was from Pirathon, judged Israel.¹⁴ He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy donkeys. Abdon judged Israel eight years,¹⁵ and when he died, he was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

13 The Israelites again did what was evil in the LORD's sight, so the LORD handed them over to the Philistines forty years.² There was a certain man from Zorah, from the family of Dan, whose name was Manoah; his wife was unable to conceive and had no children.³ The angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, "It is true that you are unable to conceive and have no children, but you will conceive and give birth to a son.⁴ Now please be careful not to drink wine or beer, or to eat anything unclean;⁵ for indeed, you will conceive and give birth to a son. You must never cut his hair, because the boy will be a Nazirite to God from birth, and he will begin to save Israel from the power of the Philistines."

⁶Then the woman went and told her husband, "A man of God came to me. He looked like the awe-inspiring angel of God. I didn't ask him where he came from, and he didn't tell me his name."⁷ He said to me, "You will conceive and give birth to a son. Therefore, do not drink wine or beer, and do not eat anything unclean, because the boy will be a Nazirite to God from birth until the day of his death."

⁸Manoah prayed to the LORD and said, "Please, Lord, let the man of God you sent come again to us and teach us what we should do for the boy who will be born."

⁹God listened to Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman. She was sitting in the field, and her husband Manoah was not with her.¹⁰ The woman ran quickly to her husband and told him, "The man who came to me the other day has just come back!"

¹¹So Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he asked, "Are you the man who spoke to my wife?"

"I am," he said.

¹²Then Manoah asked, "When your words come true, what will be the boy's responsibilities and work?"

¹³The angel of the LORD answered Manoah, "Your wife needs to do everything I told her.¹⁴ She must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine or drink wine or beer. And she must not eat anything unclean. Your wife must do everything I have commanded her."

¹⁵"Please stay here," Manoah told him, "and we will prepare a young goat for you."

¹⁶The angel of the LORD said to him, "If I stay, I won't eat your food. But if you want to prepare a burnt offering, offer it to the LORD." (Manoah did not know he was the angel of the LORD.)

¹⁷Then Manoah said to him, "What is your name, so that we may honor you when your words come true?"

¹⁸"Why do you ask my name," the angel of the LORD asked him, "since it is beyond understanding."

¹⁹Manoah took a young goat and a grain offering and offered them on a rock to the LORD, who did something miraculous while Manoah and his wife were watching.

²⁰When the flame went up from the altar to the sky, the angel of the LORD went up in its flame. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell facedown on the ground.

²¹The angel of the LORD did not appear again to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah realized that it was the angel of the LORD.

²²"We're certainly going to die," he said to his wife, "because we have seen God!"

²³But his wife said to him, "If the LORD had intended to kill us, he wouldn't have accepted the burnt offering and the grain offering from us, and he would not have shown us all these things or spoken to us like this."

²⁴So the woman gave birth to a son and named him Samson. The boy grew, and the LORD blessed him.²⁵ Then the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him in the Camp of Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

14 Samson went down to Timnah and saw a young Philistine woman there.² He went back and told his father and his mother: "I have seen a young Philistine woman in Timnah. Now get her for me as a wife."

³But his father and mother said to him, "Can't you find a young woman among your relatives or among any of our people? Must you go to the uncircumcised Philistines for a wife?"

But Samson told his father, "Get her for me. She's the right one for me."⁴ Now his father and mother did not know this was from the LORD, who wanted the Philistines to provide an opportunity for a confrontation. At that time, the Philistines were ruling Israel.

⁵Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother and came to the vineyards of Timnah. Suddenly a young lion came roaring at him,⁶ the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully on him, and he tore the lion apart with his bare hands as he might have torn a young goat. But he did not tell his father or mother what he had done.⁷ Then he went and spoke to the woman, because she seemed right to Samson.

⁸After some time, when he returned to marry her, he left the road to see the lion's carcass, and there was a swarm of bees with honey in the carcass.⁹ He scooped some honey into his hands and ate it as he went along. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them and they ate it. But he did not tell them that he had scooped the honey from the lion's carcass.

¹⁰His father went to visit the woman, and Samson prepared a feast there, as young men were accustomed to do.¹¹ When the Philistines saw him, they brought thirty men to accompany him.

¹²"Let me tell you a riddle," Samson said to them. "If you can explain it to me during the seven days of the feast and figure it out, I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothes.¹³ But if you can't explain it to me, you must give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothes."

"Tell us your riddle," they replied. "Let's hear it."

¹⁴So he said to them:

Out of the eater came something to eat,
and out of the strong came something sweet.

After three days, they were unable to explain the riddle. ¹⁵On the fourth day they said to Samson's wife, "Persuade your husband to explain the riddle to us, or we will burn you and your father's family to death. Did you invite us here to rob us?"

¹⁶So Samson's wife came to him, weeping, and said, "You hate me and don't love me! You told my people the riddle, but haven't explained it to me."

"Look," he said, "I haven't even explained it to my father or mother, so why should I explain it to you?"

¹⁷She wept the whole seven days of the feast, and at last, on the seventh day, he explained it to her, because she had nagged him so much. Then she explained it to her people. ¹⁸On the seventh day, before sunset, the men of the city said to him:

What is sweeter than honey?

What is stronger than a lion?

So he said to them:

If you hadn't plowed with my young cow,
you wouldn't know my riddle now!

¹⁹The Spirit of the LORD came powerfully on him, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men. He stripped them and gave their clothes to those who had explained the riddle. In a rage, Samson returned to his father's house, ²⁰and his wife was given to one of the men who had accompanied him.

15 Later on, during the wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat as a gift and visited his wife. "I want to go to my wife in her room," he said. But her father would not let him enter.

³Samson said to them, "This time I will be blameless when I harm the Philistines." ⁴So he went out and caught three hundred foxes. He took torches, turned the foxes tail-to-tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails. ⁵Then he ignited the torches and released the foxes into the standing grain of the Philistines. He burned the piles of grain and the standing grain as well as the vineyards and olive groves.

⁶Then the Philistines asked, "Who did this?"

They were told, "It was Samson, the Timnite's son-in-law, because he took Samson's wife and gave her to his companion." So the Philistines went to her and her father and burned them to death.

⁷Then Samson told them, "Because you did this, I swear that I won't rest until I have taken vengeance on you." ⁸He tore them limb from limb and then went down and stayed in the cave at the rock of Etam.

⁹The Philistines went up, camped in Judah, and raided Lehi. ¹⁰So the men of Judah said, "Why have you attacked us?"

They replied, "We have come to tie Samson up and pay him back for what he did to us."

¹¹Then three thousand men of Judah went to the cave at the rock of Etam, and they asked Samson, "Don't you realize that the Philistines rule us? What have you done to us?"

"I have done to them what they did to me," he answered.

¹²They said to him, "We've come to tie you up and hand you over to the Philistines."

Then Samson told them, "Swear to me that you yourselves won't kill me."

¹³"No," they said, "we won't kill you, but we will tie you up securely and hand you over to them." So they tied him up with two new ropes and led him away from the rock.

¹⁴When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came to meet him shouting. The Spirit of the LORD came powerfully on him, and the ropes that were on his arms and wrists became like burnt flax and fell off. ¹⁵He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand, took it, and killed a thousand men with it. ¹⁶Then Samson said:

With the jawbone of a donkey

I have piled them in heaps.

With the jawbone of a donkey

I have killed a thousand men.

¹⁷When he finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone and named that place Ramath-lehi. ¹⁸He became very thirsty and called out to the LORD: "You have accomplished this great victory through your servant. Must I now die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?"

¹⁹So God split a hollow place in the ground at Lehi, and water came out of it. After Samson drank, his strength returned, and he revived. That is why he named it En-hakkore, which is still in Lehi today. ²⁰And he judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

16 Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a prostitute and went to bed with her. ²When the Gazites heard that Samson was there, they surrounded the place and waited in ambush for him all that night at the city gate. They kept quiet all night, saying, "Let's wait until dawn; then we will kill him." ³But Samson stayed in bed only until midnight. Then he got up, took hold of the doors of the city gate along with the two gateposts, and pulled them out, bar and all. He put them on his shoulders and took them to the top of the mountain overlooking Hebron.

⁴Some time later, he fell in love with a woman named Delilah, who lived in the Sorek Valley. ⁵The Philistine leaders went to her and said, "Persuade him to tell you where his great strength comes from, so we can overpower him, tie him up, and make him helpless. Each of us will then give you 1,100 pieces of silver."

⁶So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me, where does your great strength come from? How could someone tie you up and make you helpless?"

⁷Samson told her, "If they tie me up with seven fresh bowstrings that have not been dried, I will become weak and be like any other man."

⁸The Philistine leaders brought her seven fresh bowstrings that had not been dried, and she tied him up with them. ⁹While the men in ambush were waiting in her room, she called out to him, "Samson, the Philistines are here!" But he snapped the bowstrings as a strand of yarn snaps when it touches fire. The secret of his strength remained unknown.

¹⁰Then Delilah said to Samson, "You have mocked me and told me lies! Won't you please tell me how you can be tied up?"

¹¹He told her, "If they tie me up with new ropes that have never been used, I will become weak and be like any other man."

¹²Delilah took new ropes, tied him up with them, and shouted, "Samson, the Philistines are here!" But while the men in ambush were waiting in her room, he snapped the ropes off his arms like a thread.

¹³Then Delilah said to Samson, "You have mocked me all along and told me lies! Tell me how you can be tied up."

He told her, "If you weave the seven braids on my head into the fabric on a loom —"

¹⁴She fastened the braids with a pin and called to him, "Samson, the Philistines are here!" He awoke from his sleep and pulled out the pin, with the loom and the web.

¹⁵“How can you say, ‘I love you,’” she told him, “when your heart is not with me? This is the third time you have mocked me and not told me what makes your strength so great!”

¹⁶Because she nagged him day after day and pleaded with him until she wore him out,¹⁷ he told her the whole truth and said to her, “My hair has never been cut, because I am a Nazirite to God from birth. If I am shaved, my strength will leave me, and I will become weak and be like any other man.”

¹⁸When Delilah realized that he had told her the whole truth, she sent this message to the Philistine leaders: “Come one more time, for he has told me the whole truth.” The Philistine leaders came to her and brought the silver with them.

¹⁹Then she let him fall asleep on her lap and called a man to shave off the seven braids on his head. In this way, she made him helpless, and his strength left him.²⁰ Then she cried, “Samson, the Philistines are here!” When he awoke from his sleep, he said, “I will escape as I did before and shake myself free.” But he did not know that the LORD had left him.

²¹The Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. They brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze shackles, and he was forced to grind grain in the prison.²² But his hair began to grow back after it had been shaved.

²³Now the Philistine leaders gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon. They rejoiced and said: Our god has handed over our enemy Samson to us.

²⁴When the people saw him, they praised their god and said:

Our god has handed over to us
our enemy who destroyed our land and who multiplied our dead.

²⁵When they were in good spirits, they said, “Bring Samson here to entertain us.” So they brought Samson from prison, and he entertained them. They had him stand between the pillars.

²⁶Samson said to the young man who was leading him by the hand, “Lead me where I can feel the pillars supporting the temple, so I can lean against them.”²⁷ The temple was full of men and women; all the leaders of the Philistines were there, and about three thousand men and women were on the roof watching Samson entertain them.²⁸ He called out to the LORD: “Lord God, please remember me. Strengthen me, God, just once more. With one act of vengeance, let me pay back the Philistines for my two eyes.”²⁹ Samson took hold of the two middle pillars supporting the temple and leaned against them, one on his right hand and the other on his left.³⁰ Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines.” He pushed with all his might, and the temple fell on the leaders and all the people in it. And those he killed at his death were more than those he had killed in his life.

³¹Then his brothers and all his father’s family came down, carried him back, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. So he judged Israel twenty years.

17 There was a man from the hill country of Ephraim named Micah.² He said to his mother, “The 1,100 pieces of silver taken from you, and that I heard you place a curse on—here’s the silver. I took it.”

Then his mother said, “My son, may you be blessed by the LORD!”

³He returned the 1,100 pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother said, “I personally consecrate the silver to the LORD for my son’s benefit to make a carved image and a silver idol. I will give it back to you.”⁴ So he returned the silver to his mother, and she took five pounds of silver and gave it to a silversmith. He made it into a carved image and a silver idol, and it was in Micah’s house.

⁵This man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and household idols, and installed one of his sons to be his priest.⁶ In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did whatever seemed right to him.

⁷There was a young man, a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, who was staying within the clan of Judah.⁸ The man left the town of Bethlehem in Judah to stay wherever he could find a place. On his way he came to Micah’s home in the hill country of Ephraim.

⁹“Where do you come from?” Micah asked him.

He answered him, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I’m going to stay wherever I can find a place.”

¹⁰Micah replied, “Stay with me and be my father and priest, and I will give you four ounces of silver a year, along with your clothing and provisions.” So the Levite went in¹¹ and agreed to stay with the man, and the young man became like one of his sons.¹² Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in Micah’s house.¹³ Then Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, because a Levite has become my priest.”

18 In those days, there was no king in Israel, and the Danite tribe was looking for territory to occupy. Up to that time no territory had been captured by them among the tribes of Israel.² So the Danites sent out five brave men from all their clans, from Zorah and Eshtaol, to scout out the land and explore it. They told them, “Go and explore the land.”

They came to the hill country of Ephraim as far as the home of Micah and spent the night there.³ While they were near Micah’s home, they recognized the accent of the young Levite. So they went over to him and asked, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is keeping you here?”⁴ He told them, “This is what Micah has done for me: He has hired me, and I became his priest.”

⁵Then they said to him, “Please inquire of God for us to determine if we will have a successful journey.”

⁶The priest told them, “Go in peace. The LORD is watching over the journey you are going on.”

⁷The five men left and came to Laish. They saw that the people who were there were living securely, in the same way as the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting. There was nothing lacking in the land and no oppressive ruler. They were far from the Sidonians, having no alliance with anyone.

⁸When the men went back to their relatives at Zorah and Eshtaol, their relatives asked them, “What did you find out?”

¹⁰When you get there, you will come to an unsuspecting people and a spacious land, for God has handed it over to you. It is a place where nothing on earth is lacking.”¹¹ Six hundred Danites departed from Zorah and Eshtaol armed with weapons of war.¹² They went up and camped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. This is why the place is still called the Camp of Dan today; it is west of Kiriath-jearim.¹³ From there they traveled to the hill country of Ephraim and arrived at Micah’s house.

¹⁴The five men who had gone to scout out the land of Laish told their brothers, "Did you know that there are an ephod, household gods, and a carved image and a silver idol in these houses? Now think about what you should do."¹⁵ So they detoured there and went to the house of the young Levite at the home of Micah and greeted him.¹⁶ The six hundred Danite men were standing by the entrance of the city gate, armed with their weapons of war.¹⁷ Then the five men who had gone to scout out the land went in and took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the silver idol, while the priest was standing by the entrance of the city gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.

¹⁹They told him, "Be quiet. Keep your mouth shut. Come with us and be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest for the house of one person or for you to be a priest for a tribe and family in Israel?"²⁰ So the priest was pleased and took his ephod, household idols, and carved image, and went with the people.²¹ They prepared to leave, putting their dependents, livestock, and possessions in front of them.

²²After they were some distance from Micah's house, the men who were in the houses near it were mustered and caught up with the Danites.²³ They called to the Danites, who turned to face them, and said to Micah, "What's the matter with you that you mustered the men?"

²⁴He said, "You took the gods I had made and the priest, and went away. What do I have left? How can you say to me, 'What's the matter with you?'"

²⁵The Danites said to him, "Don't raise your voice against us, or angry men will attack you, and you and your family will lose your lives."²⁶ The Danites went on their way, and Micah turned to go back home, because he saw that they were stronger than he was.

²⁷After they had taken the gods Micah had made and the priest that belonged to him, they went to Laish, to a quiet and unsuspecting people. They killed them with their swords and burned the city.²⁸ There was no one to rescue them because it was far from Sidon and they had no alliance with anyone. It was in a valley that belonged to Beth-rehob. They rebuilt the city and lived in it.²⁹ They named the city Dan, after the name of their ancestor Dan, who was born to Israel. The city was formerly named Laish.

³⁰The Danites set up the carved image for themselves. Jonathan son of Gershom, son of Moses, and his sons were priests for the Danite tribe until the time of the exile from the land.³¹ So they set up for themselves Micah's carved image that he had made, and it was there as long as the house of God was in Shiloh.

19 In those days, when there was no king in Israel, a Levite staying in a remote part of the hill country of Ephraim acquired a woman from Bethlehem in Judah as his concubine.² But she was unfaithful to him and left him for her father's house in Bethlehem in Judah. She was there for four months.³ Then her husband got up and followed her to speak kindly to her and bring her back. He had his servant with him and a pair of donkeys. So she brought him to her father's house, and when the girl's father saw him, he gladly welcomed him.⁴ His father-in-law, the girl's father, detained him, and he stayed with him for three days. They ate, drank, and spent the nights there.

⁵On the fourth day, they got up early in the morning and prepared to go, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Have something to eat to keep up your strength and then you can go."⁶ So they sat down and the two of them ate and drank together. Then the girl's father said to the man, "Please agree to stay overnight and enjoy yourself."⁷ The man got up to go, but his father-in-law persuaded him, so he stayed and spent the night there again.⁸ He got up early in the morning of the fifth day to leave, but the girl's father said to him, "Please keep up your strength." So they waited until late afternoon and the two of them ate.⁹ The man got up to go with his concubine and his servant, when his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Look, night is coming. Please spend the night. See, the day is almost over. Spend the night here, enjoy yourself, then you can get up early tomorrow for your journey and go home."

¹⁰But the man was unwilling to spend the night. He got up, departed, and arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). The man had his two saddled donkeys and his concubine with him.¹¹ When they were near Jebus and the day was almost gone, the servant said to his master, "Please, why not let us stop at this Jebusite city and spend the night here?"

¹²But his master replied to him, "We will not stop at a foreign city where there are no Israelites. Let's move on to Gibeah."¹³ "Come on," he said, "let's try to reach one of these places and spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah."¹⁴ So they continued on their journey, and the sun set as they neared Gibeah in Benjamin.¹⁵ They stopped to go in and spend the night in Gibeah. The Levite went in and sat down in the city square, but no one took them into their home to spend the night.

¹⁶In the evening, an old man came in from his work in the field. He was from the hill country of Ephraim, but he was residing in Gibeah where the people were Benjaminites.¹⁷ When he looked up and saw the traveler in the city square, the old man asked, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

¹⁸He answered him, "We're traveling from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote hill country of Ephraim, where I am from. I went to Bethlehem in Judah, and now I'm going to the house of the Lord. No one has taken me into his home, although there's straw and feed for the donkeys, and I have bread and wine for me, my concubine, and the servant with us. There is nothing we lack."

²⁰"Welcome!" said the old man. "I'll take care of everything you need. Only don't spend the night in the square."²¹ So he brought him to his house and fed the donkeys. Then they washed their feet and ate and drank.²² While they were enjoying themselves, all of a sudden, wicked men of the city surrounded the house and beat on the door. They said to the old man who was the owner of the house, "Bring out the man who came to your house so we can have sex with him!"

²³The owner of the house went out and said to them, "Please don't do this evil, my brothers. After all, this man has come into my house. Don't commit this horrible outrage."²⁴ Here, let me bring out my virgin daughter and the man's concubine now. Abuse them and do whatever you want to them. But don't commit this outrageous thing against this man."

²⁵But the men would not listen to him, so the man seized his concubine and took her outside to them. They raped her and abused her all night until morning. At daybreak they let her go.²⁶ Early that morning, the woman made her way back, and as it was getting light, she collapsed at the doorway of the man's house where her master was.

²⁷When her master got up in the morning, opened the doors of the house, and went out to leave on his journey, there was the woman, his concubine, collapsed near the doorway of the house with her hands on the threshold. ²⁸"Get up," he told her. "Let's go." But there was no response. So the man put her on his donkey and set out for home.

²⁹When he entered his house, he picked up a knife, took hold of his concubine, cut her into twelve pieces, limb by limb, and then sent her throughout the territory of Israel. ³⁰Everyone who saw it said, "Nothing like this has ever happened or has been seen since the day the Israelites came out of the land of Egypt until now. Think it over, discuss it, and speak up!"

20 All the Israelites from Dan to Beer-sheba and from the land of Gilead came out, and the community assembled as one body before the LORD at Mizpah. ²The leaders of all the people and of all the tribes of Israel presented themselves in the assembly of God's people: four hundred thousand armed foot soldiers. ³The Benjaminites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah.

The Israelites asked, "Tell us, how did this evil act happen?"

⁴The Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered: "I went to Gibeah in Benjamin with my concubine to spend the night. ⁵Citizens of Gibeah came to attack me and surrounded the house at night. They intended to kill me, but they raped my concubine, and she died. ⁶Then I took my concubine and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout Israel's territory, because they have committed a wicked outrage in Israel. ⁷Look, all of you are Israelites. Give your judgment and verdict here and now."

⁸Then all the people stood united and said, "None of us will go to his tent or return to his house. ⁹Now this is what we will do to Gibeah: we will attack it. By lot ¹⁰we will take ten men out of every hundred from all the tribes of Israel, and one hundred out of every thousand, and one thousand out of every ten thousand to get provisions for the troops when they go to Gibeah in Benjamin to punish them for all the outrage they committed in Israel."

¹¹So all the men of Israel gathered united against the city. ¹²Then the tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What is this evil act that has happened among you? ¹³Hand over the wicked men in Gibeah so we can put them to death and eradicate evil from Israel." But the Benjaminites would not listen to their fellow Israelites. ¹⁴Instead, the Benjaminites gathered together from their cities to Gibeah to go out and fight against the Israelites. ¹⁵On that day the Benjaminites mobilized twenty-six thousand armed men from their cities, besides seven hundred fit young men rallied by the inhabitants of Gibeah. ¹⁶There were seven hundred fit young men who were left-handed among all these troops; all could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

¹⁷The Israelites, apart from Benjamin, mobilized four hundred thousand armed men, every one an experienced warrior. ¹⁸They set out, went to Bethel, and inquired of God. The Israelites asked, "Who is to go first to fight for us against the Benjaminites?"

And the LORD answered, "Judah will be first."

¹⁹In the morning, the Israelites set out and camped near Gibeah. ²⁰The men of Israel went out to fight against Benjamin and took their battle positions against Gibeah.

²¹The Benjaminites came out of Gibeah and slaughtered twenty-two thousand men of Israel on the field that day. ²²But the Israelite troops rallied and again took their battle positions in the same place where they positioned themselves on the first day. ²³They went up, wept before the LORD until evening, and inquired of him: "Should we again attack our brothers the Benjaminites?"

And the LORD answered: "Fight against them."

²⁴On the second day the Israelites advanced against the Benjaminites. ²⁵That same day the Benjaminites came out from Gibeah to meet them and slaughtered an additional eighteen thousand Israelites on the field; all were armed.

²⁶The whole Israelite army went to Bethel where they wept and sat before the LORD. They fasted that day until evening and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the LORD. ²⁷Then the Israelites inquired of the LORD. In those days, the ark of the covenant of God was there, ²⁸and Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, was serving before it. The Israelites asked: "Should we again fight against our brothers the Benjaminites or should we stop?"

The LORD answered: "Fight, because I will hand them over to you tomorrow." ²⁹So Israel set up an ambush around Gibeah. ³⁰On the third day the Israelites fought against the Benjaminites and took their battle positions against Gibeah as before. ³¹Then the Benjaminites came out against the troops and were drawn away from the city. They began to attack the troops as before, killing about thirty men of Israel on the highways, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah through the open country. ³²The Benjaminites said, "We are defeating them as before."

But the Israelites said, "Let's flee and draw them away from the city to the highways." ³³So all the men of Israel got up from their places and took their battle positions at Baal-tamar, while the Israelites in ambush charged out of their places west of Geba. ³⁴Then ten thousand fit young men from all Israel made a frontal assault against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce, but the Benjaminites did not know that disaster was about to strike them. ³⁵The LORD defeated Benjamin in the presence of Israel, and on that day the Israelites slaughtered 25,100 men of Benjamin; all were armed. ³⁶Then the Benjaminites realized they had been defeated.

The men of Israel had retreated before Benjamin, because they were confident in the ambush they had set against Gibeah. ³⁷The men in ambush had rushed quickly against Gibeah; they advanced and put the whole city to the sword. ³⁸The men of Israel had a prearranged signal with the men in ambush: when they sent up a great cloud of smoke from the city, ³⁹the men of Israel would return to the battle. When Benjamin had begun to strike them down, killing about thirty men of Israel, they said, "They're defeated before us, just as they were in the first battle." ⁴⁰But when the column of smoke began to go up from the city, Benjamin looked behind them, and the whole city was going up in smoke. ⁴¹Then the men of Israel returned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified when they realized that disaster had struck them. ⁴²They retreated before the men of Israel toward the wilderness, but the battle overtook them, and those who came out of the cities slaughtered those between them. ⁴³They surrounded the Benjaminites, pursued them, and easily overtook them near Gibeah toward the east. ⁴⁴There were eighteen thousand men who died from Benjamin; all were warriors. ⁴⁵Then Benjamin turned and fled toward the wilderness to Rimmon Rock, and Israel killed five thousand men on the highways. They overtook them at Gidom and struck two thousand more dead.

⁴⁶All the Benjaminites who died that day were twenty-five thousand armed men; all were warriors. ⁴⁷But six hundred men escaped into the wilderness to Rimmon Rock and stayed there four months. ⁴⁸The men of Israel turned back against the other Benjaminites and killed them with their swords — the entire city, the animals, and everything that remained. They also burned all the cities that remained.

21 The men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah: “None of us will give his daughter to a Benjaminite in marriage.” ² So the people went to Bethel and sat there before God until evening. They wept loudly and bitterly, ³ and cried out, “Why, LORD God of Israel, has it occurred that one tribe is missing in Israel today?” ⁴ The next day the people got up early, built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. ⁵ The Israelites asked, “Who of all the tribes of Israel didn’t come to the LORD with the assembly?” For a great oath had been taken that anyone who had not come to the LORD at Mizpah would certainly be put to death.

⁶ But the Israelites had compassion on their brothers, the Benjaminites, and said, “Today a tribe has been cut off from Israel. ⁷ What should we do about wives for the survivors? We’ve sworn to the LORD not to give them any of our daughters as wives.” ⁸ They asked, “Which city among the tribes of Israel didn’t come to the LORD at Mizpah?” It turned out that no one from Jabesh-gilead had come to the camp and the assembly. ⁹ For when the roll was called, no men were there from the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead.

¹⁰ The congregation sent twelve thousand brave warriors there and commanded them: “Go and kill the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the sword, including women and dependents.” ¹¹ This is what you should do: Completely destroy every male, as well as every woman who has gone to bed with a man. ¹² They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins, who had not gone to bed with a man, and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh in the land of Canaan.

¹³ The whole congregation sent a message of peace to the Benjaminites who were at Rimmon Rock. ¹⁴ Benjamin returned at that time, and Israel gave them the women they had kept alive from Jabesh-gilead. But there were not enough for them.

¹⁵ The people had compassion on Benjamin, because the LORD had made this gap in the tribes of Israel. ¹⁶ The elders of the congregation said, “What should we do about wives for those who are left, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?” ¹⁷ They said, “There must be heirs for the survivors of Benjamin, so that a tribe of Israel will not be wiped out. ¹⁸ But we can’t give them our daughters as wives.” For the Israelites had sworn, “Anyone who gives a wife to a Benjaminite is cursed.” ¹⁹ They also said, “Look, there’s an annual festival to the LORD in Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.”

²⁵ In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did whatever seemed right to him.

RUTH

1 During the time of the judges, there was a famine in the land. A man left Bethlehem in Judah with his wife and two sons to stay in the territory of Moab for a while. ²The man's name was Elimelech, and his wife's name was Naomi. The names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They entered the fields of Moab and settled there. ³Naomi's husband Elimelech died, and she was left with her two sons. ⁴Her sons took Moabite women as their wives: one was named Orpah and the second was named Ruth. After they lived in Moab about ten years, ⁵both Mahlon and Chilion also died, and Naomi was left without her two children and without her husband.

⁶She and her daughters-in-law set out to return from the territory of Moab, because she had heard in Moab that the LORD had paid attention to his people's need by providing them food. ⁷She left the place where she had been living, accompanied by her two daughters-in-law, and traveled along the road leading back to the land of Judah.

⁸Naomi said to them, "Each of you go back to your mother's home. May the LORD show kindness to you as you have shown to the dead and to me. ⁹May the LORD grant each of you rest in the house of a new husband." She kissed them, and they wept loudly.

¹⁰They said to her, "We insist on returning with you to your people."

¹¹But Naomi replied, "Return home, my daughters. Why do you want to go with me? Am I able to have any more sons who could become your husbands? ¹²Return home, my daughters. Go on, for I am too old to have another husband. Even if I thought there was still hope for me to have a husband tonight and to bear sons, ¹³would you be willing to wait for them to grow up? Would you restrain yourselves from remarrying? No, my daughters, my life is much too bitter for you to share, because the LORD's hand has turned against me." ¹⁴Again they wept loudly, and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her. ¹⁵Naomi said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods. Follow your sister-in-law."

¹⁶But Ruth replied:

Don't plead with me to abandon you or to return and not follow you.
For wherever you go, I will go,
and wherever you live, I will live;
your people will be my people,
and your God will be my God.

¹⁷ Where you die, I will die,
and there I will be buried.
May the LORD punish me,
and do so severely,
if anything but death separates you and me.

¹⁸When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped talking to her.

¹⁹The two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. When they entered Bethlehem, the whole town was excited about their arrival and the local women exclaimed, "Can this be Naomi?"

²⁰"Don't call me Naomi. Call me Mara," she answered, "for the Almighty has made me very bitter. ²¹I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has opposed me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"

²²So Naomi came back from the territory of Moab with her daughter-in-law Ruth the Moabitess. They arrived in Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

2 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband's side. He was a prominent man of noble character from Elimelech's family. His name was Boaz.

²Ruth the Moabitess asked Naomi, "Will you let me go into the fields and gather fallen grain behind someone with whom I find favor?"

Naomi answered her, "Go ahead, my daughter." ³So Ruth left and entered the field to gather grain behind the harvesters. She happened to be in the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.

⁴Later, when Boaz arrived from Bethlehem, he said to the harvesters, "The LORD be with you."

"The LORD bless you," they replied.

⁵Boaz asked his servant who was in charge of the harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"

⁶The servant answered, "She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the territory of Moab. ⁷She asked, 'Will you let me gather fallen grain among the bundles behind the harvesters?' She came and has been on her feet since early morning, except that she rested a little in the shelter."

⁸Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter. Don't go and gather grain in another field, and don't leave this one, but stay here close to my female servants. ⁹See which field they are harvesting, and follow them. Haven't I ordered the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, go and drink from the jars the young men have filled."

¹⁰She fell facedown, bowed to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor with you, so that you notice me, although I am a foreigner?"

¹¹Boaz answered her, "Everything you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband's death has been fully reported to me: how you left your father and mother and your native land, and how you came to a people you didn't previously know. ¹²May the LORD reward you for what you have done, and may you receive a full reward from the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge."

¹³"My lord," she said, "I have found favor with you, for you have comforted and encouraged your servant, although I am not like one of your female servants."

¹⁴At mealtime Boaz told her, "Come over here and have some bread and dip it in the vinegar sauce." So she sat beside the harvesters, and he offered her roasted grain. She ate and was satisfied and had some left over.

¹⁵When she got up to gather grain, Boaz ordered his young men, "Let her even gather grain among the bundles, and don't humiliate her. ¹⁶Pull out some stalks from the bundles for her and leave them for her to gather. Don't rebuke her." ¹⁷So Ruth gathered grain in the field until evening. She beat out what she had gathered, and it was about twenty-six quarts of barley. ¹⁸She picked up the grain and went into the town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. She brought out what she had left over from her meal and gave it to her.

¹⁹ Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you gather barley today, and where did you work? May the LORD bless the man who noticed you."

Ruth told her mother-in-law whom she had worked with and said, "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz."

²¹ Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also told me, 'Stay with my young men until they have finished all of my harvest.'"

²² So Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, "My daughter, it is good for you to work with his female servants, so that nothing will happen to you in another field."

3 Ruth's mother-in-law Naomi said to her, "My daughter, shouldn't I find rest for you, so that you will be taken care of? ² Now isn't Boaz our relative? Haven't you been working with his female servants? This evening he will be winnowing barley on the threshing floor. ³ Wash, put on perfumed oil, and wear your best clothes. Go down to the threshing floor, but don't let the man know you are there until he has finished eating and drinking. ⁴ When he lies down, notice the place where he's lying, go in and uncover his feet, and lie down. Then he will explain to you what you should do."

⁵ So Ruth said to her, "I will do everything you say." ⁶ She went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law had charged her to do. ⁷ After Boaz ate, drank, and was in good spirits, he went to lie down at the end of the pile of barley, and she came secretly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.

⁸ At midnight, Boaz was startled, turned over, and there lying at his feet was a woman! ⁹ So he asked, "Who are you?"

"I am Ruth, your servant," she replied. "Take me under your wing, for you are a family redeemer."

¹⁰ Then he said, "May the LORD bless you, my daughter. You have shown more kindness now than before, because you have not pursued younger men, whether rich or poor."

¹¹ Now don't be afraid, my daughter. I will do for you whatever you say, since all the people in my town know that you are a woman of noble character. ¹² Yes, it is true that I am a family redeemer, but there is a redeemer closer than I am. ¹³ Stay here tonight, and in the morning, if he wants to redeem you, that's good. Let him redeem you. But if he doesn't want to redeem you, as the LORD lives, I will. Now lie down until morning."

¹⁴ So she lay down at his feet until morning but got up while it was still dark. Then Boaz said, "Don't let it be known that a woman came to the threshing floor." ¹⁵ And he told Ruth, "Bring the shawl you're wearing and hold it out." When she held it out, he shoveled six measures of barley into her shawl, and she went into the town.

¹⁶ She went to her mother-in-law, Naomi, who asked her, "What happened, my daughter?"

Then Ruth told her everything the man had done for her. ¹⁷ She said, "He gave me these six measures of barley, because he said, 'Don't go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.'"

¹⁸ Naomi said, "My daughter, wait until you find out how things go, for he won't rest unless he resolves this today."

4 Boaz went to the gate of the town and sat down there. Soon the family redeemer Boaz had spoken about came by. Boaz said, "Come over here and sit down." So he went over and sat down. ² Then Boaz took ten men of the town's elders and said, "Sit here." And they sat down. ³ He said to the redeemer, "Naomi, who has returned from the territory of Moab, is selling the portion of the field that belonged to our brother Elimelech. ⁴ I thought I should inform you: Buy it back in the presence of those seated here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you want to redeem it, do it. But if you do not want to redeem it, tell me so that I will know, because there isn't anyone other than you to redeem it, and I am next after you."

"I want to redeem it," he answered.

⁵ Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the field from Naomi, you will acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the deceased man, to perpetuate the man's name on his property."

⁶ The redeemer replied, "I can't redeem it myself, or I will ruin my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption, because I can't redeem it."

⁸ So the redeemer removed his sandal and said to Boaz, "Buy back the property yourself."

⁹ Boaz said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses today that I am buying from Naomi everything that belonged to Elimelech, Chilion, and Mahlon. ¹⁰ I have also acquired Ruth the Moabitess, Mahlon's widow, as my wife, to perpetuate the deceased man's name on his property, so that his name will not disappear among his relatives or from the gate of his hometown. You are witnesses today."

¹¹ All the people who were at the city gate, including the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is entering your house like Rachel and Leah, who together built the house of Israel. May you be powerful in Ephrathah and your name well known in Bethlehem. ¹² May your house become like the house of Perez, the son Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring the LORD will give you by this young woman."

¹³ Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. He slept with her, and the LORD granted conception to her, and she gave birth to a son. ¹⁴ The women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you without a family redeemer today. May his name become well known in Israel. ¹⁵ He will renew your life and sustain you in your old age. Indeed, your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him." ¹⁶ Naomi took the child, placed him on her lap, and became his nanny. ¹⁷ The neighbor women said, "A son has been born to Naomi," and they named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

¹⁸ Now these are the family records of Perez:

Perez fathered Hezron,

¹⁹ Hezron fathered Ram,

Ram fathered Amminadab,

²⁰ Amminadab fathered Nahshon,

Nahshon fathered Salmon,

²¹ Salmon fathered Boaz,

Boaz fathered Obed,

²² Obed fathered Jesse,

and Jesse fathered David.

1 SAMUEL

1 There was a man from Ramathaim-zophim in the hill country of Ephraim. His name was Elkanah son of Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. ² He had two wives, the first named Hannah and the second Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah was childless. ³ This man would go up from his town every year to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of Armies at Shiloh, where Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were the LORD's priests.

⁴ Whenever Elkanah offered a sacrifice, he always gave portions of the meat to his wife Peninnah and to each of her sons and daughters. ⁵ But he gave a double portion to Hannah, for he loved her even though the LORD had kept her from conceiving. ⁶ Her rival would taunt her severely just to provoke her, because the LORD had kept Hannah from conceiving. ⁷ Year after year, when she went up to the LORD's house, her rival taunted her in this way. Hannah would weep and would not eat. ⁸ "Hannah, why are you crying? " her husband Elkanah would ask. "Why won't you eat? Why are you troubled? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

¹⁵ "No, my lord," Hannah replied. "I am a woman with a broken heart. I haven't had any wine or beer; I've been pouring out my heart before the LORD. ¹⁶ Don't think of me as a wicked woman; I've been praying from the depth of my anguish and resentment."

¹⁷ Eli responded, "Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant the request you've made of him."

¹⁸ "May your servant find favor with you," she replied. Then Hannah went on her way; she ate and no longer looked despondent.

¹⁹ The next morning Elkanah and Hannah got up early to worship before the LORD. Afterward, they returned home to Ramah. Then Elkanah was intimate with his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. ²⁰ After some time, Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, because she said, "I requested him from the LORD."

²¹ When Elkanah and all his household went up to make the annual sacrifice and his vow offering to the LORD, ²² Hannah did not go and explained to her husband, "After the child is weaned, I'll take him to appear in the LORD's presence and to stay there permanently."

²³ Her husband Elkanah replied, "Do what you think is best, and stay here until you've weaned him. May the LORD confirm your word." So Hannah stayed there and nursed her son until she weaned him. ²⁴ When she had weaned him, she took him with her to Shiloh, as well as a three-year-old bull, half a bushel of flour, and a clay jar of wine. Though the boy was still young, she took him to the LORD's house at Shiloh. ²⁵ Then they slaughtered the bull and brought the boy to Eli.

²⁶ "Please, my lord," she said, "as surely as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you praying to the LORD. ²⁷ I prayed for this boy, and since the LORD gave me what I asked him for, ²⁸ I now give the boy to the LORD. For as long as he lives, he is given to the LORD." Then he worshiped the LORD there.

2 Hannah prayed:

- My heart rejoices in the LORD;
my horn is lifted up by the LORD.
My mouth boasts over my enemies,
because I rejoice in your salvation.
- ² There is no one holy like the LORD.
There is no one besides you!
And there is no rock like our God.
- ³ Do not boast so proudly,
or let arrogant words come out of your mouth,
for the LORD is a God of knowledge,
and actions are weighed by him.
- ⁴ The bows of the warriors are broken,
but the feeble are clothed with strength.
- ⁵ Those who are full hire themselves out for food,
but those who are starving hunger no more.
The woman who is childless gives birth to seven,
but the woman with many sons pines away.
- ⁶ The LORD brings death and gives life;
he sends some down to Sheol, and he raises others up.
- ⁷ The LORD brings poverty and gives wealth;
he humbles and he exalts.
- ⁸ He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the trash heap.
He seats them with noblemen
and gives them a throne of honor.
For the foundations of the earth are the LORD's;
he has set the world on them.
- ⁹ He guards the steps of his faithful ones,
but the wicked perish in darkness, for a person does not prevail by his own strength.
- ¹⁰ Those who oppose the LORD will be shattered;
he will thunder in the heavens against them.
The LORD will judge the ends of the earth.
He will give power to his king;
he will lift up the horn of his anointed.

¹¹ Elkanah went home to Ramah, but the boy served the LORD in the presence of the priest Eli.

some meat to roast, because he won't accept boiled meat from you — only raw." ¹⁶If that person said to him, "The fat must be burned first; then you can take whatever you want for yourself," the servant would reply, "No, I insist that you hand it over right now. If you don't, I'll take it by force!" ¹⁷So the servants' sin was very severe in the presence of the LORD, because the men treated the LORD's offering with contempt.

¹⁸Samuel served in the LORD's presence—this mere boy was dressed in the linen ephod. ¹⁹Each year his mother made him a little robe and took it to him when she went with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice. ²⁰Eli would bless Elikanah and his wife: "May the LORD give you children by this woman in place of the one she has given to the LORD." Then they would go home.

²²Now Eli was very old. He heard about everything his sons were doing to all Israel and how they were sleeping with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ²³He said to them, "Why are you doing these things? I have heard about your evil actions from all these people. ²⁴No, my sons, the news I hear the LORD's people spreading is not good. ²⁵If one person sins against another, God can intercede for him, but if a person sins against the LORD, who can intercede for him?" But they would not listen to their father, since the LORD intended to kill them. ²⁶By contrast, the boy Samuel grew in stature and in favor with the LORD and with people.

²⁷A man of God came to Eli and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Didn't I reveal myself to your forefather's family when they were in Egypt and belonged to Pharaoh's palace?' ²⁸Out of all the tribes of Israel, I chose your house to be my priests, to offer sacrifices on my altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod in my presence. I also gave your forefather's family all the Israelite fire offerings. ²⁹Why, then, do all of you despise my sacrifices and offerings that I require at the place of worship? You have honored your sons more than me, by making yourselves fat with the best part of all of the offerings of my people Israel.'

³⁰Therefore, this is the declaration of the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I did say that your family and your forefather's family would walk before me forever. But now,' this is the LORD's declaration, 'no longer! For those who honor me I will honor, but those who despise me will be disgraced. ³¹Look, the days are coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your forefather's house, so that none in your family will reach old age. ³²You will see distress in the place of worship, in spite of all that is good in Israel, and no one in your family will ever again reach old age. ³³Any man from your family I do not cut off from my altar will bring grief and sadness to you. All your descendants will die violently. ³⁴This will be the sign that will come to you concerning your two sons Hophni and Phinehas: both of them will die on the same day.

³⁵"Then I will raise up a faithful priest for myself. He will do whatever is in my heart and mind. I will establish a lasting dynasty for him, and he will walk before my anointed one for all time. ³⁶Anyone who is left in your family will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver or a loaf of bread. He will say: Please appoint me to some priestly office so I can have a piece of bread to eat."

3 The boy Samuel served the LORD in Eli's presence. In those days the word of the LORD was rare and prophetic visions were not widespread.

²One day Eli, whose eyesight was failing, was lying in his usual place. ³Before the lamp of God had gone out, Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was located.

⁴Then the LORD called Samuel, and he answered, "Here I am." ⁵He ran to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." "I didn't call," Eli replied. "Go back and lie down." So he went and lay down.

⁶Once again the LORD called, "Samuel!" Samuel got up, went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; you called me."

"I didn't call, my son," he replied. "Go back and lie down." ⁷Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, because the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. ⁸Once again, for the third time, the LORD called Samuel. He got up, went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; you called me."

Then Eli understood that the LORD was calling the boy. ⁹He told Samuel, "Go and lie down. If he calls you, say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

¹⁰The LORD came, stood there, and called as before, "Samuel, Samuel!"

Samuel responded, "Speak, for your servant is listening." ¹¹The LORD said to Samuel, "I am about to do something in Israel that everyone who hears about it will shudder. ¹²On that day I will carry out against Eli everything I said about his family, from beginning to end. ¹³I told him that I am going to judge his family forever because of the iniquity he knows about: his sons are cursing God, and he has not stopped them. ¹⁴Therefore, I have sworn to Eli's family: The iniquity of Eli's family will never be wiped out by either sacrifice or offering."

¹⁵Samuel lay down until the morning; then he opened the doors of the LORD's house. He was afraid to tell Eli the vision, ¹⁶but Eli called him and said, "Samuel, my son."

"Here I am," answered Samuel. ¹⁷"What was the message he gave you?" Eli asked. "Don't hide it from me. May God punish you and do so severely if you hide anything from me that he told you." ¹⁸So Samuel told him everything and did not hide anything from him. Eli responded, "He is the LORD. Let him do what he thinks is good."

¹⁹Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and he fulfilled everything Samuel prophesied. ²⁰All Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a confirmed prophet of the LORD. ²¹The LORD continued to appear in Shiloh, because there he revealed himself to revealed himself 4 to Samuel by his word. ¹And Samuel's words came to all Israel.

Israel went out to meet the Philistines in battle and camped at Ebenezer while the Philistines camped at Aphek. ²The Philistines lined up in battle formation against Israel, and as the battle intensified, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who struck down about four thousand men on the battlefield.

³When the troops returned to the camp, the elders of Israel asked, "Why did the LORD defeat us today before the Philistines? Let's bring the ark of the LORD's covenant from Shiloh. Then it will go with us and save us from our enemies." ⁴So the people sent men to Shiloh to bring back the ark of the covenant of the LORD of Armies, who is enthroned between the cherubim. Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. ⁵When the ark of the covenant of the LORD entered the camp, all the Israelites raised such a loud shout that the ground shook.

⁶The Philistines heard the sound of the war cry and asked, "What's this loud shout in the Hebrews' camp?" When the Philistines discovered that the ark of the LORD had entered the camp, ⁷they panicked. "A god has entered their camp!" they said. "Woe to us, nothing like this has happened before. ⁸Woe to us, who will rescue us from these magnificent gods? These are the gods that slaughtered the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. ⁹Show some courage and be men, Philistines! Otherwise, you'll serve the Hebrews just as they served you. Now be men and fight!"

¹⁰So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and each man fled to his tent. The slaughter was severe — thirty thousand of the Israelite foot soldiers fell. ¹¹The ark of God was captured, and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

¹²That same day, a Benjaminite man ran from the battle and came to Shiloh. His clothes were torn, and there was dirt on his head. ¹³When he arrived, there was Eli sitting on his chair beside the road watching, because he was anxious about the ark of God. When the man entered the city to give a report, the entire city cried out.

¹⁴Eli heard the outcry and asked, "Why this commotion?" The man quickly came and reported to Eli. ¹⁵At that time Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes didn't move because he couldn't see.

¹⁶The man said to Eli, "I'm the one who came from the battle. I fled from there today."

"What happened, my son?" Eli asked.

¹⁷The messenger answered, "Israel has fled from the Philistines, and also there was a great slaughter among the people. Your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are both dead, and the ark of God has been captured." ¹⁸When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backward off the chair by the city gate, and since he was old and heavy, his neck broke and he died. Eli had judged Israel forty years.

¹⁹Eli's daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and about to give birth. When she heard the news about the capture of God's ark and the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband, she collapsed and gave birth because her labor pains came on her. ²⁰As she was dying, the women taking care of her said, "Don't be afraid. You've given birth to a son!" But she did not respond or pay attention. ²¹She named the boy Ichabod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel," referring to the capture of the ark of God and to the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband. ²²"The glory has departed from Israel," she said, "because the ark of God has been captured."

5 After the Philistines had captured the ark of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod, ²and brought it into the temple of Dagon and placed it next to his statue. ³When the people of Ashdod got up early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen with his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and returned him to his place. ⁴But when they got up early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen with his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. This time, Dagon's head and both of his hands were broken off and lying on the threshold. Only Dagon's torso remained. ⁵That is why, still today, the priests of Dagon and everyone who enters the temple of Dagon in Ashdod do not step on Dagon's threshold.

⁶The LORD's hand was heavy on the people of Ashdod. He terrified the people of Ashdod and its territory and afflicted them with tumors. ⁷When the people of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, "The ark of Israel's God must not stay here with us, because his hand is strongly against us and our god Dagon." ⁸So they called all the Philistine rulers together and asked, "What should we do with the ark of Israel's God?"

"The ark of Israel's God should be moved to Gath," they replied. So they moved the ark of Israel's God. ⁹After they had moved it, the LORD's hand was against the city of Gath, causing a great panic. He afflicted the people of the city, from the youngest to the oldest, with an outbreak of tumors.

¹⁰The people of Gath then sent the ark of God to Ekron, but when it got there, the Ekronites cried out, "They've moved the ark of Israel's God to us to kill us and our people!"

¹¹The Ekronites called all the Philistine rulers together. They said, "Send the ark of Israel's God away. Let it return to its place so it won't kill us and our people!" For the fear of death pervaded the city; God's hand was oppressing them. ¹²Those who did not die were afflicted with tumors, and the outcry of the city went up to heaven.

6 When the ark of the LORD had been in Philistine territory for seven months, ²the Philistines summoned the priests and the diviners and pleaded, "What should we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we can send it back to its place."

³They replied, "If you send the ark of Israel's God away, do not send it without an offering. Send back a guilt offering to him, and you will be healed. Then the reason his hand hasn't been removed from you will be revealed."

⁴They asked, "What guilt offering should we send back to him?"

And they answered, "Five gold tumors and five gold mice corresponding to the number of Philistine rulers, since there was one plague for both you and your rulers. ⁵Make images of your tumors and of your mice that are destroying the land. Give glory to Israel's God, and perhaps he will stop oppressing you, your gods, and your land. ⁶Why harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened theirs? When he afflicted them, didn't they send Israel away, and Israel left?"

⁷Now then, prepare one new cart and two milk cows that have never been yoked. Hitch the cows to the cart, but take their calves away and pen them up. ⁸Take the ark of the LORD, place it on the cart, and put the gold objects that you're sending him as a guilt offering in a box beside the ark. Send it off and let it go its way. ⁹Then watch: If it goes up the road to its homeland toward Beth-shemesh, it is the LORD who has made this terrible trouble for us. However, if it doesn't, we will know that it was not his hand that punished us — it was just something that happened to us by chance."

¹⁰The men did this: They took two milk cows, hitched them to the cart, and confined their calves in the pen. ¹¹Then they put the ark of the LORD on the cart, along with the box containing the gold mice and the images of their tumors. ¹²The cows went straight up the road to Beth-shemesh. They stayed on that one highway, lowing as they went; they never strayed to the right or to the left. The Philistine rulers were walking behind them to the territory of Beth-shemesh.

¹³The people of Beth-shemesh were harvesting wheat in the valley, and when they looked up and saw the ark, they were overjoyed to see it. ¹⁴The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh and stopped there near a large rock. The people of the city chopped up the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. ¹⁵The Levites removed the ark of the LORD, along with the box containing the gold objects, and placed them on the large rock. That day the people of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the LORD. ¹⁶When the five Philistine rulers observed this, they returned to Ekron that same day.

¹⁷As a guilt offering to the LORD, the Philistines had sent back one gold tumor for each city: Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. ¹⁸The number of gold mice also corresponded to the number of Philistine cities of the five rulers, the fortified cities and the outlying villages. The large rock on which the ark of the LORD was placed is still in the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh today.

¹⁹God struck down the people of Beth-shemesh because they looked inside the ark of the LORD. He struck down seventy persons. The people mourned because the LORD struck them with a great slaughter. ²⁰The people of Beth-shemesh asked, "Who is able to stand in the presence of the LORD this holy God? To whom should the ark go from here?"

²¹They sent messengers to the residents of Kiriat-jearim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and get it."

7 So the people of Kiriat-jearim came for the ark of the LORD and took it to Abinadab's house on the hill. They consecrated his son Eleazar to take care of it.

²Time went by until twenty years had passed since the ark had been taken to Kiriat-jearim. Then the whole house of Israel longed for the LORD. ³Samuel told them, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, get rid of the foreign gods and the Ashoretths that are among you, dedicate yourselves to the LORD, and worship only him. Then he will rescue you from the Philistines." ⁴So the Israelites removed the Baals and the Ashoretths and only worshiped the LORD.

⁵Samuel said, "Gather all Israel at Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD on your behalf." ⁶When they gathered at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out in the LORD's presence. They fasted that day, and there they confessed, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the Israelites at Mizpah.

⁷When the Philistines heard that the Israelites had gathered at Mizpah, their rulers marched up toward Israel. When the Israelites heard about it, they were afraid because of the Philistines. ⁸The Israelites said to Samuel, "Don't stop crying out to the LORD our God for us, so that he will save us from the Philistines."

⁹Then Samuel took a young lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. He cried out to the LORD on behalf of Israel, and the LORD answered him. ¹⁰Samuel was offering the burnt offering as the Philistines approached to fight against Israel. The LORD thundered loudly against the Philistines that day and threw them into such confusion that they were defeated by Israel. ¹¹Then the men of Israel charged out from Mizpah and pursued the Philistines striking them down all the way to a place below Beth-car.

¹²Afterward, Samuel took a stone and set it upright between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, explaining, "The LORD has helped us to this point." ¹³So the Philistines were subdued and did not invade Israel's territory again. The LORD's hand was against the Philistines all of Samuel's life. ¹⁴The cities from Ekron to Gath, which they had taken from Israel, were restored; Israel even rescued their surrounding territories from Philistine control. There was also peace between Israel and the Amorites.

¹⁵Samuel judged Israel throughout his life. ¹⁶Every year he would go on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah and would judge Israel at all these locations. ¹⁷Then he would return to Ramah because his home was there, he judged Israel there, and he built an altar to the LORD there.

8 When Samuel grew old, he appointed his sons as judges over Israel. ²His firstborn son's name was Joel and his second was Abijah. They were judges in Beer-sheba. ³However, his sons did not walk in his ways — they turned toward dishonest profit, took bribes, and perverted justice.

⁴So all the elders of Israel gathered together and went to Samuel at Ramah. ⁵They said to him, "Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Therefore, appoint a king to judge us the same as all the other nations have."

⁶When they said, "Give us a king to judge us," Samuel considered their demand wrong, so he prayed to the LORD. ⁷But the LORD told him, "Listen to the people and everything they say to you. They have not rejected you; they have rejected me as their king. ⁸They are doing the same thing to you that they have done to me, since the day I brought them out of Egypt until this day, abandoning me and worshiping other gods. ⁹Listen to them, but solemnly warn them and tell them about the customary rights of the king who will reign over them."

¹⁰Samuel told all the LORD's words to the people who were asking him for a king. ¹¹He said, "These are the rights of the king who will reign over you: He will take your sons and put them to his use in his chariots, on his horses, or running in front of his chariots. ¹²He can appoint them for his use as commanders of thousands or commanders of fifties, to plow his ground and reap his harvest, or to make his weapons of war and the equipment for his chariots. ¹³He can take your daughters to become perfumers, cooks, and bakers. ¹⁴He can take your best fields, vineyards, and olive orchards and give them to his servants. ¹⁵He can take a tenth of your grain and your vineyards and give them to his officials and servants. ¹⁶He can take your male servants, your female servants, your best young men, and your donkeys and use them for his work. ¹⁷He can take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves can become his servants. ¹⁸When that day comes, you will cry out because of the king you've chosen for yourselves, but the LORD won't answer you on that day."

¹⁹The people refused to listen to Samuel. "No!" they said. "We must have a king over us. ²⁰Then we'll be like all the other nations: our king will judge us, go out before us, and fight our battles."

²¹Samuel listened to all the people's words and then repeated them to the LORD. ²²"Listen to them," the LORD told Samuel. "Appoint a king for them."

Then Samuel told the men of Israel, "Each of you, go back to your city."

9 There was a prominent man of Benjamin named Kish son of Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Becorath, son of Aphiah, son of a Benjaminite. ²He had a son named Saul, an impressive young man. There was no one more impressive among the Israelites than he. He stood a head taller than anyone else.

³One day the donkeys of Saul's father Kish wandered off. Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the servants with you and go look for the donkeys." ⁴Saul and his servant went through the hill country of Ephraim and then through the region of Shalishah, but they didn't find them. They went through the region of Shaalim — nothing. Then they went through the Benjaminite region but still didn't find them.

⁵When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to the servant who was with him, "Come on, let's go back, or my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and start worrying about us."

⁶"Look," the servant said, "there's a man of God in this city who is highly respected; everything he says is sure to come true. Let's go there now. Maybe he'll tell us which way we should go."

⁷"Suppose we do go," Saul said to his servant, "what do we take the man? The food from our packs is gone, and there's no gift to take to the man of God. What do we have?"

⁸The servant answered Saul: "Here, I have a little silver. I'll give it to the man of God, and he will tell us which way we should go."

⁹Formerly in Israel, a man who was going to inquire of God would say, "Come, let's go to the seer," for the prophet of today was formerly called the seer.

¹⁰"Good," Saul replied to his servant. "Come on, let's go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

¹²The women answered, "Yes, he is ahead of you. Hurry, he just now entered the city, because there's a sacrifice for the people at the high place today." ¹³As soon as you enter the city, you will find him before he goes to the high place to eat. The people won't eat until he comes because he must bless the sacrifice; after that, the guests can eat. Go up immediately — you can find him now." ¹⁴So they went up toward the city.

Saul and his servant were entering the city when they saw Samuel coming toward them on his way to the high place. ¹⁵Now the day before Saul's arrival, the LORD had informed Samuel, ¹⁶"At this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. Anoint him ruler over my people Israel. He will save them from the Philistines because I have seen the affliction of my people, for their cry has come to me." ¹⁷When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD told him, "Here is the man I told you about; he will govern my people."

¹⁸Saul approached Samuel in the city gate and asked, "Would you please tell me where the seer's house is?"

¹⁹"I am the seer," Samuel answered. "Go up ahead of me to the high place and eat with me today. When I send you off in the morning, I'll tell you everything that's in your heart." ²⁰As for the donkeys that wandered away from you three days ago, don't worry about them because they've been found. And who does all Israel desire but you and all your father's family?"

²¹Saul responded, "Am I not a Benjaminite from the smallest of Israel's tribes and isn't my clan the least important of all the clans of the Benjaminite tribe? So why have you said something like this to me?"

²²Samuel took Saul and his servant, brought them to the banquet hall, and gave them a place at the head of the thirty or so men who had been invited. ²³Then Samuel said to the cook, "Get the portion of meat that I gave you and told you to set aside."

²⁴The cook picked up the thigh and what was attached to it and set it before Saul. Then Samuel said, "Notice that the reserved piece is set before you. Eat it because it was saved for you for this solemn event at the time I said, 'I've invited the people.'" So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

²⁵Afterward, they went down from the high place to the city, and Samuel spoke with Saul on the roof.

²⁶They got up early, and just before dawn, Samuel called to Saul on the roof, "Get up, and I'll send you on your way!" Saul got up, and both he and Samuel went outside. ²⁷As they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us, but you stay for a while, and I'll reveal the word of God to you." So the servant went on.

10 Samuel took the flask of oil, poured it out on Saul's head, kissed him, and said, "Hasn't the LORD anointed you ruler over his inheritance? ² Today when you leave me, you'll find two men at Rachel's Grave at Zelzah in the territory of Benjamin. They will say to you, 'The donkeys you went looking for have been found, and now your father has stopped being concerned about the donkeys and is worried about you, asking: What should I do about my son?' ³ You will proceed from there until you come to the oak of Tabor. Three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there, one bringing three goats, one bringing three loaves of bread, and one bringing a clay jar of wine." ⁴ They will ask how you are and give you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from them.

⁵After that you will come to Gibeah of God where there are Philistine garrisons. When you arrive at the city, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place prophesying. They will be preceded by harps, tambourines, flutes, and lyres. ⁶ The Spirit of the LORD will come powerfully on you, you will prophesy with them, and you will be transformed. ⁷ When these signs have happened to you, do whatever your circumstances require because God is with you. ⁸ Afterward, go ahead of me to Gilgal. I will come to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice fellowship offerings. Wait seven days until I come to you and show you what to do."

⁹When Saul turned around to leave Samuel, God changed his heart, and all the signs came about that day. ¹⁰ When Saul and his servant arrived at Gibeah, a group of prophets met him. Then the Spirit of God came powerfully on him, and he prophesied along with them. ¹¹ Everyone who knew him previously and saw him prophesy with the prophets asked each other, "What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"

¹² Then a man who was from there asked, "And who is their father?"

As a result, "Is Saul also among the prophets?" became a popular saying. ¹³ Then Saul finished prophesying and went to the high place.

¹⁴ Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, "Where did you go?"

"To look for the donkeys," Saul answered. "When we saw they weren't there, we went to Samuel."

¹⁵ "Tell me," Saul's uncle asked, "what did Samuel say to you?"

¹⁶ Saul told him, "He assured us the donkeys had been found." However, Saul did not tell him what Samuel had said about the matter of kingship.

¹⁷ Samuel summoned the people to the LORD at Mizpah ¹⁸ and said to the Israelites, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I brought Israel out of Egypt, and I rescued you from the power of the Egyptians and all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.' ¹⁹ But today you have rejected your God, who saves you from all your troubles and afflictions. You said to him, 'You must set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and clans."

²⁰ Samuel had all the tribes of Israel come forward, and the tribe of Benjamin was selected. ²¹ Then he had the tribe of Benjamin come forward by its clans, and the Matrite clan was selected. Finally, Saul son of Kish was selected. But when they searched for him, they could not find him. ²² They again inquired of the LORD, "Has the man come here yet?"

The LORD replied, "There he is, hidden among the sup- plies."

²³ They ran and got him from there. When he stood among the people, he stood a head taller than anyone else. ²⁴ Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see the one the LORD has chosen? There is no one like him among the entire population."

And all the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

²⁵ Samuel proclaimed to the people the rights of king- ship. He wrote them on a scroll, which he placed in the pres- ence of the LORD. Then Samuel sent all the people home.

²⁶ Saul also went to his home in Gibeah, and brave men whose hearts God had touched went with him. ²⁷ But some wicked men said, "How can this guy save us?" They despised him and did not bring him a gift, but Saul said nothing.

11 Nahash the Ammonite came up and laid siege to Jabesh-gilead. All the men of Jabesh said to him, "Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you."

² Nahash the Ammonite replied, "I'll make one with you on this condition: that I gouge out everyone's right eye and humiliate all Israel."

³ "Don't do anything to us for seven days," the elders of Jabesh said to him, "and let us send messengers through- out the territory of Israel. If no one saves us, we will sur- render to you."

⁶ When Saul heard these words, the Spirit of God sud- denly came powerfully on him, and his anger burned fur- iously. ⁷ He took a team of oxen, cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout the territory of Israel by messen- gers who said, "This is what will be done to the ox of any- one who doesn't march behind Saul and Samuel." As a result, the terror of the LORD fell on the people, and they went out united.

⁸ Saul counted them at Bezek. There were three hun- dred thousand Israelites and thirty thousand men from Judah. ⁹ He told the messengers who had come, "Tell this to the men of Jabesh-gilead: 'Deliverance will be yours to- morrow by the time the sun is hot.'" So the messengers told the men of Jabesh, and they rejoiced.

¹⁰ Then the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Tomorrow we will come out, and you can do whatever you want to us."

¹¹ The next day Saul organized the troops into three di- visions. During the morning watch, they invaded the Am- monite camp and slaughtered them until the heat of the day. There were survivors, but they were so scattered that no two of them were left together.

¹² Afterward, the people said to Samuel, "Who said that Saul should not reign over us? Give us those men so we can kill them!"

¹³ But Saul ordered, "No one will be executed this day, for today the LORD has provided deliverance in Israel."

¹⁴ Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let's go to Gilgal, so we can renew the kingship there." ¹⁵ So all the people went to Gilgal, and there in the LORD's presence they made Saul king. There they sacrificed fellowship of- ferings in the LORD's presence, and Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

12 Then Samuel said to all Israel, "I have carefully lis- tened to everything you said to me and placed a king over you. ² Now you can see that the king is leading you. As for me, I'm old and gray, and my sons are here with you. I have led you from my youth until now. ³ Here I am. Bring charges against me before the LORD and his anointed: Whose ox or donkey have I taken? Whom have I wronged or mistreated? From whom have I accepted a bribe to over- look something? I will return it to you."

⁴ "You haven't wronged us, you haven't mistreated us, and you haven't taken anything from anyone," they responded.

⁵ He said to them, "The LORD is a witness against you, and his anointed is a witness today that you haven't found anything in my hand."

"He is a witness," they said.

⁶ Then Samuel said to the people, "The LORD, who ap- pointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your ances- tors up from the land of Egypt, is a witness. ⁷ Now present yourselves, so I may confront you before the LORD about all the righteous acts he has done for you and your ancestors.

⁸ "When Jacob went to Egypt, your ancestors cried out to the LORD, and he sent them Moses and Aaron, who led your ancestors out of Egypt and settled them in this place. ⁹ But they forgot the LORD their God, so he handed them over to Sisera commander of the army of Hazor, to the Phi- listines, and to the king of Moab. These enemies fought against them. ¹⁰ Then they cried out to the LORD and said, 'We have sinned, for we abandoned the LORD and wor- shipped the Baals and the Ashtoreths. Now rescue us from the power of our enemies, and we will serve you.' ¹¹ So the LORD sent Jerubbaal, Barak, Jephthah, and Samuel. He res- cued you from the power of the enemies around you, and you lived securely. ¹² But when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites was coming against you, you said to me, 'No, we must have a king reign over us'—even though the LORD your God is your king.

¹³ "Now here is the king you've chosen, the one you requested. Look, this is the king the LORD has placed over you. ¹⁴ If you fear the LORD, worship and obey him, and if you don't rebel against the LORD's command, then both you and the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God. ¹⁵ However, if you disobey the LORD and rebel against his command, the LORD'S hand will be against you as it was against your ancestors.

¹⁶ "Now, therefore, present yourselves and see this great thing that the LORD will do before your eyes. ¹⁷ Isn't the wheat harvest today? I will call on the LORD, and he will send thunder and rain so that you will recognize what an immense evil you committed in the LORD'S sight by request- ing a king for yourselves." ¹⁸ Samuel called on the LORD, and on that day the LORD sent thunder and rain. As a result, all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

¹⁹ They pleaded with Samuel, "Pray to the LORD your God for your servants so we won't die! For we have added to all our sins the evil of requesting a king for ourselves."

²⁰ Samuel replied, "Don't be afraid. Even though you have committed all this evil, don't turn away from follow- ing the LORD. Instead, worship the LORD with all your heart.

²¹Don't turn away to follow worthless things that can't profit or rescue you; they are worthless. ²²The LORD will not abandon his people, because of his great name and because he has determined to make you his own people.

²³As for me, I vow that I will not sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you. I will teach you the good and right way. ²⁴Above all, fear the LORD and worship him faithfully with all your heart; consider the great things he has done for you. ²⁵However, if you continue to do what is evil, both you and your king will be swept away."

13 Saul was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty-two years over Israel. ²He chose three thousand men from Israel for himself: two thousand were with Saul at Michmash and in Bethel's hill country, and one thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. He sent the rest of the troops away, each to his own tent.

³Jonathan attacked the Philistine garrison that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard about it. So Saul blew the ram's horn throughout the land saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!" ⁴And all Israel heard the news, "Saul has attacked the Philistine garrison, and Israel is now repulsive to the Philistines." Then the troops were summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

⁵The Philistines also gathered to fight against Israel: three thousand chariots, six thousand horsemen, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They went up and camped at Michmash, east of Beth-aven.

⁶The men of Israel saw that they were in trouble because the troops were in a difficult situation. They hid in caves, in thickets, among rocks, and in holes and cisterns. ⁷Some Hebrews even crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead.

Saul, however, was still at Gilgal, and all his troops were gripped with fear. ⁸He waited seven days for the appointed time that Samuel had set, but Samuel didn't come to Gilgal, and the troops were deserting him. ⁹So Saul said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings." Then he offered the burnt offering.

¹⁰Just as he finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel arrived. So Saul went out to greet him, ¹¹and Samuel asked, "What have you done?"

Saul answered, "When I saw that the troops were deserting me and you didn't come within the appointed days and the Philistines were gathering at Michmash, ¹²I thought, 'The Philistines will now descend on me at Gilgal, and I haven't sought the LORD's favor.' So I forced myself to offer the burnt offering."

¹³Samuel said to Saul, "You have been foolish. You have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you. It was at this time that the LORD would have permanently established your reign over Israel, ¹⁴but now your reign will not endure. The LORD has found a man after his own heart, and the LORD has appointed him as ruler over his people, because you have not done what the LORD commanded." ¹⁵Then Samuel went from Gilgal to Gibeah in Benjamin. Saul registered the troops who were with him, about six hundred men.

¹⁶Saul, his son Jonathan, and the troops who were with them were staying in Geba of Benjamin, and the Philistines were camped at Michmash. ¹⁷Raiding parties went out from the Philistine camp in three divisions. One division headed toward the Ophrah road leading to the land of Shual. ¹⁸The next division headed toward the Beth-horon road, and the last division headed down the border road that looks out over the Zeboim Valley toward the wilderness.

¹⁹No blacksmith could be found in all the land of Israel because the Philistines had said, "Otherwise, the Hebrews will make swords or spears." ²⁰So all the Israelites went to the Philistines to sharpen their plows, mattocks, axes, and sickles. ²¹The price was two-thirds of a shekel for plows and mattocks, and one-third of a shekel for pitchforks and axes, and for putting a point on a cattle prod. ²²So on the day of battle not a sword or spear could be found in the hand of any of the troops who were with Saul and Jonathan; only Saul and his son Jonathan had weapons.

14 ²³Now a Philistine garrison took control of the pass at Michmash. ¹That same day Saul's son Jonathan said to the attendant who carried his weapons, "Come on, let's cross over to the Philistine garrison on the other side." However, he did not tell his father.

²Saul was staying under the pomegranate tree in Migron on the outskirts of Gibeah. The troops with him numbered about six hundred. ³Ahijah, who was wearing an ephod, was also there. He was the son of Ahitub, the brother of Ichabod son of Phinehas, son of Eli the LORD's priest at Shiloh. But the troops did not know that Jonathan had left.

⁴There were sharp columns of rock on both sides of the pass that Jonathan intended to cross to reach the Philistine garrison. One was named Bozez and the other Seneh; ⁵one stood to the north in front of Michmash and the other to the south in front of Geba. ⁶Jonathan said to the attendant who carried his weapons, "Come on, let's cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised men. Perhaps the LORD will help us. Nothing can keep the LORD from saving, whether by many or by few."

⁷His armor-bearer responded, "Do what is in your heart. You choose. I'm right here with you whatever you decide."

⁸"All right," Jonathan replied, "we'll cross over to the men and then let them see us. ⁹If they say, 'Wait until we reach you,' then we will stay where we are and not go up to them. ¹⁰But if they say, 'Come on up,' then we'll go up, because the LORD has handed them over to us—that will be our sign."

¹¹They let themselves be seen by the Philistine garrison, and the Philistines said, "Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they've been hiding!" ¹²The men of the garrison called to Jonathan and his armor-bearer. "Come on up, and we'll teach you a lesson!" they said.

"Follow me," Jonathan told his armor-bearer, "for the LORD has handed them over to Israel." ¹³Jonathan climbed up using his hands and feet, with his armor-bearer behind him. Jonathan cut them down, and his armor-bearer followed and finished them off. ¹⁴In that first assault Jonathan and his armor-bearer struck down about twenty men in a half-acre field.

¹⁵Terror spread through the Philistine camp and the open fields to all the troops. Even the garrison and the raiding parties were terrified. The earth shook, and terror spread from God. ¹⁶When Saul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, they saw the panicking troops scattering in every direction. ¹⁷So Saul said to the troops with him, "Call the roll and determine who has left us." They called the roll and saw that Jonathan and his armor-bearer were gone.

¹⁸Saul told Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God," for it was with the Israelites at that time. ¹⁹While Saul spoke to the priest, the panic in the Philistine camp increased in intensity. So Saul said to the priest, "Stop what you're doing."

²⁰ Saul and all the troops with him assembled and marched to the battle, and there the Philistines were, fighting against each other in great confusion! ²¹ There were Hebrews from the area who had gone earlier into the camp to join the Philistines, but even they joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. ²² When all the Israelite men who had been hiding in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, they also joined Saul and Jonathan in the battle. ²³ So the LORD saved Israel that day.

The battle extended beyond Beth-aven, ²⁴ and the men of Israel were worn out that day, for Saul had placed the troops under an oath: "The man who eats food before evening, before I have taken vengeance on my enemies is cursed." So none of the troops tasted any food.

²⁵ Everyone went into the forest, and there was honey on the ground. ²⁶ When the troops entered the forest, they saw the flow of honey, but none of them ate any of it because they feared the oath. ²⁷ However, Jonathan had not heard his father make the troops swear the oath. He reached out with the end of the staff he was carrying and dipped it into the honeycomb. When he ate the honey, he had renewed energy. ²⁸ Then one of the troops said, "Your father made the troops solemnly swear, 'The man who eats food today is cursed,' and the troops are exhausted."

²⁹ Jonathan replied, "My father has brought trouble to the land. Just look at how I have renewed energy because I tasted a little of this honey. ³⁰ How much better if the troops had eaten freely today from the plunder they took from their enemies! Then the slaughter of the Philistines would have been much greater."

Saul said, "You have been unfaithful. Roll a large stone over here at once." ³⁴ He then said, "Go among the troops and say to them, 'Let each man bring me his ox or his sheep. Do the slaughtering here and then you can eat. Don't sin against the LORD by eating meat with the blood in it.'" So every one of the troops brought his ox that night and slaughtered it there. ³⁵ Then Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first time he had built an altar to the LORD.

³⁶ Saul said, "Let's go down after the Philistines tonight and plunder them until morning. Don't let even one remain!"

"Do whatever you want," the troops replied.

But the priest said, "Let's approach God here."

³⁷ So Saul inquired of God, "Should I go after the Philistines? Will you hand them over to Israel?" But God did not answer him that day.

³⁸ Saul said, "All you leaders of the troops, come here. Let us investigate how this sin has occurred today. ³⁹ As surely as the LORD lives who saves Israel, even if it is because of my son Jonathan, he must die!" Not one of the troops answered him.

⁴⁰ So he said to all Israel, "You will be on one side, and I and my son Jonathan will be on the other side."

And the troops replied, "Do whatever you want."

⁴¹ So Saul said to the LORD, "God of Israel, why have you not answered your servant today? If the unrighteousness is in me or in my son Jonathan, LORD God of Israel, give Urim; but if the fault is in your people Israel, give Thummim."

Jonathan and Saul were selected, and the troops were cleared of the charge.

⁴² Then Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan," and Jonathan was selected. ⁴³ Saul commanded him, "Tell me what you did."

Jonathan told him, "I tasted a little honey with the end of the staff I was carrying. I am ready to die!"

⁴⁴ Saul declared to him, "May God punish me and do so severely if you do not die, Jonathan!"

⁴⁵ But the people said to Saul, "Must Jonathan die, who accomplished such a great deliverance for Israel? No, as the LORD lives, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground, for he worked with God's help today." So the people redeemed Jonathan, and he did not die. ⁴⁶ Then Saul gave up the pursuit of the Philistines, and the Philistines returned to their own territory.

⁴⁹ Saul's sons were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua. The names of his two daughters were Merab, his firstborn, and Michal, the younger. ⁵⁰ The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoram daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of his army was Abner son of Saul's uncle Ner. ⁵¹ Saul's father was Kish. Abner's father was Ner son of Abiel.

⁵² The conflict with the Philistines was fierce all of Saul's days, so whenever Saul noticed any strong or valiant man, he enlisted him.

15 Samuel told Saul, "The LORD sent me to anoint you as king over his people Israel. Now, listen to the words of the LORD. ² This is what the LORD of Armies says: 'I witnessed what the Amalekites did to the Israelites when they opposed them along the way as they were coming out of Egypt. ³ Now go and attack the Amalekites and completely destroy everything they have. Do not spare them. Kill men and women, infants and nursing babies, oxen and sheep, camels and donkeys.'"

⁴ Then Saul summoned the troops and counted them at Telaim: two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men from Judah. ⁵ Saul came to the city of Amalek and set up an ambush in the wadi. ⁶ He warned the Kenites, "Since you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they came out of Egypt, go on and leave! Get away from the Amalekites, or I'll sweep you away with them." So the Kenites withdrew from the Amalekites.

⁷ Then Saul struck down the Amalekites from Havilah all the way to Shur, which is next to Egypt. ⁸ He captured King Agag of Amalek alive, but he completely destroyed all the rest of the people with the sword. ⁹ Saul and the troops spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, goats, cattle, and choice animals, as well as the young rams and the best of everything else. They were not willing to destroy them, but they did destroy all the worthless and unwanted things.

¹⁰ Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel, ¹¹ "I regret that I made Saul king, for he has turned away from following me and has not carried out my instructions." So Samuel became angry and cried out to the LORD all night.

¹² Early in the morning Samuel got up to confront Saul, but it was reported to Samuel, "Saul went to Carmel where he set up a monument for himself. Then he turned around and went down to Gilgal." ¹³ When Samuel came to him,

Saul said, "May the LORD bless you. I have carried out the LORD's instructions."

¹⁴ Samuel replied, "Then what is this sound of sheep, goats, and cattle I hear?"

¹⁵ Saul answered, "The troops brought them from the Amalekites and spared the best sheep, goats, and cattle in order to offer a sacrifice to the LORD your God, but the rest we destroyed."

¹⁶ "Stop!" exclaimed Samuel. "Let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night."

"Tell me," he replied.

¹⁷ Samuel continued, "Although you once considered yourself unimportant, have you not become the leader of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel ¹⁸ and then sent you on a mission and said: 'Go and completely destroy the sinful Amalekites. Fight against them until you have annihilated them.' ¹⁹ So why didn't you obey the LORD? Why did you rush on the plunder and do what was evil in the LORD's sight?"

²⁰ "But I did obey the LORD!" Saul answered. "I went on the mission the LORD gave me: I brought back King Agag of Amalek, and I completely destroyed the Amalekites. ²¹ The troops took sheep, goats, and cattle from the plunder—the best of what was set apart for destruction—to sacrifice to the LORD your God at Gilgal."

²² Then Samuel said:

Does the LORD take pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the LORD?

Look: to obey is better than sacrifice, to pay attention is better than the fat of rams.

²³ For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and defiance is like wickedness and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king.

²⁴ Saul answered Samuel, "I have sinned. I have transgressed the LORD's command and your words. Because I was afraid of the people, I obeyed them. ²⁵ Now therefore, please forgive my sin and return with me so I can worship the LORD."

²⁶ Samuel replied to Saul, "I will not return with you. Because you rejected the word of the LORD, the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel." ²⁷ When Samuel turned to go, Saul grabbed the corner of his robe, and it tore. ²⁸ Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingship of Israel away from you today and has given it to your neighbor who is better than you. ²⁹ Furthermore, the Eternal One of Israel does not lie or change his mind, for he is not man who changes his mind."

³⁰ Saul said, "I have sinned. Please honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel. Come back with me so I can bow in worship to the LORD your God."

³¹ Then Samuel went back, following Saul, and Saul bowed down to the LORD.

³² Samuel said, "Bring me King Agag of Amalek."

Agag came to him trembling, for he thought, "Certainly the bitterness of death has come."

³³ Samuel declared:

As your sword has made women childless, so your mother will be childless among women.

Then he hacked Agag to pieces before the LORD at Gilgal.

³⁴ Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his home in Gibeath of Saul. ³⁵ Even to the day of his death, Samuel never saw Saul again. Samuel mourned for Saul, and the LORD regretted he had made Saul king over Israel.

16 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long are you going to mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem because I have selected a king from his sons."

² Samuel asked, "How can I go? Saul will hear about it and kill me!"

The LORD answered, "Take a young cow with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.' ³ Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will let you know what you are to do. You are to anoint for me the one I indicate to you."

⁴ Samuel did what the LORD directed and went to Bethlehem. When the elders of the town met him, they trembled and asked, "Do you come in peace?"

⁵ "In peace," he replied. "I've come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. ⁶ When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab and said, "Certainly the LORD's anointed one is here before him."

⁷ But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look at his appearance or his stature because I have rejected him. Humans do not see what the LORD sees, for humans see what is visible, but the LORD sees the heart."

⁸ Jesse called Abinadab and presented him to Samuel. "The LORD hasn't chosen this one either," Samuel said. ⁹ Then Jesse presented Shammah, but Samuel said, "The LORD hasn't chosen this one either." ¹⁰ After Jesse presented seven of his sons to him, Samuel told Jesse, "The LORD hasn't chosen any of these." ¹¹ Samuel asked him, "Are these all the sons you have?"

"There is still the youngest," he answered, "but right now he's tending the sheep." Samuel told Jesse, "Send for him. We won't sit down to eat until he gets here." ¹² So Jesse sent for him. He had beautiful eyes and a healthy, handsome appearance.

Then the LORD said, "Anoint him, for he is the one." ¹³ So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers, and the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully on David from that day forward. Then Samuel set out and went to Ramah.

¹⁴ Now the Spirit of the LORD had left Saul, and an evil spirit sent from the LORD began to torment him, ¹⁵ so Saul's servants said to him, "You see that an evil spirit from God is tormenting you. ¹⁶ Let our lord command your servants here in your presence to look for someone who knows how to play the lyre. Whenever the evil spirit from God comes on you, that person can play the lyre, and you will feel better."

¹⁷ Then Saul commanded his servants, "Find me someone who plays well and bring him to me."

¹⁸ One of the young men answered, "I have seen a son of Jesse of Bethlehem who knows how to play the lyre. He is also a valiant man, a warrior, eloquent, handsome, and the LORD is with him."

¹⁹ Then Saul dispatched messengers to Jesse and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep." ²⁰ So Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a wineskin, and one young goat and sent them by his son David to Saul.

²¹ When David came to Saul and entered his service, Saul loved him very much, and David became his armor-bearer.

²² Then Saul sent word to Jesse: "Let David remain in my service, for he has found favor with me." ²³ Whenever the spirit from God came on Saul, David would pick up his lyre and play, and Saul would then be relieved, feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

17 The Philistines gathered their forces for war at Socoh in Judah and camped between Socoh and Azekah in Ephes-dammim. ² Saul and the men of Israel gathered and camped in the Valley of Elah; then they lined up in battle formation to face the Philistines.

⁸ He stood and shouted to the Israelite battle formations: "Why do you come out to line up in battle formation?" He asked them, "Am I not a Philistine and are you not servants of Saul? Choose one of your men and have him come down against me. ⁹ If he wins in a fight against me and kills me, we will be your servants. But if I win against him and kill him, then you will be our servants and serve us." ¹⁰ Then the Philistine said, "I defy the ranks of Israel today. Send me a man so we can fight each other!" ¹¹ When Saul and all Israel heard these words from the Philistine, they lost their courage and were terrified.

¹² Now David was the son of the Ephrathite from Bethlehem of Judah named Jesse. Jesse had eight sons and during Saul's reign was already an old man. ¹³ Jesse's three oldest sons had followed Saul to the war, and their names were Eliab, the firstborn, Abinadab, the next, and Shammah, the third, ¹⁴ and David was the youngest. The three oldest had followed Saul, ¹⁵ but David kept going back and forth from Saul to tend his father's flock in Bethlehem.

²⁰ So David got up early in the morning, left the flock with someone to keep it, loaded up, and set out as Jesse had charged him.

He arrived at the perimeter of the camp as the army was marching out to its battle formation shouting their battle cry. ²¹ Israel and the Philistines lined up in battle formation facing each other. ²² David left his supplies in the care of the quartermaster and ran to the battle line. When he arrived, he asked his brothers how they were. ²³ While he was speaking with them, suddenly the champion named Goliath, the Philistine from Gath, came forward from the Philistine battle line and shouted his usual words, which David heard. ²⁴ When all the Israelite men saw Goliath, they retreated from him terrified.

²⁵ Previously, an Israelite man had declared: "Do you see this man who keeps coming out? He comes to defy Israel. The king will make the man who kills him very rich and will give him his daughter. The king will also make the family of that man's father exempt from paying taxes in Israel."

²⁶ David spoke to the men who were standing with him: "What will be done for the man who kills that Philistine and removes this disgrace from Israel? Just who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

²⁷ The troops told him about the offer, concluding, "That is what will be done for the man who kills him."

²⁸ David's oldest brother Eliab listened as he spoke to the men, and he became angry with him. "Why did you come down here?" he asked. "Who did you leave those few sheep with in the wilderness? I know your arrogance and your evil heart — you came down to see the battle!"

²⁹ "What have I done now?" protested David. "It was just a question." ³⁰ Then he turned from those beside him to others in front of him and asked about the offer. The people gave him the same answer as before.

³¹ What David said was overheard and reported to Saul, so he had David brought to him. ³² David said to Saul, "Don't let anyone be discouraged by him; your servant will go and fight this Philistine."

³³ But Saul replied, "You can't go fight this Philistine. You're just a youth, and he's been a warrior since he was young."

³⁴ David answered Saul: "Your servant has been tending his father's sheep. Whenever a lion or a bear came and carried off a lamb from the flock, ³⁵ I went after it, struck it down, and rescued the lamb from its mouth. If it reared up against me, I would grab it by its fur, strike it down, and kill it. ³⁶ Your servant has killed lions and bears; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, for he has defied the armies of the living God." ³⁷ Then David said, "The Lord who rescued me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine."

Saul said to David, "Go, and may the Lord be with you."

⁴¹ The Philistine came closer and closer to David, with the shield-bearer in front of him. ⁴² When the Philistine looked and saw David, he despised him because he was just a youth, healthy and handsome. ⁴³ He said to David, "Am I a dog that you come against me with sticks?" Then he cursed David by his gods. ⁴⁴ "Come here," the Philistine called to David, "and I'll give your flesh to the birds of the sky and the wild beasts!"

⁴⁵ David said to the Philistine: "You come against me with a sword, spear, and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the Lord of Armies, the God of the ranks of Israel — you have defied him. ⁴⁶ Today, the Lord will hand you over to me. Today, I'll strike you down, remove your head, and give the corpses of the Philistine camp to the birds of the sky and the wild creatures of the earth. Then all the world will know that Israel has a God, ⁴⁷ and this whole assembly will know that it is not by sword or by spear that the Lord saves, for the battle is the Lord's. He will hand you over to us."

⁴⁹ David put his hand in the bag, took out a stone, slung it, and hit the Philistine on his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell facedown to the ground. ⁵⁰ David defeated the Philistine with a sling and a stone. David overpowered the Philistine and killed him without having a sword.⁵¹ David ran and stood over him. He grabbed the Philistine's sword, pulled it from its sheath, and used it to kill him. Then he cut off his head. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they fled.⁵² The men of Israel and Judah rallied, shouting their battle cry, and chased the Philistines to the entrance of the valley and to the gates of Ekron. Philistine bodies were strewn all along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron.

⁵³When the Israelites returned from the pursuit of the Philistines, they plundered their camps.⁵⁴ David took Goliath's head and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put Goliath's weapons in his own tent.

⁵⁵When Saul had seen David going out to confront the Philistine, he asked Abner the commander of the army, "Whose son is this youth, Abner?"

"Your Majesty, as surely as you live, I don't know," Abner replied.

⁵⁶The king said, "Find out whose son this young man is!"

⁵⁷When David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the Philistine's head still in his hand.⁵⁸ Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?"

"The son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem," David answered.

18 When David had finished speaking with Saul, Jonathan was bound to David in close friendship, and loved him as much as he loved himself.² Saul kept David with him from that day on and did not let him return to his father's house.

³Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as much as himself.⁴ Then Jonathan removed the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his military tunic, his sword, his bow, and his belt.

⁵David marched out with the army and was successful in everything Saul sent him to do. Saul put him in command of the fighting men, which pleased all the people and Saul's servants as well.

⁶As the troops were coming back, when David was returning from killing the Philistine, the women came out from all the cities of Israel to meet King Saul, singing and dancing with tambourines, with shouts of joy, and with three-stringed instruments.⁷ As they danced, the women sang:

Saul has killed his thousands,
but David his tens of thousands.

⁸Saul was furious and resented this song. "They credited tens of thousands to David," he complained, "but they only credited me with thousands. What more can he have but the kingdom?"⁹ So Saul watched David jealously from that day forward.

¹⁰The next day an evil spirit sent from God came powerfully on Saul, and he began to rave inside the palace. David was playing the lyre as usual, but Saul was holding a spear,¹¹ and he threw it, thinking, "I'll pin David to the wall." But David got away from him twice.

¹²Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with David but had left Saul.¹³ Therefore, Saul sent David away from him and made him commander over a thousand men. David led the troops¹⁴ and continued to be successful in all his activities because the LORD was with him.¹⁵ When Saul observed that David was very successful, he dreaded him.¹⁶ But all Israel and Judah loved David because he was leading their troops.¹⁷ Saul told David, "Here is my oldest daughter Merab. I'll give her to you as a wife, if you will be a warrior for me and fight the LORD's battles." But Saul was thinking, "I don't need to raise a hand against him; let the hand of the Philistines be against him."

¹⁸Then David responded, "Who am I, and what is my family or my father's clan in Israel that I should become the king's son-in-law?"¹⁹When it was time to give Saul's daughter Merab to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

²⁰Now Saul's daughter Michal loved David, and when it was reported to Saul, it pleased him.²¹"I'll give her to him," Saul thought. "She'll be a trap for him, and the hand of the Philistines will be against him." So Saul said to David a second time, "You can now be my son-in-law."

²²Saul then ordered his servants, "Speak to David in private and tell him, 'Look, the king is pleased with you, and all his servants love you. Therefore, you should become the king's son-in-law.'"

²³Saul's servants reported these words directly to David, but he replied, "Is it trivial in your sight to become the king's son-in-law? I am a poor commoner."

²⁴The servants reported back to Saul, "These are the words David spoke."

²⁵Then Saul replied, "Say this to David: 'The king desires no other bride-price except a hundred Philistine foreskins, to take revenge on his enemies.'" Actually, Saul intended to cause David's death at the hands of the Philistines.

²⁶When the servants reported these terms to David, he was pleased to become the king's son-in-law. Before the wedding day arrived,²⁷ David and his men went out and killed two hundred Philistines. He brought their foreskins and presented them as full payment to the king to become his son-in-law. Then Saul gave his daughter Michal to David as his wife.²⁸ Saul realized that the LORD was with David and that his daughter Michal loved him,²⁹ and he became even more afraid of David. As a result, Saul was David's enemy from then on.

³⁰Every time the Philistine commanders came out to fight, David was more successful than all of Saul's officers. So his name became well known.

19 Saul ordered his son Jonathan and all his servants to kill David. But Saul's son Jonathan liked David very much,² so he told him: "My father Saul intends to kill you. Be on your guard in the morning and hide in a secret place and stay there.³ I'll go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are and talk to him about you. When I see what he says, I'll tell you."

⁴Jonathan spoke well of David to his father Saul. He said to him: "The king should not sin against his servant David. He hasn't sinned against you; in fact, his actions have been a great advantage to you.⁵ He took his life in his hands when he struck down the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great victory for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced, so why would you sin against innocent blood by killing David for no reason?"

⁶Saul listened to Jonathan's advice and swore an oath: "As surely as the LORD lives, David will not be killed."⁷ So Jonathan summoned David and told him all these words. Then Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he served him as he did before.

⁸When war broke out again, David went out and fought against the Philistines. He defeated them with such great force that they fled from him.

⁹Now an evil spirit sent from the LORD came on Saul as he was sitting in his palace holding a spear. David was playing the lyre,¹⁰ and Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear. As the spear struck the wall, David eluded Saul, ran away, and escaped that night.¹¹ Saul sent agents to David's house to watch for him and kill him in the morning. But his wife Michal warned David, "If you don't escape tonight, you will be dead tomorrow!"¹² So she lowered David from the window, and he fled and escaped.¹³ Then Michal took the household idol and put it on the bed, placed some goat hair on its head, and covered it with a garment.¹⁴ When Saul sent agents to seize David, Michal said, "He's sick."

¹⁵ Saul sent the agents back to see David and said, "Bring him on his bed so I can kill him."¹⁶ When the agents arrived, to their surprise, the household idol was on the bed with some goat hair on its head.

¹⁷ Saul asked Michal, "Why did you deceive me like this? You sent my enemy away, and he has escaped!"

She answered him, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?'"

¹⁹ When it was reported to Saul that David was at Naioth in Ramah,²⁰ he sent agents to seize David. However, when they saw the group of prophets prophesying with Samuel leading them, the Spirit of God came on Saul's agents, and they also started prophesying.²¹ When they reported to Saul, he sent other agents, and they also began prophesying. So Saul tried again and sent a third group of agents, and even they began prophesying.²² Then Saul himself went to Ramah. He came to the large cistern at Secu and asked, "Where are Samuel and David?"

"At Naioth in Ramah," someone said.

²³ So he went to Naioth in Ramah. The Spirit of God also came on him, and as he walked along, he prophesied until he entered Naioth in Ramah.²⁴ Saul then removed his clothes and also prophesied before Samuel; he collapsed and lay naked all that day and all that night. That is why they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

20 David fled from Naioth in Ramah and came to Jonathan and asked, "What have I done? What did I do wrong? How have I sinned against your father so that he wants to take my life?"

² Jonathan said to him, "No, you won't die. Listen, my father doesn't do anything, great or small, without telling me. So why would he hide this matter from me? This can't be true."

³ But David said, "Your father certainly knows that I have found favor with you. He has said, 'Jonathan must not know of this, or else he will be grieved.'" David also swore, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you yourself live, there is but a step between me and death."

⁴ Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."

⁵ So David told him, "Look, tomorrow is the New Moon, and I'm supposed to sit down and eat with the king. Instead, let me go, and I'll hide in the countryside for the next two nights.⁶ If your father misses me at all, say, 'David urgently requested my permission to go quickly to his hometown Bethlehem for an annual sacrifice there involving the whole clan.'⁷ If he says, 'Good,' then your servant is safe, but if he becomes angry, you will know he has evil intentions.⁸ Deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought me into a covenant with you before the LORD. If I have done anything wrong, then kill me yourself; why take me to your father?"

¹⁰ So David asked Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?"

¹¹ He answered David, "Come on, let's go out to the countryside." So both of them went out to the countryside.¹² "By the LORD, the God of Israel, I will sound out my father by this time tomorrow or the next day. If I find out that he is favorable toward you, will I not send for you and tell you?¹³ If my father intends to bring evil on you, may God punish Jonathan and do so severely if I do not tell you and send you away so you may leave safely. May the LORD be with you, just as he was with my father.¹⁴ If I continue to live, show me kindness from the LORD, but if I die,¹⁵ don't ever withdraw your kindness from my household — not even when the LORD cuts off every one of David's enemies from the face of the earth."¹⁶ Then Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "May the LORD hold David's enemies accountable."¹⁷ Jonathan once again swore to David in his love for him, because he loved him as he loved himself.

¹⁸ Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the New Moon; you'll be missed because your seat will be empty.¹⁹ The following day hurry down and go to the place where you hid on the day this incident began and stay beside the rock Ezel.²⁰ I will shoot three arrows beside it as if I'm aiming at a target.²¹ Then I will send a servant and say, 'Go and find the arrows!' Now, if I expressly say to the servant, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you — get them,' then come, because as the LORD lives, it is safe for you and there is no problem.²² But if I say this to the youth, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you!' then go, for the LORD is sending you away.²³ As for the matter you and I have spoken about, the LORD will be a witness between you and me forever."²⁴ So David hid in the countryside.

At the New Moon, the king sat down to eat the meal.²⁵ He sat at his usual place on the seat by the wall. Jonathan sat facing him and Abner took his place beside Saul, but David's place was empty.²⁶ Saul did not say anything that day because he thought, "Something unexpected has happened; he must be ceremonially unclean — yes, that's it, he is unclean."

²⁷ However, the day after the New Moon, the second day, David's place was still empty, and Saul asked his son Jonathan, "Why didn't Jesse's son come to the meal either yesterday or today?"

²⁸ Jonathan answered, "David asked for my permission to go to Bethlehem.²⁹ He said, 'Please let me go because our clan is holding a sacrifice in the town, and my brother has told me to be there. So now, if I have found favor with you, let me go so I can see my brothers.' That's why he didn't come to the king's table."

³⁰ Then Saul became angry with Jonathan and shouted, "You son of a perverse and rebellious woman! Don't I know that you are siding with Jesse's son to your own shame and to the disgrace of your mother?"³¹ Every day Jesse's son lives on earth you and your kingship are not secure. Now send for him and bring him to me — he must die!"

³² Jonathan answered his father back: "Why is he to be killed? What has he done?"

³³ Then Saul threw his spear at Jonathan to kill him, so he knew that his father was determined to kill David.³⁴ He got up from the table fiercely angry and did not eat any food that second day of the New Moon, for he was grieved because of his father's shameful behavior toward David.

³⁵ In the morning Jonathan went out to the countryside for the appointed meeting with David. A young servant was with him. ³⁶ He said to the servant, "Run and find the arrows I'm shooting." As the servant ran, Jonathan shot an arrow beyond him. ³⁷ He came to the location of the arrow that Jonathan had shot, but Jonathan called to him and said, "The arrow is beyond you, isn't it?" ³⁸ Then Jonathan called to him, "Hurry up and don't stop!" Jonathan's servant picked up the arrow and returned to his master. ³⁹ He did not know anything; only Jonathan and David knew the arrangement. ⁴⁰ Then Jonathan gave his equipment to the servant who was with him and said, "Go, take it back to the city."

⁴¹ When the servant had gone, David got up from the south side of the stone Ezel, fell facedown to the ground, and paid homage three times. Then he and Jonathan kissed each other and wept with each other, though David wept more.

⁴² Jonathan then said to David, "Go in the assurance the two of us pledged in the name of the LORD when we said: The LORD will be a witness between you and me and between my offspring and your offspring forever." Then David left, and Jonathan went into the city.

21 David went to the priest Ahimelech at Nob. Ahimelech was afraid to meet David, so he said to him, "Why are you alone and no one is with you?"

² David answered the priest Ahimelech, "The king gave me a mission, but he told me, 'Don't let anyone know anything about the mission I'm sending you on or what I have ordered you to do.' I have stationed my young men at a certain place. ³ Now what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread or whatever can be found."

⁵ David answered him, "I swear that women are being kept from us, as always when I go out to battle. The young men's bodies are consecrated even on an ordinary mission, so of course their bodies are consecrated today." ⁶ So the priest gave him the consecrated bread, for there was no bread there except the Bread of the Presence that had been removed from the presence of the LORD. When the bread was removed, it had been replaced with warm bread.

⁷ One of Saul's servants, detained before the LORD, was there that day. His name was Doeg the Edomite, chief of Saul's shepherds.

⁸ David said to Ahimelech, "Do you have a spear or sword on hand? I didn't even bring my sword or my weapons since the king's mission was urgent."

⁹ The priest replied, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, is here, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you want to take it for yourself, then take it, for there isn't another one here."

"There's none like it!" David said. "Give it to me."

¹⁰ David fled that day from Saul's presence and went to King Achish of Gath. ¹¹ But Achish's servants said to him, "Isn't this David, the king of the land? Don't they sing about him during their dances:

Saul has killed his thousands,
but David his tens of thousands?"

¹² David took this to heart and became very afraid of King Achish of Gath, ¹³ so he pretended to be insane in their presence. He acted like a madman around them, scribbling on the doors of the city gate and letting saliva run down his beard.

¹⁴ "Look! You can see the man is crazy," Achish said to his servants. "Why did you bring him to me?" ¹⁵ Do I have such a shortage of crazy people that you brought this one to act crazy around me? Is this one going to come into my house?"

22 So David left Gath and took refuge in the cave of Adullam. When David's brothers and his father's whole family heard, they went down and joined him there. ² In addition, every man who was desperate, in debt, or discontented rallied around him, and he became their leader. About four hundred men were with him.

³ From there David went to Mizpeh of Moab where he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother stay with you until I know what God will do for me." ⁴ So he left them in the care of the king of Moab, and they stayed with him the whole time David was in the stronghold.

⁹ Then Doeg the Edomite, who was in charge of Saul's servants, answered: "I saw Jesse's son come to Ahimelech son of Ahitub at Nob. ¹⁰ Ahimelech inquired of the LORD for him and gave him provisions. He also gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

¹¹ The king sent messengers to summon the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub, and his father's whole family, who were priests in Nob. All of them came to the king. ¹² Then Saul said, "Listen, son of Ahitub!"

"I'm at your service, my lord," he said.

¹³ Saul asked him, "Why did you and Jesse's son conspire against me? You gave him bread and a sword and inquired of God for him, so he could rise up against me and wait in ambush, as is the case today."

¹⁴ Ahimelech replied to the king: "Who among all your servants is as faithful as David? He is the king's son-in-law, captain of your bodyguard, and honored in your house. ¹⁵ Was today the first time I inquired of God for him? Of course not! Please don't let the king make an accusation against your servant or any of my father's family, for your servant didn't have any idea about all this."

¹⁶ But the king said, "You will die, Ahimelech — you and your father's whole family!"

¹⁷ Then the king ordered the guards standing by him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD because they sided with David. For they knew he was fleeing, but they didn't tell me." But the king's servants would not lift a hand to execute the priests of the LORD.

¹⁸ So the king said to Doeg, "Go and execute the priests!" So Doeg the Edomite went and executed the priests himself. On that day, he killed eighty-five men who wore linen ephods. ¹⁹ He also struck down Nob, the city of the priests, with the sword—both men and women, infants and nursing babies, oxen, donkeys, and sheep.

²⁰ However, one of the sons of Ahimelech son of Ahitub escaped. His name was Abiathar, and he fled to David. ²¹ Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the Lord. ²² Then David said to Abiathar, "I knew that Doeg the Edomite was there that day and that he was sure to report to Saul. I myself am responsible for the lives of everyone in your father's family. ²³ Stay with me. Don't be afraid, for the one who wants to take my life wants to take your life. You will be safe with me."

23 It was reported to David: "Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and raiding the threshing floors."

² So David inquired of the LORD: "Should I launch an attack against these Philistines?"

The LORD answered David, "Launch an attack against the Philistines and rescue Keilah."

³ But David's men said to him, "Look, we're afraid here in Judah; how much more if we go to Keilah against the Philistine forces!"

⁴ Once again, David inquired of the LORD, and the LORD answered him: "Go at once to Keilah, for I will hand the Philistines over to you." ⁵ Then David and his men went to Keilah, fought against the Philistines, drove their livestock away, and inflicted heavy losses on them. So David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah. ⁶ Abiathar son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, and he brought an ephod with him.

⁷ When it was reported to Saul that David had gone to Keilah, he said, "God has handed him over to me, for he has trapped himself by entering a town with barred gates." ⁸ Then Saul summoned all the troops to go to war at Keilah and besieged David and his men.

⁹ When David learned that Saul was plotting evil against him, he said to the priest Abiathar, "Bring the ephod."

¹⁰ Then David said, "LORD God of Israel, your servant has reliable information that Saul intends to come to Keilah and destroy the town because of me. ¹¹ Will the citizens of Keilah hand me over to him? Will Saul come down as your servant has heard? LORD God of Israel, please tell your servant."

The LORD answered, "He will come down."

¹² Then David asked, "Will the citizens of Keilah hand me and my men over to Saul?"

"They will," the LORD responded.

¹⁵ David was in the Wilderness of Ziph in Horesh when he saw that Saul had come out to take his life. ¹⁶ Then Saul's son Jonathan came to David in Horesh and encouraged him in his faith in God, ¹⁷ saying, "Don't be afraid, for my father Saul will never lay a hand on you. You yourself will be king over Israel, and I'll be your second-in-command. Even my father Saul knows it is true." ¹⁸ Then the two of them made a covenant in the LORD's presence. Afterward, David remained in Horesh, while Jonathan went home.

¹⁹ Some Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeath and said, "David is hiding among us in the strongholds in Horesh on the hill of Hachilah south of Jeshimon. ²⁰ Now, whenever the king wants to come down, let him come down. Our part will be to hand him over to the king."

²¹ "May you be blessed by the LORD," replied Saul, "for you have shown concern for me. ²² Go and check again. Investigate where he goes and who has seen him again; they tell me he is extremely cunning. ²³ Investigate all the places where he hides. Then come back to me with accurate information, and I'll go with you. If it turns out he really is in the region, I'll search for him among all the clans of Judah." ²⁴ So they went to Ziph ahead of Saul.

Now David and his men were in the wilderness near Maon in the Arabah south of Jeshimon, ²⁵ and Saul and his men went to look for him. When David was told about it, he went down to the rock and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. Saul heard of this and pursued David there.

²⁶ Saul went along one side of the mountain and David and his men went along the other side. Even though David was hurrying to get away from Saul, Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them. ²⁷ Then a messenger came to Saul saying, "Come quickly, because the Philistines have raided the land!" ²⁸ So Saul broke off his pursuit of David and went to engage the Philistines. Therefore, that place was named the Rock of Separation. ²⁹ From there David went up and stayed in the strongholds of En-gedi.

24 When Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, "David is in the wilderness near En-gedi." ² So Saul took three thousand of Israel's fit young men and went to look for David and his men in front of the Rocks of the Wild Goats. ³ When Saul came to the sheep pens along the road, a cave was there, and he went in to relieve himself. David and his men were staying in the recesses of the cave, ⁴ so they said to him, "Look, this is the day the LORD told you about: 'I will hand your enemy over to you so you can do to him whatever you desire.'" Then David got up and secretly cut off the corner of Saul's robe.

⁵ Afterward, David's conscience bothered him because he had cut off the corner of Saul's robe. ⁶ He said to his men, "I swear before the LORD: I would never do such a thing to my lord, the LORD's anointed. I will never lift my hand against him, since he is the LORD's anointed." ⁷ With these words David persuaded his men, and he did not let them rise up against Saul.

Then Saul left the cave and went on his way. ⁸ After that, David got up, went out of the cave, and called to Saul, "My lord the king!" When Saul looked behind him, David knelt low with his face to the ground and paid homage. ⁹ David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of people who say, 'Look, David intends to harm you'?" ¹⁰ You can see with your own eyes that the LORD handed you over to me today in the cave. Someone advised me to kill you, but I took pity on you and said: I won't lift my hand against my lord, since he is the LORD's anointed. ¹¹ Look, my father! Look at the corner of your robe in my hand, for I cut it off, but I didn't kill you. Recognize that I've committed no crime or rebellion. I haven't sinned against you even though you are hunting me down to take my life.

¹² "May the LORD judge between me and you, and may the LORD take vengeance on you for me, but my hand will never be against you. ¹³ As the old proverb says, 'Wickedness comes from wicked people.' My hand will never be against you. ¹⁴ Who has the king of Israel come after? What are you chasing after? A dead dog? A single flea?" ¹⁵ May the LORD be judge and decide between you and me. May he take notice and plead my case and deliver me from you."

¹⁶ When David finished saying these things to him, Saul replied, "Is that your voice, David my son?" Then Saul wept

aloud¹⁷ and said to David, "You are more righteous than I, for you have done what is good to me though I have done what is evil to you.¹⁸ You yourself have told me today what good you did for me: when the LORD handed me over to you, you didn't kill me.¹⁹ When a man finds his enemy, does he let him go unharmed? May the LORD repay you with good for what you've done for me today.

²⁰ "Now I know for certain you will be king, and the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand.²¹ Therefore swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants or wipe out my name from my father's family."²² So David swore to Saul. Then Saul went back home, and David and his men went up to the stronghold.

25 Samuel died, and all Israel assembled to mourn for him, and they buried him by his home in Ramah. David then went down to the Wilderness of Paran.

² A man in Maon had a business in Carmel; he was a very rich man with three thousand sheep and one thousand goats and was shearing his sheep in Carmel.³ The man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name, Abigail. The woman was intelligent and beautiful, but the man, a Calebite, was harsh and evil in his dealings.

⁴ While David was in the wilderness, he heard that Nabal was shearing sheep,⁵ so David sent ten young men instructing them, "Go up to Carmel, and when you come to Nabal, greet him in my name.⁶ Then say this: 'Long life to you, and peace to you, peace to your family, and peace to all that is yours.'⁷ I hear that you are shearing. When your shepherds were with us, we did not harass them, and nothing of theirs was missing the whole time they were in Carmel.⁸ Ask your young men, and they will tell you. So let my young men find favor with you, for we have come on a feast day. Please give whatever you have on hand to your servants and to your son David."

⁹ David's young men went and said all these things to Nabal on David's behalf, and they waited.¹⁰ Nabal asked them, "Who is David? Who is Jesse's son? Many slaves these days are running away from their masters.¹¹ Am I supposed to take my bread, my water, and my meat that I butchered for my shearers and give them to these men? I don't know where they are from."

¹² David's young men retraced their steps. When they returned to him, they reported all these words.¹³ He said to his men, "All of you, put on your swords!" So each man put on his sword, and David also put on his sword. About four hundred men followed David while two hundred stayed with the supplies.

¹⁴ One of Nabal's young men informed Abigail, Nabal's wife: "Look, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master, but he screamed at them.¹⁵ The men treated us very well. When we were in the field, we weren't harassed and nothing of ours was missing the whole time we were living among them.¹⁶ They were a wall around us, both day and night, the entire time we were with them herding the sheep.¹⁷ Now consider carefully what you should do, because there is certain to be trouble for our master and his entire family. He is such a worthless fool nobody can talk to him!"

¹⁸ Abigail hurried, taking two hundred loaves of bread, two clay jars of wine, five butchered sheep, a bushel of roasted grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of pressed figs, and loaded them on donkeys.¹⁹ Then she said to her male servants, "Go ahead of me. I will be right behind you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

²³ When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off the donkey and knelt down with her face to the ground and paid homage to David.²⁴ She knelt at his feet and said, "The guilt is mine, my lord, but please let your servant speak to you directly. Listen to the words of your servant.²⁵ My lord should pay no attention to this worthless fool Nabal, for he lives up to his name: His name means 'stupid,' and stupidity is all he knows. I, your servant, didn't see my lord's young men whom you sent.²⁶ Now my lord, as surely as the LORD lives and as you yourself live—it is the LORD who kept you from participating in bloodshed and avenging yourself by your own hand—may your enemies and those who intend to harm my lord be like Nabal.²⁷ Let this gift your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who follow my lord.²⁸ Please forgive your servant's offense, for the LORD is certain to make a lasting dynasty for my lord because he fights the LORD's battles. Throughout your life, may evil not be found in you.

²⁹ "Someone is pursuing you and intends to take your life. My lord's life is tucked safely in the place where the LORD your God protects the living, but he is flinging away your enemies' lives like stones from a sling.³⁰ When the LORD does for my lord all the good he promised you and appoints you ruler over Israel,³¹ there will not be remorse or a troubled conscience for my lord because of needless bloodshed or my lord's revenge. And when the LORD does good things for my lord, may you remember me your servant."

³² Then David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who sent you to meet me today!³³ May your discernment be blessed, and may you be blessed. Today you kept me from participating in bloodshed and avenging myself by my own hand.³⁴ Otherwise, as surely as the LORD God of Israel lives, who prevented me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, Nabal wouldn't have had any males left by morning light."³⁵ Then David accepted what she had brought him and said, "Go home in peace. See, I have heard what you said and have granted your request."

³⁶ Then Abigail went to Nabal, and there he was in his house, holding a feast fit for a king. Nabal's heart was cheerful, and he was very drunk, so she didn't say anything to him until morning light.

³⁷ In the morning when Nabal sobered up, his wife told him about these events. His heart died and he became a stone.³⁸ About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal dead.

³⁹ When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD who championed my cause against Nabal's insults and restrained his servant from doing evil. The LORD brought Nabal's evil deeds back on his own head."

Then David sent messengers to speak to Abigail about marrying him.⁴⁰ When David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they said to her, "David sent us to bring you to him as a wife."

⁴¹ She stood up, paid homage with her face to the ground, and said, "Here I am, your servant, a slave to wash the feet of my lord's servants."⁴² Then Abigail got up quickly, and with her five female servants accompanying her, rode on the donkey following David's messengers. And so she became his wife.

⁴³ David also married Ahinoam of Jezreel, and the two of them became his wives. ⁴⁴ But Saul gave his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

26 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah saying, "David is hiding on the hill of Hachilah opposite Jeshimon." ² So Saul, accompanied by three thousand of the fit young men of Israel, went immediately to the Wilderness of Ziph to search for David there. ³ Saul camped beside the road at the hill of Hachilah opposite Jeshimon. David was living in the wilderness and discovered Saul had come there after him. ⁴ So David sent out spies and knew for certain that Saul had come. ⁵ Immediately, David went to the place where Saul had camped. He saw the place where Saul and Abner son of Ner, the commander of his army, were lying down. Saul was lying inside the inner circle of the camp with the troops camped around him. ⁶ Then David asked Ahimelech the Hethite and Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, "Who will go with me into the camp to Saul?"

"I'll go with you," answered Abishai.

⁷ That night, David and Abishai came to the troops, and Saul was lying there asleep in the inner circle of the camp with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. Abner and the troops were lying around him. ⁸ Then Abishai said to David, "Today God has delivered your enemy to you. Let me thrust the spear through him into the ground just once. I won't have to strike him twice!"

⁹ But David said to Abishai, "Don't destroy him, for who can lift a hand against the LORD's anointed and be innocent?" ¹⁰ David added, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will certainly strike him down: either his day will come and he will die, or he will go into battle and perish. ¹¹ However, because of the LORD, I will never lift my hand against the LORD's anointed. Instead, take the spear and the water jug by his head, and let's go."

¹² So David took the spear and the water jug by Saul's head, and they went their way. No one saw them, no one knew, and no one woke up; they all remained asleep because a deep sleep from the LORD came over them. ¹³ David crossed to the other side and stood on top of the mountain at a distance; there was a considerable space between them. ¹⁴ Then David shouted to the troops and to Abner son of Ner: "Aren't you going to answer, Abner?"

"Who are you who calls to the king?" Abner asked.

¹⁵ David called to Abner, "You're a man, aren't you? Who in Israel is your equal? So why didn't you protect your lord the king when one of the people came to destroy him?"

¹⁶ What you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, all of you deserve to die since you didn't protect your lord, the LORD's anointed. Now look around; where are the king's spear and water jug that were by his head?"

¹⁷ Saul recognized David's voice and asked, "Is that your voice, my son David?"

"It is my voice, my lord and king," David said. ¹⁸ Then he continued, "Why is my lord pursuing his servant? What have I done? What crime have I committed?" ¹⁹ Now, may my lord the king please hear the words of his servant: If it is the LORD who has incited you against me, then may he accept an offering. But if it is people, may they be cursed in the presence of the LORD, for today they have banished me from sharing in the inheritance of the LORD saying, 'Go and worship other gods.' ²⁰ So don't let my blood fall to the ground far from the LORD's presence, for the king of Israel has come out to search for a single flea, like one who pursues a partridge in the mountains."

²¹ Saul responded, "I have sinned. Come back, my son David, I will never harm you again because today you considered my life precious. I have been a fool! I've committed a grave error."

²⁵ Saul said to him, "You are blessed, my son David. You will certainly do great things and will also prevail." Then David went on his way, and Saul returned home.

27 David said to himself, "One of these days I'll be swept away by Saul. There is nothing better for me than to escape immediately to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will give up searching for me everywhere in Israel, and I'll escape from him." ² So David set out with his six hundred men and went over to Achish son of Maach, the king of Gath. ³ David and his men stayed with Achish in Gath. Each man had his family with him, and David had his two wives: Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's widow. ⁴ When it was reported to Saul that David had fled to Gath, he no longer searched for him.

⁵ Now David said to Achish, "If I have found favor with you, let me be given a place in one of the outlying towns, so I can live there. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?" ⁶ That day Achish gave Ziklag to him, and it still belongs to the kings of Judah today. ⁷ The length of time that David stayed in Philistine territory amounted to a year and four months.

⁸ David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites. From ancient times they had been the inhabitants of the region through Shur as far as the land of Egypt. ⁹ Whenever David attacked the land, he did not leave a single person alive, either man or woman, but he took flocks, herds, donkeys, camels, and clothing. Then he came back to Achish, ¹⁰ who inquired, "Where did you raid today?"

David replied, "The south country of Judah," "The south country of the Jerahmeelites," or "The south country of the Kenites."

¹¹ David did not let a man or woman live to be brought to Gath, for he said, "Or they will inform on us and say, 'This is what David did.'" This was David's custom during the whole time he stayed in the Philistine territory. ¹² So Achish trusted David, thinking, "Since he has made himself repulsive to his people Israel, he will be my servant forever."

28 At that time, the Philistines gathered their military units into one army to fight against Israel. So Achish said to David, "You know, of course, that you and your men must march out in the army with me."

² David replied to Achish, "Good, you will find out what your servant can do."

So Achish said to David, "Very well, I will appoint you as my permanent bodyguard."

³ By this time Samuel had died, all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his city, and Saul had removed the mediums and spiritists from the land. ⁴ The Philistines gathered and camped at Shunem. So Saul gathered all Israel, and they camped at Gilboa. ⁵When Saul saw the Philistine camp, he was afraid and his heart pounded. ⁶He inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him in dreams or by the Urim or by the prophets. ⁷Saul then said to his servants, "Find me a woman who is a medium, so I can go and consult her."

His servants replied, "There is a woman at En-dor who is a medium."

⁸Saul disguised himself by putting on different clothes and set out with two of his men. They came to the woman at night, and Saul said, "Consult a spirit for me. Bring up for me the one I tell you."

⁹But the woman said to him, "You surely know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and spiritists from the land. Why are you setting a trap for me to get me killed?"

¹⁰Then Saul swore to her by the LORD: "As surely as the LORD lives, no punishment will come to you from this."

¹¹"Who is it that you want me to bring up for you?" the woman asked.

"Bring up Samuel for me," he answered.

¹²When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed, and then she asked Saul, "Why did you deceive me? You are Saul!"

¹³But the king said to her, "Don't be afraid. What do you see?"

"I see a spirit form coming up out of the earth," the woman answered.

¹⁴Then Saul asked her, "What does he look like?"

"An old man is coming up," she replied. "He's wearing a robe." Then Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he knelt low with his face to the ground and paid homage.

¹⁵"Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" Samuel asked Saul.

"I'm in serious trouble," replied Saul. "The Philistines are fighting against me and God has turned away from me. He doesn't answer me anymore, either through the prophets or in dreams. So I've called on you to tell me what I should do."

¹⁶Samuel answered, "Since the LORD has turned away from you and has become your enemy, why are you asking me?" ¹⁷The LORD has done exactly what he said through me: The LORD has torn the kingship out of your hand and given it to your neighbor David. ¹⁸You did not obey the LORD and did not carry out his burning anger against Amalek; therefore the LORD has done this to you today. ¹⁹The LORD will also hand Israel over to the Philistines along with you. Tomorrow you and your sons will be with me, and the LORD will hand Israel's army over to the Philistines."

²⁰Immediately, Saul fell flat on the ground. He was terrified by Samuel's words and was also weak because he had not eaten anything all day and all night. ²¹The woman came over to Saul, and she saw that he was terrified and said to him, "Look, your servant has obeyed you. I took my life in my hands and did what you told me to do. ²²Now please listen to your servant. Let me set some food in front of you. Eat and it will give you strength so you can go on your way."

²³He refused, saying, "I won't eat," but when his servants and the woman urged him, he listened to them. He got up off the ground and sat on the bed.

²⁴The woman had a fattened calf at her house, and she quickly slaughtered it. She also took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread. ²⁵She served it to Saul and his servants, and they ate. Afterward, they got up and left that night.

29 The Philistines brought all their military units together at Aphek while Israel was camped by the spring in Jezreel. ²As the Philistine leaders were passing in review with their units of hundreds and thousands, David and his men were passing in review behind them with Achish. ³Then the Philistine commanders asked, "What are these Hebrews doing here?"

Achish answered the Philistine commanders, "That is David, servant of King Saul of Israel. He has been with me a considerable period of time. From the day he defected until today, I've found no fault with him."

⁴The Philistine commanders, however, were enraged with Achish and told him, "Send that man back and let him return to the place you assigned him. He must not go down with us into battle only to become our adversary during the battle. What better way could he ingratiate himself with his master than with the heads of our men?" ⁵Isn't this the David they sing about during their dances:

Saul has killed his thousands,
but David his tens of thousands?"

⁶So Achish summoned David and told him, "As the LORD lives, you are an honorable man. I think it is good to have you fighting in this unit with me, because I have found no fault in you from the day you came to me until today. But the leaders don't think you are reliable. ⁷Now go back quietly and you won't be doing anything the Philistine leaders think is wrong."

⁸"But what have I done?" David replied to Achish. "From the first day I entered your service until today, what have you found against your servant to keep me from going to fight against the enemies of my lord the King?"

⁹Achish answered David, "I'm convinced that you are as reliable as an angel of God. But the Philistine commanders have said, 'He must not go into battle with us.' ¹⁰So get up early in the morning, you and your masters' servants who came with you. When you've all gotten up early, go as soon as it's light." ¹¹So David and his men got up early in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30 David and his men arrived in Ziklag on the third day. The Amalekites had raided the Negev and attacked and burned Ziklag. ²They also had kidnapped the women and everyone in it from youngest to oldest. They had killed no one but had carried them off as they went on their way.

³When David and his men arrived at the town, they found it burned. Their wives, sons, and daughters had been kidnapped. ⁴David and the troops with him wept loudly until they had no strength left to weep. ⁵David's two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, had also been kidnapped. ⁶David was in an extremely difficult position because the troops talked about stoning him, for they were all very bitter over the loss of their sons and daughters. But David found strength in the LORD his God.

⁷David said to the priest Abiathar son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought it to him, ⁸and David asked the LORD: "Should I pursue these raiders? Will I overtake them?"

The LORD replied to him, "Pursue them, for you will certainly overtake them and rescue the people."

⁹So David and the six hundred men with him went. They came to the Wadi Besor, where some stayed behind. ¹⁰David and four hundred of the men continued the pursuit, while two hundred stopped because they were too exhausted to cross the Wadi Besor.

¹¹ David's men found an Egyptian in the open country and brought him to David. They gave him some bread to eat and water to drink. ¹² Then they gave him some pressed figs and two clusters of raisins. After he ate he revived, for he hadn't eaten food or drunk water for three days and three nights.

¹³ Then David said to him, "Who do you belong to? Where are you from?"

"I'm an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite man," he said. "My master abandoned me when I got sick three days ago. ¹⁴ We raided the south country of the Cherethites, the territory of Judah, and the south country of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag."

¹⁵ David then asked him, "Will you lead me to these raiders?"

He said, "Swear to me by God that you won't kill me or turn me over to my master, and I will lead you to them."

¹⁶ So he led him, and there were the Amalekites, spread out over the entire area, eating, drinking, and celebrating because of the great amount of plunder they had taken from the land of the Philistines and the land of Judah.

¹⁸ David recovered everything the Amalekites had taken; he also rescued his two wives. ¹⁹ Nothing of theirs was missing from the youngest to the oldest, including the sons and daughters, and all the plunder the Amalekites had taken. David got everything back. ²⁰ He took all the flocks and herds, which were driven ahead of the other livestock, and the people shouted, "This is David's plunder!"

²¹ When David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to go with him and had been left at the Wadi Besor, they came out to meet him and to meet the troops with him. When David approached the men, he greeted them, ²² but all the corrupt and worthless men among those who had gone with David argued, "Because they didn't go with us, we will not give any of the plunder we recovered to them except for each man's wife and children. They may take them and go."

²³ But David said, "My brothers, you must not do this with what the LORD has given us. He protected us and handed over to us the raiders who came against us. ²⁴ Who can agree to your proposal? The share of the one who goes into battle is to be the same as the share of the one who remains with the supplies. They will share equally." ²⁵ And it has been so from that day forward. David established this policy as a law and an ordinance for Israel and it still continues today.

²⁶ When David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, "Here is a gift for you from the plunder of the LORD's enemies." ²⁷ He sent gifts to those in Bethel, in Ramoth of the Negev, and in Jattir; ²⁸ to those in Aroer, in Siphmoth, and in Eshtemoa; ²⁹ to those in Raca, in the towns of the Jerahmeelites, and in the towns of the Kenites; ³⁰ to those in Hormah, in Bor-ashan, and in Athach; ³¹ to those in Hebron, and to those in all the places where David and his men had roamed.

31 The Philistines fought against Israel, and Israel's men fled from them and were killed on Mount Gilboa. ² The Philistines pursued Saul and his sons and killed his sons, Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua. ³ When the battle intensified against Saul, the archers found him and severely wounded him. ⁴ Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through with it, or these uncircumcised men will come and run me through and torture me!" But his armor-bearer would not do it because he was terrified. Then Saul took his sword and fell on it. ⁵ When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his own sword and died with him. ⁶ So on that day, Saul died together with his three sons, his armor-bearer, and all his men.

⁷ When the men of Israel on the other side of the valley and on the other side of the Jordan saw that Israel's men had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled. So the Philistines came and settled in them.

¹¹ When the residents of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹² all their brave men set out, journeyed all night, and retrieved the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan. When they arrived at Jabesh, they burned the bodies there. ¹³ Afterward, they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh and fasted seven days.

1 After the death of Saul, David returned from defeating the Amalekites and stayed at Ziklag two days. ² On the third day a man with torn clothes and dust on his head came from Saul's camp. When he came to David, he fell to the ground and paid homage. ³ David asked him, "Where have you come from?"

He replied to him, "I've escaped from the Israelite camp."

⁴ "What was the outcome? Tell me," David asked him.

"The troops fled from the battle," he answered. "Many of the troops have fallen and are dead. Also, Saul and his son Jonathan are dead."

⁵ David asked the young man who had brought him the report, "How do you know Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

⁶ "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa," he replied, "and there was Saul, leaning on his spear. At that very moment the chariots and the cavalry were closing in on him. ⁷ When he turned around and saw me, he called out to me, so I answered: 'I'm at your service.' ⁸ He asked me, 'Who are you?' I told him: 'I'm an Amalekite.' ⁹ Then he begged me, 'Stand over me and kill me, for I'm mortally wounded, but my life still lingers.' ¹⁰ So I stood over him and killed him because I knew that after he had fallen he couldn't survive. I took the crown that was on his head and the armband that was on his arm, and I've brought them here to my lord."

¹¹ Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, and all the men with him did the same. ¹² They mourned, wept, and fasted until the evening for those who died by the sword — for Saul, his son Jonathan, the Lord's people, and the house of Israel.

¹³ David inquired of the young man who had brought him the report, "Where are you from?"

"I'm the son of a resident alien," he said. "I'm an Amalekite."

¹⁴ David questioned him, "How is it that you were not afraid to lift your hand to destroy the Lord's anointed?"

¹⁵ Then David summoned one of his servants and said, "Come here and kill him!" The servant struck him, and he died. ¹⁶ For David had said to the Amalekite, "Your blood is on your own head because your own mouth testified against you by saying, 'I killed the Lord's anointed.'"

¹⁷ David sang the following lament for Saul and his son Jonathan, ¹⁸ and he ordered that the Judahites be taught The Song of the Bow. It is written in the Book of Jashar:

¹⁹ The splendor of Israel lies slain on your heights.
How the mighty have fallen!

²⁰ Do not tell it in Gath, don't announce it in the marketplaces of Ashkelon,

or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice,
and the daughters of the uncircumcised will celebrate.

²¹ Mountains of Gilboa,
let no dew or rain be on you,
or fields of offerings,
for there the shield of the mighty was defiled —
the shield of Saul, no longer anointed with oil.

²² Jonathan's bow never retreated,
Saul's sword never returned unstained,
from the blood of the slain,

from the flesh of the mighty.

²³ Saul and Jonathan,
loved and delightful,
they were not parted in life or in death.
They were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.

²⁴ Daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with luxurious things,
who decked your garments with gold ornaments.

²⁵ How the mighty have fallen in the thick of battle!
Jonathan lies slain on your heights.

²⁶ I grieve for you, Jonathan, my brother.
You were such a friend to me.
Your love for me was more wondrous than the love of women.

²⁷ How the mighty have fallen and the weapons of war have perished!

2 Some time later, David inquired of the Lord: "Should I go to one of the towns of Judah?"

The Lord answered him, "Go."

Then David asked, "Where should I go?"

"To Hebron," the Lord replied.

² So David went there with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite and Abigail, the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

⁵ David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead and said to them, "The Lord bless you, because you have shown this kindness to Saul your lord when you buried him. ⁶ Now, may the Lord show kindness and faithfulness to you, and I will also show the same goodness to you because you have done this deed. ⁷ Therefore, be strong and valiant, for though Saul your lord is dead, the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

⁸ Abner son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, took Saul's son Ish-bosheth and moved him to Mahanaim. ⁹ He made him king over Gilead, Asher, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin — over all Israel. ¹⁰ Saul's son Ish-bosheth was forty years old when he became king over Israel; he reigned for two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David. ¹¹ The length of time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

¹⁴ Then Abner said to Joab, "Let's have the young men get up and compete in front of us."

"Let them get up," Joab replied.

¹⁵ So they got up and were counted off — twelve for Benjamin and Ish-bosheth son of Saul, and twelve from David's soldiers. ¹⁶ Then each man grabbed his opponent by the head and thrust his sword into his opponent's side so that they all died together. So this place, which is in Gibeon, is named Field of Blades.

¹⁷ The battle that day was extremely fierce, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by David's soldiers.

¹⁸The three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Asahel was a fast runner, like one of the wild gazelles. ¹⁹He chased Abner and did not turn to the right or the left in his pursuit of him. ²⁰Abner glanced back and said, "Is that you, Asahel?"

"Yes it is," Asahel replied.

²¹Abner said to him, "Turn to your right or left, seize one of the young soldiers, and take whatever you can get from him." But Asahel would not stop chasing him. ²²Once again, Abner warned Asahel, "Stop chasing me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How could I ever look your brother Joab in the face?"

²³But Asahel refused to turn away, so Abner hit him in the stomach with the butt of his spear. The spear went through his body, and he fell and died right there. As they all came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died, they stopped, ²⁴but Joab and Abishai pursued Abner. By sunset, they had gone as far as the hill of Ammah, which is opposite Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.

²⁷"As God lives," Joab replied, "if you had not spoken up, the troops wouldn't have stopped pursuing their brothers until morning." ²⁸Then Joab blew the ram's horn, and all the troops stopped; they no longer pursued Israel or continued to fight. ²⁹So Abner and his men marched through the Arabah all that night. They crossed the Jordan, marched all morning, and arrived at Mahanaim.

³⁰When Joab had turned back from pursuing Abner, he gathered all the troops. In addition to Asahel, nineteen of David's soldiers were missing, ³¹but they had killed 360 of the Benjaminites and Abner's men. ³²Afterward, they carried Asahel to his father's tomb in Bethlehem and buried him. Then Joab and his men marched all night and reached Hebron at dawn.

3 During the long war between the house of Saul and the house of David, David was growing stronger and the house of Saul was becoming weaker.

²Sons were born to David in Hebron:

His firstborn was Amnon,
by Ahinoam the Jezreelite;

³ his second was Chileab,
by Abigail, the widow of Nabal the Carmelite;
the third was Absalom,
son of Maacah the daughter of King Talmai of Geshur;

⁴ the fourth was Adonijah,
son of Haggith;
the fifth was Shephathiah,
son of Abital;

⁵ the sixth was Ithream,
by David's wife Eglah.

These were born to David in Hebron.

⁶During the war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner kept acquiring more power in the house of Saul. ⁷Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah daughter of Aiah, and Ish-bosheth questioned Abner, "Why did you sleep with my father's concubine?"

⁸Abner was very angry about Ish-bosheth's accusation. "Am I a dog's head who belongs to Judah?" he asked. "All this time I've been loyal to the family of your father Saul, to his brothers, and to his friends and haven't betrayed you to David, but now you accuse me of wrongdoing with this woman! ⁹May God punish Abner and do so severely if I don't do for David what the LORD swore to him: ¹⁰to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and establish the throne of David over Israel and Judah from Dan to Beer-sheba." ¹¹Ish-bosheth did not dare respond to Abner because he was afraid of him.

¹²Abner sent messengers as his representatives to say to David, "Whose land is it? Make your covenant with me, and you can be certain I am on your side to turn all Israel over to you."

¹³David replied, "Good, I will make a covenant with you. However, there's one thing I require of you: You will not see my face unless you first bring Saul's daughter Michal when you come to see me."

¹⁴Then David sent messengers to say to Ish-bosheth son of Saul, "Give me back my wife, Michal. I was engaged to her for the price of a hundred Philistine foreskins."

¹⁵So Ish-bosheth sent someone to take her away from her husband, Paltiel son of Laish. ¹⁶Her husband followed her, weeping all the way to Bahurim. Abner said to him, "Go back." So he went back.

¹⁷Abner conferred with the elders of Israel: "In the past you wanted David to be king over you. ¹⁸Now take action, because the LORD has spoken concerning David: 'Through my servant David I will save my people Israel from the power of the Philistines and the power of all Israel's enemies.'"

¹⁹Abner also informed the Benjaminites and went to Hebron to inform David about all that was agreed on by Israel and the whole house of Benjamin. ²⁰When Abner and twenty men came to David at Hebron, David held a banquet for him and his men.

²¹Abner said to David, "Let me now go and I will gather all Israel to my lord the king. They will make a covenant with you, and you will reign over all you desire." So David dismissed Abner, and he went in peace.

²²Just then David's soldiers and Joab returned from a raid and brought a large amount of plundered goods with them. Abner was not with David in Hebron because David had dismissed him, and he had gone in peace. ²³When Joab and his whole army arrived, Joab was informed, "Abner son of Ner came to see the king, the king dismissed him, and he went in peace."

²⁸David heard about it later and said: "I and my kingdom are forever innocent before the LORD concerning the blood of Abner son of Ner. ²⁹May it hang over Joab's head and his father's whole family, and may the house of Joab never be without someone who has a discharge or a skin disease, or a man who can only work a spindle, or someone who falls by the sword or starves." ³⁰Joab and his brother Abishai killed Abner because he had put their brother Asahel to death in the battle at Gibeon.

³¹ David then ordered Joab and all the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourn over Abner." And King David walked behind the coffin.

³² When they buried Abner in Hebron, the king wept aloud at Abner's tomb. All the people wept,³³ and the king sang a lament for Abner:

Should Abner die as a fool dies?

³⁴ Your hands were not bound,
your feet not placed in bronze shackles.
You fell like one who falls victim to criminals.
And all the people wept over him even more.

³⁵ Then they came to urge David to eat food while it was still day, but David took an oath: "May God punish me and do so severely if I taste bread or anything else before sunset!"³⁶ All the people took note of this, and it pleased them. In fact, everything the king did pleased them.³⁷ On that day all the troops and all Israel were convinced that the king had no part in the killing of Abner son of Ner.

³⁸ Then the king said to his soldiers, "You must know that a great leader has fallen in Israel today.³⁹ As for me, even though I am the anointed king, I have little power today. These men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too fierce for me. May the LORD repay the evildoer according to his evil!"

4 When Saul's son Ish-bosheth heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he gave up, and all Israel was dismayed.² Saul's son had two men who were leaders of raiding parties: one named Baanah and the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite of the Benjaminites. Beeroth is also considered part of Benjamin,³ and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and still reside there as aliens today.

⁴ Saul's son Jonathan had a son whose feet were crippled. He was five years old when the report about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nanny picked him up and fled, but as she was hurrying to flee, he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.

⁹ But David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As the LORD lives, the one who has redeemed my life from every distress,¹⁰ when the person told me, 'Look, Saul is dead,' he thought he was a bearer of good news, but I seized him and put him to death at Ziklag. That was my reward to him for his news!¹¹ How much more when wicked men kill a righteous man in his own house on his own bed! So now, should I not require his blood from you and purge you from the earth?"

¹² So David gave orders to the young men, and they killed Rechab and Baanah. They cut off their hands and feet and hung their bodies by the pool in Hebron, but they took Ish-bosheth's head and buried it in Abner's tomb in Hebron.

5 All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, "Here we are, your own flesh and blood."² Even while Saul was king over us, you were the one who led us out to battle and brought us back. The LORD also said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will be ruler over Israel.'

³ So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron. King David made a covenant with them at Hebron in the LORD's presence, and they anointed David king over Israel.

⁴ David was thirty years old when he began his reign; he reigned forty years.⁵ In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

⁶ The king and his men marched to Jerusalem against the Jebusites who inhabited the land. The Jebusites had said to David: "You will never get in here. Even the blind and lame can repel you" thinking, "David can't get in here."

⁷ Yet David did capture the stronghold of Zion, that is, the city of David.⁸ He said that day, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites must go through the water shaft to reach the lame and the blind who are despised by David." For this reason it is said, "The blind and the lame will never enter the house."

⁹ David took up residence in the stronghold, which he named the city of David. He built it up all the way around from the supporting terraces inward.¹⁰ David became more and more powerful, and the LORD God of Armies was with him.¹¹ King Hiram of Tyre sent envoys to David; he also sent cedar logs, carpenters, and stonemasons, and they built a palace for David.¹² Then David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

¹⁷ When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, they all went in search of David, but he heard about it and went down to the stronghold.¹⁸ So the Philistines came and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim.

¹⁹ Then David inquired of the LORD: "Should I attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?"

The LORD replied to David, "Attack, for I will certainly hand the Philistines over to you."

²⁰ So David went to Baal-perazim and defeated them there and said, "Like a bursting flood, the LORD has burst out against my enemies before me." Therefore, he named that place The Lord Bursts Out.²¹ The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them off.

6 David again assembled all the fit young men in Israel: thirty thousand.² He and all his troops set out to bring the ark of God from Baale-judah. The ark bears the Name, the name of the LORD of Armies who is enthroned between the cherubim.³ They set the ark of God on a new cart and transported it from Abinadab's house, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, were guiding the cart⁴ and brought it with the ark of God from Abinadab's house on the hill. Ahio walked in front of the ark.

⁶When they came to Nacon's threshing floor, Uzzah reached out to the ark of God and took hold of it because the oxen had stumbled. ⁷Then the LORD's anger burned against Uzzah, and God struck him dead on the spot for his irreverence, and he died there next to the ark of God. ⁸David was angry because of the LORD's outburst against Uzzah, so he named that place Outburst Against Uzzah, as it is today. ⁹David feared the LORD that day and said, "How can the ark of the LORD ever come to me?" ¹⁰So he was not willing to bring the ark of the LORD to the city of David; instead, he diverted it to the house of Obed-edom of Gath. ¹¹The ark of the LORD remained in his house three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and his whole family.

¹²It was reported to King David: "The LORD has blessed Obed-edom's family and all that belongs to him because of the ark of God." So David went and had the ark of God brought up from Obed-edom's house to the city of David with rejoicing. ¹³When those carrying the ark of the LORD advanced six steps, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened calf. ¹⁴David was dancing with all his might before the LORD wearing a linen ephod. ¹⁵He and the whole house of Israel were bringing up the ark of the LORD with shouts and the sound of the ram's horn. ¹⁶As the ark of the LORD was entering the city of David, Saul's daughter Michal looked down from the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, and she despised him in her heart.

¹⁷They brought the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent David had pitched for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings in the LORD's presence. ¹⁸When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of Armies. ¹⁹Then he distributed a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake to each one in the entire Israelite community, both men and women. Then all the people went home.

²⁰When David returned home to bless his household, Saul's daughter Michal came out to meet him. "How the king of Israel honored himself today!" she said. "He exposed himself today in the sight of the slave girls of his subjects like a vulgar person would expose himself."

²¹David replied to Michal, "It was before the LORD who chose me over your father and his whole family to appoint me ruler over the LORD's people Israel. I will dance before the LORD, ²²and I will dishonor myself and humble myself even more. However, by the slave girls you spoke about, I will be honored." ²³And Saul's daughter Michal had no child to the day of her death.

7 When the king had settled into his palace and the LORD had given him rest on every side from all his enemies, ²the king said to the prophet Nathan, "Look, I am living in a cedar house while the ark of God sits inside tent curtains."

³So Nathan told the king, "Go and do all that is on your mind, for the LORD is with you."

⁴But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: ⁵"Go to my servant David and say, 'This is what the LORD says: Are you to build me a house to dwell in?' ⁶From the time I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until today I have not dwelt in a house; instead, I have been moving around with a tent as my dwelling. ⁷In all my journeys with all the Israelites, have I ever spoken a word to one of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, asking: 'Why haven't you built me a house of cedar?'

⁸"So now this is what you are to say to my servant David: 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: I took you from the pasture, from tending the flock, to be ruler over my people Israel. ⁹I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have destroyed all your enemies before you. I will make a great name for you like that of the greatest on the earth. ¹⁰I will designate a place for my people Israel and plant them, so that they may live there and not be disturbed again. Evildoers will not continue to oppress them as they have done ¹¹ever since the day I ordered judges to be over my people Israel. I will give you rest from all your enemies.

"The LORD declares to you: The LORD himself will make a house for you. ¹²When your time comes and you rest with your fathers, I will raise up after you your descendant, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹³He is the one who will build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. ¹⁴I will be his father, and he will be my son. When he does wrong, I will discipline him with a rod of men and blows from mortals. ¹⁵But my faithful love will never leave him as it did when I removed it from Saul, whom I removed from before you. ¹⁶Your house and kingdom will endure before me forever, and your throne will be established forever."

¹⁷Nathan reported all these words and this entire vision to David.

¹⁸Then King David went in, sat in the LORD's presence, and said,

Who am I, Lord God, and what is my house that you have brought me this far? ¹⁹What you have done so far was a little thing to you, Lord God, for you have also spoken about your servant's house in the distant future. And this is a revelation for mankind, Lord God. ²⁰What more can David say to you? You know your servant, Lord God. ²¹Because of your word and according to your will, you have revealed all these great things to your servant.

²²This is why you are great, Lord God. There is no one like you, and there is no God besides you, as all we have heard confirms. ²³And who is like you people Israel? God came to one nation on earth in order to redeem a people for himself, to make a name for himself, and to perform for them great and awesome acts, driving out nations and their gods before your people you redeemed for yourself from Egypt. ²⁴You established your people Israel to be your own people forever, and you, LORD, have become their God.

²⁵Now, LORD God, fulfill the promise forever that you have made to your servant and his house. Do as you have promised, ²⁶so that your name will be exalted forever, when it is said, "The LORD of Armies is God over Israel." The house of your servant David will be established before you ²⁷since you, LORD of Armies, God of Israel, have revealed this to your servant when you said, "I will build a house for you." Therefore, your servant has found the courage to pray this prayer to you. ²⁸Lord God, you are God; your words are true, and you have promised this good thing to your servant. ²⁹Now, please bless your servant's house so that it will continue before you forever. For you, Lord God, have spoken, and with your blessing your servant's house will be blessed forever.

8 After this, David defeated the Philistines, subdued them, and took Metheg-ammah from Philistine control. ²He also defeated the Moabites, and after making them lie down on the ground, he measured them off with a cord.

He measured every two cord lengths of those to be put to death and one full length of those to be kept alive. So the Moabites became David's subjects and brought tribute.

⁷ David took the gold shields of Hadadezer's officers and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸ King David also took huge quantities of bronze from Bethah and Berothai, Hadadezer's cities.

⁹ When King Toi of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer, ¹⁰ he sent his son Joram to King David to greet him and to congratulate him because David had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him, for Toi and Hadadezer had fought many wars. Joram had items of silver, gold, and bronze with him. ¹¹ King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold he had dedicated from all the nations he had subdued — ¹² from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, the Amalekites, and the spoil of Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

¹³ David made a reputation for himself when he returned from striking down eighteen thousand Edomites in Salt Valley. ¹⁴ He placed garrisons throughout Edom, and all the Edomites were subject to David. The LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

¹⁵ So David reigned over all Israel, administering justice and righteousness for all his people.

¹⁶ Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army;

Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was court historian;

¹⁷ Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech

son of Abiathar were priests;

Seraiah was court secretary;

¹⁸ Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites

and the Pelethites;

and David's sons were chief officials.

9 David asked, "Is there anyone remaining from the family of Saul I can show kindness to for Jonathan's sake?" ² There was a servant of Saul's family named Ziba. They summoned him to David, and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?"

"I am your servant," he replied.

³ So the king asked, "Is there anyone left of Saul's family that I can show the kindness of God to?"

Ziba said to the king, "There is still Jonathan's son who was injured in both feet."

⁴ The king asked him, "Where is he?"

Ziba answered the king, "You'll find him in Lo-debar at the house of Machir son of Ammiel." ⁵ So King David had him brought from the house of Machir son of Ammiel in Lo-debar.

⁶ Mephibosheth son of Jonathan son of Saul came to David, fell facedown, and paid homage. David said, "Mephibosheth!"

"I am your servant," he replied.

⁷ "Don't be afraid," David said to him, "since I intend to show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan.

I will restore to you all your grandfather Saul's fields, and you will always eat meals at my table."

⁸ Mephibosheth paid homage and said, "What is your servant that you take an interest in a dead dog like me?"

⁹ Then the king summoned Saul's attendant Ziba and said to him, "I have given to your master's grandson all that belonged to Saul and his family. ¹⁰ You, your sons, and your servants are to work the ground for him, and you are to bring in the crops so your master's grandson will have food to eat. But Mephibosheth, your master's grandson, is always to eat at my table." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

¹¹ Ziba said to the king, "Your servant will do all my lord the king commands."

So Mephibosheth ate at David's table just like one of the king's sons. ¹² Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. All those living in Ziba's house were Mephibosheth's servants. ¹³ However, Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem because he always ate at the king's table. His feet had been injured.

10 Some time later, the king of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun became king in his place. ² Then David said, "I'll show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me."

So David sent his emissaries to console Hanun concerning his father. However, when they arrived in the land of the Ammonites, ³ the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun their lord, "Just because David has sent men with condolences for you, do you really believe he's showing respect for your father? Instead, hasn't David sent his emissaries in order to scout out the city, spy on it, and demolish it?" ⁴ So Hanun took David's emissaries, shaved off half their beards, cut their clothes in half at the hips, and sent them away.

⁵ When this was reported to David, he sent someone to meet them, since they were deeply humiliated. The king said, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow back; then return."

⁶ When the Ammonites realized they had become repulsive to David, they hired twenty thousand foot soldiers from the Arameans of Beth-rehob and Zobah, one thousand men from the king of Maacah, and twelve thousand men from Tob.

¹¹ "If the Arameans are too strong for me," Joab said, "then you will be my help. However, if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I'll come to help you. ¹² Be strong! Let's prove ourselves strong for our people and for the cities of our God. May the LORD's will be done."

¹³ Joab and his troops advanced to fight against the Arameans, and they fled before him. ¹⁴ When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they too fled before Abishai and entered the city. So Joab withdrew from the attack against the Ammonites and went to Jerusalem.

¹⁵ When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they regrouped. ¹⁶ Hadadezer sent messengers to bring the Arameans who were beyond the Euphrates River, and they came to Helam with Shobach, commander of Hadadezer's army, leading them.

¹⁷When this was reported to David, he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan, and went to Helam. Then the Arameans lined up to engage David in battle and fought against him. ¹⁸But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed seven hundred of their charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers. He also struck down Shobach commander of their army, who died there. ¹⁹When all the kings who were Hadadezer's subjects saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became their subjects. After this, the Arameans were afraid to ever help the Ammonites again.

11 In the spring when kings march out to war, David sent Joab with his officers and all Israel. They destroyed the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah, but David remained in Jerusalem.

²One evening David got up from his bed and strolled around on the roof of the palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing — a very beautiful woman. ³So David sent someone to inquire about her, and he said, "Isn't this Bathsheba, daughter of Eliam and wife of Uriah the Hethite?"

⁴David sent messengers to get her, and when she came to him, he slept with her. Now she had just been purifying herself from her uncleanness. Afterward, she returned home. ⁵The woman conceived and sent word to inform David: "I am pregnant."

⁶David sent orders to Joab: "Send me Uriah the Hethite." So Joab sent Uriah to David. ⁷When Uriah came to him, David asked how Joab and the troops were doing and how the war was going. ⁸Then he said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." So Uriah left the palace, and a gift from the king followed him. ⁹But Uriah slept at the door of the palace with all his master's servants; he did not go down to his house.

¹⁰When it was reported to David, "Uriah didn't go home," David questioned Uriah, "Haven't you just come from a journey? Why didn't you go home?"

¹¹Uriah answered David, "The ark, Israel, and Judah are dwelling in tents, and my master Joab and his soldiers are camping in the open field. How can I enter my house to eat and drink and sleep with my wife? As surely as you live and by your life, I will not do this!"

¹²"Stay here today also," David said to Uriah, "and tomorrow I will send you back." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next. ¹³Then David invited Uriah to eat and drink with him, and David got him drunk. He went out in the evening to lie down on his cot with his master's servants, but he did not go home.

¹⁴The next morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it with Uriah. ¹⁵In the letter he wrote:

Put Uriah at the front of the fiercest fighting, then withdraw from him so that he is struck down and dies.

¹⁶When Joab was besieging the city, he put Uriah in the place where he knew the best enemy soldiers were. ¹⁷Then the men of the city came out and attacked Joab, and some of the men from David's soldiers fell in battle; Uriah the Hethite also died.

¹⁸Joab sent someone to report to David all the details of the battle. ¹⁹He commanded the messenger, "When you've finished telling the king all the details of the battle — ²⁰if the king's anger gets stirred up and he asks you, 'Why did you get so close to the city to fight? Didn't you realize they would shoot from the top of the wall?' ²¹At Thebez, who struck Abimelech son of Jerubbesheth? Didn't a woman drop an upper millstone on him from the top of the wall so that he died? Why did you get so close to the wall?' — then say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hethite is dead also.'" ²²Then the messenger left.

When he arrived, he reported to David all that Joab had sent him to tell. ²³The messenger reported to David, "The men gained the advantage over us and came out against us in the field, but we counterattacked right up to the entrance of the city gate. ²⁴However, the archers shot down on your servants from the top of the wall, and some of the king's servants died. Your servant Uriah the Hethite is also dead."

²⁵David told the messenger, "Say this to Joab: 'Don't let this matter upset you because the sword devours all alike. Intensify your fight against the city and demolish it.' Encourage him."

²⁶When Uriah's wife heard that her husband Uriah had died, she mourned for him. ²⁷When the time of mourning ended, David had her brought to his house. She became his wife and bore him a son. However, the LORD considered what David had done to be evil.

12 So the LORD sent Nathan to David. When he arrived, he said to him:

There were two men in a certain city, one rich and the other poor. ²The rich man had very large flocks and herds, ³but the poor man had nothing except one small ewe lamb that he had bought. He raised her, and she grew up with him and with his children. From his meager food she would eat, from his cup she would drink, and in his arms she would sleep. She was like a daughter to him. ⁴Now a traveler came to the rich man, but the rich man could not bring himself to take one of his own sheep or cattle to prepare for the traveler who had come to him. Instead, he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for his guest.

⁵David was infuriated with the man and said to Nathan: "As the LORD lives, the man who did this deserves to die! ⁶Because he has done this thing and shown no pity, he must pay four lambs for that lamb."

⁷Nathan replied to David, "You are the man! This is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I rescued you from Saul. ⁸I gave your master's house to you and your master's wives into your arms, and I gave you the house of Israel and Judah, and if that was not enough, I would have given you even more. ⁹Why then have you despised the LORD's command by doing what I consider evil? You struck down Uriah the Hethite with the sword and took his wife as your own wife — you murdered him with the Ammonite's sword. ¹⁰Now therefore, the sword will never leave your house because you despised me and took the wife of Uriah the Hethite to be your own wife.'

¹¹"This is what the LORD says, 'I am going to bring disaster on you from your own family: I will take your wives and give them to another before your very eyes, and he will sleep with them in broad daylight. ¹²You acted in secret, but I will do this before all Israel and in broad daylight.'"

¹³David responded to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD."

Then Nathan replied to David, "And the LORD has taken away your sin; you will not die. ¹⁴However, because you treated the LORD with such contempt in this matter, the son born to you will die." ¹⁵Then Nathan went home.

The LORD struck the baby that Uriah's wife had borne to David, and he became deathly ill.¹⁶ David pleaded with God for the boy. He fasted, went home, and spent the night lying on the ground.¹⁷ The elders of his house stood beside him to get him up from the ground, but he was unwilling and would not eat anything with them.

¹⁸ On the seventh day the baby died. But David's servants were afraid to tell him the baby was dead. They said, "Look, while the baby was alive, we spoke to him, and he wouldn't listen to us. So how can we tell him the baby is dead? He may do something desperate."

¹⁹ When David saw that his servants were whispering to each other, he guessed that the baby was dead. So he asked his servants, "Is the baby dead?"

"He is dead," they replied.

²⁰ Then David got up from the ground. He washed, anointed himself, changed his clothes, went to the LORD's house, and worshiped. Then he went home and requested something to eat. So they served him food, and he ate.

²¹ His servants asked him, "Why have you done this? While the baby was alive, you fasted and wept, but when he died, you got up and ate food."

²² He answered, "While the baby was alive, I fasted and wept because I thought, 'Who knows? The LORD may be gracious to me and let him live.'²³ But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I'll go to him, but he will never return to me."

²⁶ Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and captured the royal fortress.²⁷ Then Joab sent messengers to David to say, "I have fought against Rabbah and have also captured its water supply.²⁸ Now therefore, assemble the rest of the troops, lay siege to the city, and capture it. Otherwise I will be the one to capture the city, and it will be named after me."²⁹ So David assembled all the troops and went to Rabbah; he fought against it and captured it.³⁰ He took the crown from the head of their king, and it was placed on David's head. The crown weighed seventy-five pounds of gold, and it had a precious stone in it. In addition, David took away a large quantity of plunder from the city.³¹ He removed the people who were in the city and put them to work with saws, iron picks, and iron axes, and to labor at brickmaking. He did the same to all the Ammonite cities. Then he and all his troops returned to Jerusalem.

13 Some time passed. David's son Absalom had a beautiful sister named Tamar, and David's son Amnon was infatuated with her.² Amnon was frustrated to the point of making himself sick over his sister Tamar because she was a virgin, but it seemed impossible to do anything to her.³ Amnon had a friend named Jonadab, a son of David's brother Shimeah. Jonadab was a very shrewd man,⁴ and he asked Amnon, "Why are you, the king's son, so miserable every morning? Won't you tell me?"

Amnon replied, "I'm in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

⁵ Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend you're sick. When your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me something to eat. Let her prepare a meal in my presence so I can watch and eat from her hand.'"

⁶ So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to him, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my presence so I can eat from her hand."

⁷ David sent word to Tamar at the palace: "Please go to your brother Amnon's house and prepare a meal for him."

⁸ Then Tamar went to his house while Amnon was lying down. She took dough, kneaded it, made cakes in his presence, and baked them.⁹ She brought the pan and set it down in front of him, but he refused to eat. Amnon said, "Everyone leave me!" And everyone left him.¹⁰ "Bring the meal to the bedroom," Amnon told Tamar, "so I can eat from your hand." Tamar took the cakes she had made and went to her brother Amnon's bedroom.¹¹ When she brought them to him to eat, he grabbed her and said, "Come sleep with me, my sister!"

¹² "Don't, my brother!" she cried. "Don't disgrace me, for such a thing should never be done in Israel. Don't commit this outrage!"¹³ Where could I ever go with my humiliation? And you — you would be like one of the outrageous fools in Israel! Please, speak to the king, for he won't keep me from you."¹⁴ But he refused to listen to her, and because he was stronger than she was, he disgraced her by raping her.

¹⁶ "No," she cried, "sending me away is much worse than the great wrong you've already done to me!"

But he refused to listen to her.¹⁷ Instead, he called to the servant who waited on him: "Get this away from me, throw her out, and bolt the door behind her!"¹⁸ Amnon's servant threw her out and bolted the door behind her. Now Tamar was wearing a long-sleeved garment, because this is what the king's virgin daughters wore.¹⁹ Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the long-sleeved garment she was wearing. She put her hand on her head and went away crying out.

²⁰ Her brother Absalom said to her: "Has your brother Amnon been with you? Be quiet for now, my sister. He is your brother. Don't take this thing to heart." So Tamar lived as a desolate woman in the house of her brother Absalom.

²³ Two years later, Absalom's sheepshearers were at Baal-hazor near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons.²⁴ Then he went to the king and said, "Your servant has just hired sheepshearers. Will the king and his servants please come with your servant?"

²⁵ The king replied to Absalom, "No, my son, we should not all go, or we would be a burden to you." Although Absalom urged him, he wasn't willing to go, though he did bless him.

²⁶ "If not," Absalom said, "please let my brother Amnon go with us."

The king asked him, "Why should he go with you?"²⁷ But Absalom urged him, so he sent Amnon and all the king's sons.

²⁸ Now Absalom commanded his young men, "Watch Amnon until he is in a good mood from the wine. When I order you to strike Amnon, then kill him. Don't be afraid. Am I not the one who has commanded you? Be strong and valiant!"²⁹ So Absalom's young men did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. Then all the rest of the king's sons got up, and each fled on his mule.

³²But Jonadab, son of David's brother Shimeah, spoke up: "My lord must not think they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, because only Amnon is dead. In fact, Absalom has planned this ever since the day Amnon disgraced his sister Tamar. ³³So now, my lord the king, don't take seriously the report that says all the king's sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead."

³⁴Meanwhile, Absalom had fled. When the young man who was standing watch looked up, there were many people coming from the road west of him from the side of the mountain. ³⁵Jonadab said to the king, "Look, the king's sons have come! It's exactly like your servant said." ³⁶Just as he finished speaking, the king's sons entered and wept loudly. Then the king and all his servants also wept very bitterly. ³⁷But Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

³⁸After Absalom had fled to Geshur and had been there three years, ³⁹King David longed to go to Absalom, for David had finished grieving over Amnon's death.

14 Joab son of Zeruiah realized that the king's mind was on Absalom. ²So Joab sent someone to Tekoa to bring a wise woman from there. He told her, "Pretend to be in mourning: dress in mourning clothes and don't put on any oil. Act like a woman who has been mourning for the dead for a long time. ³Go to the king and speak these words to him." Then Joab told her exactly what to say.

⁴When the woman from Tekoa came to the king, she fell facedown to the ground, paid homage, and said, "Help me, Your Majesty!"

⁵"What's the matter?" the king asked her.

⁶"Sadly, I am a widow; my husband died," she said. ⁷"Your servant had two sons. They were fighting in the field with no one to separate them, and one struck the other and killed him. ⁸Now the whole clan has risen up against your servant and said, 'Hand over the one who killed his brother so we may put him to death for the life of the brother he murdered. We will eliminate the heir!' They would extinguish my one remaining ember by not preserving my husband's name or posterity on earth."

⁸The king told the woman, "Go home. I will issue a command on your behalf."

⁹Then the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord the king, may any blame be on me and my father's family, and may the king and his throne be innocent."

¹⁰"Whoever speaks to you," the king said, "bring him to me. He will not trouble you again!"

¹¹She replied, "Please, may the king invoke the LORD your God, so that the avenger of blood will not increase the loss, and they will not eliminate my son!"

¹²"As the LORD lives," he vowed, "not a hair of your son will fall to the ground."

¹³Then the woman said, "Please, may your servant speak a word to my lord the king?"

¹⁴"Speak," he replied.

¹⁵The woman asked, "Why have you devised something similar against the people of God? When the king spoke as he did about this matter, he has pronounced his own guilt. The king has not brought back his own banished one. ¹⁶We will certainly die and be like water poured out on the ground, which can't be recovered. But God would not take away a life; he would devise plans so that the one banished from him does not remain banished.

¹⁵"Now therefore, I've come to present this matter to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. Your servant thought: I must speak to the king. Perhaps the king will grant his servant's request. ¹⁶The king will surely listen in order to keep his servant from the grasp of this man who would eliminate both me and my son from God's inheritance. ¹⁷Your servant thought: May the word of my lord the king bring relief, for my lord the king is able to discern the good and the bad like the angel of God. May the LORD your God be with you."

¹⁸Then the king answered the woman, "I'm going to ask you something; don't conceal it from me!"

¹⁹"Let my lord the king speak," the woman replied.

²⁰The king asked, "Did Joab put you up to all this?"

The woman answered, "As you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or left from all my lord the king says. Yes, your servant Joab is the one who gave orders to me; he told your servant exactly what to say. ²⁰Joab your servant has done this to address the issue indirectly, but my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God, knowing everything on earth."

²¹Then the king said to Joab, "I hereby grant this request. Go, bring back the young man Absalom."

²²Joab fell with his face to the ground in homage and blessed the king. "Today," Joab said, "your servant knows I have found favor with you, my lord the king, because the king has granted the request of your servant."

²³So Joab got up, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. ²⁴However, the king added, "He may return to his house, but he may not see my face." So Absalom returned to his house, but he did not see the king.

²⁷Three sons were born to Absalom, and a daughter named Tamar, who was a beautiful woman. ²⁸Absalom resided in Jerusalem two years but never saw the king. ²⁹Then Absalom sent for Joab in order to send him to the king, but Joab was unwilling to come to him. So he sent again, a second time, but he still would not come. ³⁰Then Absalom said to his servants, "See, Joab has a field right next to mine, and he has barley there. Go and set fire to it!" So Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

³¹Then Joab came to Absalom's house and demanded, "Why did your servants set my field on fire?"

³²"Look," Absalom explained to Joab, "I sent for you and said, 'Come here. I want to send you to the king to ask: Why have I come back from Geshur? I'd be better off if I were still there.' So now, let me see the king. If I am guilty, let him kill me."

³³Joab went to the king and told him. So David summoned Absalom, who came to the king and paid homage with his face to the ground before him. Then the king kissed Absalom.

15 After this, Absalom got himself a chariot, horses, and fifty men to run before him. ²He would get up early and stand beside the road leading to the city gate. Whenever anyone had a grievance to bring before the king for settlement, Absalom called out to him and asked, "What city are you from?" If he replied, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel,"³ Absalom said to him, "Look, your claims are good and right, but the king does not have anyone to listen to you."⁴ He added, "If only someone would appoint me judge in the land. Then anyone who had a grievance or dispute could come to me, and I would make sure he received justice."⁵ When a person approached to pay homage to him, Absalom reached out his hand, took hold of him, and kissed him.⁶ Absalom did this to all the Israelites who came to the king for a settlement. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

⁷When four years had passed, Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go to Hebron to fulfill a vow I made to the LORD.⁸ For your servant made a vow when I lived in Geshur of Aram, saying: If the LORD really brings me back to Jerusalem, I will worship the LORD in Hebron."

⁹"Go in peace," the king said to him. So he went to Hebron.

¹⁰Then Absalom sent agents throughout the tribes of Israel with this message: "When you hear the sound of the ram's horn, you are to say, 'Absalom has become king in Hebron!'"

¹¹Two hundred men from Jerusalem went with Absalom. They had been invited and were going innocently, for they did not know the whole situation.¹² While he was offering the sacrifices, Absalom sent for David's adviser Ahithophel the Gilonite, from his city of Giloh. So the conspiracy grew strong, and the people supporting Absalom continued to increase.

¹³Then an informer came to David and reported, "The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom."

¹⁴David said to all the servants with him in Jerusalem, "Get up. We have to flee, or we will not escape from Absalom! Leave quickly, or he will overtake us quickly, heap disaster on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

¹⁹The king said to Ittai of Gath, "Why are you also going with us? Go back and stay with the new king since you're both a foreigner and an exile from your homeland.²⁰ Besides, you only arrived yesterday; should I make you wander around with us today while I go wherever I can? Go back and take your brothers with you. May the LORD show you kindness and faithfulness."

²¹But in response, Ittai vowed to the king, "As the LORD lives and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king is, whether it means life or death, your servant will be there!"

²²"March on," David replied to Ittai. So Ittai of Gath marched past with all his men and the dependents who were with him.²³ Everyone in the countryside was weeping loudly while all the people were marching out of the city. As the king was crossing the Kidron Valley, all the people were marching past on the road that leads to the wilderness.

²⁴Zadok was also there, and all the Levites with him were carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set the ark of God down, and Abiathar offered sacrifices until the people had finished marching past.²⁵ Then the king instructed Zadok, "Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favor with the LORD, he will bring me back and allow me to see both it and its dwelling place."²⁶ However, if he should say, 'I do not delight in you,' then here I am—he can do with me whatever pleases him."

²⁷The king also said to the priest Zadok, "Look, return to the city in peace and your two sons with you: your son Ahimaaz and Abiathar's son Jonathan.²⁸ Remember, I'll wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me."²⁹ So Zadok and Abiathar returned the ark of God to Jerusalem and stayed there.

³⁰David was climbing the slope of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he ascended. His head was covered, and he was walking barefoot. All of the people with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they ascended.

³¹Then someone reported to David: "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom."

"LORD," David pleaded, "please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!"

³²When David came to the summit where he used to worship God, Hushai the Archite was there to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head.³³ David said to him, "If you go away with me, you'll be a burden to me,³⁴ but if you return to the city and tell Absalom, 'I will be your servant, Your Majesty! Previously, I was your father's servant, but now I will be your servant,' then you can counteract Ahithophel's counsel for me."³⁵ Won't the priests Zadok and Abiathar be there with you? Report everything you hear from the palace to the priests Zadok and Abiathar.³⁶ Take note: their two sons are there with them—Zadok's son Ahimaaz and Abiathar's son Jonathan. Send them to tell me everything you hear."³⁷ So Hushai, David's personal adviser, entered Jerusalem just as Absalom was entering the city.

16 When David had gone a little beyond the summit, Ziba, Mephibosheth's servant, was right there to meet him. He had a pair of saddled donkeys loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred clusters of raisins, one hundred bunches of summer fruit, and a dayjar of wine.² The king said to Ziba, "Why do you have these?"

Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride, the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat, and the wine is for those to drink who become exhausted in the wilderness."

³"Where is your master's grandson?" the king asked. "Why, he's staying in Jerusalem," Ziba replied to the king, "for he said, 'Today, the house of Israel will restore my grandfather's kingdom to me.'"

⁴The king said to Ziba, "All that belongs to Mephibosheth is now yours!"

"I bow before you," Ziba said. "May I find favor with you, my lord the king!"

⁵When King David got to Bahurim, a man belonging to the family of the house of Saul was just coming out. His name was Shimei son of Gera, and he was yelling curses as he approached.⁶ He threw stones at David and at all the royal servants, the people and the warriors on David's right and left.⁷ Shimei said as he cursed: "Get out, get out, you man of bloodshed, you wicked man!"⁸ The LORD has paid you back for all the blood of the house of Saul in whose place you became king, and the LORD has handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom. Look, you are in trouble because you're a man of bloodshed!"

⁹Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and remove his head!"

¹⁰The king replied, "Sons of Zeruiah, do we agree on anything? He curses me this way because the LORD told him, 'Curse David!' Therefore, who can say, 'Why did you do that?'" ¹¹Then David said to Abishai and all his servants, "Look, my own son, my own flesh and blood, intends to take my life—how much more now this Benjaminite! Leave him alone and let him curse me; the LORD has told him to. ¹²Perhaps the LORD will see my affliction and restore goodness to me instead of Shimei's curses today."

¹³So David and his men proceeded along the road as Shimei was going along the ridge of the hill opposite him. As Shimei went, he cursed David, threw stones at him, and kicked up dust. ¹⁴Finally, the king and all the people with him arrived exhausted, so they rested there.

¹⁵Now Absalom and all the Israelites came to Jerusalem. Ahithophel was also with him. ¹⁶When David's friend Hushai the Archite came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

¹⁷"Is this your loyalty to your friend?" Absalom asked Hushai. "Why didn't you go with your friend?"

¹⁸"Not at all," Hushai answered Absalom. "I am on the side of the one that the LORD, this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen. I will stay with him. ¹⁹Furthermore, whom will I serve if not his son? As I served in your father's presence, I will also serve in yours."

²¹Ahithophel replied to Absalom, "Sleep with your father's concubines whom he left to take care of the palace. When all Israel hears that you have become repulsive to your father, everyone with you will be encouraged." ²²So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and he slept with his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

²³Now the advice Ahithophel gave in those days was like someone asking about a word from God—such was the regard that both David and Absalom had for Ahithophel's advice. ¹Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let 17 me choose twelve thousand men, and I will set out in pursuit of David tonight. ²I will attack him while he is weary and discouraged, throw him into a panic, and all the people with him will scatter. I will strike down only the king ³and bring all the people back to you. When everyone returns except the man you're looking for, all the people will be at peace." ⁴This proposal seemed right to Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

⁵Then Absalom said, "Summon Hushai the Archite also. Let's hear what he has to say as well."

⁶So Hushai came to Absalom, and Absalom told him: "Ahithophel offered this proposal. Should we carry out his proposal? If not, what do you say?"

⁷Hushai replied to Absalom, "The advice Ahithophel has given this time is not good." ⁸Hushai continued, "You know your father and his men. They are warriors and are desperate like a wild bear robbed of her cubs. Your father is an experienced soldier who won't spend the night with the people. ⁹He's probably already hiding in one of the caves or some other place. If some of our troops fall first, someone is sure to hear and say, 'There's been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.'" ¹⁰Then, even a brave man with the heart of a lion will lose heart because all Israel knows that your father and the valiant men with him are warriors. ¹¹Instead, I advise that all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba—as numerous as the sand by the sea—be gathered to you and that you personally go into battle. ¹²Then we will attack David wherever we find him, and we will descend on him like dew on the ground. Not even one will be left—neither he nor any of the men with him. ¹³If he retreats to some city, all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we will drag its stones into the valley until not even a pebble can be found there." ¹⁴Since the LORD had decreed that Ahithophel's good advice be undermined in order to bring about Absalom's ruin, Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than Ahithophel's advice."

¹⁵Hushai then told the priests Zadok and Abiathar, "This is what Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel, and this is what I advised. ¹⁶Now send someone quickly and tell David, 'Don't spend the night at the wilderness ford, but be sure to cross over the Jordan, or the king and all the people with him will be devoured.'"

¹⁷Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-rogel, where a servant girl would come and pass along information to them. They in turn would go and inform King David, because they dared not be seen entering the city. ¹⁸However, a young man did see them and informed Absalom. So the two left quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard, and they climbed down into it. ¹⁹Then his wife took the cover, placed it over the mouth of the well, and scattered grain on it so nobody would know anything.

²⁰Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house and asked, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?"

"They passed by toward the water," the woman replied to them. The men searched but did not find them, so they returned to Jerusalem.

²¹After they had gone, Ahimaaz and Jonathan climbed out of the well and went and informed King David. They told him, "Get up and immediately ford the river, for Ahithophel has given this advice against you." ²²So David and all the people with him got up and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak, there was no one who had not crossed the Jordan. ²³When Ahithophel realized that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out for his house in his hometown. He set his house in order and hanged himself. So he died and was buried in his father's tomb.

18 David reviewed his troops and appointed commanders of thousands and of hundreds over them. ²He then sent out the troops, a third under Joab, a third under Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and a third under Ittai of Gath. The king said to the troops, "I must also march out with you."

³"You must not go!" the people pleaded. "If we have to flee, they will not pay any attention to us. Even if half of us die, they will not pay any attention to us because you are worth ten thousand of us. Therefore, it is better if you support us from the city."

⁴"I will do whatever you think is best," the king replied to them. So he stood beside the city gate while all the troops marched out by hundreds and thousands.⁵The king commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, "Treat the young man Absalom gently for my sake." All the people heard the king's orders to all the commanders about Absalom.

⁶Then David's forces marched into the field to engage Israel in battle, which took place in the forest of Ephraim.⁷ Israel's army was defeated by David's soldiers, and the slaughter there was vast that day—twenty thousand dead.⁸The battle spread over the entire area, and that day the forest claimed more people than the sword.

⁹Absalom was riding on his mule when he happened to meet David's soldiers. When the mule went under the tangled branches of a large oak tree, Absalom's head was caught fast in the tree. The mule under him kept going, so he was suspended in midair.¹⁰One of the men saw him and informed Joab. He said, "I just saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree!"

¹¹"You just saw him!" Joab exclaimed. "Why didn't you strike him to the ground right there? I would have given you ten silver pieces and a belt!"

¹²The man replied to Joab, "Even if I had the weight of a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the king's son. For we heard the king command you, Abishai, and Ittai, 'Protect the young man Absalom for me.'¹³If I had jeopardized my own life—and nothing is hidden from the king—you would have abandoned me."

¹⁴Joab said, "I'm not going to waste time with you!" He then took three spears in his hand and thrust them into Absalom's chest. While Absalom was still alive in the oak tree,¹⁵ten young men who were Joab's armor-bearers surrounded Absalom, struck him, and killed him.¹⁶Joab blew the ram's horn, and the troops broke off their pursuit of Israel because Joab restrained them.¹⁷They took Absalom, threw him into a large pit in the forest, and raised up a huge mound of stones over him. And all Israel fled, each to his tent.

¹⁸When he was alive, Absalom had taken a pillar and raised it up for himself in the King's Valley, since he thought, "I have no son to preserve the memory of my name." So he named the pillar after himself. It is still called Absalom's Monument today.

¹⁹Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, "Please let me run and tell the king the good news that the LORD has vindicated him by freeing him from his enemies."

²⁰Joab replied to him, "You are not the man to take good news today. You may do it another day, but today you aren't taking good news, because the king's son is dead."²¹Joab then said to a Cushite, "Go tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed to Joab and took off running.

²²However, Ahimaaz son of Zadok persisted and said to Joab, "No matter what, please let me also run behind the Cushite!"

Joab replied, "My son, why do you want to run since you won't get a reward?"

²³"No matter what, I want to run!"

"Then run!" Joab said to him. So Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and outran the Cushite.

²⁴David was sitting between the city gates when the watchman went up to the roof of the city gate and over to the wall. The watchman looked out and saw a man running alone.²⁵He called out and told the king.

The king said, "If he's alone, he bears good news."

As the first runner came closer,²⁶the watchman saw another man running. He called out to the gatekeeper, "Look! Another man is running alone!"

"This one is also bringing good news," said the king.

²⁷The watchman said, "The way the first man runs looks to me like the way Ahimaaz son of Zadok runs."

"This is a good man; he comes with good news," the king commented.

²⁸Ahimaaz called out to the king, "All is well," and paid homage to the king with his face to the ground. He continued, "Blessed be the LORD your God! He delivered up the men who rebelled against my lord the king."

²⁹The king asked, "Is the young man Absalom all right?"

Ahimaaz replied, "When Joab sent the king's servant and your servant, I saw a big disturbance, but I don't know what it was."

³⁰The king said, "Move aside and stand here." So he stood to one side.

³¹Just then the Cushite came and said, "May my lord the king hear the good news: The LORD has vindicated you today by freeing you from all who rise against you!"

³²The king asked the Cushite, "Is the young man Absalom all right?"

The Cushite replied, "I wish that the enemies of my lord the king, along with all who rise up against you with evil intent, would become like that young man."

³³The king was deeply moved and went up to the chamber above the city gate and wept. As he walked, he cried, "My son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you, Absalom, my son, my son!"

19 It was reported to Joab, "The king is weeping. He's mourning over Absalom."²That day's victory was turned into mourning for all the troops because on that day the troops heard, "The king is grieving over his son."

³So they returned to the city quietly that day like troops come in when they are humiliated after fleeing in battle.

⁴But the king covered his face and cried loudly, "My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!"

⁵Then Joab went into the house to the king and said, "Today you have shamed all your soldiers—those who saved your life as well as your sons, your wives, and your concubines—⁶by loving your enemies and hating those who love you! Today you have made it clear that the commanders and soldiers mean nothing to you. In fact, today I know that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead, it would be fine with you!"

⁷"Now get up! Go out and encourage your soldiers, for I swear by the LORD that if you don't go out, not a man will remain with you tonight. This will be worse for you than all the trouble that has come to you from your youth until now!"

⁸So the king got up and sat in the city gate, and all the people were told: "Look, the king is sitting in the city gate." Then they all came into the king's presence.

Meanwhile, each Israelite had fled to his tent.⁹People throughout all the tribes of Israel were arguing among themselves, saying, "The king rescued us from the grasp of our enemies, and he saved us from the grasp of the Philistines, but now he has fled from the land because of Absalom.¹⁰But Absalom, the man we anointed over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about restoring the king?"

¹¹King David sent word to the priests Zadok and Abiathar: "Say to the elders of Judah, 'Why should you be the last to restore the king to his palace? The talk of all Israel has reached the king at his house. ¹²You are my brothers, my flesh and blood. So why should you be the last to restore the king? ¹³And tell Amasa, 'Aren't you my flesh and blood? May God punish me and do so severely if you don't become commander of my army from now on instead of Joab!'

¹⁴So he won over all the men of Judah, and they unanimously sent word to the king: "Come back, you and all your servants." ¹⁵Then the king returned. When he arrived at the Jordan, Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king and escort him across the Jordan.

¹⁶Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David. ¹⁷There were a thousand men from Benjamin with him. Ziba, an attendant from the house of Saul, with his fifteen sons and twenty servants also rushed down to the Jordan ahead of the king. ¹⁸They forded the Jordan to bring the king's household across and do whatever the king desired.

When Shimei son of Gera crossed the Jordan, he fell facedown before the king ¹⁹and said to him, "My lord, don't hold me guilty, and don't remember your servant's wrongdoing on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem. May the king not take it to heart. ²⁰For your servant knows that I have sinned. But look! Today I am the first one of the entire house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king."

²¹Abishai son of Zeruiah asked, "Shouldn't Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?"

²²David answered, "Sons of Zeruiah, do we agree on anything? Have you become my adversary today? Should any man be killed in Israel today? Am I not aware that today I'm king over Israel?" ²³So the king said to Shimei, "You will not die." Then the king gave him his oath.

²⁶"My lord the king," he replied, "my servant Ziba betrayed me. Actually your servant said: 'I'll saddle the donkey for myself so that I may ride it and go with the king'—for your servant is lame. ²⁷Ziba slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like the angel of God, so do whatever you think best. ²⁸For my grandfather's entire family deserves death from my lord the king, but you set your servant among those who eat at your table. So what further right do I have to keep on making appeals to the king?"

²⁹The king said to him, "Why keep on speaking about these matters of yours? I hereby declare: you and Ziba are to divide the land."

³⁰Mephibosheth said to the king, "Instead, since my lord the king has come to his palace safely, let Ziba take it all!"

³¹Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim and accompanied the king to the Jordan River to see him off at the Jordan. ³²Barzillai was a very old man—eighty years old—and since he was a very wealthy man, he had provided for the needs of the king while he stayed in Mahanaim.

³³The king said to Barzillai, "Cross over with me, and I'll provide for you at my side in Jerusalem."

³⁴Barzillai replied to the king, "How many years of my life are left that I should go up to Jerusalem with the king?"

³⁵"I'm now eighty years old. Can I discern what is pleasant and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats or drinks? Can I still hear the voice of male and female singers? Why should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king? ³⁶Since your servant is only going with the king a little way across the Jordan, why should the king repay me with such a reward? ³⁷Please let your servant return so that I may die in my own city near the tomb of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham: let him cross over with my lord the king. Do for him what seems good to you."

³⁸The king replied, "Chimham will cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you, and whatever you desire from me I will do for you." ³⁹So all the people crossed the Jordan, and then the king crossed. The king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and Barzillai returned to his home.

⁴⁰The king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him. All the troops of Judah and half of Israel's escorted the king. ⁴¹Suddenly, all the men of Israel came to the king. They asked him, "Why did our brothers, the men of Judah, take you away secretly and transport the king and his household across the Jordan, along with all of David's men?"

⁴²All the men of Judah responded to the men of Israel, "Because the king is our relative. Why does this make you angry? Have we ever eaten anything of the king's or been honored at all?"

⁴³The men of Israel answered the men of Judah: "We have ten shares in the king, so we have a greater claim to David than you. Why then do you despise us? Weren't we the first to speak of restoring our king?" But the words of the men of Judah were harsher than those of the men of Israel.

20 Now a wicked man, a Benjaminite named Sheba son of Bichri, happened to be there. He blew the ram's horn and shouted:

We have no portion in David,
no inheritance in Jesse's son.

Each man to his tent, Israel!

²So all the men of Israel deserted David and followed Sheba son of Bichri, but the men of Judah from the Jordan all the way to Jerusalem remained loyal to their king.

³When David came to his palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines he had left to take care of the palace and placed them under guard. He provided for them, but he was not intimate with them. They were confined until the day of their death, living as widows.

⁴The king said to Amasa, "Summon the men of Judah to me within three days and be here yourself." ⁵Amasa went to summon Judah, but he took longer than the time allotted him. ⁶So David said to Abishai, "Sheba son of Bichri will do more harm to us than Absalom. Take your lord's soldiers and pursue him, or he will find fortified cities and elude us."

⁷So Joab's men, the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the warriors marched out under Abishai's command; they left Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bichri. ⁸They were at the great stone in Gibeon when Amasa joined them. Joab was wearing his uniform and over it was a belt around his waist with a sword in its sheath. As he approached, the sword fell out. ⁹Joab asked Amasa, "Are you well, my brother?" Then with his right hand Joab grabbed Amasa by the beard to kiss him. ¹⁰Amasa was not on guard against the sword in Joab's hand, and Joab stabbed him in the stomach with it and spilled his intestines out on the ground. Joab did not stab him again, and Amasa died.

Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bichri. ¹¹One of Joab's young men had stood over Amasa saying, "Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David, follow Joab!"¹² Now Amasa had been writhing in his blood in the middle of the highway, and the man had seen that all the troops stopped. So he moved Amasa from the highway to the field and threw a garment over him because he realized that all those who encountered Amasa were stopping.¹³ When he was removed from the highway, all the men passed by and followed Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.

¹⁴ Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-maacah. All the Berites came together and followed him.¹⁵ Joab's troops came and besieged Sheba in Abel of Beth-maacah. They built a siege ramp against the outer wall of the city. While all the troops with Joab were battering the wall to make it collapse,¹⁶ a wise woman called out from the city, "Listen! Listen! Please tell Joab to come here and let me speak with him."

¹⁷ When he had come near her, the woman asked, "Are you Joab?"

"I am," he replied.

"Listen to the words of your servant," she said to him. He answered, "I'm listening."

¹⁸ She said, "In the past they used to say, 'Seek counsel in Abel,' and that's how they settled disputes.¹⁹ I am one of the peaceful and faithful in Israel, but you're trying to destroy a city that is like a mother in Israel. Why would you devour the LORD's inheritance?"

The woman replied to Joab, "Watch! His head will be thrown over the wall to you."²² The woman went to all the people with her wise counsel, and they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. So he blew the ram's horn, and they dispersed from the city, each to his own tent. Joab returned to the king in Jerusalem.

²³ Joab commanded the whole army of Israel; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and Pelethites;

²⁴ Adoram was over forced labor; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was court historian;

²⁵ Sheva was court secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

²⁶ and in addition, Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

21 During David's reign there was a famine for three successive years, so David inquired of the LORD. The LORD answered, "It is due to Saul and to his bloody family, because he killed the Gibeonites."

² The Gibeonites were not Israelites but rather a remnant of the Amorites. The Israelites had taken an oath concerning them, but Saul had tried to kill them in his zeal for the Israelites and Judah. So David summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them.³ He asked the Gibeonites, "What should I do for you? How can I make atonement so that you will bring a blessing on the LORD's inheritance?"

⁴ The Gibeonites said to him, "We are not asking for silver and gold from Saul or his family, and we cannot put anyone to death in Israel."

"Whatever you say, I will do for you," he said.

⁵ They replied to the king, "As for the man who annihilated us and plotted to destroy us so we would not exist within the whole territory of Israel, let seven of his male descendants be handed over to us so we may hang them in the presence of the LORD at Gibeah of Saul, the LORD's chosen."

The king answered, "I will hand them over."

⁷ David spared Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the oath of the LORD that was between David and Jonathan, Saul's son.⁸ But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, who were the two sons whom Rizpah daughter of Aiah had borne to Saul, and the five sons whom Merab daughter of Saul had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite⁹ and handed them over to the Gibeonites. They hanged them on the hill in the presence of the LORD; the seven of them died together. They were executed in the first days of the harvest at the beginning of the barley harvest.

¹⁵ The Philistines again waged war against Israel. David went down with his soldiers, and they fought the Philistines, but David became exhausted.¹⁶ Then Ishbi-benob, one of the descendants of the giant, whose bronze spear weighed about eight pounds and who wore new armor, intended to kill David.¹⁷ But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to his aid, struck the Philistine, and killed him. Then David's men swore to him: "You must never again go out with us to battle. You must not extinguish the lamp of Israel."

¹⁸ After this, there was another battle with the Philistines at Gob. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was one of the descendants of the giant.

¹⁹ Once again there was a battle with the Philistines at Gob, and Elhanan son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath of Gath. The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam.

²⁰ At Gath there was still another battle. A huge man was there with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot — twenty-four in all. He, too, was descended from the giant.²¹ When he taunted Israel, Jonathan, son of David's brother Shimei, killed him.

²² These four were descended from the giant in Gath and were killed by David and his soldiers.

22 David spoke the words of this song to the LORD on the day the LORD rescued him from the grasp of all his enemies and from the grasp of Saul.² He said:

The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer,
³ my God, my rock where I seek refuge.

My shield, the horn of my salvation,
my stronghold, my refuge,
and my Savior, you save me from violence.

⁴ I called to the LORD, who is worthy of praise,
and I was saved from my enemies.

⁵ For the waves of death engulfed me;
the torrents of destruction terrified me.

⁶ The ropes of Sheol entangled me;

the snares of death confronted me.
 7 I called to the LORD in my distress;
 I called to my God.
 From his temple he heard my voice,
 and my cry for help reached his ears.
 8 Then the earth shook and quaked;
 the foundations of the heavens trembled;
 they shook because he burned with anger.
 9 Smoke rose from his nostrils,
 and consuming fire came from his mouth;
 coals were set ablaze by it.
 10 He bent the heavens and came down,
 total darkness beneath his feet.
 11 He rode on a cherub and flew,
 soaring on the wings of the wind.
 12 He made darkness a canopy around him,
 a gathering of water and thick clouds.
 13 From the radiance of his presence,
 blazing coals were ignited.
 14 The LORD thundered from heaven;
 the Most High made his voice heard.
 15 He shot arrows and scattered them;
 he hurled lightning bolts and routed them.
 16 The depths of the sea became visible,
 the foundations of the world were exposed
 at the rebuke of the LORD,
 at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.
 17 He reached down from on high
 and took hold of me;
 he pulled me out of deep water.
 18 He rescued me from my powerful enemy
 and from those who hated me,
 for they were too strong for me.
 19 They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
 but the LORD was my support.
 20 He brought me out to a spacious place;
 he rescued me because he delighted in me.
 21 The LORD rewarded me
 according to my righteousness;
 he repaid me
 according to the cleanness of my hands.
 22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD
 and have not turned from my God to wickedness.
 23 Indeed, I let all his ordinances guide me
 and have not disregarded his statutes.
 24 I was blameless before him
 and kept myself from my iniquity.
 25 So the LORD repaid me
 according to my righteousness,
 according to my cleanness in his sight.
 26 With the faithful
 you prove yourself faithful,
 with the blameless
 you prove yourself blameless,
 with the pure
 27 you prove yourself pure;
 but with the crooked
 you prove yourself shrewd.
 28 You rescue an oppressed people, but your eyes are set against the proud—
 you humble them.
 29 LORD, you are my lamp;
 the LORD illuminates my darkness.
 30 With you I can attack a barricade,
 and with my God I can leap over a wall.

31 God—his way is perfect;
 the word of the LORD is pure.
 He is a shield to all who take refuge in him.
 32 For who is God besides the LORD?
 And who is a rock? Only our God.
 33 God is my strong refuge;
 he makes my way perfect.
 34 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer
 and sets me securely on the heights.
 35 He trains my hands for war;
 my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
 36 You have given me the shield of your salvation;
 your help exalts me.
 37 You make a spacious place beneath me
 for my steps,
 and my ankles do not give way.
 38 I pursue my enemies and destroy them;
 I do not turn back until they are wiped out.
 39 I wipe them out and crush them,
 and they do not rise;
 they fall beneath my feet.
 40 You have clothed me with strength for battle;
 you subdue my adversaries beneath me.
 41 You have made my enemies retreat before me;
 I annihilate those who hate me.
 42 They look, but there is no one to save them—they look to the LORD, but he does not answer them.
 43 I pulverize them like dust of the earth;
 I crush them and trample them like mud
 in the streets.
 44 You have freed me from the feuds
 among my people;
 you have preserved me as head of nations;
 a people I had not known serve me.
 45 Foreigners submit to me cringing;
 as soon as they hear, they obey me.
 46 Foreigners lose heart
 and come trembling from their fortifications.
 47 The LORD lives—blessed be my rock!
 God, the rock of my salvation, is exalted.
 48 God—he grants me vengeance
 and casts down peoples under me.
 49 He frees me from my enemies.
 You exalt me above my adversaries;
 you rescue me from violent men.
 50 Therefore I will give thanks to you among
 the nations, LORD;
 I will sing praises about your name.
 51 He is a tower of salvation for his king;
 he shows loyalty to his anointed,
 to David and his descendants forever.
23 These are the last words of David:
 The declaration of David son of Jesse,
 the declaration of the man raised on high,
 the one anointed by the God of Jacob.
 This is the most delightful of Israel's songs.
 2 The Spirit of the LORD spoke through me,
 his word was on my tongue.
 3 The God of Israel spoke;
 the Rock of Israel said to me,
 "The one who rules the people with justice,
 who rules in the fear of God,
 4 is like the morning light when the sun rises
 on a cloudless morning,

- the glisten of rain on sprouting grass.”
- 5 Is it not true my house is with God?
For he has established a permanent covenant with me,
ordered and secured in every detail.
Will he not bring about my whole salvation and my every desire?
- 6 But all the wicked are like thorns raked aside;
they can never be picked up by hand.
- 7 The man who touches them
must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear.
They will be completely burned up on the spot.

⁸These are the names of David's warriors:

Josheb-basshebeth the Tahchemonite was chief of the officers. He wielded his spear against eight hundred men that he killed at one time.

⁹After him, Eleazar son of Dodo son of an Ahohite was among the three warriors with David when they defied the Philistines. The men of Israel retreated in the place they had gathered for battle, ¹⁰but Eleazar stood his ground and attacked the Philistines until his hand was tired and stuck to his sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day. Then the troops came back to him, but only to plunder the dead.

¹³Three of the thirty leading warriors went down at harvest time and came to David at the cave of Adullam, while a company of Philistines was camping in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁴At that time David was in the stronghold, and a Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem. ¹⁵David was extremely thirsty and said, “If only someone would bring me water to drink from the well at the city gate of Bethlehem!” ¹⁶So three of the warriors broke through the Philistine camp and drew water from the well at the gate of Bethlehem. They brought it back to David, but he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out to the LORD. ¹⁷David said, “LORD, I would never do such a thing! Is this not the blood of men who risked their lives?” So he refused to drink it. Such were the exploits of the three warriors.

¹⁸Abishai, Joab's brother and son of Zeruiah, was leader of the Three. He wielded his spear against three hundred men and killed them, gaining a reputation among the Three. ¹⁹Was he not more honored than the Three? He became their commander even though he did not become one of the Three.

²⁰Benaiah son of Jehoiada was the son of a brave man from Kabzeel, a man of many exploits. Benaiah killed two sons of Ariel of Moab, and he went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion. ²¹He also killed an Egyptian, an impressive man. Even though the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, Benaiah went down to him with a club, snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and then killed him with his own spear. ²²These were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, who had a reputation among the three warriors. ²³He was the most honored of the Thirty, but he did not become one of the Three. David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

²⁴Among the Thirty were Joab's brother Asahel,
Elhanan son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

- ²⁵ Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,
²⁶ Helez the Paltite,
Ira son of Ikkesheh the Tekoite,
²⁷ Abiezer the Anathothite,
Mebunnai the Hushathite,
²⁸ Zalmon the Ahohite,
Maharai the Netophathite,
²⁹ Heleb son of Baanah the Netophahite,
Ittai son of Ribai from Gibeah of the Benjaminites,
³⁰ Benaiah the Pirathonite,
Hiddai from the wadis of Gaash,
³¹ Abi-albon the Arbathite,
Azmaveth the Barhumite,
³² Elishah the Shaalbonite,
the sons of Jashen,
Jonathan son of ³³Shammah the Hararite,
Ahiam son of Shnar the Hararite,
³⁴ Eliphelet son of Anasbai son of the Maacathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,
³⁵ Hezro the Carmelite,
Paarai the Arbite,
³⁶ Igal son of Nathan from Zobah, Bani the Gadite,
³⁷ Zelek the Ammonite,
Naharai the Beerothite, the armor-bearer for Joab
son of Zeruiah,
³⁸ Ira the Ithrite,
Gareb the Ithrite,
³⁹ and Uriah the Hethite.

There were thirty-seven in all.

24 The LORD's anger burned against Israel again, and he stirred up David against them to say: “Go, count the people of Israel and Judah.”

²So the king said to Joab, the commander of his army, “Go through all the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba and register the troops so I can know their number.”

³Joab replied to the king, “May the LORD your God multiply the troops a hundred times more than they are — while my lord the king looks on! But why does my lord the king want to do this?”

⁴Yet the king's order prevailed over Joab and the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army left the king's presence to register the troops of Israel.

⁵They crossed the Jordan and camped in Aroer, south of the town in the middle of the valley, and then proceeded toward Gad and Jazer. ⁶They went to Gilead and to the land of the Hittites and continued on to Dan-jaan and around to Sidon. ⁷They went to the fortress of Tyre and all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites. Afterward, they went to the Negev of Judah at Beer-sheba.

⁸When they had gone through the whole land, they returned to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. ⁹Joab gave the king the total of the registration of the troops. There were eight hundred thousand valiant armed men from Israel and five hundred thousand men from Judah.

¹⁰David's conscience troubled him after he had taken a census of the troops. He said to the LORD, “I have sinned greatly in what I've done. Now, LORD, because I've been very foolish, please take away your servant's guilt.”

¹¹When David got up in the morning, the word of the LORD had come to the prophet Gad, David's seer: ¹²“Go and say to David, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am offering you three choices. Choose one of them, and I will do it to you.’”

¹³ So Gad went to David, told him the choices, and asked him, "Do you want three years of famine to come on your land, to flee from your foes three months while they pursue you, or to have a plague in your land three days? Now, consider carefully what answer I should take back to the one who sent me."

¹⁵ So the LORD sent a plague on Israel from that morning until the appointed time, and from Dan to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men died. ¹⁶ Then the angel extended his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, but the LORD relented concerning the destruction and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "Enough, withdraw your hand now!" The angel of the LORD was then at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

¹⁷ When David saw the angel striking the people, he said to the LORD, "Look, I am the one who has sinned; I am the one who has done wrong. But these sheep, what have they done? Please, let your hand be against me and my father's family."

¹⁸ Gad came to David that day and said to him, "Go up and set up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." ¹⁹ David went up in obedience to Gad's command, just as the LORD had commanded. ²⁰ Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants coming toward him, so he went out and paid homage to the king with his face to the ground.

²¹ Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?"

David replied, "To buy the threshing floor from you in order to build an altar to the LORD, so the plague on the people may be halted."

²² Araunah said to David, "My lord the king may take whatever he wants and offer it. Here are the oxen for a burnt offering and the threshing sledges and ox yokes for the wood." ²³ Your Majesty, Araunah gives everything here to the king." Then he said to the king, "May the LORD your God accept you."

²⁴ The king answered Araunah, "No, I insist on buying it from you for a price, for I will not offer to the LORD my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing." David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for twenty ounces of silver. ²⁵ He built an altar to the LORD there and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then the LORD was receptive to prayer for the land, and the plague on Israel ended.

1 Now King David was old and advanced in age. Although they covered him with bedclothes, he could not get warm. ² So his servants said to him: "Let us search for a young virgin for my lord the king. She is to attend the king and be his caregiver. She is to lie by your side so that my lord the king will get warm." ³ They searched for a beautiful girl throughout the territory of Israel; they found Abishag the Shunammite and brought her to the king. ⁴ The girl was of unsurpassed beauty, and she became the king's caregiver. She attended to him, but he was not intimate with her.

⁵ Adonijah son of Haggith kept exalting himself, saying, "I will be king!" He prepared chariots, cavalry, and fifty men to run ahead of him. ⁶ But his father had never once infuriated him by asking, "Why did you do that?" In addition, he was quite handsome and was born after Absalom. ⁷ He conspired with Joab son of Zeruiah and with the priest Abiathar. They supported Adonijah, ⁸ but the priest Zadok, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the prophet Nathan, Shim-ei, Rei, and David's royal guard did not side with Adonijah.

¹¹ Then Nathan said to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother, "Have you not heard that Adonijah son of Haggith has become king and our lord David does not know it? ¹² Now please come and let me advise you. Save your life and the life of your son Solomon. ¹³ Go, approach King David and say to him, 'My lord the king, did you not swear to your servant: Your son Solomon is to become king after me, and he is the one who is to sit on my throne? So why has Adonijah become king?' ¹⁴ At that moment, while you are still there speaking with the king, I'll come in after you and confirm your words."

¹⁵ So Bathsheba went to the king in his bedroom. Since the king was very old, Abishag the Shunammite was attending to him. ¹⁶ Bathsheba knelt low and paid homage to the king, and he asked, "What do you want?"

¹⁷ She replied, "My lord, you swore to your servant by the LORD your God, 'Your son Solomon is to become king after me, and he is the one who is to sit on my throne.' ¹⁸ Now look, Adonijah has become king. And, my lord the king, you didn't know it. ¹⁹ He has lavishly sacrificed oxen, fattened cattle, and sheep. He invited all the king's sons, the priest Abiathar, and Joab the commander of the army, but he did not invite your servant Solomon. ²⁰ Now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you to tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹ Otherwise, when my lord the king rests with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be regarded as criminals."

²⁴ "My lord the king," Nathan said, "did you say, 'Adonijah is to become king after me, and he is the one who is to sit on my throne?'" ²⁵ For today he went down and lavishly sacrificed oxen, fattened cattle, and sheep. He invited all the sons of the king, the commanders of the army, and the priest Abiathar. And look! They're eating and drinking in his presence, and they're saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!' ²⁶ But he did not invite me — me, your servant — or the priest Zadok or Benaiah son of Jehoiada or your servant Solomon. ²⁷ I'm certain my lord the king would not have let this happen without letting your servant know who will sit on my lord the king's throne after him."

²⁸ King David responded by saying, "Call in Bathsheba for me." So she came into the king's presence and stood before him. ²⁹ The king swore an oath and said, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from every difficulty, ³⁰ just as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel: Your son Solomon is to become king after me, and he is the one who is to sit on my throne in my place, that is exactly what I will do this very day."

³¹ Bathsheba knelt low with her face to the ground, paying homage to the king, and said, "May my lord King David live forever!"

³² King David then said, "Call in the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada for me." So they came into the king's presence. ³³ The king said to them, "Take my servants with you, have my son Solomon ride on my own mule, and take him down to Gihon. ³⁴ There, the priest Zadok and the prophet Nathan are to anoint him as king over Israel. You are to blow the ram's horn and say, 'Long live King Solomon!' ³⁵ You are to come up after him, and he is to come in and sit on my throne. He is the one who is to become king in my place; he is the one I have commanded to be ruler over Israel and Judah."

³⁶ "Amen," Benaiah son of Jehoiada replied to the king. "May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, so affirm it. ³⁷ Just as the LORD was with my lord the king, so may he be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."

³⁸ Then the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down, had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and took him to Gihon. ³⁹ The priest Zadok took the horn of oil from the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the ram's horn, and all the people proclaimed, "Long live King Solomon!" ⁴⁰ All the people went up after him, playing flutes and rejoicing with such a great joy that the earth split open from the sound.

⁴¹ Adonijah and all the invited guests who were with him heard the noise as they finished eating. Joab heard the sound of the ram's horn and said, "Why is the town in such an uproar?" ⁴² He was still speaking when Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest, suddenly arrived. Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are an important man, and you must be bringing good news."

⁴³ "Unfortunately not," Jonathan answered him. "Our lord King David has made Solomon king. ⁴⁴ And with Solomon, the king has sent the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have had him ride on the king's mule. ⁴⁵ The priest Zadok and the prophet Nathan have anointed him king in Gihon. They have gone up from there rejoicing. The town has been in an uproar; that's the noise you heard. ⁴⁶ Solomon has even taken his seat on the royal throne."

⁴⁷"The king's servants have also gone to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'May your God make the name of Solomon more well known than your name, and may he make his throne greater than your throne.' Then the king bowed in worship on his bed. ⁴⁸And the king went on to say this: 'Blessed be the LORD God of Israel! Today he has provided one to sit on my throne, and I am a witness.'"

⁴⁹Then all of Adonijah's guests got up trembling and went their separate ways. ⁵⁰Adonijah was afraid of Solomon, so he got up and went to take hold of the horns of the altar.

⁵¹It was reported to Solomon: "Look, Adonijah fears King Solomon, and he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon first swear to me that he will not kill his servant with the sword.'"

⁵²Then Solomon said, "If he is a man of character, not a single hair of his will fall to the ground, but if evil is found in him, he dies." ⁵³So King Solomon sent for him, and they took him down from the altar. He came and paid homage to King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, "Go to your home."

2 As the time approached for David to die, he ordered his son Solomon, ²"As for me, I am going the way of all of the earth. Be strong and be a man, ³and keep your obligation to the LORD your God to walk in his ways and to keep his statutes, commands, ordinances, and decrees. This is written in the law of Moses, so that you will have success in everything you do and wherever you turn, ⁴and so that the LORD will fulfill his promise that he made to me: 'If your sons guard their way to walk faithfully before me with all their heart and all their soul, you will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

⁵"You also know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me and what he did to the two commanders of Israel's army, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. He murdered them in a time of peace to avenge blood shed in war. He spilled that blood on his own waistband and on the sandals of his feet. ⁶Act according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray head descend to Sheol in peace.

⁸"Keep an eye on Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim who is with you. He uttered malicious curses against me the day I went to Mahanaim. But he came down to meet me at the Jordan River, and I swore to him by the LORD: 'I will never kill you with the sword.' ⁹So don't let him go unpunished, for you are a wise man. You know how to deal with him to bring his gray head down to Sheol with blood."

¹⁰Then David rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. ¹¹The length of time David reigned over Israel was forty years: he reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. ¹²Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingship was firmly established.

¹³Now Adonijah son of Haggith came to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. She asked, "Do you come peacefully?"

"Peacefully," he replied, ¹⁴and then asked, "May I talk with you?"

"Go ahead," she answered.

¹⁵"You know the kingship was mine," he said. "All Israel expected me to be king, but then the kingship was turned over to my brother, for the LORD gave it to him. ¹⁶So now I have just one request of you; don't turn me down." She said to him, "Go on."

¹⁷He replied, "Please speak to King Solomon since he won't turn you down. Let him give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife."

¹⁸"Very well," Bathsheba replied. "I will speak to the king for you."

¹⁹So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him about Adonijah. The king stood up to greet her, bowed to her, sat down on his throne, and had a throne placed for the king's mother. So she sat down at his right hand.

²⁰Then she said, "I have just one small request of you. Don't turn me down."

"Go ahead and ask, mother," the king replied, "for I won't turn you down."

²¹So she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to your brother Adonijah as a wife."

²²King Solomon answered his mother, "Why are you requesting Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Since he is my elder brother, you might as well ask the kingship for him, for the priest Abiathar, and for Joab son of Zeruiah."

²³Then King Solomon took an oath by the LORD: "May God punish me and do so severely if Adonijah has not made this request at the cost of his life. ²⁴And now, as the LORD lives — the one who established me, seated me on the throne of my father David, and made me a dynasty as he promised — I swear Adonijah will be put to death today!" ²⁵Then King Solomon dispatched Benaiah son of Jehoiada, who struck down Adonijah, and he died.

²⁶The king said to the priest Abiathar, "Go to your fields in Anathoth. Even though you deserve to die, I will not put you to death today, since you carried the ark of the LORD God in the presence of my father David and you suffered through all that my father suffered." ²⁷So Solomon banished Abiathar from being the LORD's priest, and it fulfilled the LORD's prophecy he had spoken at Shiloh against Eli's family.

²⁸The news reached Joab. Since he had supported Adonijah but not Absalom, Joab fled to the LORD's tabernacle and took hold of the horns of the altar.

²⁹It was reported to King Solomon: "Joab has fled to the LORD's tabernacle and is now beside the altar." Then Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada and told him, "Go and strike him down!"

³⁰So Benaiah went to the tabernacle and said to Joab, "This is what the king says: 'Come out!'"

But Joab said, "No, for I will die here."

So Benaiah took a message back to the king, "This is what Joab said, and this is how he answered me."

³¹The king said to him, "Do just as he says. Strike him down and bury him in order to remove from me and from my father's family the blood that Joab shed without just cause. ³²The LORD will bring back his own blood on his head because he struck down two men more righteous and better than he, without my father David's knowledge. With his sword, Joab murdered Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel's army, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of Judah's army. ³³The responsibility for their deaths will come back to Joab and to his descendants forever, but for David, his descendants, his dynasty, and his throne, there will be peace from the LORD forever."

³⁴Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up, struck down Joab, and put him to death. He was buried at his house in the wilderness. ³⁵Then the king appointed Benaiah son of Jehoiada in Joab's place over the army, and he appointed the priest Zadok in Abiathar's place.

³⁶Then the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Build a house for yourself in Jerusalem and live there, but don't leave there and go anywhere else.³⁷ On the day you do leave and cross the Kidron Valley, know for sure that you will certainly die. Your blood will be on your own head."

⁴¹ It was reported to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned.⁴² So the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Didn't I make you swear by the LORD and warn you, saying, 'On the day you leave and go anywhere else, know for sure that you will certainly die'? And you said to me, 'The sentence is fair; I will obey.'⁴³ So why have you not kept the LORD's oath and the command that I gave you?"⁴⁴ The king also said, "You yourself know all the evil that you did to my father David. Therefore, the LORD has brought back your evil on your head,⁴⁵ but King Solomon will be blessed, and David's throne will remain established before the LORD forever."

⁴⁶ Then the king commanded Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck Shimei down, and he died. So the kingdom was established in Solomon's hand.

3 Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt by marrying Pharaoh's daughter. Solomon brought her to the city of David until he finished building his palace, the LORD's temple, and the wall surrounding Jerusalem.² However, the people were sacrificing on the high places, because until that time a temple for the LORD's name had not been built.³ Solomon loved the LORD by walking in the statutes of his father David, but he also sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

⁴ The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there because it was the most famous high place. He offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.⁵ At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask. What should I give you?"

⁷ "LORD my God, you have now made your servant king in my father David's place. Yet I am just a youth with no experience in leadership.⁸ Your servant is among your people you have chosen, a people too many to be numbered or counted.⁹ So give your servant a receptive heart to judge your people and to discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of yours?"

¹⁰ Now it pleased the Lord that Solomon had requested this.¹¹ So God said to him, "Because you have requested this and did not ask for long life or riches for yourself, or the death of your enemies, but you asked discernment for yourself to administer justice,¹² I will therefore do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has never been anyone like you before and never will be again.¹³ In addition, I will give you what you did not ask for: both riches and honor, so that no king will be your equal during your entire life.¹⁴ If you walk in my ways and keep my statutes and commands just as your father David did, I will give you a long life."

¹⁵ Then Solomon woke up and realized it had been a dream. He went to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the LORD's covenant, and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then he held a feast for all his servants.

¹⁶ Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.¹⁷ One woman said, "Please, my lord, this woman and I live in the same house, and I had a baby while she was in the house.¹⁸ On the third day after I gave birth, she also had a baby and we were alone. No one else was with us in the house; just the two of us were there.¹⁹ During the night this woman's son died because she lay on him.²⁰ She got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while your servant was asleep. She laid him in her arms, and she put her dead son in my arms.²¹ When I got up in the morning to nurse my son, I discovered he was dead. That morning, when I looked closely at him I realized that he was not the son I gave birth to."

²² "No," the other woman said. "My son is the living one; your son is the dead one."

The first woman said, "No, your son is the dead one; my son is the living one." So they argued before the king.

²³ The king replied, "This woman says, 'This is my son who is alive, and your son is dead,' but that woman says, 'No, your son is dead, and my son is alive.'²⁴ The king continued, "Bring me a sword." So they brought the sword to the king.²⁵ And the king said, "Cut the living boy in two and give half to one and half to the other."

²⁶ The woman whose son was alive spoke to the king because she felt great compassion for her son. "My lord, give her the living baby," she said, "but please don't have him killed!"

But the other one said, "He will not be mine or yours. Cut him in two!"

²⁷ The king responded, "Give the living baby to the first woman, and don't kill him. She is his mother."²⁸ All Israel heard about the judgment the king had given, and they stood in awe of the king because they saw that God's wisdom was in him to carry out justice.

4 King Solomon reigned over all Israel,² and these were his officials:

Azariah son of Zadok, priest;

³ Elihoreph and Ahijah the sons of Shisha, secretaries;

Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud, court historian;

⁴ Benaiah son of Jehoiada, in charge of the army; Zadok and Abiathar, priests;

⁵ Azariah son of Nathan, in charge of the deputies;

Zabud son of Nathan, a priest and adviser to the king;

⁶ Ahishar, in charge of the palace;

and Adoniram son of Abda, in charge of forced labor.

⁷ Solomon had twelve deputies for all Israel. They provided food for the king and his household; each one made provision for one month out of the year.⁸ These were their names:

Ben-hur, in the hill country of Ephraim;

⁹ Ben-deker, in Makaz, Shaabim, Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan;

¹⁰ Ben-hesed, in Arubboth (he had Socoh and the whole land of Hephher);

¹¹ Ben-abinadab, in all Naphath-dor (Taphath daughter of Solomon was his wife);

¹² Baana son of Ahilud, in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth-shean which is beside Zarethan below Jezree, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, as far as the other side of Jokmeam;

¹³ Ben-geber, in Ramoth-gilead (he had the villages of Jair son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, and he had the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars);

¹⁴ Ahinadab son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;

¹⁵ Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also had married a daughter of Solomon — Basemath);

¹⁶ Baana son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;

¹⁷ Jehoshaphat son of Paruah, in Issachar;

¹⁸ Shimei son of Ela, in Benjamin;

¹⁹ Geber son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of King Sihon of the Amorites and of King Og of Bashan.

There was one deputy in the land of Judah.

²⁰ Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea; they were eating, drinking, and rejoicing. ²¹ Solomon ruled all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines and as far as the border of Egypt. They offered tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

³² Solomon spoke 3,000 proverbs, and his songs numbered 1,005. ³³ He spoke about trees, from the cedar in Lebanon to the hyssop growing out of the wall. He also spoke about animals, birds, reptiles, and fish. ³⁴ Embassadors of all peoples, sent by every king on earth who had heard of his wisdom, came to listen to Solomon's wisdom.

5 King Hiram of Tyre sent his emissaries to Solomon when he heard that he had been anointed king in his father's place, for Hiram had always been friends with David.

² Solomon sent this message to Hiram: ³ "You know my father David was not able to build a temple for the name of the LORD his God. This was because of the warfare all around him until the LORD put his enemies under his feet.

⁴ The LORD my God has now given me rest on every side; there is no enemy or crisis. ⁵ So I plan to build a temple for the name of the LORD my God, according to what the LORD promised my father David: 'I will put your son on your throne in your place, and he will build the temple for my name.'

⁶ "Therefore, command that cedars from Lebanon be cut down for me. My servants will be with your servants, and I will pay your servants' wages according to whatever you say, for you know that not a man among us knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."

⁷ When Hiram heard Solomon's words, he rejoiced greatly and said, "Blessed be the LORD today! He has given David a wise son to be over this great people!" ⁸ Then Hiram sent a reply to Solomon, saying, "I have heard your message; I will do everything you want regarding the cedar and cypress timber. ⁹ My servants will bring the logs down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place you indicate. I will break them apart there, and you can take them away. You then can meet my needs by providing my household with food."

¹⁰ So Hiram provided Solomon with all the cedar and cypress timber he wanted, ¹¹ and Solomon provided Hiram with one hundred thousand bushels of wheat as food for his household and one hundred ten thousand gallons of oil from crushed olives. Solomon did this for Hiram year after year.

¹² The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he had promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty.

¹³ Then King Solomon drafted forced laborers from all Israel; the labor force numbered thirty thousand men. ¹⁴ He sent ten thousand to Lebanon each month in shifts; one month they were in Lebanon, two months they were at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor. ¹⁵ Solomon had seventy thousand porters and eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountains, ¹⁶ not including his thirty-three hundred deputies in charge of the work. They supervised the people doing the work. ¹⁷ The king commanded them to quarry large, costly stones to lay the foundation of the temple with dressed stones. ¹⁸ So Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders, along with the Gebalites, quarried the stone and prepared the timber and stone for the temple's construction.

⁵ He then built a chambered structure along the temple wall, encircling the walls of the temple, that is, the sanctuary and the inner sanctuary. And he made side chambers all around. ⁶ The lowest chamber was 7 ½ feet wide, the middle was 9 feet wide, and the third was 10 ½ feet wide. He also provided offset ledges for the temple all around the outside so that nothing would be inserted into the temple walls. ⁷ The temple's construction used finished stones cut at the quarry so that no hammer, chisel, or any iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built.

⁸ The door for the lowest side chamber was on the right side of the temple. They went up a stairway to the middle chamber, and from the middle to the third. ⁹ When he finished building the temple, he paneled it with boards and planks of cedar. ¹⁰ He built the chambers along the entire temple, joined to the temple with cedar beams; each story was 7 ½ feet high.

¹¹ The word of the LORD came to Solomon: ¹² "As for this temple you are building — if you walk in my statutes, observe my ordinances, and keep all my commands by walking in them, I will fulfill my promise to you, which I made to your father David. ¹³ I will dwell among the Israelites and not abandon my people Israel.”

²³ In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim 15 feet high out of olive wood. ²⁴ One wing of the first cherub was 7 1/2 feet long, and the other wing was 7 1/2 feet long. The wingspan was 15 feet from tip to tip. ²⁵ The second cherub also was 15 feet; both cherubim had the same size and shape. ²⁶ The first cherub's height was 15 feet and so was the second cherub's. ²⁷ Then he put the cherubim inside the inner temple. Since their wings were spread out, the first one's wing touched one wall while the second cherub's wing touched the other wall, and in the middle of the temple their wings were touching wing to wing. ²⁸ He also overlaid the cherubim with gold.

³¹ For the entrance of the inner sanctuary, he made olive wood doors. The pillars of the doorposts were five-sided. ³² The two doors were made of olive wood. He carved cherubim, palm trees, and flower blossoms on them and overlaid them with gold, hammering gold over the cherubim and palm trees. ³³ In the same way, he made four-sided olive wood doorposts for the sanctuary entrance. ³⁴ The two doors were made of cypress wood; the first door had two folding sides, and the second door had two folding panels. ³⁵ He carved cherubim, palm trees, and flower blossoms on them and overlaid them with gold applied evenly over the carving. ³⁶ He built the inner courtyard with three rows of dressed stone and a row of trimmed cedar beams.

³⁷ The foundation of the LORD's temple was laid in Solomon's fourth year in the month of Ziv. ³⁸ In his eleventh year in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the temple was completed in every detail and according to every specification. So he built it in seven years.

7 Solomon completed his entire palace complex after thirteen years of construction. ² He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon. It was one hundred fifty feet long, seventy-five feet wide, and forty-five feet high on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on top of the pillars. ³ It was paneled above with cedar at the top of the chambers that rested on forty-five pillars, fifteen per row. ⁴ There were three rows of window frames, facing each other in three tiers. ⁵ All the doors and doorposts had rectangular frames, the openings facing each other in three tiers. ⁶ He made the hall of pillars seventy-five feet long and forty-five feet wide. A portico was in front of the pillars, and a canopy with pillars was in front of them. ⁷ He made the Hall of the Throne where he would judge — the Hall of Judgment. It was paneled with cedar from the floor to the rafters. ⁸ Solomon's own palace where he would live, in the other courtyard behind the hall, was of similar construction. And he made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, his wife.

¹⁵ He cast two bronze pillars, each 27 feet high and 18 feet in circumference. ¹⁶ He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on top of the pillars; 7 1/2 feet was the height of the first capital, and 7 1/2 feet was also the height of the second capital. ¹⁷ The capitals on top of the pillars had gratings of latticework, wreaths made of chainwork — seven for the first capital and seven for the second.

¹⁸ He made the pillars with two encircling rows of pomegranates on the one grating to cover the capital on top; he did the same for the second capital. ¹⁹ And the capitals on top of the pillars in the portico were shaped like lilies, six feet high. ²⁰ The capitals on the two pillars were also immediately above the rounded surface next to the grating, and two hundred pomegranates were in rows encircling each capital. ²¹ He set up the pillars at the portico of the sanctuary: he set up the right pillar and named it Jachin; then he set up the left pillar and named it Boaz. ²² The tops of the pillars were shaped like lilies. Then the work of the pillars was completed.

²⁷ Then he made ten bronze water carts. Each water cart was 6 feet long, 6 feet wide, and 4 1/2 feet high. ²⁸ This was the design of the carts: They had frames; the frames were between the cross-pieces, ²⁹ and on the frames between the cross-pieces were lions, oxen, and cherubim. On the cross-pieces there was a pedestal above, and below the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work. ³⁰ Each cart had four bronze wheels with bronze axes. Underneath the four corners of the basin were cast supports, each next to a wreath.³¹ And the water cart's opening inside the crown on top was eighteen inches wide. The opening was round, made as a pedestal twenty-seven inches wide. On it were carvings, but their frames were square, not round.³² There were four wheels under the frames, and the wheel axes were part of the water cart; each wheel was twenty-seven inches tall.³³ The wheels' design was similar to that of chariot wheels: their axes, rims, spokes, and hubs were all of cast metal.³⁴ Four supports were at the four corners of each water cart; each support was one piece with the water cart.³⁵ At the top of the cart was a band nine inches high encircling it; also, at the top of the cart, its braces and its frames were one piece with it.³⁶ He engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees on the plates of its braces and on its frames, wherever each had space, with encircling wreaths.³⁷ In this way he made the ten water carts using the same casting, dimensions, and shape for all of them.

³⁸Then he made ten bronze basins — each basin held 220 gallons and each was six feet wide — one basin for each of the ten water carts.³⁹ He set five water carts on the right side of the temple and five on the left side. He put the basin near the right side of the temple toward the southeast.⁴⁰ Then Hiram made the basins, the shovels, and the sprinkling basins.

So Hiram finished all the work that he was doing for King Solomon on the LORD's temple:⁴¹ two pillars; bowls for the capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two gratings for covering both bowls of the capitals that were on top of the pillars;⁴² the four hundred pomegranates for the two gratings (two rows of pomegranates for each grating covering both capitals' bowls on top of the pillars);⁴³ the ten water carts; the ten basins on the water carts;⁴⁴ the basin; the twelve oxen underneath the basin;⁴⁵ and the pots, shovels, and sprinkling basins. All the utensils that Hiram made for King Solomon at the LORD's temple were made of burnished bronze.⁴⁶ The king had them cast in clay molds in the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zarethan.⁴⁷ Solomon left all the utensils unweighed because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

⁵¹So all the work King Solomon did in the LORD's temple was completed. Then Solomon brought in the consecrated things of his father David — the silver, the gold, and the utensils — and put them in the treasuries of the LORD's temple.

8 At that time Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, all the tribal heads and the ancestral leaders of the Israelites before him at Jerusalem in order to bring the ark of the LORD's covenant from the city of David, that is Zion.² So all the men of Israel were assembled in the presence of King Solomon in the month of Ethanim, which is the seventh month, at the festival.

³All the elders of Israel came, and the priests picked up the ark.⁴ The priests and the Levites brought the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting, and the holy utensils that were in the tent.⁵ King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israel, who had gathered around him and were with him in front of the ark, were sacrificing sheep, goats, and cattle that could not be counted or numbered, because there were so many.⁶ The priests brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the most holy place beneath the wings of the cherubim.⁷ For the cherubim were spreading their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim covered the ark and its poles from above.⁸ The poles were so long that their ends were seen from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary, but they were not seen from outside the sanctuary; they are still there today.⁹ Nothing was in the ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites when they came out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰When the priests came out of the holy place, the cloud filled the LORD's temple,¹¹ and because of the cloud, the priests were not able to continue ministering, for the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

¹²Then Solomon said:

The LORD said that he would dwell
in total darkness.

¹³ I have indeed built an exalted temple for you,
a place for your dwelling forever.

¹⁴The king turned around and blessed the entire congregation of Israel while they were standing.¹⁵ He said:

Blessed be the LORD God of Israel!
He spoke directly to my father David,
and he has fulfilled the promise by his power.
He said,

¹⁶ "Since the day I brought my people Israel
out of Egypt,

I have not chosen a city to build a temple in
among any of the tribes of Israel,
so that my name would be there.
But I have chosen David to rule my people Israel."

¹⁷ My father David had his heart set on building a temple for the name of the LORD,
the God of Israel.

¹⁸ But the LORD said to my father David,
"Since your heart was set on building a temple
for my name,

you have done well to have this desire.

¹⁹ Yet you are not the one to build it;
instead, your son, your own offspring,
will build it for my name."

²⁰ The LORD has fulfilled what he promised.
I have taken the place of my father David,
and I sit on the throne of Israel,
as the LORD promised.

I have built the temple for the name of the LORD,
the God of Israel.

²¹ I have provided a place there for the ark,
where the LORD's covenant is that he made with our ancestors
when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

²²Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the entire congregation of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven.²³ He said:

LORD God of Israel,
there is no God like you
in heaven above or on earth below, who keeps the gracious covenant
with your servants who walk before you

- with all their heart.
- 24 You have kept what you promised to your servant, my father David. You spoke directly to him and you fulfilled your promise by your power as it is today.
- 25 Therefore, LORD God of Israel, keep what you promised to your servant, my father David: You will never fail to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take care to walk before me as you have walked before me.
- 26 Now LORD God of Israel, please confirm what you promised to your servant, my father David.
- 27 But will God indeed live on earth? Even heaven, the highest heaven, cannot contain you, much less this temple I have built.
- 28 Listen to your servant's prayer and his petition, LORD my God, so that you may hear the cry and the prayer that your servant prays before you today, so that your eyes may watch over this temple night and day, toward the place where you said, "My name will be there," and so that you may hear the prayer that your servant prays toward this place.
- 30 Hear the petition of your servant and your people Israel, which they pray toward this place. May you hear in your dwelling place in heaven. May you hear and forgive.
- 31 When a man sins against his neighbor and is forced to take an oath, and he comes to take an oath before your altar in this temple, may you hear in heaven and act. May you judge your servants, condemning the wicked man by bringing what he has done on his own head and providing justice for the righteous by rewarding him according to his righteousness.
- 33 When your people Israel are defeated before an enemy, because they have sinned against you, and they return to you and praise your name, and they pray and plead with you for mercy in this temple, may you hear in heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel. May you restore them to the land you gave their ancestors.
- 35 When the skies are shut and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you, and they pray toward this place and praise your name, and they turn from their sins because you are afflicting them, may you hear in heaven and forgive the sin of your servants and your people Israel, so that you may teach them the good way
- they should walk in. May you send rain on your land that you gave your people for an inheritance.
- 37 When there is famine in the land, when there is pestilence, when there is blight or mildew, locust or grasshopper, when their enemy besieges them in the land and its cities, when there is any plague or illness, every prayer or petition that any person or that all your people Israel may have — they each know their own affliction — as they spread out their hands toward this temple,
- 39 may you hear in heaven, your dwelling place, and may you forgive, act, and give to everyone according to all their ways, since you know each heart, for you alone know every human heart, so that they may fear you all the days they live on the land you gave our ancestors.
- 41 Even for the foreigner who is not of your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your name —
- 42 for they will hear of your great name, strong hand, and outstretched arm, and will come and pray toward this temple —
- 43 may you hear in heaven, your dwelling place, and do according to all the foreigner asks. Then all peoples of earth will know your name, to fear you as your people Israel do and to know that this temple I have built bears your name.
- 44 When your people go out to fight against their enemies, wherever you send them, and they pray to the LORD in the direction of the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your name, may you hear their prayer and petition in heaven and uphold their cause.
- 46 When they sin against you — for there is no one who does not sin — and you are angry with them and hand them over to the enemy, and their captors deport them to the enemy's country — whether distant or nearby —
- 47 and when they come to their senses in the land where they were deported and repent and petition you in their captors' land: "We have sinned and done wrong; we have been wicked,"
- 48 and when they return to you with all their heart and all their soul in the land of their enemies who took them captive, and when they pray to you in the direction of their land that you gave their ancestors,

the city you have chosen,
and the temple I have built for your name, 49 may you hear in heaven, your dwelling place,
their prayer and petition and uphold their cause.
50 May you forgive your people
who sinned against you
and all their rebellions against you,
and may you grant them compassion
before their captors,
so that they may treat them compassionately.
51 For they are your people and your inheritance;
you brought them out of Egypt,
out of the middle of an iron furnace.
52 May your eyes be open to your servant's petition and to the petition of your people Israel, listening to them whenever they call to you.
53 For you, Lord God, have set them apart
as your inheritance
from all peoples of the earth,
as you spoke through your servant Moses when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt.

⁵⁴When Solomon finished praying this entire prayer and petition to the LORD, he got up from kneeling before the altar of the LORD, with his hands spread out toward heaven, ⁵⁵and he stood and blessed the whole congregation of Israel with a loud voice: ⁵⁶"Blessed be the LORD! He has given rest to his people Israel according to all he has said. Not one of all the good promises he made through his servant Moses has failed. ⁵⁷May the LORD our God be with us as he was with our ancestors. May he not abandon us or leave us ⁵⁸so that he causes us to be devoted to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commands, statutes, and ordinances, which he commanded our ancestors. ⁵⁹May my words with which I have made my petition before the LORD be near the LORD our God day and night. May he uphold his servant's cause and the cause of his people Israel, as each day requires. ⁶⁰May all the peoples of the earth know that the LORD is God. There is no other! ⁶¹Be wholeheartedly devoted to the LORD our God to walk in his statutes and to keep his commands, as it is today."

⁶⁴On the same day, the king consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the LORD's temple because that was where he offered the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat of the fellowship offerings since the bronze altar before the LORD was too small to accommodate the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the fellowship offerings.

⁶⁵Solomon and all Israel with him — a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt — observed the festival at that time in the presence of the LORD our God, seven days, and seven more days — fourteen days. ⁶⁶On the fifteenth day he sent the people away. So they blessed the king and went to their homes rejoicing and with happy hearts for all the goodness that the LORD had done for his servant David and for his people Israel.

9 When Solomon finished building the temple of the LORD, the royal palace, and all that Solomon desired to do, ²the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time just as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. ³The LORD said to him:

I have heard your prayer and petition you have made before me. I have consecrated this temple you have built, to put my name there forever; my eyes and my heart will be there at all times.

⁴As for you, if you walk before me as your father David walked, with a heart of integrity and in what is right, doing everything I have commanded you, and if you keep my statutes and ordinances, ⁵I will establish your royal throne over Israel forever, as I promised your father David: You will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.

⁶If you or your sons turn away from following me and do not keep my commands — my statutes that I have set before you — and if you go and serve other gods and bow in worship to them, ⁷I will cut off Israel from the land I gave them, and I will reject the temple I have sanctified for my name. Israel will become an object of scorn and ridicule among all the peoples.

⁸Though this temple is now exalted, everyone who passes by will be appalled and will scoff. They will say: Why did the LORD do this to this land and this temple?

⁹Then they will say: Because they abandoned the LORD their God who brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt. They held on to other gods and bowed in worship to them and served them. Because of this, the LORD brought all this ruin on them.

²⁰As for all the peoples who remained of the Amorites, Hethites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not Israelites — ²¹their descendants who remained in the land after them, those whom the Israelites were unable to destroy completely — Solomon imposed forced labor on them; it is still this way today. ²²But Solomon did not consign the Israelites to slavery; they were soldiers, his servants, his commanders, his captains, and commanders of his chariots and his cavalry. ²³These were the deputies who were over Solomon's work: 550 who supervised the people doing the work.

²⁴Pharaoh's daughter moved from the city of David to the house that Solomon had built for her; he then built the terraces.

²⁵Three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar he had built for the LORD, and he burned incense with them in the LORD's presence. So he completed the temple.

10 The queen of Sheba heard about Solomon's fame connected with the name of the LORD and came to test him with riddles. ²She came to Jerusalem with a very large entourage, with camels bearing spices, gold in great abundance, and precious stones. She came to Solomon and spoke to him about everything that was on her mind. ³So Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too difficult for the king to explain to her. ⁴When the queen of Sheba observed all of Solomon's wisdom, the palace he had built, ⁵the food at his table, his servants' residence, his attendants' service and their attire, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he offered at the LORD's temple, it took her breath away.

⁶She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your words and about your wisdom is true. ⁷But I didn't believe the reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, I was not even told half. Your wisdom and prosperity far exceed the report I heard. ⁸How happy are your men. How happy are these servants of yours, who always stand in your presence hearing your wisdom. ⁹Blessed be the LORD your God! He delighted in you and put you on the throne of Israel, because of the LORD's eternal love for Israel. He has made you king to carry out justice and righteousness."

¹⁰Then she gave the king four and a half tons of gold, a great quantity of spices, and precious stones. Never again did such a quantity of spices arrive as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹¹In addition, Hiram's fleet that carried gold from Ophir brought from Ophir a large quantity of almug wood and precious stones. ¹²The king made the almug wood into steps for the LORD's temple and the king's palace and into lyres and harps for the singers. Never before did such almug wood arrive, and the like has not been seen again.

¹³King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba her every desire — whatever she asked — besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. Then she, along with her servants, returned to her own country.

¹⁴The weight of gold that came to Solomon annually was twenty-five tons, ¹⁵besides what came from merchants, traders' merchandise, and all the Arabian kings and governors of the land.

¹⁶King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; fifteen pounds of gold went into each shield. ¹⁷He made three hundred small shields of hammered gold; nearly four pounds of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

¹⁸The king also made a large ivory throne and overlaid it with fine gold. ¹⁹The throne had six steps; there was a rounded top at the back of the throne, armrests on either side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests. ²⁰Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps, one at each end. Nothing like it had ever been made in any other kingdom.

²¹All of King Solomon's drinking cups were gold, and all the utensils of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. There was no silver, since it was considered as nothing in Solomon's time, ²²for the king had ships of Tarshish at sea with Hiram's fleet, and once every three years the ships of Tarshish would arrive bearing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

²³King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the world in riches and in wisdom. ²⁴The whole world wanted an audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom that God had put in his heart. ²⁵Every man would bring his annual tribute: items of silver and gold, clothing, weapons, spices, and horses and mules.

11 King Solomon loved many foreign women in addition to Pharaoh's daughter: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women ²from the nations about which the LORD had told the Israelites, "You must not intermarry with them, and they must not intermarry with you, because they will turn your heart away to follow their gods." To these women Solomon was deeply attached in love. ³He had seven hundred wives who were princesses and three hundred who were concubines, and they turned his heart away.

⁴When Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart away to follow other gods. He was not wholeheartedly devoted to the LORD his God, as his father David had been.

⁵Solomon followed Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and Milcom, the abhorrent idol of the Ammonites. ⁶Solomon did what was evil in the LORD's sight, and unlike his father David, he did not remain loyal to the LORD.

⁷At that time, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abhorrent idol of Moab, and for Milcom, the abhorrent idol of the Ammonites, on the hill across from Jerusalem. ⁸He did the same for all his foreign wives, who were burning incense and offering sacrifices to their gods.

⁹The LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice. ¹⁰He had commanded him about this, so that he would not follow other gods, but Solomon did not do what the LORD had commanded.

¹¹Then the LORD said to Solomon, "Since you have done this and did not keep my covenant and my statutes, which I commanded you, I will tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant. ¹²However, I will not do it during your lifetime for the sake of your father David; I will tear it out of your son's hand. ¹³Yet I will not tear the entire kingdom away from him. I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem that I chose."

¹⁴So the LORD raised up Hadad the Edomite as an enemy against Solomon. He was of the royal family in Edom. ¹⁵Earlier, when David was in Edom, Joab, the commander of the army, had gone to bury the dead and had struck down every male in Edom. ¹⁶For Joab and all Israel had remained there six months, until he had killed every male in Edom. ¹⁷Hadad fled to Egypt, along with some Edomites from his father's servants. At the time Hadad was a small boy.¹⁸ Hadad and his men set out from Midian and went to Paran. They took men with them from Paran and went to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house, ordered that he be given food, and gave him land.¹⁹ Pharaoh liked Hadad so much that he gave him a wife, the sister of his own wife, Queen Tahpenes.²⁰ Tahpenes's sister gave birth to Hadad's son Genubath. Tahpenes herself weaned him in Pharaoh's palace, and Genubath lived there along with Pharaoh's sons.

²¹When Hadad heard in Egypt that David rested with his fathers and that Joab, the commander of the army, was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me leave, so I may go to my own country."

²²But Pharaoh asked him, "What do you lack here with me for you to want to go back to your own country?"

"Nothing," he replied, "but please let me leave."

²³God raised up Rezon son of Eliada as an enemy against Solomon. Rezon had fled from his master King Hadadezer of Zobah²⁴ and gathered men to himself. He became leader of a raiding party when David killed the Zobaites. He went to Damascus, lived there, and became king in Damascus.²⁵ Rezon was Israel's enemy throughout Solomon's reign, adding to the trouble Hadad had caused. He reigned over Aram and loathed Israel.

²⁹During that time, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met Jeroboam on the road as Jeroboam came out of Jerusalem. Now Ahijah had wrapped himself with a new cloak, and the two of them were alone in the open field.³⁰ Then Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he had on, tore it into twelve pieces,³¹ and said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself, for this is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'I am about to tear the kingdom out of Solomon's hand. I will give you ten tribes,³² but one tribe will remain his for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city I chose out of all the tribes of Israel.³³ For they have abandoned me; they have bowed down to Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, to Chemosh, the god of Moab, and to Milcom, the god of the Ammonites. They have not walked in my ways to do what is right in my sight and to carry out my statutes and my judgments as his father David did.

³⁴"However, I will not take the whole kingdom from him but will let him be ruler all the days of his life for the sake of my servant David, whom I chose and who kept my commands and my statutes.³⁵ I will take ten tribes of the kingdom from his son and give them to you.³⁶ I will give one tribe to his son, so that my servant David will always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city I chose for myself to put my name there.³⁷ I will appoint you, and you will reign as king over all you want, and you will be king over Israel.

³⁸"After that, if you obey all I command you, walk in my ways, and do what is right in my sight in order to keep my statutes and my commands as my servant David did, I will be with you. I will build you a lasting dynasty just as

I built for David, and I will give you Israel.³⁹ I will humble David's descendants, because of their unfaithfulness, but not forever."

⁴⁰Therefore, Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but he fled to Egypt, to King Shishak of Egypt, where he remained until Solomon's death.

⁴¹The rest of the events of Solomon's reign, along with all his accomplishments and his wisdom, are written in the Book of Solomon's Events.⁴² The length of Solomon's reign in Jerusalem over all Israel totaled forty years.⁴³ Solomon rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David. His son Rehoboam became king in his place.

12 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.² When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard about it, he stayed in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon's presence. Jeroboam stayed in Egypt.³ But they summoned him, and Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam:⁴ "Your father made our yoke harsh. You, therefore, lighten your father's harsh service and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you."

⁵Rehoboam replied, "Go away for three days and then return to me." So the people left.⁶ Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon when he was alive, asking, "How do you advise me to respond to this people?"

⁷They replied, "Today if you will be a servant to this people and serve them, and if you respond to them by speaking kind words to them, they will be your servants forever."

⁸But he rejected the advice of the elders who had advised him and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and attended him.⁹ He asked them, "What message do you advise that we send back to this people who said to me, 'Lighten the yoke your father put on us?'"

¹⁰Then the young men who had grown up with him told him, "This is what you should say to this people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you, make it lighter on us!' This is what you should tell them: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist!'¹¹ Although my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with barbed whips."

¹²So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had ordered: "Return to me on the third day."¹³ Then the king answered the people harshly. He rejected the advice the elders had given him¹⁴ and spoke to them according to the young men's advice: "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with barbed whips."

¹⁵The king did not listen to the people, because this turn of events came from the LORD to carry out his word, which the LORD had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.¹⁶ When all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them, the people answered him:

What portion do we have in David?

We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.

Israel, return to your tents;

David, now look after your own house!

So Israel went to their tents,¹⁷ but Rehoboam reigned over the Israelites living in the cities of Judah.

¹⁸Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of forced labor, but all Israel stoned him to death.

King Rehoboam managed to get into the chariot and flee to Jerusalem.¹⁹ Israel is still in rebellion against the house of David today.

²⁰When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, they summoned him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. No one followed the house of David except the tribe of Judah alone.²¹When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mobilized one hundred eighty thousand fit young soldiers from the entire house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin to fight against the house of Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam son of Solomon.²² But the word of God came to Shemaiah, the man of God:²³ "Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, to the whole house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people,²⁴ This is what the LORD says: You are not to march up and fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Each of you return home, for this situation is from me."

So they listened to the word of the LORD and went back according to the word of the LORD.

²⁵Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. From there he went out and built Penuel.²⁶ Jeroboam said to himself, "The kingdom might now return to the house of David.²⁷ If these people regularly go to offer sacrifices in the LORD's temple in Jerusalem, the heart of these people will return to their lord, King Rehoboam of Judah. They will kill me and go back to the king of Judah."²⁸ So the king sought advice.

Then he made two golden calves, and he said to the people, "Going to Jerusalem is too difficult for you. Israel, here are your gods who brought you up from the land of Egypt."²⁹ He set up one in Bethel, and put the other in Dan.³⁰ This led to sin; the people walked in procession before one of the calves all the way to Dan.

³¹Jeroboam also made shrines on the high places and made priests from the ranks of the people who were not Levites.³² Jeroboam made a festival in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month, like the festival in Judah. He offered sacrifices on the altar; he made this offering in Bethel to sacrifice to the calves he had made. He also stationed the priests in Bethel for the high places he had made.³³ He offered sacrifices on the altar he had set up in Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month. He chose this month on his own. He made a festival for the Israelites, offered sacrifices on the altar, and burned incense.

13 A man of God came, however, from Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD while Jeroboam was standing beside the altar to burn incense.² The man of God cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD: "Altar, altar, this is what the LORD says, 'A son will be born to the house of David, named Josiah, and he will sacrifice on you the priests of the high places who are burning incense on you. Human bones will be burned on you.'"³ He gave a sign that day. He said, "This is the sign that the LORD has spoken: 'The altar will now be ripped apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out.'"

⁴When the king heard the message that the man of God had cried out against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar and said, "Arrest him!" But the hand he stretched out against him withered, and he could not pull it back to himself.⁵ The altar was ripped apart, and the ashes poured from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

⁶Then the king responded to the man of God, "Plead for the favor of the LORD your God and pray for me so that my hand may be restored to me." So the man of God pleaded for the favor of the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him and became as it had been at first.

⁸But the man of God replied, "If you were to give me half your house, I still wouldn't go with you, and I wouldn't eat food or drink water in this place,⁹ for this is what I was commanded by the word of the LORD: 'You must not eat food or drink water or go back the way you came.'"¹⁰ So he went another way; he did not go back by the way he had come to Bethel.

¹¹Now a certain old prophet was living in Bethel. His son came and told him all the deeds that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. His sons also told their father the words that he had spoken to the king.¹² Then their father asked them, "Which way did he go?" His sons had seen the way taken by the man of God who had come from Judah.¹³ Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled the donkey for him, and he got on it.¹⁴ He followed the man of God and found him sitting under an oak tree. He asked him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

"I am," he said.

¹⁵Then he said to him, "Come home with me and eat some food."

¹⁶But he answered, "I cannot go back with you or accompany you; I will not eat food or drink water with you in this place."¹⁷ For a message came to me by the word of the LORD: "You must not eat food or drink water there or go back by the way you came."

¹⁸He said to him, "I am also a prophet like you. An angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD: 'Bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat food and drink water.'"¹⁹ The old prophet deceived him,¹⁹ and the man of God went back with him, ate food in his house, and drank water.

²⁰While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back,²¹ and the prophet cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, "This is what the LORD says: 'Because you rebelled against the LORD's command and did not keep the command that the LORD your God commanded you — ²²but you went back and ate food and drank water in the place that he said to you, "Do not eat food and do not drink water" — your corpse will never reach the grave of your fathers.'"

²⁵There were men passing by who saw the corpse thrown on the road and the lion standing beside it, and they went and spoke about it in the city where the old prophet lived.²⁶ When the prophet who had brought him back from his way heard about it, he said, "He is the man of God who disobeyed the LORD's command. The LORD has given him to the lion, and it has mauled and killed him, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke to him."

²⁷Then the old prophet instructed his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." They saddled it,²⁸ and he went and found the corpse thrown on the road with the donkey and the lion standing beside the corpse. The lion had not eaten the corpse or mauled the donkey.²⁹ So the prophet lifted the corpse of the man of God and laid it on the donkey and brought it back. The old prophet came into the city to mourn and to bury him.³⁰ Then he laid the corpse in his own grave, and they mourned over him: "Oh, my brother!"

³¹ After he had buried him, he said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones,³² for the message that he cried out by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the shrines of the high places in the cities of Samaria is certain to happen."

³³ Even after this, Jeroboam did not repent of his evil way but again made priests for the high places from the ranks of the people. He ordained whoever so desired it, and they became priests of the high places.³⁴ This was the sin that caused the house of Jeroboam to be cut off and obliterated from the face of the earth.

14 At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam became sick.² Jeroboam said to his wife, "Go disguise yourself, so they won't know that you're Jeroboam's wife, and go to Shiloh. The prophet Ahijah is there; it was he who told about me becoming king over this people.³ Take with you ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy."

⁴ Jeroboam's wife did that: she went to Shiloh and arrived at Ahijah's house. Ahijah could not see; he was blind due to his age.⁵ But the LORD had said to Ahijah, "Jeroboam's wife is coming soon to ask you about her son, for he is sick. You are to say such and such to her. When she arrives, she will be disguised."

⁶ When Ahijah heard the sound of her feet entering the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam! Why are you disguised? I have bad news for you.⁷ Go tell Jeroboam, 'This is what the LORD God of Israel says: I raised you up from among the people, appointed you ruler over my people Israel,⁸ tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you. But you were not like my servant David, who kept my commands and followed me with all his heart, doing only what is right in my sight.⁹ You behaved more wickedly than all who were before you. In order to anger me, you have proceeded to make for yourself other gods and cast images, but you have flung me behind your back.¹⁰ Because of all this, I am about to bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam:

I will wipe out all of Jeroboam's males,
both slave and free, in Israel;
I will sweep away the house of Jeroboam
as one sweeps away dung until it is all gone!

¹¹ Anyone who belongs to Jeroboam and dies
in the city,
the dogs will eat,
and anyone who dies in the field,
the birds will eat,
for the LORD has spoken!"

¹² "As for you, get up and go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the boy will die.¹³ All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He alone out of Jeroboam's house will be given a proper burial because out of the house of Jeroboam something favorable to the LORD God of Israel was found in him.¹⁴ The LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel, who will wipe out the house of Jeroboam. This is the day, yes, even today!¹⁵ For the LORD will strike Israel so that they will shake as a reed shakes in water. He will uproot Israel from this good soil that he gave to their ancestors. He will scatter them beyond the Euphrates because they made their Asherah poles, angering the LORD.

¹⁷ Then Jeroboam's wife got up and left and went to Tirzah. As she was crossing the threshold of the house, the boy died.¹⁸ He was buried, and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD he had spoken through his servant the prophet Ahijah.

²² Judah did what was evil in the LORD's sight. They provoked him to jealous anger more than all that their ancestors had done with the sins they committed.²³ They also built for themselves high places, sacred pillars, and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree;²⁴ there were even male cult prostitutes in the land. They imitated all the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites.

²⁹ The rest of the events of Rehoboam's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written about in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings.³⁰ There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam throughout their reigns.³¹ Rehoboam rested with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonite. His son Abijam became king in his place.

15 In the eighteenth year of Israel's King Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah,² and he reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

³ Abijam walked in all the sins his father before him had committed, and he was not wholeheartedly devoted to the LORD his God as his ancestor David had been.⁴ But for the sake of David, the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem by raising up his son after him and by preserving Jerusalem.⁵ For David did what was right in the LORD's sight, and he did not turn aside from anything he had commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hethite.

⁹ In the twentieth year of Israel's King Jeroboam, Asa became king of Judah,¹⁰ and he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His grandmother's name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

¹⁶ There was war between Asa and King Baasha of Israel throughout their reigns. ¹⁷ Israel's King Baasha went to war against Judah. He built Ramah in order to keep anyone from leaving or coming to King Asa of Judah. ¹⁸ So Asa withdrew all the silver and gold that remained in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and the treasuries of the royal palace and gave it to his servants. Then King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad son of Tabrimmon son of Hezion king of Aram who lived in Damascus, saying, ¹⁹ "There is a treaty between me and you, between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you a gift of silver and gold. Go and break your treaty with King Baasha of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

²⁵ Nadab son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Judah's King Asa; he reigned over Israel two years. ²⁶ Nadab did what was evil in the LORD's sight and walked in the ways of his father and the sin he had caused Israel to commit.

²⁹ When Baasha became king, he struck down the entire house of Jeroboam. He did not leave Jeroboam any survivors but destroyed his family according to the word of the LORD he had spoken through his servant Ahijah the Shilonite. ³⁰ This was because Jeroboam had angered the LORD God of Israel by the sins he had committed and had caused Israel to commit.

³¹ The rest of the events of Nadab's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. ³² There was war between Asa and King Baasha of Israel throughout their reigns.

³³ In the third year of Judah's King Asa, Baasha son of Ahijah became king over all Israel, and he reigned in Tirzah twenty-four years. ³⁴ He did what was evil in the LORD's sight and walked in the ways of Jeroboam and the sin he had caused Israel to commit.

16 Now the word of the LORD came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha: ² "Because I raised you up from the dust and made you ruler over my people Israel, but you have walked in the ways of Jeroboam and have caused my people Israel to sin, angering me with their sins, ³ take note: I will eradicate Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat:

⁴ Anyone who belongs to Baasha and dies in the city, the dogs will eat, and anyone who is his and dies in the field, the birds will eat."

⁸ In the twenty-sixth year of Judah's King Asa, Elah son of Baasha became king over Israel, and he reigned in Tirzah two years.

¹¹ When he became king, as soon as he was seated on his throne, Zimri struck down the entire house of Baasha. He did not leave a single male, including his kinsmen and his friends. ¹² So Zimri destroyed the entire house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD he had spoken against Baasha through the prophet Jehu. ¹³ This happened because of all the sins of Baasha and those of his son Elah, which they committed and caused Israel to commit, angering the LORD God of Israel with their worthless idols.

¹⁴ The rest of the events of Elah's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings.

¹⁵ In the twenty-seventh year of Judah's King Asa, Zimri became king for seven days in Tirzah. Now the troops were encamped against Gibbethon of the Philistines. ¹⁶ When these troops heard that Zimri had not only conspired but had also struck down the king, then all Israel made Omri, the army commander, king over Israel that very day in the camp. ¹⁷ Omri along with all Israel marched up from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah. ¹⁸ When Zimri saw that the city was captured, he entered the citadel of the royal palace and burned it down over himself. He died ¹⁹ because of the sin he committed by doing what was evil in the LORD's sight and by walking in the ways of Jeroboam and the sin he caused Israel to commit.

²⁰ The rest of the events of Zimri's reign, along with the conspiracy that he instigated, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. ²¹ At that time the people of Israel were divided: half the people followed Tibni son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri. ²² However, the people who followed Omri proved stronger than those who followed Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri became king.

²³ In the thirty-first year of Judah's King Asa, Omri became king over Israel, and he reigned twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah, ²⁴ then he bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for 150 pounds of silver, and he built up the hill. He named the city he built Samaria based on the name Shemer, the owner of the hill.

²⁵ Omri did what was evil in the LORD's sight; he did more evil than all who were before him. ²⁶ He walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat in every respect and continued in his sins that he caused Israel to commit, angering the LORD God of Israel with their worthless idols. ²⁷ The rest of the events of Omri's reign, along with his accomplishments and the might he exercised, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. ²⁸ Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. His son Ahab became king in his place.

²⁹ Ahab son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Judah's King Asa; Ahab son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years. ³⁰ But Ahab son of Omri did what was evil in the LORD's sight more than all who were before him. ³¹ Then, as if following the sin of Jeroboam son of Nebat were not enough, he married Jezebel, the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and then proceeded to serve Baal and bow in worship to him. ³² He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal that he had built in Samaria. ³³ Ahab also made an Asherah pole. Ahab did more to anger the LORD God of Israel than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

³⁴ During his reign, Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho. At the cost of Abiram his firstborn, he laid its foundation, and at the cost of Segub his youngest, he finished its gates, according to the word of the LORD he had spoken through Joshua son of Nun.

17 Now Elijah the Tishbite, from the Gilead settlers, said to Ahab, "As the LORD God of Israel lives, in whose presence I stand, there will be no dew or rain during these years except by my command!"

² Then the word of the LORD came to him: ³ "Leave here, turn eastward, and hide at the Wadi Cherith where it enters the Jordan. ⁴ You are to drink from the wadi. I have commanded the ravens to provide for you there."

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to him: ⁹ "Get up, go to Zarephath that belongs to Sidon and stay there. Look, I have commanded a woman who is a widow to provide for you there." ¹⁰ So Elijah got up and went to Zarephath. When he arrived at the city gate, there was a widow gathering wood. Elijah called to her and said, "Please bring me a little water in a cup and let me drink." ¹¹ As she went to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand."

¹² But she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I don't have anything baked — only a handful of flour in the jar and a bit of oil in the jug. Just now, I am gathering a couple of sticks in order to go prepare it for myself and my son so we can eat it and die."

¹³ Then Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid; go and do as you have said. But first make me a small loaf from it and bring it out to me. Afterward, you may make some for yourself and your son, ¹⁴ for this is what the LORD God of Israel says, 'The flour jar will not become empty and the oil jug will not run dry until the day the LORD sends rain on the surface of the land.'"

¹⁵ So she proceeded to do according to the word of Elijah. Then the woman, Eijah, and her household ate for many days. ¹⁶ The flour jar did not become empty, and the oil jug did not run dry, according to the word of the LORD he had spoken through Elijah.

¹⁷ After this, the son of the woman who owned the house became ill. His illness got worse until he stopped breathing. ¹⁸ She said to Eijah, "Man of God, why are you here? Have you come to call attention to my iniquity so that my son is put to death?"

¹⁹ But Eijah said to her, "Give me your son." So he took him from her arms, brought him up to the upstairs room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed. ²⁰ Then he cried out to the LORD and said, "LORD my God, have you also brought tragedy on the widow I am staying with by killing her son?" ²¹ Then he stretched himself out over the boy three times. He cried out to the LORD and said, "LORD my God, please let this boy's life come into my again!"

²² So the LORD listened to Eijah, and the boy's life came into him again, and he lived. ²³ Then Eijah took the boy, brought him down from the upstairs room into the house, and gave him to his mother. Eijah said, "Look, your son is alive."

²⁴ Then the woman said to Eijah, "Now I know you are a man of God and the LORD's word from your mouth is true."

18 After along time, the word of the LORD came to Eijah in the third year: "Go and present yourself to Ahab. I will send rain on the surface of the land." ² So Eijah went to present himself to Ahab.

The famine was severe in Samaria. ³ Ahab called for Obadiah, who was in charge of the palace. Obadiah was a man who greatly feared the LORD ⁴ and took a hundred prophets and hid them, fifty men to a cave, and provided them with food and water when Jezebel slaughtered the LORD's prophets. ⁵ Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go throughout the land to every spring and to every wadi. Perhaps we'll find grass so we can keep the horses and mules alive and not have to destroy any cattle." ⁶ They divided the land between them in order to cover it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went the other way by himself.

⁷ While Obadiah was walking along the road, Eijah suddenly met him. When Obadiah recognized him, he fell face-down and said, "Is it you, my lord Eijah?"

⁸ "It is I," he replied. "Go tell your lord, 'Eijah is here!'"

⁹ But Obadiah said, "What sin have I committed, that you are handing your servant over to Ahab to put me to death?" ¹⁰ As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent someone to search for you. When they said, 'He is not here,' he made that kingdom or nation swear they had not found you.

¹¹ "Now you say, 'Go tell your lord, 'Eijah is here!'" ¹² But when I leave you, the Spirit of the LORD may carry you off to some place I don't know. Then when I go report to Ahab and he doesn't find you, he will kill me. But I, your servant, have feared the LORD from my youth. ¹³ Wasn't it reported to me the lord what I did when Jezebel slaughtered the LORD's prophets? I hid a hundred of the prophets of the LORD, fifty men to a cave, and I provided them with food and water. ¹⁴ Now you say, 'Go tell your lord, 'Eijah is here!' " He will kill me! "

¹⁵Then Elijah said, "As the LORD of Armies lives, in whose presence I stand, today I will present myself to Ahab."

¹⁶Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him. Then Ahab went to meet Elijah. ¹⁷When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, "Is that you, the one ruining Israel?"

¹⁸He replied, "I have not ruined Israel, but you and your father's family have, because you have abandoned the LORD's commands and followed the Baals. ¹⁹Now summon all Israel to meet me at Mount Carmel, along with the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table."

²⁰So Ahab summoned all the Israelites and gathered the prophets at Mount Carmel. ²¹Then Elijah approached all the people and said, "How long will you waver between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him. But if Baal, follow him." But the people didn't answer him a word.

²²Then Elijah said to the people, "I am the only remaining prophet of the LORD, but Baal's prophets are 450 men. ²³Let two bulls be given to us. They are to choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and place it on the wood but not light the fire. I will prepare the other bull and place it on the wood but not light the fire. ²⁴Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD. The God who answers with fire, he is God."

All the people answered, "That's fine."

²⁵Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Since you are so numerous, choose for yourselves one bull and prepare it first. Then call on the name of your god but don't light the fire."

²⁶So they took the bull that he gave them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, "Baal, answer us!" But there was no sound; no one answered. Then they danced around the altar they had made.

²⁷At noon Elijah mocked them. He said, "Shout loudly, for he's a god! Maybe he's thinking it over; maybe he has wandered away; or maybe he's on the road. Perhaps he's sleeping and will wake up!" ²⁸They shouted loudly, and cut themselves with knives and spears, according to their custom, until blood gushed over them. ²⁹All afternoon they kept on raving until the offering of the evening sacrifice, but there was no sound; no one answered, no one paid attention.

³⁰Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near me." So all the people approached him. Then he repaired the LORD's altar that had been torn down: ³¹Elijah took twelve stones — according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, "Israel will be your name" — ³²and he built an altar with the stones in the name of the LORD. Then he made a trench around the altar large enough to hold about four gallons. ³³Next, he arranged the wood, cut up the bull, and placed it on the wood. He said, "Fill four water pots with water and pour it on the offering to be burned and on the wood." ³⁴Then he said, "A second time!" and they did it a second time. And then he said, "A third time!" and they did it a third time. ³⁵So the water ran all around the altar; he even filled the trench with water.

³⁶At the time for offering the evening sacrifice, the prophet Elijah approached the altar and said, "LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, today let it be known that you are God in Israel and I am your servant, and that at your word I have done all these things. ³⁷Answer me, LORD! Answer me so that this people will know that you, the LORD, are God and that you have turned their hearts back."

³⁸Then the LORD's fire fell and consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones, and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench. ³⁹When all the people saw it, they fell facedown and said, "The LORD, he is God! The LORD, he is God!"

⁴⁰Then Elijah ordered them, "Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let even one of them escape." So they seized them, and Elijah brought them down to the Wadi Kishon and slaughtered them there. ⁴¹Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of a rainstorm."

⁴²So Ahab went to eat and drink, but Elijah went up to the summit of Carmel. He bent down on the ground and put his face between his knees. ⁴³Then he said to his servant, "Go up and look toward the sea."

So he went up, looked, and said, "There's nothing."

Seven times Elijah said, "Go back."

⁴⁴On the seventh time, he reported, "There's a cloud as small as a man's hand coming up from the sea."

Then Elijah said, "Go and tell Ahab, 'Get your chariot ready and go down so the rain doesn't stop you.'"

⁴⁵In a little while, the sky grew dark with clouds and wind, and there was a downpour. So Ahab got in his chariot and went to Jezreel. ⁴⁶The power of the LORD was on Elijah, and he tucked his mantle under his belt and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

19 Ahab told Jezebel everything that Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. ²So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "May the gods punish me and do so severely if I don't make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow!"

³Then Elijah became afraid and immediately ran for his life. When he came to Beer-sheba that belonged to Judah, he left his servant there, ⁴but he went on a day's journey into the wilderness. He sat down under a broom tree and prayed that he might die. He said, "I have had enough! LORD, take my life, for I'm no better than my fathers." ⁵Then he lay down and slept under the broom tree.

Suddenly, an angel touched him. The angel told him, "Get up and eat." ⁶Then he looked, and there at his head was a loaf of bread baked over hot stones, and a jug of water. So he ate and drank and lay down again. ⁷Then the angel of the LORD returned for a second time and touched him. He said, "Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you." ⁸So he got up, ate, and drank. Then on the strength from that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of God. ⁹He entered a cave there and spent the night.

Suddenly, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

¹⁰He replied, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God of Armies, but the Israelites have abandoned your covenant, torn down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are looking for me to take my life."

¹¹Then he said, "Go out and stand on the mountain in the LORD's presence."

At that moment, the LORD passed by. A great and mighty wind was tearing at the mountains and was shattering cliffs before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. ¹²After the earthquake there was a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire there was a voice, a soft whisper. ¹³When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave.

Suddenly, a voice came to him and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

¹⁵ Then the LORD said to him, "Go and return by the way you came to the Wilderness of Damascus. When you arrive, you are to anoint Hazael as king over Aram. ¹⁶ You are to anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel and Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. ¹⁷ Then Jehu will put to death whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, and Elisha will put to death whoever escapes the sword of Jehu. ¹⁸ But I will leave seven thousand in Israel—every knee that has not bowed to Baal and every mouth that has not kissed him."

¹⁹ Eijah left there and found Elisha son of Shaphat as he was plowing. Twelve teams of oxen were in front of him, and he was with the twelfth team. Eijah walked by him and threw his mantle over him. ²⁰ Elisha left the oxen, ran to follow Eijah, and said, "Please let me kiss my father and mother, and then I will follow you."

"Go on back," he replied, "for what have I done to you?"

²¹ So he turned back from following him, took the team of oxen, and slaughtered them. With the oxen's wooden yoke and plow, he cooked the meat and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he left, followed Eijah, and served him.

20 Now King Ben-hadad of Aram assembled his entire army. Thirty-two kings, along with horses and chariots, were with him. He marched up, besieged Samaria, and fought against it. ² He sent messengers into the city to King Ahab of Israel and said to him, "This is what Ben-hadad says: ³ 'Your silver and your gold are mine! And your best wives and children are mine as well!'"

⁴ Then the king of Israel answered, "Just as you say, my lord the king: I am yours, along with all that I have."

⁵ The messengers then returned and said, "This is what Ben-hadad says: 'I have sent messengers to you, saying: You are to give me your silver, your gold, your wives, and your children. ⁶ But at this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will search your palace and your servants' houses. They will lay their hands on and take away whatever is precious to you.'"

⁷ Then the king of Israel called for all the elders of the land and said, "Recognize that this one is only looking for trouble, for he demanded my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, and I didn't turn him down."

⁸ All the elders and all the people said to him, "Don't listen or agree."

⁹ So he said to Ben-hadad's messengers, "Say to my lord the king, 'Everything you demanded of your servant the first time, I will do, but this thing I cannot do.'" So the messengers left and took word back to him.

¹⁰ Then Ben-hadad sent messengers to him and said, "May the gods punish me and do so severely if Samaria's dust amounts to a handful for each of the people who follow me."

¹¹ The king of Israel answered, "Say this: 'Don't let the one who puts on his armor boast like the one who takes it off.'"

¹² When Ben-hadad heard this response, while he and the kings were drinking in their quarters, he said to his servants, "Take your positions." So they took their positions against the city.

¹³ A prophet approached King Ahab of Israel and said, "This is what the LORD says: 'Do you see this whole huge army? Watch, I am handing it over to you today so that you may know that I am the LORD.'"

¹⁴ Ahab asked, "By whom?"

And the prophet said, "This is what the LORD says: 'By the young men of the provincial leaders.'"

Then he asked, "Who is to start the battle?"

He said, "You."

¹⁵ So Ahab mobilized the young men of the provincial leaders, and there were 232. After them he mobilized all the Israelite troops: 7,000. ¹⁶ They marched out at noon while Ben-hadad and the thirty-two kings who were helping him were getting drunk in their quarters. ¹⁷ The young men of the provincial leaders marched out first. Then Ben-hadad sent out scouts, and they reported to him, saying, "Men are marching out of Samaria."

¹⁸ So he said, "If they have marched out in peace, take them alive, and if they have marched out for battle, take them alive."

²² The prophet approached the king of Israel and said to him, "Go and strengthen yourself, then consider carefully what you should do, for in the spring the king of Aram will attack you."

²³ Now the king of Aram's servants said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hill country. That's why they were stronger than we were. Instead, we should fight with them on the plain; then we will certainly be stronger than they are. ²⁴ Also do this: remove each king from his position and appoint captains in their place. ²⁵ Raise another army for yourself like the army you lost—horse for horse, chariot for chariot—and let's fight with them on the plain; and we will certainly be stronger than they are." The king listened to them and did it.

²⁸ Then the man of God approached and said to the king of Israel, "This is what the LORD says: 'Because the Arameans have said: The LORD is a god of the mountains and not a god of the valleys, I will hand over all this whole huge army to you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

²⁹ They camped opposite each other for seven days. On the seventh day, the battle took place, and the Israelites struck down the Arameans—one hundred thousand foot soldiers in one day. ³⁰ The ones who remained fled into the city of Aphek, and the wall fell on those twenty-seven thousand remaining men.

Ben-hadad also fled and went into an inner room in the city. ³¹ His servants said to him, "Consider this: we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. So let's put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and let's go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will spare your life."

³² So they dressed with sackcloth around their waists and ropes around their heads, went to the king of Israel, and said, "Your servant Ben-hadad says, 'Please spare my life.'"

So he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

³³ Now the men were looking for a sign of hope, so they quickly picked up on this and responded, "Yes, it is your brother Ben-hadad."

Then he said, "Go and bring him."

So Ben-hadad came out to him, and Ahab had him come up into the chariot. ³⁴ Then Ben-hadad said to him, "I restore to you the cities that my father took from your father, and you may set up marketplaces for yourself in Damascus, like my father set up in Samaria."

Ahab responded, "On the basis of this treaty, I release you." So he made a treaty with him and released him.

³⁵ One of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow prophet by the word of the LORD, "Strike me!" But the man refused to strike him.

³⁶ He told him, "Because you did not listen to the LORD, mark my words: When you leave me, a lion will kill you." When he left him, a lion attacked and killed him.

³⁷ The prophet found another man and said to him, "Strike me!" So the man struck him, inflicting a wound.

³⁸ Then the prophet went and waited for the king on the road. He disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.

³⁹ As the king was passing by, he cried out to the king and said, "Your servant marched out into the middle of the battle. Suddenly, a man turned aside and brought someone to me and said, 'Guard this man! If he is ever missing, it will be your life in place of his life, or you will weigh out seventy-five pounds of silver.'" ⁴⁰ But while your servant was busy here and there, he disappeared."

The king of Israel said to him, "That will be your sentence; you yourself have decided it."

⁴¹ He quickly removed the bandage from his eyes. The king of Israel recognized that he was one of the prophets. ⁴² The prophet said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Because you released from your hand the man I had set apart for destruction, it will be your life in place of his life and your people in place of his people.'" ⁴³ The king of Israel left for home resentful and angry, and he entered Samaria.

21 Some time passed after these events. Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard; it was in Jezreel next to the palace of King Ahab of Samaria. ² So Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard so I can have it for a vegetable garden, since it is right next to my palace. I will give you a better vineyard in its place, or if you prefer, I will give you its value in silver."

³ But Naboth said to Ahab, "I will never give my fathers' inheritance to you."

⁴ So Ahab went to his palace resentful and angry because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had told him. He had said, "I will not give you my fathers' inheritance." He lay down on his bed, turned his face away, and didn't eat any food.

⁵ Then his wife Jezebel came to him and said to him, "Why are you so upset that you refuse to eat?"

⁶ "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite," he replied. "I told him: Give me your vineyard for silver, or if you wish, I will give you a vineyard in its place. But he said, 'I won't give you my vineyard!'"

⁷ Then his wife Jezebel said to him, "Now, exercise your royal power over Israel. Get up, eat some food, and be happy. For I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite." ⁸ So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal. She sent the letters to the elders and nobles who lived with Naboth in his city. ⁹ In the letters, she wrote:

Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth at the head of the people. ¹⁰ Then seat two wicked men opposite him and have them testify against him, saying, "You have cursed God and the king!" Then take him out and stone him to death.

¹⁵ When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, "Get up and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite who refused to give it to you for silver, since Naboth isn't alive, but dead." ¹⁶ When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite to take possession of it.

¹⁷ Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: ¹⁸ "Get up and go to meet King Ahab of Israel, who is in Samaria. He's in Naboth's vineyard, where he has gone to take possession of it." ¹⁹ Tell him, "This is what the LORD says: Have you murdered and also taken possession?" Then tell him, "This is what the LORD says: In the place where the dogs licked up Naboth's blood, the dogs will also lick up your blood!"

²⁰ Ahab said to Elijah, "So, my enemy, you've found me, have you?"

He replied, "I have found you because you devoted yourself to do what is evil in the LORD's sight. ²¹ This is what the LORD says: I am about to bring disaster on you and will eradicate your descendants:

I will wipe out all of Ahab's males, both slave and free, in Israel;

²² I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Anijah, because you have angered me and caused Israel to sin." ²³ The LORD also speaks of Jezebel: "The dogs will eat Jezebel in the plot of land at Jezreel:

²⁷ When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put sackcloth over his body, and fasted. He lay down in sackcloth and walked around subdued. ²⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: ²⁹ "Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before me? I will not bring the disaster during his lifetime, because he has humbled himself before me. I will bring the disaster on his house during his son's lifetime."

22 There was a lull of three years without war between Aram and Israel. ² However, in the third year, King Jehoshaphat of Judah went to visit the king of Israel. ³ The king of Israel had said to his servants, "Don't you know that Ramoth-gilead is ours, but we're doing nothing to take it from the king of Aram? "4 So he asked Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight Ramoth-gilead?"

Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

5 But Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "First, please ask what the LORD's will is."

6 So the king of Israel gathered the prophets, about four hundred men, and asked them, "Should I go against Ramoth-gilead for war or should I refrain?"

They replied, "March up, and the LORD will hand it over to the king."

7 But Jehoshaphat asked, "Isn't there a prophet of the LORD here anymore? Let's ask him."

8 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man who can inquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies good about me, but only disaster. He is Micaiah son of Imlah."

"The king shouldn't say that!" Jehoshaphat replied.

9 So the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Hurry and get Micaiah son of Imlah!"

10 Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah, clothed in royal attire, were each sitting on his own throne. They were on the threshing floor at the entrance to the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying in front of them. 11 Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made iron horns and said, "This is what the LORD says: 'You will gore the Arameans with these until they are finished off.'" 12 And all the prophets were prophesying the same: "March up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for the LORD will hand it over to the king."

13 The messenger who went to call Micaiah instructed him, "Look, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable for the king. So let your words be like theirs, and speak favorably."

14 But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, I will say whatever the LORD says to me."

15 So he went to the king, and the king asked him, "Micaiah, should we go to Ramoth-gilead for war, or should we refrain?"

Micaiah told him, "March up and succeed. The LORD will hand it over to the king."

16 But the king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear not to tell me anything but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

17 So Micaiah said:

I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd.

And the LORD said,

"They have no master;

let everyone return home in peace."

18 So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you he never prophesies good about me, but only disaster?"

19 Then Micaiah said, "Therefore, hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and the whole heavenly army was standing by him at his right hand and at his left hand. 20 And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab to march up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' So one was saying this and another was saying that.

21 Then a spirit came forward, stood in the LORD's presence, and said, 'I will entice him.'

22 "The LORD asked him, 'How?'

"He said, 'I will go and become a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.'

"Then he said, 'You will certainly entice him and prevail. Go and do that.'

23 "You see, the LORD has put a lying spirit into the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the LORD has pronounced disaster against you."

24 Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up, hit Micaiah on the cheek, and demanded, "Did the Spirit of the LORD leave me to speak to you?"

25 Micaiah replied, "You will soon see when you go to hide in an inner chamber on that day."

26 Then the king of Israel ordered, "Take Micaiah and return him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash, the king's son, 27 and say, 'This is what the king says: Put this guy in prison and feed him only a little bread and water until I come back safely.'"

28 But Micaiah said, "If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me." Then he said, "Listen, all you people!"

29 Then the king of Israel and Judah's King Jehoshaphat went up to Ramoth-gilead. 30 But the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your royal attire." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

31 Now the king of Aram had ordered his thirty-two chariot commanders, "Do not fight with anyone at all except the king of Israel."

32 When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they shouted, "He must be the king of Israel!" So they turned to fight against him, but Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 When the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

34 But a man drew his bow without taking special aim and struck the king of Israel through the joints of his armor. So he said to his charioteer, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am badly wounded!" 35 The battle raged throughout that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans. He died that evening, and blood from his wound flowed into the bottom of the chariot. 36 Then the cry rang out in the army as the sun set, declaring:

Each man to his own city,
and each man to his own land!

37 So the king died and was brought to Samaria. They buried the king in Samaria. 38 Then someone washed the chariot at the pool of Samaria. The dogs licked up his blood, and the prostitutes bathed in it, according to the word of the LORD that he had spoken.

39 The rest of the events of Ahab's reign, along with all his accomplishments, including the ivory palace he built, and all the cities he built, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. 40 Ahab rested with his fathers, and his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

41 Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Israel's King Ahab. 42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king; he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. 43 He walked in all the ways of his father Asa; he did not turn away from them but did what was right in the LORD's sight. However, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. 44 Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.

45 The rest of the events of Jehoshaphat's reign, along with the might he exercised and how he waged war, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. 46 He eradicated from the land the rest of the male cult prostitutes who were left from the days of his father Asa. 47 There was no king in Edom; a deputy served as king.⁴⁸ Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go because the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber.⁴⁹ At that time, Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships," but Jehoshaphat was not willing.⁵⁰ Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of his ancestor David. His son Jehoram became king in his place.

⁵¹ Ahaziah son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Judah's King Jehoshaphat, and he reigned over Israel two years.⁵² He did what was evil in the Lord's sight. He walked in the ways of his father, in the ways of his mother, and in the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin.⁵³ He served Baal and bowed in worship to him. He angered the LORD God of Israel just as his father had done.

2 KINGS

1 After Ahab's death, Moab rebelled against Israel. ² Ahaziah had fallen through the latticed window of his upstairs room in Samaria and was injured. So he sent messengers, instructing them, "Go inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover from this injury."

³ But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Go and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?' ⁴ Therefore, this is what the LORD says: You will not get up from your sickbed; you will certainly die.'" Then Elijah left.

⁵ The messengers returned to the king, who asked them, "Why have you come back?"

⁶ They replied, "A man came to meet us and said, 'Go back to the king who sent you and declare to him: This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you're sending these men to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore, you will not get up from your sickbed; you will certainly die.'"

⁷ The king asked them, "What sort of man came up to meet you and spoke those words to you?"

⁸ They replied, "A hairy man with a leather belt around his waist."

He said, "It's Elijah the Tishbite."

⁹ So King Ahaziah sent a captain with his fifty men to Elijah. When the captain went up to him, he was sitting on top of the hill. He announced, "Man of God, the king declares, 'Come down!'"

¹⁰ Elijah responded to the captain, "If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

¹¹ So the king sent another captain with his fifty men to Elijah. He took in the situation and announced, "Man of God, this is what the king says: 'Come down immediately!'"

¹² Elijah responded, "If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." So a divine fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

¹³ Then the king sent a third captain with his fifty men. The third captain went up and fell on his knees in front of Elijah and begged him, "Man of God, please let my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours be precious to you.

¹⁴ Already fire has come down from heaven and consumed the first two captains with their companies, but this time let my life be precious to you."

¹⁵ The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him. Don't be afraid of him." So he got up and went down with him to the king.

¹⁶ Then Elijah said to King Ahaziah, "This is what the LORD says: 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron — is it because there is no God in Israel for you to inquire of his will? — you will not get up from your sickbed; you will certainly die.'"

¹⁷ Ahaziah died according to the word of the LORD that Elijah had spoken. Since he had no son, Joram became king in his place. This happened in the second year of Judah's King Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat. ¹⁸ The rest of the events of Ahaziah's reign, along with his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings.

2 The time had come for the LORD to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind. Elijah and Elisha were traveling from Gilgal, ² and Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; the LORD is sending me on to Bethel."

But Elisha replied, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

³ Then the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha and said, "Do you know that the LORD will take your master away from you today?"

He said, "Yes, I know. Be quiet."

⁴ Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here; the LORD is sending me to Jericho."

But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went to Jericho.

⁵ Then the sons of the prophets who were in Jericho came up to Elisha and said, "Do you know that the LORD will take your master away from you today?"

He said, "Yes, I know. Be quiet."

⁶ Elijah said to him, "Stay here; the LORD is sending me to the Jordan."

But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on.

⁷ Fifty men from the sons of the prophets came and stood observing them at a distance while the two of them stood by the Jordan. ⁸ Elijah took his mantle, rolled it up, and struck the water, which parted to the right and left. Then the two of them crossed over on dry ground. ⁹ When they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I can do for you before I am taken from you."

So Elisha answered, "Please, let me inherit two shares of your spirit."

¹⁰ Elijah replied, "You have asked for something difficult. If you see me being taken from you, you will have it. If not, you won't."

When he could see him no longer, he took hold of his own clothes, tore them in two, ¹³ picked up the mantle that had fallen off Elijah, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. ¹⁴ He took the mantle Elijah had dropped, and he struck the water. "Where is the LORD God of Elijah?" he asked. He struck the water himself, and it parted to the right and the left, and Elisha crossed over.

¹⁵ When the sons of the prophets from Jericho who were observing saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." They came to meet him and bowed down to the ground in front of him.

¹⁶ Then the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "Since there are fifty strong men here with your servants, please let them go and search for your master. Maybe the Spirit of the LORD has carried him away and put him on one of the mountains or into one of the valleys."

He answered, "Don't send them."

¹⁷ However, they urged him to the point of embarrassment, so he said, "Send them." They sent fifty men, who looked for three days but did not find him. ¹⁸ When they returned to him in Jericho where he was staying, he said to them, "Didn't I tell you not to go?"

¹⁹The men of the city said to Elisha, "My lord can see that even though the city's location is good, the water is bad and the land unfruitful."

²⁰He replied, "Bring me a new bowl and put salt in it."

After they had brought him one, ²¹Elisha went out to the spring, threw salt in it, and said, "This is what the LORD says: 'I have healed this water. No longer will death or unfruitfulness result from it.'" ²²Therefore, the water still remains healthy today according to the word that Elisha spoke.

²³From there Elisha went up to Bethel. As he was walking up the path, some small boys came out of the city and jeered at him, chanting, "Go up, baldy! Go up, baldy!" ²⁴He turned around, looked at them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the children. ²⁵From there Elisha went to Mount Carmel, and then he returned to Samaria.

3 Joram son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria during the eighteenth year of Judah's King Jehoshaphat, and he reigned twelve years. ²He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, but not like his father and mother, for he removed the sacred pillar of Baal his father had made. ³Nevertheless, Joram clung to the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit. He did not turn away from them.

⁴King Mesha of Moab was a sheep breeder. He used to pay the king of Israel one hundred thousand lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams, ⁵but when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. ⁶So King Joram marched out from Samaria at that time and mobilized all Israel. ⁷Then he sent a message to King Jehoshaphat of Judah: "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?"

Jehoshaphat said, "I will go. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

⁸He asked, "Which route should we take?"

He replied, "The route of the Wilderness of Edom."

⁹So the king of Israel, the king of Judah, and the king of Edom set out. After they had traveled their indirect route for seven days, they had no water for the army or the animals with them.

¹⁰Then the king of Israel said, "Oh no, the LORD has summoned these three kings, only to hand them over to Moab."

¹¹But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there a prophet of the LORD here? Let's inquire of the LORD through him."

One of the servants of the king of Israel answered, "Elisha son of Shaphat, who used to pour water on Elijah's hands, is here."

¹²Jehoshaphat affirmed, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went to him.

¹³However, Elisha said to King Joram of Israel, "What do we have in common? Go to the prophets of your father and your mother!"

But the king of Israel replied, "No, because it is the LORD who has summoned these three kings to hand them over to Moab."

¹⁴Elisha responded, "By the life of the LORD of Armies, before whom I stand: If I did not have respect for King Jehoshaphat of Judah, I wouldn't look at you; I would not take notice of you. ¹⁵Now, bring me a musician."

While the musician played, the LORD's hand came on Elisha. ¹⁶Then he said, "This is what the LORD says: 'Dig ditch after ditch in this wadi.' ¹⁷For the LORD says, 'You will not see wind or rain, but the wadi will be filled with water, and you will drink—you and your cattle and your animals.' ¹⁸This is easy in the LORD's sight. He will also hand Moab over to you. ¹⁹Then you will attack every fortified city and every choice city. You will cut down every good tree and stop up every spring. You will ruin every good piece of land with stones."

²⁰About the time for the grain offering the next morning, water suddenly came from the direction of Edom and filled the land.

²¹All Moab had heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. So all who could bear arms, from the youngest to the oldest, were summoned and took their stand at the border. ²²When they got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water, and the Moabites saw that the water across from them was red like blood. ²³"This is blood!" they exclaimed. "The kings have crossed swords and their men have killed one another. So, to the spoil, Moab!"

²⁴However, when the Moabites came to Israel's camp, the Israelites attacked them, and they fled from them. So Israel went into the land attacking the Moabites. ²⁵They would destroy the cities, and each of them would throw a stone to cover every good piece of land. They would stop up every spring and cut down every good tree. This went on until only the buildings of Kir-hareseth were left. Then men with slings surrounded the city and attacked it.

²⁶When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took seven hundred swordsmen with him to try to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not do it. ²⁷So he took his firstborn son, who was to become king in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering on the city wall. Great wrath was on the Israelites, and they withdrew from him and returned to their land.

4 One of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, "Your servant, my husband, has died. You know that your servant feared the LORD. Now the creditor is coming to take my two children as his slaves."

²Elisha asked her, "What can I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?"

She said, "Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil."

³Then he said, "Go out and borrow empty containers from all your neighbors. Do not get just a few. ⁴Then go in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour oil into all these containers. Set the full ones to one side." ⁵So she left.

After she had shut the door behind her and her sons, they kept bringing her containers, and she kept pouring. ⁶When they were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another container."

But he replied, "There aren't any more." Then the oil stopped.

⁷She went and told the man of God, and he said, "Go sell the oil and pay your debt; you and your sons can live on the rest."

⁸One day Elisha went to Shunem. A prominent woman who lived there persuaded him to eat some food. So whenever he passed by, he stopped there to eat. ⁹Then she said to her husband, "I know that the one who often passes by here is a holy man of God, ¹⁰so let's make a small, walled-in upper room and put a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp there for him. Whenever he comes, he can stay there."

¹¹One day he came there and stopped at the upstairs room to lie down. ¹²He ordered his attendant Gehazi, "Call this Shunammite woman." So he called her and she stood before him.

¹³ Then he said to Gehazi, "Say to her, 'Look, you've gone to all this trouble for us. What can we do for you? Can we speak on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?'"

She answered, "I am living among my own people."

¹⁴ So he asked, "Then what should be done for her?"

Gehazi answered, "Well, she has no son, and her husband is old."

¹⁵ "Call her," Elisha said. So Gehazi called her, and she stood in the doorway. ¹⁶ Elisha said, "At this time next year you will have a son in your arms."

Then she said, "No, my lord. Man of God, do not lie to your servant."

¹⁷ The woman conceived and gave birth to a son at the same time the following year, as Elisha had promised her.

¹⁸ The child grew and one day went out to his father and the harvesters. ¹⁹ Suddenly he complained to his father, "My head! My head!"

His father told his servant, "Carry him to his mother."

²⁰ So he picked him up and took him to his mother. The child sat on her lap until noon and then died. ²¹ She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut him in, and left.

²² She summoned her husband and said, "Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so I can hurry to the man of God and come back again."

²³ But he said, "Why go to him today? It's not a New Moon or a Sabbath."

She replied, "Everything is all right."

²⁴ Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, "Go fast; don't slow the pace for me unless I tell you." ²⁵ So she came to the man of God at Mount Carmel.

When the man of God saw her at a distance, he said to his attendant Gehazi, "Look, there's the Shunammite woman. ²⁶ Run out to meet her and ask, 'Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is your son all right?'"

And she answered, "Everything's all right."

²⁷ When she came up to the man of God at the mountain, she clung to his feet. Gehazi came to push her away, but the man of God said, "Leave her alone—she is in severe anguish, and the LORD has hidden it from me. He hasn't told me."

²⁸ Then she said, "Did I ask my lord for a son? Didn't I say, 'Do not lie to me?'"

²⁹ So Elisha said to Gehazi, "Tuck your mantle under your belt, take my staff with you, and go. If you meet anyone, don't stop to greet him, and if a man greets you, don't answer him. Then place my staff on the boy's face."

³⁰ The boy's mother said to Elisha, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So he got up and followed her.

³² When Elisha got to the house, he discovered the boy lying dead on his bed. ³³ So he went in, closed the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the LORD. ³⁴ Then he went up and lay on the boy: he put mouth to mouth, eye to eye, hand to hand. While he bent down over him, the boy's flesh became warm. ³⁵ Elisha got up, went into the house, and paced back and forth. Then he went up and bent down over him again. The boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

³⁶ Elisha called Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite woman." He called her and she came. Then Elisha said, "Pick up your son."³⁷ She came, fell at his feet, and bowed to the ground; she picked up her son and left.

³⁸ When Elisha returned to Galgal, there was a famine in the land. The sons of the prophets were sitting before him. He said to his attendant, "Put on the large pot and make stew for the sons of the prophets."

³⁹ One went out to the field to gather herbs and found a wild vine from which he gathered as many wild gourds as his garment would hold. Then he came back and cut them up into the pot of stew, but they were unaware of what they were.

⁴⁰ They served some for the men to eat, but when they ate the stew they cried out, "There's death in the pot, man of God!" And they were unable to eat it.

⁴¹ Then Elisha said, "Get some flour." He threw it into the pot and said, "Serve it for the people to eat." And there was nothing bad in the pot.

⁴² A man from Baal-shalishah came to the man of God with his sack full of twenty loaves of barley bread from the first bread of the harvest. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat."

⁴³ But Elisha's attendant asked, "What? Am I to set this before a hundred men?"

"Give it to the people to eat," Elisha said, "for this is what the LORD says: They will eat, and they will have some left over." ⁴⁴ So he set it before them, and as the LORD had promised, they ate and had some left over.

5 Naaman, commander of the army for the king of Aram, was a man important to his master and highly regarded because through him, the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man was a valiant warrior, but he had a skin disease.

² Aram had gone on raids and brought back from the land of Israel a young girl who served Naaman's wife. ³ She said to her mistress, "If only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria, he would cure him of his skin disease."

⁴ So Naaman went and told his master what the girl from the land of Israel had said. ⁵ Therefore, the king of Aram said, "Go, and I will send a letter with you to the king of Israel."

So he went and took with him 750 pounds of silver, 150 pounds of gold, and ten sets of clothing. ⁶ He brought the letter to the king of Israel, and it read:

When this letter comes to you, note that I have sent you my servant Naaman for you to cure him of his skin disease.

⁷ When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and asked, "Am I God, killing and giving life that this man expects me to cure a man of his skin disease? Recognize that he is only picking a fight with me."

⁸ When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Have him come to me, and he will know there is a prophet in Israel." ⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and chariots and stood at the door of Elisha's house.

¹⁰ Then Elisha sent him a messenger, who said, "Go wash seven times in the Jordan and your skin will be restored and you will be clean."

¹³ But his servants approached and said to him, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more should you do it when he only tells you, 'Wash and be clean'?" ¹⁴ So Naaman went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, according to the command of the man of God. Then his skin was restored and became like the skin of a small boy, and he was clean.

¹⁵ Then Naaman and his whole company went back to the man of God, stood before him, and declared, "I know there's no God in the whole world except in Israel. Therefore, please accept a gift from your servant."

¹⁶ But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, in whose presence I stand, I will not accept it." Naaman urged him to accept it, but he refused.

¹⁷ Naaman responded, "If not, please let your servant be given as much soil as a pair of mules can carry, for your servant will no longer offer a burnt offering or a sacrifice to any other god but the LORD. ¹⁸ However, in a particular matter may the LORD pardon your servant: When my master, the king of Aram, goes into the temple of Rimmon to bow in worship while he is leaning on my arm, and I have to bow in the temple of Rimmon — when I bow in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant in this matter." ¹⁹ So he said to him, "Go in peace."

After Naaman had traveled a short distance from Elisha, ²⁰ Gehazi, the attendant of Elisha the man of God, thought, "My master has let this Aramean Naaman off lightly by not accepting from him what he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him and get something from him."

²¹ So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he got down from the chariot to meet him and asked, "Is everything all right?"

²² Gehazi said, "It's all right. My master has sent me to say, 'I have just now discovered that two young men from the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them seventy-five pounds of silver and two sets of clothing.'"

²³ But Naaman insisted, "Please, accept one hundred fifty pounds." He urged Gehazi and then packed one hundred fifty pounds of silver in two bags with two sets of clothing. Naaman gave them to two of his attendants who carried them ahead of Gehazi. ²⁴ When Gehazi came to the hill, he took the gifts from them and deposited them in the house. Then he dismissed the men, and they left.

²⁵ Gehazi came and stood by his master. "Where did you go, Gehazi?" Elisha asked him.

He replied, "Your servant didn't go anywhere."

²⁶ "And my heart didn't go when the man got down from his chariot to meet you," Elisha said. "Is this a time to accept silver and clothing, olive orchards and vineyards, flocks and herds, and male and female slaves?" ²⁷ Therefore, Naaman's skin disease will cling to you and your descendants forever." So Gehazi went out from his presence diseased, resembling snow.

6 The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "Please notice that the place where we live under your supervision is too small for us. ² Please let us go to the Jordan where we can each get a log and can build ourselves a place to live there."

"Go," he said.

³ Then one said, "Please come with your servants."

"I'll come," he answered.

⁴ So he went with them, and when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees. ⁵ As one of them was cutting down a tree, the iron ax head fell into the water, and he cried out, "Oh, my master, it was borrowed!"

⁶ Then the man of God asked, "Where did it fall?"

When he showed him the place, the man of God cut a piece of wood, threw it there, and made the iron float. ⁷ Then he said, "Pick it up." So he reached out and took it.

⁸ When the king of Aram was waging war against Israel, he conferred with his servants, "My camp will be at such and such a place."

⁹ But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel: "Be careful passing by this place, for the Arameans are going down there." ¹⁰ Consequently, the king of Israel sent word to the place the man of God had told him about. The man of God repeatedly warned the king, so the king would be on his guard.

¹¹ The king of Aram was enraged because of this matter, and he called his servants and demanded of them, "Tell me, which one of us is for the king of Israel?"

¹² One of his servants said, "No one, my lord the king. Elisha, the prophet in Israel, tells the king of Israel even the words you speak in your bedroom."

¹³ So the king said, "Go and see where he is, so I can send men to capture him."

When he was told, "Elisha is in Dothan," ¹⁴ he sent horses, chariots, and a massive army there. They went by night and surrounded the city.

¹⁵ When the servant of the man of God got up early and went out, he discovered an army with horses and chariots surrounding the city. So he asked Elisha, "Oh, my master, what are we to do?"

¹⁶ Elisha said, "Don't be afraid, for those who are with us outnumber those who are with them."

¹⁷ Then Elisha prayed, "LORD, please open his eyes and let him see." So the LORD opened the servant's eyes, and he saw that the mountain was covered with horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

¹⁹ Then Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will take you to the man you're looking for." And he led them to Samaria. ²⁰ When they entered Samaria, Elisha said, "LORD, open these men's eyes and let them see." So the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw that they were in the middle of Samaria.

²¹ When the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "Should I kill them, should I kill them, my father?"

²³ So he prepared a big feast for them. When they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. The Aramean raiders did not come into Israel's land again.

²⁶ As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, "My lord the king, help!"

²⁷ He answered, "If the LORD doesn't help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing floor or the winepress?" ²⁸Then the king asked her, "What's the matter?"

She said, "This woman said to me, 'Give up your son, and we will eat him today. Then we will eat my son tomorrow.' ²⁹So we boiled my son and ate him, and I said to her the next day, 'Give up your son, and we will eat him,' but she has hidden her son."

³⁰When the king heard the woman's words, he tore his clothes. Then, as he was passing by on the wall, the people saw that there was sackcloth under his clothes next to his skin. ³¹He announced, "May God punish me and do so severely if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today."

³²Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger got to him, Elisha said to the elders, "Do you see how this murderer has sent someone to remove my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door to keep him out. Isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

³³While Elisha was still speaking with them, the messenger came down to him. Then he said, "This disaster is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

7 Elisha replied, "Hear the word of the LORD! This is what the LORD says: 'About this time tomorrow at Samaria's gate, six quarts of fine flour will sell for a half ounce of silver and twelve quarts of barley will sell for a half ounce of silver.'"

²Then the captain, the king's right-hand man, responded to the man of God, "Look, even if the LORD were to make windows in heaven, could this really happen?"

Elisha announced, "You will in fact see it with your own eyes, but you won't eat any of it."

³Now four men with a skin disease were at the entrance to the city gate. They said to each other, "Why just sit here until we die? ⁴If we say, 'Let's go into the city,' we will die there because the famine is in the city, but if we sit here, we will also die. So now, come on. Let's surrender to the Arameans' camp. If they let us live, we will live; if they kill us, we will die."

⁵So the diseased men got up at twilight to go to the Arameans' camp. When they came to the camp's edge, they discovered that no one was there, ⁶for the LORD had caused the Aramean camp to hear the sound of chariots, horses, and a large army. The Arameans had said to each other, "The King of Israel must have hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt to attack us." ⁷So they had gotten up and fled at twilight, abandoning their tents, horses, and donkeys. The camp was intact, and they had fled for their lives.

⁸When these diseased men came to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent to eat and drink. Then they picked up the silver, gold, and clothing and went off and hid them. They came back and entered another tent, picked things up, and hid them. ⁹Then they said to each other, "We're not doing what is right. Today is a day of good news. If we are silent and wait until morning light, our punishment will catch up with us. So let's go tell the king's household."

¹⁰The diseased men came and called to the city's gatekeepers and told them, "We went to the Aramean camp and no one was there — no human sounds. There was nothing but tethered horses and donkeys, and the tents were intact." ¹¹The gatekeepers called out, and the news was reported to the king's household.

¹²So the king got up in the night and said to his servants, "Let me tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know we are starving, so they have left the camp to hide in the open country, thinking, 'When they come out of the city, we will take them alive and go into the city!'"

¹³But one of his servants responded, "Please, let messengers take five of the horses that are left in the city. Their fate is like the entire Israelite community who will die, so let's send them and see."

¹⁴The messengers took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the Aramean army, saying, "Go and see." ¹⁵So they followed them as far as the Jordan. They saw that the whole way was littered with clothes and equipment the Arameans had thrown off in their haste. The messengers returned and told the king.

¹⁶Then the people went out and plundered the Aramean camp. It was then that six quarts of fine flour sold for a half ounce of silver and twelve quarts of barley sold for a half ounce of silver, according to the word of the LORD. ¹⁷The king had appointed the captain, his right-hand man, to be in charge of the city gate, but the people trampled him in the gate. He died, just as the man of God had predicted when the king had come to him. ¹⁸When the man of God had said to the king, "About this time tomorrow twelve quarts of barley will sell for a half ounce of silver and six quarts of fine flour will sell for a half ounce of silver at Samaria's gate," ¹⁹this captain had answered the man of God, "Look, even if the LORD were to make windows in heaven, could this really happen?" Elisha had said, "You will in fact see it with your own eyes, but you won't eat any of it." ²⁰This is what happened to him: the people trampled him in the city gate, and he died.

8 Elisha said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, "Get ready, you and your household, and go live as a resident alien wherever you can. For the LORD has announced a seven-year famine, and it has already come to the land."

²So the woman got ready and did what the man of God said. She and her household lived as resident aliens in the land of the Philistines for seven years. ³When the woman returned from the land of the Philistines at the end of seven years, she went to appeal to the king for her house and field.

⁴The king had been speaking to Gehazi, the attendant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me all the great things Elisha has done."

⁵While he was telling the king how Elisha restored the dead son to life, the woman whose son he had restored to life came to appeal to the king for her house and field. So Gehazi said, "My lord the king, this is the woman and this is the son Elisha restored to life."

⁶When the king asked the woman, she told him the story. So the king appointed a court official for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers, along with all the income from the field from the day she left the country until now."

⁷Elisha came to Damascus while King Ben-hadad of Aram was sick, and the king was told, "The man of God has come here." ⁸So the king said to Hazael, "Take a gift with you and go meet the man of God. Inquire of the LORD through him, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

⁹Hazael went to meet Elisha, taking with him a gift: forty camel-loads of all the finest products of Damascus. When he came and stood before him, he said, "Your son, King Ben-hadad of Aram, has sent me to ask you, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

¹⁰Elisha told him, "Go say to him, 'You are sure to recover.' But the LORD has shown me that he is sure to die." ¹¹Then he stared steadily at him until he was ashamed.

The man of God wept,¹² and Hazael asked, "Why is my lord weeping?"

He replied, "Because I know the evil you will do to the people of Israel. You will set their fortresses on fire. You will kill their young men with the sword. You will dash their children to pieces. You will rip open their pregnant women."

¹³ Hazael said, "How could your servant, a mere dog, do such a mighty deed?"

Elisha answered, "The Lord has shown me that you will be king over Aram."

¹⁴ Hazael left Elisha and went to his master, who asked him, "What did Elisha say to you?"

He responded, "He told me you are sure to recover."

¹⁵ The next day Hazael took a heavy cloth, dipped it in water, and spread it over the king's face. Ben-hadad died, and Hazael reigned in his place.

¹⁶ In the fifth year of Israel's King Joram son of Ahab, Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat became king of Judah, replacing his father.¹⁷ He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.¹⁸ He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for Ahab's daughter was his wife. He did what was evil in the Lord's sight.¹⁹ For the sake of his servant David, the Lord was unwilling to destroy Judah, since he had promised to give a lamp to David and his sons forever.

²³ The rest of the events of Jehoram's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings.²⁴ Jehoram rested with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

²⁸ Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab to fight against King Hazael of Aram in Ramoth-gilead, and the Arameans wounded Joram.²⁹ So King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him in Ramoth-gilead when he fought against Aram's King Hazael. Then Judah's King Ahaziah son of Jehoram went down to Jezreel to visit Joram son of Ahab since Joram was ill.

9 The prophet Elisha called one of the sons of the prophets and said, "Tuck your mantle under your belt, take this flask of oil with you, and go to Ramoth-gilead.² When you get there, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi. Go in, get him away from his colleagues, and take him to an inner room.³ Then take the flask of oil, pour it on his head, and say, 'This is what the Lord says: "I anoint you king over Israel."' Open the door and escape. Don't wait."⁴ So the young prophet went to Ramoth-gilead.

⁵ When he arrived, the army commanders were sitting there, so he said, "I have a message for you, commander." Jehu asked, "For which one of us?"

He answered, "For you, commander."

⁶ So Jehu got up and went into the house. The young prophet poured the oil on his head and said, "This is what the Lord God of Israel says: 'I anoint you king over the Lord's people, Israel.'⁷ You are to strike down the house of your master Ahab so that I may avenge the blood shed by the hand of Jezebel—the blood of my servants the prophets and of all the servants of the Lord.⁸ The whole house of Ahab will perish, and I will wipe out all of Ahab's males, both slave and free, in Israel.⁹ I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Anijah.¹⁰ The dogs will eat Jezebel in the plot of land at Jezreel—no one will bury her.'" Then the young prophet opened the door and escaped.

¹¹ When Jehu came out to his master's servants, they asked, "Is everything all right? Why did this crazy person come to you?"

Then he said to them, "You know the sort and their ranting."

¹² But they replied, "That's a lie! Tell us!"

So Jehu said, "He talked to me about this and that and said, 'This is what the Lord says: I anoint you king over Israel.'"

¹³ Each man quickly took his garment and put it under Jehu on the bare steps. They blew the ram's horn and proclaimed, "Jehu is king!"

¹⁴ Then Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. Joram and all Israel had been at Ramoth-gilead on guard against King Hazael of Aram.¹⁵ But King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him when he fought against Aram's King Hazael. Jehu said, "If you commanders wish to make me king, then don't let anyone escape from the city to go tell about it in Jezreel."

¹⁶ Jehu got into his chariot and went to Jezreel since Joram was laid up there and King Ahaziah of Judah had gone down to visit Joram.¹⁷ Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel. He saw Jehu's mob approaching and shouted, "I see a mob!"

Joram responded, "Choose a rider and send him to meet them and have him ask, 'Do you come in peace?'"

¹⁸ So a horseman went to meet Jehu and said, "This is what the king asks: 'Do you come in peace?'"

Jehu replied, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me."

The watchman reported, "The messenger reached them but hasn't started back."

¹⁹ So he sent out a second horseman, who went to them and said, "This is what the king asks: 'Do you come in peace?'"

Jehu answered, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me."

²⁰ Again the watchman reported, "He reached them but hasn't started back. Also, the driving is like that of Jehu son of Nimshi—he drives like a madman."

²¹ "Get the chariot ready!" Joram shouted, and they got it ready. Then King Joram of Israel and King Ahaziah of Judah set out, each in his own chariot, and met Jehu at the plot of land of Naboth the Jezreelite.²² When Joram saw Jehu he asked, "Do you come in peace, Jehu?"

He answered, "What peace can there be as long as there is so much prostitution and sorcery from your mother Jezebel?"

²³ Joram turned around and fled, shouting to Ahaziah, "It's treachery, Ahaziah!"

²⁴Then Jehu drew his bow and shot Joram between the shoulders. The arrow went through his heart, and he slumped down in his chariot. ²⁵Jehu said to Bidkar his aide, "Pick him up and throw him on the plot of ground belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite. For remember when you and I were riding side by side behind his father Ahab, and the LORD uttered this pronouncement against him: ²⁶'As surely as I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons yesterday' — this is the LORD's declaration — 'so will I repay you on this plot of land' — this is the LORD's declaration. So now, according to the word of the LORD, pick him up and throw him on the plot of land."

²⁷When King Ahaziah of Judah saw what was happening, he fled up the road toward Beth-haggan. Jehu pursued him, shouting, "Shoot him too!" So they shot him in his chariot at Gur Pass near Ibleam, but he fled to Megiddo and died there. ²⁸Then his servants carried him to Jerusalem in a chariot and buried him in his fathers' tomb in the city of David. ²⁹It was in the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab that Ahaziah had become king over Judah.

³⁰When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard about it, so she painted her eyes, fixed her hair, and looked down from the window. ³¹As Jehu entered the city gate, she said, "Do you come in peace, Zimri, killer of your master?"

³²He looked up toward the window and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked down at him, ³³and he said, "Throw her down!" So they threw her down, and some of her blood splattered on the wall and on the horses, and Jehu rode over her.

³⁴Then he went in, ate and drank, and said, "Take care of this cursed woman and bury her, since she's a king's daughter." ³⁵But when they went out to bury her, they did not find anything but the skull, the feet, and the hands. ³⁶So they went back and told him, and he said, "This fulfills the LORD's word that he spoke through his servant Elijah the Tishbite: 'In the plot of land at Jezreel, the dogs will eat Jezebel's flesh.' ³⁷Jezebel's corpse will be like manure on the surface of the ground in the plot of land at Jezreel so that no one will be able to say: This is Jezebel!"

10 Since Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria, Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria to the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to the guardians of Ahab's sons, saying:

²Your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots, horses, a fortified city, and weaponry, so when this letter arrives ³select the most qualified of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

⁴However, they were terrified and reasoned, "Look, two kings couldn't stand against him; how can we?"

⁵So the overseer of the palace, the overseer of the city, the elders, and the guardians sent a message to Jehu: "We are your servants, and we will do whatever you tell us. We will not make anyone king. Do whatever you think is right."

⁶Then Jehu wrote them a second letter, saying:

If you are on my side, and if you will obey me, bring me the heads of your master's sons at this time tomorrow at Jezreel.

All seventy of the king's sons were being cared for by the city's prominent men. ⁷When the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and slaughtered all seventy, put their heads in baskets, and sent them to Jehu at Jezreel. ⁸When the messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," the king said, "Pile them in two heaps at the entrance of the city gate until morning."

⁹The next morning when he went out and stood at the gate, he said to all the people, "You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him. But who struck down all these? ¹⁰Know, then, that not a word the LORD spoke against the house of Ahab will fail, for the LORD has done what he promised through his servant Elijah."

¹¹So Jehu killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel — all his great men, close friends, and priests — leaving him no survivors.

¹²Then he set out and went to Samaria. On the way, while he was at Beth-eked of the Shepherds, ¹³Jehu met the relatives of King Ahaziah of Judah and asked, "Who are you?"

They answered, "We're Ahaziah's relatives. We've come down to greet the king's sons and the queen mother's sons."

¹⁴Then Jehu ordered, "Take them alive." So they took them alive and then slaughtered them at the pit of Beth-eked — forty-two men. He didn't spare any of them.

¹⁵When he left there, he found Jehonadab son of Rechab coming to meet him. He greeted him and then asked, "Is your heart one with mine?"

"It is," Jehonadab replied.

Jehu said, "If it is, give me your hand."

So he gave him his hand, and Jehu pulled him up into the chariot with him. ¹⁶Then he said, "Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD!" So he let him ride with him in his chariot. ¹⁷When Jehu came to Samaria, he struck down all who remained from the house of Ahab in Samaria until he had annihilated his house, according to the word of the LORD spoken to Elijah.

¹⁸Then Jehu brought all the people together and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him a lot.

¹⁹Now, therefore, summon to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. None must be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal. Whoever is missing will not live." However, Jehu was acting deceptively in order to destroy the servants of Baal. ²⁰Jehu commanded, "Consecrate a solemn assembly for Baal." So they called one.

²¹Then Jehu sent messengers throughout all Israel, and all the servants of Baal came; no one failed to come. They entered the temple of Baal, and it was filled from one end to the other. ²²Then he said to the custodian of the wardrobe, "Bring out the garments for all the servants of Baal." So he brought out their garments.

²³Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Rechab entered the temple of Baal, and Jehu said to the servants of Baal, "Look carefully to see that there are no servants of the LORD here among you — only servants of Baal." ²⁴Then they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings.

Now Jehu had stationed eighty men outside, and he warned them, "Whoever allows any of the men I am placing in your hands to escape will forfeit his life for theirs." ²⁵When he finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guards and officers, "Go in and kill them. Don't let anyone out." So they struck them down with the sword. Then the guards and officers threw the bodies out and went into the inner room of the temple of Baal. ²⁶They brought out the pillar of the temple of Baal and burned it, ²⁷and they tore down the pillar of Baal. Then they tore down the temple of Baal and made it a latrine — which it still is today.

²⁸Jehu eliminated Baal worship from Israel, ²⁹but he did not turn away from the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit — worshipping the gold calves that were in Bethel and Dan. ³⁰Nevertheless, the LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in carrying out what is right in my sight and have done to the house of Ahab all that was in my heart, four generations of your sons will sit on the throne of Israel."

³¹Yet Jehu was not careful to follow the instruction of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart. He did not turn from the sins that Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit.

³²In those days the LORD began to reduce the size of Israel. Hazael defeated the Israelites throughout their territory ³³from the Jordan eastward: the whole land of Gilead — the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites — from Aroer which is by the Arnon Valley through Gilead to Bashan.

11 When Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to annihilate all the royal heirs. ²Jehosheba, who was King Jehoram's daughter and Ahaziah's sister, secretly rescued Joash son of Ahaziah from among the king's sons who were being killed and put him and the one who nursed him in a bedroom. So he was hidden from Athaliah and was not killed. ³Joash was in hiding with her in the LORD's temple six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

⁴In the seventh year, Jehoiada sent for the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, and the guards. He had them come to him in the LORD's temple, where he made a covenant with them and put them under oath. He showed them the king's son ⁵and commanded them, "This is what you are to do: A third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath are to provide protection for the king's palace. ⁶A third are to be at the Foundation Gate and a third at the gate behind the guards. You are to take turns providing protection for the palace.

⁷"Your two divisions that go off duty on the Sabbath are to provide the king protection at the LORD's temple.

⁸Completely surround the king with weapons in hand. Anyone who approaches the ranks is to be put to death. Be with the king in all his daily tasks."

⁹So the commanders of hundreds did everything the priest Jehoiada commanded. They each brought their men — those coming on duty on the Sabbath and those going off duty — and came to the priest Jehoiada. ¹⁰The priest gave to the commanders of hundreds King David's spears and shields that were in the LORD's temple. ¹¹Then the guards stood with their weapons in hand surrounding the king — from the right side of the temple to the left side, by the altar and by the temple.

¹²Jehoiada brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, gave him the testimony, and made him king. They anointed him and clapped their hands and cried, "Long live the king!"

¹³When Athaliah heard the noise from the guard and the crowd, she went out to the people at the LORD's temple. ¹⁴She looked, and there was the king standing by the pillar according to the custom. The commanders and the trumpeters were by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes and screamed "Treason! Treason!"

¹⁵Then the priest Jehoiada ordered the commanders of hundreds in charge of the army, "Take her out between the ranks, and put to death by the sword anyone who follows her," for the priest had said, "She is not to be put to death in the LORD's temple."¹⁶ So they arrested her, and she went through the horse entrance to the king's palace, where she was put to death.

¹⁷Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people that they would be the LORD's people and another covenant between the king and the people. ¹⁸So all the people of the land went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed its altars and images to pieces, and they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, at the altars.

Then Jehoiada the priest appointed guards for the LORD's temple. ¹⁹He took the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, the guards, and all the people of the land, and they brought the king from the LORD's temple. They entered the king's palace by way of the guards' gate. Then Joash sat on the throne of the kings. ²⁰All the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet, for they had put Athaliah to death by the sword in the king's palace.

²¹Joash was seven years old when he became king. ¹In the seventh year of Jehu, Joash became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah; she was from Beer-sheba. ²Throughout the time the priest Jehoiada instructed him, Joash did what was right in the LORD's sight. ³Yet the high places were not taken away; the people continued sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

⁶But by the twenty-third year of the reign of King Joash, the priests had not repaired the damage to the temple. ⁷So King Joash called the priest Jehoiada and the other priests and asked, "Why haven't you repaired the temple's damage? Since you haven't, don't take any silver from your assessors; instead, hand it over for the repair of the temple."⁸ So the priests agreed that they would receive no silver from the people and would not be the ones to repair the temple's damage.

¹³However, no silver bowls, wick trimmers, sprinkling basins, trumpets, or any articles of gold or silver were made for the LORD's temple from the contributions brought to the LORD's temple. ¹⁴Instead, it was given to those doing the work, and they repaired the LORD's temple with it. ¹⁵No accounting was required from the men who received the silver to pay those doing the work, since they worked with integrity. ¹⁶The silver from the guilt offering and the sin offering was not brought to the LORD's temple since it belonged to the priests.

¹⁷ At that time King Hazael of Aram marched up and fought against Gath and captured it. Then he planned to attack Jerusalem. ¹⁸ So King Joash of Judah took all the items consecrated by himself and by his ancestors — Judah's kings Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah — as well as all the gold found in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and in the king's palace, and he sent them to King Hazael of Aram. Then Hazael withdrew from Jerusalem.

13 In the twenty-third year of Judah's King Joash son of Ahaziah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seventeen years. ² He did what was evil in the LORD's sight and followed the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit; he did not turn away from them. ³ So the LORD's anger burned against Israel, and he handed them over to King Hazael of Aram and to his son Ben-hadad during their reigns.

⁴ Then Jehoahaz sought the LORD's favor, and the LORD heard him, for he saw the oppression the king of Aram inflicted on Israel. ⁵ Therefore, the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, and they escaped from the power of the Arameans. Then the people of Israel returned to their former way of life, ⁶ but they didn't turn away from the sins that the house of Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit. Jehoahaz continued them, and the Asherah pole also remained standing in Samaria. ⁷ Jehoahaz did not have an army left, except for fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand foot soldiers, because the king of Aram had destroyed them, making them like dust at threshing.

⁸ The rest of the events of Jehoahaz's reign, along with all his accomplishments and his might, are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. ⁹ Jehoahaz rested with his fathers, and he was buried in Samaria. His son Jehoash became king in his place.

¹⁰ In the thirty-seventh year of Judah's King Joash, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned sixteen years. ¹¹ He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He did not turn away from all the sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit, but he continued them.

¹⁴ When Elisha became sick with the illness from which he died, King Jehoash of Israel went down and wept over him and said, "My father, my father, the chariots and horsemen of Israel!"

¹⁵ Elisha responded, "Get a bow and arrows." So he got a bow and arrows. ¹⁶ Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, "Grasp the bow." So the king grasped it, and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands. ¹⁷ Elisha said, "Open the east window." So he opened it. Elisha said, "Shoot!" So he shot. Then Elisha said, "The LORD's arrow of victory, yes, the arrow of victory over Aram. You are to strike down the Arameans in Aphek until you have put an end to them."

¹⁸ Then Elisha said, "Take the arrows!" So he took them. Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground!" So he struck the ground three times and stopped. ¹⁹ The man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck the ground five or six times. Then you would have struck down Aram until you had put an end to them, but now you will strike down Aram only three times." ²⁰ Then Elisha died and was buried.

Now Moabite raiders used to come into the land in the spring of the year. ²¹ Once, as the Israelites were burying a man, suddenly they saw a raiding party, so they threw the man into Elisha's tomb. When he touched Elisha's bones, the man revived and stood up!

²² King Hazael of Aram oppressed Israel throughout the reign of Jehoahaz, ²³ but the LORD was gracious to them, had compassion on them, and turned toward them because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He was not willing to destroy them. Even now he has not banished them from his presence.

14 In the second year of Israel's King Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, Amaziah son of Joash became king of Judah. ² He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan; she was from Jerusalem. ³ He did what was right in the LORD's sight, but not like his ancestor David. He did everything his father Joash had done. ⁴ Yet the high places were not taken away, and the people continued sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

⁷ Amaziah killed ten thousand Edomites in Salt Valley. He took Sela in battle and called it Joktheel, which is still its name today. ⁸ Amaziah then sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, and challenged him: "Come, let's meet face to face."

⁹ King Jehoash of Israel sent word to King Amaziah of Judah, saying, "The thistle in Lebanon once sent a message to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' Then a wild animal in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle. ¹⁰ You have indeed defeated Edom, and you have become overconfident. Enjoy your glory and stay at home. Why should you stir up such trouble that you fall — you and Judah with you?"

¹⁴ He took all the gold and silver, all the articles found in the LORD's temple and in the treasuries of the king's palace, and some hostages. Then he returned to Samaria.

¹⁷ Judah's King Amaziah son of Joash lived fifteen years after the death of Israel's King Jehoash son of Jehoahaz.

¹⁸ The rest of the events of Amaziah's reign are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. ¹⁹ A conspiracy was formed against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. However, men were sent after him to Lachish, and they put him to death there. ²⁰ They carried him back on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

²³ In the fifteenth year of Judah's King Amaziah son of Joash, Jeroboam son of Jehoash became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned forty-one years. ²⁴ He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He did not turn away from all the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

²⁵ He restored Israel's border from Lebo-hamath as far as the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word the LORD, the God of Israel, had spoken through his servant, the prophet Jonah son of Amittai from Gath-hepher. ²⁶ For the LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter for both slaves and free people. There was no one to help Israel. ²⁷ The LORD had not said he would blot out the name of Israel under heaven, so he delivered them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Jehoash.

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Israel's King Jeroboam, Azariah son of Amaziah became king of Judah. ² He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah; she was from Jerusalem. ³ Azariah did what was right in the LORD's sight just as his father Amaziah had done. ⁴ Yet the high places were not taken away; the people continued sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

⁶ The rest of the events of Azariah's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. ⁷ Azariah rested with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. His son Jotham became king in his place.

⁸ In the thirty-eighth year of Judah's King Azariah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria for six months. ⁹ He did what was evil in the LORD's sight as his fathers had done. He did not turn away from the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

¹⁰ Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah. He struck him down publicly, killed him, and became king in his place. ¹¹ As for the rest of the events of Zechariah's reign, they are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings. ¹² The word of the LORD that he spoke to Jehu was, "Four generations of your sons will sit on the throne of Israel," and it was so.

¹³ In the thirty-ninth year of Judah's King Uziah, Shallum son of Jabesh became king; he reigned in Samaria a full month. ¹⁴ Then Menahem son of Gadi came up from Tirzah to Samaria and struck down Shallum son of Jabesh there. He killed him and became king in his place. ¹⁵ As for the rest of the events of Shallum's reign, along with the conspiracy that he formed, they are written in the Historical Record of Israel's Kings.

¹⁶ At that time, starting from Tirzah, Menahem attacked Tiphshah, all who were in it, and its territory because they wouldn't surrender. He ripped open all the pregnant women.

¹⁷ In the thirty-ninth year of Judah's King Azariah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel, and he reigned ten years in Samaria. ¹⁸ He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. Throughout his reign, he did not turn away from the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

²³ In the fiftieth year of Judah's King Azariah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned two years. ²⁴ He did what was evil in the LORD's sight and did not turn away from the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

²⁷ In the fifty-second year of Judah's King Azariah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned twenty years. ²⁸ He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. He did not turn away from the sins Jeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israel to commit.

³⁰ Then Hoshea son of Elah organized a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked him, killed him, and became king in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uziah.

Jotham built the Upper Gate of the LORD's temple. ³⁶ The rest of the events of Jotham's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. ³⁷ In those days the LORD began sending Aram's King Rezin and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah. ³⁸ Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of his ancestor David. His son Ahab became king in his place.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahab son of Jotham became king of Judah. ² Ahab was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God like his ancestor David ³ but walked in the ways of the kings of Israel. He even sacrificed his son in the fire, imitating the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites. ⁴ He sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵ Then Aram's King Rezin and Israel's King Pekah son of Remaliah came to wage war against Jerusalem. They besieged Ahab but were not able to conquer him. ⁶ At that time Aram's King Rezin recovered Elath for Aram and expelled the Judahites from Elath. Then the Arameans came to Elath, and they still live there today.

⁷ So Ahab sent messengers to King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. March up and save me from the grasp of the king of Aram and of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me." ⁸ Ahab also took the silver and gold found in the LORD's temple and in the treasuries of the king's palace and sent them to the king of Assyria as a bribe. ⁹ So the king of Assyria listened to him and marched up to Damascus and captured it. He deported its people to Kir but put Rezin to death.

¹⁵ Then King Ahab commanded the priest Uriah, "Offer on the great altar the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, and the king's burnt offering and his grain offering. Also offer the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their drink offerings. Splatter on the altar all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of sacrifice. The bronze altar will be for me to seek guidance." ¹⁶ The priest Uriah did everything King Ahab commanded.

¹⁹ The rest of the events of Ahab's reign, along with his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. ²⁰ Ahab rested with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Hezekiah became king in his place.

17 In the twelfth year of Judah's King Ahab, Hoshea son of Elah became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years. ² He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, but not like the kings of Israel who preceded him.

³ King Shalmaneser of Assyria attacked him, and Hoshea became his vassal and paid him tribute. ⁴ But the king of Assyria caught Hoshea in a conspiracy: He had sent envoys to So king of Egypt and had not paid tribute to the king of Assyria as in previous years. Therefore the king of Assyria arrested him and put him in prison. ⁵ The king of Assyria invaded the whole land, marched up to Samaria, and besieged it for three years.

⁷ This disaster happened because the people of Israel sinned against the LORD their God who had brought them out of the land of Egypt from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt and because they worshiped other gods. ⁸ They lived according to the customs of the nations that the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites and according to what the kings of Israel did. ⁹ The Israelites secretly did things against the LORD their God that were not right. They built high places in all their towns from watchtower to fortified city. ¹⁰ They set up for themselves sacred pillars and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree. ¹¹ They burned incense there on all the high places just like the nations that the LORD had driven out before them had done. They did evil things, angering the LORD. ¹² They served idols, although the LORD had told them, "You must not do this."

¹³ Still, the LORD warned Israel and Judah through every prophet and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways and keep my commands and statutes according to the whole law I commanded your ancestors and sent to you through my servants the prophets."

¹⁶ They abandoned all the commands of the LORD their God. They made cast images for themselves, two calves, and an Asherah pole. They bowed in worship to all the stars in the sky and served Baal. ¹⁷ They sacrificed their sons and daughters in the fire and practiced divination and interpreted omens. They devoted themselves to do what was evil in the LORD's sight and angered him.

¹⁸ Therefore, the LORD was very angry with Israel, and he removed them from his presence. Only the tribe of Judah remained. ¹⁹ Even Judah did not keep the commands of the LORD their God but lived according to the customs Israel had practiced.²⁰ So the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, punished them, and handed them over to plunderers until he had banished them from his presence.

²¹When the LORD tore Israel from the house of David, Israel made Jeroboam son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam led Israel away from following the LORD and caused them to commit immense sin.²² The Israelites persisted in all the sins that Jeroboam committed and did not turn away from them.²³ Finally, the LORD removed Israel from his presence just as he had declared through all his servants the prophets. So Israel has been exiled to Assyria from their homeland to this very day.

²⁷Then the king of Assyria issued a command: "Send back one of the priests you deported. Have him go and live there so he can teach them the requirements of the god of the land."²⁸So one of the priests they had deported came and lived in Bethel, and he began to teach them how they should fear the LORD.

²⁹But the people of each nation were still making their own gods in the cities where they lived and putting them in the shrines of the high places that the people of Samaria had made.³⁰The men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima,³¹ the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.³²They feared the LORD, but they also made from their ranks priests for the high places, who were working for them at the shrines of the high places.³³They feared the LORD, but they also worshiped their own gods according to the practice of the nations from which they had been deported.

³⁴They are still observing the former practices to this day. None of them fear the LORD or observe the statutes and ordinances, the law and commandments that the LORD had commanded the descendants of Jacob, whom he had given the name Israel.³⁵The LORD made a covenant with Jacob's descendants and commanded them, "Do not fear other gods; do not bow in worship to them; do not serve them; do not sacrifice to them."³⁶Instead fear the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm. You are to bow down to him, and you are to sacrifice to him.³⁷You are to be careful always to observe the statutes, the ordinances, the law, and the commandments he wrote for you; do not fear other gods.³⁸Do not forget the covenant that I have made with you. Do not fear other gods,³⁹ but fear the LORD your God, and he will rescue you from all your enemies."

⁴⁰However, these nations would not listen but continued observing their former practices.⁴¹They feared the LORD but also served their idols. Still today, their children and grandchildren continue doing as their fathers did.

18 In the third year of Israel's King Hoshea son of Elah, Hezekiah son of Ahab became king of Judah.² He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi daughter of Zechariah.³ He did what was right in the LORD's sight just as his ancestor David had done.⁴ He removed the high places, shattered the sacred pillars, and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke into pieces the bronze snake that Moses made, for until then the Israelites were burning incense to it. It was called Nehushtan.

⁵Hezekiah relied on the LORD God of Israel; not one of the kings of Judah was like him, either before him or after him.⁶ He remained faithful to the LORD and did not turn from following him but kept the commands the LORD had commanded Moses.

⁷The LORD was with him, and wherever he went he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.⁸ He defeated the Philistines as far as Gaza and its borders, from watchtower to fortified city.

¹⁶At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the LORD's sanctuary and from the doorposts he had overlaid and gave it to the king of Assyria.

¹⁹Then the royal spokesman said to them, "Tell Hezekiah this is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: 'What are you relying on?'²⁰You think mere words are strategy and strength for war. Who are you now relying on so that you have rebelled against me?²¹Now look, you are relying on Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff that will pierce the hand of anyone who grabs it and leans on it. This is what Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who rely on him.²²Suppose you say to me, 'We rely on the LORD our God.' Isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You must worship at this altar in Jerusalem'?"

²³“So now, make a bargain with my master the king of Assyria. I'll give you two thousand horses if you're able to supply riders for them! ²⁴How then can you drive back a single officer among the least of my master's servants? How can you rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ²⁵Now, have I attacked this place to destroy it without the LORD's approval? The LORD said to me, 'Attack this land and destroy it.'”

²⁶Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah said to the royal spokesman, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don't speak with us in Hebrew within earshot of the people on the wall.”

²⁷But the royal spokesman said to them, “Has my master sent me to speak these words only to your master and to you? Hasn't he also sent me to the men who sit on the wall, destined with you to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine?”

²⁸The royal spokesman stood and called out loudly in Hebrew: “Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. ²⁹This is what the king says: 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; he can't rescue you from my power. ³⁰Don't let Hezekiah persuade you to rely on the LORD by saying, 'Certainly the LORD will rescue us! This city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.'”

³¹“Don't listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: 'Make peace with me and surrender to me. Then each of you may eat from his own vine and his own fig tree, and each may drink water from his own cistern ³²until I come and take you away to a land like your own land — a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey — so that you may live and not die. But don't listen to Hezekiah when he misleads you, saying, 'The LORD will rescue us.' ³³Has any of the gods of the nations ever rescued his land from the power of the king of Assyria? ³⁴Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they rescued Samaria from my power? ³⁵Who among all the gods of the lands has rescued his land from my power? So will the LORD rescue Jerusalem from my power?’”

³⁶But the people kept silent; they did not answer him at all, for the king's command was, “Don't answer him.” ³⁷Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the court historian, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and reported to him the words of the royal spokesman.

19 When King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the LORD's temple. ²He sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and the leading priests, who were wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. ³They said to him, “This is what Hezekiah says: 'Today is a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, for children have come to the point of birth, but there is no strength to deliver them. ⁴Perhaps the LORD your God will hear all the words of the royal spokesman, whom his master the king of Assyria sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke him for the words that the LORD your God has heard. Therefore, offer a prayer for the surviving remnant.'”

⁵So the servants of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah, ⁶who said to them, “Tell your master, 'The LORD says this: Don't be afraid because of the words you have heard, with which the king of Assyria's attendants have blasphemed me. ⁷I am about to put a spirit in him, and he will hear a rumor and return to his own land, where I will cause him to fall by the sword.'”

¹⁴Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers' hands, read it, then went up to the LORD's temple, and spread it out before the LORD. ¹⁵Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD: LORD God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you are God — you alone — of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁶Listen closely, LORD, and hear; open your eyes, LORD, and see. Hear the words that Sennacherib has sent to mock the living God. ¹⁷LORD, it is true that the kings of Assyria have devastated the nations and their lands. ¹⁸They have thrown their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but made by human hands — wood and stone. So they have destroyed them. ¹⁹Now, LORD our God, please save us from his power so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, LORD, are God — you alone.

²⁰Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: “The LORD, the God of Israel says, ‘I have heard your prayer to me about King Sennacherib of Assyria.’ ²¹This is the word the LORD has spoken against him:

Virgin Daughter Zion despises you and scorns you; Daughter Jerusalem shakes her head behind your back.

²² Who is it you mocked and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel!

²³ You have mocked the Lord through your messengers.

You have said, ‘With my many chariots I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon. I cut down its tallest cedars, its choice cypress trees. I came to its farthest outpost, its densest forest.

²⁴ I dug wells and drank water in foreign lands. I dried up all the streams of Egypt with the soles of my feet.’

²⁵ Have you not heard? I designed it long ago; I planned it in days gone by. I have now brought it to pass, and you have crushed fortified cities into piles of rubble.

²⁶ Their inhabitants have become powerless, dismayed, and ashamed. They are plants of the field, tender grass,

grass on the rooftops,
blasted by the east wind.

²⁷ But I know your sitting down, your going out and your coming in,
and your raging against me.

²⁸ Because your raging against me
and your arrogance have reached my ears,
I will put my hook in your nose
and my bit in your mouth;
I will make you go back
the way you came.

²⁹ "This will be the sign for you: This year you will eat what grows on its own, and in the second year what grows from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit. ³⁰The surviving remnant of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward. ³¹For a remnant will go out from Jerusalem, and survivors, from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of Armies will accomplish this.

³² Therefore, this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:

He will not enter this city,
shoot an arrow here,
come before it with a shield,
or build up a siege ramp against it.

³³ He will go back
the way he came,
and he will not enter this city.

This is the LORD's declaration.

³⁴ I will defend this city and rescue it for my sake and for the sake of my servant David."

³⁵ That night the angel of the LORD went out and struck down one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When the people got up the next morning — there were all the dead bodies! ³⁶So King Sennacherib of Assyria broke camp and left. He returned home and lived in Nineveh.

³⁷ One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword and escaped to the land of Ararat. Then his son Esar-haddon became king in his place.

20 In those days Hezekiah became terminally ill. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Set your house in order, for you are about to die; you will not recover.'"

² Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD. ³"Please, LORD, remember how I have walked before you faithfully and wholeheartedly and have done what pleases you." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴ Isaiah had not yet gone out of the inner courtyard when the word of the LORD came to him: ⁵"Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of my people, 'This is what the LORD God of your ancestor David says: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Look, I will heal you. On the third day from now you will go up to the LORD's temple. ⁶I will add fifteen years to your life. I will rescue you and this city from the grasp of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my sake and for the sake of my servant David.'"

⁷ Then Isaiah said, "Bring a lump of pressed figs." So they brought it and applied it to his infected skin, and he recovered.

⁸ Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, "What is the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I will go up to the LORD's temple on the third day?"

⁹ Isaiah said, "This is the sign to you from the LORD that he will do what he has promised: Should the shadow go ahead ten steps or go back ten steps?"

¹² At that time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah since he heard that he had been sick. ¹³Hezekiah listened to the letters and showed the envoys his whole treasure house — the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil — and his armory, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his palace and in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

¹⁴ Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and asked him, "Where did these men come from and what did they say to you?"

Hezekiah replied, "They came from a distant country, from Babylon."

¹⁵ Isaiah asked, "What have they seen in your palace?"

Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything in my palace. There isn't anything in my treasuries that I didn't show them."

¹⁶ Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD: ¹⁷'Look, the days are coming when everything in your palace and all that your fathers have stored up until today will be carried off to Babylon; nothing will be left,' says the LORD. ¹⁸'Some of your descendants — who come from you, whom you father — will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"

¹⁹ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good," for he thought: Why not, if there will be peace and security during my lifetime?

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. ²He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, imitating the detestable practices of the nations that the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites. ³He rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed and reestablished the altars for Baal. He made an Asherah, as King Ahab of Israel had done; he also bowed in worship to all the stars in the sky and served them. ⁴He built altars in the LORD's temple, where the LORD had said, "Jerusalem is where I will put my name." ⁵He built altars to all the stars in the sky in both courtyards of the LORD's temple. ⁶He sacrificed his son in the fire, practiced witchcraft and divination, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did a huge amount of evil in the LORD's sight, angering him.

⁷Manasseh set up the carved image of Asherah, which he made, in the temple that the LORD had spoken about to David and his son Solomon: "I will establish my name forever in this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. ⁸I will never again cause the feet of the Israelites to wander from the land I gave to their ancestors if only they will be careful to do all I have commanded them — the whole law that my servant Moses commanded them." ⁹But they did not listen; Manasseh caused them to stray so that they did worse evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

¹⁰The LORD said through his servants the prophets, ¹¹"Since King Manasseh of Judah has committed all these detestable acts — worse evil than the Amorites who preceded him had done — and by means of his idols has also caused Judah to sin, ¹²this is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'I am about to bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that everyone who hears about it will shudder. ¹³I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line used on Samaria and the mason's level used on the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem clean as one wipes a bowl — wiping it and turning it upside down. ¹⁴I will abandon the remnant of my inheritance and hand them over to their enemies. They will become plunder and spoil to all their enemies, ¹⁵because they have done what is evil in my sight and have angered me from the day their ancestors came out of Egypt until today.' "

¹⁶Manasseh also shed so much innocent blood that he filled Jerusalem with it from one end to another. This was in addition to his sin that he caused Judah to commit, so that they did what was evil in the LORD's sight.

¹⁹Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz; she was from Jotbah. ²⁰He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as his father Manasseh had done. ²¹He walked in all the ways his father had walked; he served the idols his father had served, and he bowed in worship to them. ²²He abandoned the LORD God of his ancestors and did not walk in the ways of the LORD.

²³Amon's servants conspired against him and put the king to death in his own house. ²⁴The common people killed all who had conspired against King Amon, and they made his son Josiah king in his place.

²⁵The rest of the events of Amon's reign, along with his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings. ²⁶He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and his son Josiah became king in his place.

22 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah; she was from Bozkath. ²He did what was right in the LORD's sight and walked in all the ways of his ancestor David; he did not turn to the right or the left.

³In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent the court secretary Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, to the LORD's temple, saying, ⁴"Go up to the high priest Hilkiah so that he may total up the silver brought into the LORD's temple — the silver the doorkeepers have collected from the people. ⁵It is to be given to those doing the work — those who oversee the LORD's temple. They in turn are to give it to the workmen in the LORD's temple to repair the damage. ⁶They are to give it to the carpenters, builders, and masons to buy timber and quarried stone to repair the temple. ⁷But no accounting is to be required from them for the silver given to them since they work with integrity."

⁸The high priest Hilkiah told the court secretary Shaphan, "I have found the book of the law in the LORD's temple," and he gave the book to Shaphan, who read it.

⁹Then the court secretary Shaphan went to the king and reported, "Your servants have emptied out the silver that was found in the temple and have given it to those doing the work — those who oversee the LORD's temple."

¹¹When the king heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes. ¹²Then he commanded the priest Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, the court secretary Shaphan, and the king's servant Asaiah: ¹³"Go and inquire of the LORD for me, the people, and all Judah about the words in this book that has been found. For great is the LORD's wrath that is kindled against us because our ancestors have not obeyed the words of this book in order to do everything written about us."

¹⁵She said to them, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Say to the man who sent you to me, ¹⁶'This is what the LORD says: I am about to bring disaster on this place and on its inhabitants, fulfilling all the words of the book that the king of Judah has read, ¹⁷because they have abandoned me and burned incense to other gods in order to anger me with all the work of their hands. My wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched.' ¹⁸Say this to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD: 'This is what the LORD God of Israel says: As for the words that you heard, ¹⁹because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become a desolation and a curse, and because you have torn your clothes and wept before me, I myself have heard' — this is the LORD's declaration.

²⁰Therefore, I will indeed gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster that I am bringing on this place.' "

Then they reported to the king.

23 So the king sent messengers, and they gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to him. ²Then the king went to the LORD's temple with all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, as well as the priests and the prophets — all the people from the youngest to the oldest. He read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the LORD's temple. ³Next, the king stood by the pillar and made a covenant in the LORD's presence to follow the LORD and to keep his commands, his decrees, and his statutes with all his heart and with all his soul in order to carry out the words of this covenant that were written in this book; all the people agreed to the covenant.

⁴Then the king commanded the high priest Hilkiah and the priests of the second rank and the doorkeepers to bring out of the LORD's sanctuary all the articles made for Baal, Asherah, and all the stars in the sky. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron and carried their ashes to Bethel. ⁵Then he did away with the idolatrous priests the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense at the high places in the cities of Judah and in the areas surrounding Jerusalem. They had burned incense to Baal, and to the sun, moon, constellations, and all the stars in the sky. ⁶He brought out the Asherah pole from the LORD's temple to the Kidron Valley outside Jerusalem. He burned it at the Kidron Valley, beat it to dust, and threw its dust on the graves of the common people.⁷ He also tore down the houses of the male cult prostitutes that were in the LORD's temple, in which the women were weaving tapestries for Asherah.

¹²The king tore down the altars that the kings of Judah had made on the roof of Ahaz's upper chamber. He also tore down the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courtyards of the LORD's temple. Then he smashed them there and threw their dust into the Kidron Valley.¹³The king also defiled the high places that were across from Jerusalem, to the south of the Mount of Destruction, which King Solomon of Israel had built for Ashtoreth, the abhorrent idol of the Sidonians; for Chemosh, the abhorrent idol of Moab; and for Milcom, the detestable idol of the Ammonites.¹⁴He broke the sacred pillars into pieces, cut down the Asherah poles, then filled their places with human bones.

¹⁵He even tore down the altar at Bethel and the high place that had been made by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. He burned the high place, crushed it to dust, and burned the Asherah.¹⁶As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs there on the mountain. He sent someone to take the bones out of the tombs, and he burned them on the altar. He defiled it according to the word of the LORD proclaimed by the man of God who proclaimed these things.¹⁷Then he said, "What is this monument I see?"

The men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things that you have done to the altar at Bethel."

¹⁸So he said, "Let him rest. Don't let anyone disturb his bones." So they left his bones undisturbed with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

¹⁹Josiah also removed all the shrines of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to anger the LORD. Josiah did the same things to them that he had done at Bethel.²⁰He slaughtered on the altars all the priests of those high places, and he burned human bones on the altars. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

²⁴In addition, Josiah eradicated the mediums, the spiritists, household idols, images, and all the abhorrent things that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem. He did this in order to carry out the words of the law that were written in the book that the priest Hilkiah found in the LORD's temple.²⁵Before him there was no king like him who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his strength according to all the law of Moses, and no one like him arose after him.

²⁶In spite of all that, the LORD did not turn from the fury of his intense burning anger, which burned against Judah because of all the affronts with which Manasseh had angered him.²⁷For the LORD had said, "I will also remove Judah from my presence just as I have removed Israel. I will reject this city Jerusalem, that I have chosen, and the temple about which I said, 'My name will be there.'"

³¹Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.³²He did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as his ancestors had done.³³Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath to keep him from reigning in Jerusalem, and he imposed on the land a fine of seventy-five hundred pounds of silver and seventy-five pounds of gold.

³⁴Then Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Jehoahaz and went to Egypt, and he died there.³⁵So Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, but at Pharaoh's command he taxed the land to give it. He exacted the silver and the gold from the common people, each according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.

³⁶Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah; she was from Rumah.³⁷He did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as his ancestors had done.

24 During Jehoiakim's reign, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked. Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years, and then he turned and rebelled against him.²The LORD sent Chaldean, Aramean, Moabite, and Ammonite raiders against Jehoiakim. He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD he had spoken through his servants the prophets.³Indeed, this happened to Judah at the LORD's command to remove them from his presence. It was because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all he had done,⁴ and also because of all the innocent blood he had shed. He had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to forgive.

⁵The rest of the events of Jehoiakim's reign, along with all his accomplishments, are written in the Historical Record of Judah's Kings.⁶Jehoiakim rested with his fathers, and his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

⁷Now the king of Egypt did not march out of his land again, for the king of Babylon took everything that had belonged to the king of Egypt, from the Brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

⁸Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan; she was from Jerusalem. ⁹ He did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as his father had done.

So the king of Babylon took him captive in the eighth year of his reign. ¹³ He also carried off from there all the treasures of the LORD's temple and the treasures of the king's palace, and he cut into pieces all the gold articles that King Solomon of Israel had made for the LORD's sanctuary, just as the LORD had predicted. ¹⁴ He deported all Jerusalem and all the commanders and all the best soldiers — ten thousand captives including all the craftsmen and metalsmiths. Except for the poorest people of the land, no one remained.

¹⁸ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah. ¹⁹ Zedekiah did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as Jehoiakim had done. ²⁰ Because of the LORD's anger, it came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that he finally banished them from his presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25 In the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon advanced against Jerusalem with his entire army. They laid siege to the city and built a siege wall against it all around. ² The city was under siege until King Zedekiah's eleventh year.

³ By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that the common people had no food.

the walls surrounding Jerusalem. ¹¹ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guards, deported the rest of the people who remained in the city, the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the population. ¹² But the captain of the guards left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and farmers.

¹³ Now the Chaldeans broke into pieces the bronze pillars of the LORD's temple, the water carts, and the bronze basin, which were in the LORD's temple, and carried the bronze to Babylon. ¹⁴ They also took the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, dishes, and all the bronze articles used in the priests' service. ¹⁵ The captain of the guards took away the firepans and sprinkling basins — whatever was gold or silver.

¹⁶ As for the two pillars, the one basin, and the water carts that Solomon had made for the LORD's temple, the weight of the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure. ¹⁷ One pillar was twenty-seven feet tall and had a bronze capital on top of it. The capital, encircled by a grating and pomegranates of bronze, stood five feet high. The second pillar was the same, with its own grating.

²⁵ In the seventh month, however, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck down Gedaliah, and he died. Also, they killed the Judeans and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. ²⁶ Then all the people, from the youngest to the oldest, and the commanders of the army, left and went to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

²⁷ On the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Judah's King Jehoiachin, in the year Evil-merodach became king of Babylon, he pardoned King Jehoiachin of Judah and released him from prison. ²⁸ He spoke kindly to him and set his throne over the thrones of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ²⁹ So Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes, and he dined regularly in the presence of the king of Babylon for the rest of his life. ³⁰ As for his allowance, a regular allowance was given to him by the king, a portion for each day, for the rest of his life.

1 CHRONICLES

- 1 Adam, Seth, Enosh,
² Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared,

Isaac's sons: Esau and Israel.
³⁵ Esau's sons: Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.
³⁶ Eliphaz's sons: Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, and Kenaz; and by Timna, Amalek.
³⁷ Reuel's sons: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.
³⁸ Seir's sons: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.
³⁹ Lotan's sons: Hori and Homam. Timna was Lotan's sister.

- ⁴⁰ Shobal's sons: Ailan, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, and Onam.
Zibeon's sons: Aiah and Anah.
⁴¹ Anah's son: Dishon.
Dishon's sons: Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.
⁴² Ezer's sons: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Jaakan.
Dishan's sons: Uz and Aran.
⁴³ These were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelites: Bela son of Beor.
Bela's town was named Dinhabah.
⁴⁴ When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah reigned in his place.
⁴⁵ When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.
⁴⁶ When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the territory of Moab, reigned in his place.
Hadad's town was named Avith.
⁴⁷ When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah reigned in his place.
⁴⁸ When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the Euphrates River reigned in his place.
⁴⁹ When Shaul died, Baal-hanan son of Achbor reigned in his place.
⁵⁰ When Baal-hanan died, Hadad reigned in his place.
Hadad's city was named Pai, and his wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, daughter of Me-zahab.
⁵¹ Then Hadad died.
Edom's chiefs: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, ⁵² Oholibamah, Eiah, Pinon, ⁵³ Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, ⁵⁴ Magdiel, and Iram.
These were Edom's chiefs.

- 2 These were Israel's sons:
Reuben, Simeon, Levi,
Judah, Issachar, Zebulun,
² Dan, Joseph, Benjamin,
Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.
³ Judah's sons: Er, Onan, and Shelah. These three were born to him by Bath-shua the Canaanite woman. Er, Judah's firstborn, was evil in the LORD's sight, so he put him to death. ⁴ Judah's daughter-in-law Tamar bore Perez and Zerah to him. Judah had five sons in all.
⁵ Perez's sons: Hezron and Hamul.
⁶ Zerah's sons: Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara — five in all.
⁷ Carmi's son: Achar, who brought trouble on Israel when he was unfaithful by taking the things set apart for destruction.
⁸ Ethan's son: Azariah.
⁹ Hezron's sons, who were born to him: Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.
¹⁰ Ram fathered Amminadab, and Amminadab fathered Nahshon, a leader of Judah's descendants.
¹¹ Nahshon fathered Salma, and Salma fathered Boaz.
¹² Boaz fathered Obed, and Obed fathered Jesse.

¹³ Jesse fathered Eliab, his firstborn; Abinadab was born second, Shimea third, ¹⁴ Nathaniel fourth, Raddai fifth, ¹⁵ Ozem sixth, and David seventh. ¹⁶ Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. Zeruiah's three sons: Abishai, Joab, and Asahel. ¹⁷ Amasa's mother was Abigail, and his father was Jether the Ishmaelite. ¹⁸ Caleb son of Hezron had children by his wife Azubah and by Jerioth. These were Azubah's sons: Jeshur, Shobab, and Ardon. ¹⁹ When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath, and she bore Hur to him. ²⁰ Hur fathered Uri, and Uri fathered Bezalel. ²¹ After this, Hezron slept with the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead. Hezron had married her when he was sixty years old, and she bore Segub to him. ²² Segub fathered Jair, who possessed twenty-three towns in the land of Gilead. ²³ But Geshur and Aram captured Jair's Villages along with Kenath and its surrounding villages — sixty towns. All these were the descendants of Machir father of Gilead. ²⁴ After Hezron's death in Caleb-ephraim, his wife Abijah bore Ashhur to him. He was the father of Tekoa. ²⁵ The sons of Jerahmeel, Hezron's firstborn: Ram, his firstborn, Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah. ²⁶ Jerahmeel had another wife named Atarah, who was the mother of Onam. ²⁷ The sons of Ram, Jerahmeel's firstborn: Maaz, Jamin, and Eker. ²⁸ Onam's sons: Shammai and Jada. Shammai's sons: Nadab and Abishur. ²⁹ Abishur's wife was named Abihail, who bore Ahban and Molli to him. ³⁰ Nadab's sons: Seled and Appaim. Seled died without children. ³¹ Appaim's son: Ishi. Ishi's son: Sheshan. Sheshan's descendant: Ahlai. ³² The sons of Jada, brother of Shammai: Jether and Jonathan. Jether died without children. ³³ Jonathan's sons: Peleth and Zaza. These were the descendants of Jerahmeel. ³⁴ Sheshan had no sons, only daughters, but he did have an Egyptian servant whose name was Jarha. ³⁵ Sheshan gave his daughter in marriage to his servant Jarha, and she bore Attai to him. ³⁶ Attai fathered Nathan, and Nathan fathered Zabab. ³⁷ Zabab fathered Ephlai, and Ephlai fathered Obed. ³⁸ Obed fathered Jehu, and Jehu fathered Azariah. ³⁹ Azariah fathered Helez, and Helez fathered Elasah. ⁴⁰ Elasah fathered Sismai, and Sismai fathered Shallum. ⁴¹ Shallum fathered Jekamiah, and Jekamiah fathered Elishama. ⁴² The sons of Caleb brother of Jerahmeel: Mesha, his firstborn, fathered Ziph, and Mareshah, his second son, fathered Hebron. ⁴³ Hebron's sons: Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema. ⁴⁴ Shema fathered Raham, who fathered Jorkeam, and Rekem fathered Shammai. ⁴⁵ Shammai's son was Maon, and Maon fathered Beth-zur. ⁴⁶ Caleb's concubine Ephah was the mother of Haran, Moza, and Gazez. Haran fathered Gazez.

⁴⁷ Jahdai's sons: Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

⁴⁸ Caleb's concubine Maacah was the mother of Sheber and Tirhanah. ⁴⁹ She was also the mother of Shaaph, Madmannah's father, and of Sheva, the father of Machbenah and Gibeon. Caleb's daughter was Achsah.

⁵⁰ These were Caleb's descendants.

The sons of Hur, Ephrathah's firstborn:

Shobal fathered Kiriath-jearim;

⁵¹ Salma fathered Bethlehem, and Hareph fathered Beth-gader.

⁵² These were the descendants of Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim: Haroeh, half of the Manahathites, ⁵³ and the families of Kiriath-jearim — the Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites, and Mishraitites. The Zorathites and Eshtaolites descended from these.

⁵⁴ Salma's descendants: Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth-beth-joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites, ⁵⁵ and the families of scribes who lived in Jabez — the Tirathites, Shimeathites, and Sucathites. These are the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of Rechab's family.

3 These were David's sons who were born to him in Hebron:

Amnon was the firstborn, by Ahinoam of Jezreel;

Daniel was born second, by Abigail of Carmel;

² Absalom son of Maacah, daughter of King Talmai of Geshur, was third;

Adonijah son of Haggith was fourth;

³ Shephatiah, by Abital, was fifth;

and Ithream, by David's wife Eglah, was sixth.

⁴ Six sons were born to David in Hebron, where he reigned seven years and six months, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-three years.

⁵ These sons were born to him in Jerusalem:

Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon. These four were born to him by Bath-shua daughter of Ammiel.

⁶ David's other sons: Ibhair, Elishua, Eiliphelet,

⁷ Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁸ Elishama, Eliada, and Eiliphelet — nine sons.

⁹ These were all David's sons, with their sister Tamar, in addition to the sons by his concubines.

¹⁰ Solomon's son was Rehoboam; his son was Abijah, his son Asa, his son Jehoshaphat, ¹¹ his son Jehoram, his son Ahaziah, his son Joash,

¹² his son Amaziah, his son Azariah, his son Jotham, ¹³ his son Ahaz, his son Hezekiah, his son Manasseh, ¹⁴ his son Amon, and his son Josiah.

¹⁵ Josiah's sons:

Johanan was the firstborn, Jehoiakim second, Zedekiah third, and Shallum fourth.

¹⁶ Jehoiakim's sons:

his sons Jeconiah and Zedekiah.

¹⁷ The sons of Jeconiah the captive:

his sons Shealtiel, ¹⁸ Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

¹⁹ Pedaiah's sons: Zerubbabel and Shimei.

Zerubbabel's sons: Meshullam and Hananiah, with their sister Shelomith; ²⁰ and five others — Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, and Jushab-hesed.

²¹ Hananiah's descendants: Pelatiah, Jeshaiiah, and the sons of Rephaiah, Arnan, Obadiah, and Shecaniah.

²² The son of Shecaniah: Shemaiah.

Shemaiah's sons: Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat — six.

²³ Neariah's sons: Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam — three.

²⁴ Elioenai's sons: Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani — seven.

4 ²⁵ Judah's sons: Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

²⁶ Reaiah son of Shobal fathered Jahath, and Jahath fathered Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.

²⁷ These were Etam's sons: Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash, and their sister was named Hazzeleponi.

²⁸ Penuel fathered Gedor, and Ezer fathered Hushah. These were the sons of Hur, Ephrathah's firstborn and the father of Bethlehem:

²⁹ Ashhur fathered Tekoa and had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

³⁰ Naarah bore Ahuzzam, Hopher, Temeni, and Haahashtari to him. These were Naarah's sons.

³¹ Helah's sons: Zereth, Zohar, and Ethnan. ³² Koz fathered Anub, Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel son of Harum.

³³ Jabez was more honored than his brothers. His mother named him Jabez and said, "I gave birth to him in pain."

³⁴ Jabez called out to the God of Israel: "If only you would bless me, extend my border, let your hand be with me, and keep me from harm, so that I will not experience pain." And God granted his request.

³⁷ Kenaz's sons: Othniel and Seraiah.

Othniel's sons: Hathath and Meonothai.

³⁸ Meonothai fathered Ophrah, and Seraiah fathered Joab, the ancestor of those in the Craftsmen's Valley, for they were craftsmen.

³⁹ The sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naam.

Elah's son: Kenaz.

⁴⁰ Jehallelel's sons: Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.

⁴¹ Ezrah's sons: Jether, Mered, Ephraim, and Jalon. Mered's wife Bithiah gave birth to Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. ⁴² These were the sons of Pharaoh's daughter Bithiah; Mered had married her. His Judean wife gave birth to Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. ⁴³ The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham: the father of Keilah the Garmite and the father of Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

⁴⁴ Shimon's sons: Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-hanan, and Tilon.

Ishi's sons: Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

⁴⁵ The sons of Shelah son of Judah: Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, the families of the guild of linen workers at Beth-ashbea, ⁴⁶ Jokim, the men of Cozeba; and Joash and Saraph, who married Moabites and returned to Lehem. These names are from ancient records. ⁴⁷ They were the potters and residents of Netaim and Gederah. They lived there in the service of the king.

⁴⁸ Simeon's sons: Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerach, and Shaul;

⁴⁹ Shaul's sons: his son Shallum, his son Mibsam, and his son Mishma.

⁵⁰ Mishma's sons: his son Hammuel, his son Zaccur, and his son Shimei.

⁵² They lived in Beer-sheba, Moladah, Hazar-shual, ⁵³ Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, ⁵⁴ Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, ⁵⁵ Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susim, Beth-biri, and Shaaraim. These were their cities until David became king. ⁵⁶ Their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan — five cities, ⁵⁷ and all their surrounding villages as far as Baal. These were their settlements, and they kept a genealogical record for themselves.

⁵⁸ Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah,

⁵⁹ Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, son of Seraiah, son of Asiel,

⁶⁰ Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, ⁶¹ and Ziza son of Shiphai, son of Allon, son of Jedaiah, son of Shimri, son of Shemaiah —

⁶² these mentioned by name were leaders in their families. Their ancestral houses increased greatly.

⁶³ They went to the entrance of Gedor, to the east side of the valley to seek pasture for their flocks.

⁶⁴ They found rich, good pasture, and the land was broad, peaceful, and quiet, for some Hamites had lived there previously.

⁶⁵ These who were recorded by name came in the days of King Hezekiah of Judah, attacked the Hamites' tents and the Meunites who were found there, and set them apart for destruction, as they are today. Then they settled in their place because there was pasture for their flocks.

⁶⁶ Now five hundred men from these sons of Simeon went with Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the descendants of Ishi, as their leaders to Mount Seir. ⁶⁷ They struck down the remnant of the Amalekites who had escaped, and they still live there today.

5 These were the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel. He was the firstborn, but his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph son of Israel, because Reuben defiled his father's bed. He is not listed in the genealogy according to birthright. ² Although Judah became strong among his brothers and a ruler came from him, the birthright was given to Joseph.

³ The sons of Reuben, Israel's firstborn: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

⁴ Joel's sons: his son Shemaiah, his son Gog, his son Shimei,

⁵ his son Micah, his son Reaiah, his son Baal, ⁶ and his son Beerah.

Beerah was a leader of the Reubenites, and King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria took him into exile. ⁷ His relatives by their families as they are recorded in their family records: Jeiel the chief, Zechariah, ⁸ and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel.

They settled in Aroer as far as Nebo and Baal-meon. ⁹ They also settled in the east as far as the edge of the desert that extends to the Euphrates River, because their herds had increased in the land of Gilead. ¹⁰ During Saul's reign they waged war against the Hagrites, who were defeated by their power. And they lived in their tents throughout the region east of Gilead.

¹¹The sons of Gad lived next to them in the land of Bashan as far as Salech:

¹²Joel the chief, Shapham the second in command, Janai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

¹³Their relatives according to their ancestral houses: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber — seven.

¹⁴These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jeshishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz.

²³The descendants of half the tribe of Manasseh settled in the land from Bashan to Baal-hermon (that is, Senir or Mount Hermon); they were numerous. ²⁴These were the heads of their ancestral families: Ephraim, Ishi, Eziel, Jeremias, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were valiant warriors, famous men, and heads of their ancestral houses. ²⁵But they were unfaithful to the God of their ancestors. They prostituted themselves with the gods of the nations God had destroyed before them. ²⁶So the God of Israel roused the spirit of King Pul (that is, Tiglath-pileser) of Assyria, and he took the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh into exile. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and Gozan's river, where they are until today.

6 Levi's sons: Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

²Kohath's sons: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

³Amram's children: Aaron, Moses, and Miriam.

Aaron's sons: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

⁴Eleazar fathered Phinehas;

Phinehas fathered Abishua;

⁵Abishua fathered Bukki;

Bukki fathered Uzzi;

⁶Uzzi fathered Zerachiah;

Zerachiah fathered Meraioth;

⁷Meraioth fathered Amariah;

Amariah fathered Ahitub;

Ahitub fathered Zadok;

Zadok fathered Ahimaaz;

⁹Ahimaaz fathered Azariah;

Azariah fathered Johanan;

¹⁰Johanan fathered Azariah, who served as priest in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem;

¹¹Azariah fathered Amariah;

Amariah fathered Ahitub;

¹²Ahitub fathered Zadok;

Zadok fathered Shallum;

¹³Shallum fathered Hilkiah;

Hilkiah fathered Azariah;

¹⁴Azariah fathered Seraiah;

and Seraiah fathered Jehozadak.

¹⁵Jehozadak went into exile when the LORD sent Judah and Jerusalem into exile at the hands of Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁶Levi's sons: Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

¹⁷These are the names of Gershom's sons: Libni and Shimei.

¹⁸Kohath's sons: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

¹⁹Merari's sons: Mahii and Mushi.

These are the Levites' families according to their fathers:

²⁰Of Gershom: his son Libni, his son Jahath, his son Zimma, ²¹his son Joah, his son Iddo, his son Zerah, and his son Jeatherai.

²²Kohath's sons: his son Amminadab, his son Korah, his son Assir,

his son Elkanah, his son Ebiasaph,

his son Assir, ²⁴his son Tahath, his son Uriel, his son Uzziel,

and his son Shaul.

²⁵Elkanah's sons: Amasai and Ahimoth, his son Elkanah, his son Zophai,

his son Nahath, ²⁷his son Eliab, his son Jeroham, and his son Elkanah.

²⁸Samuel's sons: his firstborn Joel,

and his second son Abijah.

²⁹Merari's sons: Mahii, his son Libni, his son Shimei, his son Uzzah, his son Shimea, his son Haggiah, and his son Asaiah.

³¹These are the men David put in charge of the music in the LORD's temple after the ark came to rest there.

³²They ministered with song in front of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, until Solomon built the LORD's temple in Jerusalem, and they performed their task according to the regulations given to them. ³³These are the men who served with their sons.

From the Kohathites: Heman the singer, son of Joel, son of Samuel, ³⁴son of Elkanah, son of Jeroham, son of Eiel, son of Toah,

³⁵son of Zuph, son of Elkanah, son of Mahath, son of Amasai,

³⁶son of Elkanah, son of Joel, son of Azariah, son of Zephaniah,

³⁷son of Tahath, son of Assir, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah,

³⁸son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, son of Israel.

³⁹Heman's relative was Asaph, who stood at his right hand:

Asaph son of Berechiah, son of Shimea,

⁴⁰son of Michael, son of Baaseiah, son of Malchijah, ⁴¹son of Ethni, son of Zerah, son of Adaiah,

son of Ethan, son of Zimma,

⁴²son of Shimei, ⁴³son of Jahath, son of Gershon, son of Levi.

⁴⁴ On the left, their relatives were Merari's sons:

Ethan son of Kishi, son of Abdi,
son of Malluch, ⁴⁵ son of Hashabiah,

⁴⁶ son of Amaziah, son of Hilkiah,

son of Amzi, son of Bani, son of Shemer, ⁴⁷ son of Mahii, son of Mushi, son of Merari, son of Levi.

⁴⁸ Their relatives, the Levites, were assigned to all the service of the tabernacle, God's temple. ⁴⁹ But Aaron and his sons did all the work of the most holy place. They presented the offerings on the altar of burnt offerings and on the altar of incense to make atonement for Israel according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

⁵⁰ These are Aaron's sons: his son Eleazar, his son Phinehas, his son Abishua,

⁵¹ his son Bukki, his son Uzzi, his son Zerariah, ⁵² his son Meraioth,
his son Amariah, his son Ahitub,

⁵³ his son Zadok, and his son Ahimaaz.

⁵⁴ These were the places assigned to Aaron's descendants from the Kohathite family for their settlements in their territory, because the first lot was for them. ⁵⁵ They were given Hebron in the land of Judah and its surrounding pasturelands, ⁵⁶ but the fields and settlements around the city were given to Caleb son of Jephunneh. ⁵⁷ Aaron's descendants were given:

Hebron (a city of refuge), Libnah and its pasturelands, Jattir, Eshtemoa and its pasturelands, ⁵⁸ Hilen and its pasturelands, Debir and its pasturelands, ⁵⁹ Ashan and its pasturelands, and Beth-shemesh and its pasturelands. ⁶⁰ From the tribe of Benjamin they were given Geba and its pasturelands, Alemeth and its pasturelands, and Anathoth and its pasturelands. They had thirteen towns in all among their families.

⁶¹ To the rest of the Kohathites, ten towns from half the tribe of Manasseh were assigned by lot.

⁶² The Gershonites were assigned thirteen towns from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and Manasseh in Bashan according to their families.

⁶⁶ Some of the families of the Kohathites were given towns from the tribe of Ephraim for their territory:

⁷⁰ From half the tribe of Manasseh, Aner and its pasturelands, and Bileam and its pasturelands were given to the rest of the families of the Kohathites.

⁷¹ The Gershonites received:

Golan in Bashan and its pasturelands, and Ashtaroth and its pasturelands from the families of half the tribe of Manasseh. ⁷² From the tribe of Issachar they received Kedesh and its pasturelands, Daberath and its pasturelands, ⁷³ Ramoth and its pasturelands, and Anem and its pasturelands. ⁷⁴ From the tribe of Asher they received Mashal and its pasturelands, Abdon and its pasturelands, ⁷⁵ Hukok and its pasturelands, and Rehob and its pasturelands. ⁷⁶ From the tribe of Naphtali they received Kedesh in Gaillee and its pasturelands, Hammon and its pasturelands, and Kiriathaim and its pasturelands.

⁷⁷ The rest of the Merarites received:

From the tribe of Zebulun they received Rimmon and its pasturelands and Tabor and its pasturelands.

⁷⁸ From the tribe of Reuben across the Jordan at Jericho, to the east of the Jordan, they received Bezer in the desert and its pasturelands, Jahzah and its pasturelands, ⁷⁹ Kedemoth and its pasturelands, and Mephaath and its pasturelands. ⁸⁰ From the tribe of Gad they received Ramoth in Gilead and its pasturelands, Mahanaim and its pasturelands, ⁸¹ Heshbon and its pasturelands, and Jazer and its pasturelands.

7 Issachar's sons: Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron — four.

² Tola's sons: Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Shemuel, the heads of their ancestral families. During David's reign, 22,600 descendants of Tola were recorded as valiant warriors in their family records.

³ Uzzi's son: Izrahiah.

Izrahiah's sons: Michael, Obadiah, Joel, Isshiah. All five of them were chiefs. ⁴ Along with them, they had 36,000 troops for battle according to the family records of their ancestral families, for they had many wives and children. ⁵ Their tribesmen who were valiant warriors belonging to all the families of Issachar totaled 87,000 in their genealogies.

⁶ Three of Benjamin's sons: Bela, Becher, and Jediah.

⁷ Bela's sons: Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri — five. They were valiant warriors and heads of their ancestral families; 22,034 were listed in their genealogies.

⁸ Becher's sons: Zemarai, Joash, Eliezer, Eioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth; all these were Becher's sons. ⁹ Their family records were recorded according to the heads of their ancestral families — 20,200 valiant warriors.

¹⁰ Jediah's son: Bilhan.

Bilhan's sons: Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Athishahar. ¹¹ All these sons of Jediah listed by family heads were valiant warriors; there were 17,200 who could serve in the army.

¹² Shuppim and Huppiim were sons of Ir, and the Hushim were the sons of Aher.

¹³ Naphtali's sons: Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum — Bilhah's sons.

¹⁶ Machir's wife Maacah gave birth to a son, and she named him Peresh. His brother was named Sheresh, and his sons were Uliam and Rekem.

¹⁷ Uliam's son: Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead son of Machir, son of Manasseh. ¹⁸ His sister Hammolecheth gave birth to Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah.

¹⁹ Shemida's sons: Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

- ²⁰ Ephraim's sons: Shuthelah, and his son Bered, his son Tahath, his son Eleadah, his son Tahath, ²¹ his son Zabad, his son Shuthelah, also Ezer, and Elead. The men of Gath, born in the land, killed them because they went down to raid their cattle. ²² Their father Ephraim mourned a long time, and his relatives came to comfort him. ²³ He slept with his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. So he named him Beriah, because there had been misfortune in his home. ²⁴ His daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper Beth-horon and Uzen-sheerah,
- ²⁵ his son Rephah, his son Resheph, his son Telah, his son Tahan,
- ²⁶ his son Ladan, his son Ammihud, his son Elishama, ²⁷ his son Nun, and his son Joshua.
- ²⁸ Their holdings and settlements were Bethel and its surrounding villages; Naaran to the east, Gezer and its villages to the west, and Shechem and its villages as far as Ayyah and its villages, ²⁹ and along the borders of the descendants of Manasseh, Beth-shean, Taanach, Megiddo, and Dor with their surrounding villages. The sons of Joseph son of Israel lived in these towns.
- ³⁰ Asher's sons: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah, with their sister Serah.
- ³¹ Beriah's sons: Heber, and Malchiel, who fathered Birzaith.
- ³² Heber fathered Japhlet, Shomer, and Hotham, with their sister Shua.
- ³³ Japhlet's sons: Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath. These were Japhlet's sons.
- ³⁴ Shemer's sons: Ahi, Rohgah, Hubbah, and Aram.
- ³⁵ His brother Helem's sons: Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal.
- ³⁶ Zophah's sons: Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah,
- ³⁷ Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran, and Beera.
- ³⁸ Jether's sons: Jephunneh, Pispa, and Ara.
- ³⁹ Ulla's sons: Arah, Hanniel, and Rizia.
- ⁴⁰ All these were Asher's descendants. They were the heads of their ancestral families, chosen men, valiant warriors, and chiefs among the leaders. The number of men listed in their genealogies for military service was 26,000.
- 8 Benjamin fathered Bela, his firstborn; Ashbel was born second, Aharah third, ² Nohah fourth, and Rapha fifth.
- ³ Bela's sons: Addar, Gera, Abihud, ⁴ Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, ⁵ Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram.
- ⁶ These were Ehud's sons, who were the heads of the families living in Geba and who were deported to Manahath: ⁷ Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera. Gera deported them and was the father of Uzza and Ahihud.
- ⁸ Shaharaim had sons in the territory of Moab after he had divorced his wives Hushim and Baara.
- ⁹ His sons by his wife Hodesh: Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Maicam, ¹⁰ Jeuz, Sachia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, family heads. ¹¹ He also had sons by Hushim: Abitub and Elpaal.
- ¹² Elpaal's sons: Eber, Misham, and Shemed who built Ono and Lod and its surrounding villages, ¹³ Beriah and Shema, who were the family heads of Aijalon's residents and who drove out the residents of Gath, ¹⁴ Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth.

- ¹⁵ Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, ¹⁶ Michael, Ishpah, and Joha were Beriah's sons.
- ¹⁷ Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, ¹⁸ Ishmerai, Iziah, and Jobab were Elpaal's sons.
- ¹⁹ Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, ²⁰ Elienai, Zillethai, Etiei, ²¹ Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were Shimei's sons.
- ²² Ishpan, Eber, Etiei, ²³ Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, ²⁴ Hananiah, Elam, Anthonijah, ²⁵ Iphdeiah, and Penuel were Shashak's sons.
- ²⁶ Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, ²⁷ Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were Jeroham's sons.
- ²⁸ These were family heads, chiefs according to their family records; they lived in Jerusalem.
- ²⁹ Jeiel fathered Gibeon and lived in Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah. ³⁰ Abdon was his firstborn son, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, ³¹ Gedor, Ahio, Zecher, ³² and Mikloth who fathered Shimeah. These also lived opposite their relatives in Jerusalem, with their other relatives.
- ³³ Ner fathered Kish, Kish fathered Saul, and Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-baal.
- ³⁴ Jonathan's son was Merib-baal, and Merib-baal fathered Micah.
- ³⁵ Micah's sons: Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz.
- ³⁶ Ahaz fathered Jehoaddah, Jehoaddah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri, and Zimri fathered Moza.
- ³⁷ Moza fathered Binea. His son was Raphah, his son Elasa, and his son Azel.
- ³⁸ Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were Azel's sons.
- ³⁹ His brother Eshek's sons: Ulam was his firstborn, Jeush second, and Eliphelet third.
- ⁴⁰ Ulam's sons were valiant warriors and archers. They had many sons and grandsons — 150 of them. All these were among Benjamin's sons.
- 9 All Israel was registered in the genealogies that are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel. But Judah was exiled to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness. ² The first to live in their towns on their own property again were Israelites, priests, Levites, and temple servants.
- ³ These people from the descendants of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh settled in Jerusalem:
- ⁴ Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, a descendant of Perez son of Judah;
- ⁵ from the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons;
- ⁶ and from the descendants of Zerah: Jeuel and their relatives — 690 in all.
- ⁷ The Benjaminites: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah;
- ⁸ Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Eiah son of Uzzi, son of Michri; Meshullam son of Snehathiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibrnjah;
- ⁹ and their relatives according to their family records — 956 in all. All these men were heads of their ancestral families.
- ¹⁰ The priests: Jedaiah; Jehoiarib; Jachin;
- ¹¹ Azariah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the chief official of God's temple;

¹² Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah;

Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer;

¹³ and their relatives, the heads of their ancestral families — 1,760 in all. They were capable men employed in the ministry of God's temple.

¹⁴ The Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah of the Merarites;

¹⁵ Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah, son of Mica, son of Zichri, son of Asaph;

¹⁶ Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun;

and Berechiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah who lived in the settlements of the Netophathites.

¹⁷ The gatekeepers: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their relatives.

Shallum was their chief; ¹⁸ he was previously stationed at the King's Gate on the east side. These were the gatekeepers from the camp of the Levites.

²² The total number of those chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds was 212. They were registered by genealogy in their settlements. David and the seer Samuel had appointed them to their trusted positions. ²³ So they and their sons were assigned as guards to the gates of the LORD's temple, which had been the tent-temple. ²⁴ The gatekeepers were on the four sides: east, west, north, and south. ²⁵ Their relatives came from their settlements at fixed times to be with them seven days, ²⁶ but the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were entrusted with the rooms and the treasuries of God's temple. ²⁷ They spent the night in the vicinity of God's temple, because they had guard duty and were in charge of opening it every morning.

³³ The singers, the heads of the Levite families, stayed in the temple chambers and were exempt from other tasks because they were on duty day and night. ³⁴ These were the heads of the Levite families, chiefs according to their family records; they lived in Jerusalem.

³⁹ Ner fathered Kish, Kish fathered Saul, and Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-baal.

⁴⁰ Jonathan's son was Merib-baal, and Merib-baal fathered Micah.

⁴¹ Micah's sons: Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz.

⁴² Ahaz fathered Jarah;

Jarah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; Zimri fathered Moza.

⁴³ Moza fathered Binea.

His son was Rephaiah, his son Elasa, and his son Azel.

⁴⁴ Azel had six sons, and these were their names:

Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were Azel's sons.

10 The Philistines fought against Israel, and Israel's men fled from them. Many were killed on Mount Gilboa. ² The Philistines pursued Saul and his sons and killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua. ³ When the battle intensified against Saul, the archers spotted him and severely wounded him. ⁴ Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through with it, or these uncircumcised men will come and torture me." But his armor-bearer would not do it because he was terrified. Then Saul took his sword and fell on it. ⁵ When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his own sword and died. ⁶ So Saul and his three sons died — his whole house died together.

⁷ When all the men of Israel in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled. So the Philistines came and settled in them.

⁸ The next day when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons dead on Mount Gilboa.

¹³ Saul died for his unfaithfulness to the LORD because he did not keep the LORD's word. He even consulted a medium for guidance, ¹⁴ but he did not inquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

11 All Israel came together to David at Hebron and said, "Here we are, your own flesh and blood. ² Even previously when Saul was king, you were leading Israel out to battle and bringing us back. The LORD your God also said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will be ruler over my people Israel.'"

³ So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron. David made a covenant with them at Hebron in the LORD's presence, and they anointed David king over Israel, in keeping with the LORD's word through Samuel.

⁴ David and all Israel marched to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus); the Jebusites who inhabited the land were there. ⁵ The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You will never get in here." Yet David did capture the stronghold of Zion, that is, the city of David.

⁶ David said, "Whoever is the first to kill a Jebusite will become chief commander." Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became the chief.

⁷ Then David took up residence in the stronghold; therefore, it was called the city of David. ⁸ He built up the city

all the way around, from the supporting terraces to the surrounding parts, and Joab restored the rest of the city.⁹ David steadily grew more powerful, and the LORD of Armies was with him.

¹⁰The following were the chiefs of David's warriors who, together with all Israel, strongly supported him in his reign to make him king according to the LORD's word about Israel.¹¹ This is the list of David's warriors:

Jashobeam son of Hachmoni was chief of the Thirty; he wielded his spear against three hundred and killed them at one time.

¹⁵ Three of the thirty chief men went down to David, to the rock at the cave of Adullam, while the Philistine army was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.¹⁶ At that time David was in the stronghold, and a Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.¹⁷ David was extremely thirsty and said, "If only someone would bring me water to drink from the well at the city gate of Bethlehem!"¹⁸ So the Three broke through the Philistine camp and drew water from the well at the gate of Bethlehem. They brought it back to David, but he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out to the LORD.¹⁹ David said, "I would never do such a thing in the presence of my God! How can I drink the blood of these men who risked their lives?" For they brought it at the risk of their lives. So he would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the three warriors.

²² Benaiah son of Jehoiada was the son of a brave man from Kabzeel, a man of many exploits. Benaiah killed two sons of Ariel of Moab, and he went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.²³ He also killed an Egyptian who was seven and a half feet tall. Even though the Egyptian had a spear in his hand like a weaver's beam, Benaiah went down to him with a club, snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and then killed him with his own spear.²⁴ These were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, who had a reputation among the three warriors.²⁵ He was the most honored of the Thirty, but he did not become one of the Three. David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

²⁶ The best soldiers were

Joab's brother Asahel,
Elhanan son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

²⁷ Shammoth the Harorite,
Helez the Pelonite,

²⁸ Ira son of Ikesh the Tekoite,
Abiezer the Anathothite,

²⁹ Sibbecai the Hushathite,
Ilai the Ahohite,

³⁰ Maharai the Netophathite,
Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,

³¹ Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeon of the Benjaminites,

Benaiah the Pirathonite,
³² Hurai from the wadis of Gaash,

Abiel the Arbathite,

³³ Azmaveth the Baharumite,

Eiahba the Shaabonite,

³⁴ the sons of Hashem the Gizonite,

Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite,

³⁵ Ahiam son of Sachar the Hararite,

Eliphal son of Ur,

³⁶ Hopher the Mecherathite,

Ahijah the Pelonite,

³⁷ Hezro the Carmelite,

Naarai son of Ezbai,

³⁸ Joel the brother of Nathan,

Mibhar son of Hagri,

³⁹ Zelek the Ammonite,

Naharai the Beerothite, the armor-bearer for Joab

son of Zeruiah,

⁴⁰ Ira the Ithrite,

Gareb the Ithrite,

⁴¹ Uriah the Hethite,

Zabad son of Ahlai,

⁴² Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,

⁴³ Hanan son of Maacah,

Joshaphat the Mithnite,

⁴⁴ Uzzia the Ashterathite,

Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,

⁴⁵ Jedaiel son of Shimri and his brother Joha

the Tizite,

⁴⁶ Eiel the Mahavite,

Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam,

Ithmah the Moabite,

⁴⁷ Eiel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

12 The following were the men who came to David at Ziklag while he was still banned from the presence of Saul son of Kish. They were among the warriors who helped him in battle.² They were archers who could use either the right or left hand, both to sling stones and shoot arrows from a bow. They were Saul's relatives from Benjamin:

³ Their chief was Ahiezer son of Shemaah the Gibeathite.

Then there was his brother Joash;

Jeziel and Pelet sons of Azmaveth;

Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite;

⁴ Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a warrior among the Thirty and a leader over the Thirty;

Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite;

⁵ Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah

the Haruphite;

⁶ Ekanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam,

the Korahites;

⁷ and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

⁸ Some Gadites defected to David at his stronghold in the desert. They were valiant warriors, trained for battle, expert with shield and spear. Their faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles on the mountains.

⁹ Ezer was the chief, Obadiah second, Eliab third,

¹⁰ Mishmannah fourth, Jeremiah fifth,

¹¹ Attai sixth, Eiel seventh,

¹² Johanan eighth, Elzabad ninth,

¹³ Jeremiah tenth, and Machbannai eleventh.

¹⁴ These Gadites were army commanders; the least of them was a match for a hundred, and the greatest of them for a thousand.¹⁵ These are the men who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks, and put to flight all those in the valleys to the east and to the west.

¹⁶ Other Benjaminites and men from Judah also went to David at the stronghold. ¹⁷ David went out to meet them and said to them, "If you have come in peace to help me, my heart will be united with you, but if you have come to betray me to my enemies even though my hands have done no wrong, may the God of our ancestors look on it and judge."

¹⁸ Then the Spirit enveloped Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said:

We are yours, David,
we are with you, son of Jesse!
Peace, peace to you,
and peace to him who helps you,
for your God helps you.

So David received them and made them leaders of his troops.

¹⁹ Some Manassites defected to David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. However, they did not help the Philistines because the Philistine rulers sent David away after a discussion. They said, "It will be our heads if he defects to his master Saul." ²⁰ When David went to Ziklag, some men from Manasseh defected to him: Adnah, Jozabab, Jedaiel, Michael, Jozabab, Eihuh, and Zillethai, chiefs of thousands in Manasseh. ²¹ They helped David against the raiders, for they were all valiant warriors and commanders in the army. ²² At that time, men came day after day to help David until there was a great army, like an army of God.

²³ The numbers of the armed troops who came to David at Hebron to turn Saul's kingdom over to him, according to the LORD's word, were as follows:

- ²⁴ From the Judahites: 6,800 armed troops bearing shields and spears.
- ²⁵ From the Simeonites: 7,100 valiant warriors ready for war.
- ²⁶ From the Levites: 4,600 ²⁷ in addition to Jehoiada, leader of the house of Aaron, with 3,700 men; ²⁸ and Zadok, a young valiant warrior, with 22 commanders from his father's family.
- ²⁹ From the Benjaminites, the relatives of Saul: 3,000 (up to that time the majority of the Benjaminites maintained their allegiance to the house of Saul).
- ³⁰ From the Ephraimites: 20,800 valiant warriors who were famous men in their ancestral families.
- ³¹ From half the tribe of Manasseh: 18,000 designated by name to come and make David king.
- ³² From the Issacharites, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do: 200 chiefs with all their relatives under their command.
- ³³ From Zebulun: 50,000 who could serve in the army, trained for battle with all kinds of weapons of war, with one purpose to help David.
- ³⁴ From Naphtali: 1,000 commanders accompanied by 37,000 men with shield and spear.
- ³⁵ From the Danites: 28,600 trained for battle.
- ³⁶ From Asher: 40,000 who could serve in the army, trained for battle.
- ³⁷ From across the Jordan — from the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh:

120,000 men equipped with all the military weapons of war.

³⁸ All these warriors, lined up in battle formation, came to Hebron wholeheartedly determined to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of Israel was also of one mind to make David king. ³⁹ They spent three days there eating and drinking with David, for their relatives had provided for them. ⁴⁰ In addition, their neighbors from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali came and brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen — abundant provisions of flour, fig cakes, raisins, wine and oil, herds, and flocks. Indeed, there was joy in Israel.

13 David consulted with all his leaders, the commanders of hundreds and of thousands. ² Then he said to the whole assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if this is from the LORD our God, let us spread out and send the message to the rest of our relatives in all the districts of Israel, including the priests and Levites in their cities with pasturelands, that they should gather together with us. ³ Then let us bring back the ark of our God, for we did not inquire of him in Saul's days." ⁴ Since the proposal seemed right to all the people, the whole assembly agreed to do it.

⁵ So David assembled all Israel, from the Shihor of Egypt to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim. ⁶ David and all Israel went to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim that belongs to Judah) to take from there the ark of God, which bears the name of the LORD who is enthroned between the cherubim. ⁷ At Abinadab's house they set the ark of God on a new cart. Uzzah and Ahio were guiding the cart.

⁸ David and all Israel were dancing with all their might before God with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets. ⁹ When they came to Chidon's threshing floor, Uzzah reached out to hold the ark because the oxen had stumbled. ¹⁰ Then the LORD's anger burned against Uzzah, and he struck him dead because he had reached out to the ark. So he died there in the presence of God.

¹¹ David was angry because of the LORD's outburst against Uzzah, so he named that place Outburst Against Uzzah, as it is still named today. ¹² David feared God that day and said, "How can I ever bring the ark of God to me?" ¹³ So David did not bring the ark of God home to the city of David; instead, he diverted it to the house of Obed-edom of Gath. ¹⁴ The ark of God remained with Obed-edom's family in his house for three months, and the LORD blessed his family and all that he had.

14 King Hiram of Tyre sent envoys to David, along with cedar logs, stonemasons, and carpenters to build a palace for him. ² Then David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom had been exalted for the sake of his people Israel.

³ David took more wives in Jerusalem, and he became the father of more sons and daughters. ⁴ These are the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ⁵ Ibhah, Elishua, Eipelet, ⁶ Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁷ Eishama, Beeliada, and Eiphelet.

⁸ When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they all went in search of David; when David heard of this, he went out to face them. ⁹ Now the Philistines had come and raided in the Valley of Rephaim, ¹⁰ so David inquired of God, "Should I attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?"

The LORD replied, "Attack, and I will hand them over to you."

¹¹ So the Israelites went up to Baal-perazim, and David defeated the Philistines there. Then David said, "Like a bursting flood, God has used me to burst out against my enemies." Therefore, they named that place The Lord Bursts Out.¹² The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David ordered that they be burned in the fire.

¹³ Once again the Philistines raided in the valley.¹⁴ So David again inquired of God, and God answered him, "Do not pursue them directly. Circle around them and attack them opposite the balsam trees."¹⁵ When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then go out to battle, for God will have gone out ahead of you to strike down the army of the Philistines."¹⁶ So David did as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.¹⁷ Then David's fame spread throughout the lands, and the LORD caused all the nations to be terrified of him.

15 David built houses for himself in the city of David, and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.² Then David said, "No one but the Levites may carry the ark of God, because the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister before him forever."

³ David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for it.⁴ Then he gathered together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites:

¹¹ David summoned the priests Zadok and Abiathar and the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eiel, and Amminadab.¹² He said to them, "You are the heads of the Levite families. You and your relatives must consecrate yourselves so that you may bring the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it."¹³ For the LORD our God burst out in anger against us because you Levites were not with us the first time, for we didn't inquire of him about the proper procedures."¹⁴ So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.¹⁵ Then the Levites carried the ark of God the way Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD: on their shoulders with the poles.

¹⁶ Then David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint their relatives as singers and to have them raise their voices with joy accompanied by musical instruments — harps, lyres, and cymbals.¹⁷ So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his relatives, Asaph son of Berechiah; and from their relatives the Merarites, Ethan son of Kushaiah.¹⁸ With them were their relatives second in rank: Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphehu, Mikneiah, and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel.¹⁹ The singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals;²⁰ Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah were to play harps according to *Alamoth*²¹ and Mattithiah, Eliphehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azariah were to lead the music with lyres according to the Sheminith.²² Chenaniah, the leader of the Levites in music, was to direct the music because he was skillful.²³ Berechiah and Elkanah were to be gatekeepers for the ark.²⁴ The priests, Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, were to blow trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah were also to be gatekeepers for the ark.

16 They brought the ark of God and placed it inside the tent David had pitched for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings in God's presence.² When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.³ Then he distributed to each and every Israelite, both men and women, a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake.

⁴ David appointed some of the Levites to be ministers before the ark of the LORD, to celebrate the LORD God of Israel, and to give thanks and praise to him.⁵ Asaph was the chief and Zechariah was second to him. Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel played the harps and lyres, while Asaph sounded the cymbals⁶ and the priests Benaiah and Jahaziel blew the trumpets regularly before the ark of the covenant of God.

⁷ On that day David decreed for the first time that thanks be given to the LORD by Asaph and his relatives:

- ⁸ Give thanks to the LORD; call on his name; proclaim his deeds among the peoples.
- ⁹ Sing to him; sing praise to him; tell about all his wondrous works!
- ¹⁰ Honor his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
- ¹¹ Seek the LORD and his strength; seek his face always.
- ¹² Remember the wondrous works he has done, his wonders, and the judgments he has pronounced,
- ¹³ you offspring of Israel his servant, Jacob's descendants — his chosen ones.
- ¹⁴ He is the LORD our God; his judgments govern the whole earth.
- ¹⁵ Remember his covenant forever — the promise he ordained for a thousand generations,
- ¹⁶ the covenant he made with Abraham, swore to Isaac,
- ¹⁷ and confirmed to Jacob as a decree, and to Israel as a permanent covenant:
- ¹⁸ "I will give the land of Canaan to you as your inherited portion."
- ¹⁹ When they were few in number, very few indeed, and resident aliens in Canaan wandering from nation to nation and from one kingdom to another,

- 21 he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their behalf:
- 22 "Do not touch my anointed ones or harm my prophets."
- 23 Let the whole earth sing to the LORD. Proclaim his salvation from day to day.
- 24 Declare his glory among the nations, his wondrous works among all peoples. For the LORD is great and highly praised; he is feared above all gods.
- 25 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.
- 26 Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and joy are in his place.
- 27 Ascribe to the LORD, families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- 28 Ascribe to the LORD the glory of his name; bring an offering and come before him. Worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness; let the whole earth tremble before him. The world is firmly established; it cannot be shaken.
- 29 Let the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice, and let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns!"
- 30 Let the sea and all that fills it resound; let the fields and everything in them exult.
- 31 Then the trees of the forest will shout for joy before the LORD, for he is coming to judge the earth.
- 32 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his faithful love endures forever.
- 33 And say: "Save us, God of our salvation; gather us and rescue us from the nations so that we may give thanks to your holy name and rejoice in your praise.
- 34 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting."

Then all the people said, "Amen" and "Praise the LORD."

³⁷ So David left Asaph and his relatives there before the ark of the LORD's covenant to minister regularly before the ark according to the daily requirements. ³⁸ He assigned Obed-edom and his sixty-eight relatives. Obed-edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were to be gatekeepers. ³⁹ David left the priest Zadok and his fellow priests before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place in Gibeon ⁴⁰ to offer burnt offerings regularly, morning and evening, to the LORD on the altar of burnt offerings and to do everything that was written in the law of the LORD, which he had commanded Israel to keep. ⁴¹ With them were Heman, Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen and designated by name to give thanks to the LORD — for his faithful love endures forever. ⁴² Heman and Jeduthun had with them trumpets and cymbals to play and musical instruments of God. Jeduthun's sons were at the city gate.

⁴³ Then all the people went home, and David returned home to bless his household.

17 When David had settled into his palace, he said to the prophet Nathan, "Look! I am living in a cedar house while the ark of the LORD's covenant is under tent curtains."

² So Nathan told David, "Do all that is on your mind, for God is with you."

³ But that night the word of God came to Nathan: ⁴ "Go to David my servant and say, 'This is what the LORD says:

You are not the one to build me a house to dwell in. ⁵ From the time I brought Israel out of Egypt until today I have not dwelt in a house; instead, I have moved from one tent site to another, and from one tabernacle location to another. ⁶ In all my journeys throughout Israel, have I ever spoken a word to even one of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people, asking: 'Why haven't you built me a house of cedar?'

⁷ "So now this is what you are to say to my servant David: 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: I took you from the pasture, from tending the flock, to be ruler over my people Israel. ⁸ I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have destroyed all your enemies before you. I will make a name for you like that of the greatest on the earth. ⁹ I will designate a place for my people Israel and plant them, so that they may live there and not be disturbed again. Evil-doers will not continue to oppress them as they have done ¹⁰ ever since the day I ordered judges to be over my people Israel. I will also subdue all your enemies.

"Furthermore, I declare to you that the LORD himself will build a house for you. ¹¹ When your time comes to be with your fathers, I will raise up after you your descendant, who is one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹² He is the one who will build a house for me, and I will establish his throne forever. ¹³ I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will not remove my faithful love from him as I removed it from the one who was before you. ¹⁴ I will appoint him over my house and my kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever.'"

¹⁵ Nathan reported all these words and this entire vision to David.

Who am I, LORD God, and what is my house that you have brought me this far? ¹⁷ This was a little thing to you, God, for you have spoken about your servant's house in the distant future. You regard me as a man of distinction, LORD God. ¹⁸ What more can David say to you for honoring your servant? You know your servant. ¹⁹ LORD, you have done this whole great thing, making known all these great promises for the sake of your servant and according to your will. ²⁰ LORD, there is no one like you, and there is no God besides you, as all we have heard confirms. ²¹ And who is like your people Israel? God, you came to one nation on earth to redeem a people for yourself, to make a name for yourself through great and awesome works by driving out nations before your people you redeemed from Egypt. ²² You made your people Israel your own people forever, and you, LORD, have become their God.

²³ Now, LORD, let the word that you have spoken concerning your servant and his house be confirmed forever, and do as you have promised. ²⁴ Let your name be confirmed and magnified forever in the saying, "The LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, is God over Israel." May the house of your servant David be established before you. ²⁵ Since you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a house, your servant has found courage to pray in your presence. ²⁶ LORD, you indeed are God, and you have promised this good thing to your servant. ²⁷ So now, you have been pleased to bless your servant's house that it may continue before you forever. For you, LORD, have blessed it, and it is blessed forever.

18 After this, David defeated the Philistines, subdued them, and took Gath and its surrounding villages from Philistine control. ² He also defeated the Moabites, and they became David's subjects and brought tribute.

³ David also defeated King Hadadezer of Zobah at Hamath when he went to establish his control at the Euphrates River. ⁴ David captured one thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers from him, hamstringed all the horses, and kept a hundred chariots.

⁵ When the Arameans of Damascus came to assist King Hadadezer of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand Aramean men. ⁶ Then he placed garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans became David's subjects and brought tribute. The LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

⁹ When King Tou of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of King Hadadezer of Zobah, ¹⁰ he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and to congratulate him because David had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him, for Tou and Hadadezer had fought many wars. Hadoram brought all kinds of gold, silver, and bronze items. ¹¹ King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold he had carried off from all the nations — from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and the Amalekites.

¹² Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down eighteen thousand Edomites in the Salt Valley. ¹³ He put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites were subject to David. The LORD made David victorious wherever he went.

¹⁴ So David reigned over all Israel, administering justice and righteousness for all his people.

- ¹⁵ Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army;
Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was court historian;
- ¹⁶ Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech
son of Abiathar were priests;
Shavsha was court secretary;
- ¹⁷ Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites
and the Pelethites;
and David's sons were the chief officials at the king's side.

19 Some time later, King Nahash of the Ammonites died, and his son became king in his place. ² Then David said, "I'll show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me."

So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. However, when David's emissaries arrived in the land of the Ammonites to console him, ³ the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun, "Just because David has sent men with condolences for you, do you really believe he's showing respect for your father? Instead, haven't his emissaries come in order to scout out, overthrow, and spy on the land?" ⁴ So Hanun took David's emissaries, shaved them, cut their clothes in half at the hips, and sent them away.

⁵ It was reported to David about his men, so he sent messengers to meet them, since the men were deeply humiliated. The king said, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow back; then return."

⁶ When the Ammonites realized they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent thirty-eight tons of silver to hire chariots and horsemen from Aram-naharaim, Aram-maacah, and Zobah. ⁷ They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and the king of Maacah with his army, who came and camped near Medeba. The Ammonites also came together from their cities for the battle.

⁸ David heard about this and sent Joab and all the elite troops. ⁹ The Ammonites marched out and lined up in battle formation at the entrance of the city while the kings who had come were in the field by themselves. ¹⁰ When Joab saw that there was a battle line in front of him and another behind him, he chose some of Israel's finest young men and lined up in formation to engage the Arameans. ¹¹ He placed the rest of the forces under the command of his brother Abishai. They lined up in formation to engage the Ammonites.

¹² "If the Arameans are too strong for me," Joab said, "then you'll be my help. However, if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I'll help you. ¹³ Be strong! Let's prove ourselves strong for our people and for the cities of our God. May the LORD's will be done."

¹⁴ Joab and the people with him approached the Arameans for battle, and they fled before him. ¹⁵ When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they likewise fled before Joab's brother Abishai and entered the city. Then Joab went to Jerusalem.

¹⁶ When the Arameans realized that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers to summon the Arameans who were beyond the Euphrates River. They were led by Shophach, the commander of Hadadezer's army.

¹⁷ When this was reported to David, he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan. He came up to the Arameans and lined up against them. When David lined up to engage them, they fought against him. ¹⁸ But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand of their charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers. He also killed Shophach, commander of the army. ¹⁹ When Hadadezer's subjects saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his subjects. After this, the Arameans were never willing to help the Ammonites again.

20 In the spring when kings march out to war, Joab led the army and destroyed the Ammonites' land. He came to Rabbah and besieged it, but David remained in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and demolished it. ² Then David took the crown from the head of their king, and it was placed on David's head. He found that the crown weighed seventy-five pounds of gold, and there was a precious stone in it. In addition, David took away a large quantity of plunder from the city. ³ He brought out the people who were in it and put them to work with saws, iron picks, and axes. David did the same to all the Ammonite cities. Then he and all his troops returned to Jerusalem.

⁴ After this, a war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, a descendant of the Rephaim, and the Philistines were subdued.

⁶ There was still another battle at Gath where there was a man of extraordinary stature with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot — twenty-four in all. He, too, was descended from the giant. ⁷ When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of David's brother Shimei killed him.

⁸ These were the descendants of the giant in Gath killed by David and his soldiers.

21 Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to count the people of Israel. ² So David said to Joab and the commanders of the troops, "Go and count Israel from Beer-sheba to Dan and bring a report to me so I can know their number."

³ Joab replied, "May the LORD multiply the number of his people a hundred times over! My lord the king, aren't they all my lord's servants? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?"

⁴ Yet the king's order prevailed over Joab. So Joab left and traveled throughout Israel and then returned to Jerusalem.

⁵ Joab gave the total troop registration to David. In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand armed men and in Judah itself four hundred seventy thousand armed men. ⁶ But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the count because the king's command was detestable to him. ⁷ This command was also evil in God's sight, so he afflicted Israel.

⁸ David said to God, "I have sinned greatly because I have done this thing. Now, please take away your servant's guilt, for I've been very foolish."

⁹ Then the LORD instructed Gad, David's seer, ¹⁰ "Go and say to David, 'This is what the LORD says: I am offering you three choices. Choose one of them for yourself, and I will do it to you.'"

¹¹ So Gad went to David and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Take your choice: ¹² three years of famine, or three months of devastation by your foes with the sword of your enemy overtaking you, or three days of the sword of the LORD — a plague on the land, the angel of the LORD bringing destruction to the whole territory of Israel.' Now decide what answer I should take back to the one who sent me."

¹⁴ So the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand Israelite men died. ¹⁵ Then God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but when the angel was about to destroy the city, the LORD looked, relented concerning the destruction, and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "Enough, withdraw your hand now!" The angel of the LORD was then standing at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

¹⁶ When David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, with his drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem, David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell facedown. ¹⁷ David said to God, "Wasn't I the one who gave the order to count the people? I am the one who has sinned and acted very wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? LORD my God, please let your hand be against me and against my father's family, but don't let the plague be against your people."

²⁰ Ornan was threshing wheat when he turned and saw the angel. His four sons, who were with him, hid. ²¹ David came to Ornan, and when Ornan looked and saw David, he left the threshing floor and bowed to David with his face to the ground.

²² Then David said to Ornan, "Give me this threshing-floor plot so that I may build an altar to the LORD on it. Give it to me for the full price, so the plague on the people may be stopped."

²³ Ornan said to David, "Take it! My lord the king may do whatever he wants. See, I give the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for the wood, and the wheat for the grain offering — I give it all."

²⁵ So David gave Ornan fifteen pounds of gold for the plot. ²⁶ He built an altar to the LORD there and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. He called on the LORD, and he answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

²⁷ Then the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath. ²⁸ At that time, David offered sacrifices there when he saw that the LORD answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ²⁹ The tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at the high place in Gibeon, ³⁰ but David could not go before it to inquire of God, because he was terrified of the sword of the LORD's

22 angel. ¹ Then David said, "This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

² So David gave orders to gather the resident aliens that were in the land of Israel, and he appointed stonecutters to cut finished stones for building God's house. ³ David supplied a great deal of iron to make the nails for the doors of the gates and for the fittings, together with an immeasurable quantity of bronze, ⁴ and innumerable cedar logs because the Sidonians and Tyrians had brought a large quantity of cedar logs to David. ⁵ David said, "My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly great and famous and glorious in all the lands. Therefore, I will make provision for it." So David made lavish preparations for it before his death.

⁶ Then he summoned his son Solomon and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel. ⁷ "My son," David said to Solomon, "It was in my heart to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, ⁸ but the word of the LORD came to me: 'You have shed much blood and waged great wars. You are not to build a house for my name because you have shed so much blood on the ground before me. ⁹ But a son will be born to you; he will be a man of rest. I will give him rest from all his surrounding enemies, for his name will be Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel during his reign. ¹⁰ He is the one who will build a house for my name. He will be my son, and I will be his father. I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'

¹⁴ "Notice I have taken great pains to provide for the house of the LORD — 3,775 tons of gold, 37,750 tons of silver, and bronze and iron that can't be weighed because there is so much of it. I have also provided timber and stone, but you will need to add more to them. ¹⁵ You also have many workers: stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and people skilled in every kind of work ¹⁶ in gold, silver, bronze, and iron — beyond number. Now begin the work, and may the LORD be with you.”

¹⁷Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon: ¹⁸“The LORD your God is with you, isn’t he? And hasn’t he given you rest on every side? For he has handed the land’s inhabitants over to me, and the land has been subdued before the LORD and his people. ¹⁹Now determine in your mind and heart to seek the LORD your God. Get started building the LORD God’s sanctuary so that you may bring the ark of the LORD’s covenant and the holy articles of God to the temple that is to be built for the name of the LORD.”

23 When David was old and full of days, he installed his son Solomon as king over Israel. ²Then he gathered all the leaders of Israel, the priests, and the Levites. ³The Levites thirty years old or more were counted; the total number of men was thirty-eight thousand by headcount. ⁴“Of these,” David said, “twenty-four thousand are to be in charge of the work on the LORD’s temple, six thousand are to be officers and judges, ⁵four thousand are to be gatekeepers, and four thousand are to praise the LORD with the instruments that I have made for worship.”

⁶Then David divided them into divisions according to Levi’s sons: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

⁷The Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei.

⁸Ladan’s sons: Jehiel was the first, then Zetham, and Joel — three.

⁹Shimei’s sons: Shelomoth, Haziël, and Haran — three. Those were the heads of the families of Ladan.

¹⁰Shimei’s sons: Jahath, Zizah, Jeush, and Beriah.

Those were Shimei’s sons — four. ¹¹Jahath was the first and Zizah was the second; however, Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they became one family and received a single assignment.

¹²Kohath’s sons: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel — four.

¹³Amram’s sons: Aaron and Moses.

Aaron, along with his descendants, was set apart forever to consecrate the most holy things, to burn incense in the presence of the LORD, to minister to him, and to pronounce blessings in his name forever. ¹⁴As for Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi.

¹⁵Moses’s sons: Gershon and Eliezer.

¹⁶Gershon’s sons: Shebuel was first.

¹⁷Eliezer’s sons were Rehabiah, first; Eliezer did not have any other sons, but Rehabiah’s sons were very numerous.

¹⁸Izhar’s sons: Shelomith was first.

¹⁹Hebron’s sons: Jeriah was first, Amariah second, Jahaziel third, and Jekameam fourth.

²⁰Uzziel’s sons: Micah was first, and Isshiah second.

²¹Merari’s sons: Mahli and Mushi.

Mahli’s sons: Eleazar and Kish.

²²Eleazar died having no sons, only daughters. Their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.

²³Mushi’s sons: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth — three.

were to be counted — ²⁸“but their duty will be to assist the descendants of Aaron with the service of the LORD’s temple, being responsible for the courts and the chambers, the purification of all the holy things, and the work of the service of God’s temple — ²⁹as well as the rows of the Bread of the Presence, the fine flour for the grain offering, the wafers of unleavened bread, the baking, the mixing, and all measurements of volume and length. ³⁰They are also to stand every morning to give thanks and praise to the LORD, and likewise in the evening. ³¹Whenever burnt offerings are offered to the LORD on the Sabbaths, New Moons, and appointed festivals, they are to offer them regularly in the LORD’s presence according to the number prescribed for them. ³²They are to carry out their responsibilities for the tent of meeting, for the holy place, and for their relatives, the descendants of Aaron, in the service of the LORD’s temple.”

24 The divisions of the descendants of Aaron were as follows: Aaron’s sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ²But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and they had no sons, so Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests. ³Together with Zadok from the descendants of Eleazar and Ahimelech from the descendants of Ithamar, David divided them according to the assigned duties of their service. ⁴Since more leaders were found among Eleazar’s descendants than Ithamar’s, they were divided accordingly: sixteen heads of ancestral families were from Eleazar’s descendants, and eight heads of ancestral families were from Ithamar’s. ⁵They were assigned by lot, for there were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God among both Eleazar’s and Ithamar’s descendants.

⁶The secretary, Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded them in the presence of the king and the officers, the priest Zadok, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the heads of families of the priests and the Levites. One ancestral family was taken for Eleazar, and then one for Ithamar.

⁷The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

⁸the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

⁹the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

¹⁰the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

¹¹the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

¹²the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

¹³the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

¹⁴the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

¹⁵the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Hapizzzez,

¹⁶the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

¹⁷the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,

¹⁸the twenty-third to Delaiah,

and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

¹⁹These had their assigned duties for service when they entered the LORD’s temple, according to their regulations, which they received from their ancestor Aaron, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

²⁰As for the rest of Levi’s sons:

from Amram’s sons: Shubael;

from Shubael’s sons: Jehdeiah.

²¹From Rehabiah:

from Rehabiah’s sons: Isshiah was the first.

²²From the Izharites: Shelomoth;

from Shelomoth’s sons: Jahath.

²³Hebron’s sons:

Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

²⁴ From Uzziel's sons: Micah; from Micah's sons: Shamir.

²⁵ Micah's brother: Isshiah; from Isshiah's sons: Zechariah.

²⁶ Merari's sons: Mahli and Mushi, and from his sons, Jaaziah his son.

²⁷ Merari's sons, by his son Jaaziah: Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibrî.

²⁸ From Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

²⁹ From Kish, from Kish's sons: Jerahmeel.

³⁰ Mushi's sons: Mahî, Eder, and Jerimoth.

Those were the descendants of the Levites according to their ancestral families. ³¹They also cast lots the same way as their relatives the descendants of Aaron did in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the families of the priests and Levites — the family heads and their younger brothers alike.

25 David and the officers of the army also set apart some of the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, who were to prophesy accompanied by lyres, harps, and cymbals. This is the list of the men who performed their service:

² From Asaph's sons:

Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah, sons of Asaph, under Asaph's authority, who prophesied under the authority of the king.

³ From Jeduthun: Jeduthun's sons:

Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah — six — under the authority of their father Jeduthun, prophesying to the accompaniment of lyres, giving thanks and praise to the LORD.

⁴ From Heman: Heman's sons:

Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. ⁵All these sons of Heman, the king's seer, were given by the promises of God to exalt him, for God had given Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

⁶All these men were under their own fathers' authority for the music in the LORD's temple, with cymbals, harps, and lyres for the service of God's temple. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the king's authority. ⁷They numbered 288 together with their relatives who were all trained and skillful in music for the LORD. ⁸They cast lots for their duties, young and old alike, teacher as well as pupil.

⁹ The first lot for Asaph fell to Joseph, his sons, and his relatives — 12 to Gedaliah the second: him, his relatives, and his sons — 12

¹⁰ the third to Zaccur, his sons, and his relatives — 12

¹¹ the fourth to Izri, his sons, and his relatives — 12

¹² the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

¹³ the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

¹⁴ the seventh to Jesarelah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

¹⁵ the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

¹⁶ the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

¹⁷ the tenth to Shimei, his sons, and his relatives — 12

¹⁸ the eleventh to Azarel, his sons, and his relatives — 12

¹⁹ the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²⁰ the thirteenth to Shubael, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²¹ the fourteenth to Mattithiah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²² the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²³ the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²⁴ the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²⁵ the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²⁶ the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²⁷ the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²⁸ the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons, and his relatives — 12

²⁹ the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons, and his relatives — 12

³⁰ the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons, and his relatives — 12

³¹ and the twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer, his sons, and his relatives — 12.

26 The following were the divisions of the gatekeepers: From the Korahites: Meshelemiah son of Kore, one of the sons of Asaph.

² Meshelemiah had sons:

Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, ³Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, and Eliehoenai the seventh.

⁴Obed-edom also had sons:

Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sachar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, ⁵Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, and Peullethai the eighth, for God blessed him.

⁶Also, to his son Shemaiah were born sons who ruled their ancestral families because they were strong, capable men.

⁷Shemaiah's sons: Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Eizabad; his relatives Elihu and Semachiah were also capable men. ⁸All of these were among the sons of Obed-edom with their sons and relatives; they were capable men with strength for the work — sixty-two from Obed-edom.

⁹Meshelemiah also had sons and relatives who were capable men — eighteen.

¹⁰Hosah, from the Merarites, also had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father had appointed him as the first), ¹¹Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, and Zechariah the fourth. The sons and relatives of Hosah were thirteen in all.

¹²These divisions of the gatekeepers, under their leading men, had duties for ministering in the LORD's temple, just as their relatives did. ¹³They cast lots for each temple gate according to their ancestral families, young and old alike.

¹⁴The lot for the east gate fell to Shelemiah. They also cast lots for his son Zechariah, an insightful counselor, and his lot came out for the north gate. ¹⁵Obed-edom's was the south gate, and his sons' lot was for the storehouses;¹⁶ it was the west gate and the gate of Shallecheth on the ascending highway for Shuppim and Hosah.

There were guards stationed at every watch.¹⁷ There were six Levites each day on the east, four each day on the north, four each day on the south, and two pair at the storehouses.¹⁸ As for the court on the west, there were four at the highway and two at the court.¹⁹ Those were the divisions of the gatekeepers from the descendants of the Korahites and Merarites.

²⁰From the Levites, Ahijah was in charge of the treasuries of God's temple and the treasuries of what had been dedicated.²¹ From the sons of Ladan, who were the descendants of the Gershonites through Ladan and were the family heads belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli.²² The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel, were in charge of the treasuries of the LORD's temple.

27 This is the list of the Israelites, the family heads, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in every matter to do with the divisions that were on rotated military duty each month throughout the year. There were 24,000 in each division:

²Jashobeam son of Zabdiel was in charge of the first division, for the first month; 24,000 were in his division.³ He was a descendant of Perez and chief of all the army commanders for the first month.

⁴Dodai the Ahoite was in charge of the division for the second month, and Mikloth was the leader; 24,000 were in his division.

⁵The third army commander, as chief for the third month, was Benaiah son of the priest Jehoiada; 24,000 were in his division.⁶ This Benaiah was a mighty man among the Thirty and over the Thirty, and his son Ammizabad was in charge of his division.

⁷The fourth commander, for the fourth month, was Joab's brother Asahel, and his son Zebadiah was commander after him; 24,000 were in his division.

⁸The fifth, for the fifth month, was the commander Shammuth the Izrahite; 24,000 were in his division.

⁹The sixth, for the sixth month, was Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; 24,000 were in his division.

¹⁰The seventh, for the seventh month, was Helez the Pelonite from the descendants of Ephraim; 24,000 were in his division.

¹¹The eighth, for the eighth month, was Sibbecai the Hushathite, a Zerahite; 24,000 were in his division.

¹²The ninth, for the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anathothite, a Benjaminite; 24,000 were in his division.

¹³The tenth, for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite, a Zerahite; 24,000 were in his division.

¹⁴The eleventh, for the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite from the descendants of Ephraim; 24,000 were in his division.

¹⁵The twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel's family; 24,000 were in his division.

¹⁶The following were in charge of the tribes of Israel: For the Reubenites, Eliezer son of Zichri was the chief official;

for the Simeonites, Shephathia son of Maacah;

¹⁷for the Levites, Hashabiah son of Kemuel; for Aaron, Zadok;

¹⁸for Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers; for Issachar, Omri son of Michael;

¹⁹for Zebulun, Ishmaiah son of Obadiah;

for Naphtali, Jerimoth son of Azriel;

²⁰for the Ephraimites, Hoshea son of Azaziah;

for half the tribe of Manasseh, Joel son of Pedaiah;

²¹for half the tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo son of Zechariah;

for Benjamin, Jaasiel son of Abner;

²²for Dan, Azarel son of Jeroham.

Those were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

²³David didn't count the men aged twenty or under, for the LORD had said he would make Israel as numerous as the stars of the sky.²⁴ Joab son of Zeruiah began to count them, but he didn't complete it. There was wrath against Israel because of this census, and the number was not entered in the Historical Record of King David.

²⁵Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the king's storehouses.

Jonathan son of Uziah was in charge of the storehouses in the country, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses.

²⁶Ezri son of Chelub was in charge of those who worked in the fields tilling the soil.

²⁷Shimei the Ramathite was in charge of the vineyards.

Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars.

²⁸Baal-nanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore trees in the Judean foothills. Joash was in charge of the stores of olive oil.

²⁹Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the herds that grazed in Sharon, while Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the herds in the valleys.

³⁰Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels.

Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.

³¹Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the flocks.

All these were officials in charge of King David's property.

28 David assembled all the leaders of Israel in Jerusalem: the leaders of the tribes, the leaders of the divisions in the king's service, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of all the property and cattle of the king and his sons, along with the court officials, the fighting men, and all the best soldiers. ² Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Listen to me, my brothers and my people. It was in my heart to build a house as a resting place for the ark of the LORD's covenant and as a footstool for our God. I had made preparations to build, ³ but God said to me, 'You are not to build a house for my name because you are a man of war and have shed blood.'

⁴ "Yet the LORD God of Israel chose me out of all my father's family to be king over Israel forever. For he chose Judah as leader, and from the house of Judah, my father's family, and from my father's sons, he was pleased to make me king over all Israel. ⁵ And out of all my sons — for the LORD has given me many sons — he has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the LORD's kingdom over Israel. ⁶ He said to me, 'Your son Solomon is the one who is to build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. ⁷ I will establish his kingdom forever if he perseveres in keeping my commands and my ordinances as he is doing today.'

⁸ "So now in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and follow all the commands of the LORD your God so that you may possess this good land and leave it as an inheritance to your descendants forever.

⁹ "As for you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve him wholeheartedly and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches every heart and understands the intention of every thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you abandon him, he will reject you forever. ¹⁰ Realize now that the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong, and do it."

¹¹ Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the portico of the temple and its buildings, treasuries, upstairs rooms, inner rooms, and a room for the mercy seat. ¹² The plans contained everything he had in mind for the courts of the LORD's house, all the surrounding chambers, the treasuries of God's house, and the treasuries for what is dedicated. ¹³ Also included were plans for the divisions of the priests and the Levites; all the work of service in the LORD's house; all the articles of service of the LORD's house; ¹⁴ the weight of gold for all the articles for every kind of service; the weight of all the silver articles for every kind of service; ¹⁵ the weight of the gold lampstands and their gold lamps, including the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; the weight of each silver lampstand and its lamps, according to the service of each lampstand; ¹⁶ the weight of gold for each table for the rows of the Bread of the Presence and the silver for the silver tables; ¹⁷ the pure gold for the forks, sprinkling basins, and pitchers; the weight of each gold dish; the weight of each silver bowl; ¹⁸ the weight of refined gold for the altar of incense; and the plans for the chariot of the gold cherubim that spread out their wings and cover the ark of the LORD's covenant.

²⁰ Then David said to his son Solomon, "Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Don't be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He won't leave you or abandon you until all the work for the service of the LORD's house is finished. ²¹ Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of God's house. Every willing person of any skill will be at your disposal for the work, and the leaders and all the people are at your every command."

29 Then King David said to all the assembly, "My son Solomon — God has chosen him alone — is young and inexperienced. The task is great because the building will not be built for a human but for the LORD God. ² So to the best of my ability I've made provision for the house of my God: gold for the gold articles, silver for the silver, bronze for the bronze, iron for the iron, and wood for the wood, as well as onyx, stones for mounting, antimony, stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and a great quantity of marble. ³ Moreover, because of my delight in the house of my God, I now give my personal treasures of gold and silver for the house of my God over and above all that I've provided for the holy house: ⁴ 100 tons of gold (gold of Ophir) and 250 tons of refined silver for overlaying the walls of the buildings, ⁵ the gold for the gold work and the silver for the silver, for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now who will volunteer to consecrate himself to the LORD today?"

⁶ Then the leaders of the households, the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and the officials in charge of the king's work gave willingly. ⁷ For the service of God's house they gave 185 tons of gold and 10,000 gold coins, 375 tons of silver, 675 tons of bronze, and 4,000 tons of iron. ⁸ Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the LORD's house under the care of Jehiel the Gershonite. ⁹ Then the people rejoiced because of their leaders' willingness to give, for they had given to the LORD wholeheartedly. King David also rejoiced greatly.

May you be blessed, LORD God of our father Israel, from eternity to eternity. ¹¹ Yours, LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the splendor and the majesty, for everything in the heavens and on earth belongs to you. Yours, LORD, is the kingdom, and you are exalted as head over all. ¹² Riches and honor come from you, and you are the ruler of everything. Power and might are in your hand, and it is in your hand to make great and to give strength to all. ¹³ Now therefore, our God, we give you thanks and praise your glorious name.

¹⁴ But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? For everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your own hand. ¹⁵ For we are aliens and temporary residents in your presence as were all our ancestors. Our days on earth are like a shadow, without hope. ¹⁶ LORD our God, all this wealth that we've provided for building you a house for your holy name comes from your hand; everything belongs to you. ¹⁷ I know, my God, that you test the heart and that you are pleased with what is right. I have willingly given all these things with an upright heart, and now I have seen your people who are present here giving joyfully and willingly to you. ¹⁸ LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our ancestors, keep this desire forever in the thoughts of the hearts of your people, and confirm their hearts toward you. ¹⁹ Give my son Solomon an undivided heart to keep and to carry out all your commands, your decrees, and your statutes, and to build the building for which I have made provision.

²⁰ Then David said to the whole assembly, "Blessed be the LORD your God." So the whole assembly praised the LORD God of their ancestors. They knelt low and paid homage to the LORD and the king.

²¹ The following day they offered sacrifices to the LORD and burnt offerings to the LORD: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, along with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

²² They ate and drank with great joy in the LORD's presence that day.

Then, for a second time, they made David's son Solomon king; they anointed him as the LORD's ruler, and Zadok as the priest. ²³ Solomon sat on the LORD's throne as king in place of his father David. He prospered, and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴ All the leaders and the mighty men, and all of King David's sons as well, pledged their allegiance to King Solomon. ²⁵ The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been bestowed on any king over Israel before him.

²⁶ David son of Jesse was king over all Israel. ²⁷ The length of his reign over Israel was forty years; he reigned in Hebron for seven years and in Jerusalem for thirty-three. ²⁸ He died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor, and his son Solomon became king in his place. ²⁹ As for the events of King David's reign, from beginning to end, note that they are written in the Events of the Seer Samuel, the Events of the Prophet Nathan, and the Events of the Seer Gad, ³⁰ along with all his reign, his might, and the incidents that affected him and Israel and all the kingdoms of the surrounding lands.

2 CHRONICLES

1 Solomon son of David strengthened his hold on his kingdom. The LORD his God was with him and highly exalted him. ² Then Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel — the family heads. ³ Solomon and the whole assembly with him went to the high place that was in Gibeon because God's tent of meeting, which the LORD's servant Moses had made in the wilderness, was there. ⁴ Now David had brought the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place he had set up for it, because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem, ⁵ but he put the bronze altar, which Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, had made, in front of the LORD's tabernacle. Solomon and the assembly inquired of him there. ⁶ Solomon offered sacrifices there in the LORD's presence on the bronze altar at the tent of meeting; he offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

⁷ That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him: "Ask. What should I give you?"

⁸ And Solomon said to God: "You have shown great and faithful love to my father David, and you have made me king in his place. ⁹ LORD God, let your promise to my father David now come true. For you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth. ¹⁰ Now grant me wisdom and knowledge so that I may lead these people, for who can judge this great people of yours?"

¹¹ God said to Solomon, "Since this was in your heart, and you have not requested riches, wealth, or glory, or for the life of those who hate you, and you have not even requested long life, but you have requested for yourself wisdom and knowledge that you may judge my people over whom I have made you king, ¹² wisdom and knowledge are given to you. I will also give you riches, wealth, and glory, unlike what was given to the kings who were before you, or will be given to those after you." ¹³ So Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place that was in Gibeon in front of the tent of meeting, and he reigned over Israel.

2 Solomon decided to build a temple for the name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself, ² so he assigned 70,000 men as porters, 80,000 men as stonecutters in the mountains, and 3,600 as supervisors over them.

³ Then Solomon sent word to King Hiram of Tyre: Do for me what you did for my father David. You sent him cedars to build him a house to live in. ⁴ Now I am building a temple for the name of the LORD my God in order to dedicate it to him for burning fragrant incense before him, for displaying the rows of the Bread of the Presence continuously, and for sacrificing burnt offerings for the morning and the evening, the Sabbaths and the New Moons, and the appointed festivals of the LORD our God. This is ordained for Israel permanently. ⁵ The temple that I am building will be great, for our God is greater than any of the gods. ⁶ But who is able to build a temple for him, since even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain him? Who am I then that I should build a temple for him except as a place to burn incense before him? ⁷ Therefore, send me an artisan who is skilled in engraving to work with gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and with purple, crimson, and blue yarn. He will work with the artisans who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, appointed by my father David. ⁸ Also, send me cedar, cypress, and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut the trees of Lebanon. Note that my servants will be with your servants ⁹ to prepare logs for me in abundance because the temple I am building will be great and wondrous. ¹⁰ I will give your servants, the woodcutters who cut the trees, one hundred thousand bushels of wheat flour, one hundred thousand bushels of barley, one hundred ten thousand gallons of wine, and one hundred ten thousand gallons of oil.

¹¹ Then King Hiram of Tyre wrote a letter and sent it to Solomon:

Because the LORD loves his people, he set you over them as king.

¹² Hiram also said:

Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth! He gave King David a wise son with insight and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

¹³ I have now sent Hiram-abi, a skillful man who has understanding. ¹⁴ He is the son of a woman from the daughters of Dan. His father is a man of Tyre. He knows how to work with gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood, with purple, blue, crimson yarn, and fine linen. He knows how to do all kinds of engraving and to execute any design that may be given him. I have sent him to be with your artisans and the artisans of my lord, your father David. ¹⁵ Now, let my lord send the wheat, barley, oil, and wine to his servants as promised. ¹⁶ We will cut logs from Lebanon, as many as you need, and bring them to you as rafts by sea to Joppa. You can then take them up to Jerusalem.

3 Then Solomon began to build the LORD's temple in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the site David had prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ² He began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign. ³ These are Solomon's foundations for building God's temple: the length was ninety feet, and the width thirty feet. ⁴ The portico, which was across the front extending across the width of the temple, was thirty feet wide; its height was thirty feet; he overlaid its inner surface with pure gold.⁵ The larger room he paneled with cypress wood, overlaid with fine gold, and decorated with palm trees and chains.⁶ He adorned the temple with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was the gold of Parvaim.⁷ He overlaid the temple — the beams, the thresholds, its walls and doors — with gold, and he carved cherubim on the walls.

⁸ Then he made the most holy place; its length corresponded to the width of the temple, 30 feet, and its width was 30 feet. He overlaid it with forty-five thousand pounds of fine gold.⁹ The weight of the nails was twenty ounces of gold, and he overlaid the ceiling with gold.

¹⁰ He made two cherubim of sculptured work, for the most holy place, and he overlaid them with gold.¹¹ The overall length of the wings of the cherubim was 30 feet: the wing of one was 7 ½ feet, touching the wall of the room; its other wing was 7 ½ feet, touching the wing of the other cherub.¹² The wing of the other cherub was 7 ½ feet, touching the wall of the room; its other wing was 7 ½ feet, reaching the wing of the other cherub.¹³ The wingspan of these cherubim was 30 feet. They stood on their feet and faced the larger room.

¹⁵ In front of the temple he made two pillars, each 27 feet high. The capital on top of each was 7 ½ feet high.¹⁶ He had made chainwork in the inner sanctuary and also put it on top of the pillars. He made a hundred pomegranates and fastened them into the chainwork.¹⁷ Then he set up the pillars in front of the sanctuary, one on the right and one on the left. He named the one on the right Jachin and the one on the left Boaz.

4 He made a bronze altar 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 15 feet high.

² Then he made the cast metal basin, 15 feet from brim to brim, perfectly round. It was 7 ½ feet high and 45 feet in circumference.³ The likeness of oxen was below it, completely encircling it, ten every half yard, completely surrounding the basin. The oxen were cast in two rows when the basin was cast.⁴ It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The basin was on top of them and all their hindquarters were toward the center.⁵ The basin was three inches thick, and its rim was fashioned like the brim of a cup or a lily blossom. It could hold eleven thousand gallons.

⁷ He made the ten gold lampstands according to their specifications and put them in the sanctuary, five on the right and five on the left.⁸ He made ten tables and placed them in the sanctuary, five on the right and five on the left. He also made a hundred gold bowls.

So Hiram finished doing the work that he was doing for King Solomon in God's temple:¹² two pillars; the bowls and the capitals on top of the two pillars; the two gratings for covering both bowls of the capitals that were on top of the pillars;¹³ the four hundred pomegranates for the two gratings (two rows of pomegranates for each grating covering both capitals' bowls on top of the pillars).¹⁴ He also made the water carts and the basins on the water carts.¹⁵ The one basin and the twelve oxen underneath it,¹⁶ the pots, the shovels, the forks, and all their utensils — Hiram-abi made them for King Solomon for the LORD's temple. All these were made of polished bronze.¹⁷ The king had them cast in clay molds in the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zeredah.¹⁸ Solomon made all these utensils in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

¹⁹ Solomon also made all the equipment in God's temple: the gold altar; the tables on which to put the Bread of the Presence;²⁰ the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold to burn in front of the inner sanctuary according to specifications;²¹ the flowers, lamps, and gold tongs — of purest gold;²² the wick trimmers, sprinkling basins, ladles, and firepans — of purest gold; and the entryway to the temple, its inner doors to the most holy place, and the doors of the temple sanctuary — of gold.

5 So all the work Solomon did for the LORD's temple was completed. Then Solomon brought the consecrated things of his father David — the silver, the gold, and all the utensils — and put them in the treasuries of God's temple.

² At that time Solomon assembled at Jerusalem the elders of Israel — all the tribal heads, the ancestral chiefs of the Israelites — in order to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the city of David, that is, Zion.³ So all the men of Israel were assembled in the king's presence at the festival; this was in the seventh month.

⁴ All the elders of Israel came, and the Levites picked up the ark.⁵ They brought up the ark, the tent of meeting, and the holy utensils that were in the tent. The priests and the Levites brought them up.⁶ King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israel who had gathered around him were in front of the ark sacrificing sheep, goats, and cattle that could not be counted or numbered because there were so many.⁷ The priests brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the most holy place, beneath the wings of the cherubim.⁸ And the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark so that the cherubim formed a cover above the ark and its poles.⁹ The poles were so long that their ends were seen from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary, but they were not seen from outside; they are still there today.¹⁰ Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets that Moses had put in it at Horeb, where the LORD had made a covenant with the Israelites when they came out of Egypt.

¹¹ Now all the priests who were present had consecrated themselves regardless of their divisions. When the priests came out of the holy place,¹² the Levitical singers dressed in fine linen and carrying cymbals, harps, and lyres were standing east of the altar, and with them were 120 priests blowing trumpets. The Levitical singers were descendants of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun and their sons and relatives.¹³ The trumpeters and singers joined together to praise and thank the LORD with one voice. They raised their voices, accompanied by trumpets, cymbals, and musical instruments, in praise to the LORD:

For he is good;
his faithful love endures forever.

The temple, the LORD's temple, was filled with a cloud.¹⁴ And because of the cloud, the priests were not able to continue ministering, for the glory of the LORD filled God's temple.

6 Then Solomon said:
 2 The LORD said he would dwell in total darkness,
 but I have built an exalted temple for you,
 a place for your residence forever.
 3 Then the king turned and blessed the entire congregation of Israel while they were standing. 4 He said:
 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel!
 He spoke directly to my father David,
 and he has fulfilled the promise
 by his power.
 He said,
 5 "Since the day I brought my people Israel
 out of the land of Egypt,
 I have not chosen a city to build a temple in
 among any of the tribes of Israel,
 so that my name would be there,
 and I have not chosen a man
 to be ruler over my people Israel.
 6 But I have chosen Jerusalem
 so that my name will be there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel."
 7 My father David had his heart set
 on building a temple for the name of the LORD,
 the God of Israel.
 8 However, the LORD said to my father David,
 "Since it was your desire to build a temple
 for my name,
 you have done well to have this desire.
 9 Yet, you are not the one to build the temple,
 but your son, your own offspring,
 will build the temple for my name."
 10 So the LORD has fulfilled what he promised.
 I have taken the place of my father David and I sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised.
 I have built the temple for the name of the LORD,
 the God of Israel.
 11 I have put the ark there,
 where the LORD's covenant is that he made with the Israelites.
 12 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the entire congregation of Israel and spread out his hands. 13 For Solomon had made a bronze platform 7 1/2 feet long, 7 1/2 feet wide, and 4 1/2 feet high and put it in the court. He stood on it, knelt down in front of the entire congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven. 14 He said:
 LORD God of Israel,
 there is no God like you
 in heaven or on earth,
 who keeps his gracious covenant
 with your servants who walk before you
 with all their heart.
 15 You have kept what you promised to your servant, my father David.
 You spoke directly to him,
 and you fulfilled your promise by your power,
 as it is today.
 16 Therefore, LORD God of Israel, keep what you promised
 to your servant, my father David:
 "You will never fail to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons guard their way to walk in my Law

as you have walked before me."

17 Now, LORD God of Israel, please confirm what you promised to your servant David.
 18 But will God indeed live on earth with humans?
 Even heaven, the highest heaven,
 cannot contain you,
 much less this temple I have built.
 19 Listen to your servant's prayer and his petition,
 LORD my God,
 so that you may hear the cry and the prayer that your servant prays before you, 20 so that your eyes watch over this temple
 day and night,
 toward the place where you said
 you would put your name;
 and so that you may hear the prayer
 your servant prays toward this place.
 21 Hear the petitions of your servant
 and your people Israel,
 which they pray toward this place.
 May you hear in your dwelling place in heaven.
 May you hear and forgive.
 22 If a man sins against his neighbor and is forced to take an oath and he comes to take an oath before your altar in this temple, 23 may you hear in heaven and act.
 May you judge your servants, condemning the wicked man by bringing what he has done on his own head and providing justice for the righteous
 by rewarding him according to his righteousness.
 24 If your people Israel are defeated before an enemy,
 because they have sinned against you,
 and they return to you and praise your name,
 and they pray and plead for mercy
 before you in this temple,
 25 may you hear in heaven
 and forgive the sin of your people Israel.
 May you restore them to the land
 you gave them and their ancestors.
 26 When the skies are shut and there is no rain
 because they have sinned against you,
 and they pray toward this place
 and praise your name,
 and they turn from their sins
 because you are afflicting them,
 27 may you hear in heaven
 and forgive the sin of your servants
 and your people Israel,
 so that you may teach them the good way
 they should walk in.
 May you send rain on your land
 that you gave your people for an inheritance.
 28 When there is famine in the land,
 when there is pestilence,
 when there is blight or mildew, locust
 or grasshopper,
 when their enemies besiege them
 in the land and its cities,
 when there is any plague or illness, 29 every prayer or petition that any person or that all your people Israel may have —

they each know their own affliction and suffering —
as they spread out their hands toward this temple, 30 may you hear in heaven, your dwelling place,
and may you forgive and give to everyone
according to all their ways, since you know each heart,
for you alone know the human heart, 31 so that they may fear you and walk in your ways
all the days they live on the land
you gave our ancestors.
32 Even for the foreigner who is not of your people Israel
but has come from a distant land because of your great name
and your strong hand and outstretched arm:
when he comes and prays toward this temple, 33 may you hear in heaven in your dwelling place,
and do all the foreigner asks you.
Then all the peoples of the earth will know your name,
to fear you as your people Israel do and know that this temple I have built bears your name.
34 When your people go out to fight against their enemies,
wherever you send them,
and they pray to you
in the direction of this city you have chosen and the temple that I have built for your name, 35 may you hear their prayer and petition in heaven
and uphold their cause.
36 When they sin against you —
for there is no one who does not sin — and you are angry with them
and hand them over to the enemy, and their captors deport them
to a distant or nearby country, 37 and when they come to their senses
in the land where they were deported and repent and petition you in their captors' land, saying: "We have sinned and done wrong;
we have been wicked," 38 and when they return to you with all their mind and all their heart
in the land of their captivity
where they were taken captive, and when they pray in the direction of their land that you gave their ancestors,
and the city you have chosen,
and toward the temple I have built for your name, 39 may you hear their prayer and petitions in heaven,
your dwelling place,
and uphold their cause.
May you forgive your people
who sinned against you.
40 Now, my God,
please let your eyes be open and your ears attentive
to the prayer of this place.
41 Now therefore:
Arise, LORD God, come to your resting place,
you and your powerful ark.

May your priests, LORD God, be clothed with salvation,
and may your faithful people rejoice in goodness.

42 LORD God, do not reject your anointed one;
remember the promises to your servant David.

7 When Solomon finished praying, fire descended from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple. ²The priests were not able to enter the LORD's temple because the glory of the LORD filled the temple of the LORD. ³All the Israelites were watching when the fire descended and the glory of the LORD came on the temple. They bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground. They worshipped and praised the LORD:

For he is good,
for his faithful love endures forever.

⁴The king and all the people were offering sacrifices in the LORD's presence. ⁵King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand cattle and one hundred twenty thousand sheep and goats. In this manner the king and all the people dedicated God's temple. ⁶The priests and the Levites were standing at their stations. The Levites had the musical instruments of the LORD, which King David had made to give thanks to the LORD — "for his faithful love endures forever" — when he offered praise with them. Across from the Levites, the priests were blowing trumpets, and all the people were standing. ⁷Since the bronze altar that Solomon had made could not accommodate the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat of the fellowship offerings, Solomon first consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the LORD's temple and then offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings there.

⁸So Solomon and all Israel with him — a very great assembly, from the entrance to Hamath to the Brook of Egypt — observed the festival at that time for seven days. ⁹On
the eighth day they held a sacred assembly, for the dedication of the altar lasted seven days and the festival seven days. ¹⁰On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people home, rejoicing and with happy hearts for the goodness the LORD had done for David, for Solomon, and for his people Israel.

¹¹So Solomon finished the LORD's temple and the royal palace. Everything that had entered Solomon's heart to do for the LORD's temple and for his own palace succeeded.

¹²Then the LORD appeared to Solomon at night and said to him:

I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a temple of sacrifice. ¹³If I shut the sky so there is no rain, or if I command the grasshopper to consume the land, or if I send pestilence on my people, ¹⁴and my people, who bear my name, humble themselves, pray and seek my face, and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land. ¹⁵My eyes will now be open and my ears attentive to prayer from this place. ¹⁶And I have now chosen and consecrated this temple so that my name may be there forever; my eyes and my heart will be there at all times.

¹⁷As for you, if you walk before me as your father David walked, doing everything I have commanded you, and if you keep my statutes and ordinances, ¹⁸I will establish your royal throne, as I promised your father
David: You will never fail to have a man ruling in Israel.

19 However, if you turn away and abandon my statutes and my commands that I have set before you and if you go and serve other gods and bow in worship to them, 20 then I will uproot Israel from the soil that I gave them, and this temple that I have sanctified for my name I will banish from my presence; I will make it an object of scorn and ridicule among all the peoples. 21 As for this temple, which was exalted, everyone who passes by will be appalled and will say: Why did the LORD do this to this land and this temple? 22 Then they will say: Because they abandoned the LORD God of their ancestors who brought them out of the land of Egypt. They clung to other gods and bowed in worship to them and served them. Because of this, he brought all this ruin on them.

8 At the end of twenty years during which Solomon had built the LORD's temple and his own palace — 2 Solomon had rebuilt the cities Hiram gave him and settled Israelites there — 3 Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and seized it. 4 He built Tadmor in the wilderness along with all the storage cities that he built in Hamath. 5 He built Upper Beth-horon and Lower Beth-horon — fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars — 6 Baalath, all the storage cities that belonged to Solomon, all the chariot cities, the cavalry cities, and everything Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, Lebanon, or anywhere else in the land of his dominion.

7 As for all the peoples who remained of the Hethites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not from Israel — 8 their descendants who remained in the land after them, those the Israelites had not completely destroyed — Solomon imposed forced labor on them; it is this way today. 9 But Solomon did not consign the Israelites to be slaves for his work; they were soldiers, commanders of his captains, and commanders of his chariots and his cavalry. 10 These were King Solomon's deputies: 250 who supervised the people.

11 Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh from the city of David to the house he had built for her, for he said, "My wife must not live in the house of King David of Israel because the places the ark of the LORD has come into are holy."

12 At that time Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the LORD's altar he had made in front of the portico. 13 He followed the daily requirement for offerings according to the commandment of Moses for Sabbaths, New Moons, and the three annual appointed festivals: the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Shelters. 14 According to the ordinances of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests over their service, of the Levites over their responsibilities to offer praise and to minister before the priests following the daily requirement, and of the gatekeepers by their divisions with respect to each temple gate, for this had been the command of David, the man of God. 15 They did not turn aside from the king's command regarding the priests and the Levites concerning any matter or concerning the treasuries. 16 All of Solomon's work was carried out from the day the foundation was laid for the LORD's temple until it was finished. So the LORD's temple was completed.

17 At that time Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Elath on the seashore in the land of Edom. 18 So Hiram sent ships to him by his servants along with crews of experienced seamen. They went with Solomon's servants to Ophir, took from there seventeen tons of gold, and delivered it to King Solomon.

9 The queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, so she came to test Solomon with difficult questions at Jerusalem with a very large entourage, with camels bearing spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones. She came to Solomon and spoke with him about everything that was on her mind. 2 So Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too difficult for Solomon to explain to her. 3 When the queen of Sheba observed Solomon's wisdom, the palace he had built, 4 the food at his table, his servants' residence, his attendants' service and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and the burnt offerings he offered at the LORD's temple, it took her breath away.

5 She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your words and about your wisdom is true. 6 But I didn't believe their reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, I was not even told half of your great wisdom! You far exceed the report I heard. 7 How happy are your men. How happy are these servants of yours, who always stand in your presence hearing your wisdom. 8 Blessed be the LORD your God! He delighted in you and put you on his throne as king for the LORD your God. Because your God loved Israel enough to establish them forever, he has set you over them as king to carry out justice and righteousness."

9 Then she gave the king four and a half tons of gold, a great quantity of spices, and precious stones. There never were such spices as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon. 10 In addition, Hiram's servants and Solomon's servants who brought gold from Ophir also brought algum wood and precious stones. 11 The king made the algum wood into walkways for the LORD's temple and for the king's palace and into lyres and harps for the singers. Never before had anything like them been seen in the land of Judah.

12 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba her every desire, whatever she asked — far more than she had expected the king. Then she, along with her servants, returned to her own country.

13 The weight of gold that came to Solomon annually was twenty-five tons,¹⁴ besides what was brought by the merchants and traders. All the Arabian kings and governors of the land also brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; 15 pounds of hammered gold went into each shield. 16 He made three hundred small shields of hammered gold; 7 1/2 pounds of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

17 The king also made a large ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold. 18 The throne had six steps; there was a footstool covered in gold for the throne, armrests on either side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests. 19 Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps, one at each end. Nothing like it had ever been made in any other kingdom.

20 All of King Solomon's drinking cups were gold, and all the utensils of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. There was no silver, since it was considered as nothing in Solomon's time,²¹ for the king's ships kept going to Tarshish with Hiram's servants, and once every three years the ships of Tarshish would arrive bearing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

22 King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the world in riches and wisdom. 23 All the kings of the world wanted an audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart. ²⁴ Each of them would bring his own gift — items of silver and gold, clothing, weapons, spices, and horses and mules — as an annual tribute.

²⁵ Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. He stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. ²⁶ He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines and as far as the border of Egypt. ²⁷ The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar as abundant as sycamore in the Judean foothills. ²⁸ They were bringing horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all the countries.

³⁰ Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years. ³¹ Solomon rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David. His son Rehoboam became king in his place.

10 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king. ² When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard about it — for he was in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon's presence — Jeroboam returned from Egypt. ³ So they summoned him. Then Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam: ⁴ "Your father made our yoke harsh. Therefore, lighten your father's harsh service and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you."

⁵ Rehoboam replied, "Return to me in three days." So the people left.

⁶ Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had attended his father Solomon when he was alive, asking, "How do you advise me to respond to this people?"

⁷ They replied, "If you will be kind to this people and please them by speaking kind words to them, they will be your servants forever."

¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had ordered, saying, "Return to me on the third day." ¹³ Then the king answered them harshly. King Rehoboam rejected the elders' advice ¹⁴ and spoke to them according to the young men's advice, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I, with barbed whips."

¹⁵ The king did not listen to the people because the turn of events came from God, in order that the LORD might carry out his word that he had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

¹⁶ When all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them, the people answered the king:

What portion do we have in David?

We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.

Israel, each to your tent;

David, look after your own house now!

So all Israel went to their tents. ¹⁷ But as for the Israelites living in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

¹⁸ Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of the forced labor, but the Israelites stoned him to death. However, King Rehoboam managed to get into his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹ Israel is in rebellion against the house of David until today.

11 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mobilized the house of Judah and Benjamin — one hundred eighty thousand fit young soldiers — to fight against Israel to restore the reign to Rehoboam. ² But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, the man of God: ³ "Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people: ⁴ "This is what the LORD says: You are not to march up and fight against your brothers. Each of you return home, for this incident has come from me.'"

So they listened to what the LORD said and turned back from going against Jeroboam.

12 When Rehoboam had established his sovereignty and royal power, he abandoned the law of the LORD — he and all Israel with him. ² Because they were unfaithful to the LORD, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, King Shishak of Egypt went to war against Jerusalem ³ with

1,200 chariots, 60,000 cavalymen, and countless people who came with him from Egypt — Libyans, Sukkiim, and Cushites. ⁴ He captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

⁵ Then the prophet Shemaiah went to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah who were gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak. He said to them: "This is what the LORD says: 'You have abandoned me; therefore, I have abandoned you to Shishak.'"

⁶ So the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is righteous."

⁷ When the LORD saw that they had humbled themselves, the LORD's message came to Shemaiah: "They have humbled themselves; I will not destroy them but will grant them a little deliverance. My wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem through Shishak. ⁸ However, they will become his servants so that they may recognize the difference between serving me and serving the kingdoms of other lands."

¹³ King Rehoboam established his royal power in Jerusalem. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put his name. Rehoboam's mother's name was Naamah the Ammonite. ¹⁴ Rehoboam did what was evil, because he did not determine in his heart to seek the LORD.

13 In the eighteenth year of Israel's King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah, ² and he reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah daughter of Uriel; she was from Gibeah.

There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³ Abijah set his army of warriors in order with four hundred thousand fit young men. Jeroboam arranged his mighty army of eight hundred thousand fit young men in battle formation against him. ⁴ Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Jeroboam and all Israel, hear me. ⁵ Don't you know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingship over Israel to David and his descendants forever by a covenant of salt? ⁶ But Jeroboam son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord. ⁷ Then worthless and wicked men gathered around him to resist Rehoboam son of Solomon when Rehoboam was young, inexperienced, and unable to assert himself against them.

⁸ And now you are saying you can assert yourselves against the LORD's kingdom, which is in the hand of one of David's sons. You are a vast number and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made for you as gods. ⁹ Didn't you banish the priests of the LORD, the descendants of Aaron and the Levites, and make your own priests like the peoples of other lands do? Whoever comes to ordain himself with a young bull and seven rams may become a priest of what are not gods.

¹⁰ But as for us, the LORD is our God. We have not abandoned him; the priests ministering to the LORD are descendants of Aaron, and the Levites serve at their tasks. ¹¹ They offer a burnt offering and fragrant incense to the LORD every morning and every evening, and they set the rows of the Bread of the Presence on the ceremonially clean table. They light the lamps of the gold lampstand every evening. We are carrying out the requirements of the LORD our God, while you have abandoned him. ¹² Look, God and his priests are with us at our head. The trumpets are ready to sound the charge against you. Israelites, don't fight against the LORD God of your ancestors, for you will not succeed."

¹³ Now Jeroboam had sent an ambush around to advance from behind them. So they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them. ¹⁴ Judah turned and discovered that the battle was in front of them and behind them, so they cried out to the LORD. Then the priests blew the trumpets, ¹⁵ and the men of Judah raised the battle cry. When the men of Judah raised the battle cry, God routed Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶ So the Israelites fled before Judah, and God handed them over to them. ¹⁷ Then Abijah and his people struck them with a mighty blow, and five hundred thousand fit young men of Israel were killed. ¹⁸ The Israelites were subdued at that time. The Judahites succeeded because they depended on the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

²¹ However, Abijah grew strong, acquired fourteen wives, and fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. ²² The rest of the events of Abijah's reign, along with his ways and his sayings, are written in the Writing of the 14 Prophet Iddo. ¹ Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. His son Asa became king in his place. During his reign the land experienced peace for ten years.

² Asa did what was good and right in the sight of the LORD his God. ³ He removed the pagan altars and the high places. He shattered their sacred pillars and chopped down their Asherah poles. ⁴ He told the people of Judah to seek the LORD God of their ancestors and to carry out the instruction and the commands. ⁵ He also removed the high places and the shrines from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom experienced peace under him.

⁶ Because the land experienced peace, Asa built fortified cities in Judah. No one made war with him in those days because the LORD gave him rest. ⁷ So he said to the people of Judah, "Let's build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, with doors and bars. The land is still ours because we sought the LORD our God. We sought him and he gave us rest on every side." So they built and succeeded.

⁸ Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah bearing large shields and spears, and two hundred eighty thousand from Benjamin bearing regular shields and drawing the bow. All these were valiant warriors.⁹ Then Zerah the Cushite came against them with an army of one million men and three hundred chariots. They came as far as Mareshah.¹⁰ So Asa marched out against him and lined up in battle formation in Zephathah Valley at Mareshah.

11 Then Asa cried out to the LORD his God: "LORD, there is no one besides you to help the mighty and those without strength. Help us, LORD our God, for we depend on you, and in your name we have come against this large army. LORD, you are our God. Do not let a mere mortal hinder you."

12 So the LORD routed the Cushites before Asa and before Judah, and the Cushites fled.¹³ Then Asa and the people who were with him pursued them as far as Gerar. The Cushites fell until they had no survivors, for they were crushed before the LORD and his army. So the people of Judah carried off a great supply of loot.¹⁴ Then they attacked all the cities around Gerar because the terror of the LORD was on them. They also plundered all the cities, since there was a great deal of plunder in them.¹⁵ They also attacked the tents of the herdsmen and captured many sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

15 The Spirit of God came on Azariah son of Oded.² So he went out to meet Asa and said to him, "Asa and all Judah and Benjamin, hear me. The LORD is with you when you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you abandon him, he will abandon you."³ For many years Israel has been without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without instruction,⁴ but when they turned to the LORD God of Israel in their distress and sought him, he was found by them.⁵ In those times there was no peace for those who went about their daily activities because the residents of the lands had many conflicts.⁶ Nation was crushed by nation and city by city, for God troubled them with every possible distress.⁷ But as for you, be strong; don't give up, for your work has a reward."

8 When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Azariah son of Oded the prophet, he took courage and removed the abhorrent idols from the whole land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. He renovated the altar of the LORD that was in front of the portico of the LORD's temple.⁹ Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, as well as those from the tribes of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who were residing among them, for they had defected to him from Israel in great numbers when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

10 They were gathered in Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.¹¹ At that time they sacrificed to the LORD seven hundred cattle and seven thousand sheep and goats from all the plunder they had brought.¹² Then they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their ancestors with all their heart and all their soul.¹³ Whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel would be put to death, young or old, man or woman.¹⁴ They took an oath to the LORD in a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets, and with rams' horns.¹⁵ All Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn it with all their mind. They had sought him with all their heart, and he was found by them. So the LORD gave them rest on every side.

16 King Asa also removed Maacah, his grandmother, from being queen mother because she had made an obscene image of Asherah. Asa chopped down her obscene image, then crushed it and burned it in the Kidron Valley.¹⁷ The high places were not taken away from Israel; nevertheless, Asa was wholeheartedly devoted his entire life.

18 He brought his father's consecrated gifts and his own consecrated gifts into God's temple: silver, gold, and utensils.

19 There was no war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

16 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa, Israel's King Baasha went to war against Judah. He built Ramah in order to keep anyone from leaving or coming to King Asa of Judah.² So Asa brought out the silver and gold from the treasuries of the LORD's temple and the royal palace and sent it to Aram's King Ben-hadad, who lived in Damascus, saying,³ "There's a treaty between me and you, between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you silver and gold. Go break your treaty with Israel's King Baasha so that he will withdraw from me."

4 Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies to the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.⁵ When Baasha heard about it, he quit building Ramah and stopped his work.⁶ Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and the timbers Baasha had built it with. Then he built Geba and Mizpah with them.

7 At that time, the seer Hanani came to King Asa of Judah and said to him, "Because you depended on the king of Aram and have not depended on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from you."⁸ Were not the Cushites and Libyans a vast army with many chariots and horsemen? When you depended on the LORD, he handed them over to you.⁹ For the eyes of the LORD roam throughout the earth to show himself strong for those who are wholeheartedly devoted to him. You have been foolish in this matter. Therefore, you will have wars from now on."¹⁰ Asa was enraged with the seer and put him in prison because of his anger over this. And Asa mistreated some of the people at that time.

11 Note that the events of Asa's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.¹² In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa developed a disease in his feet, and his disease became increasingly severe. Yet even in his disease he didn't seek the LORD but only the physicians.¹³ Asa rested with his fathers; he died in the forty-first year of his reign.¹⁴ He was buried in his own tomb that he had made for himself in the city of David. They laid him out in a coffin that was full of spices and various mixtures of prepared ointments; then they made a great fire in his honor.

17 His son Jehoshaphat became king in his place and strengthened himself against Israel.² He stationed troops in every fortified city of Judah and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

3 Now the LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the former ways of his father David. He did not seek the Baals⁴ but sought the God of his father and walked by his commands, not according to the practices of Israel.⁵ So the LORD established the kingdom in his hand. Then all Judah brought him tribute, and he had riches and honor in abundance.⁶ His mind rejoiced in the LORD's ways, and he again removed the high places and Asherah poles from Judah.

7 In the third year of his reign, Jehoshaphat sent his officials — Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah — to teach in the cities of Judah.⁸ The Levites with them were Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahei, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah; the priests, Elishama and Jehoram, were with these Levites.⁹ They taught throughout Judah, having the book of the LORD's instruction with them. They went throughout the towns of Judah and taught the people.

¹⁰The terror of the LORD was on all the kingdoms of the lands that surrounded Judah, so they didn't fight against Jehoshaphat. ¹¹Some of the Philistines also brought gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat, and the Arabs brought him flocks: 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

¹²Jehoshaphat grew stronger and stronger. He built fortresses and storage cities in Judah ¹³and carried out great works in the towns of Judah. He had fighting men, valiant warriors, in Jerusalem. ¹⁴These are their numbers according to their ancestral families. For Judah, the commanders of thousands:

Adnah the commander and three hundred thousand valiant warriors with him;

¹⁵ next to him, Jehohanan the commander and two hundred eighty thousand with him;

¹⁶ next to him, Amasiah son of Zichri, the volunteer of the LORD, and two hundred thousand valiant warriors with him;

¹⁷ from Benjamin, Eliada, a valiant warrior, and two hundred thousand with him armed with bow and shield;

¹⁸ next to him, Jehozabad and one hundred eighty thousand with him equipped for war.

¹⁹These were the ones who served the king, besides those he stationed in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

18 Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance, and he made an alliance with Ahab through marriage. ²Then after some years, he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab sacrificed many sheep, goats, and cattle for him and for the people who were with him. Then he persuaded him to attack Ramoth-gilead, ³for Israel's King Ahab asked Judah's King Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead?"

He replied to him, "I am as you are, my people as your people; we will be with you in the battle." ⁴But Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "First, please ask what the LORD's will is."

⁵So the king of Israel gathered the prophets, four hundred men, and asked them, "Should we go to Ramoth-gilead for war or should I refrain?"

They replied, "March up, and God will hand it over to the king."

⁶But Jehoshaphat asked, "Isn't there a prophet of the LORD here anymore? Let's ask him."

⁷The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man who can inquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies good about me, but only disaster. He is Micaiah son of Imlah."

"The king shouldn't say that," Jehoshaphat replied.

⁸So the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Hurry and get Micaiah son of Imlah!"

⁹Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah, clothed in royal attire, were each sitting on his own throne. They were sitting on the threshing floor at the entrance to Samaria's gate, and all the prophets were prophesying in front of them. ¹⁰Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made iron horns and said, "This is what the LORD says: 'You will gore the Arameans with these until they are finished off.'"

¹¹And all the prophets were prophesying the same, saying, "March up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for the LORD will hand it over to the king."

¹²The messenger who went to call Micaiah instructed him, "Look, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable for the king. So let your words be like theirs, and speak favorably."

¹³But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, I will say whatever my God says."

¹⁴So he went to the king, and the king asked him, "Micaiah, should we go to Ramoth-gilead for war, or should I refrain?"

Micaiah said, "March up and succeed, for they will be handed over to you."

¹⁵But the king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear not to tell me anything but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

¹⁶So Micaiah said:

I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd.

And the LORD said,

"They have no master;

let each return home in peace."

¹⁷So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you he never prophesies good about me, but only disaster?"

¹⁸Then Micaiah said, "Therefore, hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and the whole heavenly army was standing at his right hand and at his left hand. ¹⁹And the LORD said, 'Who will entice King Ahab of Israel to march up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' So one was saying this and another was saying that.

²⁰"Then a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will entice him.'

"The LORD asked him, 'How?'

²¹"So he said, 'I will go and become a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.'

"Then he said, 'You will entice him and also prevail. Go and do that.'

²²"Now, you see, the LORD has put a lying spirit into the mouth of these prophets of yours, and the LORD has pronounced disaster against you."

²³Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up, hit Micaiah on the cheek, and demanded, "Which way did the spirit from the LORD leave me to speak to you?"

²⁴Micaiah replied, "You will soon see when you go to hide in an inner chamber on that day."

²⁵Then the king of Israel ordered, "Take Micaiah and return him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash, the king's son, ²⁶and say, 'This is what the king says: Put this guy in prison and feed him only a little bread and water until I come back safely.'"

²⁷But Micaiah said, "If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me." Then he said, "Listen, all you people!"

²⁸Then the king of Israel and Judah's King Jehoshaphat went up to Ramoth-gilead. ²⁹But the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your royal attire." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

³⁰Now the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders, "Do not fight with anyone at all except the king of Israel."

³¹When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they shouted, "He must be the king of Israel!" So they turned to attack him, but Jehoshaphat cried out and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him. ³²When the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

³³But a man drew his bow without taking special aim and struck the king of Israel through the joints of his armor.

So he said to the charioteer, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am badly wounded!"³⁴ The battle raged throughout that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening. Then he died at sunset.

19 King Jehoshaphat of Judah returned to his home in Jerusalem in peace.² Then Jehu son of the seer Hanani went out to confront him and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Do you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, the LORD's wrath is on you."³ However, some good is found in you, for you have eradicated the Asherah poles from the land and have decided to seek God."

⁴ Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, and once again he went out among the people from Beer-sheba to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.⁵ He appointed judges in all the fortified cities of the land of Judah, city by city.⁶ Then he said to the judges, "Consider what you are doing, for you do not judge for a mere mortal, but for the LORD, who is with you in the matter of judgment."⁷ And now, may the terror of the LORD be on you. Watch what you do, for there is no injustice or partiality or taking bribes with the LORD our God."

⁸ Jehoshaphat also appointed in Jerusalem some of the Levites and priests and some of the Israelite family heads for deciding the LORD's will and for settling disputes of the residents of Jerusalem.⁹ He commanded them, saying, "In the fear of the LORD, with integrity, and wholeheartedly, you are to do the following:¹⁰ For every dispute that comes to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities — whether it regards differences of bloodguilt, law, commandment, statutes, or judgments — you are to warn them, so they will not incur guilt before the LORD and wrath will not come on you and your brothers. Do this, and you will not incur guilt.

¹¹ "Note that Amariah, the chief priest, is over you in all matters related to the LORD, and Zedabiah son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all matters related to the king, and the Levites are officers in your presence. Be strong; may the LORD be with those who do what is good."

20 After this, the Moabites and Ammonites, together with some of the Meunites, came to fight against Jehoshaphat.² People came and told Jehoshaphat, "A vast number from beyond the Dead Sea and from Edom has come to fight against you; they are already in Hazazon-tamar" (that is, En-ge-di).³ Jehoshaphat was afraid, and he resolved to seek the LORD. Then he proclaimed a fast for all Judah,⁴ who gathered to seek the LORD. They even came from all the cities of Judah to seek him.

⁵ Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem in the LORD's temple before the new courtyard.⁶ He said:

LORD, God of our ancestors, are you not the God who is in heaven, and do you not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in your hand, and no one can stand against you.⁷ Are you not our God who drove out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel and who gave it forever to the descendants of Abraham your friend?⁸ They have lived in the land and have built you a sanctuary in it for your name and have said,⁹ "If disaster comes on us — sword or judgment, pestilence or famine — we will stand before this temple and before you, for your name is in this temple. We will cry out to you because of our distress, and you will hear and deliver."

¹⁰ Now here are the Ammonites, Moabites, and the inhabitants of Mount Seir. You did not let Israel invade them when Israel came out of the land of Egypt, but Israel turned away from them and did not destroy them.¹¹ Look how they repay us by coming to drive us out of your possession that you gave us as an inheritance.¹² Our God, will you not judge them? For we are powerless before this vast number that comes to fight against us. We do not know what to do, but we look to you.

¹³ All Judah was standing before the LORD with their dependents, their wives, and their children.¹⁴ In the middle of the congregation, the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel (son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, a Levite from Asaph's descendants),¹⁵ and he said, "Listen carefully, all Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat. This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast number, for the battle is not yours, but God's."¹⁶ Tomorrow, go down against them. You will see them coming up the Ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley facing the Wilderness of Jeruel.¹⁷ You do not have to fight this battle. Position yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD. He is with you, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid or discouraged. Tomorrow, go out to face them, for the LORD is with you."

²⁰ In the morning they got up early and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa. As they were about to go out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem. Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be established; believe in his prophets, and you will succeed."²¹ Then he consulted with the people and appointed some to sing for the LORD and some to praise the splendor of his holiness. When they went out in front of the armed forces, they kept singing:

Give thanks to the LORD,
for his faithful love endures forever.

²² The moment they began their shouts and praises, the LORD set an ambush against the Ammonites, Moabites, and the inhabitants of Mount Seir who came to fight against Judah, and they were defeated.²³ The Ammonites and Moabites turned against the inhabitants of Mount Seir and completely annihilated them. When they had finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped destroy each other.

²⁴ When Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked for the large army, but there were only corpses lying on the ground; nobody had escaped.²⁵ Then Jehoshaphat and his people went to gather the plunder. They found among them an abundance of goods on the bodies and valuable items. So they stripped them until nobody could carry any more. They were gathering the plunder for three days because there was so much.²⁶ They assembled in the Valley of Beracah on the fourth day, for there they blessed the LORD. Therefore, that place is still called the Valley of Beracah today.

²⁹The terror of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.³⁰ Then Jehoshaphat's kingdom was quiet, for his God gave him rest on every side.

³¹Jehoshaphat became king over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.³² He walked in the ways of Asa his father; he did not turn away from it but did what was right in the LORD's sight.³³ However, the high places were not taken away; the people had not yet set their hearts on the God of their ancestors.

³⁴The rest of the events of Jehoshaphat's reign from beginning to end are written in the Events of Jehu son of Hanani, which is recorded in the Book of Israel's Kings.

³⁵After this, Judah's King Jehoshaphat made an alliance with Israel's King Ahaziah, who was guilty of wrongdoing.

³⁶Jehoshaphat formed an alliance with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion-geber.

³⁷Then Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you formed an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD has broken up what you have made." So the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish.

⁵Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.⁶ He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for Ahab's daughter was his wife. He did what was evil in the LORD's sight,⁷ but for the sake of the covenant the LORD had made with David, he was unwilling to destroy the house of David since the LORD had promised to give a lamp to David and to his sons forever.

⁸During Jehoram's reign, Edom rebelled against Judah's control and appointed their own king.⁹ So Jehoram crossed into Edom with his commanders and all his chariots. Then at night he set out to attack the Edomites who had surrounded him and the chariot commanders.¹⁰ And now Edom is still in rebellion against Judah's control today. Libnah also rebelled at that time against his control because he had abandoned the LORD, the God of his ancestors.¹¹ Jehoram also built high places in the hills of Judah, and he caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves, and he led Judah astray.

¹²Then a letter came to Jehoram from the prophet Elijah, saying:

This is what the LORD, the God of your ancestor David says: "Because you have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or in the ways of King Asa of Judah¹³ but have walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, have caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves like the house of Ahab prostituted itself, and also have killed your brothers, your father's family, who were better than you,¹⁴ the LORD is now about to strike your people, your sons, your wives, and all your possessions with a horrible affliction.¹⁵ You yourself will be struck with many illnesses, including a disease of the intestines, until your intestines come out day after day because of the disease."

¹⁶The LORD roused the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabs who lived near the Cushites to attack Jehoram.¹⁷ So they went to war against Judah and invaded it. They carried off all the possessions found in the king's palace and also his sons and wives; not a son was left to him except Jehoahaz, his youngest son.

¹⁸After all these things, the LORD afflicted him in his intestines with an incurable disease.¹⁹ This continued day after day until two full years passed. Then his intestines came out because of his disease, and he died from severe illnesses. But his people did not hold a fire in his honor like the fire in honor of his fathers.

²⁰Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king; he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. He died to no one's regret and was buried in the city of David but not in the tombs of the kings.

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, because the troops that had come with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram became king of Judah.² Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, granddaughter of Omri.

³He walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother gave him evil advice.⁴ So he did what was evil in the LORD's sight like the house of Ahab, for they were his advisers after the death of his father, to his destruction.⁵ He also followed their advice and went with Joram son of Israel's King Ahab to fight against King Hazael of Aram, in Ramoth-gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram,⁶ so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds they inflicted on him in Ramoth-gilead when he fought against King Hazael of Aram. Then Judah's King Ahaziah son of Jehoram went down to Jezreel to visit Joram son of Ahab since Joram was ill.

⁷Ahaziah's downfall came from God when he went to Joram. When Ahaziah arrived, he went out with Joram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.⁸ So when Jehu executed judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the rulers of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who were serving Ahaziah, and he killed them.⁹ Then Jehu looked for Ahaziah, and Jehu's soldiers captured him (he was hiding in Samaria). So they brought Ahaziah to Jehu, and they killed him. The soldiers buried him, for they said, "He is the grandson of Jehoshaphat who sought the LORD with all his heart." So no one from the house of Ahaziah had the strength to rule the kingdom.

¹⁰When Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to annihilate all the royal heirs of the house of Judah.¹¹ Jehoshabeath, the king's daughter, rescued Joash son of Ahaziah from the king's sons who were being killed and put him and the one who nursed him in a bedroom. Now Jehoshabeath was the daughter of King Jehoram and the wife of the priest Jehoiada. Since she was Ahaziah's sister, she hid Joash from Athaliah so that she did not kill him.¹² While Athaliah reigned over the land, he was hiding with them in God's temple six years.

23 Then, in the seventh year, Jehoiada summoned his courage and took the commanders of hundreds into a covenant with him: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zichri. ² They made a circuit throughout Judah. They gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah and the family heads of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

³ Then the whole assembly made a covenant with the king in God's temple. Jehoiada said to them, "Here is the king's son! He will reign, just as the LORD promised concerning David's sons. ⁴ This is what you are to do: a third of you, priests and Levites who are coming on duty on the Sabbath, are to be gatekeepers. ⁵ A third are to be at the king's palace, and a third are to be at the Foundation Gate, and all the troops will be in the courtyards of the LORD's temple. ⁶ No one is to enter the LORD's temple but the priests and those Levites who serve; they may enter because they are holy, but all the people are to obey the requirement of the LORD. ⁷ Completely surround the king with weapons in hand. Anyone who enters the temple is to be put to death. Be with the king in all his daily tasks."

¹² When Athaliah heard the noise from the troops, the guards, and those praising the king, she went to the troops in the LORD's temple. ¹³ As she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance. The commanders and the trumpeters were by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets while the singers with musical instruments were leading the praise. Athaliah tore her clothes and screamed, "Treason! Treason!"

¹⁶ Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, the king, and the people that they would be the LORD's people. ¹⁷ So all the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed its altars and images and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, at the altars.

¹⁸ Then Jehoiada put the oversight of the LORD's temple into the hands of the Levitical priests, whom David had appointed over the LORD's temple, to offer burnt offerings to the LORD as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and song ordained by David. ¹⁹ He stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the LORD's temple so that nothing unclean could enter for any reason. ²⁰ Then he took with him the commanders of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the LORD's temple. They entered the king's palace through the Upper Gate and seated the king on the throne of the kingdom. ²¹ All the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet, for they had put Athaliah to death by the sword.

24 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah; she was from Beer-sheba. ² Throughout the time of the priest Jehoiada, Joash did what was right in the LORD's sight. ³ Jehoiada acquired two wives for him, and he was the father of sons and daughters.

⁴ Afterward, Joash took it to heart to renovate the LORD's temple. ⁵ So he gathered the priests and Levites and said, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect silver from all Israel to repair the temple of your God as needed year by year, and do it quickly."

However, the Levites did not hurry. ⁶ So the king called Jehoiada the high priest and said, "Why haven't you required the Levites to bring from Judah and Jerusalem the tax imposed by the LORD's servant Moses and the assembly of Israel for the tent of the testimony?" ⁷ For the sons of that wicked Athaliah broke into the LORD's temple and even used the sacred things of the LORD's temple for the Baals."

¹³ The workmen did their work, and through them the repairs progressed. They restored God's temple to its specifications and reinforced it. ¹⁴ When they finished, they presented the rest of the silver to the king and Jehoiada, who made articles for the LORD's temple with it — articles for ministry and for making burnt offerings, and ladles and articles of gold and silver. They regularly offered burnt offerings in the LORD's temple throughout Jehoiada's life.

¹⁵ Jehoiada died when he was old and full of days; he was 130 years old at his death. ¹⁶ He was buried in the city of David with the kings because he had done what was good in Israel with respect to God and his temple.

¹⁷ However, after Jehoiada died, the rulers of Judah came and paid homage to the king. Then the king listened to them, ¹⁸ and they abandoned the temple of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and served the Asherah poles and the idols. So there was wrath against Judah and Jerusalem for this guilt of theirs. ¹⁹ Nevertheless, he sent them prophets to bring them back to the LORD; they admonished them, but the people would not listen.

²⁰ The Spirit of God enveloped Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood above the people and said to them, "This is what God says, 'Why are you transgressing the LORD's commands so that you do not prosper? Because you have abandoned the LORD, he has abandoned you.'" ²¹ But they conspired against him and stoned him at the king's command in the courtyard of the LORD's temple. ²² King Joash didn't remember the kindness that Zechariah's father Jehoiada had extended to him, but killed his son. While he was dying, he said, "May the LORD see and demand an account."

25 Amaziah became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan; she was from Jerusalem. ² He did what was right in the LORD's sight but not wholeheartedly.

⁵ Then Amaziah gathered Judah and assembled them according to ancestral families, according to commanders of thousands, and according to commanders of hundreds. He numbered those twenty years old or more for all Judah and Benjamin. He found there to be three hundred thousand fifty young men who could serve in the army, bearing spear and shield. ⁶ Then for 7,500 pounds of silver he hired one hundred thousand valiant warriors from Israel.

⁷ However, a man of God came to him and said, "King, do not let Israel's army go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel — all the Ephraimites. ⁸ But if you go with them, do it! Be strong for battle! But God will make you stumble before the enemy, for God has the power to help or to make one stumble."

⁹ Then Amaziah said to the man of God, "What should I do about the 7,500 pounds of silver I gave to Israel's division?"

The man of God replied, "The LORD is able to give you much more than this."

¹⁰ So Amaziah released the division that came to him from Ephraim to go home. But they got very angry with Judah and returned home in a fierce rage.

¹¹ Amaziah strengthened his position and led his people to the Salt Valley. He struck down ten thousand Seirites, ¹² and the Judahites captured ten thousand alive. They took them to the top of a cliff where they threw them off, and all of them were dashed to pieces.

¹⁴ After Amaziah came from the attack on the Edomites, he brought the gods of the Seirites and set them up as his gods. He worshiped before them and burned incense to them. ¹⁵ So the LORD's anger was against Amaziah, and he sent a prophet to him, who said, "Why have you sought a people's gods that could not rescue their own people from you?"

¹⁶ While he was still speaking to him, the king asked, "Have we made you the king's counselor? Stop, why should you lose your life?"

So the prophet stopped, but he said, "I know that God intends to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my advice."

¹⁷ King Amaziah of Judah took counsel and sent word to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, and challenged him: "Come, let's meet face to face."

¹⁸ King Jehoash of Israel sent word to King Amaziah of Judah, saying, "The thistle in Lebanon sent a message to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' Then a wild animal in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle. ¹⁹ You have said, 'Look, I have defeated Edom,' and you have become overconfident that you will get glory. Now stay at home. Why stir up such trouble so that you fall and Judah with you?"

²⁵ Judah's King Amaziah son of Joash lived fifteen years after the death of Israel's King Jehoash son of Jehoahaz.

²⁶ The rest of the events of Amaziah's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

²⁷ From the time Amaziah turned from following the LORD, a conspiracy was formed against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. However, men were sent after him to Lachish, and they put him to death there. ²⁸ They carried him back on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

26 All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. ² After Amaziah the king rested with his fathers, Uzziah rebuilt Eloth and restored it to Judah.

³ Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jeconiah; she was from Jerusalem. ⁴ He did what was right in the LORD's sight just as his father Amaziah had done. ⁵ He sought God throughout the lifetime of Zechariah, the teacher of the fear of God. During the time that he sought the LORD, God gave him success.

27 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah daughter of Zadok. ² He did what was right in the LORD's sight just as his father Uzziah had done. In addition, he didn't enter the LORD's sanctuary, but the people still behaved corruptly.

³ Jotham built the Upper Gate of the LORD's temple, and he built extensively on the wall of Ophel. ⁴ He also built cities in the hill country of Judah and fortresses and towers in the forests. ⁵ He waged war against the king of the Ammonites. He overpowered the Ammonites, and that year they gave him 7,500 pounds of silver, 50,000 bushels of wheat, and 50,000 bushels of barley. They paid him the same in the second and third years. ⁶ So Jotham strengthened his position because he did not waver in obeying the LORD his God.

⁷ As for the rest of the events of Jotham's reign, along with all his wars and his ways, note that they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸ He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. ⁹ Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. His son Ahaz became king in his place.

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the LORD's sight like his ancestor David, ² for he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and made cast images of the Baals. ³ He burned incense in Ben Hinnom Valley and burned his children in the fire, imitating the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had dispossessed before the Israelites. ⁴ He sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵ So the LORD his God handed Ahaz over to the king of Aram. He attacked him and took many captives to Damascus.

Ahaz was also handed over to the king of Israel, who struck him with great force: ⁶ Pekah son of Remaliah killed one hundred twenty thousand in Judah in one day — all brave men — because they had abandoned the LORD God of their ancestors. ⁷ An Ephraimite warrior named Zichri killed the king's son Maseiah, Azrikam governor of the palace, and Elkanah who was second to the king. ⁸ Then the Israelites took two hundred thousand captives from their brothers — women, sons, and daughters. They also took a great deal of plunder from them and brought it to Samaria.

⁹ A prophet of the LORD named Oded was there. He went out to meet the army that came to Samaria and said to them, "Look, the LORD God of your ancestors handed them over to you because of his wrath against Judah, but you slaughtered them in a rage that has reached heaven. ¹⁰ Now you plan to reduce the people of Judah and Jerusalem, male and female, to slavery. Are you not also guilty before the LORD your God? ¹¹ Listen to me and return the captives you took from your brothers, for the LORD's burning anger is on you."

¹² So some men who were leaders of the Ephraimites — Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai — stood in opposition to those coming from the war. ¹³ They said to them, "You must not bring the captives here, for you plan to bring guilt on us from the LORD to add to our sins and our guilt. For we have much guilt, and burning anger is on Israel."

¹⁴ The army left the captives and the plunder in the presence of the officers and the congregation. ¹⁵ Then the men who were designated by name took charge of the captives and provided clothes for their naked ones from the plunder. They clothed them, gave them sandals, food and drink, dressed their wounds, and provided donkeys for all the feeble. The Israelites brought them to Jericho, the City of Palms, among their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria.

¹⁶ At that time King Ahaz asked the king of Assyria for help. ¹⁷ The Edomites came again, attacked Judah, and took captives.¹⁸ The Philistines also raided the cities of the Judean foothills and the Negev of Judah. They captured and occupied Beth-shemesh, Ajalon, and Gederath, as well as Socoth, Timnah, and Gimzo with their surrounding villages.¹⁹ For the LORD humbled Judah because of King Ahaz of Judah, who threw off restraint in Judah and was unfaithful to the LORD.²⁰ Then King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria came against Ahaz; he oppressed him and did not give him support.²¹ Although Ahaz plundered the LORD's temple and the palace of the king and of the rulers and gave the plunder to the king of Assyria, it did not help him.

²² At the time of his distress, King Ahaz himself became more unfaithful to the LORD.²³ He sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him; he said, "Since the gods of the kings of Aram are helping them, I will sacrifice to them so that they will help me." But they were the downfall of him and of all Israel.

²⁴ Then Ahaz gathered up the utensils of God's temple, cut them into pieces, shut the doors of the LORD's temple, and made himself altars on every street corner in Jerusalem.²⁵ He made high places in every city of Judah to offer incense to other gods, and he angered the LORD, the God of his ancestors.

29 Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.² He did what was right in the LORD's sight just as his ancestor David had done.

³ In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the LORD's temple and repaired them.⁴ Then he brought in the priests and Levites and gathered them in the eastern public square.⁵ He said to them, "Hear me, Levites. Consecrate yourselves now and consecrate the temple of the LORD, the God of your ancestors. Remove everything impure from the holy place.⁶ For our fathers were unfaithful and did what is evil in the sight of the LORD our God. They abandoned him, turned their faces away from the LORD's dwelling place, and turned their backs on him.⁷ They also closed the doors of the portico, extinguished the lamps, did not burn incense, and did not offer burnt offerings in the holy place of the God of Israel.⁸ Therefore, the wrath of the LORD was on Judah and Jerusalem, and he made them an object of terror, horror, and mockery, as you see with your own eyes.⁹ Our fathers fell by the sword, and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity because of this.¹⁰ It is in my heart now to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel so that his burning anger may turn away from us.¹¹ My sons, don't be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand in his presence, to serve him, and to be his ministers and burners of incense."

¹² Then the Levites stood up:

Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah from the Kohathites;
Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel from the Merarites;
Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah from the Gershonites;

¹³ Shimri and Jeuel from the Elizaphanites;
Zechariah and Mattaniah from the Asaphites;

¹⁴ Jehiel and Shimei from the Hemanites;
Shemaiah and Uzziel from the Jeduthunites.

²⁰ King Hezekiah got up early, gathered the city officials, and went to the LORD's temple.²¹ They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. Then he told the descendants of Aaron, the priests, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.²² So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests received the blood and splattered it on the altar. They slaughtered the rams and splattered the blood on the altar. They slaughtered the lambs and splattered the blood on the altar.²³ Then they brought the goats for the sin offering right into the presence of the king and the congregation, who laid their hands on them.²⁴ The priests slaughtered the goats and put their blood on the altar for a sin offering, to make atonement for all Israel, for the king said that the burnt offering and sin offering were for all Israel.

²⁷ Then Hezekiah ordered that the burnt offering be offered on the altar. When the burnt offerings began, the song of the LORD and the trumpets began, accompanied by the instruments of King David of Israel.²⁸ The whole assembly was worshiping, singing the song, and blowing the trumpets — all this continued until the burnt offering was completed.²⁹ When the burnt offerings were completed, the king and all those present with him bowed down and worshiped.³⁰ Then King Hezekiah and the officials told the Levites to sing praise to the LORD in the words of David and of the seer Asaph. So they sang praises with rejoicing and knelt low and worshiped.

³¹ Hezekiah concluded, "Now you are consecrated to the LORD. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the LORD's temple." So the congregation brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all those with willing hearts brought burnt offerings.³² The number of burnt offerings the congregation brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.³³ Six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep and goats were consecrated.

³⁴ However, since there were not enough priests, they weren't able to skin all the burnt offerings, so their Levite brothers helped them until the work was finished and until the priests consecrated themselves. For the Levites were more conscientious to consecrate themselves than the priests were.³⁵ Furthermore, the burnt offerings were abundant, along with the fat of the fellowship offerings and with the drink offerings for the burnt offering.

So the service of the LORD's temple was established.

³⁶ Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced over how God had prepared the people, for it had come about suddenly.

30 Then Hezekiah sent word throughout all Israel and Judah, and he also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh to come to the LORD's temple in Jerusalem to observe the Passover of the LORD, the God of Israel.² For the king and his officials and the entire congregation in Jerusalem decided to observe the Passover of the LORD in the second month,³ because they were not able to observe it at the appropriate time. Not enough of the priests had consecrated themselves, and the people hadn't been gathered together in Jerusalem.⁴ The proposal pleased the king and the congregation,⁵ so they affirmed the proposal and spread the message throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, to come to observe the Passover of the LORD, the God of Israel in Jerusalem, for they hadn't observed it often, as prescribed.

⁶ So the couriers went throughout Israel and Judah with letters from the hand of the king and his officials, and according to the king's command, saying, "Israelites, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel so that he may return to those of you who remain, who have escaped the grasp of the kings of Assyria.⁷ Don't be like your fathers and your brothers who were unfaithful to the LORD, the God of their ancestors so that he made them an object of horror as you yourselves see.⁸ Don't become obstinate now like your fathers did. Give your allegiance to the LORD, and come to his sanctuary that he has consecrated forever. Serve the LORD your God so that he may turn his burning anger away from you,⁹ for when you return to the LORD, your brothers and your sons will receive mercy in the presence of their captors and will return to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful; he will not turn his face away from you if you return to him."

¹³ A very large assembly of people was gathered in Jerusalem to observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread in the second month.¹⁴ They proceeded to take away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley.¹⁵ They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and Levites were ashamed, and they consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the LORD's temple.¹⁶ They stood at their prescribed posts, according to the law of Moses, the man of God. The priests splattered the blood received from the Levites,¹⁷ for there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves, and so the Levites were in charge of slaughtering the Passover lambs for every unclean person to consecrate the lambs to the LORD.¹⁸ A large number of the people — many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun — were ritually unclean, yet they had eaten the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah had interceded for them, saying, "May the good LORD provide atonement on behalf of¹⁹ whoever sets his whole heart on seeking God, the LORD, the God of his ancestors, even though not according to the purification rules of the sanctuary."²⁰ So the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.²¹ The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem observed the Festival of Unleavened Bread seven days with great joy, and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day after day with loud instruments.²² Then Hezekiah encouraged all the Levites who performed skillfully before the LORD. They ate at the appointed festival for seven days, sacrificing fellowship offerings and giving thanks to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

²⁷ Then the priests and the Levites stood to bless the people, and God heard them, and their prayer came into his holy dwelling place in heaven.

31 When all this was completed, all Israel who had attended went out to the cities of Judah and broke up the sacred pillars, chopped down the Asherah poles, and tore down the high places and altars throughout Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, to the last one. Then all the Israelites returned to their cities, each to his own possession.

² Hezekiah reestablished the divisions of the priests and Levites for the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, for ministry, for giving thanks, and for praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD, each division corresponding to his service among the priests and Levites.³ The king contributed from his own possessions for the regular morning and evening burnt offerings, the burnt offerings of the Sabbaths, of the New Moons, and of the appointed feasts, as written in the law of the LORD.⁴ He told the people who lived in Jerusalem to give a contribution for the priests and Levites so that they could devote their energy to the law of the LORD.⁵ When the word spread, the Israelites gave liberally of the best of the grain, new wine, fresh oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field, and they brought in an abundance, a tenth of everything.⁶ As for the Israelites and Judahites who lived in the cities of Judah, they also brought a tenth of the herds and flocks, and a tenth of the dedicated things that were consecrated to the LORD their God. They gathered them into large piles.⁷ In the third month they began building up the piles, and they finished in the seventh month.⁸ When Hezekiah and his officials came and viewed the piles, they blessed the LORD and his people Israel.

⁹ Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites about the piles.

¹⁴ Kore son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the East Gate, was over the freewill offerings to God to distribute the contribution to the LORD and the consecrated things. ¹⁵ Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah in the cities of the priests were to distribute it faithfully under his authority to their brothers by divisions, whether large or small. ¹⁶ In addition, they distributed it to males registered by genealogy three years old and above; to all who would enter the LORD's temple for their daily duty, for their service in their responsibilities according to their divisions. ¹⁷ They distributed also to those recorded by genealogy of the priests by their ancestral families and the Levites twenty years old and above, by their responsibilities in their divisions; ¹⁸ to those registered by genealogy — with all their dependents, wives, sons, and daughters — of the whole assembly (for they had faithfully consecrated themselves as holy); ¹⁹ and to the descendants of Aaron, the priests, in the common fields of their cities, in each and every city. There were men who were registered by name to distribute a portion to every male among the priests and to every Levite recorded by genealogy.

²⁰ Hezekiah did this throughout all Judah. He did what was good and upright and true before the LORD his God. ²¹ He was diligent in every deed that he began in the service of God's temple, in the instruction and the commands, in order to seek his God, and he prospered.

32 After these faithful deeds, King Sennacherib of Assyria came and entered Judah. He laid siege to the fortified cities and intended to break into them. ² Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he planned war on Jerusalem, ³ so he consulted with his officials and his warriors about stopping up the water of the springs that were outside the city, and they helped him. ⁴ Many people gathered and stopped up all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land; they said, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find abundant water?" ⁵ Then Hezekiah strengthened his position by rebuilding the entire broken-down wall and heightening the towers and the other outside wall. He repaired the supporting terraces of the city of David, and made an abundance of weapons and shields.

⁶ He set military commanders over the people and gathered the people in the square of the city gate. Then he encouraged them, saying, ⁷ "Be strong and courageous! Don't be afraid or discouraged before the king of Assyria or before the large army that is with him, for there are more with us than with him. ⁸ He has only human strength, but we have the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles." ⁹ So the people relied on the words of King Hezekiah of Judah.

⁹ After this, while King Sennacherib of Assyria with all his armed forces besieged Lachish, he sent his servants to Jerusalem against King Hezekiah of Judah and against all those of Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰ "This is what King Sennacherib of Assyria says: 'What are you relying on that you remain in Jerusalem under siege?' ¹¹ Isn't Hezekiah misleading you to give you over to death by famine and thirst when he says, "The LORD our God will keep us from the grasp of the king of Assyria"? ¹² Didn't Hezekiah himself remove his high places and his altars and say to Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship before one altar, and you must burn incense on it"?

¹³ "Don't you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Have any of the national gods of the lands been able to rescue their land from my power? ¹⁴ Who among all the gods of these nations that my predecessors completely destroyed was able to rescue his people from my power, that your God should be able to deliver you from my power? ¹⁵ So now, don't let Hezekiah deceive you, and don't let him mislead you like this. Don't believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to rescue his people from my power or the power of my fathers. How much less will your God rescue you from my power!"

¹⁶ His servants said more against the LORD God and against his servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷ He also wrote letters to mock the LORD, the God of Israel, saying against him:

Just like the national gods of the lands that did not rescue their people from my power, so Hezekiah's God will not rescue his people from my power.

¹⁸ Then they called out loudly in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem, who were on the wall, to frighten and discourage them in order that he might capture the city. ¹⁹ They spoke against the God of Jerusalem like they had spoken against the gods of the peoples of the earth, which were made by human hands.

²⁰ King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed about this and cried out to heaven, ²¹ and the LORD sent an angel who annihilated every valiant warrior, leader, and commander in the camp of the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria returned in disgrace to his land. He went to the temple of his god, and there some of his own children struck him down with the sword.

²² So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the power of King Sennacherib of Assyria and from the power of all others. He gave them rest on every side. ²³ Many were bringing an offering to the LORD to Jerusalem and valuable gifts to King Hezekiah of Judah, and he was exalted in the eyes of all the nations after that.

²⁴ In those days Hezekiah became sick to the point of death, so he prayed to the LORD, and he spoke to him and gave him a miraculous sign. ²⁵ However, because his heart was proud, Hezekiah didn't respond according to the benefit that had come to him. So there was wrath on him, Judah, and Jerusalem. ²⁶ Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart — he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem — so the LORD's wrath didn't come on them during Hezekiah's lifetime.

²⁷ Hezekiah had abundant riches and glory, and he made himself treasures for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and every desirable item. ²⁸ He made warehouses for the harvest of grain, new wine, and fresh oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and pens for flocks. ²⁹ He made cities for himself, and he acquired vast numbers of flocks and herds, for God gave him abundant possessions.

³⁰ This same Hezekiah blocked the outlet of the water of the Upper Gihon and channeled it smoothly downward and westward to the city of David. Hezekiah succeeded in everything he did. ³¹ When the ambassadors of Babylon's rulers were sent to him to inquire about the miraculous sign that happened in the land, God left him to test him and discover what was in his heart.

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. ² He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, imitating the detestable practices of the nations that the LORD had disposed before the Israelites. ³ He rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had torn down and reestablished the altars for the Baals. He made Asherah poles, and he bowed in worship to all the stars in the sky and served them. ⁴ He built altars in the LORD's temple, where the LORD had said, "Jerusalem is where my name will remain forever." ⁵ He built altars to all the stars in the sky in both courtyards of the LORD's temple. ⁶ He passed his sons through the fire in Ben Hinnom Valley. He practiced witchcraft, divination, and sorcery, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did a huge amount of evil in the LORD's sight, angering him.

⁷ Manasseh set up a carved image of the idol, which he had made, in God's temple that God had spoken about to David and his son Solomon: "I will establish my name forever in this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. ⁸ I will never again remove the feet of the Israelites from the land where I stationed your ancestors, if only they will be careful to do all I have commanded them through Moses — all the law, statutes, and judgments." ⁹ So Manasseh caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to stray so that they did worse evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

¹⁵ He removed the foreign gods and the idol from the LORD's temple, along with all the altars that he had built on the mountain of the LORD's temple and in Jerusalem, and he threw them outside the city. ¹⁶ He built the altar of the LORD and offered fellowship and thank offerings on it. Then he told Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁷ However, the people still sacrificed at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

¹⁸ The rest of the events of Manasseh's reign, along with his prayer to his God and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, are written in the Events of Israel's Kings. ¹⁹ His prayer and how God was receptive to his prayer, and all his sin and unfaithfulness and the sites where he built high places and set up Asherah poles and carved images before he humbled himself, they are written in the Events of Hozai. ²⁰ Manasseh rested with his fathers, and he was buried in his own house. His son Amon became king in his place.

²¹ Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. ²² He did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as his father Manasseh had done. Amon sacrificed to all the carved images that his father Manasseh had made, and he served them. ²³ But he did not humble himself before the LORD like his father Manasseh humbled himself; instead, Amon increased his guilt.

34 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. ² He did what was right in the LORD's sight and walked in the ways of his ancestor David; he did not turn aside to the right or the left.

³ In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still a youth, Josiah began to seek the God of his ancestor David, and in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherah poles, the carved images, and the cast images. ⁴ Then in his presence the altars of the Baals were torn down, and he chopped down the shrines that were above them. He shattered the Asherah poles, the carved images, and the cast images, crushed them to dust, and scattered them over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. ⁵ He burned the bones of the priests on their altars. So he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶ He did the same in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far as Naphtali and on their surrounding mountain shrines. ⁷ He tore down the altars, and he smashed the Asherah poles and the carved images to powder. He chopped down all the shrines throughout the land of Israel and returned to Jerusalem.

⁹ So they went to the high priest Hilkiah and gave him the silver brought into God's temple. The Levites and the doorkeepers had collected it from Manasseh, Ephraim, and from the entire remnant of Israel, and from all Judah, Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ They gave it to those doing the work — those who oversaw the LORD's temple. They gave it to the workmen who were working in the LORD's temple, to repair and restore the temple; ¹¹ they gave it to the carpenters and builders and also used it to buy quarried stone and timbers — for joining and making beams — for the buildings that Judah's kings had destroyed.

¹² The men were doing the work with integrity. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah, Levites from the Merarites, and Zechariah and Meshullam from the Kohathites as supervisors. The Levites were all skilled with musical instruments. ¹³ They were also over the porters and were supervising all those doing the work task by task. Some of the Levites were secretaries, officers, and gatekeepers.

¹⁴ When they brought out the silver that had been deposited in the LORD's temple, the priest Hilkiah found the book of the law of the LORD written by the hand of Moses. ¹⁵ Consequently, Hilkiah told the court secretary Shaphan, "I have found the book of the law in the LORD's temple," and he gave the book to Shaphan.

¹⁶ Shaphan took the book to the king, and also reported, "Your servants are doing all that was placed in their hands. ¹⁷ They have emptied out the silver that was found in the LORD's temple and have given it to the overseers and to those doing the work." ¹⁸ Then the court secretary Shaphan told the king, "The priest Hilkiah gave me a book," and Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

¹⁹ When the king heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes. ²⁰ Then he commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, the court secretary Shaphan, and the king's servant Asaiah, ²¹ "Go and inquire of the LORD for me and for those remaining in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that was found. For great is the LORD's wrath that is poured out on us because our ancestors have not kept the word of the LORD in order to do everything written in this book."

²³ She said to them, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Say to the man who sent you to me, ²⁴ 'This is what the LORD says: I am about to bring disaster on this place and on its inhabitants, fulfilling all the curses written in the book that they read in the presence of the king of Judah, ²⁵ because they have abandoned me and burned incense to other gods so as to anger me with all the works of their hands. My wrath will be poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched.' ²⁶ Say this to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD: 'This is what the LORD God of Israel says: As for the words that you heard, ²⁷ because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard his words against this place and against its inhabitants, and because you humbled yourself before me, and you tore your clothes and wept before me, I myself have heard' — this is the LORD's declaration. ²⁸ 'I will indeed gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster that I am bringing on this place and on its inhabitants.'"

Then they reported to the king.

²⁹ So the king sent messengers and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰ The king went up to the LORD's temple with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, as well as the priests and the Levites — all the people from the oldest to the youngest. He read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the LORD's temple. ³¹ Then the king stood at his post and made a covenant in the LORD's presence to follow the LORD and to keep his commands, his decrees, and his statutes with all his heart and with all his soul in order to carry out the words of the covenant written in this book.

³² He had all those present in Jerusalem and Benjamin agree to it. So all the inhabitants of Jerusalem carried out the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors.

³³ So Josiah removed everything that was detestable from all the lands belonging to the Israelites, and he required all who were present in Israel to serve the LORD their God. Throughout his reign they did not turn aside from following the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

35 Josiah observed the LORD's Passover and slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the first month. ² He appointed the priests to their responsibilities and encouraged them to serve in the LORD's temple.

³ He said to the Levites who taught all Israel the holy things of the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the temple built by Solomon son of David king of Israel. Since you do not have to carry it on your shoulders, now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.

⁴ "Organize your ancestral families by your divisions according to the written instruction of King David of Israel and that of his son Solomon. ⁵ Serve in the holy place by the groupings of the ancestral families for your brothers, the lay people, and according to the division of the Levites by family. ⁶ Slaughter the Passover lambs, consecrate yourselves, and make preparations for your brothers to carry out the word of the LORD through Moses."

⁷ Then Josiah donated thirty thousand sheep, lambs, and young goats, plus three thousand cattle from his own possessions, for the Passover sacrifices for all the lay people who were present.

¹⁶ So all the service of the LORD was established that day for observing the Passover and for offering burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah. ¹⁷ The Israelites who were present in Judah also observed the Passover at that time and the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days. ¹⁸ No Passover had been observed like it in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel. None of the kings of Israel ever observed a Passover like the one that Josiah observed with the priests, the Levites, all Judah, the Israelites who were present in Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹ In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign, this Passover was observed.

²⁰ After all this that Josiah had prepared for the temple, King Neco of Egypt marched up to fight at Carchemish by the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to confront him. ²¹ But Neco sent messengers to him, saying, "What is the issue between you and me, king of Judah? I have not come against you today but I am fighting another dynasty. God told me to hurry. Stop opposing God who is with me; don't make him destroy you!"

²² But Josiah did not turn away from him; instead, in order to fight with him he disguised himself. He did not listen to Neco's words from the mouth of God, but went to the Valley of Megiddo to fight. ²³ The archers shot King Josiah, and he said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am severely wounded!" ²⁴ So his servants took him out of the war chariot, carried him in his second chariot, and brought him to Jerusalem. Then he died, and they buried him in the tomb of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. ²⁵ Jeremiah chanted a dirge over Josiah, and all the male and female singers still speak of Josiah in their dirges today. They established them as a statute for Israel, and indeed they are written in the Dirges.

36 Then the common people took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

² Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

³ The king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and fined the land seventy-five hundred pounds of silver and seventy-five pounds of gold.

⁵ Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. ⁶ Now King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked him and bound him in bronze shackles to take him to Babylon. ⁷ Also Nebuchadnezzar took some of the articles of the LORD's temple to Babylon and put them in his temple in Babylon.

⁸ The rest of the deeds of Jehoiakim, the detestable actions he committed, and what was found against him, are written in the Book of Israel's Kings. His son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

⁹ Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the LORD's sight. ¹⁰ In the spring Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon along with the valuable articles of the LORD's temple. Then he made Jehoiachin's brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. ¹² He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God and did not humble himself before the prophet Jeremiah at the LORD's command. ¹³ He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him swear allegiance by God. He became obstinate and hardened his heart against returning to the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁴ All the leaders of the priests and the people multiplied their unfaithful deeds, imitating all the detestable practices of the nations, and they defiled the LORD's temple that he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

²⁰ He deported those who escaped from the sword to Babylon, and they became servants to him and his sons until the rise of the Persian kingdom. ²¹ This fulfilled the word of the LORD through Jeremiah, and the land enjoyed its Sabbath rest all the days of the desolation until seventy years were fulfilled.

²³ This is what King Cyrus of Persia says: The LORD, the God of the heavens, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and has appointed me to build him a temple at Jerusalem in Judah. Any of his people among you may go up, and may the LORD his God be with him.

EZRA

1 In the first year of King Cyrus of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken through Jeremiah, the LORD roused the spirit of King Cyrus to issue a proclamation throughout his entire kingdom and to put it in writing:

²This is what King Cyrus of Persia says: "The LORD, the God of the heavens, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and has appointed me to build him a house at Jerusalem in Judah. ³Any of his people among you, may his God be with him, and may he go to Jerusalem in Judah and build the house of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem. ⁴Let every survivor, wherever he resides, be assisted by the men of that region with silver, gold, goods, and livestock, along with a freewill offering for the house of God in Jerusalem."

⁵So the family heads of Judah and Benjamin, along with the priests and Levites — everyone whose spirit God had roused — prepared to go up and rebuild the LORD's house in Jerusalem. ⁶All their neighbors supported them with silver articles, gold, goods, livestock, and valuables, in addition to all that was given as a freewill offering. ⁷King Cyrus also brought out the articles of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem and had placed in the house of his gods. ⁸King Cyrus of Persia had them brought out under the supervision of Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah. ⁹This was the inventory:

30 gold basins, 1,000 silver basins,
29 silver knives, ¹⁰30 gold bowls,
410 various silver bowls, and 1,000 other articles.

¹¹The gold and silver articles totaled 5,400. Sheshbazzar brought all of them when the exiles went up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

2 These now are the people of the province who came from those captive exiles King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had deported to Babylon. They returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town. ²They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah.

⁶¹and from the descendants of the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, the descendants of Hakkoz, the descendants of Barzillai — who had taken a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and who bore their name. ⁶²These searched for their entries in the genealogical records, but they could not be found, so they were disqualified from the priesthood. ⁶³The governor ordered them not to eat the most holy things until there was a priest who could consult the Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁴ The whole combined assembly numbered 42,360

⁶⁵ not including their 7,337 male and female servants,
and their 200 male and female singers.

⁶⁶ They had 736 horses, 245 mules,

⁶⁷ 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

⁶⁸After they arrived at the LORD's house in Jerusalem, some of the family heads gave freewill offerings for the house of God in order to have it rebuilt on its original site.

3 When the seventh month arrived, and the Israelites were in their towns, the people gathered as one in Jerusalem. ²Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers the priests along with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his brothers began to build the altar of Israel's God in order to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the law of Moses, the man of God. ³They set up the altar on its foundation and offered burnt offerings for the morning and evening on it to the LORD even though they feared the surrounding peoples. ⁴They celebrated the Festival of Shelters as prescribed, and offered burnt offerings each day, based on the number specified by ordinance for each festival day. ⁵After that, they offered the regular burnt offering and the offerings for the beginning of each month and for all the LORD's appointed holy occasions, as well as the freewill offerings brought to the LORD.

⁶On the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, even though the foundation of the LORD's temple had not yet been laid. ⁷They gave money to the stonecutters and artisans, and gave food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, so they would bring cedar wood from Lebanon to Joppa by sea, according to the authorization given them by King Cyrus of Persia.

⁸In the second month of the second year after they arrived at God's house in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers, including the priests, the Levites, and all who had returned to Jerusalem from the captivity, began to build. They appointed the Levites who were twenty years old or more to supervise the work on the LORD's house. ⁹Jeshua with his sons and brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of Judah and of Henadad, with their sons and brothers, the Levites, joined together to supervise those working on the house of God.

¹²But many of the older priests, Levites, and family heads, who had seen the first temple, wept loudly when they saw the foundation of this temple, but many others shouted joyfully. ¹³The people could not distinguish the sound of the joyful shouting from that of the weeping, because the people were shouting so loudly. And the sound was heard far away.

4 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel, ²they approached Zerubbabel and the family heads and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we also worship your God and have been sacrificing to him since the time King Esar-haddon of Assyria brought us here."

³But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the other heads of Israel's families answered them, "You may have no part with us in building a house for our God, since we alone will build it for the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia has commanded us." ⁴Then the people who were already in the land discouraged the people of Judah and made them afraid to build. ⁵They also bribed officials to act against them to frustrate their plans throughout the reign of King Cyrus of Persia and until the reign of King Darius of Persia.

⁶At the beginning of the reign of Ahasuerus, the people who were already in the land wrote an accusation against the residents of Judah and Jerusalem. ⁷During the time of King Artaxerxes of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeal and the rest of his colleagues wrote to King Artaxerxes. The letter was written in Aramaic and translated.

⁸Rehum the chief deputy and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter to King Artaxerxes concerning Jerusalem as follows:

⁹From Rehum the chief deputy, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their colleagues — the judges and magistrates from Tripolis, Persia, Erech, Babylon, Susa (that is, the people of Elam), ¹⁰and the rest of the peoples whom the great and illustrious Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the cities of Samaria and the region west of the Euphrates River.

¹¹This is the text of the letter they sent to him:

To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men from the region west of the Euphrates River:

¹²Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came from you have returned to us at Jerusalem. They are rebuilding that rebellious and evil city, finishing its walls, and repairing its foundations. ¹³Let it now be known to the king that if that city is rebuilt and its walls are finished, they will not pay tribute, duty, or land tax, and the royal revenue will suffer. ¹⁴Since we have taken an oath of loyalty to the king, and it is not right for us to witness his dishonor, we have sent to inform the king ¹⁵that a search should be made in your fathers' record books. In these record books you will discover and verify that the city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces. There have been revolts in it since ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed. ¹⁶We advise the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are finished, you will not have any possession west of the Euphrates.

¹⁷The king sent a reply to his chief deputy Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their colleagues living in Samaria and elsewhere in the region west of the Euphrates River:

Greetings.

¹⁸The letter you sent us has been translated and read in my presence. ¹⁹I issued a decree and a search was conducted. It was discovered that this city has had uprisings against kings since ancient times, and there have been rebellions and revolts in it.

²⁰Powerful kings have also ruled over Jerusalem and exercised authority over the whole region west of the Euphrates River, and tribute, duty, and land tax were paid to them. ²¹Therefore, issue an order for these men to stop, so that this city will not be rebuilt until a further decree has been pronounced by me.

²²See that you not neglect this matter. Otherwise, the damage will increase and the royal interests will suffer.

²³As soon as the text of King Artaxerxes's letter was read to Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their colleagues, they immediately went to the Jews in Jerusalem and forcibly stopped them.

³At that time Tattenai the governor of the region west of the Euphrates River, Shethar-bozenai, and their colleagues came to the Jews and asked, "Who gave you the order to rebuild this temple and finish this structure?" ⁴They also asked them, "What are the names of the workers who are constructing this building?" ⁵But God was watching over the Jewish elders. These men wouldn't stop them until a report was sent to Darius, so that they could receive written instructions about this matter.

⁶This is the text of the letter that Tattenai the governor of the region west of the Euphrates River, Shethar-bozenai, and their colleagues, the officials in the region, sent to King Darius. ⁷They sent him a report, written as follows:

To King Darius:

All greetings.

⁸Let it be known to the king that we went to the house of the great God in the province of Judah. It is being built with cut stones, and its beams are being set in the walls. This work is being done diligently and succeeding through the people's efforts. ⁹So we questioned the elders and asked, "Who gave you the order to rebuild this temple and finish this structure?" ¹⁰We also asked them for their names, so that we could write down the names of their leaders for your information.

¹¹This is the reply they gave us:

We are the servants of the God of the heavens and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished. ¹²But since our fathers angered the God of the heavens, he handed them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon. ¹³However, in the first year of King Cyrus of Babylon, he issued a decree to rebuild the house of God. ¹⁴He also took from the temple in Babylon the gold and silver articles of God's house that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and carried them to the temple in Babylon. He released them from the temple in Babylon to a man named Sheshbazzar, the governor by the appointment of King Cyrus. ¹⁵Cyrus told him, "Take these articles, put them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its original site." ¹⁶Then this same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of God's house in Jerusalem. It has been under construction from that time until now, but it has not been completed.

¹⁷So if it pleases the king, let a search of the royal archives in Babylon be conducted to see if it is true that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. Let the king's decision regarding this matter be sent to us.

6 King Darius gave the order, and they searched in the library of Babylon in the archives. ²But it was in the fortress of Ecbatana in the province of Media that a scroll was found with this record written on it:

³In the first year of King Cyrus, he issued a decree concerning the house of God in Jerusalem:

Let the house be rebuilt as a place for offering sacrifices, and let its original foundations be retained. Its height is to be ninety feet and its width ninety feet, ⁴with three layers of cut stones and one of timber. The cost is to be paid from the royal treasury. ⁵The gold and silver articles of God's house that Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and carried to Babylon must also be returned. They are to be brought to the temple in Jerusalem where they belong and put into the house of God.

⁶Therefore, you must stay away from that place, Tattenai governor of the region west of the Euphrates River, Shethar-bozenai, and your colleagues, the officials in the region. ⁷Leave the construction of the house of God alone. Let the governor and elders of the Jews rebuild this house of God on its original site.

⁸I hereby issue a decree concerning what you are to do, so that the elders of the Jews can rebuild the house of God:

The cost is to be paid in full to these men out of the royal revenues from the taxes of the region west of the Euphrates River, so that the work will not stop.

⁹Whatever is needed — young bulls, rams, and lambs for burnt offerings to the God of the heavens, or wheat, salt, wine, and oil, as requested by the priests in Jerusalem — let it be given to them every day without fail, ¹⁰so that they can offer sacrifices of pleasing aroma to the God of the heavens and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

¹¹I also issue a decree concerning any man who interferes with this directive:

Let a beam be torn from his house and raised up; he will be impaled on it, and his house will be made into a garbage dump because of this offense. ¹²May the God who caused his name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who dares to harm or interfere with this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have issued the decree. Let it be carried out diligently.

¹³Then Tattenai governor of the region west of the Euphrates River, Shethar-bozenai, and their colleagues diligently carried out what King Darius had decreed. ¹⁴So the Jewish elders continued successfully with the building under the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah son of Iddo. They finished the building according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus, Darius, and King Artaxerxes of Persia. ¹⁵This house was completed on the third day of the month of Adar in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

¹⁶Then the Israelites, including the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles, celebrated the dedication of the house of God with joy. ¹⁷For the dedication of God's house they offered one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, and four hundred lambs, as well as twelve male goats as a sin offering for all Israel—one for each Israelite tribe. ¹⁸They also appointed the priests by their divisions and the Levites by their groups to the service of God in Jerusalem, according to what is written in the book of Moses.

¹⁹The exiles observed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. ²⁰All of the priests and Levites were ceremonially clean, because they had purified themselves. They killed the Passover lamb for themselves, their priestly brothers, and all the exiles. ²¹The Israelites who had returned from exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the uncleanness of the Gentiles of the land in order to worship the LORD, the God of Israel. ²²They observed the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days with joy, because the LORD had made them joyful, having changed the Assyrian king's attitude toward them, so that he supported them in the work on the house of the God of Israel.

7 After these events, during the reign of King Artaxerxes of Persia, Ezra—

Seraiah's son, Azariah's son,
Hilkiah's son, ²Shallum's son,
Zadok's son, Ahitub's son,

³ Amariah's son, Azariah's son,
Meraioth's son, ⁴Zerahiah's son,
Uzzi's son, Bukki's son,

⁵ Abishua's son, Phinehas's son,
Eleazar's son, the chief priest Aaron's son

⁶—came up from Babylon. He was a scribe skilled in the law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given. The king had granted him everything he requested because the hand of the LORD his God was on him. ⁷Some of the Israelites, priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and temple servants accompanied him to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

⁸Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, during the seventh year of the king. ⁹He began the journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month and arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month since the gracious hand of his God was on him. ¹⁰Now Ezra had determined in his heart to study the law of the LORD, obey it, and teach its statutes and ordinances in Israel.

¹¹This is the text of the letter King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest and scribe, an expert in matters of the LORD's commands and statutes for Israel:

¹²Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, an expert in the law of the God of the heavens:

Greetings.

¹³I issue a decree that any of the Israelites in my kingdom, including their priests and Levites, who want to go to Jerusalem, may go with you. ¹⁴You are sent by the king and his seven counselors to evaluate Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of your God, which is in your possession. ¹⁵You are also to bring the silver and gold the king and his counselors have willingly given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶and all the silver and gold you receive throughout the province of Babylon, together with the freewill offerings given by the people and the priests to the house of their God in Jerusalem. ¹⁷Then you are to be diligent to buy with this money bulls, rams, and lambs, along with their grain and drink offerings, and offer them on the altar at the house of your God in Jerusalem. ¹⁸You may do whatever seems best to you and your brothers with the rest of the silver and gold, according to the will of your God. ¹⁹Deliver to the God of Jerusalem all the articles given to you for the service of the house of your God. ²⁰You may use the royal treasury to pay for anything else needed for the house of your God.

²⁵And you, Ezra, according to God's wisdom that you possess, appoint magistrates and judges to judge all the people in the region west of the Euphrates who know the laws of your God and to teach anyone who does not know them. ²⁶Anyone who does not keep the law of your God and the law of the king, let the appropriate judgment be executed against him, whether death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment.

²⁷Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put it into the king's mind to glorify the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, ²⁸and who has shown favor to me before the king, his counselors, and all his powerful officers. So I took courage because I was strengthened by the hand of the LORD my God, and I gathered Israelite leaders to return with me.

8 These are the family heads and the genealogical records of those who returned with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

² Gershom, from Phinehas's descendants;
Daniel, from Ithamar's descendants;

³ Hattush, from David's descendants, who was of Shecaniah's descendants;
⁴ Zechariah, from Parosh's descendants, and 150 men with him who were registered by genealogy;

⁵ Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah from Pahath-moab's descendants,

- and 200 men with him;
- ⁵ Shecaniah son of Jahaziel from Zattu's descendants, and 300 men with him;
- ⁶ Ebed son of Jonathán from Adin's descendants, and 50 men with him;
- ⁷ Jeshaiáh son of Athaliah from Elam's descendants, and 70 men with him;
- ⁸ Zebadiah son of Michael from Shephatiah's descendants, and 80 men with him;
- ⁹ Obadiah son of Jehiel from Joab's descendants, and 218 men with him;
- ¹⁰ Shelomith son of Josphiah from Bani's descendants, and 160 men with him;
- ¹¹ Zechariah son of Bebai from Bebai's descendants, and 28 men with him;
- ¹² Johanan son of Hakkatan from Azgad's descendants, and 110 men with him;
- ¹³ these are the last ones, from Adonikam's descendants, and their names are Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and 60 men with them;
- ¹⁴ Uthai and Zaccur from Bigvai's descendants, and 70 men with them.

²¹ I proclaimed a fast by the Ahava River, so that we might humble ourselves before our God and ask him for a safe journey for us, our dependents, and all our possessions. ²² I did this because I was ashamed to ask the king for infantry and cavalry to protect us from enemies during the journey, since we had told him, "The hand of our God is gracious to all who seek him, but his fierce anger is against all who abandon him." ²³ So we fasted and pleaded with our God about this, and he was receptive to our prayer.

²⁴ I selected twelve of the leading priests, along with Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers. ²⁵ I weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the articles — the contribution for the house of our God that the king, his counselors, his leaders, and all the Israelites who were present had offered. ²⁶ I weighed out to them 24 tons of silver, silver articles weighing 7,500 pounds, 7,500 pounds of gold, ²⁷ twenty gold bowls worth a thousand gold coins, and two articles of fine gleaming bronze, as valuable as gold. ²⁸ Then I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD, and the articles are holy. The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers. ²⁹ Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the LORD's house before the leading priests, Levites, and heads of the Israelite families in Jerusalem." ³⁰ So the priests and Levites took charge of the silver, the gold, and the articles that had been weighed out, to bring them to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

³¹ We set out from the Ahava River on the twelfth day of the first month to go to Jerusalem. We were strengthened by our God, and he kept us from the grasp of the enemy and from ambush along the way. ³² So we arrived at Jerusalem and rested there for three days. ³³ On the fourth day the silver, the gold, and the articles were weighed out in the house of our God into the care of the priest Meremoth son of Uriah. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him. The Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui were also with them. ³⁴ Everything was verified by number and weight, and the total weight was recorded at that time.

³⁵ The exiles who had returned from the captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, and seventy-seven lambs, along with twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering for the LORD. ³⁶ They also delivered the king's edicts to the royal satraps and governors of the region west of the Euphrates, so that they would support the people and the house of God.

9 After these things had been done, the leaders approached me and said: "The people of Israel, the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the surrounding peoples whose detestable practices are like those of the Canaanites, Hethites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites. ² Indeed, the Israelite men have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the holy seed has become mixed with the surrounding peoples. The leaders and officials have taken the lead in this unfaithfulness!" ³ When I heard this report, I tore my tunic and robe, pulled out some of the hair from my head and beard, and sat down devastated.

⁴ Everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered around me, because of the unfaithfulness of the exiles, while I sat devastated until the evening offering. ⁵ At the evening offering, I got up from my time of humiliation, with my tunic and robe torn. Then I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God. ⁶ And I said:

My God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift my face toward you, my God, because our iniquities are higher than our heads and our guilt is as high as the heavens. ⁷ Our guilt has been terrible from the days of our fathers until the present. Because of our iniquities we have been handed over, along with our kings and priests, to the surrounding kings, and to the sword, captivity, plundering, and open shame, as it is today. ⁸ But now, for a brief moment, grace has come from the LORD our God to preserve a remnant for us and give us a stake in his holy place. Even in our slavery, God has given us a little relief and light to our eyes. ⁹ Though we are slaves, our God has not abandoned us in our slavery. He has extended grace to us in the presence of the Persian kings, giving us relief, so that we can rebuild the house of our God and repair its ruins, to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

¹⁰ Now, our God, what can we say in light of this? For we have abandoned the commands ¹¹ you gave through your servants the prophets, saying: "The land you are entering to possess is an impure land. The surrounding peoples have filled it from end to end with their uncleanness by their impurity and detestable practices. ¹² So do not give your daughters to their sons in marriage or take their daughters for your sons. Never pursue their welfare or prosperity, so that you will be strong, eat the good things of the land, and leave it as an inheritance to your sons forever." ¹³ After all that has happened to us because of our evil deeds and terrible guilt — though you, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve and have allowed us to survive — ¹⁴ should we break your commands again and intermarry with the peoples who commit these detestable practices? Wouldn't you become so angry with us that you would destroy us, leaving neither remnant nor survivor? ¹⁵ LORD God of Israel, you are righteous, for we survive as a remnant today. Here we are before you with our guilt, though no one can stand in your presence because of this.

10 While Ezra prayed and confessed, weeping and falling facedown before the house of God, an extremely large assembly of Israelite men, women, and children gathered around him. The people also wept bitterly. ² Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, an Elamite, responded to Ezra: "We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the surrounding peoples, but there is still hope for Israel in spite of this. ³ Let us therefore make a covenant before our God to send away all the foreign wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the command of our God. Let it be done according to the law. ⁴ Get up, for this matter is your responsibility, and we support you. Be strong and take action!"

⁵ Then Ezra got up and made the leading priests, Levites, and all Israel take an oath to do what had been said; so they took the oath. ⁶ Ezra then went from the house of God and walked to the chamber of Jehohanan son of Elishib, where he spent the night. He did not eat food or drink water, because he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

⁹ So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem within the three days. On the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people sat in the square at the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the heavy rain. ¹⁰ Then the priest Ezra stood up and said to them, "You have been unfaithful by marrying foreign women, adding to Israel's guilt. ¹¹ Therefore, make a confession to the LORD, the God of your fathers, and do his will. Separate yourselves from the surrounding peoples and your foreign wives."

¹² Then all the assembly responded loudly: "Yes, we will do as you say!" ¹³ But there are many people, and it is the rainy season. We don't have the stamina to stay out in the open. This isn't something that can be done in a day or two, for we have rebelled terribly in this matter. ¹⁴ Let our leaders represent the entire assembly. Then let all those in our towns who have married foreign women come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each town, in order to avert the fierce anger of our God concerning this matter." ¹⁵ Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah opposed this, with Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them.

¹⁶ The exiles did what had been proposed. The priest Ezra selected men who were family heads, all identified by name, to represent their ancestral families. They convened on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter, ¹⁷ and by the first day of the first month they had dealt with all the men who had married foreign women.

¹⁸ The following were found to have married foreign women from the descendants of the priests:

from the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

¹⁹ They pledged to send their wives away, and being guilty, they offered a ram from the flock for their guilt;

²⁰ Hanani and Zebadiah from Immer's descendants;

²¹ Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah from Harim's descendants;

²² Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Eliasah from Pashhur's descendants.

²³ The Levites:

Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

²⁴ The singers:

Eliashib.

The gatekeepers:

Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

²⁵ The Israelites:

Parosh's descendants: Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah;

²⁶ Elam's descendants: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Eijah;

²⁷ Zattu's descendants: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza;

²⁸ Bebai's descendants: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai;

²⁹ Bani's descendants: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Jeremoth;

³⁰ Pahath-moab's descendants: Adna, Chelai, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh;

³¹ Harim's descendants: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³² Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah;

³³ Hashum's descendants: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei;

³⁴ Bani's descendants: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

³⁵ Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhai, ³⁶ Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷ Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasu, ³⁸ Bani,

NEHEMIAH

1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah:
During the month of Chislev in the twentieth year, when I was in the fortress city of Susa, ²Hanani, one of my brothers, arrived with men from Judah, and I questioned them about Jerusalem and the Jewish remnant that had survived the exile. ³They said to me, "The remnant in the province, who survived the exile, are in great trouble and disgrace. Jerusalem's wall has been broken down, and its gates have been burned."

⁴When I heard these words, I sat down and wept. I mourned for a number of days, fasting and praying before the God of the heavens. ⁵I said, Lord, the God of the heavens, the great and awe-inspiring God who keeps his gracious covenant with those who love him and keep his commands, ⁶let your eyes be open and your ears be attentive to hear your servant's prayer that I now pray to you day and night for your servants, the Israelites. I confess the sins we have committed against you. Both I and my father's family have sinned. ⁷We have acted corruptly toward you and have not kept the commands, statutes, and ordinances you gave your servant Moses. ⁸Please remember what you commanded your servant Moses: "If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples. ⁹But if you return to me and carefully observe my commands, even though your exiles were banished to the farthest horizon, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place where I chose to have my name dwell." ¹⁰They are your servants and your people. You redeemed them by your great power and strong hand. ¹¹Please, Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to that of your servants who delight to revere your name. Give your servant success today, and grant him compassion in the presence of this man.

At the time, I was the king's cupbearer.

2 During the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was set before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had never been sad in his presence, ²so the king said to me, "Why are you sad, when you aren't sick? This is nothing but sadness of heart."

I was overwhelmed with fear ³and replied to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should I not be sad when the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"

⁴Then the king asked me, "What is your request?"

So I prayed to the God of the heavens ⁵and answered the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor with you, send me to Judah and to the city where my ancestors are buried, so that I may rebuild it."

⁶The king, with the queen seated beside him, asked me, "How long will your journey take, and when will you return?" So I gave him a definite time, and it pleased the king to send me.

⁷I also said to the king: "If it pleases the king, let me have letters written to the governors of the region west of the Euphrates River, so that they will grant me safe passage until I reach Judah. ⁸And let me have a letter written to Asaph, keeper of the king's forest, so that he will give me timber to rebuild the gates of the temple's fortress, the city wall, and the home where I will live." The king granted my requests, for the gracious hand of my God was on me.

⁹I went to the governors of the region west of the Euphrates and gave them the king's letters. The king had also sent officers of the infantry and cavalry with me. ¹⁰When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard that someone had come to pursue the prosperity of the Israelites, they were greatly displeased.

¹¹After I arrived in Jerusalem and had been there three days, ¹²I got up at night and took a few men with me. I didn't tell anyone what my God had laid on my heart to do for Jerusalem. The only animal I took was the one I was riding. ¹³I went out at night through the Valley Gate toward the Serpent's Well and the Dung Gate, and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem that had been broken down and its gates that had been destroyed by fire. ¹⁴I went on to the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but farther down it became too narrow for my animal to go through. ¹⁵So I went up at night by way of the valley and inspected the wall. Then heading back, I entered through the Valley Gate and returned. ¹⁶The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, for I had not yet told the Jews, priests, nobles, officials, or the rest of those who would be doing the work. ¹⁷So I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in. Jerusalem lies in ruins and its gates have been burned. Come, let's rebuild Jerusalem's wall, so that we will no longer be a disgrace." ¹⁸I told them how the gracious hand of my God had been on me, and what the king had said to me.

They said, "Let's start rebuilding," and their hands were strengthened to do this good work.

¹⁹When Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about this, they mocked and despised us, and said, "What is this you're doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

²⁰I gave them this reply, "The God of the heavens is the one who will grant us success. We, his servants, will start building, but you have no share, right, or historic claim in Jerusalem."

3 The high priest Eliashib and his fellow priests began rebuilding the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and installed its doors. After building the wall to the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel, they dedicated it. ²The men of Jericho built next to Eliashib, and next to them Zaccur son of Imri built.

³The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate. They built it with beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars. ⁴Next to them Meremoth son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz, made repairs. Beside them Meshullam son of Berechiah, son of Meshezabel, made repairs. Next to them Zadok son of Baana made repairs. ⁵Beside them the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not lift a finger to help their supervisors.

⁶Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodiah repaired the Old Gate. They built it with beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars. ⁷Next to them the repairs were done by Melatiah the Gibeonite, Jadon the Meronothite, and the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, who were under the authority of the governor of the region west of the Euphrates River. ⁸After him Uzziel son of Harhaiah, the goldsmith, made repairs, and next to him Hananiah son of the perfumer made repairs. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

⁹ Next to them Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs. ¹⁰ After them Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs across from his house. Next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs. ¹¹ Malchijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-moab made repairs to another section, as well as to the Tower of the Ovens. ¹² Beside him Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs — he and his daughters.

¹⁵ Shallum son of Col-hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He rebuilt it and roofed it. Then he installed its doors, bolts, and bars. He also made repairs to the wall of the Pool of Shelah near the king's garden, as far as the stairs that descend from the city of David.

After them Meshullam son of Berechiah made repairs opposite his room. ³¹ Next to him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs to the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and as far as the upstairs room on the corner. ³² The goldsmiths and merchants made repairs between the upstairs room on the corner and the Sheep Gate.

4 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious. He mocked the Jews ² before his colleagues and the powerful men of Samaria, and said, "What are these pathetic Jews doing? Can they restore it by themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they ever finish it? Can they bring these burnt stones back to life from the mounds of rubble?" ³ Then Tobiah the Ammonite, who was beside him, said, "Indeed, even if a fox climbed up what they are building, he would break down their stone wall!"

⁴ Listen, our God, for we are despised. Make their insults return on their own heads and let them be taken as plunder to a land of captivity. ⁵ Do not cover their guilt or let their sin be erased from your sight, because they have angered the builders.

⁶ So we rebuilt the wall until the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had the will to keep working.

⁷ When Sanballat, Tobiah, and the Arabs, Ammonites, and Ashdodites heard that the repair to the walls of Jerusalem was progressing and that the gaps were being closed, they became furious. ⁸ They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and throw it into confusion. ⁹ So we prayed to our God and stationed a guard because of them day and night.

¹⁰ In Judah, it was said:

The strength of the laborer fails,
since there is so much rubble.
We will never be able to rebuild the wall.

¹¹ And our enemies said, "They won't realize it until we're among them and can kill them and stop the work." ¹² When the Jews who lived nearby arrived, they said to us time and again, "Everywhere you turn, they attack us." ¹³ So I stationed people behind the lowest sections of the wall, at the vulnerable areas. I stationed them by families with their swords, spears, and bows. ¹⁴ After I made an inspection, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "Don't be afraid of them. Remember the great and awe-inspiring Lord, and fight for your countrymen, your sons and daughters, your wives and homes."

¹⁵ When our enemies heard that we knew their scheme and that God had frustrated it, every one of us returned to his own work on the wall. ¹⁶ From that day on, half of my men did the work while the other half held spears, shields, bows, and armor. The officers supported all the people of Judah, ¹⁷ who were rebuilding the wall. The laborers who carried the loads worked with one hand and held a weapon with the other. ¹⁸ Each of the builders had his sword strapped around his waist while he was building, and the trumpeter was beside me. ¹⁹ Then I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people: "The work is enormous and spread out, and we are separated far from one another along the wall. ²⁰ Wherever you hear the trumpet sound, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us!" ²¹ So we continued the work, while half of the men were holding spears from day-break until the stars came out. ²² At that time, I also said to the people, "Let everyone and his servant spend the night inside Jerusalem, so that they can stand guard by night and work by day." ²³ And I, my brothers, my servants, and the men of the guard with me never took off our clothes. Each carried his weapon, even when washing.

5 There was a widespread outcry from the people and their wives against their Jewish countrymen. ² Some were saying, "We, our sons, and our daughters are numerous. Let us get grain so that we can eat and live." ³ Others were saying, "We are mortgaging our fields, vineyards, and homes to get grain during the famine."⁴ Still others were saying, "We have borrowed money to pay the king's tax on our fields and vineyards."⁵ We and our children are just like our countrymen and their children, yet we are subjecting our sons and daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters are already enslaved, but we are powerless because our fields and vineyards belong to others."

⁶I became extremely angry when I heard their outcry and these complaints. ⁷After seriously considering the matter, I accused the nobles and officials, saying to them, "Each of you is charging his countrymen interest." So I called a large assembly against them ⁸and said, "We have done our best to buy back our Jewish countrymen who were sold to foreigners, but now you sell your own countrymen, and we have to buy them back." They remained silent and could not say a word. ⁹Then I said, "What you are doing isn't right. Shouldn't you walk in the fear of our God and not invite the reproach of our foreign enemies?" ¹⁰Even I, as well as my brothers and my servants, have been lending them money and grain. Please, let us stop charging this interest. ¹¹Return their fields, vineyards, olive groves, and houses to them immediately, along with the percentage of the money, grain, new wine, and fresh oil that you have been assessing them."

¹²They responded: "We will return these things and require nothing more from them. We will do as you say."

So I summoned the priests and made everyone take an oath to do this. ¹³I also shook the folds of my robe and said, "May God likewise shake from his house and property everyone who doesn't keep this promise. May he be shaken out and have nothing!"

The whole assembly said, "Amen," and they praised the LORD. Then the people did as they had promised.

¹⁴Furthermore, from the day King Artaxerxes appointed me to be their governor in the land of Judah — from the twentieth year until his thirty-second year, twelve years — I and my associates never ate from the food allotted to the governor. ¹⁵The governors who preceded me had heavily burdened the people, taking from them food and wine as well as a pound of silver. Their subordinates also oppressed the people, but because of the fear of God, I didn't do this. ¹⁶Instead, I devoted myself to the construction of this wall, and all my subordinates were gathered there for the work. We didn't buy any land.

¹⁷There were 150 Jews and officials, as well as guests from the surrounding nations at my table. ¹⁸Each day, one ox, six choice sheep, and some fowl were prepared for me. An abundance of all kinds of wine was provided every ten days. But I didn't demand the food allotted to the governor, because the burden on the people was so heavy.

¹⁹Remember me favorably, my God, for all that I have done for this people.

6 When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and that no gap was left in it — though at that time I had not installed the doors in the city gates — ²Sanballat and Geshem sent me a message: "Come, let's meet together in the villages of the Ono Valley." They were planning to harm me.

³So I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing important work and cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?" ⁴Four times they sent me the same proposal, and I gave them the same reply.

⁵Sanballat sent me this same message a fifth time by his aide, who had an open letter in his hand. ⁶In it was written: It is reported among the nations — and Geshem agrees — that you and the Jews plan to rebel. This is the reason you are building the wall. According to these reports, you are to become their king⁷ and have even set up the prophets in Jerusalem to proclaim on your behalf: "There is a king in Judah." These rumors will be heard by the king. So come, let's confer together.

⁸Then I replied to him, "There is nothing to these rumors you are spreading; you are inventing them in your own mind."⁹ For they were all trying to intimidate us, saying, "They will drop their hands from the work, and it will never be finished."

But now, my God, strengthen my hands.

¹⁰I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, who was restricted to his house. He said:

Let's meet at the house of God,
inside the temple.

Let's shut the temple doors
because they're coming to kill you.

They're coming to kill you tonight!

¹¹But I said, "Should a man like me run away? How can someone like me enter the temple and live? I will not go."¹² I realized that God had not sent him, because of the prophecy he spoke against me. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³He was hired, so that I would be intimidated, do as he suggested, sin, and get a bad reputation, in order that they could discredit me.

¹⁴My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat for what they have done, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the other prophets who wanted to intimidate me.

¹⁵The wall was completed in fifty-two days, on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul. ¹⁶When all our enemies heard this, all the surrounding nations were intimidated and lost their confidence, for they realized that this task had been accomplished by our God.

¹⁷During those days, the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them. ¹⁸For many in Judah were bound by oath to him, since he was a son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah. ¹⁹These nobles kept mentioning Tobiah's good deeds to me, and they reported my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

7 When the wall had been rebuilt and I had the doors installed, the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites were appointed. ²Then I put my brother Hananiah in charge of Jerusalem, along with Hananiah, commander of the fortress, because he was a faithful man who feared God more than most. ³I said to them, "Do not open the gates of Jerusalem until the sun is hot, and let the doors be shut and securely fastened while the guards are on duty. Station the citizens of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some at their homes."

⁴The city was large and spacious, but there were few people in it, and no houses had been built yet. ⁵Then my God put it into my mind to assemble the nobles, the officials, and the people to be registered by genealogy. I found the genealogical record of those who came back first, and I found the following written in it:

⁶These are the people of the province who went up among the captive exiles deported by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. Each of them returned to Jerusalem and Judah, to his own town.⁷ They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

⁶¹ The following are those who came from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer, but were unable to prove that their ancestral families and their lineage were Israelite:

⁶² Delaiah's descendants, Tobiah's descendants, and Nekoda's descendants 642

⁶³ and from the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, the descendants of Hakkoz, and the descendants of Barzillai — who had taken a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and who bore their name. ⁶⁴These searched for their entries in the genealogical records, but they could not be found, so they were disqualified from the priesthood. ⁶⁵The governor ordered them not to eat the most holy things until there was a priest who could consult the Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁶ The whole combined assembly numbered 42,360

⁶⁷ not including their 7,337 male and female servants, as well as their 245 male and female singers.

⁶⁸ They had 736 horses, 245 mules,

⁶⁹ 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns, ¹all the people gathered together at the square in front of the Water Gate. They asked the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses that the LORD had given Israel. ²On the first day of the seventh month, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly of men, women, and all who could listen with understanding. ³While he was facing the square in front of the Water Gate, he read out of it from daybreak until noon before the men, the women, and those who could understand. All the people listened attentively to the book of the law. ⁴The scribe Ezra stood on a high wooden platform made for this purpose. Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hiikiah, and Maaseiah stood beside him on his right; to his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hash-baddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam. ⁵Ezra opened the book in full view of all the people, since he was elevated above everyone. As he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and with their hands uplifted all the people said, "Amen, Amen!" Then they knelt low and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

⁷ Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Peliaiah, who were Levites, explained the law to the people as they stood in their places. ⁸ They read out of the book of the law of God, translating and giving the meaning so that the people could understand what was read. ⁹ Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all of them, "This day is holy to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep." For all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law. ¹⁰ Then he said to them, "Go and eat what is rich, drink what is sweet, and send portions to those who have nothing prepared, since today is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, because the joy of the LORD is your strength." ¹¹ And the Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Be still, since today is holy. Don't grieve." ¹² Then all the people began to eat and drink, send portions, and have a great celebration, because they had understood the words that were explained to them.

¹³ On the second day, the family heads of all the people, along with the priests and Levites, assembled before the scribe Ezra to study the words of the law. ¹⁴ They found written in the law how the LORD had commanded through Moses that the Israelites should dwell in shelters during the festival of the seventh month. ¹⁵ So they proclaimed and spread this news throughout their towns and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the hill country and bring back branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make shelters, just as it is written." ¹⁶ The people went out, brought back branches, and made shelters for themselves on each of their rooftops and courtyards, the court of the house of God, the square by the Water Gate, and the square by the Ephraim Gate. ¹⁷ The whole community that had returned from exile made shelters and lived in them. The Israelites had not celebrated like this from the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day. And there was tremendous joy. ¹⁸ Ezra read out of the book of the law of God every day, from the first day to the last. The Israelites celebrated the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day there was an assembly, according to the ordinance.

9 On the twenty-fourth day of this month the Israelites assembled; they were fasting, wearing sackcloth, and had put dust on their heads. ² Those of Israelite descent separated themselves from all foreigners, and they stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. ³ While they stood in their places, they read from the book of the law of the LORD their God for a fourth of the day and spent another fourth of the day in confession and worship of the LORD their God. ⁴ Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani stood on the raised platform built for the Levites and cried out loudly to the LORD their God. ⁵ Then the Levites — Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah — said, "Stand up. Blessed be the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting."

Blessed be your glorious name, and may it be exalted above all blessing and praise.

- ⁶ You, LORD, are the only God.
You created the heavens,
the highest heavens with all their stars,
the earth and all that is on it,
the seas and all that is in them.
You give life to all of them,
and all the stars of heaven worship you.

- ⁷ You, the LORD,
are the God who chose Abram
and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans, and changed his name to Abraham.
⁸ You found his heart faithful in your sight,
and made a covenant with him
to give the land of the Canaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girgashites — to give it to his descendants.
You have fulfilled your promise,
for you are righteous.
⁹ You saw the oppression of our ancestors in Egypt and heard their cry at the Red Sea.
¹⁰ You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
all his officials, and all the people of his land,
for you knew how arrogantly they treated our ancestors.
You made a name for yourself
that endures to this day.
¹¹ You divided the sea before them,
and they crossed through it on dry ground.
You hurled their pursuers into the depths like a stone into raging water.
¹² You led them with a pillar of cloud by day,
and with a pillar of fire by night,
to illuminate the way they should go.
¹³ You came down on Mount Sinai,
and spoke to them from heaven.
You gave them impartial ordinances,
reliable instructions,
and good statutes and commands.
¹⁴ You revealed your holy Sabbath to them,
and gave them commands, statutes,
and instruction
through your servant Moses.
¹⁵ You provided bread from heaven for their hunger;
you brought them water from the rock
for their thirst.
You told them to go in and possess the land
you had sworn to give them.
¹⁶ But our ancestors acted arrogantly;
they became stiff-necked and did not listen to your commands.
¹⁷ They refused to listen and did not remember your wonders you performed among them.
They became stiff-necked and appointed a leader
to return to their slavery in Egypt.
But you are a forgiving God,
gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger and abounding in faithful love,
and you did not abandon them.
¹⁸ Even after they had cast an image of a calf
for themselves and said,
"This is your god who brought you out of Egypt,"
and they had committed terrible blasphemies, ¹⁹ you did not abandon them in the wilderness
because of your great compassion.
During the day the pillar of cloud never turned away from them,
guiding them on their journey.
And during the night the pillar of fire illuminated the way they should go.

- 20 You sent your good Spirit to instruct them.
You did not withhold your manna
from their mouths,
and you gave them water for their thirst.
- 21 You provided for them in the wilderness
forty years,
and they lacked nothing.
Their clothes did not wear out,
and their feet did not swell.
- 22 You gave them kingdoms and peoples and established boundaries for them.
They took possession of the land of King Sihon of Heshbon and of the land of King Og of Bashan.
- 23 You multiplied their descendants like the stars of the sky and brought them to the land
you told their ancestors to go in and possess.
- 24 So their descendants went in and possessed
the land:
You subdued the Canaanites who inhabited
the land before them
and handed their kings and the surrounding peoples over to them,
to do as they pleased with them.
- 25 They captured fortified cities and fertile land and took possession of well-supplied houses, cisterns cut out of rock, vineyards,
olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance.
They ate, were filled,
became prosperous, and delighted
in your great goodness.
- 26 But they were disobedient and rebelled against you.
They flung your law behind their backs and killed your prophets who warned them
in order to turn them back to you.
They committed terrible blasphemies.
- 27 So you handed them over to their enemies,
who oppressed them.
In their time of distress, they cried out to you,
and you heard from heaven.
In your abundant compassion
you gave them deliverers, who rescued them from the power of their enemies.
- 28 But as soon as they had relief,
they again did what was evil in your sight.
So you abandoned them to the power
of their enemies,
who dominated them.
When they cried out to you again,
you heard from heaven and rescued them
many times in your compassion.
- 29 You warned them to turn back to your law,
but they acted arrogantly
and would not obey your commands.
They sinned against your ordinances,
which a person will live by if he does them.
They stubbornly resisted,
stiffened their necks, and would not obey.
- 30 You were patient with them
for many years,
and your Spirit warned them through your prophets,

- but they would not listen.
Therefore, you handed them over to the surrounding peoples.
- 31 However, in your abundant compassion,
you did not destroy them or abandon them,
for you are a gracious and compassionate God.
- 32 So now, our God — the great, mighty, and awe-inspiring God who keeps his gracious covenant —
do not view lightly all the hardships that have afflicted us,
our kings and leaders,
our priests and prophets,
our ancestors and all your people,
from the days of the Assyrian kings until today.
- 33 You are righteous concerning all
that has happened to us,
because you have acted faithfully,
while we have acted wickedly.
- 34 Our kings, leaders, priests, and ancestors did not obey your law or listen to your commands and warnings you gave them.
- 35 When they were in their kingdom, with your abundant goodness that
you gave them,
and in the spacious and fertile land you set before them,
they would not serve you or turn
from their wicked ways.
- 36 Here we are today,
slaves in the land you gave our ancestors
so that they could enjoy its fruit and its goodness.
Here we are — slaves in it!
- 37 Its abundant harvest goes to the kings
you have set over us,
because of our sins.
They rule over our bodies
and our livestock as they please.
We are in great distress.
- 38 In view of all this, we are making a binding agreement in writing on a sealed document containing the names of our leaders, Levites, and priests.
- 10 Those whose seals were on the document were the governor Nehemiah son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,
- 2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,
4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,
5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,
6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,
8 Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah.
These were the priests.
- 9 The Levites were Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,
and their brothers
Shebaniah, Hodiah, Keita, Pelaiah, Hanan,
11 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,
12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
13 Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.
- 14 The heads of the people were Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

- 16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, 17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
 18 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,
 19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
 20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
 21 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,
 22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
 23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,
 24 Hallohesh, Pilna, Shobek, 25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
 26 Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,
 27 Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

²⁸The rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, and temple servants, along with their wives, sons, and daughters, everyone who is able to understand and who has separated themselves from the surrounding peoples to obey the law of God—²⁹ join with their noble brothers and commit themselves with a sworn oath to follow the law of God given through God's servant Moses and to obey carefully all the commands, ordinances, and statutes of the LORD our Lord.

³⁰We will not give our daughters in marriage to the surrounding peoples and will not take their daughters as wives for our sons.

³¹When the surrounding peoples bring merchandise or any kind of grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or a holy day. We will also leave the land uncultivated in the seventh year and will cancel every debt.

³²We will impose the following commands on ourselves:

To give an eighth of an ounce of silver yearly for the service of the house of our God: ³³ the bread displayed before the LORD, the daily grain offering, the regular burnt offering, the Sabbath and New Moon offerings, the appointed festivals, the holy things, the sin offerings to atone for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

³⁴We have cast lots among the priests, Levites, and people for the donation of wood by our ancestral families at the appointed times each year. They are to bring the wood to our God's house to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law.

³⁵We will bring the firstfruits of our land and of every fruit tree to the LORD's house year by year. ³⁶We will also bring the firstborn of our sons and our livestock, as prescribed by the law, and will bring the firstborn of our herds and flocks to the house of our God, to the priests who serve in our God's house. ³⁷We will bring a loaf from our first batch of dough to the priests at the storerooms of the house of our God. We will also bring the firstfruits of our grain offerings, of every fruit tree, and of the new wine and fresh oil. A tenth of our land's produce belongs to the Levites, for the Levites are to collect the one-tenth offering in all our agricultural towns. ³⁸A priest from Aaron's descendants is to accompany the Levites when they collect the tenth, and the Levites are to take a tenth of this offering to the storerooms of the treasury in the house of our God. ³⁹For the Israelites and the Levites are to bring the contributions of grain, new wine, and fresh oil to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are kept and where the priests who minister are, along with the gatekeepers and singers. We will not neglect the house of our God.

11 Now the leaders of the people stayed in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots for one out of ten to come and live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine-tenths remained in their towns. ²The people blessed all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

³These are the heads of the province who stayed in Jerusalem (but in the villages of Judah each lived on his own property in their towns—the Israelites, priests, Levites, temple servants, and descendants of Solomon's servants—⁴ while some of the descendants of Judah and Benjamin settled in Jerusalem):

Judah's descendants:

Athaiah son of Uzziyah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephathiah, son of Mahalaiah, of Perez's descendants; ⁵ and Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Col-hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiyah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, a descendant of the Shilonite. ⁶The total number of Perez's descendants, who settled in Jerusalem, was 468 capable men.

⁷These were Benjamin's descendants:

Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiyah, ⁸ and after him Gabbai and Sallai: 928. ⁹Joel son of Zichri was the officer over them, and Judah son of Hassenuah was second in command over the city.

¹⁰The priests:

Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jachin, and ¹¹Seraiah son of Hilkiyah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the chief official of God's temple, ¹² and their relatives who did the work at the temple: 822. Adaiyah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaiyah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah ¹³ and his relatives, the heads of families: 242. Amashai son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer, ¹⁴ and their relatives, capable men: 128. Zabdiel son of Haggadolim, was their chief.

¹⁵The Levites:

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni; ¹⁶ and Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the heads of the Levites, who supervised the work outside the house of God; ¹⁷ Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, the one who began the thanksgiving in prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his relatives; and Abda son of Shammua, son of Galai, son of Jeduthun.

¹⁸All the Levites in the holy city: 284.

¹⁹The gatekeepers:

Akkub, Talmon, and their relatives, who guarded the city gates: 172.

²⁰The rest of Israel, the priests, and the Levites were in all the villages of Judah, each on his own inherited property. ²¹The temple servants lived on Ophel; Zihah and Gishpa supervised the temple servants.

²²The leader of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mica, of the descendants of Asaph, who were singers for the service of God's house. ²³There was, in fact, a command of the king regarding them, and an ordinance regulating the singers' daily tasks. ²⁴Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, of the descendants of Zerah son of Judah, was the king's agent in every matter concerning the people.

²⁵ As for the farming settlements with their fields: Some of Judah's descendants lived in Kiriath-arba and Dibon and their surrounding villages, and Jekabzeel and its settlements;

²⁶ in Jeshua, Moladah, Beth-pelet,
²⁷ Hazar-shual, and Beer-sheba and its surrounding villages;

²⁸ in Ziklag and Meconah and its surrounding villages; in En-rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth, and ³⁰ Zanoah and Adullam with their settlements; in Lachish with its fields and Azekah and its surrounding villages.

So they settled from Beer-sheba to Hinnom Valley. Benjamin's descendants: from Geba, Michmash, Aija, and Bethel and its surrounding villages,

³² Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

³³ Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

³⁴ Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

³⁵ Lod, and Ono, in Craftsmen's Valley.

³⁶ Some of the Judean divisions of Levites were in Benjamin.

12 These are the priests and Levites who went up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua:

Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

² Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

³ Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

⁴ Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

⁵ Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

⁶ Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,

⁷ Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, Jedaiah.

These were the heads of the priests and their relatives in the days of Jeshua.

⁸ The Levites:

Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah — he and his relatives were in charge of the songs of praise.

⁹ Bakbukiah, Unni, and their relatives stood opposite them in the services.

¹⁰ Jeshua fathered Joiakim, Joiakim fathered Eliashib, Eliashib fathered Joiada, ¹¹ Joiada fathered Jonathan, and Jonathan fathered Jaddua.

¹² In the days of Joiakim, the heads of the priestly families were

Meraiah	of Seraiah,
Hananiah	of Jeremiah,
¹³ Meshullam	of Ezra,
Jehohanan	of Amariah,
¹⁴ Jonathan	of Malluchi,
Joseph	of Shebaniah,
¹⁵ Adna	of Harim,
Helkai	of Meraioth,
¹⁶ Zechariah	of Iddo,
Meshullam	of Ginnethon,
¹⁷ Zichri	of Abijah,
Piltai	of Moadiah, of Miniamin,
¹⁸ Shammua	of Bilgah,
Jehonathan	of Shemaiah,
¹⁹ Mattenai	of Joiarib,
Uzzi	of Jedaiah,
²⁰ Kallai	of Sallai,
Eber	of Amok,

²¹ Hashabiah of Hilkiyah, and Nethanel of Jedaiah.

³⁸ The second thanksgiving procession went to the left, and I followed it with half the people along the top of the wall, past the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall, ³⁹ above the Ephraim Gate, and by the Old Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate. They stopped at the Gate of the Guard. ⁴⁰ The two thanksgiving processions stood in the house of God. So did I and half of the officials accompanying me, ⁴¹ as well as the priests:

Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Eioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

⁴² and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehonanan, Malchijah, Eiam, and Ezer.

Then the singers sang, with Jezrahiah as the leader. ⁴³ On that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced because God had given them great joy. The women and children also celebrated, and Jerusalem's rejoicing was heard far away.

⁴⁴ On that same day men were placed in charge of the rooms that housed the supplies, contributions, firstfruits, and tenths. The legally required portions for the priests and Levites were gathered from the village fields, because Judah was grateful to the priests and Levites who were serving. ⁴⁵ They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, along with the singers and gatekeepers, as David and his son Solomon had prescribed. ⁴⁶ For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there were heads of the singers and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. ⁴⁷ So in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily portions for the singers and gatekeepers. They also set aside daily portions for the Levites, and the Levites set aside daily portions for Aaron's descendants.

13 At that time the book of Moses was read publicly to the people. The command was found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God, ² because they did not meet the Israelites with food and water. Instead, they hired Balaam against them to curse them, but our God turned the curse into a blessing. ³ When they heard the law, they separated all those of mixed descent from Israel.

⁴ Now before this, the priest Eliashib had been put in charge of the storerooms of the house of our God. He was a relative of Tobiah ⁵ and had prepared a large room for him where they had previously stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the articles, and the tenths of grain, new wine, and fresh oil prescribed for the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers, along with the contributions for the priests.

⁶ While all this was happening, I was not in Jerusalem, because I had returned to King Artaxerxes of Babylon in the thirty-second year of his reign. It was only later that I asked the king for a leave of absence ⁷ so I could return to Jerusalem. Then I discovered the evil that Eliashib had done on behalf of Tobiah by providing him a room in the courts of God's house. ⁸ I was greatly displeased and threw all of Tobiah's household possessions out of the room. ⁹ I ordered that the rooms be purified, and I had the articles of the house of God restored there, along with the grain offering and frankincense. ¹⁰ I also found out that because the portions for the Levites had not been given, each of the Levites and the singers performing the service had gone back to his own field. ¹¹ Therefore, I rebuked the officials, asking, "Why has the house of God been neglected?" I gathered the Levites and singers together and stationed them at their posts. ¹² Then all Judah brought a tenth of the grain, new wine, and fresh oil into the storehouses. ¹³ I appointed as treasurers over the storehouses the priest Shelemiah, the scribe Zadok, and Pedaiah of the Levites, with Hanan son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah to assist them, because they were considered trustworthy. They were responsible for the distribution to their colleagues.

¹⁴ Remember me for this, my God, and don't erase the deeds of faithful love I have done for the house of my God and for its services.

¹⁵ At that time I saw people in Judah treading wine-presses on the Sabbath. They were also bringing in stores of grain and loading them on donkeys, along with wine, grapes, and figs. All kinds of goods were being brought to Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I warned them against selling food on that day. ¹⁶ The Tyrians living there were importing fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them on the Sabbath to the people of Judah in Jerusalem.

¹⁷ I rebuked the nobles of Judah and said to them: "What is this evil you are doing — profaning the Sabbath day? ¹⁸ Didn't your ancestors do the same, so that our God brought all this disaster on us and on this city? And now you are rekindling his anger against Israel by profaning the Sabbath!"

¹⁹ When shadows began to fall on the city gates of Jerusalem just before the Sabbath, I gave orders that the city gates be closed and not opened until after the Sabbath. I posted some of my men at the gates, so that no goods could enter during the Sabbath day. ²⁰ Once or twice the merchants and those who sell all kinds of goods camped outside Jerusalem, ²¹ but I warned them, "Why are you camping in front of the wall? If you do it again, I'll use force against you." After that they did not come again on the Sabbath. ²² Then I instructed the Levites to purify themselves and guard the city gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy.

Remember me for this also, my God, and look on me with compassion according to the abundance of your faithful love.

²³ In those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. ²⁴ Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples but could not speak Hebrew. ²⁵ I rebuked them, cursed them, beat some of their men, and pulled out their hair. I forced them to take an oath before God and said, "You must not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters as wives for your sons or yourselves! ²⁶ Didn't King Solomon of Israel sin in matters like this? There was not a king like him among many nations. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel, yet foreign women drew him into sin. ²⁷ Why then should we hear about you doing all this terrible evil and acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign women?" ²⁸ Even one of the sons of Jehoiada, son of the high priest Eliashib, had become a son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him away from me.

²⁹ Remember them, my God, for defiling the priesthood as well as the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

³⁰ So I purified them from everything foreign and assigned specific duties to each of the priests and Levites. ³¹ I also arranged for the donation of wood at the appointed times and for the firstfruits.

Remember me, my God, with favor.

ESTHER

1 These events took place during the days of Ahasuerus, who ruled 127 provinces from India to Cush. ² In those days King Ahasuerus reigned from his royal throne in the fortress at Susa. ³ He held a feast in the third year of his reign for all his officials and staff, the army of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the officials from the provinces. ⁴ He displayed the glorious wealth of his kingdom and the magnificent splendor of his greatness for a total of 180 days.

⁷ Drinks were served in an array of gold goblets, each with a different design. Royal wine flowed freely, according to the king's bounty. ⁸ The drinking was according to royal decree: "There are no restrictions." The king had ordered every wine steward in his household to serve whatever each person wanted. ⁹ Queen Vashti also gave a feast for the women of King Ahasuerus's palace.

¹³ The king consulted the wise men who understood the times, for it was his normal procedure to confer with experts in law and justice. ¹⁴ The most trusted ones were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan. They were the seven officials of Persia and Media who had personal access to the king and occupied the highest positions in the kingdom. ¹⁵ The king asked, "According to the law, what should be done with Queen Vashti, since she refused to obey King Ahasuerus's command that was delivered by the eunuchs?"

¹⁹ "If it meets the king's approval, he should personally issue a royal decree. Let it be recorded in the laws of Persia and Media, so that it cannot be revoked: Vashti is not to enter King Ahasuerus's presence, and her royal position is to be given to another woman who is more worthy than she. ²⁰ The decree the king issues will be heard throughout his vast kingdom, so all women will honor their husbands, from the greatest to the least."

²¹ The king and his counselors approved the proposal, and he followed Memucan's advice. ²² He sent letters to all the royal provinces, to each province in its own script and to each ethnic group in its own language, that every man should be master of his own house and speak in the language of his own people.

2 Some time later, when King Ahasuerus's rage had cooled down, he remembered Vashti, what she had done, and what was decided against her. ² The king's personal attendants suggested, "Let a search be made for beautiful young virgins for the king. ³ Let the king appoint commissioners in each province of his kingdom, so that they may gather all the beautiful young virgins to the harem at the fortress of Susa. Put them under the supervision of Hegai, the king's eunuch, keeper of the women, and give them the required beauty treatments. ⁴ Then the young woman who pleases the king will become queen instead of Vashti." This suggestion pleased the king, and he did accordingly.

¹⁵ Esther was the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai who had adopted her as his own daughter. When her turn came to go to the king, she did not ask for anything except what Hegai, the king's eunuch, keeper of the women, suggested. Esther gained favor in the eyes of everyone who saw her.

¹⁶ She was taken to King Ahasuerus in the palace in the tenth month, the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. ¹⁷ The king loved Esther more than all the other women. She won more favor and approval from him than did any of the other virgins. He placed the royal crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti. ¹⁸ The king held a great banquet for all his officials and staff. It was Esther's banquet. He freed his provinces from tax payments and gave gifts worthy of the king's bounty.

3 After all this took place, King Ahasuerus honored Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite. He promoted him in rank and gave him a higher position than all the other officials. ² The entire royal staff at the King's Gate bowed down and paid homage to Haman, because the king had commanded this to be done for him. But Mordecai would not bow down or pay homage. ³ The members of the royal staff at the King's Gate asked Mordecai, "Why are you disobeying the king's command?" ⁴ When they had warned him day after day and he still would not listen to them, they told Haman in order to see if Mordecai's actions would be tolerated, since he had told them he was a Jew.

⁵ When Haman saw that Mordecai was not bowing down or paying him homage, he was filled with rage. ⁶ And when he learned of Mordecai's ethnic identity, it seemed repugnant to Haman to do away with Mordecai alone. He planned to destroy all of Mordecai's people, the Jews, throughout Ahasuerus's kingdom.

⁷ In the first month, the month of Nisan, in King Ahasuerus's twelfth year, the Pur — that is, the lot — was cast before Haman for each day in each month, and it fell on the twelfth month, the month Adar. ⁸ Then Haman informed King Ahasuerus, "There is one ethnic group, scattered throughout the peoples in every province of your kingdom, keeping themselves separate. Their laws are different from everyone else's and they do not obey the king's laws. It is not in the king's best interest to tolerate them. ⁹ If the king approves, let an order be drawn up authorizing their destruction, and I will pay 375 tons of silver to the officials for deposit in the royal treasury."

¹² The royal scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and the order was written exactly as Haman commanded. It was intended for the royal satraps, the governors of each of the provinces, and the officials of each ethnic group and written for each province in its own script and to each ethnic group in its own language.

It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the royal signet ring. ¹³ Letters were sent by couriers to each of the royal provinces telling the officials to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the Jewish people — young and old, women and children — and plunder their possessions on a single day, the thirteenth day of Adar, the twelfth month.

4 When Mordecai learned all that had occurred, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, went into the middle of the city, and cried loudly and bitterly. ² He went only as far as the King's Gate, since the law prohibited anyone wearing sackcloth from entering the King's Gate. ³ There was great mourning among the Jewish people in every province where the king's command and edict came. They fasted, wept, and lamented, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴ Esther's female servants and her eunuchs came and reported the news to her, and the queen was overcome with fear. She sent clothes for Mordecai to wear so that he would take off his sackcloth, but he did not accept them.

¹⁰ Esther spoke to Hathach and commanded him to tell Mordecai, ¹¹ "All the royal officials and the people of the royal provinces know that one law applies to every man or woman who approaches the king in the inner courtyard and who has not been summoned — the death penalty — unless the king extends the gold scepter, allowing that person to live. I have not been summoned to appear before the king for the last thirty days." ¹² Esther's response was reported to Mordecai.

¹³ Mordecai told the messenger to reply to Esther, "Don't think that you will escape the fate of all the Jews because you are in the king's palace. ¹⁴ If you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will come to the Jewish people from another place, but you and your father's family will be destroyed. Who knows, perhaps you have come to your royal position for such a time as this."

¹⁵ Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: ¹⁶ "Go and assemble all the Jews who can be found in Susa and fast for me. Don't eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my female servants will also fast in the same way. After that, I will go to the king even if it is against the law. If I perish, I perish." ¹⁷ So Mordecai went and did everything Esther had commanded him.

5 On the third day, Esther dressed in her royal clothing and stood in the inner courtyard of the palace facing it. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal courtroom, facing its entrance. ² As soon as the king saw

Queen Esther standing in the courtyard, she gained favor in his eyes. The king extended the gold scepter in his hand toward Esther, and she approached and touched the tip of the scepter.

³“What is it, Queen Esther?” the king asked her. “Whatever you want, even to half the kingdom, will be given to you.”

⁴“If it pleases the king,” Esther replied, “may the king and Haman come today to the banquet I have prepared for them.”

⁵The king said, “Hurry, and get Haman so we can do as Esther has requested.” So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared.

⁶While drinking the wine, the king asked Esther, “Whatever you ask will be given to you. Whatever you want, even to half the kingdom, will be done.”

⁷Esther answered, “This is my petition and my request: ⁸If I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and perform my request, may the king and Haman come to the banquet I will prepare for them. Tomorrow I will do what the king has asked.”

⁹That day Haman left full of joy and in good spirits. But when Haman saw Mordecai at the King’s Gate, and Mordecai didn’t rise or tremble in fear at his presence, Haman was filled with rage toward Mordecai. ¹⁰Yet Haman controlled himself and went home. He sent for his friends and his wife Zeresh to join him. ¹¹Then Haman described for them his glorious wealth and his many sons. He told them all how the king had honored him and promoted him in rank over the other officials and the royal staff. ¹²“What’s more,” Haman added, “Queen Esther invited no one but me to join the king at the banquet she had prepared. I am invited again tomorrow to join her with the king. ¹³Still, none of this satisfies me since I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the King’s Gate all the time.”

¹⁴His wife Zeresh and all his friends told him, “Have them build a gallows seventy-five feet tall. Ask the king in the morning to hang Mordecai on it. Then go to the banquet with the king and enjoy yourself.” The advice pleased Haman, so he had the gallows constructed.

6 That night sleep escaped the king, so he ordered the book recording daily events to be brought and read to the king. ²They found the written report of how Mordecai had informed on Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s eunuchs who guarded the entrance, when they planned to assassinate King Ahasuerus. ³The king inquired, “What honor and special recognition have been given to Mordecai for this act?”

The king’s personal attendants replied, “Nothing has been done for him.”

⁴The king asked, “Who is in the court?” Now Haman was just entering the outer court of the palace to ask the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows he had prepared for him.

⁵The king’s attendants answered him, “Haman is there, standing in the court.”

“Have him enter,” the king ordered. ⁶Haman entered, and the king asked him, “What should be done for the man the king wants to honor?”

Haman thought to himself, “Who is it the king would want to honor more than me?” ⁷Haman told the king, “For the man the king wants to honor: ⁸Have them bring a royal garment that the king himself has worn and a horse the king himself has ridden, which has a royal crown on its head. ⁹Put the garment and the horse under the charge of one of the king’s most noble officials. Have them clothe the man the king wants to honor, parade him on the horse through the city square, and proclaim before him, “This is what is done for the man the king wants to honor.”

¹⁰The king told Haman, “Hurry, and do just as you proposed. Take a garment and a horse for Mordecai the Jew, who is sitting at the King’s Gate. Do not leave out anything you have suggested.”

¹¹So Haman took the garment and the horse. He clothed Mordecai and paraded him through the city square, crying out before him, “This is what is done for the man the king wants to honor.”

¹²Then Mordecai returned to the King’s Gate, but Haman hurried off for home, mournful and with his head covered. ¹³Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened. His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, “Since Mordecai is Jewish, and you have begun to fall before him, you won’t overcome him, because your downfall is certain.” ¹⁴While they were still speaking with him, the king’s eunuchs arrived and rushed Haman to the banquet Esther had prepared.

7 The king and Haman came to feast with Esther the queen. ²Once again, on the second day while drinking wine, the king asked Esther, “Queen Esther, whatever you ask will be given to you. Whatever you seek, even to half the kingdom, will be done.”

³Queen Esther answered, “If I have found favor in your eyes, Your Majesty, and if the king is pleased, spare my life; this is my request. And spare my people; this is my desire. ⁴For my people and I have been sold to destruction, death, and extermination. If we had merely been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept silent. Indeed, the trouble wouldn’t be worth burdening the king.”

⁵King Ahasuerus spoke up and asked Queen Esther, “Who is this, and where is the one who would devise such a scheme?”

⁶Esther answered, “The adversary and enemy is this evil Haman.”

Haman stood terrified before the king and queen. ⁷The king arose in anger and went from where they were drinking wine to the palace garden. Haman remained to beg Queen Esther for his life because he realized the king was planning something terrible for him. ⁸Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king exclaimed, “Would he actually violate the queen while I am in the house?” As soon as the statement left the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

⁹Harbona, one of the king’s eunuchs, said: “There is a gallows seventy-five feet tall at Haman’s house that he made for Mordecai, who gave the report that saved the king.”

The king said, “Hang him on it.”

¹⁰They hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s anger subsided.

8 That same day King Ahasuerus awarded Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Mordecai entered the king’s presence because Esther had revealed her relationship to Mordecai. ²The king removed his signet ring he had recovered from Haman and gave it to Mordecai, and Esther put him in charge of Haman’s estate.

⁵ She said, "If it pleases the king and I have found favor before him, if the matter seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let a royal edict be written. Let it revoke the documents the scheming Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. ⁶ For how could I bear to see the disaster that would come on my people? How could I bear to see the destruction of my relatives?"

⁹ On the twenty-third day of the third month — that is, the month Sivan — the royal scribes were summoned. Everything was written exactly as Mordecai commanded for the Jews, to the satraps, the governors, and the officials of the 127 provinces from India to Cush. The edict was written for each province in its own script, for each ethnic group in its own language, and to the Jews in their own script and language.

¹⁰ Mordecai wrote in King Ahasuerus's name and sealed the edicts with the royal signet ring. He sent the documents by mounted couriers, who rode fast horses bred in the royal stables.

9 The king's command and law went into effect on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar. On the day when the Jews' enemies had hoped to overpower them, just the opposite happened. The Jews overpowered those who hated them. ² In each of King Ahasuerus's provinces the Jews assembled in their cities to attack those who intended to harm them. Not a single person could withstand them; fear of them fell on every nationality.

³ All the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and the royal civil administrators aided the Jews because they feared Mordecai. ⁴ For Mordecai exercised great power in the palace, and his fame spread throughout the provinces as he became more and more powerful.

⁵ The Jews put all their enemies to the sword, killing and destroying them. They did what they pleased to those who hated them. ⁶ In the fortress of Susa the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men, ⁷ including Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, ⁸ Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, ⁹ Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha. ¹⁰ They killed these ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. However, they did not seize any plunder.

¹¹ On that day the number of people killed in the fortress of Susa was reported to the king. ¹² The king said to Queen Esther, "In the fortress of Susa the Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men, including Haman's ten sons. What have they done in the rest of the royal provinces? Whatever you ask will be given to you. Whatever you seek will also be done."

¹³ Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, may the Jews who are in Susa also have tomorrow to carry out today's law, and may the bodies of Haman's ten sons be hung on the gallows." ¹⁴ The king gave the orders for this to be done, so a law was announced in Susa, and they hung the bodies of Haman's ten sons. ¹⁵ The Jews in Susa assembled again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men in Susa, but they did not seize any plunder.

¹⁸ But the Jews in Susa had assembled on the thirteenth and the fourteenth days of the month. They rested on the fifteenth day of the month, and it became a day of feasting and rejoicing. ¹⁹ This explains why the rural Jews who live in villages observe the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a time of rejoicing and feasting. It is a holiday when they send gifts to one another.

²⁰ Mordecai recorded these events and sent letters to all the Jews in all of King Ahasuerus's provinces, both near and far. ²¹ He ordered them to celebrate the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar every year ²² because during those days the Jews gained relief from their enemies. That was the month when their sorrow was turned into rejoicing and their mourning into a holiday. They were to be days of feasting, rejoicing, and of sending gifts to one another and to the poor.

²³ So the Jews agreed to continue the practice they had begun, as Mordecai had written them to do. ²⁴ For Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them. He cast the Pur — that is, the lot — to crush and destroy them. ²⁵ But when the matter was brought before the king, he commanded by letter that the evil pian Haman had devised against the Jews return on his own head and that he should be hanged with his sons on the gallows. ²⁶ For this reason these days are called Purim, from the word Pur. Because of all the instructions in this letter as well as what they had witnessed and what had happened to them, ²⁷ the Jews bound themselves, their descendants, and all who joined with them to a commitment that they would not fail to celebrate these two days each and every year according to the written instructions and according to the time appointed. ²⁸ These days are remembered and celebrated by every generation, family, province, and city, so that these days of Purim will not lose their significance in Jewish life and their memory will not fade from their descendants.

10 King Anasuerus imposed a tax throughout the land even to the farthest shores. ² All of his powerful and magnificent accomplishments and the detailed account of Mordecai's great rank with which the king had honored him, have they not been written in the Book of the Historical Events of the Kings of Media and Persia? ³ Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Anasuerus. He was famous among the Jews and highly esteemed by many of his relatives. He continued to pursue prosperity for his people and to speak for the well-being of all his descendants.

JOB

1 There was a man in the country of Uz named Job. He was a man of complete integrity, who feared God and turned away from evil. ² He had seven sons and three daughters. ³ His estate included seven thousand sheep and goats, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very large number of servants. Job was the greatest man among all the people of the east.

⁴ His sons used to take turns having banquets at their homes. They would send an invitation to their three sisters to eat and drink with them. ⁵ Whenever a round of banqueting was over, Job would send for his children and purify them, rising early in the morning to offer burnt offerings for all of them. For Job thought, "Perhaps my children have sinned, having cursed God in their hearts." This was Job's regular practice.

⁶ One day the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them. ⁷ The LORD asked Satan, "Where have you come from?"

"From roaming through the earth," Satan answered him, "and walking around on it."

⁸ Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? No one else on earth is like him, a man of perfect integrity, who fears God and turns away from evil."

⁹ Satan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nothing? ¹⁰ Haven't you placed a hedge around him, his household, and everything he owns? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. ¹¹ But stretch out your hand and strike everything he owns, and he will surely curse you to your face."

¹² "Very well," the LORD told Satan, "everything he owns is in your power. However, do not lay a hand on Job himself." So Satan left the LORD's presence.

¹³ One day when Job's sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house, ¹⁴ a messenger came to Job and reported: "While the oxen were plowing and the donkeys grazing nearby, ¹⁵ the Sabeans swooped down and took them away. They struck down the servants with the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

¹⁶ He was still speaking when another messenger came and reported: "God's fire fell from heaven. It burned the sheep and the servants and devoured them, and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

¹⁷ That messenger was still speaking when yet another came and reported: "The Chaldeans formed three bands, made a raid on the camels, and took them away. They struck down the servants with the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

¹⁸ He was still speaking when another messenger came and reported: "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house. ¹⁹ Suddenly a powerful wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on the young people so that they died, and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

²⁰ Then Job stood up, tore his robe, and shaved his head. He fell to the ground and worshiped, ²¹ saying:

Naked I came from my mother's womb,
and naked I will leave this life.
The LORD gives, and the LORD takes away.
Blessed be the name of the LORD.

²² Throughout all this Job did not sin or blame God for anything.

2 One day the sons of God came again to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them to present himself before the LORD. ² The LORD asked Satan, "Where have you come from?"

"From roaming through the earth," Satan answered him, "and walking around on it."

³ Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? No one else on earth is like him, a man of perfect integrity, who fears God and turns away from evil. He still retains his integrity, even though you incited me against him, to destroy him for no good reason."

⁶ "Very well," the LORD told Satan, "he is in your power; only spare his life." ⁷ So Satan left the LORD's presence and infected Job with terrible boils from the soles of his feet to the top of his head. ⁸ Then Job took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself while he sat among the ashes.

⁹ His wife said to him, "Are you still holding on to your integrity? Curse God and die!"

¹⁰ "You speak as a foolish woman speaks," he told her. "Should we accept only good from God and not adversity?" Throughout all this Job did not sin in what he said.

¹¹ Now when Job's three friends — Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite — heard about all this adversity that had happened to him, each of them came from his home. They met together to go and sympathize with him and comfort him. ¹² When they looked from a distance, they could barely recognize him. They wept aloud, and each man tore his robe and threw dust into the air and on his head. ¹³ Then they sat on the ground with him seven days and nights, but no one spoke a word to him because they saw that his suffering was very intense.

3 After this, Job began to speak and cursed the day he was born. ² He said:

³ May the day I was born perish, and the night that said,
"A boy is conceived."

⁴ If only that day had turned to darkness!
May God above not care about it,
or light shine on it.

⁵ May darkness and gloom reclaim it,
and a cloud settle over it.
May what darkens the day terrify it.

⁶ If only darkness had taken that night away!
May it not appear among the days of the year or be listed in the calendar.

⁷ Yes, may that night be barren;
may no joyful shout be heard in it.

⁸ Let those who curse days condemn it,
those who are ready to rouse Leviathan.

⁹ May its morning stars grow dark.
May it wait for daylight but have none;
may it not see the breaking of dawn.

10 For that night did not shut
the doors of my mother's womb,
and hide sorrow from my eyes.
11 Why was I not stillborn;
why didn't I die as I came from the womb?
12 Why did the knees receive me,
and why were there breasts for me to nurse?
13 Now I would certainly be lying down in peace;
I would be asleep.
Then I would be at rest
14 with the kings and counselors of the earth, who rebuilt ruined cities for themselves, 15 or with princes who had gold,
who filled their houses with silver.
16 Or why was I not hidden like a miscarried child, like infants who never see daylight?
17 There the wicked cease to make trouble,
and there the weary find rest.
18 The captives are completely at rest;
they do not hear a taskmaster's voice.
19 Both small and great are there,
and the slave is set free from his master.
20 Why is light given to one burdened with grief,
and life to those whose existence is bitter, 21 who wait for death, but it does not come,
and search for it more than for hidden treasure, 22 who are filled with much joy and are glad when they reach the grave?
23 Why is life given to a man whose path is hidden,
whom God has hedged in?
24 I sigh when food is put before me,
and my groans pour out like water.
25 For the thing I feared has overtaken me,
and what I dreaded has happened to me.
26 I cannot relax or be calm;
I have no rest, for turmoil has come.

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:
2 Should anyone try to speak with you when you are exhausted?
Yet who can keep from speaking?
3 Indeed, you have instructed many and have strengthened weak hands.
4 Your words have steadied the one who was stumbling
and braced the knees that were buckling.
5 But now that this has happened to you,
you have become exhausted.
It strikes you, and you are dismayed.
6 Isn't your piety your confidence,
and the integrity of your life your hope?
7 Consider: Who has perished when he was innocent?
Where have the honest been destroyed?
8 In my experience, those who plow injustice and those who sow trouble reap the same.
9 They perish at a single blast from God and come to an end by the breath of his nostrils.
10 The lion may roar and the fierce lion growl,
but the teeth of young lions are broken.
11 The strong lion dies if it catches no prey,
and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.
12 A word was brought to me in secret;
my ears caught a whisper of it.
13 Among unsettling thoughts from visions
in the night,

when deep sleep comes over men, 14 fear and trembling came over me
and made all my bones shake.
15 I felt a draft on my face,
and the hair on my body stood up.
16 A figure stood there,
but I could not recognize its appearance;
a form loomed before my eyes.
I heard a whispering voice:
17 "Can a mortal be righteous before God?
Can a man be more pure than his Maker?"
18 If God puts no trust in his servants and he charges his angels with foolishness, 19 how much more those who dwell in clay houses,
whose foundation is in the dust,
who are crushed like a moth!
20 They are smashed to pieces from dawn to dusk;
they perish forever while no one notices.
21 Are their tent cords not pulled up?
They die without wisdom.
Call out! Will anyone answer you?
Which of the holy ones will you turn to?
2 For anger kills a fool,
and jealousy slays the gullible.
3 I have seen a fool taking root,
but I immediately pronounced a curse
on his home.
4 His children are far from safety.
They are crushed at the city gate,
with no one to rescue them.
5 The hungry consume his harvest,
even taking it out of the thorns.
The thirsty pant for his children's wealth.
6 For distress does not grow out of the soil,
and trouble does not sprout from the ground.
7 But humans are born for trouble
as surely as sparks fly upward.
8 However, if I were you, I would appeal to God and would present my case to him.
9 He does great and unsearchable things,
wonders without number.
10 He gives rain to the earth and sends water to the fields.
11 He sets the lowly on high,
and mourners are lifted to safety.
12 He frustrates the schemes of the crafty
so that they achieve no success.
13 He traps the wise in their craftiness
so that the plans of the deceptives are quickly brought to an end.
14 They encounter darkness by day,
and they grope at noon
as if it were night.
15 He saves the needy from their sharp words and from the clutches of the powerful.
16 So the poor have hope,
and injustice shuts its mouth.
17 See how happy is the person whom God corrects;
so do not reject the discipline of the Almighty.
18 For he wounds but he also bandages;
he strikes, but his hands also heal.
19 He will rescue you from six calamities;
no harm will touch you in seven.
20 In famine he will redeem you from death,
and in battle, from the power of the sword.

- 21 You will be safe from slander and not fear destruction when it comes.
- 22 You will laugh at destruction and hunger and not fear the land's wild creatures.
- 23 For you will have a covenant with the stones
of the field,
and the wild animals will be at peace with you.
- 24 You will know that your tent is secure,
and nothing will be missing when you inspect your home.
- 25 You will also know that your offspring will be many and your descendants like the grass of the earth.
- 26 You will approach the grave in full vigor,
as a stack of sheaves is gathered in its season.
- 27 We have investigated this, and it is true!
Hear it and understand it for yourself.

6 Then Job answered:

- 2 If only my grief could be weighed and my devastation placed with it on the scales.
- 3 For then it would outweigh the sand of the seas!
That is why my words are rash.
- 4 Surely the arrows of the Almighty have pierced me;
my spirit drinks their poison.
God's terrors are arrayed against me.
- 5 Does a wild donkey bray over fresh grass or an ox low over its fodder?
- 6 Is bland food eaten without salt?
Is there flavor in an egg white?
- 7 I refuse to touch them;
they are like contaminated food.
- 8 If only my request would be granted and God would provide what I hope for:
that he would decide to crush me,
to unleash his power and cut me off!
- 10 It would still bring me comfort, and I would leap for joy in unrelenting pain that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
- 11 What strength do I have, that I should continue to hope?
What is my future, that I should be patient?
Is my strength that of stone,
or my flesh made of bronze?
- 13 Since I cannot help myself,
the hope for success has been banished from me.
- 14 A despairing man should receive loyalty
from his friends,
even if he abandons the fear of the Almighty.
My brothers are as treacherous as a wadi,
as seasonal streams that overflow and become darkened because of ice,
and the snow melts into them.
- 17 The wadis evaporate in warm weather;
they disappear from their channels
in hot weather.
- 18 Caravans turn away from their routes,
go up into the desert, and perish.
- 19 The caravans of Tema look for these streams.
The traveling merchants of Sheba hope for them.
- 20 They are ashamed because they had been confident of finding water.
When they arrive there, they are disappointed.
- 21 So this is what you have now become to me.
When you see something dreadful, you are afraid.
- 22 Have I ever said: "Give me something"

- or "Pay a bribe for me from your wealth"
or "Deliver me from the enemy's hand"
or "Redeem me from the hand of the ruthless"?
- 24 Teach me, and I will be silent.
Help me understand what I did wrong.
- 25 How painful honest words can be!
But what does your rebuke prove?
- 26 Do you think that you can disprove my words or that a despairing man's words are mere wind?
- 27 No doubt you would cast lots for a fatherless child and negotiate a price to sell your friend.
- 28 But now, please look at me;
I will not lie to your face.
- 29 Reconsider; don't be unjust.
Reconsider; my righteousness is still the issue.
- 30 Is there injustice on my tongue or can my palate not taste disaster?
Isn't each person consigned to forced labor on earth?
- Are not his days like those of a hired worker?
2 Like a slave he longs for shade;
like a hired worker he waits for his pay.
- 3 So I have been made to inherit months of futility, and troubled nights have been assigned to me.
- 4 When I lie down I think,
"When will I get up?"
But the evening drags on endlessly, and I toss and turn until dawn.
- 5 My flesh is clothed with maggots and encrusted with dirt.
My skin forms scabs and then oozes.
- 6 My days pass more swiftly
than a weaver's shuttle;
they come to an end without hope.
- 7 Remember that my life is but a breath.
My eye will never again see anything good.
- 8 The eye of anyone who looks on me
will no longer see me.
Your eyes will look for me, but I will be gone.
- 9 As a cloud fades away and vanishes, so the one who goes down to Sheol will never rise again.
- 10 He will never return to his house;
his hometown will no longer remember him.
- 11 Therefore I will not restrain my mouth.
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
- 12 Am I the sea or a sea monster,
that you keep me under guard?
- 13 When I say, "My bed will comfort me,
and my couch will ease my complaint," then you frighten me with dreams,
and terrify me with visions,
so that I prefer strangling —
death rather than life in this body.
- 16 I give up! I will not live forever.
Leave me alone, for my days are a breath.
- 17 What is a mere human, that you think so highly
of him
and pay so much attention to him?
- 18 You inspect him every morning,
and put him to the test every moment.
- 19 Will you ever look away from me,
or leave me alone long enough to swallow?
- 20 If I have sinned, what have I done to you,

Watcher of humanity?
 Why have you made me your target,
 so that I have become a burden to you?
 21 Why not forgive my sin
 and pardon my iniquity?
 For soon I will lie down in the grave.
 You will eagerly seek me, but I will be gone.

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:
 2 How long will you go on saying these things?
 Your words are a blast of wind.
 3 Does God pervert justice?
 Does the Almighty pervert what is right?
 4 Since your children sinned against him,
 he gave them over to their rebellion.
 5 But if you earnestly seek God and ask the Almighty for mercy, 6 if you are pure and upright,
 then he will move even now on your behalf and restore the home where your righteousness dwells.
 7 Then, even if your beginnings were modest,
 your final days will be full of prosperity.
 8 For ask the previous generation, and pay attention to what their fathers discovered, 9 since we were born only yesterday and know nothing.
 Our days on earth are but a shadow.
 10 Will they not teach you and tell you and speak from their understanding?
 11 Does papyrus grow where there is no marsh?
 Do reeds flourish without water?
 12 While still uncut shoots,
 they would dry up quicker than any other plant.
 13 Such is the destiny of all who forget God;
 the hope of the godless will perish.
 14 His source of confidence is fragile;
 what he trusts in is a spider's web.
 15 He leans on his web, but it doesn't stand firm.
 He grabs it, but it does not hold up.
 16 He is a well-watered plant in the sunshine;
 his shoots spread out over his garden.
 17 His roots are intertwined around a pile of rocks.
 He looks for a home among the stones.
 18 If he is uprooted from his place,
 it will deny knowing him, saying,
 "I never saw you."
 19 Surely this is the joy of his way of life;
 yet others will sprout from the dust.
 20 Look, God does not reject a person of integrity, and he will not support evildoers.
 21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with a shout of joy.
 22 Your enemies will be clothed with shame;
 the tent of the wicked will no longer exist.

9 Then Job answered:
 2 Yes, I know what you've said is true,
 but how can a person be justified before God?
 3 If one wanted to take him to court,
 he could not answer God once in a thousand times.
 4 God is wise and all-powerful.
 Who has opposed him and come out unharmed?
 5 He removes mountains without their knowledge, overturning them in his anger.

6 He shakes the earth from its place
 so that its pillars tremble.
 7 He commands the sun not to shine and seals off the stars.
 8 He alone stretches out the heavens and treads on the waves of the sea.
 9 He makes the stars: the Bear, Orion, the Pleiades, and the constellations of the southern sky.
 10 He does great and unsearchable things,
 wonders without number.
 11 If he passed by me, I wouldn't see him;
 if he went by, I wouldn't recognize him.
 12 If he snatches something, who can stop him?
 Who can ask him, "What are you doing?"
 13 God does not hold back his anger;
 Rahab's assistants cringe in fear beneath him!
 14 How then can I answer him or choose my arguments against him?
 15 Even if I were in the right, I could not answer.
 I could only beg my Judge for mercy.
 16 If I summoned him and he answered me,
 I do not believe he would pay attention to what I said.
 17 He batters me with a whirlwind and multiplies my wounds without cause.
 18 He doesn't let me catch my breath
 but fills me with bitter experiences.
 19 If it is a matter of strength, look, he is the powerful one!
 If it is a matter of justice, who can summon him?
 20 Even if I were in the right, my own mouth would condemn me;
 if I were blameless, my mouth would declare me guilty.
 21 Though I am blameless,
 I no longer care about myself;
 I renounce my life.
 22 It is all the same. Therefore I say,
 "He destroys both the blameless and the wicked."
 23 When catastrophe brings sudden death,
 he mocks the despair of the innocent.
 24 The earth is handed over to the wicked;
 he blindfolds its judges.
 If it isn't he, then who is it?
 25 My days fly by faster than a runner;
 they flee without seeing any good.
 26 They sweep by like boats made of papyrus,
 like an eagle swooping down on its prey.
 27 If I said, "I will forget my complaint, change my expression, and smile," 28 I would still live in terror of all my pains.
 I know you will not acquit me.
 29 Since I will be found guilty,
 why should I struggle in vain?
 30 If I wash myself with snow,
 and cleanse my hands with lye, 31 then you dip me in a pit of mud,
 and my own clothes despise me!
 32 For he is not a man like me, that I can answer him,
 that we can take each other to court.
 33 There is no mediator between us,
 to lay his hand on both of us.
 34 Let him take his rod away from me
 so his terror will no longer frighten me.

35 Then I would speak and not fear him.
But that is not the case; I am on my own.
10 I am disgusted with my life.
I will give vent to my complaint and speak in the bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say to God,
"Do not declare me guilty!
Let me know why you prosecute me.
3 Is it good for you to oppress, to reject the work of your hands,
and favor the plans of the wicked?
4 Do you have eyes of flesh,
or do you see as a human sees?
5 Are your days like those of a human,
or your years like those of a man,
6 that you look for my iniquity and search for my sin,
7 even though you know that I am not wicked and that there is no one who can rescue from your power?
8 "Your hands shaped me and formed me.
Will you now turn and destroy me?
9 Please remember that you formed me like clay.
Will you now return me to dust?
10 Did you not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese?
11 You clothed me with skin and flesh,
and wove me together with bones and tendons.
12 You gave me life and faithful love,
and your care has guarded my life.
13 "Yet you concealed these thoughts in your heart;
I know that this was your hidden plan:
14 if I sin, you would notice,
and would not acquit me of my iniquity.
15 If I am wicked, woe to me!
And even if I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head.
I am filled with shame
and have drunk deeply of my affliction.
16 If I am proud, you hunt me like a lion and again display your miraculous power against me.
17 You produce new witnesses against me
and multiply your anger toward me.
Hardships assault me, wave after wave.
18 "Why did you bring me out of the womb?
I should have died and never been seen.
19 I wish I had never existed
but had been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 Are my days not few? Stop it!
Leave me alone, so that I can smile a little before I go to a land of darkness and gloom, never to return.
22 It is a land of blackness like the deepest darkness, gloomy and chaotic,
where even the light is like the darkness."
11 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:
2 Should this abundance of words go unanswered and such a talker be acquitted?
3 Should your babbling put others to silence,
so that you can keep on ridiculing with no one to humiliate you?
4 You have said, "My teaching is sound, and I am pure in your sight."
5 But if only God would speak and open his lips against you!

6 He would show you the secrets of wisdom,
for true wisdom has two sides.
Know then that God has chosen to overlook
some of your iniquity.
7 Can you fathom the depths of God or discover the limits of the Almighty?
8 They are higher than the heavens — what can you do?
They are deeper than Sheol — what can you know?
9 Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.
10 If he passes by and throws someone in prison or convenes a court, who can stop him?
11 Surely he knows which people are worthless.
If he sees iniquity, will he not take note of it?
12 But a stupid person will gain understanding as soon as a wild donkey is born a human!
13 As for you, if you redirect your heart and spread out your hands to him in prayer — 14 if there is iniquity in your hand, remove it, and don't allow injustice to dwell in your tents —
15 then you will hold your head high, free from fault.
You will be firmly established and unafraid.
16 For you will forget your suffering, recalling it only as water that has flowed by.
17 Your life will be brighter than noonday;
its darkness will be like the morning.
18 You will be confident, because there is hope.
You will look carefully about and lie down
in safety.
19 You will lie down with no one to frighten you,
and many will seek your favor.
20 But the sight of the wicked will fail.
Their way of escape will be cut off,
and their only hope is their last breath.

12 Then Job answered:
2 No doubt you are the people,
and wisdom will die with you!
3 But I also have a mind like you;
I am not inferior to you.
Who doesn't know the things you are talking about?
4 I am a laughingstock to my friends,
by calling on God, who answers me.
The righteous and upright man is a laughingstock.
5 The one who is at ease holds calamity in contempt and thinks it is prepared for those whose feet are slipping.
6 The tents of robbers are safe,
and those who trouble God are secure;
God holds them in his hands.
7 But ask the animals, and they will instruct you;
ask the birds of the sky, and they will tell you.
8 Or speak to the earth, and it will instruct you;
let the fish of the sea inform you.
9 Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?
10 The life of every living thing is in his hand,
as well as the breath of all mankind.
11 Doesn't the ear test words
as the palate tastes food?
12 Wisdom is found with the elderly, and understanding comes with long life.

13 Wisdom and strength belong to God; counsel and understanding are his.

14 Whatever he tears down cannot be rebuilt; whoever he imprisons cannot be released.

15 When he withholds water, everything dries up, and when he releases it, it destroys the land.

16 True wisdom and power belong to him. The deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leads counselors away barefoot and makes judges go mad.

18 He releases the bonds put on by kings and fastens a belt around their waists.

19 He leads priests away barefoot and overthrows established leaders.

20 He deprives trusted advisers of speech and takes away the elders' good judgment.

21 He pours out contempt on nobles and disarms the strong.

22 He reveals mysteries from the darkness and brings the deepest darkness into the light.

23 He makes nations great, then destroys them; he enlarges nations, then leads them away.

24 He deprives the world's leaders of reason, and makes them wander in a trackless wasteland.

25 They grope around in darkness without light; he makes them stagger like a drunkard.

13 Look, my eyes have seen all this; my ears have heard and understood it.

2 Everything you know, I also know; I am not inferior to you.

3 Yet I prefer to speak to the Almighty and argue my case before God.

4 You use lies like plaster; you are all worthless healers.

5 If only you would shut up and let that be your wisdom!

6 Hear now my argument, and listen to my defense.

7 Would you testify unjustly on God's behalf or speak deceitfully for him?

8 Would you show partiality to him or argue the case in his defense?

9 Would it go well if he examined you? Could you deceive him as you would deceive a man?

10 Surely he would rebuke you if you secretly showed partiality.

11 Would God's majesty not terrify you? Would his dread not fall on you?

12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ash; your defenses are made of clay.

13 Be quiet, and I will speak. Let whatever comes happen to me.

14 I will put myself at risk and take my life in my own hands.

15 Even if he kills me, I will hope in him. I will still defend my ways before him.

16 Yes, this will result in my deliverance, for no godless person can appear before him.

17 Pay close attention to my words; let my declaration ring in your ears.

18 Now then, I have prepared my case; I know that I am right.

19 Can anyone indict me? If so, I will be silent and die.

20 Only grant these two things to me, God, so that I will not have to hide from your presence: remove your hand from me, and do not let your terror frighten me.

21 Then call, and I will answer, or I will speak, and you can respond to me.

22 How many iniquities and sins have I committed? Reveal to me my transgression and sin.

23 Why do you hide your face and consider me your enemy?

24 Will you frighten a wind-driven leaf? Will you chase after dry straw?

25 For you record bitter accusations against me and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.

26 You put my feet in the stocks and stand watch over all my paths, setting a limit for the soles of my feet.

27 A person wears out like something rotten, like a moth-eaten garment.

14 Anyone born of woman is short of days and full of trouble.

2 He blossoms like a flower, then withers; he flees like a shadow and does not last.

3 Do you really take notice of one like this? Will you bring me into judgment against you?

4 Who can produce something pure from what is impure? No one!

5 Since a person's days are determined and the number of his months depends on you, and since you have set limits he cannot pass, look away from him and let him rest so that he can enjoy his day like a hired worker.

6 There is hope for a tree: If it is cut down, it will sprout again, and its shoots will not die.

7 If its roots grow old in the ground and its stump starts to die in the soil, the scent of water makes it thrive and produce twigs like a sapling.

8 But a person dies and fades away; he breathes his last—where is he?

9 As water disappears from a lake and a river becomes parched and dry, so people lie down never to rise again. They will not wake up until the heavens are no more; they will not stir from their sleep.

10 If only you would hide me in Sheol and conceal me until your anger passes. If only you would appoint a time for me and then remember me.

11 When a person dies, will he come back to life? If so, I would wait all the days of my struggle until my relief comes.

12 You would call, and I would answer you. You would long for the work of your hands. For then you would count my steps but would not take note of my sin.

13 My rebellion would be sealed up in a bag, and you would cover over my iniquity.

14 But as a mountain collapses and crumbles and a rock is dislodged from its place, as water wears away stones and torrents wash away the soil from the land, so you destroy a man's hope.

- 20 You completely overpower him, and he passes on;
you change his appearance and send him away.
21 If his sons receive honor, he does not know it;
if they become insignificant, he is unaware of it.
22 He feels only the pain of his own body and mourns only for himself.

15

Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

- 2 Does a wise man answer with empty counsel or fill himself with the hot east wind?
3 Should he argue with useless talk or with words that serve no good purpose?
4 But you even undermine the fear of God
and hinder meditation before him.
5 Your iniquity teaches you what to say,
and you choose the language of the crafty.
6 Your own mouth condemns you, not I;
your own lips testify against you.
7 Were you the first human ever born,
or were you brought forth before the hills?
8 Do you listen in on the council of God,
or have a monopoly on wisdom?
9 What do you know that we don't?
What do you understand that is not clear to us?
10 Both the gray-haired and the elderly are with us—
older than your father.
11 Are God's consolations not enough for you,
even the words that deal gently with you?
12 Why has your heart misled you,
and why do your eyes flash
as you turn your anger against God and allow such words to leave your mouth?
14 What is a mere human, that he should be pure, or one born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
15 If God puts no trust in his holy ones and the heavens are not pure in his sight,
how much less one who is revolting and corrupt,
who drinks injustice like water?
17 Listen to me and I will inform you.
I will describe what I have seen,
18 what the wise have declared and not concealed,
that came from their ancestors, 19 to whom alone the land was given when no foreigner passed among them.
20 A wicked person writhes in pain all his days, throughout the number of years reserved for the ruthless.
21 Dreadful sounds fill his ears;
when he is at peace, a robber attacks him.
22 He doesn't believe he will return from darkness;
he is destined for the sword.
23 He wanders about for food, asking, "Where is it?"
He knows the day of darkness is at hand.
24 Trouble and distress terrify him, overwhelming him like a king prepared for battle.
25 For he has stretched out his hand against God and has arrogantly opposed the Almighty.
26 He rushes headlong at him with his thick, studded shields.
27 Though his face is covered with fat and his waistline bulges with it, 28 he will dwell in ruined cities, in abandoned houses destined to become piles of rubble.

- 29 He will no longer be rich; his wealth
will not endure.
His possessions will not increase in the land.
30 He will not escape from the darkness;
flames will wither his shoots,
and by the breath of God's mouth, he will depart.
31 Let him not put trust in worthless things, being led astray,
for what he gets in exchange will prove worthless.
32 It will be accomplished before his time,
and his branch will not flourish.
33 He will be like a vine that drops its unripe grapes and like an olive tree that sheds its blossoms.
34 For the company of the goddess will have
no children,
and fire will consume the tents of those who offer bribes.
35 They conceive trouble and give birth to evil;
their womb prepares deception.

16

Then Job answered:

- 1 I have heard many things like these.
You are all miserable comforters.
3 Is there no end to your empty words?
What provokes you that you continue testifying?
4 If you were in my place I could also talk like you.
I could string words together against you
and shake my head at you.
5 Instead, I would encourage you with my mouth, and the consolation from my lips
would bring relief.
6 If I speak, my suffering is not relieved, and if I hold back, does any of it leave me?
7 Surely he has now exhausted me.
You have devastated my entire family.
8 You have shriveled me up—it has become a witness;
my frailty rises up against me and testifies to my face.
9 His anger tears at me, and he harasses me.
He gnashes his teeth at me.
My enemy pierces me with his eyes.
10 They open their mouths against me
and strike my cheeks with contempt;
they join themselves together against me.
11 God hands me over to the unjust;
he throws me to the wicked.
12 I was at ease, but he shattered me;
he seized me by the scruff of the neck
and smashed me to pieces.
He set me up as his target;
13 his archers surround me.
He pierces my kidneys without mercy and pours my bile on the ground.
14 He breaks through my defenses again and again;
he charges at me like a warrior.
15 I have sewn sackcloth over my skin;
I have buried my strength in the dust.
16 My face has grown red with weeping,
and darkness covers my eyes, 17 although my hands are free from violence and my prayer is pure.
18 Earth, do not cover my blood;
may my cry for help find no resting place.

19 Even now my witness is in heaven,
and my advocate is in the heights!

20 My friends scoff at me
as I weep before God.

21 I wish that someone might argue for a man with God
just as anyone would for a friend.

22 For only a few years will pass before I go the way of no return.

17 My spirit is broken.
My days are extinguished.
A graveyard awaits me.

2 Surely mockers surround me,
and my eyes must gaze at their rebellion.

3 Accept my pledge! Put up security for me.
Who else will be my sponsor?

4 You have closed their minds to understanding,
therefore you will not honor them.

5 If a man denounces his friends for a price,
the eyes of his children will fail.

6 He has made me an object of scorn to the people;
I have become a man people spit at.

7 My eyes have grown dim from grief,
and my whole body has become but a shadow.

8 The upright are appalled at this,
and the innocent are roused against the godless.

9 Yet the righteous person will hold to his way, and the one whose hands are clean will grow stronger.

10 But come back and try again, all of you.
I will not find a wise man among you.

11 My days have slipped by;
my plans have been ruined,
even the things dear to my heart.

12 They turned night into day and made light seem near in the face of darkness.

13 If I await Sheol as my home, spread out my bed in darkness,
14 and say to corruption, "You are my father,"
and to the maggot, "My mother" or "My sister," 15 where then is my hope?
Who can see any hope for me?

16 Will it go down to the gates of Sheol, or will we descend together to the dust?

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:
2 How long until you stop talking?
Show some sense, and then we can talk.

3 Why are we regarded as cattle,
as stupid in your sight?

4 You who tear yourself in anger—should the earth be abandoned on your account, or a rock be removed from its place?

5 Yes, the light of the wicked is extinguished;
the flame of his fire does not glow.

6 The light in his tent grows dark,
and the lamp beside him is put out.

7 His powerful stride is shortened,
and his own schemes trip him up.

8 For his own feet lead him into a net,
and he strays into its mesh.

9 A trap catches him by the heel;
a noose seizes him.

10 A rope lies hidden for him on the ground,
and a snare waits for him along the path.

11 Terrors frighten him on every side and harass him at every step.

12 His strength is depleted;
disaster lies ready for him to stumble.

13 Parts of his skin are eaten away;
death's firstborn consumes his limbs.

14 He is ripped from the security of his tent and marched away to the king of terrors.

15 Nothing he owned remains in his tent.
Burning sulfur is scattered over his home.

16 His roots below dry up,
and his branches above wither away.

17 All memory of him perishes from the earth;
he has no name anywhere.

18 He is driven from light to darkness and chased from the inhabited world.

19 He has no children or descendants
among his people,
no survivor where he used to live.

20 Those in the west are appalled at his fate,
while those in the east tremble in horror.

21 Indeed, such is the dwelling of the unjust man, and this is the place of the one who does not know God.

19 Then Job answered:
2 How long will you torment me
and crush me with words?

3 You have humiliated me ten times now,
and you mistreat me without shame.

4 Even if it is true that I have sinned,
my mistake concerns only me.

5 If you really want to appear superior to me and would use my disgrace as evidence against me,

6 then understand that it is God who has wronged me
and caught me in his net.

7 I cry out: "Violence!" but get no response;
I call for help, but there is no justice.

8 He has blocked my way so that I cannot pass through;
he has veiled my paths with darkness.

9 He has stripped me of my honor and removed the crown from my head.

10 He tears me down on every side so that I am ruined.
He uproots my hope like a tree.

11 His anger burns against me,
and he regards me as one of his enemies.

12 His troops advance together;
they construct a ramp against me
and camp around my tent.

13 He has removed my brothers from me;
my acquaintances have abandoned me.

14 My relatives stop coming by,
and my close friends have forgotten me.

15 My house guests and female servants regard me
as a stranger;
I am a foreigner in their sight.

16 I call for my servant, but he does not answer,
even if I beg him with my own mouth.

17 My breath is offensive to my wife,
and my own family finds me repulsive.

18 Even young boys scorn me.
When I stand up, they mock me.

19 All of my best friends despise me,

and those I love have turned against me.
 20 My skin and my flesh cling to my bones;
 I have escaped with only the skin of my teeth.
 21 Have mercy on me, my friends, have mercy,
 for God's hand has struck me.
 22 Why do you persecute me as God does?
 Will you never get enough of my flesh?
 23 I wish that my words were written down,
 that they were recorded on a scroll 24 or were inscribed in stone forever
 by an iron stylus and lead!
 25 But I know that my Redeemer lives,
 and at the end he will stand on the dust.
 26 Even after my skin has been destroyed,
 yet I will see God in my flesh.
 27 I will see him myself;
 my eyes will look at him, and not as a stranger.
 My heart longs within me.
 28 If you say, "How will we pursue him, since the root of the problem lies with him?"
 29 then be afraid of the sword, because wrath brings punishment by the sword,
 so that you may know there is a judgment.
20 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:
 2 This is why my unsettling thoughts compel me
 to answer,
 because I am upset!
 3 I have heard a rebuke that insults me,
 and my understanding makes me reply.
 4 Don't you know that ever since antiquity,
 from the time a human was placed on earth,
 5 the joy of the wicked has been brief and the happiness of the godless has lasted only a moment?
 6 Though his arrogance reaches heaven,
 and his head touches the clouds,
 7 he will vanish forever like his own dung.
 Those who know him will ask, "Where is he?"
 8 He will fly away like a dream and never be found;
 he will be chased away like a vision in the night.
 9 The eye that saw him will see him no more,
 and his household will no longer see him.
 10 His children will beg from the poor,
 for his own hands must give back his wealth.
 11 His frame may be full of youthful vigor,
 but it will lie down with him in dust.
 12 Though evil tastes sweet in his mouth and he conceals it under his tongue, 13 though he cherishes it and will not let it go but keeps it in his mouth, 14 yet the food in his stomach turns into cobras' venom inside him.
 15 He swallows wealth but must vomit it up;
 God will force it under his stomach.
 16 He will suck the poison of cobras;
 a viper's fangs will kill him.
 17 He will not enjoy the streams,
 the rivers flowing with honey and curds.
 18 He must return the fruit of his labor without consuming it;
 he doesn't enjoy the profits from his trading.
 19 For he oppressed and abandoned the poor;
 he seized a house he did not build.
 20 Because his appetite is never satisfied,

he does not let anything he desires escape.
 21 Nothing is left for him to consume;
 therefore, his prosperity will not last.
 22 At the height of his success distress will come to him;
 the full weight of misery will crush him.
 23 When he fills his stomach,
 God will send his burning anger against him,
 raining it down on him while he is eating.
 24 If he flees from an iron weapon,
 an arrow from a bronze bow will pierce him.
 25 He pulls it out of his back,
 the flashing tip out of his liver.
 Terrors come over him.
 26 Total darkness is reserved for his treasures.
 A fire unfanned by human hands
 will consume him;
 it will feed on what is left in his tent.
 27 The heavens will expose his iniquity,
 and the earth will rise up against him.
 28 The possessions in his house will be removed,
 flowing away on the day of God's anger.
 29 This is the wicked person's lot from God,
 the inheritance God ordained for him.
21 Then Job answered:
 2 Pay close attention to my words;
 let this be the consolation you offer.
 3 Bear with me while I speak;
 then after I have spoken, you may continue mocking.
 4 As for me, is my complaint against a human being?
 Then why shouldn't I be impatient?
 5 Look at me and shudder;
 put your hand over your mouth.
 6 When I think about it, I am terrified and my body trembles in horror.
 7 Why do the wicked continue to live, growing old and becoming powerful?
 8 Their children are established while they are still alive,
 and their descendants, before their eyes.
 9 Their homes are secure and free of fear;
 no rod from God strikes them.
 10 Their bulls breed without fail;
 their cows calve and do not miscarry.
 11 They let their little ones run around like lambs;
 their children skip about,
 12 singing to the tambourine and lyre and rejoicing at the sound of the flute.
 13 They spend their days in prosperity and go down to Sheol in peace.
 14 Yet they say to God, "Leave us alone!
 We don't want to know your ways.
 15 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him,
 and what will we gain by pleading with him?"
 16 But their prosperity is not of their own doing.
 The counsel of the wicked is far from me!
 17 How often is the lamp of the wicked put out?
 Does disaster come on them?
 Does he apportion destruction in his anger?
 18 Are they like straw before the wind,
 like chaff a storm sweeps away?
 19 God reserves a person's punishment for his children.

Let God repay the person himself, so that he may know it.

20 Let his own eyes see his demise; let him drink from the Almighty's wrath!

21 For what does he care about his family once he is dead, when the number of his months has run out?

22 Can anyone teach God knowledge, since he judges the exalted ones?

23 One person dies in excellent health, completely secure and at ease.

24 His body is well fed, and his bones are full of marrow.

25 Yet another person dies with a bitter soul, having never tasted prosperity.

26 But they both lie in the dust, and worms cover them.

27 I know your thoughts very well, the schemes by which you would wrong me.

28 For you say, "Where now is the nobleman's house?" and "Where are the tents the wicked lived in?"

29 Have you never consulted those who travel the roads? Don't you accept their reports?

30 Indeed, the evil person is spared from the day of disaster, rescued from the day of wrath.

31 Who would denounce his behavior to his face? Who would repay him for what he has done?

32 He is carried to the grave, and someone keeps watch over his tomb.

33 The dirt on his grave is sweet to him. Everyone follows behind him, and those who go before him are without number.

34 So how can you offer me such futile comfort? Your answers are deceptive.

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

2 Can a man be of any use to God? Can even a wise man be of use to him?

3 Does it delight the Almighty if you are righteous? Does he profit if you perfect your behavior?

4 Does he correct you and take you to court because of your piety?

5 Isn't your wickedness abundant and aren't your iniquities endless?

6 For you took collateral from your brothers without cause, stripping off their clothes and leaving them naked.

7 You gave no water to the thirsty and withheld food from the famished, while the land belonged to a powerful man and an influential man lived on it.

8 You sent widows away empty-handed, and the strength of the fatherless was crushed.

9 Therefore snares surround you, and sudden dread terrifies you, or darkness, so you cannot see, and a flood of water covers you.

10 Isn't God as high as the heavens? And look at the highest stars — how lofty they are!

11 Yet you say, "What does God know? Can he judge through total darkness?"

14 Clouds veil him so that he cannot see, as he walks on the circle of the sky."

15 Will you continue on the ancient path that wicked men have walked?

16 They were snatched away before their time, and their foundations were washed away by a river.

17 They were the ones who said to God, "Leave us alone!" and "What can the Almighty do to us?"

18 But it was he who filled their houses with good things.

The counsel of the wicked is far from me!

19 The righteous see this and rejoice; the innocent mock them, saying,

20 "Surely our opponents are destroyed, and fire has consumed what they left behind."

21 Come to terms with God and be at peace; in this way good will come to you.

22 Receive instruction from his mouth, and place his sayings in your heart.

23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be renewed. If you banish injustice from your tent and consign your gold to the dust, the gold of Ophir to the stones in the wadis, the Almighty will be your gold and your finest silver.

24 Then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God.

25 You will pray to him, and he will hear you, and you will fulfill your vows.

26 When you make a decision, it will be carried out, and light will shine on your ways.

27 When others are humiliated and you say, "Lift them up," God will save the humble.

28 He will even rescue the guilty one, who will be rescued by the purity of your hands.

23 Then Job answered:

2 Today also my complaint is bitter. His hand is heavy despite my groaning.

3 If only I knew how to find him, so that I could go to his throne.

4 I would plead my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would learn how he would answer me; and understand what he would say to me.

6 Would he prosecute me forcefully? No, he would certainly pay attention to me.

7 Then an upright man could reason with him, and I would escape from my Judge forever.

8 If I go east, he is not there, and if I go west, I cannot perceive him.

9 When he is at work to the north, I cannot see him; when he turns south, I cannot find him.

10 Yet he knows the way I have taken; when he has tested me, I will emerge as pure gold.

11 My feet have followed in his tracks; I have kept to his way and not turned aside.

12 I have not departed from the commands from his lips; I have treasured the words from his mouth more than my daily food.

13 But he is unchangeable; who can oppose him? He does what he desires.

- 14 He will certainly accomplish what he has decreed for me,
and he has many more things like these in mind.
15 Therefore I am terrified in his presence;
when I consider this, I am afraid of him.
16 God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me.
17 Yet I am not destroyed by the darkness,
by the thick darkness that covers my face.

24 Why does the Almighty not reserve times for judgment?

- Why do those who know him never see his days?
2 The wicked displace boundary markers.
They steal a flock and provide pasture for it.
3 They drive away the donkeys owned by the fatherless and take the widow's ox as collateral.
4 They push the needy off the road;
the poor of the land are forced into hiding.
5 Like wild donkeys in the wilderness,
the poor go out to their task of foraging for food;
the desert provides nourishment for their children.
6 They gather their fodder in the field and glean the vineyards of the wicked.
7 Without clothing, they spend the night naked, having no covering against the cold.
8 Drenched by mountain rains,
they huddle against the rocks, shelterless.
9 The fatherless infant is snatched from the breast;
the nursing child of the poor is seized as collateral.
10 Without clothing, they wander about naked.
They carry sheaves but go hungry.
11 They crush olives in their presses;
they tread the winepresses, but go thirsty.
12 From the city, men groan;
the mortally wounded cry for help,
yet God pays no attention to this crime.
13 The wicked are those who rebel against the light.
They do not recognize its ways or stay on its paths.
14 The murderer rises at dawn to kill the poor and needy,
and by night he becomes a thief.
15 The adulterer's eye watches for twilight, thinking, "No eye will see me,"
and he covers his face.
16 In the dark they break into houses;
by day they lock themselves in,
never experiencing the light.
17 For the morning is like darkness to them.
Surely they are familiar with the terrors of darkness!
18 They float on the surface of the water.
Their section of the land is cursed,
so that they never go to their vineyards.
19 As dry ground and heat snatch away
the melted snow,
so Sheol steals those who have sinned.
20 The womb forgets them;
worms feed on them;
they are remembered no more.
So injustice is broken like a tree.
21 They prey on the childless woman who is unable to conceive,

and do not deal kindly with the widow.

- 22 Yet God drags away the mighty by his power;
when he rises up, they have no assurance of life.
23 He gives them a sense of security, so they can rely on it,
but his eyes watch over their ways.
24 They are exalted for a moment, then gone;
they are brought low and shrivel up like everything else.
They wither like heads of grain.
25 If this is not true, then who can prove me a liar and show that my speech is worthless?

25 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

- 2 Dominion and dread belong to him,
the one who establishes harmony in his heights.
3 Can his troops be numbered?
Does his light not shine on everyone?
4 How can a human be justified before God?
How can one born of woman be pure?
5 If even the moon does not shine and the stars are not pure in his sight, 6 how much less a human, who is a maggot,
a son of man, who is a worm!

26 Then Job answered:

- 2 How you have helped the powerless
and delivered the arm that is weak!
3 How you have counseled the unwise and abundantly provided insight!
4 With whom did you speak these words?
Whose breath came out of your mouth?
5 The departed spirits tremble
beneath the waters and all that inhabit them.
6 Sheol is naked before God,
and Abaddon has no covering.
7 He stretches the northern skies over empty space;
he hangs the earth on nothing.
8 He wraps up the water in his clouds,
yet the clouds do not burst beneath its weight.
9 He obscures the view of his throne,
spreading his cloud over it.
10 He laid out the horizon on the surface of the waters

at the boundary between light and darkness.

- 11 The pillars that hold up the sky tremble,
astounded at his rebuke.
12 By his power he stirred the sea,
and by his understanding he crushed Rahab.
13 By his breath the heavens gained their beauty;
his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
14 These are but the fringes of his ways;
how faint is the word we hear of him!
Who can understand his mighty thunder?

27 Job continued his discourse, saying:

- 2 As God lives, who has deprived me of justice,
and the Almighty who has made me bitter,
3 as long as my breath is still in me
and the breath from God remains in my nostrils, 4 my lips will not speak unjustly,
and my tongue will not utter deceit.
5 I will never affirm that you are right.
I will maintain my integrity until I die.
6 I will cling to my righteousness and never let it go.

My conscience will not accuse me as long as I live!

- 7 May my enemy be like the wicked and my opponent like the unjust.

8 For what hope does the godless person have when he is cut off,
when God takes away his life?

9 Will God hear his cry
when distress comes on him?

10 Will he delight in the Almighty?
Will he call on God at all times?

11 I will teach you about God's power.
I will not conceal what the Almighty has planned.

12 All of you have seen this for yourselves,
why do you keep up this empty talk?

13 This is a wicked man's lot from God, the inheritance the ruthless receive from the Almighty.

14 Even if his children increase, they are destined for the sword;
his descendants will never have enough food.

15 Those who survive him will be buried
by the plague,
yet their widows will not weep for them.

16 Though he piles up silver like dust and heaps up fine clothing like clay—
he may heap it up, but the righteous will wear it,
and the innocent will divide up his silver.

18 The house he built is like a moth's cocoon or a shelter set up by a watchman.

19 He lies down wealthy, but will do so no more;
when he opens his eyes, it is gone.

20 Terrors overtake him like a flood;
a storm wind sweeps him away at night.

21 An east wind picks him up, and he is gone;
it carries him away from his place.

22 It blasts at him without mercy,
while he flees desperately from its force.

23 It claps its hands at him and scoffs at him from its place.

28 Surely there is a mine for silver and a place where gold is refined.

2 Iron is taken from the ground,
and copper is smelted from ore.

3 A miner puts an end to the darkness;
he probes the deepest recesses
for ore in the gloomy darkness.

4 He cuts a shaft far from human habitation, in places unknown to those who walk above ground.
Suspended far away from people,
the miners swing back and forth.

5 Food may come from the earth,
but below the surface the earth is transformed
as by fire.

6 Its rocks are a source of lapis lazuli, containing flecks of gold.

7 No bird of prey knows that path;
no falcon's eye has seen it.

8 Proud beasts have never walked on it;
no lion has ever prowled over it.

9 The miner uses a flint tool and turns up ore from the root of the mountains.

10 He cuts out channels in the rocks,
and his eyes spot every treasure.

11 He dams up the streams from flowing so that he may bring to light what is hidden.

12 But where can wisdom be found,

and where is understanding located?

13 No one can know its value,
since it cannot be found in the land of the living.

14 The ocean depths say, "It's not in me," while the sea declares, "I don't have it."

15 Gold cannot be exchanged for it,
and silver cannot be weighed out for its price.

16 Wisdom cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir,
in precious onyx or lapis lazuli.

17 Gold and glass do not compare with it,
and articles of fine gold cannot be exchanged for it.

18 Coral and quartz are not worth mentioning.
The price of wisdom is beyond pearls.

19 Topaz from Cush cannot compare with it,
and it cannot be valued in pure gold.

20 Where then does wisdom come from,
and where is understanding located?

21 It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing and concealed from the birds of the sky.

22 Abaddon and Death say,
"We have heard news of it with our ears."
23 But God understands the way to wisdom, and he knows its location.

24 For he looks to the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.

25 When God fixed the weight of the wind and distributed the water by measure, when he established a limit for the rain
and a path for the lightning, 27 he considered wisdom and evaluated it;
he established it and examined it.

28 He said to mankind,
"The fear of the Lord—that is wisdom.
And to turn from evil is understanding."

29 Job continued his discourse, saying:
2 If only I could be as in months gone by,
in the days when God watched over me,
when his lamp shone above my head,
and I walked through darkness by his light!

4 I would be as I was in the days of my youth
when God's friendship rested on my tent, when the Almighty was still with me
and my children were around me, 6 when my feet were bathed in curds and the rock poured out streams of oil for me!

7 When I went out to the city gate and took my seat in the town square, 8 the young men saw me and withdrew,
while older men stood to their feet.

9 City officials stopped talking and covered their mouths with their hands.

10 The noblemen's voices were hushed, and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.

11 When they heard me, they blessed me,
and when they saw me, they spoke well of me.

12 For I rescued the poor who cried out for help, and the fatherless child who had no one to support him.

13 The dying blessed me,
and I made the widow's heart rejoice.

14 I clothed myself in righteousness, and it enveloped me;
my just decisions were like a robe and a turban.

15 I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame.

16 I was a father to the needy,
and I examined the case of the stranger.

17 I shattered the fangs of the unjust and snatched the prey from his teeth.

18 So I thought, "I will die in my own nest and multiply my days as the sand.

19 My roots will have access to water,
and the dew will rest on my branches all night.

20 My whole being will be refreshed within me,
and my bow will be renewed in my hand."

21 Men listened to me with expectation, waiting silently for my advice.

22 After a word from me they did not speak again;
my speech settled on them like dew.

23 They waited for me as for the rain and opened their mouths as for spring showers.

24 If I smiled at them, they couldn't believe it;
they were thrilled at the light of my countenance.

25 I directed their course and presided as chief.
I lived as a king among his troops,
like one who comforts those who mourn.

30 But now they mock me,
men younger than I am,
whose fathers I would have refused to put with my sheep dogs.

2 What use to me was the strength of their hands?
Their vigor had left them.

3 Emaciated from poverty and hunger,
they gnawed the dry land,
the desolate wasteland by night.

4 They plucked mallow among the shrubs,
and the roots of the broom tree were their food.

5 They were banished from human society;
people shouted at them as if they were thieves.

6 They are living on the slopes of the wadis, among the rocks and in holes in the ground.

7 They bray among the shrubs;
they huddle beneath the thistles.

8 Foolish men, without even a name.
They were forced to leave the land.

9 Now I am mocked by their songs;
I have become an object of scorn to them.

10 They despise me and keep their distance from me;
they do not hesitate to spit in my face.

11 Because God has loosened my bowstring and oppressed me,
they have cast off restraint in my presence.

12 The rabble rise up at my right;
they trap my feet
and construct their siege ramp against me.

13 They tear up my path;
they contribute to my destruction,
without anyone to help them.

14 They advance as through a gaping breach;
they keep rolling in through the ruins.

15 Terrors are turned loose against me;
they chase my dignity away like the wind,
and my prosperity has passed by like a cloud.

16 Now my life is poured out before me,
and days of suffering have seized me.

17 Night pierces my bones,
but my gnawing pains never rest.

18 My clothing is distorted with great force;

he chokes me by the neck of my garment.

19 He throws me into the mud,
and I have become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry out to you for help, but you do not answer me;
when I stand up, you merely look at me.

21 You have turned against me with cruelty;
you harass me with your strong hand.

22 You lift me up on the wind and make me ride it;
you scatter me in the storm.

23 Yes, I know that you will lead me to death —
the place appointed for all who live.

24 Yet no one would stretch out his hand against a ruined person
when he cries out to him for help because of his distress.

25 Have I not wept for those who have fallen on hard times?
Has my soul not grieved for the needy?
But when I hoped for good, evil came;
when I looked for light, darkness came.

27 I am churning within and cannot rest;
days of suffering confront me.

28 I walk about blackened, but not by the sun.
I stood in the assembly and cried out for help.

29 I have become a brother to jackals and a companion of ostriches.

30 My skin blackens and flakes off,
and my bones burn with fever.

31 My lyre is used for mourning and my flute for the sound of weeping.

31 I have made a covenant with my eyes.
How then could I look at a young woman?

2 For what portion would I have from God above, or what inheritance from the Almighty on high?

3 Doesn't disaster come to the unjust and misfortune to evildoers?

4 Does he not see my ways
and number all my steps?

5 If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has rushed to deceit,
let God weigh me on accurate scales,
and he will recognize my integrity.

7 If my step has turned from the way,
my heart has followed my eyes,
or impurity has stained my hands,
let someone else eat what I have sown,
and let my crops be uprooted.

9 If my heart has gone astray over a woman or I have lurked at my neighbor's door, let my own wife grind grain for another man,
and let other men sleep with her.

11 For that would be a disgrace;
it would be an iniquity deserving punishment.

12 For it is a fire that consumes down to Abaddon;
it would destroy my entire harvest.

13 If I have dismissed the case of my male or female servants
when they made a complaint against me,
what could I do when God stands up to judge?
How should I answer him when he calls me
to account?

15 Did not the one who made me in the womb also make them?
Did not the same God form us both in the womb?
If I have refused the wishes of the poor or let the widow's eyes go blind, 17 if I have eaten my few crumbs alone without letting the fatherless eat any of it—18 for from my youth, I raised him as his father, and since the day I was born I guided the widow—

 19 if I have seen anyone dying for lack of clothing or a needy person without a cloak, 20 if he did not bless me while warming himself with the fleece from my sheep,
 21 if I ever cast my vote against a fatherless child
 when I saw that I had support in the city gate, 22 then let my shoulder blade fall from my back,
 and my arm be pulled from its socket.
 23 For disaster from God terrifies me,
 and because of his majesty I could not do these things.
 24 If I placed my confidence in gold or called fine gold my trust, 25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth is great or because my own hand has acquired so much, 26 if I have gazed at the sun when it was shining or at the moon moving in splendor, 27 so that my heart was secretly enticed
 and I threw them a kiss, 28 this would also be an iniquity deserving punishment,
 for I would have denied God above.
 29 Have I rejoiced over my enemy's distress,
 or become excited when trouble came his way?
 30 I have not allowed my mouth to sin
 by asking for his life with a curse.
 31 Haven't the members of my household said,
 "Who is there who has not had enough to eat at Job's table?"
 32 No stranger had to spend the night on the street,
 for I opened my door to the traveler.
 33 Have I covered my transgressions as others do by hiding my iniquity in my heart 34 because I greatly feared the crowds and because the contempt of the clans terrified me,
 so I grew silent and would not go outside?
 35 If only I had someone to hear my case!
 Here is my signature; let the Almighty answer me.
 Let my Opponent compose his indictment.
 36 I would surely carry it on my shoulder and wear it like a crown.
 37 I would give him an account of all my steps;
 I would approach him like a prince.
 38 If my land cries out against me
 and its furrows join in weeping, 39 if I have consumed its produce without payment or shown contempt for its tenants, 40 then let thorns grow instead of wheat and stinkweed instead of barley.

The words of Job are concluded.

32 So these three men quit answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.² Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite from the family of Ram became angry. He was angry at Job because he had justified himself rather than God.³ He was also angry at Job's three friends because they had failed to refute him and yet had condemned him.

⁴ Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because they were all older than he.⁵ But when he saw that the three men could not answer Job, he became angry.

⁶ So Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite replied:

I am young in years,
 while you are old;
 therefore I was timid and afraid to tell you what I know.
 7 I thought that age should speak and maturity should teach wisdom.
 8 But it is the spirit in a person—
 the breath from the Almighty—that gives anyone understanding.
 9 It is not only the old who are wise or the elderly who understand how to judge.
 10 Therefore I say, "Listen to me.
 I too will declare what I know."
 11 Look, I waited for your conclusions;
 I listened to your insights
 as you sought for words.
 12 I paid close attention to you.
 Yet no one proved Job wrong;
 not one of you refuted his arguments.
 13 So do not claim, "We have found wisdom;
 let God deal with him, not man."
 14 But Job has not directed his argument to me,
 and I will not respond to him with your arguments.
 15 Job's friends are dismayed and can no longer answer;
 words have left them.
 16 Should I continue to wait now that they are silent,
 now that they stand there and no longer answer?
 17 I too will answer;
 yes, I will tell what I know.
 18 For I am full of words,
 and my spirit compels me to speak.
 19 My heart is like unvented wine;
 it is about to burst like new wineskins.
 20 I must speak so that I can find relief;
 I must open my lips and respond.
 21 I will be partial to no one,
 and I will not give anyone an undeserved title.
 22 For I do not know how to give such titles; otherwise, my Maker would remove me
 in an instant.

33 But now, Job, pay attention to my speech, and listen to all my words.

2 I am going to open my mouth;
 my tongue will form words on my palate.
 3 My words come from my upright heart,
 and my lips speak with sincerity what they know.
 4 The Spirit of God has made me,
 and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
 5 Refute me if you can.
 Prepare your case against me; take your stand.
 6 I am just like you before God;
 I was also pinched off from a piece of clay.
 7 Fear of me should not terrify you;
 no pressure from me should weigh you down.
 8 Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
 and I have heard these very words:
 9 "I am pure, without transgression;
 I am clean and have no iniquity."
 10 But he finds reasons to oppose me;
 he regards me as his enemy.

- 11 He puts my feet in the stocks;
he stands watch over all my paths.”
- 12 But I tell you that you are wrong in this matter, since God is greater than man.
- 13 Why do you take him to court for not answering anything a person asks?
- 14 For God speaks time and again,
but a person may not notice it.
- 15 In a dream, a vision in the night, when deep sleep comes over people
as they slumber on their beds,
- 16 he uncovers their ears
and terrifies them with warnings, in order to turn a person from his actions and suppress the pride of a person.
- 18 God spares his soul from the Pit,
his life from crossing the river of death.
- 19 A person may be disciplined on his bed with pain and constant distress in his bones,
so that he detests bread,
and his soul despises his favorite food.
- 21 His flesh wastes away to nothing,
and his unseen bones stick out.
- 22 He draws near to the Pit,
and his life to the executioners.
- 23 If there is an angel on his side,
one mediator out of a thousand,
to tell a person what is right for him
and to be gracious to him and say, “Spare him from going down to the Pit;
I have found a ransom,”
- 25 then his flesh will be healthier than in his youth,
and he will return to the days of his youthful vigor.
- 26 He will pray to God, and God will delight in him.
That person will see his face with a shout of joy,
and God will restore his righteousness to him.
- 27 He will look at men and say,
“I have sinned and perverted what was right;
yet I did not get what I deserved.
- 28 He redeemed my soul from going down to the Pit, and I will continue to see the light.”
- 29 God certainly does all these things
two or three times to a person in order to turn him back from the Pit,
so he may shine with the light of life.
- 31 Pay attention, Job, and listen to me.
Be quiet, and I will speak.
- 32 But if you have something to say, answer me;
speak, for I would like to justify you.
- 33 If not, then listen to me;
be quiet, and I will teach you wisdom.
- 34 Then Elihu continued, saying:
2 Hear my words, you wise ones,
and listen to me, you knowledgeable ones.
- 3 Doesn't the ear test words
as the palate tastes food?
- 4 Let us judge for ourselves what is right;
let us decide together what is good.
- 5 For Job has declared, “I am righteous,
yet God has deprived me of justice.
- 6 Would I lie about my case?
My wound is incurable,
though I am without transgression.”
- 7 What man is like Job?
He drinks derision like water.
- 8 He keeps company with evildoers and walks with wicked men.
- 9 For he has said, “A man gains nothing
when he becomes God's friend.”
- 10 Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding.
It is impossible for God to do wrong,
and for the Almighty to act unjustly.
- 11 For he repays a person according to his deeds,
and he gives him what his conduct deserves.
- 12 Indeed, it is true that God does not act wickedly and the Almighty does not pervert justice.
- 13 Who gave him authority over the earth?
Who put him in charge of the entire world?
- 14 If he put his mind to it and withdrew the spirit and breath he gave,
every living thing would perish together and mankind would return to the dust.
- 16 If you have understanding, hear this;
listen to what I have to say.
- 17 Could one who hates justice govern the world?
Will you condemn the mighty Righteous One,
who says to a king, “Worthless man!”
and to nobles, “Wicked men!”?
- 19 God is not partial to princes and does not favor the rich over the poor, for they are all the work of his hands.
- 20 They die suddenly in the middle of the night;
people shudder, then pass away.
Even the mighty are removed without effort.
- 21 For his eyes watch over a man's ways,
and he observes all his steps.
- 22 There is no darkness, no deep darkness,
where evildoers can hide.
- 23 God does not need to examine a person further,
that one should approach him in court.
- 24 He shatters the mighty without an investigation and sets others in their place.
- 25 Therefore, he recognizes their deeds and overthrows them by night, and they are crushed.
- 26 In full view of the public,
he strikes them for their wickedness,
because they turned aside from following him
and did not understand any of his ways
but caused the poor to cry out to him,
and he heard the outcry of the needy.
- 28 But when God is silent, who can declare him guilty?
- When he hides his face, who can see him?
Yet he watches over both individuals and nations,
so that godless men should not rule or ensnare the people.
- 31 Suppose someone says to God,
“I have endured my punishment;
I will no longer act wickedly.
- 32 Teach me what I cannot see;
if I have done wrong, I won't do it again.”
- 33 Should God repay you on your terms
when you have rejected his?
You must choose, not I!
So declare what you know.
- 34 Reasonable men will say to me,
along with the wise men who hear me, “Job speaks without knowledge;
his words are without insight.”

³⁶ If only Job were tested to the limit, because his answers are like those of wicked men.

³⁷ For he adds rebellion to his sin;
he scornfully claps in our presence,
while multiplying his words against God.

35

Then Elihu continued, saying:

² Do you think it is just when you say,
"I am righteous before God"?

³ For you ask, "What does it profit you, and what benefit comes to me, if I do not sin?"

⁴ I will answer you and your friends with you.

⁵ Look at the heavens and see;
gaze at the clouds high above you.

⁶ If you sin, how does it affect God?
If you multiply your transgressions, what does it do to him?

⁷ If you are righteous, what do you give him,
or what does he receive from your hand?

⁸ Your wickedness affects a person like yourself, and your righteousness, a son of man.

⁹ People cry out because of severe oppression;
they shout for help because of the power of the mighty.

¹⁰ But no one asks, "Where is God my Maker, who provides us with songs in the night,
who gives us more understanding than the animals of the earth and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?"

¹² There they cry out, but he does not answer, because of the pride of evil people.

¹³ Indeed, God does not listen to empty cries, and the Almighty does not take note of it—

¹⁴ how much less when you complain that you do not see him,
that your case is before him
and you are waiting for him.

¹⁵ But now, because God's anger does not punish and he does not pay attention to transgression,

¹⁶ Job opens his mouth in vain and multiplies words without knowledge.

36

Then Elihu continued, saying:

² Be patient with me a little longer, and I will inform you,

for there is still more to be said on God's behalf.

³ I will get my knowledge from a distant place and ascribe justice to my Maker.

⁴ Indeed, my words are not false;
one who has complete knowledge is with you.

⁵ Yes, God is mighty, but he despises no one;
he understands all things.

⁶ He does not keep the wicked alive,
but he gives justice to the oppressed.

⁷ He does not withdraw his gaze
from the righteous,
but he seats them forever with enthroned kings,
and they are exalted.

⁸ If people are bound with chains and trapped by the cords of affliction,

⁹ God tells them what they have done and how arrogantly they have transgressed.

¹⁰ He opens their ears to correction and tells them to repent from iniquity.

¹¹ If they listen and serve him,
they will end their days in prosperity and their years in happiness.

¹² But if they do not listen, they will cross the river of death and die without knowledge.

¹³ Those who have a godless heart harbor anger;
even when God binds them, they do not cry for help.

¹⁴ They die in their youth;
their life ends among male cult prostitutes.

¹⁵ God rescues the afflicted by their affliction;
he instructs them by their torment.

¹⁶ Indeed, he lured you from the jaws of distress to a spacious and unconfined place.
Your table was spread with choice food.

¹⁷ Yet now you are obsessed with the judgment due the wicked;
judgment and justice have seized you.

¹⁸ Be careful that no one lures you with riches;
do not let a large ransom lead you astray.

¹⁹ Can your wealth or all your physical exertion
keep you from distress?

²⁰ Do not long for the night
when nations will disappear from their places.

²¹ Be careful that you do not turn to iniquity,
for that is why you have been tested by affliction.

²² Look, God shows himself exalted by his power.
Who is a teacher like him?

²³ Who has appointed his way for him,
and who has declared, "You have done wrong"?

²⁴ Remember that you should praise his work, which people have sung about.

²⁵ All mankind has seen it;
people have looked at it from a distance.

²⁶ Yes, God is exalted beyond our knowledge;
the number of his years cannot be counted.

²⁷ For he makes waterdrops evaporate;
they distill the rain into its mist,

²⁸ which the clouds pour out and shower abundantly on mankind.

²⁹ Can anyone understand how the clouds spread out

or how the thunder roars from God's pavilion?

³⁰ See how he spreads his lightning around him and covers the depths of the sea.

³¹ For he judges the nations with these;
he gives food in abundance.

³² He covers his hands with lightning and commands it to hit its mark.

³³ The thunder declares his presence;
the cattle also, the approaching storm.

37

My heart pounds at this
and leaps from my chest.

² Just listen to his thunderous voice and the rumbling that comes from his mouth.

³ He lets it loose beneath the entire sky;
his lightning to the ends of the earth.

⁴ Then there comes a roaring sound;
God thunders with his majestic voice.
He does not restrain the lightning
when his rumbling voice is heard.

⁵ God thunders wondrously with his voice;
he does great things that we cannot comprehend.

⁶ For he says to the snow, "Fall to the earth,"
and the torrential rains, his mighty torrential rains,

⁷ serve as his sign to all mankind,

so that all men may know his work.
 8 The wild animals enter their lairs and stay in their dens.
 9 The windstorm comes from its chamber,
 and the cold from the driving north winds.
 10 Ice is formed by the breath of God,
 and watery expanses are frozen.
 11 He saturates clouds with moisture;
 he scatters his lightning through them.
 12 They swirl about,
 turning round and round at his direction,
 accomplishing everything he commands them over the surface of the inhabited world.
 13 He causes this to happen for punishment,
 for his land, or for his faithful love.
 14 Listen to this, Job.
 Stop and consider God's wonders.
 15 Do you know how God directs his clouds or makes their lightning flash?
 16 Do you understand how the clouds float, those wonderful works of him who has perfect knowledge?
 17 You whose clothes get hot when the south wind brings calm to the land, can you help God spread out the skies
 as hard as a cast metal mirror?
 18 Teach us what we should say to him;
 we cannot prepare our case because of our darkness.
 19 Should he be told that I want to speak?
 Can a man speak when he is confused?
 20 Now no one can even look at the sun
 when it is in the skies,
 after a wind has swept through and cleared
 the clouds away.
 21 Yet out of the north he comes, shrouded in a golden glow;
 awesome majesty surrounds him.
 22 The Almighty — we cannot reach him —
 he is exalted in power!
 He will not violate justice and abundant righteousness,
 23 therefore, men fear him.
 He does not look favorably on any who are wise in heart.

38 Then the LORD answered Job from the whirlwind.
 He said:

2 Who is this who obscures my counsel with ignorant words?
 3 Get ready to answer me like a man;
 when I question you, you will inform me.
 4 Where were you when I established the earth?
 Tell me, if you have understanding.
 5 Who fixed its dimensions? Certainly you know!
 Who stretched a measuring line across it?
 6 What supports its foundations?
 Or who laid its cornerstone 7 while the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
 8 Who enclosed the sea behind doors
 when it burst from the womb, 9 when I made the clouds its garment and total darkness its blanket, 10 when I determined its boundaries and put its bars and doors in place,

11 when I declared: "You may come this far,
 but no farther;
 your proud waves stop here?"
 12 Have you ever in your life commanded the morning
 or assigned the dawn its place, 13 so it may seize the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?
 14 The earth is changed as clay is by a seal;
 its hills stand out like the folds of a garment.
 15 Light is withheld from the wicked,
 and the arm raised in violence is broken.
 16 Have you traveled to the sources of the sea or walked in the depths of the oceans?
 17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
 Have you seen the gates of deep darkness?
 18 Have you comprehended the extent of the earth?
 Tell me, if you know all this.
 19 Where is the road to the home of light?
 Do you know where darkness lives,
 20 so you can lead it back to its border?
 Are you familiar with the paths to its home?
 21 Don't you know? You were already born;
 you have lived so long!
 22 Have you entered the place where the snow is stored?
 Or have you seen the storehouses of hail,
 23 which I hold in reserve for times of trouble,
 for the day of warfare and battle?
 24 What road leads to the place where light is dispersed?
 Where is the source of the east wind that spreads across the earth?
 25 Who cuts a channel for the flooding rain or clears the way for lightning, 26 to bring rain on an uninhabited land,
 on a desert with no human life, 27 to satisfy the parched wasteland and cause the grass to sprout?
 28 Does the rain have a father?
 Who fathered the drops of dew?
 29 Whose womb did the ice come from?
 Who gave birth to the frost of heaven 30 when water becomes as hard as stone, and the surface of the watery depths is frozen?
 31 Can you fasten the chains of the Pleiades or loosen the belt of Orion?
 32 Can you bring out the constellations in their season
 and lead the Bear and her cubs?
 33 Do you know the laws of heaven?
 Can you impose its authority on earth?
 34 Can you command the clouds
 so that a flood of water covers you?
 35 Can you send out lightning bolts, and they go?
 Do they report to you: "Here we are?"
 36 Who put wisdom in the heart or gave the mind understanding?
 37 Who has the wisdom to number the clouds?
 Or who can tilt the water jars of heaven
 when the dust hardens like cast metal and the clods of dirt stick together?
 38 Can you hunt prey for a lioness or satisfy the appetite of young lions 39 when they crouch in their dens 40 and lie in wait within their lairs?

 41 Who provides the raven's food
 when its young cry out to God and wander about for lack of food?
39 Do you know when mountain goats give birth?
 Have you watched the deer in labor?
 2 Can you count the months they are pregnant
 so you can know the time they give birth?
 3 They crouch down to give birth to their young;
 they deliver their newborn.
 4 Their offspring are healthy and grow up in the open field.
 They leave and do not return.
 5 Who set the wild donkey free?
 Who released the swift donkey from its harness?
 6 I made the desert its home,
 and the salty wasteland its dwelling.
 7 It scoffs at the noise of the village and never hears the shouts of a driver.
 8 It roams the mountains for its pastureland, searching for anything green.
 9 Would the wild ox be willing to serve you?
 Would it spend the night by your feeding trough?
 10 Can you hold the wild ox to a furrow by its harness?
 Will it plow the valleys behind you?
 11 Can you depend on it because its strength is great?
 Would you leave it to do your hard work?
 12 Can you trust the wild ox to harvest your grain and bring it to your threshing floor?
 13 The wings of the ostrich flap joyfully,
 but are her feathers and plumage like the stork's?
 14 She abandons her eggs on the ground and lets them be warmed in the sand.
 15 She forgets that a foot may crush them or that some wild animal may trample them.
 16 She treats her young harshly, as if they were not her own,
 with no fear that her labor may have been in vain.
 17 For God has deprived her of wisdom;
 he has not endowed her with understanding.
 18 When she proudly spreads her wings,
 she laughs at the horse and its rider.
 19 Do you give strength to the horse?
 Do you adorn his neck with a mane?
 20 Do you make him leap like a locust?
 His proud snorting fills one with terror.
 21 He paws in the valley and rejoices in his strength;
 he charges into battle.
 22 He laughs at fear, since he is afraid of nothing;
 he does not run from the sword.
 23 A quiver rattles at his side,
 along with a flashing spear and a javelin.
 24 He charges ahead with trembling rage;
 he cannot stand still at the trumpet's sound.
 25 When the trumpet blasts, he snorts defiantly.
 He smells the battle from a distance;
 he hears the officers' shouts and the battle cry.
 26 Does the hawk take flight by your understanding and spread its wings to the south?
 27 Does the eagle soar at your command and make its nest on high?
 28 It lives on a cliff where it spends the night;

its stronghold is on a rocky crag.
 29 From there it searches for prey;
 its eyes penetrate the distance.
 30 Its brood gulps down blood,
 and where the slain are, it is there.
40 The LORD answered Job:
 2 Will the one who contends with the Almighty correct him?
 Let him who argues with God give an answer.
 3 Then Job answered the LORD:
 4 I am so insignificant. How can I answer you?
 I place my hand over my mouth.
 5 I have spoken once, and I will not reply;
 twice, but now I can add nothing.
 6 Then the LORD answered Job from the whirlwind:
 7 Get ready to answer me like a man;
 When I question you, you will inform me.
 8 Would you really challenge my justice?
 Would you declare me guilty to justify yourself?
 9 Do you have an arm like God's?
 Can you thunder with a voice like his?
 Adorn yourself with majesty and splendor,
 and clothe yourself with honor and glory.
 11 Pour out your raging anger;
 look on every proud person and humiliate him.
 12 Look on every proud person and humble him;
 trample the wicked where they stand.
 13 Hide them together in the dust;
 imprison them in the grave.
 14 Then I will confess to you that your own right hand can deliver you.
 15 Look at Behemoth, which I made along with you.
 He eats grass like cattle.
 16 Look at the strength of his back and the power in the muscles of his belly.
 17 He stiffens his tail like a cedar tree;
 the tendons of his thighs are woven firmly together.
 18 His bones are bronze tubes;
 his limbs are like iron rods.
 19 He is the foremost of God's works;
 only his Maker can draw the sword against him.
 20 The hills yield food for him,
 while all sorts of wild animals play there.
 21 He lies under the lotus plants,
 hiding in the protection of marshy reeds.
 22 Lotus plants cover him with their shade;
 the willows by the brook surround him.
 23 Though the river rages, Behemoth is unafraid;
 he remains confident, even if the Jordan surges up to his mouth.
 24 Can anyone capture him while he looks on,
 or pierce his nose with snares?
41 Can you pull in Leviathan with a hook or tie his tongue down with a rope?
 2 Can you put a cord through his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?
 3 Will he beg you for mercy or speak softly to you?
 4 Will he make a covenant with you so that you can take him as a slave forever?
 5 Can you play with him like a bird or put him on a leash for your girls?
 6 Will traders bargain for him or divide him among the merchants?

 7 Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?
 8 Lay a hand on him.
 You will remember the battle and never repeat it!
 9 Any hope of capturing him proves false.
 Does a person not collapse at the very sight
 of him?
 10 No one is ferocious enough to rouse Leviathan;
 who then can stand against me?
 11 Who confronted me, that I should repay him?
 Everything under heaven belongs to me.
 12 I cannot be silent about his limbs,
 his power, and his graceful proportions.
 13 Who can strip off his outer covering?
 Who can penetrate his double layer of armor?
 14 Who can open his jaws,
 surrounded by those terrifying teeth?
 15 His pride is in his rows of scales, closely sealed together.
 16 One scale is so close to another that no air can pass between them.
 17 They are joined to one another,
 so closely connected they cannot be separated.
 18 His snorting flashes with light,
 while his eyes are like the rays of dawn.
 19 Flaming torches shoot from his mouth;
 fiery sparks fly out!
 20 Smoke billows from his nostrils
 as from a boiling pot or burning reeds.
 21 His breath sets coals ablaze,
 and flames pour out of his mouth.
 22 Strength resides in his neck,
 and dismay dances before him.
 23 The folds of his flesh are joined together,
 solid as metal and immovable.
 24 His heart is as hard as a rock,
 as hard as a lower millstone!
 25 When Leviathan rises, the mighty are terrified;
 they withdraw because of his thrashing.
 26 The sword that reaches him will have no effect,
 nor will a spear, dart, or arrow.
 27 He regards iron as straw,
 and bronze as rotten wood.
 28 No arrow can make him flee;
 slingstones become like stubble to him.
 29 A club is regarded as stubble,
 and he laughs at the sound of a javelin.
 30 His undersides are jagged potsherds, spreading the mud like a threshing sledge.
 31 He makes the depths seethe like a cauldron;

he makes the sea like an ointment jar.
 32 He leaves a shining wake behind him;
 one would think the deep had gray hair!
 33 He has no equal on earth —
 a creature devoid of fear!
 34 He surveys everything that is haughty;
 he is king over all the proud beasts.

42 Then Job replied to the LORD:
 2 I know that you can do anything and no plan of yours can be thwarted.
 3 You asked, "Who is this who conceals my counsel with ignorance?"
 Surely I spoke about things I did not understand, things too wondrous for me to know.
 4 You said, "Listen now, and I will speak.
 When I question you, you will inform me."
 5 I had heard reports about you,
 but now my eyes have seen you.
 6 Therefore, I reject my words and am sorry for them;
 I am dust and ashes.

7 After the LORD had finished speaking to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite: "I am angry with you and your two friends, for you have not spoken the truth about me, as my servant Job has. 8 Now take seven bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Job, and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. Then my servant Job will pray for you. I will surely accept his prayer and not deal with you as your folly deserves. For you have not spoken the truth about me, as my servant Job has." 9 Then Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD had told them, and the LORD accepted Job's prayer.

10 After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his fortunes and doubled his previous possessions. 11 All his brothers, sisters, and former acquaintances came to him and dined with him in his house. They sympathized with him and comforted him concerning all the adversity the LORD had brought on him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and a gold earring.

12 So the LORD blessed the last part of Job's life more than the first. He owned fourteen thousand sheep and goats, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys. 13 He also had seven sons and three daughters. 14 He named his first daughter Jemimah, his second Keziah, and his third Keren-happuch. 15 No women as beautiful as Job's daughters could be found in all the land, and their father granted them an inheritance with their brothers.

16 Job lived 140 years after this and saw his children and their children to the fourth generation. 17 Then Job died, old and full of days.

PSALMS

BOOK I (Psalms 1–41)

- 1 How happy is the one who does not walk in the advice of the wicked or stand in the pathway with sinners or sit in the company of mockers!
- 2 Instead, his delight is in the LORD's instruction, and he meditates on it day and night.
- 3 He is like a tree planted beside flowing streams that bears its fruit in its season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers.
- 4 The wicked are not like this; instead, they are like chaff that the wind blows away.
- 5 Therefore the wicked will not stand up in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
- 6 For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to ruin.

- 2 Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?
- 2 The kings of the earth take their stand, and the rulers conspire together against the LORD and his Anointed One:
- 3 "Let's tear off their chains and throw their ropes off of us."
- 4 The one enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord ridicules them.
- 5 Then he speaks to them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath:
- 6 "I have installed my king on Zion, my holy mountain."
- 7 I will declare the LORD's decree. He said to me, "You are my Son; today I have become your Father.
- 8 Ask of me, and I will make the nations your inheritance and the ends of the earth your possession.
- 9 You will break them with an iron scepter; you will shatter them like pottery."
- 10 So now, kings, be wise; receive instruction, you judges of the earth.
- 11 Serve the LORD with reverential awe and rejoice with trembling.
- 12 Pay homage to the Son or he will be angry and you will perish in your rebellion, for his anger may ignite at any moment. All who take refuge in him are happy.

- 3 A psalm of David when he fled from his son Absalom.
- LORD, how my foes increase!
There are many who attack me.
- 2 Many say about me,
"There is no help for him in God." Selah
- 3 But you, LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.
- 4 I cry aloud to the LORD,

- and he answers me from his holy mountain. Selah
- 5 I lie down and sleep;
I wake again because the LORD sustains me.
- 6 I will not be afraid of thousands of people who have taken their stand against me on every side.
- 7 Rise up, LORD!
Save me, my God!
You strike all my enemies on the cheek;
you break the teeth of the wicked.
- 8 Salvation belongs to the LORD;
may your blessing be on your people. Selah

4 *For the choir director: with stringed instruments.
A psalm of David.*

- 1 Answer me when I call,
God, who vindicates me.
You freed me from affliction;
be gracious to me and hear my prayer.
- 2 How long, exalted ones, will my honor be insulted?
How long will you love what is worthless and pursue a lie? Selah
- 3 Know that the LORD has set apart the faithful for himself;
the LORD will hear when I call to him.
- 4 Be angry and do not sin;
on your bed, reflect in your heart and be still. Selah
- 5 Offer sacrifices in righteousness and trust in the LORD.
- 6 Many are asking, "Who can show us anything good?"
Let the light of your face shine on us, LORD.
- 7 You have put more joy in my heart than they have when their grain and new wine abound.
- 8 I will both lie down and sleep in peace,
for you alone, LORD, make me live in safety.

5 *For the choir director: with the flutes.
A psalm of David.*

- 1 Listen to my words, LORD;
consider my sighing.
- 2 Pay attention to the sound of my cry,
my King and my God,
for I pray to you.
- 3 In the morning, LORD, you hear my voice;
in the morning I plead my case to you and watch expectantly.
- 4 For you are not a God who delights in wickedness;
evil cannot dwell with you.
- 5 The boastful cannot stand in your sight;
you hate all evildoers.
- 6 You destroy those who tell lies;
the LORD abhors violent and treacherous people.
- 7 But I enter your house
by the abundance of your faithful love;
I bow down toward your holy temple
in reverential awe of you.
- 8 LORD, lead me in your righteousness

- because of my adversaries;
make your way straight before me.
- 9 For there is nothing reliable in what they say;
destruction is within them;
their throat is an open grave;
they flatter with their tongues.
- 10 Punish them, God;
let them fall by their own schemes.
Drive them out because of their many crimes,
for they rebel against you.
- 11 But let all who take refuge in you rejoice;
let them shout for joy forever.
May you shelter them,
and may those who love your name boast about you.
- 12 For you, LORD, bless the righteous one;
you surround him with favor like a shield.

6 For the choir director: with stringed instruments, according to Sheminith. A psalm of David.

- 1 LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger;
do not discipline me in your wrath.
- 2 Be gracious to me, LORD, for I am weak;
heal me, LORD, for my bones are shaking;
my whole being is shaken with terror.
And you, LORD—how long?
- 4 Turn, LORD! Rescue me;
save me because of your faithful love.
- 5 For there is no remembrance of you in death;
who can thank you in Sheol?
- 6 I am weary from my groaning;
with my tears I dampen my bed and drench my couch every night.
- 7 My eyes are swollen from grief;
they grow old because of all my enemies.
Depart from me, all evildoers,
for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.
- 9 The LORD has heard my plea for help;
the LORD accepts my prayer.
- 10 All my enemies will be ashamed and shake with terror;
they will turn back and suddenly be disgraced.

7 A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjaminite.

- 1 LORD my God, I seek refuge in you;
save me from all my pursuers and rescue me or they will tear me like a lion, ripping me apart with no one to rescue me.
- 3 LORD my God, if I have done this,
if there is injustice on my hands,
if I have done harm to one at peace with me or have plundered my adversary without cause, may an enemy pursue and overtake me;
may he trample me to the ground and leave my honor in the dust. Selah
- 6 Rise up, LORD, in your anger;
lift yourself up against the fury of my adversaries;
awake for me;
you have ordained a judgment.
- 7 Let the assembly of peoples gather around you;
take your seat on high over it.
- 8 The LORD judges the peoples;
vindicate me, LORD,
according to my righteousness and my integrity.

- 9 Let the evil of the wicked come to an end,
but establish the righteous.
The one who examines the thoughts and emotions is a righteous God.
- 10 My shield is with God,
who saves the upright in heart.
- 11 God is a righteous judge and a God who shows his wrath every day.
- 12 If anyone does not repent,
he will sharpen his sword;
he has strung his bow and made it ready.
- 13 He has prepared his deadly weapons;
he tips his arrows with fire.
- 14 See, the wicked one is pregnant with evil,
conceives trouble, and gives birth to deceit.
- 15 He dug a pit and hollowed it out but fell into the hole he had made.
- 16 His trouble comes back on his own head;
his own violence comes down on top of his head.
- 17 I will thank the LORD for his righteousness;
I will sing about the name of the LORD Most High.

8 For the choir director: on the Gittith. A psalm of David.

- LORD, our Lord,
how magnificent is your name
throughout the earth!
You have covered the heavens with your majesty.
- 2 From the mouths of infants and nursing babies,
you have established a stronghold on account of your adversaries in order to silence the enemy and the avenger.
- 3 When I observe your heavens,
the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars,
which you set in place,
what is a human being that you remember him,
a son of man that you look after him?
- 5 You made him little less than God and crowned him with glory and honor.
- 6 You made him ruler over the works of your hands;
you put everything under his feet:
all the sheep and oxen,
as well as the animals in the wild,
the birds of the sky,
and the fish of the sea
that pass through the currents of the seas.
- 9 LORD, our Lord,
how magnificent is your name
throughout the earth!

9 For the choir director: according to Muth-labben. A psalm of David.

- 1 I will thank the LORD with all my heart;
I will declare all your wondrous works.
- 2 I will rejoice and boast about you;
I will sing about your name, Most High.
- 3 When my enemies retreat,
they stumble and perish before you.
- 4 For you have upheld my just cause;
you are seated on your throne
as a righteous judge.
- 5 You have rebuked the nations;
You have destroyed the wicked;
you have erased their name forever and ever.

6 The enemy has come to eternal ruin.
You have uprooted the cities,
and the very memory of them has perished.

7 But the LORD sits enthroned forever;
he has established his throne for judgment.

8 And he judges the world with righteousness;
he executes judgment on the nations with fairness.

9 The LORD is a refuge for the persecuted,
a refuge in times of trouble.

10 Those who know your name trust in you because you have not abandoned
those who seek you, LORD.

11 Sing to the LORD, who dwells in Zion;
proclaim his deeds among the nations.

12 For the one who seeks an accounting for bloodshed remembers them;
he does not forget the cry of the oppressed.

13 Be gracious to me, LORD;
consider my affliction at the hands of those who hate me.

Lift me up from the gates of death,
so that I may declare all your praises.
I will rejoice in your salvation within the gates of Daughter Zion.

15 The nations have fallen into the pit they made;
their foot is caught in the net
they have concealed.

16 The LORD has made himself known;
he has executed justice,
snaring the wicked
by the work of their hands. Higgaion. Selah

17 The wicked will return to Sheol—
all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy will not always be forgotten;
the hope of the oppressed will not perish forever.

19 Rise up, LORD! Do not let mere humans prevail;
let the nations be judged in your presence.

20 Put terror in them, LORD;
let the nations know they are only humans. Selah

10 LORD, why do you stand so far away?
Why do you hide in times of trouble?

2 In arrogance the wicked relentlessly pursue their victims;
let them be caught in the schemes
they have devised.

3 For the wicked one boasts about his own cravings;
the one who is greedy curses and despises
the LORD.

4 In all his scheming,
the wicked person arrogantly thinks,
"There's no accountability,
since there's no God."

5 His ways are always secure;
your lofty judgments have no effect on him;
he scoffs at all his adversaries.

6 He says to himself, "I will never be moved—from generation to generation without calamity."

7 Cursing, deceit, and violence fill his mouth;
trouble and malice are under his tongue.

8 He waits in ambush near settlements;
he kills the innocent in secret places.
His eyes are on the lookout for the helpless;

9 he lurks in secret like a lion in a thicket.
He lurks in order to seize a victim;
he seizes a victim and drags him in his net.

10 So he is oppressed and beaten down;
helpless people fall because of the wicked one's strength.

11 He says to himself, "God has forgotten;
he hides his face and will never see."

12 Rise up, LORD God! Lift up your hand.
Do not forget the oppressed.

13 Why has the wicked person despised God?
He says to himself, "You will not demand an account."

14 But you yourself have seen trouble and grief, observing it in order to take the matter
into your hands.
The helpless one entrusts himself to you;
you are a helper of the fatherless.

15 Break the arm of the wicked, evil person, until you look for his wickedness,
but it can't be found.

16 The LORD is King forever and ever;
the nations will perish from his land.

17 LORD, you have heard the desire of the humble;
you will strengthen their hearts.
You will listen carefully,
doing justice for the fatherless and the oppressed
so that mere humans from the earth may terrify them no more.

11 For the choir director. Of David.
I have taken refuge in the LORD.
How can you say to me,
"Escape to the mountains like a bird!"

2 For look, the wicked string bows;
they put their arrows on bowstrings to shoot from the shadows at the upright in heart.

3 When the foundations are destroyed,
what can the righteous do?"

4 The LORD is in his holy temple;
the LORD—his throne is in heaven.
His eyes watch;
his gaze examines everyone.

5 The LORD examines the righteous,
but he hates the wicked
and those who love violence.

6 Let him rain burning coals and sulfur on the wicked;
let a scorching wind be the portion in their cup.

7 For the LORD is righteous; he loves righteous deeds.
The upright will see his face.

12 *For the choir director: according to Sheminith.
A psalm of David.*

1 Help, LORD, for no faithful one remains;
the loyal have disappeared from the human race.

2 They lie to one another;
they speak with flattering lips and deceptive hearts.

3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips and the tongue that speaks boastfully.

4 They say, "Through our tongues we have power;
our lips are our own—who can be our master?"

5 "Because of the devastation of the needy and the groaning of the poor,

I will now rise up," says the LORD.
"I will provide safety for the one who longs for it."

- 6 The words of the LORD are pure words,
like silver refined in an earthen furnace,
purified seven times.
7 You, LORD, will guard us;
you will protect us from this generation forever.
8 The wicked prowl all around,
and what is worthless is exalted
by the human race.

- 13 For the choir director. A psalm of David.
How long, LORD? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
2 How long will I store up anxious concerns within me,
agony in my mind every day?
How long will my enemy dominate me?
3 Consider me and answer, LORD my God.
Restore brightness to my eyes;
otherwise, I will sleep in death.
4 My enemy will say, "I have triumphed over him,"
and my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.
5 But I have trusted in your faithful love;
my heart will rejoice in your deliverance.
6 I will sing to the LORD
because he has treated me generously.

- 14 For the choir director. Of David.
The fool says in his heart, "There's no God."
They are corrupt; they do vile deeds.
There is no one who does good.
2 The LORD looks down from heaven
on the human race
to see if there is one who is wise,
one who seeks God.
3 All have turned away;
all alike have become corrupt.
There is no one who does good,
not even one.
4 Will evildoers never understand?
They consume my people as they consume bread;
they do not call on the LORD.
5 Then they will be filled with dread,
for God is with those who are righteous.
6 You sinners frustrate the plans of the oppressed,
but the LORD is his refuge.
7 Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come from Zion!
When the LORD restores the fortunes
of his people,
let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

- 15 A psalm of David.
LORD, who can dwell in your tent?
Who can live on your holy mountain?
2 The one who lives blamelessly,
practices righteousness,
and acknowledges the truth in his heart—
who does not slander with his tongue, who does not harm his friend
or discredit his neighbor,
4 who despises the one rejected by the LORD
but honors those who fear the LORD,

who keeps his word whatever the cost,
5 who does not lend his silver at interest or take a bribe against the innocent—the one who does these things will never be shaken.

- 16 A Miktam of David.
Protect me, God, for I take refuge in you.
2 I said to the LORD, "You are my Lord;
I have nothing good besides you."
3 As for the holy people who are in the land,
they are the noble ones.
All my delight is in them.
4 The sorrows of those who take another god for themselves will multiply;
I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood,
and I will not speak their names with my lips.
5 LORD, you are my portion and my cup of blessing;
you hold my future.
6 The boundary lines have fallen for me
in pleasant places;
indeed, I have a beautiful inheritance.
7 I will bless the LORD who counsels me—
even at night when my thoughts trouble me.
8 I always let the LORD guide me.
Because he is at my right hand,
I will not be shaken.
9 Therefore my heart is glad and my whole being rejoices;
my body also rests securely.
10 For you will not abandon me to Sheol;
you will not allow your faithful one to see decay.
11 You reveal the path of life to me;
in your presence is abundant joy;
at your right hand are eternal pleasures.

- 17 A prayer of David.
LORD, hear a just cause;
pay attention to my cry;
listen to my prayer—
from lips free of deceit.
2 Let my vindication come from you,
for you see what is right.
3 You have tested my heart;
you have examined me at night.
You have tried me and found nothing evil;
I have determined that my mouth will not sin.
4 Concerning what people do:
by the words from your lips
I have avoided the ways of the violent.
5 My steps are on your paths;
my feet have not slipped.
6 I call on you, God,
because you will answer me;
listen closely to me; hear what I say.
7 Display the wonders of your faithful love, Savior of all who seek refuge
from those who rebel against your right hand.
8 Protect me as the pupil of your eye;
hide me in the shadow of your wings
from the wicked who treat me violently, my deadly enemies who surround me.
9 They are uncaring;
10 their mouths speak arrogantly.

- 11 They advance against me; now they surround me.
They are determined
to throw me to the ground.
- 12 They are like a lion eager to tear,
like a young lion lurking in ambush.
- 13 Rise up, LORD!
Confront him; bring him down.
With your sword, save me from the wicked.
- 14 With your hand, LORD, save me from men,
from men of the world
whose portion is in this life:
You fill their bellies with what you have in store;
their sons are satisfied,
and they leave their surplus to their children.
- 15 But I will see your face in righteousness;
when I awake, I will be satisfied with your presence.

18 For the choir director. Of the servant of the LORD, David, who spoke the words of this song to the LORD on the day the LORD rescued him from the grasp of all his enemies and from the power of Saul. He said:

- 1 I love you, LORD, my strength.
- 2 The LORD is my rock,
my fortress, and my deliverer,
my God, my rock where I seek refuge,
my shield and the horn of my salvation,
my stronghold.
- 3 I called to the LORD, who is worthy of praise,
and I was saved from my enemies.
- 4 The ropes of death were wrapped around me;
the torrents of destruction terrified me.
- 5 The ropes of Sheol entangled me;
the snares of death confronted me.
- 6 I called to the LORD in my distress,
and I cried to my God for help.
From his temple he heard my voice,
and my cry to him reached his ears.
- 7 Then the earth shook and quaked;
the foundations of the mountains trembled;
they shook because he burned with anger.
- 8 Smoke rose from his nostrils,
and consuming fire came from his mouth;
coals were set ablaze by it.
- 9 He bent the heavens and came down,
total darkness beneath his feet.
- 10 He rode on a cherub and flew,
soaring on the wings of the wind.
- 11 He made darkness his hiding place,
dark storm clouds his canopy around him.
- 12 From the radiance of his presence,
his clouds swept onward with hail and blazing coals.
- 13 The LORD thundered from heaven;
the Most High made his voice heard.
- 14 He shot his arrows and scattered them;
he hurled lightning bolts and routed them.
- 15 The depths of the sea became visible,
the foundations of the world were exposed,
at your rebuke, LORD,
at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
- 16 He reached down from on high
and took hold of me;
he pulled me out of deep water.
- 17 He rescued me from my powerful enemy

- and from those who hated me,
for they were too strong for me.
- 18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
but the LORD was my support.
- 19 He brought me out to a spacious place;
he rescued me because he delighted in me.
- 20 The LORD rewarded me
according to my righteousness;
he repaid me
according to the cleanness of my hands.
- 21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD
and have not turned from my God to wickedness.
- 22 Indeed, I let all his ordinances guide me
and have not disregarded his statutes.
- 23 I was blameless toward him
and kept myself from my iniquity.
- 24 So the LORD repaid me
according to my righteousness,
according to the cleanness of my hands
in his sight.
- 25 With the faithful
you prove yourself faithful,
with the blameless
you prove yourself blameless,
with the pure
you prove yourself pure;
but with the crooked
you prove yourself shrewd.
- 27 For you rescue an oppressed people,
but you humble those with haughty eyes.
- 28 LORD, you light my lamp;
my God illuminates my darkness.
- 29 With you I can attack a barricade,
and with my God I can leap over a wall.
- 30 God—his way is perfect;
the word of the LORD is pure.
He is a shield to all who take refuge in him.
- 31 For who is God besides the LORD?
And who is a rock? Only our God.
- 32 God—he clothes me with strength and makes my way perfect.
- 33 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer
and sets me securely on the heights.
- 34 He trains my hands for war;
my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
- 35 You have given me the shield of your salvation;
your right hand upholds me,
and your humility exalts me.
- 36 You make a spacious place beneath me
for my steps,
and my ankles do not give way.
- 37 I pursue my enemies and overtake them;
I do not turn back until they are wiped out.
- 38 I crush them, and they cannot get up;
they fall beneath my feet.
- 39 You have clothed me with strength for battle;
you subdue my adversaries beneath me.
- 40 You have made my enemies retreat before me;
I annihilate those who hate me.
- 41 They cry for help, but there is no one to save them—
they cry to the LORD, but he does not answer them.
- 42 I pulverize them like dust before the wind;
I trample them like mud in the streets.

- 43 You have freed me from the feuds
among the people;
you have appointed me the head of nations;
a people I had not known serve me.
- 44 Foreigners submit to me cringing;
as soon as they hear they obey me.
- 45 Foreigners lose heart
and come trembling from their fortifications.
- 46 The LORD lives — blessed be my rock!
The God of my salvation is exalted.
- 47 God — he grants me vengeance
and subdues peoples under me.
- 48 He frees me from my enemies.
You exalt me above my adversaries;
you rescue me from violent men.
- 49 Therefore I will give thanks to you among
the nations, LORD;
I will sing praises about your name.
- 50 He gives great victories to his king;
he shows loyalty to his anointed,
to David and his descendants forever.

- 19 For the choir director. A psalm of David.
The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the expanse proclaims the work of his hands.
- 2 Day after day they pour out speech;
night after night they communicate knowledge.
- 3 There is no speech; there are no words;
their voice is not heard.
- 4 Their message has gone out to the whole earth,
and their words to the ends of the world.
In the heavens he has pitched a tent for the sun.
- 5 It is like a bridegroom coming from his home;
it rejoices like an athlete running a course.
- 6 It rises from one end of the heavens and circles to their other end;
nothing is hidden from its heat.
- 7 The instruction of the LORD is perfect, renewing one's life;
the testimony of the LORD is trustworthy, making the inexperienced wise.
- 8 The precepts of the LORD are right, making the heart glad;
the command of the LORD is radiant, making the eyes light up.
- 9 The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever;
the ordinances of the LORD are reliable and altogether righteous.
- 10 They are more desirable than gold —
than an abundance of pure gold;
and sweeter than honey
dripping from a honeycomb.
- 11 In addition, your servant is warned by them,
and in keeping them there is an abundant reward.
- 12 Who perceives his unintentional sins?
Cleanse me from my hidden faults.
- 13 Moreover, keep your servant from willful sins;
do not let them rule me.
Then I will be blameless and cleansed from blatant rebellion.
- 14 May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
be acceptable to you,
LORD, my rock and my Redeemer.

- 20 For the choir director. A psalm of David.
May the LORD answer you in a day of trouble;
may the name of Jacob's God protect you.
- 2 May he send you help from the sanctuary and sustain you from Zion.
- 3 May he remember all your offerings and accept your burnt offering. Selah
- 4 May he give you what your heart desires and fulfill your whole purpose.
- 5 Let us shout for joy at your victory and lift the banner in the name of our God.
May the LORD fulfill all your requests.
- 6 Now I know that the LORD gives victory to his anointed;
he will answer him from his holy heaven
with mighty victories from his right hand.
- 7 Some take pride in chariots, and others in horses,
but we take pride in the name of the LORD
our God.
- 8 They collapse and fall,
but we rise and stand firm.
- 9 LORD, give victory to the king!
May he answer us on the day that we call.

- 21 For the choir director. A psalm of David.
LORD, the king finds joy in your strength.
How greatly he rejoices in your victory!
- 2 You have given him his heart's desire and have not denied the request of his lips. Selah
- 3 For you meet him with rich blessings;
you place a crown of pure gold on his head.
- 4 He asked you for life, and you gave it to him —
length of days forever and ever.
- 5 His glory is great through your victory;
you confer majesty and splendor on him.
- 6 You give him blessings forever;
you cheer him with joy in your presence.
- 7 For the king relies on the LORD;
through the faithful love of the Most High
he is not shaken.
- 8 Your hand will capture all your enemies;
your right hand will seize those who hate you.
- 9 You will make them burn like a fiery furnace when you appear;
the LORD will engulf them in his wrath,
and fire will devour them.
- 10 You will wipe their progeny from the earth and their offspring from the human race.
- 11 Though they intend to harm you and devise a wicked plan, they will not prevail.
- 12 Instead, you will put them to flight
when you ready your bowstrings to shoot at them.
- 13 Be exalted, LORD, in your strength;
we will sing and praise your might.

- 22 *For the choir director: according to
"The Deer of the Dawn." A psalm of David.*
- 1 My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?
Why are you so far from my deliverance and from my words of groaning?
- 2 My God, I cry by day, but you do not answer,
by night, yet I have no rest.
- 3 But you are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.

- 4 Our fathers trusted in you;
they trusted, and you rescued them.
- 5 They cried to you and were set free;
they trusted in you and were not disgraced.
- 6 But I am a worm and not a man,
scorned by mankind and despised by people.
- 7 Everyone who sees me mocks me;
they sneer and shake their heads:
- 8 "He relies on the LORD;
let him save him;
let the LORD rescue him,
since he takes pleasure in him."
- 9 It was you who brought me out of the womb, making me secure at my mother's breast.
- 10 I was given over to you at birth;
you have been my God from my mother's womb.
- 11 Don't be far from me, because distress is near and there's no one to help.
- 12 Many bulls surround me;
strong ones of Bashan encircle me.
- 13 They open their mouths against me —
lions, mauling and roaring.
- 14 I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are disjointed;
my heart is like wax,
melting within me.
- 15 My strength is dried up like baked clay;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You put me into the dust of death.
- 16 For dogs have surrounded me;
a gang of evildoers has closed in on me;
they pierced my hands and my feet.
- 17 I can count all my bones;
people look and stare at me.
- 18 They divided my garments among themselves,
and they cast lots for my clothing.
- 19 But you, LORD, don't be far away.
My strength, come quickly to help me.
- 20 Rescue my life from the sword,
my only life from the power of these dogs.
- 21 Save me from the lion's mouth,
from the horns of wild oxen.
You answered me!
- 22 I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters;
I will praise you in the assembly.
- 23 You who fear the LORD, praise him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor him!
All you descendants of Israel, revere him!
- 24 For he has not despised or abhorred
the torment of the oppressed.
He did not hide his face from him
but listened when he cried to him for help.
- 25 I will give praise in the great assembly
because of you;
I will fulfill my vows
before those who fear you.
- 26 The humble will eat and be satisfied;
those who seek the LORD will praise him.
May your hearts live forever!
- 27 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD.
All the families of the nations
will bow down before you,
- 28 for kingship belongs to the LORD;
he rules the nations.

- 29 All who prosper on earth will eat and bow down;
all those who go down to the dust will kneel before him —
even the one who cannot preserve his life.
- 30 Their descendants will serve him;
the next generation will be told about the Lord.
- 31 They will come and declare his righteousness;
to a people yet to be born
they will declare what he has done.

23 A psalm of David.

- The LORD is my shepherd;
I have what I need.
- 2 He lets me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside quiet waters.
- 3 He renews my life;
he leads me along the right paths
for his name's sake.
- 4 Even when I go through the darkest valley,
I fear no danger,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff — they comfort me.
- 5 You prepare a table for me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
- 6 Only goodness and faithful love will pursue me
all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD
as long as I live.

24 A psalm of David.

- The earth and everything in it,
the world and its inhabitants,
belong to the LORD;
- 2 for he laid its foundation on the seas
and established it on the rivers.
- 3 Who may ascend the mountain of the LORD?
Who may stand in his holy place?
- 4 The one who has clean hands and a pure heart,
who has not appealed to what is false,
and who has not sworn deceitfully.
- 5 He will receive blessing from the LORD,
and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
- 6 Such is the generation of those who inquire of him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob. Selah
- 7 Lift up your heads, you gates!
Rise up, ancient doors!
Then the King of glory will come in.
- 8 Who is this King of glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle.
- 9 Lift up your heads, you gates!
Rise up, ancient doors!
Then the King of glory will come in.
- 10 Who is he, this King of glory?
The LORD of Armies,
he is the King of glory. Selah

25 Of David.

- LORD, I appeal to you.
- 2 My God, I trust in you.
Do not let me be disgraced;
do not let my enemies gloat over me.

- 3 No one who waits for you
will be disgraced;
those who act treacherously without cause
will be disgraced.
- 4 Make your ways known to me, LORD;
teach me your paths.
- 5 Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
I wait for you all day long.
- 6 Remember, LORD, your compassion and your faithful love,
for they have existed from antiquity.
- 7 Do not remember the sins of my youth or my acts of rebellion;
in keeping with your faithful love, remember me
because of your goodness, LORD.
- 8 The LORD is good and upright;
therefore he shows sinners the way.
- 9 He leads the humble in what is right and teaches them his way.
- 10 All the LORD's ways show faithful love and truth to those who keep his covenant and decrees.
- 11 LORD, for the sake of your name, forgive my iniquity, for it is immense.
- 12 Who is this person who fears the LORD?
He will show him the way he should choose.
- 13 He will live a good life,
and his descendants will inherit the land.
- 14 The secret counsel of the LORD
is for those who fear him,
and he reveals his covenant to them.
- 15 My eyes are always on the LORD,
for he will pull my feet out of the net.
- 16 Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am alone and afflicted.
- 17 The distresses of my heart increase;
bring me out of my sufferings.
- 18 Consider my affliction and trouble,
and forgive all my sins.
- 19 Consider my enemies; they are numerous,
and they hate me violently.
- 20 Guard me and rescue me;
do not let me be put to shame,
for I take refuge in you.
- 21 May integrity and what is right
watch over me,
for I wait for you.
- 22 God, redeem Israel, from all its distresses.

- 26 Of David.
Vindicate me, LORD,
because I have lived with integrity and have trusted in the LORD without wavering.
- 2 Test me, LORD, and try me;
examine my heart and mind.
- 3 For your faithful love guides me,
and I live by your truth.
- 4 I do not sit with the worthless or associate with hypocrites.
- 5 I hate a crowd of evildoers,
and I do not sit with the wicked.
- 6 I wash my hands in innocence and go around your altar, LORD, raising my voice in thanksgiving and telling about your wondrous works.

- 8 LORD, I love the house where you dwell,
the place where your glory resides.
- 9 Do not destroy me along with sinners, or my life along with men of bloodshed in whose hands are evil schemes and whose right hands are filled with bribes.
- 11 But I live with integrity;
redeem me and be gracious to me.
- 12 My foot stands on level ground;
I will bless the LORD in the assemblies.

- 27 Of David.
The LORD is my light and my salvation — whom should I fear?
The LORD is the stronghold of my life —
whom should I dread?
- 2 When evildoers came against me to devour
my flesh,
my foes and my enemies stumbled and fell.
- 3 Though an army deploys against me,
my heart will not be afraid;
though a war breaks out against me,
I will still be confident.
- 4 I have asked one thing from the LORD;
it is what I desire:
to dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,
gazing on the beauty of the LORD and seeking him in his temple.
- 5 For he will conceal me in his shelter
in the day of adversity;
he will hide me under the cover of his tent;
he will set me high on a rock.
- 6 Then my head will be high above my enemies around me;
I will offer sacrifices in his tent with shouts of joy.
I will sing and make music to the LORD.
- 7 LORD, hear my voice when I call;
be gracious to me and answer me.
- 8 My heart says this about you:
"Seek his face."
LORD, I will seek your face.
- 9 Do not hide your face from me;
do not turn your servant away in anger.
You have been my helper;
do not leave me or abandon me,
God of my salvation.
- 10 Even if my father and mother abandon me,
the LORD cares for me.
- 11 Because of my adversaries,
show me your way, LORD,
and lead me on a level path.
- 12 Do not give me over to the will of my foes,
for false witnesses rise up against me,
breathing violence.
- 13 I am certain that I will see the LORD's goodness in the land of the living.
- 14 Wait for the LORD;
be strong, and let your heart be courageous.
Wait for the LORD.

- 28 Of David.
LORD, I call to you;
my rock, do not be deaf to me.
If you remain silent to me,

- I will be like those going down to the Pit.
- 2 Listen to the sound of my pleading when I cry to you for help, when I lift up my hands toward your holy sanctuary.
 - 3 Do not drag me away with the wicked, with the evildoers, who speak in friendly ways with their neighbors while malice is in their hearts.
 - 4 Repay them according to what they have done — according to the evil of their deeds. Repay them according to the work of their hands; give them back what they deserve.
 - 5 Because they do not consider what the LORD has done or the work of his hands, he will tear them down and not rebuild them.
 - 6 Blessed be the LORD, for he has heard the sound of my pleading.
 - 7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and I am helped. Therefore my heart celebrates, and I give thanks to him with my song.
 - 8 The LORD is the strength of his people; he is a stronghold of salvation for his anointed.
 - 9 Save your people, bless your possession, shepherd them, and carry them forever.

29 A psalm of David.

- Ascribe to the LORD, you heavenly beings, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- 2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness.
 - 3 The voice of the LORD is above the waters. The God of glory thunders — the LORD, above the vast water, the voice of the LORD in power, the voice of the LORD in splendor.
 - 5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars; the LORD shatters the cedars of Lebanon. He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and Sirion, like a young wild ox.
 - 7 The voice of the LORD flashes flames of fire. The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
 - 9 The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth and strips the woodlands bare. In his temple all cry, "Glory!"
 - 10 The LORD sits enthroned over the flood; the LORD sits enthroned, King forever.
 - 11 The LORD gives his people strength; the LORD blesses his people with peace.

30 A psalm; a dedication song for the house. Of David.

- 1 I will exalt you, LORD, because you have lifted me up and have not allowed my enemies to triumph over me.
- 2 LORD my God, I cried to you for help, and you healed me.
- 3 LORD, you brought me up from Sheol; you spared me from among those going down to the Pit.

- 4 Sing to the LORD, you his faithful ones, and praise his holy name.
- 5 For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favor, a lifetime. Weeping may stay overnight, but there is joy in the morning.
- 6 When I was secure, I said, "I will never be shaken."
- 7 LORD, when you showed your favor, you made me stand like a strong mountain; when you hid your face, I was terrified.
- 8 LORD, I called to you; I sought favor from my LORD: "What gain is there in my death, if I go down to the Pit? Will the dust praise you? Will it proclaim your truth?"
- 10 LORD, listen and be gracious to me; LORD, be my helper."
- 11 You turned my lament into dancing; you removed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness, so that I can sing to you and not be silent. LORD my God, I will praise you forever.

31 For the choir director. A psalm of David.

- LORD, I seek refuge in you; let me never be disgraced. Save me by your righteousness.
- 2 Listen closely to me; rescue me quickly. Be a rock of refuge for me, a mountain fortress to save me.
 - 3 For you are my rock and my fortress; you lead and guide me for your name's sake.
 - 4 You will free me from the net that is secretly set for me, for you are my refuge.
 - 5 Into your hand I entrust my spirit; you have redeemed me, LORD, God of truth.
 - 6 I hate those who are devoted to worthless idols, but I trust in the LORD.
 - 7 I will rejoice and be glad in your faithful love because you have seen my affliction. You know the troubles of my soul and have not handed me over to the enemy. You have set my feet in a spacious place.
 - 9 Be gracious to me, LORD, because I am in distress; my eyes are worn out from frustration — my whole being as well.
 - 10 Indeed, my life is consumed with grief and my years with groaning; my strength has failed because of my iniquity, and my bones waste away.
 - 11 I am ridiculed by all my adversaries and even by my neighbors. I am dreaded by my acquaintances; those who see me in the street run from me.
 - 12 I am forgotten: gone from memory like a dead person — like broken pottery.
 - 13 I have heard the gossip of many; terror is on every side. When they conspired against me,

- they plotted to take my life.
 14 But I trust in you, LORD;
 I say, "You are my God."
 15 The course of my life is in your power;
 rescue me from the power of my enemies
 and from my persecutors.
 16 Make your face shine on your servant;
 save me by your faithful love.
 17 LORD, do not let me be disgraced when I call on you.
 Let the wicked be disgraced;
 let them be quiet in Sheol.
 18 Let lying lips
 that arrogantly speak against the righteous in proud contempt be silenced.
 19 How great is your goodness that you have stored up for those who fear you and accomplished in the sight of everyone for those who take refuge in you.
 20 You hide them in the protection of your presence;
 you conceal them in a shelter
 from human schemes,
 from quarrelsome tongues.
 21 Blessed be the LORD,
 for he has wondrously shown his faithful love to me
 in a city under siege.
 22 In my alarm I said,
 "I am cut off from your sight."
 But you heard the sound of my pleading
 when I cried to you for help.
 23 Love the LORD, all his faithful ones.
 The LORD protects the loyal,
 but fully repays the arrogant.
 24 Be strong, and let your heart be courageous,
 all you who put your hope in the LORD.

- 32 Of David. A Maskil.
 How joyful is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered!
 2 How joyful is a person whom the LORD does not charge with iniquity and in whose spirit is no deceit!
 3 When I kept silent, my bones became brittle from my groaning all day long.
 4 For day and night your hand was heavy on me;
 my strength was drained
 as in the summer's heat. Selah
 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not conceal my iniquity.
 I said,
 "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
 and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah
 6 Therefore let everyone who is faithful pray to you immediately.
 When great floodwaters come,
 they will not reach him.
 7 You are my hiding place;
 you protect me from trouble.
 You surround me with joyful shouts of deliverance. Selah
 8 I will instruct you and show you the way to go;
 with my eye on you, I will give counsel.
 9 Do not be like a horse or mule,

- without understanding,
 that must be controlled with bit and bridle or else it will not come near you.
 10 Many pains come to the wicked,
 but the one who trusts in the LORD will have faithful love surrounding him.
 11 Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you righteous ones;
 shout for joy,
 all you upright in heart.

- 33 Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous ones;
 praise from the upright is beautiful.
 2 Praise the LORD with the lyre;
 make music to him with a ten-stringed harp.
 3 Sing a new song to him;
 play skillfully on the strings, with a joyful shout.
 4 For the word of the LORD is right,
 and all his work is trustworthy.
 5 He loves righteousness and justice;
 the earth is full of the LORD's unfailing love.
 6 The heavens were made by the word of the LORD,
 and all the stars, by the breath of his mouth.
 7 He gathers the water of the sea into a heap;
 he puts the depths into storehouses.
 8 Let the whole earth fear the LORD;
 let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe
 of him.
 9 For he spoke, and it came into being;
 he commanded, and it came into existence.
 10 The LORD frustrates the counsel of the nations;
 he thwarts the plans of the peoples.
 11 The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the plans of his heart from generation to generation.
 12 Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD — the people he has chosen to be his own possession!
 13 The LORD looks down from heaven;
 he observes everyone.
 14 He gazes on all the inhabitants of the earth
 from his dwelling place.
 15 He forms the hearts of them all;
 he considers all their works.
 16 A king is not saved by a large army;
 a warrior will not be rescued by great strength.
 17 The horse is a false hope for safety;
 it provides no escape by its great power.
 18 But look, the LORD keeps his eye on those who fear him —
 those who depend on his faithful love to rescue them from death
 and to keep them alive in famine.
 20 We wait for the LORD;
 he is our help and shield.
 21 For our hearts rejoice in him
 because we trust in his holy name.
 22 May your faithful love rest on us, LORD,
 for we put our hope in you.

- 34 Concerning David, when he pretended to be insane in the presence of Abimelech, who drove him out, and he departed.
 1 I will bless the LORD at all times;
 his praise will always be on my lips.

- 2 I will boast in the LORD;
the humble will hear and be glad.
- 3 Proclaim the LORD's greatness with me;
let us exalt his name together.
- 4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me
and rescued me from all my fears.
- 5 Those who look to him are radiant with joy;
their faces will never be ashamed.
- 6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him
and saved him from all his troubles.
- 7 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and rescues them.
- 8 Taste and see that the LORD is good.
How happy is the person who takes refuge in him!
- 9 You who are his holy ones, fear the LORD,
for those who fear him lack nothing.
- 10 Young lions lack food and go hungry,
but those who seek the LORD will not lack any good thing.
- 11 Come, children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
- 12 Who is someone who desires life,
loving a long life to enjoy what is good?
- 13 Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from deceitful speech.
- 14 Turn away from evil and do what is good;
seek peace and pursue it.
- 15 The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their cry for help.
- 16 The face of the LORD is set against those who do what is evil,
to remove all memory of them from the earth.
- 17 The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears,
and rescues them from all their troubles.
- 18 The LORD is near the brokenhearted;
he saves those crushed in spirit.
- 19 One who is righteous has many adversities, but the LORD rescues him from them all.
- 20 He protects all his bones;
not one of them is broken.
- 21 Evil brings death to the wicked,
and those who hate the righteous will be punished.
- 22 The LORD redeems the life of his servants, and all who take refuge in him will not be punished.

35 Of David.

- Oppose my opponents, LORD;
fight those who fight me.
- 2 Take your shields — large and small — and come to my aid.
- 3 Draw the spear and javelin against my pursuers,
and assure me: "I am your deliverance."
- 4 Let those who intend to take my life
be disgraced and humiliated;
let those who plan to harm me
be turned back and ashamed.
- 5 Let them be like chaff in the wind,
with the angel of the LORD driving them away.
- 6 Let their way be dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
- 7 They hid their net for me without cause;

- they dug a pit for me without cause.
- 8 Let ruin come on him unexpectedly,
and let the net that he hid ensnare him;
let him fall into it — to his ruin.
- 9 Then I will rejoice in the LORD;
I will delight in his deliverance.
- 10 All my bones will say,
"LORD, who is like you,
rescuing the poor from one too strong for him,
the poor or the needy from one who robs him?"
- 11 Malicious witnesses come forward;
they question me about things I do not know.
- 12 They repay me evil for good,
making me desolate.
- 13 Yet when they were sick,
my clothing was sackcloth;
I humbled myself with fasting,
and my prayer was genuine.
- 14 I went about mourning as if for my friend or brother;
I was bowed down with grief,
like one mourning for a mother.
- 15 But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee;
they gathered against me.
Assailants I did not know
tore at me and did not stop.
- 16 With godless mockery
they gnashed their teeth at me.
- 17 Lord, how long will you look on?
Rescue me from their ravages;
rescue my precious life from the young lions.
- 18 I will praise you in the great assembly;
I will exalt you among many people.
- 19 Do not let my deceitful enemies rejoice over me;
do not let those who hate me without cause
wink at me maliciously.
- 20 For they do not speak in friendly ways,
but contrive fraudulent schemes against those who live peacefully in the land.
- 21 They open their mouths wide against me and say,
"Aha, aha! We saw it!"
- 22 You saw it, LORD; do not be silent.
Lord, do not be far from me.
- 23 Wake up and rise to my defense,
to my cause, my God and my Lord!
- 24 Vindicate me, LORD my God,
in keeping with your righteousness,
and do not let them rejoice over me.
- 25 Do not let them say in their hearts,
"Aha! Just what we wanted."
Do not let them say,
"We have swallowed him up!"
- 26 Let those who rejoice at my misfortune
be disgraced and humiliated;
let those who exalt themselves over me
be clothed with shame and reproach.
- 27 Let those who want my vindication shout for joy and be glad;
let them continually say,
"The LORD be exalted.
He takes pleasure in his servant's well-being."
- 28 And my tongue will proclaim your righteousness,
your praise all day long.

36 For the choir director. Of David, the Lord's servant.

An oracle within my heart concerning the transgression of the wicked person:
Dread of God has no effect on him.
2 For with his flattering opinion of himself,
he does not discover and hate his iniquity.
3 The words from his mouth are malicious and deceptive;
he has stopped acting wisely and doing good.
4 Even on his bed he makes malicious plans.
He sets himself on a path that is not good,
and he does not reject evil.
5 LORD, your faithful love reaches to heaven,
your faithfulness to the clouds.
6 Your righteousness is like the highest mountains,
your judgments like the deepest sea.
LORD, you preserve people and animals.
7 How priceless your faithful love is, God!
People take refuge in the shadow of your wings.
8 They are filled from the abundance of your house.
You let them drink from your refreshing stream.
9 For the wellspring of life is with you.
By means of your light we see light.
10 Spread your faithful love over those who know you,
and your righteousness over the upright in heart.
11 Do not let the foot of the arrogant come near me or the hand of the wicked drive me away.
12 There! The evildoers have fallen.
They have been thrown down and cannot rise.

37 Of David.

Do not be agitated by evildoers;
do not envy those who do wrong.
2 For they wither quickly like grass and wilt like tender green plants.
3 Trust in the LORD and do what is good;
dwell in the land and live securely.
4 Take delight in the LORD,
and he will give you your heart's desires.
5 Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in him, and he will act,
6 making your righteousness shine like the dawn,
your justice like the noonday.
7 Be silent before the LORD and wait expectantly
for him;
do not be agitated by one who prospers
in his way,
by the person who carries out evil plans.
8 Refrain from anger and give up your rage;
do not be agitated — it can only bring harm.
9 For evildoers will be destroyed, but those who put their hope in the LORD will inherit the land.
10 A little while, and the wicked person will be no more;
though you look for him, he will not be there.
11 But the humble will inherit the land and will enjoy abundant prosperity.
12 The wicked person schemes against the righteous and gnashes his teeth at him.
13 The Lord laughs at him
because he sees that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn the sword and strung the bow
to bring down the poor and needy and to slaughter those whose way is upright.
15 Their swords will enter their own hearts,
and their bows will be broken.
16 The little that the righteous person has is better than the abundance of many wicked people.
17 For the arms of the wicked will be broken,
but the LORD supports the righteous.
18 The LORD watches over the blameless
all their days,
and their inheritance will last forever.
19 They will not be disgraced in times of adversity;
they will be satisfied in days of hunger.
20 But the wicked will perish;
the LORD's enemies, like the glory of the pastures,
will fade away —
they will fade away like smoke.
21 The wicked person borrows and does not repay,
but the righteous one is gracious and giving.
22 Those who are blessed by the LORD will inherit
the land,
but those cursed by him will be destroyed.
23 A person's steps are established by the LORD,
and he takes pleasure in his way.
24 Though he falls, he will not be overwhelmed,
because the LORD supports him with his hand.
25 I have been young and now I am old,
yet I have not seen the righteous abandoned or his children begging for bread.
26 He is always generous, always lending,
and his children are a blessing.
27 Turn away from evil, do what is good,
and settle permanently.
28 For the LORD loves justice and will not abandon his faithful ones.
They are kept safe forever,
but the children of the wicked will be destroyed.
29 The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it permanently.
30 The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom;
his tongue speaks what is just.
31 The instruction of his God is in his heart;
his steps do not falter.
32 The wicked one lies in wait for the righteous and intends to kill him;
33 the LORD will not leave him in the power of the wicked one or allow him to be condemned
when he is judged.
34 Wait for the LORD and keep his way,
and he will exalt you to inherit the land.
You will watch when the wicked are destroyed.
35 I have seen a wicked, violent person
well-rooted, like a flourishing native tree.
36 Then I passed by and noticed he was gone;
I searched for him, but he could not be found.
37 Watch the blameless and observe the upright,
for the person of peace will have a future.
38 But transgressors will all be eliminated;
the future of the wicked will be destroyed.
39 The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD, their refuge in a time of distress.
40 The LORD helps and delivers them;

he will deliver them from the wicked and will save them
because they take refuge in him.

38 A psalm of David for remembrance.

- LORD, do not punish me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.
- 2 For your arrows have sunk into me,
and your hand has pressed down on me.
 - 3 There is no soundness in my body because of your indignation;
there is no health in my bones
because of my sin.
 - 4 For my iniquities have flooded over my head;
they are a burden too heavy for me to bear.
 - 5 My wounds are foul and festering because of my foolishness.
 - 6 I am bent over and brought very low;
all day long I go around in mourning.
 - 7 For my insides are full of burning pain,
and there is no soundness in my body.
 - 8 I am faint and severely crushed;
I groan because of the anguish of my heart.
 - 9 Lord, my every desire is in front of you;
my sighing is not hidden from you.
 - 10 My heart races, my strength leaves me,
and even the light of my eyes has faded.
 - 11 My loved ones and friends stand back from my affliction,
and my relatives stand at a distance.
 - 12 Those who intend to kill me set traps, and those who want to harm me threaten to destroy me;
they plot treachery all day long.
 - 13 I am like a deaf person; I do not hear.
I am like a speechless person who does not open his mouth.
 - 14 I am like a man who does not hear and has no arguments in his mouth.
 - 15 For I put my hope in you, LORD;
you will answer me, my Lord, my God.
 - 16 For I said, "Don't let them rejoice over me—
those who are arrogant toward me when I stumble."
 - 17 For I am about to fall,
and my pain is constantly with me.
 - 18 So I confess my iniquity;
I am anxious because of my sin.
 - 19 But my enemies are vigorous and powerful;
many hate me for no reason.
 - 20 Those who repay evil for good attack me for pursuing good.
 - 21 LORD, do not abandon me;
my God, do not be far from me.
 - 22 Hurry to help me,
my Lord, my salvation.

39 For the choir director, for Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

- 1 I said, "I will guard my ways
so that I may not sin with my tongue;
I will guard my mouth with a muzzle
as long as the wicked are in my presence."
- 2 I was speechless and quiet;
I kept silent, even from speaking good,

and my pain intensified.

- 3 My heart grew hot within me;
as I mused, a fire burned.
I spoke with my tongue:
- 4 "LORD, make me aware of my end
and the number of my days
so that I will know how short-lived I am.
- 5 In fact, you have made my days just inches long,
and my life span is as nothing to you.
Yes, every human being stands as only a vapor. Selah
- 6 Yes, a person goes about like a mere shadow.
Indeed, they rush around in vain, gathering possessions
without knowing who will get them.
- 7 "Now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in you.
- 8 Rescue me from all my transgressions;
do not make me the taunt of fools.
- 9 I am speechless; I do not open my mouth
because of what you have done.
Remove your torment from me.
Because of the force of your hand I am finished.
- 11 You discipline a person with punishment for iniquity,
consuming like a moth what is precious to him;
yes, every human being is only a vapor. Selah
- 12 "Hear my prayer, LORD,
and listen to my cry for help;
do not be silent at my tears.
For I am here with you as an alien,
a temporary resident like all my ancestors.
- 13 Turn your angry gaze from me so that I may be cheered up before I die and am gone."

40 For the choir director. A psalm of David.

- 1 I waited patiently for the LORD, and he turned to me and heard my cry for help.
- 2 He brought me up from a desolate pit,
out of the muddy clay,
and set my feet on a rock,
making my steps secure.
- 3 He put a new song in my mouth,
a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear,
and they will trust in the LORD.
- 4 How happy is anyone who has put his trust in the LORD and has not turned to the proud or to those who run after lies!
- 5 LORD my God, you have done many things—
your wondrous works and your plans for us;
none can compare with you.
If I were to report and speak of them,
they are more than can be told.
- 6 You do not delight in sacrifice and offering;
you open my ears to listen.
You do not ask for a whole burnt offering or a sin offering.
- 7 Then I said, "See, I have come;
in the scroll it is written about me.
- 8 I delight to do your will, my God,
and your instruction is deep within me."
- 9 I proclaim righteousness in the great assembly;

see, I do not keep my mouth closed —
as you know, LORD.

10 I did not hide your righteousness in my heart;
I spoke about your faithfulness and salvation;
I did not conceal your constant love and truth
from the great assembly.

11 LORD, you do not withhold your compassion
from me.

Your constant love and truth will always guard me.

12 For troubles without number have surrounded me;
my iniquities have overtaken me; I am unable to see.

They are more than the hairs of my head,
and my courage leaves me.

13 LORD, be pleased to rescue me;
hurry to help me, LORD.

14 Let those who intend to take my life
be disgraced and confounded.

Let those who wish me harm
be turned back and humiliated.

15 Let those who say to me, "Aha, aha!"
be appalled because of their shame.

16 Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation continually say,
"The LORD is great!"

17 I am oppressed and needy;
may the LORD think of me.

You are my helper and my deliverer;
my God, do not delay.

41 For the choir director. A psalm of David.

Happy is one who is considerate of the poor;
the LORD will save him in a day of adversity.

2 The LORD will keep him and preserve him;
he will be blessed in the land.

You will not give him over to the desire of his enemies.

3 The LORD will sustain him on his sickbed;
you will heal him on the bed where he lies.

4 I said, "LORD, be gracious to me;
heal me, for I have sinned against you."

5 My enemies speak maliciously about me:
"When will he die and be forgotten?"

6 When one of them comes to visit,
he speaks deceitfully;
he stores up evil in his heart;
he goes out and talks.

7 All who hate me whisper together about me;
they plan to harm me.

8 "Something awful has overwhelmed him,
and he won't rise again from where he lies!"

9 Even my friend in whom I trusted,
one who ate my bread,
has raised his heel against me.

10 But you, LORD, be gracious to me and raise me up;
then I will repay them.

11 By this I know that you delight in me:
my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.

12 You supported me because of my integrity and set me in your presence forever.

13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and amen.

BOOK II (Psalms 42–72)

42 For the choir director. A Maskil of the sons of Korah.

1 As a deer longs for flowing streams,
so I long for you, God.

2 I thirst for God, the living God.

3 When can I come and appear before God?
My tears have been my food day and night,
while all day long people say to me,
"Where is your God?"

4 I remember this as I pour out my heart:
how I walked with many,
leading the festive procession to the house of God,
with joyful and thankful shouts.

5 Why, my soul, are you so dejected?
Why are you in such turmoil?

Put your hope in God, for I will still praise him,
my Savior and my God.

6 I am deeply depressed;
therefore I remember you from the land of Jordan and the peaks of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

7 Deep calls to deep in the roar of your waterfalls;
all your breakers and your billows have swept over me.

8 The LORD will send his faithful love by day;
his song will be with me in the night —
a prayer to the God of my life.

9 I will say to God, my rock,
"Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I go about in sorrow
because of the enemy's oppression?"

10 My adversaries taunt me,
as if crushing my bones,
while all day long they say to me,
"Where is your God?"

11 Why, my soul, are you so dejected?
Why are you in such turmoil?
Put your hope in God, for I will still praise him,
my Savior and my God.

43 Vindicate me, God, and champion my cause against an unfaithful nation; rescue me from the deceitful and unjust person.

2 For you are the God of my refuge.

Why have you rejected me?
Why must I go about in sorrow
because of the enemy's oppression?

3 Send your light and your truth; let them lead me.
Let them bring me to your holy mountain,
to your dwelling place.

4 Then I will come to the altar of God,
to God, my greatest joy.
I will praise you with the lyre,
God, my God.

5 Why, my soul, are you so dejected?
Why are you in such turmoil?
Put your hope in God, for I will still praise him,
my Savior and my God.

44 For the choir director. A Maskil of the sons of Korah.

1 God, we have heard with our ears —
our ancestors have told us —
the work you accomplished in their days,

in days long ago:
 2 In order to plant them,
 you displaced the nations by your hand;
 in order to settle them,
 you brought disaster on the peoples.
 3 For they did not take the land by their sword—their arm did not bring them victory—but by your right hand, your arm,
 and the light of your face,
 because you were favorable toward them.
 4 You are my King, my God,
 who ordains victories for Jacob.
 5 Through you we drive back our foes;
 through your name we trample our enemies.
 6 For I do not trust in my bow,
 and my sword does not bring me victory.
 7 But you give us victory over our foes and let those who hate us be disgraced.
 8 We boast in God all day long;
 we will praise your name forever. Selah
 9 But you have rejected and humiliated us;
 you do not march out with our armies.
 10 You make us retreat from the foe,
 and those who hate us
 have taken plunder for themselves.
 11 You hand us over to be eaten like sheep and scatter us among the nations.
 12 You sell your people for nothing;
 you make no profit from selling them.
 13 You make us an object of reproach to our neighbors, a source of mockery and ridicule to those around us.
 14 You make us a joke among the nations,
 a laughingstock among the peoples.
 15 My disgrace is before me all day long,
 and shame has covered my face,
 16 because of the taunts of the scorner and reviler,
 because of the enemy and avenger.
 17 All this has happened to us, but we have not forgotten you or betrayed your covenant.
 18 Our hearts have not turned back;
 our steps have not strayed from your path.
 19 But you have crushed us in a haunt of jackals and have covered us with deepest darkness.
 20 If we had forgotten the name of our God and spread out our hands to a foreign god, wouldn't God have found this out,
 since he knows the secrets of the heart?
 22 Because of you we are being put to death
 all day long;
 we are counted as sheep to be slaughtered.
 23 Wake up, LORD! Why are you sleeping?
 Get up! Don't reject us forever!
 24 Why do you hide
 and forget our affliction and oppression?
 25 For we have sunk down to the dust;
 our bodies cling to the ground.
 26 Rise up! Help us!
 Redeem us because of your faithful love.

45 *For the choir director: according to "The Lilies."
 A Maskil of the sons of Korah. A love song.*

1 My heart is moved by a noble theme as I recite my verses to the king;

my tongue is the pen of a skillful writer.
 2 You are the most handsome of men;
 grace flows from your lips.
 Therefore God has blessed you forever.
 3 Mighty warrior, strap your sword at your side.
 In your majesty and splendor—
 4 in your splendor ride triumphantly in the cause of truth, humility, and justice.
 May your right hand show your awe-inspiring acts.
 5 Your sharpened arrows pierce the hearts of the king's enemies;
 the peoples fall under you.
 6 Your throne, God, is forever and ever;
 the scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of justice.
 7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
 therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of joy
 more than your companions.
 8 Myrrh, aloes, and cassia perfume
 all your garments;
 from ivory palaces harps bring you joy.
 9 Kings' daughters are among your honored women;
 the queen, adorned with gold from Ophir,
 stands at your right hand.
 10 Listen, daughter, pay attention and consider:
 forget your people and your father's house,
 and the King will desire your beauty.
 Bow down to him, for he is your lord.
 12 The daughter of Tyre, the wealthy people, will seek your favor with gifts.
 13 In her chamber, the royal daughter is all glorious,
 her clothing embroidered with gold.
 14 In colorful garments she is led to the king;
 after her, the virgins, her companions, are brought to you.
 15 They are led in with gladness and rejoicing;
 they enter the king's palace.
 16 Your sons will succeed your ancestors;
 you will make them princes throughout the land.
 17 I will cause your name to be remembered for all generations;
 therefore the peoples will praise you forever and ever.

46 For the choir director. A song of the sons of Korah. According to Alamoth.

1 God is our refuge and strength, a helper who is always found
 in times of trouble.
 2 Therefore we will not be afraid, though the earth trembles
 and the mountains topple into the depths of the seas,
 3 though its water roars and foams and the mountains quake with its turmoil. Selah
 4 There is a river—
 its streams delight the city of God,
 the holy dwelling place of the Most High.
 5 God is within her; she will not be toppled.
 God will help her when the morning dawns.
 6 Nations rage, kingdoms topple;
 the earth melts when he lifts his voice.
 7 The Lord of Armies is with us;
 the God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah

- 8 Come, see the works of the LORD, who brings devastation on the earth.
9 He makes wars cease throughout the earth.
He shatters bows and cuts spears to pieces;
he sets wagons ablaze.
10 "Stop your fighting, and know that I am God, exalted among the nations, exalted on the earth."
11 The LORD of Armies is with us;
the God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah

- 47 For the choir director. A psalm of the sons of Korah.
Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with a jubilant cry.
2 For the LORD, the Most High, is awe-inspiring, a great King over the whole earth.
3 He subdues peoples under us
and nations under our feet.
4 He chooses for us our inheritance —
the pride of Jacob, whom he loves. Selah
5 God ascends among shouts of joy,
the LORD, with the sound of trumpets.
6 Sing praise to God, sing praise;
sing praise to our King, sing praise!
7 Sing a song of wisdom,
for God is King of the whole earth.
8 God reigns over the nations;
God is seated on his holy throne.
9 The nobles of the peoples have assembled with the people of the God of Abraham.
For the leaders of the earth belong to God;
he is greatly exalted.

- 48 A song. A psalm of the sons of Korah.
The LORD is great and highly praised
in the city of our God.
His holy mountain, ² rising splendidly,
is the joy of the whole earth.
Mount Zion — the summit of Zaphon — is the city of the great King.
3 God is known as a stronghold in its citadels.
4 Look! The kings assembled;
they advanced together.
5 They looked and froze with fear;
they fled in terror.
6 Trembling seized them there,
agony like that of a woman in labor,
7 as you wrecked the ships of Tarshish with the east wind.
8 Just as we heard, so we have seen in the city of the LORD of Armies,
in the city of our God;
God will establish it forever. Selah
9 God, within your temple,
we contemplate your faithful love.
10 Like your name, God, so your praise reaches to the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with justice.
11 Mount Zion is glad.
Judah's villages rejoice
because of your judgments.
12 Go around Zion, encircle it;
count its towers,
13 note its ramparts; tour its citadels
so that you can tell a future generation:

- 14 "This God, our God forever and ever —
he will always lead us."

- 49 For the choir director. A psalm of the sons of Korah.
Hear this, all you peoples;
listen, all who inhabit the world,
2 both low and high,
rich and poor together.
3 My mouth speaks wisdom;
my heart's meditation brings understanding.
4 I turn my ear to a proverb;
I explain my riddle with a lyre.
5 Why should I fear in times of trouble?
The iniquity of my foes surrounds me.
6 They trust in their wealth and boast of their abundant riches.
7 Yet these cannot redeem a person or pay his ransom to God —
8 since the price of redeeming him is too costly, one should forever stop trying — 9 so that he may live forever and not see the Pit.
10 For one can see that the wise die;
the foolish and stupid also pass away.
Then they leave their wealth to others.
11 Their graves are their permanent homes,
their dwellings from generation to generation, though they have named estates
after themselves.
12 But despite his assets, mankind will not last;
he is like the animals that perish.
13 This is the way of those who are arrogant,
and of their followers,
who approve of their words. Selah 14 Like sheep they are headed for Sheol;
Death will shepherd them.
The upright will rule over them in the morning,
and their form will waste away in Sheol,
far from their lofty abode.
15 But God will redeem me
from the power of Sheol,
for he will take me. Selah
16 Do not be afraid when a person gets rich,
when the wealth of his house increases.
17 For when he dies, he will take nothing at all;
his wealth will not follow him down.
18 Though he blesses himself during his lifetime — and you are acclaimed when you do well for yourself —
19 he will go to the generation of his fathers;
they will never see the light.
20 Mankind, with his assets
but without understanding, is like the animals that perish.

- 50 A psalm of Asaph.
The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks;
he summons the earth
from the rising of the sun to its setting.
2 From Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God appears in radiance.
3 Our God is coming; he will not be silent!
Devouring fire precedes him,
and a storm rages around him.
4 On high, he summons heaven and earth

in order to judge his people:
 5 "Gather my faithful ones to me,
 those who made a covenant with me by sacrifice."
 6 The heavens proclaim his righteousness, for God is the Judge. Selah
 7 "Listen, my people, and I will speak;
 I will testify against you, Israel.
 I am God, your God.
 8 I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices or for your burnt offerings, which are continually before me.
 9 I will not take a bull from your household or male goats from your pens, 10 for every animal of the forest is mine,
 the cattle on a thousand hills.
 11 I know every bird of the mountains,
 and the creatures of the field are mine.
 12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
 for the world and everything in it is mine.
 13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?
 14 Sacrifice a thank offering to God,
 and pay your vows to the Most High.
 15 Call on me in a day of trouble;
 I will rescue you, and you will honor me."
 16 But God says to the wicked:
 "What right do you have to recite my statutes and to take my covenant on your lips?
 17 You hate instruction and fling my words behind you.
 18 When you see a thief,
 you make friends with him,
 and you associate with adulterers.
 19 You unleash your mouth for evil and harness your tongue for deceit.
 20 You sit, maligning your brother, slandering your mother's son.
 21 You have done these things, and I kept silent;
 you thought I was just like you.
 But I will rebuke you
 and lay out the case before you.
 22 "Understand this, you who forget God,
 or I will tear you apart,
 and there will be no one to rescue you.
 23 Whoever sacrifices a thank offering honors me,
 and whoever orders his conduct,
 I will show him the salvation of God."

51 For the choir director. A psalm of David, when the prophet Nathan came to him after he had gone to Bathsheba.

1 Be gracious to me, God,
 according to your faithful love;
 according to your abundant compassion,
 blot out my rebellion.
 2 Completely wash away my guilt and cleanse me from my sin.
 3 For I am conscious of my rebellion,
 and my sin is always before me.
 4 Against you — you alone — I have sinned and done this evil in your sight.
 So you are right when you pass sentence;
 you are blameless when you judge.
 5 Indeed, I was guilty when I was born;
 I was sinful when my mother conceived me.

6 Surely you desire integrity in the inner self,
 and you teach me wisdom deep within.
 7 Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
 wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
 8 Let me hear joy and gladness;
 let the bones you have crushed rejoice.
 9 Turn your face away from my sins and blot out all my guilt.
 10 God, create a clean heart for me
 and renew a steadfast spirit within me.
 11 Do not banish me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
 12 Restore the joy of your salvation to me,
 and sustain me by giving me a willing spirit.
 13 Then I will teach the rebellious your ways,
 and sinners will return to you.
 14 Save me from the guilt of bloodshed, God —
 God of my salvation —
 and my tongue will sing of your righteousness.
 15 Lord, open my lips,
 and my mouth will declare your praise.
 16 You do not want a sacrifice, or I would give it;
 you are not pleased with a burnt offering.
 17 The sacrifice pleasing to God is a broken spirit.
 You will not despise a broken and humbled heart,
 God.
 18 In your good pleasure, cause Zion to prosper;
 build the walls of Jerusalem.
 19 Then you will delight in righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings;
 then bulls will be offered on your altar.

52 For the choir director. A Maskil of David. When Doeg the Edomite went and reported to Saul, telling him, "David went to Ahimelech's house."

1 Why boast about evil, you hero!
 God's faithful love is constant.
 2 Like a sharpened razor,
 your tongue devises destruction,
 working treachery.
 3 You love evil instead of good, lying instead of speaking truthfully. Selah
 4 You love any words that destroy,
 you treacherous tongue!
 5 This is why God will bring you down forever.
 He will take you, ripping you out of your tent;
 he will uproot you from the land of the living. Selah

6 The righteous will see and fear, and they will derisively say about that hero, 7 "Here is the man
 who would not make God his refuge,
 but trusted in the abundance of his riches,
 taking refuge in his destructive behavior."
 8 But I am like a flourishing olive tree
 in the house of God;
 I trust in God's faithful love forever and ever.
 9 I will praise you forever for what you have done.
 In the presence of your faithful people,
 I will put my hope in your name, for it is good.

53 For the choir director: on Mahalath. A Maskil of David.

1 The fool says in his heart, "There's no God."
 They are corrupt, and they do vile deeds.

- There is no one who does good.
 2 God looks down from heaven on the human race
 to see if there is one who is wise,
 one who seeks God.
 3 All have turned away;
 all alike have become corrupt.
 There is no one who does good,
 not even one.
 4 Will evildoers never understand?
 They consume my people as they consume bread;
 they do not call on God.
 5 Then they will be filled with dread — dread like no other — because God will scatter
 the bones of those who besiege you.
 You will put them to shame,
 for God has rejected them.
 6 Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come from Zion!
 When God restores the fortunes of his people,
 let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

54 *For the choir director: with stringed instruments.
 A Maskil of David. When the Ziphites went said to Saul, "Is David not hiding among us?"*

- 1 God, save me by your name,
 and vindicate me by your might!
 2 God, hear my prayer;
 listen to the words from my mouth.
 3 For strangers rise up against me,
 and violent men intend to kill me.
 They do not let God guide them. Selah
 4 God is my helper;
 the Lord is the sustainer of my life.
 5 He will repay my adversaries for their evil.
 Because of your faithfulness, annihilate them.
 6 I will sacrifice a freewill offering to you.
 I will praise your name, LORD,
 because it is good.
 7 For he has rescued me from every trouble,
 and my eye has looked down on my enemies.

55 For the choir director: with stringed instruments. A Maskil of David.

- 1 God, listen to my prayer and do not hide from my plea for help.
 2 Pay attention to me and answer me.
 I am restless and in turmoil with my complaint,
 3 because of the enemy's words,
 because of the pressure of the wicked.
 For they bring down disaster on me
 and harass me in anger.
 4 My heart shudders within me;
 terrors of death sweep over me.
 5 Fear and trembling grip me;
 horror has overwhelmed me.
 6 I said, "If only I had wings like a dove!
 I would fly away and find rest.
 7 How far away I would flee;
 I would stay in the wilderness. Selah
 8 I would hurry to my shelter from the raging wind and the storm."
 9 Lord, confuse and confound their speech,
 for I see violence and strife in the city;
 10 day and night they make the rounds on its walls.
 Crime and trouble are within it;

- 11 destruction is inside it;
 oppression and deceit never leave its marketplace.
 12 Now it is not an enemy who insults me —
 otherwise I could bear it;
 it is not a foe who rises up against me —
 otherwise I could hide from him.
 13 But it is you, a man who is my peer,
 my companion and good friend!
 14 We used to have close fellowship;
 we walked with the crowd into the house of God.
 15 Let death take them by surprise;
 let them go down to Sheol alive,
 because evil is in their homes and within them.
 16 But I call to God,
 and the LORD will save me.
 17 I complain and groan morning, noon, and night,
 and he hears my voice.
 18 Though many are against me,
 he will redeem me from my battle unharmed.
 19 God, the one enthroned from long ago,
 will hear and will humiliate them Selah
 because they do not change and do not fear God.
 20 My friend acts violently against those at peace with him;
 he violates his covenant.
 21 His buttery words are smooth,
 but war is in his heart.
 His words are softer than oil,
 but they are drawn swords.
 22 Cast your burden on the LORD,
 and he will sustain you;
 he will never allow the righteous to be shaken.
 23 God, you will bring them down to the Pit of destruction;
 men of bloodshed and treachery will not live out half their days.
 But I will trust in you.

56 *For the choir director: according to "A Silent Dove Far Away." A Miktam of David.
 When the Philistines seized him in Gath.*

- 1 Be gracious to me, God, for a man is trampling me;
 he fights and oppresses me all day long.
 2 My adversaries trample me all day,
 for many arrogantly fight against me.
 3 When I am afraid,
 I will trust in you.
 4 In God, whose word I praise,
 in God I trust; I will not be afraid.
 What can mere mortals do to me?
 5 They twist my words all day long;
 all their thoughts against me are evil.
 6 They stir up strife, they lurk;
 they watch my steps
 while they wait to take my life.
 7 Will they escape in spite of such sin?
 God, bring down the nations in wrath.
 8 You yourself have recorded my wanderings.
 Put my tears in your bottle.
 Are they not in your book?
 9 Then my enemies will retreat on the day when I call.
 This I know: God is for me.
 10 In God, whose word I praise,

- in the LORD, whose word I praise,
 11 in God I trust; I will not be afraid.
 What can mere humans do to me?
 12 I am obligated by vows to you, God;
 I will make my thank offerings to you.
 13 For you rescued me from death,
 even my feet from stumbling,
 to walk before God in the light of life.

57 For the choir director: "Do Not Destroy." A Miktam of David. When he fled before Saul into the cave.

- 1 Be gracious to me, God, be gracious to me,
 for I take refuge in you.
 I will seek refuge in the shadow of your wings
 until danger passes.
 2 I call to God Most High,
 to God who fulfills his purpose for me.
 3 He reaches down from heaven and saves me, challenging the one who tramples me. Selah
 God sends his faithful love and truth.
 4 I am surrounded by lions;
 I lie down among devouring lions — people whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongues are sharp swords.
 5 God, be exalted above the heavens;
 let your glory be over the whole earth.
 6 They prepared a net for my steps;
 I was despondent.
 They dug a pit ahead of me,
 but they fell into it! Selah
 7 My heart is confident, God, my heart is confident.
 I will sing; I will sing praises.
 8 Wake up, my soul!
 Wake up, harp and lyre!
 I will wake up the dawn.
 9 I will praise you, Lord, among the peoples;
 I will sing praises to you among the nations.
 10 For your faithful love is as high as the heavens;
 your faithfulness reaches the clouds.
 11 God, be exalted above the heavens;
 let your glory be over the whole earth.

58 For the choir director: "Do Not Destroy." A Miktam of David.

- 1 Do you really speak righteously, you mighty ones?
 Do you judge people fairly?
 2 No, you practice injustice in your hearts;
 with your hands you weigh out violence
 in the land.
 3 The wicked go astray from the womb;
 liars wander about from birth.
 4 They have venom like the venom of a snake,
 like the deaf cobra that stops up its ears,
 5 that does not listen to the sound of the charmers who skillfully weave spells.
 6 God, knock the teeth out of their mouths;
 LORD, tear out the young lions' fangs.
 7 May they vanish like water that flows by;
 may they aim their blunted arrows.
 8 Like a slug that moves along in slime,
 like a woman's miscarried child,
 may they not see the sun.
 9 Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns — whether green or burning — he will sweep them away.

- 10 The righteous one will rejoice
 when he sees the retribution;
 he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.
 11 Then people will say,
 "Yes, there is a reward for the righteous!
 There is a God who judges on earth!"

59 For the choir director: "Do Not Destroy." A Miktam of David. When Saul sent agents to watch the house and kill him.

- 1 Rescue me from my enemies, my God;
 protect me from those who rise up against me.
 2 Rescue me from those who practice sin,
 and save me from men of bloodshed.
 3 Because look, LORD, they set an ambush for me.
 Powerful men attack me,
 but not because of any sin or rebellion of mine.
 4 For no fault of mine,
 they run and take up a position.
 Awake to help me, and take notice.
 5 LORD God of Armies, you are the God of Israel.
 Rise up to punish all the nations;
 do not show favor to any wicked traitors. Selah
 6 They return at evening, snarling like dogs
 and prowling around the city.
 7 Look, they spew from their mouths —
 sharp words from their lips.
 "For who," they say, "will hear?"
 8 But you laugh at them, LORD;
 you ridicule all the nations.
 9 I will keep watch for you, my strength,
 because God is my stronghold.
 10 My faithful God will come to meet me;
 God will let me look down on my adversaries.
 11 Do not kill them; otherwise, my people will forget.
 By your power, make them homeless wanderers and bring them down,
 LORD, our shield.
 12 For the sin of their mouths and the words of their lips, let them be caught in their pride.
 They utter curses and lies.
 13 Consume them in rage;
 consume them until they are gone.
 Then people will know throughout the earth that God rules over Jacob. Selah 14 And they return at evening, snarling like dogs
 and prowling around the city.
 15 They scavenge for food;
 they growl if they are not satisfied.
 16 But I will sing of your strength and will joyfully proclaim your faithful love in the morning.
 For you have been a stronghold for me,
 a refuge in my day of trouble.
 17 To you, my strength, I sing praises,
 because God is my stronghold —
 my faithful God.

60 For the choir director: according to "The Lily of Testimony." A Miktam of David for teaching. When he fought with Aram-naharaim and Aram-zobah, and Joab returned and struck Edom in Salt Valley, killing twelve thousand.

- 1 God, you have rejected us;
 you have broken us down;

you have been angry. Restore us!
 2 You have shaken the land and split it open.
 Heal its fissures, for it shudders.
 3 You have made your people suffer hardship;
 you have given us wine to drink
 that made us stagger.
 4 You have given a signal flag to those who fear you,
 so that they can flee before the archers. Selah
 5 Save with your right hand, and answer me, so that those you love may be rescued.
 6 God has spoken in his sanctuary:
 "I will celebrate!
 I will divide up Shechem.
 I will apportion the Valley of Succoth.
 7 Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine,
 and Ephraim is my helmet;
 Judah is my scepter.
 8 Moab is my washbasin.
 I throw my sandal on Edom;
 I shout in triumph over Philistia."
 9 Who will bring me to the fortified city?
 Who will lead me to Edom?
 10 God, haven't you rejected us?
 God, you do not march out with our armies.
 11 Give us aid against the foe,
 for human help is worthless.
 12 With God we will perform valiantly;
 he will trample our foes.

61 For the choir director: on stringed instruments. Of David.

1 God, hear my cry;
 pay attention to my prayer.
 2 I call to you from the ends of the earth
 when my heart is without strength.
 Lead me to a rock that is high above me,
 3 for you have been a refuge for me,
 a strong tower in the face of the enemy.
 4 I will dwell in your tent forever and take refuge under the shelter of your wings. Selah
 5 God, you have heard my vows;
 you have given a heritage
 to those who fear your name.
 6 Add days to the king's life;
 may his years span many generations.
 7 May he sit enthroned before God forever.
 Appoint faithful love and truth to guard him.
 8 Then I will continually sing of your name, fulfilling my vows day by day.

62 For the choir director: according to Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

1 I am at rest in God alone;
 my salvation comes from him.
 2 He alone is my rock and my salvation,
 my stronghold; I will never be shaken.
 3 How long will you threaten a man?
 Will all of you attack
 as if he were a leaning wall or a tottering fence?
 4 They only plan to bring him down from his high position.

They take pleasure in lying;
 they bless with their mouths,
 but they curse inwardly. Selah
 5 Rest in God alone, my soul,
 for my hope comes from him.
 6 He alone is my rock and my salvation,
 my stronghold; I will not be shaken.
 7 My salvation and glory depend on God,
 my strong rock.
 My refuge is in God.
 8 Trust in him at all times, you people;
 pour out your hearts before him. Selah
 9 Common people are only a vapor;
 important people, an illusion.
 Together on a scale,
 they weigh less than a vapor.
 10 Place no trust in oppression,
 or false hope in robbery.
 If wealth increases,
 don't set your heart on it.
 11 God has spoken once;
 I have heard this twice:
 strength belongs to God,
 12 and faithful love belongs to you, LORD.
 For you repay each according to his works.

63 A psalm of David. When he was in the Wilderness of Judah.

1 God, you are my God; I eagerly seek you.
 I thirst for you;
 my body faints for you
 in a land that is dry, desolate, and without water.
 2 So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.
 3 My lips will glorify you because your faithful love is better than life.
 4 So I will bless you as long as I live;
 at your name, I will lift up my hands.
 5 You satisfy me as with rich food;
 my mouth will praise you with joyful lips.
 6 When I think of you as I lie on my bed,
 I meditate on you during the night watches
 7 because you are my helper;
 I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings.
 8 I follow close to you;
 your right hand holds on to me.
 9 But those who intend to destroy my life will go into the depths of the earth.
 10 They will be given over to the power of the sword;
 they will become a meal for jackals.
 11 But the king will rejoice in God;
 all who swear by him will boast,
 for the mouths of liars will be shut.

64 For the choir director. A psalm of David.

God, hear my voice when I am in anguish.
 Protect my life from the terror of the enemy.
 2 Hide me from the scheming of wicked people,
 from the mob of evildoers,
 3 who sharpen their tongues like swords and aim bitter words like arrows,
 4 shooting from concealed places at the blameless.
 They shoot at him suddenly and are not afraid.
 5 They adopt an evil plan;

they talk about hiding traps and say,
 "Who will see them?"
 6 They devise crimes and say,
 "We have perfected a secret plan."
 The inner man and the heart are mysterious.
 7 But God will shoot them with arrows;
 suddenly, they will be wounded.
 8 They will be made to stumble;
 their own tongues work against them.
 All who see them will shake their heads.
 9 Then everyone will fear and will tell about God's work,
 for they will understand what he has done.
 10 The righteous one rejoices in the LORD
 and takes refuge in him;
 all those who are upright in heart will offer praise.

65 For the choir director. A psalm of David. A song.

Praise is rightfully yours,
 God, in Zion;
 vows to you will be fulfilled.
 2 All humanity will come to you,
 the one who hears prayer.
 3 Iniquities overwhelm me;
 only you can atone for our rebellions.
 4 How happy is the one you choose and bring near to live in your courts!
 We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house,
 the holiness of your temple.
 5 You answer us in righteousness, with awe-inspiring works,
 God of our salvation,
 the hope of all the ends of the earth
 and of the distant seas.
 6 You establish the mountains by your power;
 you are robed with strength.
 7 You silence the roar of the seas,
 the roar of their waves,
 and the tumult of the nations.
 8 Those who live far away are awed by your signs;
 you make east and west shout for joy.
 9 You visit the earth and water it abundantly, enriching it greatly.
 God's stream is filled with water,
 for you prepare the earth in this way,
 providing people with grain.
 10 You soften it with showers and bless its growth,
 soaking its furrows and leveling its ridges.
 11 You crown the year with your goodness;
 your carts overflow with plenty.
 12 The wilderness pastures overflow,
 and the hills are robed with joy.
 13 The pastures are clothed with flocks and the valleys covered with grain.
 They shout in triumph; indeed, they sing.

66 For the choir director. A song. A psalm.

Let the whole earth shout joyfully to God!
 2 Sing about the glory of his name;
 make his praise glorious.
 3 Say to God, "How awe-inspiring are your works!
 Your enemies will cringe before you
 because of your great strength.

4 The whole earth will worship you and sing praise to you.
 They will sing praise to your name." Selah
 5 Come and see the wonders of God;
 his acts for humanity are awe-inspiring.
 6 He turned the sea into dry land,
 and they crossed the river on foot.
 There we rejoiced in him.
 7 He rules forever by his might;
 he keeps his eye on the nations.
 The rebellious should not exalt themselves. Selah
 8 Bless our God, you peoples;
 let the sound of his praise be heard.
 9 He keeps us alive
 and does not allow our feet to slip.
 10 For you, God, tested us;
 you refined us as silver is refined.
 11 You lured us into a trap;
 you placed burdens on our backs.
 12 You let men ride over our heads;
 we went through fire and water,
 but you brought us out to abundance.
 13 I will enter your house with burnt offerings;
 I will pay you my vows that my lips promised and my mouth spoke during my distress.
 15 I will offer you fattened sheep as burnt offerings,
 with the fragrant smoke of rams;
 I will sacrifice bulls with goats. Selah
 16 Come and listen, all who fear God,
 and I will tell what he has done for me.
 17 I cried out to him with my mouth,
 and praise was on my tongue.
 18 If I had been aware of malice in my heart,
 the Lord would not have listened.
 19 However, God has listened;
 he has paid attention to the sound of my prayer.
 20 Blessed be God!
 He has not turned away my prayer or turned his faithful love from me.

67 For the choir director: with stringed instruments. A psalm. A song.

1 May God be gracious to us and bless us;
 may he make his face shine upon us Selah
 2 so that your way may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.
 3 Let the peoples praise you, God;
 let all the peoples praise you.
 4 Let the nations rejoice and shout for joy,
 for you judge the peoples with fairness and lead the nations on earth. Selah
 5 Let the peoples praise you, God,
 let all the peoples praise you.
 6 The earth has produced its harvest;
 God, our God, blesses us.
 7 God will bless us,
 and all the ends of the earth will fear him.

68 For the choir director. A psalm of David. A song.

God arises. His enemies scatter, and those who hate him flee from his presence.
 2 As smoke is blown away,
 so you blow them away.
 As wax melts before the fire,

so the wicked are destroyed before God.
 3 But the righteous are glad;
 they rejoice before God and celebrate with joy.
 4 Sing to God! Sing praises to his name.
 Exalt him who rides on the clouds —
 his name is the LORD — and celebrate before him.
 5 God in his holy dwelling is a father of the fatherless and a champion of widows.
 6 God provides homes for those who are deserted.
 He leads out the prisoners to prosperity,
 but the rebellious live in a scorched land.
 7 God, when you went out before your people,
 when you marched through the desert, Selah
 8 the earth trembled and the skies poured rain before God, the God of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.
 9 You, God, showered abundant rain;
 you revived your inheritance when it languished.
 10 Your people settled in it;
 God, you provided for the poor
 by your goodness.
 11 The Lord gave the command;
 a great company of women brought the good news:
 12 "The kings of the armies flee — they flee!"
 She who stays at home divides the spoil.
 13 While you lie among the sheep pens,
 the wings of a dove are covered with silver,
 and its feathers with glistening gold.
 14 When the Almighty scattered kings in the land,
 it snowed on Zalmon.
 15 Mount Bashan is God's towering mountain;
 Mount Bashan is a mountain of many peaks.
 16 Why gaze with envy, you mountain peaks,
 at the mountain God desired for his abode?
 The LORD will dwell there forever!
 17 God's chariots are tens of thousands,
 thousands and thousands;
 the Lord is among them in the sanctuary
 as he was at Sinai.
 18 You ascended to the heights,
 taking away captives;
 you received gifts from people,
 even from the rebellious,
 so that the LORD God might dwell there.
 19 Blessed be the Lord!
 Day after day he bears our burdens;
 God is our salvation. Selah
 20 Our God is a God of salvation, and escape from death belongs to the LORD
 my Lord.
 21 Surely God crushes the heads of his enemies, the hairy brow of one who goes on
 in his guilty acts.
 22 The Lord said, "I will bring them back from Bashan;
 I will bring them back from the depths of the sea
 23 so that your foot may wade in blood and your dogs' tongues may have their share from the enemies."
 24 People have seen your procession, God,
 the procession of my God,
 my King, in the sanctuary.
 25 Singers lead the way,

with musicians following;
 among them are young women playing tambourines.
 26 Bless God in the assemblies;
 bless the LORD from the fountain of Israel.
 27 There is Benjamin, the youngest, leading them,
 the rulers of Judah in their assembly,
 the rulers of Zebulun, the rulers of Naphtali.
 28 Your God has decreed your strength.
 Show your strength, God,
 you who have acted on our behalf.
 29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem,
 kings will bring tribute to you.
 30 Rebuke the beast in the reeds,
 the herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples.
 Trample underfoot those with bars of silver.
 Scatter the peoples who take pleasure in war.
 31 Ambassadors will come from Egypt;
 Cush will stretch out its hands to God.
 32 Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth;
 sing praise to the Lord, Selah 33 to him who rides in the ancient, highest heavens.
 Look, he thunders with his powerful voice!
 34 Ascribe power to God.
 His majesty is over Israel,
 his power is among the clouds.
 35 God, you are awe-inspiring in your sanctuaries.
 The God of Israel gives power and strength
 to his people.
 Blessed be God!

69 For the choir director: according to "The Lilies." Of David.

1 Save me, God,
 for the water has risen to my neck.
 2 I have sunk in deep mud, and there is no footing;
 I have come into deep water,
 and a flood sweeps over me.
 3 I am weary from my crying;
 my throat is parched.
 My eyes fail, looking for my God.
 4 Those who hate me without cause are more numerous than the hairs of my head;
 my deceitful enemies, who would destroy me,
 are powerful.
 Though I did not steal, I must repay.
 5 God, you know my foolishness, and my guilty acts are not hidden from you.
 6 Do not let those who put their hope in you be disgraced because of me,
 Lord God of Armies;
 do not let those who seek you be humiliated because of me,
 God of Israel.
 7 For I have endured insults because of you,
 and shame has covered my face.
 8 I have become a stranger to my brothers and a foreigner to my mother's sons 9 because zeal for your house has consumed me, and the insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.
 10 I mourned and fasted,
 but it brought me insults.
 11 I wore sackcloth as my clothing,

and I was a joke to them.

12 Those who sit at the city gate talk about me,
and drunkards make up songs about me.

13 But as for me, LORD,
my prayer to you is for a time of favor.
In your abundant, faithful love, God,
answer me with your sure salvation.

14 Rescue me from the miry mud; don't let me sink.
Let me be rescued from those who hate me
and from the deep water.

15 Don't let the floodwaters sweep over me or the deep swallow me up;
don't let the Pit close its mouth over me.

16 Answer me, LORD,
for your faithful love is good.
In keeping with your abundant compassion,
turn to me.

17 Don't hide your face from your servant,
for I am in distress.
Answer me quickly!

18 Come near to me and redeem me;
ransom me because of my enemies.

19 You know the insults I endure —
my shame and disgrace.
You are aware of all my adversaries.

20 Insults have broken my heart,
and I am in despair.
I waited for sympathy,
but there was none;
for comforters, but found no one.

21 Instead, they gave me gall for my food,
and for my thirst
they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table set before them be a snare,
and let it be a trap for their allies.

23 Let their eyes grow too dim to see,
and let their hips continually quake.

24 Pour out your rage on them,
and let your burning anger overtake them.

25 Make their fortification desolate;
may no one live in their tents.

26 For they persecute the one you struck and talk about the pain of those you wounded.

27 Charge them with crime on top of crime;
do not let them share in your righteousness.

28 Let them be erased from the book of life
and not be recorded with the righteous.

29 But as for me — poor and in pain —
let your salvation protect me, God.

30 I will praise God's name with song and exalt him with thanksgiving.

31 That will please the LORD more than an ox,
more than a bull with horns and hooves.

32 The humble will see it and rejoice.
You who seek God, take heart!

33 For the LORD listens to the needy and does not despise his own who are prisoners.

34 Let heaven and earth praise him,
the seas and everything that moves in them,
for God will save Zion
and build up the cities of Judah.
They will live there and possess it.

36 The descendants of his servants will inherit it,
and those who love his name will live in it.

70 For the choir director. Of David. To bring remembrance.

1 God, hurry to rescue me.
LORD, hurry to help me!

2 Let those who seek to kill me
be disgraced and confounded;
let those who wish me harm
be turned back and humiliated.

3 Let those who say, "Aha, aha!"
retreat because of their shame.

4 Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation continually say, "God is great!"

5 I am oppressed and needy;
hurry to me, God.
You are my help and my deliverer;
LORD, do not delay.

71

LORD, I seek refuge in you;
let me never be disgraced.

2 In your justice, rescue and deliver me;
listen closely to me and save me.

3 Be a rock of refuge for me,
where I can always go.
Give the command to save me,
for you are my rock and fortress.

4 Deliver me, my God, from the power of the wicked,
from the grasp of the unjust and oppressive.

5 For you are my hope, Lord God,
my confidence from my youth.

6 I have leaned on you from birth;
you took me from my mother's womb.
My praise is always about you.

7 I am like a miraculous sign to many,
and you are my strong refuge.

8 My mouth is full of praise and honor to you all day long.
Don't discard me in my old age.
As my strength fails, do not abandon me.

10 For my enemies talk about me,
and those who spy on me plot together, saying, "God has abandoned him;
chase him and catch him,
for there is no one to rescue him."

12 God, do not be far from me;
my God, hurry to help me.

13 May my adversaries be disgraced and destroyed;
may those who intend to harm me
be covered with disgrace and humiliation.

14 But I will hope continually and will praise you more and more.

15 My mouth will tell about your righteousness and your salvation all day long,
though I cannot sum them up.

16 I come because of the mighty acts of the Lord God;
I will proclaim your righteousness, yours alone.

17 God, you have taught me from my youth,
and I still proclaim your wondrous works.

18 Even while I am old and gray,
God, do not abandon me,
while I proclaim your power
to another generation,
your strength to all who are to come.

- 19 Your righteousness reaches the heights, God,
you who have done great things;
God, who is like you?
- 20 You caused me to experience
many troubles and misfortunes, but you will revive me again.
You will bring me up again,
even from the depths of the earth.
- 21 You will increase my honor and comfort me once again.
- 22 Therefore, I will praise you with a harp
for your faithfulness, my God;
I will sing to you with a lyre,
Holy One of Israel.
- 23 My lips will shout for joy
when I sing praise to you because you have redeemed me.
- 24 Therefore, my tongue will proclaim your righteousness all day long,
for those who intend to harm me
will be disgraced and confounded.

72 Of Solomon.

- God, give your justice to the king and your righteousness to the king's son.
- 2 He will judge your people with righteousness and your afflicted ones with justice.
- 3 May the mountains bring well-being to the people and the hills, righteousness.
- 4 May he vindicate the afflicted among the people,
help the poor,
and crush the oppressor.
- 5 May they fear you while the sun endures
and as long as the moon,
throughout all generations.
- 6 May the king be like rain that falls on the cut grass, like spring showers that water the earth.
- 7 May the righteous flourish in his days and well-being abound
until the moon is no more.
- 8 May he rule from sea to sea and from the Euphrates
to the ends of the earth.
- 9 May desert tribes kneel before him
and his enemies lick the dust.
- 10 May the kings of Tarshish and the coasts and islands bring tribute,
the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
- 11 Let all kings bow in homage to him,
all nations serve him.
- 12 For he will rescue the poor who cry out and the afflicted who have no helper.
- 13 He will have pity on the poor and helpless and save the lives of the poor.
- 14 He will redeem them from oppression and violence,
for their lives are precious in his sight.
May he live long!
May gold from Sheba be given to him.
May prayer be offered for him continually,
and may he be blessed all day long.
- 16 May there be plenty of grain in the land;
may it wave on the tops of the mountains.
May its crops be like Lebanon.
May people flourish in the cities like the grass of the field.

- 17 May his name endure forever;
as long as the sun shines,
may his fame increase.
May all nations be blessed by him
and call him blessed.
- 18 Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who alone does wonders.
- 19 Blessed be his glorious name forever;
the whole earth is filled with his glory.
Amen and amen.
- 20 The prayers of David son of Jesse are concluded.

BOOK III (Psalms 73–89)

73 A psalm of Asaph.

- God is indeed good to Israel,
to the pure in heart.
- 2 But as for me, my feet almost slipped;
my steps nearly went astray.
- 3 For I envied the arrogant;
I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
- 4 They have an easy time until they die,
and their bodies are well fed.
- 5 They are not in trouble like others;
they are not afflicted like most people.
- 6 Therefore, pride is their necklace,
and violence covers them like a garment.
- 7 Their eyes bulge out from fatness;
the imaginations of their hearts run wild.
- 8 They mock, and they speak maliciously;
they arrogantly threaten oppression.
- 9 They set their mouths against heaven,
and their tongues strut across the earth.
- 10 Therefore his people turn to them
and drink in their overflowing words.
- 11 The wicked say, "How can God know?
Does the Most High know everything?"
- 12 Look at them — the wicked!
They are always at ease,
and they increase their wealth.
- 13 Did I purify my heart and wash my hands in innocence for nothing?
- 14 For I am afflicted all day long and punished every morning.
- 15 If I had decided to say these things aloud,
I would have betrayed your people.
- 16 When I tried to understand all this,
it seemed hopeless
until I entered God's sanctuary.
Then I understood their destiny.
- 18 Indeed, you put them in slippery places;
you make them fall into ruin.
- 19 How suddenly they become a desolation!
They come to an end, swept away by terrors.
- 20 Like one waking from a dream,
Lord, when arising, you will despise their image.
- 21 When I became embittered and my innermost being was wounded,
I was stupid and didn't understand;
I was an unthinking animal toward you.
- 22 Yet I am always with you;
you hold my right hand.
- 23 You guide me with your counsel,
and afterward you will take me up in glory.

- 25 Who do I have in heaven but you?
And I desire nothing on earth but you.
- 26 My flesh and my heart may fail,
but God is the strength of my heart,
my portion forever.
- 27 Those far from you will certainly perish;
you destroy all who are unfaithful to you.
- 28 But as for me, God's presence is my good.
I have made the Lord God my refuge,
so I can tell about all you do.

- 74 A Maskil of Asaph.
Why have you rejected us forever, God?
Why does your anger burn against the sheep of your pasture?
- 2 Remember your congregation,
which you purchased long ago
and redeemed as the tribe for your own possession.
Remember Mount Zion where you dwell.
- 3 Make your way to the perpetual ruins,
to all that the enemy has destroyed
in the sanctuary.
- 4 Your adversaries roared in the meeting place where you met with us.
They set up their emblems as signs.
- 5 It was like men in a thicket of trees,
wielding axes,
6 then smashing all the carvings
with hatchets and picks.
7 They set your sanctuary on fire;
they utterly desecrated
the dwelling place of your name.
- 8 They said in their hearts,
"Let us oppress them relentlessly."
They burned every place throughout the land where God met with us.
- 9 There are no signs for us to see.
There is no longer a prophet.
And none of us knows how long this will last.
- 10 God, how long will the enemy mock?
Will the foe insult your name forever?
11 Why do you hold back your hand?
Stretch out your right hand and destroy them!
- 12 God my King is from ancient times, performing saving acts on the earth.
- 13 You divided the sea with your strength;
you smashed the heads of the sea monsters in the water;
14 you crushed the heads of Leviathan;
you fed him to the creatures of the desert.
- 15 You opened up springs and streams;
you dried up ever-flowing rivers.
- 16 The day is yours, also the night;
you established the moon and the sun.
- 17 You set all the boundaries of the earth;
you made summer and winter.
- 18 Remember this: the enemy has mocked the Lord,
and a foolish people has insulted your name.
- 19 Do not give to beasts the life of your dove;
do not forget the lives of your poor people forever.
- 20 Consider the covenant,
for the dark places of the land are full of violence.
- 21 Do not let the oppressed turn away in shame;
let the poor and needy praise your name.
- 22 Rise up, God, champion your cause!

- Remember the insults that fools bring against you all day long.
- 23 Do not forget the clamor of your adversaries,
the tumult of your opponents that goes up constantly.

- 75 *For the choir director: "Do Not Destroy."
A psalm of Asaph. A song.*
- 1 We give thanks to you, God;
we give thanks to you, for your name is near.
People tell about your wondrous works.
- 2 "When I choose a time,
I will judge fairly.
- 3 When the earth and all its inhabitants shake,
I am the one who steadies its pillars. Selah
- 4 I say to the boastful, 'Do not boast,'
and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horn.
5 Do not lift up your horn against heaven or speak arrogantly.' "
- 6 Exaltation does not come from the east, the west, or the desert,
7 for God is the Judge:
He brings down one and exalts another.
- 8 For there is a cup in the Lord's hand, full of wine blended with spices, and he pours from it.
All the wicked of the earth will drink,
draining it to the dregs.
- 9 As for me, I will tell about him forever;
I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
- 10 "I will cut off all the horns of the wicked,
but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up."

- 76 *For the choir director: with stringed instruments.
A psalm of Asaph. A song.*
- 1 God is known in Judah;
his name is great in Israel.
- 2 His tent is in Salem,
his dwelling place in Zion.
- 3 There he shatters the bow's flaming arrows,
the shield, the sword,
and the weapons of war. Selah
- 4 You are resplendent and majestic coming down from the mountains of prey.
- 5 The brave-hearted have been plundered;
they have slipped into their final sleep.
None of the warriors was able to lift a hand.
- 6 At your rebuke, God of Jacob, both chariot and horse lay still.
- 7 And you—you are to be feared.
When you are angry,
who can stand before you?
- 8 From heaven you pronounced judgment.
The earth feared and grew quiet
when God rose up to judge and to save all the lowly of the earth. Selah
- 9 Even human wrath will praise you;
you will clothe yourself
with the wrath that remains.
- 11 Make and keep your vows
to the Lord your God;
let all who are around him bring tribute to the awe-inspiring one.
- 12 He humbles the spirit of leaders;
he is feared by the kings of the earth.

77 For the choir director: according to Jeduthun. Of Asaph. A psalm.

1 I cry aloud to God, aloud to God, and he will hear me.
2 I sought the Lord in my day of trouble.
My hands were continually lifted up all night long;
I refused to be comforted.
3 I think of God; I groan;
I meditate; my spirit becomes weak. Selah
4 You have kept me from closing my eyes;
I am troubled and cannot speak.
5 I consider days of old,
years long past.
6 At night I remember my music;
I meditate in my heart, and my spirit ponders.
7 "Will the Lord reject forever and never again show favor?
8 Has his faithful love ceased forever?
Is his promise at an end for all generations?
9 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he in anger withheld his compassion?" Selah
10 So I say, "I am grieved that the right hand of the Most High has changed."
11 I will remember the LORD's works;
yes, I will remember your ancient wonders.
12 I will reflect on all you have done and meditate on your actions.
13 God, your way is holy.
What god is great like God?
14 You are the God who works wonders;
you revealed your strength among the peoples.
15 With power you redeemed your people,
the descendants of Jacob and Joseph. Selah
16 The water saw you, God.
The water saw you; it trembled.
Even the depths shook.
17 The clouds poured down water.
The storm clouds thundered;
your arrows flashed back and forth.
18 The sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind;
lightning lit up the world.
The earth shook and quaked.
19 Your way went through the sea and your path through the vast water,
but your footprints were unseen.
20 You led your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

78 A Maskil of Asaph.

My people, hear my instruction;
listen to the words from my mouth.
2 I will declare wise sayings;
I will speak mysteries from the past —
3 things we have heard and known and that our fathers have passed down to us.
4 We will not hide them from their children,
but will tell a future generation
the praiseworthy acts of the LORD, his might, and the wondrous works
he has performed.
5 He established a testimony in Jacob and set up a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children

6 so that a future generation — children yet to be born — might know.
They were to rise and tell their children
7 so that they might put their confidence in God and not forget God's works,
but keep his commands.
8 Then they would not be like their fathers,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation whose heart was not loyal and whose spirit was not faithful to God.
9 The Ephraimite archers turned back on the day of battle.
10 They did not keep God's covenant and refused to live by his law.
11 They forgot what he had done,
the wondrous works he had shown them.
12 He worked wonders in the sight of their fathers
in the land of Egypt, the territory of Zoan.
13 He split the sea and brought them across;
the water stood firm like a wall.
14 He led them with a cloud by day
and with a fiery light throughout the night.
15 He split rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink as abundant as the depths.
16 He brought streams out of the stone and made water flow down like rivers.
17 But they continued to sin against him, rebellious in the desert against the Most High.
18 They deliberately tested God, demanding the food they craved.
19 They spoke against God, saying,
"Is God able to provide food in the wilderness?
20 Look! He struck the rock and water gushed out;
torrents overflowed.
But can he also provide bread or furnish meat for his people?"
21 Therefore, the LORD heard and became furious;
then fire broke out against Jacob,
and anger flared up against Israel
because they did not believe God or rely on his salvation.
22 He gave a command to the clouds above and opened the doors of heaven.
23 He rained manna for them to eat;
he gave them grain from heaven.
24 People ate the bread of angels.
He sent them an abundant supply of food.
25 He made the east wind blow in the skies and drove the south wind by his might.
26 He rained meat on them like dust,
and winged birds like the sand of the seas.
27 He made them fall in the camp,
all around the tents.
28 The people ate and were completely satisfied,
for he gave them what they craved.
29 Before they had turned from what they craved,
while the food was still in their mouths, 30 God's anger flared up against them,
and he killed some of their best men.
He struck down Israel's fit young men.
31 Despite all this, they kept sinning and did not believe his wondrous works.
32 He made their days end in futility, their years in sudden disaster.
33 When he killed some of them,

the rest began to seek him;
they repented and searched for God.

35 They remembered that God was their rock,
the Most High God, their Redeemer.

36 But they deceived him with their mouths,
they lied to him with their tongues,

37 their hearts were insincere toward him,
and they were unfaithful to his covenant.

38 Yet he was compassionate;
he atoned for their iniquity and did not destroy them.
He often turned his anger aside and did not unleash all his wrath.

39 He remembered that they were only flesh,
a wind that passes and does not return.

40 How often they rebelled against him
in the wilderness
and grieved him in the desert.

41 They constantly tested God and provoked the Holy One of Israel.

42 They did not remember his power shown on the day he redeemed them from the foe,

43 when he performed his miraculous signs in Egypt and his wonders in the territory of Zoan.

44 He turned their rivers into blood,
and they could not drink from their streams.

45 He sent among them swarms of flies,
which fed on them,
and frogs, which devastated them.

46 He gave their crops to the caterpillar and the fruit of their labor to the locust.

47 He killed their vines with hail and their sycamore fig trees with a flood.

48 He handed over their livestock to hail and their cattle to lightning bolts.

49 He sent his burning anger against them:
fury, indignation, and calamity —
a band of deadly messengers.

50 He cleared a path for his anger.
He did not spare them from death
but delivered their lives to the plague.

51 He struck all the firstborn in Egypt,
the first progeny of the tents of Ham.

52 He led his people out like sheep and guided them like a flock in the wilderness.

53 He led them safely, and they were not afraid;
but the sea covered their enemies.

54 He brought them to his holy territory,
to the mountain his right hand acquired.

55 He drove out nations before them.
He apportioned their inheritance by lot and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

56 But they rebelliously tested the Most High God, for they did not keep his decrees.

57 They treacherously turned away like their fathers;
they became warped like a faulty bow.

58 They enraged him with their high places and provoked his jealousy with their carved images.

59 God heard and became furious;
he completely rejected Israel.

60 He abandoned the tabernacle at Shiloh,
the tent where he resided among mankind.

61 He gave up his strength to captivity and his splendor to the hand of a foe.

62 He surrendered his people to the sword because he was enraged with his heritage.

63 Fire consumed his chosen young men,
and his young women had no wedding songs.

64 His priests fell by the sword,
and the widows could not lament.

65 The Lord awoke as if from sleep,
like a warrior from the effects of wine.

66 He beat back his foes;
he gave them lasting disgrace.

67 He rejected the tent of Joseph and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

68 He chose instead the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion, which he loved.

69 He built his sanctuary like the heights,
like the earth that he established forever.

70 He chose David his servant
and took him from the sheep pens;
he brought him from tending ewes to be shepherd over his people Jacob — over Israel, his inheritance.

72 He shepherded them with a pure heart and guided them with his skillful hands.

79 A psalm of Asaph.

God, the nations have invaded your inheritance,
desecrated your holy temple,
and turned Jerusalem into ruins.

2 They gave the corpses of your servants to the birds of the sky for food,
the flesh of your faithful ones
to the beasts of the earth.

3 They poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem,
and there was no one to bury them.

4 We have become an object of reproach to our neighbors,
a source of mockery and ridicule
to those around us.

5 How long, LORD? Will you be angry forever?
Will your jealousy keep burning like fire?

6 Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't acknowledge you,
on the kingdoms that don't call on your name, for they have devoured Jacob and devastated his homeland.

8 Do not hold past iniquities against us;
let your compassion come to us quickly,
for we have become very weak.

9 God of our salvation, help us —
for the glory of your name.
Rescue us and atone for our sins,
for your name's sake.

10 Why should the nations ask,
"Where is their God?"
Before our eyes,
let vengeance for the shed blood of your servants
be known among the nations.

11 Let the groans of the prisoners reach you;
according to your great power,
preserve those condemned to die.

12 Pay back sevenfold to our neighbors
the reproach they have hurled at you, Lord.

13 Then we, your people, the sheep of your pasture,
will thank you forever;

we will declare your praise
to generation after generation.

80 For the choir director: according to "The Lilies." A testimony of Asaph. A psalm.

- 1 Listen, Shepherd of Israel, who leads Joseph like a flock;
you who sit enthroned between the cherubim, shine ² on Ephraim,
Benjamin, and Manasseh.
Rally your power and come to save us.
- 3 Restore us, God;
make your face shine on us,
so that we may be saved.
- 4 LORD God of Armies,
how long will you be angry
with your people's prayers?
- 5 You fed them the bread of tears and gave them a full measure of tears to drink.
- 6 You put us at odds with our neighbors;
our enemies mock us.
- 7 Restore us, God of Armies; make your face shine on us, so that we may be saved.
- 8 You dug up a vine from Egypt;
you drove out the nations and planted it.
- 9 You cleared a place for it;
it took root and filled the land.
- 10 The mountains were covered by its shade,
and the mighty cedars with its branches.
- 11 It sent out sprouts toward the Sea and shoots toward the River.
- 12 Why have you broken down its walls
so that all who pass by pick its fruit?
- 13 Boars from the forest tear at it and creatures of the field feed on it.
- 14 Return, God of Armies.
Look down from heaven and see;
take care of this vine,
the root your right hand planted,
the son that you made strong for yourself.
- 16 It was cut down and burned;
they perish at the rebuke of your countenance.
- 17 Let your hand be with the man at your right hand,
with the son of man
you have made strong for yourself.
- 18 Then we will not turn away from you;
revive us, and we will call on your name.
- 19 Restore us, LORD, God of Armies; make your face shine on us, so that we may be saved.

81 For the choir director: on the Gittith. Of Asaph.

- 1 Sing for joy to God our strength;
shout in triumph to the God of Jacob.
- 2 Lift up a song — play the tambourine,
the melodious lyre, and the harp.
- 3 Blow the horn on the day of our feasts
during the new moon
and during the full moon.
- 4 For this is a statute for Israel,
an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
- 5 He set it up as a decree for Joseph
when he went throughout the land of Egypt.

I heard an unfamiliar language:

- 6 "I relieved his shoulder from the burden;
his hands were freed from carrying the basket.
- 7 You called out in distress, and I rescued you;
I answered you from the thundercloud.
I tested you at the Waters of Meribah. Selah
- 8 Listen, my people, and I will admonish you.
Israel, if you would only listen to me!
- 9 There must not be a strange god among you;
you must not bow down to a foreign god.
- 10 I am the LORD your God,
who brought you up from the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
- 11 "But my people did not listen to my voice;
Israel did not obey me.
- 12 So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts to follow their own plans.
- 13 If only my people would listen to me and Israel would follow my ways,
- 14 I would quickly subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their foes."
- 15 Those who hate the LORD
would cower to him;
their doom would last forever.
- 16 But he would feed Israel with the best wheat.
"I would satisfy you with honey from the rock."

82 A psalm of Asaph.

- 1 God stands in the divine assembly;
he pronounces judgment among the gods:
- 2 "How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah
- 3 Provide justice for the needy and the fatherless;
uphold the rights of the oppressed and the destitute.
- 4 Rescue the poor and needy;
save them from the power of the wicked."
- 5 They do not know or understand;
they wander in darkness.
All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
- 6 I said, "You are gods;
you are all sons of the Most High.
- 7 However, you will die like humans and fall like any other ruler."
- 8 Rise up, God, judge the earth,
for all the nations belong to you.

83 A song. A psalm of Asaph.

- 1 God, do not keep silent.
Do not be deaf, God; do not be quiet.
- 2 See how your enemies make an uproar;
those who hate you have acted arrogantly.
- 3 They devise clever schemes against your people;
they conspire against your treasured ones.
- 4 They say, "Come, let us wipe them out as a nation
so that Israel's name will no longer be remembered."
- 5 For they have conspired with one mind;
they form an alliance against you —
the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites,
- 7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek,
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre.
- 8 Even Assyria has joined them;
they lend support to the sons of Lot. Selah

- 9 Deal with them as you did with Midian, as you did with Sisera
and Jabin at the Kishon River.
- 10 They were destroyed at En-dor;
they became manure for the ground.
- 11 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb,
and all their tribal leaders like Zebah
and Zalmunna,
- 12 who said, "Let us seize God's pastures for ourselves."
- 13 Make them like tumbleweed, my God,
like straw before the wind.
- 14 As fire burns a forest,
as a flame blazes through mountains, 15 so pursue them with your tempest and terrify them with your storm.
- 16 Cover their faces with shame
so that they will seek your name, LORD.
- 17 Let them be put to shame and terrified forever;
let them perish in disgrace.
- 18 May they know that you alone —
whose name is the LORD —
are the Most High over the whole earth.

84 *For the choir director: on the Gittith.
A psalm of the sons of Korah.*

- 1 How lovely is your dwelling place,
LORD of Armies.
- 2 I long and yearn
for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and flesh cry out for the living God.
- 3 Even a sparrow finds a home,
and a swallow, a nest for herself where she places her young — near your altars, LORD of Armies,
my King and my God.
- 4 How happy are those who reside in your house,
who praise you continually. Selah
- 5 Happy are the people whose strength is in you, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage.
- 6 As they pass through the Valley of Baca,
they make it a source of springwater;
even the autumn rain will cover it with blessings.
- 7 They go from strength to strength;
each appears before God in Zion.
- 8 LORD God of Armies, hear my prayer; Selah
listen, God of Jacob.
- 9 Consider our shield, God;
look on the face of your anointed one.
- 10 Better a day in your courts
than a thousand anywhere else.
I would rather stand at the threshold of the house of my God
than live in the tents of wicked people.
- 11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield.
The LORD grants favor and honor;
he does not withhold the good from those who live with integrity.
- 12 Happy is the person who trusts in you,
LORD of Armies!

85 For the choir director. A psalm of the sons of Korah.
LORD, you showed favor to your land;
you restored the fortunes of Jacob.

2 You forgave your people's guilt;

- you covered all their sin. Selah
- 3 You withdrew all your fury;
you turned from your burning anger.
- 4 Return to us, God of our salvation,
and abandon your displeasure with us.
- 5 Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you prolong your anger for all generations?
- 6 Will you not revive us again
so that your people may rejoice in you?
- 7 Show us your faithful love, LORD,
and give us your salvation.
- 8 I will listen to what God will say;
surely the LORD will declare peace
to his people, his faithful ones,
and not let them go back to foolish ways.
- 9 His salvation is very near those who fear him,
so that glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Faithful love and truth will join together;
righteousness and peace will embrace.
- 11 Truth will spring up from the earth,
and righteousness will look down from heaven.
- 12 Also, the LORD will provide what is good,
and our land will yield its crops.
- 13 Righteousness will go before him
to prepare the way for his steps.

86 A prayer of David.

- Listen, LORD, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.
- 2 Protect my life, for I am faithful.
You are my God; save your servant who trusts
in you.
- 3 Be gracious to me, Lord,
for I call to you all day long.
- 4 Bring joy to your servant's life,
because I appeal to you, Lord.
- 5 For you, Lord, are kind and ready to forgive,
abounding in faithful love to all who call on you.
- 6 LORD, hear my prayer;
listen to my plea for mercy.
- 7 I call on you in the day of my distress,
for you will answer me.
- 8 Lord, there is no one like you among the gods,
and there are no works like yours.
- 9 All the nations you have made will come and bow down before you, Lord,
and will honor your name.
- 10 For you are great and perform wonders;
you alone are God.
- 11 Teach me your way, LORD,
and I will live by your truth.
Give me an undivided mind to fear your name.
- 12 I will praise you with all my heart, Lord my God,
and will honor your name forever.
- 13 For your faithful love for me is great,
and you rescue my life from the depths of Sheol.
- 14 God, arrogant people have attacked me;
a gang of ruthless men intends to kill me.
They do not let you guide them.
- 15 But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God,
slow to anger and abounding in faithful love
and truth.
- 16 Turn to me and be gracious to me.
Give your strength to your servant;

- save the son of your female servant.
 17 Show me a sign of your goodness;
 my enemies will see and be put to shame because you, LORD, have helped and comforted me.

87 A psalm of the sons of Korah. A song.
 The city he founded is on the holy mountains.

- 2 The LORD loves Zion's city gates
 more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
 3 Glorious things are said about you,
 city of God. Selah
 4 "I will make a record of those who know me:
 Rahab, Babylon, Philistia, Tyre, and Cush —
 each one was born there."
 5 And it will be said of Zion,
 "This one and that one were born in her."
 The Most High himself will establish her.
 6 When he registers the peoples,
 the LORD will record,
 "This one was born there." Selah
 7 Singers and dancers alike will say,
 "My whole source of joy is in you."

88 A song. A psalm of the sons of Korah.
For the choir director: according to Mahalath Leannoth. A Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

- 1 LORD, God of my salvation,
 I cry out before you day and night.
 2 May my prayer reach your presence;
 listen to my cry.
 3 For I have had enough troubles,
 and my life is near Sheol.
 4 I am counted among those going down to the Pit.
 I am like a man without strength,
 5 abandoned among the dead.
 I am like the slain lying in the grave,
 whom you no longer remember,
 and who are cut off from your care.
 6 You have put me in the lowest part of the Pit,
 in the darkest places, in the depths.
 7 Your wrath weighs heavily on me;
 you have overwhelmed me with all your waves. Selah
 8 You have distanced my friends from me;
 you have made me repulsive to them.
 I am shut in and cannot go out.
 9 My eyes are worn out from crying.
 LORD, I cry out to you all day long;
 I spread out my hands to you.
 10 Do you work wonders for the dead?
 Do departed spirits rise up to praise you? Selah
 11 Will your faithful love be declared in the grave, your faithfulness in Abaddon?
 12 Will your wonders be known in the darkness or your righteousness in the land of oblivion?
 But I call to you for help, LORD;
 13 in the morning my prayer meets you.
 14 LORD, why do you reject me?
 Why do you hide your face from me?
 15 From my youth,
 I have been suffering and near death.
 I suffer your horrors; I am desperate.
 16 Your wrath sweeps over me;
 your terrors destroy me.

- 17 They surround me like water all day long;
 they close in on me from every side.
 18 You have distanced loved one and neighbor
 from me;
 darkness is my only friend.

89 A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.
 I will sing about the LORD's faithful love forever;

- I will proclaim your faithfulness to all generations with my mouth.
 2 For I will declare,
 "Faithful love is built up forever;
 you establish your faithfulness in the heavens."
 3 The LORD said,
 "I have made a covenant with my chosen one;
 I have sworn an oath to David my servant:
 4 'I will establish your offspring forever and build up your throne
 for all generations.'" Selah
 5 LORD, the heavens praise your wonders — your faithfulness also — in the assembly of the holy ones.
 6 For who in the skies can compare with the LORD?
 Who among the heavenly beings is like the LORD?
 7 God is greatly feared in the council of the holy ones,
 more awe-inspiring than all who surround him.
 8 LORD God of Armies,
 who is strong like you, LORD?
 Your faithfulness surrounds you.
 9 You rule the raging sea;
 when its waves surge, you still them.
 10 You crushed Rahab like one who is slain;
 you scattered your enemies
 with your powerful arm.
 11 The heavens are yours; the earth also is yours.
 The world and everything in it —
 you founded them.
 12 North and south — you created them.
 Tabor and Hermon shout for joy at your name.
 13 You have a mighty arm;
 your hand is powerful;
 your right hand is lifted high.
 14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne;
 faithful love and truth go before you.
 15 Happy are the people who know the joyful shout;
 LORD, they walk in the light from your face.
 16 They rejoice in your name all day long,
 and they are exalted by your righteousness.
 17 For you are their magnificent strength;
 by your favor our horn is exalted.
 18 Surely our shield belongs to the LORD,
 our king to the Holy One of Israel.
 19 You once spoke in a vision to your faithful ones and said: "I have granted help to a warrior;
 I have exalted one chosen from the people.
 20 I have found David my servant;
 I have anointed him with my sacred oil.
 21 My hand will always be with him,
 and my arm will strengthen him.
 22 The enemy will not oppress him;
 the wicked will not afflict him.
 23 I will crush his foes before him and strike those who hate him.

24 My faithfulness and love will be with him,
and through my name
his horn will be exalted.

25 I will extend his power to the sea and his right hand to the rivers.

26 He will call to me, 'You are my Father,
my God, the rock of my salvation.'

27 I will also make him my firstborn, greatest of the kings of the earth.

28 I will always preserve my faithful love for him,
and my covenant with him will endure.

29 I will establish his line forever,
his throne as long as heaven lasts.

30 If his sons abandon my instruction and do not live by my ordinances, 31 if they dishonor my statutes and do not keep my commands, 32 then I will call their rebellion to account with the rod,
their iniquity with blows.

33 But I will not withdraw my faithful love from him or betray my faithfulness.

34 I will not violate my covenant or change what my lips have said.

35 Once and for all
I have sworn an oath by my holiness;
I will not lie to David.

36 His offspring will continue forever,
his throne like the sun before me, 37 like the moon, established forever,
a faithful witness in the sky." Selah

38 But you have spurned and rejected him;
you have become enraged with your anointed.

39 You have repudiated the covenant with your servant;
you have completely dishonored his crown.

40 You have broken down all his walls;
you have reduced his fortified cities to ruins.

41 All who pass by plunder him;
he has become an object of ridicule to his neighbors.

42 You have lifted high the right hand of his foes;
you have made all his enemies rejoice.

43 You have also turned back his sharp sword and have not let him stand in battle.

44 You have made his splendor cease and have overturned his throne.

45 You have shortened the days of his youth;
you have covered him with shame. Selah

46 How long, LORD? Will you hide forever?
Will your anger keep burning like fire?
47 Remember how short my life is.
Have you created everyone for nothing?
48 What courageous person can live and never see death?
Who can save himself
from the power of Sheol? Selah

49 Lord, where are the former acts of your faithful love
that you swore to David in your faithfulness?

50 Remember, Lord, the ridicule against your servants —
in my heart I carry abuse from all the peoples —

51 how your enemies have ridiculed, LORD,

how they have ridiculed every step of your anointed.
52 Blessed be the LORD forever.
Amen and amen.

BOOK IV (Psalms 90–106)

90 A prayer of Moses, the man of God.
Lord, you have been our refuge
in every generation.

2 Before the mountains were born,
before you gave birth to the earth and the world,
from eternity to eternity, you are God.

3 You return mankind to the dust, saying, "Return, descendants of Adam."

4 For in your sight a thousand years are like yesterday that passes by,
like a few hours of the night.

5 You end their lives; they sleep.
They are like grass that grows in the morning —
6 in the morning it sprouts and grows;
by evening it withers and dries up.

7 For we are consumed by your anger;
we are terrified by your wrath.

8 You have set our iniquities before you,
our secret sins in the light of your presence.

9 For all our days ebb away under your wrath;
we end our years like a sigh.

10 Our lives last seventy years or, if we are strong, eighty years.
Even the best of them are struggle and sorrow;
indeed, they pass quickly and we fly away.

11 Who understands the power of your anger?
Your wrath matches the fear that is due you.

12 Teach us to number our days carefully
so that we may develop wisdom in our hearts.

13 LORD — how long?
Turn and have compassion on your servants.

14 Satisfy us in the morning with your faithful love so that we may shout with joy and be glad all our days.

15 Make us rejoice for as many days
as you have humbled us,
for as many years as we have seen adversity.

16 Let your work be seen by your servants,
and your splendor by their children.

17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be on us;
establish for us the work of our hands —
establish the work of our hands!

91 The one who lives under the protection of the Most High dwells in the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say concerning the LORD, who is my refuge and my fortress,
my God in whom I trust:

3 He himself will rescue you from the bird trap,
from the destructive plague.

4 He will cover you with his feathers;
you will take refuge under his wings.
His faithfulness will be a protective shield.
