5 You will not fear the terror of the night,
the arrow that flies by day, 6 the plague that stalks in darkness,
or the pestilence that ravages at noon.

7 Though a thousand fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand,

the pestilence will not reach you.
8 You will only see it with your eyes and witness the punishment of the wicked.
9 Because you have made the LORD — my refuge,
the Most High — your dwelling place, 10 no harm will come to you;
no plague will come near your tent.
11 For he will give his angels orders concerning you,
to protect you in all your ways.
12 They will support you with their hands
so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.
13 You will tread on the lion and the cobra;
you will trample the young lion and the serpent.
14 Because he has his heart set on me,
I will deliver him;
I will protect him because he knows my name.
15 When he calls out to me, I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble.
I will rescue him and give him honor.
16 I will satisfy him with a long life
and show him my salvation.

92 A psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praise to your name, Most High,
2 to declare your faithful love in the morning and your faithfulness at night, 3 with a ten-stringed harp
and the music of a lyre.
4 For you have made me rejoice, LORD,
by what you have done;
I will shout for joy
because of the works of your hands.
5 How magnificent are your works, LORD,
how profound your thoughts!
6 A stupid person does not know,
a fool does not understand this:
7 though the wicked sprout like grass
and all evildoers flourish,
they will be eternally destroyed.
8 But you, LORD, are exalted forever.
9 For indeed, LORD, your enemies —
indeed, your enemies will perish;
all evildoers will be scattered.
10 You have lifted up my horn
like that of a wild ox;
I have been anointed with the finest oil.
11 My eyes look at my enemies;
when evildoers rise against me,
my ears hear them.
12 The righteous thrive like a palm tree
and grow like a cedar tree in Lebanon.
13 Planted in the house of the LORD,
they thrive in the courts of our God.
14 They will still bear fruit in old age,
healthy and green, 15 to declare: "The LORD is just;
he is my rock,
and there is no unrighteousness in him."

93 The LORD reigns! He is robed in majesty;
the LORD is robed, enveloped in strength.
The world is firmly established;
it cannot be shaken.

2 Your throne has been established
from the beginning;
you are from eternity.
3 The floods have lifted up, LORD,
the floods have lifted up their voice;
the floods lift up their pounding waves.
4 Greater than the roar of a huge torrent —
the mighty breakers of the sea —
the LORD on high is majestic.
5 LORD, your testimonies are completely reliable;
holiness adorns your house
for all the days to come.

94 LORD, God of vengeance — God of vengeance, shine!

2 Rise up, Judge of the earth;
repay the proud what they deserve.
3 LORD, how long will the wicked —
how long will the wicked celebrate?
4 They pour out arrogant words;
all the evildoers boast.
5 LORD, they crush your people;
they oppress your heritage.
6 They kill the widow and the resident alien and murder the fatherless.
7 They say, "The LORD doesn't see it.
The God of Jacob doesn't pay attention."
8 Pay attention, you stupid people!
Fools, when will you be wise?
9 Can the one who shaped the ear not hear,
the one who formed the eye not see?
10 The one who instructs nations,
the one who teaches mankind knowledge —
does he not discipline?
11 The LORD knows the thoughts of mankind;
they are futile.
12 LORD, how happy is anyone you discipline and teach from your law
to give him relief from troubled times until a pit is dug for the wicked.
14 The LORD will not leave his people or abandon his heritage, 15 for the administration of justice will again be righteous,
and all the upright in heart will follow it.
16 Who stands up for me against the wicked?
Who takes a stand for me
against evildoers?
17 If the LORD had not been my helper,
I would soon rest in the silence of death.
18 If I say, "My foot is slipping,"
your faithful love will support me, LORD.
19 When I am filled with cares,
your comfort brings me joy.
20 Can a corrupt throne be your ally,
a throne that makes evil laws?
21 They band together against the life of the righteous
and condemn the innocent to death.
22 But the LORD is my refuge;
my God is the rock of my protection.
23 He will pay them back for their sins
and destroy them for their evil.
The LORD our God will destroy them.

95 Come, let us shout joyfully to the LORD, shout triumphantly to the rock
of our salvation!

2 Let us enter his presence with thanksgiving;
let us shout triumphantly to him in song.

3 For the LORD is a great God,
a great King above all gods.

4 The depths of the earth are in his hand, and the mountain peaks are his.

5 The sea is his; he made it.
His hands formed the dry land.

6 Come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.

7 For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture,
the sheep under his care.
Today, if you hear his voice:

8 Do not harden your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the wilderness
where your fathers tested me;
they tried me, though they had seen what I did.

9 For forty years I was disgusted
with that generation;
I said, "They are a people whose hearts go astray;
they do not know my ways."

10 So I swore in my anger,
"They will not enter my rest."

96 Sing a new song to the LORD;
let the whole earth sing to the LORD.

2 Sing to the LORD, bless his name;
proclaim his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the nations,
his wondrous works among all peoples.

4 For the LORD is great and is highly praised;
he is feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
but the LORD made the heavens.

6 Splendor and majesty are before him;
strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

8 Ascribe to the LORD the glory of his name;
bring an offering and enter his courts.

9 Worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness;
let the whole earth tremble before him.

10 Say among the nations: "The LORD reigns.
The world is firmly established; it cannot be shaken.
He judges the peoples fairly."

11 Let the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice;
let the sea and all that fills it resound.

12 Let the fields and everything in them celebrate.
Then all the trees of the forest will shout for joy
before the LORD, for he is coming —
for he is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness
and the peoples with his faithfulness.

97 The LORD reigns! Let the earth rejoice;
let the many coasts and islands be glad.

2 Clouds and total darkness surround him;
righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

3 Fire goes before him

and burns up his foes on every side.

4 His lightning lights up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.

5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD —
at the presence of the LORD of the whole earth.

6 The heavens proclaim his righteousness;
all the peoples see his glory.

7 All who serve carved images,
those who boast in idols, will be put to shame.
All the gods must worship him.

8 Zion hears and is glad,
Judah's villages rejoice
because of your judgments, LORD.

9 For you, LORD,
are the Most High over the whole earth;
you are exalted above all the gods.

10 You who love the LORD, hate evil!
He protects the lives of his faithful ones;
he rescues them from the power of the wicked.

11 Light dawns for the righteous, gladness for the upright in heart.

12 Be glad in the LORD, you righteous ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.

98 A psalm.
Sing a new song to the LORD,
for he has performed wonders;
his right hand and holy arm
have won him victory.

2 The LORD has made his victory known;
he has revealed his righteousness
in the sight of the nations.

3 He has remembered his love and faithfulness to the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth
have seen our God's victory.

4 Let the whole earth shout to the LORD;
be jubilant, shout for joy, and sing.

5 Sing to the LORD with the lyre,
with the lyre and melodious song.

6 With trumpets and the blast of the ram's horn shout triumphantly
in the presence of the LORD, our King.

7 Let the sea and all that fills it,
the world and those who live in it, resound.

8 Let the rivers clap their hands;
let the mountains shout together for joy
before the LORD,
for he is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world righteously
and the peoples fairly.

99 The LORD reigns! Let the peoples tremble.
He is enthroned between the cherubim.
Let the earth quake.

2 The LORD is great in Zion;
he is exalted above all the peoples.

3 Let them praise your great and awe-inspiring name.
He is holy.

4 The mighty King loves justice.
You have established fairness;
you have administered justice and righteousness in Jacob.

- 5 Exalt the LORD our God;
bow in worship at his footstool.
He is holy.
- 6 Moses and Aaron were among his priests;
Samuel also was among those calling on his name.
They called to the LORD and he answered them.
- 7 He spoke to them in a pillar of cloud;
they kept his decrees and the statutes he gave them.
- 8 LORD our God, you answered them.
You were a forgiving God to them,
but an avenger of their sinful actions.
- 9 Exalt the LORD our God;
bow in worship at his holy mountain,
for the LORD our God is holy.

100 A psalm of thanksgiving.
Let the whole earth shout triumphantly to God!

- 2 Serve the LORD with gladness;
come before him with joyful songs.
- 3 Acknowledge that the LORD is God.
He made us, and we are his—
his people, the sheep of his pasture.
- 4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him and bless his name.
- 5 For the LORD is good, and his faithful love
endures forever;
his faithfulness, through all generations.

101 A psalm of David.
I will sing of faithful love and justice;
I will sing praise to you, LORD.

- 2 I will pay attention to the way of integrity.
When will you come to me?
I will live with a heart of integrity in my house.
- 3 I will not let anything worthless guide me.
I hate the practice of transgression;
it will not cling to me.
- 4 A devious heart will be far from me;
I will not be involved with evil.
- 5 I will destroy anyone who secretly slanders his neighbor;
I cannot tolerate anyone
with haughty eyes or an arrogant heart.
- 6 My eyes favor the faithful of the land
so that they may sit down with me.
The one who follows the way of integrity
may serve me.
- 7 No one who acts deceitfully
will live in my palace;
the one who tells lies
will not be retained here to guide me.
- 8 Every morning I will destroy
all the wicked of the land, wiping out all evildoers from the LORD's city.

102 A prayer of a suffering person who is weak and pours out his lament before the LORD.

- 1 LORD, hear my prayer;
let my cry for help come before you.
- 2 Do not hide your face from me in my day
of trouble.
Listen closely to me;

answer me quickly when I call.

- 3 For my days vanish like smoke,
and my bones burn like a furnace.
- 4 My heart is suffering, withered like grass;
I even forget to eat my food.
- 5 Because of the sound of my groaning,
my flesh sticks to my bones.
- 6 I am like an eagle owl,
like a little owl among the ruins.
- 7 I stay awake;
I am like a solitary bird on a roof.
- 8 My enemies taunt me all day long;
they ridicule and use my name as a curse.
- 9 I eat ashes like bread and mingle my drinks with tears
because of your indignation and wrath;
for you have picked me up and thrown me aside.
- 11 My days are like a lengthening shadow,
and I wither away like grass.
- 12 But you, LORD, are enthroned forever;
your fame endures to all generations.
- 13 You will rise up and have compassion on Zion,
for it is time to show favor to her—
the appointed time has come.
- 14 For your servants take delight in its stones and favor its dust.
- 15 Then the nations will fear the name of the LORD,
and all the kings of the earth your glory,
for the LORD will rebuild Zion;
he will appear in his glory.
- 17 He will pay attention to the prayer of the destitute
and will not despise their prayer.
- 18 This will be written for a later generation,
and a people who have not yet been created
will praise the LORD:
- 19 He looked down from his holy heights—
the LORD gazed out from heaven to earth—
to hear a prisoner's groaning,
to set free those condemned to die,
so that they might declare the name of the LORD in Zion
and his praise in Jerusalem,
when peoples and kingdoms are assembled to serve the LORD.
- 23 He has broken my strength in midcourse;
he has shortened my days.
- 24 I say: "My God, do not take me
in the middle of my life!
Your years continue through all generations.
- 25 Long ago you established the earth,
and the heavens are the work of your hands.
- 26 They will perish, but you will endure;
all of them will wear out like clothing.
You will change them like a garment,
and they will pass away.
- 27 But you are the same,
and your years will never end.
- 28 Your servants' children will dwell securely,
and their offspring will be established before you."

103 Of David.
My soul, bless the LORD,
and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 My soul, bless the LORD,

and do not forget all his benefits.
 3 He forgives all your iniquity;
 he heals all your diseases.
 4 He redeems your life from the Pit;
 he crowns you with faithful love and compassion.
 5 He satisfies you with good things;
 your youth is renewed like the eagle.
 6 The LORD executes acts of righteousness and justice for all the oppressed.
 7 He revealed his ways to Moses,
 his deeds to the people of Israel.
 8 The LORD is compassionate and gracious,
 slow to anger and abounding in faithful love.
 9 He will not always accuse us or be angry forever.
 10 He has not dealt with us as our sins deserve or repaid us according to our iniquities.
 11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
 so great is his faithful love toward those who fear him.
 12 As far as the east is from the west,
 so far has he removed
 our transgressions from us.
 13 As a father has compassion on his children,
 so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him.
 14 For he knows what we are made of,
 remembering that we are dust.
 15 As for man, his days are like grass —
 he blooms like a flower of the field; 16 when the wind passes over it, it vanishes,
 and its place is no longer known.
 17 But from eternity to eternity
 the LORD's faithful love is toward those who fear him,
 and his righteousness toward the grandchildren
 of those who keep his covenant,
 who remember to observe his precepts.
 19 The LORD has established his throne in heaven,
 and his kingdom rules over all.
 20 Bless the LORD,
 all his angels of great strength,
 who do his word,
 obedient to his command.
 21 Bless the LORD, all his armies,
 his servants who do his will.
 22 Bless the LORD, all his works
 in all the places where he rules.
 My soul, bless the LORD!

104 My soul, bless the LORD!
 LORD my God, you are very great;
 you are clothed with majesty and splendor.
 2 He wraps himself in light as if it were a robe,
 spreading out the sky like a canopy, 3 laying the beams of his palace
 on the waters above,
 making the clouds his chariot,
 walking on the wings of the wind, 4 and making the winds his messengers,
 flames of fire his servants.
 5 He established the earth on its foundations;
 it will never be shaken.
 6 You covered it with the deep
 as if it were a garment;

the water stood above the mountains.
 7 At your rebuke the water fled;
 at the sound of your thunder they hurried away — 8 mountains rose and valleys sank — to the place you established for them.
 9 You set a boundary they cannot cross;
 they will never cover the earth again.
 10 He causes the springs to gush into the valleys;
 they flow between the mountains.
 11 They supply water for every wild beast;
 the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
 12 The birds of the sky live beside the springs;
 they make their voices heard among the foliage.
 13 He waters the mountains from his palace;
 the earth is satisfied by the fruit of your labor.
 14 He causes grass to grow for the livestock and provides crops for man to cultivate, producing food from the earth, 15 wine that makes human hearts glad — making his face shine with oil —
 and bread that sustains human hearts.
 16 The trees of the LORD flourish,
 the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.
 17 There the birds make their nests;
 storks make their homes in the pine trees.
 18 The high mountains are for the wild goats;
 the cliffs are a refuge for hyraxes.
 19 He made the moon to mark the festivals;
 the sun knows when to set.
 20 You bring darkness, and it becomes night,
 when all the forest animals stir.
 21 The young lions roar for their prey
 and seek their food from God.
 22 The sun rises; they go back and lie down in their dens.
 23 Man goes out to his work
 and to his labor until evening.
 24 How countless are your works, LORD!
 In wisdom you have made them all;
 the earth is full of your creatures.
 25 Here is the sea, vast and wide, teeming with creatures beyond number — living things both large and small.
 26 There the ships move about,
 and Leviathan, which you formed to play there.
 27 All of them wait for you to give them their food at the right time.
 28 When you give it to them,
 they gather it;
 when you open your hand,
 they are satisfied with good things.
 29 When you hide your face,
 they are terrified;
 when you take away their breath,
 they die and return to the dust.
 30 When you send your breath,
 they are created,
 and you renew the surface of the ground.
 31 May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
 may the LORD rejoice in his works.
 32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles;
 he touches the mountains,
 and they pour out smoke.
 33 I will sing to the LORD all my life;
 I will sing praise to my God while I live.

- 34 May my meditation be pleasing to him;
I will rejoice in the LORD.
35 May sinners vanish from the earth and wicked people be no more.
My soul, bless the LORD!
Hallelujah!

105 Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name;
proclaim his deeds among the peoples.

- 2 Sing to him, sing praise to him;
tell about all his wondrous works!
3 Honor his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
4 Seek the LORD and his strength;
seek his face always.
5 Remember the wondrous works he has done,
his wonders, and the judgments
he has pronounced,
6 you offspring of Abraham his servant,
Jacob's descendants — his chosen ones.
7 He is the LORD our God;
his judgments govern the whole earth.
8 He remembers his covenant forever,
the promise he ordained for a thousand generations — 9 the covenant he made with Abraham, swore to Isaac,
10 and confirmed to Jacob as a decree
and to Israel as a permanent covenant:
11 "I will give the land of Canaan to you as your inherited portion."
12 When they were few in number,
very few indeed,
and resident aliens in Canaan, 13 wandering from nation to nation
and from one kingdom to another, 14 he allowed no one to oppress them;
he rebuked kings on their behalf: 15 "Do not touch my anointed ones,
or harm my prophets."
16 He called down famine against the land and destroyed the entire food supply.
17 He had sent a man ahead of them —
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
18 They hurt his feet with shackles;
his neck was put in an iron collar.
19 Until the time his prediction came true,
the word of the LORD tested him.
20 The king sent for him and released him;
the ruler of peoples set him free.
21 He made him master of his household,
ruler over all his possessions — 22 binding his officials at will and instructing his elders.
23 Then Israel went to Egypt;
Jacob lived as an alien in the land of Ham.
24 The LORD made his people very fruitful;
he made them more numerous than their foes, 25 whose hearts he turned to hate his people and to deal deceptively with his servants.
26 He sent Moses his servant,
and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
27 They performed his miraculous signs
among them,
and wonders in the land of Ham.

- 28 He sent darkness, and it became dark —
for did they not defy his commands?
29 He turned their water into blood and caused their fish to die.
30 Their land was overrun with frogs,
even in their royal chambers.
31 He spoke, and insects came — gnats throughout their country.
32 He gave them hail for rain,
and lightning throughout their land.
33 He struck their vines and fig trees and shattered the trees of their territory.
34 He spoke, and locusts came — young locusts without number.
35 They devoured all the vegetation in their land and consumed the produce of their land.
36 He struck all the firstborn in their land,
all their first progeny.
37 Then he brought Israel out with silver and gold,
and no one among his tribes stumbled.
38 Egypt was glad when they left,
for the dread of Israel had fallen on them.
39 He spread a cloud as a covering and gave a fire to light up the night.
40 They asked, and he brought quail
and satisfied them with bread from heaven.
41 He opened a rock, and water gushed out;
it flowed like a stream in the desert.
42 For he remembered his holy promise to Abraham his servant.
43 He brought his people out with rejoicing,
his chosen ones with shouts of joy.
44 He gave them the lands of the nations,
and they inherited
what other peoples had worked for.
45 All this happened
so that they might keep his statutes and obey his instructions.
Hallelujah!

106 Hallelujah!
Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his faithful love endures forever.

- 2 Who can declare the LORD's mighty acts or proclaim all the praise due him?
3 How happy are those who uphold justice,
who practice righteousness at all times.
4 Remember me, LORD,
when you show favor to your people.
Come to me with your salvation
5 so that I may enjoy the prosperity of your chosen ones,
rejoice in the joy of your nation,
and boast about your heritage.
6 Both we and our fathers have sinned;
we have done wrong and have acted wickedly.
7 Our fathers in Egypt did not grasp the significance of your wondrous works or remember your many acts of faithful love;
instead, they rebelled by the sea — the Red Sea.
8 Yet he saved them for his name's sake,
to make his power known.
9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up;
he led them through the depths as through a desert.

10 He saved them from the power of the adversary;
he redeemed them from the power of the enemy.

11 Water covered their foes;
not one of them remained.

12 Then they believed his promises and sang his praise.

13 They soon forgot his works
and would not wait for his counsel.

14 They were seized with craving in the wilderness and tested God in the desert.

15 He gave them what they asked for,
but sent a wasting disease among them.

16 In the camp they were envious of Moses and of Aaron, the LORD's holy one.

17 The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan;
it covered the assembly of Abiram.

18 Fire blazed throughout their assembly;
flames consumed the wicked.

19 At Horeb they made a calf and worshiped the cast metal image.

20 They exchanged their glory
for the image of a grass-eating ox.

21 They forgot God their Savior,
who did great things in Egypt,
wondrous works in the land of Ham,
awe-inspiring acts at the Red Sea.

23 So he said he would have destroyed them —
if Moses his chosen one had not stood before him in the breach to turn his wrath away from destroying them.

24 They despised the pleasant land and did not believe his promise.

25 They grumbled in their tents and did not listen to the LORD.

26 So he raised his hand against them with an oath that he would make them fall in the desert and would disperse their descendants
among the nations,
scattering them throughout the lands.

28 They aligned themselves with Baal of Peor and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods.

29 They angered the LORD with their deeds,
and a plague broke out against them.

30 But Phinehas stood up and intervened,
and the plague was stopped.

31 It was credited to him as righteousness throughout all generations to come.

32 They angered the LORD at the Waters of Meribah, and Moses suffered because of them;
for they embittered his spirit,
and he spoke rashly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the peoples
as the LORD had commanded them but mingled with the nations and adopted their ways.

36 They served their idols,
which became a snare to them.

37 They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons.

38 They shed innocent blood —
the blood of their sons and daughters
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
so the land became polluted with blood.

39 They defiled themselves by their actions and prostituted themselves by their deeds.

40 Therefore the LORD's anger burned
against his people,
and he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 He handed them over to the nations;
those who hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies oppressed them,
and they were subdued under their power.

43 He rescued them many times,
but they continued to rebel deliberately and were beaten down by their iniquity.

44 When he heard their cry,
he took note of their distress,
remembered his covenant with them,
and relented according to the abundance of his faithful love.

46 He caused them to be pitied
before all their captors.

47 Save us, LORD our God,
and gather us from the nations,
so that we may give thanks to your holy name
and rejoice in your praise.

48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.
Let all the people say, "Amen!"
Hallelujah!

BOOK V (Psalms 107–150)

107 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his faithful love endures forever.

² Let the redeemed of the LORD proclaim that he has redeemed them from the power of the foe

³ and has gathered them from the lands —
from the east and the west,
from the north and the south.

⁴ Some wandered in the desolate wilderness,
finding no way to a city where they could live.

⁵ They were hungry and thirsty;
their spirits failed within them.

⁶ Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble;
he rescued them from their distress.

⁷ He led them by the right path
to go to a city where they could live.

⁸ Let them give thanks to the LORD
for his faithful love
and his wondrous works for all humanity.

⁹ For he has satisfied the thirsty
and filled the hungry with good things.

¹⁰ Others sat in darkness and gloom — prisoners in cruel chains — because they rebelled against God's commands and despised the counsel of the Most High.

¹² He broke their spirits with hard labor;
they stumbled, and there was no one to help.

¹³ Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble;
he saved them from their distress.

¹⁴ He brought them out of darkness and gloom
and broke their chains apart.

¹⁵ Let them give thanks to the LORD
for his faithful love
and his wondrous works for all humanity.

¹⁶ For he has broken down the bronze gates and cut through the iron bars.

¹⁷ Fools suffered affliction

because of their rebellious ways and their iniquities.
 18 They loathed all food
 and came near the gates of death.
 19 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble;
 he saved them from their distress.
 20 He sent his word and healed them;
 he rescued them from the Pit.
 21 Let them give thanks to the LORD
 for his faithful love
 and his wondrous works for all humanity.
 22 Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving and announce his works with shouts of joy.
 23 Others went to sea in ships, conducting trade on the vast water.
 24 They saw the LORD's works,
 his wondrous works in the deep.
 25 He spoke and raised a stormy wind that stirred up the waves of the sea.
 26 Rising up to the sky, sinking down to the depths,
 their courage melting away in anguish, 27 they reeled and staggered like a drunkard,
 and all their skill was useless.
 28 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
 and he brought them out of their distress.
 29 He stilled the storm to a whisper,
 and the waves of the sea were hushed.
 30 They rejoiced when the waves grew quiet.
 Then he guided them to the harbor
 they longed for.
 31 Let them give thanks to the LORD
 for his faithful love
 and his wondrous works for all humanity.
 32 Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.
 33 He turns rivers into desert,
 springs into thirsty ground, 34 and fruitful land into salty wasteland,
 because of the wickedness of its inhabitants.
 35 He turns a desert into a pool,
 dry land into springs.
 36 He causes the hungry to settle there,
 and they establish a city where they can live.
 37 They sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.
 38 He blesses them, and they multiply greatly;
 he does not let their livestock decrease.
 39 When they are diminished and are humbled
 by cruel oppression and sorrow, 40 he pours contempt on nobles
 and makes them wander in a trackless wasteland.
 41 But he lifts the needy out of their suffering and makes their families multiply like flocks.
 42 The upright see it and rejoice,
 and all injustice shuts its mouth.
 43 Let whoever is wise pay attention to these things and consider the LORD's acts of faithful love.

108 A song. A psalm of David.
 My heart is confident, God;

I will sing; I will sing praises with the whole of my being.

2 Wake up, harp and lyre!
 I will wake up the dawn.

3 I will praise you, LORD, among the peoples;
 I will sing praises to you among the nations.

4 For your faithful love is higher than the heavens,
 and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
 5 God, be exalted above the heavens,
 and let your glory be over the whole earth.
 6 Save with your right hand and answer me
 so that those you love may be rescued.
 7 God has spoken in his sanctuary:
 "I will celebrate!
 I will divide up Shechem.
 I will apportion the Valley of Succoth.
 8 Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine,
 and Ephraim is my helmet;
 Judah is my scepter.
 9 Moab is my washbasin;
 I throw my sandal on Edom.
 I shout in triumph over Philistia."
 10 Who will bring me to the fortified city?
 Who will lead me to Edom?
 11 God, haven't you rejected us?
 God, you do not march out with our armies.
 12 Give us aid against the foe,
 for human help is worthless.
 13 With God we will perform valiantly;
 he will trample our foes.

109 For the choir director. A psalm of David.
 God of my praise, do not be silent.

2 For wicked and deceitful mouths open against me;
 they speak against me with lying tongues.
 3 They surround me with hateful words and attack me without cause.
 4 In return for my love they accuse me,
 but I continue to pray.
 5 They repay me evil for good,
 and hatred for my love.
 6 Set a wicked person over him;
 let an accuser stand at his right hand.
 7 When he is judged, let him be found guilty,
 and let his prayer be counted as sin.
 8 Let his days be few;
 let another take over his position.
 9 Let his children be fatherless
 and his wife a widow.
 10 Let his children wander as beggars, searching for food far
 from their demolished homes.
 11 Let a creditor seize all he has;
 let strangers plunder what he has worked for.
 12 Let no one show him kindness, and let no one be gracious
 to his fatherless children.
 13 Let the line of his descendants be cut off;
 let their name be blotted out
 in the next generation.
 14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD,
 and do not let his mother's sin be blotted out.
 15 Let their sins always remain before the LORD, and let him remove all memory of them
 from the earth.
 16 For he did not think to show kindness, but pursued the suffering, needy,
 and brokenhearted
 in order to put them to death.

- 17 He loved cursing—let it fall on him;
he took no delight in blessing—let it be far from him.
- 18 He wore cursing like his coat—
let it enter his body like water and go into his bones like oil.
- 19 Let it be like a robe he wraps around himself,
like a belt he always wears.
- 20 Let this be the LORD's payment to my accusers,
to those who speak evil against me.
- 21 But you, LORD, my LORD,
deal kindly with me for your name's sake;
because your faithful love is good, rescue me.
- 22 For I am suffering and needy;
my heart is wounded within me.
- 23 I fade away like a lengthening shadow;
I am shaken off like a locust.
- 24 My knees are weak from fasting,
and my body is emaciated.
- 25 I have become an object of ridicule
to my accusers;
when they see me, they shake their heads
in scorn.
- 26 Help me, LORD my God;
save me according to your faithful love
- 27 so they may know that this is your hand and that you, LORD, have done it.
- 28 Though they curse, you will bless.
When they rise up, they will be put to shame,
but your servant will rejoice.
- 29 My accusers will be clothed with disgrace;
they will wear their shame like a cloak.
- 30 I will fervently thank the LORD with my mouth;
I will praise him in the presence of many.
- 31 For he stands at the right hand of the needy
to save him from those who would condemn him.

110 A psalm of David.

- This is the declaration of the LORD
to my Lord:
"Sit at my right hand
until I make your enemies your footstool."
2 The LORD will extend your mighty scepter from Zion.
Rule over your surrounding enemies.
- 3 Your people will volunteer
on your day of battle.
In holy splendor, from the womb of the dawn,
the dew of your youth belongs to you.
- 4 The LORD has sworn an oath and will not take it back:
"You are a priest forever
according to the pattern of Melchizedek."
5 The Lord is at your right hand;
he will crush kings on the day of his anger.
- 6 He will judge the nations, heaping up corpses;
he will crush leaders over the entire world.
- 7 He will drink from the brook by the road;
therefore, he will lift up his head.

- ## 111 Hallelujah!
- I will praise the LORD with all my heart
in the assembly of the upright and in the congregation.
- 2 The LORD's works are great,

- studied by all who delight in them.
- 3 All that he does is splendid and majestic;
his righteousness endures forever.
- 4 He has caused his wondrous works
to be remembered.
The LORD is gracious and compassionate.
- 5 He has provided food for those who fear him;
he remembers his covenant forever.
- 6 He has shown his people the power of his works
by giving them the inheritance of the nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are truth and justice;
all his instructions are trustworthy.
- 8 They are established forever and ever,
enacted in truth and in uprightness.
- 9 He has sent redemption to his people.
He has ordained his covenant forever.
His name is holy and awe-inspiring.
- 10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
all who follow his instructions have good insight.
His praise endures forever.

- ## 112 Hallelujah!
- Happy is the person who fears the LORD,
taking great delight in his commands.
- 2 His descendants will be powerful in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.
- 3 Wealth and riches are in his house,
and his righteousness endures forever.
- 4 Light shines in the darkness for the upright.
He is gracious, compassionate, and righteous.
- 5 Good will come to the one who lends generously and conducts his business fairly.
- 6 He will never be shaken.
The righteous one will be remembered forever.
- 7 He will not fear bad news;
his heart is confident, trusting in the LORD.
- 8 His heart is assured; he will not fear.
In the end he will look in triumph on his foes.
- 9 He distributes freely to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever.
His horn will be exalted in honor.
- 10 The wicked one will see it and be angry;
he will gnash his teeth in despair.
The desire of the wicked leads to ruin.

- ## 113 Hallelujah!
- Give praise, servants of the LORD;
praise the name of the LORD.
- 2 Let the name of the LORD be blessed
both now and forever.
- 3 From the rising of the sun to its setting,
let the name of the LORD be praised.
- 4 The LORD is exalted above all the nations,
his glory above the heavens.
- 5 Who is like the LORD our God—
the one enthroned on high,
who stoops down to look
on the heavens and the earth?
- 7 He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the trash heap in order to seat them with nobles—
with the nobles of his people.
- 9 He gives the childless woman a household,
making her the joyful mother of children.
Hallelujah!

114 When Israel came out of Egypt —
 the house of Jacob from a people who spoke a foreign language —
 2 Judah became his sanctuary,
 Israel, his dominion.
 3 The sea looked and fled;
 the Jordan turned back.
 4 The mountains skipped like rams,
 the hills, like lambs.
 5 Why was it, sea, that you fled?
 Jordan, that you turned back?
 6 Mountains, that you skipped like rams?
 Hills, like lambs?
 7 Tremble, earth, at the presence of the Lord,
 at the presence of the God of Jacob, 8 who turned the rock into a pool,
 the flint into a spring.

115 Not to us, LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory
 because of your faithful love, because of your truth.
 2 Why should the nations say,
 "Where is their God?"
 3 Our God is in heaven
 and does whatever he pleases.
 4 Their idols are silver and gold,
 made by human hands.
 5 They have mouths but cannot speak,
 eyes, but cannot see.
 6 They have ears but cannot hear,
 noses, but cannot smell.
 7 They have hands but cannot feel,
 feet, but cannot walk.
 They cannot make a sound with their throats.
 8 Those who make them are just like them,
 as are all who trust in them.
 9 Israel, trust in the LORD!
 He is their help and shield.
 10 House of Aaron, trust in the LORD!
 He is their help and shield.
 11 You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD!
 He is their help and shield.
 12 The LORD remembers us and will bless us.
 He will bless the house of Israel;
 he will bless the house of Aaron;
 13 he will bless those who fear the LORD —
 small and great alike.
 14 May the LORD add to your numbers, both yours and your children's.
 15 May you be blessed by the LORD,
 the Maker of heaven and earth.
 16 The heavens are the LORD's,
 but the earth he has given to the human race.
 17 It is not the dead who praise the LORD, nor any of those descending into the silence of death.
 18 But we will bless the LORD,
 both now and forever.
 Hallelujah!

116 I love the LORD because he has heard my appeal for mercy.
 2 Because he has turned his ear to me,
 I will call out to him as long as I live.

3 The ropes of death were wrapped around me,
 and the torments of Sheol overcame me;
 I encountered trouble and sorrow.
 4 Then I called on the name of the LORD:
 "LORD, save me!"
 5 The LORD is gracious and righteous;
 our God is compassionate.
 6 The LORD guards the inexperienced;
 I was helpless, and he saved me.
 7 Return to your rest, my soul,
 for the LORD has been good to you.
 8 For you, LORD, rescued me from death,
 my eyes from tears,
 my feet from stumbling.
 9 I will walk before the LORD
 in the land of the living.
 10 I believed, even when I said,
 "I am severely oppressed."
 11 In my alarm I said,
 "Everyone is a liar."
 12 How can I repay the LORD
 for all the good he has done for me?
 13 I will take the cup of salvation
 and call on the name of the LORD.
 14 I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
 in the presence of all his people.
 15 The death of his faithful ones is valuable in the LORD's sight.
 16 LORD, I am indeed your servant;
 I am your servant, the son
 of your female servant.
 You have loosened my bonds.
 17 I will offer you a sacrifice of thanksgiving
 and call on the name of the LORD.
 18 I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
 in the presence of all his people, 19 in the courts of the LORD's house —
 within you, Jerusalem.
 Hallelujah!

117 Praise the LORD, all nations!
 Glorify him, all peoples!
 2 For his faithful love to us is great;
 the LORD's faithfulness endures forever.
 Hallelujah!

118 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
 his faithful love endures forever.
 2 Let Israel say,
 "His faithful love endures forever."
 3 Let the house of Aaron say,
 "His faithful love endures forever."
 4 Let those who fear the LORD say,
 "His faithful love endures forever."
 5 I called to the LORD in distress;
 the LORD answered me
 and put me in a spacious place.
 6 The LORD is for me; I will not be afraid.
 What can a mere mortal do to me?
 7 The LORD is my helper, Therefore, I will look in triumph on those who hate me.
 8 It is better to take refuge in the LORD
 than to trust in humanity.
 9 It is better to take refuge in the LORD

than to trust in nobles.

- 10 All the nations surrounded me;
in the name of the LORD I destroyed them.
- 11 They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me;
in the name of the LORD I destroyed them.
- 12 They surrounded me like bees;
they were extinguished like a fire among thorns;
in the name of the LORD I destroyed them.
- 13 They pushed me hard to make me fall,
but the LORD helped me.
- 14 The LORD is my strength and my song;
he has become my salvation.
- 15 There are shouts of joy and victory
in the tents of the righteous:
"The LORD's right hand performs valiantly!
16 The LORD's right hand is raised.
The LORD's right hand performs valiantly!"
- 17 I will not die, but I will live
and proclaim what the LORD has done.
- 18 The LORD disciplined me severely
but did not give me over to death.
- 19 Open the gates of righteousness for me;
I will enter through them
and give thanks to the LORD.
- 20 This is the LORD's gate;
the righteous will enter through it.
- 21 I will give thanks to you because you have answered me
and have become my salvation.
- 22 The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
- 23 This came from the LORD;
it is wondrous in our sight.
- 24 This is the day the LORD has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.
- 25 LORD, save us!
LORD, please grant us success!
- 26 He who comes in the name of the LORD is blessed.
From the house of the LORD we bless you.
- 27 The LORD is God and has given us light.
Bind the festival sacrifice with cords
to the horns of the altar.
- 28 You are my God, and I will give you thanks.
You are my God; I will exalt you.
- 29 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his faithful love endures forever.

α Aleph

- How happy are those whose way is blameless,
who walk according to the LORD's instruction!
- 2 Happy are those who keep his decrees
and seek him with all their heart.
- 3 They do nothing wrong;
they walk in his ways.
- 4 You have commanded that your precepts be diligently kept.
- 5 If only my ways were committed to keeping your statutes!
- 6 Then I would not be ashamed
when I think about all your commands.
- 7 I will praise you with an upright heart
when I learn your righteous judgments.
- 8 I will keep your statutes;
never abandon me.

β Beth

- 9 How can a young man keep his way pure?
By keeping your word.
- 10 I have sought you with all my heart;
don't let me wander from your commands.
- 11 I have treasured your word in my heart
so that I may not sin against you.
- 12 LORD, may you be blessed;
teach me your statutes.
- 13 With my lips I proclaim
all the judgments from your mouth.
- 14 I rejoice in the way revealed by your decrees
as much as in all riches.
- 15 I will meditate on your precepts
and think about your ways.
- 16 I will delight in your statutes;
I will not forget your word.

γ Gimel

- 17 Deal generously with your servant
so that I might live;
then I will keep your word.
- 18 Open my eyes so that I may contemplate wondrous things from your instruction.
- 19 I am a resident alien on earth;
do not hide your commands from me.
- 20 I am continually overcome with longing for your judgments.
- 21 You rebuke the arrogant,
the ones under a curse,
who wander from your commands.
- 22 Take insult and contempt away from me,
for I have kept your decrees.
- 23 Though princes sit together speaking against me,
your servant will think about your statutes;
your decrees are my delight and my counselors.

δ Daleth

- 25 My life is down in the dust;
give me life through your word.
- 26 I told you about my life,
and you answered me;
teach me your statutes.
- 27 Help me understand
the meaning of your precepts
so that I can meditate on your wonders.
- 28 I am weary from grief;
strengthen me through your word.
- 29 Keep me from the way of deceit
and graciously give me your instruction.
- 30 I have chosen the way of truth;
I have set your ordinances before me.
- 31 I cling to your decrees;
LORD, do not put me to shame.
- 32 I pursue the way of your commands,
for you broaden my understanding.

ε He

- 33 Teach me, LORD, the meaning of your statutes,
and I will always keep them.
- 34 Help me understand your instruction,
and I will obey it
and follow it with all my heart.
- 35 Help me stay on the path of your commands,

for I take pleasure in it.
 36 Turn my heart to your decrees and not to dishonest profit.
 37 Turn my eyes
 from looking at what is worthless;
 give me life in your ways.
 38 Confirm what you said to your servant,
 for it produces reverence for you.
 39 Turn away the disgrace I dread;
 indeed, your judgments are good.
 40 How I long for your precepts!
 Give me life through your righteousness.

† Waw

41 Let your faithful love come to me, LORD, your salvation, as you promised.
 42 Then I can answer the one who taunts me,
 for I trust in your word.
 43 Never take the word of truth from my mouth,
 for I hope in your judgments.
 44 I will always obey your instruction,
 forever and ever.
 45 I will walk freely in an open place
 because I study your precepts.
 46 I will speak of your decrees before kings and not be ashamed.
 47 I delight in your commands,
 which I love.
 48 I will lift up my hands to your commands,
 which I love,
 and will meditate on your statutes.

† Zayin

49 Remember your word to your servant;
 you have given me hope through it.
 50 This is my comfort in my affliction:
 Your promise has given me life.
 51 The arrogant constantly ridicule me,
 but I do not turn away from your instruction.
 52 LORD, I remember your judgments from long ago
 and find comfort.
 53 Rage seizes me because of the wicked
 who reject your instruction.
 54 Your statutes are the theme of my song
 during my earthly life.
 55 LORD, I remember your name in the night,
 and I obey your instruction.
 56 This is my practice:
 I obey your precepts.

† Cheth

57 The LORD is my portion;
 I have promised to keep your words.
 58 I have sought your favor with all my heart;
 be gracious to me according to your promise.
 59 I thought about my ways
 and turned my steps back to your decrees.
 60 I hurried, not hesitating to keep your commands.
 61 Though the ropes of the wicked
 were wrapped around me,
 I did not forget your instruction.
 62 I rise at midnight to thank you
 for your righteous judgments.
 63 I am a friend to all who fear you,

to those who keep your precepts.
 64 LORD, the earth is filled with your faithful love;
 teach me your statutes.

† Teth

65 LORD, you have treated your servant well,
 just as you promised.
 66 Teach me good judgment and discernment,
 for I rely on your commands.
 67 Before I was afflicted I went astray,
 but now I keep your word.
 68 You are good, and you do what is good;
 teach me your statutes.
 69 The arrogant have smeared me with lies,
 but I obey your precepts with all my heart.
 70 Their hearts are hard and insensitive,
 but I delight in your instruction.
 71 It was good for me to be afflicted
 so that I could learn your statutes.
 72 Instruction from your lips is better for me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

† Yod

73 Your hands made me and formed me;
 give me understanding
 so that I can learn your commands.
 74 Those who fear you will see me and rejoice,
 for I put my hope in your word.
 75 I know, LORD, that your judgments are just and that you have afflicted me fairly.
 76 May your faithful love comfort me
 as you promised your servant.
 77 May your compassion come to me
 so that I may live,
 for your instruction is my delight.
 78 Let the arrogant be put to shame
 for slandering me with lies;
 I will meditate on your precepts.
 79 Let those who fear you,
 those who know your decrees, turn to me.
 80 May my heart be blameless regarding your statutes
 so that I will not be put to shame.

† Kaph

81 I long for your salvation;
 I put my hope in your word.
 82 My eyes grow weary looking for what you have promised;
 I ask, "When will you comfort me?"
 83 Though I have become like a wineskin dried by smoke,
 I do not forget your statutes.
 84 How many days must your servant wait?
 When will you execute judgment
 on my persecutors?
 85 The arrogant have dug pits for me;
 they violate your instruction.
 86 All your commands are true;
 people persecute me with lies—help me!
 87 They almost ended my life on earth,
 but I did not abandon your precepts.
 88 Give me life in accordance with your faithful love,
 and I will obey the decree you have spoken.

Lamed

89 Lord, your word is forever;
it is firmly fixed in heaven.
90 Your faithfulness is for all generations;
you established the earth, and it stands firm.
91 Your judgments stand firm today,
for all things are your servants.
92 If your instruction had not been my delight,
I would have died in my affliction.
93 I will never forget your precepts,
for you have given me life through them.
94 I am yours; save me,
for I have studied your precepts.
95 The wicked hope to destroy me,
but I contemplate your decrees.
96 I have seen a limit to all perfection,
but your command is without limit.

Mem

97 How I love your instruction!
It is my meditation all day long.
98 Your commands make me wiser than my enemies,
for they are always with me.
99 I have more insight than all my teachers
because your decrees are my meditation.
100 I understand more than the elders
because I obey your precepts.
101 I have kept my feet from every evil path
to follow your word.
102 I have not turned from your judgments,
for you yourself have instructed me.
103 How sweet your word is to my taste —
sweeter than honey in my mouth.
104 I gain understanding from your precepts;
therefore I hate every false way.

Nun

105 Your word is a lamp for my feet
and a light on my path.
106 I have solemnly sworn to keep your righteous judgments.
107 I am severely afflicted;
LORD, give me life according to your word.
108 LORD, please accept my freewill offerings of praise,
and teach me your judgments.
109 My life is constantly in danger,
yet I do not forget your instruction.
110 The wicked have set a trap for me,
but I have not wandered from your precepts.
111 I have your decrees as a heritage forever;
indeed, they are the joy of my heart.
112 I am resolved to obey your statutes to the very end.

Samek

113 I hate those who are double-minded,
but I love your instruction.
114 You are my shelter and my shield;
I put my hope in your word.
115 Depart from me, you evil ones,
so that I may obey my God's commands.
116 Sustain me as you promised, and I will live;
do not let me be ashamed of my hope.

117 Sustain me so that I can be safe and always be concerned about your statutes.
118 You reject all who stray from your statutes,
for their deceit is a lie.
119 You remove all the wicked on earth
as if they were dross from metal;
therefore, I love your decrees.
120 I tremble in awe of you;
I fear your judgments.

Ayin

121 I have done what is just and right;
do not leave me to my oppressors.
122 Guarantee your servant's well-being;
do not let the arrogant oppress me.
123 My eyes grow weary looking for your salvation
and for your righteous promise.
124 Deal with your servant based on your faithful love;
teach me your statutes.
125 I am your servant; give me understanding
so that I may know your decrees.
126 It is time for the LORD to act,
for they have violated your instruction.
127 Since I love your commands
more than gold, even the purest gold, 128 I carefully follow all your precepts
and hate every false way.

Pe

129 Your decrees are wondrous;
therefore I obey them.
130 The revelation of your words brings light and gives understanding to the inexperienced.
131 I open my mouth and pant
because I long for your commands.
132 Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is your practice toward those who love your name.
133 Make my steps steady through your promise;
don't let any sin dominate me.
134 Redeem me from human oppression,
and I will keep your precepts.
135 Make your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your statutes.
136 My eyes pour out streams of tears
because people do not follow your instruction.

Tsade

137 You are righteous, LORD, and your judgments are just.
138 The decrees you issue are righteous and altogether trustworthy.
139 My anger overwhelms me
because my foes forget your words.
140 Your word is completely pure,
and your servant loves it.
141 I am insignificant and despised,
but I do not forget your precepts.
142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness,
and your instruction is true.
143 Trouble and distress have overtaken me,
but your commands are my delight.
144 Your decrees are righteous forever.
Give me understanding, and I will live.

ק Qoph

145 I call with all my heart; answer me, LORD.
I will obey your statutes.
146 I call to you; save me,
and I will keep your decrees.
147 I rise before dawn and cry out for help;
I put my hope in your word.
148 I am awake through each watch of the night to meditate on your promise.
149 In keeping with your faithful love, hear my voice.
LORD, give me life in keeping with your justice.
150 Those who pursue evil plans come near;
they are far from your instruction.
151 You are near, LORD,
and all your commands are true.
152 Long ago I learned from your decrees that you have established them forever.

ר Resh

153 Consider my affliction and rescue me,
for I have not forgotten your instruction.
154 Champion my cause and redeem me;
give me life as you promised.
155 Salvation is far from the wicked
because they do not study your statutes.
156 Your compassions are many, LORD;
give me life according to your judgments.
157 My persecutors and foes are many.
I have not turned from your decrees.
158 I have seen the disloyal and feel disgust
because they do not keep your word.
159 Consider how I love your precepts;
LORD, give me life according to your faithful love.
160 The entirety of your word is truth,
each of your righteous judgments
endures forever.

ש Sin/ש Shin

161 Princes have persecuted me without cause,
but my heart fears only your word.
162 I rejoice over your promise
like one who finds vast treasure.
163 I hate and abhor falsehood,
but I love your instruction.
164 I praise you seven times a day
for your righteous judgments.
165 Abundant peace belongs to those who love your instruction;
nothing makes them stumble.
166 LORD, I hope for your salvation and carry out your commands.
167 I obey your decrees
and love them greatly.
168 I obey your precepts and decrees,
for all my ways are before you.

ת Tav

169 Let my cry reach you, LORD;
give me understanding according to your word.
170 Let my plea reach you;
rescue me according to your promise.
171 My lips pour out praise,
for you teach me your statutes.
172 My tongue sings about your promise,
for all your commands are righteous.

173 May your hand be ready to help me,
for I have chosen your precepts.
174 I long for your salvation, LORD,
and your instruction is my delight.
175 Let me live, and I will praise you;
may your judgments help me.
176 I wander like a lost sheep;
seek your servant,
for I do not forget your commands.

120 A song of ascents.
In my distress I called to the LORD,
and he answered me.

2 "LORD, rescue me from lying lips and a deceitful tongue."
3 What will he give you,
and what will he do to you,
you deceitful tongue?
4 A warrior's sharp arrows
with burning charcoal!
5 What misery that I have stayed in Meshech,
that I have lived among the tents of Kedar!
6 I have dwelt too long with those who hate peace.
7 I am for peace; but when I speak,
they are for war.

121 A song of ascents.
I lift my eyes toward the mountains.

Where will my help come from?
2 My help comes from the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.
3 He will not allow your foot to slip;
your Protector will not slumber.
4 Indeed, the Protector of Israel
does not slumber or sleep.
5 The LORD protects you;
the LORD is a shelter right by your side.
6 The sun will not strike you by day or the moon by night.
7 The LORD will protect you from all harm;
he will protect your life.
8 The LORD will protect your coming and going
both now and forever.

122 A song of ascents. Of David.
I rejoiced with those who said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the LORD."

2 Our feet were standing within your gates, Jerusalem — 3 Jerusalem, built as a city should be, solidly united,
4 where the tribes, the LORD's tribes, go up to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
(This is an ordinance for Israel.)
5 There, thrones for judgment are placed, thrones of the house of David.
6 Pray for the well-being of Jerusalem:
"May those who love you be secure;
7 may there be peace within your walls,
security within your fortresses."
8 Because of my brothers and friends,
I will say, "May peace be in you."
9 Because of the house of the LORD our God,
I will pursue your prosperity.

- 123 A song of ascents.
 I lift my eyes to you,
 the one enthroned in heaven.
 2 Like a servant's eyes on his master's hand,
 like a servant girl's eyes on her mistress's hand,
 so our eyes are on the LORD our God
 until he shows us favor.
 3 Show us favor, LORD, show us favor,
 for we've had more than enough contempt.
 4 We've had more than enough scorn from the arrogant
 and contempt from the proud.

- 124 A song of ascents. Of David.
 If the LORD had not been on our side —
 let Israel say —
 2 If the LORD had not been on our side
 when people attacked us,
 3 then they would have swallowed us alive
 in their burning anger against us.
 4 Then the water would have engulfed us;
 the torrent would have swept over us;
 5 the raging water would have swept over us.
 6 Blessed be the LORD,
 who has not let us be ripped apart by their teeth.
 7 We have escaped like a bird
 from the hunter's net;
 the net is torn, and we have escaped.
 8 Our help is in the name of the LORD,
 the Maker of heaven and earth.

- 125 A song of ascents.
 Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion.
 It cannot be shaken; it remains forever.
 2 The mountains surround Jerusalem and the LORD surrounds his people,
 both now and forever.
 3 The scepter of the wicked will not remain
 over the land allotted to the righteous,
 so that the righteous will not apply their hands
 to injustice.
 4 Do what is good, LORD, to the good,
 to those whose hearts are upright.
 5 But as for those who turn aside to crooked ways,
 the LORD will banish them with the evildoers.
 Peace be with Israel.

- 126 A song of ascents.
 When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion,
 we were like those who dream.
 2 Our mouths were filled with laughter then,
 and our tongues with shouts of joy.
 Then they said among the nations,
 "The LORD has done great things for them."
 3 The LORD had done great things for us;
 we were joyful.
 4 Restore our fortunes, LORD,
 like watercourses in the Negev.
 5 Those who sow in tears
 will reap with shouts of joy.
 6 Though one goes along weeping,
 carrying the bag of seed,
 he will surely come back with shouts of joy,
 carrying his sheaves.

- 127 A song of ascents. Of Solomon.
 Unless the LORD builds a house,
 its builders labor over it in vain;
 unless the LORD watches over a city,
 the watchman stays alert in vain.
 2 In vain you get up early and stay up late,
 working hard to have enough food —
 yes, he gives sleep to the one he loves.
 3 Sons are indeed a heritage from the LORD,
 offspring, a reward.
 4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior
 are the sons born in one's youth.
 5 Happy is the man who has filled his quiver
 with them.
 They will never be put to shame
 when they speak with their enemies
 at the city gate.

- 128 A song of ascents.
 How happy is everyone who fears the LORD,
 who walks in his ways!
 2 You will surely eat
 what your hands have worked for.
 You will be happy,
 and it will go well for you.
 3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
 within your house,
 your children, like young olive trees around your table.
 4 In this very way
 the man who fears the LORD will be blessed.
 5 May the LORD bless you from Zion,
 so that you will see the prosperity of Jerusalem
 all the days of your life
 and will see your children's children!
 Peace be with Israel.

- 129 A song of ascents.
 Since my youth they have often attacked me —
 let Israel say —
 2 Since my youth they have often attacked me,
 but they have not prevailed against me.
 3 Plowmen plowed over my back;
 they made their furrows long.
 4 The LORD is righteous;
 he has cut the ropes of the wicked.
 5 Let all who hate Zion
 be driven back in disgrace.
 6 Let them be like grass on the rooftops, which withers before it grows up
 and can't even fill the hands of the reaper
 or the arms of the one who binds sheaves.
 8 Then none who pass by will say,
 "May the LORD's blessing be on you.
 We bless you in the name of the LORD."

- 130 A song of ascents.
 Out of the depths I call to you, LORD!
 2 Lord, listen to my voice;
 let your ears be attentive
 to my cry for help.
 3 LORD, if you kept an account of iniquities,
 Lord, who could stand?

- 4 But with you there is forgiveness,
so that you may be revered.
5 I wait for the LORD; I wait and put my hope in his word.
6 I wait for the LORD
more than watchmen for the morning—
more than watchmen for the morning.
7 Israel, put your hope in the LORD.
For there is faithful love with the LORD,
and with him is redemption in abundance.
8 And he will redeem Israel
from all its iniquities.

131 A song of ascents. Of David.
LORD, my heart is not proud;
my eyes are not haughty.
I do not get involved with things too great or too wondrous for me.
2 Instead, I have calmed and quieted my soul
like a weaned child with its mother;
my soul is like a weaned child.
3 Israel, put your hope in the LORD,
both now and forever.

132 A song of ascents.
LORD, remember David and all the hardships he endured,
and how he swore an oath to the LORD,
making a vow to the Mighty One of Jacob:
3 "I will not enter my house
or get into my bed, 4 I will not allow my eyes to sleep
or my eyelids to slumber 5 until I find a place for the LORD,
a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob."
6 We heard of the ark in Ephrathah;
we found it in the fields of Jaar.
7 Let us go to his dwelling place;
let us worship at his footstool.
8 Rise up, LORD, come to your resting place,
you and your powerful ark.
9 May your priests be clothed with righteousness,
and may your faithful people shout for joy.
10 For the sake of your servant David,
do not reject your anointed one.
11 The LORD swore an oath to David,
a promise he will not abandon:
"I will set one of your offspring
on your throne.
12 If your sons keep my covenant
and my decrees that I will teach them, their sons will also sit on your throne forever."
13 For the LORD has chosen Zion;
he has desired it for his home:
14 "This is my resting place forever;
I will make my home here
because I have desired it.
15 I will abundantly bless its food;
I will satisfy its needy with bread.
16 I will clothe its priests with salvation,
and its faithful people will shout for joy.
17 There I will make a horn grow for David;
I have prepared a lamp for my anointed one.
18 I will clothe his enemies with shame,
but the crown he wears will be glorious."

133 A song of ascents. Of David.
How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in harmony!
2 It is like fine oil on the head,
running down on the beard,
running down Aaron's beard onto his robes.
3 It is like the dew of Hermon falling on the mountains of Zion.
For there the LORD has appointed the blessing—life forevermore.

134 A song of ascents.
Now bless the LORD,
all you servants of the LORD
who stand in the LORD's house at night!
2 Lift up your hands in the holy place
and bless the LORD!
3 May the LORD,
Maker of heaven and earth,
bless you from Zion.

135 Hallelujah!
Praise the name of the LORD.
Give praise, you servants of the LORD
who stand in the house of the LORD,
in the courts of the house of our God.
3 Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good;
sing praise to his name, for it is delightful.
4 For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself,
Israel as his treasured possession.
5 For I know that the LORD is great;
our Lord is greater than all gods.
6 The LORD does whatever he pleases
in heaven and on earth,
in the seas and all the depths.
7 He causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain
and brings the wind from his storehouses.
8 He struck down the firstborn of Egypt,
both people and animals.
9 He sent signs and wonders against you, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his officials.
10 He struck down many nations
and slaughtered mighty kings:
11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
Og king of Bashan,
and all the kings of Canaan.
12 He gave their land as an inheritance,
an inheritance to his people Israel.
13 LORD, your name endures forever,
your reputation, LORD,
through all generations.
14 For the LORD will vindicate his people
and have compassion on his servants.
15 The idols of the nations are of silver and gold,
made by human hands.
16 They have mouths but cannot speak,
eyes, but cannot see.
17 They have ears but cannot hear;
indeed, there is no breath in their mouths.
18 Those who make them are just like them,
as are all who trust in them.
19 House of Israel, bless the LORD!

- House of Aaron, bless the LORD!
 20 House of Levi, bless the LORD!
 You who revere the LORD, bless the LORD!
 21 Blessed be the LORD from Zion;
 he dwells in Jerusalem.
 Hallelujah!

136 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good.

- His faithful love endures forever.*
 2 Give thanks to the God of gods.
His faithful love endures forever.
 3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords.
His faithful love endures forever.
 4 He alone does great wonders.
His faithful love endures forever.
 5 He made the heavens skillfully.
His faithful love endures forever.
 6 He spread the land on the waters.
His faithful love endures forever.
 7 He made the great lights:
His faithful love endures forever.
 8 the sun to rule by day,
His faithful love endures forever.
 9 the moon and stars to rule by night.
His faithful love endures forever.
 10 He struck the firstborn of the Egyptians
His faithful love endures forever.
 11 and brought Israel out from among them
His faithful love endures forever.
 12 with a strong hand and outstretched arm.
His faithful love endures forever.
 13 He divided the Red Sea
His faithful love endures forever.
 14 and led Israel through,
His faithful love endures forever.
 15 but hurled Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea.
His faithful love endures forever.
 16 He led his people in the wilderness.
His faithful love endures forever.
 17 He struck down great kings
His faithful love endures forever.
 18 and slaughtered famous kings—
His faithful love endures forever.
 19 Sihon king of the Amorites
His faithful love endures forever.
 20 and Og king of Bashan—
His faithful love endures forever.
 21 and gave their land as an inheritance,
His faithful love endures forever.
 22 an inheritance to Israel his servant.
His faithful love endures forever.
 23 He remembered us in our humiliation
His faithful love endures forever.
 24 and rescued us from our foes.
His faithful love endures forever.
 25 He gives food to every creature.
His faithful love endures forever.
 26 Give thanks to the God of heaven!
His faithful love endures forever.

137 By the rivers of Babylon— there we sat down and wept when we remembered Zion.

- 2 There we hung up our lyres
on the poplar trees,

- 3 for our captors there asked us for songs,
and our tormentors, for rejoicing:
“Sing us one of the songs of Zion.”
 4 How can we sing the LORD’s song on foreign soil?
 5 If I forget you, Jerusalem,
may my right hand forget its skill.
 6 May my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you,
if I do not exult Jerusalem as my greatest joy!
 7 Remember, LORD, what the Edomites said that day at Jerusalem: “Destroy it! Destroy it down to its foundations!”
 8 Daughter Babylon, doomed to destruction, happy is the one who pays you back
what you have done to us.
 9 Happy is he who takes your little ones and dashes them against the rocks.

138 Of David.

- I will give you thanks with all my heart;
I will sing your praise
before the heavenly beings.
 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your constant love and truth.
You have exalted your name
and your promise above everything else.
 3 On the day I called, you answered me;
you increased strength within me.
 4 All the kings on earth will give you thanks, LORD,
when they hear what you have promised.
 5 They will sing of the LORD’s ways,
for the LORD’s glory is great.
 6 Though the LORD is exalted,
he takes note of the humble;
but he knows the haughty from a distance.
 7 If I walk into the thick of danger,
you will preserve my life
from the anger of my enemies.
You will extend your hand;
your right hand will save me.
 8 The LORD will fulfill his purpose for me.
LORD, your faithful love endures forever;
do not abandon the work of your hands.

139 For the choir director. A psalm of David.

- LORD, you have searched me and known me.
 2 You know when I sit down and when I stand up;
you understand my thoughts from far away.
 3 You observe my travels and my rest;
you are aware of all my ways.
 4 Before a word is on my tongue,
you know all about it, LORD.
 5 You have encircled me;
you have placed your hand on me.
 6 This wondrous knowledge is beyond me.
It is lofty; I am unable to reach it.
 7 Where can I go to escape your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?
 8 If I go up to heaven, you are there;
if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there.
 9 If I live at the eastern horizon or settle at the western limits,

10 even there your hand will lead me;
your right hand will hold on to me.
11 If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me,
and the light around me will be night" — 12 even the darkness is not dark to you.
The night shines like the day;
darkness and light are alike to you.
13 For it was you who created my inward parts;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.
14 I will praise you because I have been remarkably and wondrously made.
Your works are wondrous,
and I know this very well.
15 My bones were not hidden from you
when I was made in secret,
when I was formed in the depths of the earth.
16 Your eyes saw me when I was formless;
all my days were written in your book and planned
before a single one of them began.
17 God, how precious your thoughts are to me;
how vast their sum is!
18 If I counted them,
they would outnumber the grains of sand;
when I wake up, I am still with you.
19 God, if only you would kill the wicked —
you bloodthirsty men, stay away from me — 20 who invoke you deceitfully.
Your enemies swear by you falsely.
21 LORD, don't I hate those who hate you,
and detest those who rebel against you?
22 I hate them with extreme hatred;
I consider them my enemies.
23 Search me, God, and know my heart;
test me and know my concerns.
24 See if there is any offensive way in me;
lead me in the everlasting way.

140 For the choir director. A psalm of David.

Rescue me, LORD, from evil men.
Keep me safe from violent men
2 who plan evil in their hearts.
They stir up wars all day long.
3 They make their tongues
as sharp as a snake's bite;
viper's venom is under their lips. Selah
4 Protect me, LORD,
from the power of the wicked.
Keep me safe from violent men
who plan to make me stumble.
5 The proud hide a trap with ropes for me;
they spread a net along the path
and set snares for me. Selah
6 I say to the LORD, "You are my God."
Listen, LORD, to my cry for help.
7 LORD, my Lord, my strong Savior,
you shield my head on the day of battle.
8 LORD, do not grant the desires of the wicked;
do not let them achieve their goals.
Otherwise, they will become proud. Selah
9 When those who surround me rise up,
may the trouble their lips cause overwhelm them.
10 Let hot coals fall on them.
Let them be thrown into the fire,
into the abyss, never again to rise.

11 Do not let a slanderer stay in the land.
Let evil relentlessly hunt down a violent man.
12 I know that the LORD upholds
the just cause of the poor, justice for the needy.
13 Surely the righteous will praise your name;
the upright will live in your presence.

141 A psalm of David.

LORD, I call on you; hurry to help me.
Listen to my voice when I call on you.
2 May my prayer be set before you as incense,
the raising of my hands as the evening offering.
3 LORD, set up a guard for my mouth;
keep watch at the door of my lips.
4 Do not let my heart turn to any evil thing or perform wicked acts
with men who commit sin.
Do not let me feast on their delicacies.
5 Let the righteous one strike me —
it is an act of faithful love; let him rebuke me —
it is oil for my head;
let me not refuse it.
Even now my prayer is against the evil acts of the wicked.
6 When their rulers will be thrown off
the sides of a cliff,
the people will listen to my words,
for they are pleasing.
7 As when one plows and breaks up the soil,
turning up rocks,
so our bones have been scattered
at the mouth of Sheol.
8 But my eyes look to you, LORD, my Lord.
I seek refuge in you; do not let me die.
9 Protect me from the trap they have set for me,
and from the snares of evildoers.
10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
while I pass by safely.

142 A Maskil of David. When he was in the cave.

A prayer.
1 I cry aloud to the LORD;
I plead aloud to the LORD for mercy.
2 I pour out my complaint before him;
I reveal my trouble to him.
3 Although my spirit is weak within me,
you know my way.
Along this path I travel
they have hidden a trap for me.
4 Look to the right and see:
no one stands up for me;
there is no refuge for me;
no one cares about me.
5 I cry to you, LORD;
I say, "You are my shelter,
my portion in the land of the living."
6 Listen to my cry,
for I am very weak.
Rescue me from those who pursue me,
for they are too strong for me.
7 Free me from prison
so that I can praise your name.

The righteous will gather around me because you deal generously with me.

143

A psalm of David.

LORD, hear my prayer.

In your faithfulness listen to my plea,
and in your righteousness answer me.
2 Do not bring your servant into judgment,
for no one alive is righteous in your sight.
3 For the enemy has pursued me,
crushing me to the ground,
making me live in darkness
like those long dead.

4 My spirit is weak within me;
my heart is overcome with dismay.
5 I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all you have done;
I reflect on the work of your hands.
6 I spread out my hands to you;
I am like parched land before you.

7 Answer me quickly, LORD;
my spirit fails.
Don't hide your face from me,
or I will be like those going down to the Pit.

8 Let me experience
your faithful love in the morning,
for I trust in you.
Reveal to me the way I should go because I appeal to you.

9 Rescue me from my enemies, LORD;
I come to you for protection.

10 Teach me to do your will,
for you are my God.

May your gracious Spirit
lead me on level ground.

11 For your name's sake, LORD,
let me live.

In your righteousness deliver me from trouble,
and in your faithful love destroy my enemies.
12 Wipe out all those who attack me,
for I am your servant.

144

Of David.

Blessed be the LORD, my rock who trains my hands for battle and my fingers for warfare.

2 He is my faithful love and my fortress,
my stronghold and my deliverer.
He is my shield, and I take refuge in him;
he subdues my people under me.

3 LORD, what is a human that you care for him,
a son of man that you think of him?

4 A human is like a breath;
his days are like a passing shadow.

5 LORD, part your heavens and come down.
Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

6 Flash your lightning and scatter the foe;
shoot your arrows and rout them.

7 Reach down from on high;
rescue me from deep water, and set me free from the grasp of foreigners

8 whose mouths speak lies,
whose right hands are deceptive.

9 God, I will sing a new song to you;

I will play on a ten-stringed harp for you—

10 the one who gives victory to kings, who frees his servant David from the deadly sword.

11 Set me free and rescue me from foreigners
whose mouths speak lies,
whose right hands are deceptive.

12 Then our sons will be like plants
nurtured in their youth,
our daughters, like corner pillars
that are carved in the palace style.

13 Our storehouses will be full,
supplying all kinds of produce;
our flocks will increase by thousands and tens of thousands in our open fields.

14 Our cattle will be well fed.
There will be no breach in the walls,
no going into captivity,
and no cry of lament in our public squares.

15 Happy are the people with such blessings.
Happy are the people whose God is the LORD.

Selah

145

A hymn of David.

I exalt you, my God the King,
and bless your name forever and ever.

2 I will bless you every day;
I will praise your name forever and ever.

3 The LORD is great and is highly praised;
his greatness is unsearchable.

4 One generation will declare your works to the next
and will proclaim your mighty acts.

5 I will speak of your splendor and glorious majesty
and your wondrous works.

6 They will proclaim the power of your awe-inspiring acts,
and I will declare your greatness.

7 They will give a testimony of your great goodness
and will joyfully sing of your righteousness.

8 The LORD is gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger and great in faithful love.

9 The LORD is good to everyone;
his compassion rests on all he has made.

10 All you have made will thank you, LORD;
the faithful will bless you.

11 They will speak of the glory of your kingdom and will declare your might,
informing all people of your mighty acts
and of the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom;
your rule is for all generations.
The LORD is faithful in all his words and gracious in all his actions.

14 The LORD helps all who fall;
he raises up all who are oppressed.

15 All eyes look to you,
and you give them their food at the proper time.

16 You open your hand
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways
and faithful in all his acts.

18 The LORD is near all who call out to him,

- all who call out to him with integrity.
 19 He fulfills the desires of those who fear him;
 he hears their cry for help and saves them.
 20 The LORD guards all those who love him,
 but he destroys all the wicked.
 21 My mouth will declare the LORD's praise;
 let every living thing
 bless his holy name forever and ever.

- 146 Hallelujah!
 My soul, praise the LORD.
 2 I will praise the LORD all my life;
 I will sing to my God as long as I live.
 3 Do not trust in nobles,
 in a son of man, who cannot save.
 4 When his breath leaves him,
 he returns to the ground;
 on that day his plans die.
 5 Happy is the one whose help is the God of Jacob,
 whose hope is in the LORD his God,
 the Maker of heaven and earth,
 the sea and everything in them.
 He remains faithful forever,
 executing justice for the exploited
 and giving food to the hungry.
 The LORD frees prisoners.
 8 The LORD opens the eyes of the blind.
 The LORD raises up those who are oppressed.
 The LORD loves the righteous.
 9 The LORD protects resident aliens
 and helps the fatherless and the widow,
 but he frustrates the ways of the wicked.
 10 The LORD reigns forever;
 Zion, your God reigns for all generations.
 Hallelujah!

- 147 Hallelujah!
 How good it is to sing to our God,
 for praise is pleasant and lovely.
 2 The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem;
 he gathers Israel's exiled people.
 3 He heals the brokenhearted and bandages their wounds.
 4 He counts the number of the stars;
 he gives names to all of them.
 5 Our Lord is great, vast in power;
 his understanding is infinite.
 6 The LORD helps the oppressed
 but brings the wicked to the ground.
 7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
 play the lyre to our God,
 8 who covers the sky with clouds,
 prepares rain for the earth,
 and causes grass to grow on the hills.
 9 He provides the animals with their food,
 and the young ravens, what they cry for.
 10 He is not impressed by the strength of a horse;
 he does not value the power of a warrior.
 11 The LORD values those who fear him,
 those who put their hope in his faithful love.
 12 Exalt the LORD, Jerusalem;
 praise your God, Zion!
 13 For he strengthens the bars of your city gates and blesses your children within you.

- 14 He endows your territory with prosperity;
 he satisfies you with the finest wheat.
 15 He sends his command throughout the earth;
 his word runs swiftly.
 16 He spreads snow like wool;
 he scatters frost like ashes;
 17 he throws his hailstones like crumbs.
 Who can withstand his cold?
 18 He sends his word and melts them;
 he unleashes his winds, and the water flows.
 19 He declares his word to Jacob,
 his statutes and judgments to Israel.
 20 He has not done this for every nation;
 they do not know his judgments.
 Hallelujah!

- 148 Hallelujah!
 Praise the LORD from the heavens;
 praise him in the heights.
 2 Praise him, all his angels;
 praise him, all his heavenly armies.
 3 Praise him, sun and moon;
 praise him, all you shining stars.
 4 Praise him, highest heavens,
 and you waters above the heavens.
 5 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
 for he commanded, and they were created.
 6 He set them in position forever and ever;
 he gave an order that will never pass away.
 7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
 all sea monsters and ocean depths,
 8 lightning and hail, snow and cloud,
 stormy wind that executes his command, 9 mountains and all hills,
 fruit trees and all cedars, 10 wild animals and all cattle,
 creatures that crawl and flying birds, 11 kings of the earth and all peoples,
 princes and all judges of the earth, 12 young men as well as young women,
 old and young together.
 13 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
 for his name alone is exalted.
 His majesty covers heaven and earth.
 14 He has raised up a horn for his people,
 resulting in praise to all his faithful ones,
 to the Israelites, the people close to him.
 Hallelujah!

- 149 Hallelujah!
 Sing to the LORD a new song,
 his praise in the assembly of the faithful.
 2 Let Israel celebrate its Maker;
 let the children of Zion rejoice in their King.
 3 Let them praise his name with dancing and make music to him with tambourine and lyre.
 4 For the LORD takes pleasure in his people;
 he adorns the humble with salvation.
 5 Let the faithful celebrate in triumphal glory;
 let them shout for joy on their beds.
 6 Let the exaltation of God be in their mouths
 and a double-edged sword in their hands, 7 inflicting vengeance on the nations
 and punishment on the peoples,

- 8 binding their kings with chains
and their dignitaries with iron shackles,
- 9 carrying out the judgment decreed against them.
This honor is for all his faithful people.
Hallelujah!

150 Hallelujah!
Praise God in his sanctuary.
Praise him in his mighty expanse.
2 Praise him for his powerful acts;

- praise him for his abundant greatness.
- 3 Praise him with trumpet blast;
praise him with harp and lyre.
- 4 Praise him with tambourine and dance;
praise him with strings and flute.
- 5 Praise him with resounding cymbals;
praise him with clashing cymbals.
- 6 Let everything that breathes
praise the LORD.
Hallelujah!

PROVERBS

1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David,
king of Israel:
2 For learning wisdom and discipline;
for understanding insightful sayings;
3 for receiving prudent instruction
in righteousness, justice, and integrity; 4 for teaching shrewdness to the inexperienced,
knowledge and discretion to a young man —
5 let a wise person listen and increase learning, and let a discerning person obtain guidance — 6 for understanding a proverb or a parable,
the words of the wise, and their riddles.
7 The fear of the LORD
is the beginning of knowledge;
fools despise wisdom and discipline.
8 Listen, my son, to your father's instruction,
and don't reject your mother's teaching,
9 for they will be a garland of favor on your head and pendants around your neck.
10 My son, if sinners entice you,
don't be persuaded.
11 If they say — "Come with us!
Let's set an ambush and kill someone.
Let's attack some innocent person just for fun!"
12 Let's swallow them alive, like Sheol, whole, like those who go down to the Pit.
13 We'll find all kinds of valuable property and fill our houses with plunder.
14 Throw in your lot with us,
and we'll all share the loot" — 15 my son, don't travel that road with them or set foot on their path, 16 because their feet run toward evil
and they hurry to shed blood.
17 It is useless to spread a net
where any bird can see it, 18 but they set an ambush to kill themselves;
they attack their own lives.
19 Such are the paths of all who make profit dishonestly;
it takes the lives of those who receive it.
20 Wisdom calls out in the street;
she makes her voice heard in the public squares.
21 She cries out above the commotion;
she speaks at the entrance of the city gates:
22 "How long, inexperienced ones, will you love ignorance?
How long will you mockers enjoy mocking
and you fools hate knowledge?
23 If you respond to my warning, then I will pour out my spirit on you
and teach you my words.
24 Since I called out and you refused,
extended my hand and no one paid attention, 25 since you neglected all my counsel and did not accept my correction,
26 I, in turn, will laugh at your calamity.
I will mock when terror strikes you,
27 when terror strikes you like a storm
and your calamity comes like a whirlwind,

when trouble and stress overcome you.
28 Then they will call me, but I won't answer;
they will search for me, but won't find me.
29 Because they hated knowledge,
didn't choose to fear the LORD, 30 were not interested in my counsel,
and rejected all my correction, 31 they will eat the fruit of their way
and be glutted with their own schemes.
32 For the apostasy of the inexperienced will kill them,
and the complacency of fools will destroy them.
33 But whoever listens to me will live securely and be undisturbed by the dread of danger."
2 My son, if you accept my words and store up my commands within you, 2 listening closely to wisdom and directing your heart
to understanding;
3 furthermore, if you call out to insight and lift your voice to understanding, 4 if you seek it like silver and search for it like hidden treasure, 5 then you will understand the fear of the LORD and discover the knowledge of God.
6 For the LORD gives wisdom;
from his mouth come knowledge
and understanding.
7 He stores up success for the upright;
He is a shield for those who live with integrity
8 so that he may guard the paths of justice and protect the way of his faithful followers.
9 Then you will understand righteousness, justice,
and integrity — every good path.
10 For wisdom will enter your heart,
and knowledge will delight you.
11 Discretion will watch over you,
and understanding will guard you.
12 It will rescue you from the way of evil —
from anyone who says perverse things, 13 from those who abandon the right paths
to walk in ways of darkness, 14 from those who enjoy doing evil
and celebrate perversion, 15 whose paths are crooked,
and whose ways are devious.
16 It will rescue you from a forbidden woman,
from a wayward woman with her flattering talk, 17 who abandons the companion of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God; 18 for her house sinks down to death
and her ways to the land of the departed spirits.
19 None return who go to her;
none reach the paths of life.
20 So follow the way of the good,
and keep to the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright will inhabit the land,
and those of integrity will remain in it; 22 but the wicked will be cut off from the land,
and the treacherous ripped out of it.

3 My son, don't forget my teaching,
 but let your heart keep my commands;
 2 for they will bring you
 many days, a full life, and well-being.
 3 Never let loyalty and faithfulness leave you.
 Tie them around your neck;
 write them on the tablet of your heart.
 4 Then you will find favor and high regard with God and people.
 5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
 and do not rely on your own understanding;
 6 in all your ways know him,
 and he will make your paths straight.
 7 Don't be wise in your own eyes;
 fear the LORD and turn away from evil.
 8 This will be healing for your body
 and strengthening for your bones.
 9 Honor the LORD with your possessions
 and with the first produce of your entire harvest; 10 then your barns will be completely filled,
 and your vats will overflow with new wine.
 11 Do not despise the LORD's instruction, my son,
 and do not loathe his discipline;
 12 for the LORD disciplines the one he loves,
 just as a father disciplines the son in whom he delights.
 13 Happy is a man who finds wisdom
 and who acquires understanding, 14 for she is more profitable than silver,
 and her revenue is better than gold.
 15 She is more precious than jewels;
 nothing you desire can equal her.
 16 Long life is in her right hand;
 in her left, riches and honor.
 17 Her ways are pleasant,
 and all her paths, peaceful.
 18 She is a tree of life to those who embrace her,
 and those who hold on to her are happy.
 19 The LORD founded the earth by wisdom and established the heavens by understanding.
 20 By his knowledge the watery depths broke open,
 and the clouds dripped with dew.
 21 Maintain sound wisdom and discretion.
 My son, don't lose sight of them.
 22 They will be life for you and adornment for your neck.
 23 Then you will go safely on your way;
 your foot will not stumble.
 24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
 you will lie down, and your sleep will be pleasant.
 25 Don't fear sudden danger or the ruin of the wicked when it comes, 26 for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from a snare.
 27 When it is in your power, don't withhold good from the one to whom it belongs.
 28 Don't say to your neighbor, "Go away!
 Come back later.
 I'll give it tomorrow" — when it is there with you.
 29 Don't plan any harm against your neighbor,
 for he trusts you and lives near you.
 30 Don't accuse anyone without cause,
 when he has done you no harm.
 31 Don't envy a violent man or choose any of his ways;

 32 for the devious are detestable to the LORD,
 but he is a friend to the upright.
 33 The LORD's curse is on the household
 of the wicked,
 but he blesses the home of the righteous;
 34 He mocks those who mock,
 but gives grace to the humble.
 35 The wise will inherit honor,
 but he holds up fools to dishonor.
4 Listen, sons, to a father's discipline, and pay attention so that you may gain understanding,
 2 for I am giving you good instruction.
 Don't abandon my teaching.
 3 When I was a son with my father, tender and precious to my mother,
 4 he taught me and said:
 "Your heart must hold on to my words.
 Keep my commands and live.
 5 Get wisdom, get understanding;
 don't forget or turn away from the words
 from my mouth.
 6 Don't abandon wisdom, and she will watch over you;
 love her, and she will guard you.
 7 Wisdom is supreme — so get wisdom.
 And whatever else you get, get understanding.
 8 Cherish her, and she will exalt you;
 if you embrace her, she will honor you.
 9 She will place a garland of favor on your head;
 she will give you a crown of beauty."
 10 Listen, my son. Accept my words, and you will live many years.
 11 I am teaching you the way
 of wisdom;
 I am guiding you on straight paths.
 12 When you walk, your steps will not be hindered;
 when you run, you will not stumble.
 13 Hold on to instruction; don't let go.
 Guard it, for it is your life.
 14 Keep off the path of the wicked;
 don't proceed on the way
 of evil ones.
 15 Avoid it; don't travel on it.
 Turn away from it, and pass it by.
 16 For they can't sleep
 unless they have done what is evil;
 they are robbed of sleep
 unless they make someone stumble.
 17 They eat the bread of wickedness
 and drink the wine of violence.
 18 The path of the righteous is like the light of dawn,
 shining brighter and brighter until midday.
 19 But the way of the wicked is like the darkest gloom;
 they don't know what makes them stumble.
 20 My son, pay attention to my words;
 listen closely to my sayings.
 21 Don't lose sight of them;
 keep them within your heart.
 22 For they are life to those who find them,
 and health to one's whole body.
 23 Guard your heart above all else,
 for it is the source of life.

- 24 Don't let your mouth speak dishonestly,
and don't let your lips talk deviously.
- 25 Let your eyes look forward;
fix your gaze straight ahead.
- 26 Carefully consider the path for your feet,
and all your ways will be established.
- 27 Don't turn to the right or to the left;
keep your feet away from evil.
- 5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
listen closely to my understanding 2 so that you may maintain discretion and your lips safeguard knowledge.
- 3 Though the lips of the forbidden woman drip honey
and her words are smoother than oil, 4 in the end she's as bitter as wormwood
and as sharp as a double-edged sword.
- 5 Her feet go down to death;
her steps head straight for Sheol.
- 6 She doesn't consider the path of life;
she doesn't know that her ways are unstable.
- 7 So now, sons, listen to me,
and don't turn away from the words
from my mouth.
- 8 Keep your way far from her.
Don't go near the door of her house.
- 9 Otherwise, you will give up your vitality to others
and your years to someone cruel;
10 strangers will drain your resources,
and your hard-earned pay will end up in a foreigner's house.
- 11 At the end of your life, you will lament
when your physical body has been consumed, 12 and you will say, "How I hated discipline,
and how my heart despised correction.
- 13 I didn't obey my teachers or listen closely to my instructors.
- 14 I am on the verge of complete ruin
before the entire community."
- 15 Drink water from your own cistern,
water flowing from your own well.
- 16 Should your springs flow in the streets,
streams in the public squares?
- 17 They should be for you alone
and not for you to share with strangers.
- 18 Let your fountain be blessed,
and take pleasure in the wife of your youth.
- 19 A loving deer, a graceful doe —
let her breasts always satisfy you;
be lost in her love forever.
- 20 Why, my son, would you lose yourself with a forbidden woman or embrace a wayward woman?
- 21 For a man's ways are before the LORD's eyes,
and he considers all his paths.
- 22 A wicked man's iniquities will trap him;
he will become tangled in the ropes of his own sin.
- 23 He will die because there is no discipline,
and be lost because of his great stupidity.
- 6 My son, if you have put up security for your neighbor
or entered into an agreement with a stranger, 2 you have been snared by the words of your mouth
trapped by the words from your mouth.
- 3 Do this, then, my son, and free yourself,
for you have put yourself
in your neighbor's power:
Go, humble yourself, and plead with your neighbor.
- 4 Don't give sleep to your eyes
or slumber to your eyelids.
- 5 Escape like a gazelle from a hunter,
like a bird from a hunter's trap.
- 6 Go to the ant, you slacker!
Observe its ways and become wise.
- 7 Without leader, administrator, or ruler,
8 it prepares its provisions in summer;
it gathers its food during harvest.
- 9 How long will you stay in bed, you slacker?
When will you get up from your sleep?
- 10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the arms to rest,
11 and your poverty will come like a robber,
your need, like a bandit.
- 12 A worthless person, a wicked man goes around speaking dishonestly, 13 winking his eyes, signaling with his feet,
and gesturing with his fingers.
- 14 He always plots evil with perversity in his heart;
he stirs up trouble.
- 15 Therefore calamity will strike him suddenly;
he will be shattered instantly, beyond recovery.
- 16 The LORD hates six things;
in fact, seven are detestable to him:
17 arrogant eyes, a lying tongue,
hands that shed innocent blood, 18 a heart that plots wicked schemes,
feet eager to run to evil, 19 a lying witness who gives false testimony,
and one who stirs up trouble among brothers.
- 20 My son, keep your father's command,
and don't reject your mother's teaching.
- 21 Always bind them to your heart;
tie them around your neck.
- 22 When you walk here and there, they will guide you;
when you lie down, they will watch over you;
when you wake up, they will talk to you.
- 23 For a command is a lamp, teaching is a light,
and corrective discipline is the way to life.
- 24 They will protect you from an evil woman,
from the flattering tongue of a wayward woman.
- 25 Don't lust in your heart for her beauty
or let her captivate you with her eyelashes.
- 26 For a prostitute's fee is only a loaf of bread,
but the wife of another man goes after a precious life.
- 27 Can a man embrace fire
and his clothes not be burned?
- 28 Can a man walk on burning coals
without scorching his feet?
- 29 So it is with the one who sleeps with another man's wife;
no one who touches her will go unpunished.
- 30 People don't despise the thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry.
- 31 Still, if caught, he must pay seven times as much;
he must give up all the wealth in his house.
- 32 The one who commits adultery lacks sense;

whoever does so destroys himself.

33 He will get a beating and dishonor,
and his disgrace will never be removed.

34 For jealousy enrages a husband, and he will show no mercy
when he takes revenge.

35 He will not be appeased by anything or be persuaded by lavish bribes.

7 My son, obey my words,
and treasure my commands.

2 Keep my commands and live,
and guard my instructions
as you would the pupil of your eye.

3 Tie them to your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.

4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
and call understanding your relative.

5 She will keep you from a forbidden woman,
a wayward woman with her flattering talk.

6 At the window of my house
I looked through my lattice.

7 I saw among the inexperienced,
I noticed among the youths,
a young man lacking sense.

8 Crossing the street near her corner,
he strolled down the road to her house
at twilight, in the evening, in the dark of the night.

9 A woman came to meet him dressed like a prostitute, having a hidden agenda.

11 She is loud and defiant;
her feet do not stay at home.

12 Now in the street, now in the squares,
she lurks at every corner.

13 She grabs him and kisses him;
she brazenly says to him,
"I've made fellowship offerings;
today I've fulfilled my vows.

15 So I came out to meet you,
to search for you, and I've found you.
I've spread coverings on my bed — richly colored linen from Egypt.

17 I've perfumed my bed
with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let's drink deeply of lovemaking until morning.
Let's feast on each other's love!

19 My husband isn't home;
he went on a long journey.

20 He took a bag of silver with him and will come home at the time of the full moon."

21 She seduces him with her persistent pleading;
she lures with her flattering talk.

22 He follows her impulsively
like an ox going to the slaughter, like a deer bounding toward a trap
until an arrow pierces its liver,
like a bird darting into a snare —
he doesn't know it will cost him his life.

24 Now, sons, listen to me,
and pay attention to the words from my mouth.

25 Don't let your heart turn aside to her ways;
don't stray onto her paths.

26 For she has brought many down to death;

her victims are countless.

27 Her house is the road to Sheol, descending to the chambers of death.

8 Doesn't wisdom call out?
Doesn't understanding make her voice heard?

2 At the heights overlooking the road,
at the crossroads, she takes her stand.

3 Beside the gates leading into the city,
at the main entrance, she cries out:
"People, I call out to you;
my cry is to the children of Adam.

5 Learn to be shrewd, you who are inexperienced;
develop common sense, you who are foolish.

6 Listen, for I speak of noble things,
and what my lips say is right.

7 For my mouth tells the truth,
and wickedness is detestable to my lips.

8 All the words from my mouth are righteous;
none of them are deceptive or perverse.

9 All of them are clear to the perceptive,
and right to those who discover knowledge.

10 Accept my instruction instead of silver,
and knowledge rather than pure gold.

11 For wisdom is better than jewels,
and nothing desirable can equal it.

12 I, wisdom, share a home with shrewdness and have knowledge and discretion.

13 To fear the LORD is to hate evil.
I hate arrogant pride, evil conduct,
and perverse speech.

14 I possess good advice and sound wisdom;
I have understanding and strength.

15 It is by me that kings reign
and rulers enact just law;
by me, princes lead,
as do nobles and all righteous judges.

17 I love those who love me,
and those who search for me find me.

18 With me are riches and honor,
lasting wealth and righteousness.

19 My fruit is better than solid gold,
and my harvest than pure silver.

20 I walk in the ways of righteousness,
along the paths of justice,
giving wealth as an inheritance to those who love me,
and filling their treasuries.

22 "The LORD acquired me at the beginning of his creation, before his works of long ago.

23 I was formed before ancient times,
from the beginning, before the earth began.

24 I was born
when there were no watery depths and no springs filled with water.

25 Before the mountains were established,
prior to the hills, I was given birth —
before he made the land, the fields,
or the first soil on earth.

27 I was there when he established the heavens,
when he laid out the horizon on the surface of the ocean,
when he placed the skies above,
when the fountains of the ocean gushed out,
when he set a limit for the sea

so that the waters would not violate his command,
when he laid out the foundations of the earth.
30 I was a skilled craftsman beside him.
I was his delight every day,
always rejoicing before him.
31 I was rejoicing in his inhabited world,
delighting in the children of Adam.
32 "And now, sons, listen to me;
those who keep my ways are happy.
33 Listen to instruction and be wise;
don't ignore it.
34 Anyone who listens to me is happy,
watching at my doors every day,
waiting by the posts of my doorway.
35 For the one who finds me finds life
and obtains favor from the LORD, 36 but the one who misses me harms himself;
all who hate me love death."

9 Wisdom has built her house;
she has carved out her seven pillars.
2 She has prepared her meat; she has mixed her wine;
she has also set her table.
3 She has sent out her female servants;
she calls out from the highest points of the city:
4 "Whoever is inexperienced, enter here!"
To the one who lacks sense, she says,
5 "Come, eat my bread,
and drink the wine I have mixed.
6 Leave inexperience behind, and you will live;
pursue the way of understanding.
7 The one who corrects a mocker
will bring abuse on himself;
the one who rebukes the wicked will get hurt.
8 Don't rebuke a mocker, or he will hate you;
rebuke the wise, and he will love you.
9 Instruct the wise, and he will be wiser still;
teach the righteous, and he will learn more.
10 "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
11 For by me your days will be many,
and years will be added to your life.
12 If you are wise, you are wise for your own benefit;
if you mock, you alone will bear
the consequences."
13 Folly is a rowdy woman;
she is gullible and knows nothing.
14 She sits by the doorway of her house,
on a seat at the highest point of the city,
calling to those who pass by,
who go straight ahead on their paths:
16 "Whoever is inexperienced, enter here!"
To the one who lacks sense, she says,
17 "Stolen water is sweet,
and bread eaten secretly is tasty!"
18 But he doesn't know that the departed spirits are there,
that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.
Solomon's proverbs:
10 A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish son, heartache to his mother.
2 Ill-gotten gains do not profit anyone,
but righteousness rescues from death.

3 The LORD will not let the righteous go hungry,
but he denies the wicked what they crave.
4 Idle hands make one poor,
but diligent hands bring riches.
5 The son who gathers during summer is prudent;
the son who sleeps during harvest is disgraceful.
6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
7 The remembrance of the righteous is a blessing,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
8 A wise heart accepts commands,
but foolish lips will be destroyed.
9 The one who lives with integrity lives securely,
but whoever perverts his ways
will be found out.
10 A sly wink of the eye causes grief,
and foolish lips will be destroyed.
11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life,
but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
12 Hatred stirs up conflicts,
but love covers all offenses.
13 Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning,
but a rod is for the back of the one who lacks sense.
14 The wise store up knowledge,
but the mouth of the fool hastens destruction.
15 The wealth of the rich is his fortified city;
the poverty of the poor is their destruction.
16 The reward of the righteous is life;
the wages of the wicked is punishment.
17 The one who follows instruction is on the path
to life,
but the one who rejects correction goes astray.
18 The one who conceals hatred has lying lips,
and whoever spreads slander is a fool.
19 When there are many words, sin is unavoidable,
but the one who controls his lips is prudent.
20 The tongue of the righteous is pure silver;
the heart of the wicked is of little value.
21 The lips of the righteous feed many,
but fools die for lack of sense.
22 The LORD's blessing enriches,
and he adds no painful effort to it.
23 As shameful conduct is pleasure for a fool,
so wisdom is for a person of understanding.
24 What the wicked dreads will come to him,
but what the righteous desire will be given
to them.
25 When the whirlwind passes,
the wicked are no more,
but the righteous are secure forever.
26 Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,
so the slacker is to the one who sends him
on an errand.
27 The fear of the LORD prolongs life,
but the years of the wicked are cut short.
28 The hope of the righteous is joy,
but the expectation of the wicked will perish.
29 The way of the LORD is a stronghold
for the honorable,
but destruction awaits the malicious.
30 The righteous will never be shaken,
but the wicked will not remain on the earth.
31 The mouth of the righteous produces wisdom,
but a perverse tongue will be cut out.

- 32 The lips of the righteous know what is appropriate, but the mouth of the wicked, only what is perverse.
- 11 Dishonest scales are detestable to the LORD, but an accurate weight is his delight.
- 2 When arrogance comes, disgrace follows, but with humility comes wisdom.
- 3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the perversity of the treacherous destroys them.
- 4 Wealth is not profitable on a day of wrath, but righteousness rescues from death.

- 21 The one who pursues righteousness and faithful love will find life, righteousness, and honor.
- 22 A wise person went up against a city of warriors and brought down its secure fortress.
- 23 The one who guards his mouth and tongue keeps himself out of trouble.
- 24 The arrogant and proud person, named "Mocker," acts with excessive arrogance.
- 25 A slacker's craving will kill him because his hands refuse to work.
- 26 He is filled with craving all day long, but the righteous give and don't hold back.
- 27 The sacrifice of a wicked person is detestable — how much more so when he brings it with ulterior motives!
- 28 A lying witness will perish, but the one who listens will speak successfully.
- 29 A wicked person puts on a bold face, but the upright one considers his way.
- 30 No wisdom, no understanding, and no counsel will prevail against the LORD.
- 31 A horse is prepared for the day of battle, but victory comes from the LORD.
- 22 A good name is to be chosen over great wealth; favor is better than silver and gold.
- 2 Rich and poor have this in common: the LORD makes them all.
- 3 A sensible person sees danger and takes cover, but the inexperienced keep going and are punished.
- 4 Humility, the fear of the LORD, results in wealth, honor, and life.
- 5 There are thorns and snares on the way of the crooked; the one who guards himself stays far from them.
- 6 Start a youth out on his way; even when he grows old he will not depart from it.
- 7 The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is a slave to the lender.

- 8 The one who sows injustice will reap disaster,
and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.
- 9 A generous person will be blessed,
for he shares his food with the poor.
- 10 Drive out a mocker, and conflict goes too;
then quarreling and dishonor will cease.
- 11 The one who loves a pure heart
and gracious lips—the king is his friend.
- 12 The LORD's eyes keep watch over knowledge,
but he overthrows the words of the treacherous.
- 13 The slacker says, "There's a lion outside!
I'll be killed in the public square!"
- 14 The mouth of the forbidden woman is a deep pit;
a man cursed by the LORD will fall into it.
- 15 Foolishness is bound to the heart of a youth;
a rod of discipline will separate it from him.
- 16 Oppressing the poor to enrich oneself,
and giving to the rich—both lead
only to poverty.
- 17 Listen closely, pay attention to the words of the wise,
and apply your mind to my knowledge.
- 18 For it is pleasing if you keep them within you and if they are constantly on your lips.
- 19 I have instructed you today—even you—
so that your confidence may be in the LORD.
- 20 Haven't I written for you thirty sayings about counsel and knowledge,
in order to teach you true and reliable words,
so that you may give a dependable report
to those who sent you?
- 22 Don't rob a poor person
because he is poor,
and don't crush the oppressed at the city gate,
for the LORD will champion their cause
and will plunder those who plunder them.
- 24 Don't make friends with an angry person,
and don't be a companion of a hot-tempered one,
or you will learn his ways
and entangle yourself in a snare.
- 26 Don't be one of those who enter agreements,
who put up security for loans.
- 27 If you have nothing with which to pay,
even your bed will be taken from under you.
- 28 Don't move an ancient boundary marker
that your fathers set up.
- 29 Do you see a person skilled in his work?
He will stand in the presence of kings.
He will not stand in the presence of the unknown.
- 23 When you sit down to dine with a ruler,
consider carefully what is before you,
and put a knife to your throat
if you have a big appetite;
- 3 don't desire his choice food,
for that food is deceptive.
- 4 Don't wear yourself out to get rich;
because you know better, stop!
- 5 As soon as your eyes fly to it, it disappears,
for it makes wings for itself
and flies like an eagle to the sky.
- 6 Don't eat a stingy person's bread,
and don't desire his choice food,
for it's like someone calculating inwardly.
"Eat and drink," he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.
- 8 You will vomit the little you've eaten
and waste your pleasant words.
- 9 Don't speak to a fool,
for he will despise the insight of your words.
- 10 Don't move an ancient boundary marker,
and don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless,
for their Redeemer is strong,
and he will champion their cause against you.
- 12 Apply yourself to discipline
and listen to words of knowledge.
- 13 Don't withhold discipline from a youth;
if you punish him with a rod, he will not die.
- 14 Punish him with a rod,
and you will rescue his life from Sheol.
- 15 My son, if your heart is wise,
my heart will indeed rejoice.
- 16 My innermost being will celebrate when your lips say what is right.
- 17 Don't let your heart envy sinners;
instead, always fear the LORD.
- 18 For then you will have a future,
and your hope will not be dashed.
- 19 Listen, my son, and be wise;
keep your mind on the right course.
- 20 Don't associate with those who drink too much wine
or with those who gorge themselves on meat.
- 21 For the drunkard and the glutton
will become poor,
and grogginess will clothe them in rags.
- 22 Listen to your father who gave you life,
and don't despise your mother when she is old.
- 23 Buy—and do not sell—truth, wisdom, instruction, and understanding.
- 24 The father of a righteous son will rejoice greatly,
and one who fathers a wise son will delight
in him.
- 25 Let your father and mother have joy,
and let her who gave birth to you rejoice.
- 26 My son, give me your heart,
and let your eyes observe my ways.
- 27 For a prostitute is a deep pit,
and a wayward woman is a narrow well;
indeed, she sets an ambush like a robber
and increases the number of unfaithful people.
- 29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has conflicts? Who has complaints?
Who has wounds for no reason?
Who has red eyes?
- 30 Those who linger over wine;
those who go looking for mixed wine.
- 31 Don't gaze at wine because it is red,
because it gleams in the cup
and goes down smoothly.
- 32 In the end it bites like a snake
and stings like a viper.
- 33 Your eyes will see strange things,
and you will say absurd things.
- 34 You'll be like someone sleeping out at sea
or lying down on the top of a ship's mast.
"They struck me, but I feel no pain!
They beat me, but I didn't know it!
When will I wake up?
I'll look for another drink."

24 Don't envy the evil
or desire to be with them, 2 for their hearts plan violence,
and their words stir up trouble.
3 A house is built by wisdom,
and it is established by understanding;
4 by knowledge the rooms are filled with every precious and beautiful treasure.
5 A wise warrior is better than a strong one,
and a man of knowledge than one of strength;
6 for you should wage war with sound guidance—
victory comes with many counselors.
7 Wisdom is inaccessible to a fool;
he does not open his mouth at the city gate.
8 The one who plots evil
will be called a schemer.
9 A foolish scheme is sin,
and a mocker is detestable to people.
10 If you do nothing in a difficult time,
your strength is limited.
11 Rescue those being taken off to death,
and save those stumbling toward slaughter.
12 If you say, "But we didn't know about this,"
won't he who weighs hearts consider it?
Won't he who protects your life know?
Won't he repay a person according to his work?
13 Eat honey, my son, for it is good,
and the honeycomb is sweet to your palate;
14 realize that wisdom is the same for you.
If you find it, you will have a future,
and your hope will never fade.
15 Don't set an ambush, you wicked one,
at the camp of the righteous man;
don't destroy his dwelling.
16 Though a righteous person falls seven times,
he will get up,
but the wicked will stumble into ruin.
17 Don't gloat when your enemy falls,
and don't let your heart rejoice when he stumbles, 18 or the LORD will see, be displeased,
and turn his wrath away from him.
19 Don't be agitated by evildoers,
and don't envy the wicked.
20 For the evil have no future;
the lamp of the wicked will be put out.
21 My son, fear the LORD, as well as the king,
and don't associate with rebels, 22 for destruction will come suddenly from them;
who knows what distress these two can bring?
23 These sayings also belong to the wise:
It is not good to show partiality in judgment.
24 Whoever says to the guilty, "You are innocent"— peoples will curse him, and nations will denounce him;
25 but it will go well with those who convict
the guilty,
and a generous blessing will come to them.
26 He who gives an honest answer
gives a kiss on the lips.
27 Complete your outdoor work, and prepare your field;
afterward, build your house.
28 Don't testify against your neighbor without cause.
Don't deceive with your lips.

29 Don't say, "I'll do to him what he did to me;
I'll repay the man for what he has done."
30 I went by the field of a slacker
and by the vineyard of one lacking sense.
31 Thistles had come up everywhere,
weeds covered the ground,
and the stone wall was ruined.
32 I saw, and took it to heart;
I looked, and received instruction:
33 a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the arms to rest,
34 and your poverty will come like a robber,
and your need, like a bandit.

25 These too are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of King Hezekiah of Judah, copied.

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a matter
and the glory of kings to investigate a matter.
3 As the heavens are high and the earth is deep,
so the hearts of kings cannot be investigated.
4 Remove impurities from silver,
and material will be produced for a silversmith.
5 Remove the wicked from the king's presence, and his throne will be established in righteousness.
6 Don't boast about yourself before the king,
and don't stand in the place of the great;
7 for it is better for him to say to you,
"Come up here!"
than to demote you in plain view of a noble.
8 Don't take a matter to court hastily.
Otherwise, what will you do afterward
if your opponent humiliates you?
9 Make your case with your opponent
without revealing another's secret; 10 otherwise, the one who hears will disgrace you,
and you'll never live it down.
11 A word spoken at the right time is like gold apples in silver settings.
12 A wise correction to a receptive ear
is like a gold ring or an ornament of gold.
13 To those who send him, a trustworthy envoy is like the coolness of snow on a harvest day;
he refreshes the life of his masters.
14 The one who boasts about a gift that does not exist
is like clouds and wind without rain.
15 A ruler can be persuaded through patience,
and a gentle tongue can break a bone.
16 If you find honey, eat only what you need;
otherwise, you'll get sick from it and vomit.
17 Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house;
otherwise, he'll get sick of you and hate you.
18 A person giving false testimony against his neighbor
is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.
19 Trusting an unreliable person in a difficult time
is like a rotten tooth or a faltering foot.
20 Singing songs to a troubled heart is like taking off clothing on a cold day or like pouring vinegar on soda.
21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat,
and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;
22 for you will heap burning coals on his head,
and the LORD will reward you.

- 23 The north wind produces rain,
and a backbiting tongue, angry looks.
- 24 Better to live on the corner of a roof
than to share a house with a nagging wife.
- 25 Good news from a distant land is like cold water to a parched throat.
- 26 A righteous person who yields to the wicked
is like a muddied spring or a polluted well.
- 27 It is not good to eat too much honey
or to seek glory after glory.
- 28 A person who does not control his temper
is like a city whose wall is broken down.
- 26 Like snow in summer and rain
at harvest,
honor is inappropriate for a fool.
- 2 Like a flitting sparrow or a fluttering swallow,
an undeserved curse goes nowhere.
- 3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the backs of fools.
- 4 Don't answer a fool according to his foolishness or you'll be like him yourself.
- 5 Answer a fool according to his foolishness
or he'll become wise in his own eyes.
- 6 The one who sends a message by a fool's hand cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.
- 7 A proverb in the mouth of a fool
is like lame legs that hang limp.
- 8 Giving honor to a fool
is like binding a stone in a sling.
- 9 A proverb in the mouth of a fool
is like a stick with thorns, brandished by the hand of a drunkard.
- 10 The one who hires a fool or who hires those passing by
is like an archer who wounds everyone.
- 11 As a dog returns to its vomit,
so also a fool repeats his foolishness.
- 12 Do you see a person who is wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- 13 The slacker says, "There's a lion in the road—
a lion in the public square!"
- 14 A door turns on its hinges,
and a slacker, on his bed.
- 15 The slacker buries his hand in the bowl;
he is too weary to bring it to his mouth!
- 16 In his own eyes, a slacker is wiser than seven who can answer sensibly.
- 17 A person who is passing by and meddles
in a quarrel that's not his is like one who grabs a dog by the ears.
- 18 Like a madman who throws flaming darts
and deadly arrows,
so is the person who deceives his neighbor
and says, "I was only joking!"
- 20 Without wood, fire goes out;
without a gossip, conflict dies down.
- 21 As charcoal for embers and wood for fire,
so is a quarrelsome person for kindling strife.
- 22 A gossip's words are like choice food that goes down to one's innermost being.
- 23 Smooth lips with an evil heart
are like glaze on an earthen vessel.
- 24 A hateful person disguises himself with his speech
and harbors deceit within.

- 25 When he speaks graciously, don't believe him,
for there are seven detestable things in his heart.
- 26 Though his hatred is concealed by deception,
his evil will be revealed in the assembly.
- 27 The one who digs a pit will fall into it,
and whoever rolls a stone —
it will come back on him.
- 28 A lying tongue hates those it crushes,
and a flattering mouth causes ruin.
- 27 Don't boast about tomorrow,
for you don't know what a day might bring.
- 2 Let another praise you, and not your own mouth—
a stranger, and not your own lips.
- 3 A stone is heavy and sand, a burden,
but aggravation from a fool outweighs them both.
- 4 Fury is cruel, and anger a flood,
but who can withstand jealousy?
- 5 Better an open reprimand
than concealed love.
- 6 The wounds of a friend are trustworthy,
but the kisses of an enemy are excessive.
- 7 A person who is full tramples on a honeycomb,
but to a hungry person, any bitter thing is sweet.
- 8 Anyone wandering from his home
is like a bird wandering from its nest.
- 9 Oil and incense bring joy to the heart,
and the sweetness of a friend is better than self-counsel.
- 10 Don't abandon your friend or your father's friend,
and don't go to your brother's house
in your time of calamity;
better a neighbor nearby than a brother far away.
- 11 Be wise, my son, and bring my heart joy,
so that I can answer anyone who taunts me.
- 12 A sensible person sees danger and takes cover;
the inexperienced keep going and are punished.
- 13 Take his garment,
for he has put up security for a stranger;
get collateral if it is for foreigners.
- 14 If one blesses his neighbor
with a loud voice early in the morning,
it will be counted as a curse to him.
- 15 An endless dripping on a rainy day
and a nagging wife are alike;
- 16 the one who controls her controls the wind
and grasps oil with his right hand.
- 17 Iron sharpens iron,
and one person sharpens another.
- 18 Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit,
and whoever looks after his master
will be honored.
- 19 As water reflects the face,
so the heart reflects the person.
- 20 Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied,
and people's eyes are never satisfied.
- 21 A crucible refines silver, a smelter refines gold,
and a person refines his praise.
- 22 Though you grind a fool
in a mortar with a pestle along with grain,
you will not separate his foolishness from him.
- 23 Know well the condition of your flock,
and pay attention to your herds,
for wealth is not forever;
not even a crown lasts for all time.

- 25 When hay is removed and new growth appears and the grain from the hills is gathered in,
 26 lambs will provide your clothing, and goats, the price of a field;
 27 there will be enough goat's milk for your food — food for your household and nourishment for your female servants.
- 28 The wicked flee when no one is pursuing them, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
- 2 When a land is in rebellion, it has many rulers, but with a discerning and knowledgeable person, it endures.
- 3 A destitute leader who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain that leaves no food.
- 4 Those who reject the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law pit themselves against them.
- 5 The evil do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand everything.
- 6 Better the poor person who lives with integrity than the rich one who distorts right and wrong.
- 7 A discerning son keeps the law, but a companion of gluttons humiliates his father.
- 8 Whoever increases his wealth through excessive interest collects it for one who is kind to the poor.
- 9 Anyone who turns his ear away from hearing the law — even his prayer is detestable.
- 10 The one who leads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit, but the blameless will inherit what is good.
- 11 A rich person is wise in his own eyes, but a poor one who has discernment sees through him.
- 12 When the righteous triumph, there is great rejoicing, but when the wicked come to power, people hide.
- 13 The one who conceals his sins will not prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them will find mercy.
- 14 Happy is the one who is always reverent, but one who hardens his heart falls into trouble.
- 15 A wicked ruler over a helpless people is like a roaring lion or a charging bear.
- 16 A leader who lacks understanding is very oppressive, but one who hates dishonest profit prolongs his life.
- 17 Someone burdened by bloodguilt will be a fugitive until death. Let no one help him.
- 18 The one who lives with integrity will be helped, but one who distorts right and wrong will suddenly fall.
- 19 The one who works his land will have plenty of food, but whoever chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
- 20 A faithful person will have many blessings, but one in a hurry to get rich will not go unpunished.
- 21 It is not good to show partiality — yet even a courageous person may sin for a piece of bread.
- 22 A greedy one is in a hurry for wealth; he doesn't know that poverty will come to him.
- 23 One who rebukes a person will later find more favor than one who flatters with his tongue.
- 24 The one who robs his father or mother and says, "That's no sin," is a companion to a person who destroys.
- 25 A greedy person stirs up conflict, but whoever trusts in the LORD will prosper.
- 26 The one who trusts in himself is a fool, but one who walks in wisdom will be safe.
- 27 The one who gives to the poor will not be in need, but one who turns his eyes away will receive many curses.
- 28 When the wicked come to power, people hide, but when they are destroyed, the righteous flourish.
- 29 One who becomes stiff-necked, after many reprimands will be shattered instantly — beyond recovery.
- 2 When the righteous flourish, the people rejoice, but when the wicked rule, people groan.
- 3 A man who loves wisdom brings joy to his father, but one who consorts with prostitutes destroys his wealth.
- 4 By justice a king brings stability to a land, but a person who demands "contributions" demolishes it.
- 5 A person who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
- 6 An evil person is caught by sin, but the righteous one sings and rejoices.
- 7 The righteous person knows the rights of the poor, but the wicked one does not understand these concerns.
- 8 Mockers inflame a city, but the wise turn away anger.
- 9 If a wise person goes to court with a fool, there will be ranting and raving but no resolution.
- 10 Bloodthirsty men hate an honest person, but the upright care about him.
- 11 A fool gives full vent to his anger, but a wise person holds it in check.
- 12 If a ruler listens to lies, all his officials will be wicked.
- 13 The poor and the oppressor have this in common: the LORD gives light to the eyes of both.
- 14 A king who judges the poor with fairness — his throne will be established forever.
- 15 A rod of correction imparts wisdom, but a youth left to himself is a disgrace to his mother.
- 16 When the wicked increase, rebellion increases, but the righteous will see their downfall.
- 17 Discipline your child, and it will bring you peace of mind and give you delight.

- 18 Without revelation people run wild,
but one who follows divine instruction
will be happy.
- 19 A servant cannot be disciplined by words;
though he understands, he doesn't respond.
- 20 Do you see someone who speaks too soon?
There is more hope for a fool
than for him.
- 21 A servant pampered from his youth will become arrogant later on.
- 22 An angry person stirs up conflict,
and a hot-tempered one increases rebellion.
- 23 A person's pride will humble him,
but a humble spirit will gain honor.
- 24 To be a thief's partner is to hate oneself;
he hears the curse but will not testify.
- 25 The fear of mankind is a snare,
but the one who trusts in the LORD is protected.
- 26 Many desire a ruler's favor,
but a person receives justice from the LORD.
- 27 An unjust person is detestable to the righteous, and one whose way is upright
is detestable to the wicked.

30 The words of Agur son of Jakeh.
The pronouncement.

- The man's oration to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:
- 2 I am more stupid than any other person,
and I lack a human's ability to understand.
- 3 I have not gained wisdom,
and I have no knowledge of the Holy One.
- 4 Who has gone up to heaven and come down?
Who has gathered the wind in his hands?
Who has bound up the waters in a cloak?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name,
and what is the name of his son —
if you know?
- 5 Every word of God is pure;
he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.
- 6 Don't add to his words,
or he will rebuke you, and you will be proved a liar.
- 7 Two things I ask of you;
don't deny them to me before I die:
- 8 Keep falsehood and deceitful words far from me.
Give me neither poverty nor wealth;
feed me with the food I need.
- 9 Otherwise, I might have too much and deny you, saying, "Who is the LORD?"
or I might have nothing and steal,
profaning the name of my God.
- 10 Don't slander a servant to his master or he will curse you, and you will become guilty.
- 11 There is a generation that curses its father and does not bless its mother.
- 12 There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes,
yet is not washed from its filth.
- 13 There is a generation — how haughty its eyes
and pretentious its looks.
- 14 There is a generation whose teeth are swords,
whose fangs are knives, devouring the oppressed from the land
and the needy from among mankind.
- 15 The leech has two daughters: "Give, Give!"
Three things are never satisfied;

four never say, "Enough!":

- 16 Sheol; a childless womb;
earth, which is never satisfied with water;
and fire, which never says, "Enough!"
- 17 As for the eye that ridicules a father and despises obedience to a mother, may ravens of the valley pluck it out
and young vultures eat it.
- 18 Three things are too wondrous for me;
four I can't understand:
19 the way of an eagle in the sky,
the way of a snake on a rock,
the way of a snipe at sea,
and the way of a man with a young woman.
- 20 This is the way of an adulteress:
she eats and wipes her mouth
and says, "I've done nothing wrong."
- 21 The earth trembles under three things;
it cannot bear up under four:
22 a servant when he becomes king,
a fool when he is stuffed with food, 23 an unloved woman when she marries,
and a servant girl when she ousts her queen.
- 24 Four things on earth are small,
yet they are extremely wise:
25 ants are not a strong people,
yet they store up their food in the summer;
26 hyraxes are not a mighty people,
yet they make their homes in the cliffs;
27 locusts have no king,
yet all of them march in ranks; 28 a lizard can be caught in your hands,
yet it lives in kings' palaces.
- 29 Three things are stately in their stride;
four are stately in their walk:
30 a lion, which is mightiest among beasts
and doesn't retreat before anything; 31 a strutting rooster; a goat;
and a king at the head of his army.
- 32 If you have been foolish by exalting yourself
or if you've been scheming,
put your hand over your mouth.
- 33 For the churning of milk produces butter,
and twisting a nose draws blood,
and stirring up anger produces strife.

31 The words of King Lemuel, a pronouncement that his mother
taught him:

- 2 What should I say, my son?
What, son of my womb?
What, son of my vows?
- 3 Don't spend your energy on women or your efforts on those who destroy kings.
- 4 It is not for kings, Lemuel,
it is not for kings to drink wine
or for rulers to desire beer.
- 5 Otherwise, he will drink, forget what is decreed,
and pervert justice for all the oppressed.
- 6 Give beer to one who is dying
and wine to one whose life is bitter.
- 7 Let him drink so that he can forget his poverty and remember his trouble no more.
- 8 Speak up for those who have no voice,
for the justice of all who are dispossessed.

- 9 Speak up, judge righteously,
and defend the cause of the oppressed
and needy.
- 10 Who can find a wife of noble character?
She is far more precious than jewels.
- 11 The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will not lack anything good.
- 12 She rewards him with good, not evil,
all the days of her life.
- 13 She selects wool and flax
and works with willing hands.
- 14 She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from far away.
- 15 She rises while it is still night
and provides food for her household and portions for her female servants.
- 16 She evaluates a field and buys it;
she plants a vineyard with her earnings.
- 17 She draws on her strength and reveals that her arms are strong.
- 18 She sees that her profits are good,
and her lamp never goes out at night.
- 19 She extends her hands to the spinning staff,
and her hands hold the spindle.
- 20 Her hands reach out to the poor,
and she extends her hands to the needy.
- 21 She is not afraid for her household
when it snows,
for all in her household are doubly clothed.
- 22 She makes her own bed coverings;
her clothing is fine linen and purple.
- 23 Her husband is known at the city gates,
where he sits among the elders
of the land.
- 24 She makes and sells linen garments;
she delivers belts to the merchants.
- 25 Strength and honor are her clothing,
and she can laugh at the time to come.
- 26 Her mouth speaks wisdom,
and loving instruction is on her tongue.
- 27 She watches over the activities of her household and is never idle.
- 28 Her children rise up and call her blessed;
her husband also praises her:
- 29 "Many women have done noble deeds,
but you surpass them all!"
- 30 Charm is deceptive and beauty is fleeting,
but a woman who fears the LORD will be praised.
- 31 Give her the reward of her labor,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.

ECCLESIASTES

1 The words of the Teacher, son of David, king in Jerusalem.

² "Absolute futility," says the Teacher.
"Absolute futility. Everything is futile."

³ What does a person gain for all his efforts that he labors at under the sun?

⁴ A generation goes and a generation comes,
but the earth remains forever.

⁵ The sun rises and the sun sets;
panting, it returns to the place where it rises.

⁶ Gusting to the south,
turning to the north,
turning, turning, goes the wind,
and the wind returns in its cycles.

⁷ All the streams flow to the sea,
yet the sea is never full;
to the place where the streams flow,
there they flow again.

⁸ All things are wearisome,
more than anyone can say.
The eye is not satisfied by seeing or the ear filled with hearing.

⁹ What has been is what will be,
and what has been done is what will be done;
there is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰ Can one say about anything,
"Look, this is new"?

It has already existed in the ages before us.

¹¹ There is no remembrance of those who came before;
and of those who will come after there will also be no remembrance
by those who follow them.

¹² I, the Teacher, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.

¹³ I applied my mind to examine and explore through wisdom all that is done under heaven. God has given people this miserable task to keep them occupied. ¹⁴ I have seen all the things that are done under the sun and have found everything to be futile, a pursuit of the wind.

¹⁵ What is crooked cannot be straightened;
what is lacking cannot be counted.

¹⁶ I said to myself, "See, I have amassed wisdom far beyond all those who were over Jerusalem before me, and my mind has thoroughly grasped wisdom and knowledge."¹⁷ I applied my mind to know wisdom and knowledge, madness and folly; I learned that this too is a pursuit of the wind.

¹⁸ For with much wisdom is much sorrow;
as knowledge increases, grief increases.

2 I said to myself, "Go ahead, I will test you with pleasure; enjoy what is good." But it turned out to be futile. ² I said about laughter, "It is madness," and about pleasure, "What does this accomplish?" ³ I explored with my mind the pull of wine on my body — my mind still guiding me with wisdom — and how to grasp folly, until I could see what is good for people to do under heaven during the few days of their lives.

⁴ I increased my achievements. I built houses and planted vineyards for myself. ⁵ I made gardens and parks for myself and planted every kind of fruit tree in them. ⁶ I constructed reservoirs for myself from which to irrigate a grove of flourishing trees. ⁷ I acquired male and female servants and had slaves who were born in my house. I also owned livestock — large herds and flocks — more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. ⁸ I also amassed silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I gathered male and female singers for myself, and many concubines, the delights of men. ⁹ So I became great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem; my wisdom also remained with me. ¹⁰ All that my eyes desired, I did not deny them. I did not refuse myself any pleasure, for I took pleasure in all my struggles. This was my reward for all my struggles. ¹¹ When I considered all that I had accomplished and what I had labored to achieve, I found everything to be futile and a pursuit of the wind. There was nothing to be gained under the sun.

¹² Then I turned to consider wisdom, madness, and folly, for what will the king's successor be like? He will do what has already been done. ¹³ And I realized that there is an advantage to wisdom over folly, like the advantage of light over darkness.

¹⁴ The wise person has eyes in his head,
but the fool walks in darkness.

Yet I also knew that one fate comes to them both. ¹⁵ So I said to myself, "What happens to the fool will also happen to me. Why then have I been overly wise?" And I said to myself that this is also futile. ¹⁶ For, just like the fool, there is no lasting remembrance of the wise, since in the days to come both will be forgotten. How is it that the wise person dies just like the fool? ¹⁷ Therefore, I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was distressing to me. For everything is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

¹⁸ I hated all my work that I labored at under the sun because I must leave it to the one who comes after me. ¹⁹ And who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will take over all my work that I labored at skillfully under the sun. This too is futile. ²⁰ So I began to give myself over to despair concerning all my work that I had labored at under the sun. ²¹ When there is a person whose work was done with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, and he must give his portion to a person who has not worked for it, this too is futile and a great wrong. ²² For what does a person get with all his work and all his efforts that he labors at under the sun? ²³ For all his days are filled with grief, and his occupation is sorrowful; even at night, his mind does not rest. This too is futile.

²⁴ There is nothing better for a person than to eat, drink, and enjoy his work. I have seen that even this is from God's hand, ²⁵ because who can eat and who can enjoy life apart from him? ²⁶ For to the person who is pleasing in his sight, he gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and accumulating in order to give to the one who is pleasing in God's sight. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

3 There is an occasion for everything,
and a time for every activity under heaven:

² a time to give birth and a time to die;

a time to plant and a time to uproot;

³ a time to kill and a time to heal;

a time to tear down and a time to build;

⁴ a time to weep and a time to laugh;

- a time to mourn and a time to dance;
 5 a time to throw stones and a time
 to gather stones;
 a time to embrace and a time to avoid embracing;
 6 a time to search and a time to count as lost;
 a time to keep and a time to throw away;
 7 a time to tear and a time to sew;
 a time to be silent and a time to speak;
 8 a time to love and a time to hate;
 a time for war and a time for peace.

⁹What does the worker gain from his struggles? ¹⁰I have seen the task that God has given the children of Adam to keep them occupied. ¹¹He has made everything appropriate in its time. He has also put eternity in their hearts, but no one can discover the work God has done from beginning to end. ¹²I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and enjoy the good life. ¹³It is also the gift of God whenever anyone eats, drinks, and enjoys all his efforts. ¹⁴I know that everything God does will last forever; there is no adding to it or taking from it. God works so that people will be in awe of him. ¹⁵Whatever is, has already been, and whatever will be, already is. However, God seeks justice for the persecuted.

¹⁶I also observed under the sun: there is wickedness at the place of judgment and there is wickedness at the place of righteousness. ¹⁷I said to myself, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked, since there is a time for every activity and every work." ¹⁸I said to myself, "This happens so that God may test the children of Adam and they may see for themselves that they are like animals." ¹⁹For the fate of the children of Adam and the fate of animals is the same. As one dies, so dies the other; they all have the same breath. People have no advantage over animals since everything is futile. ²⁰All are going to the same place; all come from dust, and all return to dust. ²¹Who knows if the spirits of the children of Adam go upward and the spirits of animals go downward to the earth? ²²I have seen that there is nothing better than for a person to enjoy his activities because that is his reward. For who can enable him to see what will happen after he dies?

4 Again, I observed all the acts of oppression being done under the sun. Look at the tears of those who are oppressed; they have no one to comfort them. Power is with those who oppress them; they have no one to comfort them. ²So I commended the dead, who have already died, more than the living, who are still alive. ³But better than either of them is the one who has not yet existed, who has not seen the evil activity that is done under the sun.

⁴I saw that all labor and all skillful work is due to one person's jealousy of another. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

- 5 The fool folds his arms and consumes his own flesh.
 6 Better one handful with rest than two handfuls with effort and a pursuit of the wind.

⁷Again, I saw futility under the sun: ⁸There is a person without a companion, without even a son or brother, and though there is no end to all his struggles, his eyes are still not content with riches. "Who am I struggling for," he asks, "and depriving myself of good things?" This too is futile and a miserable task.

⁹Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their efforts. ¹⁰For if either falls, his companion can lift him up; but pity the one who falls without another to lift him up. ¹¹Also, if two lie down together, they can keep warm; but how can one person alone keep warm? ¹²And if someone overpowers one person, two can resist him. A cord of three strands is not easily broken.

¹³Better is a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer pays attention to warnings. ¹⁴For he came from prison to be king, even though he was born poor in his kingdom. ¹⁵I saw all the living, who move about under the sun, follow a second youth who succeeds him. ¹⁶There is no limit to all the people who were before them, yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

5 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Better to approach in obedience than to offer the sacrifice as fools do, for they ignorantly do wrong. ²Do not be hasty to speak, and do not be impulsive to make a speech before God. God is in heaven and you are on earth, so let your words be few. ³Just as dreams accompany much labor, so also a fool's voice comes with many words. ⁴When you make a vow to God, don't delay fulfilling it, because he does not delight in fools. Fulfill what you vow. ⁵Better that you do not vow than that you vow and not fulfill it. ⁶Do not let your mouth bring guilt on you, and do not say in the presence of the messenger that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry with your words and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷For many dreams bring futility, so do many words. Therefore, fear God.

¹³There is a sickening tragedy I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. ¹⁴That wealth was lost in a bad venture, so when he fathered a son, he was empty-handed. ¹⁵As he came from his mother's womb, so he will go again, naked as he came; he will take nothing for his efforts that he can carry in his hands. ¹⁶This too is a sickening tragedy: exactly as he comes, so he will go. What does the one gain who struggles for the wind? ¹⁷What is more, he eats in darkness all his days, with much frustration, sickness, and anger.

¹⁸Here is what I have seen to be good: It is appropriate to eat, drink, and experience good in all the labor one does under the sun during the few days of his life God has given him, because that is his reward. ¹⁹Furthermore, everyone to whom God has given riches and wealth, he has also allowed him to enjoy them, take his reward, and rejoice in his labor. This is a gift of God, ²⁰for he does not often consider the days of his life because God keeps him occupied with the joy of his heart.

6 Here is a tragedy I have observed under the sun, and it weighs heavily on humanity: ²God gives a person riches, wealth, and honor so that he lacks nothing of all he desires for himself, but God does not allow him to enjoy them. Instead, a stranger will enjoy them. This is futile and a sickening tragedy. ³A man may father a hundred children and live many years. No matter how long he lives, if he is not satisfied by good things and does not even have a proper burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he.⁴ For he comes in futility and he goes in darkness, and his name is shrouded in darkness.⁵ Though a stillborn child does not see the sun and is not conscious, it has more rest than he.⁶ And if a person lives a thousand years twice, but does not experience happiness, do not both go to the same place?

⁷ All of a person's labor is for his stomach, yet the appetite is never satisfied.

¹⁰ Whatever exists was given its name long ago, and it is known what mankind is. But he is not able to contend with the one stronger than he.¹¹ For when there are many words, they increase futility. What is the advantage for mankind?¹² For who knows what is good for anyone in life, in the few days of his futile life that he spends like a shadow? Who can tell anyone what will happen after him under the sun?

7 A good name is better than fine perfume, and the day of one's death is better than the day of one's birth.

² It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, since that is the end of all mankind, and the living should take it to heart.

³ Grief is better than laughter, for when a face is sad, a heart may be glad.

⁴ The heart of the wise is in a house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in a house of pleasure.

⁵ It is better to listen to rebuke from a wise person than to listen to the song of fools,

⁶ for like the crackling of burning thorns under the pot,

so is the laughter of the fool.

This too is futile.

⁷ Surely, the practice of extortion turns a wise person into a fool, and a bribe corrupts the mind.

⁸ The end of a matter is better than its beginning; a patient spirit is better than a proud spirit.

⁹ Don't let your spirit rush to be angry, for anger abides in the heart of fools.

¹⁰ Don't say, "Why were the former days better than these?"

since it is not wise of you to ask this.

¹¹ Wisdom is as good as an inheritance and an advantage to those who see the sun,

¹² because wisdom is protection as silver is protection;

but the advantage of knowledge

is that wisdom preserves the life of its owner.

¹³ Consider the work of God, for who can straighten out what he has made crooked?

¹⁴ In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity, consider: God has made the one as well as the other, so that no one can discover anything that will come after him.

¹⁵ In my futile life I have seen everything: someone righteous perishes in spite of his righteousness, and someone wicked lives long in spite of his evil.¹⁶ Don't be excessively righteous, and don't be overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself?¹⁷ Don't be excessively wicked, and don't be foolish. Why should you die before your time?¹⁸ It is good that you grasp the one and do not let the other slip from your hand. For the one who fears God will end up with both of them.

¹⁹ Wisdom makes the wise person stronger than ten rulers of a city.

²⁰ There is certainly no one righteous on the earth who does good and never sins.

²³ I have tested all this by wisdom. I resolved, "I will be wise," but it was beyond me.²⁴ What exists is beyond reach and very deep. Who can discover it?²⁵ I turned my thoughts to know, explore, and examine wisdom and an explanation for things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity and folly is madness.²⁶ And I find more bitter than death the woman who is a trap: her heart a net and her hands chains. The one who pleases God will escape her, but the sinner will be captured by her.²⁷ "Look," says the Teacher, "I have discovered this by adding one thing to another to find out the explanation,²⁸ which my soul continually searches for but does not find: I found one person in a thousand, but none of those was a woman.²⁹ Only see this: I have discovered that God made people upright, but they pursued many schemes."

8 Who is like the wise person, and who knows the interpretation of a matter? A person's wisdom brightens his face, and the sternness of his face is changed.

¹⁰ In such circumstances, I saw the wicked buried. They came and went from the holy place, and they were praised in the city where they did those things. This too is futile.¹¹ Because the sentence against an evil act is not carried out quickly, the heart of people is filled with the desire to commit evil.¹² Although a sinner does evil a hundred times and prolongs his life, I also know that it will go well with God-fearing people, for they are reverent before him.¹³ However, it will not go well with the wicked, and they will not lengthen their days like a shadow, for they are not reverent before God.

¹⁴ There is a futility that is done on the earth: there are righteous people who get what the actions of the wicked deserve, and there are wicked people who get what the actions of the righteous deserve. I say that this too is futile.¹⁵ So I commended enjoyment because there is nothing better for a person under the sun than to eat, drink, and enjoy himself, for this will accompany him in his labor during the days of his life that God gives him under the sun.

¹⁶When I applied my mind to know wisdom and to observe the activity that is done on the earth (even though one's eyes do not close in sleep day or night),¹⁷ I observed all the work of God and concluded that a person is unable to discover the work that is done under the sun. Even though a person labors hard to explore it, he cannot find it; even if a wise person claims to know it, he is unable to discover it.

9 Indeed, I took all this to heart and explained it all: The righteous, the wise, and their works are in God's hands. People don't know whether to expect love or hate. Everything lies ahead of them. ² Everything is the same for everyone: There is one fate for the righteous and the wicked, for the good and the bad, for the clean and the unclean, for the one who sacrifices and the one who does not sacrifice. As it is for the good, so also it is for the sinner; as it is for the one who takes an oath, so also for the one who fears an oath. ³ This is an evil in all that is done under the sun: there is one fate for everyone. In addition, the hearts of people are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live; after that they go to the dead. ⁴ But there is hope for whoever is joined with all the living, since a live dog is better than a dead lion. ⁵ For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything. There is no longer a reward for them because the memory of them is forgotten. ⁶ Their love, their hate, and their envy have already disappeared, and there is no longer a portion for them in all that is done under the sun.

¹¹ Again I saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, or the battle to the strong, or bread to the wise, or riches to the discerning, or favor to the skillful; rather, time and chance happen to all of them. ¹² For certainly no one knows his time: like fish caught in a cruel net or like birds caught in a trap, so people are trapped in an evil time as it suddenly falls on them.

¹³ I have observed that this also is wisdom under the sun, and it is significant to me: ¹⁴ There was a small city with few men in it. A great king came against it, surrounded it, and built large siege works against it. ¹⁵ Now a poor wise man was found in the city, and he delivered the city by his wisdom. Yet no one remembered that poor man. ¹⁶ And I said, "Wisdom is better than strength, but the wisdom of the poor man is despised, and his words are not heeded."

¹⁷ The calm words of the wise are heeded more than the shouts of a ruler over fools.

¹⁸ Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much good.

10 Dead flies make a perfumer's oil ferment and stink; so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

³ Even when the fool walks along the road, his heart lacks sense, and he shows everyone he is a fool.

⁴ If the ruler's anger rises against you, don't leave your post, for calmness puts great offenses to rest.

⁵ There is an evil I have seen under the sun, an error proceeding from the presence of the ruler:

⁶ The fool is appointed to great heights, but the rich remain in lowly positions.

⁷ I have seen slaves on horses, but princes walking on the ground like slaves.

⁸ The one who digs a pit may fall into it, and the one who breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.

⁹ The one who quarries stones may be hurt by them; the one who splits logs may be endangered by them.

¹⁰ If the ax is dull, and one does not sharpen its edge, then one must exert more strength; however, the advantage of wisdom is that it brings success.

¹¹ If the snake bites before it is charmed, then there is no advantage for the charmer.

¹² The words from the mouth of a wise person are gracious, but the lips of a fool consume him.

¹³ The beginning of the words from his mouth is folly, but the end of his speaking is evil madness; yet the fool multiplies words.

¹⁴ No one knows what will happen, and who can tell anyone what will happen after him?

¹⁵ The struggles of fools weary them, for they don't know how to go to the city.

¹⁶ Woe to you, land, when your king is a youth and your princes feast in the morning.

¹⁷ Blessed are you, land, when your king is a son of nobles and your princes feast at the proper time — for strength and not for drunkenness.

¹⁸ Because of laziness the roof caves in, and because of negligent hands the house leaks.

¹⁹ A feast is prepared for laughter, and wine makes life happy, and money is the answer for everything.

²⁰ Do not curse the king even in your thoughts, and do not curse a rich person even in your bedroom, for a bird of the sky may carry the message, and a winged creature may report the matter.

11 Send your bread on the surface of the water, for after many days you may find it.

² Give a portion to seven or even to eight, for you don't know what disaster may happen on earth.

³ If the clouds are full, they will pour out rain on the earth; whether a tree falls to the south or the north, the place where the tree falls, there it will lie.

⁴ One who watches the wind will not sow, and the one who looks at the clouds will not reap.

⁵ Just as you don't know the path of the wind,

or how bones develop in the womb
of a pregnant woman,
so also you don't know the work of God who makes everything.

6 In the morning sow your seed,
and at evening do not let your hand rest,
because you don't know which will succeed,
whether one or the other,
or if both of them will be equally good.

7 Light is sweet,
and it is pleasing for the eyes to see the sun.

8 Indeed, if someone lives many years,
let him rejoice in them all,
and let him remember the days of darkness,
since they will be many.
All that comes is futile.

9 Rejoice, young person, while you are young,
and let your heart be glad in the days
of your youth.
And walk in the ways of your heart
and in the desire of your eyes;
but know that for all of these things God will bring you to judgment.

10 Remove sorrow from your heart,
and put away pain from your flesh,
because youth and the prime of life are fleeting.

12 So remember your Creator in the days of your youth:
Before the days of adversity come,
and the years approach when you will say,
"I have no delight in them";

2 before the sun and the light are darkened,
and the moon and the stars,
and the clouds return after the rain;
on the day when the guardians of the house
tremble,
and the strong men stoop,

the women who grind grain cease because they are few,
and the ones who watch through the windows
see dimly,

4 the doors at the street are shut
while the sound of the mill fades;
when one rises at the sound of a bird,
and all the daughters of song grow faint.

5 Also, they are afraid of heights and dangers on the road;
the almond tree blossoms,
the grasshopper loses its spring,
and the caper berry has no effect;
for the mere mortal is headed to his eternal home,
and mourners will walk around in the street;

6 before the silver cord is snapped,
and the gold bowl is broken,
and the jar is shattered at the spring,
and the wheel is broken into the well;

7 and the dust returns to the earth as it once was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

8 "Absolute futility," says the Teacher. "Everything is futile."
9 In addition to the Teacher being a wise man, he constantly taught the people knowledge; he weighed, explored, and arranged many proverbs.¹⁰ The Teacher sought to find delightful sayings and write words of truth accurately. ¹¹The sayings of the wise are like cattle prods, and those from masters of collections are like firmly embedded nails. The sayings are given by one Shepherd.

12 But beyond these, my son, be warned: there is no end to the making of many books, and much study wears the body. ¹³When all has been heard, the conclusion of the matter is this: fear God and keep his commands, because this is for all humanity. ¹⁴For God will bring every act to judgment, including every hidden thing, whether good or evil.

SONG OF SONGS

1 The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

Woman

- 2 Oh, that he would kiss me with the kisses
of his mouth!
For your caresses are more delightful than wine.
- 3 The fragrance of your perfume is intoxicating;
your name is perfume poured out.
No wonder young women adore you.
- 4 Take me with you —let's hurry.
Oh, that the king would bring me
to his chambers.

Young Women

We will rejoice and be glad in you;
we will celebrate your caresses
more than wine.

Woman

- It is only right that they adore you.
- 5 Daughters of Jerusalem,
I am dark like the tents of Kedar,
yet lovely like the curtains of Solomon.
- 6 Do not stare at me because I am dark,
for the sun has gazed on me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
they made me take care of the vineyards.
I have not taken care of my own vineyard.
- 7 Tell me, you whom I love:
Where do you pasture your sheep?
Where do you let them rest at noon?
Why should I be like one who veils herself
beside the flocks of your companions?

Man

- 8 If you do not know,
most beautiful of women,
follow the tracks of the flock,
and pasture your young goats
near the shepherds' tents.
- 9 I compare you, my darling,
to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.
- 10 Your cheeks are beautiful with jewelry,
your neck with its necklace.
- 11 We will make gold jewelry for you,
accented with silver.

Woman

- 12 While the king is on his couch,
my perfume releases its fragrance.
- 13 The one I love is a sachet of myrrh to me,
spending the night between my breasts.
- 14 The one I love is a cluster of henna blossoms
to me,
in the vineyards of En-gedi.

Man

- 15 How beautiful you are, my darling.
How very beautiful!
Your eyes are doves.

Woman

- 16 How handsome you are, my love.
How delightful!
Our bed is verdant;
17 the beams of our house are cedars,
and our rafters are cypresses.
- 2 I am a wildflower of Sharon,
a lily of the valleys.

Man

- 2 Like a lily among thorns,
so is my darling among the young women.

Woman

- 3 Like an apricot tree among the trees
of the forest,
so is my love among the young men.
I delight to sit in his shade,
and his fruit is sweet to my taste.
- 4 He brought me to the banquet hall,
and he looked on me with love.
- 5 Sustain me with raisins;
refresh me with apricots,
for I am lovesick.
- 6 May his left hand be under my head,
and his right arm embrace me.
- 7 Young women of Jerusalem, I charge you
by the gazelles and the wild does of the field,
do not stir up or awaken love
until the appropriate time.
- 8 Listen! My love is approaching.
Look! Here he comes,
leaping over the mountains,
bounding over the hills.
- 9 My love is like a gazelle
or a young stag.
See, he is standing behind our wall,
gazing through the windows,
peering through the lattice.
- 10 My love calls to me:

Man

- Arise, my darling.
Come away, my beautiful one.
- 11 For now the winter is past;
the rain has ended and gone away.
The blossoms appear in the countryside.
The time of singing has come,
and the turtle dove's cooing is heard in our land.
- 13 The fig tree ripens its figs;
the blossoming vines give off their fragrance.
Arise, my darling.
Come away, my beautiful one.
- 14 My dove, in the clefts of the rock,
in the crevices of the cliff,
let me see your face,
let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet,
and your face is lovely.

Woman

- 15 Catch the foxes for us —
the little foxes that ruin the vineyards —
for our vineyards are in bloom.

Woman

- 16 My love is mine and I am his;
he feeds among the lilies.
- 17 Until the day breaks
and the shadows flee,
turn around, my love, and be like a gazelle
or a young stag on the divided mountains.
- 3 In my bed at night
I sought the one I love;
I sought him, but did not find him.
- 2 I will arise now and go about the city,
through the streets and the plazas.
I will seek the one I love.
I sought him, but did not find him.
- 3 The guards who go about the city found me.
I asked them, "Have you seen the one I love?"
- 4 I had just passed them
when I found the one I love.
I held on to him and would not let him go until I brought him to my mother's house —
to the chamber of the one who conceived me.
- 5 Young women of Jerusalem, I charge you
by the gazelles and the wild does of the field,
do not stir up or awaken love
until the appropriate time.

Narrator

- 6 Who is this coming up from the wilderness
like columns of smoke, scented with myrrh and frankincense
from every fragrant powder of the merchant?
- 7 Look! Solomon's bed surrounded by sixty warriors
from the mighty men of Israel.
- 8 All of them are skilled with swords
and trained in warfare.
Each has his sword at his side
to guard against the terror of the night.
- 9 King Solomon made a carriage for himself with wood from Lebanon.
- 10 He made its posts of silver,
its back of gold,
and its seat of purple.
Its interior is inlaid with love
by the young women of Jerusalem.
- 11 Go out, young women of Zion,
and gaze at King Solomon,
wearing the crown his mother placed on him
on the day of his wedding —
the day of his heart's rejoicing.

Man

- 4 How beautiful you are, my darling.
How very beautiful!
Behind your veil,
your eyes are doves.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
streaming down Mount Gilead.
- 2 Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn sheep
coming up from washing,

- each one bearing twins,
and none has lost its young.
- 3 Your lips are like a scarlet cord,
and your mouth is lovely.
Behind your veil,
your brow is like a slice of pomegranate.
- 4 Your neck is like the tower of David,
constructed in layers.
A thousand shields are hung on it —
all of them shields of warriors.
- 5 Your breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle, that feed among the lilies.
- 6 Until the day breaks
and the shadows flee,
I will make my way to the mountain of myrrh
and the hill of frankincense.
- 7 You are absolutely beautiful, my darling;
there is no imperfection in you.
- 8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride;
come with me from Lebanon!
Descend from the peak of Amana,
from the summit of Senir and Hermon,
from the dens of the lions,
from the mountains of the leopards.
- 9 You have captured my heart, my sister,
my bride.
You have captured my heart with one glance
of your eyes,
with one jewel of your necklace.
- 10 How delightful your caresses are, my sister,
my bride.
Your caresses are much better than wine,
and the fragrance of your perfume
than any balsam.
- 11 Your lips drip sweetness like the honeycomb,
my bride.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
The fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.
- 12 My sister, my bride, you are a locked garden —
a locked garden and a sealed spring.
- 13 Your branches are a paradise of pomegranates
with choicest fruits;
henna with nard,
nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon,
with all the trees of frankincense,
myrrh and aloes,
with all the best spices.
- 15 You are a garden spring,
a well of flowing water streaming from Lebanon.

Woman

- 16 Awaken, north wind;
come, south wind.
Blow on my garden,
and spread the fragrance of its spices.
Let my love come to his garden
and eat its choicest fruits.

Man

- 5 I have come to my garden — my sister, my bride.
I gather my myrrh with my spices.
I eat my honeycomb with my honey.
I drink my wine with my milk.

Narrator

Eat, friends!
Drink, be intoxicated with caresses!

Woman

- 2 I was sleeping, but my heart was awake.
A sound! My love was knocking!

Man

Open to me, my sister, my darling,
my dove, my perfect one.
For my head is drenched with dew,
my hair with droplets of the night.

Woman

- 3 I have taken off my clothing.
How can I put it back on?
I have washed my feet.
How can I get them dirty?
- 4 My love thrust his hand through the opening,
and my feelings were stirred for him.
- 5 I rose to open for my love.
My hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with flowing myrrh
on the handles of the bolt.
- 6 I opened to my love,
but my love had turned and gone away.
My heart sank because he had left.
I sought him, but did not find him.
I called him, but he did not answer.
- 7 The guards who go about the city found me.
They beat and wounded me;
they took my cloak from me —
the guardians of the walls.
- 8 Young women of Jerusalem, I charge you,
if you find my love,
tell him that I am lovesick.

Young Women

- 9 What makes the one you love better than another,
most beautiful of women?
What makes him better than another,
that you would give us this charge?

Woman

- 10 My love is fit and strong,
notable among ten thousand.
11 His head is purest gold.
His hair is wavy
and black as a raven.
12 His eyes are like doves
beside flowing streams, washed in milk
and set like jewels.
13 His cheeks are like beds of spice,
mounds of perfume.
His lips are lilies,
dripping with flowing myrrh.
14 His arms are rods of gold set with beryl.
His body is an ivory panel covered with lapis lazuli.
15 His legs are alabaster pillars set on pedestals of pure gold.
His presence is like Lebanon,

as majestic as the cedars.
16 His mouth is sweetness.
He is absolutely desirable.
This is my love, and this is my friend,
young women of Jerusalem.

Young Women

- 6 Where has your love gone,
most beautiful of women?
Which way has he turned?
We will seek him with you.

Woman

- 2 My love has gone down to his garden,
to beds of spice,
to feed in the gardens
and gather lilies.
- 3 I am my love's and my love is mine;
he feeds among the lilies.

Man

- 4 You are as beautiful as Tizrah, my darling,
lovely as Jerusalem,
awe-inspiring as an army with banners.
- 5 Turn your eyes away from me,
for they captivate me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
streaming down from Gilead.
- 6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes
coming up from washing,
each one having a twin,
and not one missing.
- 7 Behind your veil,
your brow is like a slice of pomegranate.
- 8 There are sixty queens and eighty concubines
and young women without number.
- 9 But my dove, my virtuous one, is unique;
she is the favorite of her mother,
perfect to the one who gave her birth.
Women see her and declare her fortunate;
queens and concubines also, and they sing
her praises:
- 10 Who is this who shines like the dawn,
as beautiful as the moon,
bright as the sun,
awe-inspiring as an army with banners?

Woman

- 11 I came down to the walnut grove
to see the blossoms of the valley, to see if the vines were budding
and the pomegranates blooming.
- 12 I didn't know what was happening to me.
I felt like I was in a chariot with a nobleman.

Young Women

- 13 Come back, come back, Shulammitte!
Come back, come back,
that we may look at you!

Man

How you gaze at the Shulammitte,
as you look at the dance of the two camps!

- 7 How beautiful are your sandaled feet, princess!
The curves of your thighs are like jewelry,
the handiwork of a master.
- 2 Your navel is a rounded bowl;
it never lacks mixed wine.
Your belly is a mound of wheat surrounded by lilies.
- 3 Your breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle.
- 4 Your neck is like a tower of ivory,
your eyes like pools in Heshbon
by Bath-rabbim's gate.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
looking toward Damascus.
- 5 Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel,
the hair of your head like purple cloth —
a king could be held captive in your tresses.
- 6 How beautiful you are and how pleasant,
my love, with such delights!
- 7 Your stature is like a palm tree;
your breasts are clusters of fruit.
- 8 I said, "I will climb the palm tree and take hold of its fruit."
May your breasts be like clusters of grapes,
and the fragrance of your breath like apricots.
- 9 Your mouth is like fine wine —

Woman

- flowing smoothly for my love,
gliding past my lips and teeth!
- 10 I am my love's,
and his desire is for me.
- 11 Come, my love,
let's go to the field;
let's spend the night
among the henna blossoms.
- 12 Let's go early to the vineyards;
let's see if the vine has budded,
if the blossom has opened,
if the pomegranates are in bloom.
There I will give you my caresses.
- 13 The mandrakes give off a fragrance,
and at our doors is every delicacy,
both new and old.
I have treasured them up for you, my love.
If only I could treat you like my brother,
one who nursed at my mother's breasts,
I would find you in public and kiss you,
and no one would scorn me.
- 2 I would lead you, I would take you,
to the house of my mother who taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to drink
from the juice of my pomegranate.
- 3 May his left hand be under my head,
and his right arm embrace me.
- 4 Young women of Jerusalem, I charge you,

8

do not stir up or awaken love
until the appropriate time.

Young Women

- 5 Who is this coming up from the wilderness,
leaning on the one she loves?

Woman

- I awakened you under the apricot tree.
There your mother conceived you;
there she conceived and gave you birth.
- 6 Set me as a seal on your heart,
as a seal on your arm.
For love is as strong as death;
jealousy is as unrelenting as Sheol.
Love's flames are fiery flames —
an almighty flame!
- 7 A huge torrent cannot extinguish love;
rivers cannot sweep it away.
If a man were to give all his wealth for love,
it would be utterly scorned.

Brothers

- 8 Our sister is young;
she has no breasts.
What will we do for our sister
on the day she is spoken for?
- 9 If she is a wall,
we will build a silver barricade on her.
If she is a door,
we will enclose her with cedar planks.

Woman

- 10 I am a wall
and my breasts like towers.
So in his eyes I have become like one who finds peace.
- 11 Solomon owned a vineyard in Baal-hamon.
He leased the vineyard to tenants.
Each was to bring for his fruit
one thousand pieces of silver.
- 12 I have my own vineyard.
The one thousand are for you, Solomon, but two hundred for those who take care of its fruits.

Man

- 13 You who dwell in the gardens, companions are listening for your voice;
let me hear you!

Woman

- 14 Run away with me, my love,
and be like a gazelle
or a young stag
on the mountains of spices.

ISAIAH

- 1 The vision concerning Judah and Jerusalem that Isaiah son of Amoz saw during the reigns of Kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah.
- 2 Listen, heavens, and pay attention, earth, for the LORD has spoken:
"I have raised children and brought them up, but they have rebelled against me.
- 3 The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its master's feeding trough, but Israel does not know; my people do not understand."
- 4 Oh sinful nation, people weighed down with iniquity, brood of evildoers, depraved children! They have abandoned the LORD; they have despised the Holy One of Israel; they have turned their backs on him.
- 5 Why do you want more beatings? Why do you keep on rebelling? The whole head is hurt, and the whole heart is sick.
- 6 From the sole of the foot even to the head, no spot is uninjured — wounds, welts, and festering sores not cleansed, bandaged, or soothed with oil.
- 7 Your land is desolate, your cities burned down; foreigners devour your fields right in front of you — a desolation, like a place demolished by foreigners.
- 8 Daughter Zion is abandoned like a shelter in a vineyard, like a shack in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.
- 9 If the LORD of Armies had not left us a few survivors, we would resemble Gomorrah.
- 10 Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the instruction of our God, you people of Gomorrah!
- 11 "What are all your sacrifices to me?" asks the LORD.
"I have had enough of burnt offerings and rams and the fat of well-fed cattle; I have no desire for the blood of bulls, lambs, or male goats.
- 12 When you come to appear before me, who requires this from you — this trampling of my courts?
- 13 Stop bringing useless offerings. Your incense is detestable to me. New Moons and Sabbaths, and the calling of solemn assemblies — I cannot stand iniquity with a festival.
- 14 I hate your New Moons and prescribed festivals. They have become a burden to me; I am tired of putting up with them.
- 15 When you spread out your hands in prayer, I will refuse to look at you; even if you offer countless prayers, I will not listen.
Your hands are covered with blood.
- 16 "Wash yourselves. Cleanse yourselves. Remove your evil deeds from my sight. Stop doing evil.
- 17 Learn to do what is good. Pursue justice. Correct the oppressor. Defend the rights of the fatherless. Plead the widow's cause.
- 18 "Come, let us settle this," says the LORD.
"Though your sins are scarlet, they will be as white as snow; though they are crimson red, they will be like wool.
- 19 If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good things of the land.
- 20 But if you refuse and rebel, you will be devoured by the sword." For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.
- 21 The faithful town — what an adulteress she has become! She was once full of justice. Righteousness once dwelt in her, but now, murderers!
- 22 Your silver has become dross to be discarded, your beer is diluted with water.
- 23 Your rulers are rebels, friends of thieves. They all love graft and chase after bribes.
They do not defend the rights of the fatherless, and the widow's case never comes before them.
- 24 Therefore the Lord God of Armies, the Mighty One of Israel, declares: "Ah, I will get even with my foes; I will take revenge against my enemies.
- 25 I will turn my hand against you and will burn away your dross completely; I will remove all your impurities.
- 26 I will restore your judges to what they were at first, and your advisers to what they were at the start. Afterward you will be called the Righteous City, a Faithful Town."
- 27 Zion will be redeemed by justice, those who repent, by righteousness.
- 28 At the same time both rebels and sinners will be broken, and those who abandon the LORD will perish.
- 29 Indeed, they will be ashamed of the sacred trees you desired, and you will be embarrassed because of the garden shrines you have chosen.

- ³⁰ For you will become like an oak whose leaves are withered, and like a garden without water.
- ³¹ The strong one will become tinder, and his work a spark; both will burn together, with no one to extinguish the flames.
- 2 The vision that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:
- ² In the last days the mountain of the LORD's house will be established at the top of the mountains and will be raised above the hills. All nations will stream to it, and many peoples will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us about his ways so that we may walk in his paths." For instruction will go out of Zion and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
- ⁴ He will settle disputes among the nations and provide arbitration for many peoples. They will beat their swords into plows and their spears into pruning knives. Nation will not take up the sword against nation, and they will never again train for war.
- ⁵ House of Jacob, come and let us walk in the LORD's light.
- ⁶ For you have abandoned your people, the house of Jacob, because they are full of divination from the East and of fortune-tellers like the Philistines. They are in league with foreigners.
- ⁷ Their land is full of silver and gold, and there is no limit to their treasures; their land is full of horses, and there is no limit to their chariots.
- ⁸ Their land is full of idols; they worship the work of their hands, what their fingers have made.
- ⁹ So humanity is brought low, and each person is humbled. Do not forgive them!
- ¹⁰ Go into the rocks and hide in the dust from the terror of the LORD and from his majestic splendor.
- ¹¹ The pride of mankind will be humbled, and human loftiness will be brought low; the LORD alone will be exalted on that day.
- ¹² For a day belonging to the LORD of Armies is coming against all that is proud and lofty, against all that is lifted up — it will be humbled —
- ¹³ against all the cedars of Lebanon, lofty and lifted up, against all the oaks of Bashan, against all the high mountains, against all the lofty hills,
- ¹⁴ against every high tower, against every fortified wall,
- ¹⁵ against every high tower, against every fortified wall,
- ¹⁶ against every ship of Tarshish,

- and against every splendid sea vessel.
- ¹⁷ The pride of mankind will be brought low, and human loftiness will be humbled; the LORD alone will be exalted on that day.
- ¹⁸ The idols will vanish completely.
- ¹⁹ People will go into caves in the rocks and holes in the ground, away from the terror of the LORD and from his majestic splendor, when he rises to terrify the earth.
- ²⁰ On that day people will throw their silver and gold idols, which they made to worship, to the moles and the bats.
- ²¹ They will go into the caves of the rocks and the crevices in the cliffs, away from the terror of the LORD and from his majestic splendor, when he rises to terrify the earth.
- ²² Put no more trust in a mere human, who has only the breath in his nostrils. What is he really worth?
- 3 Note this: The Lord God of Armies is about to remove from Jerusalem and from Judah every kind of security: the entire supply of bread and water, heroes and warriors, judges and prophets, fortune-tellers and elders, commanders of fifty and dignitaries, counselors, cunning magicians, and necromancers.
- ⁴ "I will make youths their leaders, and unstable rulers will govern them."
- ⁵ The people will oppress one another, man against man, neighbor against neighbor; the young will act arrogantly toward the old, and the worthless toward the honorable.
- ⁶ A man will even seize his brother in his father's house, saying: "You have a cloak — you be our leader! This heap of rubble will be under your control."
- ⁷ On that day he will cry out, saying: "I'm not a healer. I don't even have food or clothing in my house. Don't make me the leader of the people!"
- ⁸ For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen because they have spoken and acted against the LORD, defying his glorious presence.
- ⁹ The look on their faces testifies against them, and like Sodom, they flaunt their sin; they do not conceal it. Woe to them, for they have brought disaster on themselves.
- ¹⁰ Tell the righteous that it will go well for them, for they will eat the fruit of their labor.
- ¹¹ Woe to the wicked — it will go badly for them, for what they have done will be done to them.
- ¹² Youths oppress my people, and women rule over them. My people, your leaders mislead you; they confuse the direction of your paths.

- 13 The LORD rises to argue the case and stands to judge the people.
- 14 The LORD brings this charge against the elders and leaders of his people: "You have devastated the vineyard. The plunder from the poor is in your houses.
- 15 Why do you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor?" This is the declaration of the Lord God of Armies.
- 16 The LORD also says: Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, walking with heads held high and seductive eyes, prancing along, jingling their ankle bracelets,
- 17 the LORD will put scabs on the heads of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will shave their foreheads bare.
- 18 On that day the LORD will strip their finery: ankle bracelets, headbands, crescents, 19 pendants, bracelets, veils, 20 headaddresses, ankle jewelry, sashes, perfume bottles, amulets, 21 signet rings, nose rings, 22 festive robes, capes, cloaks, purses, 23 garments, linen clothes, turbans, and shawls.
- 24 Instead of perfume there will be a stench; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of beautifully styled hair, baldness; instead of fine clothes, sackcloth; instead of beauty, branding.
- 25 Your men will fall by the sword, your warriors in battle.
- 26 Then her gates will lament and mourn; deserted, she will sit on the ground.
- 4 On that day seven women will seize one man, saying, "We will eat our own bread and provide our own clothing. Just let us bear your name. Take away our disgrace."
- 2 On that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of Israel's survivors. 3 Whoever remains in Zion and whoever is left in Jerusalem will be called holy — all in Jerusalem written in the book of life — 4 when the LORD has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodguilt from the heart of Jerusalem by a spirit of judgment and a spirit of burning. 5 Then the LORD will create a cloud of smoke by day and a glowing flame of fire by night over the entire site of Mount Zion and over its assemblies. For there will be a canopy over all the glory, 6 and there will be a shelter for shade from heat by day, and a refuge and shelter from storm and rain.
- 5 I will sing about the one I love, a song about my loved one's vineyard: The one I love had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.
- 2 He broke up the soil, cleared it of stones, and planted it with the finest vines. He built a tower in the middle of it and even dug out a winepress there. He expected it to yield good grapes, but it yielded worthless grapes.
- 3 So now, residents of Jerusalem and men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard.
- 4 What more could I have done for my vineyard than I did? Why, when I expected a yield of good grapes, did it yield worthless grapes?
- 5 Now I will tell you what I am about to do to my vineyard: I will remove its hedge, and it will be consumed; I will tear down its wall, and it will be trampled.
- 6 I will make it a wasteland. It will not be pruned or weeded; thorns and briars will grow up. I will also give orders to the clouds that rain should not fall on it.
- 7 For the vineyard of the LORD of Armies is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah, the plant he delighted in. He expected justice but saw injustice; he expected righteousness, but heard cries of despair.
- 8 Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field until there is no more room and you alone are left in the land.
- 9 I heard the LORD of Armies say: Indeed, many houses will become desolate, grand and lovely ones without inhabitants.
- 10 For a ten-acre vineyard will yield only six gallons of wine, and ten bushels of seed will yield only one bushel of grain.
- 11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning in pursuit of beer, who linger into the evening, inflamed by wine.
- 12 At their feasts they have lyre, harp, tambourine, flute, and wine. They do not perceive the LORD's actions, and they do not see the work of his hands.
- 13 Therefore my people will go into exile because they lack knowledge; her dignitaries are starving, and her masses are parched with thirst.
- 14 Therefore Sheol enlarges its throat and opens wide its enormous jaws, and down go Zion's dignitaries, her masses, her crowds, and those who celebrate in her! Humanity is brought low, each person is humbled, and haughty eyes are humbled.
- 15 But the LORD of Armies is exalted by his justice, and the holy God shows that he is holy through his righteousness.
- 17 Lambs will graze as if in their own pastures, and resident aliens will eat among the ruins of the rich.
- 18 Woe to those who drag iniquity with cords of deceit and pull sin along with cart ropes, to those who say: "Let him hurry up and do his work quickly

so that we can see it!
Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel take place
so that we can know it!"

- 20 Woe to those who call evil good
and good evil,
who substitute darkness for light
and light for darkness,
who substitute bitter for sweet
and sweet for bitter.
- 21 Woe to those who consider themselves wise
and judge themselves clever.
- 22 Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine,
who are champions at pouring beer, 23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe and deprive the innocent of justice.
- 24 Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes straw and as dry grass shrivels in the flame,
so their roots will become like something rotten
and their blossoms will blow away like dust,
for they have rejected
the instruction of the LORD of Armies, and they have despised
the word of the Holy One of Israel.
- 25 Therefore the LORD's anger burned
against his people.
He raised his hand against them and struck them;
the mountains quaked,
and their corpses were like garbage in the streets.
In all this, his anger has not turned away,
and his hand is still raised to strike.
- 26 He raises a signal flag for the distant nations
and whistles for them from the ends of the earth.
Look — how quickly and swiftly they come!
- 27 None of them grows weary or stumbles;
no one slumbers or sleeps.
No belt is loose
and no sandal strap broken.
- 28 Their arrows are sharpened,
and all their bows strung.
Their horses' hooves are like flint;
their chariot wheels are like a whirlwind.
- 29 Their roaring is like a lion's;
they roar like young lions;
they growl and seize their prey
and carry it off,
and no one can rescue it.
- 30 On that day they will roar over it,
like the roaring of the sea.
When one looks at the land,
there will be darkness and distress;
light will be obscured by clouds.

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, and the hem of his robe filled the temple. ²Seraphim were standing above him; they each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. ³And one called to another:

Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Armies;
his glory fills the whole earth.

⁴The foundations of the doorways shook at the sound of their voices, and the temple was filled with smoke.

⁵Then I said:

Woe is me for I am ruined because I am a man of unclean lips
and live among a people of unclean lips,

and because my eyes have seen the King,
the LORD of Armies.

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me, and in his hand was a glowing coal that he had taken from the altar with tongs. ⁷He touched my mouth with it and said:

Now that this has touched your lips,
your iniquity is removed and your sin is atoned for.

⁸Then I heard the voice of the Lord asking:
Who should I send?
Who will go for us?

I said:

Here I am. Send me.

⁹And he replied:

Go! Say to these people:
Keep listening, but do not understand;
keep looking, but do not perceive.

¹⁰ Make the minds of these people dull;
deafen their ears and blind their eyes;
otherwise they might see with their eyes
and hear with their ears,
understand with their minds,
turn back, and be healed.

¹¹Then I said, "Until when, Lord?" And he replied:

Until cities lie in ruins without inhabitants,
houses are without people,
the land is ruined and desolate, ¹² and the LORD drives the people far away,
leaving great emptiness in the land.

¹³ Though a tenth will remain in the land,
it will be burned again.
Like the terebinth or the oak that leaves a stump when felled,
the holy seed is the stump.

7 This took place during the reign of Ahaz, son of Uzziah king of Judah: Aram's King Rezin and Israel's King Pekah son of Remaliah went to fight against Jerusalem, but they were not able to conquer it.

²When it became known to the house of David that Aram had occupied Ephraim, the heart of Ahaz and the hearts of his people trembled like trees of a forest shaking in the wind.

³The LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out with your son Shear-jashub to meet Ahaz at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, by the road to the Launderer's Field. ⁴Say to him: Calm down and be quiet. Don't be afraid or cowardly because of these two smoldering sticks, the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram, and the son of Remaliah. ⁵For Aram, along with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has plotted harm against you. They say, ⁶'Let us go up against Judah, terrorize it, and conquer it for ourselves. Then we can install Tabeel's son as king in it.'"

⁷This is what the Lord GOD says:

It will not happen; it will not occur.

⁸ The chief city of Aram is Damascus,
the chief of Damascus is Rezin (within sixty-five years

Ephraim will be too shattered to be a people),

⁹ the chief city of Ephraim is Samaria,
and the chief of Samaria is the son of Remaliah.

If you do not stand firm in your faith,
then you will not stand at all.

¹⁰Then the LORD spoke again to Ahaz: ¹¹"Ask for a sign from the LORD your God — it can be as deep as Sheol or as high as heaven."

¹² But Ahaz replied, "I will not ask. I will not test the Lord."

¹³ Isaiah said, "Listen, house of David! Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men? Will you also try the patience of my God? ¹⁴ Therefore, the Lord himself will give you a sign: See, the virgin will conceive, have a son, and name him Immanuel. ¹⁵ By the time he learns to reject what is bad and choose what is good, he will be eating curds and honey. ¹⁶ For before the boy knows to reject what is bad and choose what is good, the land of the two kings you dread will be abandoned. ¹⁷ The Lord will bring on you, your people, and your father's house such a time as has never been since Ephraim separated from Judah: He will bring the king of Assyria."

¹⁸ On that day
the Lord will whistle and flies
at the farthest streams of the Nile
and to bees in the land of Assyria.

¹⁹ All of them will come and settle in the steep ravines, in the clefts of the rocks,
in all the thornbushes, and in all the water holes.

²⁰ On that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the Euphrates River — the king of Assyria — to shave the hair on your heads, the hair on your legs, and even your beards.

²¹ On that day
a man will raise a young cow and two sheep, ²² and from the abundant milk they give
he will eat curds,
for every survivor in the land will eat curds
and honey.

²³ And on that day
every place where there were a thousand vines,
worth a thousand pieces of silver,
will become thorns and briers.

²⁴ A man will go there with bow and arrows
because the whole land will be thorns and briers.

²⁵ You will not go to all the hills that were once tilled with a hoe,
for fear of the thorns and briers.
Those hills will be places for oxen to graze
and for sheep to trample.

8 Then the Lord said to me, "Take a large piece of parchment and write on it with an ordinary pen: Maher-shalal-hash-baz. ² I have appointed trustworthy witnesses — the priest Uriah and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah."

³ I was then intimate with the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. The Lord said to me, "Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz, ⁴ for before the boy knows how to call 'Father,' or 'Mother,' the wealth of Damascus and the spoils of Samaria will be carried off to the king of Assyria."

⁵ The Lord spoke to me again:

⁶ Because these people rejected the slowly flowing water of Shiloah and rejoiced with Rezin
and the son of Remaliah,

⁷ the Lord will certainly bring against them
the mighty rushing water of the Euphrates River —
the king of Assyria and all his glory.
It will overflow its channels
and spill over all its banks.

⁸ It will pour into Judah, flood over it, and sweep through,
reaching up to the neck;

and its flooded banks
will fill your entire land, Immanuel!

⁹ Band together, peoples, and be broken;
pay attention, all you distant lands;
prepare for war, and be broken;
prepare for war, and be broken.

¹⁰ Devise a plan; it will fail.
Make a prediction; it will not happen.
For God is with us.

¹¹ For this is what the Lord said to me with great power,
to keep me from going the way of this people:

¹² Do not call everything a conspiracy
these people say is a conspiracy.
Do not fear what they fear;
do not be terrified.

¹³ You are to regard only the Lord of Armies as holy.
Only he should be feared;
only he should be held in awe.

¹⁴ He will be a sanctuary;
but for the two houses of Israel,
he will be a stone to stumble over
and a rock to trip over,
and a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

¹⁵ Many will stumble over these;
they will fall and be broken;
they will be snared and captured.

¹⁶ Bind up the testimony.
Seal up the instruction among my disciples.

¹⁷ I will wait for the Lord,
who is hiding his face from the house of Jacob.
I will wait for him.

¹⁸ Here I am with the children the Lord has given me to be signs and wonders in Israel from the Lord of Armies who dwells on Mount Zion. ¹⁹ When they say to you, "Inquire of the mediums and the spiritists who chirp and mutter," shouldn't a people inquire of their God? Should they inquire of the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰ Go to God's instruction and testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, there will be no dawn for them.

²¹ They will wander through the land, dejected and hungry. When they are famished, they will become enraged, and, looking upward, will curse their king and their God. ²² They will look toward the earth and see only distress, darkness, and the gloom of affliction, and they will be driven into thick darkness.

9 Nevertheless, the gloom of the distressed land will not be like that of the former times when he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali. But in the future he will bring honor to the way of the sea, to the land east of the Jordan, and to Galilee of the nations.

² The people walking in darkness
have seen a great light;
a light has dawned
on those living in the land of darkness.

³ You have enlarged the nation and increased its joy.
The people have rejoiced before you
as they rejoice at harvest time
and as they rejoice when dividing spoils.

⁴ For you have shattered their oppressive yoke
and the rod on their shoulders,
the staff of their oppressor,
just as you did on the day of Midian.

⁵ For every trampling boot of battle and the bloodied garments of war will be burned as fuel for the fire.

6 For a child will be born for us,
a son will be given to us,
and the government will be on his shoulders.
He will be named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.

7 The dominion will be vast,
and its prosperity will never end.
He will reign on the throne of David and over his kingdom,
to establish and sustain it with justice and righteousness from now on and forever.
The zeal of the Lord of Armies will accomplish this.

8 The Lord sent a message against Jacob;
it came against Israel.

9 All the people —
Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria — will know it.
They will say with pride and arrogance:

10 “The bricks have fallen,
but we will rebuild with cut stones;
the sycamores have been cut down,
but we will replace them with cedars.”

11 The Lord has raised up Rezin’s adversaries against him
and stirred up his enemies.

12 Aram from the east and Philistia from the west have consumed Israel with open mouths.
In all this, his anger has not turned away,
and his hand is still raised to strike.

13 The people did not turn to him who struck them;
they did not seek the Lord of Armies.

14 So the Lord cut off Israel’s head and tail,
palm branch and reed in a single day.

15 The head is the elder, the honored one;
the tail is the prophet, the one teaching lies.

16 The leaders of the people mislead them,
and those they mislead are swallowed up.

17 Therefore the Lord does not rejoice over Israel’s young men and has no compassion
on its fatherless and widows,
for everyone is a godless evildoer,
and every mouth speaks folly.
In all this, his anger has not turned away,
and his hand is still raised to strike.

18 For wickedness burns like a fire that consumes thorns and briars
and kindles the forest thickets
so that they go up in a column of smoke.

19 The land is scorched
by the wrath of the Lord of Armies,
and the people are like fuel for the fire.
No one has compassion on his brother.

20 They carve meat on the right,
but they are still hungry;
they have eaten on the left,
but they are still not satisfied.
Each one eats the flesh of his own arm.

21 Manasseh is with Ephraim,
and Ephraim with Manasseh;
together, both are against Judah.

10 In all this, his anger has not turned away,
and his hand is still raised to strike.
Woe to those enacting crooked statutes and writing oppressive laws

2 to keep the poor from getting a fair trial and to deprive the needy among my people
of justice,
so that widows can be their spoil
and they can plunder the fatherless.

3 What will you do on the day of punishment
when devastation comes from far away?
Who will you run to for help?
Where will you leave your wealth?

4 There will be nothing to do except crouch among the prisoners or fall among the slain.
In all this, his anger has not turned away,
and his hand is still raised to strike.

5 Woe to Assyria, the rod of my anger —
the staff in their hands is my wrath.

6 I will send him against a godless nation;
I will command him to go against a people destined for my rage,
to take spoils, to plunder,
and to trample them down like clay in the streets.

7 But this is not what he intends;
this is not what he plans.
It is his intent to destroy
and to cut off many nations.

8 For he says,
“Aren’t all my commanders kings?
Isn’t Calno like Carchemish?
Isn’t Hamath like Arpad?
Isn’t Samaria like Damascus?”

10 As my hand seized the idolatrous kingdoms, whose idols exceeded those of Jerusalem and Samaria,
11 and as I did to Samaria and its worthless images will I not also do to Jerusalem and its idols?”

12 But when the Lord finishes all his work against Mount Zion and Jerusalem, he will say, “I will punish the king of Assyria for his arrogant acts and the proud look in his eyes.”

13 For he said:
I have done this by my own strength
and wisdom, for I am clever.
I abolished the borders of nations and plundered their treasures;
like a mighty warrior, I subjugated
the inhabitants.

14 My hand has reached out, as if into a nest,
to seize the wealth of the nations.
Like one gathering abandoned eggs,
I gathered the whole earth.
No wing fluttered;
no beak opened or chirped.

15 Does an ax exalt itself above the one who chops with it?
Does a saw magnify itself
above the one who saws with it?
It would be like a rod waving the one who lifts it!
It would be like a staff lifting the one who isn’t wood!

16 Therefore the Lord God of Armies will inflict an emaciating disease
on the well-fed of Assyria,

and he will kindle a burning fire under its glory.

17 Israel's Light will become a fire, and its Holy One, a flame. In one day it will burn and consume Assyria's thorns and thistles.

18 He will completely destroy the glory of its forests and orchards as a sickness consumes a person.

19 The remaining trees of its forest will be so few in number that a child could count them.

20 On that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no longer depend on the one who struck them, but they will faithfully depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

21 The remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the Mighty God.

22 Israel, even if your people were as numerous as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction has been decreed; justice overflows.

23 For throughout the land the Lord God of Armies is carrying out a destruction that was decreed.

24 Therefore, the Lord God of Armies says this: "My people who dwell in Zion, do not fear Assyria, though they strike you with a rod and raise their staff over you as the Egyptians did. 25 In just a little while my wrath will be spent and my anger will turn to their destruction." 26 And the Lord of Armies will brandish a whip against him as he did when he struck Midian at the rock of Oreb; and he will raise his staff over the sea as he did in Egypt.

27 On that day his burden will fall from your shoulders, and his yoke from your neck. The yoke will be broken because your neck will be too large.

28 Assyria has come to Aiath and has gone through Migron, storing their equipment at Michmash.

29 They crossed over at the ford, saying, "We will spend the night at Geba." The people of Ramah are trembling; those at Gibeah of Saul have fled.

30 Cry aloud, daughter of Gallim! Listen, Laishah! Anathoth is miserable.

31 Madmenah has fled. The inhabitants of Gebim have sought refuge.

32 Today the Assyrians will stand at Nob, shaking their fists at the mountain of Daughter Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Look, the Lord God of Armies will chop off the branches with terrifying power, and the tall trees will be cut down, the high trees felled.

34 He is clearing the thickets of the forest with an ax, and Lebanon with its majesty will fall.

11 Then a shoot will grow from the stump of Jesse, and a branch from his roots will bear fruit.

2 The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him— a Spirit of wisdom and understanding, a Spirit of counsel and strength, a Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD.

3 His delight will be in the fear of the LORD. He will not judge by what he sees with his eyes, he will not execute justice by what he hears with his ears,

4 but he will judge the poor righteously and execute justice for the oppressed of the land. He will strike the land with a scepter from his mouth, and he will kill the wicked with a command from his lips.

5 Righteousness will be a belt around his hips; faithfulness will be a belt around his waist.

6 The wolf will dwell with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the goat. The calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf will be together, and a child will lead them.

7 The cow and the bear will graze, their young ones will lie down together, and the lion will eat straw like cattle.

8 An infant will play beside the cobra's pit, and a toddler will put his hand into a snake's den.

9 They will not harm or destroy each other on my entire holy mountain, for the land will be as full of the knowledge of the LORD as the sea is filled with water.

10 On that day the root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples. The nations will look to him for guidance, and his resting place will be glorious.

11 On that day the LORD will extend his hand a second time to recover the remnant of his people who survive— from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and the coasts and islands of the west.

12 He will lift up a banner for the nations and gather the dispersed of Israel; he will collect the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

13 Ephraim's envy will cease; Judah's harassing will end. Ephraim will no longer be envious of Judah, and Judah will not harass Ephraim.

14 But they will swoop down on the Philistine flank to the west. Together they will plunder the people of the east. They will extend their power over Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites will be their subjects.

15 The LORD will divide the Gulf of Suez. He will wave his hand over the Euphrates with his mighty wind and will split it into seven streams, letting people walk through on foot.

16 There will be a highway for the remnant of his people who will survive from Assyria, as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt. On that day you will say: "I will give thanks to you, LORD, although you were angry with me. Your anger has turned away, and you have comforted me.

- 2 Indeed, God is my salvation;
I will trust him and not be afraid,
for the LORD, the LORD himself,
is my strength and my song.
He has become my salvation.”
- 3 You will joyfully draw water from the springs of salvation,
and on that day you will say:
“Give thanks to the LORD; proclaim his name!
Make his works known among the peoples.
Declare that his name is exalted.
- 5 Sing to the LORD, for he has done glorious things.
Let this be known throughout the earth.
- 6 Cry out and sing, citizen of Zion,
for the Holy One of Israel is among you
in his greatness.”

13 A pronouncement concerning Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw:

- 2 Lift up a banner on a barren mountain.
Call out to them.
Signal with your hand, and they will go through the gates of the nobles.
- 3 I have commanded my consecrated ones;
yes, I have called my warriors,
who celebrate my triumph,
to execute my wrath.
- 4 Listen, a commotion on the mountains,
like that of a mighty people!
Listen, an uproar among the kingdoms,
like nations being gathered together!
The LORD of Armies is mobilizing an army for war.
- 5 They are coming from a distant land,
from the farthest horizon —
the LORD and the weapons of his wrath —
to destroy the whole country.
- 6 Wail! For the day of the LORD is near.
It will come as destruction from the Almighty.
Therefore everyone's hands will become weak,
and every man will lose heart.
- 8 They will be horrified;
pain and agony will seize them;
they will be in anguish like a woman in labor.
They will look at each other,
their faces flushed with fear.
- 9 Look, the day of the LORD is coming — cruel, with rage and burning anger — to make the earth a desolation
and to destroy its sinners.
- 10 Indeed, the stars of the sky and its constellations
will not give their light.
The sun will be dark when it rises,
and the moon will not shine.
- 11 I will punish the world for its evil,
and wicked people for their iniquities.
I will put an end to the pride of the arrogant and humiliate the insolence of tyrants.
- 12 I will make a human more scarce than fine gold,
and mankind more rare than the gold of Ophir.
- 13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble,
and the earth will shake from its foundations
at the wrath of the LORD of Armies,
on the day of his burning anger.
- 14 Like wandering gazelles
and like sheep without a shepherd,

each one will turn to his own people,
each one will flee to his own land.

- 15 Whoever is found will be stabbed,
and whoever is caught will die by the sword.
- 16 Their children will be dashed to pieces
before their eyes;
their houses will be looted,
and their wives raped.
- 17 Look! I am stirring up the Medes against them, who cannot be bought off with silver and who have no desire for gold.
- 18 Their bows will cut young men to pieces.
They will have no compassion on offspring;
they will not look with pity on children.
- 19 And Babylon, the jewel of the kingdoms,
the glory of the pride of the Chaldeans,
will be like Sodom and Gomorrah
when God overthrew them.
- 20 It will never be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation;
a nomad will not pitch his tent there,
and shepherds will not let their flocks rest there.
- 21 But desert creatures will lie down there,
and owls will fill the houses.
Ostriches will dwell there,
and wild goats will leap about.
- 22 Hyenas will howl in the fortresses,
and jackals, in the luxurious palaces.
Babylon's time is almost up;
her days are almost over.

14 For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will choose Israel again. He will settle them on their own land. The resident alien will join them and be united with the house of Jacob.² The nations will escort Israel and bring it to its homeland. Then the house of Israel will possess them as male and female slaves in the LORD's land. They will make captives of their captors and will rule over their oppressors.

- ³When the LORD gives you rest from your pain, torment, and the hard labor you were forced to do, ⁴you will sing this song of contempt about the king of Babylon and say:
How the oppressor has quieted down,
and how the raging has become quiet!
- 5 The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked,
the scepter of the rulers.
- 6 It struck the peoples in anger
with unceasing blows.
It subdued the nations in rage
with relentless persecution.
- 7 The whole earth is calm and at rest;
people shout with a ringing cry.
- 8 Even the cypresses and the cedars of Lebanon
rejoice over you:
“Since you have been laid low,
no lumberjack has come against us.”
- 9 Sheol below is eager to greet your coming,
stirring up the spirits of the departed for you —
all the rulers of the earth — making all the kings of the nations rise from their thrones.
- 10 They all respond to you, saying, “You too have become as weak as we are;
you have become like us!
- 11 Your splendor has been brought down to Sheol,
along with the music of your harps.

Maggots are spread out under you,
and worms cover you.”

12 Shining morning star,
how you have fallen from the heavens!
You destroyer of nations,
you have been cut down to the ground.

13 You said to yourself,
“I will ascend to the heavens;
I will set up my throne
above the stars of God.
I will sit on the mount of the gods’ assembly,
in the remotest parts of the North.

14 I will ascend above the highest clouds;
I will make myself like the Most High.”

15 But you will be brought down to Sheol into the deepest regions of the Pit.

16 Those who see you will stare at you;
they will look closely at you:
“Is this the man who caused the earth to tremble,
who shook the kingdoms,
17 who turned the world into a wilderness,
who destroyed its cities
and would not release the prisoners to return home?”

18 All the kings of the nations lie in splendor, each in his own tomb.

19 But you are thrown out without a grave,
like a worthless branch,
covered by those slain with the sword and dumped into a rocky pit
like a trampled corpse.

20 You will not join them in burial,
because you destroyed your land
and slaughtered your own people.
The offspring of evildoers
will never be mentioned again.

21 Prepare a place of slaughter for his sons,
because of the iniquity of their fathers.
They will never rise up to possess a land or fill the surface of the earth with cities.

22 “I will rise up against them” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies — “and I will cut off from Babylon her reputation, remnant, offspring, and posterity” — this is the LORD’s declaration. 23 “I will make her a swampland and a region for herons, and I will sweep her away with the broom of destruction.”

This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.

24 The LORD of Armies has sworn:
As I have purposed, so it will be;
as I have planned it, so it will happen.

25 I will break Assyria in my land;
I will tread him down on my mountain.
Then his yoke will be taken from them,
and his burden will be removed from their shoulders.

26 This is the plan prepared for the whole earth,
and this is the hand stretched out
against all the nations.

27 The LORD of Armies himself has planned it;
therefore, who can stand in its way?
It is his hand that is outstretched,
so who can turn it back?

28 In the year that King Ahaz died, this pronouncement came:

29 Don’t rejoice, all of you in Philistia, because the Rod of the one who struck you
is broken.
For a viper will come from the root of a snake,
and from its egg comes a flying serpent.

30 Then the firstborn of the poor will be well fed,
and the impoverished will lie down in safety,
but I will kill your root with hunger,
and your remnant will be slain.

31 Wail, you gates! Cry out, city!
Tremble with fear, all Philistia!
For a cloud of dust is coming from the north,
and there is no one missing from the invader’s ranks.

32 What answer will be given to the messengers
from that nation?
The LORD has founded Zion,
and his oppressed people find refuge in her.
A pronouncement concerning Moab:
Ar in Moab is devastated,
destroyed in a night.
Kir in Moab is devastated,
destroyed in a night.

2 Dibon went up to its temple
to weep at its high places.
Moab wails on Nebo and at Medeba.
Every head is shaved;
every beard is chopped short.

3 In its streets they wear sackcloth;
on its rooftops and in its public squares
everyone wails,
falling down and weeping.

4 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out;
their voices are heard as far away as Jahaz.
Therefore the soldiers of Moab cry out,
and they tremble.

5 My heart cries out over Moab, whose fugitives flee as far as Zoar,
to Eglath-sheishiyah;
they go up the Ascent of Luhith weeping;
they raise a cry of destruction
on the road to Horonaim.

6 The Waters of Nimrim are desolate;
the grass is withered, the foliage is gone,
and the vegetation has vanished.

7 So they carry their wealth and belongings
over the Wadi of the Willows.

8 For their cry echoes
throughout the territory of Moab.
Their wailing reaches Eglaim;
their wailing reaches Beer-elim.

9 The Waters of Dibon are full of blood, but I will bring on Dibon even more than this —
a lion for those who escape from Moab,
and for the survivors in the land.

16 Send lambs to the ruler of the land,
from Sela in the desert
to the mountain of Daughter Zion.

2 Like a bird fleeing,
forced from the nest,
the daughters of Moab
will be at the fords of the Arnon.

3 Give us counsel and make a decision.
Shelter us at noonday
with shade that is as dark as night.

Hide the refugees;
do not betray the one who flees.

- 4 Let my refugees stay with you;
be a refuge for Moab from the aggressor.
When the oppressor has gone,
destruction has ended,
and marauders have vanished from the land,
5 a throne will be established in love,
and one will sit on it faithfully
in the tent of David,
judging and pursuing what is right,
quick to execute justice.
- 6 We have heard of Moab's pride —
how very proud he is — his haughtiness, his pride, his arrogance,
and his empty boasting.
- 7 Therefore let Moab wail;
let every one of them wail for Moab.
You who are completely devastated, mourn
for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth.
- 8 For Heshbon's terraced vineyards
and the grapevines of Sibmah have withered.
The rulers of the nations have trampled its choice vines that reached as far as Jazer
and spread to the desert.
Their shoots spread out
and reached the sea.
- 9 So I join with Jazer
to weep for the vines of Sibmah;
I drench Heshbon and Elealeh with my tears.
Triumphant shouts have fallen silent
over your summer fruit and your harvest.
- 10 Joy and rejoicing have been removed from the orchard;
no one is singing or shouting for joy
in the vineyards.
No one tramples grapes in the winepresses.
I have put an end to the shouting.
- 11 Therefore I moan like the sound of a lyre for Moab,
as does my innermost being for Kir-heres.
- 12 When Moab appears and tires himself out on the high place
and comes to his sanctuary to pray,
it will do him no good.
- 13 This is the message that the LORD previously announced about Moab. 14 And now the LORD says, "In three years, as a hired worker counts years, Moab's splendor will become an object of contempt, in spite of a very large population. And those who are left will be few and weak."
- 17 A pronouncement concerning Damascus:
Look, Damascus is no longer a city.
It has become a ruined heap.
- 2 The cities of Aroer are abandoned;
they will be places for flocks.
They will lie down without fear.
- 3 The fortress disappears from Ephraim,
and a kingdom from Damascus.
The remnant of Aram will be like the splendor of the Israelites.
This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.
- 4 On that day
the splendor of Jacob will fade,
and his healthy body will become emaciated.

- 5 It will be as if a reaper had gathered standing grain —
his arm harvesting the heads of grain — and as if one had gleaned heads of grain
in the Valley of Rephaim.
- 6 Only gleanings will be left in Israel,
as if an olive tree had been beaten —
two or three olives at the very top of the tree,
four or five on its fruitful branches.
This is the declaration of the LORD,
the God of Israel.
- 7 On that day people will look to their Maker and will turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel. 8 They will not look to the altars they made with their hands or to the Asherahs and shrines they made with their fingers.
- 9 On that day their strong cities will be like the abandoned woods and mountaintops that were abandoned because of the Israelites;
there will be desolation.
- 10 For you have forgotten the God of your salvation,
and you have failed to remember
the rock of your strength;
therefore you will plant beautiful plants
and set out cuttings from exotic vines.
- 11 On the day that you plant,
you will help them to grow,
and in the morning
you will help your seed to sprout,
but the harvest will vanish
on the day of disease and incurable pain.
- 12 Ah! The roar of many peoples — they roar like the roaring of the seas.
The raging of the nations —
they rage like the rumble of rushing water.
- 13 The nations rage like the rumble of a huge torrent.
He rebukes them, and they flee far away,
driven before the wind like chaff on the hills
and like tumbleweeds before a gale.
- 14 In the evening — sudden terror!
Before morning — it is gone!
This is the fate of those who plunder us
and the lot of those who ravage us.

18

- Woe to the land of buzzing insect wings
beyond the rivers of Cush, 2 which sends envoys by sea,
in reed vessels over the water.
Go, swift messengers,
to a nation tall and smooth-skinned,
to a people feared far and near,
a powerful nation with a strange language,
whose land is divided by rivers.
- 3 All you inhabitants of the world
and you who live on the earth,
when a banner is raised on the mountains, look!
When a trumpet sounds, listen!
- 4 For the LORD said to me:
I will quietly look out from my place,
like shimmering heat in sunshine,
like a rain cloud in harvest heat.
- 5 For before the harvest, when the blossoming is over
and the blossom becomes a ripening grape,
he will cut off the shoots with a pruning knife,
and tear away and remove the branches.
- 6 They will all be left for the birds of prey on the hills and for the wild animals of the land.

The birds of prey will spend the summer feeding
on them,
and all the wild animals the winter.

⁷ At that time a gift will be brought to the LORD of Armies from a people tall and smooth-skinned, a people feared far and near, a powerful nation with a strange language, whose land is divided by rivers — to Mount Zion, the place of the name of the LORD of Armies.

- 19 A pronouncement concerning Egypt:
Look, the LORD rides on a swift cloud
and is coming to Egypt.
Egypt's idols will tremble before him,
and Egypt will lose heart.
- ² I will provoke Egyptians against Egyptians;
each will fight against his brother and each against his friend,
city against city, kingdom against kingdom.
- ³ Egypt's spirit will be disturbed within it,
and I will frustrate its plans.
Then they will inquire of idols, ghosts,
and spiritists.
- ⁴ I will hand over Egypt to harsh masters,
and a strong king will rule it.
This is the declaration of the Lord God of Armies.
- ⁵ The water of the sea will dry up,
and the river will be parched and dry.
- ⁶ The channels will stink;
they will dwindle, and Egypt's canals
will be parched.
Reed and rush will wither.
- ⁷ The reeds by the Nile, by the mouth of the river,
and all the cultivated areas of the Nile
will wither, blow away, and vanish.
- ⁸ Then the fishermen will mourn.
All those who cast hooks into the Nile will lament,
and those who spread nets on the water will give up.
- ⁹ Those who work with flax will be dismayed;
those combing it and weaving linen will turn pale.
- ¹⁰ Egypt's weavers will be dejected;
all her wage earners will be demoralized.
- ¹¹ The princes of Zoan are complete fools;
Pharaoh's wisest advisers give stupid advice!
How can you say to Pharaoh,
"I am one of the wise,
a student of eastern kings"?
- ¹² Where then are your wise men?
Let them tell you and reveal what the LORD of Armies has planned against Egypt.
- ¹³ The princes of Zoan have been fools;
the princes of Memphis are deceived.
Her tribal chieftains have led Egypt astray.
- ¹⁴ The LORD has mixed within her a spirit
of confusion.
The leaders have made Egypt stagger
in all she does,
as a drunkard staggers in his vomit.
- ¹⁵ No head or tail, palm or reed,
will be able to do anything for Egypt.
- ¹⁶ On that day Egypt will be like women and will tremble with fear because of the threatening hand of the LORD of Armies when he raises it against them. ¹⁷ The land of Judah will terrify Egypt; whenever Judah is mentioned,

Egypt will tremble because of what the LORD of Armies has planned against it.

¹⁸ On that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear loyalty to the LORD of Armies. One of the cities will be called the City of the Sun.

¹⁹ On that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the center of the land of Egypt and a pillar to the LORD near her border. ²⁰ It will be a sign and witness to the LORD of Armies in the land of Egypt. When they cry out to the LORD because of their oppressors, he will send them a savior and leader, and he will rescue them. ²¹ The LORD will make himself known to Egypt, and Egypt will know the LORD on that day. They will offer sacrifices and offerings; they will make vows to the LORD and fulfill them. ²² The LORD will strike Egypt, striking and healing. Then they will turn to the LORD and he will be receptive to their prayers and heal them.

²³ On that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. Assyria will go to Egypt, Egypt to Assyria, and Egypt will worship with Assyria.

²⁴ On that day Israel will form a triple alliance with Egypt and Assyria — a blessing within the land. ²⁵ The LORD of Armies will bless them, saying, "Egypt my people, Assyria my handiwork, and Israel my inheritance are blessed."

20 In the year that the chief commander, sent by King Sargon of Assyria, came to Ashdod and attacked and captured it — ² during that time the LORD had spoken through Isaiah son of Amoz, saying, "Go, take off your sackcloth and remove the sandals from your feet," and he did that, going stripped and barefoot — ³ the LORD said, "As my servant Isaiah has gone stripped and barefoot three years as a sign and omen against Egypt and Cush, ⁴ so the king of Assyria will lead the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old alike, stripped and barefoot, with bared buttocks — to Egypt's shame. ⁵ Those who made Cush their hope and Egypt their boast will be dismayed and ashamed. ⁶ And the inhabitants of this coastland will say on that day, 'Look, this is what has happened to those we relied on and fled to for help to rescue us from the king of Assyria! Now, how will we escape?'"

- 21 A pronouncement concerning the desert by the sea:
Like storms that pass over the Negev, it comes from the desert, from the land of terror.
- ² A troubling vision is declared to me:
"The treacherous one acts treacherously,
and the destroyer destroys.
Advance, Elam! Lay siege, you Medes!
I will put an end to all the groaning."
³ Therefore I am filled with anguish.
Pain grips me, like the pain of a woman in labor.
I am too perplexed to hear,
too dismayed to see.
- ⁴ My heart staggers;
horror terrifies me.
He has turned my last glimmer of hope into sheer terror.
- ⁵ Prepare a table, and spread out a carpet!
Eat and drink!
Rise up, you princes, and oil the shields!
⁶ For the Lord has said to me,
"Go, post a lookout;
let him report what he sees."
⁷ When he sees riders —
pairs of horsemen,
riders on donkeys,

riders on camels —
he must pay close attention.”

8 Then the lookout reported,
“Lord, I stand on the watchtower all day,
and I stay at my post all night.

9 Look, riders come — horsemen in pairs.”
And he answered, saying,
“Babylon has fallen, has fallen.
All the images of her gods
have been shattered on the ground.”

10 My people who have been crushed
on the threshing floor,
I have declared to you
what I have heard from the LORD of Armies,
the God of Israel.

11 A pronouncement concerning Dumah:
One calls to me from Seir,
“Watchman, what is left of the night?
Watchman, what is left of the night?”

12 The watchman said,
“Morning has come, and also night.
If you want to ask, ask!
Come back again.”

13 A pronouncement concerning Arabia:
In the desert brush
you will camp for the night,
you caravans of Dedanites.

14 Bring water for the thirsty.
The inhabitants of the land of Tema
meet the refugees with food.

15 For they have fled from swords,
from the drawn sword,
from the bow that is strung,
and from the stress of battle.

16 For the Lord said this to me: “Within one year, as a hired worker counts years, all the glory of Kedar will be gone.
17 The remaining Kedarite archers will be few in number.”
For the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

22 A pronouncement concerning the Valley of Vision:
What’s the matter with you?
Why have all of you gone up to the rooftops?

2 The noisy city, the jubilant town,
is filled with celebration.
Your dead did not die by the sword;
they were not killed in battle.

3 All your rulers have fled together,
captured without a bow.
All your fugitives were captured together;
they had fled far away.

4 Therefore I said,
“Look away from me! Let me weep bitterly!
Do not try to comfort me
about the destruction of my dear people.”

5 For the Lord God of Armies had a day of tumult, trampling, and confusion in the Valley of Vision —
people shouting and crying to the mountains;

6 Elam took up a quiver
with chariots and horsemen,
and Kir uncovered the shield.

7 Your best valleys were full of chariots, and horsemen were positioned
at the city gates.

8 He removed the defenses of Judah.

On that day you looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest. 9 You saw that there were many breaches in the walls of the city of David. You collected water from the lower pool. 10 You counted the houses of Jerusalem so that you could tear them down to fortify the wall. 11 You made a reservoir between the walls for the water of the ancient pool, but you did not look to the one who made it, or consider the one who created it long ago.

12 On that day the Lord God of Armies called for weeping, for wailing, for shaven heads,
and for the wearing of sackcloth.

13 But look: joy and gladness, butchering of cattle, slaughtering of sheep and goats,
eating of meat, and drinking of wine —
“Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!”

14 The LORD of Armies has directly revealed to me:
“This iniquity will not be wiped out for you people
as long as you live.”

The Lord God of Armies has spoken.
15 The Lord God of Armies said: “Go to Shebna, that steward who is in charge of the palace, and say to him: 16 What are you doing here? Who authorized you to carve out a tomb for yourself here, carving your tomb on the height and cutting a resting place for yourself out of rock? 17 Look, you strong man! The LORD is about to shake you violently. He will take hold of you, 18 wind you up into a ball, and sling you into a wide land. There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will be — a disgrace to the house of your lord. 19 I will remove you from your office; you will be ousted from your position.

20 “On that day I will call for my servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah. 21 I will clothe him with your robe and tie your sash around him. I will hand your authority over to him, and he will be like a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. 22 I will place the key of the house of David on his shoulder; what he opens, no one can close;
what he closes, no one can open. 23 I will drive him, like a peg, into a firm place. He will be a throne of honor for his father’s family. 24 They will hang on him all the glory of his father’s family: the descendants and the offshoots — all the small vessels, from bowls to every kind of jar. 25 On that day” — the declaration of the LORD of Armies — “the peg that was driven into a firm place will give way, be cut off, and fall, and the load on it will be destroyed.” Indeed, the LORD has spoken.

23 A pronouncement concerning Tyre:
Wail, ships of Tarshish,
for your haven has been destroyed.
Word has reached them from the land of Cyprus.

2 Mourn, inhabitants of the coastland,
you merchants of Sidon;
your agents have crossed the sea
over deep water.

3 Tyre’s revenue was the grain from Shihor —
the harvest of the Nile.
She was the merchant among the nations.

4 Be ashamed, Sidon, the stronghold of the sea,
for the sea has spoken:
“I have not been in labor or given birth.
I have not raised young men or brought up young women.”

5 When the news reaches Egypt,
they will be in anguish over the news about Tyre.

6 Cross over to Tarshish;

- wail, inhabitants of the coastland!
- 7 Is this your jubilant city,
whose origin was in ancient times,
whose feet have taken her
to reside far away?
- 8 Who planned this against Tyre,
the bestower of crowns,
whose traders are princes,
whose merchants are the honored ones
of the earth?
- 9 The LORD of Armies planned it,
to desecrate all its glorious beauty,
to disgrace all the honored ones of the earth.
- 10 Overflow your land like the Nile,
daughter of Tarshish;
there is no longer anything to restrain you.
- 11 He stretched out his hand over the sea;
he made kingdoms tremble.
The LORD has commanded that the Canaanite fortresses be destroyed.
- 12 He said,
"You will not celebrate anymore,
ravished young woman, daughter of Sidon.
Get up and cross over to Cyprus —
even there you will have no rest!"
- 13 Look at the land of the Chaldeans —
a people who no longer exist.
Assyria destined it for desert creatures.
They set up their siege towers
and stripped its palaces.
They made it a ruin.
- 14 Wail, ships of Tarshish,
because your fortress is destroyed!
- 15 On that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years
— the life span of one king. At the end of seventy years, what the song says about the prostitute will happen to Tyre:
- 16 Pick up your lyre,
stroll through the city,
you forgotten prostitute.
Play skillfully,
sing many a song
so that you will be remembered.
- 17 And at the end of the seventy years, the LORD will restore Tyre and she will go back into business, prostituting herself with all the kingdoms of the world throughout the earth. 18 But her profits and wages will be dedicated to the LORD. They will not be stored or saved, for her profit will go to those who live in the LORD's presence, to provide them with ample food and sacred clothing.
- 24 Look, the LORD is stripping the earth bare and making it desolate.
He will twist its surface and scatter
its inhabitants:
- 2 people and priest alike,
servant and master,
female servant and mistress,
buyer and seller,
lender and borrower,
creditor and debtor.
- 3 The earth will be stripped completely bare and will be totally plundered,
for the LORD has spoken this message.
- 4 The earth mourns and withers;
the world wastes away and withers;
the exalted people of the earth waste away.
- 5 The earth is polluted by its inhabitants,
for they have transgressed teachings,
overstepped decrees,
and broken the permanent covenant.
- 6 Therefore a curse has consumed the earth,
and its inhabitants have become guilty;
the earth's inhabitants have been burned,
and only a few survive.
- 7 The new wine mourns;
the vine withers.
All the carousers now groan.
- 8 The joyful tambourines have ceased.
The noise of the jubilant has stopped.
The joyful lyre has ceased.
- 9 They no longer sing and drink wine;
beer is bitter to those who drink it.
- 10 The city of chaos is shattered;
every house is closed to entry.
- 11 In the streets they cry for wine.
All joy grows dark;
earth's rejoicing goes into exile.
- 12 Only desolation remains in the city;
its gate has collapsed in ruins.
- 13 For this is how it will be on earth
among the nations:
like a harvested olive tree,
like a gleaner after a grape harvest.
- 14 They raise their voices, they sing out;
they proclaim in the west
the majesty of the LORD.
- 15 Therefore, in the east honor the LORD!
In the coasts and islands of the west
honor the name of the LORD,
the God of Israel.
- 16 From the ends of the earth we hear songs:
The Splendor of the Righteous One.
But I said, "I waste away! I waste away!
Woe is me."
The treacherous act treacherously;
the treacherous deal very treacherously.
- 17 Panic, pit, and trap await you who dwell on the earth.
- 18 Whoever flees at the sound of panic
will fall into a pit,
and whoever escapes from the pit
will be caught in a trap.
For the windows on high are opened,
and the foundations of the earth are shaken.
- 19 The earth is completely devastated;
the earth is split open;
the earth is violently shaken.
- 20 The earth staggers like a drunkard and sways like a hut.
Earth's rebellion weighs it down,
and it falls, never to rise again.
- 21 On that day the LORD will punish the army of the heights in the heights and the kings of the ground on the ground.
- 22 They will be gathered together
like prisoners in a pit.
They will be confined to a dungeon;
after many days they will be punished.
- 23 The moon will be put to shame
and the sun disgraced,
because the LORD of Armies will reign as king

on Mount Zion in Jerusalem, and he will display his glory
in the presence of his elders.

- 25 LORD, you are my God;
I will exalt you. I will praise your name, for you have accomplished wonders,
plans formed long ago, with perfect faithfulness.
- 2 For you have turned the city into a pile of rocks,
a fortified city, into ruins;
the fortress of barbarians is no longer a city;
it will never be rebuilt.
- 3 Therefore, a strong people will honor you.
The cities of violent nations will fear you.
- 4 For you have been a stronghold for the poor person,
a stronghold for the needy in his distress,
a refuge from storms and a shade from heat.
When the breath of the violent is like a storm against a wall, 5 like heat in a dry land,
you will subdue the uproar of barbarians.
As the shade of a cloud cools the heat of the day,
so he will silence the song of the violent.
- 6 On this mountain,
the LORD of Armies will prepare for all the peoples
a feast of choice meat,
a feast with aged wine, prime cuts of choice meat,
fine vintage wine.
- 7 On this mountain
he will destroy the burial shroud,
the shroud over all the peoples,
the sheet covering all the nations;
8 he will destroy death forever.
The Lord God will wipe away the tears from every face
and remove his people's disgrace
from the whole earth,
for the LORD has spoken.
- 9 On that day it will be said,
"Look, this is our God;
we have waited for him, and he has saved us.
This is the LORD; we have waited for him.
Let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation."
10 For the LORD's power will rest on this mountain.
But Moab will be trampled in his place
as straw is trampled in a dung pile.
- 11 He will spread out his arms in the middle of it,
as a swimmer spreads out his arms to swim.
His pride will be brought low,
along with the trickery of his hands.
- 12 The high-walled fortress will be brought down, thrown to the ground, to the dust.
- 26 On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:
We have a strong city.
Salvation is established as walls and ramparts.
- 2 Open the gates
so a righteous nation can come in —
one that remains faithful.
- 3 You will keep the mind that is dependent on you
in perfect peace,
for it is trusting in you.
- 4 Trust in the LORD forever, because in the LORD, the LORD himself, is an everlasting rock!

- 5 For he has humbled those who live
in lofty places —
an inaccessible city.
He brings it down; he brings it down
to the ground;
he throws it to the dust.
- 6 Feet trample it,
the feet of the humble,
the steps of the poor.
- 7 The path of the righteous is level;
you clear a straight path for the righteous.
- 8 Yes, LORD, we wait for you in the path of your judgments.
Our desire is for your name and renown.
- 9 I long for you in the night;
yes, my spirit within me diligently seeks you,
for when your judgments are in the land,
the inhabitants of the world
will learn righteousness.
- 10 But if the wicked man is shown favor,
he does not learn righteousness.
In a righteous land he acts unjustly and does not see the majesty of the LORD.
- 11 LORD, your hand is lifted up to take action,
but they do not see it.
Let them see your zeal for your people
and be put to shame.
Let fire consume your adversaries.
- 12 LORD, you will establish peace for us,
for you have also done all our work for us.
- 13 LORD our God, lords other than you have owned us,
but we remember your name alone.
- 14 The dead do not live;
departed spirits do not rise up.
Indeed, you have punished
and destroyed them;
you have wiped out all memory of them.
- 15 You have added to the nation, LORD.
You have added to the nation;
you are honored.
You have expanded all the borders of the land.
- 16 LORD, they went to you in their distress;
they poured out whispered prayers
because your discipline fell on them.
- 17 As a pregnant woman about to give birth
writhes and cries out in her pains,
so we were before you, LORD.
- 18 We became pregnant, we writhed in pain;
we gave birth to wind.
We have won no victories on earth,
and the earth's inhabitants have not fallen.
- 19 Your dead will live; their bodies will rise.
Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust!
For you will be covered with the morning dew,
and the earth will bring out the departed spirits.
- 20 Go, my people, enter your rooms
and close your doors behind you.
Hide for a little while until the wrath
has passed.
- 21 For look, the LORD is coming from his place
to punish the inhabitants of the earth
for their iniquity.
The earth will reveal the blood shed on it
and will no longer conceal her slain.

27 On that day the LORD with his relentless, large, strong sword will bring judgment on Leviathan, the fleeing serpent—Leviathan, the twisting serpent. He will slay the monster that is in the sea.

- ² On that day
sing about a desirable vineyard:
³ I am the LORD, who watches over it
to water it regularly.
So that no one disturbs it,
I watch over it night and day.
⁴ I am not angry.
If only there were thorns and briars for me to battle,
I would trample them
and burn them to the ground.
⁵ Or let it take hold of my strength;
let it make peace with me—
make peace with me.
⁶ In days to come, Jacob will take root.
Israel will blossom and bloom
and fill the whole world with fruit.
⁷ Did the LORD strike Israel
as he struck the one who struck Israel?
Was Israel killed like those killed by the LORD?
⁸ You disputed with Israel
by banishing and driving her away.
He removed her with his severe storm
on the day of the east wind.
⁹ Therefore Jacob's iniquity will be atoned for
in this way,
and the result of the removal of his sin will be this:
when he makes all the altar stones
like crushed bits of chalk,
no Asherah poles or incense altars
will remain standing.
¹⁰ For the fortified city will be desolate, pastures deserted and abandoned
like a wilderness.
Calves will graze there,
and there they will spread out and strip
its branches.
¹¹ When its branches dry out, they will be broken off.
Women will come and make fires with them,
for they are not a people with understanding.
Therefore their Maker will not have compassion
on them,
and their Creator will not be gracious to them.
¹² On that day
the LORD will thresh grain
from the Euphrates River
as far as the Wadi of Egypt,
and you Israelites will be gathered one by one.
¹³ On that day
a great trumpet will be blown,
and those lost in the land of Assyria will come,
as well as those dispersed in the land of Egypt;
and they will worship the LORD
at Jerusalem on the holy mountain.

28 Woe to the majestic crown of Ephraim's drunkards,
and to the fading flower of its beautiful splendor,
which is on the summit above the rich valley.
Woe to those overcome with wine.

- ² Look, the Lord has a strong and mighty one—
like a devastating hail storm,

like a storm with strong flooding water.

He will bring it across the land with his hand.

- ³ The majestic crown of Ephraim's drunkards will be trampled underfoot.
⁴ The fading flower of his beautiful splendor,
which is on the summit above the rich valley,
will be like a ripe fig before the summer harvest.
Whoever sees it will swallow it while it is still in his hand.
⁵ On that day
the LORD of Armies will become a crown of beauty and a diadem of splendor
to the remnant of his people, ⁶ a spirit of justice
to the one who sits in judgment,
and strength
to those who repel attacks at the city gate.
⁷ Even these stagger because of wine and stumble under the influence of beer:
priest and prophet stagger because of beer,
they are confused by wine.
They stumble because of beer,
they are muddled in their visions,
they stumble in their judgments.
⁸ Indeed, all their tables are covered with vomit;
there is no place without a stench.
⁹ Who is he trying to teach?
Who is he trying to instruct?
Infants just weaned from milk?
Babies removed from the breast?
¹⁰ "Law after law, law after law,
line after line, line after line,
a little here, a little there."
¹¹ For he will speak to this people with stammering speech
and in a foreign language.
¹² He had said to them:
"This is the place of rest;
let the weary rest;
this is the place of repose."
But they would not listen.
¹³ The word of the LORD will come to them:
"Law after law, law after law,
line after line, line after line,
a little here, a little there,"
so they go stumbling backward,
to be broken, trapped, and captured.
¹⁴ Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers who rule this people in Jerusalem.
¹⁵ For you said, "We have made a covenant with Death,
and we have an agreement with Sheol;
when the overwhelming catastrophe passes through,
it will not touch us,
because we have made falsehood our refuge
and have hidden behind treachery."
¹⁶ Therefore the Lord God said:
"Look, I have laid a stone in Zion,
a tested stone,
a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation;
the one who believes will be unshakable.
¹⁷ And I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the mason's level."
Hail will sweep away the false refuge,

and water will flood your hiding place.

18 Your covenant with Death will be dissolved, and your agreement with Sheol will not last. When the overwhelming catastrophe passes through, you will be trampled.

19 Every time it passes through, it will carry you away; it will pass through every morning — every day and every night. Only terror will cause you to understand the message.

20 Indeed, the bed is too short to stretch out on, and its cover too small to wrap up in.

21 For the LORD will rise up as he did at Mount Perazim. He will rise in wrath, as at the Valley of Gibeon, to do his work, his unexpected work, and to perform his task, his unfamiliar task.

22 So now, do not scoff, or your shackles will become stronger. Indeed, I have heard from the Lord God of Armies a decree of destruction for the whole land.

23 Listen and hear my voice. Pay attention and hear what I say.

24 Does the plowman plow every day to plant seed? Does he continuously break up and cultivate the soil?

25 When he has leveled its surface, does he not then scatter black cummin and sow cummin? He plants wheat in rows and barley in plots, with spelt as their border.

26 His God teaches him order; he instructs him.

27 Certainly black cummin is not threshed with a threshing board, and a cart wheel is not rolled over the cummin. But black cummin is beaten out with a stick, and cummin with a rod.

28 Bread grain is crushed, but is not threshed endlessly. Though the wheel of the farmer's cart rumbles, his horses do not crush it.

29 This also comes from the LORD of Armies. He gives wondrous advice; he gives great wisdom.

29 Woe to Ariel, Ariel, the city where David camped! Continue year after year; let the festivals recur.

2 I will oppress Ariel, and there will be mourning and crying, and she will be to me like an Ariel.

3 I will camp in a circle around you; I will besiege you with earth ramps, and I will set up my siege towers against you.

4 You will be brought down; you will speak from the ground, and your words will come from low in the dust. Your voice will be like that of a spirit from the ground; your speech will whisper from the dust.

5 Your many foes will be like fine dust, and many of the ruthless, like blowing chaff.

Then suddenly, in an instant,

6 you will be punished by the LORD of Armies with thunder, earthquake, and loud noise, storm, tempest, and a flame of consuming fire.

7 All the many nations going out to battle against Ariel — all the attackers, the siege works against her, and those who oppress her — will then be like a dream, a vision in the night.

8 It will be like a hungry one who dreams he is eating, then wakes and is still hungry; and like a thirsty one who dreams he is drinking, then wakes and is still thirsty, longing for water. So it will be for all the many nations who go to battle against Mount Zion.

9 Stop and be astonished; blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunk, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with beer.

10 For the LORD has poured out on you an overwhelming urge to sleep; he has shut your eyes (the prophets) and covered your heads (the seers).

11 For you the entire vision will be like the words of a sealed document. If it is given to one who can read and he is asked to read it, he will say, "I can't read it, because it is sealed."

12 And if the document is given to one who cannot read and he is asked to read it, he will say, "I can't read."

13 The Lord said: These people approach me with their speeches to honor me with lip-service — yet their hearts are far from me, and human rules direct their worship of me.

14 Therefore, I will again confound these people with wonder after wonder. The wisdom of their wise will vanish, and the perception of their perceptive will be hidden.

15 Woe to those who go to great lengths to hide their plans from the LORD. They do their works in the dark, and say, "Who sees us? Who knows us?"

16 You have turned things around, as if the potter were the same as the clay. How can what is made say about its maker, "He didn't make me"? How can what is formed say about the one who formed it, "He doesn't understand what he's doing"?

17 Isn't it true that in just a little while Lebanon will become an orchard, and the orchard will seem like a forest?

18 On that day the deaf will hear the words of a document, and out of a deep darkness the eyes of the blind will see.

19 The humble will have joy after joy in the LORD, and the poor people will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the ruthless one will vanish, the scorner will disappear, and all those who lie in wait with evil intent will be killed —

- 21 those who, with their speech, accuse a person of wrongdoing,
who set a trap for the one mediating at the city gate
and without cause deprive the righteous
of justice.
- 22 Therefore, the LORD who redeemed Abraham says
this about the house of Jacob:
Jacob will no longer be ashamed,
and his face will no longer be pale.
- 23 For when he sees his children,
the work of my hands within his nation,
they will honor my name,
they will honor the Holy One of Jacob and stand in awe of the God of Israel.
- 24 Those who are confused will gain understanding,
and those who grumble will accept instruction.
- 30 Woe to the rebellious children!
This is the LORD's declaration.
They carry out a plan, but not mine;
they make an alliance,
but against my will,
piling sin on top of sin.
- 2 Without asking my advice they set out to go down to Egypt
in order to seek shelter
under Pharaoh's protection and take refuge in Egypt's shadow.
- 3 But Pharaoh's protection will become your shame,
and refuge in Egypt's shadow your humiliation.
- 4 For though his princes are at Zoan
and his messengers reach as far as Hanes, everyone will be ashamed
because of a people who can't help.
They are of no benefit, they are no help;
they are good for nothing but shame
and disgrace.
- 6 A pronouncement concerning the animals of the Negev:
Through a land of trouble and distress,
of lioness and lion,
of viper and flying serpent,
they carry their wealth on the backs of donkeys
and their treasures on the humps of camels,
to a people who will not help them.
- 7 Egypt's help is completely worthless;
therefore, I call her:
Rahab Who Just Sits.
- 8 Go now, write it on a tablet in their presence
and inscribe it on a scroll;
it will be for the future,
forever and ever.
- 9 They are a rebellious people,
deceptive children,
children who do not want to listen to the LORD's instruction.
- 10 They say to the seers, "Do not see,"
and to the prophets,
"Do not prophesy the truth to us.
Tell us flattering things.
Prophecy illusions.
- 11 Get out of the way!
Leave the pathway.
Rid us of the Holy One of Israel."
- 12 Therefore the Holy One of Israel says:
"Because you have rejected this message
and have trusted in oppression and deceit,
and have depended on them,
this iniquity of yours will be like a crumbling gap,
a bulge in a high wall
whose collapse will come in an instant — suddenly!
- 14 Its collapse will be like the shattering of a potter's jar, crushed to pieces,
so that not even a fragment of pottery will be found among its shattered remains — no fragment large enough to take fire from a hearth
or scoop water from a cistern."
- 15 For the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, has said:
"You will be delivered by returning and resting;
your strength will lie in quiet confidence.
But you are not willing."
- 16 You say, "No!
We will escape on horses" —
therefore you will escape! —
and, "We will ride on fast horses" —
but those who pursue you will be faster.
- 17 One thousand will flee at the threat of one,
at the threat of five you will flee,
until you remain
like a solitary pole on a mountaintop
or a banner on a hill.
- 18 Therefore the LORD is waiting to show you mercy,
and is rising up to show you compassion,
for the LORD is a just God.
All who wait patiently for him are happy.
- 19 For people will live on Zion in Jerusalem. You will never weep again; he will show favor to you at the sound of your outcry; as soon as he hears, he will answer you. 20 The Lord will give you meager bread and water during oppression, but your Teacher will not hide any longer. Your eyes will see your Teacher, 21 and whenever you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear this command behind you: "This is the way. Walk in it." 22 Then you will defile your silver-plated idols and your gold-plated images. You will throw them away like menstrual cloths, and call them filth.
- 23 Then he will send rain for your seed that you have sown in the ground, and the food, the produce of the ground, will be rich and plentiful. On that day your cattle will graze in open pastures. 24 The oxen and donkeys that work the ground will eat salted fodder scattered with winnowing shovel and fork. 25 Streams flowing with water will be on every high mountain and every raised hill on the day of great slaughter when the towers fall. 26 The moonlight will be as bright as the sunlight, and the sunlight will be seven times brighter — like the light of seven days — on the day that the LORD bandages his people's injuries and heals the wounds he inflicted.
- 27 Look there! The LORD is coming from far away,
his anger burning and heavy with smoke.
His lips are full of fury,
and his tongue is like a consuming fire.
- 28 His breath is like an overflowing torrent
that rises to the neck.
He comes to sift the nations in a sieve
of destruction
and to put a bridle on the jaws of the peoples to lead them astray.
- 29 Your singing will be like that on the night of a holy festival, and your heart will rejoice

like one who walks to the music of a flute, going up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the Rock of Israel.

- 30 And the LORD will make the splendor of his voice heard
and reveal his arm striking in angry wrath
and a flame of consuming fire,
in driving rain, a torrent, and hailstones.
- 31 Assyria will be shattered by the voice
of the LORD.
He will strike with a rod.
- 32 And every stroke of the appointed staff that the LORD brings down on him will be to the sound of tambourines and lyres;
he will fight against him
with brandished weapons.
- 33 Indeed! Topheth has been ready for the king for a long time.
Its funeral pyre is deep and wide,
with plenty of fire and wood.
The breath of the LORD, like a torrent of burning sulfur,
kindles it.

- 31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help
and who depend on horses!
They trust in the abundance of chariots
and in the large number of horsemen.
They do not look to the Holy One of Israel and they do not seek the LORD.
- 2 But he also is wise and brings disaster.
He does not go back on what he says;
he will rise up against the house of the wicked
and against the allies of evildoers.
- 3 Egyptians are men, not God;
their horses are flesh, not spirit.
When the LORD raises his hand to strike,
the helper will stumble
and the one who is helped will fall;
both will perish together.
- 4 For this is what the LORD said to me:
As a lion or young lion grows over its prey
when a band of shepherds is called out against it,
and is not terrified by their shouting
or subdued by their noise,
so the LORD of Armies will come down to fight on Mount Zion
and on its hill.
- 5 Like hovering birds,
so the LORD of Armies will protect Jerusalem —
by protecting it, he will rescue it,
by sparing it, he will deliver it.
- 6 Return to the one the Israelites have greatly rebelled against.⁷ For on that day, every one of you will reject the silver and gold idols that your own hands have sinfully made.
- 8 Then Assyria will fall,
but not by human sword;
a sword will devour him,
but not one made by man.
He will flee from the sword;
his young men will be put to forced labor.
- 9 His rock will pass away because of fear, and his officers will be afraid because of the signal flag.

This is the LORD's declaration — whose fire is in Zion and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

- 32 Indeed, a king will reign righteously,
and rulers will rule justly.
- 2 Each will be like a shelter from the wind,
a refuge from the rain,
like flowing streams in a dry land
and the shade of a massive rock in an arid land.
- 3 Then the eyes of those who see will not be closed,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.
- 4 The reckless mind will gain knowledge,
and the stammering tongue will speak clearly and fluently.
- 5 A fool will no longer be called a noble,
nor a scoundrel said to be important.
- 6 For a fool speaks foolishness
and his mind plots iniquity.
He lives in a godless way
and speaks falsely about the LORD.
He leaves the hungry empty and deprives the thirsty of drink.
- 7 The scoundrel's weapons are destructive;
he hatches plots to destroy the needy with lies,
even when the poor person says what is right.
- 8 But a noble person plans noble things;
he stands up for noble causes.
- 9 Stand up, you complacent women;
listen to me.
Pay attention to what I say,
you overconfident daughters.
- 10 In a little more than a year
you overconfident ones will shudder,
for the grapes will fall
and the harvest will not come.
- 11 Shudder, you complacent ones;
tremble, you overconfident ones!
Strip yourselves bare
and put sackcloth around your waists.
- 12 Beat your breasts in mourning
for the delightful fields and the fruitful vines, for the ground of my people growing thorns and briers, indeed, for every joyous house
in the jubilant city.
- 14 For the palace will be deserted,
the busy city abandoned.
The hill and the watchtower will become barren places forever,
the joy of wild donkeys,
and a pasture for flocks,
until the Spirit from on high is poured out on us.
Then the desert will become an orchard,
and the orchard will seem like a forest.
- 16 Then justice will inhabit the wilderness,
and righteousness will dwell in the orchard.
- 17 The result of righteousness will be peace;
the effect of righteousness
will be quiet confidence forever.
- 18 Then my people will dwell in a peaceful place,
in safe and secure dwellings.
- 19 But hail will level the forest,
and the city will sink into the depths.
- 20 You will be happy as you sow seed
beside abundant water,
and as you let oxen and donkeys range freely.

33 Woe, you destroyer never destroyed,
you traitor never betrayed!
When you have finished destroying,
you will be destroyed.
When you have finished betraying,
they will betray you.

² LORD, be gracious to us! We wait for you.
Be our strength every morning
and our salvation in time of trouble.

³ The peoples flee at the thunderous noise;
the nations scatter when you rise
in your majesty.

⁴ Your spoil will be gathered as locusts are gathered;
people will swarm over it like an infestation
of locusts.

⁵ The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high;
he has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.

⁶ There will be times of security for you —
a storehouse of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.
The fear of the LORD is Zion's treasure.

⁷ Listen! Their warriors cry loudly in the streets;
the messengers of peace weep bitterly.

⁸ The highways are deserted;
travel has ceased.
An agreement has been broken,
cities despised,
and human life disregarded.

⁹ The land mourns and withers;
Lebanon is ashamed and wilted.
Sharon is like a desert;
Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.

¹⁰ "Now I will rise up," says the LORD.
"Now I will lift myself up.
Now I will be exalted.

¹¹ You will conceive chaff;
you will give birth to stubble.
Your breath is fire that will consume you.
The peoples will be burned to ashes,
like thorns cut down and burned in a fire.

¹³ You who are far off, hear what I have done;
you who are near, know my strength."

¹⁴ The sinners in Zion are afraid;
trembling seizes the ungodly:
"Who among us can dwell with a consuming fire?
Who among us can dwell
with ever-burning flames?"

¹⁵ The one who lives righteously and speaks rightly,
who refuses profit from extortion,
whose hand never takes a bribe,
who stops his ears from listening to murderous plots
and shuts his eyes against evil schemes —

¹⁶ he will dwell on the heights;
his refuge will be the rocky fortresses,
his food provided, his water assured.

¹⁷ Your eyes will see the King in his beauty;
you will see a vast land.

¹⁸ Your mind will meditate on the past terror:
"Where is the accountant?
Where is the tribute collector?
Where is the one who spied out our defenses?"

¹⁹ You will no longer see the barbarians,

a people whose speech is difficult to comprehend —
who stammer in a language that is not understood.

²⁰ Look at Zion, the city of our festival times.
Your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful pasture, a tent that does not wander;
its tent pegs will not be pulled up
nor will any of its cords be loosened.

²¹ For the majestic one, our LORD, will be there,
a place of rivers and broad streams
where ships that are rowed will not go,
and majestic vessels will not pass.

²² For the LORD is our Judge,
the LORD is our Lawgiver,
the LORD is our King.
He will save us.

²³ Your ropes are slack;
they cannot hold the base of the mast
or spread out the flag.
Then abundant spoil will be divided,
the lame will plunder it,
and none there will say, "I am sick."

²⁴ The people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity.

34 You nations, come here and listen;
you peoples, pay attention!
Let the earth and all that fills it hear,
the world and all that comes from it.

² The LORD is angry with all the nations,
furious with all their armies.
He will set them apart for destruction,
giving them over to slaughter.

³ Their slain will be thrown out,
and the stench of their corpses will rise;
the mountains will flow with their blood.

⁴ All the stars in the sky will dissolve.
The sky will roll up like a scroll,
and its stars will all wither
as leaves wither on the vine,
and foliage on the fig tree.

⁵ When my sword has drunk its fill in the heavens,
it will then come down on Edom
and on the people I have set apart for destruction.

⁶ The LORD's sword is covered with blood.
It drips with fat,
with the blood of lambs and goats,
with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

⁷ The wild oxen will be struck down with them,
and young bulls with the mighty bulls.
Their land will be soaked with blood,
and their soil will be saturated with fat.

⁸ For the LORD has a day of vengeance,
a time of paying back Edom for its hostility against Zion.

⁹ Edom's streams will be turned into pitch,
her soil into sulfur;
her land will become burning pitch.

¹⁰ It will never go out — day or night.
Its smoke will go up forever.
It will be desolate, from generation to generation;
no one will pass through it forever and ever.

¹¹ Eagle owls and herons will possess it,

and long-eared owls and ravens will dwell there.
The LORD will stretch out a measuring line and a plumb line over her for her destruction and chaos.

- ¹² No nobles will be left to proclaim a king,
and all her princes will come to nothing.
- ¹³ Her palaces will be overgrown with thorns;
her fortified cities, with thistles and briers.
She will become a dwelling for jackals,
an abode for ostriches.
- ¹⁴ The desert creatures will meet hyenas,
and one wild goat will call to another.
Indeed, the night birds will stay there
and will find a resting place.
- ¹⁵ Sand partridges will make their nests there;
they will lay and hatch their eggs
and will gather their broods under their shadows.
Indeed, the birds of prey will gather there,
each with its mate.
- ¹⁶ Search and read the scroll of the LORD:
Not one of them will be missing,
none will be lacking its mate,
because he has ordered it by my mouth,
and he will gather them by his Spirit.
- ¹⁷ He has cast the lot for them;
his hand allotted their portion
with a measuring line.
They will possess it forever;
they will dwell in it from generation to generation.

35 The wilderness and the dry land will be glad;
the desert will rejoice and blossom
like a wildflower.

- ² It will blossom abundantly
and will also rejoice with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
the splendor of Carmel and Sharon.
They will see the glory of the LORD,
the splendor of our God.
- ³ Strengthen the weak hands, steady the shaking knees!
- ⁴ Say to the cowardly:
"Be strong; do not fear!
Here is your God; vengeance is coming.
God's retribution is coming; he will save you."
- ⁵ Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped.
- ⁶ Then the lame will leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the mute will sing for joy,
for water will gush in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;
- ⁷ the parched ground will become a pool,
and the thirsty land springs.
In the haunt of jackals, in their lairs,
there will be grass, reeds, and papyrus.
- ⁸ A road will be there and a way;
it will be called the Holy Way.
The unclean will not travel on it,
but it will be for the one who walks the path.
Fools will not wander on it.
- ⁹ There will be no lion there,
and no vicious beast will go up on it;
they will not be found there.
But the redeemed will walk on it,
and the redeemed of the LORD will return
and come to Zion with singing,

crowned with unending joy.
Joy and gladness will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee.

36 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, King Sennacherib of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.² Then the king of Assyria sent his royal spokesman, along with a massive army, from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. The Assyrian stood near the conduit of the upper pool, by the road to the Launderer's Field.³ Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the court historian, came out to him.

⁴ The royal spokesman said to them, "Tell Hezekiah: The great king, the king of Assyria, says this: 'What are you relying on? You think mere words are strategy and strength for war. Who are you now relying on that you have rebelled against me?' ⁶ Look, you are relying on Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff that will pierce the hand of anyone who grabs it and leans on it. This is how Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who rely on him. ⁷ Suppose you say to me, 'We rely on the LORD our God.' Isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You are to worship at this altar?'"

⁸ "Now make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria. I'll give you two thousand horses if you're able to supply riders for them! ⁹ How then can you drive back a single officer among the least of my master's servants? How can you rely on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? ¹⁰ Have I attacked this land to destroy it without the LORD's approval? The LORD said to me, 'Attack this land and destroy it.'"

¹¹ Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the royal spokesman, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew without earshot of the people who are on the wall."

¹² But the royal spokesman replied, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men who are sitting on the wall, who are destined with you to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine?"

¹³ Then the royal spokesman stood and called out loudly in Hebrew:

Listen to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴ This is what the king says: "Don't let Hezekiah deceive you, for he cannot rescue you. ¹⁵ Don't let Hezekiah persuade you to rely on the LORD, saying, 'The LORD will certainly rescue us! This city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.'" ¹⁶ Don't listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: "Make peace with me and surrender to me. Then every one of you may eat from his own vine and his own fig tree and drink water from his own cistern ¹⁷ until I come and take you away to a land like your own land—a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸ Beware that Hezekiah does not mislead you by saying, 'The LORD will rescue us.' Has any one of the gods of the nations rescued his land from the power of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my power? ²⁰ Who among all the gods of these lands ever rescued his land from my power? So will the LORD rescue Jerusalem from my power?"

²¹ But they kept silent; they didn't say anything, for the king's command was, "Don't answer him."²² Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the court historian, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and reported to him the words of the royal spokesman.

37 When King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and went to the LORD's temple.² He sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the court secretary, and the leading priests, who were wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.³ They said to him, "This is what Hezekiah says: 'Today is a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace. It is as if children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them.⁴ Perhaps the LORD your God will hear all the words of the royal spokesman, whom his master the king of Assyria sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke him for the words that the LORD your God has heard. Therefore offer a prayer for the surviving remnant.'"

⁵ So the servants of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah,⁶ who said to them, "Tell your master, 'The LORD says this: Don't be afraid because of the words you have heard, with which the king of Assyria's attendants have blasphemed me.⁷ I am about to put a spirit in him and he will hear a rumor and return to his own land, where I will cause him to fall by the sword.'"

¹⁴ Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers' hands, read it, then went up to the LORD's temple and spread it out before the LORD.¹⁵ Then Hezekiah prayed to the LORD:

¹⁶ LORD of Armies, God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you are God — you alone — of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth.¹⁷ Listen closely, LORD, and hear; open your eyes, LORD, and see. Hear all the words that Sennacherib has sent to mock the living God.¹⁸ LORD, it is true that the kings of Assyria have devastated all these countries and their lands.¹⁹ They have thrown their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but made from wood and stone by human hands. So they have destroyed them.²⁰ Now, LORD our God, save us from his power so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, LORD, are God — you alone.

²¹ Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: "The LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'Because you prayed to me about King Sennacherib of Assyria,²² this is the word the LORD has spoken against him:

Virgin Daughter Zion
despises you and scorns you;
Daughter Jerusalem shakes her head behind your back.

²³ Who is it you have mocked and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice
and lifted your eyes in pride?
Against the Holy One of Israel!

²⁴ You have mocked the LORD through your servants.
You have said, "With my many chariots
I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon.
I cut down its tallest cedars,
its choice cypress trees.
I came to its distant heights,
its densest forest.

²⁵ I dug wells and drank water in foreign lands.
I dried up all the streams of Egypt
with the soles of my feet."

²⁶ Have you not heard?
I designed it long ago;
I planned it in days gone by.
I have now brought it to pass,
and you have crushed fortified cities
into piles of rubble.

²⁷ Their inhabitants have become powerless,
dismayed, and ashamed.
They are plants of the field,
tender grass,
grass on the rooftops,
blasted by the east wind.

²⁸ But I know your sitting down, your going out and your coming in,
and your raging against me.

²⁹ Because your raging against me
and your arrogance have reached my ears,
I will put my hook in your nose
and my bit in your mouth;
I will make you go back
the way you came.

³⁰ "This will be the sign for you: This year you will eat what grows on its own, and in the second year what grows from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.³¹ The surviving remnant of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward.³² For a remnant will go out from Jerusalem, and survivors from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of Armies will accomplish this.'

³³ "Therefore, this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:

He will not enter this city,
shoot an arrow here,
come before it with a shield,
or build up a siege ramp against it.

³⁴ He will go back
the way he came,
and he will not enter this city.

This is the LORD's declaration.

³⁵ I will defend this city and rescue it for my sake
and for the sake of my servant David."

³⁶ Then the angel of the LORD went out and struck down one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When the people got up the next morning — there were all the dead bodies!³⁷ So King Sennacherib of Assyria broke camp and left. He returned home and lived in Nineveh.

³⁸ One day, while he was worshipping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword and escaped to the land of Ararat. Then his son Esar-haddon became king in his place.

38 In those days Hezekiah became terminally ill. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Set your house in order, for you are about to die; you will not recover.'"

² Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD. ³ He said, "Please, LORD, remember how I have walked before you faithfully and wholeheartedly, and have done what pleases you." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴ Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah: ⁵ "Go and tell Hezekiah, 'This is what the LORD God of your ancestor David says: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Look, I am going to add fifteen years to your life. ⁶ And I will rescue you and this city from the grasp of the king of Assyria; I will defend this city. ⁷ This is the sign to you from the LORD that he will do what he has promised: ⁸ I am going to make the sun's shadow that goes down on the stairway of Ahaz go back by ten steps.'" So the sun's shadow went back the ten steps it had descended.

⁹ A poem by King Hezekiah of Judah after he had been sick and had recovered from his illness:

- ¹⁰ I said: In the prime of my life
I must go to the gates of Sheol;
I am deprived of the rest of my years.
- ¹¹ I said: I will never see the LORD,
the LORD in the land of the living;
I will not look on humanity any longer
with the inhabitants of what is passing away.
- ¹² My dwelling is plucked up and removed from me
like a shepherd's tent.
I have rolled up my life like a weaver;
he cuts me off from the loom.
By nightfall you make an end of me.
- ¹³ I thought until the morning:
He will break all my bones like a lion.
By nightfall you make an end of me.
- ¹⁴ I chirp like a swallow or a crane;
I moan like a dove.
My eyes grow weak looking upward.
Lord, I am oppressed; support me.
- ¹⁵ What can I say?
He has spoken to me,
and he himself has done it.
I walk along slowly all my years
because of the bitterness of my soul.
- ¹⁶ Lord, by such things people live,
and in every one of them my spirit finds life;
you have restored me to health
and let me live.
- ¹⁷ Indeed, it was for my own well-being that I had such intense bitterness;
but your love has delivered me
from the Pit of destruction, for you have thrown all my sins behind your back.
- ¹⁸ For Sheol cannot thank you;
Death cannot praise you.
Those who go down to the Pit cannot hope for your faithfulness.
- ¹⁹ The living, only the living can thank you,
as I do today;
a father will make your faithfulness known
to children.
- ²⁰ The LORD is ready to save me;
we will play stringed instruments

all the days of our lives
at the house of the LORD.

²¹ Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of pressed figs and apply it to his infected skin, so that he may recover."²² And Hezekiah had asked, "What is the sign that I will go up to the LORD's temple?"

39 At that time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah since he heard that he had been sick and had recovered. ² Hezekiah was pleased with the letters, and he showed the envoys his treasure house — the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil — and all his armory, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his palace and in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

³ Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say, and where did they come to you from?"

Hezekiah replied, "They came to me from a distant country, from Babylon."

⁴ Isaiah asked, "What have they seen in your palace?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything in my palace. There isn't anything in my treasuries that I didn't show them."

⁵ Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of Armies: ⁶ Look, the days are coming when everything in your palace and all that your fathers have stored up until today will be carried off to Babylon; nothing will be left," says the LORD. ⁷ Some of your descendants — who come from you, whom you father — will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

⁸ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good," for he thought: There will be peace and security during my lifetime.

40 "Comfort, comfort my people," says your God.

- ² "Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and announce to her
that her time of forced labor is over,
her iniquity has been pardoned,
and she has received from the LORD's hand double for all her sins."
- ³ A voice of one crying out:
Prepare the way of the LORD in the wilderness;
make a straight highway for our God
in the desert.
- ⁴ Every valley will be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill will be leveled;
the uneven ground will become smooth
and the rough places, a plain.
- ⁵ And the glory of the LORD will appear,
and all humanity together will see it,
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.
- ⁶ A voice was saying, "Cry out!"
Another said, "What should I cry out?"
"All humanity is grass,
and all its goodness is like the flower of the field.
- ⁷ The grass withers, the flowers fade
when the breath of the LORD blows on them;
indeed, the people are grass.
- ⁸ The grass withers, the flowers fade,
but the word of our God remains forever."
- ⁹ Zion, herald of good news,
go up on a high mountain.
Jerusalem, herald of good news,

raise your voice loudly.
 Raise it, do not be afraid!
 Say to the cities of Judah,
 "Here is your God!"

10 See, the Lord God comes with strength, and his power establishes his rule.
 His wages are with him,
 and his reward accompanies him.

11 He protects his flock like a shepherd;
 he gathers the lambs in his arms
 and carries them in the fold of his garment.
 He gently leads those that are nursing.

12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow
 of his hand
 or marked off the heavens with the span
 of his hand?
 Who has gathered the dust of the earth
 in a measure or weighed the mountains on a balance
 and the hills on the scales?

13 Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD,
 or who gave him counsel?
 14 Who did he consult?
 Who gave him understanding and taught him the paths of justice?
 Who taught him knowledge
 and showed him the way of understanding?

15 Look, the nations are like a drop in a bucket;
 they are considered as a speck of dust on
 the scales;
 he lifts up the islands like fine dust.

16 Lebanon's cedars are not enough for fuel,
 or its animals enough for a burnt offering.

17 All the nations are as nothing before him;
 they are considered by him
 as empty nothingness.

18 With whom will you compare God?
 What likeness will you set up for comparison with him?

19 An idol? — something that a smelter casts and a metalworker plates with gold and makes silver chains for?

20 A poor person contributes wood for a pedestal that will not rot.
 He looks for a skilled craftsman
 to set up an idol that will not fall over.

21 Do you not know?
 Have you not heard?
 Has it not been declared to you
 from the beginning?
 Have you not considered
 the foundations of the earth?

22 God is enthroned above the circle of the earth;
 its inhabitants are like grasshoppers.
 He stretches out the heavens like thin cloth and spreads them out like a tent to live in.

23 He reduces princes to nothing and makes judges of the earth like a wasteland.

24 They are barely planted, barely sown,
 their stem hardly takes root in the ground
 when he blows on them and they wither,
 and a whirlwind carries them away like stubble.

25 "To whom will you compare me,
 or who is my equal?" asks the Holy One.

26 Look up and see!

Who created these?
 He brings out the stars by number;
 he calls all of them by name.
 Because of his great power and strength,
 not one of them is missing.

27 Jacob, why do you say,
 and, Israel, why do you assert:
 "My way is hidden from the LORD,
 and my claim is ignored by my God"?

28 Do you not know?
 Have you not heard?
 The LORD is the everlasting God,
 the Creator of the whole earth.
 He never becomes faint or weary;
 there is no limit to his understanding.

29 He gives strength to the faint and strengthens the powerless.

30 Youths may become faint and weary,
 and young men stumble and fall, 31 but those who trust in the LORD will renew their strength;
 they will soar on wings like eagles;
 they will run and not become weary,
 they will walk and not faint.

41 "Be silent before me, coasts and islands!
 And let peoples renew their strength.
 Let them approach; let them testify;
 let's come together for the trial.

2 Who has stirred up someone from the east?
 In righteousness he calls him to serve.
 The LORD hands nations over to him,
 and he subdues kings.
 He makes them like dust with his sword,
 like wind-driven stubble with his bow.

3 He pursues them, going on safely,
 hardly touching the path with his feet.

4 Who has performed and done this,
 calling the generations from the beginning?
 I am the LORD, the first and with the last — I am he."

5 The coasts and islands see and are afraid,
 the whole earth trembles.
 They approach and arrive.

6 Each one helps the other,
 and says to another, "Take courage!"

7 The craftsman encourages the metalworker;
 the one who flattens with the hammer encourages the one who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good."
 He fastens it with nails so that it will not fall over.

8 But you, Israel, my servant,
 Jacob, whom I have chosen, descendant of Abraham, my friend —

9 I brought you from the ends of the earth and called you from its farthest corners.
 I said to you: You are my servant;
 I have chosen you; I haven't rejected you.

10 Do not fear, for I am with you;
 do not be afraid, for I am your God.
 I will strengthen you; I will help you;
 I will hold on to you with my righteous right hand.

11 Be sure that all who are enraged against you will be ashamed and disgraced;
 those who contend with you
 will become as nothing and will perish.

- 12 You will look for those who contend with you,
but you will not find them.
Those who war against you will become absolutely nothing.
- 13 For I am the LORD your God,
who holds your right hand,
who says to you, 'Do not fear,
I will help you.
- 14 Do not fear, you worm Jacob,
you men of Israel.
I will help you' —
this is the LORD's declaration.
Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 See, I will make you into a sharp threshing board,
new, with many teeth.
You will thresh mountains and pulverize them
and make hills into chaff.
- 16 You will winnow them
and a wind will carry them away,
a whirlwind will scatter them.
But you will rejoice in the LORD;
you will boast in the Holy One of Israel.
- 17 The poor and the needy seek water,
but there is none;
their tongues are parched with thirst.
I will answer them.
I am the LORD, the God of Israel. I will not abandon them.
- 18 I will open rivers on the barren heights,
and springs in the middle of the plains.
I will turn the desert into a pool
and dry land into springs.
- 19 I will plant cedars,
acacias, myrtles, and olive trees in the wilderness.
I will put juniper trees,
elms, and cypress trees together in the desert,
so that all may see and know,
consider and understand,
that the hand of the LORD has done this,
the Holy One of Israel has created it.
- 21 "Submit your case," says the LORD.
"Present your arguments," says Jacob's King.
- 22 "Let them come and tell us
what will happen.
Tell us the past events,
so that we may reflect on them
and know the outcome,
or tell us the future.
- 23 Tell us the coming events,
then we will know that you are gods.
Indeed, do something good or bad,
then we will be in awe when we see it.
- 24 Look, you are nothing
and your work is worthless.
Anyone who chooses you is detestable.
- 25 "I have stirred up one from the north,
and he has come,
one from the east who invokes my name.
He will march over rulers as if they were mud,
like a potter who treads the clay.
- 26 Who told about this from the beginning,
so that we might know,
and from times past,
so that we might say, 'He is right'?
No one announced it,

- no one told it,
no one heard your words.
- 27 I was the first to say to Zion,
'Look! Here they are!'
And I gave Jerusalem a herald with good news.
- 28 When I look, there is no one;
there is no counselor among them;
when I ask them, they have nothing to say.
- 29 Look, all of them are a delusion;
their works are nonexistent;
their images are wind and emptiness.
- 42 "This is my servant; I strengthen him,
this is my chosen one; I delight in him.
I have put my Spirit on him;
he will bring justice to the nations.
- 2 He will not cry out or shout
or make his voice heard in the streets.
- 3 He will not break a bruised reed,
and he will not put out a smoldering wick;
he will faithfully bring justice.
- 4 He will not grow weak or be discouraged
until he has established justice on earth.
The coasts and islands will wait
for his instruction."
- 5 This is what God, the LORD, says —
who created the heavens and stretched them out,
who spread out the earth and what comes from it,
who gives breath to the people on it and spirit to those who walk on it —
- 6 "I am the LORD. I have called you for a righteous purpose,
and I will hold you by your hand.
I will watch over you, and I will appoint you
to be a covenant for the people
and a light to the nations,
in order to open blind eyes,
to bring out prisoners from the dungeon,
and those sitting in darkness
from the prison house.
- 8 I am the LORD. That is my name, and I will not give my glory to another or my praise to idols.
- 9 The past events have indeed happened.
Now I declare new events;
I announce them to you before they occur."
- 10 Sing a new song to the LORD;
sing his praise from the ends of the earth,
you who go down to the sea with all that fills it,
you coasts and islands with your inhabitants.
- 11 Let the desert and its cities shout,
the settlements where Kedar dwells cry aloud.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing for joy;
let them cry out from the mountaintops.
- 12 Let them give glory to the LORD
and declare his praise in the coasts and islands.
- 13 The LORD advances like a warrior;
he stirs up his zeal like a soldier.
He shouts, he roars aloud,
he prevails over his enemies.
- 14 "I have kept silent from ages past;
I have been quiet and restrained myself.
But now, I will groan like a woman in labor,
gasping breathlessly.
- 15 I will lay waste mountains and hills
and dry up all their vegetation.

- I will turn rivers into islands and dry up marshes.
- 16 I will lead the blind by a way they did not know;
I will guide them on paths they have not known.
I will turn darkness to light in front of them
and rough places into level ground.
This is what I will do for them,
and I will not abandon them.
- 17 They will be turned back and utterly ashamed —
those who trust in an idol
and say to a cast image, “You are our gods!”
- 18 “Listen, you deaf!
Look, you blind, so that you may see.
- 19 Who is blind but my servant,
or deaf like my messenger I am sending?
Who is blind like my dedicated one,
or blind like the servant of the LORD?
- 20 Though seeing many things, you pay no attention.
Though his ears are open, he does not listen.”
- 21 Because of his righteousness, the LORD was pleased
to magnify his instruction and make it glorious.
- 22 But this is a people plundered and looted,
all of them trapped in holes
or imprisoned in dungeons.
They have become plunder
with no one to rescue them
and loot, with no one saying, “Give it back!”
- 23 Who among you will hear this?
Let him listen and obey in the future.
- 24 Who gave Jacob to the robber,
and Israel to the plunderers?
Was it not the LORD?
Have we not sinned against him?
They were not willing to walk in his ways,
and they would not listen to his instruction.
- 25 So he poured out his furious anger
and the power of war on Jacob.
It surrounded him with fire, but he did not know it;
it burned him, but he didn’t take it to heart.
- 43 Now this is what the LORD says —
the one who created you, Jacob, and the one who formed you, Israel —
“Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by your name; you are mine.
- 2 I will be with you
when you pass through the waters,
and when you pass through the rivers,
they will not overwhelm you.
You will not be scorched
when you walk through the fire,
and the flame will not burn you.
- 3 For I am the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel, and your Savior.
I have given Egypt as a ransom for you,
Cush and Seba in your place.
- 4 Because you are precious in my sight
and honored, and I love you,
I will give people in exchange for you and nations instead of your life.
- 5 Do not fear, for I am with you;
I will bring your descendants from the east,
and gather you from the west.
- 6 I will say to the north, ‘Give them up!’
and to the south, ‘Do not hold them back!’
Bring my sons from far away,
and my daughters from the ends of the earth —
- 7 everyone who bears my name
and is created for my glory.
I have formed them; indeed, I have made them.”
- 8 Bring out a people who are blind, yet have eyes,
and are deaf, yet have ears.
- 9 All the nations are gathered together,
and the peoples are assembled.
Who among them can declare this,
and tell us the former things?
Let them present their witnessess
to vindicate themselves,
so that people may hear and say, “It is true.”
- 10 “You are my witnessess” —
this is the LORD’s declaration —
“and my servant whom I have chosen,
so that you may know and believe me
and understand that I am he.
No god was formed before me,
and there will be none after me.
- 11 I — I am the LORD.
Besides me, there is no Savior.
- 12 I alone declared, saved, and proclaimed —
and not some foreign god among you.
So you are my witnessess” —
this is the LORD’s declaration —
“and I am God.
- 13 Also, from today on I am he alone,
and none can rescue from my power.
I act, and who can reverse it?”
- 14 This is what the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One
of Israel says:
Because of you, I will send an army to Babylon
and bring all of them as fugitives, even the Chaldeans in the ships in which they rejoice.
- 15 I am the LORD, your Holy One,
the Creator of Israel, your King.
- 16 This is what the LORD says —
who makes a way in the sea,
and a path through raging water, 17 who brings out the chariot and horse,
the army and the mighty one together (they lie down, they do not rise again;
they are extinguished, put out like a wick) —
- 18 “Do not remember the past events,
pay no attention to things of old.
- 19 Look, I am about to do something new;
even now it is coming. Do you not see it?
Indeed, I will make a way in the wilderness, rivers in the desert.
- 20 Wild animals —
jackals and ostriches — will honor me,
because I provide water in the wilderness,
and rivers in the desert,
to give drink to my chosen people.
- 21 The people I formed for myself
will declare my praise.
- 22 “But, Jacob, you have not called on me,
because, Israel, you have become weary of me.
- 23 You have not brought me your sheep
for burnt offerings

or honored me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with offerings or wearied you with incense.

- 24 You have not bought me aromatic cane
with silver,
or satisfied me with the fat of your sacrifices.
But you have burdened me with your sins;
you have wearied me with your iniquities.
- 25 "I—I sweep away your transgressions
for my own sake
and remember your sins no more.
- 26 Remind me. Let's argue the case together.
Recount the facts, so that you may be vindicated.
- 27 Your first father sinned,
and your mediators have rebelled against me.
- 28 So I defiled the officers of the sanctuary, and set Jacob apart for destruction
and Israel for scorn.

44 "And now listen, Jacob my servant,
Israel whom I have chosen.

- 2 This is the word of the LORD your Maker, the one who formed you from the womb:
He will help you.
Do not fear, Jacob my servant,
Jeshurun whom I have chosen.
- 3 For I will pour water on the thirsty land
and streams on the dry ground;
I will pour out my Spirit on your descendants and my blessing on your offspring.
- 4 They will sprout among the grass
like poplars by flowing streams.
- 5 This one will say, 'I am the LORD's';
another will use the name of Jacob;
still another will write on his hand, 'The LORD's,'
and take on the name of Israel."
- 6 This is what the LORD, the King of Israel and its Redeemer, the LORD of Armies, says:
I am the first and I am the last.
There is no God but me.
- 7 Who, like me, can announce the future?
Let him say so and make a case before me,
since I have established an ancient people.
Let these gods declare the coming things,
and what will take place.
- 8 Do not be startled or afraid.
Have I not told you and declared it long ago?
You are my witnesses!
Is there any God but me?
There is no other Rock; I do not know any.
- 9 All who make idols are nothing,
and what they treasure benefits no one.
Their witnesses do not see or know anything,
so they will be put to shame.
- 10 Who makes a god or casts a metal image that benefits no one?
- 11 Look, all its worshipers will be put to shame,
and the craftsmen are humans.
They all will assemble and stand;
they all will be startled and put to shame.
- 12 The ironworker labors over the coals, shapes the idol with hammers,
and works it with his strong arm.
Also he grows hungry and his strength fails;
he doesn't drink water and is faint.

- 13 The woodworker stretches out a measuring line,
he outlines it with a stylus;
he shapes it with chisels
and outlines it with a compass.
He makes it according to a human form,
like a beautiful person,
to dwell in a temple.
- 14 He cuts down cedars for his use,
or he takes a cypress or an oak.
He lets it grow strong among the trees
of the forest.
He plants a laurel, and the rain makes it grow.
- 15 A person can use it for fuel.
He takes some of it and warms himself;
also he kindles a fire and bakes bread;
he even makes it into a god and worships it;
he makes an idol from it and bows down to it.
- 16 He burns half of it in a fire,
and he roasts meat on that half.
He eats the roast and is satisfied.
He warms himself and says, "Ah!
I am warm, I see the blaze."
- 17 He makes a god or his idol with the rest of it.
He bows down to it and worships;
he prays to it, "Save me, for you are my god."
- 18 Such people do not comprehend
and cannot understand,
for he has shut their eyes so they cannot see,
and their minds so they cannot understand.
- 19 No one comes to his senses;
no one has the perception or insight to say,
"I burned half of it in the fire,
I also baked bread on its coals,
I roasted meat and ate.
Should I make something detestable with the rest
of it?
Should I bow down to a block of wood?"
- 20 He feeds on ashes.
His deceived mind has led him astray,
and he cannot rescue himself,
or say, "Isn't there a lie in my right hand?"
- 21 Remember these things, Jacob,
and Israel, for you are my servant;
I formed you, you are my servant;
Israel, you will never be forgotten by me.
- 22 I have swept away your transgressions
like a cloud,
and your sins like a mist.
Return to me,
for I have redeemed you.
- 23 Rejoice, heavens, for the LORD has acted;
shout, depths of the earth.
Break out into singing, mountains,
forest, and every tree in it.
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
and glorifies himself through Israel.
- 24 This is what the LORD, your Redeemer who formed
you from the womb, says:
I am the LORD, who made everything;
who stretched out the heavens by myself;
who alone spread out the earth;
- 25 who destroys the omens of the false prophets
and makes fools of diviners;
who confounds the wise
and makes their knowledge foolishness;

- 26 who confirms the message of his servant and fulfills the counsel of his messengers; who says to Jerusalem, "She will be inhabited," and to the cities of Judah, "They will be rebuilt," and I will restore her ruins;
- 27 who says to the depths of the sea, "Be dry," and I will dry up your rivers;
- 28 who says to Cyrus, "My shepherd, he will fulfill all my pleasure" and says to Jerusalem, "She will be rebuilt," and of the temple, "Its foundation will be laid."

45

- The LORD says this to Cyrus, his anointed, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him and disarm kings, to open doors before him, and even city gates will not be shut:
- 2 "I will go before you and level the uneven places; I will shatter the bronze doors and cut the iron bars in two.
- 3 I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches from secret places, so that you may know that I am the LORD. I am the God of Israel, who calls you by your name.
- 4 I call you by your name, for the sake of my servant Jacob and Israel my chosen one. I give a name to you, though you do not know me.
- 5 I am the LORD, and there is no other; there is no God but me. I will strengthen you, though you do not know me,
- 6 so that all may know from the rising of the sun to its setting that there is no one but me. I am the LORD, and there is no other.
- 7 I form light and create darkness, I make success and create disaster; I am the LORD, who does all these things.
- 8 "Heavens, sprinkle from above, and let the skies shower righteousness. Let the earth open up so that salvation will sprout and righteousness will spring up with it. I, the LORD, have created it.
- 9 "Woe to the one who argues with his Maker — one clay pot among many. Does clay say to the one forming it, 'What are you making?' Or does your work say, 'He has no hands'?"
- 10 Woe to the one who says to his father, 'What are you fathering?' or to his mother, 'What are you giving birth to?'"
- 11 This is what the LORD, the Holy One of Israel and its Maker, says: "Ask me what is to happen to my sons, and instruct me about the work of my hands.
- 12 I made the earth, and created humans on it. It was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded everything in them.

- 13 I have stirred him up in righteousness, and will level all roads for him. He will rebuild my city, and set my exiles free, not for a price or a bribe," says the LORD of Armies.
- 14 This is what the LORD says: "The products of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush and the Sabeans, men of stature, will come over to you and will be yours; they will follow you, they will come over in chains and bow down to you. They will confess to you, 'God is indeed with you, and there is no other; there is no other God.'"
- 15 Yes, you are a God who hides, God of Israel, Savior.
- 16 All of them are put to shame, even humiliated; the makers of idols go in humiliation together.
- 17 Israel will be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation; you will not be put to shame or humiliated for all eternity.
- 18 For this is what the LORD says — the Creator of the heavens, the God who formed the earth and made it, the one who established it (he did not create it to be a wasteland, but formed it to be inhabited) — he says, "I am the LORD, and there is no other.
- 19 I have not spoken in secret, somewhere in a land of darkness. I did not say to the descendants of Jacob: Seek me in a wasteland. I am the LORD, who speaks righteously, who declares what is right.
- 20 "Come, gather together, and approach, you fugitives of the nations. Those who carry their wooden idols and pray to a god who cannot save have no knowledge.
- 21 Speak up and present your case — yes, let them consult each other. Who predicted this long ago? Who announced it from ancient times? Was it not I, the LORD? There is no other God but me, a righteous God and Savior; there is no one except me.
- 22 Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth. For I am God, and there is no other.
- 23 By myself I have sworn; truth has gone from my mouth, a word that will not be revoked: Every knee will bow to me, every tongue will swear allegiance.
- 24 It will be said about me, 'Righteousness and strength are found only in the LORD.'"

All who are enraged against him will come to him and be put to shame.

25 All the descendants of Israel will be justified and find glory through the LORD.

46 Bel crouches; Nebo covers.
Idols depicting them are consigned to beasts
and cattle.

The images you carry are loaded,
as a burden for the weary animal.

2 The gods cower; they crouch together;
they are not able to rescue the burden,
but they themselves go into captivity.

3 "Listen to me, house of Jacob,
all the remnant of the house of Israel,
who have been sustained from the womb,
carried along since birth.

4 I will be the same until your old age,
and I will bear you up when you turn gray.
I have made you, and I will carry you;
I will bear and rescue you.

5 "Who will you compare me or make me equal to?
Who will you measure me with,
so that we should be like each other?

6 Those who pour out their bags of gold and weigh out silver on scales —
they hire a goldsmith and he makes it into a god.
Then they kneel and bow down to it.

7 They lift it to their shoulder and bear it along;
they set it in its place, and there it stands;
it does not budge from its place.
They cry out to it but it doesn't answer;
it saves no one from his trouble.

8 "Remember this and be brave;
take it to heart, you transgressors!

9 Remember what happened long ago,
for I am God, and there is no other;
I am God, and no one is like me.

10 I declare the end from the beginning,
and from long ago what is not yet done,
saying: my plan will take place,
and I will do all my will.

11 I call a bird of prey from the east,
a man for my purpose from a far country.
Yes, I have spoken; so I will also bring it about.
I have planned it; I will also do it.

12 Listen to me, you hardhearted,
far removed from justice:

13 I am bringing my justice near;
it is not far away,
and my salvation will not delay.
I will put salvation in Zion,
my splendor in Israel.

47 "Go down and sit in the dust,
Virgin Daughter Babylon.
Sit on the ground without a throne,
Daughter Chaldea!
For you will no longer be called pampered
and spoiled.

2 Take millstones and grind flour;
remove your veil,
strip off your skirt, bare your thigh,
wade through the streams.

3 Your nakedness will be uncovered,
and your disgrace will be exposed.
I will take vengeance;

I will spare no one."

4 The Holy One of Israel is our Redeemer;
The LORD of Armies is his name.

5 "Daughter Chaldea,
sit in silence and go into darkness.
For you will no longer be called mistress of kingdoms.

6 I was angry with my people;
I profaned my possession,
and I handed them over to you.
You showed them no mercy;
you made your yoke very heavy on the elderly.

7 You said, 'I will be the queen forever.'
You did not take these things to heart or think about their outcome.

8 "So now hear this, lover of luxury,
who sits securely,
who says to herself,
'I am, and there is no one else.
I will never be a widow or know the loss of children.'

9 These two things will happen to you suddenly, in one day:
loss of children and widowhood.
They will happen to you in their entirety,
in spite of your many sorceries
and the potency of your spells.

10 You were secure in your wickedness;
you said, 'No one sees me.'
Your wisdom and knowledge
led you astray.
You said to yourself,
'I am, and there is no one else.'
But disaster will happen to you;
you will not know how to avert it.
And it will fall on you,
but you will be unable to ward it off.
Devastation will happen to you suddenly and unexpectedly.

12 So take your stand with your spells
and your many sorceries, which you have wearied yourself with
from your youth.
Perhaps you will be able to succeed;
perhaps you will inspire terror!

13 You are worn out with your many consultations.
So let the astrologers stand and save you —
those who observe the stars,
those who predict monthly
what will happen to you.

14 Look, they are like stubble;
fire burns them.
They cannot rescue themselves
from the power of the flame.
This is not a coal for warming themselves,
or a fire to sit beside!

15 This is what they are to you —
those who have wearied you and have traded with you from your youth —
each wanders on his own way;
no one can save you.

48 "Listen to this, house of Jacob — those who are called by the name Israel and have descended from Judah, who swear by the name of the LORD

and declare the God of Israel,
but not in truth or righteousness.

² For they are named after the Holy City,
and lean on the God of Israel;
his name is the LORD of Armies.

³ I declared the past events long ago;
they came out of my mouth; I proclaimed them.
Suddenly I acted, and they occurred.

⁴ Because I know that you are stubborn, and your neck is iron
and your forehead bronze,
⁵ therefore I declared to you long ago.
I announced it to you before it occurred,
so you could not claim, 'My idol caused them;
my carved image and cast idol control them.'

⁶ You have heard it. Observe it all.
Will you not acknowledge it?
From now on I will announce new things to you,
hidden things that you have not known.

⁷ They have been created now, and not long ago;
you have not heard of them before today,
so you could not claim, 'I already knew them!'

⁸ You have never heard; you have never known;
for a long time your ears have not been open.
For I knew that you were very treacherous,
and were known as a rebel from birth.

⁹ I will delay my anger for the sake of my name, and I will restrain myself for your benefit
and for my praise,
so that you will not be destroyed.

¹⁰ Look, I have refined you, but not as silver;
I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.

¹¹ I will act for my own sake, indeed, my own,
for how can I be defiled?
I will not give my glory to another.

¹² "Listen to me, Jacob,
and Israel, the one called by me:
I am he; I am the first,
I am also the last.

¹³ My own hand founded the earth,
and my right hand spread out the heavens;
when I summoned them,
they stood up together.

¹⁴ All of you, assemble and listen!
Who among the idols has declared these things?
The LORD loves him;
he will accomplish his will against Babylon,
and his arm will be against the Chaldeans.

¹⁵ I — I have spoken;
yes, I have called him;
I have brought him,
and he will succeed in his mission.

¹⁶ Approach me and listen to this.
From the beginning I have not spoken in secret;
from the time anything existed, I was there."
And now the Lord God
has sent me and his Spirit.

¹⁷ This is what the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One
of Israel says:
I am the LORD your God,
who teaches you for your benefit,
who leads you in the way you should go.

¹⁸ If only you had paid attention to my commands.
Then your peace would have been like a river,
and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

¹⁹ Your descendants would have been as countless
as the sand,
and the offspring of your body like its grains;
their name would not be cut off
or eliminated from my presence.

²⁰ Leave Babylon,
flee from the Chaldeans!
Declare with a shout of joy,
proclaim this,
let it go out to the end of the earth;
announce,
"The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob!"

²¹ They did not thirst
when he led them through the deserts;
he made water flow from the rock for them;
he split the rock, and water gushed out.

²² "There is no peace for the wicked," says the LORD.

49 Coasts and islands, listen to me;
distant peoples, pay attention.
The LORD called me before I was born.
He named me while I was in my mother's womb.

² He made my words like a sharp sword;
he hid me in the shadow of his hand.
He made me like a sharpened arrow;
he hid me in his quiver.

³ He said to me, "You are my servant,
Israel, in whom I will be glorified."

⁴ But I myself said: I have labored in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing and futility;
yet my vindication is with the LORD,
and my reward is with my God.

⁵ And now, says the LORD,
who formed me from the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him
so that Israel might be gathered to him;
for I am honored in the sight of the LORD,
and my God is my strength —

⁶ he says,
"It is not enough for you to be my servant
raising up the tribes of Jacob and restoring the protected ones of Israel.
I will also make you a light for the nations,
to be my salvation to the ends of the earth."

⁷ This is what the LORD,
the Redeemer of Israel, his Holy One, says
to one who is despised,
to one abhorred by people,
to a servant of rulers:
"Kings will see, princes will stand up,
and they will all bow down
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel — and he has chosen you."

⁸ This is what the LORD says:
I will answer you in a time of favor,
and I will help you in the day of salvation.
I will keep you, and I will appoint you
to be a covenant for the people,
to restore the land,
to make them possess the desolate inheritances,
saying to the prisoners: Come out,
and to those who are in darkness:
Show yourselves.
They will feed along the pathways,
and their pastures will be on all the barren heights.

¹⁰ They will not hunger or thirst,

the scorching heat or sun will not strike them;
 for their compassionate one will guide them,
 and lead them to springs.

11 I will make all my mountains into a road,
 and my highways will be raised up.

12 See, these will come from far away,
 from the north and from the west,
 and from the land of Sinim.

13 Shout for joy, you heavens!
 Earth, rejoice!
 Mountains break into joyful shouts!
 For the LORD has comforted his people,
 and will have compassion on his afflicted ones.

14 Zion says, "The LORD has abandoned me;
 the Lord has forgotten me!"

15 "Can a woman forget her nursing child, or lack compassion for the child of her womb?
 Even if these forget,
 yet I will not forget you.

16 Look, I have inscribed you on the palms
 of my hands;
 your walls are continually before me.

17 Your builders hurry;
 those who destroy and devastate you will leave you.

18 Look up, and look around.
 They all gather together; they come to you.
 As I live" —
 this is the LORD's declaration —
 "you will wear all your children as jewelry, and put them on as a bride does.

19 For your waste and desolate places and your land marked by ruins —
 will now be indeed too small for the inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away.

20 Yet as you listen, the children
 that you have been deprived of will say,
 'This place is too small for me;
 make room for me so that I may settle.'

21 Then you will say within yourself,
 'Who fathered these for me?
 I was deprived of my children and unable to conceive,
 exiled and wandering —
 but who brought them up?
 See, I was left by myself —
 but these, where did they come from?'"

22 This is what the Lord God says:
 Look, I will lift up my hand to the nations,
 and raise my banner to the peoples.
 They will bring your sons in their arms,
 and your daughters will be carried on their shoulders.

23 Kings will be your guardians and their queens your nursing mothers.
 They will bow down to you with their faces to the ground and lick the dust at your feet.
 Then you will know that I am the LORD;
 those who put their hope in me
 will not be put to shame.

24 Can the prey be taken from a mighty man, or the captives of a tyrant be delivered?

25 For this is what the LORD says:

"Even the captives of a mighty man will be taken,
 and the prey of a tyrant will be delivered;
 I will contend with the one who contends
 with you,
 and I will save your children.

26 I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh,
 and they will be drunk with their own blood
 as with sweet wine.
 Then all people will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

50 This is what the LORD says:
 Where is your mother's divorce certificate
 that I used to send her away?
 Or to which of my creditors did I sell you?
 Look, you were sold for your iniquities,
 and your mother was sent away
 because of your transgressions.

2 Why was no one there when I came?
 Why was there no one to answer when I called?
 Is my arm too weak to redeem?
 Or do I have no power to rescue?
 Look, I dry up the sea by my rebuke;
 I turn the rivers into a wilderness;
 their fish rot because of lack of water
 and die of thirst.

3 I dress the heavens in black and make sackcloth their clothing.

4 The Lord God has given me
 the tongue of those who are instructed to know how to sustain the weary with a word.
 He awakens me each morning;
 he awakens my ear to listen like those being instructed.

5 The Lord God has opened my ear,
 and I was not rebellious;
 I did not turn back.

6 I gave my back to those who beat me,
 and my cheeks to those who tore out my beard.
 I did not hide my face from scorn and spitting.

7 The Lord God will help me;
 therefore I have not been humiliated;
 therefore I have set my face like flint,
 and I know I will not be put to shame.

8 The one who vindicates me is near;
 who will contend with me?
 Let us confront each other.
 Who has a case against me?
 Let him come near me!

9 In truth, the Lord God will help me;
 who will condemn me?
 Indeed, all of them will wear out like a garment;
 a moth will devour them.

10 Who among you fears the LORD
 and listens to his servant?
 Who among you walks in darkness,
 and has no light?
 Let him trust in the name of the LORD;
 let him lean on his God.

11 Look, all you who kindle a fire,
 who encircle yourselves with torches;
 walk in the light of your fire
 and of the torches you have lit!
 This is what you'll get from my hand:
 you will lie down in a place of torment.

51 Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness,
you who seek the LORD:
Look to the rock from which you were cut,
and to the quarry from which you were dug.

2 Look to Abraham your father,
and to Sarah who gave birth to you.
When I called him, he was only one;
I blessed him and made him many.

3 For the LORD will comfort Zion;
he will comfort all her waste places,
and he will make her wilderness like Eden,
and her desert like the garden of the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be found in her,
thanksgiving and melodious song.

4 Pay attention to me, my people,
and listen to me, my nation;
for instruction will come from me,
and my justice for a light to the nations.
I will bring it about quickly.

5 My righteousness is near,
my salvation appears,
and my arms will bring justice to the nations.
The coasts and islands will put their hope in me,
and they will look to my strength.

6 Look up to the heavens,
and look at the earth beneath;
for the heavens will vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like a garment,
and its inhabitants will die like gnats.
But my salvation will last forever,
and my righteousness will never be shattered.

7 Listen to me, you who know righteousness,
the people in whose heart is my instruction:
do not fear disgrace by men,
and do not be shattered by their taunts.

8 For moths will devour them like a garment,
and worms will eat them like wool.
But my righteousness will last forever,
and my salvation for all generations.

9 Wake up, wake up!
Arm of the LORD, clothe yourself with strength.
Wake up as in days past,
as in generations long ago.
Wasn't it you who hacked Rahab to pieces,
who pierced the sea monster?

10 Wasn't it you who dried up the sea,
the waters of the great deep,
who made the sea-bed into a road
for the redeemed to pass over?

11 And the redeemed of the LORD will return
and come to Zion with singing,
crowned with unending joy.
Joy and gladness will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee.

12 I — I am the one who comforts you.
Who are you that you should fear humans
who die,
or a son of man who is given up like grass?

13 But you have forgotten the LORD, your Maker,
who stretched out the heavens
and laid the foundations of the earth.
You are in constant dread all day long because of the fury of the oppressor,
who has set himself to destroy.
But where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The prisoner is soon to be set free;
he will not die and go to the Pit,
and his food will not be lacking.

15 For I am the LORD your God
who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar —
his name is the LORD of Armies.

16 I have put my words in your mouth,
and covered you in the shadow of my hand,
in order to plant the heavens,
to found the earth,
and to say to Zion, "You are my people."
Wake yourself, wake yourself up!
Stand up, Jerusalem,
you who have drunk the cup of his fury
from the LORD's hand;
you who have drunk the goblet to the dregs —
the cup that causes people to stagger.

18 There is no one to guide her among all the children she has raised;
there is no one to take hold of her hand
among all the offspring she has brought up.

19 These two things have happened to you:
devastation and destruction,
famine and sword.
Who will grieve for you?
How can I comfort you?

20 Your children have fainted;
they lie at the head of every street
like an antelope in a net.
They are full of the LORD's fury,
the rebuke of your God.

21 So listen to this, suffering and drunken one — but not with wine.

22 This is what your Lord says —
the LORD, even your God,
who defends his people —
"Look, I have removed from your hand
the cup that causes staggering;
that goblet, the cup of my fury.
You will never drink it again.

23 I will put it into the hands of your tormentors,
who said to you:
Lie down, so we can walk over you.
You made your back like the ground,
and like a street for those who walk on it.

52 "Wake up, wake up;
put on your strength, Zion!
Put on your beautiful garments,
Jerusalem, the Holy City!
For the uncircumcised and the unclean
will no longer enter you.

2 Stand up, shake the dust off yourself!
Take your seat, Jerusalem.
Remove the bonds from your neck,
captive Daughter Zion."

3 For this is what the LORD says:
"You were sold for nothing,
and you will be redeemed without silver."

4 For this is what the Lord God says:
"At first my people went down to Egypt
to reside there,
then Assyria oppressed them without cause.

5 So now what have I here" —
this is the LORD's declaration —
"that my people are taken away for nothing?"

Its rulers wail" —
 this is the LORD's declaration —
 "and my name is continually blasphemed
 all day long.

- 6 Therefore my people will know my name;
 therefore they will know on that day
 that I am he who says:
 Here I am."
- 7 How beautiful on the mountains
 are the feet of the herald,
 who proclaims peace,
 who brings news of good things,
 who proclaims salvation,
 who says to Zion, "Your God reigns!"
- 8 The voices of your watchmen —
 they lift up their voices, shouting for joy together;
 for every eye will see
 when the LORD returns to Zion.
- 9 Be joyful, rejoice together,
 you ruins of Jerusalem!
 For the LORD has comforted his people;
 he has redeemed Jerusalem.
- 10 The LORD has displayed his holy arm
 in the sight of all the nations;
 all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.
- 11 Leave, leave, go out from there!
 Do not touch anything unclean;
 go out from her, purify yourselves,
 you who carry the vessels of the LORD.
- 12 For you will not leave in a hurry,
 and you will not have to take flight;
 because the LORD is going before you,
 and the God of Israel is your rear guard.
- 13 See, my servant will be successful;
 he will be raised and lifted up and greatly exalted.
- 14 Just as many were appalled at you —
 his appearance was so disfigured
 that he did not look like a man, and his form did not resemble a human being —
 so he will sprinkle many nations.
 Kings will shut their mouths because of him,
 for they will see what had not been told them,
 and they will understand
 what they had not heard.

53 Who has believed what we have heard?
 And to whom has the arm of the LORD
 been revealed?

- 2 He grew up before him like a young plant
 and like a root out of dry ground.
 He didn't have an impressive form or majesty that we should look at him,
 no appearance that we should desire him.
- 3 He was despised and rejected by men,
 a man of suffering who knew what sickness was.
 He was like someone people turned away from;
 he was despised, and we didn't value him.
- 4 Yet he himself bore our sicknesses,
 and he carried our pains;
 but we in turn regarded him stricken,
 struck down by God, and afflicted.
- 5 But he was pierced because of our rebellion,
 crushed because of our iniquities;
 punishment for our peace was on him,

- and we are healed by his wounds.
- 6 We all went astray like sheep;
 we all have turned to our own way;
 and the LORD has punished him
 for the iniquity of us all.
- 7 He was oppressed and afflicted,
 yet he did not open his mouth.
 Like a lamb led to the slaughter
 and like a sheep silent before her shearers,
 he did not open his mouth.
- 8 He was taken away because of oppression
 and judgment;
 and who considered his fate?
 For he was cut off from the land of the living;
 he was struck because of my people's rebellion.
- 9 He was assigned a grave with the wicked,
 but he was with a rich man at his death,
 because he had done no violence
 and had not spoken deceitfully.
- 10 Yet the LORD was pleased to crush him severely.
 When you make him a guilt offering,
 he will see his seed, he will prolong his days,
 and by his hand, the LORD's pleasure
 will be accomplished.
- 11 After his anguish,
 he will see light and be satisfied.
 By his knowledge,
 my righteous servant will justify many,
 and he will carry their iniquities.
- 12 Therefore I will give him the many as a portion,
 and he will receive the mighty as spoil,
 because he willingly submitted to death,
 and was counted among the rebels;
 yet he bore the sin of many
 and interceded for the rebels.

54 "Rejoice, childless one, who did not give birth;
 burst into song and shout,
 you who have not been in labor!
 For the children of the desolate one will be more than the children of the married woman,"
 says the LORD.

- 2 "Enlarge the site of your tent,
 and let your tent curtains be stretched out;
 do not hold back;
 lengthen your ropes,
 and drive your pegs deep.
- 3 For you will spread out to the right and to the left,
 and your descendants will dispossess nations
 and inhabit the desolate cities.
- 4 "Do not be afraid, for you will not be put to shame;
 don't be humiliated, for you will not be disgraced.
 For you will forget the shame of your youth,
 and you will no longer remember
 the disgrace of your widowhood.
- 5 Indeed, your husband is your Maker —
 his name is the LORD of Armies —
 and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer;
 he is called the God of the whole earth.
- 6 For the LORD has called you,
 like a wife deserted and wounded in spirit,
 a wife of one's youth when she is rejected,"
 says your God.
- 7 "I deserted you for a brief moment,
 but I will take you back with abundant compassion.

- 8 In a surge of anger
I hid my face from you for a moment,
but I will have compassion on you with everlasting love,"
says the LORD your Redeemer.
- 9 "For this is like the days of Noah to me:
when I swore that the water of Noah
would never flood the earth again, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you or rebuke you.
- 10 Though the mountains move
and the hills shake,
my love will not be removed from you
and my covenant of peace will not be shaken," says your compassionate LORD.
- 11 "Poor Jerusalem, storm-tossed,
and not comforted,
I will set your stones in black mortar,
and lay your foundations in lapis lazuli.
- 12 I will make your fortifications out of rubies,
your gates out of sparkling stones,
and all your walls out of precious stones.
- 13 Then all your children will be taught by the LORD,
their prosperity will be great,
and you will be established
on a foundation of righteousness.
You will be far from oppression,
you will certainly not be afraid;
you will be far from terror,
it will certainly not come near you.
- 15 If anyone attacks you,
it is not from me;
whoever attacks you
will fall before you.
- 16 Look, I have created the craftsman who blows on the charcoal fire
and produces a weapon suitable for its task;
and I have created the destroyer to cause havoc.
- 17 No weapon formed against you will succeed,
and you will refute any accusation raised against you in court.
This is the heritage of the LORD's servants,
and their vindication is from me."
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 55 "Come, everyone who is thirsty,
come to the water;
and you without silver,
come, buy, and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk
without silver and without cost!
- 2 Why do you spend silver on what is not food,
and your wages on what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good,
and you will enjoy the choicest of foods.
- 3 Pay attention and come to me;
listen, so that you will live.
I will make a permanent covenant with you on the basis of the faithful kindnesses of David.
- 4 Since I have made him a witness to the peoples,
a leader and commander for the peoples,
so you will summon a nation you do not know,
and nations who do not know you will run to you.
For the LORD your God,
even the Holy One of Israel,
has glorified you."
- 6 Seek the LORD while he may be found;
call to him while he is near.
- 7 Let the wicked one abandon his way
and the sinful one his thoughts;
let him return to the LORD,
so he may have compassion on him,
and to our God, for he will freely forgive.
- 8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
and your ways are not my ways."
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 9 "For as heaven is higher than earth,
so my ways are higher than your ways,
and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- 10 For just as rain and snow fall from heaven
and do not return there without saturating the earth and making it germinate and sprout,
and providing seed to sow
and food to eat,
- 11 so my word that comes from my mouth
will not return to me empty,
but it will accomplish what I please and will prosper in what I send it to do."
- 12 You will indeed go out with joy
and be peacefully guided;
the mountains and the hills will break into singing
before you,
and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.
- 13 Instead of the thornbush, a cypress will come up,
and instead of the brier, a myrtle will come up;
this will stand as a monument for the LORD,
an everlasting sign that will not be destroyed.
- 56 This is what the LORD says:
Preserve justice and do what is right,
for my salvation is coming soon,
and my righteousness will be revealed.
- 2 Happy is the person who does this,
the son of man who holds it fast,
who keeps the Sabbath without desecrating it,
and keeps his hand from doing any evil.
- 3 No foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD should say,
"The LORD will exclude me from his people,"
and the eunuch should not say,
"Look, I am a dried-up tree."
- 4 For the LORD says this:
"For the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths,
and choose what pleases me,
and hold firmly to my covenant,
- 5 I will give them, in my house and within my walls,
a memorial and a name
better than sons and daughters.
I will give each of them an everlasting name
that will never be cut off.
- 6 As for the foreigners who join themselves
to the LORD
to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD,
and to become his servants —
all who keep the Sabbath without desecrating it and who hold firmly to my covenant —
- 7 I will bring them to my holy mountain and let them rejoice in my house of prayer.
Their burnt offerings and sacrifices
will be acceptable on my altar,

for my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations."

8 This is the declaration of the Lord GOD,
who gathers the dispersed of Israel:
"I will gather to them still others besides those already gathered."

9 All you animals of the field and forest,
come and eat!

10 Israel's watchmen are blind, all of them,
they know nothing;
all of them are mute dogs,
they cannot bark;
they dream, lie down,
and love to sleep.

11 These dogs have fierce appetites;
they never have enough.
And they are shepherds
who have no discernment;
all of them turn to their own way,
every last one for his own profit.

12 "Come, let me get some wine,
let's guzzle some beer;
and tomorrow will be like today,
only far better!"

57 The righteous person perishes,
and no one takes it to heart;
the faithful are taken away,
with no one realizing that the righteous person is taken away
because of evil.

2 He will enter into peace —
they will rest on their beds —
everyone who lives uprightly.

3 But come here,
you witch's sons,
offspring of an adulterer and a prostitute!
4 Who are you mocking?

Who are you opening your mouth
and sticking out your tongue at?
Isn't it you, you rebellious children,
you offspring of liars,

5 who burn with lust among the oaks,
under every green tree,
who slaughter children in the wadis
below the clefts of the rocks?

6 Your portion is among the smooth stones
of the wadi;
indeed, they are your lot.
You have even poured out a drink offering
to them;

you have offered a grain offering;
should I be satisfied with these?

7 You have placed your bed
on a high and lofty mountain;
you also went up there to offer sacrifice.

8 You have set up your memorial behind the door and doorstep.
For away from me, you stripped,
went up, and made your bed wide,
and you have made a bargain for yourself
with them.

You have loved their bed;
you have gazed on their genitals.

9 You went to the king with oil
and multiplied your perfumes;

you sent your envoys far away
and sent them down even to Sheol.

10 You became weary on your many journeys,
but you did not say, "It's hopeless!"
You found a renewal of your strength;
therefore you did not grow weak.

11 Who was it you dreaded and feared,
so that you lied and didn't remember me
or take it to heart?

I have kept silent for a long time, haven't I?
So you do not fear me.

12 I will announce your righteousness,
and your works — they will not profit you.

13 When you cry out,
let your collection of idols rescue you!

The wind will carry all of them off,
a breath will take them away.

But whoever takes refuge in me will inherit the land
and possess my holy mountain.

14 He said,
"Build it up, build it up, prepare the way,
remove every obstacle from my people's way."
15 For the High and Exalted One,
who lives forever, whose name is holy, says this:

"I live in a high and holy place,
and with the oppressed and lowly of spirit,
to revive the spirit of the lowly
and revive the heart of the oppressed.

16 For I will not accuse you forever,
and I will not always be angry;
for then the spirit would grow weak before me,
even the breath, which I have made.

17 Because of his sinful greed I was angry,
so I struck him; I was angry and hid;
but he went on turning back to the desires
of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, but I will heal him;
I will lead him and restore comfort
to him and his mourners,
creating words of praise."

19 The LORD says,
"Peace, peace to the one who is far or near,
and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked are like the storm-tossed sea,
for it cannot be still,
and its water churns up mire and muck.

21 There is no peace for the wicked," says my God.

58 "Cry out loudly, don't hold back!
Raise your voice like a trumpet.

Tell my people their transgression
and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 They seek me day after day
and delight to know my ways,
like a nation that does what is right and does not abandon the justice of their God.
They ask me for righteous judgments;
they delight in the nearness of God."

3 "Why have we fasted, but you have not seen?
We have denied ourselves,
but you haven't noticed!"

"Look, you do as you please on the day
of your fast,
and oppress all your workers.

- 4 You fast with contention and strife
to strike viciously with your fist.
You cannot fast as you do today,
hoping to make your voice heard on high.
- 5 Will the fast I choose be like this:
A day for a person to deny himself,
to bow his head like a reed,
and to spread out sackcloth and ashes?
Will you call this a fast
and a day acceptable to the LORD?
Isn't this the fast I choose:
- 6 To break the chains of wickedness,
to untie the ropes of the yoke,
to set the oppressed free,
and to tear off every yoke?
- 7 Is it not to share your bread with the hungry,
to bring the poor and homeless into your house,
to clothe the naked when you see him,
and not to ignore your own flesh and blood?
- 8 Then your light will appear like the dawn,
and your recovery will come quickly.
Your righteousness will go before you,
and the LORD's glory will be your rear guard.
- 9 At that time, when you call, the LORD
will answer;
when you cry out, he will say, 'Here I am.'
If you get rid of the yoke among you,
the finger-pointing and malicious speaking,
and if you offer yourself to the hungry,
and satisfy the afflicted one,
then your light will shine in the darkness,
and your night will be like noonday.
- 11 The LORD will always lead you, satisfy you in a parched land,
and strengthen your bones.
You will be like a watered garden
and like a spring whose water never runs dry.
- 12 Some of you will rebuild the ancient ruins;
you will restore the foundations laid long ago;
you will be called the repairer of broken walls,
the restorer of streets where people live.
- 13 "If you keep from desecrating the Sabbath,
from doing whatever you want on my holy day;
if you call the Sabbath a delight,
and the holy day of the LORD honorable;
if you honor it, not going your own ways,
seeking your own pleasure, or talking business;
then you will delight in the LORD,
and I will make you ride over the heights
of the land,
and let you enjoy the heritage of your father Jacob."
- For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.
- 59 Indeed, the LORD's arm is not too weak to save,
and his ear is not too deaf to hear.
- 2 But your iniquities are separating you from your God,
and your sins have hidden his face from you
so that he does not listen.
- 3 For your hands are defiled with blood and your fingers, with iniquity;
your lips have spoken lies,
and your tongues mutter injustice.
- 4 No one makes claims justly;
no one pleads honestly.
- They trust in empty and worthless words;
they conceive trouble and give birth to iniquity.
- 5 They hatch viper's eggs
and weave spider's webs.
Whoever eats their eggs will die;
crack one open, and a viper is hatched.
- 6 Their webs cannot become clothing,
and they cannot cover themselves
with their works.
Their works are sinful works,
and violent acts are in their hands.
- 7 Their feet run after evil,
and they rush to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are sinful thoughts;
ruin and wretchedness are in their paths.
- 8 They have not known the path of peace,
and there is no justice in their ways.
They have made their roads crooked;
no one who walks on them will know peace.
- 9 Therefore justice is far from us,
and righteousness does not reach us.
We hope for light, but there is darkness;
for brightness, but we live in the night.
- 10 We grope along a wall like the blind;
we grope like those without eyes.
We stumble at noon as though it were twilight;
we are like the dead among those who are healthy.
- 11 We all growl like bears
and moan like doves.
We hope for justice, but there is none;
for salvation, but it is far from us.
- 12 For our transgressions have multiplied
before you,
and our sins testify against us.
For our transgressions are with us,
and we know our iniquities:
- 13 transgression and deception against the LORD,
turning away from following our God,
speaking oppression and revolt,
conceiving and uttering lying words from the heart.
- 14 Justice is turned back,
and righteousness stands far off.
For truth has stumbled in the public square,
and honesty cannot enter.
- 15 Truth is missing,
and whoever turns from evil is plundered.
The LORD saw that there was no justice,
and he was offended.
- 16 He saw that there was no man—
he was amazed that there was no one interceding;
so his own arm brought salvation,
and his own righteousness supported him.
- 17 He put on righteousness as body armor,
and a helmet of salvation on his head;
he put on garments of vengeance for clothing,
and he wrapped himself in zeal as in a cloak.
- 18 So he will repay according to their deeds:
fury to his enemies,
retribution to his foes,
and he will repay the coasts and islands.
- 19 They will fear the name of the LORD in the west
and his glory in the east;

for he will come like a rushing stream driven by the wind of the LORD.

- 20 "The Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those in Jacob who turn from transgression."

This is the LORD's declaration.

21 "As for me, this is my covenant with them," says the LORD: "My Spirit who is on you, and my words that I have put in your mouth, will not depart from your mouth, or from the mouths of your children, or from the mouths of your children's children, from now on and forever," says the LORD.

60 Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD shines over you.

- 2 For look, darkness will cover the earth,
and total darkness the peoples;
but the LORD will shine over you,
and his glory will appear over you.
- 3 Nations will come to your light,
and kings to your shining brightness.
- 4 Raise your eyes and look around:
they all gather and come to you;
your sons will come from far away,
and your daughters on the hips of nannies.
- 5 Then you will see and be radiant,
and your heart will tremble and rejoice,
because the riches of the sea will become yours
and the wealth of the nations will come to you.
- 6 Caravans of camels will cover your land —
young camels of Midian and Ephah —
all of them will come from Sheba.
They will carry gold and frankincense
and proclaim the praises of the LORD.
- 7 All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you;
the rams of Nebaioth will serve you
and go up on my altar as an acceptable sacrifice.
I will glorify my beautiful house.
- 8 Who are these who fly like a cloud,
like doves to their shelters?
9 Yes, the coasts and islands will wait for me with the ships of Tarshish in the lead,
to bring your children from far away,
their silver and gold with them,
for the honor of the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
who has glorified you.
- 10 Foreigners will rebuild your walls,
and their kings will serve you.
Although I struck you in my wrath,
yet I will show mercy to you with my favor.
- 11 Your city gates will always be open;
they will never be shut day or night
so that the wealth of the nations
may be brought into you,
with their kings being led in procession.
- 12 For the nation and the kingdom
that will not serve you will perish;
those nations will be annihilated.
- 13 The glory of Lebanon will come to you —
its pine, elm, and cypress together —
to beautify the place of my sanctuary,
and I will glorify my dwelling place.
- 14 The sons of your oppressors
will come and bow down to you;
all who reviled you
will fall facedown at your feet.

They will call you the City of the LORD,
Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

- 15 Instead of your being deserted and hated,
with no one passing through,
I will make you an object of eternal pride, a joy from age to age.
- 16 You will nurse on the milk of nations,
and nurse at the breast of kings;
you will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior
and Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
- 17 I will bring gold instead of bronze;
I will bring silver instead of iron,
bronze instead of wood,
and iron instead of stones.
I will appoint peace as your government
and righteousness as your overseers.
- 18 Violence will never again be heard of
in your land;
devastation and destruction
will be gone from your borders.
You will call your walls Salvation
and your city gates Praise.
- 19 The sun will no longer be your light by day,
and the brightness of the moon will not shine
on you.

The LORD will be your everlasting light,
and your God will be your splendor.

- 20 Your sun will no longer set,
and your moon will not fade;
for the LORD will be your everlasting light,
and the days of your sorrow will be over.
- 21 All your people will be righteous;
they will possess the land forever;
they are the branch I planted,
the work of my hands,
so that I may be glorified.
- 22 The least will become a thousand,
the smallest a mighty nation.
I am the LORD;
I will accomplish it quickly in its time.
- 61 The Spirit of the Lord God is on me,
because the LORD has anointed me
to bring good news to the poor.
He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives
and freedom to the prisoners;
- 2 to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor,
and the day of our God's vengeance;
to comfort all who mourn,
- 3 to provide for those who mourn in Zion;
to give them a crown of beauty instead of ashes,
festive oil instead of mourning,
and splendid clothes instead of despair.
And they will be called righteous trees, planted by the LORD
to glorify him.
- 4 They will rebuild the ancient ruins;
they will restore the former devastations;
they will renew the ruined cities,
the devastations of many generations.
- 5 Strangers will stand and feed your flocks,
and foreigners will be your plowmen
and vinedressers.
- 6 But you will be called the LORD's priests;
they will speak of you as ministers of our God;

you will eat the wealth of the nations,
and you will boast in their riches.

7 In place of your shame, you will have a double portion;

in place of disgrace, they will rejoice over their share.

So they will possess double in their land,
and eternal joy will be theirs.

8 For I the LORD love justice;
I hate robbery and injustice;
I will faithfully reward my people
and make a permanent covenant with them.

9 Their descendants will be known
among the nations,
and their posterity among the peoples.
All who see them will recognize that they are a people the LORD has blessed.

10 I rejoice greatly in the LORD,
I exult in my God;
for he has clothed me with the garments
of salvation
and wrapped me in a robe of righteousness,
as a groom wears a turban
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth produces its growth,
and as a garden enables what is sown
to spring up,
so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise
to spring up before all the nations.

62 I will not keep silent because of Zion,
and I will not keep still because of Jerusalem,
until her righteousness shines like a bright light
and her salvation, like a flaming torch.

2 Nations will see your righteousness and all kings, your glory.

You will be given a new name
that the LORD's mouth will announce.

3 You will be a glorious crown in the LORD's hand, and a royal diadem in the palm of your God's hand.

4 You will no longer be called Deserted,
and your land will not be called Desolate;
instead, you will be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;
for the LORD delights in you,
and your land will be married.

5 For as a young man marries a young woman,
so your sons will marry you;
and as a groom rejoices over his bride,
so your God will rejoice over you.

6 Jerusalem,
I have appointed watchmen on your walls;
they will never be silent, day or night.
There is no rest for you,
who remind the LORD.

7 Do not give him rest until he establishes and makes Jerusalem
the praise of the earth.

8 The LORD has sworn with his right hand
and his strong arm:
I will no longer give your grain
to your enemies for food,
and foreigners will not drink the new wine
for which you have labored.

9 For those who gather grain will eat it and praise the LORD,
and those who harvest the grapes will drink
the wine

in my holy courts.

10 Go out, go out through the city gates;
prepare a way for the people!
Build it up, build up the highway;
clear away the stones!

Raise a banner for the peoples.

11 Look, the LORD has proclaimed
to the ends of the earth,
"Say to Daughter Zion:
Look, your salvation is coming,
his wages are with him,
and his reward accompanies him."

12 And they will be called the Holy People,
the LORD's Redeemed;
and you will be called Cared For,
A City Not Deserted.

63 Who is this coming from Edom
in crimson-stained garments from Bozrah —
this one who is splendid in his apparel, striding in his formidable might?
It is I, proclaiming vindication, powerful to save.

2 Why are your clothes red,
and your garments like one who treads
a winepress?

3 I trampled the winepress alone,
and no one from the nations was with me.
I trampled them in my anger
and ground them underfoot in my fury;
their blood spattered my garments,
and all my clothes were stained.

4 For I planned the day of vengeance,
and the year of my redemption came.

5 I looked, but there was no one to help,
and I was amazed that no one assisted;
so my arm accomplished victory for me,
and my wrath assisted me.

6 I crushed nations in my anger;
I made them drunk with my wrath
and poured out their blood on the ground.

7 I will make known the LORD's faithful love and the LORD's praiseworthy acts, because of all the LORD has done for us —
even the many good things
he has done for the house of Israel, which he did for them based on his compassion

and the abundance of his faithful love.

8 He said, "They are indeed my people,
children who will not be disloyal,"
and he became their Savior.

9 In all their suffering, he suffered,
and the angel of his presence saved them.
He redeemed them
because of his love and compassion;
he lifted them up and carried them
all the days of the past.

10 But they rebelled
and grieved his Holy Spirit.
So he became their enemy
and fought against them.

- 11 Then he remembered the days of the past,
the days of Moses and his people.
Where is he who brought them out of the sea
with the shepherds of his flock?
Where is he who put his Holy Spirit
among the flock?
- 12 He made his glorious strength available at the right hand of Moses, divided the water before them
to make an eternal name for himself, and led them through the depths
like a horse in the wilderness,
so that they did not stumble.
- 14 Like cattle that go down into the valley,
the Spirit of the LORD gave them rest.
You led your people this way
to make a glorious name for yourself.
- 15 Look down from heaven and see
from your lofty home — holy and beautiful.
Where is your zeal and your might?
Your yearning and your compassion are withheld from me.
- 16 Yet you are our Father,
even though Abraham does not know us
and Israel doesn't recognize us.
You, LORD, are our Father;
your name is Our Redeemer
from Ancient Times.
- 17 Why, LORD, do you make us stray from your ways?
You harden our hearts so we do not fear you.
Return, because of your servants,
the tribes of your heritage.
- 18 Your holy people had a possession
for a little while,
but our enemies have trampled down
your sanctuary.
- 19 We have become like those you never ruled,
like those who did not bear your name.

- 64 If only you would tear the heavens open and come down,
so that mountains would quake
at your presence —
- 2 just as fire kindles brushwood, and fire boils water —
to make your name known to your enemies,
so that nations will tremble at your presence!
- 3 When you did awesome works
that we did not expect,
you came down,
and the mountains quaked at your presence.
- 4 From ancient times no one has heard,
no one has listened to,
no eye has seen any God except you who acts on behalf of the one who waits for him.
- 5 You welcome the one who joyfully does
what is right;
they remember you in your ways.
But we have sinned, and you were angry.
How can we be saved if we remain in our sins?
- 6 All of us have become like something unclean,
and all our righteous acts are like a polluted garment;
all of us wither like a leaf,
and our iniquities carry us away like the wind.
- 7 No one calls on your name,

- striving to take hold of you.
For you have hidden your face from us
and made us melt because of our iniquity.
- 8 Yet LORD, you are our Father;
we are the clay, and you are our potter;
we all are the work of your hands.
- 9 LORD, do not be terribly angry
or remember our iniquity forever.
Please look — all of us are your people!
- 10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness;
Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.
- 11 Our holy and beautiful temple,
where our fathers praised you,
has been burned down,
and all that was dear to us lies in ruins.
- 12 LORD, after all this, will you restrain yourself?
Will you keep silent and afflict us severely?
- 65 "I was sought by those who did not ask;
I was found by those who did not seek me.
I said, 'Here I am, here I am,'
to a nation that did not call on my name.
- 2 I spread out my hands all day long to a rebellious people who walk in the path that is not good,
following their own thoughts.
- 3 These people continually anger me
to my face,
sacrificing in gardens,
burning incense on bricks,
sitting among the graves,
spending nights in secret places,
eating the meat of pigs,
and putting polluted broth in their bowls.
- 5 They say, 'Keep to yourself,
don't come near me, for I am too holy for you!'
These practices are smoke in my nostrils,
a fire that burns all day long.
- 6 Look, it is written in front of me:
I will not keep silent, but I will repay;
I will repay them fully
- 7 for your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together,"
says the LORD.
"Because they burned incense on the mountains and reproached me on the hills,
I will reward them fully for their former deeds."
- ⁸The LORD says this:
"As the new wine is found in a bunch of grapes,
and one says, 'Don't destroy it,
for there's some good in it,'
so I will act because of my servants
and not destroy them all.
- 9 I will produce descendants from Jacob,
and heirs to my mountains from Judah;
my chosen ones will possess it,
and my servants will dwell there.
- 10 Sharon will be a pasture for flocks,
and the Valley of Achor a place for herds
to lie down,
for my people who have sought me.
- 11 But you who abandon the LORD,
who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune

and fill bowls of mixed wine for Destiny, 12 I will destine you for the sword,
 and all of you will kneel down to be slaughtered,
 because I called and you did not answer,
 I spoke and you did not hear;
 you did what was evil in my sight
 and chose what I did not delight in.”
 13 Therefore, this is what the Lord God says:
 “My servants will eat,
 but you will be hungry;
 my servants will drink,
 but you will be thirsty;
 my servants will rejoice,
 but you will be put to shame.
 14 My servants will shout for joy from a glad heart,
 but you will cry out from an anguished heart,
 and you will lament out of a broken spirit.
 15 You will leave your name behind
 as a curse for my chosen ones,
 and the Lord God will kill you;
 but he will give his servants another name.
 16 Whoever asks for a blessing in the land
 will ask for a blessing by the God of truth, and whoever swears in the land
 will swear by the God of truth.
 For the former troubles will be forgotten
 and hidden from my sight.
 17 “For I will create a new heaven and a new earth;
 the past events will not be remembered or come to mind.
 18 Then be glad and rejoice forever
 in what I am creating;
 for I will create Jerusalem to be a joy
 and its people to be a delight.
 19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in my people.
 The sound of weeping and crying
 will no longer be heard in her.
 20 In her, a nursing infant will no longer live
 only a few days,
 or an old man not live out his days.
 Indeed, the one who dies at a hundred years old
 will be mourned as a young man, and the one who misses a hundred years
 will be considered cursed.
 21 People will build houses and live in them;
 they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
 22 They will not build and others live in them;
 they will not plant and others eat.
 For my people’s lives will be like the lifetime of a tree.
 My chosen ones will fully enjoy
 the work of their hands.
 23 They will not labor without success or bear children destined for disaster, for they will be a people blessed by the LORD
 along with their descendants.
 24 Even before they call, I will answer;
 while they are still speaking, I will hear.
 25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together,
 and the lion will eat straw like cattle,
 but the serpent’s food will be dust!
 They will not do what is evil or destroy on my entire holy mountain,”
 says the LORD.

66 This is what the LORD says:
 Heaven is my throne,
 and earth is my footstool.
 Where could you possibly build a house for me?
 And where would my resting place be?
 2 My hand made all these things,
 and so they all came into being.
 This is the LORD’s declaration.
 I will look favorably on this kind of person:
 one who is humble, submissive in spirit,
 and trembles at my word.
 3 One person slaughters an ox, another kills
 a person;
 one person sacrifices a lamb, another breaks
 a dog’s neck;
 one person offers a grain offering, another offers
 pig’s blood;
 one person offers incense, another praises
 an idol—
 all these have chosen their ways
 and delight in their abhorrent practices.
 4 So I will choose their punishment,
 and I will bring on them what they dread
 because I called and no one answered;
 I spoke and they did not listen;
 they did what was evil in my sight
 and chose what I did not delight in.
 5 You who tremble at his word,
 hear the word of the LORD:
 “Your brothers who hate and exclude you
 for my name’s sake have said, ‘Let the LORD be glorified
 so that we can see your joy!’
 But they will be put to shame.”
 6 A sound of uproar from the city!
 A voice from the temple —
 the voice of the LORD,
 paying back his enemies what they deserve!
 7 Before Zion was in labor, she gave birth;
 before she was in pain, she delivered a boy.
 8 Who has heard of such a thing?
 Who has seen such things?
 Can a land be born in one day
 or a nation be delivered in an instant?
 Yet as soon as Zion was in labor,
 she gave birth to her sons.
 9 “Will I bring a baby to the point of birth and not deliver it?”
 says the LORD;
 “or will I who deliver, close the womb?”
 says your God.
 10 Be glad for Jerusalem and rejoice over her,
 all who love her.
 Rejoice greatly with her,
 all who mourn over her — 11 so that you may nurse and be satisfied from her comforting breast and drink deeply and delight yourselves
 from her glorious breasts.
 12 For this is what the LORD says:
 I will make peace flow to her like a river,
 and the wealth of nations like a flood;
 you will nurse and be carried on her hip
 and bounced on her lap.
 13 As a mother comforts her son,

so I will comfort you,
and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.

- ¹⁴ You will see, you will rejoice,
and you will flourish like grass;
then the LORD's power will be revealed to his servants,
but he will show his wrath against his enemies.

- ¹⁵ Look, the LORD will come with fire —
his chariots are like the whirlwind — to execute his anger with fury
and his rebuke with flames of fire.

- ¹⁶ For the LORD will execute judgment
on all people with his fiery sword,
and many will be slain by the LORD.

¹⁷ "Those who dedicate and purify themselves to enter the groves following their leader, eating meat from pigs, vermin, and rats, will perish together."

This is the LORD's declaration.

¹⁸ "Knowing their works and their thoughts, I have come to gather all nations and languages; they will come and see my glory. ¹⁹ I will establish a sign among them, and I will send survivors from them to the nations — to Tarshish, Put,

Lud (who are archers), Tubal, Javan, and the coasts and islands far away — who have not heard about me or seen my glory. And they will proclaim my glory among the nations.

²⁰ They will bring all your brothers from all the nations as a gift to the LORD on horses and chariots, in litters, and on mules and camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem," says the LORD, "just as the Israelites bring an offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD. ²¹ I will also take some of them as priests and Levites," says the LORD.

- ²² "For just as the new heavens and the new earth,
which I will make,
will remain before me" —
this is the LORD's declaration —
"so your offspring and your name will remain.

²³ All mankind will come to worship me from one New Moon to another and from one Sabbath to another,"
says the LORD.

²⁴ "As they leave, they will see the dead bodies of those who have rebelled against me; for their worm will never die, their fire will never go out, and they will be a horror to all mankind."

JEREMIAH

1 The words of Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests living in Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. ²The word of the LORD came to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah. ³It also came throughout the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.

⁴The word of the LORD came to me:

⁵ I chose you before I formed you in the womb;
I set you apart before you were born.
I appointed you a prophet to the nations.

⁶But I protested, "Oh no, Lord God! Look, I don't know how to speak since I am only a youth."

⁷Then the LORD said to me:

Do not say, "I am only a youth,"
for you will go to everyone I send you to and speak whatever I tell you.

⁸ Do not be afraid of anyone,
for I will be with you to rescue you.

This is the LORD's declaration.

⁹Then the LORD reached out his hand, touched my mouth, and told me:

I have now filled your mouth with my words.

¹⁰ See, I have appointed you today over nations and kingdoms
to uproot and tear down,
to destroy and demolish,
to build and plant.

¹¹Then the word of the LORD came to me, asking, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

I replied, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

¹²The LORD said to me, "You have seen correctly, for I watch over my word to accomplish it." ¹³Again the word of the LORD came to me asking, "What do you see?"

And I replied, "I see a boiling pot, its lip tilted from the north to the south."

¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, "Disaster will be poured out from the north on all who live in the land. ¹⁵Indeed, I am about to summon all the clans and kingdoms of the north."

This is the LORD's declaration.

They will come, and each king will set up his throne

at the entrance to Jerusalem's gates.

They will attack all her surrounding walls and all the other cities of Judah.

¹⁶"I will pronounce my judgments against them for all the evil they did when they abandoned me to burn incense to other gods and to worship the works of their own hands.

¹⁷"Now, get ready. Stand up and tell them everything that I command you. Do not be intimidated by them or I will cause you to cower before them. ¹⁸Today, I am the one who has made you a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land — against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the population. ¹⁹They will fight against you but never prevail over you, since I am with you to rescue you."

This is the LORD's declaration.

2 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Go and announce directly to Jerusalem that this is what the LORD says:

I remember the loyalty of your youth,
your love as a bride —
how you followed me in the wilderness,
in a land not sown.

³ Israel was holy to the LORD,
the firstfruits of his harvest.
All who ate of it found themselves guilty;
disaster came on them."

This is the LORD's declaration.

⁴ Hear the word of the LORD, house of Jacob and all families of the house of Israel.

⁵ This is what the LORD says:

What fault did your fathers find in me
that they went so far from me,
followed worthless idols,
and became worthless themselves?

⁶ They stopped asking, "Where is the LORD who brought us from the land of Egypt,
who led us through the wilderness,
through a land of deserts and ravines,
through a land of drought and darkness,
a land no one traveled through and where no one lived?"

⁷ I brought you to a fertile land

to eat its fruit and bounty,
but after you entered, you defiled my land;
you made my inheritance detestable.

⁸ The priests quit asking, "Where is the LORD?"
The experts in the law no longer knew me,
and the rulers rebelled against me.
The prophets prophesied by Baal
and followed useless idols.

⁹ Therefore, I will bring a case against you again.

This is the LORD's declaration.

I will bring a case against your children's children.

¹⁰ Cross over to the coasts of Cyprus and take a look.
Send someone to Kedar and consider carefully;
see if there has ever been anything like this:

¹¹ Has a nation ever exchanged its gods?
(But they were not gods!)

Yet my people have exchanged their Glory for useless idols.

¹² Be appalled at this, heavens;
be shocked and utterly desolated!
This is the LORD's declaration.

¹³ For my people have committed a double evil:
They have abandoned me,
the fountain of living water,
and dug cisterns for themselves —

cracked cisterns that cannot hold water.

¹⁴ Is Israel a slave?

Was he born into slavery?

Why else has he become a prey?

¹⁵ The young lions have roared at him;

they have roared loudly.

They have laid waste his land.

His cities are in ruins, without inhabitants.

¹⁶ The men of Memphis and Tahpanhes

have also broken your skull.

17 Have you not brought this on yourself by abandoning the LORD your God while he was leading you along the way?

18 Now what will you gain by traveling along the way to Egypt to drink the water of the Nile? What will you gain by traveling along the way to Assyria to drink the water of the Euphrates?

19 Your own evil will discipline you; your own apostasies will reprimand you. Recognize how evil and bitter it is for you to abandon the LORD your God and to have no fear of me.

This is the declaration of the Lord God of Armies.

20 For long ago I broke your yoke; I tore off your chains. You insisted, "I will not serve!" On every high hill and under every green tree you lay down like a prostitute.

21 I planted you, a choice vine from the very best seed. How then could you turn into a degenerate, foreign vine?

22 Even if you wash with lye and use a great amount of bleach, the stain of your iniquity is still in front of me.

This is the Lord God's declaration.

23 How can you protest, "I am not defiled; I have not followed the Baals"? Look at your behavior in the valley; acknowledge what you have done. You are a swift young camel twisting and turning on her way, 24 a wild donkey at home in the wilderness. She sniffs the wind in the heat of her desire. Who can control her passion? All who look for her will not become weary; they will find her in her mating season.

25 Keep your feet from going bare and your throat from thirst. But you say, "It's hopeless; I love strangers, and I will continue to follow them."

26 Like the shame of a thief when he is caught, so the house of Israel has been put to shame. They, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets

27 say to a tree, "You are my father," and to a stone, "You gave birth to me." For they have turned their back to me and not their face, yet in their time of disaster they beg, "Rise up and save us!"

28 But where are your gods you made for yourself? Let them rise up and save you in your time of disaster if they can, for your gods are as numerous as your cities, Judah.

29 Why do you bring a case against me? All of you have rebelled against me.

This is the LORD's declaration.

30 I have struck down your children in vain; they would not accept discipline. Your own sword has devoured your prophets like a ravaging lion.

31 Evil generation, pay attention to the word of the LORD! Have I been a wilderness to Israel or a land of dense darkness? Why do my people claim, "We will go where we want; we will no longer come to you"?

32 Can a young woman forget her jewelry or a bride her wedding sash? Yet my people have forgotten me for countless days.

33 How skillfully you pursue love; you also teach evil women your ways.

34 Moreover, your skirts are stained with the blood of the innocent poor. You did not catch them breaking and entering. But in spite of all these things

35 you claim, "I am innocent. His anger is sure to turn away from me." But I will certainly judge you because you have said, "I have not sinned."

36 How unstable you are, constantly changing your ways! You will be put to shame by Egypt just as you were put to shame by Assyria.

37 Moreover, you will be led out from here with your hands on your head since the LORD has rejected those you trust; you will not succeed even with their help.

If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him to marry another, can he ever return to her? Wouldn't such a land become totally defiled? But you!

You have prostituted yourself with many partners — can you return to me?

This is the LORD's declaration.

2 Look to the barren heights and see. Where have you not been immoral? You sat waiting for them beside the highways like a nomad in the desert. You have defiled the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

3 This is why the showers haven't come — why there has been no spring rain. You have the brazen look of a prostitute and refuse to be ashamed.

4 Haven't you recently called to me, "My Father. You were my friend in my youth.

5 Will he bear a grudge forever? Will he be endlessly infuriated?" This is what you have said, but you have done the evil things you are capable of.

⁶ In the days of King Josiah the LORD asked me, "Have you seen what unfaithful Israel has done? She has ascended every high hill and gone under every green tree to prostitute herself there. ⁷ I thought, 'After she has done all these things, she will return to me.' But she didn't return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. ⁸ I observed that it was because unfaithful Israel had committed adultery that I had sent her away and had given her a certificate of divorce. Nevertheless, her treacherous sister Judah was not afraid but also went and prostituted herself. ⁹ Indifferent to her prostitution, she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and trees. ¹⁰ Yet in spite of all this, her treacherous sister Judah didn't return to me with all her heart — only in pretense."

This is the LORD's declaration.

¹¹The LORD announced to me, "Unfaithful Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah.

¹²Go, proclaim these words to the north, and say,

"Return, unfaithful Israel.

This is the LORD's declaration.

I will not look on you with anger,
for I am unfaithful in my love.

This is the LORD's declaration.

I will not be angry forever.

¹³ Only acknowledge your guilt —

you have rebelled against the LORD your God.
You have scattered your favors to strangers
under every green tree
and have not obeyed me.

This is the LORD's declaration.

¹⁴"Return, you faithless children — this is the LORD's declaration — for I am your master, and I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. ¹⁵ I will give you shepherds who are loyal to me, and they will shepherd you with knowledge and skill. ¹⁶ When you multiply and increase in the land, in those days — this is the LORD's declaration — no one will say again, "The ark of the LORD's covenant." It will never come to mind, and no one will remember or miss it. Another one will not be made. ¹⁷ At that time Jerusalem will be called The LORD's Throne, and all the nations will be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD in Jerusalem. They will cease to follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts. ¹⁸ In those days the house of Judah will join with the house of Israel, and they will come together from the land of the north to the land I have given your ancestors to inherit."

¹⁹ I thought, "How I long to make you my sons and give you a desirable land,
the most beautiful inheritance of all the nations."
I thought, "You will call me 'My Father' and never turn away from me."

²⁰ However, as a woman may betray her lover,
so you have betrayed me, house of Israel.

This is the LORD's declaration.

²¹ A sound is heard on the barren heights:
the children of Israel weeping and begging
for mercy,

for they have perverted their way;
they have forgotten the LORD their God.

²² Return, you faithless children.

I will heal your unfaithfulness.
"Here we are, coming to you,
for you are the LORD our God.

²³ Surely, falsehood comes from the hills,
commotion from the mountains,
but the salvation of Israel
is only in the LORD our God.

²⁴ From the time of our youth
the shameful one has consumed what our fathers have worked for — their flocks and their herds,

their sons and their daughters.

²⁵ Let us lie down in our shame;
let our disgrace cover us.
We have sinned against the LORD our God,
both we and our fathers,
from the time of our youth even to this day.
We have not obeyed the LORD our God."

4 If you return, Israel —
this is the LORD's declaration —

you will return to me,
if you remove your abhorrent idols
from my presence
and do not waver,

² then you can swear, "As the LORD lives,"
in truth, in justice, and in righteousness,
then the nations will be blessed by him
and will pride themselves in him.

³ For this is what the LORD says to the men of Judah
and Jerusalem:

Break up the unplowed ground;
do not sow among the thorns.

⁴ Circumcise yourselves to the LORD;
remove the foreskin of your hearts,
men of Judah and residents of Jerusalem.
Otherwise, my wrath will break out like fire and burn with no one to extinguish it
because of your evil deeds.

⁵ Declare in Judah, proclaim in Jerusalem, and say:
Blow the ram's horn throughout the land.

Cry out loudly and say:
Assemble yourselves,
and let's flee to the fortified cities.

⁶ Lift up a signal flag toward Zion.
Run for cover! Don't stand still!
For I am bringing disaster from the north —
a crushing blow.

⁷ A lion has gone up from his thicket;
a destroyer of nations has set out.
He has left his lair

to make your land a waste.
Your cities will be reduced to uninhabited ruins.

⁸ Because of this, put on sackcloth;
mourn and wail,
for the LORD's burning anger
has not turned away from us.

⁹ "On that day" — this is the LORD's declaration — "the king and the officials will lose their courage. The priests will tremble in fear, and the prophets will be scared speechless."

¹⁰ I said, "Oh no, Lord God, you have certainly deceived this people and Jerusalem, by announcing, 'You will have peace,' while a sword is at our throats."

¹¹ "At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, 'A searing wind blows from the barren heights in the wilderness on the way to my dear people. It comes not to winnow or to sift; ¹² a wind too strong for this comes at my call. Now I will also pronounce judgments against them.'"

¹³ Look, he advances like clouds;
his chariots are like a storm.
His horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us, for we are ruined!

¹⁴ Wash the evil from your heart, Jerusalem,
so that you will be delivered.

How long will you harbor malicious thoughts?

¹⁵ For a voice announces from Dan, proclaiming malice from Mount Ephraim.

 16 Warn the nations: Look!
 Proclaim to Jerusalem:
 Those who besiege are coming from a distant land;
 they raise their voices
 against the cities of Judah.
 17 They have her surrounded like those who guard a field,
 because she has rebelled against me.
 This is the LORD's declaration.
 18 Your way and your actions
 have brought this on you.
 This is your punishment. It is very bitter,
 because it has reached your heart!
 19 My anguish, my anguish! I writhe in agony!
 Oh, the pain in my heart!
 My heart pounds;
 I cannot be silent.
 For you, my soul,
 have heard the sound of the ram's horn—
 the shout of battle.
 20 Disaster after disaster is reported because the whole land is destroyed.
 Suddenly my tents are destroyed,
 my tent curtains, in a moment.
 21 How long must I see the signal flag and hear the sound of the ram's horn?
 22 "For my people are fools;
 they do not know me.
 They are foolish children,
 without understanding.
 They are skilled in doing what is evil,
 but they do not know how to do what is good."
 23 I looked at the earth,
 and it was formless and empty.
 I looked to the heavens,
 and their light was gone.
 24 I looked at the mountains,
 and they were quaking;
 all the hills shook.
 25 I looked, and there was no human being,
 and all the birds of the sky had fled.
 26 I looked, and the fertile field was a wilderness.
 All its cities were torn down
 because of the LORD
 and his burning anger.
 27 For this is what the LORD says:
 The whole land will be a desolation,
 but I will not finish it off.
 28 Because of this, the earth will mourn;
 the skies above will grow dark.
 I have spoken; I have planned,
 and I will not relent or turn back from it.
 29 Every city flees
 at the sound of the horseman and the archer.
 They enter the thickets
 and climb among the rocks.
 Every city is abandoned;
 no inhabitant is left.
 30 And you, devastated one, what are you doing that you dress yourself in scarlet,
 that you adorn yourself with gold jewelry,
 that you enhance your eyes with makeup?
 You beautify yourself for nothing.

Your lovers reject you;
 they intend to take your life.
 31 I hear a cry like a woman in labor,
 a cry of anguish like one bearing her first child.
 The cry of Daughter Zion gasping for breath,
 stretching out her hands:
 "Woe is me, for my life is weary because of the murderers!"
 Roam through the streets of Jerusalem.
 5 Investigate;
 search in her squares.
 If you find one person,
 any who acts justly,
 who pursues faithfulness,
 then I will forgive her.
 2 When they say, "As the LORD lives," they are swearing falsely.
 3 LORD, don't your eyes look for faithfulness?
 You have struck them, but they felt no pain.
 You finished them off,
 but they refused to accept discipline.
 They made their faces harder than rock,
 and they refused to return.
 4 Then I thought:
 They are just the poor;
 they have been foolish.
 For they don't understand the way of the LORD,
 the justice of their God.
 5 I will go to the powerful and speak to them.
 Surely they know the way of the LORD,
 the justice of their God.
 However, these also had broken the yoke
 and torn off the chains.
 6 Therefore, a lion from the forest will strike them down.
 A wolf from arid plains will ravage them.
 A leopard stalks their cities.
 Anyone who leaves them will be torn to pieces
 because their rebellious acts are many,
 their unfaithful deeds numerous.
 7 Why should I forgive you?
 Your children have abandoned me
 and sworn by those who are not gods.
 I satisfied their needs, yet they committed adultery;
 they gashed themselves at the prostitute's house.
 8 They are well-fed, eager stallions,
 each neighing after someone else's wife.
 9 Should I not punish them for these things?
 This is the LORD's declaration.
 Should I not avenge myself
 on such a nation as this?
 10 Go up among her vineyard terraces
 and destroy them,
 but do not finish them off.
 Prune away her shoots,
 for they do not belong to the LORD.
 11 They, the house of Israel and the house of Judah,
 have dealt very treacherously with me.
 This is the LORD's declaration.
 12 They have contradicted the LORD and insisted, "It won't happen.
 Harm won't come to us;
 we won't see sword or famine."

- 13 The prophets become only wind,
for the LORD's word is not in them.
This will in fact happen to them.
- 14 Therefore, this is what the Lord God of Armies says:
Because you have spoken this word,
I am going to make my words
become fire in your mouth.
These people are the wood,
and the fire will consume them.
- 15 I am about to bring a nation
from far away against you,
house of Israel.
This is the LORD's declaration.
It is an established nation,
an ancient nation,
a nation whose language you do not know
and whose speech you do not understand.
- 16 Their quiver is like an open grave;
they are all warriors.
- 17 They will consume your harvest and your food.
They will consume your sons and your daughters.
They will consume your flocks and your herds.
They will consume your vines and your fig trees.
With the sword they will destroy your fortified cities in which you trust.
- 18 "But even in those days" — this is the LORD's declaration — "I will not finish you off. 19 When people ask, 'For what offense has the LORD our God done all these things to us?' You will respond to them, 'Just as you abandoned me and served foreign gods in your land, so will you serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'
- 20 "Declare this in the house of Jacob; proclaim it in Judah, saying:
- 21 Hear this,
you foolish and senseless people.
They have eyes, but they don't see.
They have ears, but they don't hear.
- 22 Do you not fear me?
This is the LORD's declaration.
Do you not tremble before me,
the one who set the sand as the boundary of the sea,
an enduring barrier that it cannot cross?
The waves surge, but they cannot prevail.
They roar but cannot pass over it.
- 23 But these people have stubborn and rebellious hearts.
They have turned aside and have gone away.
- 24 They have not said to themselves,
'Let's fear the LORD our God,
who gives the seasonal rains, both autumn
and spring,
who guarantees to us the fixed weeks
of the harvest.'
- 25 Your guilty acts have diverted these things
from you.
Your sins have withheld my bounty from you,
for wicked men live among my people.
They watch like hunters lying in wait.
They set a trap;
they catch men.
- 27 Like a cage full of birds,
so their houses are full of deceit.
Therefore they have grown powerful and rich.
- 28 They have become fat and sleek.

They have also excelled in evil matters.
They have not taken up cases,
such as the case of the fatherless,
so they might prosper,
and they have not defended the rights of the needy.

- 29 Should I not punish them for these things?
This is the LORD's declaration.
Should I not avenge myself
on such a nation as this?
- 30 An appalling, horrible thing
has taken place in the land.
- 31 The prophets prophesy falsely,
and the priests rule by their own authority.
My people love it like this.
But what will you do at the end of it?
"Run for cover
out of Jerusalem, Benjaminites.
Sound the ram's horn in Tekoa;
raise a smoke signal over Beth-haccherem,
for disaster threatens from the north,
even a crushing blow.
- 2 Though she is beautiful and delicate,
I will destroy Daughter Zion.
- 3 Shepherds and their flocks will come against her;
they will pitch their tents all around her.
Each will pasture his own portion.
- 4 Set them apart for war against her;
rise up, let's attack at noon.
Woe to us, for the day is passing;
the evening shadows grow long.
- 5 Rise up, let's attack by night.
Let us destroy her fortresses."
- 6 For this is what the LORD of Armies says:
Cut down the trees;
raise a siege ramp against Jerusalem.
This city must be punished.
There is nothing but oppression within her.
- 7 As a well gushes out its water,
so she pours out her evil.
Violence and destruction resound in her.
Sickness and wounds keep coming to my attention.
- 8 Be warned, Jerusalem,
or I will turn away from you;
I will make you a desolation,
a land without inhabitants.
- 9 This is what the LORD of Armies says:
Glean the remnant of Israel
as thoroughly as a vine.
Pass your hand once more like a grape gatherer
over the branches.
- 10 Who can I speak to and give such a warning
that they will listen?
Look, their ear is uncircumcised,
so they cannot pay attention.
See, the word of the LORD has become contemptible to them —
they find no pleasure in it.
- 11 But I am full of the LORD's wrath;
I am tired of holding it back.
Pour it out on the children in the street,
on the gathering of young men as well.
For both husband and wife will be captured,
the old with the very old.

- 12 Their houses will be turned over to others, their fields and wives as well, for I will stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 13 For from the least to the greatest of them, everyone is making profit dishonestly. From prophet to priest, everyone deals falsely.
- 14 They have treated my people's brokenness superficially, claiming, "Peace, peace," when there is no peace.
- 15 Were they ashamed when they acted so detestably?
They weren't at all ashamed. They can no longer feel humiliation. Therefore, they will fall among the fallen. When I punish them, they will collapse, says the LORD.
- 16 This is what the LORD says:
Stand by the roadways and look. Ask about the ancient paths, "Which is the way to what is good?" Then take it and find rest for yourselves. But they protested, "We won't!"
- 17 I appointed watchmen over you and said, "Listen for the sound of the ram's horn." But they protested, "We won't listen!"
- 18 Therefore listen, you nations and you witnesses, learn what the charge is against them.
- 19 Listen, earth!
I am about to bring disaster on these people, the fruit of their own plotting, for they have paid no attention to my words. They have rejected my instruction.
- 20 What use to me is frankincense from Sheba or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable; your sacrifices do not please me.
- 21 Therefore, this is what the LORD says:
I am going to place stumbling blocks before these people;
fathers and sons together will stumble over them; friends and neighbors will also perish.
- 22 This is what the LORD says:
Look, an army is coming from a northern land; a great nation will be stirred up from the remote regions of the earth.
- 23 They grasp bow and javelin. They are cruel and show no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, lined up like men in battle formation against you, Daughter Zion.
- 24 We have heard about it, and our hands have become weak. Distress has seized us — pain, like a woman in labor.
- 25 Don't go out to the fields; don't walk on the road. For the enemy has a sword; terror is on every side.

- 26 My dear people, dress yourselves in sackcloth and roll in the dust.
Mourn as you would for an only son, a bitter lament,
for suddenly the destroyer will come on us.
- 27 I have appointed you to be an assayer among my people — a refiner —
so you may know and assay their way of life.
- 28 All are stubborn rebels spreading slander. They are bronze and iron; all of them are corrupt.
- 29 The bellows blow, blasting the lead with fire. The refining is completely in vain; the evil ones are not separated out.
- 30 They are called rejected silver, for the LORD has rejected them.

7 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ² "Stand in the gate of the house of the LORD and there call out this word: 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who enter through these gates to worship the LORD.

³ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Correct your ways and your actions, and I will allow you to live in this place. ⁴ Do not trust deceitful words, chanting, "This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD."⁵ Instead, if you really correct your ways and your actions, if you act justly toward one another, ⁶ if you no longer oppress the resident alien, the fatherless, and the widow and no longer shed innocent blood in this place or follow other gods, bringing harm on yourselves, ⁷ I will allow you to live in this place, the land I gave to your ancestors long ago and forever. ⁸ But look, you keep trusting in deceitful words that cannot help.

⁹ "Do you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and follow other gods that you have not known? ¹⁰ Then do you come and stand before me in this house that bears my name and say, "We are rescued, so we can continue doing all these detestable acts?" ¹¹ Has this house, which bears my name, become a den of robbers in your view? Yes, I too have seen it.

¹² "But return to my place that was at Shiloh, where I made my name dwell at first. See what I did to it because of the evil of my people Israel. ¹³ Now, because you have done all these things — this is the LORD's declaration — and because I have spoken to you time and time again but you wouldn't listen, and I have called to you, but you wouldn't answer, ¹⁴ what I did to Shiloh I will do to the house that bears my name — the house in which you trust — the place that I gave you and your ancestors. ¹⁵ I will banish you from my presence, just as I banished all of your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim."

¹⁶ "As for you, do not pray for these people. Do not offer a cry or a prayer on their behalf, and do not beg me, for I will not listen to you. ¹⁷ Don't you see how they behave in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸ The sons gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven, and they pour out drink offerings to other gods so that they provoke me to anger. ¹⁹ But are they really provoking me?" This is the LORD's declaration. "Isn't it they themselves being provoked to disgrace?"

²⁰Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: "Look, my anger — my burning wrath — is about to be poured out on this place, on people and animals, on the tree of the field, and on the produce of the land. My wrath will burn and not be quenched."

²¹This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices, and eat the meat yourselves, ²²for when I brought your ancestors out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak with them or command them concerning burnt offering and sacrifice.

²³However, I did give them this command: 'Obey me, and then I will be your God, and you will be my people. Follow every way I command you so that it may go well with you.'

²⁴Yet they didn't listen or pay attention but followed their own advice and their own stubborn, evil heart. They went backward and not forward. ²⁵Since the day your ancestors came out of the land of Egypt until today, I have sent all my servants the prophets to you time and time again. ²⁶However, my people wouldn't listen to me or pay attention but became obstinate; they did more evil than their ancestors.

²⁷"When you speak all these things to them, they will not listen to you. When you call to them, they will not answer you. ²⁸Therefore, declare to them, "This is the nation that would not listen to the LORD their God and would not accept discipline. Truth has perished — it has disappeared from their mouths. ²⁹Cut off the hair of your sacred vow and throw it away. Raise up a dirge on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and abandoned the generation under his wrath."

³²"Therefore, look, the days are coming" — the LORD's declaration — "when this place will no longer be called Topheth and Ben Hinnom Valley, but the Valley of Slaughter. Topheth will become a cemetery, because there will be no other burial place. ³³The corpses of these people will become food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land, with no one to scare them away. ³⁴I will remove from the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem the sound of joy and gladness and the voices of the groom and the bride, for the land will become a desolate waste.

8 "At that time" — this is the LORD's declaration — "the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of her officials, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the residents of Jerusalem will be brought out of their graves. ²They will be exposed to the sun, the moon, and all the stars in the sky, which they have loved, served, followed, consulted, and worshiped. Their bones will not be collected and buried but will become like manure on the soil's surface. ³Death will be chosen over life by all the survivors of this evil family, those who remain wherever I have banished them." This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.

⁴"You are to say to them: This is what the LORD says:

Do people fall and not get up again?

If they turn away, do they not return?

⁵ Why have these people turned away?

Why is Jerusalem always turning away?

They take hold of deceit;

they refuse to return.

⁶ I have paid careful attention. They do not speak what is right. No one regrets his evil, asking, 'What have I done?' Everyone has stayed his course like a horse rushing into battle.

⁷ Even storks in the sky know their seasons. Turtledoves, swallows, and cranes are aware of their migration, but my people do not know the requirements of the LORD.

⁸ "How can you claim, 'We are wise; the law of the LORD is with us?' In fact, the lying pen of scribes has produced falsehood.

⁹ The wise will be put to shame; they will be dismayed and snared. They have rejected the word of the LORD, so what wisdom do they really have?

¹⁰ Therefore, I will give their wives to other men, their fields to new occupants, for from the least to the greatest, everyone is making profit dishonestly. From prophet to priest, everyone deals falsely.

¹¹ They have treated the brokenness of my dear people superficially, claiming, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.

¹² Were they ashamed when they acted so detestably?

They weren't at all ashamed.

They can no longer feel humiliation.

Therefore, they will fall among the fallen.

When I punish them, they will collapse," says the LORD.

¹³ I will gather them and bring them to an end.

This is the LORD's declaration.

There will be no grapes on the vine,

no figs on the fig tree,

and even the leaf will wither.

Whatever I have given them will be lost to them.

¹⁴ Why are we just sitting here?

Gather together; let us enter the fortified cities and perish there,

for the LORD our God has destroyed us.

He has given us poisoned water to drink,

because we have sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵ We hoped for peace, but there was nothing good;

for a time of healing, but there was only terror.

¹⁶ From Dan, the snorting of horses is heard.

At the sound of the neighing of mighty steeds,

the whole land quakes.

They come to devour the land and everything in it,

the city and all its residents.

¹⁷ Indeed, I am about to send snakes among you, poisonous vipers that cannot be charmed. They will bite you.

This is the LORD's declaration.

¹⁸ My joy has flown away;

grief has settled on me.

My heart is sick.

¹⁹ Listen — the cry of my dear people from a faraway land,

"Is the LORD no longer in Zion, her King not within her?"

Why have they angered me
with their carved images,
with their worthless foreign idols?

²⁰ Harvest has passed, summer has ended,
but we have not been saved.

²¹ I am broken by the brokenness
of my dear people.

I mourn; horror has taken hold of me.

²² Is there no balm in Gilead?

Is there no physician there?

So why has the healing of my dear people not come about?

9 If my head were a flowing spring,
my eyes a fountain of tears,
I would weep day and night
over the slain of my dear people.

² If only I had a traveler's lodging place
in the wilderness,

I would abandon my people
and depart from them,
for they are all adulterers,
a solemn assembly of treacherous people.

³ They bent their tongues like their bows;
lies and not faithfulness prevail in the land,
for they proceed from one evil to another,
and they do not take me into account.

This is the LORD's declaration.

⁴ Everyone has to be on guard against his friend.
Don't trust any brother,
for every brother will certainly deceive,
and every friend spread slander.

⁵ Each one betrays his friend;
no one tells the truth.
They have taught their tongues to speak lies;
they wear themselves out doing wrong.

⁶ You live in a world of deception.
In their deception they refuse to know me.
This is the LORD's declaration.

⁷ Therefore, this is what the LORD of Armies says:
I am about to refine them and test them,
for what else can I do
because of my dear people?

⁸ Their tongues are deadly arrows —
they speak deception.
With his mouth

one speaks peaceably with his friend,
but inwardly he sets up an ambush.

⁹ Should I not punish them for these things?
This is the LORD's declaration.

Should I not avenge myself
on such a nation as this?

¹⁰ I will raise weeping and a lament
over the mountains,
a dirge over the wilderness grazing land,
for they have been so scorched
that no one passes through.
The sound of cattle is no longer heard.
From the birds of the sky to the animals,
everything has fled — they have gone away.

¹¹ I will make Jerusalem a heap of rubble,
a jackals' den.
I will make the cities of Judah a desolation,
an uninhabited place.

¹² Who is the person wise enough to understand this?
Who has the LORD spoken to, that he may explain it? Why is the land destroyed and scorched like a wilderness, so no one can pass through?

¹³ The LORD said, "It is because they abandoned my instruction, which I set before them, and did not obey my voice or walk according to it. ¹⁴ Instead, they followed the stubbornness of their hearts and followed the Baals as their fathers taught them." ¹⁵ Therefore, this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "I am about to feed this people wormwood and give them poisonous water to drink.
¹⁶ I will scatter them among the nations that they and their fathers have not known. I will send a sword after them until I have finished them off."

¹⁷ This is what the LORD of Armies says:

Consider, and summon the women who mourn;
send for the skillful women.

¹⁸ Let them come quickly to raise a lament over us
so that our eyes may overflow with tears,
our eyelids be soaked with weeping.

¹⁹ For a sound of lamentation is heard from Zion:
How devastated we are.

We are greatly ashamed,
for we have abandoned the land;
our dwellings have been torn down.

²⁰ Now hear the word of the LORD, you women.
Pay attention to the words from his mouth.
Teach your daughters a lament
and one another a dirge,

²¹ for Death has climbed through our windows;
it has entered our fortresses,
cutting off children from the streets,
young men from the squares.

²² "Speak as follows: This is what the LORD declares: Human corpses will fall like manure on the surface of the field, like newly cut grain after the reaper with no one to gather it.

²³ " This is what the LORD says:

The wise person should not boast in his wisdom;
the strong should not boast in his strength;
the wealthy should not boast in his wealth.

²⁴ But the one who boasts should boast in this:
that I am the LORD, showing faithful love,
justice, and righteousness on the earth,
for I delight in these things.

This is the LORD's declaration.

²⁵ " Look, the days are coming — this is the LORD's declaration — when I will punish all the circumcised yet uncircumcised: ²⁶ Egypt, Judah, Edom, the Ammonites, Moab, and all the inhabitants of the desert who clip the hair on their temples. All these nations are uncircumcised, and the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart."

10 Hear the word that the LORD has spoken to you, house of Israel. ² This is what the LORD says:
Do not learn the way of the nations
or be terrified by signs in the heavens,
although the nations are terrified by them,
³ for the customs of the peoples are worthless.
Someone cuts down a tree from the forest;
it is worked by the hands of a craftsman
with a chisel.

⁴ He decorates it with silver and gold.
It is fastened with hammer and nails,
so it won't totter.

⁵ Like scarecrows in a cucumber patch,

their idols cannot speak.
 They must be carried because they cannot walk.
 Do not fear them for they can do no harm —
 and they cannot do any good.

6 LORD, there is no one like you.
 You are great;
 your name is great in power.

7 Who should not fear you,
 King of the nations?
 It is what you deserve.
 For among all the wise people of the nations
 and among all their kingdoms,
 there is no one like you.

8 They are both stupid and foolish, instructed by worthless idols
 made of wood!

9 Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish
 and gold from Uphaz.
 The work of a craftsman
 and of a goldsmith's hands
 is clothed in blue and purple,
 all the work of skilled artisans.

10 But the LORD is the true God;
 he is the living God and eternal King.
 The earth quakes at his wrath,
 and the nations cannot endure his rage.

11 You are to say this to them: "The gods that did not make the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth and from under these heavens."

12 He made the earth by his power,
 established the world by his wisdom,
 and spread out the heavens by his understanding.

13 When he thunders,
 the waters in the heavens are in turmoil,
 and he causes the clouds to rise
 from the ends of the earth.
 He makes lightning for the rain
 and brings the wind from his storehouses.

14 Everyone is stupid and ignorant.
 Every goldsmith is put to shame
 by his carved image,
 for his cast images are a lie;
 there is no breath in them.

15 They are worthless, a work to be mocked.
 At the time of their punishment
 they will be destroyed.

16 Jacob's Portion is not like these
 because he is the one who formed all things.
 Israel is the tribe of his inheritance;
 the LORD of Armies is his name.

17 Gather up your belongings from the ground,
 you who live under siege.

18 For this is what the LORD says:
 Look, I am flinging away
 the land's residents at this time and bringing them such distress
 that they will feel it.

19 Woe to me because of my brokenness —
 I am severely wounded!
 I exclaimed, "This is my intense suffering,
 but I must bear it."

20 My tent is destroyed;
 all my tent cords are snapped.
 My sons have departed from me and are no more.
 I have no one to pitch my tent again

or to hang up my curtains.

21 For the shepherds are stupid:
 They don't seek the LORD.
 Therefore they have not prospered,
 and their whole flock is scattered.

22 Listen! A noise — it is coming —
 a great commotion from the land to the north.
 The cities of Judah will be made desolate,
 a jackals' den.

23 I know, LORD,
 that a person's way of life is not his own;
 no one who walks determines his own steps.

24 Discipline me, LORD, but with justice —
 not in your anger,
 or you will reduce me to nothing.

25 Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't recognize you
 and on the families
 that don't call on your name,
 for they have consumed Jacob;
 they have consumed him and finished him off
 and made his homeland desolate.

11 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Listen to the words of this covenant and tell them to the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem. ³Tell them, 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: "Let a curse be on the man who does not obey the words of this covenant, ⁴which I commanded your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace." I declared, "Obey me, and do everything that I command you, and you will be my people, and I will be your God," ⁵in order to establish the oath I swore to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today."
 I answered, "Amen, LORD."

⁶The LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Obey the words of this covenant and carry them out.' ⁷For I strongly warned your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt until today, warning them time and time again, 'Obey me.' ⁸Yet they would not obey or pay attention; each one followed the stubbornness of his evil heart.
 So I brought on them all the curses of this covenant, because they had not done what I commanded them to do."

⁹The LORD said to me, "A conspiracy has been discovered among the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem. ¹⁰They have returned to the iniquities of their fathers who refused to obey my words and have followed other gods to worship them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah broke my covenant I made with their ancestors.

¹¹"Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to bring on them disaster that they cannot escape. They will cry out to me, but I will not hear them. ¹²Then the cities of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods they have been burning incense to, but they certainly will not save them in their time of disaster. ¹³Your gods are indeed as numerous as your cities, Judah, and the altars you have set up to Shame — altars to burn incense to Baal — as numerous as the streets of Jerusalem.

¹⁴"As for you, do not pray for these people. Do not raise up a cry or a prayer on their behalf, for I will not be listening when they call out to me at the time of their disaster.

¹⁵ What right does my beloved have to be in my house,
 having carried out so many evil schemes?

Can holy meat prevent your disaster
so you can celebrate?

- 16 The LORD named you
a flourishing olive tree,
beautiful with well-formed fruit.
He has set fire to it,
and its branches are consumed
with the sound of a mighty tumult.

17 "The LORD of Armies who planted you has decreed disaster against you, because of the disaster the house of Israel and the house of Judah brought on themselves when they angered me by burning incense to Baal."

- 18 The LORD informed me, so I knew.
Then you helped me to see their deeds,
19 for I was like a docile lamb led to slaughter.
I didn't know that they had devised plots
against me:

"Let's destroy the tree with its fruit;
let's cut him off from the land of the living
so that his name will no longer be remembered."

- 20 But, LORD of Armies, who judges righteously,
who tests heart and mind,
let me see your vengeance on them,
for I have presented my case to you.

21 Therefore, here is what the LORD says concerning the people of Anathoth who intend to take your life. They warn, "Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, or you will certainly die at our hand." 22 Therefore, this is what the LORD of Armies says: "I am about to punish them. The young men will die by the sword; their sons and daughters will die by famine. 23 They will have no remnant, for I will bring disaster on the people of Anathoth in the year of their punishment."

12 You will be righteous, LORD,
even if I bring a case against you.

Yet, I wish to contend with you:
Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why do all the treacherous live at ease?

- 2 You planted them, and they have taken root.
They have grown and produced fruit.
You are ever on their lips,
but far from their conscience.

- 3 As for you, LORD, you know me; you see me.
You test whether my heart is with you.
Drag the wicked away like sheep to slaughter
and set them apart for the day of killing.

- 4 How long will the land mourn
and the grass of every field wither?
Because of the evil of its residents,
animals and birds have been swept away,
for the people have said,
"He cannot see what our end will be."

- 5 If you have raced with runners
and they have worn you out,
how can you compete with horses?
If you stumble in a peaceful land,
what will you do in the thickets of the Jordan?

- 6 Even your brothers — your own father's family —
even they were treacherous to you;
even they have cried out loudly after you.
Do not have confidence in them,
though they speak well of you.

- 7 I have abandoned my house;
I have deserted my inheritance.
I have handed the love of my life

over to her enemies.

- 8 My inheritance has behaved toward me
like a lion in the forest.
She has roared against me.
Therefore, I hate her.
9 Is my inheritance like a hyena to me?
Are birds of prey circling her?
Go, gather all the wild animals;
bring them to devour her.
10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard;
they have trampled my plot of land.
They have turned my desirable plot
into a desolate wasteland.
11 They have made it a desolation.
It mourns, desolate, before me.
All the land is desolate,
but no one takes it to heart.
12 Over all the barren heights in the wilderness
the destroyers have come,
for the LORD has a sword that devours
from one end of the earth to the other.
No one has peace.
13 They have sown wheat but harvested thorns.
They have exhausted themselves but have no profit.

Be put to shame by your harvests
because of the LORD's burning anger.

14 This is what the LORD says: "Concerning all my evil neighbors who attack the inheritance that I bequeathed to my people, Israel, I am about to uproot them from their land, and I will uproot the house of Judah from them. 15 After I have uprooted them, I will once again have compassion on them and return each one to his inheritance and to his land. 16 If they will diligently learn the ways of my people — to swear by my name, 'As the LORD lives,' just as they taught my people to swear by Baal — they will be built up among my people. 17 However, if they will not obey, then I will uproot and destroy that nation."

This is the LORD's declaration.

13 This is what the LORD said to me: "Go and buy yourself a linen undergarment and put it on. But do not put it in water." 2 So I bought underwear as the LORD instructed me and put it on.

3 Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time: 4 "Take the underwear that you bought and are wearing, and go at once to the Euphrates and hide it in a rocky crevice." 5 So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 A long time later the LORD said to me, "Go at once to the Euphrates and get the underwear that I commanded you to hide there." 7 So I went to the Euphrates and dug up the underwear and got it from the place where I had hidden it, but it was ruined — of no use at all.

8 Then the word of the LORD came to me: 9 "This is what the LORD says: Just like this I will ruin the great pride of both Judah and Jerusalem. 10 These evil people, who refuse to listen to me, who follow the stubbornness of their own hearts, and who have followed other gods to serve and bow in worship — they will be like this underwear, of no use at all. 11 Just as underwear clings to one's waist, so I fastened the whole house of Israel and of Judah to me" — this is the LORD's declaration — "so that they might be my people for my fame, praise, and glory, but they would not obey."

12 "Say this to them: 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Every jar should be filled with wine.' Then they will respond to you, 'Don't we know that every jar should be filled with wine?'¹³ And you will say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: I am about to fill all who live in this land — the kings who reign for David on his throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the residents of Jerusalem — with drunkenness.¹⁴ I will smash them against each other, fathers and sons alike — this is the LORD's declaration. I will allow no mercy, pity, or compassion to keep me from destroying them.'"

¹⁵ Listen and pay attention. Do not be proud, for the LORD has spoken.

¹⁶ Give glory to the LORD your God

before he brings darkness, before your feet stumble
on the mountains at dusk.

You wait for light,
but he brings darkest gloom
and makes total darkness.

¹⁷ But if you will not listen,
my innermost being will weep in secret
because of your pride.
My eyes will overflow with tears,
for the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

¹⁸ Say to the king and the queen mother:
Take a humble seat,
for your glorious crowns
have fallen from your heads.

¹⁹ The cities of the Negev are under siege;
no one can help them.
All of Judah has been taken into exile,
taken completely into exile.

²⁰ Look up and see
those coming from the north.
Where is the flock entrusted to you,
the sheep that were your pride?

²¹ What will you say when he appoints close friends as leaders over you, ones you yourself trained?
Won't labor pains seize you,
as they do a woman in labor?

²² And when you ask yourself,
"Why have these things happened to me?"
it is because of your great guilt
that your skirts have been stripped off, your body exposed.

²³ Can the Cushite change his skin,
or a leopard his spots?
If so, you might be able to do what is good,
you who are instructed in evil.

²⁴ I will scatter you like drifting chaff
before the desert wind.

²⁵ This is your lot,
what I have decreed for you —
this is the LORD's declaration —
because you have forgotten me
and trusted in lies.

²⁶ I will pull your skirts up over your face
so that your shame might be seen.

²⁷ Your adulteries and your lustful neighing,
your depraved prostitution
on the hills, in the fields —
I have seen your abhorrent acts.
Woe to you, Jerusalem!
You are unclean —
for how long yet?

14 This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

² Judah mourns;
her city gates languish.
Her people are on the ground in mourning;
Jerusalem's cry rises up.

³ Their nobles send their servants for water.
They go to the cisterns;
they find no water;
their containers return empty.
They are ashamed and humiliated;
they cover their heads.

⁴ The ground is cracked
since no rain has fallen on the land.
The farmers are ashamed;
they cover their heads.

⁵ Even the doe in the field gives birth and abandons her fawn since there is no grass.

⁶ Wild donkeys stand on the barren heights panting for air like jackals.
Their eyes fail

because there are no green plants.
⁷ Though our iniquities testify against us,
LORD, act for your name's sake.
Indeed, our rebellions are many;
we have sinned against you.

⁸ Hope of Israel,
its Savior in time of distress,
why are you like a resident alien in the land,
like a traveler stopping only for the night?

⁹ Why are you like a helpless man,
like a warrior unable to save?
Yet you are among us, LORD,
and we bear your name.
Don't leave us!

¹⁰ This is what the LORD says concerning these people:
Truly they love to wander;
they never rest their feet.
So the LORD does not accept them.
Now he will remember their iniquity
and punish their sins.

¹¹ Then the LORD said to me, "Do not pray for the well-being of these people. ¹² If they fast, I will not hear their cry of despair. If they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I will not accept them. Rather, I will finish them off by sword, famine, and plague."

¹³ And I replied, "Oh no, Lord God! The prophets are telling them, 'You won't see sword or suffer famine. I will certainly give you lasting peace in this place.'"

¹⁴ But the LORD said to me, "These prophets are prophesying a lie in my name. I did not send them, nor did I command them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a false vision, worthless divination, the deceit of their own minds.

¹⁵ "Therefore, this is what the LORD says concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, though I did not send them, and who say, 'There will never be sword or famine in this land.' By sword and famine these prophets will meet their end. ¹⁶ The people they are prophesying to will be thrown into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword. There will be no one to bury them — they, their wives, their sons, and their daughters. I will pour out their own evil on them."

¹⁷ You are to speak this word to them:

Let my eyes overflow with tears;
 day and night may they not stop,
 for the virgin daughter of my people
 has been destroyed by a crushing blow,
 an extremely severe wound.

18 If I go out to the field,
 look — those slain by the sword!
 If I enter the city,
 look — those ill from famine!
 For both prophet and priest travel to a land they do not know.

19 Have you completely rejected Judah?
 Do you detest Zion?
 Why do you strike us
 with no hope of healing for us?
 We hoped for peace,
 but there was nothing good;
 for a time of healing,
 but there was only terror.

20 We acknowledge our wickedness, LORD,
 the iniquity of our fathers;
 indeed, we have sinned against you.

21 For your name's sake, don't despise us.
 Don't disdain your glorious throne.
 Remember your covenant with us;
 do not break it.

22 Can any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain?
 Or can the skies alone give showers?
 Are you not the LORD our God?
 We therefore put our hope in you,
 for you have done all these things.

15 Then the LORD said to me: "Even if Moses and Samuel should stand before me, my compassions would not reach out to these people. Send them from my presence, and let them go. ² If they ask you, 'Where will we go?' tell them: This is what the LORD says:

Those destined for death, to death;
 those destined for the sword, to the sword.
 Those destined for famine, to famine;
 those destined for captivity, to captivity.

³ "I will ordain four kinds of judgment for them" — this is the LORD's declaration — "the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the land to devour and destroy. ⁴ I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of Manasseh son of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

⁵ Who will have pity on you, Jerusalem?
 Who will show sympathy toward you?
 Who will turn aside
 to ask about your well-being?

⁶ You have left me."

This is the LORD's declaration.
 "You have turned your back,
 so I have stretched out my hand against you
 and destroyed you.
 I am tired of showing compassion.

⁷ I scattered them with a winnowing fork
 at the city gates of the land.
 I made them childless; I destroyed my people.
 They would not turn from their ways.

⁸ I made their widows more numerous than the sand of the seas.
 I brought a destroyer at noon

against the mother of young men.
 I suddenly released on her agitation and terrors.

⁹ The mother of seven grew faint;
 she breathed her last breath.
 Her sun set while it was still day;
 she was ashamed and humiliated.
 The rest of them I will give over to the sword
 in the presence of their enemies."

This is the LORD's declaration.

¹⁰ Woe is me, my mother,
 that you gave birth to me,
 a man who incites dispute and conflict
 in all the land.

I did not lend or borrow,
 yet everyone curses me.

¹¹ The LORD said:

Haven't I set you loose for your good?
 Haven't I punished you
 in a time of trouble,
 in a time of distress with the enemy?

¹² Can anyone smash iron,
 iron from the north, or bronze?

¹³ I will give up your wealth and your treasures as plunder, without cost, for all your sins
 in all your borders.

¹⁴ Then I will make you serve your enemies
 in a land you do not know,
 for my anger will kindle a fire
 that will burn against you.

¹⁵ You know, LORD;
 remember me and take note of me.
 Avenge me against my persecutors.
 In your patience, don't take me away.
 Know that I suffer disgrace for your honor.

¹⁶ Your words were found, and I ate them.
 Your words became a delight to me
 and the joy of my heart,
 for I bear your name,
 LORD God of Armies.

¹⁷ I never sat with the band of revelers,
 and I did not celebrate with them.
 Because your hand was on me, I sat alone,
 for you filled me with indignation.

¹⁸ Why has my pain become unending,
 my wound incurable,
 refusing to be healed?
 You truly have become like a mirage to me —
 water that is not reliable.

¹⁹ Therefore, this is what the LORD says:

If you return, I will take you back;
 you will stand in my presence.
 And if you speak noble words,
 rather than worthless ones,
 you will be my spokesman.
 It is they who must return to you;
 you must not return to them.

²⁰ Then I will make you a fortified wall of bronze to this people.

They will fight against you
 but will not overcome you,
 for I am with you
 to save you and rescue you.

This is the LORD's declaration.

²¹ I will rescue you from the power of evil people and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

16 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Do not marry or have sons or daughters in this place. ³For this is what the LORD says concerning sons and daughters born in this place as well as concerning the mothers who bear them and the fathers who father them in this land: ⁴They will die from deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried but will be like manure on the soil’s surface. They will be finished off by sword and famine. Their corpses will become food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land.

¹⁰“When you tell these people all these things, they will say to you, ‘Why has the LORD declared all this terrible disaster against us? What is our iniquity? What is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?’ ¹¹Then you will answer them, ‘Because your fathers abandoned me — this is the LORD’s declaration — and followed other gods, served them, and bowed in worship to them. Indeed, they abandoned me and did not keep my instruction. ¹²You did more evil than your fathers. Look, each one of you was following the stubbornness of his evil heart, not obeying me. ¹³So I will hurl you from this land into a land that you and your fathers are not familiar with. There you will worship other gods both day and night, for I will not grant you grace.’

¹⁴“However, look, the days are coming” — the LORD’s declaration — “when it will no longer be said, ‘As the LORD lives who brought the Israelites from the land of Egypt,’ ¹⁵but rather, ‘As the LORD lives who brought the Israelites from the land of the north and from all the other lands where he had banished them.’ For I will return them to their land that I gave to their ancestors.

¹⁶“I am about to send for many fishermen” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and they will fish for them. Then I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down on every mountain and hill and out of the clefts of the rocks, ¹⁷for my gaze takes in all their ways. They are not concealed from me, and their iniquity is not hidden from my sight. ¹⁸I will first repay them double for their iniquity and sin because they have polluted my land. They have filled my inheritance with the carcasses of their abhorrent and detestable idols.”

¹⁹ LORD, my strength and my stronghold,
my refuge in a time of distress,
the nations will come to you
from the ends of the earth, and they will say, “Our fathers inherited only lies, worthless idols of no benefit at all.”

²⁰ Can one make gods for himself?
But they are not gods.

²¹ “Therefore, I am about to inform them,

and this time I will make them know
my power and my might;
then they will know that my name is the LORD.”

17 The sin of Judah is inscribed with an iron stylus.
With a diamond point
it is engraved on the tablet of their hearts
and on the horns of their altars, ² while their children remember their altars and their Asherah poles, by the green trees on the high hills —
³ my mountains in the countryside.
I will give up your wealth and all your treasures as plunder because of the sin of your high places
in all your borders.
⁴ You will, on your own, relinquish your inheritance
that I gave you.
I will make you serve your enemies
in a land you do not know,
for you have set my anger on fire;
it will burn forever.

⁵This is what the LORD says:

Cursed is the person who trusts in mankind.
He makes human flesh his strength,
and his heart turns from the LORD.

⁶ He will be like a juniper in the Arabah;
he cannot see when good comes
but dwells in the parched places in the wilderness,
in a salt land where no one lives.

⁷ The person who trusts in the LORD,
whose confidence indeed is the LORD, is blessed.

⁸ He will be like a tree planted by water:
it sends its roots out toward a stream,
it doesn’t fear when heat comes,
and its foliage remains green.
It will not worry in a year of drought or cease producing fruit.

⁹ The heart is more deceitful than anything else,
and incurable — who can understand it?

¹⁰ I, the LORD, examine the mind,
I test the heart
to give to each according to his way,
according to what his actions deserve.

¹¹ He who makes a fortune unjustly is like a partridge that hatches eggs it didn’t lay.
In the middle of his life
his riches will abandon him,
so in the end he will be a fool.

¹² A glorious throne
on high from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

¹³ LORD, the hope of Israel, all who abandon you
will be put to shame.
All who turn away from me
will be written in the dirt,
for they have abandoned
the LORD, the fountain of living water.

¹⁴ Heal me, LORD, and I will be healed;
save me, and I will be saved,
for you are my praise.

¹⁵ Hear how they keep challenging me,
“Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it come!”

- 16 But I have not run away from being your shepherd, and I have not longed for the fatal day. You know my words were spoken in your presence.
- 17 Don't become a terror to me. You are my refuge in the day of disaster.
- 18 Let my persecutors be put to shame, but don't let me be put to shame. Let them be terrified, but don't let me be terrified. Bring on them the day of disaster; shatter them with total destruction.

¹⁹This is what the LORD said to me, "Go and stand at the People's Gate, through which the kings of Judah enter and leave, as well as at all the gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰Announce to them, 'Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, all Judah, and all the residents of Jerusalem who enter through these gates. ²¹This is what the LORD says: Watch yourselves; do not pick up a load and bring it in through Jerusalem's gates on the Sabbath day. ²²Do not carry a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day or do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy, just as I commanded your ancestors. ²³They wouldn't listen or pay attention but became obstinate, not listening or accepting discipline.

²⁴"However, if you listen to me — this is the LORD's declaration — and do not bring loads through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy and do no work on it, ²⁵kings and princes will enter through the gates of this city. They will sit on the throne of David; they will ride in chariots and on horses with their officials, the men of Judah, and the residents of Jerusalem. This city will be inhabited forever. ²⁶Then people will come from the cities of Judah and from the area around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and from the Judean foothills, from the hill country and from the Negev bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and frankincense, and thank offerings to the house of the LORD. ²⁷But if you do not listen to me to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying a load while entering the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, I will set fire to its gates, and it will consume the citadels of Jerusalem and not be extinguished."

18 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Go down at once to the potter's house; there I will reveal my words to you." ³So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was, working away at the wheel. ⁴But the jar that he was making from the clay became flawed in the potter's hand, so he made it into another jar, as it seemed right for him to do.

⁵The word of the LORD came to me: ⁶"House of Israel, can I not treat you as this potter treats his clay?" — this is the LORD's declaration. "Just like clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, house of Israel. ⁷At one moment I might announce concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will uproot, tear down, and destroy it. ⁸However, if that nation about which I have made the announcement turns from its evil, I will relent concerning the disaster I had planned to do to it. ⁹At another time I might announce concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it. ¹⁰However, if it does what is evil in my sight by not listening to me, I will relent concerning the good I had said I would do to it. ¹¹So now, say to the men of Judah and to the residents of Jerusalem, 'This is what the LORD says: Look, I am about to bring harm to you and make plans against you. Turn now, each from your evil way, and correct your ways and your deeds.' ¹²But they will say, 'It's hopeless. We will continue to follow our plans, and each of us will continue to act according to the stubbornness of his evil heart.'"

- ¹³Therefore, this is what the LORD says: Ask among the nations, who has heard things like these? Virgin Israel has done a most horrible thing.
- 14 Does the snow of Lebanon ever leave the highland crags? Or does cold water flowing from a distance ever fail?
- 15 Yet my people have forgotten me. They burn incense to worthless idols that make them stumble in their ways on the ancient roads, and make them walk on new paths, not the highway.
- 16 They have made their land a horror, a perpetual object of scorn; all who pass by it will be appalled and shake their heads.
- 17 I will scatter them before the enemy like the east wind.

I will show them my back and not my face on the day of their calamity.

¹⁸Then certain ones said, "Come, let's make plans against Jeremiah, for instruction will never be lost from the prophet. Come, let's denounce him and pay no attention to all his words."

- ¹⁹ Pay attention to me, LORD. Hear what my opponents are saying!
- ²⁰ Should good be repaid with evil? Yet they have dug a pit for me. Remember how I stood before you to speak good on their behalf, to turn your anger from them.
- ²¹ Therefore, hand their children over to famine, and give them over to the power of the sword. Let their wives become childless and widowed, their husbands slain by deadly disease, their young men struck down by the sword in battle.

²² Let a cry be heard from their houses when you suddenly bring raiders against them, for they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden snares for my feet.

- ²³ But you, LORD, know all their deadly plots against me. Do not wipe out their iniquity; do not blot out their sin before you. Let them be forced to stumble before you; deal with them in the time of your anger.

19 This is what the LORD says: "Go, buy a potter's clay jar. Take some of the elders of the people and some of the leading priests ² and go out to Ben Hinnom Valley near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. Proclaim there the words I speak to you. ³Say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah and residents of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring such disaster on this place that everyone who hears about it will shudder ⁴ because they have abandoned me and made this a foreign place. They have burned incense in it to other gods that they, their fathers, and the kings of Judah have never known. They have filled this place with the blood of the innocent. ⁵They have built high places to Baal on which to burn their children in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, something I have never commanded or mentioned; I never entertained the thought.

⁶ “Therefore, look, the days are coming — this is the LORD’s declaration — when this place will no longer be called Topheth and Ben Hinnom Valley, but Slaughter Valley. ⁷ I will spoil the plans of Judah and Jerusalem in this place. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, by the hand of those who intend to take their life. I will provide their corpses as food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land. ⁸ I will make this city desolate, an object of scorn. Everyone who passes by it will be appalled and scoff because of all its wounds. ⁹ I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and their daughters, and they will eat each other’s flesh in the distressing siege inflicted on them by their enemies who intend to take their life.’

¹⁰ “Then you are to shatter the jar in the presence of the people going with you, ¹¹ and you are to proclaim to them, ‘This is what the LORD of Armies says: I will shatter these people and this city, like one shatters a potter’s jar that can never again be mended. They will bury the dead in Topheth because there is no other place for burials. ¹² That is what I will do to this place — this is the declaration of the LORD — and to its residents, making this city like Topheth. ¹³ The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will become impure like that place Topheth — all the houses on whose rooftops they have burned incense to all the stars in the sky and poured out drink offerings to other gods.’”

¹⁴ Jeremiah returned from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, stood in the courtyard of the LORD’s temple, and proclaimed to all the people, ¹⁵ “This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘I am about to bring on this city — and on all its cities — every disaster that I spoke against it, for they have become obstinate, not obeying my words.’”

20 Pashhur the priest, the son of Immer and chief official in the temple of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. ² So Pashhur had the prophet Jeremiah beaten and put him in the stocks at the Upper Benjamin Gate in the LORD’s temple. ³ The next day, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, “The LORD does not call you Pashhur, but Terror Is on Every Side, ⁴ for this is what the LORD says, ‘I am about to make you a terror to both yourself and those you love. They will fall by the sword of their enemies before your very eyes. I will hand Judah over to the king of Babylon, and he will deport them to Babylon and put them to the sword. ⁵ I will give away all the wealth of this city, all its products and valuables. Indeed, I will hand all the treasures of the kings of Judah over to their enemies. They will plunder them, seize them, and carry them off to Babylon. ⁶ As for you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house, you will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon. There you will die, and there you will be buried, you and all your friends to whom you prophesied lies.’”

⁷ You deceived me, LORD, and I was deceived.
You seized me and prevailed.
I am a laughingstock all the time;
everyone ridicules me.

⁸ For whenever I speak, I cry out,
I proclaim, “Violence and destruction!”
so the word of the LORD has become my constant disgrace and derision.

⁹ I say, “I won’t mention him or speak any longer in his name.”

But his message becomes a fire burning in my heart,
shut up in my bones.
I become tired of holding it in,
and I cannot prevail.

¹⁰ For I have heard the gossip of many people, “Terror is on every side!
Report him; let’s report him!”
Everyone I trusted watches for my fall.
“Perhaps he will be deceived
so that we might prevail against him and take our vengeance on him.”

¹¹ But the LORD is with me like a violent warrior.
Therefore, my persecutors will stumble
and not prevail.
Since they have not succeeded, they will be utterly shamed,
an everlasting humiliation that will never be forgotten.

¹² LORD of Armies, testing the righteous and seeing the heart and mind,
let me see your vengeance on them,
for I have presented my case to you.

¹³ Sing to the LORD!
Praise the LORD,
for he rescues the life of the needy
from evil people.

¹⁴ May the day I was born
be cursed.

May the day my mother bore me never be blessed.

¹⁵ May the man be cursed who brought the news to my father, saying, “A male child is born to you,”
bringing him great joy.

¹⁶ Let that man be like the cities
the LORD demolished without compassion.
Let him hear an outcry in the morning
and a war cry at noontime

¹⁷ because he didn’t kill me in the womb
so that my mother might have been my grave, her womb eternally pregnant.

¹⁸ Why did I come out of the womb to see only struggle and sorrow,
to end my life in shame?

21 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malchijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to Jeremiah, asking, ² “Inquire of the LORD on our behalf, since King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps the LORD will perform for us something like all his past wondrous works so that Nebuchadnezzar will withdraw from us.”

³ But Jeremiah answered, “This is what you are to say to Zedekiah: ⁴ ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am about to repel the weapons of war in your hands, those you are using to fight the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the wall, and I will bring them into the center of this city. ⁵ I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a strong arm, with anger, rage, and intense wrath. ⁶ I will strike the residents of this city, both people and animals. They will die in a severe plague. ⁷ Afterward — this is the LORD’s declaration — King Zedekiah of Judah, his officers, and the people — those in this city who survive the plague, the sword, and the famine — I will hand over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, to their enemies, yes, to those who intend to take their lives. He will put them to the sword; he won't spare them or show pity or compassion.'

⁸But tell this people, 'This is what the LORD says: Look, I am setting before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague, but whoever goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live and will retain his life like the spoils of war. ¹⁰For I have set my face against this city to bring disaster and not good — this is the LORD's declaration. It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, who will burn it.'

¹¹'And to the house of the king of Judah say this: 'Hear the word of the LORD! ¹²House of David, this is what the LORD says:

Administer justice every morning,
and rescue the victim of robbery
from his oppressor,
or my anger will flare up like fire
and burn unquenchably
because of your evil deeds.

¹³ Beware! I am against you,
you who sit above the valley,
you atop the rocky plateau —
this is the LORD's declaration —
you who say, "Who can come down against us?
Who can enter our hiding places?"

¹⁴ I will punish you according to what you have done —
this is the LORD's declaration.
I will kindle a fire in your forest
that will consume everything around it.'

22 This is what the LORD says: "Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and announce this word there.

²You are to say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, king of Judah, you who sit on the throne of David — you, your officers, and your people who enter these gates. ³This is what the LORD says: Administer justice and righteousness. Rescue the victim of robbery from his oppressor. Don't exploit or brutalize the resident alien, the fatherless, or the widow. Don't shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴For if you conscientiously carry out this word, then kings sitting on David's throne will enter through the gates of this palace riding on chariots and horses — they, their officers, and their people. ⁵But if you do not obey these words, then I swear by myself — this is the LORD's declaration — that this house will become a ruin.'

⁶For this is what the LORD says concerning the house of the king of Judah:

"You are like Gilead to me,
or the summit of Lebanon,
but I will certainly turn you into a wilderness,
uninhabited cities.

⁷ I will set apart destroyers against you,
each with his weapons.
They will cut down the choicest of your cedars
and throw them into the fire.

⁸"Many nations will pass by this city and ask one another, 'Why did the LORD do such a thing to this great city?'

⁹They will answer, 'Because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD their God and bowed in worship to other gods and served them.'

¹⁰ Do not weep for the dead;
do not mourn for him.

Weep bitterly for the one who has gone away,
for he will never return again
and see his native land.

¹¹For this is what the LORD says concerning Shallum son of Josiah, king of Judah, who became king in place of his father Josiah, and who has left this place: "He will never return here again, ¹²but he will die in the place where they deported him, never seeing this land again."

¹³ Woe for the one who builds his palace
through unrighteousness,
his upstairs rooms through injustice,
who makes his neighbor serve without pay
and will not give him his wages, ¹⁴ who says, "I will build myself a massive palace,
with spacious upstairs rooms."
He will cut windows in it,
and it will be paneled with cedar and painted bright red.

¹⁵ Are you a king because you excel in cedar?
Didn't your father eat and drink
and administer justice and righteousness?
Then it went well with him.

¹⁶ He took up the case of the poor and needy;
then it went well.
Is this not what it means to know me?

This is the LORD's declaration.

¹⁷ But you have eyes and a heart for nothing except your own dishonest profit, shedding innocent blood
and committing extortion and oppression.

¹⁸Therefore, this is what the LORD says concerning Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

They will not mourn for him, saying,
"Woe, my brother!" or "Woe, my sister!"
They will not mourn for him, saying,
"Woe, lord! Woe, his majesty!"

¹⁹ He will be buried like a donkey, dragged off and thrown outside Jerusalem's gates.

²⁰ Go up to Lebanon and cry out;
raise your voice in Bashan;
cry out from Abarim,

for all your lovers have been crushed.

²¹ I spoke to you when you were secure.
You said, "I will not listen."

This has been your way since youth;
indeed, you have never listened to me.

²² The wind will take charge of all your shepherds,
and your lovers will go into captivity.
Then you will be ashamed and humiliated
because of all your evil.

²³ You residents of Lebanon,
nestled among the cedars,
how you will groan when pains come on you,
agony like a woman in labor.

²⁴"As I live" — this is the LORD's declaration — "though you, Coniah son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, were a signet ring on my right hand, I would tear you from it. ²⁵In fact, I will hand you over to those you dread, who intend to take your life, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans. ²⁶I will hurl you and the mother who gave birth to you into another land, where neither of you were born, and there you will both die. ²⁷They will never return to the land they long to return to."

²⁸ Is this man Coniah a despised, shattered pot,

a jar no one wants?
 Why are he and his descendants hurled out
 and cast into a land they have not known?
 29 Earth, earth, earth,
 hear the word of the LORD!
 30 This is what the LORD says:
 Record this man as childless,
 a man who will not be successful in his lifetime.
 None of his descendants will succeed in sitting on the throne of David or ruling again in Judah.

23 “Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter
 the sheep of my pasture!” This is the LORD’s declaration.² “Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds who tend my people: You have scattered my flock, banished them, and have not attended to them. I am about to attend to you because of your evil acts” — this is the LORD’s declaration.³ “I will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands where I have banished them, and I will return them to their grazing land. They will become fruitful and numerous.⁴ I will raise up shepherds over them who will tend them. They will no longer be afraid or discouraged, nor will any be missing.” This is the LORD’s declaration.

5 “Look, the days are coming” — this is the LORD’s declaration —
 “when I will raise up a Righteous Branch for David.
 He will reign wisely as king
 and administer justice and righteousness
 in the land.

6 In his days Judah will be saved,
 and Israel will dwell securely.
 This is the name he will be called:
 The LORD Is Our Righteousness.

7 “Look, the days are coming” — the LORD’s declaration — “when it will no longer be said, ‘As the LORD lives who brought the Israelites from the land of Egypt,’⁸ but, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought and led the descendants of the house of Israel from the land of the north and from all the other countries where I had banished them.’ They will dwell once more in their own land.”

⁹ Concerning the prophets:

My heart is broken within me,
 and all my bones tremble.
 I have become like a drunkard,
 like a man overcome by wine,
 because of the LORD,
 because of his holy words.

10 For the land is full of adulterers;
 the land mourns because of the curse,
 and the grazing lands in the wilderness
 have dried up.

Their way of life has become evil,
 and their power is not rightly used because both prophet and priest are ungodly,
 even in my house I have found their evil.

This is the LORD’s declaration.

12 Therefore, their way will seem like slippery paths in the gloom.
 They will be driven away and fall down there,
 for I will bring disaster on them,
 the year of their punishment.

This is the LORD’s declaration.

13 Among the prophets of Samaria

I saw something disgusting:
 They prophesied by Baal
 and led my people Israel astray.

14 Among the prophets of Jerusalem also
 I saw a horrible thing:
 They commit adultery and walk in lies.
 They strengthen the hands of evildoers,
 and none turns his back on evil.
 They are all like Sodom to me;
 Jerusalem’s residents are like Gomorrah.

¹⁵ Therefore, this is what the LORD of Armies says concerning the prophets:

I am about to feed them wormwood
 and give them poisoned water to drink,
 for from the prophets of Jerusalem
 ungodliness has spread throughout the land.

¹⁶ This is what the LORD of Armies says: “Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you. They are deluding you. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the LORD’s mouth.¹⁷ They keep on saying to those who despise me, ‘The LORD has spoken: You will have peace.’ They have said to everyone who follows the stubbornness of his heart, ‘No harm will come to you.’”

18 For who has stood in the council of the LORD to see and hear his word?
 Who has paid attention to his word and obeyed?

19 Look, a storm from the LORD!
 Wrath has gone out,
 a whirling storm.
 It will whirl about the heads of the wicked.

20 The LORD’s anger will not turn away
 until he has completely fulfilled the purposes
 of his heart.

In time to come you will understand it clearly.

21 I did not send out these prophets,
 yet they ran.

I did not speak to them,
 yet they prophesied.

22 If they had really stood in my council,
 they would have enabled my people to hear my words
 and would have turned them from their evil ways
 and their evil deeds.

²³ “Am I a God who is only near” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and not a God who is far away? ²⁴ Can a person hide in secret places where I cannot see him?” — the LORD’s declaration. “Do I not fill the heavens and the earth?” — the LORD’s declaration.

²⁵ “I have heard what the prophets who prophesy a lie in my name have said: ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’”

²⁶ How long will this continue in the minds of the prophets prophesying lies, prophets of the deceit of their own minds? ²⁷ Through their dreams that they tell one another, they plan to cause my people to forget my name as their fathers forgot my name through Baal worship. ²⁸ The prophet who has only a dream should recount the dream, but the one who has my word should speak my word truthfully, for what is straw compared to grain? — this is the LORD’s declaration. ²⁹ “Is not my word like fire?” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and like a hammer that pulverizes rock?”

³⁰ Therefore, take note! I am against the prophets” — the LORD’s declaration — “who steal my words from each other. ³¹ I am against the prophets” — the LORD’s declaration — “who use their own tongues to make a declaration. ³² I am against those who prophesy false dreams” — the LORD’s declaration — “telling them and leading my people astray with their reckless lies. It was not I who sent or commanded them, and they are of no benefit at all to these people” — this is the LORD’s declaration.

³³“Now when these people or a prophet or a priest asks you, ‘What is the burden of the LORD?’ you will respond to them, ‘What is the burden? I will throw you away! This is the LORD’s declaration.’”³⁴ As for the prophet, priest, or people who say, ‘The burden of the LORD,’ I will punish that man and his household.³⁵ This is what each man is to say to his friend and to his brother: ‘What has the LORD answered?’ or ‘What has the LORD spoken?’³⁶ But no longer refer to the burden of the LORD, for each man’s word becomes his burden and you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of Armies, our God.³⁷ Say to the prophet, ‘What has the LORD answered you?’ or ‘What has the LORD spoken?’³⁸ But if you say, ‘The burden of the LORD,’ then this is what the LORD says: Because you have said, ‘The burden of the LORD,’ and I specifically told you not to say, ‘The burden of the LORD,’³⁹ I will surely forget you. I will throw you away from my presence — both you and the city that I gave you and your fathers.⁴⁰ I will bring on you everlasting disgrace and humiliation that will never be forgotten.”

24 After King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had deported Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim King of Judah, the officials of Judah, and the craftsmen and metalsmiths from Jerusalem and had brought them to Babylon, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the temple of the LORD. ² One basket contained very good figs, like early figs, but the other basket contained very bad figs, so bad they were inedible. ³ The LORD said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

I said, “Figs! The good figs are very good, but the bad figs are extremely bad, so bad they are inedible.”

⁴ The word of the LORD came to me: ⁵ “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Like these good figs, so I regard as good the exiles from Judah I sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans. ⁶ I will keep my eyes on them for their good and will return them to this land. I will build them up and not demolish them; I will plant them and not uproot them. ⁷ I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God because they will return to me with all their heart.

⁸ “But as for the bad figs, so bad they are inedible, this is what the LORD says: In this way I will deal with King Zedekiah of Judah, his officials, and the remnant of Jerusalem — those remaining in this land or living in the land of Egypt. ⁹ I will make them an object of horror and a disaster to all the kingdoms of the earth, an example for disgrace, scorn, ridicule, and cursing, wherever I have banished them. ¹⁰ I will send the sword, famine, and plague against them until they have perished from the land I gave to them and their ancestors.”

25 This is the word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah (which was the first year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon). ² The prophet Jeremiah spoke concerning all the people of Judah and all the residents of Jerusalem as follows: ³ “From the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, until this very day — twenty-three years — the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you time and time again, but you have not obeyed. ⁴ The LORD sent all his servants the prophets to you time and time again, but you have not obeyed or even paid attention. ⁵ He announced, ‘Turn, each of you, from your evil way of life and from your evil deeds. Live in the land the LORD gave to you and your ancestors long ago and forever. ⁶ Do not follow other gods to serve them and to bow in worship to them, and do not anger me by the work of your hands. Then I will do you no harm.

⁷ “But you have not obeyed me’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘with the result that you have angered me by the work of your hands and brought disaster on yourselves.’

⁸ “Therefore, this is what the LORD of Armies says: ‘Because you have not obeyed my words, ⁹ I am going to send for all the families of the north’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘and send for my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will bring them against this land, against its residents, and against all these surrounding nations, and I will completely destroy them and make them an example of horror and scorn, and ruins forever. ¹⁰ I will eliminate the sound of joy and gladness from them — the voice of the groom and the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp. ¹¹ This whole land will become a desolate ruin, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years. ¹² When the seventy years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation’ — this is the LORD’s declaration — ‘the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity, and I will make it a ruin forever. ¹³ I will bring on that land all my words I have spoken against it, all that is written in this book that Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴ For many nations and great kings will enslave them, and I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands.’”

¹⁵ This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: “Take this cup of the wine of wrath from my hand and make all the nations to whom I am sending you drink from it. ¹⁶ They will drink, stagger, and go out of their minds because of the sword I am sending among them.”

¹⁷ So I took the cup from the LORD’s hand and made all the nations to whom the LORD sent me drink from it.

¹⁸ Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah, its kings and its officials, to make them a desolate ruin, an example for scorn and cursing — as it is today;

¹⁹ Pharaoh king of Egypt, his officers, his leaders, all his people,

²⁰ and all the mixed peoples;

all the kings of the land of Uz;

all the kings of the land of the Philistines —

Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;

²¹ Edom, Moab, and the Ammonites;

²² all the kings of Tyre,

all the kings of Sidon,

and the kings of the coasts and islands;

²³ Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all those who clip the hair on their temples;

²⁴ all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed peoples who have settled in the desert;

²⁵ all the kings of Zimri,

all the kings of Elam,

and all the kings of Media;

²⁶ all the kings of the north, both near and far from one another;

that is, all the kingdoms of the world throughout the earth.

Finally, the king of Sheshach will drink after them.

²⁷ “Then you are to say to them, ‘This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk, and vomit.

Fall down and never get up again, as a result of the sword I am sending among you.²⁸ If they refuse to accept the cup from your hand and drink, you are to say to them, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: You must drink!' ²⁹ For I am already bringing disaster on the city that bears my name, so how could you possibly go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth. This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.'

³⁰ "As for you, you are to prophesy all these things to them, and say to them:

The LORD roars from on high;
he makes his voice heard from his holy dwelling.
He roars loudly over his grazing land;
he calls out with a shout, like those who tread grapes,
against all the inhabitants of the earth.

³¹ The tumult reaches to the ends of the earth because the LORD brings a case against the nations.
He enters into judgment with all people.
As for the wicked, he hands them over to the sword —
this is the LORD's declaration.

³² "This is what the LORD of Armies says:
Pay attention! Disaster spreads from nation to nation.
A huge storm is stirred up
from the ends of the earth."

³³ Those slain by the LORD on that day will be scattered from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned, gathered, or buried. They will be like manure on the soil's surface.

³⁴ Wail, you shepherds, and cry out.
Roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock.
Because the days of your slaughter have come,
you will fall and become shattered
like a precious vase.

³⁵ Flight will be impossible for the shepherds,
and escape, for the leaders of the flock.

³⁶ Hear the sound of the shepherds' cry,
the wail of the leaders of the flock,
for the LORD is destroying their pasture.

³⁷ Peaceful grazing land will become lifeless
because of the LORD's burning anger.

³⁸ He has left his den like a lion,
for their land has become a desolation
because of the sword of the oppressor, because of his burning anger.

26 At the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD: ² "This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD's temple and speak all the words I have commanded you to speak to all Judah's cities that are coming to worship there. Do not hold back a word. ³ Perhaps they will listen and turn — each from his evil way of life — so that I might relent concerning the disaster that I plan to do to them because of the evil of their deeds. ⁴ You are to say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: If you do not listen to me by living according to my instruction that I set before you ⁵ and by listening to the words of my servants the prophets — whom I have been sending to you time and time again, though you did not listen — ⁶ I will make this temple like Shiloh. I will make this city an example for cursing for all the nations of the earth.'"

⁸ When he finished the address the LORD had commanded him to deliver to all the people, immediately the priests, the prophets, and all the people took hold of him, yelling, "You must surely die! ⁹ How dare you prophesy in the name of the LORD, 'This temple will become like Shiloh and this city will become an uninhabited ruin!' " Then all the people crowded around Jeremiah at the LORD's temple.

¹⁰ When the officials of Judah heard about these things, they went from the king's palace to the LORD's temple and sat at the entrance of the New Gate of the LORD's temple. ¹¹ Then the priests and prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man deserves the death sentence because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears."

¹² Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people, "The LORD sent me to prophesy all the words that you have heard against this temple and city. ¹³ So now, correct your ways and deeds, and obey the LORD your God so that he might relent concerning the disaster he had pronounced against you. ¹⁴ As for me, here I am in your hands; do to me what you think is good and right. ¹⁵ But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its residents, for it is certain the LORD has sent me to speak all these things directly to you."

¹⁶ Then the officials and all the people told the priests and prophets, "This man doesn't deserve the death sentence, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God! "

¹⁷ Some of the elders of the land stood up and said to all the assembled people, ¹⁸ "Micah the Moreshite prophesied in the days of King Hezekiah of Judah and said to all the people of Judah, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become ruins, and the temple's mountain will be a high thicket.'"

¹⁹ Did King Hezekiah of Judah and all the people of Judah put him to death? Did not the king fear the LORD and plead for the LORD's favor, and did not the LORD relent concerning the disaster he had pronounced against them? We are about to bring a terrible disaster on ourselves! "

²⁰ Another man was also prophesying in the name of the LORD — Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land in words like all those of Jeremiah. ²¹ King Jehoiakim, all his warriors, and all the officials heard his words, and the king tried to put him to death. When Uriah heard, he fled in fear and went to Egypt. ²² But King Jehoiakim sent men to Egypt: Elnathan son of Achbor and certain other men with him went to Egypt. ²³ They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who executed him with the sword and threw his corpse into the burial place of the common people.

²⁴ But Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah, so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

27 At the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ² This is what the LORD said to me: "Make chains and yoke bars for yourself and put them on your neck. ³ Send word to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon through messengers who are coming to King Zedekiah of Judah in Jerusalem. ⁴ Command them to go to their masters, saying, 'This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Tell this to your masters:⁵ "By my great strength and outstretched arm, I made the earth, and the people, and animals on the face of the earth. I give it to anyone I please.⁶ So now I have placed all these lands under the authority of my servant Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. I have even given him the wild animals to serve him.⁷ All nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until the time for his own land comes, and then many nations and great kings will enslave him.

⁸ "As for the nation or kingdom that does not serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and does not place its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish by sword, famine, and plague — this is the LORD's declaration — until through him I have destroyed it.⁹ So you should not listen to your prophets, diviners, dreamers, fortune-tellers, or sorcerers who say to you, 'Don't serve the king of Babylon!' ¹⁰ They are prophesying a lie to you so that you will be removed from your land. I will banish you, and you will perish.¹¹ But as for the nation that will put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will leave it in its own land, and that nation will cultivate it and reside in it. This is the LORD's declaration." "

¹² I spoke to King Zedekiah of Judah in the same way: "Put your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, serve him and his people, and live!¹³ Why should you and your people die by the sword, famine, and plague as the LORD has threatened against any nation that does not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴ Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are telling you, 'Don't serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying a lie to you. ¹⁵ I have not sent them' — this is the LORD's declaration — 'and they are prophesying falsely in my name; therefore, I will banish you, and you will perish — you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.' "

¹⁶ Then I spoke to the priests and all these people, saying, "This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the words of your prophets. They are prophesying to you, claiming, 'Look, very soon now the articles of the LORD's temple will be brought back from Babylon.' They are prophesying a lie to you. ¹⁷ Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and live! Why should this city become a ruin? ¹⁸ If they are indeed prophets and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them intercede with the LORD of Armies not to let the articles that remain in the LORD's temple, in the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem go to Babylon.' ¹⁹ For this is what the LORD of Armies says about the pillars, the basin, the water carts, and the rest of the articles that still remain in this city, ²⁰ those King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon did not take when he deported Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. ²¹ Yes, this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says about the articles that remain in the temple of the LORD, in the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem: ²² They will be taken to Babylon and will remain there until I attend to them again.' This is the LORD's declaration. Then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.' "

28 In that same year, at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the fifth month of the fourth year, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur from Gibeon said to me in the temple of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people, ² "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'I have broken the yoke of the King of Babylon. ³ Within two years I will restore to this place all the articles of the LORD's temple that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took from here and transported to Babylon. ⁴ And I will restore to this place Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the exiles from Judah who went to Babylon' — this is the LORD's declaration — 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.' "

⁵ The prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the temple of the LORD. ⁶ The prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do that. May the LORD make the words you have prophesied come true and may he restore the articles of the LORD's temple and all the exiles from Babylon to this place! ⁷ Only listen to this message I am speaking in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. ⁸ The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, disaster, and plague against many lands and great kingdoms. ⁹ As for the prophet who prophesies peace — only when the word of the prophet comes true will the prophet be recognized as one the LORD has truly sent." "

¹⁵ The prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD did not send you, but you have led these people to trust in a lie. ¹⁶ Therefore, this is what the LORD says: 'I am about to send you off the face of the earth. You will die this year because you have preached rebellion against the LORD.' " ¹⁷ And the prophet Hananiah died that year in the seventh month.

29 This is the text of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining exiled elders, the priests, the prophets, and all the people Nebuchadnezzar had deported from Jerusalem to Babylon. ² This was after King Jeconiah, the queen mother, the court officials, the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the metalsmiths had left Jerusalem. ³ He sent the letter with Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. The letter stated:

⁴ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says to all the exiles I deported from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵ "Build houses and live in them. Plant gardens and eat their produce. ⁶ Find wives for yourselves, and have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons and give your daughters to men in marriage so that they may bear sons and daughters. Multiply there; do not decrease. ⁷ Pursue the well-being of the city I have deported you to. Pray to the LORD on its behalf, for when it thrives, you will thrive." "

⁸ For this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Don't let your prophets who are among you and your diviners deceive you, and don't listen to the dreams you elicit from them, ⁹ for they are prophesying falsely to you in my name. I have not sent them." This is the LORD's declaration.

¹⁰ For this is what the LORD says: "When seventy years for Babylon are complete, I will attend to you and will confirm my promise concerning you to restore you to this place. ¹¹ For I know the plans I have for you" — this is the LORD's declaration — "plans for your well-being, not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. ¹² You will call to me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. ¹³ You will seek me and find me when you search for me with all your heart. ¹⁴ I will be found by you" — this is the LORD's declaration — "and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and places where I banished you" — this is the LORD's declaration. "I will restore you to the place from which I deported you."

¹⁵ You have said, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon!" ¹⁶ But this is what the LORD says concerning the king sitting on David's throne and concerning all the people living in this city — that is, concerning your brothers who did not go with you into exile. ¹⁷ This is what the LORD of Armies says: "I am about to send sword, famine, and plague against them, and I will make them like rotten figs that are inedible because they are so bad. ¹⁸ I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague. I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth — a curse and a desolation, an object of scorn and a disgrace among all the nations where I have banished them. ¹⁹ I will do this because they have not listened to my words" — this is the LORD's declaration — "the words that I sent to them with my servants the prophets time and time again. And you too have not listened." This is the LORD's declaration.

²⁰ Hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²¹ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and concerning Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, the ones prophesying a lie to you in my name: "I am about to hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and he will kill them before your very eyes. ²² Based on what happens to them, all the exiles of Judah who are in Babylon will create a curse that says, 'May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire!' " ²³ because they have committed an outrage in Israel by committing adultery with their neighbors' wives and have spoken in my name a lie, which I did not command them. I am he who knows, and I am a witness." This is the LORD's declaration.

²⁴ To Shemaiah the Nehelamite you are to say, ²⁵ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You in your own name have sent out letters to all the people of Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶ 'The LORD has appointed you priest in place of the priest Jehoiada to be the chief officer in the temple of the LORD, responsible for every madman who acts like a prophet. You must confine him in the stocks and an iron collar. ²⁷ So now, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who has been acting like a prophet among you?' " ²⁸ For he has sent word to us in Babylon, claiming, "The exile will be long. Build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat their produce." "

²⁹ The priest Zephaniah read this letter in the hearing of the prophet Jeremiah.

³⁰ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ³¹ "Send a message to all the exiles, saying, 'This is what the LORD says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite. Because Shemaiah prophesied to you, though I did not send him, and made you trust a lie, ³² this is what the LORD says: I am about to punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. There will not be even one of his descendants living among these people, nor will any ever see the good that I will bring to my people — this is the LORD's declaration — for he has preached rebellion against the LORD.' "

30 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD. ² "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Write on a scroll all the words that I have spoken to you, ³ for look, the days are coming" — this is the LORD's declaration — "when I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel and Judah," says the LORD. "I will restore them to the land I gave to their ancestors and they will possess it."

⁴ These are the words the LORD spoke to Israel and Judah. ⁵ This is what the LORD says:

We have heard a cry of terror,
of dread — there is no peace.

⁶ Ask and see
whether a male can give birth.
Why then do I see every man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labor
and every face turned pale?

⁷ How awful that day will be!
There will be no other like it!
It will be a time of trouble for Jacob,
but he will be saved out of it.

⁸ On that day —
this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies —
I will break his yoke from your neck
and tear off your chains,
and strangers will never again enslave him.

⁹ They will serve the LORD their God
and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

¹⁰ As for you, my servant Jacob,
do not be afraid —
this is the LORD's declaration —
and do not be discouraged, Israel, for without fail I will save you out of a distant place,
your descendants, from the land of their captivity!
Jacob will return and have calm and quiet
with no one to frighten him.

¹¹ For I will be with you —
this is the LORD's declaration —
to save you!
I will bring destruction on all the nations
where I have scattered you;
however, I will not bring destruction on you.
I will discipline you justly,
and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

¹² For this is what the LORD says:

Your injury is incurable;
your wound most severe.

¹³ You have no defender for your case.
There is no remedy for your sores,
and no healing for you.

¹⁴ All your lovers have forgotten you;

- they no longer look for you,
for I have struck you as an enemy would,
with the discipline of someone cruel,
because of your enormous guilt
and your innumerable sins.
- 15 Why do you cry out about your injury?
Your pain has no cure!
I have done these things to you
because of your enormous guilt
and your innumerable sins.
- 16 Nevertheless, all who devoured you will be devoured,
and all your adversaries — all of them —
will go off into exile.
Those who plunder you will be plundered,
and all who raid you will be raided.
- 17 But I will bring you health and will heal you of your wounds —
this is the LORD's declaration —
for they call you Outcast, Zion whom no one cares about.
- 18 This is what the LORD says:
I will certainly restore the fortunes of Jacob's tents
and show compassion on his dwellings.
Every city will be rebuilt on its mound;
every citadel will stand on its proper site.
- 19 Thanksgiving will come out of them,
a sound of rejoicing.
I will multiply them, and they will not decrease;
I will honor them, and they will not be insignificant.
- 20 His children will be as in past days;
his congregation will be established in my presence.
I will punish all his oppressors.
- 21 Jacob's leader will be one of them;
his ruler will issue from him.
I will invite him to me, and he will approach me,
for who would otherwise risk his life
to approach me?
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 22 You will be my people,
and I will be your God.
- 23 Look, a storm from the LORD!
Wrath has gone out,
a churning storm.
It will whirl about the heads of the wicked.
- 24 The LORD's burning anger will not turn back
until he has completely fulfilled the purposes
of his heart.
In time to come you will understand it.
"At that time" — this is the LORD's declaration — "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people."
- 2 This is what the LORD says:
The people who survived the sword found favor in the wilderness.
When Israel went to find rest,
3 the LORD appeared to him from far away.
I have loved you with an everlasting love;
therefore, I have continued to extend faithful love
to you.
- 4 Again I will build you so that you will be rebuilt, Virgin Israel.
You will take up your tambourines again
and go out in joyful dancing.
- 5 You will plant vineyards again on the mountains of Samaria;
the planters will plant and will enjoy the fruit.
- 6 For there will be a day when watchmen will call out
in the hill country of Ephraim,
"Come, let's go up to Zion,
to the LORD our God!"
- 7 For this is what the LORD says:
Sing with joy for Jacob;
shout for the foremost of the nations!
Proclaim, praise, and say,
"LORD, save your people,
the remnant of Israel!"
- 8 Watch! I am going to bring them from the northern land.
I will gather them from remote regions
of the earth —
the blind and the lame will be with them, along with those who are pregnant and those about to give birth.
They will return here as a great assembly!
- 9 They will come weeping,
but I will bring them back with consolation.
I will lead them to wadis filled with water,
by a smooth way where they will not stumble,
for I am Israel's Father,
and Ephraim is my firstborn.
- 10 Nations, hear the word of the LORD,
and tell it among the far off coasts and islands!
Say, "The one who scattered Israel will gather him.
He will watch over him as a shepherd
guards his flock,
- 11 for the LORD has ransomed Jacob and redeemed him from the power of one stronger than he."
- 12 They will come and shout for joy on the heights of Zion;
they will be radiant with joy
because of the LORD's goodness,
because of the grain, the new wine, the fresh oil,
and because of the young of the flocks and herds.
Their life will be like an irrigated garden,
and they will no longer grow weak from hunger.
- 13 Then the young women will rejoice with dancing,
while young and old men rejoice together.
I will turn their mourning into joy,
give them consolation,
and bring happiness out of grief.
- 14 I will refresh the priests with an abundance,
and my people will be satisfied with my goodness.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 15 This is what the LORD says:
A voice was heard in Ramah,
a lament with bitter weeping —
Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted for her children
because they are no more.
- 16 This is what the LORD says:
Keep your voice from weeping
and your eyes from tears,
for the reward for your work will come —
this is the LORD's declaration —

and your children will return from the enemy's land.

¹⁷ There is hope for your future —
this is the LORD's declaration —
and your children will return to their own territory.

¹⁸ I have surely heard Ephraim moaning,
"You disciplined me, and I have been disciplined
like an untrained calf.
Take me back, so that I can return,
for you, LORD, are my God.

¹⁹ After my return, I felt regret;
After I was instructed, I struck my thigh in grief.
I was ashamed and humiliated
because I bore the disgrace of my youth."

²⁰ Isn't Ephraim a precious son to me,
a delightful child?
Whenever I speak against him,
I certainly still think about him.
Therefore, my inner being yearns for him;
I will truly have compassion on him.
This is the LORD's declaration.

²¹ Set up road markers for yourself; establish signposts!
Keep the highway in mind,
the way you have traveled.
Return, Virgin Israel!
Return to these cities of yours.

²² How long will you turn here and there, faithless daughter?
For the LORD creates something new
in the land —
a female will shelter a man.

²³ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "When I restore their fortunes, they will once again speak this word in the land of Judah and in its cities: 'May the LORD bless you, righteous settlement, holy mountain.'

²⁴ Judah and all its cities will live in it together — also farmers and those who move with the flocks — ²⁵ for I satisfy the thirsty person and feed all those who are weak."

²⁶ At this I awoke and looked around. Who sleep had been most pleasant to me.

²⁷ "Look, the days are coming" — this is the LORD's declaration — "when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of people and the seed of animals. ²⁸ Just as I watched over them to uproot and to tear them down, to demolish and to destroy, and to cause disaster, so will I watch over them to build and to plant them" — this is the LORD's declaration. ²⁹ "In those days,
it will never again be said,

'The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on edge.'

³⁰ Rather, each will die for his own iniquity. Anyone who eats sour grapes — his own teeth will be set on edge.

³¹ "Look, the days are coming" — this is the LORD's declaration — "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. ³² This one will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors on the day I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt — my covenant that they broke even though I am their master" — the LORD's declaration. ³³ "Instead, this is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel
after those days" — the LORD's declaration. "I will put my teaching within them and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. ³⁴ No longer will one teach his neighbor or his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they will all know me, from the least to the greatest of them" — this is the LORD's declaration. "For I will forgive their iniquity and never again remember their sin.

³⁵ "This is what the LORD says:

The one who gives the sun for light by day,
the fixed order of moon and stars for light
by night,
who stirs up the sea and makes its waves roar —
the LORD of Armies is his name:

³⁶ If this fixed order departs from before me —
this is the LORD's declaration —
only then will Israel's descendants cease to be a nation before me forever.

³⁷ "This is what the LORD says:

Only if the heavens above can be measured
and the foundations of the earth below explored, will I reject all of Israel's descendants
because of all they have done —
this is the LORD's declaration.

³⁸ "Look, the days are coming" — the LORD's declaration — "when the city from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate will be rebuilt for the Tower. ³⁹ A measuring line will once again stretch out straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn toward Goah. ⁴⁰ The whole valley — the corpses, the ashes, and all the fields as far as the Kidron Valley to the corner of the Horse Gate to the east — will be holy to the LORD. It will never be uprooted or demolished again."

32 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ² At that time, the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was imprisoned in the guard's courtyard in the palace of the king of Judah. ³ King Zedekiah of Judah had imprisoned him, saying, "Why are you prophesying as you do? You say, 'This is what the LORD says: Look, I am about to hand this city over to Babylon's king, and he will capture it. ⁴ King Zedekiah of Judah will not escape from the Chaldeans; indeed, he will certainly be handed over to Babylon's king. They will speak face to face and meet eye to eye. ⁵ He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will stay until I attend to him — this is the LORD's declaration. For you will fight the Chaldeans, but you will not succeed.'"

⁶ Jeremiah replied, "The word of the LORD came to me:
⁷ Watch! Hanamel, the son of your uncle Shallum, is coming to you to say, 'Buy my field in Anathoth for yourself, for you own the right of redemption to buy it.'

⁸ Then, as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to the guard's courtyard and urged me, 'Please buy my field in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for you own the right of inheritance and redemption. Buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. ⁹ So I bought the field in Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and I weighed out the silver to him — seventeen shekels of silver. ¹⁰ I recorded it on a scroll, sealed it, called in witnesses, and weighed out the silver on the scales. ¹¹ I took the purchase agreement — the sealed copy with its terms and conditions and the open copy — ¹² and gave the purchase agreement to Baruch son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah. I did this in the sight of my cousin Hanamel, the witnesses who had signed the purchase agreement, and all the Judeans sitting in the guard's courtyard.

¹³ "I charged Baruch in their sight, ¹⁴ 'This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Take these scrolls
— this purchase agreement with the sealed copy and this

open copy — and put them in an earthen storage jar so they will last a long time.¹⁵ For this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land.¹⁶

¹⁶“After I had given the purchase agreement to Baruch, son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD: ¹⁷Oh, Lord God! You yourself made the heavens and earth by your great power and with your outstretched arm. Nothing is too difficult for you! ¹⁸You show faithful love to thousands but lay the fathers’ iniquity on their sons’ laps after them, great and mighty God whose name is the LORD of Armies, ¹⁹the one great in counsel and powerful in action. Your eyes are on all the ways of the children of men in order to reward each person according to his ways and as the result of his actions. ²⁰You performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt and still do today, both in Israel and among all mankind. You made a name for yourself, as is the case today. ²¹You brought your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror. ²²You gave them this land you swore to give to their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey. ²³They entered and possessed it, but they did not obey you or live according to your instructions. They failed to perform all you commanded them to do, and so you have brought all this disaster on them. ²⁴Look! Siege ramps have come against the city to capture it, and the city, as a result of the sword, famine, and plague, has been handed over to the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. What you have spoken has happened. Look, you can see it! ²⁵Yet you, Lord God, have said to me, ‘Purchase the field and call in witnesses’ — even though the city has been handed over to the Chaldeans!’”

²⁶The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁷“Look, I am the LORD, the God over every creature. Is anything too difficult for me? ²⁸Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the Chaldeans, to Babylon’s king Nebuchadnezzar, and he will capture it. ²⁹The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city will come and set this city on fire. They will burn it, including the houses where incense has been burned to Baal on their rooftops and where drink offerings have been poured out to other gods to anger me. ³⁰From their youth, the Israelites and Judeans have done nothing but what is evil in my sight! They have done nothing but anger me by the work of their hands” — this is the LORD’s declaration — ³¹“for this city has caused my wrath and fury from the day it was built until now. I will therefore remove it from my presence ³²because of all the evil the Israelites and Judeans have done to anger me — they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets, the men of Judah, and the residents of Jerusalem. ³³They have turned their backs to me and not their faces. Though I taught them time and time again, they do not listen and receive discipline. ³⁴They have placed their abhorrent things in the house that bears my name and have defiled it. ³⁵They have built the high places of Baal in Ben Hinnom Valley to sacrifice their sons and daughters in the fire to Molech — something I had not commanded them. I had never entertained the thought that they do this detestable act causing Judah to sin!

³⁶“Now therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to this city about which you said, ‘It has been handed over to Babylon’s king through sword, famine, and plague’: ³⁷I will certainly gather them from all the lands where I have banished them in my anger, rage and intense wrath, and I will return them to this place and make them live in safety. ³⁸They will be my people, and I will be their God. ³⁹I will give them integrity of heart and action so that they will fear me always, for their good and for the good of their descendants after them.

⁴⁰“I will make a permanent covenant with them: I will never turn away from doing good to them, and I will put fear of me in their hearts so they will never again turn away from me. ⁴¹I will take delight in them to do what is good for them, and with all my heart and mind I will faithfully plant them in this land.

⁴²“For this is what the LORD says: Just as I have brought all this terrible disaster on these people, so am I about to bring on them all the good I am promising them. ⁴³Fields will be bought in this land about which you are saying, ‘It’s a desolation without people or animals; it has been handed over to the Chaldeans!’ ⁴⁴Fields will be purchased, the transaction written on a scroll and sealed, and witnesses will be called on in the land of Benjamin, in the areas surrounding Jerusalem, and in Judah’s cities — the cities of the hill country, the cities of the Judean foothills, and the cities of the Negev — because I will restore their fortunes.”

This is the LORD’s declaration.

33 While he was still confined in the guard’s courtyard, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time: ²“The LORD who made the earth, the LORD who forms it to establish it, the LORD is his name, says this: ³Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and incomprehensible things you do not know. ⁴For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city and the palaces of Judah’s kings, the ones torn down for defense against the assault ramps and the sword: ⁵The people coming to fight the Chaldeans will fill the houses with the corpses of their own men that I strike down in my wrath and rage. I have hidden my face from this city because of all their evil. ⁶Yet I will certainly bring health and healing to it and will indeed heal them. I will let them experience the abundance of true peace. ⁷I will restore the fortunes of Judah and of Israel and will rebuild them as in former times. ⁸I will purify them from all the iniquity they have committed against me, and I will forgive all the iniquities they have committed against me, rebelling against me. ⁹This city will bear on my behalf a name of joy, praise, and glory before all the nations of the earth, who will hear of all the prosperity I will give them. They will tremble with awe because of all the good and all the peace I will bring about for them.

¹⁰“This is what the LORD says: In this place, which you say is a ruin, without people or animals — that is, in Judah’s cities and Jerusalem’s streets that are a desolation without people, without inhabitants, and without animals — there will be heard again ¹¹a sound of joy and gladness, the voice of the groom and the bride, and the voice of those saying, Give thanks to the LORD of Armies, for the LORD is good; his faithful love endures forever as they bring thank offerings to the temple of the LORD. For I will restore the fortunes of the land as in former times, says the LORD.

¹²“This is what the LORD of Armies says: In this desolate place — without people or animals — and in all its cities there will once more be a grazing land where shepherds may rest flocks. ¹³The flocks will again pass under the hands of the one who counts them in the cities of the hill country, the cities of the Judean foothills, the cities of the Negev, the land of Benjamin — the areas around Jerusalem and in Judah’s cities, says the LORD.

14 "Look, the days are coming" — this is the LORD's declaration — "when I will fulfill the good promise that I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

15 In those days and at that time I will cause a Righteous Branch to sprout up for David, and he will administer justice and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell securely, and this is what she will be named: The LORD Is Our Righteousness.

17 "For this is what the LORD says: David will never fail to have a man sitting on the throne of the house of Israel. 18 The Levitical priests will never fail to have a man always before me to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to make sacrifices."

19 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 20 "This is what the LORD says: If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night so that day and night cease to come at their regular time, 21 then also my covenant with my servant David may be broken. If that could happen, then he would not have a son reigning on his throne and the Levitical priests would not be my ministers. 22 Even as the stars of heaven cannot be counted, and the sand of the sea cannot be measured, so too I will make innumerable the descendants of my servant David and the Levites who minister to me."

23 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 24 "Have you not noticed what these people have said? They say, 'The LORD has rejected the two families he had chosen.' My people are treated with contempt and no longer regarded as a nation among them. 25 This is what the LORD says: If I do not keep my covenant with the day and with the night, and if I fail to establish the fixed order of heaven and earth, 26 then I might also reject the descendants of Jacob and of my servant David. That is, I would not take rulers from his descendants to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. But in fact, I will restore their fortunes and have compassion on them."

34 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, his whole army, all the kingdoms of the lands under his control, and all other peoples were fighting against Jerusalem and all its surrounding cities: 2 "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Go, speak to King Zedekiah of Judah, and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it. 3 As for you, you will not escape from him but are certain to be captured and handed over to him. You will meet the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak face to face; you will go to Babylon.

4 "Yet hear the LORD's word, King Zedekiah of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning you: You will not die by the sword; 5 you will die peacefully. There will be a burning ceremony for you just like the burning ceremonies for your ancestors, the kings of old who came before you. "Oh, master! " will be the lament for you, for I have spoken this word. This is the LORD's declaration."

6 So the prophet Jeremiah related all these words to King Zedekiah of Judah in Jerusalem 7 while the king of Babylon's army was attacking Jerusalem and all of Judah's remaining cities — that is, Lachish and Azekah, for they were the only ones left of Judah's fortified cities.

8 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah made a covenant with all the people who were in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom to them. 9 As a result, each was to let his male and female Hebrew slaves go free, and no one was to enslave his fellow Judean. 10 All the officials and people who entered into covenant to let their male and female slaves go free — in order not to enslave them any longer — obeyed and let them go free. 11 Afterward, however, they changed their minds and took back their male and female slaves they had let go free and forced them to become slaves again.

12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 13 "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery, saying, 14 'At the end of seven years, each of you must let his fellow Hebrew who sold himself to you go. He may serve you six years, but then you must let him go free from your service.' But your ancestors did not obey me or pay any attention. 15 Today you repented and did what pleased me, each of you proclaiming freedom for his neighbor. You made a covenant before me at the house that bears my name. 16 But you have changed your minds and profaned my name. Each has taken back his male and female slaves who had been let go free to go wherever they wanted, and you have again forced them to be your slaves.

17 "Therefore, this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed me by proclaiming freedom, each for his fellow Hebrew and for his neighbor. I hereby proclaim freedom for you — this is the LORD's declaration — to the sword, to plague, and to famine! I will make you a horror to all the earth's kingdoms. 18 As for those who disobeyed my covenant, not keeping the terms of the covenant they made before me, I will treat them like the calf they cut in two in order to pass between its pieces. 19 The officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the pieces of the calf — 20 all these I will hand over to their enemies, to those who intend to take their life. Their corpses will become food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land. 21 I will hand King Zedekiah of Judah and his officials over to their enemies, to those who intend to take their lives, to the king of Babylon's army that is withdrawing. 22 I am about to give the command — this is the LORD's declaration — and I will bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, capture it, and burn it. I will make Judah's cities a desolation, without inhabitant."

35 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: 2 "Go to the house of the Rechabites, speak to them, and bring them to one of the chambers of the temple of the LORD to offer them a drink of wine."

3 So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, son of Habazzaniah, and his brothers and all his sons — the entire house of the Rechabites — 4 and I brought them into the temple of the LORD to a chamber occupied by the sons of Hanan son of Igdaiah, a man of God, who had a chamber near the officials' chamber, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah son of Shallum the doorkeeper. 5 I set jars filled with wine and some cups before the sons of the house of the Rechabites and said to them, "Drink wine!"

6 But they replied, "We do not drink wine, for Jonadab, son of our ancestor Rechab, commanded: 'You and your descendants must never drink wine.⁷ You must not build a house or sow seed or plant a vineyard. Those things are not for you. Rather, you must live in tents your whole life, so you may live a long time on the soil where you stay as a resident alien.⁸ We have obeyed Jonadab, son of our ancestor Rechab, in all he commanded us. So we haven't drunk wine our whole life — we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters.⁹ We also have not built houses to live in and do not have vineyard, field, or seed.¹⁰ But we have lived in tents and have obeyed and done everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us.¹¹ However, when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon marched into the land, we said, 'Come, let's go into Jerusalem to get away from the Chaldean and Aramean armies.' So we have been living in Jerusalem."

¹²Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:¹³ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Go, say to the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem, 'Will you not accept discipline by listening to my words? — this is the LORD's declaration.¹⁴ The words of Jonadab, son of Rechab, have been carried out. He commanded his descendants not to drink wine, and they have not drunk to this day because they have obeyed their ancestor's command. But I have spoken to you time and time again, and you have not obeyed me!¹⁵ Time and time again I have sent you all my servants the prophets, proclaiming, 'Turn, each one from his evil way, and correct your actions. Stop following other gods to serve them. Live in the land that I gave you and your ancestors.' But you did not pay attention or obey me.¹⁶ Yes, the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab carried out their ancestor's command he gave them, but these people have not obeyed me.¹⁷ Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will certainly bring on Judah and on all the residents of Jerusalem all the disaster I have pronounced against them because I have spoken to them, but they have not obeyed, and I have called to them, but they did not answer.'"

¹⁸But to the house of the Rechabites Jeremiah said, "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Because you have obeyed the command of your ancestor Jonadab and have kept all his commands and have done everything he commanded you,¹⁹ this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Jonadab son of Rechab will never fail to have a man to stand before me always.'"

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:² "Take a scroll, and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah, and all the nations from the time I first spoke to you during Josiah's reign until today.³ Perhaps when the house of Judah hears about all the disaster I am planning to bring on them, each one of them will turn from his evil way. Then I will forgive their iniquity and their sin."

⁴So Jeremiah summoned Baruch son of Neriah. At Jeremiah's dictation, Baruch wrote on a scroll all the words the LORD had spoken to Jeremiah.⁵ Then Jeremiah commanded Baruch, "I am restricted; I cannot enter the temple of the LORD,⁶ so you must go and read from the scroll — which you wrote at my dictation — the words of the LORD in the hearing of the people at the temple of the LORD on a day of fasting. Read his words in the hearing of all the Judeans who are coming from their cities.⁷ Perhaps their petition will come before the LORD, and each one will turn from his evil way, for the anger and fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people are intense."⁸ So Baruch son of Neriah did everything the prophet Jeremiah had commanded him. At the LORD's temple he read the LORD's words from the scroll.

⁹In the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people of Jerusalem and all those coming in from Judah's cities into Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD.¹⁰ Then at the LORD's temple, in the chamber of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper courtyard at the opening of the New Gate of the LORD's temple, in the hearing of all the people, Baruch read Jeremiah's words from the scroll.

¹¹When Micaiah son of Gemariah, son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll,¹² he went down to the scribe's chamber in the king's palace. All the officials were sitting there — Elishama the scribe, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.¹³ Micaiah reported to them all the words he had heard when Baruch read from the scroll in the hearing of the people.¹⁴ Then all the officials sent word to Baruch through Jehudi son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah, son of Cushi, saying, "Bring the scroll that you read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll and went to them.¹⁵ They said to him, "Sit down and read it in our hearing." So Baruch read it in their hearing.

¹⁶When they had heard all the words, they turned to each other in fear and said to Baruch, "We must surely tell the king all these things."¹⁷ Then they asked Baruch, "Tell us, how did you write all these words? At his dictation?"

¹⁸Baruch said to them, "At his dictation. He recited all these words to me while I was writing on the scroll in ink."

¹⁹The officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must hide and tell no one where you are."²⁰ Then, after depositing the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, the officials came to the king at the courtyard and reported everything in the hearing of the king.²¹ The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi then read it in the hearing of the king and all the officials who were standing by the king.²² Since it was the ninth month, the king was sitting in his winter quarters with a fire burning in front of him.²³ As soon as Jehudi would read three or four columns, Jehoiakim would cut the scroll with a scribe's knife and throw the columns into the fire in the hearth until the entire scroll was consumed by the fire in the hearth.²⁴ As they heard all these words, the king and all of his servants did not become terrified or tear their clothes.²⁵ Even though Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah had urged the king not to burn the scroll, he did not listen to them.²⁶ Then the king commanded Jeremiah the king's son, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to seize the scribe Baruch and the prophet Jeremiah, but the LORD hid them.

²⁷After the king had burned the scroll and the words Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:²⁸ "Take another scroll, and once again write on it the original words that were on the original scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah burned.²⁹ You are to proclaim concerning King Jehoiakim of Judah, 'This is what the LORD says: You have burned the scroll, asking, 'Why have you written on it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land and cause it to be without people or animals?'"³⁰ Therefore, this is what the LORD says concerning King Jehoiakim of Judah: He will have no one to sit on David's throne, and his corpse will be thrown out to be exposed to the heat of day and the frost of night.³¹ I will punish him, his descendants, and his officers for their iniquity. I will bring on them, on the residents of Jerusalem, and on the people of Judah all the disaster, which I warned them about but they did not listen.”

³² Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, the scribe, and he wrote on it at Jeremiah's dictation all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim, Judah's king, had burned in the fire. And many other words like them were added.

37 Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned as king in the land of Judah in place of Coniah son of Jehoiakim, for King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon made him king. ² He and his officers and the people of the land did not obey the words of the LORD that he spoke through the prophet Jeremiah.

³ Nevertheless, King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, requesting, “Please pray to the LORD our God for us!” ⁴ Jeremiah was going about his daily tasks among the people, for he had not yet been put into the prison. ⁵ Pharaoh's army had left Egypt, and when the Chaldeans, who were besieging Jerusalem, heard the report, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

⁶ The word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah: ⁷ “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: This is what you will say to Judah's king, who is sending you to inquire of me: ‘Watch: Pharaoh's army, which has come out to help you, is going to return to its own land of Egypt. ⁸ The Chaldeans will then return and fight against this city. They will capture it and burn it. ⁹ This is what the LORD says: Don't deceive yourselves by saying, ‘The Chaldeans will leave us for good,’ for they will not leave. ¹⁰ Indeed, if you were to strike down the entire Chaldean army that is fighting with you, and there remained among them only the badly wounded men, each in his tent, they would get up and burn this city.’”

¹¹ When the Chaldean army withdrew from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army, ¹² Jeremiah started to leave Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to claim his portion there among the people. ¹³ But when he was at the Benjamin Gate, an officer of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, son of Hananiah, and he apprehended the prophet Jeremiah, saying, “You are defecting to the Chaldeans.”

¹⁴ “That's a lie,” Jeremiah replied. “I am not defecting to the Chaldeans!” Irijah would not listen to him but apprehended Jeremiah and took him to the officials. ¹⁵ The officials were angry at Jeremiah and beat him and placed him in jail in the house of Jonathan the scribe, for it had been made into a prison. ¹⁶ So Jeremiah went into a cell in the dungeon and stayed there many days.

¹⁷ King Zedekiah later sent for him and received him, and in his house privately asked him, “Is there a word from the LORD?”

“There is,” Jeremiah responded. He continued, “You will be handed over to the king of Babylon.” ¹⁸ Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “How have I sinned against you or your servants or these people that you have put me in prison? ¹⁹ Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, claiming, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you and this land’? ²⁰ So now please listen, my lord the king. May my petition come before you. Don't send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will die there.”

²¹ So King Zedekiah gave orders, and Jeremiah was placed in the guard's courtyard. He was given a loaf of bread each day from the bakers' street until all the bread was gone from the city. So Jeremiah remained in the guard's courtyard.

38 Now Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malchijah heard the words Jeremiah was speaking to all the people: ² “This is what the LORD says: ‘Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague, but whoever surrenders to the Chaldeans will live. He will retain his life like the spoils of war and will live.’ ³ This is what the LORD says: ‘This city will most certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon's army, and he will capture it.’”

⁵ King Zedekiah said, “Here he is; he's in your hands since the king can't do anything against you.” ⁶ So they took Jeremiah and dropped him into the cistern of Malchiah the king's son, which was in the guard's courtyard, lowering Jeremiah with ropes. There was no water in the cistern, only mud, and Jeremiah sank in the mud.

¹⁰ So the king commanded Ebed-melech, the Cushite, “Take from here thirty men under your authority and pull the prophet Jeremiah up from the cistern before he dies.”

¹¹ So Ebed-melech took the men under his authority and went to the king's palace to a place below the storehouse. From there he took old rags and worn-out clothes and lowered them by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. ¹² Ebed-melech the Cushite called down to Jeremiah, “Place these old rags and clothes between your armpits and the ropes.” Jeremiah did this. ¹³ They pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern, but he remained in the guard's courtyard.

¹⁴ King Zedekiah sent for the prophet Jeremiah and received him at the third entrance of the LORD's temple. The king said to Jeremiah, “I am going to ask you something; don't hide anything from me.”

¹⁵ Jeremiah replied to Zedekiah, “If I tell you, you will kill me, won't you? Besides, if I give you advice, you won't listen to me anyway.”

¹⁶ King Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah in private, “As the LORD lives, who has given us this life, I will not kill you or hand you over to these men who intend to take your life.”

¹⁷ Jeremiah therefore said to Zedekiah, “This is what the LORD, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘If indeed you surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then you will live, this city will not be burned, and you and your household will survive. ¹⁸ But if you do not surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city will be handed over to the Chaldeans. They will burn it, and you yourself will not escape from them.’”

¹⁹ But King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am worried about the Judeans who have defected to the Chaldeans. They may hand me over to the Judeans to abuse me.”

²⁰ “They will not hand you over,” Jeremiah replied. “Obey the LORD in what I am telling you, so it may go well for you and you can live. ²¹ But if you refuse to surrender, this is the verdict that the LORD has shown me: ²² ‘All the women who remain in the palace of Judah's king will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon and will say to you, "Your trusted friends misled you and overcame you.

Your feet sank into the mire, and they deserted you."

²³ All your wives and children will be brought out to the Chaldeans. You yourself will not escape from them, for you will be seized by the king of Babylon and this city will burn."

²⁴ Then Zedekiah warned Jeremiah, "Don't let anyone know about this conversation or you will die. ²⁵ The officials may hear that I have spoken with you and come and demand of you, 'Tell us what you said to the king; don't hide anything from us and we won't kill you. Also, what did the king say to you?' ²⁶ If they do, tell them, 'I was bringing before the king my petition that he not return me to the house of Jonathan to die there.'" ²⁷ All the officials did come to Jeremiah, and they questioned him. He reported the exact words to them the king had commanded, and they quit speaking with him because the conversation had not been overheard. ²⁸ Jeremiah remained in the guard's courtyard until the day Jerusalem was captured, and he was there when it happened.

39 In the ninth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon advanced against Jerusalem with his entire army and laid siege to it. ² In the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year, on the ninth day of the month, the city was broken into. ³ All the officials of the king of Babylon entered and sat at the Middle Gate: Nergal-sharezzer, Samgar, Nebusarsechim the chief of staff, Nergal-sharezzer the chief soothsayer, and all the rest of the officials of Babylon's king.

⁶ At Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his eyes, and he also slaughtered all Judah's nobles. ⁷ Then he blinded Zedekiah and put him in bronze chains to take him to Babylon. ⁸ The Chaldeans next burned down the king's palace and the people's houses and tore down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guards, deported the rest of the people to Babylon — those who had remained in the city and those deserters who had defected to him along with the rest of the people who remained. ¹⁰ However, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guards, left in the land of Judah some of the poor people who owned nothing, and he gave them vineyards and fields at that time.

¹⁵ Now the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah when he was confined in the guard's courtyard: ¹⁶ "Go tell Ebed-melech the Cushite, 'This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am about to fulfill my words for disaster and not for good against this city. They will take place before your eyes on that day. ¹⁷ But I will rescue you on that day — this is the LORD's declaration — and you will not be handed over to the men you dread. ¹⁸ Indeed, I will certainly deliver you so that you do not fall by the sword. Because you have trusted in me, you will retain your lifelike the spoils of war. This is the LORD's declaration.'"

40 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan, captain of the guards, released him at Ramah. When he found him, he was bound in chains with all the exiles of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon. ² The captain of the guards took Jeremiah and said to him, "The LORD your God decreed this disaster on this place, ³ and the LORD has fulfilled it. He has done just what he decreed. Because you people have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed him, this thing has happened. ⁴ Now pay attention: Today I am setting you free from the chains that were on your hands. If it pleases you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take care of you. But if it seems wrong to you to come with me to Babylon, go no farther. Look — the whole land is in front of you. Wherever it seems good and right for you to go, go there." ⁵ When Jeremiah had not yet turned to go, Nebuzaradan said to him, "Return to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and stay with him among the people or go wherever it seems right for you to go." So the captain of the guards gave him a ration and a gift and released him. ⁶ Jeremiah therefore went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah, and he stayed with him among the people who remained in the land.

⁷ All the commanders of the armies that were in the countryside — they and their men — heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam over the land. He had been put in charge of the men, women, and children from among the poorest of the land, who had not been deported to Babylon. ⁸ So they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. The commanders included Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah son of the Maacathite — they and their men.

⁹ Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, swore an oath to them and their men, assuring them, "Don't be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you. ¹⁰ As for me, I am going to live in Mizpah to represent you before the Chaldeans who come to us. As for you, gather wine, summer fruit, and oil, place them in your storage jars, and live in the cities you have captured."

¹¹ When all the Judeans in Moab and among the Ammonites and in Edom and in all the other lands also heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, over them, ¹² they all returned from all the places where they had been banished and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and harvested a great amount of wine and summer fruit.

¹³ Meanwhile, Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies in the countryside came to Gedaliah at Mizpah ¹⁴ and warned him, "Don't you realize that Baalis, king of the Ammonites, has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you?" But Gedaliah son of Ahikam would not believe them. ¹⁵ Then Johanan son of Kareah suggested to Gedaliah in private at Mizpah, "Let me go kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will know it. Why should he kill you and allow all of Judah that has gathered around you to scatter and the remnant of Judah to perish?"

¹⁶ But Gedaliah son of Ahikam responded to Johanan son of Kareah, "Don't do that! What you're saying about Ishmael is a lie."

41 In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Eishama, of the royal family and one of the king's chief officers, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. They ate a meal together there in Mizpah, ² but then Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, with the sword; he killed the one the king of Babylon had appointed in the land. ³ Ishmael also struck down all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Chaldean soldiers who were there.

⁸ However, there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us, for we have hidden treasure in the field — wheat, barley, oil, and honey!" So he stopped and did not kill them along with their companions. ⁹ Now the cistern where Ishmael had thrown all the corpses of the men he had struck down was a large one that King Asa had made in the encounter with King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

¹¹ When Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done, ¹² they took all their men and went to fight with Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They found him by the great pool in Gibeon. ¹³ When all the people held by Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the army with him, they rejoiced. ¹⁴ All the people whom Ishmael had taken captive from Mizpah turned around and rejoined Johanan son of Kareah. ¹⁵ But Ishmael son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites. ¹⁶ Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies with him then took from Mizpah all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam — men, soldiers, women, children, and court officials whom he brought back from Gibeon. ¹⁷ They left, stopping in Geruth Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, in order to make their way into Egypt, ¹⁸ away from the Chaldeans. For they feared them because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.

42 Then all the commanders of the armies, along with Johanan son of Kareah, Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, approached ² the prophet Jeremiah and said, "May our petition come before you; pray to the LORD your God on our behalf, on behalf of this entire remnant (for few of us remain out of the many, as you can see with your own eyes), ³ that the LORD your God may tell us the way we should go and the thing we should do."

⁴ So the prophet Jeremiah said to them, "I have heard. I will now pray to the LORD your God according to your words, and I will tell you every word that the LORD answers you; I won't withhold a word from you."

⁵ And they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we don't act according to every word the LORD your God sends you to tell us. ⁶ Whether it is pleasant or unpleasant, we will obey the LORD our God to whom we are sending you so that it may go well with us. We will certainly obey the LORD our God!"

⁹ He said to them, "This is what the LORD says, the God of Israel to whom you sent me to bring your petition before him: ¹⁰ 'If you will indeed stay in this land, then I will rebuild and not demolish you, and I will plant and not uproot you, because I relent concerning the disaster that I have brought on you. ¹¹ Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon whom you now fear; don't be afraid of him' — this is the LORD's declaration — 'because I am with you to save you and rescue you from him. ¹² I will grant you compassion, and he will have compassion on you and allow you to return to your own soil.'

¹³ "But if you say, 'We will not stay in this land,' in order to disobey the LORD your God, ¹⁴ and if you say, 'No, instead we'll go to the land of Egypt where we will not see war or hear the sound of the ram's horn or hunger for food, and we'll live there,' ¹⁵ then hear the word of the LORD, remnant of Judah! This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'If you are firmly resolved to go to Egypt and stay there for a while, ¹⁶ then the sword you fear will overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine you are worried about will follow on your heels there to Egypt, and you will die there. ¹⁷ All who resolve to go to Egypt to stay there for a while will die by the sword, famine, and plague. They will have no survivor or fugitive from the disaster I will bring on them.'

¹⁸ "For this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Just as my anger and fury were poured out on Jerusalem's residents, so will my fury pour out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become an example for cursing, scorn, execration, and disgrace, and you will never see this place again.' ¹⁹ The LORD has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah: 'Don't go to Egypt.' Know for certain that I have warned you today! ²⁰ You have gone astray at the cost of your lives because you are the ones who sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray to the LORD our God on our behalf, and as for all that the LORD our God says, tell it to us, and we'll act accordingly.' ²¹ For I have told you today, but you have not obeyed the LORD your God in everything he has sent me to tell you. ²² Now therefore, know for certain that by the sword, famine, and plague you will die in the place where you desired to go to stay for a while."

43 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God — all these words the LORD their God had sent him to give them — ² then Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the other arrogant men responded to Jeremiah, "You are speaking a lie! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'You must not go to Egypt to stay there for a while!' ³ Rather, Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Chaldeans to put us to death or to deport us to Babylon!"

⁴ So Johanan son of Kareah, all the commanders of the armies, and all the people failed to obey the LORD's command to stay in the land of Judah. ⁵ Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies led away the whole remnant of Judah, those who had returned to stay in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been banished. ⁶ They led away the men, women, children, king's daughters, and everyone whom Nebuzaradan, captain of the guards, had allowed to remain with Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan. They also led the prophet Jeremiah and Baruch son of Neriah away. ⁷ They went to the land of Egypt because they did not obey the LORD. They went as far as Tahpanhes.

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah at Tahpanhes: ⁹ "Pick up some large stones and set them in the mortar of the brick pavement that is at the opening of Pharaoh's palace at Tahpanhes. Do this in the sight of the Judean men ¹⁰ and tell them, 'This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will send for my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will place his throne on these stones that I have embedded, and he will pitch his pavilion over them. ¹¹ He will come and strike down the land of Egypt — those destined for death, to death; those destined for captivity, to captivity; and those destined for the sword, to the sword. ¹² I will kindle a fire in the temples of Egypt's gods, and he will burn them and take them captive. He will clean the land of Egypt as a shepherd picks lice off his clothes, and he will leave there unscathed. ¹³ He will smash the sacred pillars of the sun temple in the land of Egypt and burn the temples of the Egyptian gods.'"

44 This is the word that came to Jeremiah for all the Jews living in the land of Egypt — at Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and in the land of Pathros: ² "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the disaster I brought against Jerusalem and all Judah's cities. Look, they are a ruin today without an inhabitant in them ³ because of the evil they committed to anger me, by going and burning incense to serve other gods that they, you, and your fathers did not know. ⁴ So I sent you all my servants the prophets time and time again, saying, 'Don't commit this detestable action that I hate.' ⁵ But they did not listen or pay attention; they did not turn from their evil or stop burning incense to other gods. ⁶ So my fierce wrath poured out and burned in Judah's cities and Jerusalem's streets so that they became the desolate ruin they are today.

⁷ "So now, this is what the LORD, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Why are you doing such terrible harm to yourselves? You are cutting off man and woman, infant and nursing baby from Judah, leaving yourselves without a remnant. ⁸ You are angering me by the work of your hands. You are burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to stay for a while. As a result, you will be cut off and become an example for cursing and insult among all the nations of earth. ⁹ Have you forgotten the evils of your fathers, the evils of Judah's kings, the evils of their wives, your own evils, and the evils of your wives that were committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰ They have not become humble to this day, and they have not feared or followed my instruction or my statutes that I set before you and your ancestors.

¹¹ "Therefore, this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am about to set my face against you to bring disaster, to cut off all Judah. ¹² And I will take away the remnant of Judah, those who have set their face to go to the land of Egypt to stay there. All of them will meet their end in the land of Egypt. They will fall by the sword; they will meet their end by famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by the sword and by famine. Then they will become an example for cursing, scorn, execration, and disgrace. ¹³ I will punish those living in the land of Egypt just as I punished Jerusalem by sword, famine, and plague. ¹⁴ Then the remnant of Judah — those going to live for a while there in the land of Egypt — will have no fugitive or survivor to return to the land of Judah where they are longing to return to stay, for they will not return except for a few fugitives."

¹⁵ However, all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, all the women standing by — a great assembly — and all the people who were living in the land of Egypt at Pathros answered Jeremiah, ¹⁶ "As for the word you spoke to us in the name of the LORD, we are not going to listen to you! ¹⁷ Instead, we will do everything we promised: we will burn incense to the queen of heaven and offer drink offerings to her just as we, our fathers, our kings, and our officials did in Judah's cities and in Jerusalem's streets. Then we had enough food, we were well off, and we saw no disaster, ¹⁸ but from the time we ceased to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to offer her drink offerings, we have lacked everything, and through sword and famine we have met our end."

²⁰ But Jeremiah responded to all the people — the men, women, and all the people who were answering him: ²¹ "As for the incense you burned in Judah's cities and in Jerusalem's streets — you, your fathers, your kings, your officials, and the people of the land — did the LORD not remember them? He brought this to mind. ²² The LORD can no longer bear your evil deeds and the detestable acts you have committed, so your land has become a waste, a desolation, and an example for cursing, without inhabitant, as you see today. ²³ Because you burned incense and sinned against the LORD and didn't obey the LORD and didn't follow his instruction, his statutes, and his testimonies, this disaster has come to you, as you see today."

²⁴ Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. ²⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'As for you and your wives, you women have spoken with your mouths, and you men fulfilled it by your deeds, saying, "We will keep our vows that we have made to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink offerings for her." Go ahead, confirm your vows! Keep your vows!'

²⁶ "Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you Judeans who live in the land of Egypt: 'I have sworn by my great name, says the LORD, that my name will never again be invoked by anyone of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, "As the Lord God lives."²⁷ I am watching over them for disaster and not for good, and everyone from Judah who is in the land of Egypt will meet his end by sword or famine until they are finished off.²⁸ Those who escape the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah only few in number, and the whole remnant of Judah, the ones going to the land of Egypt to stay there for a while, will know whose word stands, mine or theirs!²⁹ This will be a sign to you — this is the Lord's declaration — "that I will punish you in this place, so you may know that my words of disaster concerning you will certainly come to pass."³⁰ This is what the Lord says: I am about to hand over Pharaoh Hophra, Egypt's king, to his enemies, to those who intend to take his life, just as I handed over Judah's King Zedekiah to Babylon's King Nebuchadnezzar, who was his enemy, the one who intended to take his life."

45 This is the word that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch son of Neriah when he wrote these words on a scroll at Jeremiah's dictation in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: ² "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: ³ "You have said, "Woe is me, because the Lord has added misery to my pain! I am worn out with groaning and have found no rest."

⁴ "This is what you are to say to him: 'This is what the Lord says: "What I have built I am about to demolish, and what I have planted I am about to uproot — the whole land! ⁵ But as for you, do you pursue great things for yourself? Stop pursuing! For I am about to bring disaster on everyone" — this is the Lord's declaration — "but I will grant you your life like the spoils of war wherever you go."

46 This is the word of the Lord that came to the prophet Jeremiah about the nations:

² About Egypt and the army of Pharaoh Neco, Egypt's king, which was defeated at Carchemish on the Euphrates River by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon in the fourth year of Judah's King Jehoiakim son of Josiah:

³ Deploy small shields and large; approach for battle!

⁴ Harness the horses; mount the steeds; take your positions with helmets on! Polish the lances; put on armor!

⁵ Why have I seen this? They are terrified, they are retreating, their warriors are crushed, they flee headlong, they never look back, terror is on every side!

This is the Lord's declaration.

⁶ The swift cannot flee, and the warrior cannot escape! In the north by the bank of the Euphrates River, they stumble and fall.

⁷ Who is this, rising like the Nile, with waters that churn like rivers?

⁸ Egypt rises like the Nile, and its waters churn like rivers. He boasts, "I will go up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities with their residents."

⁹ Rise up, you cavalry! Race furiously, you chariots! Let the warriors march out —

Cush and Put, who are able to handle shields, and the men of Lud, who are able to handle and string the bow.

¹⁰ That day belongs to the Lord, the God of Armies, a day of vengeance to avenge himself against his adversaries.

The sword will devour and be satisfied; it will drink its fill of their blood, because it will be a sacrifice to the Lord, the God of Armies, in the northern land by the Euphrates River.

¹¹ Go up to Gilead and get balm, Virgin Daughter Egypt! You have multiplied remedies in vain; there is no healing for you.

¹² The nations have heard of your dishonor, and your cries fill the earth, because warrior stumbles against warrior and together both of them have fallen.

¹³ This is the northern land by the prophet Jeremiah about the coming of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon to defeat the land of Egypt:

¹⁴ Announce it in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol! Proclaim it in Memphis and in Tahpanhes! Say, "Take positions! Prepare yourself, for the sword devours all around you."

¹⁵ Why have your strong ones been swept away? Each has not stood, for the Lord has thrust him down.

¹⁶ He continues to stumble. Indeed, each falls over the other.

They say, "Get up! Let's return to our people and to our native land, away from the oppressor's sword."

¹⁷ There they will cry out, "Pharaoh king of Egypt was all noise; he let the opportune moment pass."

¹⁸ As I live — this is the King's declaration; the Lord of Armies is his name — the king of Babylon will come like Tabor among the mountains and like Carmel by the sea.

¹⁹ Get your bags ready for exile, inhabitant of Daughter Egypt! For Memphis will become a desolation, uninhabited ruins.

²⁰ Egypt is a beautiful young cow, but a horsefly from the north is coming against her.

²² Egypt will hiss like a slithering snake, for the enemy will come with an army; with axes they will come against her like those who cut trees.

²³ They will cut down her forest — this is the Lord's declaration — though it is dense, for they are more numerous than locusts; they cannot be counted.

- 24 Daughter Egypt will be put to shame, handed over to a northern people.

²⁵The LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says, "I am about to punish Amon, god of Thebes, along with Pharaoh, Egypt, her gods, and her kings — Pharaoh and those trusting in him.

²⁶I will hand them over to those who intend to take their lives — to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his officers. But after this, Egypt will be inhabited again as in ancient times." This is the LORD's declaration.

- 27 But you, my servant Jacob, do not be afraid, and do not be discouraged, Israel, for without fail I will save you from far away, and your descendants from the land of their captivity!

Jacob will return and have calm and quiet with no one to frighten him.

- 28 And you, my servant Jacob, do not be afraid — this is the LORD's declaration — for I will be with you.

I will bring destruction on all the nations where I have banished you, but I will not bring destruction on you. I will discipline you with justice, and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

47 This is the word of the LORD that came to the prophet Jeremiah about the Philistines before Pharaoh defeated Gaza. ²This is what the LORD says:

Look, water is rising from the north and becoming an overflowing wadi. It will overflow the land and everything in it, the cities and their inhabitants. The people will cry out, and every inhabitant of the land will wail.

- 3 At the sound of the stomping hooves of his stallions, the rumbling of his chariots, and the clatter of their wheels, fathers will not turn back for their sons. They will be utterly helpless ⁴ on account of the day that is coming to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every remaining ally.

Indeed, the LORD is about to destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the coastland of Caphtor.

- 5 Baldness is coming to Gaza; Ashkelon will become silent. Remnant of their valley, how long will you gash yourself?

- 6 Oh, sword of the LORD! How long will you be restless? Go back to your sheath; be still; be silent!

- 7 How can it rest when the LORD has given it a command? He has assigned it against Ashkelon and the shore of the sea.

48 About Moab, this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says:

Woe to Nebo, because it is about to be destroyed; Kiriathaim will be put to shame; it will be taken captive.

The fortress will be put to shame and dismayed!

- 2 There is no longer praise for Moab; they plan harm against her in Heshbon: Come, let's cut her off from nationhood. Also, Madmen, you will be silenced; the sword will follow you.

- 3 A voice cries out from Horonaim, "devastation and a crushing blow!"

- 4 Moab will be shattered; her little ones will cry out.

- 5 For on the Ascent to Luhith they will be weeping continually, and on the descent to Horonaim will be heard cries of distress over the destruction: Flee! Save your lives!

- 6 Be like a juniper bush in the wilderness. 7 Because you trust in your works and treasures, you will be captured also. Chemosh will go into exile with his priests and officials.

- 8 The destroyer will move against every town; not one town will escape.

The valley will perish, and the plain will be annihilated, as the LORD has said.

- 9 Make Moab a salt marsh, for she will run away; her towns will become a desolation, without inhabitant.

- 10 The one who does the LORD's business deceitfully is cursed, and the one who withholds his sword from bloodshed is cursed.

- 11 Moab has been left quiet since his youth, settled like wine on its dregs. He hasn't been poured from one container to another or gone into exile.

So his taste has remained the same, and his aroma hasn't changed.

- 12 Therefore look, the days are coming — this is the LORD's declaration — when I will send pourers to him, who will pour him out.

They will empty his containers and smash his jars.

- 13 Moab will be put to shame because of Chemosh, just as the house of Israel was put to shame because of Bethel that they trusted in.

- 14 How can you say, "We are warriors — valiant men for battle"?

- 15 The destroyer of Moab and its towns has come up, and the best of its young men have gone down to slaughter.

This is the King's declaration; the LORD of Armies is his name.

- 16 Moab's calamity is near at hand; his disaster is rushing swiftly.

- 17 Mourn for him, all you surrounding nations, everyone who knows his name. Say, "How the mighty scepter is shattered, the glorious staff!"

- 18 Come down from glory; sit on parched ground, resident of the daughter of Dibon, for the destroyer of Moab has come against you;

he has destroyed your fortresses.

19 Stand by the highway and watch,
resident of Aroer!
Ask him who is fleeing or her who is escaping,
"What happened?"

20 Moab is put to shame, indeed dismayed.
Wail and cry out!
Declare by the Arnon
that Moab is destroyed.

21 "Judgment has come to the land of the plateau — to Holon, Jahzah, Mephaath, 22 Dibon, Nebo, Beth-diblathaim, 23 Kiriathaim, Beth-gamul, Beth-meon, 24 Kerioth, Bozrah, and all the towns of the land of Moab, those far and near. 25 Moab's horn is chopped off; his arm is shattered."
This is the LORD's declaration.

26 "Make him drunk, because he has exalted himself against the LORD. Moab will wallow in his own vomit, and he will also become a laughingstock. 27 Wasn't Israel a laughingstock to you? Was he ever found among thieves? For whenever you speak of him you shake your head."

28 Abandon the towns! Live in the cliffs, residents of Moab!
Be like a dove
that nests inside the mouth of a cave.

29 We have heard of Moab's pride,
great pride, indeed —
his insolence, arrogance, pride, and haughty heart.

30 I know his outburst.
This is the LORD's declaration.
It is empty.
His boast is empty.

31 Therefore, I will wail over Moab.
I will cry out for Moab, all of it;
he will moan for the men of Kir-heres.

32 I will weep for you, vine of Sibmah,
with more than the weeping for Jazer.
Your tendrils have extended to the sea;
they have reached to the sea and to Jazer.
The destroyer has fallen on your summer fruit
and grape harvest.

33 Gladness and celebration are taken from the fertile field
and from the land of Moab.
I have stopped the flow of wine
from the winepresses;
no one will tread with shouts of joy.
The shouting is not a shout of joy.

34 "There is a cry from Heshbon to Elealeh; they make their voices heard as far as Jahaz — from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah — because even the Waters of Nimrim have become desolate. 35 In Moab, I will stop" — this is the LORD's declaration — "the one who offers sacrifices on the high place and burns incense to his gods. 36 Therefore, my heart moans like flutes for Moab, and my heart moans like flutes for the people of Kir-heres. And therefore, the wealth he has gained has perished. 37 Indeed, every head is bald and every beard is chopped short. On every hand is a gash and sackcloth around the waist. 38 On all the rooftops of Moab and in her public squares, everyone is mourning because I have shattered Moab like a jar no one wants." This is the LORD's declaration. 39 "How broken it is! They wail! How Moab has turned his back! He is ashamed. Moab will become a laughingstock and a shock to all those around him."

40 For this is what the LORD says:
Look! He will swoop down like an eagle and spread his wings against Moab.

41 The towns have been captured,
and the strongholds seized.
In that day the heart of Moab's warriors
will be like the heart of a woman with contractions.

42 Moab will be destroyed as a people because he has exalted himself against the LORD.

43 Panic, pit, and trap await you, resident of Moab.
This is the LORD's declaration.

44 He who flees from the panic will fall in the pit,
and he who climbs from the pit
will be captured in the trap, for I will bring against Moab
the year of their punishment.
This is the LORD's declaration.

45 Those who flee will stand exhausted
in Heshbon's shadow
because fire has come out from Heshbon
and a flame from within Sihon.
It will devour Moab's forehead
and the skull of the foremakers.

46 Woe to you, Moab!
The people of Chemosh have perished
because your sons have been taken captive and your daughters have gone into captivity.

47 Yet, I will restore the fortunes of Moab
in the last days.
This is the LORD's declaration.
The judgment on Moab ends here.

49 About the Ammonites, this is what the LORD says:
Does Israel have no sons?
Is he without an heir?
Why then has Milcom dispossessed Gad
and his people settled in their cities?

2 Therefore look, the days are coming —
this is the LORD's declaration —
when I will make the shout of battle heard against Rabbah of the Ammonites.
It will become a desolate mound,
and its surrounding villages will be set on fire.
Israel will dispossess their dispossessors,
says the LORD.

3 Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is devastated;
cry out, daughters of Rabbah!
Clothe yourselves with sackcloth, and lament;
run back and forth within your walls,
because Milcom will go into exile
together with his priests and officials.

4 Why do you boast about your valleys,
your flowing valley,
you faithless daughter —
you who trust in your treasures
and say, "Who can attack me?"

5 Look, I am about to bring terror on you —
this is the declaration of the Lord God
of Armies —
from all those around you.
You will be banished, each person headlong,
with no one to gather up the fugitives.

6 But after that, I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites.
This is the LORD's declaration.

- ⁷ About Edom, this is what the LORD of Armies says:
Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom rotted away?
- ⁸ Run! Turn back! Lie low,
residents of Dedan,
for I will bring Esau's calamity on him
at the time I punish him.
- ⁹ If grape harvesters came to you,
wouldn't they leave some gleanings?
Were thieves to come in the night,
they would destroy only what they wanted.
- ¹⁰ But I will strip Esau bare;
I will uncover his secret places.
He will try to hide, but he will be unable.
His descendants will be destroyed along with his relatives and neighbors.
He will exist no longer.
- ¹¹ Abandon your fatherless; I will preserve them;
let your widows trust in me.
- ¹² For this is what the LORD says: "If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, can you possibly remain unpunished? You will not remain unpunished, for you must drink it too.¹³ For by myself I have sworn" — this is the LORD's declaration — "Bozrah will become a desolation, a disgrace, a ruin, and an example for cursing, and all its surrounding cities will become ruins forever."
- ¹⁴ I have heard an envoy from the LORD;
a messenger has been sent among the nations:
Assemble yourselves to come against her.
Rise up for war!
- ¹⁵ I will certainly make you insignificant
among the nations,
despised among humanity.
- ¹⁶ As to the terror you cause,
your arrogant heart has deceived you.
You who live in the clefts of the rock,
you who occupy the mountain summit,
though you elevate your nest like the eagles,
even from there I will bring you down.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- ¹⁷ "Edom will become a desolation. Everyone who passes by her will be appalled and scoff because of all her wounds.
¹⁸ As when Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown along with their neighbors," says the LORD, "no one will live there;
no human being will stay in it even temporarily.
¹⁹ "Look, it will be like a lion coming from the thickets of the Jordan to the watered grazing land. I will chase Edom away from her land in a flash. I will appoint whoever is chosen for her. For who is like me? Who will issue me a summons? Who is the shepherd who can stand against me?"
- ²⁰ Therefore, hear the plans that the LORD has drawn up against Edom and the strategies he has devised against the people of Teman: The flock's little lambs will certainly be dragged away, and their grazing land will be made desolate because of them.²¹ At the sound of their fall the earth will quake; the sound of her cry will be heard at the Red Sea.²² Look! It will be like an eagle soaring upward, then swooping down and spreading its wings over Bozrah. In that day the hearts of Edom's warriors will be like the heart of a woman with contractions.
- ²³ About Damascus:
Hamath and Arpad are put to shame,
for they have heard a bad report and are agitated,
like the anxious sea that cannot be calmed.
- ²⁴ Damascus has become weak;
she has turned to run;
panic has gripped her.
Distress and labor pains have seized her
like a woman in labor.
- ²⁵ How can the city of praise not be abandoned,
the town that brings me joy?
- ²⁶ Therefore, her young men will fall
in her public squares;
all the warriors will perish in that day.
This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.
- ²⁷ I will set fire to the wall of Damascus;
it will consume Ben-hadad's citadels.
- ²⁸ About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated, this is what the LORD says:
Rise up, attack Kedar,
and destroy the people of the east!
²⁹ They will take their tents and their flocks along with their tent curtains
and all their equipment.
They will take their camels for themselves.
They will call out to them,
"Terror is on every side!"
- ³⁰ Run! Escape quickly! Lie low, residents of Hazor —
this is the LORD's declaration —
for King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has drawn up a plan against you;
he has devised a strategy against you.
- ³¹ Rise up, attack a nation at ease,
one living in security.
This is the LORD's declaration.
They have no doors, not even a gate bar;
they live alone.
- ³² Their camels will become plunder,
and their massive herds of cattle will become spoil.
I will scatter them to the wind in every direction,
those who clip the hair on their temples;
I will bring calamity on them
across all their borders.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- ³³ Hazor will become a jackals' den,
a desolation forever.
No one will live there;
no human being will stay in it even temporarily.
- ³⁴ This is the word of the LORD that came to the prophet Jeremiah about Elam at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah.³⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies says:
I am about to shatter Elam's bow,
the source of their might.
- ³⁶ I will bring the four winds against Elam
from the four corners of the heavens,
and I will scatter them to all these winds.
There will not be a nation
to which Elam's banished ones will not go.
- ³⁷ I will devastate Elam before their enemies,
before those who intend to take their lives.
I will bring disaster on them,
my burning anger.
This is the LORD's declaration.
I will send the sword after them
until I finish them off.

38 I will set my throne in Elam,
and I will destroy the king and officials from there.
This is the LORD's declaration.

39 Yet, in the last days,
I will restore the fortunes of Elam.
This is the LORD's declaration.

50 This is the word the LORD spoke about Babylon,
the land of the Chaldeans, through the prophet
Jeremiah:

2 Announce to the nations;
proclaim and raise up a signal flag;
proclaim, and hide nothing.
Say, "Babylon is captured;
Bel is put to shame;
Marduk is terrified."

Her idols are put to shame;
her false gods, devastated.

3 For a nation from the north will attack her;
it will make her land desolate.
No one will be living in it —
both people and animals will escape.

4 In those days and at that time —
this is the LORD's declaration —
the Israelites and Judeans will come together, weeping as they come,
and will seek the LORD their God.

5 They will ask about Zion,
turning their faces to this road.
They will come and join themselves to the LORD
in a permanent covenant that will never be forgotten.

6 My people were lost sheep;
their shepherds led them astray,
guiding them the wrong way in the mountains.
They wandered from mountain to hill;
they forgot their resting place.

7 Whoever found them devoured them.
Their adversaries said, "We're not guilty;
instead, they have sinned against the LORD,
their righteous grazing land,
the hope of their ancestors, the LORD."

8 Escape from Babylon;
depart from the Chaldeans' land.
Be like the rams that lead the flock.

9 For I will soon stir up and bring against Babylon an assembly of great nations
from the north country.
They will line up in battle formation against her;
from there she will be captured.
Their arrows will be like a skilled warrior
who does not return empty-handed.

10 The Chaldeans will become plunder;
all Babylon's plunderers will be fully satisfied.
This is the LORD's declaration.

11 Because you rejoice,
because you celebrate —
you who plundered my inheritance —
because you frolic like a young cow treading grain
and neigh like stallions,

12 your mother will be utterly humiliated;
she who bore you will be put to shame.
Look! She will lag behind all the nations —
an arid wilderness, a desert.

13 Because of the LORD's wrath,
she will not be inhabited;

she will become a desolation, every bit of her.
Everyone who passes through Babylon will be appalled
and scoff because of all her wounds.

14 Line up in battle formation around Babylon,
all you archers!

Shoot at her! Do not spare an arrow,
for she has sinned against the LORD.

15 Raise a war cry against her on every side!
She has thrown up her hands in surrender;
her defense towers have fallen;
her walls are demolished.

Since this is the LORD's vengeance,
take your vengeance on her;
as she has done, do the same to her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon
as well as him who wields the sickle
at harvest time.

Because of the oppressor's sword,
each will turn to his own people,
each will flee to his own land.

17 Israel is a stray lamb, chased by lions.
The first who devoured him was the king of Assyria;
the last who crushed his bones
was King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.

18 Therefore, this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am about to punish the king of Babylon and his land just as I punished the king of Assyria.

19 I will return Israel to his grazing land,
and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan;
he will be satisfied
in the hill country of Ephraim and of Gilead.

20 In those days and at that time —
this is the LORD's declaration —
one will search for Israel's iniquity,
but there will be none,

and for Judah's sins,
but they will not be found,
for I will forgive those I leave as a remnant.

21 Attack the land of Merathaim,
and those living in Pekod.
Put them to the sword;
completely destroy them —

this is the LORD's declaration —
do everything I have commanded you.

22 The sound of war is in the land —
a crushing blow!
23 How the hammer of the whole earth
is cut down and smashed!
What a horror Babylon has become
among the nations!

24 Babylon, I laid a trap for you, and you were caught,
but you did not even know it.
You were found and captured
because you pitted yourself against the LORD.

25 The LORD opened his armory
and brought out his weapons of wrath, because it is a task of the Lord God of Armies
in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her from the most distant places.
Open her granaries;
pile her up like mounds of grain and completely destroy her.

- Leave her no survivors.
- 27 Put all her young bulls to the sword;
let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them because their day has come,
the time of their punishment.
- 28 There is a voice of fugitives and refugees
from the land of Babylon.
The voice announces in Zion the vengeance
of the LORD our God,
the vengeance for his temple.
- 29 Summon the archers to Babylon,
all who string the bow;
camp all around her; let none escape.
Repay her according to her deeds;
just as she has done, do the same to her,
for she has acted arrogantly against the LORD,
against the Holy One of Israel.
- 30 Therefore, her young men will fall
in her public squares;
all the warriors will perish in that day.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 31 Look, I am against you, you arrogant one — this is the declaration of the Lord God of Armies —
for your day has come,
the time when I will punish you.
- 32 The arrogant will stumble and fall
with no one to pick him up.
I will set fire to his cities,
and it will consume everything around him.
- 33 This is what the LORD of Armies says:
Israelites and Judeans alike have been oppressed.
All their captors hold them fast;
they refuse to release them.
- 34 Their Redeemer is strong;
the LORD of Armies is his name.
He will fervently champion their cause
so that he might bring rest to the earth
but turmoil to those who live in Babylon.
- 35 A sword is over the Chaldeans —
this is the LORD's declaration —
against those who live in Babylon,
against her officials, and against her sages.
- 36 A sword is against the diviners,
and they will act foolishly.
A sword is against her heroic warriors,
and they will be terrified.
- 37 A sword is against his horses and chariots
and against all the foreigners among them,
and they will be like women.
A sword is against her treasures,
and they will be plundered.
- 38 A drought will come on her waters,
and they will be dried up.
For it is a land of carved images,
and they go mad because of terrifying things.
- 39 Therefore, desert creatures will live with hyenas,
and ostriches will also live in her.
It will never again be inhabited or lived in through all generations.
- 40 Just as God demolished Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring towns —
this is the LORD's declaration —
so no one will live there;
no human being will stay in it even temporarily

- as a temporary resident.
- 41 Look! A people comes from the north.
A great nation and many kings will be stirred up from the remote regions of the earth.
- 42 They grasp bow and javelin.
They are cruel and show no mercy.
Their voice roars like the sea,
and they ride on horses,
lined up like men in battle formation against you, Daughter Babylon.
- 43 The king of Babylon has heard about them;
his hands have become weak.
Distress has seized him —
pain, like a woman in labor.
- 44 "Look, it will be like a lion coming from the thickets of the Jordan to the watered grazing land. I will chase Babylon away from her land in a flash. I will appoint whoever is chosen for her. For who is like me? Who will issue me a summons? Who is the shepherd who can stand against me?"
- 45 Therefore, hear the plans that the LORD has drawn up against Babylon and the strategies he has devised against the land of the Chaldeans: Certainly the flock's little lambs will be dragged away; certainly the grazing land will be made desolate because of them. 46 At the sound of Babylon's conquest the earth will quake; a cry will be heard
among the nations.
- 51 This is what the LORD says:
I am about to rouse the spirit of a destroyer
against Babylon
and against the population of Leb-qamai.
- 2 I will send strangers to Babylon who will scatter her and strip her land bare,
for they will come against her from every side in the day of disaster.
- 3 Don't let the archer string his bow;
don't let him put on his armor.
Don't spare her young men;
completely destroy her entire army!
- 4 Those who were slain will fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
those who were pierced through, in her streets.
- 5 For Israel and Judah are not left widowed by their God, the LORD of Armies, though their land is full of guilt
against the Holy One of Israel.
- 6 Leave Babylon;
save your lives, each of you!
Don't perish because of her guilt.
For this is the time of the LORD's vengeance —
he will pay her what she deserves.
- 7 Babylon was a gold cup in the LORD's hand,
making the whole earth drunk.
The nations drank her wine;
therefore, the nations go mad.
- 8 Suddenly Babylon fell and was shattered.
Wail for her;
get balm for her wound —
perhaps she can be healed.
- 9 We tried to heal Babylon,
but she could not be healed.
Abandon her!
Let each of us go to his own land,
for her judgment extends to the sky
and reaches as far as the clouds.
- 10 The LORD has brought about our vindication;

- come, let's tell in Zion
what the LORD our God has accomplished.
- 11 Sharpen the arrows!
Fill the quivers!
The LORD has roused the spirit of the kings of the Medes
because his plan is aimed at Babylon to destroy her,
for it is the LORD's vengeance, vengeance for his temple.
- 12 Raise up a signal flag against the walls of Babylon;
fortify the watch post;
set the watchmen in place;
prepare the ambush.
For the LORD has both planned and accomplished
what he has threatened
against those who live in Babylon.
- 13 You who reside by abundant water,
rich in treasures,
your end has come,
your life thread is cut.
- 14 The LORD of Armies has sworn by himself:
I will fill you up with men as with locusts,
and they will sing the victory song over you.
- 15 He made the earth by his power,
established the world by his wisdom,
and spread out the heavens by his understanding.
- 16 When he thunders,
the waters in the heavens are tumultuous,
and he causes the clouds
to rise from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain
and brings the wind from his storehouses.
- 17 Everyone is stupid and ignorant.
Every goldsmith is put to shame
by his carved image,
for his cast images are a lie;
there is no breath in them.
- 18 They are worthless, a work to be mocked.
At the time of their punishment they will be destroyed.
- 19 Jacob's Portion is not like these
because he is the one who formed all things.
Israel is the tribe of his inheritance;
the LORD of Armies is his name.
- 20 You are my war club,
my weapons of war.
With you I will smash nations;
with you I will bring kingdoms to ruin.
- 21 With you I will smash the horse and its rider;
with you I will smash the chariot and its rider.
- 22 With you I will smash man and woman;
with you I will smash the old man and the youth;
with you I will smash the young man and the young woman.
- 23 With you I will smash the shepherd and his flock;
with you I will smash the farmer and his ox-team.
With you I will smash governors and officials.
- 24 "Before you very eyes, I will repay Babylon and all the residents of Chaldea for all their evil they have done in Zion."
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 25 Look, I am against you, devastating mountain.
This is the LORD's declaration.
You devastate the whole earth.
- I will stretch out my hand against you,
roll you down from the cliffs,
and turn you into a charred mountain.
- 26 No one will be able to retrieve a cornerstone or a foundation stone from you,
because you will become desolate forever.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 27 Raise a signal flag in the land;
blow a ram's horn among the nations;
set apart the nations against her.
Summon kingdoms against her — Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a marshal against her;
bring up horses like a swarm of locusts.
- 28 Set apart the nations for battle against her —
the kings of Media,
her governors and all her officials,
and all the lands they rule.
- 29 The earth quakes and trembles
because the LORD's intentions against Babylon stand:
to make the land of Babylon a desolation,
without inhabitant.
- 30 Babylon's warriors have stopped fighting;
they sit in their strongholds.
Their might is exhausted;
they have become like women.
Babylon's homes have been set ablaze,
her gate bars are shattered.
- 31 Messenger races to meet messenger,
and herald to meet herald,
to announce to the king of Babylon that his city has been captured from end to end.
- 32 The fords have been seized,
the marshes set on fire,
and the fighting men are terrified.
- 33 For this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says:
Daughter Babylon is like a threshing floor
at the time it is trampled.
In just a little while her harvest time will come.
- 34 "King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon
has devoured me;
he has crushed me.
He has set me aside like an empty dish;
he has swallowed me like a sea monster;
he filled his belly with my delicacies;
he has vomited me out.
- 35 Let the violence done to me and my family
be done to Babylon,"
says the inhabitant of Zion.
"Let my blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea," says Jerusalem.
- 36 Therefore, this is what the LORD says:
I am about to champion your cause
and take vengeance on your behalf;
I will dry up her sea
and make her fountain run dry.
- 37 Babylon will become a heap of rubble,
a jackals' den,
a desolation and an object of scorn,
without inhabitant.
- 38 They will roar together like young lions;
they will growl like lion cubs.

39 While they are flushed with heat, I will serve them a feast,
and I will make them drunk so that they celebrate.
Then they will fall asleep forever
and never wake up.

This is the LORD's declaration.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter,
like rams together with male goats.

41 How Sheshach has been captured,
the praise of the whole earth seized.
What a horror Babylon has become
among the nations!

42 The sea has risen over Babylon;
she is covered with its tumultuous waves.

43 Her cities have become a desolation,
an arid desert,
a land where no one lives,
where no human being even passes through.

44 I will punish Bel in Babylon.
I will make him vomit what he swallowed.
The nations will no longer stream to him;
even Babylon's wall will fall.

45 Come out from among her, my people!
Save your lives, each of you,
from the LORD's burning anger.

46 May you not become cowardly and fearful
when the report is proclaimed in the land,
for the report will come one year,
and then another the next year.
There will be violence in the land
with ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, look, the days are coming
when I will punish Babylon's carved images.
Her entire land will suffer shame,
and all her slain will lie fallen within her.

48 Heaven and earth and everything in them will shout for joy over Babylon because the destroyers from the north will come against her.

This is the LORD's declaration.

49 Babylon must fall because of the slain of Israel, even as the slain of the whole earth fell because of Babylon.

50 You who have escaped the sword,
go and do not stand still!

Remember the LORD from far away,
and let Jerusalem come to your mind.

51 We are ashamed
because we have heard insults.
Humiliation covers our faces because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD's temple.

52 Therefore, look, the days are coming —
this is the LORD's declaration —
when I will punish her carved images, and the wounded will groan
throughout her land.

53 Even if Babylon should ascend to the heavens and fortify her tall fortresses, destroyers will come against her from me.

This is the LORD's declaration.

54 The sound of a cry from Babylon!
The sound of terrible destruction
from the land of the Chaldeans!

55 For the LORD is going to devastate Babylon;

he will silence her mighty voice.

Their waves roar like a huge torrent;
the tumult of their voice resounds, 56 for a destroyer is coming against her,
against Babylon.

Her warriors will be captured,
their bows shattered,
for the LORD is a God of retribution;
he will certainly repay.

57 I will make her princes and sages drunk,
along with her governors, officials, and warriors.
Then they will fall asleep forever
and never wake up.

This is the King's declaration;
the LORD of Armies is his name.

58 This is what the LORD of Armies says:
Babylon's thick walls will be totally demolished,
and her high gates set ablaze.

The peoples will have labored for nothing;
the nations will weary themselves only to feed
the fire.

59 This is what the prophet Jeremiah commanded Seraiah son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, the quartermaster, when he went to Babylon with King Zedekiah of Judah in the fourth year of Zedekiah's reign.⁶⁰ Jeremiah wrote on one scroll about all the disaster that would come to Babylon; all these words were written against Babylon.

61 Jeremiah told Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud.⁶² Say, 'LORD, you have threatened to cut off this place so that no one will live in it — people or animals. Indeed, it will remain desolate forever.'⁶³ When you have finished reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates River.⁶⁴ Then say, 'In the same way, Babylon will sink and never rise again because of the disaster I am bringing on her. They will grow weary.'"

The words of Jeremiah end here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.² Zedekiah did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as Jehoiakim had done.³ Because of the LORD's anger, it came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that he finally banished them from his presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁶ By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that the common people had no food.⁷ Then the city was broken into, and all the warriors fled. They left the city at night by way of the city gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Chaldeans surrounded the city. They made their way along the route to the Arabah.⁸ The Chaldean army pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. Zedekiah's entire army left him and scattered.⁹ The Chaldeans seized the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence on him.

¹⁷ Now the Chaldeans broke into pieces the bronze pillars for the LORD's temple and the water carts and the bronze basin that were in the LORD's temple, and they carried all the bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸ They also took the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, sprinkling basins, dishes, and all the bronze articles used in the temple service. ¹⁹ The captain of the guards took away the bowls, firepans, sprinkling basins, pots, lampstands, pans, and drink offering bowls — whatever was gold or silver.

²⁰ As for the two pillars, the one basin, with the twelve bronze oxen under it, and the water carts that King Solomon had made for the LORD's temple, the weight of the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure. ²¹ One pillar was 27 feet tall, had a circumference of 18 feet, was hollow — four fingers thick — ²² and had a bronze capital on top of it. One capital, encircled by bronze grating and pomegranates, stood 7 ½ feet high. The second pillar was the same, with pomegranates. ²³ Each capital had ninety-six pomegranates all around it. All the pomegranates around the grating numbered one hundred.

²⁴ The captain of the guards also took away Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest of the second rank, and the three doorkeepers. ²⁵ From the city he took a court official who had been appointed over the warriors; seven trusted royal aides found in the city; the secretary of the commander of the army, who enlisted the people of the land for military duty; and sixty men from the common people who were found within the city. ²⁶ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guards, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²⁷ The king of Babylon put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah went into exile from its land.

³¹ On the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Judah's King Jehoiachin, King Evil-merodach of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, pardoned King Jehoiachin of Judah and released him from prison. ³² He spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the thrones of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

³³ So Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes, and he dined regularly in the presence of the king of Babylon for the rest of his life. ³⁴ As for his allowance, a regular allowance was given to him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day until the day of his death, for the rest of his life.

LAMENTATIONS

א Aleph

1 How she sits alone,
the city once crowded with people!
She who was great among the nations
has become like a widow.
The princess among the provinces
has been put to forced labor.

ב Beth

2 She weeps bitterly during the night,
with tears on her cheeks.
There is no one to offer her comfort,
not one from all her lovers.
All her friends have betrayed her;
they have become her enemies.

ג Gimel

3 Judah has gone into exile
following affliction and harsh slavery;
she lives among the nations
but finds no place to rest.
All her pursuers have overtaken her in narrow places.

ד Daleth

4 The roads to Zion mourn,
for no one comes to the appointed festivals.
All her gates are deserted;
her priests groan,
her young women grieve,
and she herself is bitter.

ה He

5 Her adversaries have become her masters;
her enemies are at ease,
for the LORD has made her suffer
because of her many transgressions.
Her children have gone away
as captives before the adversary.

ו Waw

6 All the splendor has vanished
from Daughter Zion.
Her leaders are like stags
that find no pasture;
they stumble away exhausted
before the hunter.

ז Zayin

7 During the days of her affliction and homelessness
Jerusalem remembers
all her precious belongings
that were hers in days of old.
When her people fell into the adversary's hand,
she had no one to help.
The adversaries looked at her,
laughing over her downfall.

ח Cheth

8 Jerusalem has sinned grievously;
therefore, she has become an object of scorn.
All who honored her now despise her,
for they have seen her nakedness.
She herself groans and turns away.

ט Teth

9 Her uncleanness stains her skirts.
She never considered her end.
Her downfall was astonishing;
there was no one to comfort her.
LORD, look on my affliction,
for the enemy boasts.

י Yod

10 The adversary has seized
all her precious belongings.
She has even seen the nations
enter her sanctuary—
those you had forbidden to enter your assembly.

כ Kaph

11 All her people groan
while they search for bread.
They have traded their precious belongings for food
in order to stay alive.
LORD, look and see how I have become despised.

ל Lamed

12 Is this nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look and see!
Is there any pain like mine,
which was dealt out to me,
which the LORD made me suffer
on the day of his burning anger?

מ Mem

13 He sent fire from on high into my bones;
he made it descend.
He spread a net for my feet
and turned me back.
He made me desolate,
sick all day long.

נ Nun

14 My transgressions have been formed into a yoke, fastened together by his hand;
they have been placed on my neck,
and the Lord has broken my strength.
He has handed me over to those I cannot withstand.

ס Samek

15 The Lord has rejected
all the mighty men within me.
He has summoned an army against me

to crush my young warriors.
The Lord has trampled Virgin Daughter Judah like grapes in a winepress.

א Ayin

¹⁶ I weep because of these things;
my eyes flow with tears.
For there is no one nearby to comfort me,
no one to keep me alive.
My children are desolate
because the enemy has prevailed.

ב Pe

¹⁷ Zion stretches out her hands;
there is no one to comfort her.
The Lord has issued a decree against Jacob that his neighbors should be his adversaries.
Jerusalem has become something impure among them.

ג Tsade

¹⁸ The Lord is just,
for I have rebelled against his command.
Listen, all you people;
look at my pain.
My young women and young men
have gone into captivity.

ד Qoph

¹⁹ I called to my lovers,
but they betrayed me.
My priests and elders perished in the city
while searching for food
to keep themselves alive.

ה Resh

²⁰ Lord, see how I am in distress.
I am churning within;
my heart is broken,
for I have been very rebellious.
Outside, the sword takes the children;
inside, there is death.

ו Shin

²¹ People have heard me groaning,
but there is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my misfortune;
they are glad that you have caused it.
Bring on the day you have announced,
so that they may become like me.

ז Taw

²² Let all their wickedness come before you,
and deal with them
as you have dealt with me
because of all my transgressions.
For my groans are many,
and I am sick at heart.

ח Aleph

2 How the Lord has overshadowed Daughter Zion with his anger!
He has thrown down Israel's glory
from heaven to earth.

He did not acknowledge his footstool
in the day of his anger.

ט Beth

² Without compassion the Lord has swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob.
In his wrath he has demolished
the fortified cities of Daughter Judah.
He brought them to the ground
and defiled the kingdom and its leaders.

י Gimel

³ He has cut off every horn of Israel in his burning anger and withdrawn his right hand
in the presence of the enemy.
He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire that consumes everything.

יא Daleth

⁴ He has strung his bow like an enemy;
his right hand is positioned like an adversary.
He has killed everyone who was the delight
to the eye,
pouring out his wrath like fire
on the tent of Daughter Zion.

יב He

⁵ The Lord is like an enemy;
he has swallowed up Israel.
He swallowed up all its palaces
and destroyed its fortified cities.
He has multiplied mourning and lamentation within Daughter Judah.

יג Waw

⁶ He has wrecked his temple
as if it were merely a shack in a field, destroying his place of meeting.
The Lord has abolished
appointed festivals and Sabbaths in Zion.
He has despised king and priest
in his fierce anger.

יד Zayin

⁷ The Lord has rejected his altar, repudiated his sanctuary;
he has handed the walls of her palaces
over to the enemy.
They have raised a shout in the house
of the Lord
as on the day of an appointed festival.

טו Cheth

⁸ The Lord determined to destroy the wall of Daughter Zion.
He stretched out a measuring line
and did not restrain himself from destroying.
He made the ramparts and walls grieve;
together they waste away.

טז Teth

⁹ Zion's gates have fallen to the ground;
he has destroyed and shattered the bars
on her gates.

Her king and her leaders live
among the nations,
instruction is no more,
and even her prophets receive no vision from the LORD.

י Yod

¹⁰ The elders of Daughter Zion sit on the ground in silence.
They have thrown dust on their heads and put on sackcloth.
The young women of Jerusalem
have bowed their heads to the ground.

כ Kaph

¹¹ My eyes are worn out from weeping;
I am churning within.
My heart is poured out in grief
because of the destruction
of my dear people,
because infants and nursing babies faint
in the streets of the city.

ל Lamed

¹² They cry out to their mothers,
"Where is the grain and wine?"
as they faint like the wounded
in the streets of the city,
as their life pours out
in the arms of their mothers.

מ Mem

¹³ What can I say on your behalf?
What can I compare you to,
Daughter Jerusalem?
What can I liken you to,
so that I may console you,
Virgin Daughter Zion?
For your ruin is as vast as the sea.
Who can heal you?

נ Nun

¹⁴ Your prophets saw visions for you that were empty and deceptive;
they did not reveal your iniquity
and so restore your fortunes.
They saw pronouncements for you that were empty and misleading.

ס Samek

¹⁵ All who pass by scornfully clap their hands at you.
They hiss and shake their heads
at Daughter Jerusalem:
Is this the city that was called
the perfection of beauty,
the joy of the whole earth?

פ Pe

¹⁶ All your enemies
open their mouths against you.
They hiss and gnash their teeth,
saying, "We have swallowed her up.
This is the day we have waited for!
We have lived to see it."

צ Ayin

¹⁷ The LORD has done what he planned;
he has accomplished his decree,
which he ordained in days of old.
He has demolished without compassion, letting the enemy gloat over you
and exalting the horn of your adversaries.

ק Tsade

¹⁸ The hearts of the people cry out to the Lord.
Wall of Daughter Zion,
let your tears run down like a river
day and night.
Give yourself no relief
and your eyes no rest.

ר Qoph

¹⁹ Arise, cry out in the night
from the first watch of the night.
Pour out your heart like water
before the Lord's presence.
Lift up your hands to him
for the lives of your children who are fainting from hunger
at the head of every street.

ש Resh

²⁰ LORD, look and consider to whom you have done this.
Should women eat their own children,
the infants they have nurtured?
Should priests and prophets
be killed in the Lord's sanctuary?

ש Shin

²¹ Both young and old
are lying on the ground in the streets.
My young women and young men
have fallen by the sword.
You have killed them in the day of your anger,
slaughtering without compassion.

ת Taw

²² You summon those who terrorize me on every side,
as if for an appointed festival day;
on the day of the LORD's anger
no one escaped or survived.
My enemy has destroyed
those I nurtured and reared.

א Aleph

3 I am the man who has seen affliction
under the rod of God's wrath.
² He has driven me away and forced me to walk in darkness instead of light.
³ Yes, he repeatedly turns his hand against me all day long.

ב Beth

⁴ He has worn away my flesh and skin;
he has broken my bones.
⁵ He has laid siege against me,
encircling me with bitterness and hardship.
⁶ He has made me dwell in darkness
like those who have been dead for ages.

ג Gimel

- 7 He has walled me in so I cannot get out;
he has weighed me down with chains.
8 Even when I cry out and plead for help,
he blocks out my prayer.
9 He has walled in my ways with blocks of stone;
he has made my paths crooked.

ד Dalet

- 10 He is a bear waiting in ambush,
a lion in hiding.
11 He forced me off my way and tore me to pieces;
he left me desolate.
12 He strung his bow
and set me as the target for his arrow.

ה He

- 13 He pierced my kidneys
with shafts from his quiver.
14 I am a laughingstock to all my people,
mocked by their songs all day long.
15 He filled me with bitterness, satiated me with wormwood.

ו Waw

- 16 He ground my teeth with gravel
and made me cower in the dust.
17 I have been deprived of peace;
I have forgotten what prosperity is.
18 Then I thought, "My future is lost,
as well as my hope from the LORD."

ז Zayin

- 19 Remember my affliction and my homelessness,
the wormwood and the poison.
20 I continually remember them
and have become depressed.
21 Yet I call this to mind,
and therefore I have hope:

ח Cheth

- 22 Because of the LORD's faithful love
we do not perish,
for his mercies never end.
23 They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness!
24 I say, "The LORD is my portion, therefore I will put my hope in him."

ט Teth

- 25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him,
to the person who seeks him.
26 It is good to wait quietly
for salvation from the LORD.
27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke
while he is still young.

י Yod

- 28 Let him sit alone and be silent,
for God has disciplined him.
29 Let him put his mouth in the dust —
perhaps there is still hope.
30 Let him offer his cheek
to the one who would strike him;
let him be filled with disgrace.

כ Kaph

- 31 For the Lord
will not reject us forever.
32 Even if he causes suffering,
he will show compassion
according to the abundance of his faithful love.
33 For he does not enjoy bringing affliction or suffering on mankind.

כב Lamed

- 34 Crushing all the prisoners of the land
beneath one's feet, 35 denying justice to a man in the presence of the Most High, 36 or subverting a person in his lawsuit —
the Lord does not approve of these things.

כג Mem

- 37 Who is there who speaks and it happens,
unless the Lord has ordained it?
38 Do not both adversity and good come from the mouth of the Most High?
39 Why should any living person complain,
any man, because of the punishment for his sins?

כד Nun

- 40 Let us examine and probe our ways,
and turn back to the LORD.
41 Let us lift up our hearts and our hands
to God in heaven:
42 "We have sinned and rebelled;
you have not forgiven.

כה Samek

- 43 "You have covered yourself in anger
and pursued us;
you have killed without compassion.
44 You have covered yourself with a cloud
so that no prayer can get through.
45 You have made us disgusting filth among the peoples.

כו Pe

- 46 "All our enemies
open their mouths against us.
47 We have experienced panic and pitfall,
devastation and destruction."
48 My eyes flow with streams of tears
because of the destruction of my dear people.

כז Ayin

- 49 My eyes overflow unceasingly,
without end,
50 until the LORD looks down
from heaven and sees.
51 My eyes bring me grief
because of the fate of all the women in my city.

כח Tsade

- 52 For no reason, my enemies
hunted me like a bird.
53 They smothered my life in a pit
and threw stones on me.
54 Water flooded over my head,
and I thought, "I'm going to die!"

Qoph

- ⁵⁵ I called on your name, LORD,
from the depths of the pit.
⁵⁶ You heard my plea:
Do not ignore my cry for relief.
⁵⁷ You came near whenever I called you;
you said, "Do not be afraid."

Resh

- ⁵⁸ You championed my cause, Lord;
you redeemed my life.
⁵⁹ LORD, you saw the wrong done to me;
judge my case.
⁶⁰ You saw all their vengefulness,
all their plots against me.

Sin / Shin

- ⁶¹ LORD, you heard their insults,
all their plots against me.
⁶² The slander and murmuring of my opponents attack me all day long.
⁶³ When they sit and when they rise, look,
I am mocked by their songs.

Taw

- ⁶⁴ You will pay them back what they deserve, LORD,
according to the work of their hands.
⁶⁵ You will give them a heart filled with anguish.
May your curse be on them!
⁶⁶ You will pursue them in anger and destroy them under your heavens.

Aleph

- 4 How the gold has become tarnished,
the fine gold become dull!
The stones of the temple lie scattered
at the head of every street.

Beth

- ² Zion's precious children—
once worth their weight in pure gold—
how they are regarded as clay jars,
the work of a potter's hands!

Gimel

- ³ Even jackals offer their breasts
to nurse their young,
but my dear people have become cruel
like ostriches in the wilderness.

Daleth

- ⁴ The nursing baby's tongue
clings to the roof of his mouth from thirst.
Infants beg for food,
but no one gives them any.

He

- ⁵ Those who used to eat delicacies
are destitute in the streets;
those who were reared in purple garments huddle in trash heaps.

Waw

- ⁶ The punishment of my dear people
is greater than that of Sodom,

which was overthrown in an instant
without a hand laid on it.

Zayin

- ⁷ Her dignitaries were brighter than snow,
whiter than milk;
their bodies were more ruddy than coral,
their appearance like lapis lazuli.

Cheth

- ⁸ Now they appear darker than soot;
they are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled on their bones;
it has become dry like wood.

Teth

- ⁹ Those slain by the sword are better off
than those slain by hunger,
who waste away, pierced with pain
because the fields lack produce.

Yod

- ¹⁰ The hands of compassionate women have cooked their own children;
they became their food
during the destruction of my dear people.

Kaph

- ¹¹ The LORD has exhausted his wrath, poured out his burning anger;
he has ignited a fire in Zion,
and it has consumed her foundations.

Lamed

- ¹² The kings of the earth and all the world's inhabitants did not believe that an enemy or adversary
could enter Jerusalem's gates.

Mem

- ¹³ Yet it happened because of the sins of her prophets
and the iniquities of her priests, who shed the blood of the righteous within her.

Nun

- ¹⁴ Blind, they stumbled in the streets,
defiled by this blood,
so that no one dared
to touch their garments.

Samek

- ¹⁵ "Stay away! Unclean!" people shouted at them.
"Away, away! Don't touch us!"
So they wandered aimlessly.
It was said among the nations,
"They can stay here no longer."

Pe

- ¹⁶ The LORD himself has scattered them;
he no longer watches over them.
The priests are not respected;
the elders find no favor.

י Ayin

- 17 All the while our eyes were failing as we looked in vain for help;
we watched from our towers
for a nation that would not save us.

צ Tsade

- 18 Our steps were closely followed
so that we could not walk in our streets.
Our end approached; our time ran out.
Our end had come!

ק Qoph

- 19 Those who chased us were swifter
than eagles in the sky;
they relentlessly pursued us over the mountains and ambushed us in the wilderness.

ר Resh

- 20 The LORD's anointed, the breath of our life,
was captured in their traps.
We had said about him,
"We will live under his protection
among the nations."

ש Sin

- 21 So rejoice and be glad, Daughter Edom,
you resident of the land of Uz!
Yet the cup will pass to you as well;
you will get drunk and expose yourself.

ת Taw

- 22 Daughter Zion, your punishment is complete;
he will not lengthen your exile.
But he will punish your iniquity, Daughter Edom,
and will expose your sins.

5 LORD, remember what has happened to us.
Look, and see our disgrace!

- 2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,
our houses to foreigners.

- 3 We have become orphans, fatherless;
our mothers are widows.
4 We must pay for the water we drink;
our wood comes at a price.
5 We are closely pursued;
we are tired, and no one offers us rest.
6 We made a treaty with Egypt
and with Assyria, to get enough food.
7 Our fathers sinned; they no longer exist,
but we bear their punishment.
8 Slaves rule over us;
no one rescues us from them.
9 We secure our food at the risk of our lives
because of the sword in the wilderness.
10 Our skin is as hot as an oven
from the ravages of hunger.
11 Women have been raped in Zion, virgins in the cities of Judah.
12 Princes have been hung up by their hands;
elders are shown no respect.
13 Young men labor at millstones;
boys stumble under loads of wood.
14 The elders have left the city gate,
the young men, their music.
15 Joy has left our hearts;
our dancing has turned to mourning.
16 The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned.
17 Because of this, our heart is sick;
because of these, our eyes grow dim:
because of Mount Zion, which lies desolate
and has jackals prowling in it.
19 You, LORD, are enthroned forever;
your throne endures from generation
to generation.
20 Why do you continually forget us,
abandon us for our entire lives?
21 LORD, bring us back to yourself, so we may return;
renew our days as in former times,
unless you have completely rejected us
and are intensely angry with us.

EZEKIEL

1 In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, while I was among the exiles by the Chebar Canal, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God. ²On the fifth day of the month — it was the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's exile — ³the word of the Lord came directly to the priest Ezekiel son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Chebar Canal. The Lord's hand was on him there.

⁴I looked, and there was a whirlwind coming from the north, a huge cloud with fire flashing back and forth and brilliant light all around it. In the center of the fire, there was a gleam like amber. ⁵The likeness of four living creatures came from it, and this was their appearance: They looked something like a human, ⁶but each of them had four faces and four wings. ⁷Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the hooves of a calf, sparkling like the gleam of polished bronze. ⁸They had human hands under their wings on their four sides. All four of them had faces and wings. ⁹Their wings were touching. The creatures did not turn as they moved; each one went straight ahead. ¹⁰Their faces looked something like the face of a human, and each of the four had the face of a lion on the right, the face of an ox on the left, and the face of an eagle. ¹¹That is what their faces were like. Their wings were spread upward; each had two wings touching that of another and two wings covering its body. ¹²Each creature went straight ahead. Wherever the Spirit wanted to go, they went without turning as they moved.

¹⁵When I looked at the living creatures, there was one wheel on the ground beside each of the four-faced creatures. ¹⁶The appearance of the wheels and their craftsmanship was like the gleam of beryl, and all four had the same likeness. Their appearance and craftsmanship was like a wheel within a wheel. ¹⁷When they moved, they went in any of the four directions, without turning as they moved.

¹⁸Their rims were tall and awe-inspiring. Each of their four rims were full of eyes all around. ¹⁹When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them, and when the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels also rose. ²⁰Wherever the Spirit wanted to go, the creatures went in the direction the Spirit was moving. The wheels rose alongside them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²¹When the creatures moved, the wheels moved; when the creatures stopped, the wheels stopped; and when the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose alongside them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²⁵A voice came from above the expanse over their heads; when they stopped, they lowered their wings.

2 He said to me, "Son of man, stand up on your feet and I will speak with you." ²As he spoke to me, the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I listened to the one who was speaking to me. ³He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to the rebellious pagans who have rebelled against me. The Israelites and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this day. ⁴The descendants are obstinate and hardhearted. I am sending you to them, and you must say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says.' ⁵Whether they listen or refuse to listen — for they are a rebellious house — they will know that a prophet has been among them.

⁶But you, son of man, do not be afraid of them and do not be afraid of their words, even though briars and thorns are beside you and you live among scorpions. Don't be afraid of their words or discouraged by the look on their faces, for they are a rebellious house. ⁷Speak my words to them whether they listen or refuse to listen, for they are rebellious.

⁸And you, son of man, listen to what I tell you: Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you." ⁹So I looked and saw a hand reaching out to me, and there was a written scroll in it. ¹⁰When he unrolled it before me, it was written on the front and back; words of lamentation, mourning, and woe were written on it.

3 He said to me: "Son of man, eat what you find here. Eat this scroll, then go and speak to the house of Israel." ²So I opened my mouth, and he fed me the scroll. ³"Son of man," he said to me, "feed your stomach and fill your belly with this scroll I am giving you." So I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴Then he said to me: "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak my words to them. ⁵For you are not being sent to a people of unintelligible speech or a difficult language but to the house of Israel — ⁶not to the many peoples of unintelligible speech or a difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. No doubt, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. ⁷But the house of Israel will not want to listen to you because they do not want to listen to me. For the whole house of Israel is hardheaded and hardhearted. ⁸Look, I have made your face as hard as their faces and your forehead as hard as their foreheads. ⁹I have made your forehead like a diamond, harder than flint. Don't be afraid of them or discouraged by the look on their faces, though they are a rebellious house."

¹⁰ Next he said to me: "Son of man, listen carefully to all my words that I speak to you and take them to heart. ¹¹ Go to your people, the exiles, and speak to them. Tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says,' whether they listen or refuse to listen."

¹² The Spirit then lifted me up, and I heard a loud rumbling sound behind me — bless the glory of the Lord in his place! — ¹³ with the sound of the living creatures' wings brushing against each other and the sound of the wheels beside them, a loud rumbling sound. ¹⁴ The Spirit lifted me up and took me away. I left in bitterness and in an angry spirit, and the Lord's hand was on me powerfully. ¹⁵ I came to the exiles at Tel-abib, who were living by the Chebar Canal, and I sat there among them stunned for seven days.

¹⁶ Now at the end of seven days the word of the Lord came to me: ¹⁷ "Son of man, I have made you a watchman over the house of Israel. When you hear a word from my mouth, give them a warning from me. ¹⁸ If I say to the wicked person, 'You will surely die,' but you do not warn him — you don't speak out to warn him about his wicked way in order to save his life — that wicked person will die for his iniquity. Yet I will hold you responsible for his blood. ¹⁹ But if you warn a wicked person and he does not turn from his wickedness or his wicked way, he will die for his iniquity, but you will have rescued yourself. ²⁰ Now if a righteous person turns from his righteousness and acts unjustly, and I put a stumbling block in front of him, he will die. If you did not warn him, he will die because of his sin, and the righteous acts he did will not be remembered. Yet I will hold you responsible for his blood. ²¹ But if you warn the righteous person that he should not sin, and he does not sin, he will indeed live because he listened to your warning, and you will have rescued yourself."

²² The hand of the Lord was on me there, and he said to me, "Get up, go out to the plain, and I will speak with you there." ²³ So I got up and went out to the plain. The Lord's glory was present there, like the glory I had seen by the Chebar Canal, and I fell facedown. ²⁴ The Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. He spoke with me and said: "Go, shut yourself inside your house. ²⁵ As for you, son of man, they will put ropes on you and bind you with them so you cannot go out among them. ²⁶ I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, and you will be mute and unable to be a mediator for them, for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷ But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says.' Let the one who listens, listen, and let the one who refuses, refuse — for they are a rebellious house.

4 ¹ Now you, son of man, take a brick, set it in front of you, and draw the city of Jerusalem on it. ² Then lay siege against it: Construct a siege wall, build a ramp, pitch military camps, and place battering rams against it on all sides. ³ Take an iron plate and set it up as an iron wall between yourself and the city. Face it so that it is under siege, and besiege it. This will be a sign for the house of Israel.

⁴ Then lie down on your left side and place the iniquity of the house of Israel on it. You will bear their iniquity for the number of days you lie on your side. ⁵ For I have assigned you the years of their iniquity according to the number of days you lie down, 390 days; so you will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. ⁶ When you have completed these days, lie down again, but on your right side, and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah. I have assigned you forty days, a day for each year. ⁷ Face the siege of Jerusalem with your arm bared, and prophesy against it. ⁸ Be aware that I will put cords on you so you cannot turn from side to side until you have finished the days of your siege.

⁹ Also take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt. Put them in a single container and make them into bread for yourself. You are to eat it during the number of days you lie on your side, 390 days. ¹⁰ The food you eat each day will weigh eight ounces; you will eat it at set times. ¹¹ You will also drink a ration of water, a sixth of a gallon, which you will drink at set times. ¹² You will eat it as you would a barley cake and bake it over dried human excrement in their sight." ¹³ The Lord said, "This is how the Israelites will eat their bread — ceremonially unclean — among the nations where I will banish them."

¹⁴ But I said, "Oh, Lord God, I have never been defiled. From my youth until now I have not eaten anything that died naturally or was mauled by wild beasts. And impure meat has never entered my mouth."

¹⁵ He replied to me, "Look, I will let you use cow dung instead of human excrement, and you can make your bread over that." ¹⁶ He said to me, "Son of man, I am going to cut off the supply of bread in Jerusalem. They will anxiously eat food they have weighed out and in dread drink rationed water ¹⁷ for lack of bread and water. Everyone will be devastated and waste away because of their iniquity.

5 ¹ Now you, son of man, take a sharp sword, use it as you would a barber's razor, and shave your head and beard. Then take a set of scales and divide the hair. ² You are to burn a third of it in the city when the days of the siege have ended; you are to take a third and slash it with the sword all around the city; and you are to scatter a third to the wind, for I will draw a sword to chase after them. ³ But you are to take a few strands from the hair and secure them in the folds of your robe. ⁴ Take some more of them, throw them into the fire, and burn them in it. A fire will spread from it to the whole house of Israel.

⁷ Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: Because you have been more insubordinate than the nations around you — you have not walked in my statutes or kept my ordinances; you have not even kept the ordinances of the nations around you — ⁸ therefore, this is what the Lord God says: See, I myself am against you, Jerusalem, and I will execute judgments within you in the sight of the nations. ⁹ Because of all your detestable practices, I will do to you what I have never done before and what I will never do again. ¹⁰ As a result, fathers will eat their sons within Jerusalem, and sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments against you and scatter all your survivors to every direction of the wind.

¹¹ Therefore, as I live — this is the declaration of the Lord God — "I will withdraw and show you no pity, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your abhorrent acts and detestable practices. Yes, I will not spare you. ¹² A third of your people will die by plague and be consumed by famine within you; a third will fall by the sword all around you; and I will scatter a third to every direction of the wind, and I will draw a sword to chase after them. ¹³ When my anger is spent and I have vented my wrath on them, I will be appeased. Then after I have spent my wrath on them, they will know that I, the Lord, have spoken in my jealousy.

14 "I will make you a ruin and a disgrace among the nations around you, in the sight of everyone who passes by. 15 So you will be a disgrace and a taunt, a warning and a horror, to the nations around you when I execute judgments against you in anger, wrath, and furious rebukes. I, the LORD, have spoken. 16 When I shoot deadly arrows of famine at them, arrows for destruction that I will send to destroy you, inhabitants of Jerusalem, I will intensify the famine against you and cut off your supply of bread. 17 I will send famine and dangerous animals against you. They will leave you childless. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring a sword against you. I, the LORD, have spoken."

6 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, face the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them. ³You are to say: Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God! This is what the Lord God says to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴Your altars will be desolated and your shrines smashed. I will throw down your slain in front of your idols. ⁵I will lay the corpses of the Israelites in front of their idols and scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶Wherever you live the cities will be in ruins and the high places will be desolate, so that your altars will lie in ruins and be desecrated, your idols smashed and obliterated, your shrines cut down, and what you have made wiped out. ⁷The slain will fall among you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

⁸"Yet I will leave a remnant when you are scattered among the nations, for throughout the countries there will be some of you who will escape the sword. ⁹Then your survivors will remember me among the nations where they are taken captive, how I was crushed by their promiscuous hearts that turned away from me and by their eyes that lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves because of the evil things they did, their detestable actions of every kind. ¹⁰And they will know that I am the LORD; I did not threaten to bring this disaster on them without a reason.

¹¹"This is what the Lord God says: Clap your hands, stamp your feet, and cry out over all the evil and detestable practices of the house of Israel, who will fall by the sword, famine, and plague. ¹²The one who is far off will die by plague; the one who is near will fall by the sword; and the one who remains and is spared will die of famine. In this way I will exhaust my wrath on them. ¹³You will all know that I am the LORD when their slain lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, and under every green tree and every leafy oak — the places where they offered pleasing aromas to all their idols. ¹⁴I will stretch out my hand against them, and wherever they live I will make the land a desolate waste, from the wilderness to Diblah. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

7 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, this is what the Lord God says to the land of Israel:

An end! The end has come on the four corners of the earth.

- ³ The end is now upon you; I will send my anger against you and judge you according to your ways. I will punish you for all your detestable practices.
- ⁴ I will not look on you with pity or spare you, but I will punish you for your ways and for your detestable practices within you. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

⁵This is what the Lord God says:

Look, one disaster after another is coming!

- ⁶ An end has come; the end has come! It has awakened against you. Look, it is coming!
- ⁷ Doom has come on you, inhabitants of the land. The time has come; the day is near. There will be panic on the mountains and not celebration.
- ⁸ I will pour out my wrath on you very soon; I will exhaust my anger against you and judge you according to your ways. I will punish you for all your detestable practices.
- ⁹ I will not look on you with pity or spare you. I will punish you for your ways and for your detestable practices within you. Then you will know that it is I, the LORD, who strikes.
- ¹⁰ Here is the day! Here it comes! Doom is on its way. The rod has blossomed; arrogance has bloomed.
- ¹¹ Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. None of them will remain: none of that crowd, none of their wealth, and none of the eminent among them.
- ¹² The time has come; the day has arrived. Let the buyer not rejoice and the seller not mourn, for wrath is on her whole crowd.
- ¹³ The seller will certainly not return to what was sold as long as he and the buyer remain alive. For the vision concerning her whole crowd will not be revoked, and because of the iniquity of each one, none will preserve his life.
- ¹⁴ They have blown the trumpet and prepared everything, but no one goes to war, for my wrath is on her whole crowd.
- ¹⁵ The sword is on the outside; plague and famine are on the inside. Whoever is in the field will die by the sword, and famine and plague will devour whoever is in the city.
- ¹⁶ The survivors among them will escape and live on the mountains. Like doves of the valley, all of them will moan, each over his own iniquity.
- ¹⁷ All their hands will become weak, and all their knees will run with urine.
- ¹⁸ They will put on sackcloth, and horror will overwhelm them. Shame will cover all their faces, and all their heads will be bald.
- ¹⁹ They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will seem like something filthy. Their silver and gold will be unable to save them in the day of the LORD's wrath. They will not satisfy their appetites or fill their stomachs, for these were the stumbling blocks that brought about their iniquity.

²⁰ He appointed his beautiful ornaments for majesty, but they made their detestable images from them, their abhorrent things.

Therefore, I have made these into something filthy to them.

²¹ I will hand these things over to foreigners as plunder and to the wicked of the earth as spoil, and they will profane them.

²² I will turn my face from them as they profane my treasured place. Violent men will enter it and profane it.

²³ Forge the chain, for the land is filled with crimes of bloodshed, and the city is filled with violence.

²⁴ So I will bring the most evil of nations to take possession of their houses. I will put an end to the pride of the strong, and their sacred places will be profaned.

²⁵ Anguish is coming! They will look for peace, but there will be none.

²⁶ Disaster after disaster will come, and there will be rumor after rumor.

Then they will look for a vision from a prophet, but instruction will perish from the priests and counsel from the elders.

²⁷ The king will mourn; the prince will be clothed in grief; and the hands of the people of the land will tremble.

I will deal with them according to their own conduct, and I will judge them by their own standards. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

8 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, I was sitting in my house and the elders of Judah were sitting in front of me, and there the hand of the LORD God came down on me. ² I looked, and there was someone who looked like a man. From what seemed to be his waist down was fire, and from his waist up was something that looked bright, like the gleam of amber. ³ He stretched out what appeared to be a hand and took me by the hair of my head. Then the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and carried me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the inner gate that faces north, where the offensive statue that provokes jealousy was located. ⁴ I saw the glory of the God of Israel there, like the vision I had seen in the plain.

⁵ The LORD said to me, "Son of man, look toward the north." I looked to the north, and there was this offensive statue north of the Altar Gate, at the entrance. ⁶ He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing here — more detestable acts than the house of Israel is committing — so that I must depart from my sanctuary? You will see even more detestable acts."

⁷ Then he brought me to the entrance of the court, and when I looked there was a hole in the wall. ⁸ He said to me, "Son of man, dig through the wall." So I dug through the wall and discovered a doorway. ⁹ He said to me, "Go in and see the detestable, wicked acts they are committing here."

¹⁰ I went in and looked, and there engraved all around the wall was every kind of abhorrent thing — crawling creatures and beasts — as well as all the idols of the house of

Israel. ¹¹ Seventy elders from the house of Israel were standing before them, with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had a firepan in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising up. ¹² He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his idol? For they are saying, 'The LORD does not see us. The LORD has abandoned the land.'" ¹³ Again he said to me, "You will see even more detestable acts that they are committing."

¹⁴ Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORD's house, and I saw women sitting there weeping for Tammuz. ¹⁵ And he said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? You will see even more detestable acts than these."

¹⁶ So he brought me to the inner court of the LORD's house, and there were about twenty-five men at the entrance of the LORD's temple, between the portico and the altar, with their backs to the LORD's temple and their faces turned to the east. They were bowing to the east in worship of the sun. ¹⁷ And he said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Is it not enough for the house of Judah to commit the detestable acts they are doing here, that they must also fill the land with violence and repeatedly anger me, even putting the branch to their nose? ¹⁸ Therefore I will respond with wrath. I will not show pity or spare them. Though they call loudly in my hearing, I will not listen to them."

9 Then he called loudly in my hearing, "Come near, executioners of the city, each of you with a destructive weapon in his hand." ² And I saw six men coming from the direction of the Upper Gate, which faces north, each with a war club in his hand. There was another man among them, clothed in linen, carrying writing equipment. They came and stood beside the bronze altar.

³ Then the glory of the God of Israel rose from above the cherub where it had been, to the threshold of the temple. He called to the man clothed in linen and carrying writing equipment. ⁴ "Pass throughout the city of Jerusalem," the LORD said to him, "and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan over all the detestable practices committed in it."

⁵ He spoke to the others in my hearing: "Pass through the city after him and start killing; do not show pity or spare them! ⁶ Slaughter the old men, the young men and women, as well as the children and older women, but do not come near anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple. ⁷ Then he said to them, "Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go!" So they went out killing people in the city.

⁸ While they were killing, I was left alone. And I fell face-down and cried out, "Oh, Lord God! Are you going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel when you pour out your wrath on Jerusalem?"

⁹ He answered me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is extremely great; the land is full of bloodshed, and the city full of perversity. For they say, 'The LORD has abandoned the land; he does not see.' ¹⁰ But as for me, I will not show pity or spare them. I will bring their conduct down on their own heads."

¹¹ Then the man clothed in linen and carrying writing equipment reported back, "I have done all that you commanded me."

10 Then I looked, and there above the expanse over the heads of the cherubim was something like a throne with the appearance of lapis lazuli. ² The LORD spoke to the man clothed in linen and said, "Go inside the wheelwork beneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with blazing coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city.⁷ So he went in as I watched.

³ Now the cherubim were standing to the south of the temple when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court.⁴ Then the glory of the LORD rose from above the cherub to the threshold of the temple. The temple was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the brightness of the LORD's glory.⁵ The sound of the cherubim's wings could be heard as far as the outer court; it was like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

⁹ I looked, and there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub. The luster of the wheels was like the gleam of beryl.¹⁰ In appearance, all four looked alike, like a wheel within a wheel.¹¹ When they moved, they would go in any of the four directions, without pivoting as they moved. But wherever the head faced, they would go in that direction, without pivoting as they went.¹² Their entire bodies, including their backs, hands, wings, and the wheels that the four of them had, were full of eyes all around.¹³ As I listened the wheels were called "the wheelwork."¹⁴ Each one had four faces: one was the face of a cherub, the second the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

¹⁵ The cherubim ascended; these were the living creatures I had seen by the Chebar Canal.¹⁶ When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them, and when they lifted their wings to rise from the earth, even then the wheels did not veer away from them.¹⁷ When the cherubim stopped, the wheels stood still, and when they ascended, the wheels ascended with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

¹⁸ Then the glory of the LORD moved away from the threshold of the temple and stopped above the cherubim.

²⁰ These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Chebar Canal, and I recognized that they were cherubim.²¹ Each had four faces and each had four wings, with what looked something like human hands under their wings.²² Their faces looked like the same faces I had seen by the Chebar Canal. Each creature went straight ahead.

11 The Spirit then lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of the LORD's house, which faces east, and at the gate's entrance were twenty-five men. Among them I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur, and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people.² The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plot evil and give wicked advice in this city.³ They are saying, 'Isn't the time near to build houses? The city is the pot, and we are the meat.'⁴ Therefore, prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man!"

⁵ Then the Spirit of the LORD came on me, and he told me, "You are to say, 'This is what the LORD says: That is what you are thinking, house of Israel; and I know the thoughts that arise in your mind.⁶ You have multiplied your slain in this city, filling its streets with them.

⁷ "Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: The slain you have put within it are the meat, and the city is the pot, but I will take you out of it.⁸ You fear the sword, so I will bring the sword against you. This is the declaration of the Lord God.⁹ I will take you out of the city and hand you over to foreigners; I will execute judgments against you.¹⁰ You will fall by the sword, and I will judge you at the border of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.¹¹ The city will not be a pot for you, and you will not be the meat within it. I will judge you at the border of Israel,¹² so you will know that I am the LORD, whose statutes you have not followed and whose ordinances you have not practiced. Instead, you have acted according to the ordinances of the nations around you."¹³

¹³ Now while I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell facedown and cried out loudly, "Oh, Lord God! You are bringing the remnant of Israel to an end!"

¹⁴ The word of the LORD came to me again: ¹⁵ "Son of man, your own relatives, those who have the right to redeem your property, along with the entire house of Israel—all of them—are those to whom the residents of Jerusalem have said, 'You are far from the LORD; this land has been given to us as a possession.'

¹⁷ "Therefore say, 'This is what the Lord God says: I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.'

¹⁸ "When they arrive there, they will remove all its abhorrent acts and detestable practices from it.¹⁹ I will give them integrity of heart and put a new spirit within them; I will remove their heart of stone from their bodies and give them a heart of flesh,²⁰ so that they will follow my statutes, keep my ordinances, and practice them. They will be my people, and I will be their God.²¹ But as for those whose hearts pursue their desire for abhorrent acts and detestable practices, I will bring their conduct down on their own heads." This is the declaration of the Lord God.

²² Then the cherubim, with the wheels beside them, lifted their wings, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.²³ The glory of the LORD rose up from within the city and stopped on the mountain east of the city.²⁴ The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to Chaldea and to the exiles in a vision from the Spirit of God. After the vision I had seen left me,²⁵ I spoke to the exiles about all the things the LORD had shown me.

12 The word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, you are living among a rebellious house. They have eyes to see but do not see, and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious house.

³ "Now you, son of man, get your bags ready for exile and go into exile in their sight during the day. You will go into exile from your place to another place while they watch; perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house.⁴ During the day, bring out your bags like an exile's bags while they look on. Then in the evening go out in their sight like those going into exile.⁵ As they watch, dig through the wall and take the bags out through it.⁶ And while they look on, lift the bags to your shoulder and take them out in the dark; cover your face so that you cannot see the land. For I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."

⁷ So I did just as I was commanded. In the daytime I brought out my bags like an exile's bags. In the evening I dug through the wall by hand; I took them out in the dark, carrying them on my shoulder in their sight.

⁸ In the morning the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹ "Son of man, hasn't the house of Israel, that rebellious house, asked you, 'What are you doing?' ¹⁰ Say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says: This pronouncement concerns the prince in Jerusalem and the whole house of Israel living there.' ¹¹ You are to say, 'I am a sign for you. Just as I have done, it will be done to them; they will go into exile, into captivity.' ¹² The prince who is among them will lift his bags to his shoulder in the dark and go out. They will dig through the wall to bring him out through it. He will cover his face so he cannot see the land with his eyes. ¹³ But I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, yet he will not see it, and he will die there. ¹⁴ I will also scatter all the attendants who surround him and all his troops to every direction of the wind, and I will draw a sword to chase after them. ¹⁵ They will know that I am the LORD when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them among the countries. ¹⁶ But I will spare a few of them from the sword, famine, and plague, so that among the nations where they go they can tell about all their detestable practices. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

¹⁷ The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸ "Son of man, eat your bread with trembling and drink your water with anxious shaking. ¹⁹ Then say to the people of the land, 'This is what the Lord God says about the residents of Jerusalem in the land of Israel: They will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water in dread, for their land will be stripped of everything in it because of the violence of all who live there. ²⁰ The inhabited cities will be destroyed, and the land will become dreadful. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

²¹ Again the word of the LORD came to me: ²² "Son of man, what is this proverb you people have about the land of Israel, which goes, 'The days keep passing by, and every vision fails?' ²³ Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says: I will put a stop to this proverb, and they will not use it again in Israel.' But say to them, 'The days have arrived, as well as the fulfillment of every vision. ²⁴ For there will no longer be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel. ²⁵ But I, the LORD, will speak whatever message I will speak, and it will be done. It will no longer be delayed. For in your days, rebellious house, I will speak a message and bring it to pass. This is the declaration of the Lord God.'"

²⁶ The word of the LORD came to me: ²⁷ "Son of man, notice that the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision that he sees concerns many years from now; he prophesies about distant times.' ²⁸ Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says: None of my words will be delayed any longer. The message I speak will be fulfilled. This is the declaration of the Lord God.'"

13 The word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are prophesying. Say to those who prophesy out of their own imagination, 'Hear the word of the LORD! ³ This is what the Lord God says: Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing. ⁴ Your prophets, Israel, are like jackals among ruins. ⁵ You did not go up to the gaps or restore the wall around the house of Israel so that it might stand in battle on the day of the LORD.

⁶ They saw false visions and their divinations were a lie. They claimed, "This is the LORD's declaration," when the LORD did not send them, yet they wait for the fulfillment of their message. ⁷ Didn't you see a false vision and speak a lying divination when you proclaimed, "This is the LORD's declaration," even though I had not spoken?"

⁸ "Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: You have spoken falsely and had lying visions; that's why you discover that I am against you. This is the declaration of the Lord God. ⁹ My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and speak lying divinations. They will not be present in the council of my people or be recorded in the register of the house of Israel, and they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord God.

¹⁰ "Since they have led my people astray by saying, "Peace," when there is no peace, and since when a flimsy wall is being built, they plaster it with whitewash, ¹¹ therefore, tell those plastering it with whitewash that it will fall. Torrential rain will come, and I will send hailstones plunging down, and a whirlwind will be released. ¹² When the wall has fallen, will you not be asked, "Where's the whitewash you plastered on it?"

¹³ "So this is what the Lord God says: I will release a whirlwind in my wrath. Torrential rain will come in my anger, and hailstones will fall in destructive fury. ¹⁴ I will demolish the wall you plastered with whitewash and knock it to the ground so that its foundation is exposed. The city will fall, and you will be destroyed within it. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹⁵ After I exhaust my wrath against the wall and against those who plaster it with whitewash, I will say to you, "The wall is no more and neither are those who plastered it — ¹⁶ those prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw a vision of peace for her when there was no peace." This is the declaration of the Lord God.'

²⁰ "Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: I am against you magic bands with which you ensnare people like birds, and I will tear them from your arms. I will free the people you have ensnared like birds. ²¹ I will also tear off your veils and rescue my people from your hands, so that they will no longer be prey in your hands. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ²² Because you have disheartened the righteous person with lies (when I intended no distress), and because you have supported the wicked person so that he does not turn from his evil way to save his life, ²³ therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will rescue my people from your hands. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

14 Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me. ² Then the word of the LORD came to me: ³ "Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and have put their sinful stumbling blocks in front of themselves. Should I actually let them inquire of me?"

⁴ "Therefore, speak to them and tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says: When anyone from the house of Israel sets up idols in his heart and puts his sinful stumbling block in front of himself, and then comes to the prophet, I, the LORD, will answer him appropriately. I will answer him according to his many idols, ⁵ so that I may take hold of the house of Israel by their hearts. They are all estranged from me because of their idols.'

⁶ "Therefore, say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Lord God says: Repent and turn away from your idols; turn your faces away from all your detestable things. ⁷ For when anyone from the house of Israel or from the aliens who reside in Israel separates himself from me, setting up idols in his heart and putting his sinful stumbling block in front of himself, and then comes to the prophet to inquire of me, I, the LORD, will answer him myself. ⁸ I will turn against that one and make him a sign and a proverb; I will cut him off from among my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'

⁹ "But if the prophet is deceived and speaks a message, it was I, the LORD, who deceived that prophet. I will stretch out my hand against him and destroy him from among my people Israel. ¹⁰ They will bear their punishment — the punishment of the one who inquires will be the same as that of the prophet — ¹¹ in order that the house of Israel may no longer stray from following me and no longer defile themselves with all their transgressions. Then they will be my people and I will be their God. This is the declaration of the Lord God.'

¹² The word of the LORD came to me: ¹³ "Son of man, suppose a land sins against me by acting faithlessly, and I stretch out my hand against it to cut off its supply of bread, to send famine through it, and to wipe out both man and animal from it. ¹⁴ Even if these three men — Noah, Daniel, and Job — were in it, they would rescue only themselves by their righteousness." This is the declaration of the Lord God.

¹⁵ "Suppose I allow dangerous animals to pass through the land and depopulate it so that it becomes desolate, with no one passing through it for fear of the animals. ¹⁶ Even if these three men were in it, as I live — the declaration of the Lord God — "they could not rescue their sons or daughters. They alone would be rescued, but the land would be desolate.

¹⁷ "Or suppose I bring a sword against that land and say, 'Let a sword pass through it,' so that I wipe out both man and animal from it. ¹⁸ Even if these three men were in it, as I live — the declaration of the Lord God — "they could not rescue their sons or daughters, but they alone would be rescued.

¹⁹ "Or suppose I send a plague into that land and pour out my wrath on it with bloodshed to wipe out both man and animal from it. ²⁰ Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live — the declaration of the Lord God — "they could not rescue their son or daughter. They would rescue only themselves by their righteousness.

²¹ "For this is what the Lord God says: How much worse will it be when I send my four devastating judgments against Jerusalem — sword, famine, dangerous animals, and plague — in order to wipe out both man and animal from it! ²² Even so, there will be survivors left in it, sons and daughters who will be brought out. Indeed, they will come out to you, and you will observe their conduct and actions. Then you will be consoled about the devastation I have brought on Jerusalem, about all I have brought on it. ²³ They will bring you consolation when you see their conduct and actions, and you will know that it was not without cause that I have done what I did to it." This is the declaration of the Lord God.

15 Then the word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, how does the wood of the vine, that branch among the trees of the forest, compare to any other wood? ³ Can wood be taken from it to make something useful? Or can anyone make a peg from it to hang things on? ⁴ In fact, it is put into the fire as fuel. The fire devours both of its ends, and the middle is charred. Can it be useful for anything? ⁵ Even when it was whole it could not be made into a useful object. How much less can it ever be made into anything useful when the fire has devoured it and it is charred! "

⁶ Therefore, this is what the Lord God says, "Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire as fuel, so I will give up the residents of Jerusalem. ⁷ I will turn against them. They may have escaped from the fire, but it will still consume them. And you will know that I am the LORD when I turn against them. ⁸ I will make the land desolate because they have acted unfaithfully." This is the declaration of the Lord God.

16 The word of the LORD came to me again: ² "Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her detestable practices. ³ You are to say, 'This is what the Lord God says to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth were in the land of the Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hethite. ⁴ As for your birth, your umbilical cord wasn't cut on the day you were born, and you weren't washed clean with water. You were not rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths. ⁵ No one cared enough about you to do even one of these things out of compassion for you. But you were thrown out into the open field because you were despised on the day you were born.

⁶ "I passed by you and saw you thrashing around in your blood, and I said to you as you lay in your blood, 'Live!' " Yes, I said to you as you lay in your blood, 'Live!' ⁷ I made you thrive like plants of the field. You grew up and matured and became very beautiful. Your breasts were formed and your hair grew, but you were stark naked.

⁸ "Then I passed by you and saw you, and you were indeed at the age of love. So I spread the edge of my garment over you and covered your nakedness. I pledged myself to you, entered into a covenant with you — this is the declaration of the Lord God — and you became mine. ⁹ I washed you with water, rinsed off your blood, and anointed you with oil. ¹⁰ I clothed you in embroidered cloth and provided you with fine leather sandals. I also wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. ¹¹ I adorned you with jewelry, putting bracelets on your wrists and a necklace around your neck. ¹² I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³ So you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was made of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You became extremely beautiful and attained royalty. ¹⁴ Your fame spread among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through my splendor, which I had bestowed on you. This is the declaration of the Lord God.

¹⁵ "But you trusted in your beauty and acted like a prostitute because of your fame. You lavished your sexual favors on everyone who passed by. Your beauty became his. ¹⁶ You took some of your clothing and made colorful high places for yourself, and you engaged in prostitution on them. These places should not have been built, and this should never have happened! ¹⁷ You also took your beautiful jewelry made from the gold and silver I had given you, and you made male images so that you could engage in prostitution with them.¹⁸ Then you took your embroidered clothing to cover them and set my oil and incense before them.¹⁹ The food that I gave you — the fine flour, oil, and honey that I fed you — you set it before them as a pleasing aroma. That is what happened. This is the declaration of the Lord God.

²⁰ "You even took your sons and daughters you bore to me and sacrificed them to these images as food. Wasn't your prostitution enough?²¹ You slaughtered my children and gave them up when you passed them through the fire to the images.²² In all your detestable practices and acts of prostitution, you did not remember the days of your youth when you were stark naked and thrashing around in your blood.

²³ "Then after all your evil — Woe, woe to you! — the declaration of the Lord God — ²⁴ you built yourself a mound and made yourself an elevated place in every square.²⁵ You built your elevated place at the head of every street and turned your beauty into a detestable thing. You spread your legs to everyone who passed by and increased your prostitution.²⁶ You engaged in promiscuous acts with Egyptian men, your well-endowed neighbors, and increased your prostitution to anger me.

²⁷ "Therefore, I stretched out my hand against you and reduced your provisions. I gave you over to the desire of those who hate you, the Philistine women, who were embarrassed by your indecent conduct.²⁸ Then you engaged in prostitution with the Assyrian men because you were not satisfied. Even though you did this with them, you were still not satisfied.²⁹ So you extended your prostitution to Chaldea, the land of merchants, but you were not even satisfied with this!

³⁵ "Therefore, you prostitute, hear the word of the LORD!³⁶ This is what the Lord God says: Because your lust was poured out and your nakedness exposed by your acts of prostitution with your lovers, and because of all your detestable idols and the blood of your children that you gave to them,³⁷ I am therefore going to gather all the lovers you pleased — all those you loved as well as all those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around and expose your nakedness to them so they see you completely naked.³⁸ I will judge you the way adulteresses and those who shed blood are judged. Then I will bring about the shedding of your blood in jealous wrath.³⁹ I will hand you over to them, and they will demolish your mounds and tear down your elevated places. They will strip off your clothes, take your beautiful jewelry, and leave you stark naked.⁴⁰ They will bring a mob against you to stone you and to cut you to pieces with their swords.⁴¹ They will burn your houses and execute judgments against you in the sight of many women. I will stop you from being a prostitute, and you will never again pay fees for lovers.⁴² So I will satisfy my wrath against you, and my jealousy will turn away from you. Then I will be calm and no longer angry.⁴³ Because you did not remember the days of your youth but enraged me with all these things, I will also bring your conduct down on your own head. This is the declaration of the Lord God. Haven't you committed depravity in addition to all your detestable practices?

⁴⁴ "Look, everyone who uses proverbs will quote this proverb about you: "Like mother, like daughter."⁴⁵ You are the daughter of your mother, who despised her husband and children. You are the sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hethite and your father an Amorite.⁴⁶ Your older sister was Samaria, who lived with her daughters to the north of you, and your younger sister was Sodom, who lived with her daughters to the south of you.⁴⁷ Didn't you walk in their ways and do their detestable practices? It was only a short time before all your ways were more corrupt than theirs.

⁴⁸ "As I live — the declaration of the Lord God — your sister Sodom and her daughters have not behaved as you and your daughters have.⁴⁹ Now this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters had pride, plenty of food, and comfortable security, but didn't support the poor and needy.⁵⁰ They were haughty and did detestable acts before me, so I removed them when I saw this.⁵¹ But Samaria did not commit even half your sins. You have multiplied your detestable practices beyond theirs and made your sisters appear righteous by all the detestable acts you have committed.⁵² You must also bear your disgrace, since you have helped your sisters out. For they appear more righteous than you because of your sins, which you committed more detestably than they did. So you also, be ashamed and bear your disgrace, since you have made your sisters appear righteous.

⁵³ "I will restore their fortunes, the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and those of Samaria and her daughters. I will also restore your fortunes among them,⁵⁴ so you will bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you did when you comforted them.⁵⁵ As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters and Samaria and her daughters will return to their former state. You and your daughters will also return to your former state.⁵⁶ Didn't you treat your sister Sodom as an object of scorn when you were proud,⁵⁷ before your wickedness was exposed? It was like the time you were scorned by the daughters of Aram and all those around her, and by the daughters of the Philistines — those who treated you with contempt from every side.⁵⁸ You yourself must bear the consequences of your depravity and detestable practices — this is the LORD's declaration.

⁵⁹ "For this is what the Lord God says: I will deal with you according to what you have done, since you have despised the oath by breaking the covenant.⁶⁰ But I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish a permanent covenant with you.⁶¹ Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your older and younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant.⁶² I will establish my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD,⁶³ so that when I make atonement for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed, and never open your mouth again because of your disgrace. This is the declaration of the Lord God."

17 The word of the LORD came to me:² "Son of man, pose a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel.³ You are to say, 'This is what the Lord God says: A huge eagle with powerful wings, long feathers, and full plumage of many colors came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar. ⁴ He plucked off its topmost shoot, brought it to the land of merchants, and set it in a city of traders. ⁵ Then he took some of the land's seed and put it in a fertile field; he set it like a willow, a plant by abundant water. ⁶ It sprouted and became a spreading vine, low in height with its branches turned toward him, yet its roots stayed under it. So it became a vine, produced branches, and sent out shoots.

⁷ "But there was another huge eagle with powerful wings and thick plumage. And this vine bent its roots toward him! It stretched out its branches to him from the plot where it was planted, so that he might water it. ⁸ It had been planted in a good field by abundant water in order to produce branches, bear fruit, and become a splendid vine."

⁹ "You are to say, 'This is what the Lord God says: Will it flourish? Will he not tear out its roots and strip off its fruit so that it shrivels? All its fresh leaves will wither! Great strength and many people will not be needed to pull it from its roots. ¹⁰ Even though it is planted, will it flourish? Won't it wither completely when the east wind strikes it? It will wither on the plot where it sprouted.'"

¹¹ The word of the Lord came to me: ¹² "Now say to that rebellious house, 'Don't you know what these things mean?' Tell them, 'The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and officials, and brought them back with him to Babylon. ¹³ He took one of the royal family and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. Then he took away the leading men of the land, ¹⁴ so that the kingdom would be humble and not exalt itself but would keep his covenant in order to endure. ¹⁵ However, this king revolted against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt so they might give him horses and a large army. Will he flourish? Will the one who does such things escape? Can he break a covenant and still escape?'

¹⁹ "Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: As I live, I will bring down on his head my oath that he despised and my covenant that he broke. ²⁰ I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment on him there for the treachery he committed against me. ²¹ All the fugitives among his troops will fall by the sword, and those who survive will be scattered to every direction of the wind. Then you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken.

²² "This is what the Lord God says:

I will take a sprig
from the lofty top of the cedar and plant it.
I will pluck a tender sprig
from its topmost shoots, and I will plant it
on a high towering mountain.

²³ I will plant it on Israel's high mountain
so that it may bear branches, produce fruit,
and become a majestic cedar.
Birds of every kind will nest under it,
taking shelter in the shade of its branches.

²⁴ Then all the trees of the field will know that I am the Lord.

I bring down the tall tree,
and make the low tree tall.
I cause the green tree to wither
and make the withered tree thrive.
I, the Lord, have spoken
and I will do it."

18 The word of the Lord came to me: ² "What do you mean by using this proverb concerning the land of Israel:

'The fathers eat sour grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on edge?'

³ As I live — this is the declaration of the Lord God — "you will no longer use this proverb in Israel. ⁴ Look, every life belongs to me. The life of the father is like the life of the son — both belong to me. The person who sins is the one who will die.

¹⁰ "But suppose the man has a violent son, who sheds blood and does any of these things, ¹¹ though the father has done none of them. Indeed, when the son eats at the mountain shrines and defiles his neighbor's wife, ¹² and when he oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, and does not return collateral, and when he looks to the idols, commits detestable acts, ¹³ and lends at interest or for profit, will he live? He will not live! Since he has committed all these detestable acts, he will certainly die. His death will be his own fault.

¹⁴ "Now suppose he has a son who sees all the sins his father has committed, and though he sees them, he does not do likewise. ¹⁵ He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of the house of Israel. He does not defile his neighbor's wife. ¹⁶ He doesn't oppress anyone, hold collateral, or commit robbery. He gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing. ¹⁷ He keeps his hand from harming the poor, not taking interest or profit on a loan. He practices my ordinances and follows my statutes. Such a person will not die for his father's iniquity. He will certainly live.

¹⁸ "As for his father, he will die for his own iniquity because he practiced fraud, robbed his brother, and did among his people what was not good. ¹⁹ But you may ask, 'Why doesn't the son suffer punishment for the father's iniquity?' Since the son has done what is just and right, carefully observing all my statutes, he will certainly live. ²⁰ The person who sins is the one who will die. A son won't suffer punishment for the father's iniquity, and a father won't suffer punishment for the son's iniquity. The righteousness of the righteous person will be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked person will be on him.

²¹ "But if the wicked person turns from all the sins he has committed, keeps all my statutes, and does what is just and right, he will certainly live; he will not die. ²² None of the transgressions he has committed will be held against him.

He will live because of the righteousness he has practiced. ²³ Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? "This is the declaration of the Lord God. "Instead, don't take pleasure when he turns from his ways and lives? ²⁴ But when a righteous person turns from his righteousness and acts unjustly, committing the same detestable acts that the wicked do, will he live? None of the righteous acts he did will be remembered. He will die because of the treachery he has engaged in and the sin he has committed.

²⁵ "But you say, 'The Lord's way isn't fair.' Now listen, house of Israel: Is it my way that is unfair? Instead, isn't it your ways that are unfair? ²⁶ When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and acts unjustly, he will die for this. He will die because of the injustice he has committed. ²⁷ But if a wicked person turns from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he will preserve his life. ²⁸ He will certainly live because he thought it over and turned from all the transgressions he had committed; he will not die. ²⁹ But the house of Israel says, 'The Lord's way isn't fair.' Is it my ways that are unfair, house of Israel? Instead, isn't it your ways that are unfair?

³⁰ "Therefore, house of Israel, I will judge each one of you according to his ways." This is the declaration of the Lord God. "Repent and turn from all your rebellious acts, so they will not become a sinful stumbling block to you. ³¹ Throw off all the transgressions you have committed, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. Why should you die, house of Israel? ³² For I take no pleasure in anyone's death." This is the declaration of the Lord God. "So repent and live!

19 "As for you, take up a lament for the princes of Israel, ² and say:

What was your mother? A lioness!

She lay down among the lions;
she reared her cubs among the young lions.

³ She brought up one of her cubs,
and he became a young lion.

After he learned to tear prey,
he devoured people.

⁴ When the nations heard about him,
he was caught in their pit.

Then they led him away with hooks
to the land of Egypt.

⁵ When she saw that she waited in vain,
that her hope was lost,

she took another of her cubs
and made him a young lion.

⁶ He prowled among the lions,
and he became a young lion.

After he learned to tear prey,
he devoured people.

⁷ He devastated their strongholds
and destroyed their cities.

The land and everything in it shuddered
at the sound of his roaring.

⁸ Then the nations from the surrounding provinces set out against him.

They spread their net over him;
he was caught in their pit.

⁹ They put a wooden yoke on him with hooks and led him away to the king of Babylon.

They brought him into the fortresses
so his roar could no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰ Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard, planted by the water;
it was fruitful and full of branches
because of abundant water.

¹¹ It had strong branches, fit for the scepters
of rulers;
its height towered among the clouds.

So it was conspicuous for its height
as well as its many branches.

¹² But it was uprooted in fury,
thrown to the ground,
and the east wind dried up its fruit.
Its strong branches were torn off and dried up;
fire consumed them.

¹³ Now it is planted in the wilderness,
in a dry and thirsty land.

¹⁴ Fire has gone out from its main branch and has devoured its fruit,
so that it no longer has a strong branch,
a scepter for ruling.

This is a lament and should be used as a lament."

20 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, some of Israel's elders came to inquire of the Lord, and they sat down in front of me. ² Then the word of the Lord came to me: ³ "Son of man, speak with the elders of Israel and tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says: Are you coming to inquire of me? As I live, I will not let you inquire of me. This is the declaration of the Lord God.'

⁴ "Will you pass judgment against them, will you pass judgment, son of man? Explain the detestable practices of their fathers to them. ⁵ Say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says: On the day I chose Israel, I swore an oath to the descendants of Jacob's house and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt. I swore to them, saying, 'I am the Lord your God.' ⁶ On that day I swore to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands. ⁷ I also said to them, 'Throw away, each of you, the abhorrent things that you prize, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the Lord your God.'

⁸ "But they rebelled against me and were unwilling to listen to me. None of them threw away the abhorrent things that they prized, and they did not abandon the idols of Egypt. So I considered pouring out my wrath on them, exhausting my anger against them within the land of Egypt. ⁹ But I acted for the sake of my name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations they were living among, in whose sight I had made myself known to Israel by bringing them out of Egypt.

¹⁰ "So I brought them out of the land of Egypt and led them into the wilderness. ¹¹ Then I gave them my statutes and explained my ordinances to them — the person who does them will live by them. ¹² I also gave them my Sabbaths to serve as a sign between me and them, so that they would know that I am the Lord who consecrates them.

¹³ "But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not follow my statutes and they rejected my ordinances — the person who does them will live by them. They also completely profaned my Sabbaths. So I considered pouring out my wrath on them in the wilderness to put an end to them. ¹⁴ But I acted for the sake of my name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ¹⁵ However, I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land I had given them — the most beautiful of all lands, flowing with milk and honey — ¹⁶ because they rejected my ordinances, profaned my Sabbaths, and did not follow my statutes. For their hearts went after their idols. ¹⁷ Yet I spared them from destruction and did not bring them to an end in the wilderness.

¹⁸ "Then I said to their children in the wilderness, "Don't follow the statutes of your fathers, defile yourselves with their idols, or keep their ordinances. ¹⁹ I am the LORD your God. Follow my statutes, keep my ordinances, and practice them. ²⁰ Keep my Sabbaths holy, and they will be a sign between me and you, so you may know that I am the LORD your God."

²¹ "But the children rebelled against me. They did not follow my statutes or carefully keep my ordinances — the person who does them will live by them. They also profaned my Sabbaths. So I considered pouring out my wrath on them and exhausting my anger against them in the wilderness. ²² But I withheld my hand and acted for the sake of my name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I brought them out. ²³ However, I swore to them in the wilderness that I would disperse them among the nations and scatter them among the countries. ²⁴ For they did not practice my ordinances but rejected my statutes and profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were fixed on their fathers' idols. ²⁵ I also gave them statutes that were not good and ordinances they could not live by. ²⁶ When they sacrificed every firstborn in the fire, I defiled them through their gifts in order to devastate them so they would know that I am the LORD."

²⁷ "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says: In this way also your fathers blasphemed me by committing treachery against me: ²⁸ When I brought them into the land that I swore to give them and they saw any high hill or leafy tree, they offered their sacrifices and presented their offensive offerings there. They also sent up their pleasing aromas and poured out their drink offerings there. ²⁹ So I asked them, "What is this high place you are going to?" And it is still called Bamah today.'

³⁰ "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Lord God says: Are you defiling yourselves the way your fathers did, and prostituting yourselves with their abhorrent things? ³¹ When you offer your gifts, sacrificing your children in the fire, you still continue to defile yourselves with all your idols today. So should I let you inquire of me, house of Israel? As I live — this is the declaration of the Lord God — I will not let you inquire of me!

³² "When you say, "Let us be like the nations, like the clans of other countries, serving wood and stone," what you have in mind will never happen. ³³ As I live — the declaration of the Lord God — I will reign over you with a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath. ³⁴ I will bring you from the peoples and gather you from the countries where you were scattered, with a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath. ³⁵ I will lead you into the wilderness of the peoples and enter into judgment with you there face to face. ³⁶ Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you. This is the declaration of the Lord God. ³⁷ I will make you pass under the rod and will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸ I will purge you of those who rebel and transgress against me. I will bring them out of the land where they live as foreign residents, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

³⁹ "As for you, house of Israel, this is what the Lord God says: Go and serve your idols, each of you. But afterward you will surely listen to me, and you will no longer defile my holy name with your gifts and idols. ⁴⁰ For on my holy mountain, Israel's high mountain — the declaration of the Lord God — there the entire house of Israel, all of them, will serve me in the land. There I will accept them and will require your contributions and choicest gifts, all your holy offerings. ⁴¹ When I bring you from the peoples and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered, I will accept you as a pleasing aroma. And I will demonstrate my holiness through you in the sight of the nations. ⁴² When I lead you into the land of Israel, the land I swore to give your fathers, you will know that I am the LORD. ⁴³ There you will remember your ways and all your deeds by which you have defiled yourself, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evil things you have done. ⁴⁴ You will know that I am the LORD, house of Israel, when I have dealt with you for the sake of my name rather than according to your evil ways and corrupt acts. This is the declaration of the Lord God."

⁴⁵ The word of the LORD came to me: ⁴⁶ "Son of man, face the south and preach against it. Prophecy against the forest land in the Negev, ⁴⁷ and say to the forest there, 'Hear the word of the LORD! This is what the Lord God says: I am about to ignite a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree and every dry tree in you. The blazing flame will not be extinguished, and every face from the south to the north will be scorched by it. ⁴⁸ Then all people will see that I, the LORD, have kindled it. It will not be extinguished.'

⁴⁹ Then I said, "Oh, Lord God, they are saying of me, 'Isn't he just composing parables?'"

21 The word of the LORD came to me again: ² "Son of man, face Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuaries. Prophecy against the land of Israel, ³ and say to it, 'This is what the LORD says: I am against you. I will draw my sword from its sheath and cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked. ⁴ Since I will cut off both the righteous and the wicked, my sword will therefore come out of its sheath against all people from the south to the north. ⁵ So all people will know that I, the LORD, have taken my sword from its sheath — it will not be sheathed again.'

⁶ "But you, son of man, groan! Groan bitterly with a broken heart right before their eyes. ⁷ And when they ask you, "Why are you groaning?" then say, "Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt, and every hand will become weak. Every spirit will be discouraged, and all knees will run with urine. Yes, it is coming and it will happen. This is the declaration of the Lord God."

⁸ The word of the LORD came to me: ⁹ "Son of man, prophesy, 'This is what the Lord says! "You are to proclaim,

'A sword! A sword is sharpened and also polished.

¹⁰ It is sharpened for slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! Should we rejoice?

The scepter of my son, the sword despises every tree.

¹¹ The sword is given to be polished, to be grasped in the hand. It is sharpened, and it is polished, to be put in the hand of the slayer.'

¹² "Cry out and wail, son of man, for it is against my people. It is against all the princes of Israel! They are given over to the sword with my people. Therefore strike your thigh in grief. ¹³ Surely it will be a trial! And what if the sword despises even the scepter? The scepter will not continue." This is the declaration of the Lord God.

¹⁴ "So you, son of man, prophesy and clap your hands together:

Let the sword strike two times, even three.

It is a sword for massacre,
a sword for great massacre —
it surrounds them!

¹⁵ I have appointed a sword for slaughter
at all their gates,
so that their hearts may melt
and many may stumble.

Yes! It is ready to flash like lightning;
it is drawn for slaughter.

¹⁶ Slash to the right;
turn to the left —
wherever your blade is directed.

¹⁷ I also will clap my hands together, and I will satisfy my wrath. I, the LORD, have spoken."

²⁴ "Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: Because you have drawn attention to your guilt, exposing your transgressions, so that your sins are revealed in all your actions — since you have done this, you will be captured by them. ²⁵ And you, profane and wicked prince of Israel, the day has come for your punishment.

²⁶ "This is what the Lord God says:

Remove the turban, and take off the crown.
Things will not remain as they are;
exalt the lowly and bring down the exalted.

²⁷ A ruin, a ruin,
I will make it a ruin!
Yet this will not happen
until he comes;
I have given the judgment to him.

²⁸ "Now you, son of man, prophesy, and say, 'This is what the Lord God says concerning the Ammonites and their contempt.' You are to proclaim,

'A sword! A sword
is drawn for slaughter,
polished to consume, to flash like lightning.

²⁹ While they offer false visions and lying divinations about you,
the time has come to put you
to the necks of the profane wicked ones;
the day has come
for final punishment.

³⁰ "Return it to its sheath!

"I will judge you

in the place where you were created,
in the land of your origin.

³¹ I will pour out my indignation on you;
I will blow the fire of my fury on you.
I will hand you over to brutal men,
skilled at destruction.

³² You will be fuel for the fire.
Your blood will be spilled within the land.
You will not be remembered,
for I, the LORD, have spoken."

22 The word of the LORD came to me: ² "As for you, son of man, will you pass judgment? Will you pass judgment against the city of blood? Then explain all her detestable practices to her. ³ You are to say, 'This is what the Lord God says: A city that sheds blood within her walls so that her time of judgment has come and who makes idols for herself so that she is defiled! ⁴ You are guilty of the blood you have shed, and you are defiled from the idols you have made. You have brought your judgment days near and have come to your years of punishment. Therefore, I have made you a disgrace to the nations and a mockery to all the lands. ⁵ Those who are near and those far away from you will mock you, you infamous one full of turmoil.

⁶ "Look, every prince of Israel within you has used his strength to shed blood. ⁷ Father and mother are treated with contempt, and the resident alien is exploited within you. The fatherless and widow are oppressed in you. ⁸ You despise my holy things and profane my Sabbaths. ⁹ There are men within you who slander in order to shed blood. People who live in you eat at the mountain shrines; they commit depraved acts within you. ¹⁰ Men within you have sexual intercourse with their father's wife and violate women during their menstrual impurity. ¹¹ One man within you commits a detestable act with his neighbor's wife; another defiles his daughter-in-law with depravity; and yet another violates his sister, his father's daughter. ¹² People who live in you accept bribes in order to shed blood. You take interest and profit on a loan and brutally extort your neighbors. You have forgotten me. This is the declaration of the Lord God.

¹³ "Now look, I clap my hands together against the dishonest profit you have made and against the blood shed among you. ¹⁴ Will your courage endure or your hands be strong in the days when I deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will act. ¹⁵ I will disperse you among the nations and scatter you among the countries; I will purge your uncleanness. ¹⁶ You will be profaned in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

¹⁷ The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸ "Son of man, the house of Israel has become merely dross to me. All of them are copper, tin, iron, and lead inside the furnace; they are just dross from silver. ¹⁹ Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: Because all of you have become dross, I am about to gather you into Jerusalem. ²⁰ Just as one gathers silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin into the furnace to blow fire on them and melt them, so I will gather you in my anger and wrath, put you inside, and melt you. ²¹ Yes, I will gather you together and blow on you with the fire of my fury, and you will be melted within the city. ²² As silver is melted inside a furnace, so you will be melted inside the city. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my wrath on you."

²³ The word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴ "Son of man, say to her, 'You are a land that has not been cleansed, that has not received rain in the day of indignation.'

²⁵The conspiracy of her prophets within her is like a roaring lion tearing its prey: they devour people, seize wealth and valuables, and multiply the widows within her. ²⁶Her priests do violence to my instruction and profane my holy things. They make no distinction between the holy and the common, and they do not explain the difference between the clean and the unclean. They close their eyes to my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

23 The word of the Lord came to me again: ²"Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother, ³who acted like prostitutes in Egypt, behaving promiscuously in their youth. Their breasts were fondled there, and their virgin nipples caressed. ⁴The older one was named Oholah, and her sister was Oholibah. They became mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. As for their names, Oholah represents Samaria and Oholibah represents Jerusalem.

⁵Oholah acted like a prostitute even though she was mine. She lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians: warriors ⁶dressed in blue, governors and prefects, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on steeds. ⁷She offered her sexual favors to them; all of them were the elite of Assyria. She defiled herself with all those she lusted after and with all their idols. ⁸She didn't give up her promiscuity that began in Egypt, when men slept with her in her youth, caressed her virgin nipples, and poured out their lust on her. ⁹Therefore, I handed her over to her lovers, the Assyrians she lusted for. ¹⁰They exposed her nakedness, seized her sons and daughters, and killed her with the sword. Since they executed judgment against her, she became notorious among women.

¹¹"Now her sister Oholibah saw this, but she was even more depraved in her lust than Oholah, and made her promiscuous acts worse than those of her sister. ¹²She lusted after the Assyrians: governors and prefects, warriors splendidly dressed, horsemen riding on steeds, all of them desirable young men. ¹³And I saw that she had defiled herself; both of them had taken the same path. ¹⁴But she increased her promiscuity when she saw male figures carved on the wall, images of the Chaldeans, engraved in bright red, ¹⁵wearing belts on their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like officers, a depiction of the Babylonians in Chaldea, their native land. ¹⁶At the sight of them she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. ¹⁷Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and defiled her with their lust. But after she was defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust. ¹⁸When she flaunted her promiscuity and exposed her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust just as I turned away from her sister. ¹⁹Yet she multiplied her acts of promiscuity, remembering the days of her youth when she acted like a prostitute in the land of Egypt ²⁰and lusted after their lovers, whose sexual members were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of stallions. ²¹So you revisited the depravity of your youth, when the Egyptians caressed your nipples to enjoy your youthful breasts.

²²"Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Lord God says: I am going to incite your lovers against you, those you turned away from in disgust. I will bring them against you from every side: ²³the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans; Pekod, Shoa, and Koa; and all the Assyrians with them—desirable young men, all of them governors and prefects, officers and administrators, all of them riding on steeds. ²⁴They will come against you with an assembly of peoples and with weapons, chariots, and wagons. They will set themselves against you on every side with large and small shields and helmets. I will delegate judgment to them, and they will judge you by their own standards. ²⁵When I vent my jealous rage on you, they will deal with you in wrath. They will cut off your nose and ears, and the rest of you will fall by the sword. They will seize your sons and daughters, and the rest of you will be consumed by fire. ²⁶They will strip off your clothes and take your beautiful jewelry. ²⁷So I will put an end to your depravity and sexual immorality, which began in the land of Egypt, and you will not look longingly at them or remember Egypt anymore.

²⁸"For this is what the Lord God says: I am going to hand you over to those you hate, to those you turned away from in disgust. ²⁹They will treat you with hatred, take all you have worked for, and leave you stark naked, so that the shame of your debauchery will be exposed, both your depravity and promiscuity. ³⁰These things will be done to you because you acted like a prostitute with the nations, defiling yourself with their idols. ³¹You have followed the path of your sister, so I will put her cup in your hand."

³²This is what the Lord God says:

"You will drink your sister's cup, which is deep and wide. You will be an object of ridicule and scorn, for it holds so much.

³³ You will be filled with drunkenness and grief, with a cup of devastation and desolation, the cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴ You will drink it and drain it; then you will gnaw its broken pieces, and tear your breasts. For I have spoken."

This is the declaration of the Lord God.

³⁵Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: "Because you have forgotten me and cast me behind your back, you must bear the consequences of your indecency and promiscuity."

³⁶Then the Lord said to me: "Son of man, will you pass judgment against Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare their detestable practices to them. ³⁷For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands; they have committed adultery with their idols. And the children they bore to me they have sacrificed in the fire as food for the idols. ³⁸They also did this to me: they defiled my sanctuary on that same day and profaned my Sabbaths. ³⁹On the same day they slaughtered their children for their idols, they entered my sanctuary to profane it. Yes, that is what they did inside my house.

⁴⁰"In addition, they sent for men who came from far away when a messenger was dispatched to them. And look how they came! You bathed, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry for them.⁴¹ You sat on a luxurious couch with a table spread before it, on which you had set my incense and oil.⁴² The sound of a carefree crowd was there. Drunkards from the desert were brought in, along with common men. They put bracelets on the women's hands and beautiful tiaras on their heads.⁴³ Then I said concerning this woman worn out by adultery: Will they now have illicit sex with her, even her?⁴⁴ Yet they had sex with her as one does with a prostitute. This is how they had sex with Oholah and Oholibah, those depraved women.⁴⁵ But righteous men will judge them the way adulteresses and those who shed blood are judged, for they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

⁴⁶ "This is what the Lord God says: Summon an assembly against them and consign them to terror and plunder.⁴⁷ The assembly will stone them and cut them down with their swords. They will kill their sons and daughters and burn their houses.⁴⁸ So I will put an end to depravity in the land, and all the women will be admonished not to imitate your depraved behavior.⁴⁹ They will punish you for your depravity, and you will bear the consequences for your sins of idolatry. Then you will know that I am the Lord God."

24 The word of the Lord came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month:² "Son of man, write down today's date, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.³ Now speak a parable to the rebellious house. Tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says:

Put the pot on the fire — put it on,
and then pour water into it!

⁴ Place the pieces of meat in it, every good piece —
thigh and shoulder.
Fill it with choice bones.

⁵ Take the choicest of the flock
and also pile up the fuel under it.
Bring it to a boil
and cook the bones in it.

⁶ "Therefore, this is what the Lord God says:
Woe to the city of bloodshed,
the pot that has corrosion inside it,
and its corrosion has not come out of it!
Empty it piece by piece;
lots should not be cast for its contents.

⁷ For the blood she shed is still within her.
She put it out on the bare rock;
she didn't pour it on the ground
to cover it with dust.

⁸ In order to stir up wrath and take vengeance,
I have put her blood on the bare rock,
so that it would not be covered.

⁹ "Therefore, this is what the Lord God says:
Woe to the city of bloodshed!
I myself will make the pile of kindling large.

¹⁰ Pile on the logs and kindle the fire!
Cook the meat well
and mix in the spices!
Let the bones be burned!

¹¹ Set the empty pot on its coals
so that it becomes hot and its copper glows.
Then its impurity will melt inside it;
its corrosion will be consumed.

¹² It has frustrated every effort;

its thick corrosion will not come off.

Into the fire with its corrosion!

¹³ Because of the depravity of your uncleanness —
since I tried to purify you,
but you would not be purified
from your uncleanness —
you will not be pure again

until I have satisfied my wrath on you.

¹⁴ I, the LORD, have spoken.

It is coming, and I will do it!

I will not refrain, I will not show pity,

and I will not relent.

I will judge you

according to your ways and deeds.

This is the declaration of the Lord God: "

¹⁵ Then the word of the Lord came to me:¹⁶ "Son of man, I am about to take the delight of your eyes away from you with a fatal blow. But you must not lament or weep or let your tears flow.¹⁷ Groan quietly; do not observe mourning rites for the dead. Put on your turban and strap your sandals on your feet; do not cover your mustache or eat the bread of mourners."

¹⁸ I spoke to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening. The next morning I did just as I was commanded.¹⁹ Then the people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these things you are doing mean for us?"

²⁰ So I answered them: "The word of the Lord came to me:²¹ Say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Lord God says: I am about to desecrate my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the desire of your heart. Also, the sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword.²² Then you will do just as I have done: You will not cover your mustache or eat the bread of mourners.²³ Your turbans will remain on your heads and your sandals on your feet. You will not lament or weep but will waste away because of your iniquities and will groan to one another.²⁴ Now Ezekiel will be a sign for you. You will do everything that he has done. When this happens, you will know that I am the Lord God.'

²⁵ "As for you, son of man, know that on that day I will take from them their stronghold — their pride and joy, the delight of their eyes, and the longing of their hearts — as well as their sons and daughters.²⁶ On that day a fugitive will come to you and report the news.²⁷ On that day your mouth will be opened to talk with him; you will speak and no longer be mute. So you will be a sign for them, and they will know that I am the Lord."

25 Then the word of the Lord came to me:² "Son of man, face the Ammonites and prophesy against them.³ Say to the Ammonites, 'Hear the word of the Lord God: This is what the Lord God says: Because you said, "Aha!" about my sanctuary when it was desecrated, about the land of Israel when it was laid waste, and about the house of Judah when they went into exile,⁴ therefore I am about to give you to the people of the east as a possession. They will set up their encampments and pitch their tents among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk.⁵ I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and Ammon a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

⁶ "For this is what the Lord God says: Because you clapped your hands, stamped your feet, and rejoiced over the land of Israel with wholehearted contempt,⁷ therefore I am about to stretch out my hand against you and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and eliminate you from the countries. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

⁸ "This is what the LORD God says: Because Moab and Seir said, "Look, the house of Judah is like all the other nations."⁹ Therefore I am about to expose Moab's flank beginning with its frontier cities, the splendor of the land: Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriat-haim. ¹⁰ I will give it along with Ammon to the people of the east as a possession, so that Ammon will not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹ So I will execute judgments against Moab, and they will know that I am the LORD.

26 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, because Tyre said about Jerusalem, 'Aha! The gateway to the peoples is shattered. She has been turned over to me. I will be filled now that she lies in ruins,' ³ therefore this is what the LORD God says: See, I am against you, Tyre! I will raise up many nations against you, just as the sea raises its waves. ⁴ They will destroy the walls of Tyre and demolish her towers. I will scrape the soil from her and turn her into a bare rock. ⁵ She will become a place in the sea to spread nets, for I have spoken." This is the declaration of the LORD God. "She will become plunder for the nations, ⁶ and her villages on the mainland will be slaughtered by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

⁷ For this is what the LORD God says: "See, I am about to bring King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, king of kings, against Tyre from the north with horses, chariots, cavalry, and a huge assembly of troops. ⁸ He will slaughter your villages on the mainland with the sword. He will set up siege works, build a ramp, and raise a wall of shields against you. ⁹ He will direct the blows of his battering rams against your walls and tear down your towers with his iron tools. ¹⁰ His horses will be so numerous that their dust will cover you. When he enters your gates as an army entering a breached city, your walls will shake from the noise of cavalry, wagons, and chariots. ¹¹ He will trample all your streets with the hooves of his horses. He will slaughter your people with the sword, and your mighty pillars will fall to the ground. ¹² They will take your wealth as spoil and plunder your merchandise. They will also demolish your walls and tear down your beautiful homes. Then they will throw your stones, timber, and soil into the water. ¹³ I will put an end to the noise of your songs, and the sound of your lyres will no longer be heard. ¹⁴ I will turn you into a bare rock, and you will be a place to spread nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I, the LORD, have spoken." This is the declaration of the LORD God.

¹⁵ This is what the LORD God says to Tyre: "Won't the coasts and islands quake at the sound of your downfall, when the wounded groan and slaughter occurs within you? ¹⁶ All the princes of the sea will descend from their thrones, remove their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, tremble continually, and be appalled at you. ¹⁷ Then they will lament for you and say of you,

'How you have perished, city of renown, you who were populated from the seas! She who was powerful on the sea, she and all of her inhabitants inflicted their terror.

¹⁸ Now the coasts and islands tremble on the day of your downfall; the islands in the sea are alarmed by your demise.'

¹⁹ For this is what the LORD God says: "When I make you a ruined city like other deserted cities, when I raise up the deep against you so that the mighty waters cover you, ²⁰ then I will bring you down to be with those who descend to the Pit, to the people of antiquity. I will make you dwell in the underworld like the ancient ruins, with those who descend to the Pit, so that you will no longer be inhabited or display your splendor in the land of the living. ²¹ I will make you an object of horror, and you will no longer exist. You will be sought but will never be found again." This is the declaration of the LORD God.

27 The word of the LORD came to me: ² "Now, son of man, lament for Tyre. ³ Say to Tyre, who is located at the entrance of the sea, merchant of the peoples to many coasts and islands, 'This is what the LORD God says:

Tyre, you declared, "I am perfect in beauty."

- ⁴ Your realm was in the heart of the sea; your builders perfected your beauty.
- ⁵ They constructed all your planking with pine trees from Senir. They took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.
- ⁶ They made your oars of oaks from Bashan. They made your deck of cypress wood from the coasts of Cyprus, inlaid with ivory.
- ⁷ Your sail was made of fine embroidered linen from Egypt, and served as your banner. Your awning was of blue and purple fabric from the coasts of Elishah.
- ⁸ The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers. Your wise men were within you, Tyre; they were your captains.
- ⁹ The elders of Gebal and its wise men were within you, repairing your leaks. "All the ships of the sea and their sailors came to you to barter for your goods.
- ¹⁰ Men of Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army, serving as your warriors. They hung shields and helmets in you; they gave you splendor.
- ¹¹ Men of Arvad and Helech were stationed on your walls all around,

and Gammadites were in your towers.

They hung their shields all around your walls;
they perfected your beauty.

¹² "Tarshish was your trading partner because of your abundant wealth of every kind. They exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for your merchandise. ¹³ Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your merchants. They exchanged slaves and bronze utensils for your goods. ¹⁴ Those from Beth-togarmah exchanged horses, war horses, and mules for your merchandise. ¹⁵ Men of Dedan were also your merchants; many coasts and islands were your regular markets. They brought back ivory tusks and ebony as your payment. ¹⁶ Aram was your trading partner because of your numerous products. They exchanged turquoise, purple and embroidered cloth, fine linen, coral, and rubies for your merchandise. ¹⁷ Judah and the land of Israel were your merchants. They exchanged wheat from Minnith, meal, honey, oil, and balm, for your goods. ¹⁸ Damascus was also your trading partner because of your numerous products and your abundant wealth of every kind, trading in wine from Helbon and white wool. ¹⁹ Vedan and Javan from Uzal dealt in your merchandise; wrought iron, cassia, and aromatic cane were exchanged for your goods. ²⁰ Dedan was your merchant in saddlecloths for riding. ²¹ Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your business partners, trading with you in lambs, rams, and goats. ²² The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you. For your merchandise they exchanged the best of all spices and all kinds of precious stones as well as gold. ²³ Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad traded with you. ²⁴ They were your merchants in choice garments, cloaks of blue and embroidered materials, and multicolored carpets, which were bound and secured with cords in your marketplace. ²⁵ Ships of Tarshish were the carriers for your goods.

"So you became full and heavily loaded
in the heart of the sea.

- ²⁶ Your rowers have brought you onto the high seas,
but the east wind has wrecked you
in the heart of the sea.
- ²⁷ Your wealth, merchandise, and goods,
your sailors and captains,
those who repair your leaks,
those who barter for your goods,
and all the warriors on board,
with all the other people within you,
sink into the heart of the sea
on the day of your downfall.
- ²⁸ "The countryside shakes
at the sound of your sailors' cries.
- ²⁹ All the oarsmen
disembark from their ships.
The sailors and all the captains of the sea stand on the shore.
- ³⁰ Because of you, they raise their voices
and cry out bitterly.
They throw dust on their heads;
they roll in ashes.
- ³¹ They shave their heads because of you
and wrap themselves in sackcloth.
They weep over you
with deep anguish and bitter mourning.
- ³² "In their wailing they lament for you,
mourning over you:
"Who was like Tyre,

silenced in the middle of the sea?

- ³³ When your merchandise was unloaded
from the seas,
you satisfied many peoples.
You enriched the kings of the earth with your abundant wealth and goods.
- ³⁴ Now you are wrecked by the sea
in the depths of the waters;
your goods and the people within you have gone down.
- ³⁵ All the inhabitants of the coasts and islands
are appalled at you.
Their kings shudder with fear;
their faces are contorted.
- ³⁶ Those who trade among the peoples
scoff at you;
you have become an object of horror
and will never exist again."

28 The word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre, 'This is what the Lord God says: Your heart is proud, and you have said, "I am a god; I sit in the seat of gods in the heart of the sea." Yet you are a man and not a god, though you have regarded your heart as that of a god. ³ Yes, you are wiser than Daniel; no secret is hidden from you! ⁴ By your wisdom and understanding you have acquired wealth for yourself. You have acquired gold and silver for your treasures. ⁵ By your great skill in trading you have increased your wealth, but your heart has become proud because of your wealth.

- ⁶ "Therefore, this is what the Lord God says:
Because you regard your heart as that of a god,
⁷ I am about to bring strangers against you,
ruthless men from the nations.
They will draw their swords against your magnificent wisdom
and will pierce your splendor.
- ⁸ They will bring you down to the Pit,
and you will die a violent death
in the heart of the sea.
- ⁹ Will you still say, "I am a god,"
in the presence of those who slay you?
Yet you will be only a man, not a god,
in the hands of those who kill you.
- ¹⁰ You will die the death of the uncircumcised
at the hands of strangers.
For I have spoken.

This is the declaration of the Lord God.'"

¹¹ The word of the LORD came to me: ¹² "Son of man, lament for the king of Tyre and say to him, 'This is what the Lord God says:

- You were the seal of perfection,
full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
- ¹³ You were in Eden, the garden of God.
Every kind of precious stone covered you:
carnelian, topaz, and diamond,
beryl, onyx, and jasper,
lapis lazuli, turquoise and emerald.
Your mountings and settings were crafted in gold;
they were prepared on the day you were created.
- ¹⁴ You were an anointed guardian cherub,
for I had appointed you.
You were on the holy mountain of God;
you walked among the fiery stones.
- ¹⁵ From the day you were created you were blameless in your ways

until wickedness was found in you.

¹⁶ Through the abundance of your trade, you were filled with violence, and you sinned. So I expelled you in disgrace from the mountain of God, and banished you, guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones.

¹⁷ Your heart became proud because of your beauty; for the sake of your splendor you corrupted your wisdom. So I threw you down to the ground; I made you a spectacle before kings.

¹⁸ You profaned your sanctuaries by the magnitude of your iniquities in your dishonest trade. So I made fire come from within you, and it consumed you. I reduced you to ashes on the ground in the sight of everyone watching you.

¹⁹ All those who know you among the peoples are appalled at you. You have become an object of horror and will never exist again.”

²⁰The word of the LORD came to me: ²¹“Son of man, face Sidon and prophesy against it. ²²You are to say, ‘This is what the LORD God says:

Look! I am against you, Sidon, and I will display my glory within you. They will know that I am the LORD when I execute judgments against her and demonstrate my holiness through her.

²³ I will send a plague against her and bloodshed in her streets; the slain will fall within her, while the sword is against her on every side. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

²⁴“The house of Israel will no longer be hurt by prickly briars or painful thorns from all their neighbors who treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the LORD God.

²⁵“This is what the LORD God says: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples where they are scattered, I will demonstrate my holiness through them in the sight of the nations, and they will live in their own land, which I gave to my servant Jacob. ²⁶They will live there securely, build houses, and plant vineyards. They will live securely when I execute judgments against all their neighbors who treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.”

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

²“Son of man, face Pharaoh King of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all of Egypt. ³ Speak to him and say, ‘This is what the LORD God says:

Look, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster lying in the middle of his Nile, who says, ‘My Nile is my own; I made it for myself.’

⁴ I will put hooks in your jaws and make the fish of your streams cling to your scales. I will haul you up from the middle of your Nile, and all the fish of your streams will cling to your scales.

⁵ I will leave you in the desert, you and all the fish of your streams. You will fall on the open ground and will not be taken away or gathered for burial. I have given you to the wild creatures of the earth and the birds of the sky as food.

⁶ “Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the LORD, for they have been a staff made of reed to the house of Israel.

⁸“Therefore, this is what the LORD God says: I am going to bring a sword against you and cut off both man and animal from you. ⁹The land of Egypt will be a desolate ruin. Then they will know that I am the LORD. Because you said, ‘The Nile is my own; I made it,’ ¹⁰ therefore, I am against you and your Nile. I will turn the land of Egypt into ruins, a desolate waste from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Cush. ¹¹No human foot will pass through it, and no animal foot will pass through it. It will be uninhabited for forty years. ¹²I will make the land of Egypt a desolation among desolate lands, and its cities will be a desolation among ruined cities for forty years. I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands.

¹³“For this is what the LORD God says: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were dispersed. ¹⁴I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin. There they will be a lowly kingdom. ¹⁵Egypt will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself over the nations. I will make them so small they cannot rule over the nations. ¹⁶It will never again be an object of trust for the house of Israel, drawing attention to their iniquity of turning to the Egyptians. Then they will know that I am the LORD God.”

¹⁷In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸“Son of man, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon made his army labor strenuously against Tyre. Every head was made bald and every shoulder chafed, but he and his army received no compensation from Tyre for the labor he expended against it. ¹⁹Therefore, this is what the LORD God says: I am going to give the land of Egypt to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and he will carry off its wealth, seizing its spoil and taking its plunder. This will be his army’s compensation. ²⁰I have given him the land of Egypt as the pay he labored for, since they worked for me.” This is the declaration of the LORD God. ²¹“In that day I will cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will enable you to speak out among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

30 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, prophesy and say, ‘This is what the LORD God says: Wail, ‘Woe because of that day!’”

³ For a day is near; a day belonging to the LORD is near. It will be a day of clouds, a time of doom for the nations.

⁴ A sword will come against Egypt, and there will be anguish in Cush when the slain fall in Egypt, and its wealth is taken away,

and its foundations are demolished.

⁵ Cush, Put, and Lud,
and all the various foreign troops,
plus Libya and the men of the covenant land
will fall by the sword along with them.

⁶ This is what the LORD says:
Those who support Egypt will fall,
and its proud strength will collapse.
From Migdol to Syene
they will fall within it by the sword.

This is the declaration of the Lord God.

⁷ They will be desolate
among desolate lands,
and their cities will lie
among ruined cities.

⁸ They will know that I am the LORD
when I set fire to Egypt
and all its allies are shattered.

⁹ On that day, messengers will go out from me in ships to terrify confident Cush. Anguish will come over them on the day of Egypt's doom. For indeed it is coming.

¹⁰ "This is what the Lord God says:
I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt
by the hand of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.

¹¹ He along with his people,
ruthless men from the nations,
will be brought in to destroy the land.
They will draw their swords against Egypt
and fill the land with the slain.

¹² I will make the streams dry and sell the land to evil men.
I will bring desolation
on the land and everything in it
by the hands of foreigners.
I, the LORD, have spoken.

¹³ "This is what the Lord God says:
I will destroy the idols and put an end to the false gods in Memphis.
There will no longer be a prince from the land of Egypt.
And I will instill fear in that land.

¹⁴ I will make Pathros desolate,
set fire to Zoan,
and execute judgments on Thebes.
¹⁵ I will pour out my wrath on Pelusium,
the stronghold of Egypt,
and will wipe out the hordes of Thebes.

¹⁶ I will set fire to Egypt;
Pelusium will writhe in anguish,
Thebes will be breached,
and Memphis will face foes in broad daylight.

¹⁷ The young men of On and Pi-beseth
will fall by the sword,
and those cities will go into captivity.

¹⁸ The day will be dark in Tephahnehes, when I break the yoke of Egypt there and its proud strength
comes to an end in the city.
A cloud will cover Tephahnehes,
and its surrounding villages will go into captivity.

¹⁹ So I will execute judgments against Egypt,
and they will know that I am the LORD."

²⁰ In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

²¹ "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Look, it has not been bandaged — no medicine has been applied and no splint put on to bandage it so that it can grow strong enough to handle a sword. ²² Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: Look! I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break his arms, both the strong one and the one already broken, and will make the sword fall from his hand. ²³ I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them among the countries. ²⁴ I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king and place my sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him as a mortally wounded man. ²⁵ I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king, but Pharaoh's arms will fall. They will know that I am the LORD when I place my sword in the hand of Babylon's king and he wields it against the land of Egypt. ²⁶ When I disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them among the countries, they will know that I am the LORD."

31 In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes,

"Who are you like in your greatness?

³ Think of Assyria, a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches and shady foliage
and of lofty height.

Its top was among the clouds.

⁴ The waters caused it to grow;
the underground springs made it tall, directing their rivers all around the place where the tree was planted and sending their channels
to all the trees of the field.

⁵ Therefore the cedar became greater in height
than all the trees of the field.
Its branches multiplied,
and its boughs grew long as it spread them out because of the abundant water.

⁶ All the birds of the sky
nested in its branches,
and all the animals of the field
gave birth beneath its boughs;
all the great nations lived in its shade.

⁷ It was beautiful in its size,
in the length of its limbs,
for its roots extended to abundant water.

⁸ The cedars in God's garden could not eclipse it;
the pine trees couldn't compare with its branches,
nor could the plane trees match its boughs.
No tree in the garden of God
could compare with it in beauty.

⁹ I made it beautiful with its many limbs,
and all the trees of Eden,
which were in God's garden, envied it.

¹⁰ "Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: Since it towered high in stature and set its top among the clouds, and it grew proud on account of its height, ¹¹ I determined to hand it over to a ruler of nations; he would surely deal with it. I banished it because of its wickedness. ¹² Foreigners, ruthless men from the nations, cut it down and left it lying. Its limbs fell on the mountains and in every valley; its boughs lay broken in all the earth's ravines. All the peoples of the earth left its shade and abandoned it. ¹³ All the birds of the sky nested on its fallen trunk, and all the animals

of the field were among its boughs. ¹⁴This happened so that no trees planted beside water would become great in height and set their tops among the clouds, and so that no other well-watered trees would reach them in height. For they have all been consigned to death, to the underworld, among the people who descend to the Pit.

¹⁵"This is what the Lord God says: I caused grieving on the day the cedar went down to Sheol. I closed off the underground deep because of it: I held back the rivers of the deep, and its abundant water was restrained. I made Lebanon mourn on account of it, and all the trees of the field fainted because of it. ¹⁶I made the nations quake at the sound of its downfall, when I threw it down to Sheol to be with those who descend to the Pit. Then all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all the well-watered trees, were comforted in the underworld. ¹⁷They too descended with it to Sheol, to those slain by the sword. As its allies they had lived in its shade among the nations.

¹⁸"Who then are you like in glory and greatness among Eden's trees? You also will be brought down to the underworld to be with the trees of Eden. You will lie among the uncircumcised with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his hordes. This is the declaration of the Lord God."

32 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him,

You compare yourself to a lion of the nations,
but you are like a monster in the seas.
You thrash about in your rivers,
churn up the waters with your feet,
and muddy the rivers.

³"This is what the Lord God says:

I will spread my net over you with an assembly of many peoples,
and they will haul you up in my net.

⁴ I will abandon you on the land and throw you onto the open field.

I will cause all the birds of the sky
to settle on you
and let the wild creatures of the entire earth
eat their fill of you.

⁵ I will put your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your carcass.

⁶ I will drench the land
with the flow of your blood,
even to the mountains;
the ravines will be filled with your gore.

⁷ "When I snuff you out,
I will cover the heavens
and darken their stars.
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon will not give its light.

⁸ I will darken all the shining lights
in the heavens over you,
and will bring darkness on your land.
This is the declaration of the Lord God.

⁹ "I will trouble the hearts of many peoples,
when I bring about your destruction
among the nations,
in countries you have not known.

¹⁰ I will cause many peoples to be appalled at you,
and their kings will shudder with fear
because of you
when I brandish my sword in front of them.

On the day of your downfall
each of them will tremble
every moment for his life.

¹¹"For this is what the Lord God says:
The sword of Babylon's king
will come against you!

¹² I will make your hordes fall
by the swords of warriors,
all of them ruthless men from the nations.
They will ravage Egypt's pride,
and all its hordes will be destroyed.

¹³ I will slaughter all its cattle that are beside many waters.
No human foot will churn them again,
and no cattle hooves will disturb them.

¹⁴ Then I will let their waters settle and will make their rivers flow like oil.

This is the declaration of the Lord God.

¹⁵ When I make the land of Egypt a desolation,
so that it is emptied of everything in it,
when I strike down all who live there,
then they will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁶"The daughters of the nations will chant that lament.
They will chant it over Egypt and all its hordes. This is the declaration of the Lord God."

¹⁷In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸"Son of man, wail over the hordes of Egypt and bring Egypt and the daughters of mighty nations down to the underworld, to be with those who descend to the Pit:

¹⁹ Who do you surpass in loveliness?
Go down and be laid to rest
with the uncircumcised!

²⁰ They will fall among those slain by the sword.
A sword is appointed!
They drag her and all her hordes away.

²¹ Warrior leaders will speak from the middle of Sheol
about him and his allies:
"They have come down;
the uncircumcised lie
slain by the sword."

²² "Assyria is there with her whole assembly;
her graves are all around her.

All of them are slain, fallen by the sword.
²³ Her graves are set in the deepest regions of the Pit,

and her assembly is all around her burial place.
All of them are slain, fallen by the sword —
those who once spread terror
in the land of the living.

²⁴ "Elam is there
with all her hordes around her grave.
All of them are slain, fallen by the sword —
those who went down
to the underworld uncircumcised, who once spread their terror
in the land of the living.
They bear their disgrace
with those who descend to the Pit.

²⁵ Among the slain
they prepare a bed for Elam
with all her hordes.
Her graves are all around her.
All of them are uncircumcised,

- slain by the sword,
 although their terror was once spread
 in the land of the living.
 They bear their disgrace
 with those who descend to the Pit.
 They are placed among the slain.
- 26 "Meshech and Tubal are there,
 with all their hordes.
 Their graves are all around them.
 All of them are uncircumcised, slain by the sword,
 although their terror was once spread
 in the land of the living.
- 27 They do not lie down with the fallen warriors of the uncircumcised, who went down to Sheol
 with their weapons of war,
 whose swords were placed under their heads and their shields
 rested on their bones,
 although the terror of these warriors
 was once in the land of the living.
- 28 But you will be shattered
 and will lie down among the uncircumcised,
 with those slain by the sword.
- 29 "Edom is there, her kings and all her princes, who, despite their strength, have been placed
 among those slain by the sword.
 They lie down with the uncircumcised,
 with those who descend to the Pit.
- 30 All the leaders of the north and all the Sidonians are there.
 They went down in shame with the slain,
 despite the terror their strength inspired.
 They lie down uncircumcised
 with those slain by the sword.
 They bear their disgrace
 with those who descend to the Pit.
- 31 "Pharaoh will see them
 and be comforted over all his hordes — Pharaoh and his whole army,
 slain by the sword."
 This is the declaration of the Lord God.
- 32 "For I will spread my terror
 in the land of the living,
 so Pharaoh and all his hordes
 will be laid to rest among the uncircumcised,
 with those slain by the sword."
 This is the declaration of the Lord God.

33 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, speak to your people and tell them, 'Suppose I bring the sword against a land, and the people of that land select a man from among them, appointing him as their watchman. ³And suppose he sees the sword coming against the land and blows his trumpet to warn the people. ⁴Then, if anyone hears the sound of the trumpet but ignores the warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his death will be his own fault. ⁵Since he heard the sound of the trumpet but ignored the warning, his death is his own fault. If he had taken warning, he would have saved his life. ⁶However, suppose the watchman sees the sword coming but doesn't blow the trumpet, so that the people aren't warned, and the sword comes and takes away their lives. Then they have been taken away because of their iniquity, but I will hold the watchman accountable for their blood.'

⁷"As for you, son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. When you hear a word from my mouth, give them a warning from me. ⁸If I say to the wicked, 'Wicked one, you will surely die,' but you do not speak out to warn him about his way, that wicked person will die for his iniquity, yet I will hold you responsible for his blood. ⁹But if you warn a wicked person to turn from his way and he doesn't turn from it, he will die for his iniquity, but you will have rescued yourself.

¹⁰"Now as for you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'You have said this: "Our transgressions and our sins are heavy on us, and we are wasting away because of them! How then can we survive?"' ¹¹Tell them, 'As I live — this is the declaration of the Lord God — I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked person should turn from his way and live. Repent, repent of your evil ways! Why will you die, house of Israel?'

¹²"Now, son of man, say to your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous person will not save him on the day of his transgression; neither will the wickedness of the wicked person cause him to stumble on the day he turns from his wickedness. The righteous person won't be able to survive by his righteousness on the day he sins. ¹³When I tell the righteous person that he will surely live, but he trusts in his righteousness and acts unjustly, then none of his righteousness will be remembered, and he will die because of the injustice he has committed.

¹⁷"But your people say, "The Lord's way isn't fair," even though it is their own way that isn't fair. ¹⁸When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and commits injustice, he will die for it. ¹⁹But if a wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live because of it. ²⁰Yet you say, "The Lord's way isn't fair." I will judge each of you according to his ways, house of Israel."

²¹In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, a fugitive from Jerusalem came to me and reported, "The city has been taken!" ²²Now the hand of the LORD had been on me the evening before the fugitive arrived, and he opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer mute.

²³Then the word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴"Son of man, those who live in the ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one person, yet he received possession of the land. But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as a possession.' ²⁵Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says: You eat meat with blood in it, look to your idols, and shed blood. Should you then receive possession of the land?' ²⁶You have relied on your swords, you have committed detestable acts, and each of you has defiled his neighbor's wife. Should you then receive possession of the land?'

²⁷"Tell them this: 'This is what the Lord God says: As surely as I live, those who are in the ruins will fall by the sword, those in the open field I have given to wild animals to be devoured, and those in the strongholds and caves will die by plague. ²⁸I will make the land a desolate waste, and its proud strength will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will become desolate, with no one passing through.²⁹ They will know that I am the LORD when I make the land a desolate waste because of all the detestable acts they have committed.'

³⁰"As for you, son of man, your people are talking about you near the city walls and in the doorways of their houses. One person speaks to another, each saying to his brother, 'Come and hear what the message is that comes from the LORD!' ³¹So my people come to you in crowds, sit in front of you, and hear your words, but they don't obey them. Their mouths go on passionately, but their hearts pursue dishonest profit. ³²Yes, to them you are like a singer of passionate songs who has a beautiful voice and plays skillfully on an instrument. They hear your words, but they don't obey them. ³³Yet when all this comes true — and it definitely will — then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

34 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, and say to them, 'This is what the LORD God says to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel, who have been feeding themselves! Shouldn't the shepherds feed their flock? ³You eat the fat, wear the wool, and butcher the fattened animals, but you do not tend the flock. ⁴You have not strengthened the weak, healed the sick, bandaged the injured, brought back the strays, or sought the lost. Instead, you have ruled them with violence and cruelty. ⁵They were scattered for lack of a shepherd; they became food for all the wild animals when they were scattered. ⁶My flock went astray on all the mountains and every high hill. My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and there was no one searching or seeking for them.

⁷"Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. ⁸As I live — this is the declaration of the LORD God — because my flock, lacking a shepherd, has become prey and food for every wild animal, and because my shepherds do not search for my flock, and because the shepherds feed themselves rather than my flock, ⁹therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD!

¹⁰"This is what the LORD God says: Look, I am against the shepherds. I will demand my flock from them and prevent them from shepherding the flock. The shepherds will no longer feed themselves, for I will rescue my flock from their mouths so that they will not be food for them.

¹¹"For this is what the LORD God says: See, I myself will search for my flock and look for them. ¹²As a shepherd looks for his sheep on the day he is among his scattered flock, so I will look for my flock. I will rescue them from all the places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and total darkness. ¹³I will bring them out from the peoples, gather them from the countries, and bring them to their own soil. I will shepherd them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines, and in all the inhabited places of the land. ¹⁴I will tend them in good pasture, and their grazing place will be on Israel's lofty mountains. There they will lie down in a good grazing place; they will feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I will tend my flock and let them lie down. This is the declaration of the LORD God. ¹⁶I will seek the lost, bring back the strays, bandage the injured, and strengthen the weak, but I will destroy the fat and the strong. I will shepherd them with justice.

¹⁷"As for you, my flock, the LORD God says this: Look, I am going to judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and goats. ¹⁸Isn't it enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of the pasture with your feet? Or isn't it enough that you drink the clear water? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? ¹⁹Yet my flock has to feed on what your feet have trampled, and drink what your feet have muddied.

²⁰"Therefore, this is what the LORD God says to them: See, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹Since you have pushed with flank and shoulder and butted all the weak ones with your horns until you scattered them all over, ²²I will save my flock. They will no longer be prey, and I will judge between one sheep and another. ²³I will establish over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will shepherd them. He will tend them himself and will be their shepherd. ²⁴I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David will be a prince among them. I, the LORD, have spoken.

²⁵"I will make a covenant of peace with them and eliminate dangerous creatures from the land, so that they may live securely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest. ²⁶I will make them and the area around my hill a blessing: I will send down showers in their season; they will be showers of blessing. ²⁷The trees of the field will yield their fruit, and the land will yield its produce; my flock will be secure in their land. They will know that I am the LORD when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the power of those who enslave them. ²⁸They will no longer be prey for the nations, and the wild creatures of the earth will not consume them. They will live securely, and no one will frighten them. ²⁹I will establish for them a place renowned for its agriculture, and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land. They will no longer endure the insults of the nations. ³⁰Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people. This is the declaration of the LORD God. ³¹You are my flock, the human flock of my pasture, and I am your God. This is the declaration of the LORD God."

35 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, face Mount Seir and prophesy against it. ³Say to it, 'This is what the LORD God says:

Look! I am against you, Mount Seir.

I will stretch out my hand against you and make you a desolate waste.

⁴ I will turn your cities into ruins, and you will become a desolation.

Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵"Because you maintained a perpetual hatred and gave the Israelites over to the power of the sword in the time of their disaster, the time of final punishment, ⁶therefore, as I live — this is the declaration of the LORD God — I will destine you for bloodshed, and it will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, it will pursue you. ⁷I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and will cut off from it those who come and go. ⁸I will fill its mountains with the slain; those slain by the sword will fall on your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. ⁹I will make you a perpetual desolation; your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰"Because you said, 'These two nations and two lands will be mine, and we will possess them' — though the LORD was there — ¹¹therefore, as I live — this is the declaration of the LORD God — I will treat you according to the anger and jealousy you showed in your hatred of them. I will make myself known among them when I judge you. ¹²Then you will know that I, the LORD, have heard all the blasphemies you uttered against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are desolate. They have been given to us to devour!"¹³ You boasted against me with your mouth, and spoke many words against me. I heard it myself!

¹⁴"This is what the Lord God says: While the whole world rejoices, I will make you a desolation. ¹⁵Just as you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel because it became a desolation, I will deal the same way with you: you will become a desolation, Mount Seir, and so will all Edom in its entirety. Then they will know that I am the Lord."

36 "Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, 'Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord.' ²This is what the Lord God says: Because the enemy has said about you, 'Aha! The ancient heights have become our possession,'" ³therefore, prophesy and say: 'This is what the Lord God says: Because they have made you desolate and have trampled you from every side, so that you became a possession for the rest of the nations and an object of people's gossip and slander, ⁴therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God. This is what the Lord God says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and abandoned cities, which have become plunder and a mockery to the rest of the nations all around.

⁵"This is what the Lord God says: Certainly in my burning zeal I speak against the rest of the nations and all of Edom, who took my land as their own possession with wholehearted rejoicing and utter contempt so that its pastureland became plunder. ⁶Therefore, prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: This is what the Lord God says: Look, I speak in my burning zeal because you have endured the insults of the nations. ⁷Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: I swear that the nations all around you will endure their own insults.

⁸"You, mountains of Israel, will produce your branches and bear your fruit for my people Israel, since their arrival is near. ⁹Look! I am on your side; I will turn toward you, and you will be tilled and sown. ¹⁰I will fill you with people, with the whole house of Israel in its entirety. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. ¹¹I will fill you with people and animals, and they will increase and be fruitful. I will make you inhabited as you once were and make you better off than you were before. Then you will know that I am the Lord. ¹²I will cause people, my people Israel, to walk on you; they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer deprive them of their children.

¹³"This is what the Lord God says: Because some are saying to you, "You devour people and deprive your nation of children,"¹⁴ therefore, you will no longer devour people and deprive your nation of children. This is the declaration of the Lord God. ¹⁵I will no longer allow the insults of the nations to be heard against you, and you will not have to endure the reproach of the peoples anymore; you will no longer cause your nation to stumble. This is the declaration of the Lord God."

¹⁶The word of the Lord came to me: ¹⁷"Son of man, while the house of Israel lived in their land, they defiled it with their conduct and actions. Their behavior before me was like menstrual impurity. ¹⁸So I poured out my wrath on them because of the blood they had shed on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols. ¹⁹I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered among the countries. I judged them according to their conduct and actions. ²⁰When they came to the nations where they went, they profaned my holy name, because it was said about them, 'These are the people of the Lord, yet they had to leave his land in exile.' ²¹Then I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they went.

²²"Therefore, say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Lord God says: It is not for your sake that I will act, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you profaned among the nations where you went. ²³I will honor the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations — the name you have profaned among them. The nations will know that I am the Lord — this is the declaration of the Lord God — when I demonstrate my holiness through you in their sight.

²⁴"For I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. ²⁵I will also sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your impurities and all your idols. ²⁶I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will remove your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷I will place my Spirit within you and cause you to follow my statutes and carefully observe my ordinances. ²⁸You will live in the land that I gave your fathers; you will be my people, and I will be your God. ²⁹I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will summon the grain and make it plentiful, and I will not bring famine on you. ³⁰I will also make the fruit of the trees and the produce of the field plentiful, so that you will no longer experience reproach among the nations on account of famine.

³¹"You will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will loathe yourselves for your iniquities and detestable practices. ³²It is not for your sake that I will act — this is the declaration of the Lord God — let this be known to you. Be ashamed and humiliated because of your ways, house of Israel!

³³"This is what the Lord God says: On the day I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the ruins will be rebuilt. ³⁴The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of everyone who passes by. ³⁵They will say, "This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden. The cities that were once ruined, desolate, and demolished are now fortified and inhabited." ³⁶Then the nations that remain around you will know that I, the Lord, have rebuilt what was demolished and have replanted what was desolate. I, the Lord, have spoken and I will do it.

³⁷"This is what the Lord God says: I will respond to the house of Israel and do this for them: I will multiply them in number like a flock. ³⁸So the ruined cities will be filled with a flock of people, just as Jerusalem is filled with a flock of sheep for sacrifice during its appointed festivals. Then they will know that I am the Lord."

37 The hand of the Lord was on me, and he brought me out by his Spirit and set me down in the middle of the valley; it was full of bones. ²He led me all around them. There were a great many of them on the surface of the valley, and they were very dry. ³Then he said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?"

I replied, "Lord God, only you know."

⁴He said to me, "Prophesy concerning these bones and say to them: Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord! ⁵This is what the Lord God says to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you will live. ⁶I will put tendons on you, make flesh grow on you, and cover you with skin. I will put breath in you so that you come to life. Then you will know that I am the Lord."

⁷So I prophesied as I had been commanded. While I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone. ⁸As I looked, tendons appeared on them, flesh grew, and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them. ⁹He said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man. Say to it: This is what the Lord God says: Breath, come from the four winds and breathe into these slain so that they may live!" ¹⁰So I prophesied as he commanded me; the breath entered them, and they came to life and stood on their feet, a vast army.

¹¹Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Look how they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope has perished; we are cutoff.' ¹²Therefore, prophesy and say to them: 'This is what the Lord God says: I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them, my people, and lead you into the land of Israel. ¹³You will know that I am the LORD, my people, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. ¹⁴I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I am the LORD. I have spoken, and I will do it. This is the declaration of the LORD.'"

¹⁵The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁶"Son of man, take a single stick and write on it: Belonging to Judah and the Israelites associated with him. Then take another stick and write on it: Belonging to Joseph — the stick of Ephraim — and all the house of Israel associated with him. ¹⁷Then join them together into a single stick so that they become one in your hand. ¹⁸When your people ask you, 'Won't you explain to us what you mean by these things?' — ¹⁹tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel associated with him, and put them together with the stick of Judah. I will make them into a single stick so that they become one in my hand.'

²⁰"When the sticks you have written on are in your hand and in full view of the people, ²¹tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says: I am going to take the Israelites out of the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around and bring them into their own land. ²²I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will rule over all of them. They will no longer be two nations and will no longer be divided into two kingdoms. ²³They will not defile themselves anymore with their idols, their abhorrent things, and all their transgressions. I will save them from all their apostasies by which they sinned, and I will cleanse them. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God. ²⁴My servant David will be king over them, and there will be one shepherd for all of them. They will follow my ordinances, and keep my statutes and obey them.

²⁵"They will live in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They will live in it forever with their children and grandchildren, and my servant David will be their prince forever. ²⁶I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be a permanent covenant with them. I will establish and multiply them and will set my sanctuary among them forever. ²⁷My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people. ²⁸When my sanctuary is among them forever, the nations will know that I, the LORD, sanctify Israel."

38 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, face Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. Prophesy against him ³and say, 'This is what the Lord God says: Look, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. ⁴I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws, and bring you out with all your army, including horses and riders, who are all splendidly dressed, a huge assembly armed with large and small shields, all of them brandishing swords. ⁵Persia, Cush, and Put are with them, all of them with shields and helmets; ⁶Gomer with all its troops; and Beth-togarmah from the remotest parts of the north along with all its troops — many peoples are with you.

⁷"Be prepared and get yourself ready, you and your whole assembly that has been mobilized around you; you will be their guard. ⁸After a long time you will be summoned. In the last years you will enter a land that has been restored from war and regathered from many peoples to the mountains of Israel, which had long been a ruin. They were brought out from the peoples, and all of them now live securely. ⁹You, all of your troops, and many peoples with you will advance, coming like a thunderstorm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

¹⁰"This is what the Lord God says: On that day, thoughts will arise in your mind, and you will devise an evil plan. ¹¹You will say, 'I will advance against a land of open villages; I will come against a tranquil people who are living securely, all of them living without walls and without bars or gates' — ¹²in order to seize spoil and carry off plunder, to turn your hand against ruins now inhabited and against a people gathered from the nations, who have been acquiring cattle and possessions and who live at the center of the world. ¹³Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish with all its rulers will ask you, 'Have you come to seize spoil? Have you mobilized your assembly to carry off plunder, to make off with silver and gold, to take cattle and possessions, to seize plenty of spoil?'"

¹⁴"Therefore prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, 'This is what the Lord God says: On that day when my people Israel are dwelling securely, will you not know this ¹⁵and come from your place in the remotest parts of the north — you and many peoples with you, who are all riding horses — a huge assembly, a powerful army? ¹⁶You will advance against my people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the last days, Gog, that I will bring you against my land so that the nations may know me, when I show myself holy through you in their sight.

¹⁷"This is what the Lord God says: Are you the one I spoke about in former times through my servants, the prophets of Israel, who for years prophesied in those times that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸Now on that day, the day when Gog comes against the land of Israel — this is the declaration of the Lord God — my wrath will flare up. ¹⁹I swear in my zeal and fiery rage: On that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰The fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, every creature that crawls on the ground, and every human being on the face of the earth will tremble before me. The mountains will be demolished, the cliffs will collapse, and every wall will fall to the ground. ²¹I will call for a sword against him on all my mountains — this is the declaration of the Lord God — and every man's sword will be against his brother. ²²I will execute judgment on him with plague and bloodshed. I will pour out torrential rain, hailstones, fire, and burning sulfur on him, as well as his troops and the many peoples who are with him. ²³I will display my greatness and holiness, and will reveal myself in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'

39 “As for you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, ‘This is what the Lord God says: Look, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. ²I will turn you around, drive you on, and lead you up from the remotest parts of the north. I will bring you against the mountains of Israel. ³Then I will knock your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand. ⁴You, all your troops, and the peoples who are with you will fall on the mountains of Israel. I will give you as food to every kind of predatory bird and to the wild animals. ⁵You will fall on the open field, for I have spoken. This is the declaration of the Lord God.

⁶“I will send fire against Magog and those who live securely on the coasts and islands. Then they will know that I am the Lord. ⁷So I will make my holy name known among my people Israel and will no longer allow it to be profaned. Then the nations will know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸Yes, it is coming, and it will happen. This is the declaration of the Lord God. This is the day I have spoken about.

⁹“Then the inhabitants of Israel’s cities will go out, kindle fires, and burn the weapons — the small and large shields, the bows and arrows, the clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them to make fires. ¹⁰They will not gather wood from the countryside or cut it down from the forests, for they will use the weapons to make fires. They will take the loot from those who looted them and plunder those who plundered them. This is the declaration of the Lord God.

¹¹“Now on that day I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel — the Travelers’ Valley east of the Sea. It will block those who travel through, for Gog and all his hordes will be buried there. So it will be called Hordes of Gog Valley. ¹²The house of Israel will spend seven months burying them in order to cleanse the land. ¹³All the people of the land will bury them and their fame will spread on the day I display my glory. This is the declaration of the Lord God.

¹⁷“Son of man, this is what the Lord God says: Tell every kind of bird and all the wild animals, ‘Assemble and come! Gather from all around to my sacrificial feast that I am slaughtering for you, a great feast on the mountains of Israel; you will eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the earth’s princes: rams, lambs, male goats, and all the fattened bulls of Bashan. ¹⁹You will eat fat until you are satisfied and drink blood until you are drunk, at my sacrificial feast that I have prepared for you. ²⁰At my table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, of mighty men and all the warriors. This is the declaration of the Lord God.’

²¹I will display my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the judgment I have executed and the hand I have laid on them. ²²From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am the Lord their God. ²³And the nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile on account of their iniquity, because they dealt unfaithfully with me. Therefore, I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies, so that they all fell by the sword. ²⁴I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and transgressions, and I hid my face from them.

²⁵“So this is what the Lord God says: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob and have compassion on the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for my holy name. ²⁶They will feel remorse for their disgrace and all the unfaithfulness they committed against me, when they live securely in their land with no one to frighten them. ²⁷When I bring them back from the peoples and gather them from the countries of their enemies, I will demonstrate my holiness through them in the sight of many nations. ²⁸They will know that I am the Lord their God when I regather them to their own land after having exiled them among the nations. I will leave none of them behind. ²⁹I will no longer hide my face from them, for I will pour out my Spirit on the house of Israel.” This is the declaration of the Lord God.

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month in the fourteenth year after Jerusalem had been captured, on that very day the Lord’s hand was on me, and he brought me there. ²In visions of God he took me to the land of Israel and set me down on a very high mountain. On its southern slope was a structure resembling a city. ³He brought me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze, with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand. He was standing by the city gate. ⁴He spoke to me: “Son of man, look with your eyes, listen with your ears, and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for you have been brought here so that I might show it to you. Report everything you see to the house of Israel.”

⁵Now there was a wall surrounding the outside of the temple. The measuring rod in the man’s hand was six units of twenty-one inches; each unit was the standard length plus three inches. He measured the thickness of the wall structure; it was 10 ½ feet, and its height was the same. ⁶Then he came to the gate that faced east and climbed its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate; it was 10 ½ feet deep — one threshold was 10 ½ feet deep. ⁷Each recess was 10 ½ feet long and 10 ½ feet deep, and there was a space of 8 ¾ feet between the recesses. The inner threshold of the gate on the temple side next to the gate’s portico was 10 ½ feet. ⁸Next he measured the gate’s portico; ⁹it was 14 feet, and its jambs were 3 ½ feet. The gate’s portico was on the temple side.

¹⁰There were three recesses on each side of the east gate, each with the same measurements, and the jambs on either side also had the same measurements. ¹¹Then he measured the width of the gate’s entrance; it was 17 ½ feet, while the width of the gate was 22 ¾ feet. ¹²There was a barrier of 21 inches in front of the recesses on both sides, and the recesses on each side were 10 ½ feet square. ¹³Then he measured the gate from the roof of one recess to the roof of the opposite one; the distance was 43 ¾ feet. The openings of the recesses faced each other. ¹⁴Next, he measured the porch — 105 feet. ¹⁵The distance from the front of the gate at the entrance to the front of the gate’s portico on the inside was 87 ½ feet. ¹⁶The recesses and their jambs had beveled windows all around the inside of the gate. The porticoes also had windows all around on the inside. Each jamb was decorated with palm trees.

¹⁷Then he brought me into the outer court, and there were chambers and a paved surface laid out all around the court. Thirty chambers faced the pavement, ¹⁸which flanked the courtyard’s gates and corresponded to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement.¹⁹ Then he measured the distance from the front of the lower gate to the exterior front of the inner court; it was 175 feet. This was the east; next the north is described.

²⁰He measured the gate of the outer court facing north, both its length and width.²¹ Its three recesses on each side, its jambs, and its portico had the same measurements as the first gate: 87 ½ feet long and 43 ¾ feet wide.²² Its windows, portico, and palm trees had the same measurements as those of the gate that faced east. Seven steps led up to the gate, and its portico was ahead of them.²³ The inner court had a gate facing the north gate, like the one on the east. He measured the distance from gate to gate; it was 175 feet.

²⁴He brought me to the south side, and there was also a gate on the south. He measured its jambs and portico; they had the same measurements as the others.²⁵ Both the gate and its portico had windows all around, like the other windows. It was 87 ½ feet long and 43 ¾ feet wide.²⁶ Its stairway had seven steps, and its portico was ahead of them. It had palm trees on its jambs, one on each side.²⁷ The inner court had a gate on the south. He measured from gate to gate on the south; it was 175 feet.

²⁸Then he brought me to the inner court through the south gate. When he measured the south gate, it had the same measurements as the others.²⁹ Its recesses, jambs, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both it and its portico had windows all around. It was 87 ½ feet long and 43 ¾ feet wide.³⁰ (There were porticoes all around, 43 ¾ feet long and 8 ¾ feet wide.)³¹ Its portico faced the outer court, and its jambs were decorated with palm trees. Its stairway had eight steps.

³²Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side. When he measured the gate, it had the same measurements as the others.³³ Its recesses, jambs, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both it and its portico had windows all around. It was 87 ½ feet long and 43 ¾ feet wide.³⁴ Its portico faced the outer court, and its jambs were decorated with palm trees on each side. Its stairway had eight steps.

³⁵Then he brought me to the north gate. When he measured it, it had the same measurements as the others,³⁶ as did its recesses, jambs, and portico. It also had windows all around. It was 87 ½ feet long and 43 ¾ feet wide.³⁷ Its portico faced the outer court, and its jambs were decorated with palm trees on each side. Its stairway had eight steps.

³⁸There was a chamber whose door opened into the gate's portico. The burnt offering was to be washed there.

³⁹Inside the gate's portico there were two tables on each side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, sin offering, and guilt offering.⁴⁰ Outside, as one approaches the entrance of the north gate, there were two tables on one side and two more tables on the other side of the gate's portico.⁴¹ So there were four tables inside the gate and four outside, eight tables in all on which the slaughtering was to be done.⁴² There were also four tables of cut stone for the burnt offering, each 31 ½ inches long, 31 ½ inches wide, and 21 inches high. The utensils used to slaughter the burnt offerings and other sacrifices were placed on them.⁴³ There were three-inch hooks fastened all around the inside of the room, and the flesh of the offering was to be laid on the tables.

⁴⁴Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, there were chambers for the singers: one beside the north gate, facing south, and another beside the south gate, facing north.⁴⁵ Then the man said to me: "This chamber that faces south is for the priests who keep charge of the temple.⁴⁶ The chamber that faces north is for the priests who keep charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, the ones from the sons of Levi who may approach the LORD to serve him."⁴⁷ Next he measured the court. It was square, 175 feet long and 175 feet wide. The altar was in front of the temple.

⁴⁸Then he brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the jambs of the portico; they were 8 ¾ feet thick on each side. The width of the gate was 24 ½ feet, and the side walls of the gate were 5 ¼ feet wide on each side.⁴⁹ The portico was 35 feet across and 21 feet deep, and 10 steps led up to it. There were pillars by the jambs, one on each side.

41 Next he brought me into the great hall and measured the jambs; on each side the width of the jamb was 10 ½ feet.² The width of the entrance was 17 ½ feet, and the side walls of the entrance were 8 ¾ feet wide on each side. He also measured the length of the great hall, 70 feet, and the width, 35 feet.³ He went inside the next room and measured the jambs at the entrance; they were 3 ½ feet wide. The entrance was 10 ½ feet wide, and the width of the entrance's side walls on each side was 12 ¼ feet.⁴ He then measured the length of the room adjacent to the great hall, 35 feet, and the width, 35 feet. And he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

⁵Then he measured the wall of the temple; it was 10 ½ feet thick. The width of the side rooms all around the temple was 7 feet.⁶ The side rooms were arranged one above another in three stories of thirty rooms each. There were ledges on the wall of the temple all around to serve as supports for the side rooms, so that the supports would not be in the temple wall itself.⁷ The side rooms surrounding the temple widened at each successive story, for the structure surrounding the temple went up by stages. This was the reason for the temple's broadness as it rose. And so, one would go up from the lowest story to the highest by means of the middle one.

⁸I saw that the temple had a raised platform surrounding it; this foundation for the side rooms was 10 ½ feet high.⁹ The thickness of the outer wall of the side rooms was 8 ¾ feet. The free space between the side rooms of the temple¹⁰ and the outer chambers was 35 feet wide all around the temple.¹¹ The side rooms opened into the free space, one entrance toward the north and another to the south. The area of free space was 8 ¾ feet wide all around.

¹²Now the building that faced the temple yard toward the west was 122 ½ feet wide. The wall of the building was 8 ¾ feet thick on all sides, and the building's length was 157 ½ feet.

¹³Then the man measured the temple; it was 175 feet long. In addition, the temple yard and the building, including its walls, were 175 feet long.¹⁴ The width of the front of the temple along with the temple yard to the east was 175 feet.¹⁵ Next he measured the length of the building facing the temple yard to the west, with its galleries on each side; it was 175 feet.

The interior of the great hall and the porticoes of the court — ¹⁶the thresholds, the beveled windows, and the balconies all around with their three levels opposite the threshold — were overlaid with wood on all sides. They were paneled from the ground to the windows (but the windows were covered),¹⁷ reaching to the top of the entrance, and as far as the inner temple and on the outside. On every wall all around, on the inside and outside, was a pattern¹⁸ carved with cherubim and palm trees. There was a palm tree between each pair of cherubim. Each cherub had two faces: ¹⁹a human face turned toward the palm tree on one side, and a lion's face turned toward it on the other. They were carved throughout the temple on all sides. ²⁰Cherubim and palm trees were carved from the ground to the top of the entrance and on the wall of the great hall.

²¹The doorposts of the great hall were square, and the front of the sanctuary had the same appearance. ²²The altar was made of wood, 5 ¼ feet high and 3 ½ feet long. It had corners, and its length and sides were of wood. The man told me, "This is the table that stands before the Lord."

²³The great hall and the sanctuary each had a double door, ²⁴and each of the doors had two swinging panels. There were two panels for one door and two for the other. ²⁵Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the great hall like those carved on the walls. There was a wooden canopy outside, in front of the portico. ²⁶There were beveled windows and palm trees on both sides, on the side walls of the portico, the side rooms of the temple, and the canopies.

42 Then the man led me out by way of the north gate into the outer court. He brought me to the group of chambers opposite the temple yard and opposite the building to the north. ²Along the length of the chambers, which was 175 feet, there was an entrance on the north; the width was 87 ½ feet. ³Opposite the 35-foot space belonging to the inner court and opposite the paved surface belonging to the outer court, the structure rose gallery by gallery in three tiers. ⁴In front of the chambers was a walkway toward the inside, 17 ½ feet wide and 175 feet long, and their entrances were on the north. ⁵The upper chambers were narrower because the galleries took away more space from them than from the lower and middle stories of the building. ⁶For they were arranged in three stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper chambers were set back from the ground more than the lower and middle stories. ⁷A wall on the outside ran in front of the chambers, parallel to them, toward the outer court; it was 87 ½ feet long. ⁸For the chambers on the outer court were 87 ½ feet long, while those facing the great hall were 175 feet long. ⁹At the base of these chambers there was an entryway on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.

¹³Then the man said to me, "The northern and southern chambers that face the courtyard are the holy chambers where the priests who approach the Lord will eat the most holy offerings. There they will deposit the most holy offerings — the grain offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings — for the place is holy. ¹⁴Once the priests have entered, they are not to go out from the holy area to the outer court until they have removed the clothes they minister in, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they approach the public area."

¹⁵When he finished measuring inside the temple complex, he led me out by way of the gate that faced east and measured all around the complex.

¹⁶He measured the east side with a measuring rod; it was 875 feet by the measuring rod.

¹⁷He measured the north side; it was 875 feet by the measuring rod.

¹⁸He measured the south side; it was 875 feet by the measuring rod.

¹⁹Then he turned to the west side and measured 875 feet by the measuring rod.

43 He led me to the gate, the one that faces east, ²and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice sounded like the roar of a huge torrent, and the earth shone with his glory. ³The vision I saw was like the one I had seen when he came to destroy the city, and like the ones I had seen by the Chebar Canal. I fell face-down. ⁴The glory of the Lord entered the temple by way of the gate that faced east. ⁵Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the inner court, and the glory of the Lord filled the temple.

⁶While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from the temple. ⁷He said to me: "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet, where I will dwell among the Israelites forever. The house of Israel and their kings will no longer defile my holy name by their religious prostitution and by the corpses of their kings at their high places. ⁸Whenever they placed their threshold next to my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them, they were defiling my holy name by the detestable acts they committed. So I destroyed them in my anger. ⁹Now let them remove their prostitution and the corpses of their kings far from me, and I will dwell among them forever.

¹⁰"As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, so that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. Let them measure its pattern, ¹¹and they will be ashamed of all that they have done. Reveal the design of the temple to them — its layout with its exits and entrances — its complete design along with all its statutes, design specifications, and laws. Write it down in their sight so that they may observe its complete design and all its statutes and may carry them out. ¹²This is the law of the temple: All its surrounding territory on top of the mountain will be especially holy. Yes, this is the law of the temple.

¹⁸Then he said to me: "Son of man, this is what the Lord God says: These are the statutes for the altar on the day it is constructed, so that burnt offerings may be sacrificed on it and blood may be splattered on it: ¹⁹You are to give a bull from the herd as a sin offering to the Levitical priests who are from the offspring of Zadok, who approach me in order to serve me." This is the declaration of the Lord God. ²⁰ "You are to take some of its blood and apply it to the four horns of the altar, the four corners of the ledge, and all around the rim. In this way you will purify the altar and make atonement for it. ²¹ Then you are to take away the bull for the sin offering, and it must be burned outside the sanctuary in the place appointed for the temple.

²² "On the second day you are to present an unblemished male goat as a sin offering. They will purify the altar just as they did with the bull. ²³ When you have finished the purification, you are to present a young, unblemished bull and an unblemished ram from the flock. ²⁴ You are to present them before the Lord; the priests will throw salt on them and sacrifice them as a burnt offering to the Lord. ²⁵ You will offer a goat for a sin offering each day for seven days. A young bull and a ram from the flock, both unblemished, are also to be offered. ²⁶ For seven days the priests are to make atonement for the altar and cleanse it. In this way they will consecrate it ²⁷ and complete the days of purification. Then on the eighth day and afterward, the priests will offer your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar, and I will accept you." This is the declaration of the Lord God.

44 The man then brought me back toward the sanctuary's outer gate that faced east, and it was closed. ² The Lord said to me: "This gate will remain closed. It will not be opened, and no one will enter through it, because the Lord, the God of Israel, has entered through it. Therefore it will remain closed. ³ The prince himself will sit in the gate to eat a meal before the Lord. He is to enter by way of the portico of the gate and go out the same way."

⁴ Then the man brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked, and the glory of the Lord filled his temple. And I fell facedown. ⁵ The Lord said to me: "Son of man, pay attention; look with your eyes and listen with your ears to everything I tell you about all the statutes and laws of the Lord's temple. Take careful note of the entrance of the temple along with all the exits of the sanctuary.

⁶ "Say to the rebellious people, the house of Israel, 'This is what the Lord God says: I have had enough of all your detestable practices, house of Israel. ⁷ When you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in both heart and flesh, to occupy my sanctuary, you defiled my temple while you offered my food—the fat and the blood. You broke my covenant by all your detestable practices. ⁸ You have not kept charge of my holy things but have appointed others to keep charge of my sanctuary for you.'

⁹ "This is what the Lord God says: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, may enter my sanctuary, not even a foreigner who is among the Israelites. ¹⁰ Surely the Levites who wandered away from me when Israel went astray, and who strayed from me after their idols, will bear the consequences of their iniquity. ¹¹ Yet they will occupy my sanctuary, serving as guards at the temple gates and ministering at the temple. They will slaughter the burnt offerings and other sacrifices for the people and will stand before them to serve them. ¹² Because they ministered to the house of Israel before their idols and became a sinful stumbling block to them, therefore I swore an oath against them"—this is the declaration of the Lord God—"that they would bear the consequences of their iniquity. ¹³ They must not approach me to serve me as priests or come near any of my holy things or the most holy things. They will bear their disgrace and the consequences of the detestable acts they committed. ¹⁴ Yet I will make them responsible for the duties of the temple—for all its work and everything done in it.

¹⁵ "But the Levitical priests descended from Zadok, who kept charge of my sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from me, will approach me to serve me. They will stand before me to offer me fat and blood." This is the declaration of the Lord God. ¹⁶ "They are the ones who may enter my sanctuary and approach my table to serve me. They will keep my mandate. ¹⁷ When they enter the gates of the inner court they are to wear linen garments; they must not have on them anything made of wool when they minister at the gates of the inner court and within it. ¹⁸ They are to wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments around their waists. They are not to put on anything that makes them sweat. ¹⁹ Before they go out to the outer court, to the people, they must take off the clothes they have been ministering in, leave them in the holy chambers, and dress in other clothes so that they do not transmit holiness to the people through their clothes.

²⁴ "In a dispute, they will officiate as judges and decide the case according to my ordinances. They are to observe my laws and statutes regarding all my appointed festivals, and keep my Sabbaths holy. ²⁵ A priest may not come near a dead person so that he becomes defiled. However, he may defile himself for a father, a mother, a son, a daughter, a brother, or an unmarried sister. ²⁶ After he is cleansed, he is to count off seven days for himself. ²⁷ On the day he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he is to present his sin offering." This is the declaration of the Lord God.

²⁸ "This will be their inheritance: I am their inheritance. You are to give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession. ²⁹ They will eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering. Everything in Israel that is permanently dedicated to the Lord will belong to them. ³⁰ The best of all the firstfruits of every kind and contribution of every kind from all your gifts will belong to the priests. You are to give your first batch of dough to the priest so that a blessing may rest on your homes. ³¹ The priests may not eat any bird or animal that died naturally or was mauled by wild beasts.

45 "When you divide the land by lot as an inheritance, set aside a donation to the Lord, a holy portion of the land, $8\frac{1}{2}$ miles long and $6\frac{2}{3}$ miles wide. This entire region will be holy. ² In this area there will be a square section for the sanctuary, 875 by 875 feet, with $87\frac{1}{2}$ feet of open space all around it. ³ From this holy portion, you will measure off an area $8\frac{1}{3}$ miles long and $3\frac{1}{3}$ miles wide, in which the sanctuary, the most holy place, will stand. ⁴ It will be a holy area of the land to be used by the priests who minister in the sanctuary, who approach to serve the Lord. It will be a place for their houses, as well as a holy area for the sanctuary. ⁵ There will be another area $8\frac{1}{3}$ miles long and $3\frac{1}{3}$ miles wide for the Levites who minister in the temple; it will be their possession for towns to live in.

⁶“As the property of the city, set aside an area $1\frac{2}{3}$ miles wide and $8\frac{3}{8}$ miles long, adjacent to the holy donation of land. It will be for the whole house of Israel. ⁷And the prince will have the area on each side of the holy donation of land and the city’s property, adjacent to the holy donation and the city’s property, stretching to the west on the west side and to the east on the east side. Its length will correspond to one of the tribal portions from the western boundary to the eastern boundary. ⁸This will be his land as a possession in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress my people but give the rest of the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

⁹“This is what the Lord God says: You have gone too far, princes of Israel! Put away violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Put an end to your evictions of my people.” This is the declaration of the Lord God. ¹⁰“You are to have honest scales, an honest dry measure, and an honest liquid measure. ¹¹The dry measure and the liquid measure will be uniform, with the liquid measure containing $5\frac{1}{2}$ gallons and the dry measure holding half a bushel. Their measurement will be a tenth of the standard larger capacity measure. ¹²The shekel will weigh twenty gerahs. Your mina will equal sixty shekels.

¹³“This is the contribution you are to offer: Three quarts from five bushels of wheat and three quarts from five bushels of barley. ¹⁴The quota of oil in liquid measures will be one percent of every cor. The cor equals ten liquid measures or one standard larger capacity measure, since ten liquid measures equal one standard larger capacity measure. ¹⁵And the quota from the flock is one animal out of every two hundred from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These are for the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings, to make atonement for the people.” This is the declaration of the Lord God. ¹⁶“All the people of the land must take part in this contribution for the prince in Israel. ¹⁷Then the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings for the festivals, New Moons, and Sabbaths — for all the appointed times of the house of Israel — will be the prince’s responsibility. He will provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make atonement on behalf of the house of Israel.

²¹“In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you are to celebrate the Passover, a festival of seven days during which unleavened bread will be eaten. ²²On that day the prince will provide a bull as a sin offering on behalf of himself and all the people of the land. ²³During the seven days of the festival, he will provide seven bulls and seven rams without blemish as a burnt offering to the Lord on each of the seven days, along with a male goat each day for a sin offering. ²⁴He will also provide a grain offering of half a bushel per bull and half a bushel per ram, along with a gallon of oil for every half bushel. ²⁵At the festival that begins on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, he will provide the same things for seven days — the same sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and oil.

46 “This is what the Lord God says: The gate of the inner court that faces east is to be closed during the six days of work, but it will be opened on the Sabbath day and opened on the day of the New Moon. ²The prince should enter from the outside by way of the gate’s portico and stand at the gate’s doorpost while the priests sacrifice his burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. He will bow in worship at the gate’s threshold and then depart, but the gate is not to be closed until evening. ³The people of the land will also bow in worship before the Lord at the entrance of that gate on the Sabbaths and New Moons.

⁴“The burnt offering that the prince presents to the Lord on the Sabbath day is to be six unblemished lambs and an unblemished ram. ⁵The grain offering will be half a bushel with the ram, and the grain offering with the lambs will be whatever he wants to give, as well as a gallon of oil for every half bushel. ⁶On the day of the New Moon, the burnt offering is to be a young, unblemished bull, as well as six lambs and a ram without blemish. ⁷He will provide a grain offering of half a bushel with the bull, half a bushel with the ram, and whatever he can afford with the lambs, together with a gallon of oil for every half bushel. ⁸When the prince enters, he is to go in by way of the gate’s portico and go out the same way.

¹²“When the prince makes a freewill offering, whether a burnt offering or a fellowship offering as a freewill offering to the Lord, the gate that faces east is to be opened for him. He is to offer his burnt offering or fellowship offering just as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he will go out, and the gate is to be closed after he leaves.

¹³“You are to offer an unblemished year-old male lamb as a daily burnt offering to the Lord; you will offer it every morning. ¹⁴You are also to prepare a grain offering every morning along with it: three quarts, with one-third of a gallon of oil to moisten the fine flour — a grain offering to the Lord. This is a permanent statute to be observed regularly. ¹⁵They will offer the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil every morning as a regular burnt offering.

¹⁹Then he brought me through the entrance that was at the side of the gate, into the priests’ holy chambers, which faced north. I saw a place there at the far western end. ²⁰He said to me, “This is the place where the priests will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they will bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them into the outer court and transmit holiness to the people.”²¹ Next he brought me into the outer court and led me past its four corners. There was a separate court in each of its corners.²² In the four corners of the outer court there were enclosed courts, 70 feet long by 5½ feet wide. All four corner areas had the same dimensions.²³ There was a stone wall around the inside of them, around the four of them, with ovens built at the base of the walls on all sides.²⁴ He said to me: “These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple will cook the people’s sacrifices.”

47 Then he brought me back to the entrance of the temple and there was water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the temple faced east. The water was coming down from under the south side of the threshold of the temple, south of the altar.² Next he brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate that faced east; there the water was trickling from the south side.³ As the man went out east with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a third of a mile and led me through the water. It came up to my ankles.⁴ Then he measured off a third of a mile and led me through the water. It came up to my knees. He measured off another third of a mile and led me through the water. It came up to my waist.⁵ Again he measured off a third of a mile, and it was a river that I could not cross on foot. For the water had risen; it was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be crossed on foot.

⁶ He asked me, “Do you see this, son of man?” Then he led me back to the bank of the river.⁷ When I had returned, I saw a very large number of trees along both sides of the riverbank.⁸ He said to me, “This water flows out to the eastern region and goes down to the Arabah. When it enters the sea, the sea of fowl water, the water of the sea becomes fresh.⁹ Every kind of living creature that swarms will live wherever the river flows, and there will be a huge number of fish because this water goes there. Since the water will become fresh, there will be life everywhere the river goes.¹⁰ Fishermen will stand beside it from En-gedi to Engelaim. These will become places where nets are spread out to dry. Their fish will consist of many different kinds, like the fish of the Mediterranean Sea.¹¹ Yet its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they will be left for salt.¹² All kinds of trees providing food will grow along both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. Each month they will bear fresh fruit because the water comes from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be used for food and their leaves for medicine.”

¹³ This is what the Lord God says: “This is the border you will use to divide the land as an inheritance for the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph will receive two shares.¹⁴ You will inherit it in equal portions, since I swore to give it to your ancestors. So this land will fall to you as an inheritance.

¹⁵ This is to be the border of the land:

On the north side it will extend from the Mediterranean Sea by way of Hethlon and Lebo-hamath to Zedad,¹⁶ Berothah, and Sibraim (which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), as far as Hazer-hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.¹⁷ So the border will run from the sea to Hazer-enon at the border of Damascus, with the territory of Hamath to the north. This will be the northern side.

¹⁸ On the east side it will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel; you will measure from the northern border to the eastern sea. This will be the eastern side.

¹⁹ On the south side it will run from Tamar to the Waters of Meribath-kadesh, and on to the Brook of Egypt as far as the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern side.

²¹ You are to divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel.²² You will allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the aliens residing among you, who have fathered children among you. You will treat them like native-born Israelites; along with you, they will be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.²³ In whatever tribe the alien resides, you will assign his inheritance there.” This is the declaration of the Lord God.

48 Now these are the names of the tribes: From the northern end, along the road of Hethlon, to Lebo-hamath as far as Hazer-enon, at the northern border of Damascus, alongside Hamath and extending from the eastern side to the sea, will be Dan — one portion.

² Next to the territory of Dan, from the east side to the west, will be Asher — one portion.

³ Next to the territory of Asher, from the east side to the west, will be Naphtali — one portion.

⁴ Next to the territory of Naphtali, from the east side to the west, will be Manasseh — one portion.

⁵ Next to the territory of Manasseh, from the east side to the west, will be Ephraim — one portion.

⁶ Next to the territory of Ephraim, from the east side to the west, will be Reuben — one portion.

⁷ Next to the territory of Reuben, from the east side to the west, will be Judah — one portion.

⁸ Next to the territory of Judah, from the east side to the west, will be the portion you donate to the LORD, 8½ miles wide, and as long as one of the tribal portions from the east side to the west. The sanctuary will be in the middle of it.

⁹ The special portion you donate to the LORD will be 8½ miles long and 3½ miles wide.¹⁰ This holy donation will be set apart for the priests alone. It will be 8½ miles long on the northern side, 3½ miles wide on the western side, 3½ miles wide on the eastern side, and 8½ miles long on the southern side. The LORD’s sanctuary will be in the middle of it.¹¹ It is for the consecrated priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept my charge and did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray.¹² It will be a special donation for them out of the holy donation of the land, a most holy place adjacent to the territory of the Levites.

¹³ Next to the territory of the priests, the Levites will have an area 8½ miles long and 3½ miles wide. The total length will be 8½ miles and the width 3½ miles.¹⁴ They must not sell or exchange any of it, and they must not transfer this choice part of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.

¹⁵ The remaining area, 1½ miles wide and 8½ miles long, will be for common use by the city, for both residential and open space. The city will be in the middle of it.¹⁶ These are the city’s measurements:

1½ miles on the north side;

1½ miles on the south side;

1½ miles on the east side;

and 1½ miles on the west side.

¹⁷The city's open space will extend:

425 feet to the north,
425 feet to the south,
425 feet to the east,
and 425 feet to the west.

¹⁸"The remainder of the length alongside the holy donation will be $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles to the east and $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles to the west. It will run alongside the holy donation. Its produce will be food for the workers of the city. ¹⁹The city's workers from all the tribes of Israel will cultivate it. ²⁰The entire donation will be $8\frac{1}{3}$ miles by $8\frac{1}{3}$ miles; you are to set apart the holy donation along with the city property as a square area.

²¹"The remaining area on both sides of the holy donation and the city property will belong to the prince. He will own the land adjacent to the tribal portions, next to the $8\frac{1}{3}$ miles of the donation as far as the eastern border and next to the $8\frac{1}{3}$ miles of the donation as far as the western border. The holy donation and the sanctuary of the temple will be in the middle of it. ²²Except for the Levitical property and the city property in the middle of the area belonging to the prince, the area between the territory of Judah and that of Benjamin will belong to the prince.

²³As for the rest of the tribes:

From the east side to the west, will be Benjamin — one portion.

²⁴Next to the territory of Benjamin, from the east side to the west, will be Simeon — one portion.

²⁵Next to the territory of Simeon, from the east side to the west, will be Issachar — one portion.

²⁶Next to the territory of Issachar, from the east side to the west, will be Zebulun — one portion.

²⁷Next to the territory of Zebulun, from the east side to the west, will be Gad — one portion.

²⁸Next to the territory of Gad toward the south side, the border will run from Tamar to the Waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the Brook of Egypt, and out to the Mediterranean Sea. ²⁹This is the land you are to allot as an inheritance to Israel's tribes, and these will be their portions." This is the declaration of the Lord GOD.

³⁰"These are the exits of the city:

On the north side, which measures $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles, ³¹there will be three gates facing north, the gates of the city being named for the tribes of Israel: one, the gate of Reuben; one, the gate of Judah; and one, the gate of Levi.

³²On the east side, which is $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles, there will be three gates: one, the gate of Joseph; one, the gate of Benjamin; and one, the gate of Dan.

³³On the south side, which measures $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles, there will be three gates: one, the gate of Simeon; one, the gate of Issachar; and one, the gate of Zebulun.

³⁴On the west side, which is $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles, there will be three gates: one, the gate of Gad; one, the gate of Asher; and one, the gate of Naphtali.

³⁵The perimeter of the city will be six miles, and the name of the city from that day on will be, The LORD Is There."

DANIEL

1 In the third year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and laid siege to it. ²The Lord handed King Jehoiakim of Judah over to him, along with some of the vessels from the house of God. Nebuchadnezzar carried them to the land of Babylon, to the house of his god, and put the vessels in the treasury of his god.

⁸Daniel determined that he would not defile himself with the king's food or with the wine he drank. So he asked permission from the chief eunuch not to defile himself. ⁹God had granted Daniel kindness and compassion from the chief eunuch, ¹⁰yet he said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who assigned your food and drink. What if he sees your faces looking thinner than the other young men your age? You would endanger my life with the king."

¹¹So Daniel said to the guard whom the chief eunuch had assigned to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, ¹²"Please test your servants for ten days. Let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³Then examine our appearance and the appearance of the young men who are eating the king's food, and deal with your servants based on what you see." ¹⁴He agreed with them about this and tested them for ten days. ¹⁵At the end of ten days they looked better and healthier than all the young men who were eating the king's food. ¹⁶So the guard continued to remove their food and the wine they were to drink and gave them vegetables.

¹⁷God gave these four young men knowledge and understanding in every kind of literature and wisdom. Daniel also understood visions and dreams of every kind. ¹⁸At the end of the time that the king had said to present them, the chief eunuch presented them to Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹The king interviewed them, and among all of them, no one was found equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they began to attend the king. ²⁰In every matter of wisdom and understanding that the king consulted them about, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and mediums in his entire kingdom. ²¹Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

2 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams that troubled him, and sleep deserted him. ²So the king gave orders to summon the magicians, mediums, sorcerers, and Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. When they came and stood before the king, ³he said to them, "I have had a dream and am anxious to understand it."

⁴The Chaldeans spoke to the king (Aramaic begins here): "May the king live forever. Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."

⁵The king replied to the Chaldeans, "My word is final: If you don't tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will be torn limb from limb, and your houses will be made a garbage dump. ⁶But if you make the dream and its interpretation known to me, you'll receive gifts, a reward, and great honor from me. So make the dream and its interpretation known to me."

⁷They answered a second time, "May the king tell the dream to his servants, and we will make known the interpretation."

⁸The king replied, "I know for certain you are trying to gain some time, because you see that my word is final. ⁹If you don't tell me the dream, there is one decree for you. You have conspired to tell me something false or fraudulent until the situation changes. So tell me the dream and I will know you can give me its interpretation."

¹⁷Then Daniel went to his house and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah about the matter, ¹⁸urging them to ask the God of the heavens for mercy concerning this mystery, so Daniel and his friends would not be destroyed with the rest of Babylon's wise men. ¹⁹The mystery was then revealed to Daniel in a vision at night, and Daniel praised the God of the heavens ²⁰and declared:

May the name of God
be praised forever and ever,
for wisdom and power belong to him.

- ²¹ He changes the times and seasons;
he removes kings and establishes kings.
He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.
- ²² He reveals the deep and hidden things;
he knows what is in the darkness,
and light dwells with him.
- ²³ I offer thanks and praise to you,
God of my fathers,
because you have given me
wisdom and power.
And now you have let me know

what we asked of you,
for you have let us know
the king's mystery.

²⁴Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had assigned to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He came and said to him, "Don't destroy the wise men of Babylon! Bring me before the king, and I will give him the interpretation."

²⁵Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king and said to him, "I have found a man among the Judean exiles who can let the king know the interpretation."

²⁶The king said in reply to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to tell me the dream I had and its interpretation?"

²⁷Daniel answered the king: "No wise man, medium, magician, or diviner is able to make known to the king the mystery he asked about. ²⁸But there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and he has let King Nebuchadnezzar know what will happen in the last days. Your dream and the visions that came into your mind as you lay in bed were these: ²⁹Your Majesty, while you were in your bed, thoughts came to your mind about what will happen in the future. The revealer of mysteries has let you know what will happen. ³⁰As for me, this mystery has been revealed to me, not because I have more wisdom than anyone living, but in order that the interpretation might be made known to the king, and that you may understand the thoughts of your mind.

³¹Your Majesty, as you were watching, suddenly a colossal statue appeared. That statue, tall and dazzling, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was terrifying. ³²The head of the statue was pure gold, its chest and arms were silver, its stomach and thighs were bronze, ³³its legs were iron, and its feet were partly iron and partly fired clay. ³⁴As you were watching, a stone broke off without a hand touching it, struck the statue on its feet of iron and fired clay, and crushed them. ³⁵Then the iron, the fired clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were shattered and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors. The wind carried them away, and not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation. ³⁷Your Majesty, you are king of kings. The God of the heavens has given you sovereignty, power, strength, and glory. ³⁸Wherever people live — or wild animals, or birds of the sky — he has handed them over to you and made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

³⁹After you, there will arise another kingdom, inferior to yours, and then another, a third kingdom, of bronze, which will rule the whole earth. ⁴⁰A fourth kingdom will be as strong as iron; for iron crushes and shatters everything, and like iron that smashes, it will crush and smash all the others. ⁴¹You saw the feet and toes, partly of a potter's fired clay and partly of iron — it will be a divided kingdom, though some of the strength of iron will be in it. You saw the iron mixed with clay, ⁴²and that the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly fired clay — part of the kingdom will be strong, and part will be brittle. ⁴³You saw the iron mixed with clay — the peoples will mix with one another but will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with fired clay.

⁴⁴In the days of those kings, the God of the heavens will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, and this kingdom will not be left to another people. It will crush all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, but will itself endure forever. ⁴⁵You saw a stone break off from the mountain without a hand touching it, and it crushed the iron, bronze, fired clay, silver, and gold. The great God has told the king what will happen in the future. The dream is certain, and its interpretation reliable."

⁴⁶Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell facedown, worshiped Daniel, and gave orders to present an offering and incense to him. ⁴⁷The king said to Daniel, "Your God is indeed God of gods, Lord of kings, and a revealer of mysteries, since you were able to reveal this mystery." ⁴⁸Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many generous gifts. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹At Daniel's request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to manage the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained at the king's court.

3 King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue, ninety feet high and nine feet wide. He set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ² King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to assemble the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces to attend the dedication of the statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ³ So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces assembled for the dedication of the statue the king had set up. Then they stood before the statue Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁴ A herald loudly proclaimed, "People of every nation and language, you are commanded: ⁵ When you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, drum, and every kind of music, you are to fall facedown and worship the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. ⁶ But whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire."

⁷ Therefore, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and every kind of music, people of every nation and language fell down and worshiped the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁸ Some Chaldeans took this occasion to come forward and maliciously accuse the Jews. ⁹ They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "May the king live forever. ¹⁰ You as king have issued a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, drum, and every kind of music must fall down and worship the gold statue. ¹¹ Whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire. ¹² There are some Jews you have appointed to manage the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men have ignored you, the king; they do not serve your gods or worship the gold statue you have set up."

¹³ Then in a furious rage Nebuchadnezzar gave orders to bring in Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king. ¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar asked them, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you don't serve my gods or worship the gold statue I have set up? ¹⁵ Now if you're ready, when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, drum, and every kind of music, fall down and worship the statue I made. But if you don't worship it, you will immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire — and who is the god who can rescue you from my power?"

¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied to the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we don't need to give you an answer to this question. ¹⁷ If the God we serve exists, then he can rescue us from the furnace of blazing fire, and he can rescue us from the power of you, the king. ¹⁸ But even if he does not rescue us, we want you as king to know that we will not serve your gods or worship the gold statue you set up."

¹⁹Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He gave orders to heat the furnace seven times more than was customary, ²⁰and he commanded some of the best soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the furnace of blazing fire. ²¹So these men, in their trousers, robes, head coverings, and other clothes, were tied up and thrown into the furnace of blazing fire. ²²Since the king's command was so urgent and the furnace extremely hot, the raging flames killed those men who carried Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego up. ²³And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego fell, bound, into the furnace of blazing fire.

²⁴Then King Nebuchadnezzar jumped up in alarm. He said to his advisers, "Didn't we throw three men, bound, into the fire?"

"Yes, of course, Your Majesty," they replied to the king. ²⁵He exclaimed, "Look! I see four men, not tied, walking around in the fire unharmed; and the fourth looks like a son of the gods."

²⁶Nebuchadnezzar then approached the door of the furnace of blazing fire and called: "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God—come out!" So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire. ²⁷When the satraps, prefects, governors, and the king's advisers gathered around, they saw that the fire had no effect on the bodies of these men: not a hair of their heads was singed, their robes were unaffected, and there was no smell of fire on them. ²⁸Nebuchadnezzar exclaimed, "Praise to the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! He sent his angel and rescued his servants who trusted in him. They violated the king's command and risked their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. ²⁹Therefore I issue a decree that anyone of any people, nation, or language who says anything offensive against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be torn limb from limb and his house made a garbage dump. For there is no other god who is able to deliver like this." ³⁰Then the king rewarded Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

4 King Nebuchadnezzar,

To those of every people, nation, and language, who live on the whole earth:

May your prosperity increase. ² I am pleased to tell you about the miracles and wonders the Most High God has done for me.

³ How great are his miracles, and how mighty his wonders!
His kingdom is an eternal kingdom,
and his dominion is from generation
to generation.

⁴ I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace. ⁵ I had a dream, and it frightened me; while in my bed, the images and visions in my mind alarmed me. ⁶ So I issued a decree to bring all the wise men of Babylon to me in order that they might make the dream's interpretation known to me. ⁷ When the magicians, mediums, Chaldeans, and diviners came in, I told them the dream, but they could not make its interpretation known to me.

⁸ Finally Daniel, named Belteshazzar after the name of my god—and a spirit of the holy gods is in him—came before me. I told him the dream: ⁹ "Belteshazzar, head of the magicians, because I know that you have the spirit of the holy gods and that no mystery puzzles you, explain to me the visions of my dream that I saw, and its interpretation.

¹⁰ In the visions of my mind as I was lying in bed, I saw this: There was a tree in the middle of the earth, and it was very tall.

¹¹ The tree grew large and strong; its top reached to the sky, and it was visible to the ends of the earth.

¹² Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit was abundant, and on it was food for all.

Wild animals found shelter under it, the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and every creature was fed from it.

¹³ "As I was lying in my bed, I also saw in the visions of my mind a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven. ¹⁴ He called out loudly:

Cut down the tree and chop off its branches; strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it, and the birds from its branches.

¹⁵ But leave the stump with its roots in the ground and with a band of iron and bronze around it in the tender grass of the field. Let him be drenched with dew from the sky and share the plants of the earth with the animals.

¹⁶ Let his mind be changed from that of a human, and let him be given the mind of an animal for seven periods of time.

¹⁷ This word is by decree of the watchers, and the decision is by command from the holy ones.

This is so that the living will know that the Most High is ruler over human kingdoms.

He gives them to anyone he wants and sets the lowliest of people over them.

¹⁸ This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now, Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because none of the wise men of my kingdom can make the interpretation known to me. But you can, because you have a spirit of the holy gods."

Belteshazzar answered, "My lord, may the dream apply to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your enemies! ²⁰ The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, whose top reached to the sky and was visible to the whole earth, ²¹ and whose leaves were beautiful and its fruit abundant—and on it was food for all, under it the wild animals lived, and in its branches the birds of the sky lived—²² that tree is you, Your Majesty. For you have become great and strong: your greatness has grown and even reaches the sky, and your dominion extends to the ends of the earth.

²⁴ This is the interpretation, Your Majesty, and this is the decree of the Most High that has been issued against my lord the king:²⁵ You will be driven away from people to live with the wild animals. You will feed on grass like cattle and be drenched with dew from the sky for seven periods of time, until you acknowledge that the Most High is ruler over human kingdoms, and he gives them to anyone he wants.²⁶ As for the command to leave the tree's stump with its roots, your kingdom will be restored to you as soon as you acknowledge that Heaven rules.²⁷ Therefore, may my advice seem good to you my king. Separate yourself from your sins by doing what is right, and from your injustices by showing mercy to the needy. Perhaps there will be an extension of your prosperity."

²⁸ All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.²⁹ At the end of twelve months, as he was walking on the roof of the royal palace in Babylon,³⁰ the king exclaimed, "Is this not Babylon the Great that I have built to be a royal residence by my vast power and for my majestic glory?"

³¹ While the words were still in the king's mouth, a voice came from heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared that the kingdom has departed from you.³² You will be driven away from people to live with the wild animals, and you will feed on grass like cattle for seven periods of time, until you acknowledge that the Most High is ruler over human kingdoms, and he gives them to anyone he wants."

³³ At that moment the message against Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven away from people. He ate grass like cattle, and his body was drenched with dew from the sky, until his hair grew like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

³⁴ But at the end of those days, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven, and my sanity returned to me. Then I praised the Most High and honored and glorified him who lives forever:

For his dominion is an everlasting dominion,
and his kingdom is from generation
to generation.

³⁵ All the inhabitants of the earth are counted
as nothing,
and he does what he wants with the army
of heaven
and the inhabitants of the earth.
There is no one who can block his hand or say to him, "What have you done?"

³⁶ At that time my sanity returned to me, and my majesty and splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and my nobles sought me out, I was reestablished over my kingdom, and even more greatness came to me.³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt, and glorify the King of the heavens, because all his works are true and his ways are just. He is able to humble those who walk in pride.

5 King Belshazzar held a great feast for a thousand of his nobles and drank wine in their presence.² Under the influence of the wine, Belshazzar gave orders to bring in the gold and silver vessels that his predecessor Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, wives, and concubines could drink from them.³ So they brought in the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, wives, and concubines drank from them.⁴ They drank the wine and praised their gods made of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

⁵ At that moment the fingers of a man's hand appeared and began writing on the plaster of the king's palace wall next to the lampstand. As the king watched the hand that was writing,⁶ his face turned pale, and his thoughts so terrified him that he soiled himself and his knees knocked together.⁷ The king shouted to bring in the mediums, Chaldeans, and diviners. He said to these wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this inscription and gives me its interpretation will be clothed in purple, have a gold chain around his neck, and have the third highest position in the kingdom."

⁸ So all the king's wise men came in, but none could read the inscription or make its interpretation known to him.⁹ Then King Belshazzar became even more terrified, his face turned pale, and his nobles were bewildered.

¹⁰ Because of the outcry of the king and his nobles, the queen came to the banquet hall. "May the king live forever," she said. "Don't let your thoughts terrify you or your face be pale.¹¹ There is a man in your kingdom who has a spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your predecessor he was found to have insight, intelligence, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. Your predecessor, King Nebuchadnezzar, appointed him chief of the magicians, mediums, Chaldeans, and diviners. Your own predecessor, the king,¹² did this because Daniel, the one the king named Belschazzar, was found to have an extraordinary spirit, knowledge and intelligence, and the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve problems. Therefore, summon Daniel, and he will give the interpretation."

¹³ Then Daniel was brought before the king. The king said to him, "Are you Daniel, one of the Judean exiles that my predecessor the king brought from Judah?¹⁴ I've heard that you have a spirit of the gods in you, and that insight, intelligence, and extraordinary wisdom are found in you.

¹⁵ Now the wise men and mediums were brought before me to read this inscription and make its interpretation known to me, but they could not give its interpretation.¹⁶ However, I have heard about you that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Therefore, if you can read this inscription and give me its interpretation, you will be clothed in purple, have a gold chain around your neck, and have the third highest position in the kingdom."

¹⁷ Then Daniel answered the king, "You may keep your gifts and give your rewards to someone else; however, I will read the inscription for the king and make the interpretation known to him.¹⁸ Your Majesty, the Most High God gave sovereignty, greatness, glory, and majesty to your predecessor Nebuchadnezzar.¹⁹ Because of the greatness he gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages were terrified and fearful of him. He killed anyone he wanted and kept alive anyone he wanted; he exalted anyone he wanted and humbled anyone he wanted.²⁰ But when his heart was exalted and his spirit became arrogant, he was deposed from his royal throne and his glory was taken from him.²¹ He was driven away from people, his mind was like an animal's, he lived with the wild donkeys, he was fed grass like cattle, and his body was drenched with dew from the sky until he acknowledged that the Most High God is ruler over human kingdoms and sets anyone he wants over them.

²² "But your successor, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this.²³ Instead, you have exalted yourself against the Lord of the heavens. The vessels from his house were brought to you, and as you and your nobles, wives, and concubines drank wine from them, you praised the gods made of silver and gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or understand. But you have not glorified the God who holds your life-breath in his hand and who controls the whole course of your life.²⁴ Therefore, he sent the hand, and this writing was inscribed.

²⁵“This is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, and PARSIN. ²⁶This is the interpretation of the message:

‘Mene’ means that God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end.

²⁷‘Tekel’ means that you have been weighed on the balance and found deficient.

²⁸‘Peres’ means that your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

²⁹Then Belshazzar gave an order, and they clothed Daniel in purple, placed a gold chain around his neck, and issued a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰That very night Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans was killed, ³¹and Darius the Mede received the kingdom at the age of sixty-two.

6 Darius decided to appoint 120 satraps over the kingdom, stationed throughout the realm, ²and over them three administrators, including Daniel. These satraps would be accountable to them so that the king would not be defrauded. ³Daniel distinguished himself above the administrators and satraps because he had an extraordinary spirit, so the king planned to set him over the whole realm. ⁴The administrators and satraps, therefore, kept trying to find a charge against Daniel regarding the kingdom. But they could find no charge or corruption, for he was trustworthy, and no negligence or corruption was found in him. ⁵Then these men said, “We will never find any charge against this Daniel unless we find something against him concerning the law of his God.”

⁶So the administrators and satraps went together to the king and said to him, “May King Darius live forever. ⁷All the administrators of the kingdom, the prefects, satraps, advisers, and governors have agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce an edict that for thirty days, anyone who petitions any god or man except you, the king, will be thrown into the lions’ den. ⁸Therefore, Your Majesty, establish the edict and sign the document so that, as a law of the Medes and Persians, it is irrevocable and cannot be changed.” ⁹So King Darius signed the written edict.

¹⁰When Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went into his house. The windows in its upstairs room opened toward Jerusalem, and three times a day he got down on his knees, prayed, and gave thanks to his God, just as he had done before. ¹¹Then these men went as a group and found Daniel petitioning and imploring his God. ¹²So they approached the king and asked about his edict: “Didn’t you sign an edict that for thirty days any person who petitions any god or man except you, the king, will be thrown into the lions’ den?”

The king answered, “As a law of the Medes and Persians, the order stands and is irrevocable.”

¹³Then they replied to the king, “Daniel, one of the Judean exiles, has ignored you, the king, and the edict you signed, for he prays three times a day.” ¹⁴As soon as the king heard this, he was very displeased; he set his mind on rescuing Daniel and made every effort until sundown to deliver him.

¹⁵Then these men went together to the king and said to him, “You know, Your Majesty, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no edict or ordinance the king establishes can be changed.”

¹⁶So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions’ den. The king said to Daniel,

“May your God, whom you continually serve, rescue you!” ¹⁷A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den. The king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles, so that nothing in regard to Daniel could be changed. ¹⁸Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. No diversions were brought to him, and he could not sleep.

¹⁹At the first light of dawn the king got up and hurried to the lions’ den. ²⁰When he reached the den, he cried out in anguish to Daniel. “Daniel, servant of the living God,” the king said, “has your God, whom you continually serve, been able to rescue you from the lions?”

²¹Then Daniel spoke to the king: “May the king live forever. ²²My God sent his angel and shut the lions’ mouths; and they haven’t harmed me, for I was found innocent before him. And also before you, Your Majesty, I have not done harm.”

²³The king was overjoyed and gave orders to take Daniel out of the den. When Daniel was brought up from the den, he was found to be unharmed, for he trusted in his God. ²⁴The king then gave the command, and those men who had maliciously accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the lions’ den — they, their children, and their wives. They had not reached the bottom of the den before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

²⁵Then King Darius wrote to those of every people, nation, and language who live on the whole earth: “May your prosperity abound. ²⁶I issue a decree that in all my royal dominion, people must tremble in fear before the God of Daniel:

For he is the living God,
and he endures forever;
his kingdom will never be destroyed,
and his dominion has no end.

²⁷ He rescues and delivers;
he performs signs and wonders
in the heavens and on the earth,
for he has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.”

²⁸So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream with visions in his mind as he was lying in his bed. He wrote down the dream, and here is the summary of his account. ²Daniel said, “In my vision at night I was watching, and suddenly the four winds of heaven stirred up the great sea. ³Four huge beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other.

⁴“The first was like a lion but had eagle’s wings. I continued watching until its wings were torn off. It was lifted up from the ground, set on its feet like a man, and given a human mind.

⁵“Suddenly, another beast appeared, a second one, that looked like a bear. It was raised up on one side, with three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, ‘Get up! Gorge yourself on flesh.’

⁶“After this, while I was watching, suddenly another beast appeared. It was like a leopard with four wings of a bird on its back. It had four heads, and it was given dominion.

⁷“After this, while I was watching in the night visions, suddenly a fourth beast appeared, frightening and dreadful, and incredibly strong, with large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed, and it trampled with its feet whatever was left. It was different from all the beasts before it, and it had ten horns.

⁸“While I was considering the horns, suddenly another horn, a little one, came up among them, and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. And suddenly in this horn there were eyes like the eyes of a human and a mouth that was speaking arrogantly.

⁹“As I kept watching,
thrones were set in place,
and the Ancient of Days took his seat.
His clothing was white like snow,
and the hair of his head like whitest wool.
His throne was flaming fire;
its wheels were blazing fire.

¹⁰ A river of fire was flowing,
coming out from his presence.
Thousands upon thousands served him;
ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him.
The court was convened,
and the books were opened.

¹¹“I watched, then, because of the sound of the arrogant words the horn was speaking. As I continued watching, the beast was killed and its body destroyed and given over to the burning fire. ¹²As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was removed, but an extension of life was granted to them for a certain period of time. ¹³I continued watching in the night visions, and suddenly one like a son of man

was coming with the clouds of heaven.
He approached the Ancient of Days
and was escorted before him.

¹⁴ He was given dominion,
and glory, and a kingdom;
so that those of every people,
nation, and language
should serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that will not pass away,
and his kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.

¹⁵“As for me, Daniel, my spirit was deeply distressed within me, and the visions in my mind terrified me. ¹⁶I approached one of those who were standing by and asked him to clarify all this. So he let me know the interpretation of these things: ¹⁷“These huge beasts, four in number, are four kings who will rise from the earth. ¹⁸But the holy ones of the Most High will receive the kingdom and possess it forever, yes, forever and ever.”

¹⁹“Then I wanted to be clear about the fourth beast, the one different from all the others, extremely terrifying, with iron teeth and bronze claws, devouring, crushing, and trampling with its feet whatever was left. ²⁰I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and about the other horn that came up, before which three fell—the horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke arrogantly, and that looked bigger than the others. ²¹As I was watching, this horn waged war against the holy ones and was prevailing over them ²²until the Ancient of Days arrived and a judgment was given in favor of the holy ones of the Most High, for the time had come, and the holy ones took possession of the kingdom.

²³“This is what he said: ‘The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on the earth, different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, trample it down, and crush it. ²⁴The ten horns are ten kings who will rise from this kingdom. Another king, different from the previous ones, will rise after them and subdue three kings. ²⁵He will speak words against the Most High and oppress the holy ones of the Most High. He will intend to change religious festivals and laws, and the holy ones will be handed over to him for a time, times, and half a time. ²⁶But the court will convene, and his dominion will be taken away, to be completely destroyed forever. ²⁷The kingdom, dominion, and greatness of the kingdoms under all of heaven will be given to the people, the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will serve and obey him.’

²⁸“This is the end of the account. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts terrified me greatly, and my face turned pale, but I kept the matter to myself.”

8 In the third year of King Belshazzar’s reign, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had appeared to me earlier. ²I saw the vision, and as I watched, I was in the fortress city of Susa, in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal. ³I looked up, and there was a ram standing beside the canal. He had two horns. The two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up last. ⁴I saw the ram charging to the west, the north, and the south. No animal could stand against him, and there was no rescue from his power. He did whatever he wanted and became great.

⁵As I was observing, a male goat appeared, coming from the west across the surface of the entire earth without touching the ground. The goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes. ⁶He came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and rushed at him with savage fury. ⁷I saw him approaching the ram, and infuriated with him, he struck the ram, breaking his two horns, and the ram was not strong enough to stand against him. The goat threw him to the ground and trampled him, and there was no one to rescue the ram from his power. ⁸Then the male goat acted even more arrogantly, but when he became powerful, the large horn was broken. Four conspicuous horns came up in its place, pointing toward the four winds of heaven.

¹³Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to the speaker, “How long will the events of this vision last—the regular sacrifice, the rebellion that makes desolate, and the giving over of the sanctuary and of the army to be trampled?”

¹⁴He said to me, “For 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be restored.”

¹⁵While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, there stood before me someone who appeared to be a man. ¹⁶I heard a human voice calling from the middle of the Ulai: “Gabriel, explain the vision to this man.”

¹⁷So he approached where I was standing; when he came near, I was terrified and fell facedown. “Son of man,” he said to me, “understand that the vision refers to the time of the end.”¹⁸ While he was speaking to me, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face to the ground. Then he touched me, made me stand up,¹⁹ and said, “I am here to tell you what will happen at the conclusion of the time of wrath, because it refers to the appointed time of the end.”²⁰ The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia.²¹ The shaggy goat represents the king of Greece, and the large horn between his eyes represents the first king.²² The four horns that took the place of the broken horn represent four kingdoms. They will rise from that nation, but without its power.

²³ Near the end of their kingdoms, when the rebels have reached the full measure of their sin,
a ruthless king, skilled in intrigue,
will come to the throne.

²⁴ His power will be great,
but it will not be his own.
He will cause outrageous destruction and succeed in whatever he does.
He will destroy the powerful along with the holy people.

²⁵ He will cause deceit to prosper
through his cunning and by his influence,
and in his own mind he will exalt himself.
He will destroy many in a time of peace;
he will even stand against the Prince of princes.
Yet he will be broken — not by human hands.

²⁶ The vision of the evenings and the mornings
that has been told is true.
Now you are to seal up the vision
because it refers to many days in the future.”

²⁷ I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for days. Then I got up and went about the king's business. I was greatly disturbed by the vision and could not understand it.

9 In the first year of Darius, the son of Anasuerus, a Mede by birth, who was made king over the Chaldean kingdom — ² in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood from the books according to the word of the LORD to the prophet Jeremiah that the number of years for the desolation of Jerusalem would be seventy.³ So I turned my attention to the Lord God to seek him by prayer and petitions, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

Ah, Lord — the great and awe-inspiring God who keeps his gracious covenant with those who love him and keep his commands — ⁵ we have sinned, done wrong, acted wickedly, rebelled, and turned away from your commands and ordinances.⁶ We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, leaders, fathers, and all the people of the land.

⁷ Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but this day public shame belongs to us: the men of Judah, the residents of Jerusalem, and all Israel — those who are near and those who are far, in all the countries where you have banished them because of the disloyalty they have shown toward you.⁸ LORD, public shame belongs to us, our kings, our leaders, and our fathers, because we have sinned against you.⁹ Compassion and forgiveness belong to the Lord our God, though we have rebelled against him¹⁰ and have not obeyed the LORD our God by following his instructions that he set before us through his servants the prophets.

¹¹ All Israel has broken your law and turned away, refusing to obey you. The promised curse written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, has been poured out on us because we have sinned against him.¹² He has carried out his words that he spoke against us and against our rulers by bringing on us a disaster that is so great that nothing like what has been done to Jerusalem has ever been done under all of heaven.¹³ Just as it is written in the law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us, yet we have not sought the favor of the LORD our God by turning from our iniquities and paying attention to your truth.¹⁴ So the LORD kept the disaster in mind and brought it on us, for the LORD our God is righteous in all he has done. But we have not obeyed him.

¹⁵ Now, Lord our God, who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a strong hand and made your name renowned as it is this day, we have sinned, we have acted wickedly.¹⁶ Lord, in keeping with all your righteous acts, may your anger and wrath turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; for because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become an object of ridicule to all those around us.¹⁷ Therefore, our God, hear the prayer and the petitions of your servant. Make your face shine on your desolate sanctuary for the Lord's sake.¹⁸ Listen closely, my God, and hear. Open your eyes and see our desolations and the city that bears your name. For we are not presenting our petitions before you based on our righteous acts, but based on your abundant compassion.¹⁹ Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen and act! My God, for your own sake, do not delay, because your city and your people bear your name.

²⁰ While I was speaking, praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my petition before the LORD my God concerning the holy mountain of my God — ²¹ while I was praying, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the first vision, reached me in my extreme weariness, about the time of the evening offering.²² He gave me this explanation: “Daniel, I've come now to give you understanding.²³ At the beginning of your petitions an answer went out, and I have come to give it, for you are treasured by God. So consider the message and understand the vision:

²⁴ Seventy weeks are decreed about your people and your holy city —
to bring the rebellion to an end,
to put a stop to sin,
to atone for iniquity,
to bring in everlasting righteousness,
to seal up vision and prophecy,
and to anoint the most holy place.

²⁵ Know and understand this:
From the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem
until an Anointed One, the ruler,
will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks.
It will be rebuilt with a plaza and a moat,
but in difficult times.

²⁶ After those sixty-two weeks
the Anointed One will be cut off and will have nothing.
The people of the coming ruler

will destroy the city and the sanctuary.

The end will come with a flood,
and until the end there will be war;
desolations are decreed.

²⁷ He will make a firm covenant
with many for one week,
but in the middle of the week
he will put a stop to sacrifice and offering.
And the abomination of desolation will be on a wing of the temple
until the decreed destruction is poured out on the desolator.”

10 In the third year of King Cyrus of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar. The message was true and was about a great conflict. He understood the message and had understanding of the vision.

² In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three full weeks. ³ I didn't eat any rich food, no meat or wine entered my mouth, and I didn't put any oil on my body until the three weeks were over. ⁴ On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris, ⁵ I looked up, and there was a man dressed in linen, with a belt of gold from Uphaz around his waist. ⁶ His body was like beryl, his face like the brilliance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and feet like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a multitude.

¹⁰ Suddenly, a hand touched me and set me shaking on my hands and knees. ¹¹ He said to me, “Daniel, you are a man treasured by God. Understand the words that I'm saying to you. Stand on your feet, for I have now been sent to you.” After he said this to me, I stood trembling.

¹² “Don't be afraid, Daniel,” he said to me, “for from the first day that you purposed to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your prayers were heard. I have come because of your prayers. ¹³ But the prince of the kingdom of Persia opposed me for twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me after I had been left there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴ Now I have come to help you understand what will happen to your people in the last days, for the vision refers to those days.”

¹⁵ While he was saying these words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and was speechless. ¹⁶ Suddenly one with human likeness touched my lips. I opened my mouth and said to the one standing in front of me, “My lord, because of the vision, anguish overwhelms me and I am powerless. ¹⁷ How can someone like me, your servant, speak with someone like you, my lord? Now I have no strength, and there is no breath in me.”

¹⁸ Then the one with a human appearance touched me again and strengthened me. ¹⁹ He said, “Don't be afraid, you who are treasured by God. Peace to you; be very strong!”

As he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, “Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.”

²⁰ He said, “Do you know why I've come to you? I must return at once to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I leave, the prince of Greece will come. ²¹ However, I will tell you what is recorded in the book of truth. (No one has the courage to support me against those princes except Michael, your prince. ¹ In the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to strengthen and protect him.) ² Now I will tell you the truth.

“Three more kings will arise in Persia, and the fourth will be far richer than the others. By the power he gains through his riches, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. ³ Then a warrior king will arise; he will rule a vast realm and do whatever he wants. ⁴ But as soon as he is established, his kingdom will be broken up and divided to the four winds of heaven, but not to his descendants; it will not be the same kingdom that he ruled, because his kingdom will be uprooted and will go to others besides them.

⁵ “The king of the South will grow powerful, but one of his commanders will grow more powerful and will rule a kingdom greater than his. ⁶ After some years they will form an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to seal the agreement. She will not retain power, and his strength will not endure. She will be given up, together with her entourage, her father, and the one who supported her during those times. ⁷ In the place of the king of the South, one from her family will rise up, come against the army, and enter the fortress of the king of the North. He will take action against them and triumph. ⁸ He will take even their gods captive to Egypt, with their metal images and their precious articles of silver and gold. For some years he will stay away from the king of the North, ⁹ who will enter the kingdom of the king of the South and then return to his own land.

¹⁰ “His sons will mobilize for war and assemble a large number of armed forces. They will advance, sweeping through like a flood, and will again wage war as far as his fortress. ¹¹ Infuriated, the king of the South will march out to fight with the king of the North, who will raise a large army, but they will be handed over to his enemy. ¹² When the army is carried off, he will become arrogant and cause tens of thousands to fall, but he will not triumph. ¹³ The king of the North will again raise a multitude larger than the first. After some years he will advance with a great army and many supplies.

¹⁴ “In those times many will rise up against the king of the South. Violent ones among your own people will assert themselves to fulfill a vision, but they will fail. ¹⁵ Then the king of the North will come, build up a siege ramp, and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the South will not stand; even their select troops will not be able to resist. ¹⁶ The king of the North who comes against him will do whatever he wants, and no one can oppose him. He will establish himself in the beautiful land with total destruction in his hand. ¹⁷ He will resolve to come with the force of his whole kingdom and will reach an agreement with him. He will give him a daughter in marriage to destroy it, but she will not stand with him or support him. ¹⁸ Then he will turn his attention to the coasts and islands and capture many. But a commander will put an end to his taunting; instead, he will turn his taunts against him. ¹⁹ He will turn his attention back to the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble, fall, and be no more.

²⁰ “In his place one will arise who will send out a tax collector for the glory of the kingdom; but within a few days he will be broken, though not in anger or in battle.

forces will be swept away before him; they will be broken, as well as the covenant prince.²³ After an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully. He will rise to power with a small nation.²⁴ During a time of peace, he will come into the richest parts of the province and do what his fathers and predecessors never did. He will lavish plunder, loot, and wealth on his followers, and he will make plans against fortified cities, but only for a time.

²⁵With a large army he will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South. The king of the South will prepare for battle with an extremely large and powerful army, but he will not succeed, because plots will be made against him.²⁶ Those who eat his provisions will destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall slain.

²⁹At the appointed time he will come again to the South, but this time will not be like the first.³⁰ Ships of Kittim will come against him, and being intimidated, he will withdraw. Then he will rage against the holy covenant and take action. On his return, he will favor those who abandon the holy covenant.³¹ His forces will rise up and desecrate the temple fortress. They will abolish the regular sacrifice and set up the abomination of desolation.³² With flattery he will corrupt those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will be strong and take action.³³ Those who have insight among the people will give understanding to many, yet they will fall by the sword and flame, and be captured and plundered for a time.³⁴ When they fall, they will be helped by some, but many others will join them insincerely.³⁵ Some of those who have insight will fall so that they may be refined, purified, and cleansed until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

³⁶Then the king will do whatever he wants. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god, and he will say outrageous things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, because what has been decreed will be accomplished.³⁷ He will not show regard for the gods of his fathers, the god desired by women, or for any other god, because he will magnify himself above all.³⁸ Instead, he will honor a god of fortresses — a god his fathers did not know — with gold, silver, precious stones, and riches.³⁹ He will deal with the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. He will greatly honor those who acknowledge him, making them rulers over many and distributing land as a reward.

⁴⁰At the time of the end, the king of the South will engage him in battle, but the king of the North will storm against him with chariots, horsemen, and many ships. He will invade countries and sweep through them like a flood.

⁴¹He will also invade the beautiful land, and many will fall. But these will escape from his power: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people of the Ammonites.⁴² He will extend his power against the countries, and not even the land of Egypt will escape.⁴³ He will get control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver and over all the riches of Egypt. The Libyans and Cushites will also be in submission.⁴⁴ But reports from the east and the north will terrify him, and he will go out with great fury to annihilate and completely destroy many.⁴⁵ He will pitch his royal tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain, but he will meet his end with no one to help him.

12 At that time Michael, the great prince who stands watch over your people, will rise up. There will be a time of distress such as never has occurred since nations came into being until that time. But at that time all your people who are found written in the book will escape.

² Many who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to eternal life, and some to disgrace and eternal contempt.

³ Those who have insight will shine like the bright expanse of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.

⁴But you, Daniel, keep these words secret and seal the book until the time of the end. Many will roam about, and knowledge will increase."

⁵Then I, Daniel, looked, and two others were standing there, one on this bank of the river and one on the other.

⁸I heard but did not understand. So I asked, "My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?"

⁹He said, "Go on your way, Daniel, for the words are secret and sealed until the time of the end.¹⁰ Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly; none of the wicked will understand, but those who have insight will understand.¹¹ From the time the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days.¹² Happy is the one who waits for and reaches 1,335 days.¹³ But as for you, go on your way to the end; you will rest, and then you will stand to receive your allotted inheritance at the end of the days."

HOSEA

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and of Jeroboam son of Jehoash, king of Israel.

²When the LORD first spoke to Hosea, he said this to him:
Go and marry a woman of promiscuity,
and have children of promiscuity,
for the land is committing blatant acts of promiscuity
by abandoning the LORD.

³So he went and married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. ⁴Then the LORD said to him:

Name him Jezreel, for in a little while I will bring the bloodshed of Jezreel on the house of Jehu
and put an end to the kingdom of the house
of Israel.

⁵ On that day I will break the bow of Israel
in the Valley of Jezreel.

⁶She conceived again and gave birth to a daughter, and the LORD said to him:

Name her Lo-ruhamah,
for I will no longer have compassion
on the house of Israel.
I will certainly take them away.

⁷ But I will have compassion on the house of Judah,
and I will deliver them by the LORD their God.
I will not deliver them by bow, sword, or war,
or by horses and cavalry.

⁸After Gomer had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and gave birth to a son. ⁹Then the LORD said:

Name him Lo-ammi,
for you are not my people,
and I will not be your God.
¹⁰ Yet the number of the Israelites will be like the sand of the sea,
which cannot be measured or counted.
And in the place where they were told:
You are not my people,
they will be called: Sons of the living God.

¹¹ And the Judeans and the Israelites will be gathered together.
They will appoint for themselves a single ruler
and go up from the land.
For the day of Jezreel will be great.

2 Call your brothers: My People and your sisters: Compassion.

² Rebuke your mother; rebuke her.
For she is not my wife and I am not her husband.
Let her remove the promiscuous look from her face and her adultery from between her breasts.

³ Otherwise, I will strip her naked and expose her as she was on the day of her birth.
I will make her like a desert
and like a parched land,
and I will let her die of thirst.

⁴ I will have no compassion on her children because they are the children of promiscuity.

⁵ Yes, their mother is promiscuous;

she conceived them and acted shamefully.
For she thought, "I will follow my lovers,
the men who give me my food and water,
my wool and flax, my oil and drink."

⁶ Therefore, this is what I will do:
I will block her way with thorns;
I will enclose her with a wall,
so that she cannot find her paths.

⁷ She will pursue her lovers but not catch them;
she will look for them but not find them.
Then she will think,
"I will go back to my former husband,
for then it was better for me than now."

⁸ She does not recognize that it is I who gave her the grain,
the new wine, and the fresh oil.
I lavished silver and gold on her,
which they used for Baal.

⁹ Therefore, I will take back my grain in its time
and my new wine in its season;
I will take away my wool and linen,
which were to cover her nakedness.

¹⁰ Now I will expose her shame
in the sight of her lovers,
and no one will rescue her from my power.

¹¹ I will put an end to all her celebrations:
her feasts, New Moons, and Sabbaths —
all her festivals.

¹² I will devastate her vines and fig trees.
She thinks that these are her wages
that her lovers have given her.
I will turn them into a thicket,
and the wild animals will eat them.

¹³ And I will punish her for the days of the Baals,
to which she burned incense.
She put on her rings and her jewelry
and followed her lovers,
but she forgot me.

This is the LORD's declaration.

¹⁴ Therefore, I am going to persuade her,
lead her to the wilderness,
and speak tenderly to her.

¹⁵ There I will give her vineyards back to her and make the Valley of Achor
into a gateway of hope.
There she will respond as she did in the days of her youth,
as in the day she came out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁶ In that day —
this is the LORD's declaration —
you will call me, "My husband,"
and no longer call me, "My Baal."

¹⁷ For I will remove the names of the Baals
from her mouth;
they will no longer be remembered
by their names.

¹⁸ On that day I will make a covenant for them with the wild animals, the birds of the sky,
and the creatures that crawl on the ground.
I will shatter bow, sword,

and weapons of war in the land
and will enable the people to rest securely.

19 I will take you to be my wife forever.
I will take you to be my wife in righteousness,
justice, love, and compassion.

20 I will take you to be my wife in faithfulness,
and you will know the LORD.

21 On that day I will respond —
this is the LORD's declaration.
I will respond to the sky,
and it will respond to the earth.

22 The earth will respond to the grain,
the new wine, and the fresh oil,
and they will respond to Jezreel.

23 I will sow her in the land for myself,
and I will have compassion

on Lo-ruhamah;

I will say to Lo-ammi:

You are my people,

and he will say, "You are my God."

3 Then the LORD said to me, "Go again; show love to a woman who is loved by another man and is an adulteress, just as the LORD loves the Israelites though they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes."

² So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and five bushels of barley. ³ I said to her, "You are to live with me many days. You must not be promiscuous or belong to any man, and I will act the same way toward you."

⁴ For the Israelites must live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, and without ephod or household idols. ⁵ Afterward, the people of Israel will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They will come with awe to the LORD and to his goodness in the last days.

4 Hear the word of the LORD, people of Israel,
for the LORD has a case against the inhabitants of the land:
There is no truth, no faithful love,
and no knowledge of God in the land!

2 Cursing, lying, murder, stealing,
and adultery are rampant;
one act of bloodshed follows another.

3 For this reason the land mourns,
and everyone who lives in it languishes,
along with the wild animals and the birds of the sky;
even the fish of the sea disappear.

4 But let no one dispute; let no one argue,
for my case is against you priests.

5 You will stumble by day;
the prophet will also stumble with you by night.
And I will destroy your mother.

6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I will reject you from serving as my priest.
Since you have forgotten the law of your God,
I will also forget your sons.

7 The more they multiplied,
the more they sinned against me.
I will change their honor into disgrace.

8 They feed on the sin of my people;
they have an appetite for their iniquity.

9 The same judgment will happen to both people and priests.
I will punish them for their ways
and repay them for their deeds.

10 They will eat but not be satisfied;
they will be promiscuous but not multiply.
For they have abandoned their devotion to the LORD.

11 Promiscuity, wine, and new wine
take away one's understanding.

12 My people consult their wooden idols,
and their divining rods inform them.

For a spirit of promiscuity leads them astray;
they act promiscuously
in disobedience to their God.

13 They sacrifice on the mountaintops,
and they burn offerings on the hills,
and under oaks, poplars, and terebinths,
because their shade is pleasant.
And so your daughters act promiscuously
and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters
when they act promiscuously or your daughters-in-law
when they commit adultery,
for the men themselves go off with prostitutes
and make sacrifices with cult prostitutes.
People without discernment are doomed.

15 Israel, if you act promiscuously,
don't let Judah become guilty!
Do not go to Gilgal
or make a pilgrimage to Beth-aven,
and do not swear an oath: As the LORD lives!

16 For Israel is as obstinate as a stubborn cow.
Can the LORD now shepherd them
like a lamb in an open meadow?

17 Ephraim is attached to idols;
leave him alone!

18 When their drinking is over,
they turn to promiscuity.
Israel's leaders fervently love disgrace.

19 A wind with its wings will carry them off,
and they will be ashamed of their sacrifices.

5 Hear this, priests!
Pay attention, house of Israel!
Listen, royal house!

For the judgment applies to you because you have been a snare at Mizpah
and a net spread out on Tabor.

2 Rebels are deeply involved in slaughter;
I will be a punishment for all of them.

3 I know Ephraim,
and Israel is not hidden from me.
For now, Ephraim,
you have acted promiscuously;
Israel is defiled.

4 Their actions do not allow them
to return to their God,
for a spirit of promiscuity is among them,
and they do not know the LORD.

5 Israel's arrogance testifies against them.
Both Israel and Ephraim stumble
because of their iniquity;
even Judah will stumble with them.

6 They go with their flocks and herds to seek the LORD
but do not find him;
he has withdrawn from them.

7 They betrayed the LORD;

indeed, they gave birth to illegitimate children.
Now the New Moon will devour them along with their fields.

- 8 Blow the horn in Gibeah,
the trumpet in Ramah;
raise the war cry in Beth-aven:
Look behind you, Benjamin!
9 Ephraim will become a desolation
on the day of punishment;
I announce what is certain
among the tribes of Israel.
10 The princes of Judah are like those who move boundary markers;
I will pour out my fury on them like water.
11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment,
for he is determined to follow what is worthless.
12 So I am like rot to Ephraim and like decay to the house of Judah.
13 When Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah his wound, Ephraim went to Assyria
and sent a delegation to the great king.
But he cannot cure you or heal your wound.
14 For I am like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
Yes, I will tear them to pieces and depart.
I will carry them off,
and no one can rescue them.
15 I will depart and return to my place until they recognize their guilt and seek my face;
they will search for me in their distress.
Come, let us return to the LORD.

6

- For he has torn us,
and he will heal us;
he has wounded us,
and he will bind up our wounds.
2 He will revive us after two days,
and on the third day he will raise us up
so we can live in his presence.
3 Let us strive to know the LORD.
His appearance is as sure as the dawn.
He will come to us like the rain,
like the spring showers that water the land.
4 What am I going to do with you, Ephraim?
What am I going to do with you, Judah?
Your love is like the morning mist
and like the early dew that vanishes.
5 This is why I have used the prophets to cut them down;
I have killed them with the words from my mouth.
My judgment strikes like lightning.
6 For I desire faithful love and not sacrifice,
the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.
7 But they, like Adam, have violated the covenant;
there they have betrayed me.
8 Gilead is a city of evildoers,
tracked with bloody footprints.
9 Like raiders who wait in ambush for someone,
a band of priests murders on the road to Shechem.
They commit atrocities.
10 I have seen something horrible in the house
of Israel:
Ephraim's promiscuity is there; Israel is defiled.
11 A harvest is also appointed for you, Judah.
When I return my people from captivity,

7

- when I heal Israel,
the iniquity of Ephraim and the crimes of Samaria will be exposed.
For they practice fraud;
a thief breaks in;
a raiding party pillages outside.
2 But they never consider that I remember all their evil.
Now their actions are all around them;
they are right in front of my face.
3 They please the king with their evil,
the princes with their lies.
4 All of them commit adultery;
they are like an oven heated by a baker who stops stirring the fire from the kneading of the dough
until it is leavened.
5 On the day of our king,
the princes are sick with the heat of wine —
there is a conspiracy with traitors.
6 For they — their hearts like an oven —
draw him into their oven.
Their anger smolders all night;
in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.
7 All of them are as hot as an oven,
and they consume their rulers.
All their kings fall;
not one of them calls on me.
8 Ephraim has allowed himself to get mixed up with the nations.
Ephraim is unturned bread baked on a griddle.
9 Foreigners consume his strength,
but he does not notice.
Even his hair is streaked with gray,
but he does not notice.
10 Israel's arrogance testifies against them,
yet they do not return to the LORD their God,
and for all this, they do not seek him.
11 So Ephraim has become like a silly, senseless dove;
they call to Egypt, and they go to Assyria.
12 As they are going, I will spread my net over them;
I will bring them down like birds of the sky.
I will discipline them in accordance with the news that reaches their assembly.
13 Woe to them, for they fled from me;
destruction to them, for they rebelled against me!
Though I want to redeem them,
they speak lies against me.
14 They do not cry to me from their hearts;
rather, they wail on their beds.
They slash themselves for grain and new wine;
they turn away from me.
15 I trained and strengthened their arms,
but they plot evil against me.
16 They turn, but not to what is above;
they are like a faulty bow.
Their leaders will fall by the sword
because of their insolent tongue.
They will be ridiculed for this in the land of Egypt.
Put the horn to your mouth!
One like an eagle comes against the house of the LORD, because they transgress my covenant
and rebel against my law.
2 Israel cries out to me,

8

- Israel cries out to me,

"My God, we know you!"

3 Israel has rejected what is good;
an enemy will pursue him.

4 They have installed kings,
but not through me.
They have appointed leaders,
but without my approval.
They make their silver and gold into idols for themselves for their own destruction.

5 Your calf-idol is rejected, Samaria.
My anger burns against them.
How long will they be incapable of innocence?

6 For this thing is from Israel—a craftsman made it, and it is not God.
The calf of Samaria will be smashed to bits!

7 Indeed, they sow the wind and reap the whirlwind.
There is no standing grain;
what sprouts fails to yield flour.
Even if they did,
foreigners would swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up!
Now they are among the nations
like discarded pottery.

9 For they have gone up to Assyria
like a wild donkey going off on its own.
Ephraim has paid for love.

10 Even though they hire lovers among the nations,
I will now round them up,
and they will begin to decrease in number
under the burden of the king and leaders.

11 When Ephraim multiplied his altars for sin,
they became his altars for sinning.

12 Though I were to write out for him
ten thousand points of my instruction,
they would be regarded as something strange.

13 Though they offer sacrificial gifts
and eat the flesh,
the LORD does not accept them.
Now he will remember their guilt
and punish their sins;
they will return to Egypt.

14 Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces;
Judah has also multiplied fortified cities.
I will send fire on their cities,
and it will consume their citadels.

9 Israel, do not rejoice jubilantly as the nations do,
for you have acted promiscuously, leaving your God.
You love the wages of a prostitute
on every grain-threshing floor.

2 Threshing floor and wine vat will not sustain them,
and the new wine will fail them.

3 They will not stay in the land of the LORD.
Instead, Ephraim will return to Egypt,
and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.

4 They will not pour out their wine offerings to the LORD,
and their sacrifices will not please him.
Their food will be like the bread of mourners;
all who eat it become defiled.
For their bread will be for their appetites alone;
it will not enter the house of the LORD.

5 What will you do on a festival day,

on the day of the LORD's feast?

6 For even if they flee from devastation,
Egypt will gather them, and Memphis will bury them.
Thistles will take possession
of their precious silver;
thorns will invade their tents.

7 The days of punishment have come;
the days of retribution have come.
Let Israel recognize it!
The prophet is a fool,
and the inspired man is insane,
because of the magnitude
of your iniquity and hostility.

8 Ephraim's watchman is with my God.
Yet the prophet encounters a bird trap
on all his pathways.
Hostility is in the house of his God!

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves
as in the days of Gibeah.
He will remember their iniquity;
he will punish their sins.

10 I discovered Israel
like grapes in the wilderness.
I saw your fathers
like the first fruit of the fig tree in its first season.
But they went to Baal-peor, consecrated themselves to Shame,
and became abhorrent,
like the thing they loved.

11 Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird:
no birth, no pregnancy, no conception.

12 Even if they raise children,
I will bereave them of each one.
Yes, woe to them when I depart from them!

13 I have seen Ephraim like Tyre, planted in a meadow,
so Ephraim will bring out his children
to the executioner.

14 Give them, LORD—
What should you give?
Give them a womb that miscarries
and breasts that are dry!

15 All their evil appears at Gilgal,
for there I began to hate them.
I will drive them from my house
because of their evil, wicked actions.
I will no longer love them;
all their leaders are rebellious.

16 Ephraim is struck down;
their roots are withered;
they cannot bear fruit.
Even if they bear children,
I will kill the precious offspring of their wombs.

17 My God will reject them because they have not listened to him;
they will become wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is a lush vine;
it yields fruit for itself.
The more his fruit increased,
the more he increased the altars.
The better his land produced,
the better they made the sacred pillars.

2 Their hearts are devious;
now they must bear their guilt.
The LORD will break down their altars

and demolish their sacred pillars.
 3 In fact, they are now saying,
 "We have no king!
 For we do not fear the LORD.
 What can a king do for us?"
 4 They speak mere words,
 taking false oaths while making covenants.
 So lawsuits break out
 like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.
 5 The residents of Samaria will have anxiety over the calf of Beth-aven.
 Indeed, its idolatrous priests rejoiced over it;
 the people will mourn over it,
 over its glory.
 It will certainly go into exile.
 6 The calf itself will be taken to Assyria
 as an offering to the great king.
 Ephraim will experience shame;
 Israel will be ashamed of its counsel.
 7 Samaria's king will disappear
 like foam on the surface of the water.
 8 The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel,
 will be destroyed;
 thorns and thistles will grow over their altars.
 They will say to the mountains, "Cover us!"
 and to the hills, "Fall on us!"
 9 Israel, you have sinned
 since the days of Gibeah;
 they have taken their stand there.
 Will not war against the unjust
 overtake them in Gibeah?
 10 I will discipline them at my discretion;
 nations will be gathered against them
 to put them in bondage
 for their double iniquity.
 11 Ephraim is a well-trained calf
 that loves to thresh,
 but I will place a yoke on her fine neck.
 I will harness Ephraim;
 Judah will plow;
 Jacob will do the final plowing.
 12 Sow righteousness for yourselves
 and reap faithful love;
 break up your unplowed ground.
 It is time to seek the LORD until he comes and sends righteousness on you like the rain.
 13 You have plowed wickedness and reaped injustice;
 you have eaten the fruit of lies.
 Because you have trusted in your own way
 and in your large number of soldiers, 14 the roar of battle will rise against your people,
 and all your fortifications will be demolished
 in a day of war,
 like Shalman's destruction of Beth-arbel.
 Mothers will be dashed to pieces
 along with their children.
 15 So it will be done to you, Bethel,
 because of your extreme evil.
 At dawn the king of Israel will be totally destroyed.
11 When Israel was a child, I loved him,
 and out of Egypt I called my son.
 2 Israel called to the Egyptians even as Israel was leaving them.

They kept sacrificing to the Baals
 and burning offerings to idols.
 3 It was I who taught Ephraim to walk,
 taking them by the hand,
 but they never knew that I healed them.
 4 I led them with human cords,
 with ropes of love.
 To them I was like one who eases the yoke from their jaws;
 I bent down to give them food.
 5 Israel will not return to the land of Egypt and Assyria will be his king,
 because they refused to repent.
 6 A sword will whirl through his cities;
 it will destroy and devour the bars of his gates,
 because of their schemes.
 7 My people are bent on turning from me.
 Though they call to him on high,
 he will not exalt them at all.
 8 How can I give you up, Ephraim?
 How can I surrender you, Israel?
 How can I make you like Admah?
 How can I treat you like Zeboim?
 I have had a change of heart;
 my compassion is stirred!
 9 I will not vent the full fury of my anger;
 I will not turn back to destroy Ephraim.
 For I am God and not man,
 the Holy One among you;
 I will not come in rage.
 10 They will follow the LORD;
 he will roar like a lion.
 When he roars,
 his children will come trembling from the west.
 11 They will be roused like birds from Egypt
 and like doves from the land of Assyria.
 Then I will settle them in their homes.
 This is the LORD's declaration.
 12 Ephraim surrounds me with lies,
 the house of Israel, with deceit.
 Judah still wanders with God
 and is faithful to the holy ones.
12 Ephraim chases the wind and pursues the east wind.
 He continually multiplies lies and violence.
 He makes a covenant with Assyria,
 and olive oil is carried to Egypt.
 2 The LORD also has a dispute with Judah.
 He is about to punish Jacob
 according to his conduct;
 he will repay him based on his actions.
 3 In the womb he grasped his brother's heel,
 and as an adult he wrestled with God.
 4 Jacob struggled with the angel and prevailed;
 he wept and sought his favor.
 He found him at Bethel,
 and there he spoke with him.
 5 The LORD is the God of Armies;
 the LORD is his name.
 6 But you must return to your God.
 Maintain love and justice,
 and always put your hope in God.
 7 A merchant loves to extort
 with dishonest scales in his hands.
 8 But Ephraim thinks,

"How rich I have become;
I made it all myself.
In all my earnings,
no one can find any iniquity in me that I can be punished for!"

9 I have been the LORD your God
ever since the land of Egypt.
I will make you live in tents again,
as in the festival days.

10 I will speak through the prophets and grant many visions;
I will give parables through the prophets.

11 Since Gilead is full of evil,
they will certainly come to nothing.
They sacrifice bulls in Gilgal;
even their altars will be like piles of rocks
on the furrows of a field.

12 Jacob fled to the territory of Aram.
Israel worked to earn a wife;
he tended flocks for a wife.

13 The LORD brought Israel from Egypt by a prophet, and Israel was tended by a prophet.

14 Ephraim has provoked bitter anger,
so his Lord will leave his bloodguilt on him
and repay him for his contempt.

13 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling;
he was exalted in Israel.
But he incurred guilt through Baal and died.

2 Now they continue to sin
and make themselves a cast image, idols skillfully made from their silver,
all of them the work of craftsmen.
People say about them,
"Let the men who sacrifice kiss the calves."

3 Therefore, they will be like the morning mist,
like the early dew that vanishes,
like chaff blown from a threshing floor,
or like smoke from a window.

4 I have been the LORD your God
ever since the land of Egypt;
you know no God but me,
and no Savior exists besides me.

5 I knew you in the wilderness,
in the land of drought.

6 When they had pasture,
they became satisfied;
they were satisfied,
and their hearts became proud.
Therefore they forgot me.

7 So I will be like a lion to them;
I will lurk like a leopard on the path.

8 I will attack them
like a bear robbed of her cubs
and tear open the rib cage over their hearts.
I will devour them there like a lioness,
like a wild beast that would rip them open.

9 I will destroy you, Israel;
you have no help but me.

10 Where now is your king,
that he may save you in all your cities,
and the rulers you demanded, saying,
"Give me a king and leaders"?

11 I give you a king in my anger
and take away a king in my wrath.

12 Ephraim's guilt is preserved;
his sin is stored up.

13 Labor pains come on him.
He is not a wise son;
when the time comes,
he will not be born.

14 I will ransom them from the power of Sheol.
I will redeem them from death.
Death, where are your barbs?
Sheol, where is your sting?
Compassion is hidden from my eyes.

15 Although he flourishes among his brothers,
an east wind will come,
a wind from the LORD rising up from the desert.
His water source will fail,
and his spring will run dry.
The wind will plunder the treasury of every precious item.

16 Samaria will bear her guilt
because she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword;
their children will be dashed to pieces,
and their pregnant women ripped open.

14 Israel, return to the LORD your God,
for you have stumbled in your iniquity.

2 Take words of repentance with you and return to the LORD.
Say to him: "Forgive all our iniquity
and accept what is good,
so that we may repay you
with praise from our lips.

3 Assyria will not save us,
we will not ride on horses,
and we will no longer proclaim, 'Our gods!'
to the work of our hands.
For the fatherless receives compassion in you."

4 I will heal their apostasy;
I will freely love them,
for my anger will have turned from him.

5 I will be like the dew to Israel;
he will blossom like the lily
and take root like the cedars of Lebanon.
His new branches will spread,
and his splendor will be like the olive tree,
his fragrance, like the forest of Lebanon.

7 The people will return and live beneath his shade.
They will grow grain
and blossom like the vine.
His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim, why should I have anything more to do with idols?
It is I who answer and watch over him.
I am like a flourishing pine tree;
your fruit comes from me.

9 Let whoever is wise understand these things,
and whoever is insightful recognize them.
For the ways of the LORD are right,
and the righteous walk in them,
but the rebellious stumble in them.

JOEL

- 1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel son of Pethuel:
2 Hear this, you elders;
listen, all you inhabitants of the land.
Has anything like this ever happened in your days
or in the days of your ancestors?
3 Tell your children about it,
and let your children tell their children,
and their children the next generation.
4 What the devouring locust has left,
the swarming locust has eaten;
what the swarming locust has left,
the young locust has eaten;
and what the young locust has left,
the destroying locust has eaten.
5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep;
wail, all you wine drinkers,
because of the sweet wine,
for it has been taken from your mouth.
6 For a nation has invaded my land, powerful and without number;
its teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and it has the fangs of a lioness.
7 It has devastated my grapevine
and splintered my fig tree.
It has stripped off its bark and thrown it away;
its branches have turned white.
8 Grieve like a young woman dressed in sackcloth,
mourning for the husband of her youth.
9 Grain and drink offerings have been cut off from the house of the LORD;
the priests, who are ministers of the LORD, mourn.
10 The fields are destroyed;
the land grieves;
indeed, the grain is destroyed;
the new wine is dried up;
and the fresh oil fails.
11 Be ashamed, you farmers,
wail, you vinedressers,
over the wheat and the barley,
because the harvest of the field has perished.
12 The grapevine is dried up,
and the fig tree is withered;
the pomegranate, the date palm, and the apple —
all the trees of the orchard — have withered.
Indeed, human joy has dried up.
13 Dress in sackcloth and lament, you priests;
wail, you ministers of the altar.
Come and spend the night in sackcloth,
you ministers of my God,
because grain and drink offerings
are withheld from the house of your God.
14 Announce a sacred fast;
proclaim an assembly!
Gather the elders
and all the residents of the land
at the house of the LORD your God,
and cry out to the LORD.
15 Woe because of that day!
For the day of the LORD is near
and will come as devastation from the Almighty.
- 16 Hasn't the food been cut off
before our eyes,
joy and gladness
from the house of our God?
17 The seeds lie shriveled in their casings.
The storehouses are in ruin,
and the granaries are broken down,
because the grain has withered away.
18 How the animals groan!
The herds of cattle wander in confusion
since they have no pasture.
Even the flocks of sheep and goats suffer punishment.
19 I call to you, LORD,
for fire has consumed
the pastures of the wilderness,
and flames have devoured
all the trees of the orchard.
20 Even the wild animals cry out to you,
for the river beds are dried up,
and fire has consumed
the pastures of the wilderness.
- 2 Blow the horn in Zion;
sound the alarm on my holy mountain!
Let all the residents of the land tremble,
for the day of the LORD is coming;
in fact, it is near —
2 a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and total darkness,
like the dawn spreading over the mountains;
a great and strong people appears,
such as never existed in ages past and never will again
in all the generations to come.
3 A fire devours in front of them,
and behind them a flame blazes.
The land in front of them
is like the garden of Eden,
but behind them,
it is like a desert wasteland;
there is no escape from them.
4 Their appearance is like that of horses,
and they gallop like war horses.
5 They bound on the tops of the mountains.
Their sound is like the sound of chariots,
like the sound of fiery flames consuming stubble,
like a mighty army deployed for war.
6 Nations writhe in horror before them;
all faces turn pale.
7 They attack as warriors attack;
they scale walls as men of war do.
Each goes on his own path,
and they do not change their course.
8 They do not push each other;
each proceeds on his own path.
They dodge the arrows, never stopping.
9 They storm the city;
they run on the wall;
they climb into the houses;
they enter through the windows like thieves.

- 10 The earth quakes before them;
the sky shakes.
The sun and moon grow dark,
and the stars cease their shining.
- 11 The LORD makes his voice heard in the presence of his army.
His camp is very large;
those who carry out his command are powerful.
Indeed, the day of the LORD is terrible and dreadful —
who can endure it?
- 12 Even now —
this is the LORD's declaration —
turn to me with all your heart,
with fasting, weeping, and mourning.
- 13 Tear your hearts,
not just your clothes,
and return to the LORD your God.
For he is gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger, abounding in faithful love,
and he relents from sending disaster.
- 14 Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave a blessing behind him, so you can offer grain and wine
to the LORD your God.
- 15 Blow the horn in Zion!
Announce a sacred fast;
proclaim an assembly.
- 16 Gather the people;
sanctify the congregation;
assemble the aged;
gather the infants,
even babies nursing at the breast.
Let the groom leave his bedroom,
and the bride her honeymoon chamber.
- 17 Let the priests, the LORD's ministers,
weep between the portico and the altar.
Let them say:
"Have pity on your people, LORD,
and do not make your inheritance a disgrace,
an object of scorn among the nations.
Why should it be said among the peoples,
'Where is their God?'"
- 18 Then the LORD became jealous for his land and spared
his people. ¹⁹The LORD answered his people:
Look, I am about to send you grain, new wine, and fresh oil.
You will be satiated with them,
and I will no longer make you
a disgrace among the nations.
- 20 I will drive the northerner far from you and banish him to a dry and desolate land,
his front ranks into the Dead Sea,
and his rear guard into the Mediterranean Sea.
His stench will rise;
yes, his rotten smell will rise,
for he has done astonishing things.
- 21 Don't be afraid, land;
rejoice and be glad,
for the LORD has done astonishing things.
- 22 Don't be afraid, wild animals,
for the wilderness pastures have turned green,
the trees bear their fruit,
and the fig tree and grapevine yield their riches.
- 23 Children of Zion, rejoice and be glad

- in the LORD your God, because he gives you the autumn rain
for your vindication.
He sends showers for you,
both autumn and spring rain as before.
- 24 The threshing floors will be full of grain,
and the vats will overflow
with new wine and fresh oil.
- 25 I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust ate,
the young locust, the destroying locust,
and the devouring locust —
my great army that I sent against you.
- 26 You will have plenty to eat and be satisfied.
You will praise the name of the LORD your God,
who has dealt wondrously with you.
My people will never again be put to shame.
- 27 You will know that I am present in Israel and that I am the LORD your God,
and there is no other.
My people will never again be put to shame.
- 28 After this
I will pour out my Spirit on all humanity;
then your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
your old men will have dreams,
and your young men will see visions.
- 29 I will even pour out my Spirit
on the male and female slaves in those days.
- 30 I will display wonders
in the heavens and on the earth:
blood, fire, and columns of smoke.
- 31 The sun will be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood
before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.
- 32 Then everyone who calls
on the name of the LORD will be saved,
for there will be an escape
for those on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem,
as the LORD promised,
among the survivors the LORD calls.
- 3 Yes, in those days and at that time,
when I restore the fortunes of Judah
and Jerusalem,
- 2 I will gather all the nations
and take them to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will enter into judgment with them there because of my people, my inheritance Israel.
The nations have scattered the Israelites in foreign countries
and divided up my land.
- 3 They cast lots for my people;
they bartered a boy for a prostitute
and sold a girl for wine to drink.
- ⁴ And also: Tyre, Sidon, and all the territories of Philistia — what are you to me? Are you paying me back or trying to get even with me? I will quickly bring retribution on your heads. ⁵ For you took my silver and gold and carried my finest treasures to your temples. ⁶ You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks to remove them far from their own territory. ⁷ Look, I am about to rouse them up from the place where you sold them; I will bring retribution on your heads. ⁸ I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a distant nation, for the LORD has spoken.

- 9 Proclaim this among the nations:
Prepare for holy war;
rouse the warriors;
let all the men of war advance and attack!
- 10 Beat your plows into swords
and your pruning knives into spears.
Let even the weakling say, "I am a warrior."
- 11 Come quickly, all you surrounding nations;
gather yourselves.
Bring down your warriors there, LORD.
- 12 Let the nations be roused
and come to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit down
to judge all the surrounding nations.
- 13 Swing the sickle
because the harvest is ripe.
Come and trample the grapes
because the winepress is full;
the wine vats overflow
because the wickedness of the nations is extreme.
- 14 Multitudes, multitudes
in the valley of decision!
For the day of the LORD is near
in the valley of decision.
- 15 The sun and moon will grow dark,
and the stars will cease their shining.
- 16 The LORD will roar from Zion
and make his voice heard from Jerusalem;
heaven and earth will shake.
But the LORD will be a refuge for his people,
a stronghold for the Israelites.
- 17 Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, who dwells in Zion, my holy mountain.
Jerusalem will be holy,
and foreigners will never overrun it again.
- 18 In that day
the mountains will drip with sweet wine,
and the hills will flow with milk.
All the streams of Judah will flow with water,
and a spring will issue from the LORD's house,
watering the Valley of Acacias.
- 19 Egypt will become desolate,
and Edom a desert wasteland,
because of the violence done to the people of Judah
in whose land they shed innocent blood.
- 20 But Judah will be inhabited forever,
and Jerusalem from generation to generation.
- 21 I will pardon their bloodguilt,
which I have not pardoned,
for the LORD dwells in Zion.

AMOS

1 The words of Amos, who was one of the sheep breeders from Tekoa — what he saw regarding Israel in the days of King Uzziah of Judah and Jeroboam son of Jehoash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

² He said:

The LORD roars from Zion
and makes his voice heard from Jerusalem;
the pastures of the shepherds mourn,
and the summit of Carmel withers.

³ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Damascus
for three crimes, even four,
because they threshed Gilead with iron sledges.

⁴ Therefore, I will send fire against Hazael's palace,
and it will consume Ben-hadad's citadels.

⁵ I will break down the gates of Damascus.
I will cut off the ruler from the Valley of Aven,
and the one who wields the scepter
from Beth-eden.

The people of Aram will be exiled to Kir.

The LORD has spoken.

⁶ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Gaza
for three crimes, even four,
because they exiled a whole community,
handing them over to Edom.

⁷ Therefore, I will send fire against the walls of Gaza,
and it will consume its citadels.

⁸ I will cut off the ruler from Ashdod,
and the one who wields the scepter
from Ashkelon.

I will also turn my hand against Ekron,
and the remainder of the Philistines will perish.

The Lord God has spoken.

⁹ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Tyre
for three crimes, even four,
because they handed over a whole community of exiles to Edom
and broke a treaty of brotherhood.

¹⁰ Therefore, I will send fire against the walls of Tyre,
and it will consume its citadels.

¹¹ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Edom
for three crimes, even four,
because he pursued his brother with the sword.
He stifled his compassion,
his anger tore at him continually,
and he harbored his rage incessantly.

¹² Therefore, I will send fire against Teman, and it will consume the citadels of Bozrah.

¹³ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing the Ammonites
for three crimes, even four,
because they ripped open
the pregnant women of Gilead
in order to enlarge their territory.

¹⁴ Therefore, I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah,
and it will consume its citadels.

There will be shouting on the day of battle and a violent wind on the day of the storm.

¹⁵ Their king and his princes will go into exile together.
The LORD has spoken.

2 The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Moab
for three crimes, even four,
because he burned the bones
of the king of Edom to lime.

² Therefore, I will send fire against Moab,
and it will consume the citadels of Kerioth.
Moab will die with a tumult,
with shouting and the sound of the ram's horn.

³ I will cut off the judge from the land and kill all its officials with him.
The LORD has spoken.

⁴ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Judah
for three crimes, even four,
because they have rejected the instruction
of the LORD

and have not kept his statutes.
The lies that their ancestors followed have led them astray.

⁵ Therefore, I will send fire against Judah,
and it will consume the citadels of Jerusalem.

⁶ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Israel
for three crimes, even four,
because they sell a righteous person for silver and a needy person for a pair of sandals.

⁷ They trample the heads of the poor
on the dust of the ground and obstruct the path of the needy.

A man and his father have sexual relations with the same girl,
profaning my holy name.

⁸ They stretch out beside every altar
on garments taken as collateral,
and in the house of their God
they drink wine obtained through fines.

⁹ Yet I destroyed the Amorite as Israel advanced;
his height was like the cedars,
and he was as sturdy as the oaks;
I destroyed his fruit above and his roots beneath.

¹⁰ And I brought you from the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness
in order to possess the land of the Amorite.

¹¹ I raised up some of your sons as prophets and some of your young men as Nazirites.
Is this not the case, Israelites?

This is the LORD's declaration.

¹² But you made the Nazirites drink wine and commanded the prophets,
"Do not prophesy."

¹³ Look, I am about to crush you in your place
as a wagon crushes when full of grain.

¹⁴ Escape will fail the swift,
the strong one will not maintain his strength,

- and the warrior will not save his life.
- 15 The archer will not stand his ground,
the one who is swift of foot
will not save himself,
and the one riding a horse will not save his life.
- 16 Even the most courageous of the warriors will flee naked on that day —
this is the LORD's declaration.
- 3 Listen to this message that the LORD has spoken against you, Israelites, against the entire clan that I brought from the land of Egypt:
- 2 I have known only you
out of all the clans of the earth;
therefore, I will punish you for all your iniquities.
- 3 Can two walk together
without agreeing to meet?
- 4 Does a lion roar in the forest
when it has no prey?
Does a young lion growl from its lair
unless it has captured something?
- 5 Does a bird land in a trap on the ground
if there is no bait for it?
Does a trap spring from the ground
when it has caught nothing?
- 6 If a ram's horn is blown in a city,
aren't people afraid?
If a disaster occurs in a city,
hasn't the LORD done it?
- 7 Indeed, the Lord God does nothing without revealing his counsel to his servants the prophets.
- 8 A lion has roared;
who will not fear?
The Lord God has spoken;
who will not prophesy?
- 9 Proclaim on the citadels in Ashdod
and on the citadels in the land of Egypt:
Assemble on the mountains of Samaria,
and see the great turmoil in the city
and the acts of oppression within it.
- 10 The people are incapable of doing right —
this is the LORD's declaration —
those who store up violence and destruction
in their citadels.
- 11 Therefore, the Lord God says:
An enemy will surround the land;
he will destroy your strongholds
and plunder your citadels.
- 12 The LORD says:
As the shepherd snatches two legs
or a piece of an ear
from the lion's mouth,
so the Israelites who live in Samaria will be rescued
with only the corner of a bed
or the cushion of a couch.
- 13 Listen and testify against the house of Jacob —
this is the declaration of the Lord God,
the God of Armies.
- 14 I will punish the altars of Bethel
on the day I punish Israel for its crimes;
the horns of the altar will be cut off
and fall to the ground.
- 15 I will demolish the winter house
and the summer house;
- the houses inlaid with ivory will be destroyed,
and the great houses will come to an end.
- This is the LORD's declaration.
- 4 Listen to this message, you cows of Bashan
who are on the hill of Samaria, women who oppress the poor
and crush the needy,
who say to their husbands,
"Bring us something to drink."
- 2 The Lord God has sworn by his holiness:
Look, the days are coming
when you will be taken away with hooks,
every last one of you with fishhooks.
- 3 You will go through breaches in the wall,
each woman straight ahead,
and you will be driven along toward Harmon.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 4 Come to Bethel and rebel;
rebel even more at Gilgal!
Bring your sacrifices every morning,
your tenths every three days.
- 5 Offer leavened bread as a thank offering,
and loudly proclaim your free-will offerings,
for that is what you Israelites love to do!
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 6 I gave you absolutely nothing to eat
in all your cities,
a shortage of food in all your communities,
yet you did not return to me.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 7 I also withheld the rain from you while there were still three months until harvest.
I sent rain on one city
but no rain on another.
One field received rain
while a field with no rain withered.
- 8 Two or three cities staggered to another city to drink water
but were not satisfied,
yet you did not return to me.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 9 I struck you with blight and mildew;
the locust devoured
your many gardens and vineyards,
your fig trees and olive trees,
yet you did not return to me.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 10 I sent plagues like those of Egypt;
I killed your young men with the sword,
along with your captured horses.
I caused the stench of your camp
to fill your nostrils,
yet you did not return to me.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 11 I overthrew some of you
as I overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick snatched from a fire,
yet you did not return to me —
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 12 Therefore, Israel, that is what I will do to you,
and since I will do that to you,
Israel, prepare to meet your God!
He is here:
- 13 the one who forms the mountains,

creates the wind,
and reveals his thoughts to man,
the one who makes the dawn out of darkness
and strides on the heights of the earth.

The LORD, the God of Armies, is his name.

5 Listen to this message that I am singing for you, a lament, house of Israel:

² She has fallen;
Virgin Israel will never rise again.
She lies abandoned on her land
with no one to raise her up.

³ For the LORD God says:
The city that marches out a thousand strong will have only a hundred left,
and the one that marches out a hundred strong will have only ten left in the house of Israel.

⁴ For the LORD says to the house of Israel:

Seek me and live!
⁵ Do not seek Bethel or go to Gilgal
or journey to Beer-sheba,
for Gilgal will certainly go into exile,
and Bethel will come to nothing.

⁶ Seek the LORD and live, or he will spread like fire
throughout the house of Joseph;
it will consume everything
with no one at Bethel to extinguish it.

⁷ Those who turn justice into wormwood
also throw righteousness to the ground.

⁸ The one who made the Pleiades and Orion, who turns darkness into dawn
and darkens day into night,
who summons the water of the sea
and pours it out over the surface
of the earth —
the LORD is his name.

⁹ He brings destruction on the strong,
and it falls on the fortress.

¹⁰ They hate the one who convicts the guilty
at the city gate,
and they despise the one who speaks
with integrity.

¹¹ Therefore, because you trample on the poor and exact a grain tax from him,
you will never live in the houses of cut stone
you have built;
you will never drink the wine
from the lush vineyards
you have planted.

¹² For I know your crimes are many and your sins innumerable.
They oppress the righteous, take a bribe,
and deprive the poor of justice at the city gates.

¹³ Therefore, those who have insight will keep silent
at such a time,
for the days are evil.

¹⁴ Pursue good and not evil
so that you may live,
and the LORD, the God of Armies,
will be with you
as you have claimed.

¹⁵ Hate evil and love good;
establish justice in the city gate.

Perhaps the LORD, the God of Armies, will be gracious
to the remnant of Joseph.

¹⁶ Therefore the LORD, the God of Armies, the Lord, says:
There will be weeping in all the public squares;
they will cry out in anguish in all the streets.

The farmer will be called on to mourn,
and professional mourners to wail.

¹⁷ There will be weeping in all the vineyards,
for I will pass among you.
The LORD has spoken.

¹⁸ Woe to you who long for the day of the LORD!
What will the day of the LORD be for you?
It will be darkness and not light.

¹⁹ It will be like a man who flees from a lion
only to have a bear confront him.
He goes home and rests his hand against the wall
only to have a snake bite him.

²⁰ Won't the day of the LORD
be darkness rather than light,
even gloom without any brightness in it?

²¹ I hate, I despise, your feasts!
I can't stand the stench
of your solemn assemblies.

²² Even if you offer me
your burnt offerings and grain offerings,
I will not accept them;
I will have no regard
for your fellowship offerings of fattened cattle.

²³ Take away from me the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.

²⁴ But let justice flow like water,
and righteousness, like an unfailing stream.

²⁵ "House of Israel, was it sacrifices and grain offerings that you presented to me during the forty years in the wilderness? ²⁶ But you have taken up Sakkuth your king and Kaiwan your star god, images you have made for yourselves. ²⁷ So I will send you into exile beyond Damascus."
The LORD, the God of Armies, is his name. He has spoken.

6 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion and to those who feel secure on the hill of Samaria —
the notable people in this first of the nations,
those the house of Israel comes to.

² Cross over to Calneh and see;
go from there to great Hamath;
then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are you better than these kingdoms?
Is their territory larger than yours?

³ You dismiss any thought of the evil day
and bring in a reign of violence.

⁴ They lie on beds inlaid with ivory,
sprawled out on their couches,
and dine on lambs from the flock
and calves from the stall.

⁵ They improvise songs to the sound of the harp and invent their own musical instruments like David.

⁶ They drink wine by the bowlful
and anoint themselves with the finest oils
but do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.

⁷ Therefore, they will now go into exile
as the first of the captives,
and the feasting of those who sprawl out will come to an end.

⁸The Lord God has sworn by himself — this is the declaration of the Lord, the God of Armies:

I loathe Jacob's pride and hate his citadels,
so I will hand over the city and everything in it.

⁹And if there are ten men left in one house, they will die.

¹⁰A close relative and burner will remove his corpse from the house. He will call to someone in the inner recesses of the house, "Any more with you?"

That person will reply, "None."

Then he will say, "Silence, because the Lord's name must not be invoked."

¹¹For the Lord commands:

The large house will be smashed to pieces,
and the small house to rubble.

¹²Do horses gallop on the cliffs?
Does anyone plow there with oxen?
Yet you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood —

¹³you who rejoice over Lo-debar and say, "Didn't we capture Karnaim for ourselves by our own strength?"

¹⁴But look, I am raising up a nation against you, house of Israel —
this is the declaration of the Lord,
the God of Armies —
and they will oppress you from the entrance of Hamath
to the Brook of the Arabah.

7 The Lord God showed me this: He was forming a swarm of locusts at the time the spring crop first began to sprout — after the cutting of the king's hay. ²When the locusts finished eating the vegetation of the land, I said, "Lord God, please forgive! How will Jacob survive since he is so small?"

³The Lord relented concerning this. "It will not happen," he said.

⁴The Lord God showed me this: The Lord God was calling for a judgment by fire. It consumed the great deep and devoured the land. ⁵Then I said, "Lord God, please stop! How will Jacob survive since he is so small?"

⁶The Lord relented concerning this. "This will not happen either," said the Lord God.

⁷He showed me this: The Lord was standing there by a vertical wall with a plumb line in his hand. ⁸The Lord asked me, "What do you see, Amos?"

I replied, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said, "I am setting a plumb line among my people Israel; I will no longer spare them:

⁹Isaac's high places will be deserted,
and Israel's sanctuaries will be in ruins;
I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with a sword."

¹⁰Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent word to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you right here in the house of Israel. The land cannot endure all his words, ¹¹for Amos has said this: 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will certainly go into exile from its homeland.'"

¹²Then Amaziah said to Amos, "Go away, you seer! Flee to the land of Judah. Earn your living and give your prophecies there, ¹³but don't ever prophesy at Bethel again, for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple."

¹⁴So Amos answered Amaziah, "I was not a prophet or the son of a prophet; rather, I was a herdsman, and I took care of sycamore figs. ¹⁵But the Lord took me from following the flock and said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'"

¹⁶Now hear the word of the Lord. You say:
Do not prophesy against Israel;
do not preach against the house of Isaac.

¹⁷Therefore, this is what the Lord says:
Your wife will be a prostitute in the city,
your sons and daughters will fall
by the sword,
and your land will be divided up
with a measuring line.
You yourself will die on pagan soil,
and Israel will certainly go into exile
from its homeland.

8 The Lord God showed me this: a basket of summer fruit. ²He asked me, "What do you see, Amos?"

I replied, "A basket of summer fruit."

The Lord said to me, "The end has come for my people Israel; I will no longer spare them. ³In that day the temple songs will become wailing" — this is the Lord God's declaration. "Many dead bodies, thrown everywhere! Silence!"

⁴Hear this, you who trample on the needy and do away with the poor of the land, ⁵asking, "When will the New Moon be over so we may sell grain,
and the Sabbath,
so we may market wheat?

We can reduce the measure
while increasing the price
and cheat with dishonest scales.

⁶We can buy the poor with silver and the needy for a pair of sandals and even sell the chaff!"

⁷The Lord has sworn by the Pride of Jacob:
I will never forget all their deeds.

⁸Because of this, won't the land quake
and all who dwell in it mourn?
All of it will rise like the Nile;
it will surge and then subside
like the Nile in Egypt.

⁹And in that day —

this is the declaration of the Lord God —
I will make the sun go down at noon;
I will darken the land in the daytime.

¹⁰I will turn your feasts into mourning
and all your songs into lamentation;
I will cause everyone to wear sackcloth
and every head to be shaved.
I will make that grief
like mourning for an only son
and its outcome like a bitter day.

¹¹Look, the days are coming —

this is the declaration of the Lord God —
when I will send a famine through the land:
not a famine of bread or a thirst for water,
but of hearing the words of the Lord.

¹²People will stagger from sea to sea and roam from north to east
seeking the word of the Lord,
but they will not find it.

¹³In that day the beautiful young women,
the young men also, will faint from thirst.

¹⁴Those who swear by the guilt of Samaria and say, "As your god lives, Dan,"

- or, "As the way of Beer-sheba lives" —
they will fall, never to rise again.
- 9 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said:
Strike the capitals of the pillars
so that the thresholds shake;
knock them down on the heads of all the people.
Then I will kill the rest of them with the sword.
None of those who flee will get away;
none of the fugitives will escape.
- 2 If they dig down to Sheol,
from there my hand will take them;
if they climb up to heaven,
from there I will bring them down.
- 3 If they hide
on the top of Carmel,
from there I will track them down
and seize them;
if they conceal themselves
from my sight on the sea floor,
from there I will command
the sea serpent to bite them.
- 4 And if they are driven by their enemies into captivity,
from there I will command
the sword to kill them.
I will keep my eye on them
for harm and not for good.
- 5 The Lord, the God of Armies —
he touches the earth;
it melts, and all who dwell in it mourn;
all of it rises like the Nile
and subsides like the Nile of Egypt.
- 6 He builds his upper chambers
in the heavens
and lays the foundation of his vault
on the earth.
He summons the water of the sea
and pours it out over the surface of the earth.
The LORD is his name.
- 7 Israelites, are you not like the Cushites to me?
This is the LORD's declaration.
Didn't I bring Israel from the land of Egypt,
the Philistines from Caphtor,
and the Arameans from Kir?
8 Look, the eyes of the Lord God are on the sinful kingdom, and I will obliterate it
from the face of the earth.
However, I will not totally destroy the house of Jacob —
this is the LORD's declaration —
9 for I am about to give the command, and I will shake the house of Israel
among all the nations,
as one shakes a sieve,
but not a pebble will fall to the ground.
10 All the sinners among my people who say: "Disaster will never overtake or confront us,"
will die by the sword.
11 In that day
I will restore the fallen shelter of David:
I will repair its gaps,
restore its ruins,
and rebuild it as in the days of old, 12 so that they may possess
the remnant of Edom
and all the nations
that bear my name —
this is the declaration of the LORD;
he will do this.
13 Look, the days are coming —
this is the LORD's declaration —
when the plowman will overtake the reaper
and the one who treads grapes,
the sower of seed.
The mountains will drip with sweet wine,
and all the hills will flow with it.
14 I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel.
They will rebuild and occupy ruined cities,
plant vineyards and drink their wine,
make gardens and eat their produce.
15 I will plant them on their land,
and they will never again be uprooted
from the land I have given them.
The LORD your God has spoken.

OBADIAH

The vision of Obadiah.

This is what the Lord God has said about Edom:

We have heard a message from the LORD;
an envoy has been sent among the nations:
"Rise up, and let us go to war against her."

- 2 Look, I will make you insignificant
among the nations;
you will be deeply despised.
- 3 Your arrogant heart has deceived you,
you who live in clefts of the rock
in your home on the heights,
who say to yourself,
"Who can bring me down to the ground?"
- 4 Though you seem to soar like an eagle
and make your nest among the stars,
even from there I will bring you down.
This is the LORD's declaration.
- 5 If thieves came to you,
if marauders by night —
how ravaged you would be! — wouldn't they steal only what they wanted?
If grape pickers came to you,
wouldn't they leave some grapes?
6 How Esau will be pillaged,
his hidden treasures searched out!
- 7 Everyone who has a treaty with you will drive you to the border;
everyone at peace with you
will deceive and conquer you.
Those who eat your bread
will set a trap for you.
He will be unaware of it.
- 8 In that day —
this is the LORD's declaration —
will I not eliminate the wise ones of Edom
and those who understand
from the hill country of Esau?
- 9 Teman, your warriors will be terrified
so that everyone from the hill country of Esau will be destroyed by slaughter.
- 10 You will be covered with shame and destroyed forever
because of violence done to your brother Jacob.
- 11 On the day you stood aloof,
on the day strangers captured his wealth,
while foreigners entered his city gate
and cast lots for Jerusalem,
you were just like one of them.
- 12 Do not gloat over your brother
in the day of his calamity;

do not rejoice over the people of Judah
in the day of their destruction;
do not boastfully mock
in the day of distress.

- 13 Do not enter my people's city gate
in the day of their disaster.
Yes, you — do not gloat over their misery
in the day of their disaster,
and do not appropriate their possessions
in the day of their disaster.
- 14 Do not stand at the crossroads
to cut off their fugitives,
and do not hand over their survivors
in the day of distress.
- 15 For the day of the LORD is near,
against all the nations.
As you have done, it will be done to you;
what you deserve will return on your own head.
- 16 As you have drunk on my holy mountain,
so all the nations will drink continually.
They will drink and gulp down and be as though they had never been.
- 17 But there will be a deliverance on Mount Zion,
and it will be holy;
the house of Jacob will dispossess
those who dispossessed them.
- 18 Then the house of Jacob will be a blazing fire,
and the house of Joseph, a burning flame,
but the house of Esau
will be stubble;
Jacob will set them on fire and consume Edom.
Therefore no survivor will remain
of the house of Esau,
for the LORD has spoken.
- 19 People from the Negev will possess
the hill country of Esau;
those from the Judean foothills will possess
the land of the Philistines.
They will possess
the territories of Ephraim and Samaria,
while Benjamin will possess Gilead.
- 20 The exiles of the Israelites who are in Halah and who are among the Canaanites
as far as Zarephath
as well as the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad
will possess the cities of the Negev.
- 21 Saviors will ascend Mount Zion
to rule over the hill country of Esau, but the kingdom will be the LORD's.

JONAH

1 The word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai: ²“Get up! Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it because their evil has come up before me.” ³Jonah got up to flee to Tarshish from the LORD’s presence. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. He paid the fare and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish from the LORD’s presence.

⁴But the LORD threw a great wind onto the sea, and such a great storm arose on the sea that the ship threatened to break apart. ⁵The sailors were afraid, and each cried out to his god. They threw the ship’s cargo into the sea to lighten the load. Meanwhile, Jonah had gone down to the lowest part of the vessel and had stretched out and fallen into a deep sleep.

⁶The captain approached him and said, “What are you doing sound asleep? Get up! Call to your god. Maybe this god will consider us, and we won’t perish.”

⁷“Come on!” the sailors said to each other. “Let’s cast lots. Then we’ll know who is to blame for this trouble we’re in.” So they cast lots, and the lot singled out Jonah. ⁸Then they said to him, “Tell us who is to blame for this trouble we’re in. What is your business, and where are you from? What is your country, and what people are you from?”

⁹He answered them, “I’m a Hebrew. I worship the LORD, the God of the heavens, who made the sea and the dryland.”

¹⁰Then the men were seized by a great fear and said to him, “What is this you’ve done?” The men knew he was fleeing from the LORD’s presence because he had told them. ¹¹So they said to him, “What should we do to you so that the sea will calm down for us?” For the sea was getting worse and worse.

¹²He answered them, “Pick me up and throw me into the sea so that it will calm down for you, for I know that I’m to blame for this great storm that is against you.” ¹³Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to get back to dry land, but they couldn’t because the sea was raging against them more and more.

¹⁴So they called out to the LORD: “Please, LORD, don’t let us perish because of this man’s life, and don’t charge us with innocent blood! For you, LORD, have done just as you pleased.” ¹⁵Then they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped its raging. ¹⁶The men were seized by great fear of the LORD, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

¹⁷The LORD appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish:

² I called to the LORD in my distress,
and he answered me.
I cried out for help from deep inside Sheol;
you heard my voice.

³ You threw me into the depths,
into the heart of the seas,
and the current overcame me.
All your breakers and your billows swept over me.

⁴ But I said, “I have been banished from your sight,
yet I will look once more toward your holy temple.

⁵ The water engulfed me up to the neck;
the watery depths overcame me;
seaweed was wrapped around my head.

⁶ I sank to the foundations of the mountains,
the earth’s gates shut behind me forever!
Then you raised my life from the Pit, LORD my God!

⁷ As my life was fading away,
I remembered the LORD,
and my prayer came to you,
to your holy temple.

⁸ Those who cherish worthless idols
abandon their faithful love,

⁹ but as for me, I will sacrifice to you with a voice of thanksgiving.
I will fulfill what I have vowed.
Salvation belongs to the LORD.”

¹⁰Then the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

3 The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time: ²“Get up! Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach the message that I tell you.” ³Jonah got up and went to Nineveh according to the LORD’s command.

Now Nineveh was an extremely great city, a three-day walk. ⁴Jonah set out on the first day of his walk in the city and proclaimed, “In forty days Nineveh will be demolished!” ⁵Then the people of Nineveh believed God. They proclaimed a fast and dressed in sackcloth—from the greatest of them to the least.

⁶When word reached the king of Nineveh, he got up from his throne, took off his royal robe, put on sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ⁷Then he issued a decree in Nineveh: By order of the king and his nobles: No person or animal, herd or flock, is to taste anything at all. They must not eat or drink water. ⁸Furthermore, both people and animals must be covered with sackcloth, and everyone must call out earnestly to God. Each must turn from his evil ways and from his wrongdoing. ⁹Who knows? God may turn and relent; he may turn from his burning anger so that we will not perish.

¹⁰God saw their actions— that they had turned from their evil ways— so God relented from the disaster he had threatened them with. And he did not do it.

4 Jonah was greatly displeased and became furious. ²He prayed to the LORD: “Please, LORD, isn’t this what I thought while I was still in my own country? That’s why I fled toward Tarshish in the first place. I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger, abounding in faithful love, and one who relents from sending disaster. ³And now, LORD, take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.”

⁴The LORD asked, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

⁵Jonah left the city and found a place east of it. He made himself a shelter there and sat in its shade to see what would happen to the city. ⁶Then the LORD God appointed a plant, and it grew over Jonah to provide shade for his head to rescue him from his trouble. Jonah was greatly pleased with the plant. ⁷When dawn came the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the plant, and it withered.

⁸ As the sun was rising, God appointed a scorching east wind. The sun beat down on Jonah's head so much that he almost fainted, and he wanted to die. He said, "It's better for me to die than to live."

⁹ Then God asked Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?"

"Yes, it's right!" he replied. "I'm angry enough to die!"

¹⁰ So the LORD said, "You cared about the plant, which you did not labor over and did not grow. It appeared in a night and perished in a night. ¹¹ But may I not care about the great city of Nineveh, which has more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot distinguish between their right and their left, as well as many animals?"

MICAH

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Moreshite — what he saw regarding Samaria and Jerusalem in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

- 2 Listen, all you peoples;
pay attention, earth and everyone in it!
The Lord God will be a witness against you,
the Lord, from his holy temple.
- 3 Look, the LORD is leaving his place
and coming down to trample
the heights of the earth.
- 4 The mountains will melt beneath him,
and the valleys will split apart,
like wax near a fire,
like water cascading down a mountainside.
- 5 All this will happen because of Jacob's rebellion
and the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the rebellion of Jacob?
Isn't it Samaria?
And what is the high place of Judah?
Isn't it Jerusalem?
- 6 Therefore, I will make Samaria
a heap of ruins in the countryside,
a planting area for a vineyard.
I will roll her stones into the valley and expose her foundations.
- 7 All her carved images will be smashed to pieces;
all her wages will be burned in the fire,
and I will destroy all her idols.
Since she collected the wages of a prostitute,
they will be used again for a prostitute.
- 8 Because of this I will lament and wail;
I will walk barefoot and naked.
I will howl like the jackals
and mourn like ostriches.
- 9 For her wound is incurable
and has reached even Judah;
it has approached my people's city gate,
as far as Jerusalem.
- 10 Don't announce it in Gath,
don't weep at all.
Roll in the dust in Beth-leaphrah.
- 11 Depart in shameful nakedness,
you residents of Shaphir;
the residents of Zaanan will not come out.
Beth-ezel is lamenting;
its support is taken from you.
- 12 Though the residents of Maroth anxiously wait for something good, disaster has come from the LORD
to the gate of Jerusalem.
- 13 Harness the horses to the chariot,
you residents of Lachish.
This was the beginning of sin for Daughter Zion because Israel's acts of rebellion can be traced
to you.
- 14 Therefore, send farewell gifts to Moresheth-gath;
the houses of Achzib are a deception
to the kings of Israel.
- 15 I will again bring a conqueror against you who live in Mareshah.

2

- The nobility of Israel will come to Adullam.
- 16 Shave yourselves bald and cut off your hair
in sorrow for your precious children;
make yourselves as bald as an eagle,
for they have been taken from you into exile.
Woe to those who dream up wickedness
and prepare evil plans on their beds!
At morning light they accomplish it because the power is in their hands.
- 2 They covet fields and seize them;
they also take houses.
They deprive a man of his home,
a person of his inheritance.
- 3 Therefore, the LORD says:
I am now planning a disaster
against this nation;
you cannot free your necks from it.
Then you will not walk so proudly
because it will be an evil time.
- 4 In that day one will take up a taunt against you and lament mournfully, saying,
"We are totally ruined!
He measures out the allotted land of my people.
How he removes it from me!
He allots our fields to traitors."
- 5 Therefore, there will be no one in the assembly of the LORD to divide the land by casting lots.
- 6 "Quit your preaching," they preach.
"They should not preach these things;
shame will not overtake us."
- 7 House of Jacob, should it be asked,
"Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?
Are these the things he does?"
Don't my words bring good to the one who walks uprightly?
- 8 But recently my people have risen up like an enemy:
You strip off the splendid robe
from those who are passing through confidently,
like those returning from war.
- 9 You force the women of my people out of their comfortable homes,
and you take my blessing
from their children forever.
- 10 Get up and leave,
for this is not your place of rest because defilement brings destruction —
a grievous destruction!
- 11 If a man comes and utters empty lies —
"I will preach to you about wine and beer" —
he would be just the preacher for this people!
- 12 I will indeed gather all of you, Jacob;
I will collect the remnant of Israel.
I will bring them together like sheep in a pen,
like a flock in the middle of its pasture.
It will be noisy with people.
- 13 One who breaks open the way

will advance before them;
 they will break out, pass through the city gate,
 and leave by it.
 Their King will pass through before them,
 the LORD as their leader.

3 Then I said, "Now listen, leaders of Jacob,
 you rulers of the house of Israel.
 Aren't you supposed to know what is just?
 2 You hate good and love evil.
 You tear off people's skin
 and strip their flesh from their bones.
 3 You eat the flesh of my people after you strip their skin from them and break their bones.
 You chop them up
 like flesh for the cooking pot,
 like meat in a cauldron."
 4 Then they will cry out to the LORD,
 but he will not answer them.
 He will hide his face from them at that time
 because of the crimes they have committed.

5 This is what the LORD says
 concerning the prophets who lead my people astray,
 who proclaim peace
 when they have food to sink their teeth into but declare war against the one who puts nothing in their mouths.

6 Therefore, it will be night for you — without visions;
 it will grow dark for you —
 without divination.
 The sun will set on these prophets,
 and the daylight will turn black over them.

7 Then the seers will be ashamed and the diviners disappointed.
 They will all cover their mouths
 because there will be no answer from God.

8 As for me, however, I am filled with power
 by the Spirit of the LORD,
 with justice and courage,
 to proclaim to Jacob his rebellion
 and to Israel his sin.

9 Listen to this, leaders of the house of Jacob,
 you rulers of the house of Israel,
 who abhor justice
 and pervert everything that is right, 10 who build Zion with bloodshed and Jerusalem with injustice.
 11 Her leaders issue rulings for a bribe,
 her priests teach for payment,
 and her prophets practice divination for silver.
 Yet they lean on the LORD, saying,
 "Isn't the LORD among us?
 No disaster will overtake us."
 12 Therefore, because of you,
 Zion will be plowed like a field,
 Jerusalem will become ruins,
 and the temple's mountain
 will be a high thicket.

4 In the last days
 the mountain of the LORD's house will be established at the top of the mountains and will be raised above the hills.

Peoples will stream to it,
 and many nations will come and say,
 2 "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
 to the house of the God of Jacob.
 He will teach us about his ways
 so we may walk in his paths."
 For instruction will go out of Zion
 and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 He will settle disputes among many peoples and provide arbitration for strong nations that are far away.
 They will beat their swords into plows
 and their spears into pruning knives.
 Nation will not take up the sword against nation,
 and they will never again train for war.

4 But each person will sit under his grapevine and under his fig tree
 with no one to frighten him.
 For the mouth of the LORD of Armies has spoken.

5 Though all the peoples each walk
 in the name of their gods,
 we will walk in the name of the LORD our God
 forever and ever.

6 On that day —
 this is the LORD's declaration —
 I will assemble the lame
 and gather the scattered,
 those I have injured.

7 I will make the lame into a remnant,
 those far removed into a strong nation.
 Then the LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion
 from this time on and forever.

8 And you, watchtower for the flock, fortified hill of Daughter Zion,
 the former rule will come to you;
 sovereignty will come to Daughter Jerusalem.

9 Now, why are you shouting loudly?
 Is there no king with you?
 Has your counselor perished
 so that anguish grips you like a woman in labor?

10 Writhe and cry out, Daughter Zion,
 like a woman in labor,
 for now you will leave the city
 and camp in the open fields.
 You will go to Babylon;
 there you will be rescued;
 there the LORD will redeem you from the grasp of your enemies!

11 Many nations have now assembled against you;
 they say, "Let her be defiled,
 and let us feast our eyes on Zion."
 12 But they do not know the LORD's intentions or understand his plan,
 that he has gathered them
 like sheaves to the threshing floor.

13 Rise and thresh, Daughter Zion, for I will make your horns iron and your hooves bronze
 so you can crush many peoples.
 Then you will set apart their plunder
 for the LORD,
 their wealth for the Lord of the whole earth.

5 Now, daughter who is under attack,
 you slash yourself in grief;
 a siege is set against us!
 They are striking the judge of Israel
 on the cheek with a rod.

2 Bethlehem Ephrathah,
 you are small among the clans of Judah;
 one will come from you
 to be ruler over Israel for me.
 His origin is from antiquity,
 from ancient times.

3 Therefore, Israel will be abandoned until the time
 when she who is in labor has given birth;
 then the rest of the ruler's brothers will return to the people of Israel.

4 He will stand and shepherd them
 in the strength of the LORD,
 in the majestic name of the LORD his God.
 They will live securely,
 for then his greatness will extend
 to the ends of the earth.

5 He will be their peace.
 When Assyria invades our land,
 when it marches against our fortresses,
 we will raise against it seven shepherds,
 even eight leaders of men.

6 They will shepherd the land of Assyria
 with the sword,
 the land of Nimrod with a drawn blade.
 So he will rescue us from Assyria
 when it invades our land,
 when it marches against our territory.

7 Then the remnant of Jacob
 will be among many peoples
 like dew from the LORD,
 like showers on the grass,
 which do not wait for anyone
 or linger for mankind.

8 Then the remnant of Jacob
 will be among the nations,
 among many peoples,
 like a lion among animals of the forest,
 like a young lion among flocks of sheep,
 which tramples and tears
 as it passes through,
 and there is no one to rescue them.

9 Your hand will be lifted up against your adversaries,
 and all your enemies will be destroyed.

10 In that day —
 this is the LORD's declaration —
 I will remove your horses from you and wreck your chariots.

11 I will remove the cities of your land
 and tear down all your fortresses.

12 I will remove sorceries from your hands,
 and you will not have any more fortune-tellers.

13 I will remove your carved images and sacred pillars from you so that you will no longer worship
 the work of your hands.

14 I will pull up the Asherah poles from among you and demolish your cities.

15 I will take vengeance in anger and wrath against the nations that have not obeyed me.

6 Now listen to what the LORD is saying:
 Rise, plead your case before the mountains,
 and let the hills hear your complaint.

2 Listen to the LORD's lawsuit, you mountains and enduring foundations
 of the earth,
 because the LORD has a case against his people,
 and he will argue it against Israel.

3 My people, what have I done to you,
 or how have I wearied you?
 Testify against me!

4 Indeed, I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from that place of slavery.
 I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam ahead of you.

5 My people,
 remember what King Balak of Moab proposed,
 what Balaam son of Beor answered him,
 and what happened from the Acacia Grove
 to Gilgal
 so that you may acknowledge the LORD's righteous acts.

6 What should I bring before the LORD
 when I come to bow before God on high?
 Should I come before him with burnt offerings,
 with year-old calves?

7 Would the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams
 or with ten thousand streams of oil?
 Should I give my firstborn for my transgression,
 the offspring of my body for my own sin?

8 Mankind, he has told each of you what is good and what it is the LORD requires of you:
 to act justly,
 to love faithfulness,
 and to walk humbly with your God.

9 The voice of the LORD calls out to the city
 (and it is wise to fear your name):
 "Pay attention to the rod
 and the one who ordained it.

10 Are there still the treasures of wickedness and the accursed short measure
 in the house of the wicked?

11 Can I excuse wicked scales or bags of deceptive weights?

12 For the wealthy of the city are full of violence,
 and its residents speak lies;
 the tongues in their mouths are deceitful.

13 "As a result, I have begun to strike
 you severely,
 bringing desolation because of your sins.

14 You will eat but not be satisfied,
 for there will be hunger within you.
 What you acquire, you cannot save,
 and what you do save,
 I will give to the sword.

15 You will sow but not reap;
 you will press olives
 but not anoint yourself with oil;
 and you will tread grapes
 but not drink the wine.

16 The statutes of Omri and all the practices of Ahab's house
 have been observed;
 you have followed their policies.
 Therefore, I will make you a desolate place

- and the city's residents an object of contempt; you will bear the scorn of my people."
- 7 How sad for me!
For I am like one who—
when the summer fruit has been gathered after the gleaning of the grape harvest—finds no grape cluster to eat,
no early fig, which I crave.
- 2 Faithful people have vanished from the land;
there is no one upright among the people.
All of them wait in ambush to shed blood;
they hunt each other with a net.
- 3 Both hands are good at accomplishing evil:
the official and the judge demand a bribe;
when the powerful man communicates
his evil desire,
they plot it together.
- 4 The best of them is like a brier;
the most upright is worse than a hedge of thorns.
The day of your watchmen,
the day of your punishment, is coming;
at this time their panic is here.
- 5 Do not rely on a friend;
don't trust in a close companion.
Seal your mouth
from the woman who lies in your arms.
- 6 Surely a son considers his father a fool,
a daughter opposes her mother,
and a daughter-in-law is against her mother-in-law;
a man's enemies are the men
of his own household.
- 7 But I will look to the LORD;
I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.
- 8 Do not rejoice over me, my enemy!
Though I have fallen, I will stand up;
though I sit in darkness,
the LORD will be my light.
- 9 Because I have sinned against him,
I must endure the LORD's rage
until he champions my cause and establishes justice for me.
He will bring me into the light;
I will see his salvation.
- 10 Then my enemy will see,
and she will be covered with shame,
the one who said to me,
"Where is the LORD your God?"
My eyes will look at her in triumph;
at that time she will be trampled like mud in the streets.
- 11 A day will come for rebuilding your walls;
on that day your boundary will be extended.
- 12 On that day people will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, even from Egypt to the Euphrates River and from sea to sea
and mountain to mountain.
- 13 Then the earth will become a wasteland
because of its inhabitants and as a result of their actions.
- 14 Shepherd your people with your staff,
the flock that is your possession.
They live alone in a woodland surrounded by pastures.
Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead
as in ancient times.
- 15 I will perform miracles for them
as in the days of your exodus
from the land of Egypt.
- 16 Nations will see and be ashamed of all their power.
They will put their hands over their mouths,
and their ears will become deaf.
- 17 They will lick the dust like a snake;
they will come trembling out of their hiding places
like reptiles slithering on the ground.
They will tremble in the presence of the LORD
our God;
they will stand in awe of you.
- 18 Who is a God like you,
forgiving iniquity and passing over rebellion
for the remnant of his inheritance?
He does not hold on to his anger forever
because he delights in faithful love.
- 19 He will again have compassion on us;
he will vanquish our iniquities.
You will cast all our sins
into the depths of the sea.
- 20 You will show loyalty to Jacob and faithful love to Abraham,
as you swore to our fathers
from days long ago.

NAHUM

1 The pronouncement concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 The LORD is a jealous and avenging God; the LORD takes vengeance and is fierce in wrath.

The LORD takes vengeance against his foes; he is furious with his enemies.

3 The LORD is slow to anger but great in power; the LORD will never leave the guilty unpunished.

His path is in the whirlwind and storm, and clouds are the dust beneath his feet.

4 He rebukes the sea and dries it up, and he makes all the rivers run dry. Bashan and Carmel wither; even the flower of Lebanon withers.

5 The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt; the earth trembles at his presence — the world and all who live in it.

6 Who can withstand his indignation? Who can endure his burning anger? His wrath is poured out like fire; even rocks are shattered before him.

7 The LORD is good, a stronghold in a day of distress; he cares for those who take refuge in him.

8 But he will completely destroy Nineveh with an overwhelming flood, and he will chase his enemies into darkness.

9 Whatever you plot against the LORD, he will bring it to complete destruction; oppression will not rise up a second time.

10 For they will be consumed like entangled thorns, like the drink of a drunkard and like straw that is fully dry.

11 One has gone out from you, who plots evil against the LORD, and is a wicked counselor.

12 This is what the LORD says: Though they are strong and numerous, they will still be mowed down, and he will pass away. Though I have punished you, I will punish you no longer.

13 For I will now break off his yoke from you and tear off your shackles.

14 The LORD has issued an order concerning you: There will be no offspring to carry on your name. I will eliminate the carved idol and cast image from the house of your gods; I will prepare your grave, for you are contemptible.

15 Look to the mountains — the feet of the herald, who proclaims peace. Celebrate your festivals, Judah; fulfill your vows.

For the wicked one will never again march through you; he will be entirely wiped out.

2 One who scatters is coming up against you. Man the fortifications!

Watch the road!

Brace yourself!

Summon all your strength!

2 For the LORD will restore the majesty of Jacob,

yes, the majesty of Israel, though ravagers have ravaged them and ruined their vine branches.

3 The shields of his warriors are dyed red; the valiant men are dressed in scarlet. The fittings of the chariot flash like fire on the day of its battle preparations, and the spears are brandished.

4 The chariots dash madly through the streets; they rush around in the plazas.

They look like torches; they dart back and forth like lightning.

5 He gives orders to his officers; they stumble as they advance.

They race to its wall; the protective shield is set in place.

6 The river gates are opened, and the palace erodes away.

7 Beauty is stripped; she is carried away; her ladies-in-waiting moan like the sound of doves and beat their breasts.

8 Nineveh has been like a pool of water from her first days, but they are fleeing. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one turns back.

9 "Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold!" There is no end to the treasure, an abundance of every precious thing.

10 Desolation, decimation, devastation! Hearts melt, knees tremble, insides churn, every face grows pale!

11 Where is the lions' lair, or the feeding ground of the young lions, where the lion and lioness prowled, and the lion's cub, with nothing to frighten them away?

12 The lion mauled whatever its cubs needed and strangled prey for its lionesses. It filled up its dens with the kill, and its lairs with mauled prey.

13 Beware, I am against you.

This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.

I will make your chariots go up in smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions. I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the sound of your messengers

will never be heard again.

3 Woe to the city of blood, totally deceitful,
full of plunder,
never without prey.

2 The crack of the whip
and rumble of the wheel, galloping horse
and jolting chariot!

3 Charging horseman,
flashing sword,
shining spear;
heaps of slain,
mounds of corpses,
dead bodies without end —
they stumble over their dead.

4 Because of the continual prostitution
of the prostitute,
the attractive mistress of sorcery,
who treats nations
and clans like merchandise
by her prostitution and sorcery,
5 I am against you.

This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.
I will lift your skirts over your face and display your nakedness to nations,
your shame to kingdoms.

6 I will throw filth on you and treat you with contempt;
I will make a spectacle of you.

7 Then all who see you will recoil from you, saying,
"Nineveh is devastated;
who will show sympathy to her?"
Where can I find anyone to comfort you?

8 Are you better than Thebes that sat along the Nile
with water surrounding her,
whose rampart was the sea,
the river her wall?

9 Cush and Egypt were her endless source of strength;
Put and Libya were among her allies.

10 Yet she became an exile;
she went into captivity.

Her children were also dashed to pieces
at the head of every street.
They cast lots for her dignitaries,
and all her nobles were bound in chains.

11 You also will become drunk;
you will hide.
You also will seek refuge from the enemy.

12 All your fortresses are fig trees with figs that ripened first;
when shaken, they fall —
right into the mouth of the eater!

13 Look, your troops are like women among you;
your land's city gates
are wide open to your enemies.
Fire will devour the bars of your gates.

14 Draw water for the siege;
strengthen your fortresses.
Step into the clay and tread the mortar;
take hold of the brick-mold!

15 The fire will devour you there;
the sword will cut you down.
It will devour you like the young locust.
Multiply yourselves like the young locust;
multiply like the swarming locust!

16 You have made your merchants
more numerous than the stars of the sky.
The young locust strips the land and flies away.

17 Your court officials are like the swarming locust,
and your scribes like clouds of locusts,
which settle on the walls on a cold day;
when the sun rises, they take off,
and no one knows where they are.

18 King of Assyria, your shepherds slumber;
your officers sleep.
Your people are scattered across the mountains
with no one to gather them together.

19 There is no remedy for your injury;
your wound is severe.
All who hear the news about you will clap their hands because of you,
for who has not experienced
your constant cruelty?

HABAKKUK

1 The pronouncement that the prophet Habakkuk saw.

- ² How long, LORD, must I call for help and you do not listen
or cry out to you about violence
and you do not save?
- ³ Why do you force me to look at injustice?
Why do you tolerate wrongdoing?
Oppression and violence are right in front of me.
Strife is ongoing, and conflict escalates.
- ⁴ This is why the law is ineffective
and justice never emerges.
For the wicked restrict the righteous;
therefore, justice comes out perverted.
- ⁵ Look at the nations and observe —
be utterly astounded!
For I am doing something in your days that you will not believe
when you hear about it.
- ⁶ Look! I am raising up the Chaldeans, that bitter, impetuous nation
that marches across the earth's open spaces
to seize territories not its own.
- ⁷ They are fierce and terrifying;
their views of justice and sovereignty
stem from themselves.
- ⁸ Their horses are swifter than leopards
and more fierce than wolves of the night.
Their horsemen charge ahead;
their horsemen come from distant lands.
They fly like eagles, swooping to devour.
- ⁹ All of them come to do violence;
their faces are set in determination.
They gather prisoners like sand.
- ¹⁰ They mock kings,
and rulers are a joke to them.
They laugh at every fortress and build siege ramps to capture it.
- ¹¹ Then they sweep by like the wind and pass through.
They are guilty; their strength is their god.
- ¹² Are you not from eternity, LORD my God?
My Holy One, you will not die.
LORD, you appointed them to execute judgment;
my Rock, you destined them to punish us.
- ¹³ Your eyes are too pure to look on evil,
and you cannot tolerate wrongdoing.
So why do you tolerate those who are treacherous?
Why are you silent
while one who is wicked swallows up one who is more righteous than himself?
- ¹⁴ You have made mankind
like the fish of the sea,
like marine creatures that have no ruler.
- ¹⁵ The Chaldeans pull them all up with a hook,
catch them in their dragnet,
and gather them in their fishing net;
that is why they are glad and rejoice.
- ¹⁶ That is why they sacrifice to their dragnet
and burn incense to their fishing net,

for by these things their portion is rich
and their food plentiful.

- ¹⁷ Will they therefore empty their net
and continually slaughter nations without mercy?

2 I will stand at my guard post
and station myself on the lookout tower.
I will watch to see what he will say to me
and what I should reply about my complaint.

²The LORD answered me:
Write down this vision;
clearly inscribe it on tablets
so one may easily read it.

- ³ For the vision is yet
for the appointed time;
it testifies about the end
and will not lie.
Though it delays, wait for it,
since it will certainly come and not be late.

⁴ Look, his ego is inflated;
he is without integrity.
But the righteous one will live by his faith.

⁵ Moreover, wine betrays;
an arrogant man is never at rest.
He enlarges his appetite like Sheol,
and like Death he is never satisfied.
He gathers all the nations to himself;
he collects all the peoples for himself.

⁶ Won't all of these take up a taunt against him,
with mockery and riddles about him?
They will say:

Woe to him who amasses what is not his —
how much longer? —
and loads himself with goods taken in pledge.

⁷ Won't your creditors suddenly arise,
and those who disturb you wake up?
Then you will become spoil for them.

⁸ Since you have plundered many nations,
all the peoples who remain will plunder you — because of human bloodshed
and violence against lands, cities,
and all who live in them.

⁹ Woe to him who dishonestly makes wealth for his house
to place his nest on high,
to escape the grasp of disaster!

¹⁰ You have planned shame for your house
by wiping out many peoples and sinning against your own self.
¹¹ For the stones will cry out from the wall,
and the rafters will answer them
from the woodwork.

¹² Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed and founds a town with injustice!

¹³ Is it not from the LORD of Armies that the peoples labor only to fuel the fire and countries exhaust themselves for nothing?

¹⁴ For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the LORD's glory,
as the water covers the sea.

- 15 Woe to him who gives his neighbors drink, pouring out your wrath
and even making them drunk,
in order to look at their nakedness!
- 16 You will be filled with disgrace instead of glory.
You also — drink,
and expose your uncircumcision!
The cup in the LORD's right hand
will come around to you,
and utter disgrace will cover your glory.
- 17 For your violence against Lebanon
will overwhelm you;
the destruction of animals will terrify you because of your human bloodshed and violence against lands, cities, and all who live in them.
- 18 What use is a carved idol
after its craftsman carves it?
It is only a cast image, a teacher of lies.
For the one who crafts its shape trusts in it and makes idols that cannot speak.
- 19 Woe to him who says to wood: Wake up!
or to mute stone: Come alive!
Can it teach?
Look! It may be plated with gold and silver,
yet there is no breath in it at all.
- 20 But the LORD is in his holy temple;
let the whole earth
be silent in his presence.

3 A prayer of the prophet Habakkuk.
According to Shigionoth.

- 2 LORD, I have heard the report about you;
LORD, I stand in awe of your deeds.
Revive your work in these years;
make it known in these years.
In your wrath remember mercy!
- 3 God comes from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran.
His splendor covers the heavens,
and the earth is full of his praise.
- 4 His brilliance is like light;
rays are flashing from his hand.
This is where his power is hidden.
- 5 Plague goes before him,
and pestilence follows in his steps.
- 6 He stands and shakes the earth;
he looks and startles the nations.
The age-old mountains break apart;
the ancient hills sink down.
His pathways are ancient.

Selah

- 7 I see the tents of Cushan in distress;
the tent curtains of the land of Midian tremble.
- 8 Are you angry at the rivers, LORD?
Is your wrath against the rivers?
Or is your rage against the sea
when you ride on your horses,
your victorious chariot?
- 9 You took the sheath from your bow;
the arrows are ready to be used with an oath. Selah
You split the earth with rivers.
The mountains see you and shudder;
a downpour of water sweeps by.
The deep roars with its voice
and lifts its waves high.
- 11 Sun and moon stand still in their lofty residence,
at the flash of your flying arrows,
at the brightness of your shining spear.
- 12 You march across the earth with indignation;
you trample down the nations in wrath.
- 13 You come out to save your people,
to save your anointed.
You crush the leader of the house of the wicked
and strip him from foot to neck. Selah
- 14 You pierce his head
with his own spears;
his warriors storm out to scatter us,
gloating as if ready to secretly devour the weak.
- 15 You tread the sea with your horses, stirring up the vast water.
- 16 I heard, and I trembled within;
my lips quivered at the sound.
Rottenness entered my bones;
I trembled where I stood.
Now I must quietly wait for the day of distress
to come against the people invading us.
- 17 Though the fig tree does not bud
and there is no fruit on the vines, though the olive crop fails
and the fields produce no food, though the flocks disappear from the pen
and there are no herds in the stalls,
yet I will celebrate in the LORD;
I will rejoice in the God of my salvation!
- 19 The LORD my Lord is my strength;
he makes my feet like those of a deer
and enables me to walk on mountain heights!
- For the choir director: on stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH

1 The word of the LORD that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaiiah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 I will completely sweep away everything from the face of the earth —
this is the LORD's declaration.

3 I will sweep away people and animals;
I will sweep away the birds of the sky
and the fish of the sea,
and the ruins along with the wicked.
I will cut off mankind
from the face of the earth.

This is the LORD's declaration.

4 I will stretch out my hand against Judah
and against all the residents of Jerusalem.
I will cut off every vestige of Baal
from this place,

the names of the pagan priests
along with the priests;

5 those who bow in worship on the rooftops
to the stars in the sky;

those who bow and pledge loyalty to the LORD
but also pledge loyalty to Milcom;

6 and those who turn back from following the LORD,
who do not seek the LORD or inquire of him.

7 Be silent in the presence of the Lord God,
for the day of the LORD is near.

Indeed, the LORD has prepared a sacrifice;
he has consecrated his guests.

8 On the day of the LORD's sacrifice
I will punish the officials, the king's sons,
and all who are dressed in foreign clothing.

9 On that day I will punish all who skip over the threshold, who fill their master's house
with violence and deceit.

10 On that day —
this is the LORD's declaration —
there will be an outcry from the Fish Gate,
a wailing from the Second District,
and a loud crashing from the hills.

11 Wail, you residents of the Hollow,
for all the merchants will be silenced;
all those loaded with silver will be cut off.

12 And at that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps
and punish those who settle down comfortably,
who say to themselves:
The LORD will not do good or evil.
13 Their wealth will become plunder
and their houses a ruin.
They will build houses but never live in them,
plant vineyards but never drink their wine.

14 The great day of the LORD is near,
near and rapidly approaching.
Listen, the day of the LORD —
then the warrior's cry is bitter.

15 That day is a day of wrath,
a day of trouble and distress,
a day of destruction and desolation,

a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and total darkness,
16 a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities,
and against the high corner towers.

17 I will bring distress on mankind,
and they will walk like the blind
because they have sinned against the LORD.
Their blood will be poured out like dust
and their flesh like dung.

18 Their silver and their gold will be unable to rescue them
on the day of the LORD's wrath.
The whole earth will be consumed
by the fire of his jealousy,
for he will make a complete,
yes, a horrifying end
of all the inhabitants of the earth.

2 Gather yourselves together;
gather together, undesirable nation,

2 before the decree takes effect
and the day passes like chaff,
before the burning of the LORD's anger
overtakes you,
before the day of the LORD's anger overtakes you.

3 Seek the LORD, all you humble of the earth,
who carry out what he commands.
Seek righteousness, seek humility;
perhaps you will be concealed
on the day of the LORD's anger.

4 For Gaza will be abandoned,
and Ashkelon will become a ruin.
Ashdod will be driven out at noon,
and Ekron will be uprooted.

5 Woe, inhabitants of the seacoast, nation of the Cherethites!
The word of the LORD is against you,
Canaan, land of the Philistines:
I will destroy you until there is no one left.

6 The seacoast will become pasturelands with caves for shepherds and pens for sheep.

7 The coastland will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah;
they will find pasture there.
They will lie down in the evening
among the houses of Ashkelon,
for the LORD their God will return to them
and restore their fortunes.

8 I have heard the taunting of Moab
and the insults of the Ammonites, who have taunted my people
and threatened their territory.

9 Therefore, as I live —
this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies,
the God of Israel —

Moab will be like Sodom
and the Ammonites like Gomorrah:
a place overgrown with weeds,
a salt pit, and a perpetual wasteland.
The remnant of my people will plunder them;

- the remainder of my nation will dispossess them.
- 10 This is what they get for their pride, because they have taunted and acted arrogantly against the people of the LORD of Armies.
- 11 The LORD will be terrifying to them when he starves all the gods of the earth. Then all the distant coasts and islands of the nations will bow in worship to him, each in its own place.
- 12 You Cushites will also be slain by my sword.
- 13 He will also stretch out his hand against the north and destroy Assyria; he will make Nineveh a desolate ruin, dry as the desert.
- 14 Herds will lie down in the middle of it, every kind of wild animal. Both eagle owls and herons will roost in the capitals of its pillars. Their calls will sound from the window, but devastation will be on the threshold, for he will expose the cedar work.
- 15 This is the jubilant city that lives in security, that thinks to herself: I exist, and there is no one else. What a desolation she has become, a place for wild animals to lie down! Everyone who passes by her scoffs and shakes his fist.
- 3 Woe to the city that is rebellious and defiled, the oppressive city!
- 2 She has not obeyed; she has not accepted discipline. She has not trusted in the LORD; she has not drawn near to her God.
- 3 The princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are wolves of the night, which leave nothing for the morning.
- 4 Her prophets are reckless — treacherous men. Her priests profane the sanctuary; they do violence to instruction.
- 5 The righteous LORD is in her; he does no wrong. He applies his justice morning by morning; he does not fail at dawn, yet the one who does wrong knows no shame.
- 6 I have cut off nations; their corner towers are destroyed. I have laid waste their streets, with no one to pass through. Their cities lie devastated, without a person, without an inhabitant.
- 7 I thought: You will certainly fear me and accept correction. Then her dwelling place would not be cut off based on all that I had allocated to her. However, they became more corrupt in all their actions.
- 8 Therefore, wait for me — this is the LORD's declaration —
- until the day I rise up for plunder. For my decision is to gather nations, to assemble kingdoms, in order to pour out my indignation on them, all my burning anger; for the whole earth will be consumed by the fire of my jealousy.
- 9 For I will then restore pure speech to the peoples so that all of them may call on the name of the LORD and serve him with a single purpose.
- 10 From beyond the rivers of Cush my supplicants, my dispersed people, will bring an offering to me.
- 11 On that day you will not be put to shame because of everything you have done in rebelling against me. For then I will remove from among you your jubilant, arrogant people, and you will never again be haughty on my holy mountain.
- 12 I will leave a meek and humble people among you, and they will take refuge in the name of the LORD.
- 13 The remnant of Israel will no longer do wrong or tell lies; a deceitful tongue will not be found in their mouths. They will pasture and lie down, with nothing to make them afraid.
- 14 Sing for joy, Daughter Zion; shout loudly, Israel! Be glad and celebrate with all your heart, Daughter Jerusalem!
- 15 The LORD has removed your punishment; he has turned back your enemy. The King of Israel, the LORD, is among you; you need no longer fear harm.
- 16 On that day it will be said to Jerusalem: "Do not fear; Zion, do not let your hands grow weak. The LORD your God is among you, a warrior who saves. He will rejoice over you with gladness. He will be quiet in his love. He will delight in you with singing."
- 18 I will gather those who have been driven from the appointed festivals; they will be a tribute from you and a reproach on her.
- 19 Yes, at that time I will deal with all who oppress you. I will save the lame and gather the outcasts; I will make those who were disgraced throughout the earth receive praise and fame.
- 20 At that time I will bring you back, yes, at the time I will gather you. I will give you fame and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes. The LORD has spoken.

HAGGAI

1 In the second year of King Darius, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest:

²“The LORD of Armies says this: These people say: The time has not come for the house of the LORD to be rebuilt.”

³The word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai: ⁴“Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?” ⁵Now, the LORD of Armies says this: “Think carefully about your ways:

⁶ You have planted much but harvested little.
You eat
but never have enough to be satisfied.
You drink
but never have enough to be happy.
You put on clothes
but never have enough to get warm.
The wage earner puts his wages
into a bag with a hole in it.”

⁷The LORD of Armies says this: “Think carefully about your ways. ⁸Go up into the hills, bring down lumber, and build the house; and I will be pleased with it and be glorified,” says the LORD. ⁹“You expected much, but then it amounted to little. When you brought the harvest to your house, I ruined it. Why?” This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies. “Because my house still lies in ruins, while each of you is busy with his own house.

¹⁰ So on your account,
the skies have withheld the dew
and the land its crops.

¹¹ I have summoned a drought on the fields and the hills,
on the grain, new wine, fresh oil,
and whatever the ground yields,
on man and animal,
and on all that your hands produce.”

¹²Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the entire remnant of the people obeyed the LORD their God and the words of the prophet Haggai, because the LORD their God had sent him. So the people feared the LORD.

¹³Then Haggai, the LORD’s messenger, delivered the LORD’s message to the people: “I am with you — this is the LORD’s declaration.”

¹⁴The LORD roused the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, the spirit of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. They began work on the house of the LORD of Armies, their God, ¹⁵on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

2 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai: ²“Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and to the remnant of the people: ³‘Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Doesn’t it seem to you like nothing by comparison?’ ⁴Even so, be strong, Zerubbabel — this is the LORD’s declaration. Be strong, Joshua son of Jehozadak, high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land — this is the LORD’s declaration. Work! For I am with you — the declaration of the LORD of Armies. ⁵This is the promise I made to you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit is present among you; don’t be afraid.”

⁶For the LORD of Armies says this: “Once more, in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. ⁷I will shake all the nations so that the treasures of all the nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,” says the LORD of Armies. ⁸“The silver and gold belong to me” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies. ⁹“The final glory of this house will be greater than the first,” says the LORD of Armies. “I will provide peace in this place” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.

¹⁰On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Haggai: ¹¹“This is what the LORD of Armies says: Ask the priests for a ruling. ¹²If a man is carrying consecrated meat in the fold of his garment, and it touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any other food, does it become holy?”

The priests answered, “No.”

¹³Then Haggai asked, “If someone defiled by contact with a corpse touches any of these, does it become defiled?”

The priests answered, “It becomes defiled.”

¹⁴Then Haggai replied, “So is this people, and so is this nation before me — this is the LORD’s declaration. And so is every work of their hands; even what they offer there is defiled.

¹⁵“Now from this day on, think carefully: Before one stone was placed on another in the LORD’s temple, ¹⁶what state were you in? When someone came to a grain heap of twenty measures, it only amounted to ten; when one came to the winepress to dip fifty measures from the vat, it only amounted to twenty. ¹⁷I struck you — all the work of your hands — with blight, mildew, and hail, but you didn’t turn to me — this is the LORD’s declaration. ¹⁸“From this day on, think carefully; from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day the foundation of the LORD’s temple was laid; think carefully. ¹⁹Is there still seed left in the granary? The vine, the fig, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yet produced. But from this day on I will bless you.”

²⁰The word of the LORD came to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month: ²¹“Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah: I am going to shake the heavens and the earth. ²²I will overturn royal thrones and destroy the power of the Gentile kingdoms. I will overturn chariots and their riders. Horses and their riders will fall, each by his brother’s sword. ²³On that day” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies — “I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant” — this is the LORD’s declaration — “and make you like my signet ring, for I have chosen you.” This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.

ZECHARIAH

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo. ² The LORD was extremely angry with your ancestors. ³ So tell the people, "This is what the LORD of Armies says: Return to me — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies — and I will return to you, says the LORD of Armies. ⁴ Do not be like your ancestors; the earlier prophets proclaimed to them: This is what the LORD of Armies says: Turn from your evil ways and your evil deeds. But they did not listen or pay attention to me — this is the LORD's declaration. ⁵ Where are your ancestors now? And do the prophets live forever? ⁶ But didn't my words and my statutes that I commanded my servants the prophets overtake your ancestors?"

So the people repented and said, "As the LORD of Armies decided to deal with us for our ways and our deeds, so he has dealt with us."

⁷ On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo:

⁸ I looked out in the night and saw a man riding on a chestnut horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in the valley. Behind him were chestnut, brown, and white horses. ⁹ I asked, "What are these, my lord?"

The angel who was talking to me replied, "I will show you what they are."

¹⁰ Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained, "They are the ones the LORD has sent to patrol the earth."

¹² Then the angel of the LORD responded, "How long, LORD of Armies, will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah that you have been angry with these seventy years?" ¹³ The LORD replied with kind and comforting words to the angel who was speaking with me.

¹⁴ So the angel who was speaking with me said, "Proclaim: The LORD of Armies says: I am extremely jealous for Jerusalem and Zion. ¹⁵ I am fiercely angry with the nations that are at ease, for I was a little angry, but they made the destruction worse. ¹⁶ Therefore, this is what the LORD says: In mercy, I have returned to Jerusalem; my house will be rebuilt within it — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies — and a measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.

¹⁷ Proclaim further: This is what the LORD of Armies says: My cities will again overflow with prosperity; the LORD will once more comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem."

¹⁸ Then I looked up and saw four horns. ¹⁹ So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these?"

And he said to me, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

²⁰ Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen. ²¹ I asked, "What are they coming to do?"

He replied, "These are the horns that scattered Judah so no one could raise his head. These craftsmen have come to terrify them, to cut off the horns of the nations that raised a horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

2 I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand. ² I asked, "Where are you going?"

He answered me, "To measure Jerusalem to determine its width and length."

³ Then the angel who was speaking with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him. ⁴ He said to him, "Run and tell this young man: Jerusalem will be inhabited without walls because of the number of people and livestock in it." ⁵ The declaration of the LORD: "I myself will be a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory within it."

⁶ "Listen! Listen! Flee from the land of the north" — this is the LORD's declaration — "for I have scattered you like the four winds of heaven" — this is the LORD's declaration.

¹⁰ "Daughter Zion, shout for joy and be glad, for I am coming to dwell among you" — this is the LORD's declaration. ¹¹ "Many nations will join themselves to the LORD on that day and become my people. I will dwell among you, and you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me to you. ¹² The LORD will take possession of Judah as his portion in the Holy Land, and he will once again choose Jerusalem. ¹³ Let all people be silent before the LORD, for from his holy dwelling he has roused himself."

3 Then he showed me the high priest Joshua standing before the angel of the LORD, with Satan standing at his right side to accuse him. ² The LORD said to Satan: "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! May the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn't this man a burning stick snatched from the fire?"

³ Now Joshua was dressed with filthy clothes as he stood before the angel. ⁴ So the angel of the LORD spoke to those standing before him, "Take off his filthy clothes!" Then he said to him, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, and I will clothe you with festive robes."

⁵ Then I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So a clean turban was placed on his head, and they clothed him in garments while the angel of the LORD was standing nearby.

⁶ Then the angel of the LORD charged Joshua: ⁷ "This is what the LORD of Armies says: If you walk in my ways and keep my mandates, you will both rule my house and take care of my courts; I will also grant you access among these who are standing here.

⁸ "Listen, High Priest Joshua, you and your colleagues sitting before you; indeed, these men are a sign that I am about to bring my servant, the Branch. ⁹ Notice the stone I have set before Joshua; on that one stone are seven eyes. I will engrave an inscription on it" — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies — "and I will take away the iniquity of this land in a single day. ¹⁰ On that day, each of you will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and fig tree." This is the declaration of the LORD of Armies.

4 The angel who was speaking with me then returned and roused me as one awakened out of sleep. ² He asked me, "What do you see?"

I replied, "I see a solid gold lampstand with a bowl at the top. The lampstand also has seven lamps at the top with seven spouts for each of the lamps. ³ There are also two olive trees beside it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left."

⁴ Then I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?"

⁵ "Don't you know what they are?" replied the angel who was speaking with me.

I said, "No, my lord."

⁶ So he answered me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: 'Not by strength or by might, but by my Spirit,' says the LORD of Armies. ⁷ What are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain. And he will bring out the capstone accompanied by shouts of Grace, grace to it!"

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹ "Zerubbabel's hands have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me to you. ¹⁰ For who despises the day of small things? These seven eyes of the LORD, which scan throughout the whole earth, will rejoice when they see the ceremonial stone in Zerubbabel's hand."

¹¹ I asked him, "What are the two olive trees on the right and left of the lampstand?" ¹² And I questioned him further, "What are the two streams of the olive trees, from which the golden oil is pouring through the two golden conduits?"

¹³ Then he inquired of me, "Don't you know what these are?"

"No, my lord," I replied.

¹⁴ "These are the two anointed ones," he said, "who stand by the LORD of the whole earth."

5 I looked up again and saw a flying scroll. ² "What do you see?" he asked me.

"I see a flying scroll," I replied, "thirty feet long and fifteen feet wide."

³ Then he said to me, "This is the curse that is going out over the whole land, for everyone who is a thief, contrary to what is written on one side, has gone unpunished, and everyone who swears falsely, contrary to what is written on the other side, has gone unpunished. ⁴ I will send it out," — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies — "and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by my name. It will stay inside his house and destroy it along with its timbers and stones."

⁵ Then the angel who was speaking with me came forward and told me, "Look up and see what this is that is approaching."

⁶ So I asked, "What is it?"

He responded, "It's a measuring basket that is approaching." And he continued, "This is their iniquity in all the land." ⁷ Then a lead cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting inside the basket. ⁸ "This is Wickedness," he said. He shoved her down into the basket and pushed the lead weight over its opening. ⁹ Then I looked up and saw two women approaching with the wind in their wings. Their wings were like those of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and sky.

¹⁰ So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "Where are they taking the basket?"

¹¹ "To build a shrine for it in the land of Shinar," he told me. "When that is ready, the basket will be placed there on its pedestal."

6 Then I looked up again and saw four chariots coming from between two mountains. The mountains were made of bronze. ² The first chariot had chestnut horses, the second chariot black horses, ³ the third chariot white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled horses — all strong horses. ⁴ So I inquired of the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?"

⁹ The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁰ "Take an offering from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon, and go that same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. ¹¹ Take silver and gold, make a crown, and place it on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. ¹² You are to tell him: This is what the LORD of Armies says: Here is a man whose name is Branch; he will branch out from his place and build the LORD's temple. ¹³ Yes, he will build the LORD's temple; he will be clothed in splendor and will sit on his throne and rule. There will also be a priest on his throne, and there will be peaceful counsel between the two of them. ¹⁴ The crown will reside in the LORD's temple as a memorial to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen son of Zephaniah. ¹⁵ People who are far off will come and build the LORD's temple, and you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me to you. This will happen when you fully obey the LORD your God."

7 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chisleu. ² Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer, Regem-melech, and their men to plead for the LORD's favor ³ by asking the priests who were at the house of the LORD of Armies as well as the prophets, "Should we mourn and fast in the fifth month as we have done these many years?"

⁴ Then the word of the LORD of Armies came to me: ⁵ "Ask all the people of the land and the priests: When you fasted and lamented in the fifth and in the seventh months for these seventy years, did you really fast for me? ⁶ When you eat and drink, don't you eat and drink simply for yourselves? ⁷ Aren't these the words that the LORD proclaimed through the earlier prophets when Jerusalem was inhabited and secure, along with its surrounding cities, and when the southern region and the Judean foothills were inhabited?"

⁸ The word of the LORD came to Zechariah: ⁹ "The LORD of Armies says this: 'Make fair decisions. Show faithful love and compassion to one another. ¹⁰ Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the resident alien or the poor, and do not plot evil in your hearts against one another.' ¹¹ But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder; they closed their ears so they could not hear. ¹² They made their hearts like a rock so as not to obey the law or the words that the LORD of Armies had sent by his Spirit through the earlier prophets. Therefore intense anger came from the LORD of Armies. ¹³ Just as he had called, and they would not listen, so when they called, I would not listen, says the LORD of Armies. ¹⁴ I scattered them with a windstorm over all the nations that had not known them, and the land was left desolate behind them, with no one coming or going. They turned a pleasant land into a desolation.”

8 The word of the LORD of Armies came: ² The LORD of Armies says this: “I am extremely jealous for Zion; I am jealous for her with great wrath.” ³ The LORD says this: “I will return to Zion and live in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the Faithful City; the mountain of the LORD of Armies will be called the Holy Mountain.” ⁴ The LORD of Armies says this: “Old men and women will again sit along the streets of Jerusalem, each with a staff in hand because of advanced age. ⁵ The streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in them.” ⁶ The LORD of Armies says this: “Though it may seem impossible to the remnant of this people in those days, should it also seem impossible to me?” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies. ⁷ The LORD of Armies says this: “I will save my people from the land of the east and the land of the west. ⁸ I will bring them back to live in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their faithful and righteous God.”

⁹ The LORD of Armies says this: “Let your hands be strong, you who now hear these words that the prophets spoke when the foundations were laid for the rebuilding of the temple, the house of the LORD of Armies. ¹⁰ For prior to those days neither man nor animal had wages. There was no safety from the enemy for anyone who came or went, for I turned everyone against his neighbor. ¹¹ But now, I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days” — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies. ¹² “For they will sow in peace: the vine will yield its fruit, the land will yield its produce, and the skies will yield their dew. I will give the remnant of this people all these things as an inheritance. ¹³ As you have been a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you will be a blessing. Don’t be afraid; let your hands be strong.” ¹⁴ For the LORD of Armies says this: “As I resolved to treat you badly when your fathers provoked me to anger, and I did not relent,” says the LORD of Armies, ¹⁵ “so I have resolved again in these days to do what is good to Jerusalem and the house of Judah. Don’t be afraid. ¹⁶ These are the things you must do: Speak truth to one another; make true and sound decisions within your city gates. ¹⁷ Do not plot evil in your hearts against your neighbor, and do not love perjury, for I hate all this” — this is the LORD’s declaration.

¹⁸ Then the word of the LORD of Armies came to me: ¹⁹ The LORD of Armies says this: “The fast of the fourth month, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth will become times of joy, gladness, and cheerful festivals for the house of Judah. Therefore, love truth and peace.” ²⁰ The LORD of Armies says this: “Peoples will yet come, the residents of many cities; ²¹ the residents of one city will go to another, saying: Let’s go at once to plead for the LORD’s favor and to seek the LORD of Armies. I am also going. ²² Many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of Armies in Jerusalem and to plead for the LORD’s favor.” ²³ The LORD of Armies says this: “In those days, ten men from nations of every language will grab the robe of a Jewish man tightly, urging: Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.”

9 A pronouncement:

The word of the LORD
is against the land of Hadrach, and Damascus is its resting place —
for the eyes of humanity and all the tribes of Israel

are on the LORD —

- ² and also against Hamath, which borders it, as well as Tyre and Sidon, though they are very shrewd.
- ³ Tyre has built herself a fortress; she has heaped up silver like dust and gold like the dirt of the streets.
- ⁴ Listen! The Lord will impoverish her and cast her wealth into the sea; she herself will be consumed by fire.
- ⁵ Ashkelon will see it and be afraid; Gaza too, and will writhe in great pain, as will Ekron, for her hope will fail. There will cease to be a king in Gaza, and Ashkelon will become uninhabited.
- ⁶ A mongrel people will live in Ashdod, and I will destroy the pride of the Philistines.
- ⁷ I will remove the blood from their mouths and the abhorrent things from between their teeth. Then they too will become a remnant for our God; they will become like a clan in Judah and Ekron like the Jebusites.
- ⁸ I will encamp at my house as a guard, against those who march back and forth, and no oppressor will march against them again, for now I have seen with my own eyes.
- ⁹ Rejoice greatly, Daughter Zion! Shout in triumph, Daughter Jerusalem! Look, your King is coming to you; he is righteous and victorious, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
- ¹⁰ I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem. The bow of war will be removed, and he will proclaim peace to the nations. His dominion will extend from sea to sea, from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.
- ¹¹ As for you, because of the blood of your covenant, I will release your prisoners from the waterless cistern.
- ¹² Return to a stronghold, you prisoners who have hope; today I declare that I will restore double to you.
- ¹³ For I will bend Judah as my bow; I will fill that bow with Ephraim. I will rouse your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece. I will make you like a warrior’s sword.
- ¹⁴ Then the LORD will appear over them, and his arrow will fly like lightning. The Lord God will sound the trumpet and advance with the southern storms.
- ¹⁵ The LORD of Armies will defend them. They will consume and conquer with slingstones; they will drink and be rowdy as if with wine. They will be as full as the sprinkling basin, like those at the corners of the altar.
- ¹⁶ The LORD their God will save them on that day as the flock of his people; for they are like jewels in a crown, sparkling over his land.

- 17 How lovely and beautiful Grain will make the young men flourish,
and new wine, the young women.
- 10 Ask the LORD for rain
in the season of spring rain.
The LORD makes the rain clouds,
and he will give them showers of rain
and crops in the field for everyone.
- 2 For the idols speak falsehood,
and the diviners see illusions;
they relate empty dreams
and offer empty comfort.
Therefore the people wander like sheep;
they suffer affliction because there is no shepherd.
- 3 My anger burns against the shepherds,
so I will punish the leaders.
For the LORD of Armies has tended his flock,
the house of Judah;
he will make them like his majestic steed in battle.
- 4 The cornerstone will come from Judah.
The tent peg will come from them
and also the battle bow and every ruler.
Together ⁵ they will be like warriors in battle
trampling down the mud of the streets.
They will fight because the LORD is with them,
and they will put horsemen to shame.
- 6 I will strengthen the house of Judah
and deliver the house of Joseph.
I will restore them
because I have compassion on them, and they will be
as though I had never rejected them.
For I am the LORD their God,
and I will answer them.
- 7 Ephraim will be like a warrior,
and their hearts will be glad as if with wine.
Their children will see it and be glad;
their hearts will rejoice in the LORD.
- 8 I will whistle and gather them
because I have redeemed them;
they will be as numerous as they once were.
- 9 Though I sowed them among the nations,
they will remember me in the distant lands;
they and their children will live and return.
- 10 I will bring them back from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them to the land of Gilead
and to Lebanon,
but it will not be enough for them.
- 11 The LORD will pass through the sea of distress
and strike the waves of the sea;
all the depths of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the scepter of Egypt will come to an end.
- 12 I will strengthen them in the LORD,
and they will march in his name —
this is the LORD's declaration.
- 11 Open your gates, Lebanon,
and fire will consume your cedars.
2 Wail, cypress, for the cedar has fallen;
the glorious trees are destroyed!
Wail, oaks of Bashan,
for the stately forest has fallen!
3 Listen to the wail of the shepherds,

for their glory is destroyed.
Listen to the roar of young lions,
for the thickets of the Jordan are destroyed.

4 The LORD my God says this: "Shepherd the flock intended for slaughter. ⁵ Those who buy them slaughter them but are not punished. Those who sell them say: Blessed be the LORD because I have become rich! Even their own shepherds have no compassion for them. ⁶ Indeed, I will no longer have compassion on the inhabitants of the land" — this is the LORD's declaration. "Instead, I will turn everyone over to his neighbor and his king. They will devastate the land, and I will not rescue it from their hand."

7 So I shepherded the flock intended for slaughter, the oppressed of the flock. I took two staffs, calling one Favor and the other Union, and I shepherded the flock. ⁸ In one month I got rid of three shepherds. I became impatient with them, and they also detested me. ⁹ Then I said, "I will no longer shepherd you. Let what is dying die, and let what is perishing perish; let the rest devour each other's flesh." ¹⁰ Next I took my staff called Favor and cut it in two, annulling the covenant I had made with all the peoples. ¹¹ It was annulled on that day, and so the oppressed of the flock who were watching me knew that it was the word of the LORD. ¹² Then I said to them, "If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them." So they weighed my wages, thirty pieces of silver.

13 "Throw it to the potter," the LORD said to me — this magnificent price I was valued by them. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw it into the house of the LORD, to the potter. ¹⁴ Then I cut in two my second staff, Union, annulling the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 The LORD also said to me: "Take the equipment of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶ I am about to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are perishing, and he will not seek the lost or heal the broken. He will not sustain the healthy, but he will devour the flesh of the fat sheep and tear off their hooves.

17 Woe to the worthless shepherd who deserts the flock!
May a sword strike his arm
and his right eye!
May his arm wither away
and his right eye go completely blind!"
A pronouncement:

12 The word of the LORD concerning Israel.
A declaration of the LORD,
who stretched out the heavens,
laid the foundation of the earth,
and formed the spirit of man within him.

2 "Look, I will make Jerusalem a cup that causes staggering for the peoples who surround the city. The siege against Jerusalem will also involve Judah. ³ On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who try to lift it will injure themselves severely when all the nations of the earth gather against her. ⁴ On that day" — this is the LORD's declaration — "I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness. I will keep a watchful eye on the house of Judah but strike all the horses of the nations with blindness. ⁵ Then each of the leaders of Judah will think to himself: The residents of Jerusalem are my strength through the LORD of Armies, their God. ⁶ On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, like a flaming torch among sheaves; they will consume all the peoples around them on the right and the left, while Jerusalem continues to be inhabited on its site, in Jerusalem. ⁷ The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of David's house and the glory of Jerusalem's residents may not be greater than that of Judah. ⁸ On that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that on that day the one who is weakest among them will be like David on that day, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD, before them. ⁹ On that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

¹⁰ Then I will pour out a spirit of grace and prayer on the house of David and the residents of Jerusalem, and they will look at me whom they pierced. They will mourn for him as one mourns for an only child and weep bitterly for him as one weeps for a firstborn. ¹¹ On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning of Hadad-rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. ¹² The land will mourn, every family by itself: the family of David's house by itself and their women by themselves; the family of Nathan's house by itself and their women by themselves; ¹³ the family of Levi's house by itself and their women by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself and their women by themselves; ¹⁴ all the remaining families, every family by itself, and their women by themselves.

13 ¹ On that day a fountain will be opened for the house of David and for the residents of Jerusalem, to wash away sin and impurity. ² On that day — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies — "I will remove the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered. I will banish the prophets and the unclean spirit from the land. ³ If a man still prophesies, his father and his mother who bore him will say to him: You cannot remain alive because you have spoken a lie in the name of the LORD. When he prophesies, his father and his mother who bore him will pierce him through. ⁴ On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; they will not put on a hairy cloak in order to deceive. ⁵ He will say: I am not a prophet; I work the land, for a man purchased me as a servant since my youth. ⁶ If someone asks him: What are these wounds on your chest? — then he will answer: I received the wounds in the house of my friends.

⁷ Sword, awake against my shepherd, against the man who is my associate — this is the declaration of the LORD of Armies. Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; I will turn my hand against the little ones.

⁸ In the whole land — this is the LORD's declaration — two-thirds will be cut off and die, but a third will be left in it.

⁹ I will put this third through the fire; I will refine them as silver is refined and test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them.

I will say: They are my people, and they will say: The LORD is our God."

14 Look, a day belonging to the LORD is coming when the plunder taken from you will be divided in your presence. ² I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem for battle. The city will be captured, the houses looted, and the women raped. Half the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be removed from the city.

³ Then the LORD will go out to fight against those nations as he fights on a day of battle. ⁴ On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which faces Jerusalem on the east. The Mount of Olives will be split in half from east to west, forming a huge valley, so that half the mountain will move to the north and half to the south. ⁵ You will flee by my mountain valley, for the valley of the mountains will extend to Azal. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come and all the holy ones with him.

⁸ On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it toward the eastern sea and the other half toward the western sea, in summer and winter alike. ⁹ On that day the LORD will become King over the whole earth — the LORD alone, and his name alone. ¹⁰ All the land from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem will be changed into a plain. But Jerusalem will be raised up and will remain on its site from the Benjamin Gate to the place of the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses. ¹¹ People will live there, and never again will there be a curse of complete destruction. So Jerusalem will dwell in security.

¹² This will be the plague with which the LORD strikes all the people who have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh will rot while they stand on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. ¹³ On that day a great panic from the LORD will be among them, so that each will seize the hand of another, and the hand of one will rise against the other. ¹⁴ Judah will also fight at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected: gold, silver, and clothing in great abundance. ¹⁵ The same plague as the previous one will strike the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the animals that are in those camps.

²⁰ On that day, the words HOLY TO THE LORD will be on the bells of the horses. The pots in the house of the LORD will be like the sprinkling basins before the altar. ²¹ Every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of Armies. All who sacrifice will come and use the pots to cook in. And on that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of Armies.

MALACHI

1 A pronouncement:

The word of the LORD to Israel through Malachi.

²“I have loved you,” says the LORD.

Yet you ask, “How have you loved us?”

“Wasn’t Esau Jacob’s brother?” This is the LORD’s declaration. “Even so, I loved Jacob, ³but I hated Esau. I turned his mountains into a wasteland, and gave his inheritance to the desert jackals.”

⁴Though Edom says: “We have been devastated, but we will rebuild the ruins,” the LORD of Armies says this: “They may build, but I will demolish. They will be called a wicked country and the people the LORD has cursed forever. ⁵Your own eyes will see this, and you yourselves will say, ‘The LORD is great, even beyond the borders of Israel.’”

⁶“A son honors his father, and a servant his master. But if I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is your fear of me?” says the LORD of Armies to you priests, who despise my name.

Yet you ask: “How have we despised your name?”

⁷“By presenting defiled food on my altar.”

“How have we defiled you?” you ask.

When you say: “The LORD’s table is contemptible.”

⁸“When you present a blind animal for sacrifice, is it not wrong? And when you present a lame or sick animal, is it not wrong? Bring it to your governor! Would he be pleased with you or show you favor?” asks the LORD of Armies. ⁹“And now plead for God’s favor. Will he be gracious to us? Since this has come from your hands, will he show any of you favor?” asks the LORD of Armies. ¹⁰“I wish one of you would shut the temple doors, so that you would no longer kindle a useless fire on my altar! I am not pleased with you,” says the LORD of Armies, “and I will accept no offering from your hands.

¹¹“My name will be great among the nations, from the rising of the sun to its setting. Incense and pure offerings will be presented in my name in every place because my name will be great among the nations,” says the LORD of Armies.

¹²“But you are profaning it when you say: ‘The LORD’s table is defiled, and its product, its food, is contemptible.’”

¹³You also say: ‘Look, what a nuisance!’ And you scorn it,” says the LORD of Armies. “You bring stolen, lame, or sick animals. You bring this as an offering! Am I to accept that from your hands?” asks the LORD.

¹⁴“The deceiver is cursed who has an acceptable male in his flock and makes a vow but sacrifices a defective animal to the LORD. For I am a great King,” says the LORD of Armies, “and my name will be feared among the nations.

2 “Therefore, this decree is for you priests: ²If you don’t listen, and if you don’t take it to heart to honor my name,” says the LORD of Armies, “I will send a curse among you, and I will curse your blessings. In fact, I have already begun to curse them because you are not taking it to heart.

³“Look, I am going to rebuke your descendants, and I will spread animal waste over your faces, the waste from your festival sacrifices, and you will be taken away with it. ⁴Then you will know that I sent you this decree, so that my covenant with Levi may continue,” says the LORD of Armies.

⁵“My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave these to him; it called for reverence, and he revered me and stood in awe of my name. ⁶True instruction was in his mouth, and nothing wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and integrity and turned many from iniquity. ⁷For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and people should desire instruction from his mouth, because he is the messenger of the LORD of Armies.

⁸“You, on the other hand, have turned from the way. You have caused many to stumble by your instruction. You have violated the covenant of Levi,” says the LORD of Armies. ⁹“So I in turn have made you despised and humiliated before all the people because you are not keeping my ways but are showing partiality in your instruction.”

¹⁰Don’t all of us have one Father? Didn’t one God create us? Why then do we act treacherously against one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers? ¹¹Judah has acted treacherously, and a detestable act has been done in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the LORD’s sanctuary, which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. ¹²May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this, whoever he may be, even if he presents an offering to the LORD of Armies.

¹³This is another thing you do. You are covering the LORD’s altar with tears, with weeping and groaning, because he no longer respects your offerings or receives them gladly from your hands.

¹⁴And you ask, “Why?” Because even though the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth, you have acted treacherously against her. She was your marriage partner and your wife by covenant. ¹⁵Didn’t God make them one and give them a portion of spirit? What is the one seeking? Godly offspring. So watch yourselves carefully, so that no one acts treacherously against the wife of his youth.

¹⁶“If he hates and divorces his wife,” says the LORD God of Israel, “he covers his garment with injustice,” says the LORD of Armies. Therefore, watch yourselves carefully, and do not act treacherously.

¹⁷You have wearied the LORD with your words.

Yet you ask, “How have we wearied him?”

When you say, “Everyone who does what is evil is good in the LORD’s sight, and he is delighted with them, or else where is the God of justice?”

3 “See, I am going to send my messenger, and he will clear the way before me. Then the Lord you seek will suddenly come to his temple, the Messenger of the covenant you delight in — see, he is coming,” says the LORD of Armies. ²But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will be able to stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner’s fire and like launderer’s bleach. ³He will be like a refiner and purifier of silver; he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. ⁴And the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will please the LORD as in days of old and years gone by.

⁵“I will come to you in judgment, and I will be ready to witness against sorcerers and adulterers; against those who swear falsely; against those who oppress the hired worker, the widow, and the fatherless; and against those who deny justice to the resident alien. They do not fear me,” says the LORD of Armies. ⁶“Because I, the LORD, have not changed, you descendants of Jacob have not been destroyed.

⁷“Since the days of your fathers, you have turned from my statutes; you have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD of Armies.

Yet you ask, “How can we return?”

⁸“Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing me!”

“How do we rob you?” you ask.

“By not making the payments of the tenth and the contributions.⁹ You are suffering under a curse, yet you — the whole nation — are still robbing me.¹⁰ Bring the full tenth into the storehouse so that there may be food in my house. Test me in this way,” says the LORD of Armies. “See if I will not open the floodgates of heaven and pour out a blessing for you without measure.¹¹ I will rebuke the devourer for you, so that it will not ruin the produce of your land and your vine in your field will not fail to produce fruit,” says the LORD of Armies.¹² “Then all the nations will consider you fortunate, for you will be a delightful land,” says the LORD of Armies.

¹³“Your words against me are harsh,” says the LORD.

Yet you ask, “What have we spoken against you?”

¹⁴You have said: “It is useless to serve God. What have we gained by keeping his requirements and walking mournfully before the LORD of Armies?”¹⁵ So now we consider the arrogant to be fortunate. Not only do those who commit wickedness prosper, they even test God and escape.”

¹⁶At that time those who feared the LORD spoke to one another. The LORD took notice and listened. So a book of remembrance was written before him for those who feared the LORD and had high regard for his name.¹⁷ “They will be mine,” says the LORD of Armies, “my own possession on the day I am preparing. I will have compassion on them as a man has compassion on his son who serves him.¹⁸ So you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

4 “For look, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and everyone who commits wickedness will become stubble. The coming day will consume them,” says the LORD of Armies, “not leaving them root or branches.² But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings, and you will go out and playfully jump like calves from the stall.³ You will trample the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day I am preparing,” says the LORD of Armies.

⁴“Remember the instruction of Moses my servant, the statutes and ordinances I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel.⁵ Look, I am going to send you the prophet Elijah before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.⁶ And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers. Otherwise, I will come and strike the land with a curse.”

THE NEW TESTAMENT

MATTHEW

1 An account of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham:

- 2 Abraham fathered Isaac, Isaac fathered Jacob, Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers,
- 3 Judah fathered Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez fathered Hezron, Hezron fathered Aram,
- 4 Aram fathered Amminadab, Amminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon,
- 5 Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab, Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth, Obed fathered Jesse, and Jesse fathered King David.
- 6 David fathered Solomon by Uriah's wife,
- 7 Solomon fathered Rehoboam, Rehoboam fathered Abijah, Abijah fathered Asa,
- 8 Asa fathered Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat fathered Joram, Joram fathered Uzziah,
- 9 Uzziah fathered Jotham, Jotham fathered Ahaz, Ahaz fathered Hezekiah, Hezekiah fathered Manasseh, Manasseh fathered Amon, Amon fathered Josiah,
- 11 and Josiah fathered Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.
- 12 After the exile to Babylon Jeconiah fathered Shealtiel, Shealtiel fathered Zerubbabel,
- 13 Zerubbabel fathered Abiud, Abiud fathered Eliakim, Eliakim fathered Azor,
- 14 Azor fathered Zadok, Zadok fathered Achim, Achim fathered Eliud,
- 15 Eliud fathered Eleazar, Eleazar fathered Matthan, Matthan fathered Jacob,
- 16 and Jacob fathered Joseph the husband of Mary, who gave birth to Jesus who is called the Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations; and from David until the exile to Babylon, fourteen generations; and from the exile to Babylon until the Christ, fourteen generations.

18 The birth of Jesus Christ came about this way: After his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, it was discovered before they came together that she was pregnant from the Holy Spirit. 19 So her husband Joseph, being a righteous man, and not wanting to disgrace her publicly, decided to divorce her secretly.

20 But after he had considered these things, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, don't be afraid to take Mary as your wife, because what has been conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. 21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

22 Now all this took place to fulfill what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

23 See, the virgin will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and they will name him Immanuel, which is translated "God is with us."

24 When Joseph woke up, he did as the Lord's angel had commanded him. He married her 25 but did not have sexual relations with her until she gave birth to a son. And he named him Jesus.

2 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of King Herod, wise men from the east arrived in Jerusalem, 2 saying, "Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we saw his star at its rising and have come to worship him."

3 When King Herod heard this, he was deeply disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 So he assembled all the chief priests and scribes of the people and asked them where the Christ would be born.

5 "In Bethlehem of Judea," they told him, "because this is what was written by the prophet:

6 And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah:

Because out of you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel."

7 Then Herod secretly summoned the wise men and asked them the exact time the star appeared. 8 He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the child. When you find him, report back to me so that I too can go and worship him."

9 After hearing the king, they went on their way. And there it was — the star they had seen at its rising. It led them until it came and stopped above the place where the child was. 10 When they saw the star, they were overwhelmed with joy. 11 Entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and falling to their knees, they worshiped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. 12 And being warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their own country by another route.

13 After they were gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Get up! Take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. For Herod is about to search for the child to kill him." 14 So he got up, took the child and his mother during the night, and escaped to Egypt. 15 He stayed there until Herod's death, so that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled: Out of Egypt I called my Son.

16 Then Herod, when he realized that he had been outwitted by the wise men, flew into a rage. He gave orders to massacre all the boys in and around Bethlehem who were two years old and under, in keeping with the time he had learned from the wise men. 17 Then what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

18 A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; and she refused to be consoled, because they are no more.

¹⁹ After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰ saying, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, because those who intended to kill the child are dead." ²¹ So he got up, took the child and his mother, and entered the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned in a dream, he withdrew to the region of Galilee. ²³ Then he went and settled in a town called Nazareth to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets, that he would be called a Nazarene.

3 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea ² and saying, "Repent, because the kingdom of heaven has come near!" ³ For he is the one spoken of through the prophet Isaiah, who said:

A voice of one crying out in the wilderness:
Prepare the way for the Lord;
make his paths straight!

⁷ When he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸ Therefore produce fruit consistent with repentance. ⁹ And don't presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones. ¹⁰ The ax is already at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

¹¹ "I baptize you with water for repentance, but the one who is coming after me is more powerful than I. I am not worthy to remove his sandals. He himself will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹² His winnowing shovel is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the barn. But the chaff he will burn with fire that never goes out."

¹³ Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴ But John tried to stop him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you come to me?"

¹⁵ Jesus answered him, "Allow it for now, because this is the way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then John allowed him to be baptized.

¹⁶ When Jesus was baptized, he went up immediately from the water. The heavens suddenly opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming down on him. ¹⁷ And a voice from heaven said: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased."

4 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ² After he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. ³ Then the tempter approached him and said, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread."

⁴ He answered, "It is written: Man must not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God."

⁵ Then the devil took him to the holy city, had him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, ⁶ and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written:

He will give his angels orders concerning you,
and they will support you with their hands

so that you will not strike
your foot against a stone."

⁷ Jesus told him, "It is also written: Do not test the Lord your God."

⁸ Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. ⁹ And he said to him, "I will give you all these things if you will fall down and worship me."

¹⁰ Then Jesus told him, "Go away, Satan! For it is written: Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him."

¹¹ Then the devil left him, and angels came and began to serve him.

¹² When he heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee. ¹³ He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali.

¹⁴ This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁵ Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
along the road by the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles.

¹⁶ The people who live in darkness
have seen a great light,
and for those living in the land of the shadow of death,
a light has dawned.

¹⁷ From then on Jesus began to preach, "Repent, because the kingdom of heaven has come near."

¹⁸ As he was walking along the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter), and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the sea — for they were fishermen. ¹⁹ "Follow me," he told them, "and I will make you fish for people." ²⁰ Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

²³ Now Jesus began to go all over Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people. ²⁴ Then the news about him spread throughout Syria. So they brought to him all those who were afflicted, those suffering from various diseases and intense pains, the demon-possessed, the epileptics, and the paralytics. And he healed them. ²⁵ Large crowds followed him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

5 When he saw the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him.

² Then he began to teach them, saying:

³ "Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

⁴ Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

⁵ Blessed are the humble,
for they will inherit the earth.

⁶ Blessed are those who hunger and thirst
for righteousness,
for they will be filled.

⁷ Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

⁸ Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

⁹ Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called sons of God.

¹⁰ Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness,
for the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

¹¹ "You are blessed when they insult you and persecute you and falsely say every kind of evil against you because of me. ¹² Be glad and rejoice, because your reward is great in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

¹³ "You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt should lose its taste, how can it be made salty? It's no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet.

¹⁷ "Don't think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to abolish but to fulfill. ¹⁸ For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or one stroke of a letter will pass away from the law until all things are accomplished. ¹⁹ Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commands and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever does and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

²¹ "You have heard that it was said to our ancestors, Do not murder, and whoever murders will be subject to judgment. ²² But I tell you, everyone who is angry with his brother or sister will be subject to judgment. Whoever insults his brother or sister, will be subject to the court. Whoever says, 'You fool!' will be subject to hellfire. ²³ So if you are offering your gift on the altar, and there you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, ²⁴ leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled with your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. ²⁵ Reach a settlement quickly with your adversary while you're on the way with him to the court, or your adversary will hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. ²⁶ Truly I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid the last penny.

²⁷ "You have heard that it was said, Do not commit adultery. ²⁸ But I tell you, everyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹ If your right eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of the parts of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. ³⁰ And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of the parts of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

³³ "Again, you have heard that it was said to our ancestors, You must not break your oath, but you must keep your oaths to the Lord. ³⁴ But I tell you, don't take an oath at all: either by heaven, because it is God's throne; ³⁵ or by the earth, because it is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King. ³⁶ Do not swear by your head, because you cannot make a single hair white or black. ³⁷ But let your 'yes' mean 'yes,' and your 'no' mean 'no.' Anything more than this is from the evil one.

³⁸ "You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. ³⁹ But I tell you, don't resist an evildoer. On the contrary, if anyone slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. ⁴⁰ As for the one who wants to sue you and take away your shirt, let him have your coat as well. ⁴¹ And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two. ⁴² Give to the one who asks you, and don't turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

⁴³ "You have heard that it was said, Love your neighbor and hate your enemy. ⁴⁴ But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵ so that you may be children of your Father in heaven. For he causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. ⁴⁶ For if you love those who love you, what reward will you have? Don't even the tax collectors do the same? ⁴⁷ And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what are you doing out of the ordinary? Don't even the Gentiles do the same? ⁴⁸ Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

6 "Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. Otherwise, you have no reward with your Father in heaven. ² So whenever you give to the poor, don't sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be applauded by people. Truly I tell you, they have their reward. ³ But when you give to the poor, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴ so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

⁵ "Whenever you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites, because they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by people. Truly I tell you, they have their reward. ⁶ But when you pray, go into your private room, shut your door, and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. ⁷ When you pray, don't babble like the Gentiles, since they imagine they'll be heard for their many words. ⁸ Don't be like them, because your Father knows the things you need before you ask him.

⁹ "Therefore, you should pray like this:

Our Father in heaven,
your name be honored as holy.

¹⁰ Your kingdom come.

Your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.

¹¹ Give us today our daily bread.

¹² And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.

¹³ And do not bring us into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.

¹⁴ "For if you forgive others their offenses, your heavenly Father will forgive you as well. ¹⁵ But if you don't forgive others, your Father will not forgive your offenses.

¹⁶ "Whenever you fast, don't be gloomy like the hypocrites. For they make their faces unattractive so that their fasting is obvious to people. Truly I tell you, they have their reward. ¹⁷ But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, ¹⁸ so that your fasting isn't obvious to others but to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

¹⁹ "Don't store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal.²⁰ But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves don't break in and steal.²¹ For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

²²"The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light.²³ But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. So if the light within you is darkness, how deep is that darkness!

²⁵"Therefore I tell you: Don't worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food and the body more than clothing?²⁶ Consider the birds of the sky: They don't sow or reap or gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you worth more than they?²⁷ Can any of you add one moment to his life-span by worrying?²⁸ And why do you worry about clothes? Observe how the wildflowers of the field grow: They don't labor or spin thread.²⁹ Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was adorned like one of these.³⁰ If that's how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow, won't he do much more for you — you of little faith?³¹ So don't worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear?'³² For the Gentiles eagerly seek all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them.³³ But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be provided for you.³⁴ Therefore don't worry about tomorrow, because tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

7 "Do not judge, so that you won't be judged.² For you will be judged by the same standard with which you judge others, and you will be measured by the same measure you use.³ Why do you look at the splinter in your brother's eye but don't notice the beam of wood in your own eye?⁴ Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the splinter out of your eye,' and look, there's a beam of wood in your own eye?⁵ Hypocrite! First take the beam of wood out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to take the splinter out of your brother's eye.⁶ Don't give what is holy to dogs or toss your pearls before pigs, or they will trample them under their feet, turn, and tear you to pieces.

⁷"Ask, and it will be given to you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and the door will be opened to you.⁸ For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.⁹ Who among you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone?¹⁰ Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?¹¹ If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him.¹² Therefore, whatever you want others to do for you, do also the same for them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

¹⁵"Be on your guard against false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravaging wolves.¹⁶ You'll recognize them by their fruit. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes or figs from thistles?¹⁷ In the same way, every good tree produces good fruit, but a bad tree produces bad fruit.¹⁸ A good tree can't produce bad fruit; neither can a bad tree produce good fruit.¹⁹ Every tree that doesn't produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

²⁰ So you'll recognize them by their fruit.

²¹"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.²² On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy in your name, drive out demons in your name, and do many miracles in your name?'²³ Then I will announce to them, 'I never knew you. Depart from me, you lawbreakers!'

²⁴"Therefore, everyone who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock.²⁵ The rain fell, the rivers rose, and the winds blew and pounded that house. Yet it didn't collapse, because its foundation was on the rock.²⁶ But everyone who hears these words of mine and doesn't act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand.²⁷ The rain fell, the rivers rose, the winds blew and pounded that house, and it collapsed. It collapsed with a great crash."

²⁸When Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were astonished at his teaching,²⁹ because he was teaching them like one who had authority, and not like their scribes.

8 When he came down from the mountain, large crowds followed him.² Right away a man with leprosy came up and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

³ Reaching out his hand, Jesus touched him, saying, "I am willing; be made clean." Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.⁴ Then Jesus told him, "See that you don't tell anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

⁵When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, pleading with him,⁶ "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, in terrible agony."

⁷He said to him, "Am I to come and heal him?"

⁸"Lord," the centurion replied, "I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed.⁹ For I too am a man under authority, having soldiers under my command. I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this!' and he does it."

¹⁰Hearing this, Jesus was amazed and said to those following him, "Truly I tell you, I have not found anyone in Israel with so great a faith.¹¹ I tell you that many will come from east and west to share the banquet with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.¹² But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."¹³ Then Jesus told the centurion, "Go. As you have believed, let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that very moment.

¹⁴Jesus went into Peter's house and saw his mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever.¹⁵ So he touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and began to serve him.¹⁶ When evening came, they brought to him many who were demon-possessed. He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick,¹⁷ so that what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

He himself took our weaknesses and carried our diseases.

¹⁸When Jesus saw a large crowd around him, he gave the order to go to the other side of the sea.¹⁹ A scribe approached him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

²⁰ Jesus told him, "Foxes have dens, and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head."

²¹ "Lord," another of his disciples said, "first let me go bury my father."

²² But Jesus told him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

²³ As he got into the boat, his disciples followed him.

²⁴ Suddenly, a violent storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves — but Jesus kept sleeping. ²⁵ So the disciples came and woke him up, saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to die!"

²⁶ He said to them, "Why are you afraid, you of little faith?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.

²⁷ The men were amazed and asked, "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the sea obey him!"

²⁸ When he had come to the other side, to the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men met him as they came out of the tombs. They were so violent that no one could pass that way. ²⁹ Suddenly they shouted, "What do you have to do with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?"

³² "Go!" he told them. So when they had come out, they entered the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the water. ³³ Then the men who tended them fled. They went into the city and reported everything, especially what had happened to those who were demon-possessed. ³⁴ At that, the whole town went out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged him to leave their region.

9 So he got into a boat, crossed over, and came to his own town. ² Just then some men brought to him a paralytic lying on a stretcher. Seeing their faith, Jesus told the paralytic, "Have courage, son, your sins are forgiven."

³ At this, some of the scribes said to themselves, "He's blaspheming!"

⁴ Perceiving their thoughts, Jesus said, "Why are you thinking evil things in your hearts? ⁵ For which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? ⁶ But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" — then he told the paralytic, "Get up, take your stretcher, and go home." ⁷ So he got up and went home. ⁸ When the crowds saw this, they were awestruck and gave glory to God, who had given such authority to men.

⁹ As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the toll booth, and he said to him, "Follow me," and he got up and followed him.

¹⁰ While he was reclining at the table in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came to eat with Jesus and his disciples. ¹¹ When the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

¹² Now when he heard this, he said, "It is not those who are well who need a doctor, but those who are sick. ¹³ Go and learn what this means: I desire mercy and not sacrifice. For I didn't come to call the righteous, but sinners."

¹⁴ Then John's disciples came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?"

¹⁵ Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests be sad while the groom is with them? The time will come when the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. ¹⁶ No one patches an old garment with unshrunk cloth, because the patch pulls away from the garment and makes the tear worse. ¹⁷ And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the skins burst, the wine spills out, and the skins are ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

¹⁸ As he was telling them these things, suddenly one of the leaders came and knelt down before him, saying, "My daughter just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." ¹⁹ So Jesus and his disciples got up and followed him.

²⁰ Just then, a woman who had suffered from bleeding for twelve years approached from behind and touched the end of his robe, ²¹ for she said to herself, "If I can just touch his robe, I'll be made well."

²² Jesus turned and saw her. "Have courage, daughter," he said. "Your faith has saved you." And the woman was made well from that moment.

²³ When Jesus came to the leader's house, he saw the flute players and a crowd lamenting loudly. ²⁴ "Leave," he said, "because the girl is not dead but asleep." And they laughed at him. ²⁵ After the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. ²⁶ Then news of this spread throughout that whole area.

²⁷ As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, calling out, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

²⁸ When he entered the house, the blind men approached him, and Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I can do this?"

They said to him, "Yes, Lord."

²⁹ Then he touched their eyes, saying, "Let it be done for you according to your faith." ³⁰ And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus warned them sternly, "Be sure that no one finds out." ³¹ But they went out and spread the news about him throughout that whole area.

³² Just as they were going out, a demon-possessed man who was unable to speak was brought to him. ³³ When the demon had been driven out, the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowds were amazed, saying, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!"

³⁴ But the Pharisees said, "He drives out demons by the ruler of the demons."

³⁵ Jesus continuing going around to all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness. ³⁶ When he saw the crowds, he felt compassion for them, because they were distressed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷ Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. ³⁸ Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest."

10 Summoning his twelve disciples, he gave them authority over unclean spirits, to drive them out and to heal every disease and sickness. ² These are the names of the twelve apostles: First, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; ³ Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus; ⁴ Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

the dead, cleanse those with leprosy, drive out demons. Freely you received, freely give.⁹ Don't acquire gold, silver, or copper for your money-belts.¹⁰ Don't take a traveling bag for the road, or an extra shirt, sandals, or a staff, for the worker is worthy of his food.¹¹ When you enter any town or village, find out who is worthy, and stay there until you leave.¹² Greet a household when you enter it,¹³ and if the household is worthy, let your peace be on it; but if it is unworthy, let your peace return to you.¹⁴ If anyone does not welcome you or listen to your words, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that house or town.¹⁵ Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town.

¹⁶ Look, I'm sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as serpents and as innocent as doves.¹⁷ Beware of them, because they will hand you over to local courts and flog you in their synagogues.¹⁸ You will even be brought before governors and kings because of me, to bear witness to them and to the Gentiles.¹⁹ But when they hand you over, don't worry about how or what you are to speak. For you will be given what to say at that hour,²⁰ because it isn't you speaking, but the Spirit of our Father is speaking through you.

²¹ Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise up against parents and have them put to death.²² You will be hated by everyone because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.²³ When they persecute you in one town, flee to another. For truly I tell you, you will not have gone through the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.²⁴ A disciple is not above his teacher, or a slave above his master.²⁵ It is enough for a disciple to become like his teacher and a slave like his master. If they called the head of the house 'Beelzebul,' how much more the members of his household!

²⁶ Therefore, don't be afraid of them, since there is nothing covered that won't be uncovered and nothing hidden that won't be made known.²⁷ What I tell you in the dark, speak in the light. What you hear in a whisper, proclaim on the housetops.²⁸ Don't fear those who kill the body but are not able to kill the soul; rather, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.²⁹ Aren't two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's consent.³⁰ But even the hairs of your head have all been counted.³¹ So don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

³² Therefore, everyone who will acknowledge me before others, I will also acknowledge him before my Father in heaven.³³ But whoever denies me before others, I will also deny him before my Father in heaven.³⁴ Don't assume that I came to bring peace on the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword.³⁵ For I came to turn

a man against his father,
a daughter against her mother,
a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;

36 and a man's enemies will be
the members of his household.

³⁷ The one who loves a father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; the one who loves a son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.³⁸ And whoever doesn't take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.³⁹ Anyone who finds his life will lose it, and anyone who loses his life because of me will find it.

⁴⁰ The one who welcomes you welcomes me, and the one who welcomes me welcomes him who sent me.

⁴¹ Anyone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward. And anyone who welcomes a righteous person because he's righteous will receive a righteous person's reward.⁴² And whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, truly I tell you, he will never lose his reward."

11 When Jesus had finished giving instructions to his twelve disciples, he moved on from there to teach and preach in their towns.² Now when John heard in prison what the Christ was doing, he sent a message through his disciples³ and asked him, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?"

⁷ As these men were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the wind?⁸ What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothes? See, those who wear soft clothes are in royal palaces.⁹ What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.¹⁰ This is the one about whom it is written:

See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you;

he will prepare your way before you.

¹¹ Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one greater than John the Baptist has appeared, but the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.¹² From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been suffering violence, and the violent have been seizing it by force.¹³ For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.¹⁴ And if you're willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who is to come.¹⁵ Let anyone who has ears listen.

¹⁶ To what should I compare this generation? It's like children sitting in the marketplaces who call out to other children:

¹⁷ We played the flute for you,
but you didn't dance;
we sang a lament,
but you didn't mourn!

²⁰ Then he proceeded to denounce the towns where most of his miracles were done, because they did not repent:²¹ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented in sackcloth and ashes long ago.²² But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.²³ And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will go down to Hades. For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until today.²⁴ But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment than for you."

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to infants.²⁶ Yes, Father, because this was your good pleasure.²⁷ All things have been entrusted to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son desires to reveal him.

²⁸“Come to me, all of you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take up my yoke and learn from me, because I am lowly and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

12 At that time Jesus passed through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick and eat some heads of grain. ²When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, “See, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.”

³He said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did when he and those who were with him were hungry: ⁴how he entered the house of God, and they ate the bread of the Presence—which is not lawful for him or for those with him to eat, but only for the priests? ⁵Or haven’t you read in the law that on Sabbath days the priests in the temple violate the Sabbath and are innocent? ⁶I tell you that something greater than the temple is here. ⁷If you had known what this means, I desire mercy and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the innocent. ⁸For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

⁹Moving on from there, he entered their synagogue. ¹⁰There he saw a man who had a shriveled hand, and in order to accuse him they asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”

¹¹He replied to them, “Who among you, if he had a sheep that fell into a pit on the Sabbath, wouldn’t take hold of it and lift it out? ¹²A person is worth far more than a sheep; so it is lawful to do what is good on the Sabbath.”

¹³Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out, and it was restored, as good as the other. ¹⁴But the Pharisees went out and plotted against him, how they might kill him.

¹⁵Jesus was aware of this and withdrew. Large crowds followed him, and he healed them all. ¹⁶He warned them not to make him known, ¹⁷so that what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

¹⁸ Here is my servant whom I have chosen,
my beloved in whom I delight;
I will put my Spirit on him,
and he will proclaim justice to the nations.

¹⁹ He will not argue or shout,
and no one will hear his voice in the streets.

²⁰ He will not break a bruised reed,
and he will not put out a smoldering wick,
until he has led justice to victory.

²¹ The nations will put their hope in his name.

²²Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and unable to speak was brought to him. He healed him, so that the man could both speak and see. ²³All the crowds were astounded and said, “Could this be the Son of David?”

²⁴When the Pharisees heard this, they said, “This man drives out demons only by Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons.”

²⁵Knowing their thoughts, he told them: “Every kingdom divided against itself is headed for destruction, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. ²⁶If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? ²⁷And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason they will be your judges. ²⁸If I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²⁹How can someone enter a strong man’s house and steal his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can plunder his house. ³⁰Anyone who is not with me is against me, and anyone who does not gather with me scatters. ³¹Therefore, I tell you, people will be forgiven every sin and blasphemy, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. ³²Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the one to come.

³³“Either make the tree good and its fruit will be good, or make the tree bad and its fruit will be bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴Brood of vipers! How can you speak good things when you are evil? For the mouth speaks from the overflow of the heart. ³⁵A good person produces good things from his storeroom of good, and an evil person produces evil things from his storeroom of evil. ³⁶I tell you that on the day of judgment people will have to account for every careless word they speak. ³⁷For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.”

³⁸Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from you.”

³⁹He answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation demands a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. ⁴⁰For as Jonah was in the belly of the huge fish three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights. ⁴¹The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at Jonah’s preaching; and look—something greater than Jonah is here. ⁴²The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and look—something greater than Solomon is here.

⁴³“When an unclean spirit comes out of a person, it roams through waterless places looking for rest but doesn’t find any. ⁴⁴Then it says, ‘I’ll go back to my house that I came from.’ Returning, it finds the house vacant, swept, and put in order. ⁴⁵Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and settle down there. As a result, that person’s last condition is worse than the first. That’s how it will also be with this evil generation.”

⁴⁶While he was still speaking with the crowds, his mother and brothers were standing outside wanting to speak to him. ⁴⁷Someone told him, “Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you.”

⁴⁸He replied to the one who was speaking to him, “Who is my mother and who are my brothers?” ⁴⁹Stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! ⁵⁰For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”

13 On that day Jesus went out of the house and was sitting by the sea. ²Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat down, while the whole crowd stood on the shore.

³Then he told them many things in parables, saying: “Consider the sower who went out to sow. ⁴As he sowed, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵Other seed fell on rocky ground where it didn’t have much soil, and it grew up quickly since the soil wasn’t deep. ⁶But when the sun came up, it was scorched, and since it had no root, it withered away. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it. ⁸Still other seed fell on good ground and produced fruit: some

a hundred, some sixty, and some thirty times what was sown.⁹ Let anyone who has ears listen.”

¹⁰Then the disciples came up and asked him, “Why are you speaking to them in parables?”

¹¹He answered, “Because the secrets of the kingdom of heaven have been given for you to know, but it has not been given to them.¹² For whoever has, more will be given to him, and he will have more than enough; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.¹³ That is why I speak to them in parables, because looking they do not see, and hearing they do not listen or understand.¹⁴ Isaiah’s prophecy is fulfilled in them, which says:

You will listen and listen,
but never understand;
you will look and look,
but never perceive.

¹⁵ For this people’s heart has grown callous;
their ears are hard of hearing,
and they have shut their eyes;
otherwise they might see with their eyes,
and hear with their ears,
and understand with their hearts,
and turn back —
and I would heal them.

¹⁶“Blessed are your eyes because they do see, and your ears because they do hear.¹⁷ For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see the things you see but didn’t see them, to hear the things you hear but didn’t hear them.

²⁰And the one sown on rocky ground — this is one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy.²¹ But he has no root and is short-lived. When distress or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he falls away.²² Now the one sown among the thorns — this is one who hears the word, but the worries of this age and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.²³ But the one sown on the good ground — this is one who hears and understands the word, who does produce fruit and yields: some a hundred, some sixty, some thirty times what was sown.”

²⁴He presented another parable to them: “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field.²⁵ But while people were sleeping, his enemy came, sowed weeds among the wheat, and left.

²⁶When the plants sprouted and produced grain, then the weeds also appeared.²⁷The landowner’s servants came to him and said, ‘Master, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Then where did the weeds come from?’

²⁸“An enemy did this,’ he told them.

“So, do you want us to go and pull them up?’ the servants asked him.

²⁹“No,’ he said. ‘When you pull up the weeds, you might also uproot the wheat with them.³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time I’ll tell the reapers: Gather the weeds first and tie them in bundles to burn them, but collect the wheat in my barn.’”

³¹He presented another parable to them: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field.³² It’s the smallest of all the seeds, but when grown, it’s taller than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches.”

³³He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and mixed into fifty pounds of flour until all of it was leavened.”

³⁴Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables, and he did not tell them anything without a parable,³⁵ so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled:

I will open my mouth in parables;
I will declare things kept secret
from the foundation of the world.

³⁶Then he left the crowds and went into the house. His disciples approached him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field.”

³⁷He replied: “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man;³⁸ the field is the world; and the good seed — these are the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the children of the evil one,³⁹ and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.⁴⁰ Therefore, just as the weeds are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age.⁴¹ The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather from his kingdom all who cause sin and those guilty of lawlessness.⁴² They will throw them into the blazing furnace where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.⁴³ Then the righteous will shine like the sun in their Father’s kingdom. Let anyone who has ears listen.

⁴⁷“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a large net thrown into the sea. It collected every kind of fish,⁴⁸ and when it was full, they dragged it ashore, sat down, and gathered the good fish into containers, but threw out the worthless ones.⁴⁹ So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out, separate the evil people from the righteous,⁵⁰ and throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

⁵¹“Have you understood all these things?”

They answered him, “Yes.”

⁵²“Therefore,” he said to them, “every teacher of the law who has become a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his store-room treasures new and old.”

⁵³When Jesus had finished these parables, he left there.

⁵⁴He went to his hometown and began to teach them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, “Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers? ⁵⁵Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother called Mary, and his brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶And his sisters, aren’t they all with us? So where does he get all these things?” ⁵⁷And they were offended by him.

Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his household.” ⁵⁸And he did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus.² This is John the Baptist,” he told his servants. “He has been raised from the dead, and that’s why miraculous powers are at work in him.”

³For Herod had arrested John, chained him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife,⁴ since John had been telling him, “It’s not lawful for you to have her.”⁵ Though Herod wanted to kill John, he feared the crowd since they regarded John as a prophet.

¹³ When Jesus heard about it, he withdrew from there by boat to a remote place to be alone. When the crowds heard this, they followed him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴ When he went ashore, he saw a large crowd, had compassion on them, and healed their sick.

¹⁵ When evening came, the disciples approached him and said, “This place is deserted, and it is already late. Send the crowds away so that they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

¹⁶ “They don’t need to go away,” Jesus told them. “You give them something to eat.”

¹⁷ “But we only have five loaves and two fish here,” they said to him.

¹⁸ “Bring them here to me,” he said. ¹⁹ Then he commanded the crowds to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them. He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰ Everyone ate and was satisfied. They picked up twelve baskets full of leftover pieces. ²¹ Now those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

²² Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. ²³ After dismissing the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. Well into the night, he was there alone. ²⁴ Meanwhile, the boat was already some distance from land, battered by the waves, because the wind was against them. ²⁵ Jesus came toward them walking on the sea very early in the morning. ²⁶ When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified. “It’s a ghost!” they said, and they cried out in fear.

²⁷ Immediately Jesus spoke to them. “Have courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.”

²⁸ “Lord, if it’s you,” Peter answered him, “command me to come to you on the water.”

²⁹ He said, “Come.”

And climbing out of the boat, Peter started walking on the water and came toward Jesus. ³⁰ But when he saw the strength of the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, “Lord, save me!”

³¹ Immediately Jesus reached out his hand, caught hold of him, and said to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?”

³² When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³ Then those in the boat worshiped him and said, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

³⁴ When they had crossed over, they came to shore at Gennesaret. ³⁵ When the men of that place recognized him, they alerted the whole vicinity and brought to him all who were sick. ³⁶ They begged him that they might only touch the end of his robe, and as many as touched it were healed.

15 Then Jesus was approached by Pharisees and scribes from Jerusalem, who asked, ² “Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they don’t wash their hands when they eat.”

³ He answered them, “Why do you break God’s commandment because of your tradition? ⁴ For God said: Honor your father and your mother; and, Whoever speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death. ⁵ But you say, ‘Whoever tells his father or mother,’ ‘Whatever benefit you might have received from me is a gift committed to the temple,’ ⁶ he does not have to honor his father.’ In this way, you have nullified the word of God because of your tradition. ⁷ Hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied correctly about you when he said:

8 They people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

9 They worship me in vain, teaching as doctrines human commands.”

¹⁰ Summoning the crowd, he told them, “Listen and understand: ¹¹ It’s not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth — this defiles a person.”

¹² Then the disciples came up and told him, “Do you know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard what you said?”

¹³ He replied, “Every plant that my heavenly Father didn’t plant will be uprooted. ¹⁴ Leave them alone! They are blind guides. And if the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit.”

¹⁵ Then Peter said, “Explain this parable to us.”

¹⁶ “Do you still lack understanding?” he asked. ¹⁷ “Don’t you realize that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and is eliminated? ¹⁸ But what comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and this defiles a person. ¹⁹ For from the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual immoralities, thefts, false testimonies, slander. ²⁰ These are the things that defile a person; but eating with unwashed hands does not defile a person.”

²¹ When Jesus left there, he withdrew to the area of Tyre and Sidon. ²² Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came and kept crying out, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely tormented by a demon.”

²³ Jesus did not say a word to her. His disciples approached him and urged him, “Send her away because she’s crying out after us.”

²⁴ He replied, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

²⁵ But she came, knelt before him, and said, “Lord, help me!”

²⁶ He answered, “It isn’t right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

²⁷ “Yes, Lord,” she said, “yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.”

²⁸ Then Jesus replied to her, “Woman, your faith is great. Let it be done for you as you want.” And from that moment her daughter was healed.

²⁹ Moving on from there, Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee. He went up on a mountain and sat there, ³⁰ and large crowds came to him, including the lame, the blind, the crippled, those unable to speak, and many others. They put them at his feet, and he healed them. ³¹ So the crowd was amazed when they saw those unable to speak talking, the crippled restored, the lame walking, and the blind seeing, and they gave glory to the God of Israel.

³² Jesus called his disciples and said, “I have compassion on the crowd, because they’ve already stayed with me three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry, otherwise they might collapse on the way."

³³The disciples said to him, "Where could we get enough bread in this desolate place to feed such a crowd?"

³⁴"How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked them. "Seven," they said, "and a few small fish."

³⁵After commanding the crowd to sit down on the ground, ³⁶he took the seven loaves and the fish, gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ³⁷They all ate and were satisfied. They collected the leftover pieces — seven large baskets full. ³⁸Now there were four thousand men who had eaten, besides women and children. ³⁹After dismissing the crowds, he got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees approached, and tested him, asking him to show them a sign from heaven. ² He replied, "When evening comes you say, 'It will be good weather because the sky is red.' ³ And in the morning, 'Today will be stormy because the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to read the appearance of the sky, but you can't read the signs of the times. ⁴ An evil and adulterous generation demands a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah." Then he left them and went away.

⁵The disciples reached the other shore, and they had forgotten to take bread. ⁶ Then Jesus told them, "Watch out and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

⁷ They were discussing among themselves, "We didn't bring any bread."

⁸ Aware of this, Jesus said, "You of little faith, why are you discussing among yourselves that you do not have bread? ⁹ Don't you understand yet? Don't you remember the five loaves for the five thousand and how many baskets you collected? ¹⁰ Or the seven loaves for the four thousand and how many large baskets you collected? ¹¹ Why is it you don't understand that when I told you, 'Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees,' it wasn't about bread?" ¹² Then they understood that he had not told them to beware of the leaven in bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³ When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

¹⁴ They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

¹⁵ "But you," he asked them, "who do you say that I am?"

¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

¹⁷ Jesus responded, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but my Father in heaven. ¹⁸ And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overpower it. ¹⁹ I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will have been loosed in heaven."

²⁰ Then he gave the disciples orders to tell no one that he was the Messiah.

²¹ From then on Jesus began to point out to his disciples that it was necessary for him to go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, be killed, and be raised the third day. ²² Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, "Oh no, Lord! This will never happen to you!"

²⁴ Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wants to follow after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. ²⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life because of me will find it. ²⁶ For what will it benefit someone if he gains the whole world yet loses his life? Or what will anyone give in exchange for his life? ²⁷ For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will reward each according to what he has done. ²⁸ Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

17 After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother John and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. ² He was transfigured in front of them, and his face shone like the sun; his clothes became as white as the light. ³ Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with him. ⁴ Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it's good for us to be here. I will set up three shelters here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

⁵ While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased. Listen to him!" ⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown and were terrified.

⁷ Jesus came up, touched them, and said, "Get up; don't be afraid." ⁸ When they looked up they saw no one except Jesus alone.

⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Don't tell anyone about the vision until the Son of Man is raised from the dead."

¹⁰ So the disciples asked him, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

¹¹ "Elijah is coming and will restore everything," he replied. ¹² "But I tell you: Elijah has already come, and they didn't recognize him. On the contrary, they did whatever they pleased to him. In the same way the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands." ¹³ Then the disciples understood that he had spoken to them about John the Baptist.

¹⁴ When they reached the crowd, a man approached and knelt down before him. ¹⁵ "Lord," he said, "have mercy on my son, because he has seizures and suffers terribly. He often falls into the fire and often into the water. ¹⁶ I brought him to your disciples, but they couldn't heal him."

¹⁷ Jesus replied, "You unbelieving and perverse generation, how long will I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me." ¹⁸ Then Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and from that moment the boy was healed.

¹⁹ Then the disciples approached Jesus privately and said, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

²⁰ "Because of your little faith," he told them. "For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."

²² As they were gathering together in Galilee, Jesus told them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men. ²³ They will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised up." And they were deeply distressed.

²⁴ When they came to Capernaum, those who collected the temple tax approached Peter and said, "Doesn't your teacher pay the temple tax?"

²⁵ "Yes," he said.

When he went into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do earthly kings collect tariffs or taxes? From their sons or from strangers?"

²⁶ "From strangers," he said.

"Then the sons are free," Jesus told him. ²⁷ "But, so we won't offend them, go to the sea, cast in a fishhook, and take the first fish that you catch. When you open its mouth you'll find a coin. Take it and give it to them for me and you."

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "So who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" ² He called a child and had him stand among them. ³ "Truly I tell you," he said, "unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child — this one is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵ And whoever welcomes one child like this in my name welcomes me.

⁶ "But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to fall away — it would be better for him if a heavy millstone were hung around his neck and he were drowned in the depths of the sea. ⁷ Woe to the world because of offenses. For offenses will inevitably come, but woe to that person by whom the offense comes. ⁸ If your hand or your foot causes you to fall away, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or lame than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into the eternal fire. ⁹ And if your eye causes you to fall away, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hellfire.

¹⁰ "See to it that you don't despise one of these little ones, because I tell you that in heaven their angels continually view the face of my Father in heaven. ¹² What do you think? If someone has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, won't he leave the ninety-nine on the hillside and go and search for the stray? ¹³ And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over that sheep more than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. ¹⁴ In the same way, it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones perish.

¹⁵ "If your brother sins against you, go and rebuke him in private. If he listens to you, you have won your brother. ¹⁶ But if he won't listen, take one or two others with you, so that by the testimony of two or three witnesses every fact may be established. ¹⁷ If he doesn't pay attention to them, tell the church. If he doesn't pay attention even to the church, let him be like a Gentile and a tax collector to you. ¹⁸ Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will have been loosed in heaven. ¹⁹ Again, truly I tell you, if two of you on earth agree about any matter that you pray for, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. ²⁰ For where two or three are gathered together in my name, I am there among them."

²¹ Then Peter approached him and asked, "Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? As many as seven times?"

²² "I tell you, not as many as seven," Jesus replied, "but seventy times seven.

²³ "For this reason, the kingdom of heaven can be compared to a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. ²⁴ When he began to settle accounts, one who owed ten thousand talents was brought before him. ²⁵ Since he did not have the money to pay it back, his master commanded that he, his wife, his children, and everything he had be sold to pay the debt.

²⁶ "At this, the servant fell facedown before him and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you everything.' ²⁷ Then the master of that servant had compassion, released him, and forgave him the loan.

²⁹ "At this, his fellow servant fell down and began begging him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' ³⁰ But he wasn't willing. Instead, he went and threw him into prison until he could pay what was owed. ³¹ When the other servants saw what had taken place, they were deeply distressed and went and reported to their master everything that had happened. ³² Then, after he had summoned him, his master said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. ³³ Shouldn't you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' ³⁴ And because he was angry, his master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured until he could pay everything that was owed. ³⁵ So also my heavenly Father will do to you unless every one of you forgives his brother or sister from your heart."

19 When Jesus had finished saying these things, he departed from Galilee and went to the region of Judea across the Jordan. ² Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there. ³ Some Pharisees approached him to test him. They asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife on any grounds?"

⁴ "Haven't you read," he replied, "that he who created them in the beginning made them male and female," ⁵ and he also said, "For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh?" ⁶ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, let no one separate."

⁷ "Why then," they asked him, "did Moses command us to give divorce papers and to send her away?"

⁸ He told them, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of the hardness of your hearts, but it was not like that from the beginning. ⁹ I tell you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another commits adultery."

¹⁰ His disciples said to him, "If the relationship of a man with his wife is like this, it's better not to marry."

¹¹ He responded, "Not everyone can accept this saying, but only those to whom it has been given. ¹² For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb, there are eunuchs who were made by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves that way because of the kingdom of heaven. The one who is able to accept it should accept it."

¹³ Then children were brought to Jesus for him to place his hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them.

¹⁴ Jesus said, "Leave the children alone, and don't try to keep them from coming to me, because the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." ¹⁵ After placing his hands on them, he went on from there.

¹⁶ Just then someone came up and asked him, "Teacher, what good must I do to have eternal life?"

¹⁷ "Why do you ask me about what is good?" he said to him. "There is only one who is good. If you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

¹⁸ "Which ones?" he asked him.

Jesus answered: Do not murder; do not commit adultery; do not steal; do not bear false witness; ¹⁹ honor your father and your mother; and love your neighbor as yourself.

²⁰“I have kept all these,” the young man told him. “What do I still lack?”

²¹“If you want to be perfect,” Jesus said to him, “go, sell your belongings and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

²²When the young man heard that, he went away grieving, because he had many possessions.

²³Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly I tell you, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven. ²⁴Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁵When the disciples heard this, they were utterly astonished and asked, “Then who can be saved?”

²⁶Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

²⁷Then Peter responded to him, “See, we have left everything and followed you. So what will there be for us?”

²⁸Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, in the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields because of my name will receive a hundred times more and will inherit eternal life. ³⁰But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

20 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. ²After agreeing with the workers on one denarius, he sent them into his vineyard for the day. ³When he went out about nine in the morning, he saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. ⁴He said to them, ‘You also go into my vineyard, and I’ll give you whatever is right.’ So off they went. ⁵About noon and about three, he went out again and did the same thing. ⁶Then about five he went and found others standing around and said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day doing nothing?’

⁷“Because no one hired us,” they said to him.

“You also go into my vineyard,” he told them. ⁸When evening came, the owner of the vineyard told his foreman, ‘Call the workers and give them their pay, starting with the last and ending with the first.’

⁹“When those who were hired about five came, they each received one denarius. ¹⁰So when the first ones came, they assumed they would get more, but they also received a denarius each. ¹¹When they received it, they began to complain to the landowner: ¹²‘These last men put in one hour, and you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day’s work and the burning heat.’

¹³“He replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I’m doing you no wrong. Didn’t you agree with me on a denarius? ¹⁴Take what’s yours and go. I want to give this last man the same as I gave you. ¹⁵Don’t I have the right to do what I want with what is mine? Are you jealous because I’m generous?’

¹⁶“So the last will be first, and the first last.”

¹⁷While going up to Jerusalem, Jesus took the twelve disciples aside privately and said to them on the way, ¹⁸“See, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death. ¹⁹They will hand him over to the Gentiles to be mocked, flogged, and crucified, and on the third day he will be raised.”

²⁰Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons approached him with her sons. She knelt down to ask him for something.

²¹“What do you want?” he asked her.

“Promise,” she said to him, “that these two sons of mine may sit, one on your right and the other on your left, in your kingdom.”

²²Jesus answered, “You don’t know what you’re asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?”

“We are able,” they said to him.

²³He told them, “You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right and left is not mine to give; instead, it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”

²⁴When the ten disciples heard this, they became indignant with the two brothers. ²⁵Jesus called them over and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in high positions act as tyrants over them. ²⁶It must not be like that among you. On the contrary, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, ²⁷and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave; ²⁸just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

²⁹As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him. ³⁰There were two blind men sitting by the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!” ³¹The crowd demanded that they keep quiet, but they cried out all the more, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!”

³²Jesus stopped, called them, and said, “What do you want me to do for you?”

³³“Lord,” they said to him, “open our eyes.” ³⁴Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. Immediately they could see, and they followed him.

21 When they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage at the Mount of Olives, Jesus then sent two disciples, ²telling them, “Go into the village ahead of you. At once you will find a donkey tied there with her foal. Untie them and bring them to me. ³If anyone says anything to you, say that the Lord needs them, and he will send them at once.”

⁴This took place so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled:

⁵ Tell Daughter Zion, “See, your King is coming to you,
gentle, and mounted on a donkey,
and on a colt,
the foal of a donkey.”

⁶The disciples went and did just as Jesus directed them. ⁷They brought the donkey and its foal; then they laid their clothes on them, and he sat on them. ⁸A very large crowd spread their clothes on the road; others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. ⁹Then the crowds who went ahead of him and those who followed shouted:

Hosanna to the Son of David!
Blessed is he who comes in the name
of the Lord!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!

¹⁰When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in an uproar, saying, “Who is this?” ¹¹The crowds were saying, “This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee.”

¹²Jesus went into the temple and threw out all those buying and selling. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves. ¹³He said to them, “It is written, my house will be called a house of prayer, but you are making it a den of thieves!”

¹⁴The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. ¹⁵When the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonders that he did and the children shouting in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" they were indignant ¹⁶and said to him, "Do you hear what these children are saying?"

Jesus replied, "Yes, have you never read:

You have prepared praise from the mouths of infants and nursing babies?"

¹⁷Then he left them, went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

¹⁸Early in the morning, as he was returning to the city, he was hungry. ¹⁹Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, he went up to it and found nothing on it except leaves. And he said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you again!" At once the fig tree withered.

²⁰When the disciples saw it, they were amazed and said, "How did the fig tree wither so quickly?"

²¹Jesus answered them, "Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you tell this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' it will be done. ²²And if you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer."

²³When he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching and said, "By what authority are you doing these things? Who gave you this authority?"

²⁴Jesus answered them, "I will also ask you one question, and if you answer it for me, then I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵Did John's baptism come from heaven, or was it of human origin?"

They discussed it among themselves, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' ²⁶But if we say, 'Of human origin,' we're afraid of the crowd, because everyone considers John to be a prophet." ²⁷So they answered Jesus, "We don't know."

And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

²⁸"What do you think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'My son, go work in the vineyard today.'

²⁹"He answered, 'I don't want to,' but later he changed his mind and went. ³⁰Then the man went to the other and said the same thing. 'I will, sir,' he answered, but he didn't go. ³¹Which of the two did his father's will?"

They said, "The first."

Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. ³²For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe him. Tax collectors and prostitutes did believe him; but you, when you saw it, didn't even change your minds then and believe him.

³³"Listen to another parable: There was a landowner, who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a watchtower. He leased it to tenant farmers and went away. ³⁴When the time came to harvest fruit, he sent his servants to the farmers to collect his fruit. ³⁵The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned a third. ³⁶Again, he sent other servants, more than the first group, and they did the same to them. ³⁷Finally, he sent his son to them. 'They will respect my son,' he said.

³⁸"But when the tenant farmers saw the son, they said to each other, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him and take his inheritance.' ³⁹So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. ⁴⁰Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"

⁴¹"He will completely destroy those terrible men," they told him, "and lease his vineyard to other farmers who will give him his fruit at the harvest."

⁴²Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
This is what the Lord has done
and it is wonderful in our eyes?

⁴³Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruit. ⁴⁴Whoever falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will shatter him."

⁴⁵When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they knew he was speaking about them. ⁴⁶Although they were looking for a way to arrest him, they feared the crowds, because the people regarded him as a prophet.

22 Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables: ²"The kingdom of heaven is like a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. ³He sent his servants to summon those invited to the banquet, but they didn't want to come. ⁴Again, he sent out other servants and said, 'Tell those who are invited: See, I've prepared my dinner; my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.'

⁸Then he told his servants, 'The banquet is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. ⁹Go then to where the roads exit the city and invite everyone you find to the banquet.' ¹⁰So those servants went out on the roads and gathered everyone they found, both evil and good. The wedding banquet was filled with guests. ¹¹When the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed for a wedding. ¹²So he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?' The man was speechless.

¹³"Then the king told the attendants, 'Tie him up hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

¹⁴"For many are invited, but few are chosen."

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went and plotted how to trap him by what he said. ¹⁶So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians. "Teacher," they said, "we know that you are truthful and teach truthfully the way of God. You don't care what anyone thinks nor do you show partiality. ¹⁷Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

¹⁸Perceiving their malicious intent, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, hypocrites? ¹⁹Show me the coin used for the tax." They brought him a denarius. ²⁰"Whose image and inscription is this?" he asked them.

²¹"Caesar's," they said to him.

Then he said to them, "Give, then, to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." ²²When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away.

²³That same day some Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came up to him and questioned him:

²⁹Jesus answered them, "You are mistaken, because you don't know the Scriptures or the power of God. ³⁰For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage but are like angels in heaven. ³¹Now concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven't you read what was spoken to you by God: ³²I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

³³And when the crowds heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.

³⁴When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they came together. ³⁵And one of them, an expert in the law, asked a question to test him: ³⁶"Teacher, which command in the law is the greatest?"

³⁷He said to him, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. ³⁸This is the greatest and most important command. ³⁹The second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. ⁴⁰All the Law and the Prophets depend on these two commands."

⁴¹While the Pharisees were together, Jesus questioned them. ⁴²"What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?"

They replied, "David's."

⁴³He asked them, "How is it then that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls him 'Lord':

⁴⁴ The Lord declared to my Lord,
'Sit at my right hand
until I put your enemies under your feet?'

⁴⁵"If David calls him 'Lord,' how then can he be his son?"

⁴⁶No one was able to answer him at all, and from that day no one dared to question him anymore.

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples: ²"The scribes and the Pharisees are seated in the chair of Moses. ³Therefore do whatever they tell you, and observe it. But don't do what they do, because they don't practice what they teach. ⁴They tie up heavy loads that are hard to carry and put them on people's shoulders, but they themselves aren't willing to lift a finger to move them. ⁵They do everything to be seen by others: They enlarge their phylacteries and lengthen their tassels. ⁶They love the place of honor at banquets, the front seats in the synagogues, ⁷greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called 'Rabbi' by people.

⁸"But you are not to be called 'Rabbi,' because you have one Teacher, and you are all brothers and sisters. ⁹Do not call anyone on earth your father, because you have one Father, who is in heaven. ¹⁰You are not to be called instructors either, because you have one Instructor, the Messiah. ¹¹The greatest among you will be your servant. ¹²Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

¹³"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. For you don't go in, and you don't allow those entering to go in.

¹⁵"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You travel overland and sea to make one convert, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as fit for hell as you are!

²³"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You pay a tenth of mint, dill, and cumin, and yet you have neglected the more important matters of the law — justice, mercy, and faithfulness. These things should have been done without neglecting the others. ²⁴Blind guides! You strain out a gnat, but gulp down a camel!

²⁵"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. ²⁶Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside of it may also become clean.

²⁹"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous, ³⁰and you say, 'If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we wouldn't have taken part with them in shedding the prophets' blood.' ³¹So you testify against yourselves that you are descendants of those who murdered the prophets. ³²Fill up, then, the measure of your ancestors' sins!

³³"Snakes! Brood of vipers! How can you escape being condemned to hell? ³⁴This is why I am sending you prophets, sages, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town. ³⁵So all the righteous blood shed on the earth will be charged to you, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. ³⁶Truly I tell you, all these things will come on this generation.

³⁷"Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her. How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing! ³⁸See, your house is left to you desolate. ³⁹For I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

24 As Jesus left and was going out of the temple, his disciples came up and called his attention to its buildings. ²He replied to them, "Do you see all these things? Truly I tell you, not one stone will be left here on another that will not be thrown down."

³While he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him privately and said, "Tell us, when will these things happen? And what is the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

⁴ Jesus replied to them: "Watch out that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Messiah,' and they will deceive many. ⁶ You are going to hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, because these things must take place, but the end is not yet. ⁷ For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these events are the beginning of labor pains.

⁹ Then they will hand you over to be persecuted, and they will kill you. You will be hated by all nations because of my name. ¹⁰ Then many will fall away, betray one another, and hate one another. ¹¹ Many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. ¹² Because lawlessness will multiply, the love of many will grow cold. ¹³ But the one who endures to the end will be saved. ¹⁴ This good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed in all the world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

²⁹ "Immediately after the distress of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not shed its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ³⁰ Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the peoples of the earth will mourn; and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. ³¹ He will send out his angels with a loud trumpet, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

³² "Learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. ³³ In the same way, when you see all these things, recognize that he is near — at the door. ³⁴ Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things take place. ³⁵ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

³⁶ "Now concerning that day and hour no one knows — neither the angels of heaven nor the Son — except the Father alone. ³⁷ As the days of Noah were, so the coming of the Son of Man will be. ³⁸ For in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah boarded the ark.

³⁹ They didn't know until the flood came and swept them all away. This is the way the coming of the Son of Man will be. ⁴⁰ Then two men will be in the field; one will be taken and one left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding grain with a hand mill; one will be taken and one left. ⁴² Therefore be alert, since you don't know what day your Lord is coming. ⁴³ But know this: If the homeowner had known what time the thief was coming, he would have stayed alert and not let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴ This is why you are also to be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

⁴⁵ "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master has put in charge of his household, to give them food at the proper time? ⁴⁶ Blessed is that servant whom the master finds doing his job when he comes. ⁴⁷ Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. ⁴⁸ But if that wicked servant says in his heart, 'My master is delayed,' ⁴⁹ and starts to beat his fellow servants, and eats and drinks with drunkards, ⁵⁰ that servant's master will come on a day he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. ⁵¹ He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 "At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the groom. ² Five of them were foolish and five were wise. ³ When the foolish took their lamps, they didn't take oil with them; ⁴ but the wise ones took oil in their flasks with their lamps. ⁵ When the groom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

⁶ "In the middle of the night there was a shout: 'Here's the groom! Come out to meet him.'

⁷ Then all the virgins got up and trimmed their lamps.

⁸ The foolish ones said to the wise ones, 'Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are going out.'

⁹ "The wise ones answered, 'No, there won't be enough for us and for you. Go instead to those who sell oil, and buy some for yourselves.'

¹⁰ "When they had gone to buy some, the groom arrived, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet, and the door was shut. ¹¹ Later the rest of the virgins also came and said, 'Master, master, open up for us!'

¹² He replied, 'Truly I tell you, I don't know you!'

¹³ "Therefore be alert, because you don't know either the day or the hour.

¹⁴ "For it is just like a man about to go on a journey. He called his own servants and entrusted his possessions to them. ¹⁵ To one he gave five talents, to another two talents, and to another one talent, depending on each one's ability. Then he went on a journey. Immediately ¹⁶ the man who had received five talents went, put them to work, and earned five more. ¹⁷ In the same way the man with two earned two more. ¹⁸ But the man who had received one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money.

¹⁹ "After a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. ²⁰ The man who had received five talents approached, presented five more talents, and said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I've earned five more talents.'

²¹ "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You were faithful over a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Share your master's joy.'

²² "The man with two talents also approached. He said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I've earned two more talents.'

²³“His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You were faithful over a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Share your master’s joy.’”

²⁴“The man who had received one talent also approached and said, ‘Master, I know you. You’re a harsh man, reaping where you haven’t sown and gathering where you haven’t scattered seed.’²⁵ So I was afraid and went off and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.’”

²⁶“His master replied to him, ‘You evil, lazy servant! If you knew that I reap where I haven’t sown and gather where I haven’t scattered,²⁷ then you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and I would have received my money back with interest when I returned.’”

²⁸“So take the talent from him and give it to the one who has ten talents.²⁹ For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have more than enough. But from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.³⁰ And throw this good-for-nothing servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’”

³¹“When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne.³² All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate them one from another, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.³³ He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on the left.³⁴ Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father; inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.’”

³⁵“For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink; I was a stranger and you took me in;³⁶ I was naked and you clothed me; I was sick and you took care of me; I was in prison and you visited me.’”

³⁷“Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink?’³⁸ When did we see you a stranger and take you in, or without clothes and clothe you?’³⁹ When did we see you sick, or in prison, and visit you?’”

⁴¹“Then he will also say to those on the left, ‘Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels!’⁴² For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink;⁴³ I was a stranger and you didn’t take me in; I was naked and you didn’t clothe me, sick and in prison and you didn’t take care of me.’”

⁴⁴“Then they too will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or without clothes, or sick, or in prison, and not help you?’”

⁴⁵“Then he will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.’”

⁴⁶“And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

26 When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he told his disciples,² “You know that the Passover takes place after two days, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

³Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled in the courtyard of the high priest, who was named Caiaphas,⁴ and they conspired to arrest Jesus in a treacherous way and kill him.⁵ “Not during the festival,” they said, “so there won’t be rioting among the people.”

⁶While Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper,⁷ a woman approached him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume. She poured it on his head as he was reclining at the table.⁸ When the disciples saw it, they were indignant. “Why this waste?” they asked.⁹ “This might have been sold for a great deal and given to the poor.”

¹⁰Aware of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a noble thing for me.¹¹ You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.¹² By pouring this perfume on my body, she has prepared me for burial.¹³ Truly I tell you, wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

¹⁴Then one of the Twelve, the man called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests¹⁵ and said, “What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?” So they weighed out thirty pieces of silver for him.¹⁶ And from that time he started looking for a good opportunity to betray him.

¹⁷On the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?”

¹⁸“Go into the city to a certain man,” he said, “and tell him, ‘The Teacher says: My time is near; I am celebrating the Passover at your place with my disciples.’”¹⁹ So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.²⁰ When evening came, he was reclining at the table with the Twelve.²¹ While they were eating, he said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me.”

²²Deeply distressed, each one began to say to him, “Surely not I, Lord?”

²³He replied, “The one who dipped his hand with me in the bowl — he will betray me.²⁴ The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for him if he had not been born.”

²⁵Judas, his betrayer, replied, “Surely not I, Rabbi?”

“You have said it,” he told him.

²⁶As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said, “Take and eat it; this is my body.”²⁷ Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks, he gave it to them and said, “Drink from it, all of you.²⁸ For this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.²⁹ But I tell you, I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s kingdom.”³⁰ After singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

³¹Then Jesus said to them, “Tonight all of you will fall away because of me, for it is written:

I will strike the shepherd,
and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.

³²But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

³³Peter told him, “Even if everyone falls away because of you, I will never fall away.”

³⁴“Truly I tell you,” Jesus said to him, “tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.”

³⁵“Even if I have to die with you,” Peter told him, “I will never deny you,” and all the disciples said the same thing.

³⁶Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he told the disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”³⁷ Taking along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and troubled.³⁸ He said to them, “I am deeply grieved to the point of death. Remain here and stay awake with me.”³⁹ Going a little farther, he fell facedown and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will."

⁴⁰ Then he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. He asked Peter, "So, couldn't you stay awake with me one hour? ⁴¹ Stay awake and pray, so that you won't enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

⁴² Again, a second time, he went away and prayed, "My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done."

⁴³ And he came again and found them sleeping, because they could not keep their eyes open.

⁴⁴ After leaving them, he went away again and prayed a third time, saying the same thing once more. ⁴⁵ Then he came to the disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? See, the time is near. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶ Get up; let's go. See, my betrayer is near."

⁴⁷ While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, suddenly arrived. A large mob with swords and clubs was with him from the chief priests and elders of the people. ⁴⁸ His betrayer had given them a sign: "The one I kiss, he's the one; arrest him." ⁴⁹ So immediately he went up to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed him.

⁵⁰ "Friend," Jesus asked him, "why have you come?"

Then they came up, took hold of Jesus, and arrested him.

⁵¹ At that moment one of those with Jesus reached out his hand and drew his sword. He struck the high priest's servant and cut off his ear.

⁵² Then Jesus told him, "Put your sword back in its place because all who take up the sword will perish by the sword.

⁵³ Or do you think that I cannot call on my Father, and he will provide me here and now with more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴ How, then, would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way?"

⁵⁵ At that time Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs, as if I were a criminal, to capture me? Every day I used to sit, teaching in the temple, and you didn't arrest me. ⁵⁶ But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets would be fulfilled." Then all the disciples deserted him and ran away.

⁵⁷ Those who had arrested Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had convened. ⁵⁸ Peter was following him at a distance right to the high priest's courtyard. He went in and was sitting with the servants to see the outcome.

⁵⁹ The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false testimony against Jesus so that they could put him to death, ⁶⁰ but they could not find any, even though many false witnesses came forward. Finally, two who came forward ⁶¹ stated, "This man said, 'I can destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'"

⁶² The high priest stood up and said to him, "Don't you have an answer to what these men are testifying against you?" ⁶³ But Jesus kept silent. The high priest said to him, "I charge you under oath by the living God: Tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God."

⁶⁴ "You have said it," Jesus told him. "But I tell you, in the future you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven."

⁶⁵ Then the high priest tore his robes and said, "He has blasphemed! Why do we still need witnesses? See, now you've heard the blasphemy. ⁶⁶ What is your decision?"

They answered, "He deserves death!" ⁶⁷ Then they spat in his face and beat him; others slapped him ⁶⁸ and said, "Prophecy to us, Messiah! Who was it that hit you?"

⁶⁹ Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant girl approached him and said, "You were with Jesus the Galilean too."

⁷⁰ But he denied it in front of everyone: "I don't know what you're talking about."

⁷¹ When he had gone out to the gateway, another woman saw him and told those who were there, "This man was with Jesus the Nazarene!"

⁷² And again he denied it with an oath: "I don't know the man!"

⁷³ After a little while those standing there approached and said to Peter, "You really are one of them, since even your accent gives you away."

⁷⁴ Then he started to curse and to swear with an oath, "I don't know the man!" Immediately a rooster crows, ⁷⁵ and Peter remembered the words Jesus had spoken, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." And he went outside and wept bitterly.

27 When daybreak came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put him to death. ² After tying him up, they led him away and handed him over to Pilate, the governor.

³ Then Judas, his betrayer, seeing that Jesus had been condemned, was full of remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders. ⁴ "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood," he said.

"What's that to us?" they said. "See to it yourself!" ⁵ So he threw the silver into the temple and departed. Then he went and hanged himself.

⁶ The chief priests took the silver and said, "It's not permitted to put it into the temple treasury, since it is blood money." ⁷ They conferred together and bought the potter's field with it as a burial place for foreigners. ⁸ Therefore that field has been called "Blood Field" to this day. ⁹ Then what was spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled: They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him whose price was set by the Israelites, and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord directed me.

¹¹ Now Jesus stood before the governor. "Are you the King of the Jews?" the governor asked him.

Jesus answered, "You say so." ¹² While he was being accused by the chief priests and elders, he didn't answer.

¹³ Then Pilate said to him, "Don't you hear how much they are testifying against you?" ¹⁴ But he didn't answer him on even one charge, so that the governor was quite amazed.

¹⁵ At the festival the governor's custom was to release to the crowd a prisoner they wanted. ¹⁶ At that time they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas. ¹⁷ So when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Who is it you want me to release for you — Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" ¹⁸ For he knew it was because of envy that they had handed him over.

²⁰ The chief priests and the elders, however, persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to execute Jesus. ²¹ The governor asked them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?"

"Barabbas!" they answered.

²² Pilate asked them, "What should I do then with Jesus, who is called Christ?"

They all answered, "Crucify him!"

²³ Then he said, "Why? What has he done wrong?" But they kept shouting all the more, "Crucify him!"

²⁴When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that a riot was starting instead, he took some water, washed his hands in front of the crowd, and said, "I am innocent of this man's blood. See to it yourselves!"

³²As they were going out, they found a Cyrenian man named Simon. They forced him to carry his cross. ³³When they came to a place called Goigotha (which means Place of the Skull), ³⁴they gave him wine mixed with gall to drink. But when he tasted it, he refused to drink it. ³⁵After crucifying him, they divided his clothes by casting lots. ³⁶Then they sat down and were guarding him there. ³⁷Above his head they put up the charge against him in writing: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

³⁸Then two criminals were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left. ³⁹Those who passed by were yelling insults at him, shaking their heads ⁴⁰and saying, "You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!" ⁴¹In the same way the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocked him and said, ⁴²"He saved others, but he cannot save himself! He is the King of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him." ⁴³He trusts in God; let God rescue him now — if he takes pleasure in him! For he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" ⁴⁴In the same way even the criminals who were crucified with him taunted him.

⁴⁵From noon until three in the afternoon darkness came over the whole land. ⁴⁶About three in the afternoon Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lemá sabachtháni?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

⁴⁷When some of those standing there heard this, they said, "He's calling for Elijah."

⁴⁸Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, put it on a stick, and offered him a drink. ⁴⁹But the rest said, "Let's see if Elijah comes to save him."

⁵⁰But Jesus cried out again with a loud voice and gave up his spirit. ⁵¹Suddenly, the curtain of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom, the earth quaked, and the rocks were split. ⁵²The tombs were also opened and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised. ⁵³And they came out of the tombs after his resurrection, entered the holy city, and appeared to many.

⁵⁴When the centurion and those with him, who were keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they were terrified and said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

⁵⁵Many women who had followed Jesus from Galilee and looked after him were there, watching from a distance.

⁵⁶Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

⁵⁷When it was evening, a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph came, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. ⁵⁸He approached Pilate and asked for Jesus's body. Then Pilate ordered that it be released. ⁵⁹So Joseph took the body, wrapped it in clean, fine linen, ⁶⁰and placed it in his new tomb, which he had cut into the rock. He left after rolling a great stone against the entrance of the tomb. ⁶¹Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were seated there, facing the tomb.

⁶²The next day, which followed the preparation day, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate ⁶³and said, "Sir, we remember that while this deceiver was still alive he said, 'After three days I will rise again.'" ⁶⁴So give orders that the tomb be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may come, steal him, and tell the people, 'He has been raised from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

⁶⁵"You have a guard of soldiers," Pilate told them. "Go and make it as secure as you know how." ⁶⁶They went and secured the tomb by setting a seal on the stone and placing the guard.

28 After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to view the tomb. ²There was a violent earthquake, because an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and approached the tomb. He rolled back the stone and was sitting on it. ³His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow. ⁴The guards were so shaken by fear of him that they became like dead men.

⁵The angel told the women, "Don't be afraid, because I know you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. ⁶He is not here. For he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. ⁷Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; you will see him there.' Listen, I have told you."

⁸So, departing quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, they ran to tell his disciples the news. ⁹Just then Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" They came up, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. ¹⁰Then Jesus told them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to leave for Galilee, and they will see me there."

¹¹As they were on their way, some of the guards came into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened. ¹²After the priests had assembled with the elders and agreed on a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money ¹³and told them, "Say this, 'His disciples came during the night and stole him while we were sleeping.'" ¹⁴If this reaches the governor's ears, we will deal with him and keep you out of trouble." ¹⁵They took the money and did as they were instructed, and this story has been spread among Jewish people to this day.

¹⁶The eleven disciples traveled to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷When they saw him, they worshiped, but some doubted. ¹⁸Jesus came near and said to them, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth. ¹⁹Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰teaching them to observe everything I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

MARK

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. ² As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:

See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you;

he will prepare your way.

3 A voice of one crying out in the wilderness: Prepare the way for the Lord; make his paths straight!

⁴ John came baptizing in the wilderness and proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵ The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and they were baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. ⁶ John wore a camel-hair garment with a leather belt around his waist and ate locusts and wild honey.

⁷ He proclaimed, "One who is more powerful than I am is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the strap of his sandals. ⁸ I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

⁹ In those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. ¹⁰ As soon as he came up out of the water, he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. ¹¹ And a voice came from heaven: "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well-pleased."

¹² Immediately the Spirit drove him into the wilderness.

¹³ He was in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels were serving him.

¹⁴ After John was arrested, Jesus went to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God: ¹⁵ "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!"

¹⁶ As he passed alongside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, Simon's brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. ¹⁷ "Follow me," Jesus told them, "and I will make you fish for people." ¹⁸ Immediately they left their nets and followed him. ¹⁹ Going on a little farther, he saw James the son of Zebedee and his brother John in a boat putting their nets in order. ²⁰ Immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

²¹ They went into Capernaum, and right away he entered the synagogue on the Sabbath and began to teach. ²² They were astonished at his teaching because he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not like the scribes.

²³ Just then a man with an unclean spirit was in their synagogue. He cried out, ²⁴ "What do you have to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"

²⁵ Jesus rebuked him saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" ²⁶ And the unclean spirit threw him into convulsions, shouted with a loud voice, and came out of him.

²⁷ They were all amazed, and so they began to ask each other: "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him."

²⁸ At once the news about him spread throughout the entire vicinity of Galilee.

²⁹ As soon as they left the synagogue, they went into Simon and Andrew's house with James and John. ³⁰ Simon's mother-in-law was lying in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. ³¹ So he went to her, took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she began to serve them.

³² When evening came, after the sun had set, they brought to him all those who were sick and demon-possessed. ³³ The whole town was assembled at the door, ³⁴ and he healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. And he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

³⁵ Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, he got up, went out, and made his way to a deserted place; and there he was praying. ³⁶ Simon and his companions searched for him, ³⁷ and when they found him they said, "Everyone is looking for you."

³⁸ And he said to them, "Let's go on to the neighboring villages so that I may preach there too. This is why I have come."

³⁹ He went into all of Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and driving out demons. ⁴⁰ Then a man with leprosy came to him and, on his knees, begged him: "If you are willing, you can make me clean." ⁴¹ Moved with compassion, Jesus reached out his hand and touched him. "I am willing," he told him. "Be made clean." ⁴² Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. ⁴³ Then he sternly warned him and sent him away at once, ⁴⁴ telling him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go and show yourself to the priest, and offer what Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them." ⁴⁵ Yet he went out and began to proclaim it widely and to spread the news, with the result that Jesus could no longer enter a town openly. But he was out in deserted places, and they came to him from everywhere.

2 When he entered Capernaum again after some days, it was reported that he was at home. ² So many people gathered together that there was no more room, not even in the doorway, and he was speaking the word to them. ³ They came to him bringing a paralytic, carried by four of them. ⁴ Since they were not able to bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him, and after digging through it, they lowered the mat on which the paralytic was lying. ⁵ Seeing their faith, Jesus told the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

⁸ Right away Jesus perceived in his spirit that they were thinking like this within themselves and said to them, "Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? ⁹ Which is easier: to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, take your mat, and walk'?" ¹⁰ But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"— he told the paralytic— ¹¹ "I tell you: get up, take your mat, and go home."

¹² Immediately he got up, took the mat, and went out in front of everyone. As a result, they were all astounded and gave glory to God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

¹³ Jesus went out again beside the sea. The whole crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. ¹⁴ Then, passing by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the toll booth, and he said to him, "Follow me," and he got up and followed him.

¹⁵While he was reclining at the table in Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinners were eating with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who were following him.

¹⁶When the scribes who were Pharisees saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, they asked his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

¹⁷When Jesus heard this, he told them, "It is not those who are well who need a doctor, but those who are sick. I didn't come to call the righteous, but sinners."

¹⁸Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. People came and asked him, "Why do John's disciples and the Pharisees' disciples fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

¹⁹Jesus said to them, "The wedding guests cannot fast while the groom is with them, can they? As long as they have the groom with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰But the time will come when the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast on that day. ²¹No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. Otherwise, the new patch pulls away from the old cloth, and a worse tear is made. ²²And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost as well as the skins. No, new wine is put into fresh wineskins."

²⁵He said to them, "Have you never read what David and those who were with him did when he was in need and hungry — ²⁶how he entered the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the bread of the Presence — which is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests — and also gave some to his companions?" ²⁷Then he told them, "The Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath. ²⁸So then, the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath."

3 Jesus entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a shriveled hand. ²In order to accuse him, they were watching him closely to see whether he would heal him on the Sabbath. ³He told the man with the shriveled hand, "Stand before us." ⁴Then he said to them, "Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they were silent. ⁵After looking around at them with anger, he was grieved at the hardness of their hearts and told the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. ⁶Immediately the Pharisees went out and started plotting with the Herodians against him, how they might kill him.

⁷Jesus departed with his disciples to the sea, and a large crowd followed from Galilee, and a large crowd followed from Judea, ⁸Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon. The large crowd came to him because they heard about everything he was doing. ⁹Then he told his disciples to have a small boat ready for him, so that the crowd wouldn't crush him. ¹⁰Since he had healed many, all who had diseases were pressing toward him to touch him. ¹¹Whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, "You are the Son of God!" ¹²And he would strongly warn them not to make him known.

¹³Jesus went up the mountain and summoned those he wanted, and they came to him. ¹⁴He appointed twelve,

whom he also named apostles, to be with him, to send them out to preach, ¹⁵and to have authority to drive out demons. ¹⁶He appointed the Twelve: To Simon, he gave the name Peter; ¹⁷and to James the son of Zebedee, and to his brother John, he gave the name "Boanerges" (that is, "Sons of Thunder"); ¹⁸Andrew; Philip and Bartholomew; Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot, ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

²⁰Jesus entered a house, and the crowd gathered again so that they were not even able to eat. ²¹When his family heard this, they set out to restrain him, because they said, "He's out of his mind."

²²The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and, "He drives out demons by the ruler of the demons."

²⁸"Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for all sins and whatever blasphemies they utter. ²⁹But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin" — ³⁰because they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

³¹His mother and his brothers came, and standing outside, they sent word to him and called him. ³²A crowd was sitting around him and told him, "Look, your mother, your brothers, and your sisters are outside asking for you."

³³He replied to them, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" ³⁴Looking at those sitting in a circle around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! ³⁵Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

4 Again he began to teach by the sea, and a very large crowd gathered around him. So he got into a boat on the sea and sat down, while the whole crowd was by the sea on the shore. ²He taught them many things in parables, and in his teaching he said to them: ³"Listen! Consider the sower who went out to sow. ⁴As he sowed, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it. ⁵Other seed fell on rocky ground where it didn't have much soil, and it grew up quickly, since the soil wasn't deep. ⁶When the sun came up, it was scorched, and since it had no root, it withered away. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it didn't produce fruit. ⁸Still other seed fell on good ground and it grew up, producing fruit that increased thirty, sixty, and a hundred times." ⁹Then he said, "Let anyone who has ears to hear listen."

¹⁰When he was alone, those around him with the Twelve, asked him about the parables. ¹¹He answered them, "The secret of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to those outside, everything comes in parables ¹²so that they may indeed look,

and yet not perceive;
they may indeed listen,
and yet not understand;
otherwise, they might turn back
and be forgiven."

¹³Then he said to them: "Don't you understand this parable? How then will you understand all of the parables?"

¹⁴The sower sows the word. ¹⁵Some are like the word sown on the path. When they hear, immediately Satan comes and takes away the word sown in them.¹⁶ And others are like seed sown on rocky ground. When they hear the word, immediately they receive it with joy.¹⁷ But they have no root; they are short-lived. When distress or persecution comes because of the word, they immediately fall away.¹⁸ Others are like seed sown among thorns; these are the ones who hear the word,¹⁹ but the worries of this age, the deceitfulness of wealth, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.²⁰ And those like seed sown on good ground hear the word, welcome it, and produce fruit thirty, sixty, and a hundred times what was sown.”

²¹ He also said to them, “Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket or under a bed? Isn’t it to be put on a lampstand? ²² For there is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing concealed that will not be brought to light. ²³ If anyone has ears to hear, let him listen.” ²⁴ And he said to them, “Pay attention to what you hear. By the measure you use, it will be measured to you — and more will be added to you. ²⁵ For whoever has, more will be given to him, and whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.”

²⁶ “The kingdom of God is like this,” he said. “A man scatters seed on the ground. ²⁷ He sleeps and rises night and day; the seed sprouts and grows, although he doesn’t know how. ²⁸ The soil produces a crop by itself — first the blade, then the head, and then the full grain on the head. ²⁹ As soon as the crop is ready, he sends for the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

³⁰ And he said, “With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use to describe it? ³¹ It’s like a mustard seed that, when sown upon the soil, is the smallest of all the seeds on the ground. ³² And when sown, it comes up and grows taller than all the garden plants, and produces large branches, so that the birds of the sky can nest in its shade.”

³³ He was speaking the word to them with many parables like these, as they were able to understand. ³⁴ He did not speak to them without a parable. Privately, however, he explained everything to his own disciples.

³⁵ On that day, when evening had come, he told them, “Let’s cross over to the other side of the sea.” ³⁶ So they left the crowd and took him along since he was in the boat. And other boats were with him. ³⁷ A great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking over the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. ³⁸ He was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. So they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher! Don’t you care that we’re going to die?”

³⁹ He got up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Silence! Be still!” The wind ceased, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰ Then he said to them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

⁴¹ And they were terrified and asked one another, “Who then is this? Even the wind and the sea obey him!”

5 They came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes. ² As soon as he got out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit came out of the tombs and met him. ³ He lived in the tombs, and no one was able to restrain him anymore — not even with a chain — ⁴ because he often had been bound with shackles and chains, but had torn the chains apart and smashed the shackles. No one was strong enough to subdue him. ⁵ Night and day among the tombs and on the mountains, he was always crying out and cutting himself with stones.

⁶ When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and knelt down before him. ⁷ And he cried out with a loud voice, “What do you have to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you before God, don’t torment me!” ⁸ For he had told him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!” ⁹ “What is your name?” he asked him.

“My name is Legion,” he answered him, “because we are many.” ¹⁰ And he begged him earnestly not to send them out of the region.

¹¹ A large herd of pigs was there, feeding on the hillside. ¹² The demons begged him, “Send us to the pigs, so that we may enter them.” ¹³ So he gave them permission, and the unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned there.

¹⁴ The men who tended them ran off and reported it in the town and the countryside, and people went to see what had happened. ¹⁵ They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been demon-possessed, sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. ¹⁶ Those who had seen it described to them what had happened to the demon-possessed man and told about the pigs. ¹⁷ Then they began to beg him to leave their region.

¹⁸ As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged him earnestly that he might remain with him. ¹⁹ Jesus did not let him but told him, “Go home to your own people, and report to them how much the Lord has done for you and how he has had mercy on you.” ²⁰ So he went out and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him, and they were all amazed.

²¹ When Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him while he was by the sea. ²² One of the synagogue leaders, named Jairus, came, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet ²³ and begged him earnestly, “My little daughter is dying. Come and lay your hands on her so that she can get well and live.” ²⁴ So Jesus went with him, and a large crowd was following and pressing against him.

²⁵ Now a woman suffering from bleeding for twelve years ²⁶ had endured much under many doctors. She had spent everything she had and was not helped at all. On the contrary, she became worse. ²⁷ Having heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his clothing. ²⁸ For she said, “If I just touch his clothes, I’ll be made well.” ²⁹ Instantly her flow of blood ceased, and she sensed in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

³⁰ At once Jesus realized in himself that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?”

³¹ His disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing against you, and yet you say, ‘Who touched me?’”

³² But he was looking around to see who had done this.

³³ The woman, with fear and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. ³⁴ “Daughter,” he said to her, “your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be healed from your affliction.”

³⁵ While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue leader’s house and said, “Your daughter is dead. Why bother the teacher anymore?”

³⁶ When Jesus overheard what was said, he told the synagogue leader, “Don’t be afraid. Only believe.” ³⁷ He did not let anyone accompany him except Peter, James, and John, James’s brother. ³⁸ They came to the leader’s house, and he saw a commotion — people weeping and wailing loudly. ³⁹ He went in and said to them, “Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.” ⁴⁰ They laughed at him, but he put them all outside. He took the child’s father, mother, and those who were with him, and entered the place where the child was. ⁴¹ Then he took the child by the hand and said to her, “Talitha koum” (which is translated, “Little girl, I say to you, get up”). ⁴² Immediately the girl got up and began to walk. (She was twelve years old.) At this they were utterly astounded. ⁴³ Then he gave them strict orders that no one should know about this and told them to give her something to eat.

6 He left there and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. ² When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. “Where did this man get these things?” they said. “What is this wisdom that has been given to him, and how are these miracles performed by his hands? ³ Isn’t this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And aren’t his sisters here with us?” So they were offended by him.

⁴ Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his household.” ⁵ He was not able to do a miracle there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them. ⁶ And he was amazed at their unbelief. He was going around the villages teaching.

¹⁴ King Herod heard about it, because Jesus’s name had become well known. Some said, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that’s why miraculous powers are at work in him.” ¹⁵ But others said, “He’s Elijah.” Still others said, “He’s a prophet, like one of the prophets from long ago.”

¹⁶ When Herod heard of it, he said, “John, the one I beheaded, has been raised!”

¹⁷ For Herod himself had given orders to arrest John and to chain him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, because he had married her. ¹⁸ John had been telling Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.” ¹⁹ So Herodias held a grudge against him and wanted to kill him. But she could not, ²⁰ because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing he was a righteous and holy man. When Herod heard him he would be very perplexed, and yet he liked to listen to him.

²¹ An opportune time came on his birthday, when Herod gave a banquet for his nobles, military commanders, and the leading men of Galilee. ²² When Herodias’s own daughter came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. The king said to the girl, “Ask me whatever you want, and I’ll give it to you.” ²³ He promised her with an oath: “Whatever you ask me I will give you, up to half my kingdom.”

²⁴ She went out and said to her mother, “What should I ask for?”

“John the Baptist’s head,” she said.

²⁵ At once she hurried to the king and said, “I want you to give me John the Baptist’s head on a platter immediately.” ²⁶ Although the king was deeply distressed, because of his oaths and the guests he did not want to refuse her. ²⁷ The king immediately sent for an executioner and commanded him to bring John’s head. So he went and beheaded him in prison, ²⁸ brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹ When John’s disciples heard about it, they came and removed his corpse and placed it in a tomb.

³⁰ The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all that they had done and taught. ³¹ He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a remote place and rest for a while.” For many people were coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.

³² So they went away in the boat by themselves to a remote place, ³³ but many saw them leaving and recognized them, and they ran on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them.

³⁴ When he went ashore, he saw a large crowd and had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. Then he began to teach them many things.

³⁵ When it grew late, his disciples approached him and said, “This place is deserted, and it is already late. ³⁶ Send them away so that they can go into the surrounding countryside and villages to buy themselves something to eat.”

³⁷ “You give them something to eat,” he responded.

They said to him, “Should we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give them something to eat?”

³⁸ He asked them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.”

When they found out they said, “Five, and two fish.”

³⁹ Then he instructed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass. ⁴⁰ So they sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties. ⁴¹ He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves. He kept giving them to his disciples to set before the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. ⁴² Everyone ate and was satisfied. ⁴³ They picked up twelve baskets full of pieces of bread and fish. ⁴⁴ Now those who had eaten the loaves were five thousand men.

⁴⁵ Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go ahead of him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. ⁴⁶ After he said good-bye to them, he went away to the mountain to pray. ⁴⁷ Well into the night, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land. ⁴⁸ He saw them straining at the oars, because the wind was against them. Very early in the morning he came toward them walking on the sea and wanted to pass by them. ⁴⁹ When they saw him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out, ⁵⁰ because they all saw him and were terrified. Immediately he spoke with them and said, “Have courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.” ⁵¹ Then he got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. They were completely astounded, ⁵² because they had not understood about the loaves. Instead, their hearts were hardened.

⁵⁴ As they got out of the boat, people immediately recognized him. ⁵⁵ They hurried throughout that region and began to carry the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. ⁵⁶ Wherever he went, into villages, towns, or the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces and begged him that they might touch just the end of his robe. And everyone who touched it was healed.

7 The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him.² They observed that some of his disciples were eating bread with unclean — that is, unwashed — hands.³ (For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they give their hands a ceremonial washing, keeping the tradition of the elders.⁴ When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they have washed. And there are many other customs they have received and keep, like the washing of cups, pitchers, kettles, and dining couches.)⁵ So the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, “Why don’t your disciples live according to the tradition of the elders, instead of eating bread with ceremonially unclean hands?”

⁶ He answered them, “Isaiah prophesied correctly about you hypocrites, as it is written:

This people honors me with their lips,
but their heart is far from me.

7 They worship me in vain,
teaching as doctrines human commands.

⁸ Abandoning the command of God, you hold on to human tradition.”⁹ He also said to them, “You have a fine way of invalidating God’s command in order to set up your tradition! ¹⁰ For Moses said: Honor your father and your mother; and Whoever speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death. ¹¹ But you say, ‘If anyone tells his father or mother: Whatever benefit you might have received from me is corban’” (that is, an offering devoted to God).¹² “You no longer let him do anything for his father or mother.”¹³ You nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many other similar things.”

¹⁷ When he went into the house away from the crowd, his disciples asked him about the parable.¹⁸ He said to them, “Are you also as lacking in understanding? Don’t you realize that nothing going into a person from the outside can defile him? ¹⁹ For it doesn’t go into his heart but into the stomach and is eliminated” (thus he declared all foods clean).²⁰ And he said, “What comes out of a person is what defiles him. ²¹ For from within, out of people’s hearts, come evil thoughts, sexual immoralities, thefts, murders, ²² adulteries, greed, evil actions, deceit, self-indulgence, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness.”²³ All these evil things come from within and defile a person.”

²⁴ He got up and departed from there to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know it, but he could not escape notice.²⁵ Instead, immediately after hearing about him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit came and fell at his feet.²⁶ The woman was a Gentile, a Syrophenician by birth, and she was asking him to cast the demon out of her daughter.²⁷ He said to her, “Let the children be fed first, because it isn’t right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

²⁸ But she replied to him, “Lord, even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.”

³¹ Again, leaving the region of Tyre, he went by way of Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of the Decapolis.³² They brought to him a deaf man who had difficulty speaking and begged Jesus to lay his hand on him.³³ So he took him away from the crowd in private. After putting his fingers in the man’s ears and spitting, he touched his tongue.³⁴ Looking up to heaven, he sighed deeply and said to him, “Ephphatha!” (that is, “Be opened!”).³⁵ Immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was loosened, and he began to speak clearly.³⁶ He ordered them to tell no one, but the more he ordered them, the more they proclaimed it.

³⁷ They were extremely astonished and said, “He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.”

8 In those days there was again a large crowd, and they had nothing to eat. He called the disciples and said to them,² “I have compassion on the crowd, because they’ve already stayed with me three days and have nothing to eat. ³ If I send them home hungry, they will collapse on the way, and some of them have come a long distance.”

⁴ His disciples answered him, “Where can anyone get enough bread here in this desolate place to feed these people?”

⁵ “How many loaves do you have?” he asked them.

“Seven,” they said.⁶ He commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground. Taking the seven loaves, he gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people. So they served them to the crowd.⁷ They also had a few small fish, and after he had blessed them, he said these were to be served as well.⁸ They ate and were satisfied. Then they collected seven large baskets of leftover pieces.⁹ About four thousand were there. He dismissed them.¹⁰ And he immediately got into the boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

¹¹ The Pharisees came and began to argue with him, demanding of him a sign from heaven to test him.¹² Sighing deeply in his spirit, he said, “Why does this generation demand a sign? Truly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation.”¹³ Then he left them, got back into the boat, and went to the other side.

¹⁴ The disciples had forgotten to take bread and had only one loaf with them in the boat.¹⁵ Then he gave them strict orders: “Watch out! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod.”¹⁶ They were discussing among themselves that they did not have any bread.¹⁷ Aware of this, he said to them, “Why are you discussing the fact you have no bread? Don’t you understand or comprehend? Do you have hardened hearts?”¹⁸ Do you have eyes and not see; do you have ears and not hear? And do you not remember?¹⁹ When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of leftovers did you collect?”

“Twelve,” they told him.

²⁰ “When I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did you collect?”

“Seven,” they said.

²¹ And he said to them, “Don’t you understand yet?”

²² They came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him and begged him to touch him.²³ He took the blind man by the hand and brought him out of the village. Spitting on his eyes and laying his hands on him, he asked him, “Do you see anything?”

²⁴ He looked up and said, “I see people — they look like trees walking.”

²⁵ Again Jesus placed his hands on the man’s eyes. The man looked intently and his sight was restored and he saw everything clearly.²⁶ Then he sent him home, saying, “Don’t even go into the village.”

²⁷ Jesus went out with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi. And on the road he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?"

²⁸ They answered him, "John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, one of the prophets."

²⁹ "But you," he asked them, "who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered him, "You are the Messiah." ³⁰ And he strictly warned them to tell no one about him.

³¹ Then he began to teach them that it was necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, be killed, and rise after three days. ³² He spoke openly about this. Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. ³³ But turning around and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! You are not thinking about God's concerns but human concerns."

³⁴ Calling the crowd along with his disciples, he said to them, "If anyone wants to follow after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. ³⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life because of me and the gospel will save it. ³⁶ For what does it benefit someone to gain the whole world and yet lose his life? ³⁷ What can anyone give in exchange for his life? ³⁸ For whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

9 Then he said to them, "Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God come in power."

² After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain by themselves to be alone. He was transfigured in front of them, ³ and his clothes became dazzling—extremely white as no launderer on earth could whiten them. ⁴ Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. ⁵ Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it's good for us to be here. Let us set up three shelters: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" — ⁶ because he did not know what to say, since they were terrified.

⁷ A cloud appeared, overshadowing them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my beloved Son; listen to him!"

⁸ Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.

⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. ¹⁰ They kept this word to themselves, questioning what "rising from the dead" meant.

¹¹ Then they asked him, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

¹² "Elijah does come first and restores all things," he replied. "Why then is it written that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be treated with contempt? ¹³ But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did whatever they pleased to him, just as it is written about him."

¹⁴ When they came to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and scribes disputing with them. ¹⁵ When the whole crowd saw him, they were amazed and ran to greet him. ¹⁶ He asked them, "What are you arguing with them about?"

¹⁷ Someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you. He has a spirit that makes him unable to speak. ¹⁸ Whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn't."

¹⁹ He replied to them, "You unbelieving generation, how long will I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him to me." ²⁰ So they brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw him, it immediately threw the boy into convulsions. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth. ²¹ "How long has this been happening to him?" Jesus asked his father.

"From childhood," he said. ²² "And many times it has thrown him into fire or water to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

²³ Jesus said to him, "If you can? Everything is possible for the one who believes."

²⁴ Immediately the father of the boy cried out, "I do believe; help my unbelief!"

²⁵ When Jesus saw that a crowd was quickly gathering, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you: Come out of him and never enter him again."

²⁶ Then it came out, shrieking and throwing him into terrible convulsions. The boy became like a corpse, so that many said, "He's dead." ²⁷ But Jesus, taking him by the hand, raised him, and he stood up.

²⁸ After he had gone into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

²⁹ And he told them, "This kind can come out by nothing but prayer."

³⁰ Then they left that place and made their way through Galilee, but he did not want anyone to know it. ³¹ For he was teaching his disciples and telling them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after he is killed, he will rise three days later." ³² But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask him.

³³ They came to Capernaum. When he was in the house, he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" ³⁴ But they were silent, because on the way they had been arguing with one another about who was the greatest. ³⁵ Sitting down, he called the Twelve and said to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he must be last and servant of all." ³⁶ He took a child, had him stand among them, and taking him in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷ "Whoever welcomes one little child such as this in my name welcomes me. And whoever welcomes me does not welcome me, but him who sent me."

³⁸ John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him because he wasn't following us."

³⁹ "Don't stop him," said Jesus, "because there is no one who will perform a miracle in my name who can soon afterward speak evil of me. ⁴⁰ For whoever is not against us is for us. ⁴¹ And whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you belong to Christ—truly I tell you, he will never lose his reward.

⁴³ "And if your hand causes you to fall away, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and go to hell, the unquenchable fire. ⁴⁵ And if your foot causes you to fall away, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. ⁴⁷ And if your eye causes you to fall away, gouge it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, ⁴⁸where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched. ⁴⁹For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁵⁰Salt is good, but if the salt should lose its flavor, how can you season it? Have salt among yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

10 He set out from there and went to the region of Judea and across the Jordan. Then crowds converged on him again, and as was his custom he taught them again.

²Some Pharisees came to test him, asking, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

³He replied to them, "What did Moses command you?"

⁴They said, "Moses permitted us to write divorce papers and send her away."

⁵But Jesus told them, "He wrote this command for you because of the hardness of your hearts. ⁶But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female.

⁷For this reason a man will leave his father and mother ⁸and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁹Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

¹⁰When they were in the house again, the disciples questioned him about this matter. ¹¹He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. ¹²Also, if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

¹³People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them.

¹⁴When Jesus saw it, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the little children come to me. Don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁵Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." ¹⁶After taking them in his arms, he laid his hands on them and blessed them.

¹⁷As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁸"Why do you call me good?" Jesus asked him. "No one is good except God alone. ¹⁹You know the commandments: Do not murder; do not commit adultery; do not steal; do not bear false witness; do not defraud; honor your father and mother."

²⁰He said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these from my youth."

²¹Looking at him, Jesus loved him and said to him, "You lack one thing: Go, sell all you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

²²But he was dismayed by this demand, and he went away grieving, because he had many possessions.

²³Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!"

²⁴The disciples were astonished at his words. Again Jesus said to them, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶They were even more astonished, saying to one another, "Then who can be saved?"

²⁷Looking at them, Jesus said, "With man it is impossible, but not with God, because all things are possible with God."

²⁸Peter began to tell him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you."

²⁹"Truly I tell you," Jesus said, "there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for my sake and for the sake of the gospel, ³⁰who will not receive a hundred times more, now at this time — houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions — and eternal life in the age to come. ³¹But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

³²They were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them. The disciples were astonished, but those who followed him were afraid. Taking the Twelve aside again, he began to tell them the things that would happen to him. ³³"See, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death. Then they will hand him over to the Gentiles, ³⁴and they will mock him, spit on him, flog him, and kill him, and he will rise after three days."

³⁵James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached him and said, "Teacher, we want you to do whatever we ask you."

³⁶"What do you want me to do for you?" he asked them.

³⁷They answered him, "Allow us to sit at your right and at your left in your glory."

³⁸Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you're asking. Are you able to drink the cup I drink or to be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?"

³⁹"We are able," they told him.

Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with."

⁴⁰But to sit at my right or left is not mine to give; instead, it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

⁴¹When the ten disciples heard this, they began to be indignant with James and John. ⁴²Jesus called them over and said to them, "You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in high positions act as tyrants over them. ⁴³But it is not so among you. On the contrary, whoever wants to become great among you will be your servant, ⁴⁴and whoever wants to be first among you will be a slave to all. ⁴⁵For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

⁴⁶They came to Jericho. And as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting by the road. ⁴⁷When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁸Many warned him to keep quiet, but he was crying out all the more, "Have mercy on me, Son of David!"

⁴⁹Jesus stopped and said, "Call him."

So they called the blind man and said to him, "Have courage! Get up; he's calling for you." ⁵⁰He threw off his coat, jumped up, and came to Jesus.

⁵¹Then Jesus answered him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

"Rabboni," the blind man said to him, "I want to see."

⁵²Jesus said to him, "Go, your faith has saved you." Immediately he could see and began to follow Jesus on the road.

11 When they approached Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples ² and told them, "Go into the village ahead of you. As soon as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it. ³If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here right away.'"

⁴So they went and found a colt outside in the street, tied by a door. They untied it, ⁵ and some of those standing there said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?"⁶ They answered them just as Jesus had said; so they let them go.

⁷They brought the donkey to Jesus and threw their clothes on it, and he sat on it.⁸ Many people spread their clothes on the road, and others spread leafy branches cut from the fields.⁹ Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted:

Hosanna!

Blessed is he who comes
in the name of the Lord!

¹⁰ Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!

Hosanna in the highest heaven!

¹¹He went into Jerusalem and into the temple. After looking around at everything, since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

¹²The next day when they went out from Bethany, he was hungry.¹³ Seeing in the distance a fig tree with leaves, he went to find out if there was anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season for figs.¹⁴ He said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" And his disciples heard it.

¹⁵They came to Jerusalem, and he went into the temple and began to throw out those buying and selling. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves,¹⁶ and would not permit anyone to carry goods through the temple.¹⁷ He was teaching them: "Is it not written, My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations? But you have made it a den of thieves!"

¹⁸The chief priests and the scribes heard it and started looking for a way to kill him. For they were afraid of him, because the whole crowd was astonished by his teaching.

¹⁹Whenever evening came, they would go out of the city.

²⁰Early in the morning, as they were passing by, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots up.²¹ Then Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered."

²²Jesus replied to them, "Have faith in God.²³ Truly I tell you, if anyone says to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will happen, it will be done for him.²⁴ Therefore I tell you, everything you pray and ask for — believe that you have received it and it will be yours.²⁵ And whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven will also forgive you your wrongdoing."

²⁷They came again to Jerusalem. As he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came²⁸ and asked him, "By what authority are you doing these things? Who gave you this authority to do these things?"

²⁹Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question; then answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.³⁰ Was John's baptism from heaven or of human origin? Answer me."

³¹They discussed it among themselves: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Then why didn't you believe him?'"³² But if we say, 'Of human origin' — they were afraid of the crowd, because everyone thought that John was truly a prophet.³³ So they answered Jesus, "We don't know."

And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

12 He began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug out a pit for a winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenant farmers and went away.² At harvest time he sent a servant to the farmers to collect some of the fruit of the vineyard from them.³ But they took him, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.⁴ Again he sent another servant to them, and they hit him on the head and treated him shamefully.⁵ Then he sent another, and they killed that one. He also sent many others; some they beat, and others they killed.⁶ He still had one to send, a beloved son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'⁷ But those tenant farmers said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'⁸ So they seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.⁹ What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill the farmers and give the vineyard to others.¹⁰ Haven't you read this Scripture:

The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.

¹¹ This came about from the Lord
and is wonderful in our eyes?"

¹²They were looking for a way to arrest him but feared the crowd because they knew he had spoken this parable against them. So they left him and went away.

¹³Then they sent some of the Pharisees and the Herodians to Jesus to trap him in his words.¹⁴ When they came, they said to him, "Teacher, we know you are truthful and don't care what anyone thinks, nor do you show partiality but teach the way of God truthfully. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay or shouldn't we?"

¹⁵But knowing their hypocrisy, he said to them, "Why are you testing me? Bring me a denarius to look at."¹⁶ They brought a coin. "Whose image and inscription is this?" he asked them.

"Caesar's," they replied.

¹⁷Jesus told them, "Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they were utterly amazed at him.

²⁴Jesus spoke to them, "Isn't this the reason why you're mistaken: you don't know the Scriptures or the power of God?²⁵ For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage but are like angels in heaven.²⁶ And as for the dead being raised — haven't you read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the burning bush, how God said to him: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?²⁷ He is not the God of the dead but of the living. You are badly mistaken."

²⁸One of the scribes approached. When he heard them debating and saw that Jesus answered them well, he asked him, "Which command is the most important of all?"

²⁹Jesus answered, "The most important is Listen, O Israel! The Lord our God, the Lord is one.³⁰ Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.³¹ The second is, Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other command greater than these."

³²Then the scribe said to him, "You are right, teacher. You have correctly said that he is one, and there is no one else except him. ³³And to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself, is far more important than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."

³⁴When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to question him any longer.

³⁵While Jesus was teaching in the temple, he asked, "How can the scribes say that the Messiah is the son of David?" ³⁶David himself says by the Holy Spirit:

The Lord declared to my Lord,
'Sit at my right hand
until I put your enemies under your feet.'

³⁷David himself calls him 'Lord'; how then can he be his son? "And the large crowd was listening to him with delight.

³⁸He also said in his teaching, "Beware of the scribes, who want to go around in long robes and who want greetings in the marketplaces, ³⁹the best seats in the synagogues, and the places of honor at banquets. ⁴⁰They devour widows' houses and say long prayers just for show. These will receive harsher judgment."

⁴¹Sitting across from the temple treasury, he watched how the crowd dropped money into the treasury. Many rich people were putting in large sums. ⁴²Then a poor widow came and dropped in two tiny coins worth very little.

⁴³Summoning his disciples, he said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. ⁴⁴For they all gave out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had — all she had to live on."

13 As he was going out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Teacher, look! What massive stones! What impressive buildings!"

²Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left upon another — all will be thrown down."

³While he was sitting on the Mount of Olives across from the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴"Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when all these things are about to be accomplished?"

⁵Jesus told them, "Watch out that no one deceives you.

⁶Many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and they will deceive many. ⁷When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don't be alarmed; these things must take place, but it is not yet the end. ⁸For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines. These are the beginning of birth pains.

⁹"But you, be on your guard! They will hand you over to local courts, and you will be flogged in the synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings because of me, as a witness to them. ¹⁰And it is necessary that the gospel be preached to all nations. ¹¹So when they arrest you and hand you over, don't worry beforehand what you will say, but say whatever is given to you at that time, for it isn't you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

¹²"Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise up against parents and have them put to death. ¹³You will be hated by everyone because of my name, but the one who endures to the end will be saved.

¹⁸"Pray it won't happen in winter. ¹⁹For those will be days of tribulation, the kind that hasn't been from the beginning of creation until now and never will be again. ²⁰If the Lord had not cut those days short, no one would be saved. But he cut those days short for the sake of the elect, whom he chose.

²¹"Then if anyone tells you, 'See, here is the Messiah! See, there!' do not believe it. ²²For false messiahs and false prophets will arise and will perform signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, the elect. ²³And you must watch! I have told you everything in advance.

²⁴"But in those days, after that tribulation: The sun will be darkened, and the moon will not shed its light; ²⁵the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. ²⁶Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷He will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

²⁸"Learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹In the same way, when you see these things happening, recognize that he is near — at the door.

³⁰"Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things take place. ³¹Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

³²"Now concerning that day or hour no one knows — neither the angels in heaven nor the Son — but only the Father.

³³"Watch! Be alert! For you don't know when the time is coming.

³⁴"It is like a man on a journey, who left his house, gave authority to his servants, gave each one his work, and commanded the doorkeeper to be alert. ³⁵Therefore be alert, since you don't know when the master of the house is coming — whether in the evening or at midnight or at the crowing of the rooster or early in the morning. ³⁶Otherwise, when he comes suddenly he might find you sleeping. ³⁷And what I say to you, I say to everyone: Be alert!"

14 It was two days before the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a cunning way to arrest Jesus and kill him. ²"Not during the festival," they said, "so that there won't be a riot among the people."

³While he was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as he was reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured it on his head. ⁴But some were expressing indignation to one another: "Why has this perfume been wasted? ⁵For this perfume might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor." And they began to scold her.

⁶Jesus replied, "Leave her alone. Why are you bothering her? She has done a noble thing for me. ⁷You always have the poor with you, and you can do what is good for them whenever you want, but you do not always have me. ⁸She has done what she could; she has anointed my body in advance for burial. ⁹Truly I tell you, wherever the gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

¹⁰ Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them. ¹¹ And when they heard this, they were glad and promised to give him money. So he started looking for a good opportunity to betray him.

¹² On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrifice the Passover lamb, his disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare the Passover so that you may eat it?"

¹³ So he sent two of his disciples and told them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him. ¹⁴ Wherever he enters, tell the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'" ¹⁵ He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there." ¹⁶ So the disciples went out, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷ When evening came, he arrived with the Twelve. ¹⁸ While they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me — one who is eating with me."

¹⁹ They began to be distressed and to say to him one by one, "Surely not I?"

²⁰ He said to them, "It is one of the Twelve — the one who is dipping bread in the bowl with me. ²¹ For the Son of Man will go just as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for him if he had not been born."

²² As they were eating, he took bread, blessed and broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." ²³ Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it. ²⁴ He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. ²⁵ Truly I tell you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

²⁶ After singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

²⁷ Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will fall away, because it is written:

I will strike the shepherd,
and the sheep will be scattered.

²⁸ But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you to Galilee."

²⁹ Peter told him, "Even if everyone falls away, I will not."

³⁰ "Truly I tell you," Jesus said to him, "today, this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times."

³¹ But he kept insisting, "If I have to die with you, I will never deny you." And they all said the same thing.

³⁵ He went a little farther, fell to the ground, and prayed that if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. ³⁶ And he said, "Abba, Father! All things are possible for you. Take this cup away from me. Nevertheless, not what I will, but what you will." ³⁷ Then he came and found them sleeping. He said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you stay awake one hour? ³⁸ Stay awake and pray so that you won't enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." ³⁹ Once again he went away and prayed, saying the same thing. ⁴⁰ And again he came and found them sleeping, because they could not keep their eyes open. They did not know what to say to him. ⁴¹ Then he came a third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The time has come. See, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴² Get up; let's go. See, my betrayer is near."

⁴³ While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, suddenly arrived. With him was a mob, with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. ⁴⁴ His betrayer had given them a signal. "The one I kiss," he said, "he's the one; arrest him and take him away under guard." ⁴⁵ So when he came, immediately he went up to Jesus and said, "Rabbi!" and kissed him. ⁴⁶ They took hold of him and arrested him. ⁴⁷ One of those who stood by drew his sword, struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his ear.

⁴⁸ Jesus said to them, "Have you come out with swords and clubs, as if I were a criminal, to capture me? ⁴⁹ Every day I was among you, teaching in the temple, and you didn't arrest me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled."

⁵⁵ The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for testimony against Jesus to put him to death, but they could not find any. ⁵⁶ For many were giving false testimony against him, and the testimonies did not agree. ⁵⁷ Some stood up and gave false testimony against him, stating, ⁵⁸ "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with human hands, and in three days I will build another not made by hands.'" ⁵⁹ Yet their testimony did not agree even on this.

⁶⁰ Then the high priest stood up before them all and questioned Jesus, "Don't you have an answer to what these men are testifying against you?" ⁶¹ But he kept silent and did not answer. Again the high priest questioned him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?"

⁶² "I am," said Jesus, "and you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power and coming with the clouds of heaven."

⁶³ Then the high priest tore his robes and said, "Why do we still need witnesses? ⁶⁴ You have heard the blasphemy. What is your decision?" They all condemned him as deserving death.

⁶⁵ Then some began to spit on him, to blindfold him, and to beat him, saying, "Prophecy!" The temple servants also took him and slapped him.

⁶⁶ While Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the high priest's maidservants came. ⁶⁷ When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, "You also were with Jesus, the man from Nazareth."

⁶⁸ But he denied it: "I don't know or understand what you're talking about." Then he went out to the entryway, and a rooster crowed.

⁶⁹ When the maidservant saw him again, she began to tell those standing nearby, "This man is one of them."

⁷⁰ But again he denied it. After a little while those standing there said to Peter again, "You certainly are one of them, since you're also a Galilean."

⁷¹Then he started to curse and swear, "I don't know this man you're talking about!"

⁷²Immediately a rooster crowed a second time, and Peter remembered when Jesus had spoken the word to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." And he broke down and wept.

15 As soon as it was morning, having held a meeting with the elders, scribes, and the whole Sanhedrin, the chief priests tied Jesus up, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate.

²So Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered him, "You say so."

³And the chief priests accused him of many things.

⁴Pilate questioned him again, "Aren't you going to answer? Look how many things they are accusing you of!"

⁵But Jesus still did not answer, and so Pilate was amazed.

⁶At the festival Pilate used to release for the people a prisoner whom they requested. ⁷There was one named Barabbas, who was in prison with rebels who had committed murder during the rebellion. ⁸The crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to do for them as was his custom.

⁹Pilate answered them, "Do you want me to release the King of the Jews for you?" ¹⁰For he knew it was because of envy that the chief priests had handed him over. ¹¹But the chief priests stirred up the crowd so that he would release Barabbas to them instead. ¹²Pilate asked them again, "Then what do you want me to do with the one you call the King of the Jews?"

¹³Again they shouted, "Crucify him!"

¹⁴Pilate said to them, "Why? What has he done wrong?" But they shouted all the more, "Crucify him!"

¹⁵Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them; and after having Jesus flogged, he handed him over to be crucified.

¹⁶The soldiers led him away into the palace (that is, the governor's residence) and called the whole company together. ¹⁷They dressed him in a purple robe, twisted together a crown of thorns, and put it on him. ¹⁸And they began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" ¹⁹They were hitting him on the head with a stick and spitting on him. Getting down on their knees, they were paying him homage. ²⁰After they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple robe and put his clothes on him.

They led him out to crucify him. ²¹They forced a man coming in from the country, who was passing by, to carry Jesus's cross. He was Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus.

²²They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means Place of the Skull). ²³They tried to give him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not take it.

²⁴Then they crucified him and divided his clothes, casting lots for them to decide what each would get. ²⁵Now it was nine in the morning when they crucified him. ²⁶The inscription of the charge written against him was: THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁷They crucified two criminals with him, one on his right and one on his left.

²⁸Those who passed by were yelling insults at him, shaking their heads, and saying, "Ha! The one who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, ²⁹save yourself by coming down from the cross!" ³¹In the same way, the chief priests with the scribes were mocking him among themselves and saying, "He saved others, but he cannot save himself!" ³²Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we may see and believe." Even those who were crucified with him taunted him.

³³When it was noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. ³⁴And at three Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lemá sabachtháni?" which is translated, "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

³⁵When some of those standing there heard this, they said, "See, he's calling for Elijah."

³⁶Someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, fixed it on a stick, offered him a drink, and said, "Let's see if Elijah comes to take him down."

³⁷Jesus let out a loud cry and breathed his last. ³⁸Then the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. ³⁹When the centurion, who was standing opposite him, saw the way he breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

⁴⁰There were also women watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. ⁴¹In Galilee these women followed him and took care of him. Many other women had come up with him to Jerusalem.

⁴²When it was already evening, because it was the day of preparation (that is, the day before the Sabbath), ⁴³Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent member of the Sanhedrin who was himself looking forward to the kingdom of God, came and boldly went to Pilate and asked for Jesus's body. ⁴⁴Pilate was surprised that he was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had already died. ⁴⁵When he found out from the centurion, he gave the corpse to Joseph. ⁴⁶After he bought some linen cloth, Joseph took him down and wrapped him in the linen. Then he laid him in a tomb cut out of the rock and rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb. ⁴⁷Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses were watching where he was laid.

16 When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they could go and anoint him. ²Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they went to the tomb at sunrise. ³They were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone from the entrance to the tomb for us?" ⁴Looking up, they noticed that the stone — which was very large — had been rolled away.

⁵When they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side; they were alarmed. ⁶"Don't be alarmed," he told them. "You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they put him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you to Galilee; you will see him there just as he told you.'"

⁸They went out and ran from the tomb, because trembling and astonishment overwhelmed them. And they said nothing to anyone, since they were afraid.

[Some of the earliest mss conclude with 16:8.]

⁹Early on the first day of the week, after he had risen, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons. ¹⁰She went and reported to those who had been with him, as they were mourning and weeping. ¹¹Yet, when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it.

¹²After this, he appeared in a different form to two of them walking on their way into the country. ¹³And they went and reported it to the rest, who did not believe them either.

¹⁴ Later he appeared to the Eleven themselves as they were reclining at the table. He rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who saw him after he had risen. ¹⁵ Then he said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation. ¹⁶ Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. ¹⁷ And these signs will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues; ¹⁸ they will pick up snakes; if they should drink anything deadly, it will not harm them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well."

¹⁹ So the Lord Jesus, after speaking to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. ²⁰ And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word by the accompanying signs.]

LUKE

1 Many have undertaken to compile a narrative about the events that have been fulfilled among us, ² just as the original eyewitnesses and servants of the word handed them down to us. ³ It also seemed good to me, since I have carefully investigated everything from the very first, to write to you in an orderly sequence, most honorable Theophilus, ⁴ so that you may know the certainty of the things about which you have been instructed.

⁵ In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest of Abijah's division named Zechariah. His wife was from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. ⁶ Both were righteous in God's sight, living without blame according to all the commands and requirements of the Lord. ⁷ But they had no children because Elizabeth could not conceive, and both of them were well along in years.

⁸ When his division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, ⁹ it happened that he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰ At the hour of incense the whole assembly of the people was praying outside. ¹¹ An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the altar of incense. ¹² When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified and overcome with fear. ¹³ But the angel said to him: "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John." ¹⁴ There will be joy and delight for you, and many will rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵ For he will be great in the sight of the Lord and will never drink wine or beer. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit while still in his mother's womb. ¹⁶ He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. ¹⁷ And he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers to their children, and the disobedient to the understanding of the righteous, to make ready for the Lord a prepared people."

¹⁹ The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and tell you this good news. ²⁰ Now listen. You will become silent and unable to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

²¹ Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah, amazed that he stayed so long in the sanctuary. ²² When he did come out, he could not speak to them. Then they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. He was making signs to them and remained speechless. ²³ When the days of his ministry were completed, he went back home.

²⁴ After these days his wife Elizabeth conceived and kept herself in seclusion for five months. She said, ²⁵ "The Lord has done this for me. He has looked with favor in these days to take away my disgrace among the people."

²⁶ In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, ²⁷ to a virgin engaged to a man named Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸ And the angel came to her and said, "Greetings, favored woman! The Lord is with you."

²⁹ But she was deeply troubled by this statement, wondering what kind of greeting this could be. ³⁰ Then the angel told her: "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. ³¹ Now listen: You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus. ³² He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of his father David. ³³ He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and his kingdom will have no end."

³⁴ Mary asked the angel, "How can this be, since I have not had sexual relations with a man?"

³⁵ The angel replied to her: "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God. ³⁶ And consider your relative Elizabeth — even she has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called childless. ³⁷ For nothing will be impossible with God."

³⁸ "I am the Lord's servant," said Mary. "May it be done to me according to your word." Then the angel left her.

³⁹ In those days Mary set out and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judah ⁴⁰ where she entered Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹ When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped inside her, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. ⁴² Then she exclaimed with a loud cry: "Blessed are you among women, and your child will be blessed! ⁴³ How could this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? ⁴⁴ For you see, when the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby leaped for joy inside me. ⁴⁵ Blessed is she who has believed that the Lord would fulfill what he has spoken to her!"

⁴⁶ And Mary said:

⁴⁷ My soul praises the greatness of the Lord,

⁴⁸ and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

⁴⁹ because he has looked with favor on the humble condition of his servant.

⁵⁰ Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed,

⁵¹ because the Mighty One has done great things for me,

⁵² and his name is holy.

⁵³ His mercy is from generation to generation on those who fear him.

⁵⁴ He has done a mighty deed with his arm; he has scattered the proud

⁵⁵ because of the thoughts of their hearts;

⁵⁶ he has toppled the mighty from their thrones and exalted the lowly.

⁵⁷ He has satisfied the hungry with good things and sent the rich away empty.

⁵⁸ He has helped his servant Israel, remembering his mercy

⁵⁹ to Abraham and his descendants forever, just as he spoke to our ancestors.

⁶⁰ And Mary stayed with her about three months; then she returned to her home.

⁶¹ Now the time had come for Elizabeth to give birth, and she had a son. ⁶² Then her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown her his great mercy, and they rejoiced with her.

⁶³ When they came to circumcise the child on the eighth day, they were going to name him Zechariah, after his father.⁶⁰ But his mother responded, "No. He will be called John."

⁶¹Then they said to her, "None of your relatives has that name."⁶² So they motioned to his father to find out what he wanted him to be called.⁶³ He asked for a writing tablet and wrote: "His name is John." And they were all amazed.⁶⁴ Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue set free, and he began to speak, praising God.⁶⁵ Fear came on all those who lived around them, and all these things were being talked about throughout the hill country of Judea.⁶⁶ All who heard about him took it to heart, saying, "What then will this child become?" For, indeed, the Lord's hand was with him.

⁶⁷Then his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied:

⁶⁸ Blessed is the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has visited
and provided redemption for his people.
⁶⁹ He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David, ⁷⁰ just as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets in ancient times;
⁷¹ salvation from our enemies
and from the hand of those who hate us.
⁷² He has dealt mercifully with our fathers and remembered his holy covenant—
⁷³ the oath that he swore to our father Abraham.
He has given us the privilege,
⁷⁴ since we have been rescued from the hand of our enemies,
to serve him without fear ⁷⁵ in holiness and righteousness
in his presence all our days.
⁷⁶ And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High,
for you will go before the Lord
to prepare his ways, ⁷⁷ to give his people knowledge of salvation
through the forgiveness of their sins.
⁷⁸ Because of our God's merciful compassion,
the dawn from on high will visit us ⁷⁹ to shine on those who live in darkness
and the shadow of death,
to guide our feet into the way of peace.

⁸⁰The child grew up and became spiritually strong, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

2 In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole empire should be registered.² This first registration took place while Quirinius was governing Syria.³ So everyone went to be registered, each to his own town.

⁴ Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family line of David,⁵ to be registered along with Mary, who was engaged to him and was pregnant.⁶ While they were there, the time came for her to give birth.⁷ Then she gave birth to her firstborn Son, and she wrapped him tightly in cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

⁸In the same region, shepherds were staying out in the fields and keeping watch at night over their flock.⁹ Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.¹⁰ But the angel said to them, "Don't be afraid, for look, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people:¹¹ Today in the city of David a Savior was born for you, who is the Messiah, the Lord.¹² This will be the sign for you: You will find a baby wrapped tightly in cloth and lying in a manger."

¹³Suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying:

¹⁴ Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and peace on earth to people he favors!

¹⁵When the angels had left them and returned to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go straight to Bethlehem and see what has happened, which the Lord has made known to us."

¹⁶They hurried off and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby who was lying in the manger.¹⁷ After seeing them, they reported the message they were told about this child,¹⁸ and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them.¹⁹ But Mary was treasuring up all these things in her heart and meditating on them.²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had seen and heard, which were just as they had been told.

²¹When the eight days were completed for his circumcision, he was named Jesus—the name given by the angel before he was conceived.²² And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were finished, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord²³ (just as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every firstborn male will be dedicated to the Lord)²⁴ and to offer a sacrifice (according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons).

²⁵There was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, looking forward to Israel's consolation, and the Holy Spirit was on him.²⁶ It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he saw the Lord's Messiah.²⁷ Guided by the Spirit, he entered the temple. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform for him what was customary under the law,²⁸ Simeon took him up in his arms, praised God, and said,

²⁹ Now, Master,
you can dismiss your servant in peace,
as you promised.

³⁰ For my eyes have seen your salvation.

³¹ You have prepared it in the presence of all peoples—

³² a light for revelation to the Gentiles and glory to your people Israel.

³³His father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him.³⁴ Then Simeon blessed them and told his mother Mary: "Indeed, this child is destined to cause the fall and rise of many in Israel and to be a sign that will be opposed—³⁵ and a sword will pierce your own soul—that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

³⁶There was also a prophetess, Anna, a daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was well along in years, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage,³⁷ and was a widow for eighty-four years. She did not leave the temple, serving God night and day with fasting and prayers.³⁸ At that very moment, she came up and began to thank God and to speak about him to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.

³⁹When they had completed everything according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.⁴⁰ The boy grew up and became strong, filled with wisdom, and God's grace was on him.

⁴¹ Every year his parents traveled to Jerusalem for the Passover Festival. ⁴² When he was twelve years old, they went up according to the custom of the festival. ⁴³ After those days were over, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. ⁴⁴ Assuming he was in the traveling party, they went a day's journey. Then they began looking for him among their relatives and friends. ⁴⁵ When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for him. ⁴⁶ After three days, they found him in the temple sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. ⁴⁷ And all those who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. ⁴⁸ When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you."

⁴⁹ "Why were you searching for me?" he asked them. "Didn't you know that it was necessary for me to be in my Father's house?" ⁵⁰ But they did not understand what he said to them.

⁵¹ Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was obedient to them. His mother kept all these things in her heart. ⁵² And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and with people.

3 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, while Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, ² during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, God's word came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness. ³ He went into all the vicinity of the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, ⁴ as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah:

A voice of one crying out in the wilderness:
Prepare the way for the Lord;
make his paths straight!

⁵ Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be made low;

the crooked will become straight,
the rough ways smooth,

⁶ and everyone will see the salvation of God.

⁷ He then said to the crowds who came out to be baptized by him, "Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸ Therefore produce fruit consistent with repentance. And don't start saying to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones. ⁹ The ax is already at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

¹⁰ "What then should we do?" the crowds were asking him.

¹¹ He replied to them, "The one who has two shirts must share with someone who has none, and the one who has food must do the same."

¹² Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?"

¹³ He told them, "Don't collect any more than what you have been authorized."

¹⁴ Some soldiers also questioned him, "What should we do?"

He said to them, "Don't take money from anyone by force or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages."

¹⁵ Now the people were waiting expectantly, and all of them were questioning in their hearts whether John might be the Messiah. ¹⁶ John answered them all, "I baptize you with water, but one who is more powerful than I am is coming. I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹⁷ His winnowing shovel is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with fire that never goes out." ¹⁸ Then, along with many other exhortations, he proclaimed good news to the people. ¹⁹ But when John rebuked Herod the tetrarch because of Herodias, his brother's wife, and all the evil things he had done, ²⁰ Herod added this to everything else — he locked up John in prison.

²¹ When all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized. As he was praying, heaven opened, ²² and the Holy Spirit descended on him in a physical appearance like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well-pleased."

²³ As he began his ministry, Jesus was about thirty years old and was thought to be the son of Joseph, son of Heli, ²⁴ son of Matthat, son of Levi,

son of Melchi, son of Jannai,
son of Joseph, ²⁵ son of Mattathias,
son of Amos, son of Nahum,

4 Then Jesus left the Jordan, full of the Holy Spirit, and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness ² for forty days to be tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over, he was hungry. ³ The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread."

⁴ But Jesus answered him, "It is written: Man must not live on bread alone."

⁵ So he took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. ⁶ The devil said to him, "I will give you your splendor and all this authority, because it has been given over to me, and I can give it to anyone I want. ⁷ If you, then, will worship me, all will be yours."

⁸ And Jesus answered him, "It is written: Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only."

⁹ So he took him to Jerusalem, had him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here. ¹⁰ For it is written:

He will give his angels orders concerning you, to protect you, ¹¹ and they will support you with their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone."

¹² And Jesus answered him, "It is said: Do not test the Lord your God."

¹³ After the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from him for a time.

¹⁴ Then Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him spread throughout the entire vicinity. ¹⁵ He was teaching in their synagogues, being praised by everyone.

¹⁶ He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. As usual, he entered the synagogue on the Sabbath day and stood up to read. ¹⁷ The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him, and unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it was written:

¹⁸ The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free the oppressed, ¹⁹ to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.

²⁰ He then rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. And the eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on him. ²¹ He began by saying to them, "Today as you listen, this Scripture has been fulfilled."

²² They were all speaking well of him and were amazed by the gracious words that came from his mouth; yet they said, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

²³ Then he said to them, "No doubt you will quote this proverb to me: 'Doctor, heal yourself. What we've heard that took place in Capernaum, do here in your hometown also.'"

²⁴ He also said, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in his hometown. ²⁵ But I say to you, there were certainly many widows in Israel in Elijah's days, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months while a great famine came over all the land. ²⁶ Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them except a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. ²⁷ And in the prophet Elisha's time, there were many in Israel who had leprosy, and yet not one of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."

²⁸ When they heard this, everyone in the synagogue was enraged. ²⁹ They got up, drove him out of town, and brought him to the edge of the hill that their town was built on, intending to hurl him over the cliff. ³⁰ But he passed right through the crowd and went on his way.

³¹ Then he went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbath. ³² They were astonished at his teaching because his message had authority. ³³ In the synagogue there was a man with an unclean demonic spirit who cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴ "Leave us alone! What do you have to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are — the Holy One of God!"

³⁵ But Jesus rebuked him and said, "Be silent and come out of him!" And throwing him down before them, the demon came out of him without hurting him at all.

³⁶ Amazement came over them all, and they were saying to one another, "What is this message? For he commands the unclean spirits with authority and power, and they come out!" ³⁷ And news about him began to go out to every place in the vicinity.

⁴⁰ When the sun was setting, all those who had anyone sick with various diseases brought them to him. As he laid his hands on each one of them, he healed them. ⁴¹ Also, demons were coming out of many, shouting and saying, "You are the Son of God!" But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew he was the Christ.

⁴² When it was day, he went out and made his way to a deserted place. But the crowds were searching for him. They came to him and tried to keep him from leaving them. ⁴³ But he said to them, "It is necessary for me to proclaim the good news to the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because I was sent for this purpose." ⁴⁴ And he was preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

5 As the crowd was pressing in on Jesus to hear God's word, he was standing by Lake Gennesaret. ² He saw two boats at the edge of the lake; the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. ³ He got into one of the boats, which belonged to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from the land. Then he sat down and was teaching the crowds from the boat.

⁴ When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and let down your nets for a catch."

⁵ "Master," Simon replied, "we've worked hard all night long and caught nothing. But if you say so, I'll let down the nets."

⁶ When they did this, they caught a great number of fish, and their nets began to tear. ⁷ So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them; they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

⁸ When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus's knees and said, "Go away from me, because I'm a sinful man, Lord!" ⁹ For he and all those with him were amazed at the catch of fish they had taken, ¹⁰ and so were James and John, Zebedee's sons, who were Simon's partners.

"Don't be afraid," Jesus told Simon. "From now on you will be catching people." ¹¹ Then they brought the boats to land, left everything, and followed him.

¹² While he was in one of the towns, a man was there who had leprosy all over him. He saw Jesus, fell facedown, and begged him: "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

¹³ Reaching out his hand, Jesus touched him, saying, "I am willing; be made clean," and immediately the leprosy left him. ¹⁴ Then he ordered him to tell no one: "But go and show yourself to the priest, and offer what Moses commanded for your cleansing as a testimony to them."

¹⁵ But the news about him spread even more, and large crowds would come together to hear him and to be healed of their sicknesses. ¹⁶ Yet he often withdrew to deserted places and prayed.

¹⁷ On one of those days while he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea, and also from Jerusalem. And the Lord's power to heal was in him. ¹⁸ Just then some men came, carrying on a stretcher a man who was paralyzed. They tried to bring him in and set him down before him. ¹⁹ Since they could not find a way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on the stretcher through the roof tiles into the middle of the crowd before Jesus.

²⁰ Seeing their faith he said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven."

²¹ Then the scribes and the Pharisees began to think to themselves: "Who is this man who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

²² But perceiving their thoughts, Jesus replied to them, "Why are you thinking this in your hearts? ²³ Which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? ²⁴ But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" — he told the paralyzed man, "I tell you: Get up, take your stretcher, and go home."

²⁵ Immediately he got up before them, picked up what he had been lying on, and went home glorifying God. ²⁶ Then everyone was astounded, and they were giving glory to God. And they were filled with awe and said, "We have seen incredible things today."

²⁷ After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, "Follow me." ²⁸ So, leaving everything behind, he got up and began to follow him.

²⁹ Then Levi hosted a grand banquet for him at his house. Now there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were guests with them. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and their scribes were complaining to his disciples, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

³¹ Jesus replied to them, "It is not those who are healthy who need a doctor, but those who are sick. ³² I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

³³ Then they said to him, "John's disciples fast often and say prayers, and those of the Pharisees do the same, but yours eat and drink."

³⁴ Jesus said to them, "You can't make the wedding guests fast while the groom is with them, can you? ³⁵ But the time will come when the groom will be taken away from them — then they will fast in those days."

6 On a Sabbath, he passed through the grainfields. His disciples were picking heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands, and eating them. ² But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

³ Jesus answered them, "Haven't you read what David and those who were with him did when he was hungry — ⁴ how he entered the house of God and took and ate the bread of the Presence, which is not lawful for any but the priests to eat? He even gave some to those who were with him." ⁵ Then he told them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

⁶ On another Sabbath he entered the synagogue and was teaching. A man was there whose right hand was shriveled. ⁷ The scribes and Pharisees were watching him closely, to see if he would heal on the Sabbath, so that they could find a charge against him. ⁸ But he knew their thoughts and told the man with the shriveled hand, "Get up and stand here." So he got up and stood there. ⁹ Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you: Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?" ¹⁰ After looking around at them all, he told him, "Stretch out your hand." He did, and his hand was restored. ¹¹ They, however, were filled with rage and started discussing with one another what they might do to Jesus.

¹² During those days he went out to the mountain to pray and spent all night in prayer to God. ¹³ When daylight came, he summoned his disciples, and he chose twelve of them, whom he also named apostles: ¹⁴ Simon, whom he also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew; ¹⁵ Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot; ¹⁶ Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

¹⁷ After coming down with them, he stood on a level place with a large crowd of his disciples and a great number of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. ¹⁸ They came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those tormented by unclean spirits were made well. ¹⁹ The whole crowd was trying to touch him, because power was coming out from him and healing them all.

²⁰ Then looking up at his disciples, he said:
Blessed are you who are poor,
because the kingdom of God is yours.

²¹ Blessed are you who are now hungry,
because you will be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now,
because you will laugh.

²² Blessed are you when people hate you,
when they exclude you, insult you,
and slander your name as evil
because of the Son of Man.

²³ "Rejoice in that day and leap for joy. Take note — your reward is great in heaven, for this is the way their ancestors used to treat the prophets.

²⁴ But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your comfort.

²⁵ Woe to you who are now full,
for you will be hungry.
Woe to you who are now laughing,
for you will mourn and weep.

²⁶ Woe to you
when all people speak well of you,
for this is the way their ancestors used to treat the false prophets.

²⁷ "But I say to you who listen: Love your enemies, do what is good to those who hate you, ²⁸ bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. ²⁹ If anyone hits you on the cheek, offer the other also. And if anyone takes away your coat, don't hold back your shirt either.

³⁰ Give to everyone who asks you, and from someone who takes your things, don't ask for them back. ³¹ Just as you want others to do for you, do the same for them. ³² If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them.³³ If you do what is good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do that.³⁴ And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners to be repaid in full.³⁵ But love your enemies, do what is good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High. For he is gracious to the ungrateful and evil.³⁶ Be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

³⁷"Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.³⁸ Give, and it will be given to you; a good measure — pressed down, shaken together, and running over — will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you."

³⁹He also told them a parable: "Can the blind guide the blind? Won't they both fall into a pit?⁴⁰ A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

⁴⁶"Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and don't do the things I say?⁴⁷ I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them:⁴⁸ He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. When the flood came, the river crashed against that house and couldn't shake it, because it was well built.⁴⁹ But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The river crashed against it, and immediately it collapsed. And the destruction of that house was great."

7 When he had concluded saying all this to the people who were listening, he entered Capernaum.² A centurion's servant, who was highly valued by him, was sick and about to die.³ When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to him, requesting him to come and save the life of his servant.⁴ When they reached Jesus, they pleaded with him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to grant this,⁵ because he loves our nation and has built us a synagogue."

⁶Jesus went with them, and when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to tell him, "Lord, don't trouble yourself, since I am not worthy to have you come under my roof.⁷ That is why I didn't even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed.⁸ For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under my command. I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

⁹Jesus heard this and was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, "I tell you, I have not found so great a faith even in Israel."¹⁰When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant in good health.

¹¹Afterward he was on his way to a town called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd were traveling with him.¹² Just as he neared the gate of the town, a dead man was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the city was also with her.¹³When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said, "Don't weep."¹⁴Then he came up and touched the open coffin, and the pallbearers stopped. And he said, "Young man, I tell you, get up!"

¹⁵The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother.¹⁶Then fear came over everyone, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us," and "God has visited his people."¹⁷This report about him went throughout Judea and all the vicinity.

¹⁸Then John's disciples told him about all these things. So John summoned two of his disciples¹⁹ and sent them to the Lord, asking, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?"

²⁰When the men reached him, they said, "John the Baptist sent us to ask you, 'Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?'"

²¹At that time Jesus healed many people of diseases, afflictions, and evil spirits, and he granted sight to many blind people.²²He replied to them, "Go and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, those with leprosy are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor are told the good news,²³ and blessed is the one who isn't offended by me."

²⁴After John's messengers left, he began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the wind?²⁵What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothes? See, those who are splendidly dressed and live in luxury are in royal palaces.²⁶What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.²⁷This is the one about whom it is written:

See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you.

²⁸I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John, but the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

²⁹(And when all the people, including the tax collectors, heard this, they acknowledged God's way of righteousness, because they had been baptized with John's baptism.³⁰But since the Pharisees and experts in the law had not been baptized by him, they rejected the plan of God for themselves.)

³¹"To what then should I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like?³²They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to each other:

We played the flute for you,
but you didn't dance;
we sang a lament,
but you didn't weep!

³³For John the Baptist did not come eating bread or drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon!'³⁴The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'³⁵Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

³⁶Then one of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table.³⁷And a woman in the town who was a sinner found out that Jesus was reclining at the table in the Pharisee's house. She brought an alabaster jar of perfume ³⁸ and stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to wash his feet with her tears. She wiped his feet with her hair, kissing them and anointing them with the perfume.

³⁹When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would know who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him — she's a sinner!"

⁴⁰Jesus replied to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you."

He said, "Say it, teacher."

⁴¹"A creditor had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. ⁴²Since they could not pay it back, he graciously forgave them both. So, which of them will love him more?"

⁴³Simon answered, "I suppose the one he forgave more."

"You have judged correctly," he told him. ⁴⁴Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she, with her tears, has washed my feet and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵You gave me no kiss, but she hasn't stopped kissing my feet since I came in. ⁴⁶You didn't anoint my head with olive oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfume. ⁴⁷Therefore I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven; that's why she loved much. But the one who is forgiven little, loves little." ⁴⁸Then he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

⁴⁹Those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"

⁵⁰And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

8 Afterward he was traveling from one town and village to another, preaching and telling the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him, ² and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses: Mary, called Magdalene (seven demons had come out of her); ³ Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward; Susanna; and many others who were supporting them from their possessions.

⁴As a large crowd was gathering, and people were coming to Jesus from every town, he said in a parable: ⁵"A sower went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some seed fell along the path; it was trampled on, and the birds of the sky devoured it. ⁶ Other seed fell on the rock; when it grew up, it withered away, since it lacked moisture. ⁷ Other seed fell among thorns; the thorns grew up with it and choked it. ⁸ Still other seed fell on good ground; when it grew up, it produced fruit: a hundred times what was sown." As he said this, he called out, "Let anyone who has ears to hear listen."

⁹Then his disciples asked him, "What does this parable mean?" ¹⁰So he said, "The secrets of the kingdom of God have been given for you to know, but to the rest it is in parables, so that

Looking they may not see,
and hearing they may not understand.

¹¹This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the word of God. ¹²The seed along the path are those who have heard and then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. ¹³And the seed on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy. Having no root, these believe for a while and fall away in a time of testing. ¹⁴As for the seed that fell among thorns, these are the ones who, when they have heard, go on their way and are choked with worries, riches, and pleasures of life, and produce no mature fruit. ¹⁵But the seed in the good ground — these are the ones who, having heard the word with an honest and good heart, hold on to it and by enduring, produce fruit.

¹⁶"No one, after lighting a lamp, covers it with a basket or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand so that those who come in may see its light. ¹⁷For nothing is concealed that won't be revealed, and nothing hidden that won't be made known and brought to light. ¹⁸Therefore take care how you listen. For whoever has, more will be given to him; and whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him."

¹⁹Then his mother and brothers came to him, but they could not meet with him because of the crowd. ²⁰He was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you."

²¹But he replied to them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear and do the word of God."

²²One day he and his disciples got into a boat, and he told them, "Let's cross over to the other side of the lake." So they set out, ²³ and as they were sailing he fell asleep. Then a fierce windstorm came down on the lake; they were being swamped and were in danger. ²⁴They came and woke him up, saying, "Master, Master, we're going to die!"

Then he got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves. So they ceased, and there was a calm. ²⁵He said to them, "Where is your faith?"

They were fearful and amazed, asking one another, "Who then is this? He commands even the winds and the waves, and they obey him!"

²⁶Then they sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. ²⁷When he got out on land, a demon-possessed man from the town met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes and did not stay in a house but in the tombs. ²⁸When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before him, and said in a loud voice, "What do you have to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torment me!" ²⁹For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was guarded, bound by chains and shackles, he would snap the restraints and be driven by the demon into deserted places.

³⁰"What is your name?" Jesus asked him.

"Legion," he said, because many demons had entered him. ³¹And they begged him not to banish them to the abyss.

³²A large herd of pigs was there, feeding on the hillside. The demons begged him to permit them to enter the pigs, and he gave them permission. ³³The demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

³⁴When the men who tended them saw what had happened, they ran off and reported it in the town and in the countryside. ³⁵Then people went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man the demons had departed from, sitting at Jesus's feet, dressed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. ³⁶Meanwhile, the eyewitnesses reported to them how the demon-possessed man was delivered. ³⁷Then all the people of the Gerasene region asked him to leave them, because they were gripped by great fear. So getting into the boat, he returned.

³⁸The man from whom the demons had departed begged him earnestly to be with him. But he sent him away and said,³⁹ "Go back to your home, and tell all that God has done for you." And off he went, proclaiming throughout the town how much Jesus had done for him.

⁴⁰When Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all expecting him.⁴¹ Just then, a man named Jairus came. He was a leader of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus's feet and pleaded with him to come to his house,⁴² because he had an only daughter about twelve years old, and she was dying.

While he was going, the crowds were nearly crushing him.⁴³ A woman suffering from bleeding for twelve years, who had spent all she had on doctors and yet could not be healed by any,⁴⁴ approached from behind and touched the end of his robe. Instantly her bleeding stopped.

⁴⁵"Who touched me?" Jesus asked.

When they all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds are hemming you in and pressing against you."

⁴⁶"Someone did touch me," said Jesus. "I know that power has gone out from me."⁴⁷When the woman saw that she was discovered, she came trembling and fell down before him. In the presence of all the people, she declared the reason she had touched him and how she was instantly healed.⁴⁸ "Daughter," he said to her, "your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

⁴⁹While he was still speaking, someone came from the synagogue leader's house and said, "Your daughter is dead. Don't bother the teacher anymore."

⁵⁰When Jesus heard it, he answered him, "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and she will be saved."⁵¹After he came to the house, he let no one enter with him except Peter, John, James, and the child's father and mother.⁵² Everyone was crying and mourning for her. But he said, "Stop crying, because she is not dead but asleep."

⁵³They laughed at him, because they knew she was dead.⁵⁴ So he took her by the hand and called out, "Child, get up!"⁵⁵ Her spirit returned, and she got up at once. Then he gave orders that she be given something to eat.⁵⁶ Her parents were astounded, but he instructed them to tell no one what had happened.

9 Summoning the Twelve, he gave them power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases.² Then he sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.

⁷Herod the tetrarch heard about everything that was going on. He was perplexed, because some said that John had been raised from the dead,⁸ some that Elijah had appeared, and others that one of the ancient prophets had risen.⁹ "I beheaded John," Herod said, "but who is this I hear such things about?" And he wanted to see him.

¹⁰When the apostles returned, they reported to Jesus all that they had done. He took them along and withdrew privately to a town called Bethsaida.¹¹ When the crowds found out, they followed him. He welcomed them, spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed healing.

¹²Late in the day, the Twelve approached and said to him, "Send the crowd away, so that they can go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find food and lodging, because we are in a deserted place here."

¹³"You give them something to eat," he told them.

"We have no more than five loaves and two fish," they said, "unless we go and buy food for all these people."¹⁴ (For about five thousand men were there.)

Then he told his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each."¹⁵ They did what he said, and had them all sit down.¹⁶ Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke them. He kept giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd.¹⁷ Everyone ate and was filled. They picked up twelve baskets of leftover pieces.

¹⁸While he was praying in private and his disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

¹⁹They answered, "John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, that one of the ancient prophets has come back."

²⁰"But you," he asked them, "who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered, "God's Messiah."

²¹But he strictly warned and instructed them to tell this to no one,²² saying, "It is necessary that the Son of Man suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, be killed, and be raised the third day."

²³Then he said to them all, "If anyone wants to follow after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow me.²⁴ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life because of me will save it.²⁵ For what does it benefit someone if he gains the whole world, and yet loses or forfeits himself?²⁶ For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his glory and that of the Father and the holy angels.²⁷ Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

²⁸About eight days after this conversation, he took along Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray.²⁹ As he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white.

³⁰Suddenly, two men were talking with him — Moses and Elijah.³¹ They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish in Jerusalem.

³²Peter and those with him were in a deep sleep, and when they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men who were standing with him.³³ As the two men were departing from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it's good for us to be here. Let us set up three shelters: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" — not knowing what he was saying.

³⁴While he was saying this, a cloud appeared and overshadowed them. They became afraid as they entered the cloud.³⁵ Then a voice came from the cloud, saying: "This is my Son, the Chosen One; listen to him!"

³⁶After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They kept silent, and at that time told no one what they had seen.

³⁷The next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met him.³⁸ Just then a man from the crowd cried out, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, because he's my only child.³⁹ A spirit seizes him; suddenly he shrieks, and it throws him into convulsions until he foams at the mouth; severely bruising him, it scarcely ever leaves him.⁴⁰ I begged your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn't."

⁴¹ Jesus replied, "You unbelieving and perverse generation, how long will I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here."

⁴² As the boy was still approaching, the demon knocked him down and threw him into severe convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. ⁴³ And they were all astonished at the greatness of God.

While everyone was amazed at all the things he was doing, he told his disciples, ⁴⁴ "Let these words sink in: The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men."

⁴⁵ But they did not understand this statement; it was concealed from them so that they could not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

⁴⁶ An argument started among them about who was the greatest of them. ⁴⁷ But Jesus, knowing their inner thoughts, took a little child and had him stand next to him. ⁴⁸ He told them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me. And whoever welcomes me welcomes him who sent me. For whoever is least among you — this one is great."

⁴⁹ John responded, "Master, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him because he does not follow us."

⁵⁰ "Don't stop him," Jesus told him, "because whoever is not against you is for you."

⁵¹ When the days were coming to a close for him to be taken up, he determined to journey to Jerusalem. ⁵² He sent messengers ahead of himself, and on the way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make preparations for him. ⁵³ But they did not welcome him, because he determined to journey to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴ When the disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?"

⁵⁵ But he turned and rebuked them, ⁵⁶ and they went to another village.

⁵⁷ As they were traveling on the road someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go."

⁵⁸ Jesus told him, "Foxes have dens, and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head." ⁵⁹ Then he said to another, "Follow me."

"Lord," he said, "first let me go bury my father."

⁶⁰ But he told him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and spread the news of the kingdom of God."

⁶¹ Another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me go and say good-bye to those at my house."

⁶² But Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

10 After this, the Lord appointed seventy-two others, and he sent them ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself was about to go. ² He told them, "The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest. ³ Now go; I'm sending you out like lambs among wolves. ⁴ Don't carry a money-bag, traveling bag, or sandals; don't greet anyone along the road. ⁵ Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' ⁶ If a person of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. ⁷ Remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they offer, for the worker is worthy of his wages. Don't move from house to house. ⁸ When you enter any town, and they welcome you, eat the things set before you. ⁹ Heal the sick who are there, and tell them, 'The kingdom of God has come near you.' ¹⁰ When you enter any town, and they don't welcome you, go out into its streets and say, ¹¹ 'We are wiping off even the dust of your town that clings to our feet as a witness against you. Know this for certain: The kingdom of God has come near.' ¹² I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

¹³ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴ But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. ¹⁵ And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will go down to Hades. ¹⁶ Whoever listens to you listens to me. Whoever rejects you rejects me. And whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me."

¹⁷ The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name."

¹⁸ He said to them, "I watched Satan fall from heaven like lightning. ¹⁹ Look, I have given you the authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy; nothing at all will harm you. ²⁰ However, don't rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

²¹ At that time he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, because this was your good pleasure. ²² All things have been entrusted to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son desires to reveal him."

²³ Then turning to his disciples he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see the things you see! ²⁴ For I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see the things you see but didn't see them; to hear the things you hear but didn't hear them."

²⁵ Then an expert in the law stood up to test him, saying, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

²⁶ "What is written in the law?" he asked him. "How do you read it?"

²⁷ He answered, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind;" and "your neighbor as yourself."

²⁸ "You've answered correctly," he told him. "Do this and you will live."

²⁹ But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

³⁰ Jesus took up the question and said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him, beat him up, and fled, leaving him half dead. ³¹ A priest happened to be going down that road. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ³² In the same way, a Levite, when he arrived at the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³ But a Samaritan on his journey came up to him, and when he saw the man, he had compassion. ³⁴ He went over to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on olive oil and wine. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. ³⁵ The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him. When I come back I'll reimburse you for whatever extra you spend.'

³⁶ "Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?"

³⁷"The one who showed mercy to him," he said. Then Jesus told him, "Go and do the same."

³⁸While they were traveling, he entered a village, and a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. ³⁹She had a sister named Mary, who also sat at the Lord's feet and was listening to what he said. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted by her many tasks, and she came up and asked, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to serve alone? So tell her to give me a hand."

⁴¹The Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and upset about many things, ⁴²but one thing is necessary. Mary has made the right choice, and it will not be taken away from her."

11 He was praying in a certain place, and when he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples."

²He said to them, "Whenever you pray, say, Father,
 your name be honored as holy.
 Your kingdom come.
³ Give us each day our daily bread.
⁴ And forgive us our sins,
 for we ourselves also forgive everyone
 in debt to us.
 And do not bring us into temptation."

⁵He also said to them: "Suppose one of you has a friend and goes to him at midnight and says to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, ⁶because a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I don't have anything to offer him.' ⁷Then he will answer from inside and say, 'Don't bother me! The door is already locked, and my children and I have gone to bed. I can't get up to give you anything.' ⁸I tell you, even though he won't get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his friend's shameless boldness, he will get up and give him as much as he needs."

⁹"So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and the door will be opened to you. ¹⁰For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. ¹¹What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead of a fish? ¹²Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? ¹³If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

¹⁴Now he was driving out a demon that was mute. When the demon came out, the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowds were amazed. ¹⁵But some of them said, "He drives out demons by Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons." ¹⁶And others, as a test, were demanding of him a sign from heaven.

¹⁷Knowing their thoughts, he told them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is headed for destruction, and a house divided against itself falls. ¹⁸If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say I drive out demons by Beelzebul. ¹⁹And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason they will be your judges. ²⁰If I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²¹When a strong man, fully armed, guards his estate, his possessions are secure. ²²But when one stronger than he attacks and overpowers him, he takes from him all his weapons he trusted in, and divides up his plunder. ²³Anyone who is not with me is against me, and anyone who does not gather with me scatters."

²⁴"When an unclean spirit comes out of a person, it roams through waterless places looking for rest, and not finding rest, it then says, 'I'll go back to my house that I came from.' ²⁵Returning, it finds the house swept and put in order. ²⁶Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and settle down there. As a result, that person's last condition is worse than the first."

²⁷As he was saying these things, a woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you and the one who nursed you!"

²⁸He said, "Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it."

²⁹As the crowds were increasing, he began saying: "This generation is an evil generation. It demands a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. ³⁰For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation. ³¹The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and look — something greater than Solomon is here. ³²The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at Jonah's preaching, and look — something greater than Jonah is here."

³³"No one lights a lamp and puts it in the cellar or under a basket, but on a lampstand, so that those who come in may see its light. ³⁴Your eye is the lamp of the body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is also full of light. But when it is bad, your body is also full of darkness. ³⁵Take care, then, that the light in you is not darkness. ³⁶If, therefore, your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, it will be entirely illuminated, as when a lamp shines its light on you."

³⁷As he was speaking, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him. So he went in and reclined at the table. ³⁸When the Pharisee saw this, he was amazed that he did not first perform the ritual washing before dinner. ³⁹But the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and evil. ⁴⁰Fools! Didn't the who made the outside make the inside too? ⁴¹But give from what is within to the poor, and then everything is clean for you."

⁴²"But woe to you Pharisees! You give a tenth of mint, rue, and every kind of herb, and you bypass justice and love for God. These things you should have done without neglecting the others."

⁴³"Woe to you Pharisees! You love the front seat in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces."

⁴⁴"Woe to you! You are like unmarked graves; the people who walk over them don't know it."

⁴⁵One of the experts in the law answered him, "Teacher, when you say these things you insult us too."

⁴⁶Then he said: "Woe also to you experts in the law! You load people with burdens that are hard to carry, and yet you yourselves don't touch these burdens with one of your fingers."

⁴⁷"Woe to you! You build tombs for the prophets, and your fathers killed them. ⁴⁸Therefore, you are witnesses that you approve the deeds of your fathers, for they killed them, and you build their monuments. ⁴⁹Because of this, the wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,' ⁵⁰so that this generation may be held responsible for the blood of all the prophets shed since the foundation of the world — ⁵¹ from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.

⁵² “Yes, I tell you, this generation will be held responsible.

⁵² “Woe to you experts in the law! You have taken away the key to knowledge. You didn’t go in yourselves, and you hindered those who were trying to go in.”

⁵³ When he left there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to oppose him fiercely and to cross-examine him about many things; ⁵⁴ they were lying in wait for him to trap him in something he said.

12 Meanwhile, a crowd of many thousands came together, so that they were trampling on one another. He began to say to his disciples first, “Be on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ² There is nothing covered that won’t be uncovered, nothing hidden that won’t be made known. ³ Therefore, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in an ear in private rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

⁴ “I say to you, my friends, don’t fear those who kill the body, and after that can do nothing more. ⁵ But I will show you the one to fear: Fear him who has authority to throw people into hell after death. Yes, I say to you, this is the one to fear! ⁶ Aren’t five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten in God’s sight. ⁷ Indeed, the hairs of your head are all counted. Don’t be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

⁸ “And I say to you, anyone who acknowledges me before others, the Son of Man will also acknowledge him before the angels of God, ⁹ but whoever denies me before others will be denied before the angels of God. ¹⁰ Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. ¹¹ Whenever they bring you before synagogues and rulers and authorities, don’t worry about how you should defend yourselves or what you should say. ¹² For the Holy Spirit will teach you at that very hour what must be said.”

¹³ Someone from the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

¹⁴ “Friend,” he said to him, “who appointed me a judge or arbitrator over you?” ¹⁵ He then told them, “Watch out and be on guard against all greed, because one’s life is not in the abundance of his possessions.”

¹⁶ Then he told them a parable: “A rich man’s land was very productive. ¹⁷ He thought to himself, ‘What should I do, since I don’t have anywhere to store my crops?’ ¹⁸ I will do this,” he said. “I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones and store all my grain and my goods there. ¹⁹ Then I’ll say to myself, ‘You have many goods stored up for many years. Take it easy; eat, drink, and enjoy yourself.’”

²⁰ “But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life is demanded of you. And the things you have prepared — whose will they be?’

²¹ “That’s how it is with the one who stores up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.”

²² Then he said to his disciples: “Therefore I tell you, don’t worry about your life, what you will eat; or about the body, what you will wear. ²³ For life is more than food and the body more than clothing. ²⁴ Consider the ravens: They don’t sow or reap; they don’t have a storeroom or a barn; yet God feeds them. Aren’t you worth much more than the birds? ²⁵ Can any of you add one moment to his life-span by worrying? ²⁶ If then you’re not able to do even a little thing, why worry about the rest?”

³⁵ “Be ready for service and have your lamps lit. ³⁶ You are to be like people waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet so that when he comes and knocks, they can open the door for him at once. ³⁷ Blessed will be those servants the master finds alert when he comes. Truly I tell you, he will get ready, have them recline at the table, then come and serve them. ³⁸ If he comes in the middle of the night, or even near dawn, and finds them alert, blessed are those servants. ³⁹ But know this: If the homeowner had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁰ You also be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.”

⁴³ Blessed is that servant whom the master finds doing his job when he comes. ⁴⁴ Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. ⁴⁵ But if that servant says in his heart, ‘My master is delaying his coming,’ and starts to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, ⁴⁶ that servant’s master will come on a day he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unfaithful. ⁴⁷ And that servant who knew his master’s will and didn’t prepare himself or do it will be severely beaten. ⁴⁸ But the one who did not know and did what deserved punishment will receive a light beating. From everyone who has been given much, much will be required; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, even more will be expected.

⁴⁹ “I came to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already set ablaze! ⁵⁰ But I have a baptism to undergo, and how it consumes me until it is finished! ⁵¹ Do you think that I came here to bring peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. ⁵² From now on, five in one household will be divided: three against two, and two against three.

⁵³ They will be divided, father against son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

⁵⁴ He also said to the crowds: “When you see a cloud rising in the west, right away you say, ‘A storm is coming,’ and so it does. ⁵⁵ And when the south wind is blowing, you say, ‘It’s going to be hot,’ and it is. ⁵⁶ Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but why don't you know how to interpret this present time?

⁵⁷ "Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right?"

⁵⁸ As you are going with your adversary to the ruler, make an effort to settle with him on the way. Then he won't drag you before the judge, the judge hand you over to the bailiff, and the bailiff throw you into prison. ⁵⁹ I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid the last cent."

13 At that time, some people came and reported to him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. ² And he responded to them, "Do you think that these Galileans were more sinful than all the other Galileans because they suffered these things? ³ No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as well. ⁴ Or those eighteen that the tower in Siloam fell on and killed — do you think they were more sinful than all the other people who live in Jerusalem? ⁵ No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as well."

⁶ And he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree that was planted in his vineyard. He came looking for fruit on it and found none. ⁷ He told the vineyard worker, 'Listen, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it even waste the soil?'"

⁸ But he replied to him, "Sir, leave it this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. ⁹ Perhaps it will produce fruit next year, but if not, you can cut it down."

¹⁰ As he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath, ¹¹ a woman was there who had been disabled by a spirit for over eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. ¹² When Jesus saw her, he called out to her, "Woman, you are free of your disability." ¹³ Then he laid his hands on her, and instantly she was restored and began to glorify God.

¹⁴ But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, responded by telling the crowd, "There are six days when work should be done; therefore come on those days and be healed and not on the Sabbath day."

¹⁵ But the Lord answered him and said, "Hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you untie his ox or donkey from the feeding trough on the Sabbath and lead it to water? ¹⁶ Satan has bound this woman, a daughter of Abraham, for eighteen years — shouldn't she be untied from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"

¹⁷ When he had said these things, all his adversaries were humiliated, but the whole crowd was rejoicing over all the glorious things he was doing.

¹⁸ He said, therefore, "What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? ¹⁹ It's like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the sky nested in its branches."

²⁰ Again he said, "What can I compare the kingdom of God to? ²¹ It's like leaven that a woman took and mixed into fifty pounds of flour until all of it was leavened."

²² He went through one town and village after another, teaching and making his way to Jerusalem. ²³ "Lord," someone asked him, "are only a few people going to be saved?"

He said to them, ²⁴ "Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because I tell you, many will try to enter and won't be able ²⁵ once the homeowner gets up and shuts the door. Then you will stand outside and knock on the door, saying, 'Lord, open up for us!' He will answer you, 'I don't know you or where you're from.' ²⁶ Then you will say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.'

²⁷ But he will say, 'I tell you, I don't know you or where you're from. Get away from me, all you evildoers!' ²⁸ There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth in that place, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves thrown out. ²⁹ They will come from east and west, from north and south, to share the banquet in the kingdom of God. ³⁰ Note this: Some who are last will be first, and some who are first will be last."

³¹ At that time some Pharisees came and told him, "Go, get out of here. Herod wants to kill you."

³² He said to them, "Go tell that fox, 'Look, I'm driving out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will complete my work.' ³³ Yet it is necessary that I travel today, tomorrow, and the next day, because it is not possible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem."

³⁴ "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her. How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing! ³⁵ See, your house is abandoned to you. I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

14 One Sabbath, when he went in to eat at the house of one of the leading Pharisees, they were watching him closely. ² There in front of him was a man whose body was swollen with fluid. ³ In response, Jesus asked the law experts and the Pharisees, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?" ⁴ But they kept silent. He took the man, healed him, and sent him away. ⁵ And to them, he said, "Which of you whose son or ox falls into a well, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?" ⁶ They could find no answer to these things.

⁷ He told a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they would choose the best places for themselves: ⁸ "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, don't recline at the best place, because a more distinguished person than you may have been invited by your host. ⁹ The one who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give your place to this man,' and then in humiliation, you will proceed to take the lowest place."

¹⁰ "But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place, so that when the one who invited you comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up higher.' You will then be honored in the presence of all the other guests. ¹¹ For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

¹² He also said to the one who had invited him, "When you give a lunch or a dinner, don't invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, your relatives, or your rich neighbors, because they might invite you back, and you would be repaid. ¹³ On the contrary, when you host a banquet, invite those who are poor, maimed, lame, or blind. ¹⁴ And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

¹⁵ When one of those who reclined at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is the one who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!"

¹⁶ Then he told him: "A man was giving a large banquet and invited many. ¹⁷ At the time of the banquet, he sent his servant to tell those who were invited, 'Come, because everything is now ready.'

¹⁸ But without exception they all began to make excuses. The first one said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. I ask you to excuse me.'

¹⁹“Another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m going to try them out. I ask you to excuse me.’

²⁰“And another said, ‘I just got married, and therefore I’m unable to come.’

²¹“So the servant came back and reported these things to his master. Then in anger, the master of the house told his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city, and bring in here the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.’

²²“‘Master,’ the servant said, ‘what you ordered has been done, and there’s still room.’

²³“Then the master told the servant, ‘Go out into the highways and hedges and make them come in, so that my house may be filled.’²⁴ For I tell you, not one of those people who were invited will enjoy my banquet.’”

²⁵ Now great crowds were traveling with him. So he turned and said to them: ²⁶“If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters — yes, and even his own life — he cannot be my disciple. ²⁷Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

²⁸“For which of you, wanting to build a tower, doesn’t first sit down and calculate the cost to see if he has enough to complete it? ²⁹ Otherwise, after he has laid the foundation and cannot finish it, all the onlookers will begin to ridicule him, ³⁰ saying, ‘This man started to build and wasn’t able to finish.’

³¹“Or what king, going to war against another king, will not first sit down and decide if he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? ³² If not, while the other is still far off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. ³³ In the same way, therefore, every one of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.

³⁴“Now, salt is good, but if salt should lose its taste, how will it be made salty? ³⁵ It isn’t fit for the soil or for the manure pile; they throw it out. Let anyone who has ears to hear listen.”

15 All the tax collectors and sinners were approaching to listen to him. ² And the Pharisees and scribes were complaining, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

³ So he told them this parable: ⁴“What man among you, who has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open field and go after the lost one until he finds it? ⁵ When he has found it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders, ⁶ and coming home, he calls his friends and neighbors together, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found my lost sheep!’ ⁷ I tell you, in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who don’t need repentance.

¹¹ He also said: “A man had two sons. ¹² The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the estate I have coming to me.’ So he distributed the assets to them. ¹³ Not many days later, the younger son gathered together all he had and traveled to a distant country, where he squandered his estate in foolish living. ¹⁴ After he had spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he had nothing. ¹⁵ Then he went to work for one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶ He longed to eat his fill from the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one would give him anything. ¹⁷ When he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired workers have more than enough food, and here I am dying of hunger! ¹⁸ I’ll get up, go to my father, and say to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. ¹⁹ I’m no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired workers.’” ²⁰ So he got up and went to his father. But while the son was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion. He ran, threw his arms around his neck, and kissed him. ²¹ The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. I’m no longer worthy to be called your son.’

²²“But the father told his servants, ‘Quick! Bring out the best robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. ²³ Then bring the fattened calf and slaughter it, and let’s celebrate with a feast, ²⁴ because this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!’ So they began to celebrate.

²⁵“Now his older son was in the field; as he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶ So he summoned one of the servants, questioning what these things meant. ²⁷“Your brother is here,’ he told him, ‘and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.’

²⁸“Then he became angry and didn’t want to go in. So his father came out and pleaded with him. ²⁹ But he replied to his father, ‘Look, I have been slaving many years for you, and I have never disobeyed your orders, yet you never gave me a goat so that I could celebrate with my friends. ³⁰ But when this son of yours came, who has devalued your assets with prostitutes, you slaughtered the fattened calf for him.’

³¹“‘Son,’ he said to him, ‘you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. ³² But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’”

16 Now he said to the disciples: “There was a rich man who received an accusation that his manager was squandering his possessions. ² So he called the manager in and asked, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you can no longer be my manager.’

³“Then the manager said to himself, ‘What will I do since my master is taking the management away from me? I’m not strong enough to dig; I’m ashamed to beg. ⁴ I know what I’ll do so that when I’m removed from management, people will welcome me into their homes.’

⁵“So he summoned each one of his master’s debtors. ‘How much do you owe my master?’ he asked the first one.

⁶“‘A hundred measures of olive oil,’ he said.

“‘Take your invoice,’ he told him, ‘sit down quickly, and write fifty.’

⁷“Next he asked another, ‘How much do you owe?’

“‘A hundred measures of wheat,’ he said.

“‘Take your invoice,’ he told him, ‘and write eighty.’

⁸“The master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the children of this age are more shrewd than the children of light in dealing with their own people. ⁹ And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of worldly wealth so that when it fails, they may welcome you into eternal dwellings. ¹⁰ Whoever is faithful in very little is also faithful in much, and whoever is unrighteous in very little is also unrighteous in much.¹¹ So if you have not been faithful with worldly wealth, who will trust you with what is genuine?¹² And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to someone else, who will give you what is your own?¹³ No servant can serve two masters, since either he will hate one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

¹⁴The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and scoffing at him.¹⁵ And he told them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the sight of others, but God knows your hearts. For what is highly admired by people is revolting in God’s sight.

¹⁶“The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then, the good news of the kingdom of God has been proclaimed, and everyone is urgently invited to enter it.¹⁷ But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of a letter in the law to drop out.

¹⁸“Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and everyone who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.

²⁵“Son,” Abraham said, “remember that during your life you received your good things, just as Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here, while you are in agony.²⁶ Besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you, so that those who want to pass over from here to you cannot; neither can those from there cross over to us.”

²⁷“Father,” he said, “then I beg you to send him to my father’s house —²⁸ because I have five brothers — to warn them, so they won’t also come to this place of torment.”

²⁹“But Abraham said, “They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.”

³⁰“No, father Abraham,” he said. “But if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.”

³¹“But he told him, “If they don’t listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.”

17 He said to his disciples, “Offenses will certainly come, but woe to the one through whom they come!² It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea than for him to cause one of these little ones to stumble.³ Be on your guard. If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him.⁴ And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and comes back to you seven times, saying, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive him.”

⁵The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith.”

⁶“If you have faith the size of a mustard seed,” the Lord said, “you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it will obey you.

⁷“Which one of you having a servant tending sheep or plowing will say to him when he comes in from the field,

‘Come at once and sit down to eat’?⁸ Instead, will he not tell him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat, get ready, and serve me while I eat and drink; later you can eat and drink’?⁹ Does he thank that servant because he did what was commanded?¹⁰ In the same way, when you have done all that you were commanded, you should say, ‘We are worthless servants; we’ve only done our duty.’”

¹¹While traveling to Jerusalem, he passed between Samaria and Galilee.¹² As he entered a village, ten men with leprosy met him. They stood at a distance¹³ and raised their voices, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

¹⁴When he saw them, he told them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And while they were going, they were cleansed.

¹⁵But one of them, seeing that he was healed, returned and, with a loud voice, gave glory to God.¹⁶ He fell face-down at his feet, thanking him. And he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷Then Jesus said, “Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine?¹⁸ Didn’t any return to give glory to God except this foreigner?”¹⁹ And he told him, “Get up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.”

²⁰Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them, “The kingdom of God is not coming with something observable;²¹ no one will say, ‘See here!’ or ‘There!’ For you see, the kingdom of God is in your midst.”

²²Then he told the disciples: “The days are coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you won’t see it.²³ They will say to you, ‘See there!’ or ‘See here!’ Don’t follow or run after them.²⁴ For as the lightning flashes from horizon to horizon and lights up the sky, so the Son of Man will be in his day.²⁵ But first it is necessary that he suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

²⁶“Just as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be in the days of the Son of Man:²⁷ People went on eating, drinking, marrying and giving in marriage until the day Noah boarded the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.²⁸ It will be the same as it was in the days of Lot: People went on eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building.²⁹ But on the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained from heaven and destroyed them all.³⁰ It will be like that on the day the Son of Man is revealed.³¹ On that day, a man on the housetop, whose belongings are in the house, must not come down to get them. Likewise the man who is in the field must not turn back.³² Remember Lot’s wife!³³ Whoever tries to make his life secure will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it.³⁴ I tell you, on that night two will be in one bed; one will be taken and the other will be left.³⁵ Two women will be grinding grain together; one will be taken and the other left.”

³⁷“Where, Lord?” they asked him.

He said to them, “Where the corpse is, there also the vultures will be gathered.”

18 Now he told them a parable on the need for them to pray always and not give up.² “There was a judge in a certain town who didn’t fear God or respect people.³ And a widow in that town kept coming to him, saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’

⁴“For a while he was unwilling, but later he said to himself, ‘Even though I don’t fear God or respect people,⁵ yet because this widow keeps pestering me, I will give her justice, so that she doesn’t wear me out by her persistent coming.’”

⁶Then the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says.⁷ Will not God grant justice to his elect who cry out to him day and night? Will he delay helping them?⁸ I tell you that he will swiftly grant them justice. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

⁹ He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and looked down on everyone else: ¹⁰ "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹ The Pharisee was standing and praying like this about himself: 'God, I thank you that I'm not like other people — greedy, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹² I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of everything I get.'

¹³ But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even raise his eyes to heaven but kept striking his chest and saying, 'God, have mercy on me, a sinner!' ¹⁴ I tell you, this one went down to his house justified rather than the other; because everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

¹⁵ People were bringing infants to him so he might touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

¹⁶ Jesus, however, invited them: "Let the little children come to me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁷ Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it."

¹⁸ A ruler asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁹ "Why do you call me good?" Jesus asked him. "No one is good except God alone. ²⁰ You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery; do not murder; do not steal; do not bear false witness; honor your father and mother."

²¹ "I have kept all these from my youth," he said.

²² When Jesus heard this, he told him, "You still lack one thing: Sell all you have and distribute it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

²³ After he heard this, he became extremely sad, because he was very rich.

²⁴ Seeing that he became sad, Jesus said, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶ Those who heard this asked, "Then who can be saved?"

²⁷ He replied, "What is impossible with man is possible with God."

²⁸ Then Peter said, "Look, we have left what we had and followed you."

²⁹ So he said to them, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left a house, wife or brothers or sisters, parents or children because of the kingdom of God, ³⁰ who will not receive many times more at this time, and eternal life in the age to come."

³¹ Then he took the Twelve aside and told them, "See, we are going up to Jerusalem. Everything that is written through the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished. ³² For he will be handed over to the Gentiles, and he will be mocked, insulted, spit on; ³³ and after they flog him, they will kill him, and he will rise on the third day."

³⁴ They understood none of these things. The meaning of the saying was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what was said.

³⁵ As he approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the road begging. ³⁶ Hearing a crowd passing by, he inquired what was happening. ³⁷ "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by," they told him.

³⁸ So he called out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" ³⁹ Then those in front told him to keep quiet, but he kept crying out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

⁴⁰ Jesus stopped and commanded that he be brought to him. When he came closer, he asked him, ⁴¹ "What do you want me to do for you?"

"Lord," he said, "I want to see."

⁴² "Receive your sight," Jesus told him. "Your faith has saved you." ⁴³ Instantly he could see, and he began to follow him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

19 He entered Jericho and was passing through. ² There was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. ³ He was trying to see who Jesus was, but he was not able because of the crowd, since he was a short man. ⁴ So running ahead, he climbed up a sycamore tree to see Jesus, since he was about to pass that way. ⁵ When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down because today it is necessary for me to stay at your house."

⁶ So he quickly came down and welcomed him joyfully. ⁷ All who saw it began to complain, "He's gone to stay with a sinful man."

⁸ But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, I'll give half of my possessions to the poor, Lord. And if I have extorted anything from anyone, I'll pay back four times as much."

⁹ "Today salvation has come to this house," Jesus told him, "because he too is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰ For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save the lost."

¹¹ As they were listening to this, he went on to tell a parable because he was near Jerusalem, and they thought the kingdom of God was going to appear right away.

¹² Therefore he said: "A nobleman traveled to a far country to receive for himself authority to be king and then to return. ¹³ He called ten of his servants, gave them ten minas, and told them, 'Engage in business until I come back.'

¹⁴ "But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We don't want this man to rule over us.'

¹⁵ "At his return, having received the authority to be king, he summoned those servants he had given the money to, so that he could find out how much they had made in business. ¹⁶ The first came forward and said, 'Master, your mina has earned ten more minas.'

¹⁷ "Well done, good servant!' he told him. 'Because you have been faithful in a very small matter, have authority over ten towns.'

¹⁸ "The second came and said, 'Master, your mina has made five minas.'

¹⁹ "So he said to him, 'You will be over five towns.'

²² "He told him, 'I will condemn you by what you have said, you evil servant! If you knew I was a harsh man, collecting what I didn't deposit and reaping what I didn't sow, ²³ why, then, didn't you put my money in the bank? And when I returned, I would have collected it with interest.' ²⁴ So he said to those standing there, 'Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.'

²⁵ "But they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas.'

²⁶ "I tell you, that to everyone who has, more will be given; and from the one who does not have, even what he does have will be taken away. ²⁷ But bring here these

²⁸When he had said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹As he approached Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples ³⁰and said, “Go into the village ahead of you. As you enter it, you will find a young donkey tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it. ³¹If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ say this: ‘The Lord needs it.’”

³²So those who were sent left and found it just as he had told them. ³³As they were untying the young donkey, its owners said to them, “Why are you untying the donkey?”

³⁴“The Lord needs it,” they said. ³⁵Then they brought it to Jesus, and after throwing their clothes on the donkey, they helped Jesus get on it. ³⁶As he was going along, they were spreading their clothes on the road. ³⁷Now he came near the path down the Mount of Olives, and the whole crowd of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the miracles they had seen:

³⁸ Blessed is the King who comes
in the name of the Lord.

Peace in heaven

and glory in the highest heaven!

³⁹Some of the Pharisees from the crowd told him, “Teacher, rebuke your disciples.”

⁴⁰He answered, “I tell you, if they were to keep silent, the stones would cry out.”

⁴¹As he approached and saw the city, he wept for it, ⁴²saying, “If you knew this day what would bring peace — but now it is hidden from your eyes. ⁴³For the days will come on you when your enemies will build a barricade around you, surround you, and hem you in on every side. ⁴⁴They will crush you and your children among you to the ground, and they will not leave one stone on another in your midst, because you did not recognize the time when God visited you.”

⁴⁵He went into the temple and began to throw out those who were selling, ⁴⁶and he said, “It is written, my house will be a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves!”

⁴⁷Every day he was teaching in the temple. The chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people were looking for a way to kill him, ⁴⁸but they could not find a way to do it, because all the people were captivated by what they heard.

20 One day as he was teaching the people in the temple and proclaiming the good news, the chief priests and the scribes, with the elders, came ²and said to him: “Tell us, by what authority are you doing these things? Who is it who gave you this authority?”

³He answered them, “I will also ask you a question. Tell me, ⁴was the baptism of John from heaven or of human origin?”

⁵They discussed it among themselves: “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’ ⁶But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John was a prophet.” ⁷So they answered that they did not know its origin.

⁸And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

⁹Now he began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, leased it to tenant farmers, and went away for a long time. ¹⁰At harvest time he sent a servant to the farmers so that they might give him some fruit from the vineyard. But the farmers beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹He sent yet another servant, but they beat that one too, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. ¹²And he sent yet a third, but they wounded this one too and threw him out.

¹³“Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What should I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will respect him.’”

¹⁴“But when the tenant farmers saw him, they discussed it among themselves and said, ‘This is the heir. Let’s kill him, so that the inheritance will be ours.’ ¹⁵So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

“What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶He will come and kill those farmers and give the vineyard to others.”

But when they heard this they said, “That must never happen!”

¹⁷But he looked at them and said, “Then what is the meaning of this Scripture:

The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone?

¹⁹Then the scribes and the chief priests looked for a way to get their hands on him that very hour, because they knew he had told this parable against them, but they feared the people.

²⁰They watched closely and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, so that they could catch him in what he said, to hand him over to the governor’s rule and authority. ²¹They questioned him, “Teacher, we know that you speak and teach correctly, and you don’t show partiality but teach truthfully the way of God. ²²Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

²³But detecting their craftiness, he said to them, ²⁴“Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?”

“Caesar’s,” they said.

²⁵“Well then,” he told them, “give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

²⁶They were not able to catch him in what he said in public, and being amazed at his answer, they became silent.

²⁷Some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came up and questioned him: ²⁸“Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother has a wife, and dies childless, his brother should take the wife and produce offspring for his brother. ²⁹Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife and died without children. ³⁰Also the second ³¹and the third took her. In the same way, all seven died and left no children. ³²Finally, the woman died too. ³³In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For all seven had married her.”

³⁴Jesus told them, “The children of this age marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵But those who are counted worthy to take part in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶For they can no longer die, because they are like angels and are children of God, since they are children of the resurrection. ³⁷Moses even indicated in the passage about the burning bush that the dead are raised, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. ³⁸He is not the God of the dead but of the living, because all are living to him.”

³⁹Some of the scribes answered, “Teacher, you have spoken well.” ⁴⁰And they no longer dared to ask him anything.

⁴¹Then he said to them, "How can they say that the Christ is the son of David?" ⁴²For David himself says in the Book of Psalms:

The Lord declared to my Lord,
'Sit at my right hand

⁴³ until I make your enemies your footstool.'

⁴⁴David calls him 'Lord' how then can the Christ be his son?"

⁴⁵While all the people were listening, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁶"Beware of the scribes, who want to go around in long robes and who love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the places of honor at banquets. ⁴⁷They devour widows' houses and say long prayers just for show. These will receive harsher judgment."

21 He looked up and saw the rich dropping their offerings into the temple treasury. ²He also saw a poor widow dropping in two tiny coins. ³"Truly I tell you," he said. "This poor widow has put in more than all of them. ⁴For all these people have put in gifts out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on."

⁵As some were talking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said, ⁶"These things that you see — the days will come when not one stone will be left on another that will not be thrown down."

⁷"Teacher," they asked him, "so when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when these things are about to take place?"

⁸Then he said, "Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is near.' Don't follow them. ⁹When you hear of wars and rebellions, don't be alarmed. Indeed, it is necessary that these things take place first, but the end won't come right away."

¹⁰Then he told them: "Nation will be raised up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹There will be violent earthquakes, and famines and plagues in various places, and there will be terrifying sights and great signs from heaven. ¹²But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you. They will hand you over to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. ¹³This will give you an opportunity to bear witness. ¹⁴Therefore make up your minds not to prepare your defense ahead of time, ¹⁵for I will give you such words and a wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict. ¹⁶You will even be betrayed by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will kill some of you. ¹⁷You will be hated by everyone because of my name, ¹⁸but not a hair of your head will be lost. ¹⁹By your endurance, gain your lives.

²⁰"When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then recognize that its desolation has come near. ²¹Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains. Those inside the city must leave it, and those who are in the country must not enter it, ²²because these are days of vengeance to fulfill all the things that are written. ²³Woe to pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days, for there will be great distress in the land and wrath against this people. ²⁴They will be killed by the sword and be led captive into all the nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

²⁵"Then there will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and there will be anguish on the earth among nations bewildered by the roaring of the sea and the waves. ²⁶People will faint from fear and expectation of the things that are coming on the world, because the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ²⁷Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ²⁸But when these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near."

²⁹Then he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. ³⁰As soon as they put out leaves you can see for yourselves and recognize that summer is already near. ³¹In the same way, when you see these things happening, recognize that the kingdom of God is near. ³²Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all things take place. ³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

³⁴"Be on your guard, so that your minds are not dulled from carousing, drunkenness, and worries of life, or that day will come on you unexpectedly ³⁵like a trap. For it will come on all who live on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶But be alert at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place and to stand before the Son of Man."

³⁷During the day, he was teaching in the temple, but in the evening he would go out and spend the night on what is called the Mount of Olives. ³⁸Then all the people would come early in the morning to hear him in the temple.

22 The Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called Passover, was approaching. ²The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to put him to death, because they were afraid of the people.

³Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, who was numbered among the Twelve. ⁴He went away and discussed with the chief priests and temple police how he could hand him over to them. ⁵They were glad and agreed to give him silver. ⁶So he accepted the offer and started looking for a good opportunity to betray him to them when the crowd was not present.

⁷Then the Day of Unleavened Bread came when the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. ⁸Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

⁹"Where do you want us to prepare it?" they asked him.

¹⁰"Listen," he said to them, "when you've entered the city, a man carrying a water jug will meet you. Follow him into the house he enters. ¹¹Tell the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks you, "Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover with my disciples?"'" ¹²Then he will show you a large, furnished room upstairs. Make the preparations there."

¹³So they went and found it just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁴When the hour came, he reclined at the table, and the apostles with him. ¹⁵Then he said to them, "I have fervently desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." ¹⁷Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks, he said, "Take this and share it among yourselves. ¹⁸For I tell you, from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

¹⁹And he took bread, gave thanks, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

²⁰In the same way he also took the cup after supper and said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. ²¹But look, the hand of the one betraying me is at the table with me.²² For the Son of Man will go away as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!"

²³ So they began to argue among themselves which of them it could be who was going to do it.

²⁴ Then a dispute also arose among them about who should be considered the greatest.²⁵ But he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who have authority over them have themselves called 'Benefactors.'²⁶ It is not to be like that among you. On the contrary, whoever is greatest among you should become like the youngest, and whoever leads, like the one serving.²⁷ For who is greater, the one at the table or the one serving? Isn't it the one at the table? But I am among you as the one who serves.²⁸ You are those who stood by me in my trials.²⁹ I bestow on you a kingdom, just as my Father bestowed one on me,³⁰ so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. And you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

³¹ "Simon, Simon, look out. Satan has asked to sift you like wheat.³² But I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And you, when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers."

³³ "Lord," he told him, "I'm ready to go with you both to prison and to death."

³⁴ "I tell you, Peter," he said, "the rooster will not crow today until you deny three times that you know me."

³⁵ He also said to them, "When I sent you out without money-bag, traveling bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?"

"Not a thing," they said.

³⁶ Then he said to them, "But now, whoever has a money-bag should take it, and also a traveling bag. And whoever doesn't have a sword should sell his robe and buy one.³⁷ For I tell you, what is written must be fulfilled in me: And he was counted among the lawless. Yes, what is written about me is coming to its fulfillment."

³⁸ "Lord," they said, "look, here are two swords."

"That is enough!" he told them.

³⁹ He went out and made his way as usual to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed him.⁴⁰ When he reached the place, he told them, "Pray that you may not fall into temptation."⁴¹ Then he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, knelt down, and began to pray,⁴² "Father, if you are willing, take this cup away from me — nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."

⁴³ Then an angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him.⁴⁴ Being in anguish, he prayed more fervently, and his sweat became like drops of blood falling to the ground.⁴⁵ When he got up from prayer and came to the disciples, he found them sleeping, exhausted from their grief.⁴⁶ "Why are you sleeping?" he asked them. "Get up and pray, so that you won't fall into temptation."

⁴⁷ While he was still speaking, suddenly a mob came, and one of the Twelve named Judas was leading them. He came near Jesus to kiss him,⁴⁸ but Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"

⁴⁹ When those around him saw what was going to happen, they asked, "Lord, should we strike with the sword?"⁵⁰ Then one of them struck the high priest's servant and cut off his right ear.

⁵¹ But Jesus responded, "No more of this!" And touching his ear, he healed him.⁵² Then Jesus said to the chief priests, temple police, and the elders who had come for him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a criminal?"⁵³ Every day while I was with you in the temple, you never laid a hand on me. But this is your hour — and the dominion of darkness."

⁵⁴ They seized him, led him away, and brought him into the high priest's house. Meanwhile Peter was following at a distance.⁵⁵ They lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, and Peter sat among them.⁵⁶ When a servant saw him sitting in the light, and looked closely at him, she said, "This man was with him too."

⁵⁷ But he denied it: "Woman, I don't know him."

⁵⁸ After a little while, someone else saw him and said, "You're one of them too."

"Man, I am not!" Peter said.

⁵⁹ About an hour later, another kept insisting, "This man was certainly with him, since he's also a Galilean."

⁶⁰ But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you're talking about!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.⁶¹ Then the Lord turned and looked at Peter. So Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before the rooster crows today, you will deny me three times."⁶² And he went outside and wept bitterly.

⁶³ The men who were holding Jesus started mocking and beating him.⁶⁴ After blindfolding him, they kept asking, "Prophesy! Who was it that hit you?"⁶⁵ And they were saying many other blasphemous things to him.

⁶⁶ When daylight came, the elders of the people, both the chief priests and the scribes, convened and brought him before their Sanhedrin.⁶⁷ They said, "If you are the Messiah, tell us."

But he said to them, "If I do tell you, you will not believe.⁶⁸ And if I ask you, you will not answer.⁶⁹ But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

⁷⁰ They all asked, "Are you, then, the Son of God?"

And he said to them, "You say that I am."

⁷¹ "Why do we need any more testimony," they said, "since we've heard it ourselves from his mouth?"

23 Then their whole assembly rose up and brought him before Pilate.² They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man misleading our nation, opposing payment of taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king."

³ So Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He answered him, "You say so."

⁴ Pilate then told the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no grounds for charging this man."

⁵ But they kept insisting, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he started even to here."

⁶ When Pilate heard this, he asked if the man was a Galilean.⁷ Finding that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days.⁸ Herod was very glad to see Jesus; for a long time he had wanted to see him because he had heard about him and was hoping to see some miracle performed by him.⁹ So he kept asking him questions, but Jesus did not answer him.¹⁰ The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him.¹¹ Then Herod, with his soldiers, treated him with contempt, mocked him, dressed him in bright clothing, and sent him back to Pilate.¹² That very day Herod and Pilate became friends. Previously, they had been enemies.

¹³ Pilate called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people,¹⁴ and said to them, "You have brought me this man as one who misleads the people. But in fact, after examining him in your presence, I have found no grounds to charge this man with those things you accuse him of. ¹⁵ Neither has Herod, because he sent him back to us. Clearly, he has done nothing to deserve death. ¹⁶ Therefore, I will have him whipped and then release him."

¹⁸ Then they all cried out together, "Take this man away! Release Barabbas to us!" ¹⁹ (He had been thrown into prison for a rebellion that had taken place in the city, and for murder.)

²⁰ Wanting to release Jesus, Pilate addressed them again, ²¹ but they kept shouting, "Crucify! Crucify him!"

²² A third time he said to them, "Why? What has this man done wrong? I have found in him no grounds for the death penalty. Therefore, I will have him whipped and then release him."

²³ But they kept up the pressure, demanding with loud voices that he be crucified, and their voices won out. ²⁴ So Pilate decided to grant their demand ²⁵ and released the one they were asking for, who had been thrown into prison for rebellion and murder. But he handed Jesus over to their will.

²⁶ As they led him away, they seized Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country, and laid the cross on him to carry behind Jesus. ²⁷ A large crowd of people followed him, including women who were mourning and lamenting him. ²⁸ But turning to them, Jesus said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and your children. ²⁹ Look, the days are coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the women without children, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed!' ³⁰ Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' ³¹ For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

³² Two others — criminals — were also led away to be executed with him. ³³ When they arrived at the place called The Skull, they crucified him there, along with the criminals, one on the right and one on the left. ³⁴ Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, because they do not know what they are doing." And they divided his clothes and cast lots.

³⁵ The people stood watching, and even the leaders were scoffing: "He saved others; let him save himself if this is God's Messiah, the Chosen One!" ³⁶ The soldiers also mocked him. They came offering him sour wine ³⁷ and said, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!"

³⁸ An inscription was above him: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

³⁹ Then one of the criminals hanging there began to yell insults at him: "Aren't you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!"

⁴⁰ But the other answered, rebuking him: "Don't you even fear God, since you are undergoing the same punishment? ⁴¹ We are punished justly, because we're getting back what we deserve for the things we did, but this man has done nothing wrong." ⁴² Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

⁴³ And he said to him, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise."

⁴⁴ It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three, ⁴⁵ because the sun's light failed. The curtain of the sanctuary was split down the middle. ⁴⁶ And Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit." Saying this, he breathed his last.

⁴⁷ When the centurion saw what happened, he began to glorify God, saying, "This man really was righteous!"

⁴⁸ All the crowds that had gathered for this spectacle, when they saw what had taken place, went home, striking their chests. ⁴⁹ But all who knew him, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

⁵⁰ There was a good and righteous man named Joseph, a member of the Sanhedrin, ⁵¹ who had not agreed with their plan and action. He was from Arimathea, a Judean town, and was looking forward to the kingdom of God. ⁵² He approached Pilate and asked for Jesus's body. ⁵³ Taking it down, he wrapped it in fine linen and placed it in a tomb cut into the rock, where no one had ever been placed. ⁵⁴ It was the preparation day, and the Sabbath was about to begin. ⁵⁵ The women who had come with him from Galilee followed along and observed the tomb and how his body was placed. ⁵⁶ Then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes. And they rested on the Sabbath according to the commandment.

24 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices they had prepared. ² They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. ³ They went in but did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴ While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men stood by them in dazzling clothes. ⁵ So the women were terrified and bowed down to the ground.

"Why are you looking for the living among the dead?" asked the men. ⁶ "He is not here, but he has risen! Remember how he spoke to you when he was still in Galilee," saying, "It is necessary that the Son of Man be betrayed into the hands of sinful men, be crucified, and rise on the third day?" ⁸ And they remembered his words.

⁹ Returning from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the rest. ¹⁰ Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them were telling the apostles these things. ¹¹ But these words seemed like nonsense to them, and they did not believe the women. ¹² Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. When he stooped to look in, he saw only the linen cloths. So he went away, amazed at what had happened.

¹³ Now that same day two of them were on their way to a village called Emmaus, which was about seven miles from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ Together they were discussing everything that had taken place. ¹⁵ And while they were discussing and arguing, Jesus himself came near and began to walk along with them. ¹⁶ But they were prevented from recognizing him. ¹⁷ Then he asked them, "What is this dispute that you're having with each other as you are walking?" And they stopped walking and looked discouraged.

¹⁸ The one named Cleopas answered him, "Are you the only visitor in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things that happened there in these days?"

¹⁹ "What things?" he asked them.

So they said to him, "The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet powerful in action and speech before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him. ²¹ But we were hoping that he was the one who was about to redeem Israel. Besides all this, it's the third day since these things happened. ²² Moreover, some women from our group astounded us. They arrived early at the tomb, ²³ and when they didn't find his body, they came and reported that they had seen a vision of angels who said he was alive. ²⁴ Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they didn't see him."

²⁵ He said to them, "How foolish you are, and slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶ Wasn't it necessary for the Messiah to suffer these things and enter into his glory?"²⁷ Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted for them the things concerning himself in all the Scriptures.

²⁸ They came near the village where they were going, and he gave the impression that he was going farther. ²⁹ But they urged him, "Stay with us, because it's almost evening, and now the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.

³⁰ It was as he reclined at the table with them that he took the bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, but he disappeared from their sight. ³² They said to each other, "Weren't our hearts burning within us while he was talking with us on the road and explaining the Scriptures to us?" ³³ That very hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem. They found the Eleven and those with them gathered together, ³⁴ who said, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵ Then they began to describe what had happened on the road and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

³⁶ As they were saying these things, he himself stood in their midst. He said to them, "Peace to you!" ³⁷ But they were startled and terrified and thought they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸ "Why are you troubled?" he asked them. "And

why do doubts arise in your hearts?" ³⁹ Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself! Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." ⁴⁰ Having said this, he showed them his hands and feet. ⁴¹ But while they still were amazed and in disbelief because of their joy, he asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" ⁴² So they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, ⁴³ and he took it and ate in their presence.

⁴⁴ He told them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you — that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms must be fulfilled." ⁴⁵ Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. ⁴⁶ He also said to them, "This is what is written: The Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead the third day, ⁴⁷ and repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹ And look, I am sending you what my Father promised. As for you, stay in the city until you are empowered from on high."

⁵⁰ Then he led them out to the vicinity of Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. ⁵¹ And while he was blessing them, he left them and was carried up into heaven. ⁵² After worshiping him, they returned to Jerusalem with great joy. ⁵³ And they were continually in the temple praising God.

JOHN

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was with God in the beginning. ³ All things were created through him, and apart from him not one thing was created that has been created. ⁴ In him was life, and that life was the light of men. ⁵ That light shines in the darkness, and yet the darkness did not overcome it.

⁶ There was a man sent from God whose name was John. ⁷ He came as a witness to testify about the light, so that all might believe through him. ⁸ He was not the light, but he came to testify about the light. ⁹ The true light that gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

¹⁰ He was in the world, and the world was created through him, and yet the world did not recognize him. ¹¹ He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. ¹² But to all who did receive him, he gave them the right to be children of God, to those who believe in his name, ¹³ who were born, not of natural descent, or of the will of the flesh, or of the will of man, but of God.

¹⁴ The Word became flesh and dwelt among us. We observed his glory, the glory as the one and only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. ¹⁵ (John testified concerning him and exclaimed, "This was the one of whom I said, 'The one coming after me ranks ahead of me, because he existed before me.'") ¹⁶ Indeed, we have all received grace upon grace from his fullness, ¹⁷ for the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ No one has ever seen God. The one and only Son, who is himself God and is at the Father's side — he has revealed him.

¹⁹ This was John's testimony when the Jews from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him, "Who are you?" ²⁰ He didn't deny it but confessed: "I am not the Messiah."

²¹ "What then?" they asked him. "Are you Elijah?"

"I am not," he said.

"Are you the Prophet?"

"No," he answered.

²² "Who are you, then?" they asked. "We need to give an answer to those who sent us. What can you tell us about yourself?"

²³ He said, "I am a voice of one crying out in the wilderness: Make straight the way of the Lord — just as Isaiah the prophet said."

²⁴ Now they had been sent from the Pharisees. ²⁵ So they asked him, "Why then do you baptize if you aren't the Messiah, or Elijah, or the Prophet?"

²⁶ "I baptize with water," John answered them. "Someone stands among you, but you don't know him. ²⁷ He is the one coming after me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to untie." ²⁸ All this happened in Bethany across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

²⁹ The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Here is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" ³⁰ This is the one I told you about: 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me, because he existed before me.' ³¹ I didn't know him, but I came baptizing with water so he might be revealed to Israel." ³² And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and he rested on him. ³³ I didn't know him, but he who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'The one you see the Spirit descending and resting on — he is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' ³⁴ I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God."

³⁵ The next day, John was standing with two of his disciples. ³⁶ When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, "Look, the Lamb of God!"

³⁷ The two disciples heard him say this and followed Jesus. ³⁸ When Jesus turned and noticed them following him, he asked them, "What are you looking for?"

They said to him, "Rabbi" (which means "Teacher"), "where are you staying?"

³⁹ "Come and you'll see," he replied. So they went and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about four in the afternoon.

⁴⁰ Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard John and followed him. ⁴¹ He first found his own brother Simon and told him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated "the Christ"), ⁴² and he brought Simon to Jesus.

When Jesus saw him, he said, "You are Simon, son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which is translated "Peter").

⁴³ The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. He found Philip and told him, "Follow me."

⁴⁴ Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the hometown of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the law (and so did the prophets): Jesus the son of Joseph, from Nazareth."

⁴⁶ "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Nathanael asked him.

"Come and see," Philip answered.

⁴⁷ Then Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said about him, "Here truly is an Israelite in whom there is no deceit."

⁴⁸ "How do you know me?" Nathanael asked.

"Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you," Jesus answered.

⁴⁹ "Rabbi," Nathanael replied, "You are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel!"

⁵⁰ Jesus responded to him, "Do you believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than this." ⁵¹ Then he said, "Truly I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

2 On the third day a wedding took place in Cana of Galilee. Jesus's mother was there, and ² Jesus and his disciples were invited to the wedding as well. ³ When the wine ran out, Jesus's mother told him, "They don't have any wine."

⁴ "What does that have to do with you and me, woman?" Jesus asked. "My hour has not yet come."

⁵ "Do whatever he tells you," his mother told the servants.

⁶ Now six stone water jars had been set there for Jewish purification. Each contained twenty or thirty gallons.

⁷ "Fill the jars with water," Jesus told them. So they filled them to the brim. ⁸ Then he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the headwaiter." And they did.

⁹ When the headwaiter tasted the water (after it had become wine), he did not know where it came from — though the servants who had drawn the water knew. He called the groom¹⁰ and told him, "Everyone sets out the fine wine first, then, after people are drunk, the inferior. But you have kept the fine wine until now."

¹¹ Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee. He revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

¹² After this, he went down to Capernaum, together with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples, and they stayed there only a few days.

¹³ The Jewish Passover was near, and so Jesus went up to Jerusalem.¹⁴ In the temple he found people selling oxen, sheep, and doves, and he also found the money changers sitting there.¹⁵ After making a whip out of cords, he drove everyone out of the temple with their sheep and oxen. He also poured out the money changers' coins and overturned the tables.¹⁶ He told those who were selling doves, "Get these things out of here! Stop turning my Father's house into a marketplace!"

¹⁷ And his disciples remembered that it is written: Zeal for your house will consume me.

¹⁸ So the Jews replied to him, "What sign will you show us for doing these things?"

¹⁹ Jesus answered, "Destroy this temple, and I will raise it up in three days."

²⁰ Therefore the Jews said, "This temple took forty-six years to build, and will you raise it up in three days?"

²¹ But he was speaking about the temple of his body.

²² So when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the statement Jesus had made.

²³ While he was in Jerusalem during the Passover Festival, many believed in his name when they saw the signs he was doing.²⁴ Jesus, however, would not entrust himself to them, since he knew them all²⁵ and because he did not need anyone to testify about man; for he himself knew what was in man.

3 There was a man from the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.² This man came to him at night and said, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God, for no one could perform these signs you do unless God were with him."

³ Jesus replied, "Truly I tell you, unless someone is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

⁴ "How can anyone be born when he is old?" Nicodemus asked him. "Can he enter his mother's womb a second time and be born?"

⁵ Jesus answered, "Truly I tell you, unless someone is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.⁶ Whatever is born of the flesh is flesh, and whatever is born of the Spirit is spirit.⁷ Do not be amazed that I told you that you must be born again.⁸ The wind blows where it pleases, and you hear its sound, but you don't know where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

⁹ "How can these things be?" asked Nicodemus.

¹⁰ "Are you a teacher of Israel and don't know these things?" Jesus replied. ¹¹ "Truly I tell you, we speak what we know and we testify to what we have seen, but you do not accept our testimony.¹² If I have told you about earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you about heavenly things?"¹³ No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven — the Son of Man.

¹⁴ "Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up,¹⁵ so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.¹⁶ For God loved the world in this way: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.¹⁷ For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.¹⁸ Anyone who believes in him is not condemned, but anyone who does not believe is already condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God.¹⁹ This is the judgment: The light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil.²⁰ For everyone who does evil hates the light and avoids it, so that his deeds may not be exposed.²¹ But anyone who lives by the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be shown to be accomplished by God."

²² After this, Jesus and his disciples went to the Judean countryside, where he spent time with them and baptized.

²³ John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water there. People were coming and being baptized,²⁴ since John had not yet been thrown into prison.

²⁵ Then a dispute arose between John's disciples and a Jew about purification.²⁶ So they came to John and told him, "Rabbi, the one you testified about, and who was with you across the Jordan, is baptizing — and everyone is going to him."

²⁷ John responded, "No one can receive anything unless it has been given to him from heaven.²⁸ You yourselves can testify that I said, 'I am not the Messiah, but I've been sent ahead of him.'²⁹ He who has the bride is the groom. But the groom's friend, who stands by and listens for him, rejoices greatly at the groom's voice. So this joy of mine is complete.³⁰ He must increase, but I must decrease."

³¹ The one who comes from above is above all. The one who is from the earth is earthly and speaks in earthly terms. The one who comes from heaven is above all.³² He testifies to what he has seen and heard, and yet no one accepts his testimony.³³ The one who has accepted his testimony has affirmed that God is true.³⁴ For the one whom God sent speaks God's words, since he gives the Spirit without measure.³⁵ The Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hands.³⁶ The one who believes in the Son has eternal life, but the one who rejects the Son will not see life; instead, the wrath of God remains on him.

4 When Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard he was making and baptizing more disciples than John² (though Jesus himself was not baptizing, but his disciples were),³ he left Judea and went again to Galilee.⁴ He had to travel through Samaria;⁵ so he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar near the property that Jacob had given his son Joseph.⁶ Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, worn out from his journey, sat down at the well. It was about noon.

⁷ A woman of Samaria came to draw water.

"Give me a drink," Jesus said to her,⁸ because his disciples had gone into town to buy food.

⁹ "How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" she asked him. For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.

¹⁰ Jesus answered, "If you knew the gift of God, and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would ask him, and he would give you living water."

¹¹ "Sir," said the woman, "you don't even have a bucket, and the well is deep. So where do you get this 'living water'?"¹² You aren't greater than our father Jacob, are you? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and livestock."

¹³ Jesus said, "Everyone who drinks from this water will get thirsty again. ¹⁴ But whoever drinks from the water that I will give him will never get thirsty again. In fact, the water I will give him will become a well of water springing up in him for eternal life."

¹⁵ "Sir," the woman said to him, "give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and come here to draw water."

¹⁶ "Go call your husband," he told her, "and come back here."

¹⁷ "I don't have a husband," she answered.

"You have correctly said, 'I don't have a husband,'" Jesus said. ¹⁸ "For you've had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true."

¹⁹ "Sir," the woman replied, "I see that you are a prophet."

²⁰ Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem."

²¹ Jesus told her, "Believe me, woman, an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²² You Samaritans worship what you do not know. We worship what we do know, because salvation is from the Jews. ²³ But an hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and in truth. Yes, the Father wants such people to worship him. ²⁴ God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and in truth."

²⁵ The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will explain everything to us."

²⁶ Jesus told her, "I, the one speaking to you, am he."

²⁷ Just then his disciples arrived, and they were amazed that he was talking with a woman. Yet no one said, "What do you want?" or "Why are you talking with her?"

²⁸ Then the woman left her water jar, went into town, and told the people. ²⁹ "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Messiah?" ³⁰ They left the town and made their way to him.

³¹ In the meantime the disciples kept urging him, "Rabbi, eat something."

³² But he said, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."

³³ The disciples said to one another, "Could someone have brought him something to eat?"

³⁴ "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work," Jesus told them. ³⁵ "Don't you say, 'There are still four more months, and then comes the harvest'? Listen to what I'm telling you: Open your eyes and look at the fields, because they are ready for harvest. ³⁶ The reaper is already receiving pay and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper can rejoice together. ³⁷ For in this case the saying is true: 'One sows and another reaps.' ³⁸ I sent you to reap what you didn't labor for; others have labored, and you have benefited from their labor."

³⁹ Now many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of what the woman said when she testified, "He told me everything I ever did." ⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days. ⁴¹ Many more believed because of what he said. ⁴² And they told the woman, "We no longer believe because of what you said, since we have heard for ourselves and know that this really is the Savior of the world."

⁴³ After two days he left there for Galilee. ⁴⁴ (Jesus himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.) ⁴⁵ When they entered Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him because they had seen everything he did in Jerusalem during the festival. For they also had gone to the festival.

⁴⁶ He went again to Cana of Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine. There was a certain royal official whose son was ill at Capernaum. ⁴⁷ When this man heard that Jesus had come from Judea into Galilee, he went to him and pleaded with him to come down and heal his son, since he was about to die.

⁴⁸ Jesus told him, "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will not believe."

⁴⁹ "Sir," the official said to him, "come down before my boy dies."

⁵⁰ "Go," Jesus told him, "your son will live." The man believed what Jesus said to him and departed.

⁵¹ While he was still going down, his servants met him saying that his boy was alive. ⁵² He asked them at what time he got better. "Yesterday at one in the afternoon the fever left him," they answered. ⁵³ The father realized this was the very hour at which Jesus had told him, "Your son will live." So he himself believed, along with his whole household.

⁵⁴ Now this was also the second sign Jesus performed after he came from Judea to Galilee.

5 After this, a Jewish festival took place, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ² By the Sheep Gate in Jerusalem there is a pool, called Bethesda in Aramaic, which has five colonnades. ³ Within these lay a large number of the disabled — blind, lame, and paralyzed.

⁵ One man was there who had been disabled for thirty-eight years. ⁶ When Jesus saw him lying there and realized he had already been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to get well?"

⁷ "Sir," the disabled man answered, "I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, someone goes down ahead of me."

⁸ "Get up," Jesus told him, "pick up your mat and walk."

⁹ Instantly the man got well, picked up his mat, and started to walk.

Now that day was the Sabbath, ¹⁰ and so the Jews said to the man who had been healed, "This is the Sabbath. The law prohibits you from picking up your mat."

¹¹ He replied, "The man who made me well told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"

¹² "Who is this man who told you, 'Pick up your mat and walk'?" they asked. ¹³ But the man who was healed did not know who it was, because Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was there.

¹⁴ After this, Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, "See, you are well. Do not sin anymore, so that something worse doesn't happen to you." ¹⁵ The man went and reported to the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. ¹⁶ Therefore, the Jews began persecuting Jesus because he was doing these things on the Sabbath.

¹⁷ Jesus responded to them, "My Father is still working, and I am working also." ¹⁸ This is why the Jews began trying all the more to kill him: Not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal to God.

¹⁹ Jesus replied, "Truly I tell you, the Son is not able to do anything on his own, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, the Son likewise does these things. ²⁰ For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything he is doing, and he will show him greater works than these so that you will be amazed. ²¹ And just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son also gives life to whom he wants. ²² The Father, in fact, judges no one but has given all judgment to the Son, ²³ so that all people may honor the Son just as they honor the Father.

Anyone who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

²⁴ "Truly I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not come under judgment but has passed from death to life.

²⁵ "Truly I tell you, an hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. ²⁶ For just as the Father has life in himself, so also he has granted to the Son to have life in himself. ²⁷ And he has granted him the right to pass judgment, because he is the Son of Man. ²⁸ Do not be amazed at this, because a time is coming when all who are in the graves will hear his voice ²⁹ and come out — those who have done good things, to the resurrection of life, but those who have done wicked things, to the resurrection of condemnation.

³⁰ "I can do nothing on my own. I judge only as I hear, and my judgment is just, because I do not seek my own will, but the will of him who sent me.

³² There is another who testifies about me, and I know that the testimony he gives about me is true. ³³ You sent messengers to John, and he testified to the truth. ³⁴ I don't receive human testimony, but I say these things so that you may be saved. ³⁵ John was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light.

³⁶ "But I have a greater testimony than John's because of the works that the Father has given me to accomplish. These very works I am doing testify about me that the Father has sent me. ³⁷ The Father who sent me has himself testified about me. You have not heard his voice at any time, and you haven't seen his form. ³⁸ You don't have his word residing in you, because you don't believe the one he sent. ³⁹ You pore over the Scriptures because you think you have eternal life in them, and yet they testify about me. ⁴⁰ But you are not willing to come to me so that you may have life.

⁴¹ "I do not accept glory from people, ⁴² but I know you — that you have no love for God within you. ⁴³ I have come in my Father's name, and yet you don't accept me. If someone else comes in his own name, you will accept him. ⁴⁴ How can you believe, since you accept glory from one another but don't seek the glory that comes from the only God? ⁴⁵ Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. Your accuser is Moses, on whom you have set your hope. ⁴⁶ For if you believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me. ⁴⁷ But if you don't believe what he wrote, how will you believe my words?"

6 After this, Jesus crossed the Sea of Galilee (or Tiberias). ² A huge crowd was following him because they saw the signs that he was performing by healing the sick. ³ Jesus went up a mountain and sat down there with his disciples.

⁴ Now the Passover, a Jewish festival, was near. ⁵ So when Jesus looked up and noticed a huge crowd coming toward him, he asked Philip, "Where will we buy bread so that these people can eat?" ⁶ He asked this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do.

⁷ Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread wouldn't be enough for each of them to have a little."

⁸ One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, ⁹ "There's a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish — but what are they for so many?"

¹⁰ Jesus said, "Have the people sit down."

There was plenty of grass in that place; so they sat down. The men numbered about five thousand. ¹¹ Then Jesus took the loaves, and after giving thanks he distributed them to those who were seated — so also with the fish, as much as they wanted.

¹² When they were full, he told his disciples, "Collect the leftovers so that nothing is wasted." ¹³ So they collected them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces from the five barley loaves that were left over by those who had eaten.

¹⁴ When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This truly is the Prophet who is to come into the world."

¹⁵ Therefore, when Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

¹⁶ When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷ got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. Darkness had already set in, but Jesus had not yet come to them. ¹⁸ A high wind arose, and the sea began to churn. ¹⁹ After they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea. He was coming near the boat, and they were afraid. ²⁰ But he said to them, "It is I. Don't be afraid." ²¹ Then they were willing to take him on board, and at once the boat was at the shore where they were heading.

²² The next day, the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea saw there had been only one boat. They also saw that Jesus had not boarded the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone off alone. ²³ Some boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. ²⁴ When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus. ²⁵ When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

²⁶ Jesus answered, "Truly I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate the loaves and were filled. ²⁷ Don't work for the food that perishes but for the food that lasts for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you, because God the Father has set his seal of approval on him."

²⁸ "What can we do to perform the works of God?" they asked.

²⁹ Jesus replied, "This is the work of God — that you believe in the one he has sent."

³⁰ "What sign, then, are you going to do so we may see and believe you?" they asked. "What are you going to perform?" ³¹ Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, just as it is written: He gave them bread from heaven to eat."

³² Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, Moses didn't give you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³ For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

³⁴ Then they said, "Sir, give us this bread always."

³⁵ "I am the bread of life," Jesus told them. "No one who comes to me will ever be hungry, and no one who believes in me will ever be thirsty again. ³⁶ But as I told you, you've seen me, and yet you do not believe. ³⁷ Everyone the Father gives me will come to me, and the one who comes to me I will never cast out. ³⁸ For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. ³⁹ This is the will of him who sent me: that I should lose none of those he has given me but should raise them up on the last day. ⁴⁰ For this is the will of my Father: that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him will have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day."

⁴¹ Therefore the Jews started complaining about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven.”⁴² They were saying, “Isn’t this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?”

⁴³ Jesus answered them, “Stop complaining among yourselves. ⁴⁴No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up on the last day. ⁴⁵It is written in the Prophets: And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has listened to and learned from the Father comes to me — ⁴⁶not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God. He has seen the Father.

⁴⁷Truly I tell you, anyone who believes has eternal life. ⁴⁸I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. ⁵⁰This is the bread that comes down from heaven so that anyone may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread he will live forever. The bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

⁵²At that, the Jews argued among themselves, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

⁵³So Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life in yourselves. ⁵⁴The one who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day, ⁵⁵because my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. ⁵⁶The one who eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. ⁵⁷Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. ⁵⁸This is the bread that came down from heaven; it is not like the manna your ancestors ate — and they died. The one who eats this bread will live forever.”

⁵⁹He said these things while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

⁶⁰Therefore, when many of his disciples heard this, they said, “This teaching is hard. Who can accept it?”

⁶¹Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were complaining about this, asked them, “Does this offend you? ⁶²Then what if you were to observe the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? ⁶³The Spirit is the one who gives life. The flesh doesn’t help at all. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life. ⁶⁴But there are some among you who don’t believe.” (For Jesus knew from the beginning those who did not believe and the one who would betray him.) ⁶⁵He said, “This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted to him by the Father.”

⁶⁶From that moment many of his disciples turned back and no longer accompanied him. ⁶⁷So Jesus said to the Twelve, “You don’t want to go away too, do you?”

⁶⁸Simon Peter answered, “Lord, to whom will we go? You have the words of eternal life. ⁶⁹We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.”

⁷⁰Jesus replied to them, “Didn’t I choose you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil.”⁷¹ He was referring to Judas, Simon Iscariot’s son, one of the Twelve, because he was going to betray him.

7 After this, Jesus traveled in Galilee, since he did not want to travel in Judea because the Jews were trying to kill him. ²The Jewish Festival of Shelters was near. ³So his brothers said to him, “Leave here and go to Judea so your disciples can see your works that you are doing. ⁴For no one does anything in secret while he’s seeking public recognition. If you do these things, show yourself to the world.” ⁵(For not even his brothers believed in him.)

⁶Jesus told them, “My time has not yet arrived, but your time is always at hand. ⁷The world cannot hate you, but it does hate me because I testify about it — that its works are evil. ⁸Go up to the festival yourselves. I’m not going up to this festival, because my time has not yet fully come.” ⁹After he had said these things, he stayed in Galilee.

¹⁰After his brothers had gone up to the festival, then he also went up, not openly but secretly. ¹¹The Jews were looking for him at the festival and saying, “Where is he?” ¹²And there was a lot of murmuring about him among the crowds. Some were saying, “He’s a good man.” Others were saying, “No, on the contrary, he’s deceiving the people.” ¹³Still, nobody was talking publicly about him for fear of the Jews.

¹⁴When the festival was already half over, Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach. ¹⁵Then the Jews were amazed and said, “How is this man so learned, since he hasn’t been trained?”

¹⁶Jesus answered them, “My teaching isn’t mine but is from the one who sent me. ¹⁷If anyone wants to do his will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own. ¹⁸The one who speaks on his own seeks his own glory; but he who seeks the glory of the one who sent him is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him. ¹⁹Didn’t Moses give you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why are you trying to kill me?”

²⁰“You have a demon!” the crowd responded. “Who is trying to kill you?”

²¹“I performed one work, and you are all amazed,” Jesus answered. ²²“This is why Moses has given you circumcision — not that it comes from Moses but from the fathers — and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. ²³If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses won’t be broken, are you angry at me because I made a man entirely well on the Sabbath? ²⁴Stop judging according to outward appearances; rather judge according to righteous judgment.”

²⁵Some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill? ²⁶Yet, look, he’s speaking publicly and they’re saying nothing to him. Can it be true that the authorities know he is the Messiah? ²⁷But we know where this man is from. When the Messiah comes, nobody will know where he is from.”

²⁸As he was teaching in the temple, Jesus cried out, “You know me and you know where I am from. Yet I have not come on my own, but the one who sent me is true. You don’t know him; ²⁹I know him because I am from him, and he sent me.”

³⁰Then they tried to seize him. Yet no one laid a hand on him because his hour had not yet come. ³¹However, many from the crowd believed in him and said, “When the Messiah comes, he won’t perform more signs than this man has done, will he?” ³²The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about him, and so the chief priests and the Pharisees sent servants to arrest him.

³³Then Jesus said, “I am only with you for a short time. Then I’m going to the one who sent me. ³⁴You will look for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come.”

³⁵Then the Jews said to one another, “Where does he intend to go so we won’t find him? He doesn’t intend to go to the Jewish people dispersed among the Greeks and teach the Greeks, does he? ³⁶What is this remark he made: ‘You will look for me, and you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come’?”

³⁷ On the last and most important day of the festival, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. ³⁸ The one who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, will have streams of living water flow from deep within him." ³⁹ He said this about the Spirit. Those who believed in Jesus were going to receive the Spirit, for the Spirit had not yet been given because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

⁴⁰ When some from the crowd heard these words, they said, "This truly is the Prophet." ⁴¹ Others said, "This is the Messiah." But some said, "Surely the Messiah doesn't come from Galilee, does he?" ⁴² Doesn't the Scripture say that the Messiah comes from David's offspring and from the town of Bethlehem, where David lived?" ⁴³ So the crowd was divided because of him. ⁴⁴ Some of them wanted to seize him, but no one laid hands on him.

⁴⁵ Then the servants came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why didn't you bring him?"

⁴⁶ The servants answered, "No man ever spoke like this!"

⁴⁷ Then the Pharisees responded to them: "Are you fooled too?" ⁴⁸ Have any of the rulers or Pharisees believed in him?

⁴⁹ But this crowd, which doesn't know the law, is accursed."

⁵⁰ Nicodemus — the one who came to him previously and who was one of them — said to them, ⁵¹ "Our law doesn't judge a man before it hears from him and knows what he's doing, does it?"

⁵² "You aren't from Galilee too, are you?" they replied. "Investigate and you will see that no prophet arises from Galilee."

[The earliest mss do not include 7:53–8:11.]

8 ⁵³ Then each one went to his house. ¹ But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

² At dawn he went to the temple again, and all the people were coming to him. He sat down and began to teach them.

³ Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery, making her stand in the center. ⁴ "Teacher," they said to him, "this woman was caught in the act of committing adultery. ⁵ In the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" ⁶ They asked this to trap him, in order that they might have evidence to accuse him.

Jesus stooped down and started writing on the ground with his finger. ⁷ When they persisted in questioning him, he stood up and said to them, "The one without sin among you should be the first to throw a stone at her." ⁸ Then he stooped down again and continued writing on the ground. ⁹ When they heard this, they left one by one, starting with the older men. Only he was left, with the woman in the center. ¹⁰ When Jesus stood up, he said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?"

¹¹ "No one, Lord," she answered.

"Neither do I condemn you," said Jesus. "Go, and from now on do not sin anymore."

¹² Jesus spoke to them again: "I am the light of the world. Anyone who follows me will never walk in the darkness but will have the light of life."

¹³ So the Pharisees said to him, "You are testifying about yourself. Your testimony is not valid."

¹⁴ "Even if I testify about myself," Jesus replied, "My testimony is true, because I know where I came from and where I'm going. But you don't know where I come from or where I'm going. ¹⁵ You judge by human standards. I judge no one. ¹⁶ And if I do judge, my judgment is true, because it is not I alone who judge, but I and the Father who sent me. ¹⁷ Even in your law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is true. ¹⁸ I am the one who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me."

¹⁹ Then they asked him, "Where is your Father?"

"You know neither me nor my Father," Jesus answered. "If you knew me, you would also know my Father." ²⁰ He spoke these words by the treasury, while teaching in the temple. But no one seized him, because his hour had not yet come.

²¹ Then he said to them again, "I'm going away; you will look for me, and you will die in your sin. Where I'm going, you cannot come."

²² So the Jews said again, "He won't kill himself, will he, since he says, 'Where I'm going, you cannot come'?"

²³ "You are from below," he told them, "I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. ²⁴ Therefore I told you that you will die in your sins. For if you do not believe that I am he, you will die in your sins."

²⁵ "Who are you?" they questioned.

"Exactly what I've been telling you from the very beginning," Jesus told them. ²⁶ "I have many things to say and to judge about you, but the one who sent me is true, and what I have heard from him — these things I tell the world."

²⁷ They did not know he was speaking to them about the Father. ²⁸ So Jesus said to them, "When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own. But just as the Father taught me, I say these things. ²⁹ The one who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, because I always do what pleases him."

³⁰ As he was saying these things, many believed in him.

³¹ Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed him, "If you continue in my word, you really are my disciples. ³² You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

³³ "We are descendants of Abraham," they answered him, "and we have never been enslaved to anyone. How can you say, 'You will become free'?"

³⁴ Jesus responded, "Truly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave of sin. ³⁵ A slave does not remain in the household forever, but a son does remain forever. ³⁶ So if the Son sets you free, you really will be free. ³⁷ I know you are descendants of Abraham, but you are trying to kill me because my word has no place among you. ³⁸ I speak what I have seen in the presence of the Father; so then, you do what you have heard from your father."

³⁹ "Our father is Abraham," they replied.

"If you were Abraham's children," Jesus told them, "you would do what Abraham did. ⁴⁰ But now you are trying to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. ⁴¹ You're doing what your father does."

"We weren't born of sexual immorality," they said. "We have one Father — God."

⁴² Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, because I came from God and I am here. For I didn't come on my own, but he sent me. ⁴³ Why don't you understand what I say? Because you cannot listen to my word. ⁴⁴ You are of your father the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he tells a lie, he speaks from his own nature, because he is a liar and the father of lies. ⁴⁵ Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. ⁴⁶ Who among you can convict me of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe me?⁴⁷ The one who is from God listens to God's words. This is why you don't listen, because you are not from God."

⁴⁸The Jews responded to him, "Aren't you right in saying that you're a Samaritan and have a demon?"

⁴⁹"I do not have a demon," Jesus answered. "On the contrary, I honor my Father and you dishonor me.⁵⁰ I do not seek my own glory; there is one who seeks it and judges.⁵¹ Truly I tell you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death."

⁵²Then the Jews said, "Now we know you have a demon. Abraham died and so did the prophets. You say, 'If anyone keeps my word, he will never taste death.'⁵³ Are you greater than our father Abraham who died? And the prophets died. Who do you claim to be?"

⁵⁴"If I glorify myself," Jesus answered, "my glory is nothing. My Father — about whom you say, 'He is our God' — he is the one who glorifies me.⁵⁵ You do not know him, but I know him. If I were to say I don't know him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know him, and I keep his word.⁵⁶ Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; he saw it and was glad."

⁵⁷The Jews replied, "You aren't fifty years old yet, and you've seen Abraham?"

⁵⁸Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, before Abraham was, I am."

⁵⁹So they picked up stones to throw at him. But Jesus was hidden and went out of the temple.

9 As he was passing by, he saw a man blind from birth.² His disciples asked him: "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

³"Neither this man nor his parents sinned," Jesus answered. "This came about so that God's works might be displayed in him.⁴ We must do the works of him who sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work.⁵ As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

⁶After he said these things he spit on the ground, made some mud from the saliva, and spread the mud on his eyes.⁷ "Go," he told him, "wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So he left, washed, and came back seeing.

⁸His neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar said, "Isn't this the one who used to sit begging?"⁹ Some said, "He's the one." Others were saying, "No, but he looks like him."

He kept saying, "I'm the one."

¹⁰So they asked him, "Then how were your eyes opened?"

¹¹He answered, "The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and told me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So when I went and washed I received my sight."

¹²"Where is he?" they asked.

"I don't know," he said.

¹³They brought the man who used to be blind to the Pharisees.¹⁴ The day that Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes was a Sabbath.¹⁵ Then the Pharisees asked him again how he received his sight.

"He put mud on my eyes," he told them. "I washed and I can see."

¹⁶Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he doesn't keep the Sabbath." But others were saying, "How can a sinful man perform such signs?" And there was a division among them.

¹⁷Again they asked the blind man, "What do you say about him, since he opened your eyes?"

"He's a prophet," he said.

¹⁸The Jews did not believe this about him — that he was blind and received sight — until they summoned the parents of the one who had received his sight.

¹⁹They asked them, "Is this your son, the one you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

²⁰"We know this is our son and that he was born blind," his parents answered.²¹ "But we don't know how he now sees, and we don't know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he's of age. He will speak for himself."²² His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jews, since the Jews had already agreed that if anyone confessed him as the Messiah, he would be banned from the synagogue.²³ This is why his parents said, "He's of age; ask him."

²⁴So a second time they summoned the man who had been blind and told him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."

²⁵He answered, "Whether or not he's a sinner, I don't know. One thing I do know: I was blind, and now I can see!"

²⁶Then they asked him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

²⁷"I already told you," he said, "and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don't want to become his disciples too, do you?"

²⁸They ridiculed him: "You're that man's disciple, but we're Moses's disciples.²⁹ We know that God has spoken to Moses. But this man — we don't know where he's from."

³⁰"This is an amazing thing!" the man told them. "You don't know where he is from, and yet he opened my eyes.³¹ We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is God-fearing and does his will, he listens to him.³² Throughout history no one has ever heard of someone opening the eyes of a person born blind.³³ If this man were not from God, he wouldn't be able to do anything."

³⁴"You were born entirely in sin," they replied, "and are you trying to teach us?" Then they threw him out.

³⁵Jesus heard that they had thrown the man out, and when he found him, he asked, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

³⁶"Who is he, Sir, that I may believe in him?" he asked.

³⁷Jesus answered, "You have seen him; in fact, he is the one speaking with you."

³⁸"I believe, Lord!" he said, and he worshiped him.

³⁹Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, in order that those who do not see will see and those who do see will become blind."

⁴⁰Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things and asked him, "We aren't blind too, are we?"

⁴¹"If you were blind," Jesus told them, "you wouldn't have sin. But now that you say, 'We see,' your sin remains.

10 "Truly I tell you, anyone who doesn't enter the sheep pen by the gate but climbs in some other way is a thief and a robber.² The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep.³ The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.⁴ When he has brought all his own outside, he goes ahead of them. The sheep follow him because they know his voice.⁵ They will never follow a stranger; instead they will run away from him, because they don't know the voice of strangers."⁶ Jesus gave them this figure of speech, but they did not understand what he was telling them.

⁷Jesus said again, "Truly I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep.⁸ All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them.⁹ I am the gate. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture.¹⁰ A thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I have come so that they may have life and have it in abundance.

¹¹“I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.¹² The hired hand, since he is not the shepherd and doesn’t own the sheep, leaves them and runs away when he sees a wolf coming. The wolf then snatches and scatters them.¹³ This happens because he is a hired hand and doesn’t care about the sheep.

¹⁴“I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and my own know me,¹⁵ just as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I lay down my life for the sheep.¹⁶ But I have other sheep that are not from this sheep pen; I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. Then there will be one flock, one shepherd.¹⁷ This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life so that I may take it up again.¹⁸ No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have the right to lay it down, and I have the right to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.”

¹⁹ Again the Jews were divided because of these words.²⁰ Many of them were saying, “He has a demon and he’s crazy. Why do you listen to him?”²¹ Others were saying, “These aren’t the words of someone who is demon-possessed. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

²² Then the Festival of Dedication took place in Jerusalem, and it was winter.²³ Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon’s Colonnade.²⁴ The Jews surrounded him and asked, “How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

²⁵ “I did tell you and you don’t believe,” Jesus answered them. “The works that I do in my Father’s name testify about me.²⁶ But you don’t believe because you are not of my sheep.²⁷ My sheep hear my voice, I know them, and they follow me.²⁸ I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand.²⁹ My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand.³⁰ I and the Father are one.”

³¹ Again the Jews picked up rocks to stone him.

³² Jesus replied, “I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these works are you stoning me?”

³³ “We aren’t stoning you for a good work,” the Jews answered, “but for blasphemy, because you — being a man — make yourself God.”

³⁴ Jesus answered them, “Isn’t it written in your law, I said, you are gods?³⁵ If he called those whom the word of God came to ‘gods’ — and the Scripture cannot be broken —³⁶ do you say, ‘You are blaspheming’ to the one the Father set apart and sent into the world, because I said: I am the Son of God?³⁷ If I am not doing my Father’s works, don’t believe me.³⁸ But if I am doing them and you don’t believe me, believe the works. This way you will know and understand that the Father is in me and I in the Father.”³⁹ Then they were trying again to seize him, but he eluded their grasp.

⁴⁰ So he departed again across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing earlier, and he remained there.⁴¹ Many came to him and said, “John never did a sign, but everything John said about this man was true.”⁴² And many believed in him there.

11 Now a man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.² Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair, and it was her brother Lazarus who was sick.³ So the sisters sent a message to him: “Lord, the one you love is sick.”

⁴ When Jesus heard it, he said, “This sickness will not end in death but is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.”⁵ Now Jesus loved Martha, her sister, and Lazarus.⁶ So when he heard that he was sick, he stayed two more days in the place where he was.⁷ Then after that, he said to the disciples, “Let’s go to Judea again.”

⁸ “Rabbi,” the disciples told him, “just now the Jews tried to stone you, and you’re going there again?”

⁹ “Aren’t there twelve hours in a day?” Jesus answered. “If anyone walks during the day, he doesn’t stumble, because he sees the light of this world.¹⁰ But if anyone walks during the night, he does stumble, because the light is not in him.”

¹¹ He said this, and then he told them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I’m on my way to wake him up.”

¹² Then the disciples said to him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will get well.”

¹³ Jesus, however, was speaking about his death, but they thought he was speaking about natural sleep.¹⁴ So Jesus then told them plainly, “Lazarus has died.¹⁵ I’m glad for you that I wasn’t there so that you may believe. But let’s go to him.”

¹⁶ Then Thomas (called “Twin”) said to his fellow disciples, “Let’s go too so that we may die with him.”

²⁰ As soon as Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him, but Mary remained seated in the house.²¹ Then Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother wouldn’t have died.²² Yet even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you.”

²³ “Your brother will rise again,” Jesus told her.

²⁴ Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

²⁵ Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me, even if he dies, will live.²⁶ Everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

²⁷ “Yes, Lord,” she told him, “I believe you are the Messiah, the Son of God, who comes into the world.”

²⁸ Having said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, saying in private, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.”

²⁹ As soon as Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.³⁰ Jesus had not yet come into the village but was still in the place where Martha had met him.³¹ The Jews who were with her in the house consoling her saw that Mary got up quickly and went out. They followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to cry there.

³² As soon as Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and told him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died!”

³³ When Jesus saw her crying, and the Jews who had come with her crying, he was deeply moved in his spirit and troubled.³⁴ “Where have you put him?” he asked.

“Lord,” they told him, “come and see.”

³⁵ Jesus wept.

³⁶ So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!”³⁷ But some of them said, “Couldn’t he who opened the blind man’s eyes also have kept this man from dying?”

³⁸ Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹ "Remove the stone," Jesus said.

Martha, the dead man's sister, told him, "Lord, there is already a stench because he has been dead four days."

⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?"

⁴¹ So they removed the stone. Then Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you heard me. ⁴² I know that you always hear me, but because of the crowd standing here I said this, so that they may believe you sent me."

⁴⁵ Therefore, many of the Jews who came to Mary and saw what he did believed in him. ⁴⁶ But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

⁴⁷ So the chief priests and the Pharisees convened the Sanhedrin and were saying, "What are we going to do since this man is doing many signs?" ⁴⁸ If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."

⁴⁹ One of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all! ⁵⁰ You're not considering that it is to your advantage that one man should die for the people rather than the whole nation perish." ⁵¹ He did not say this on his own, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation, ⁵² and not for the nation only, but also to unite the scattered children of God. ⁵³ So from that day on they plotted to kill him.

⁵⁴ Jesus therefore no longer walked openly among the Jews but departed from there to the countryside near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim, and he stayed there with the disciples.

⁵⁵ Now the Jewish Passover was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country to purify themselves before the Passover. ⁵⁶ They were looking for Jesus and asking one another as they stood in the temple: "What do you think? He won't come to the festival, will he?" ⁵⁷ The chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it so that they could arrest him.

12 Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany where Lazarus was, the one Jesus had raised from the dead. ² So they gave a dinner for him there; Martha was serving them, and Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with him. ³ Then Mary took a pound of perfume, pure and expensive nard, anointed Jesus's feet, and wiped his feet with her hair. So the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

⁴ Then one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot (who was about to betray him), said, ⁵ "Why wasn't this perfume sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" ⁶ He didn't say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief. He was in charge of the money-bag and would steal part of what was put in it.

⁷ Jesus answered, "Leave her alone; she has kept it for the day of my burial. ⁸ For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

⁹ Then a large crowd of the Jews learned he was there. They came not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, the one he had raised from the dead. ¹⁰ But the chief priests had decided to kill Lazarus also, ¹¹ because he was the reason many of the Jews were deserting them and believing in Jesus.

¹² The next day, when the large crowd that had come to the festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, ¹³ they took palm branches and went out to meet him. They kept shouting:

"Hosanna!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord — the King of Israel!"

¹⁴ Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, just as it is written:

15 Do not be afraid, Daughter Zion. Look, your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt.

¹⁶ His disciples did not understand these things at first. However, when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him.

¹⁷ Meanwhile, the crowd, which had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, continued to testify. ¹⁸ This is also why the crowd met him, because they heard he had done this sign. ¹⁹ Then the Pharisees said to one another, "You see? You've accomplished nothing. Look, the world has gone after him!"

²⁰ Now some Greeks were among those who went up to worship at the festival. ²¹ So they came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and requested of him, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." ²² Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

²³ Jesus replied to them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. ²⁴ Truly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains by itself. But if it dies, it produces much fruit. ²⁵ The one who loves his life will lose it, and the one who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. ²⁶ If anyone serves me, he must follow me. Where I am, there my servant also will be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

²⁷ "Now my soul is troubled. What should I say — Father, save me from this hour? But that is why I came to this hour. ²⁸ Father, glorify your name."

Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again."

²⁹ The crowd standing there heard it and said it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

³⁰ Jesus responded, "This voice came, not for me, but for you. ³¹ Now is the judgment of this world. Now the ruler of this world will be cast out. ³² As for me, if I am lifted up from the earth I will draw all people to myself." ³³ He said this to indicate what kind of death he was about to die.

³⁴ Then the crowd replied to him, "We have heard from the law that the Messiah will remain forever. So how can you say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"

³⁵ Jesus answered, "The light will be with you only a little longer. Walk while you have the light so that darkness doesn't overtake you. The one who walks in darkness doesn't know where he's going. ³⁶ While you have the light, believe in the light so that you may become children of light." Jesus said this, then went away and hid from them.

³⁷ Even though he had performed so many signs in their presence, they did not believe in him. ³⁸ This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet, who said:

Lord, who has believed our message?
And to whom has the arm of the Lord
been revealed?

³⁹This is why they were unable to believe, because Isaiah also said:

40 He has blinded their eyes
and hardened their hearts,
so that they would not see with their eyes
or understand with their hearts,
and turn,
and I would heal them.

⁴²Nevertheless, many did believe in him even among the rulers, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, so that they would not be banned from the synagogue. ⁴³For they loved human praise more than praise from God.

⁴⁴Jesus cried out, "The one who believes in me believes not in me, but in him who sent me. ⁴⁵And the one who sees me sees him who sent me. ⁴⁶I have come as light into the world, so that everyone who believes in me would not remain in darkness. ⁴⁷If anyone hears my words and doesn't keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. ⁴⁸The one who rejects me and doesn't receive my sayings has this as his judge: The word I have spoken will judge him on the last day. ⁴⁹For I have not spoken on my own, but the Father himself who sent me has given me a command to say everything I have said. ⁵⁰I know that his command is eternal life. So the things that I speak, I speak just as the Father has told me."

13 Before the Passover Festival, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

²Now when it was time for supper, the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas, Simon Iscariot's son, to betray him. ³Jesus knew that the Father had given everything into his hands, that he had come from God, and that he was going back to God. ⁴So he got up from supper, laid aside his outer clothing, took a towel, and tied it around himself. ⁵Next, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet and to dry them with the towel tied around him.

⁶He came to Simon Peter, who asked him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

⁷Jesus answered him, "What I'm doing you don't realize now, but afterward you will understand."

⁸"You will never wash my feet," Peter said.

Jesus replied, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me."

⁹Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not only my feet, but also my hands and my head."

¹⁰"One who has bathed," Jesus told him, "doesn't need to wash anything except his feet, but he is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you." ¹¹For he knew who would betray him. This is why he said, "Not all of you are clean."

¹²When Jesus had washed their feet and put on his outer clothing, he reclined again and said to them, "Do you know what I have done for you? ¹³You call me Teacher and Lord — and you are speaking rightly, since that is what I am. ¹⁴So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done for you.

¹⁸"I'm not speaking about all of you; I know those I have chosen. But the Scripture must be fulfilled: The one who eats my bread has raised his heel against me. ¹⁹I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe that I am he. ²⁰Truly I tell you, whoever receives anyone I send receives me, and the one who receives me receives him who sent me."

²¹When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in his spirit and testified, "Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me."

²²The disciples started looking at one another — uncertain which one he was speaking about. ²³One of his disciples, the one Jesus loved, was reclining close beside Jesus. ²⁴Simon Peter motioned to him to find out who it was he was talking about. ²⁵So he leaned back against Jesus and asked him, "Lord, who is it?"

²⁶Jesus replied, "He's the one I give the piece of bread to after I have dipped it." When he had dipped the bread, he gave it to Judas, Simon Iscariot's son. ²⁷After Judas ate the piece of bread, Satan entered him. So Jesus told him, "What you're doing, do quickly."

²⁸None of those reclining at the table knew why he said this to him. ²⁹Since Judas kept the money-bag, some thought that Jesus was telling him, "Buy what we need for the festival," or that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰After receiving the piece of bread, he immediately left. And it was night.

³¹When he had left, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in him. ³²If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. ³³Children, I am with you a little while longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so now I tell you: 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'

³⁴"I give you a new command: Love one another. Just as I have loved you, you are also to love one another. ³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

³⁶"Lord," Simon Peter said to him, "where are you going?"

Jesus answered, "Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but you will follow later."

³⁷"Lord," Peter asked, "why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

³⁸Jesus replied, "Will you lay down your life for me? Truly I tell you, a rooster will not crow until you have denied me three times.

14 "Don't let your heart be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. ²In my Father's house are many rooms; if not, I would have told you. I am going away to prepare a place for you. ³If I go away and prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you to myself, so that where I am you may be also. ⁴You know the way to where I am going."

⁵"Lord," Thomas said, "we don't know where you're going. How can we know the way?"

⁶Jesus told him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. ⁷If you know me, you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him."

⁸"Lord," said Philip, "show us the Father, and that's enough for us."

⁹Jesus said to him, "Have I been among you all this time and you do not know me, Philip? The one who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'?"

¹⁰Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I speak to you I do not speak on my own.

The Father who lives in me does his works. ¹¹ Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me. Otherwise, believe because of the works themselves.

¹² Truly I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do. And he will do even greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³ Whatever you ask in my name, I will do it so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴ If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it.

¹⁵ "If you love me, you will keep my commands. ¹⁶ And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever. ¹⁷ He is the Spirit of truth. The world is unable to receive him because it doesn't see him or know him. But you do know him, because he remains with you and will be in you.

¹⁸ "I will not leave you as orphans; I am coming to you. ¹⁹ In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. Because I live, you will live too. ²⁰ On that day you will know that I am in my Father, you are in me, and I am in you. ²¹ The one who has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. And the one who loves me will be loved by my Father. I also will love him and will reveal myself to him."

²² Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, how is it you're going to reveal yourself to us and not to the world?"

²³ Jesus answered, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. ²⁴ The one who doesn't love me will not keep my words. The word that you hear is not mine but is from the Father who sent me.

²⁵ "I have spoken these things to you while I remain with you. ²⁶ But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and remind you of everything I have told you.

²⁷ Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Don't let your heart be troubled or fearful. ²⁸ You have heard me tell you, 'I am going away and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. ²⁹ I have told you now before it happens so that when it does happen you may believe. ³⁰ I will not talk with you much longer, because the ruler of the world is coming. He has no power over me. ³¹ On the contrary, so that the world may know that I love the Father, I do as the Father commanded me.

"Get up; let's leave this place.

15 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. ² Every branch in me that does not produce fruit he removes, and he prunes every branch that produces fruit so that it will produce more fruit. ³ You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. ⁴ Remain in me, and I in you. Just as a branch is unable to produce fruit by itself unless it remains on the vine, neither can you unless you remain in me. ⁵ I am the vine; you are the branches. The one who remains in me and I in him produces much fruit, because you can do nothing without me. ⁶ If anyone does not remain in me, he is thrown aside like a branch and he withers. They gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned. ⁷ If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you want and it will be done for you. ⁸ My Father is glorified by this: that you produce much fruit and prove to be my disciples.

⁹ "As the Father has loved me, I have also loved you. Remain in my love. ¹⁰ If you keep my commands you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love.

¹¹ "I have told you these things so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete.

¹² "This is my command: Love one another as I have loved you. ¹³ No one has greater love than this: to lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴ You are my friends if you do what I command you. ¹⁵ I do not call you servants anymore, because a servant doesn't know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have heard from my Father. ¹⁶ You did not choose me, but I chose you. I appointed you to go and produce fruit and that your fruit should remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he will give you.

¹⁷ "This is what I command you: Love one another.

¹⁸ "If the world hates you, understand that it hated me before it hated you. ¹⁹ If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own. However, because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of it, the world hates you. ²⁰ Remember the word I spoke to you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. ²¹ But they will do all these things to you on account of my name, because they don't know the one who sent me. ²² If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. Now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³ The one who hates me also hates my Father. ²⁴ If I had not done the works among them that no one else has done, they would not have sin. Now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. ²⁵ But this happened so that the statement written in their law might be fulfilled: They hated me for no reason.

²⁶ "When the Counselor comes, the one I will send to you from the Father — the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father — he will testify about me. ²⁷ You also will testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

16 "I have told you these things to keep you from stumbling. ² They will ban you from the synagogues. In fact, a time is coming when anyone who kills you will think he is offering service to God. ³ They will do these things because they haven't known the Father or me. ⁴ But I have told you these things so that when their time comes you will remember I told them to you. I didn't tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵ But now I am going away to him who sent me, and not one of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' ⁶ Yet, because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. ⁷ Nevertheless, I am telling you the truth. It is for your benefit that I go away, because if I don't go away the Counselor will not come to you. If I go, I will send him to you. ⁸ When he comes, he will convict the world about sin, righteousness, and judgment: ⁹ About sin, because they do not believe in me; ¹⁰ about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will no longer see me; ¹¹ and about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

¹² "I still have many things to tell you, but you can't bear them now. ¹³ When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth. For he will not speak on his own, but he will speak whatever he hears. He will also declare to you what is to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵ Everything the Father has is mine. This is why I told you that he takes from what is mine and will declare it to you.

¹⁶ "A little while and you will no longer see me; again a little while and you will see me."

again a little while and you will see me' and, 'because I am going to the Father?'¹⁸ They said, "What is this he is saying, 'A little while'? We don't know what he's talking about."

¹⁹ Jesus knew they wanted to ask him, and so he said to them, "Are you asking one another about what I said, 'A little while and you will not see me; again a little while and you will see me'?"²⁰ Truly I tell you, you will weep and mourn, but the world will rejoice. You will become sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn to joy.²¹ When a woman is in labor, she has pain because her time has come. But when she has given birth to a child, she no longer remembers the suffering because of the joy that a person has been born into the world.²² So you also have sorrow now. But I will see you again. Your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy from you.

²³ "In that day you will not ask me anything. Truly I tell you, anything you ask the Father in my name, he will give you.²⁴ Until now you have asked for nothing in my name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.

²⁵ "I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. A time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures, but I will tell you plainly about the Father.²⁶ On that day you will ask in my name, and I am not telling you that I will ask the Father on your behalf.²⁷ For the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.²⁸ I came from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I am leaving the world and going to the Father."

²⁹ His disciples said, "Look, now you're speaking plainly and not using any figurative language.³⁰ Now we know that you know everything and don't need anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came from God."

³¹ Jesus responded to them, "Do you now believe?"³² Indeed, an hour is coming, and has come, when each of you will be scattered to his own home, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.³³ I have told you these things so that in me you may have peace. You will have suffering in this world. Be courageous! I have conquered the world."

17 Jesus spoke these things, looked up to heaven, and said: "Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you,² since you gave him authority over all flesh, so that he may give eternal life to everyone you have given him.³ This is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and the one you have sent—Jesus Christ.⁴ I have glorified you on the earth by completing the work you gave me to do.⁵ Now, Father, glorify me in your presence with that glory I had with you before the world existed.

⁶ "I have revealed your name to the people you gave me from the world. They were yours, you gave them to me, and they have kept your word.⁷ Now they know that everything you have given is from you,⁸ because I have given them the words you gave me. They have received them and have known for certain that I came from you. They have believed that you sent me.

⁹ "I pray for them. I am not praying for the world but for those you have given me, because they are yours.¹⁰ Everything I have is yours, and everything you have is mine, and I am glorified in them.¹¹ I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by your name that you have given me, so that they may be one as we are one.¹² While I was with them, I was protecting them by your name that you have given me. I guarded them and not one of them is lost, except the son of destruction, so that the Scripture may be fulfilled.¹³ Now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy completed in them.¹⁴ I have given them your word. The world hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.¹⁵ I am not praying that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one.¹⁶ They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.¹⁷ Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth.¹⁸ As you sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world.¹⁹ I sanctify myself for them, so that they also may be sanctified by the truth.

²⁰ "I pray not only for these, but also for those who believe in me through their word.²¹ May they all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us, so that the world may believe you sent me.²² I have given them the glory you have given me, so that they may be one as we are one.²³ I am in them and you are in me, so that they may be made completely one, that the world may know you have sent me and have loved them as you have loved me.

²⁴ "Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, so that they will see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the world's foundation.²⁵ Righteous Father, the world has not known you. However, I have known you, and they have known that you sent me.²⁶ I made your name known to them and will continue to make it known, so that the love you have loved me with may be in them and I may be in them."

18 After Jesus had said these things, he went out with his disciples across the Kidron Valley, where there was a garden, and he and his disciples went into it.² Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples.³ So Judas took a company of soldiers and some officials from the chief priests and the Pharisees and came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.

⁴ Then Jesus, knowing everything that was about to happen to him, went out and said to them, "Who is it that you're seeking?"

⁵ "Jesus of Nazareth," they answered.

"I am he," Jesus told them.

Judas, who betrayed him, was also standing with them.

⁶ When Jesus told them, "I am he," they stepped back and fell to the ground.

⁷ Then he asked them again, "Who is it that you're seeking?"

"Jesus of Nazareth," they said.

⁸ "I told you I am he," Jesus replied. "So if you're looking for me, let these men go."⁹ This was to fulfill the words he had said: "I have not lost one of those you have given me."

¹⁰ Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.)

¹¹ At that, Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword away! Am I not to drink the cup the Father has given me?"

¹² Then the company of soldiers, the commander, and the Jewish officials arrested Jesus and tied him up.¹³ First they led him to Annas, since he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.¹⁴ Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it would be better for one man to die for the people.

¹⁵ Simon Peter was following Jesus, as was another disciple. That disciple was an acquaintance of the high priest; so he went with Jesus into the high priest's courtyard.¹⁶ But

Peter remained standing outside by the door. So the other disciple, the one known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the girl who was the doorkeeper and brought Peter in.

¹⁷Then the servant girl who was the doorkeeper said to Peter, "You aren't one of this man's disciples too, are you?"

"I am not," he said. ¹⁸Now the servants and the officials had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold. They were standing there warming themselves, and Peter was standing with them, warming himself.

¹⁹The high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching.

²⁰"I have spoken openly to the world," Jesus answered him. "I have always taught in the synagogue and in the temple, where all the Jews congregate, and I haven't spoken anything in secret. ²¹Why do you question me? Question those who heard what I told them. Look, they know what I said."

²²When he had said these things, one of the officials standing by slapped Jesus, saying, "Is this the way you answer the high priest?"

²³"If I have spoken wrongly," Jesus answered him, "give evidence about the wrong; but if rightly, why do you hit me?" ²⁴Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

²⁵Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said to him, "You aren't one of his disciples too, are you?"

He denied it and said, "I am not."

²⁶One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you with him in the garden?" ²⁷Peter denied it again. Immediately a rooster crowed.

²⁸Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's headquarters. It was early morning. They did not enter the headquarters themselves; otherwise they would be defiled and unable to eat the Passover.

²⁹So Pilate came out to them and said, "What charge do you bring against this man?"

³⁰They answered him, "If this man weren't a criminal, we wouldn't have handed him over to you."

³¹Pilate told them, "You take him and judge him according to your law."

"It's not legal for us to put anyone to death," the Jews declared. ³²They said this so that Jesus's words might be fulfilled indicating what kind of death he was going to die.

³³Then Pilate went back into the headquarters, summoned Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

³⁴Jesus answered, "Are you asking this on your own, or have others told you about me?"

³⁵"I'm not a Jew, am I?" Pilate replied. "Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?"

³⁶"My kingdom is not of this world," said Jesus. "If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would fight, so that I wouldn't be handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here."

³⁷"You are a king then?" Pilate asked.

"You say that I'm a king," Jesus replied. "I was born for this, and I have come into the world for this: to testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

³⁸"What is truth?" said Pilate.

After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, "I find no grounds for charging him. ³⁹You have a custom that I release one prisoner to you at the Passover. So, do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

⁴⁰They shouted back, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a revolutionary.

19 Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. ²The soldiers also twisted together a crown of thorns, put it on his head, and clothed him in a purple robe. ³And they kept coming up to him and saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and were slapping his face.

⁴Pilate went outside again and said to them, "Look, I'm bringing him out to you to let you know I find no grounds for charging him." ⁵Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!"

⁶When the chief priests and the temple servants saw him, they shouted, "Crucify! Crucify!"

Pilate responded, "Take him and crucify him yourselves, since I find no grounds for charging him."

⁷"We have a law," the Jews replied to him, "and according to that law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God."

⁸When Pilate heard this statement, he was more afraid than ever. ⁹He went back into the headquarters and asked Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus did not give him an answer. ¹⁰So Pilate said to him, "Do you refuse to speak to me? Don't you know that I have the authority to release you and the authority to crucify you?"

¹¹"You would have no authority over me at all," Jesus answered him, "if it hadn't been given you from above. This is why the one who handed me over to you has the greater sin."

¹²From that moment Pilate kept trying to release him. But the Jews shouted, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend. Anyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar!"

¹³When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside. He sat down on the judge's seat in a place called the Stone Pavement (but in Aramaic, Gabbatha). ¹⁴It was the preparation day for the Passover, and it was about noon. Then he told the Jews, "Here is your king!"

¹⁵They shouted, "Take him away! Take him away! Crucify him!"

Pilate said to them, "Should I crucify your king?"

"We have no king but Caesar!" the chief priests answered.

¹⁶Then he handed him over to be crucified.

Then they took Jesus away. ¹⁷Carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called Place of the Skull, which in Aramaic is called Golgotha. ¹⁸There they crucified him and two others with him, one on either side, with Jesus in the middle. ¹⁹Pilate also had a sign made and put on the cross. It said: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁰Many of the Jews read this sign, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Aramaic, Latin, and Greek. ²¹So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but that he said, 'I am the King of the Jews.'"

²²Pilate replied, "What I have written, I have written."

²³When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, a part for each soldier. They also took the tunic, which was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. ²⁴So they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it, to see who gets it." This happened that the Scripture might be fulfilled that says: They divided my clothes among themselves, and they cast lots for my clothing. This is what the soldiers did.

²⁵ Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶ When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, here is your son." ²⁷ Then he said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

²⁸ After this, when Jesus knew that everything was now finished that the Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, "I'm thirsty." ²⁹ A jar full of sour wine was sitting there; so they fixed a sponge full of sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it up to his mouth.

³⁰ When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, "It is finished." Then bowing his head, he gave up his spirit.

³¹ Since it was the preparation day, the Jews did not want the bodies to remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special day). They requested that Pilate have the men's legs broken and that their bodies be taken away. ³² So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other one who had been crucified with him. ³³ When they came to Jesus, they did not break his legs since they saw that he was already dead. ³⁴ But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out. ³⁵ He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows he is telling the truth. ³⁶ For these things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: Not one of his bones will be broken. ³⁷ Also, another Scripture says: They will look at the one they pierced.

³⁸ After this, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus — but secretly because of his fear of the Jews — asked Pilate that he might remove Jesus's body. Pilate gave him permission; so he came and took his body away.

³⁹ Nicodemus (who had previously come to him at night) also came, bringing a mixture of about seventy-five pounds of myrrh and aloes. ⁴⁰ They took Jesus's body and wrapped it in linen cloths with the fragrant spices, according to the burial custom of the Jews. ⁴¹ There was a garden in the place where he was crucified. A new tomb was in the garden; no one had yet been placed in it. ⁴² They placed Jesus there because of the Jewish day of preparation and since the tomb was nearby.

20 On the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark. She saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. ² So she went running to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said to them, "They've taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they've put him!"

³ At that, Peter and the other disciple went out, heading for the tomb. ⁴ The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and got to the tomb first. ⁵ Stooping down, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. ⁶ Then, following him, Simon Peter also came. He entered the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying there. ⁷ The wrapping that had been on his head was not lying with the linen cloths but was folded up in a separate place by itself. ⁸ The other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, then also went in, saw, and believed. ⁹ For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he must rise from the dead. ¹⁰ Then the disciples returned to the place where they were staying.

¹¹ But Mary stood outside the tomb, crying. As she was crying, she stooped to look into the tomb. ¹² She saw two angels in white sitting where Jesus's body had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. ¹³ They said to her, "Woman, why are you crying?"

"Because they've taken away my Lord," she told them, "and I don't know where they've put him."

¹⁴ Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know it was Jesus. ¹⁵ "Woman," Jesus said to her, "why are you crying? Who is it that you're seeking?"

Supposing he was the gardener, she replied, "Sir, if you've carried him away, tell me where you've put him, and I will take him away."

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Mary."

Turning around, she said to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" — which means "Teacher."

¹⁷ "Don't cling to me," Jesus told her, "since I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and tell them that I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."

¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them what he had said to her.

¹⁹ When it was evening of that first day of the week, the disciples were gathered together with the doors locked because they feared the Jews. Jesus came, stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be with you."

²⁰ Having said this, he showed them his hands and his side. So the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

²¹ Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you. As the Father has sent me, I also send you." ²² After saying this, he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

²⁴ But Thomas (called "Twin"), one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ So the other disciples were telling him, "We've seen the Lord!"

But he said to them, "If I don't see the mark of the nails in his hands, put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will never believe."

²⁶ A week later his disciples were indoors again, and Thomas was with them. Even though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."

²⁷ Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and look at my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Don't be faithless, but believe."

²⁸ Thomas responded to him, "My Lord and my God!"

²⁹ Jesus said, "Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe."

³⁰ Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. ³¹ But these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

21 After this, Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples by the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way:

² Simon Peter, Thomas (called "Twin"), Nathanael from Cana of Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples were together.

³ "I'm going fishing," Simon Peter said to them.

"We're coming with you," they told him. They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

⁴ When daybreak came, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not know it was Jesus. ⁵ "Friends," Jesus called to them, "you don't have any fish, do you?"

"No," they answered.

⁶"Cast the net on the right side of the boat," he told them, "and you'll find some." So they did, and they were unable to haul it in because of the large number of fish. ⁷The disciple, the one Jesus loved, said to Peter, "It is the Lord!"

When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tied his outer clothing around him (for he had taken it off) and plunged into the sea. ⁸Since they were not far from land (about a hundred yards away), the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish.

⁹When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish lying on it, and bread. ¹⁰"Bring some of the fish you've just caught," Jesus told them. ¹¹So Simon Peter climbed up and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish — 153 of them. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn.

¹²"Come and have breakfast," Jesus told them. None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. ¹³Jesus came, took the bread, and gave it to them. He did the same with the fish. ¹⁴This was now the third time Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

¹⁵When they had eaten breakfast, Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?"

"Yes, Lord," he said to him, "you know that I love you."

"Feed my lambs," he told him. ¹⁶A second time he asked him, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

"Yes, Lord," he said to him, "you know that I love you."

"Shepherd my sheep," he told him.

¹⁷He asked him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Peter was grieved that he asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you."

"Feed my sheep," Jesus said. ¹⁸"Truly I tell you, when you were younger, you would tie your belt and walk wherever you wanted. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will tie you and carry you where you don't want to go." ¹⁹He said this to indicate by what kind of death Peter would glorify God. After saying this, he told him, "Follow me."

²⁰So Peter turned around and saw the disciple Jesus loved following them, the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and asked, "Lord, who is the one that's going to betray you?" ²¹When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, "Lord, what about him?"

²²"If I want him to remain until I come," Jesus answered, "what is that to you? As for you, follow me."

²³So this rumor spread to the brothers and sisters that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not tell him that he would not die, but, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?"

²⁴This is the disciple who testifies to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.

²⁵And there are also many other things that Jesus did, which, if every one of them were written down, I suppose not even the world itself could contain the books that would be written.

ACTS

1 I wrote the first narrative, Theophilus, about all that Jesus began to do and teach ² until the day he was taken up, after he had given instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. ³ After he had suffered, he also presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

⁴ While he was with them, he commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for the Father's promise. "Which," he said, "you have heard me speak about; ⁵ for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit in a few days."

⁶ So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time?"

⁷ He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come on you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

⁹ After he had said this, he was taken up as they were watching, and a cloud took him out of their sight. ¹⁰ While he was going, they were gazing into heaven, and suddenly two men in white clothes stood by them. ¹¹ They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up into heaven? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come in the same way that you have seen him going into heaven."

¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, which is near Jerusalem — a Sabbath day's journey away. ¹³ When they arrived, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying: Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. ¹⁴ They all were continually united in prayer, along with the women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.

¹⁵ In those days Peter stood up among the brothers and sisters — the number of people who were together was about a hundred and twenty — and said: ¹⁶ "Brothers and sisters, it was necessary that the Scripture be fulfilled that the Holy Spirit through the mouth of David foretold about Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus. ¹⁷ For he was one of our number and shared in this ministry." ¹⁸ Now this man acquired a field with his unrighteous wages. He fell headfirst, his body burst open and his intestines spilled out. ¹⁹ This became known to all the residents of Jerusalem, so that in their own language that field is called Hakeldama (that is, Field of Blood). ²⁰ "For it is written in the Book of Psalms:

Let his dwelling become desolate;
let no one live in it; and let someone else take his position.

²¹ "Therefore, from among the men who have accompanied us during the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us — ²² beginning from the baptism of John until the day he was taken up from us — from among these, it is necessary that one become a witness with us of his resurrection."

²³ So they proposed two: Joseph, called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. ²⁴ Then they prayed, "You, Lord, know everyone's hearts; show which of these two you have chosen ²⁵ to take the place in this apostolic ministry that Judas left to go where he belongs."

²⁶ Then they cast lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias and he was added to the eleven apostles.

2 When the day of Pentecost had arrived, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly a sound like that of a violent rushing wind came from heaven, and it filled the whole house where they were staying. ³ They saw tongues like flames of fire that separated and rested on each one of them. ⁴ Then they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them.

⁵ Now there were Jews staying in Jerusalem, devout people from every nation under heaven. ⁶ When this sound occurred, a crowd came together and was confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. ⁷ They were astounded and amazed, saying, "Look, aren't all these who are speaking Galileans?" ⁸ How is it that each of us can hear them in our own native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes, Elamites; those who live in Mesopotamia, in Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts), ¹¹ Cretans and Arabs — we hear them declaring the magnificent acts of God in our own tongues." ¹² They were all astounded and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" ¹³ But some sneered and said, "They're drunk on new wine."

¹⁴ Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed to them: "Fellow Jews and all you residents of Jerusalem, let me explain this to you and pay attention to my words. ¹⁵ For these people are not drunk, as you suppose, since it's only nine in the morning. ¹⁶ On the contrary, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

17 And it will be in the last days, says God,
that I will pour out my Spirit on all people;
then your sons and your daughters
will prophesy,
your young men will see visions,
and your old men will dream dreams.

18 I will even pour out my Spirit
on my servants in those days, both men and women

and they will prophesy.

19 I will display wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below:
blood and fire and a cloud of smoke.

20 The sun will be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood
before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes.

21 Then everyone who calls
on the name of the Lord will be saved.

²² "Fellow Israelites, listen to these words: This Jesus of Nazareth was a man attested to you by God with miracles, wonders, and signs that God did among you through him, just as you yourselves know. ²³ Though he was delivered up according to God's determined plan and foreknowledge, you used lawless people to nail him to a cross and kill him. ²⁴ God raised him up, ending the pains of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by death.

²⁵ For David says of him:

I saw the Lord ever before me;
because he is at my right hand,
I will not be shaken.

²⁶ Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices.

²⁷ Moreover, my flesh will rest in hope,
because you will not abandon me in Hades
or allow your holy one to see decay.

²⁸ You have revealed the paths of life to me;
you will fill me with gladness
in your presence.

²⁹ “Brothers and sisters, I can confidently speak to you about the patriarch David: He is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰ Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn an oath to him to seat one of his descendants on his throne. ³¹ Seeing what was to come, he spoke concerning the resurrection of the Messiah: He was not abandoned in Hades, and his flesh did not experience decay.

³² “God has raised this Jesus; we are all witnesses of this. ³³ Therefore, since he has been exalted to the right hand of God and has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit, he has poured out what you both see and hear. ³⁴ For it was not David who ascended into the heavens, but he himself says:

The Lord declared to my Lord,
‘Sit at my right hand

³⁵ until I make your enemies your footstool!’

³⁶ “Therefore let all the house of Israel know with certainty that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Messiah.”

³⁷ When they heard this, they were pierced to the heart and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles: “Brothers, what should we do?”

³⁸ Peter replied, “Repent and be baptized, each of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹ For the promise is for you and for your children, and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God will call.” ⁴⁰ With many other words he testified and strongly urged them, saying, “Be saved from this corrupt generation!” ⁴¹ So those who accepted his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand people were added to them.

⁴³ Everyone was filled with awe, and many wonders and signs were being performed through the apostles. ⁴⁴ Now all the believers were together and held all things in common. ⁴⁵ They sold their possessions and property and distributed the proceeds to all, as any had need. ⁴⁶ Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple, and broke bread from house to house. They ate their food with joyful and sincere hearts, ⁴⁷ praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. Every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

3 Now Peter and John were going up to the temple for the time of prayer at three in the afternoon. ² A man who was lame from birth was being carried there. He was placed each day at the temple gate called Beautiful, so that he could beg from those entering the temple. ³ When he saw Peter and John about to enter the temple, he asked for money. ⁴ Peter, along with John, looked straight at him and said, “Look at us.” ⁵ So he turned to them, expecting to get something from them. ⁶ But Peter said, “I don’t have silver or gold, but what I do have, I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!” ⁷ Then, taking him by the right hand he raised him up, and at once his feet and ankles became strong. ⁸ So he jumped up and started to walk, and he entered the temple with them — walking, leaping, and praising God. ⁹ All the people saw him walking and praising God, ¹⁰ and they recognized that he was the one who used to sit and beg at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. So they were filled with awe and astonishment at what had happened to him.

¹¹ While he was holding on to Peter and John, all the people, utterly astonished, ran toward them in what is called Solomon’s Colonnade. ¹² When Peter saw this, he addressed the people: “Fellow Israelites, why are you amazed at this? Why do you stare at us, as though we had made him walk by our own power or godliness? ¹³ The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied before Pilate, though he had decided to release him. ¹⁴ You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer released to you. ¹⁵ You killed the source of life, whom God raised from the dead; we are witnesses of this. ¹⁶ By faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. So the faith that comes through Jesus has given him this perfect health in front of all of you.

¹⁷ “And now, brothers and sisters, I know that you acted in ignorance, just as your leaders also did. ¹⁸ In this way God fulfilled what he had predicted through all the prophets — that his Messiah would suffer. ¹⁹ Therefore repent and turn back, so that your sins may be wiped out. ²⁰ That seasons of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send Jesus, whom has been appointed for you as the Messiah. ²¹ Heaven must receive him until the time of the restoration of all things, which God spoke about through his holy prophets from the beginning. ²² Moses said: The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers and sisters. You must listen to everything he tells you. ²³ And everyone who does not listen to that prophet will be completely cut off from the people.

²⁴ “In addition, all the prophets who have spoken, from Samuel and those after him, have also foretold these days. ²⁵ You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with your ancestors, saying to Abraham, And all the families of the earth will be blessed through your offspring. ²⁶ God raised up his servant and sent him first to you to bless you by turning each of you from your evil ways.”

4 While they were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple police, and the Sadducees confronted them, ² because they were annoyed that they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead. ³ So they seized them and took them into custody until the next day since it was already evening. ⁴ But many of those who heard the message believed, and the number of the men came to about five thousand.

⁸ Then Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit and said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders: ⁹ If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a disabled man, by what means he was healed,¹⁰ let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified and whom God raised from the dead — by him this man is standing here before you healthy.¹¹ This Jesus is the stone rejected by you builders, which has become the cornerstone.

¹² There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to people by which we must be saved.”

¹³ When they observed the boldness of Peter and John and realized that they were uneducated and untrained men, they were amazed and recognized that they had been with Jesus.¹⁴ And since they saw the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to say in opposition.¹⁵ After they ordered them to leave the Sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves,¹⁶ saying, “What should we do with these men? For an obvious sign has been done through them, clear to everyone living in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.¹⁷ But so that this does not spread any further among the people, let’s threaten them against speaking to anyone in this name again.”¹⁸ So they called for them and ordered them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

²¹ After threatening them further, they released them. They found no way to punish them because the people were all giving glory to God over what had been done.²² For this sign of healing had been performed on a man over forty years old.

²³ After they were released, they went to their own people and reported everything the chief priests and the elders had said to them.²⁴ When they heard this, they raised their voices together to God and said, “Master, you are the one who made the heaven, the earth, and the sea, and everything in them.²⁵ You said through the Holy Spirit, by the mouth of our father David your servant:

Why do the Gentiles rage and the peoples plot futile things?

²⁶ The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers assemble together against the Lord and against his Messiah.

²⁷ “For, in fact, in this city both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, assembled together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed,²⁸ to do whatever your hand and your will had predestined to take place.²⁹ And now, Lord, consider their threats, and grant that your servants may speak your word with all boldness,³⁰ while you stretch out your hand for healing, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”³¹ When they had prayed, the place where they were assembled was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God boldly.

³² Now the entire group of those who believed were of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but instead they held everything in common.³³ With great power the apostles were giving testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was on all of them.³⁴ For there was not a needy person among them because all those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the proceeds of what was sold,³⁵ and laid them at the apostles’ feet. This was then distributed to each person as any had need.

³⁶ Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus by birth, the one the apostles called Barnabas (which is translated Son of Encouragement),³⁷ sold a field he owned, brought the money, and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

5 But a man named Ananias, with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property.² However, he kept back part of the proceeds with his wife’s knowledge, and brought a portion of it and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

³ “Ananias,” Peter asked, “why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the proceeds of the land? ⁴ Wasn’t it yours while you possessed it? And after it was sold, wasn’t it at your disposal? Why is it that you planned this thing in your heart? You have not lied to people but to God.” ⁵ When he heard these words, Ananias dropped dead, and a great fear came on all who heard.⁶ The young men got up, wrapped his body, carried him out, and buried him.

⁷ About three hours later, his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.⁸ “Tell me,” Peter asked her, “did you sell the land for this price?”

“Yes,” she said, “for that price.”

⁹ Then Peter said to her, “Why did you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.”

¹² Many signs and wonders were being done among the people through the hands of the apostles. They were all together in Solomon’s Colonnade.¹³ No one else dared to join them, but the people spoke well of them.¹⁴ Believers were added to the Lord in increasing numbers — multitudes of both men and women.¹⁵ As a result, they would carry the sick out into the streets and lay them on cots and mats so that when Peter came by, at least his shadow might fall on some of them.¹⁶ In addition, a multitude came together from the towns surrounding Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

¹⁷ Then the high priest rose up. He and all who were with him, who belonged to the party of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy.¹⁸ So they arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail.¹⁹ But an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail during the night, brought them out, and said,²⁰ “Go and stand in the temple, and tell the people all about this life.”²¹ Hearing this, they entered the temple at daybreak and began to teach.

When the high priest and those who were with him arrived, they convened the Sanhedrin — the full council of the Israelites — and sent orders to the jail to have them brought.²² But when the servants got there, they did not find them in the jail, so they returned and reported,²³ “We found the jail securely locked, with the guards standing in front of the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside.”²⁴ As the captain of the temple police and the chief priests heard these things, they were baffled about them, wondering what would come of this.

²⁵ Someone came and reported to them, “Look! The men you put in jail are standing in the temple and teaching the people.”²⁶ Then the commander went with the servants and brought them in without force, because they were afraid the people might stone them.²⁷ After they brought them in, they had them stand before the Sanhedrin, and the high priest asked,²⁸ “Didn’t we strictly order you not to teach in this name? Look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man's blood."

²⁹Peter and the apostles replied, "We must obey God rather than people. ³⁰The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had murdered by hanging him on a tree. ³¹God exalted this man to his right hand as ruler and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. ³²We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

³³When they heard this, they were enraged and wanted to kill them. ³⁴But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law who was respected by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered the men to be taken outside for a little while. ³⁵He said to them, "Men of Israel, be careful about what you're about to do to these men. ³⁶Some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and a group of about four hundred men rallied to him. He was killed, and all his followers were dispersed and came to nothing. ³⁷After this man, Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and attracted a following. He also perished, and all his followers were scattered. ³⁸So in the present case, I tell you, stay away from these men and leave them alone. For if this plan or this work is of human origin, it will fail; ³⁹but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You may even be found fighting against God." They were persuaded by him. ⁴⁰After they called in the apostles and had them flogged, they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. ⁴¹Then they went out from the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to be treated shamefully on behalf of the Name. ⁴²Every day in the temple, and in various homes, they continued teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Messiah.

6 In those days, as the disciples were increasing in number, there arose a complaint by the Hellenistic Jews against the Hebraic Jews that their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution. ²The Twelve summoned the whole company of the disciples and said, "It would not be right for us to give up preaching the word of God to wait on tables. ³Brothers and sisters, select from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and wisdom, whom we can appoint to this duty. ⁴But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." ⁵This proposal pleased the whole company. So they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a convert from Antioch. ⁶They had them stand before the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

⁷So the word of God spread, the disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly in number, and a large group of priests became obedient to the faith.

⁸Now Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people. ⁹Opposition arose, however, from some members of the Freedmen's Synagogue, composed of both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and some from Cilicia and Asia, and they began to argue with Stephen. ¹⁰But they were unable to stand up against his wisdom and the Spirit by whom he was speaking.

¹¹Then they secretly persuaded some men to say, "We heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and God." ¹²They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes; so they came, seized him, and took him to the Sanhedrin. ¹³They also presented false witnesses who said,

"This man never stops speaking against this holy place and the law. ¹⁴For we heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us." ¹⁵And all who were sitting in the Sanhedrin looked intently at him and saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

7 "Are these things true?" the high priest asked.

²"Brothers and fathers," he replied, "listen: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he settled in Haran, ³and said to him: Leave your country and relatives, and come to the land that I will show you.

⁴"Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. From there, after his father died, God had him move to this land in which you are now living. ⁵He didn't give him an inheritance in it — not even a foot of ground — but he promised to give it to him as a possession, and to his descendants after him, even though he was childless. ⁶God spoke in this way: His descendants would be strangers in a foreign country, and they would enslave and oppress them for four hundred years. ⁷I will judge the nation that they will serve as slaves, God said. After this, they will come out and worship me in this place. ⁸And so he gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision. After this, he fathered Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

⁹"The patriarchs became jealous of Joseph and sold him into Egypt, but God was with him ¹⁰and rescued him out of all his troubles. He gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who appointed him ruler over Egypt and over his whole household. ¹¹Now a famine and great suffering came over all of Egypt and Canaan, and our ancestors could find no food. ¹²When Jacob heard there was grain in Egypt, he sent our ancestors there the first time. ¹³The second time, Joseph revealed himself to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to Pharaoh. ¹⁴Joseph invited his father Jacob and all his relatives, seventy-five people in all, ¹⁵and Jacob went down to Egypt. He and our ancestors died there, ¹⁶were carried back to Shechem, and were placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

¹⁷"As the time was approaching to fulfill the promise that God had made to Abraham, the people flourished and multiplied in Egypt ¹⁸until a different king who did not know Joseph ruled over Egypt. ¹⁹He dealt deceitfully with our race and oppressed our ancestors by making them abandon their infants outside so that they wouldn't survive. ²⁰At this time Moses was born, and he was beautiful in God's sight. He was cared for in his father's home for three months. ²¹When he was put outside, Pharaoh's daughter adopted and raised him as her own son. ²²So Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in his speech and actions.

²³"When he was forty years old, he decided to visit his own people, the Israelites. ²⁴When he saw one of them being mistreated, he came to his rescue and avenged the oppressed man by striking down the Egyptian. ²⁵He assumed his people would understand that God would give them deliverance through him, but they did not understand. ²⁶The next day he showed up while they were fighting and tried to reconcile them peacefully, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why are you mistreating each other?'

²⁷"But the one who was mistreating his neighbor pushed Moses aside, saying: Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us? ²⁸ Do you want to kill me, the same way you killed the Egyptian yesterday?

²⁹ When he heard this, Moses fled and became an exile in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons. ³⁰ After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning bush. ³¹ When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. As he was approaching to look at it, the voice of the Lord came: ³² I am the God of your ancestors — the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob. Moses began to tremble and did not dare to look.

³³ The Lord said to him: Take off the sandals from your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy ground. ³⁴ I have certainly seen the oppression of my people in Egypt; I have heard their groaning and have come down to set them free. And now, come, I will send you to Egypt.

³⁵ This Moses, whom they rejected when they said, Who appointed you a ruler and a judge? — this one God sent as a ruler and a deliverer through the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶ This man led them out and performed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.

³⁷ This is the Moses who said to the Israelites: God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers and sisters. ³⁸ He is the one who was in the assembly in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors. He received living oracles to give to us. ³⁹ Our ancestors were unwilling to obey him. Instead, they pushed him aside, and in their hearts turned back to Egypt. ⁴⁰ They told Aaron: Make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what's happened to him. ⁴¹ They even made a calf in those days, offered sacrifice to the idol, and were celebrating what their hands had made. ⁴² God turned away and gave them up to worship the stars of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets:

House of Israel, did you bring me offerings and sacrifices for forty years in the wilderness?

⁴³ You took up the tent of Moloch and the star of your god Rephan, the images that you made to worship.

So I will send you into exile beyond Babylon.

⁴⁴ Our ancestors had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, just as he who spoke to Moses commanded him to make it according to the pattern he had seen. ⁴⁵ Our ancestors in turn received it and with Joshua brought it in when they dispossessed the nations that God drove out before them, until the days of David. ⁴⁶ He found favor in God's sight and asked that he might provide a dwelling place for the God of Jacob. ⁴⁷ It was Solomon, rather, who built him a house, ⁴⁸ but the Most High does not dwell in sanctuaries made with hands, as the prophet says:

⁴⁹ Heaven is my throne, and the earth my footstool. What sort of house will you build for me? says the Lord, or what will be my resting place?

⁵⁰ Did not my hand make all these things?

⁵¹ You stiff-necked people with uncircumcised hearts and ears! You are always resisting the Holy Spirit. As your ancestors did, you do also. ⁵² Which of the prophets did your ancestors not persecute? They even killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, whose betrayers and murderers you have now become. ⁵³ You received the law under the direction of angels and yet have not kept it."

⁵⁴ When they heard these things, they were enraged and gnashed their teeth at him. ⁵⁵ Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven. He saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶ He said, "Look, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

⁵⁷ They yelled at the top of their voices, covered their ears, and together rushed against him. ⁵⁸ They dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. And the witnesses laid their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹ While they were stoning Stephen, he called out: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" ⁶⁰ He knelt down and cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them!" And after saying this, he died.

8 Saul agreed with putting him to death.

On that day a severe persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout the land of Judea and Samaria. ² Devout men buried Stephen and mourned deeply over him. ³ Saul, however, was ravaging the church. He would enter house after house, drag off men and women, and put them in prison.

⁴ So those who were scattered went on their way preaching the word. ⁵ Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah to them. ⁶ The crowds were all paying attention to what Philip said, as they listened and saw the signs he was performing. ⁷ For unclean spirits, crying out with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed, and many who were paralyzed and lame were healed. ⁸ So there was great joy in that city.

⁹ A man named Simon had previously practiced sorcery in that city and amazed the Samaritan people, while claiming to be somebody great. ¹⁰ They all paid attention to him, from the least of them to the greatest, and they said, "This man is called the Great Power of God." ¹¹ They were attentive to him because he had amazed them with his sorceries for a long time. ¹² But when they believed Philip, as he proclaimed the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized. ¹³ Even Simon himself believed. And after he was baptized, he followed Philip everywhere and was amazed as he observed the signs and great miracles that were being performed.

¹⁴ When the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. ¹⁵ After they went down there, they prayed for them so the Samaritans might receive the Holy Spirit because he had not yet come down on any of them. ¹⁶ (They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) ¹⁷ Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸ When Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, ¹⁹ saying, "Give me this power also so that anyone I lay hands on may receive the Holy Spirit."

²⁰ But Peter told him, "May your silver be destroyed with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! ²¹ You have no part or share in this matter, because your heart is not right before God. ²² Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, your heart's intent may be forgiven. ²³ For I see you are poisoned by bitterness and bound by wickedness."

²⁴“Pray to the Lord for me,” Simon replied, “so that nothing you have said may happen to me.”

²⁵So, after they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they traveled back to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

²⁶An angel of the Lord spoke to Philip: “Get up and go south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” (This is the desert road.) ²⁷So he got up and went. There was an Ethiopian man, a eunuch and high official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to worship in Jerusalem ²⁸and was sitting in his chariot on his way home, reading the prophet Isaiah aloud.

²⁹The Spirit told Philip, “Go and join that chariot.”

³⁰When Philip ran up to it, he heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, “Do you understand what you’re reading?”

³¹“How can I,” he said, “unless someone guides me?” So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. ³²Now the Scripture passage he was reading was this:

He was led like a sheep to the slaughter,
and as a lamb is silent before its shearer,
so he does not open his mouth.

³³In his humiliation justice was denied him.
Who will describe his generation?
For his life is taken from the earth.

³⁴The eunuch said to Philip, “I ask you, who is the prophet saying this about — himself or someone else?” ³⁵Philip proceeded to tell him the good news about Jesus, beginning with that Scripture.

³⁶As they were traveling down the road, they came to some water. The eunuch said, “Look, there’s water. What would keep me from being baptized?” ³⁸So he ordered the chariot to stop, and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him. ³⁹When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him any longer but went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰Philip appeared in Azotus, and he was traveling and preaching the gospel in all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

9 Now Saul was still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord. He went to the high priest ²and requested letters from him to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any men or women who belonged to the Way, he might bring them as prisoners to Jerusalem. ³As he traveled and was nearing Damascus, a light from heaven suddenly flashed around him. ⁴Falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?”

⁵“Who are you, Lord?” Saul said.

“I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting,” he replied.

⁶“But get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

⁷The men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the sound but seeing no one. ⁸Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing. So they took him by the hand and led him into Damascus. ⁹He was unable to see for three days and did not eat or drink.

¹⁰There was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias, and the Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias.”

“Here I am, Lord,” he replied.

¹¹“Get up and go to the street called Straight,” the Lord said to him, “to the house of Judas, and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, since he is praying there. ¹²In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and placing his hands on him so that he may regain his sight.”

¹³“Lord,” Ananias answered, “I have heard from many people about this man, how much harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And he has authority here from the chief priests to arrest all who call on your name.”

¹⁵But the Lord said to him, “Go, for this man is my chosen instrument to take my name to Gentiles, kings, and Israelites. ¹⁶I will show him how much he must suffer for my name.”

¹⁷Ananias went and entered the house. He placed his hands on him and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road you were traveling, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

¹⁸At once something like scales fell from his eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized. ¹⁹And after taking some food, he regained his strength.

Saul was with the disciples in Damascus for some time. ²⁰Immediately he began proclaiming Jesus in the synagogues: “He is the Son of God.”

²¹All who heard him were astounded and said, “Isn’t this the man in Jerusalem who was causing havoc for those who called on this name and came here for the purpose of taking them as prisoners to the chief priests?”

²²But Saul grew stronger and kept confounding the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Messiah.

²³After many days had passed, the Jews conspired to kill him, ²⁴but Saul learned of their plot. So they were watching the gates day and night intending to kill him, ²⁵but his disciples took him by night and lowered him in a large basket through an opening in the wall.

²⁶When he arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, since they did not believe he was a disciple. ²⁷Barnabas, however, took him and brought him to the apostles and explained to them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road and that the Lord had talked to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus. ²⁸Saul was coming and going with them in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. ²⁹He conversed and debated with the Hellenistic Jews, but they tried to kill him. ³⁰When the brothers found out, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

³¹So the church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and was strengthened. Living in the fear of the Lord and encouraged by the Holy Spirit, it increased in numbers.

³²As Peter was traveling from place to place, he also came down to the saints who lived in Lydda. ³³There he found a man named Aeneas, who was paralyzed and had been bedridden for eight years. ³⁴Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed,” and immediately he got up. ³⁵So all who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

³⁶In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which is translated Dorcas). She was always doing good works and acts of charity. ³⁷About that time she became sick and died. After washing her, they placed her in a room upstairs. ³⁸Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples heard that Peter was there and sent two men to him who urged him, “Don’t delay in coming with us.” ³⁹Peter got up and went with them. When he arrived, they led him to the room upstairs. And all the widows approached him, weeping and showing him the robes and clothes that Dorcas had made while she was with them. ⁴⁰ Peter sent them all out of the room. He knelt down, prayed, and turning toward the body said, "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes, saw Peter, and sat up. ⁴¹ He gave her his hand and helped her stand up. He called the saints and widows and presented her alive. ⁴² This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³ Peter stayed for some time in Joppa with Simon, a leather tanner.

10 There was a man in Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment. ² He was a devout man and feared God along with his whole household. He did many charitable deeds for the Jewish people and always prayed to God. ³ About three in the afternoon he distinctly saw in a vision an angel of God who came in and said to him, "Cornelius."

⁴ Staring at him in awe, he said, "What is it, Lord?"

The angel told him, "Your prayers and your acts of charity have ascended as a memorial offering before God. ⁵ Now send men to Joppa and call for Simon, who is also named Peter. ⁶ He is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea."

⁹ The next day, as they were traveling and nearing the city, Peter went up to pray on the roof about noon. ¹⁰ He became hungry and wanted to eat, but while they were preparing something, he fell into a trance. ¹¹ He saw heaven opened and an object that resembled a large sheet coming down, being lowered by its four corners to the earth. ¹² In it were all the four-footed animals and reptiles of the earth, and the birds of the sky. ¹³ A voice said to him, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat."

¹⁴ "No, Lord!" Peter said. "For I have never eaten anything impure and ritually unclean."

²¹ Then Peter went down to the men and said, "Here I am, the one you're looking for. What is the reason you're here?"

²² They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man, who has a good reputation with the whole Jewish nation, was divinely directed by a holy angel to call you to his house and to hear a message from you." ²³ Peter then invited them in and gave them lodging.

The next day he got up and set out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa went with him. ²⁴ The following day he entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends. ²⁵ When Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell at his feet, and worshiped him.

²⁶ But Peter lifted him up and said, "Stand up. I myself am also a man." ²⁷ While talking with him, he went in and found a large gathering of people. ²⁸ Peter said to them, "You know it's forbidden for a Jewish man to associate with or visit a foreigner, but God has shown me that I must not call any person impure or unclean. ²⁹ That's why I came without any objection when I was sent for. So may I ask why you sent for me?"

³⁰ Cornelius replied, "Four days ago at this hour, at three in the afternoon, I was praying in my house. Just then a man in dazzling clothing stood before me ³¹ and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your acts of charity have been remembered in God's sight. ³² Therefore send someone to Joppa and invite Simon here, who is also named Peter. He is lodging in Simon the tanner's house by the sea.' ³³ So I immediately sent for you, and it was good of you to come. So now we are all in the presence of God to hear everything you have been commanded by the Lord."

³⁴ Peter began to speak: "Now I truly understand that God doesn't show favoritism, ³⁵ but in every nation the person who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. ³⁶ He sent the message to the Israelites, proclaiming the good news of peace through Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all. ³⁷ You know the events that took place throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John preached: ³⁸ how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how he went about doing good and healing all who were under the tyranny of the devil, because God was with him. ³⁹ We ourselves are witnesses of everything he did in both the Judean country and in Jerusalem, and yet they killed him by hanging him on a tree. ⁴⁰ God raised up this man on the third day and caused him to be seen, ⁴¹ not by all the people, but by us whom God appointed as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴² He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be the judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³ All the prophets testify about him that through his name everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins."

⁴⁴ While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came down on all those who heard the message. ⁴⁵ The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were amazed because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. ⁴⁶ For they heard them speaking in other tongues and declaring the greatness of God.

Then Peter responded, ⁴⁷ "Can anyone withhold water and prevent these people from being baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" ⁴⁸ He commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for a few days.

11 The apostles and the brothers and sisters who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. ² When Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcision party criticized him, ³ saying, "You went to uncircumcised men and ate with them."

⁴ Peter began to explain to them step by step: ⁵ "I was in the town of Joppa praying, and I saw, in a trance, an object that resembled a large sheet coming down, being lowered by its four corners from heaven, and it came to me. ⁶ When I looked closely and considered it, I saw the four-footed animals of the earth, the wild beasts, the reptiles, and the birds of the sky. ⁷ I also heard a voice telling me, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat.'

⁸ "No, Lord!" I said. "For nothing impure or ritually unclean has ever entered my mouth." ⁹ But a voice answered from heaven a second time, 'What God has made clean, you must not call impure.'

¹⁰ "Now this happened three times, and everything was drawn up again into heaven. ¹¹ At that very moment, three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea arrived at the house where we were.¹² The Spirit told me to accompany them with no doubts at all. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we went into the man's house.¹³ He reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is also named Peter.¹⁴ He will speak a message to you by which you and all your household will be saved.'

¹⁵ "As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came down on them, just as on us at the beginning.¹⁶ I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'¹⁷ If, then, God gave them the same gift that he also gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, how could I possibly hinder God?"

¹⁸ When they heard this they became silent. And they glorified God, saying, "So then, God has given repentance resulting in life even to the Gentiles."

¹⁹ Now those who had been scattered as a result of the persecution that started because of Stephen made their way as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except Jews.²⁰ But there were some of them, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch and began speaking to the Greeks also, proclaiming the good news about the Lord Jesus.²¹ The Lord's hand was with them, and a large number who believed turned to the Lord.²² News about them reached the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to travel as far as Antioch.²³ When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he was glad and encouraged all of them to remain true to the Lord with devoted hearts,²⁴ for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And large numbers of people were added to the Lord.

²⁵ Then he went to Tarsus to search for Saul,²⁶ and when he found him he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the church and taught large numbers. The disciples were first called Christians at Antioch.

12 About that time King Herod violently attacked some who belonged to the church,² and he executed James, John's brother, with the sword.³ When he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter too, during the Festival of Unleavened Bread.⁴ After the arrest, he put him in prison and assigned four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.⁵ So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was praying fervently to God for him.

⁶ When Herod was about to bring him out for trial, that very night Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while the sentries in front of the door guarded the prison.⁷ Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell. Striking Peter on the side, he woke him up and said, "Quick, get up!" And the chains fell off his wrists.⁸ "Get dressed," the angel told him, "and put on your sandals." And he did. "Wrap your cloak around you," he told him, "and follow me."⁹ So he went out and followed, and he did not know that what the angel did was really happening, but he thought he was seeing a vision.¹⁰ After they passed the first and second guards, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went outside and passed one street, and suddenly the angel left him.

¹¹ When Peter came to himself, he said, "Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from Herod's grasp and from all that the Jewish people expected."¹² As soon as he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where many had assembled and were praying.¹³ He knocked at the door of the outer gate, and a servant named Rhoda came to answer.¹⁴ She recognized Peter's voice, and because of her joy, she did not open the gate but ran in and announced that Peter was standing at the outer gate.

¹⁵ "You're out of your mind!" they told her. But she kept insisting that it was true, and they said, "It's his angel."¹⁶ Peter, however, kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were amazed.

¹⁷ Motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. "Tell these things to James and the brothers," he said, and he left and went to another place.

¹⁸ At daylight, there was a great commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter.¹⁹ After Herod had searched and did not find him, he interrogated the guards and ordered their execution. Then Herod went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there.

²⁴ But the word of God flourished and multiplied.²⁵ After they had completed their relief mission, Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem, taking along John who was called Mark.

13 Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen, a close friend of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

² As they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."³ Then after they had fasted, prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them off.

⁴ So being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus.⁵ Arriving in Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They also had John as their assistant.⁶ When they had traveled the whole island as far as Paphos, they came across a sorcerer, a Jewish false prophet named Bar-Jesus.⁷ He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul and wanted to hear the word of God.⁸ But Elymas the sorcerer (that is the meaning of his name) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

⁹ But Saul — also called Paul — filled with the Holy Spirit, stared straight at Elymas¹⁰ and said, "You are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery, you son of the devil and enemy of all that is right. Won't you ever stop perverting the straight paths of the Lord?¹¹ Now, look, the Lord's hand is against you. You are going to be blind, and will not see the sun for a time." Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

¹²Then, when he saw what happened, the proconsul believed, because he was astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

¹³Paul and his companions set sail from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia, but John left them and went back to Jerusalem. ¹⁴They continued their journey from Perga and reached Pisidian Antioch. On the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. ¹⁵After the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the leaders of the synagogue sent word to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, you can speak."

¹⁶Paul stood up and motioned with his hand and said: "Fellow Israelites, and you who fear God, listen! ¹⁷The God of this people Israel chose our ancestors, made the people prosper during their stay in the land of Egypt, and led them out of it with a mighty arm. ¹⁸And for about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness; ¹⁹and after destroying seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance. ²⁰This all took about 450 years. After this, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. ²²After removing him, he raised up David as their king and testified about him: 'I have found David the son of Jesse to be a man after my own heart, who will carry out all my will.'

²³"From this man's descendants, as he promised, God brought to Israel the Savior, Jesus. ²⁴Before his coming to public attention, John had previously proclaimed a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵Now as John was completing his mission, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I am not the one. But one is coming after me, and I am not worthy to untie the sandals on his feet.'

²⁶"Brothers and sisters, children of Abraham's race, and those among you who fear God, it is to us that the word of this salvation has been sent. ²⁷Since the residents of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize him or the sayings of the prophets that are read every Sabbath, they have fulfilled their words by condemning him. ²⁸Though they found no grounds for the death sentence, they asked Pilate to have him killed. ²⁹When they had carried out all that had been written about him, they took him down from the tree and put him in a tomb. ³⁰But God raised him from the dead, ³¹and he appeared for many days to those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people. ³²And we ourselves proclaim to you the good news of the promise that was made to our ancestors. ³³God has fulfilled this for us, their children, by raising up Jesus, as it is written in the second Psalm:

You are my Son;
today I have become your Father.

³⁴As to his raising him from the dead, never to return to decay, he has spoken in this way, I will give you the holy and sure promises of David. ³⁵Therefore he also says in another passage, You will not let your Holy One see decay. ³⁶For David, after serving God's purpose in his own generation, fell asleep, was buried with his fathers, and decayed, ³⁷but the one God raised up did not decay. ³⁸Therefore, let it be known to you, brothers and sisters, that through this man forgiveness of sins is being proclaimed to

you. ³⁹Everyone who believes is justified through him from everything that you could not be justified from through the law of Moses. ⁴⁰So beware that what is said in the prophets does not happen to you:

⁴¹ Look, you scoffers,
marvel and vanish away,
because I am doing a work in your days,
a work that you will never believe,
even if someone were to explain it to you."

⁴²As they were leaving, the people urged them to speak about these matters the following Sabbath. ⁴³After the synagogue had been dismissed, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who were speaking with them and urging them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴The following Sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began to contradict what Paul was saying, insulting him.

⁴⁶Paul and Barnabas boldly replied, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first. Since you reject it and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, we are turning to the Gentiles. ⁴⁷For this is what the Lord has commanded us:

I have made you a light for the Gentiles to bring salvation
to the end of the earth."

⁴⁸When the Gentiles heard this, they rejoiced and honored the word of the Lord, and all who had been appointed to eternal life believed. ⁴⁹The word of the Lord spread through the whole region. ⁵⁰But the Jews incited the prominent God-fearing women and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas and expelled them from their district. ⁵¹But Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet against them and went to Iconium. ⁵²And the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

14 In Iconium they entered the Jewish synagogue, as usual, and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Jews and Greeks believed. ²But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. ³So they stayed there a long time and spoke boldly for the Lord, who testified to the message of his grace by enabling them to do signs and wonders. ⁴But the people of the city were divided, some siding with the Jews and others with the apostles. ⁵When an attempt was made by both the Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to mistreat and stone them, ⁶they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian towns of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding countryside. ⁷There they continued preaching the gospel.

⁸In Lystra a man was sitting who was without strength in his feet, had never walked, and had been lame from birth. ⁹He listened as Paul spoke. After looking directly at him and seeing that he had faith to be healed, ¹⁰Paul said in a loud voice, "Stand up on your feet!" And he jumped up and began to walk around.

¹¹When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they shouted, saying in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form!" ¹²Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. ¹³The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the town, brought bulls and wreaths to the gates because he intended, with the crowds, to offer sacrifice.

¹⁴The apostles Barnabas and Paul tore their robes when they heard this and rushed into the crowd, shouting: ¹⁵"People! Why are you doing these things? We are people also, just like you, and we are proclaiming good news to you, that you turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and everything in them. ¹⁶In past generations he allowed all the nations to go their own way, ¹⁷although he did not leave himself without a witness, since he did what is good by giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons and filling you with food and your hearts with joy." ¹⁸Even though they said these things, they barely stopped the crowds from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹Some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium, and when they won over the crowds, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, thinking he was dead. ²⁰After the disciples gathered around him, he got up and went into the town. The next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

²¹After they had preached the gospel in that town and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, to Iconium, and to Antioch, ²²strengthening the disciples by encouraging them to continue in the faith and by telling them, "It is necessary to go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." ²³When they had appointed elders for them in every church and prayed with fasting, they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

²⁴They passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia. ²⁵After they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. ²⁶From there they sailed back to Antioch where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed. ²⁷After they arrived and gathered the church together, they reported everything God had done with them and that he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. ²⁸And they spent a considerable time with the disciples.

15 Some men came down from Judea and began to teach the brothers: "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom prescribed by Moses, you cannot be saved." ²After Paul and Barnabas had engaged them in serious argument and debate, Paul and Barnabas and some others were appointed to go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem about this issue. ³When they had been sent on their way by the church, they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and they brought great joy to all the brothers and sisters.

⁴When they arrived at Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church, the apostles, and the elders, and they reported all that God had done with them. ⁵But some of the believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees stood up and said, "It is necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the law of Moses."

⁶The apostles and the elders gathered to consider this matter. ⁷After there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them: "Brothers and sisters, you are aware that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles would hear the gospel message and believe. ⁸And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as he also did to us. ⁹He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. ¹⁰Now then, why are you testing God by putting a yoke on the disciples' necks that neither our ancestors nor we have been able to bear? ¹¹On the contrary, we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus in the same way they are."

¹²The whole assembly became silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul describe all the signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles. ¹³After they stopped speaking, James responded: "Brothers and sisters, listen to me. ¹⁴Simeon has reported how God first intervened to take from the Gentiles a people for his name. ¹⁵And the words of the prophets agree with this, as it is written:

¹⁶ After these things I will return and rebuild David's fallen tent.

I will rebuild its ruins and set it up again,

¹⁷ so the rest of humanity

may seek the Lord —

even all the Gentiles who are called by my name —

declares the Lord

who makes these things ¹⁸known

from long ago.

¹⁹Therefore, in my judgment, we should not cause difficulties for those among the Gentiles who turn to God, ²⁰but instead we should write to them to abstain from things polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from eating anything that has been strangled, and from blood. ²¹For since ancient times, Moses has had those who proclaim him in every city, and every Sabbath day he is read aloud in the synagogues."

²²Then the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, decided to select men who were among them and to send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas, called Barsabbas, and Silas, both leading men among the brothers. ²³They wrote:

"From the apostles and the elders, your brothers, To the brothers and sisters among the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: Greetings.

²⁴Since we have heard that some without our authorization went out from us and troubled you with their words and unsettled your hearts, ²⁵we have unanimously decided to select men and send them to you along with our dearly loved Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, who will personally report the same things by word of mouth. ²⁸For it was the Holy Spirit's decision — and ours — not to place further burdens on you beyond these requirements: ²⁹that you abstain from food offered to idols, from blood, from eating anything that has been strangled, and from sexual immorality. You will do well if you keep yourselves from these things. Farewell."

³⁰So they were sent off and went down to Antioch, and after gathering the assembly, they delivered the letter. ³¹When they read it, they rejoiced because of its encouragement. ³²Both Judas and Silas, who were also prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers and sisters and strengthened them with a long message. ³³After spending some time there, they were sent back in peace by the brothers and sisters to those who had sent them. ³⁵But Paul and Barnabas, along with many others, remained in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of the Lord.

³⁶After some time had passed, Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's go back and visit the brothers and sisters in every town where we have preached the word of the Lord and see how they're doing." ³⁷Barnabas wanted to take along

John Mark. ³⁸ But Paul insisted that they should not take along this man who had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not gone on with them to the work. ³⁹ They had such a sharp disagreement that they parted company, and Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed off to Cyprus. ⁴⁰ But Paul chose Silas and departed, after being commended by the brothers and sisters to the grace of the Lord. ⁴¹ He traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

16 Paul went on to Derbe and Lystra, where there was a disciple named Timothy, the son of a believing Jewish woman, but his father was a Greek. ² The brothers and sisters at Lystra and Iconium spoke highly of him. ³ Paul wanted Timothy to go with him; so he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, since they all knew that his father was a Greek. ⁴ As they traveled through the towns, they delivered the decisions reached by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem for the people to observe. ⁵ So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew daily in numbers.

⁶ They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia; they had been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. ⁷ When they came to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them. ⁸ Passing by Mysia they went down to Troas. ⁹ During the night Paul had a vision in which a Macedonian man was standing and pleading with him, "Cross over to Macedonia and help us!" ¹⁰ After he had seen the vision, we immediately made efforts to set out for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

¹¹ From Troas we put out to sea and sailed straight for Samothrace, the next day to Neapolis, ¹² and from there to Philippi, a Roman colony and a leading city of the district of Macedonia. We stayed in that city for several days. ¹³ On the Sabbath day we went outside the city gate by the river, where we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and spoke to the women gathered there. ¹⁴ A God-fearing woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, was listening. The Lord opened her heart to respond to what Paul was saying. ¹⁵ After she and her household were baptized, she urged us, "If you consider me a believer in the Lord, come and stay at my house." And she persuaded us.

¹⁶ Once, as we were on our way to prayer, a slave girl met us who had a spirit by which she predicted the future. She made a large profit for her owners by fortune-telling. ¹⁷ As she followed Paul and us she cried out, "These men, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation, are the servants of the Most High God." ¹⁸ She did this for many days.

Paul was greatly annoyed. Turning to the spirit, he said, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" And it came out right away.

¹⁹ When her owners realized that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities. ²⁰ Bringing them before the chief magistrates, they said, "These men are seriously disturbing our city. They are Jews ²¹ and are promoting customs that are not legal for us as Romans to adopt or practice." ²² The crowd joined in the attack against them, and the chief magistrates stripped off their clothes and ordered them to be beaten with rods. ²³ After they had severely flogged them, they threw them in jail, ordering the jailer to guard them carefully. ²⁴ Receiving such an order, he put them into the inner prison and secured their feet in the stocks.

²⁵ About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

²⁶ Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the jail were shaken, and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains came loose. ²⁷ When the jailer woke up and saw the doors of the prison standing open, he drew his sword and was going to kill himself, since he thought the prisoners had escaped.

²⁸ But Paul called out in a loud voice, "Don't harm yourself, because we're all here!"

²⁹ The jailer called for lights, rushed in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ He escorted them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

³¹ They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household." ³² And they spoke the word of the Lord to him along with everyone in his house. ³³ He took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds. Right away he and all his family were baptized. ³⁴ He brought them into his house, set a meal before them, and rejoiced because he had come to believe in God with his entire household.

³⁵ When daylight came, the chief magistrates sent the police to say, "Release those men."

³⁶ The jailer reported these words to Paul: "The magistrates have sent orders for you to be released. So come out now and go in peace."

³⁷ But Paul said to them, "They beat us in public without a trial, although we are Roman citizens, and threw us in jail. And now are they going to send us away secretly? Certainly not! On the contrary, let them come themselves and escort us out."

³⁸ The police reported these words to the magistrates. They were afraid when they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens. ³⁹ So they came to appease them, and escorting them from prison, they urged them to leave town. ⁴⁰ After leaving the jail, they came to Lydia's house, where they saw and encouraged the brothers and sisters, and departed.

17 After they passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. ² As usual, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, ³ explaining and proving that it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and rise from the dead. "This Jesus I am proclaiming to you is the Messiah." ⁴ Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, including a large number of God-fearing Greeks, as well as a number of the leading women.

¹⁰ As soon as it was night, the brothers and sisters sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. Upon arrival, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. ¹¹ The people here were of more noble character than those in Thessalonica, since they received the word with eagerness and examined the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so.¹² Consequently, many of them believed, including a number of the prominent Greek women as well as men.¹³ But when the Jews from Thessalonica found out that the word of God had been proclaimed by Paul at Berea, they came there too, agitating and upsetting the crowds.¹⁴ Then the brothers and sisters immediately sent Paul away to go to the coast, but Silas and Timothy stayed on there.¹⁵ Those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens, and after receiving instructions for Silas and Timothy to come to him as quickly as possible, they departed.

¹⁶While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply distressed when he saw that the city was full of idols.¹⁷ So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with those who worshiped God, as well as in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there.¹⁸ Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also debated with him. Some said, "What is this ignorant show-off trying to say?"

Others replied, "He seems to be a preacher of foreign deities" — because he was telling the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.

¹⁹They took him and brought him to the Areopagus, and said, "May we learn about this new teaching you are presenting?"²⁰ Because what you say sounds strange to us, and we want to know what these things mean."²¹ Now all the Athenians and the foreigners residing there spent their time on nothing else but telling or hearing something new.

²²Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus and said: "People of Athens! I see that you are extremely religious in every respect.²³ For as I was passing through and observing the objects of your worship, I even found an altar on which was inscribed: 'To an Unknown God.' Therefore, what you worship in ignorance, this I proclaim to you.²⁴ The God who made the world and everything in it — he is Lord of heaven and earth — does not live in shrines made by hands.²⁵ Neither is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives everyone life and breath and all things.²⁶ From one man he has made every nationality to live over the whole earth and has determined their appointed times and the boundaries of where they live.²⁷ He did this so that they might seek God, and perhaps they might reach out and find him, though he is not far from each one of us.²⁸ For in him we live and move and have our being, as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.'²⁹ Since we are God's offspring then, we shouldn't think that the divine nature is like gold or silver or stone, an image fashioned by human art and imagination.

³⁰"Therefore, having overlooked the times of ignorance, God now commands all people everywhere to repent,³¹ because he has set a day when he is going to judge the world in righteousness by the man he has appointed. He has provided proof of this to everyone by raising him from the dead."

³²When they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some began to ridicule him, but others said, "We'd like to hear from you again about this."³³ So Paul left their presence.³⁴ However, some people joined him and believed, including Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After this, he left Athens and went to Corinth,² where he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome.

Paul came to them,³ and since they were of the same occupation, tentmakers by trade, he stayed with them and worked.⁴ He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath and tried to persuade both Jews and Greeks.

⁵When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself to preaching the word and testified to the Jews that Jesus is the Messiah.⁶When they resisted and blasphemed, he shook out his clothes and told them, "Your blood is on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."⁷ So he left there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.⁸ Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord, along with his whole household. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized.

⁹The Lord said to Paul in a night vision, "Don't be afraid, but keep on speaking and don't be silent."¹⁰ For I am with you, and no one will lay a hand on you to hurt you, because I have many people in this city."¹¹ He stayed there a year and a half, teaching the word of God among them.

¹²While Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack against Paul and brought him to the tribunal.¹³ "This man," they said, "is persuading people to worship God in ways contrary to the law."

¹⁴As Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or of a serious crime, it would be reasonable for me to put up with you Jews.¹⁵ But if these are questions about words, names, and your own law, see to it yourselves. I refuse to be a judge of such things."¹⁶ So he drove them from the tribunal.¹⁷ And they all seized Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the tribunal, but none of these things mattered to Gallio.

¹⁸After staying for some time, Paul said farewell to the brothers and sisters and sailed away to Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head at Cenchræe because of a vow he had taken.¹⁹When they reached Ephesus he left them there, but he himself entered the synagogue and debated with the Jews.²⁰When they asked him to stay for a longer time, he declined,²¹ but he said farewell and added, "I'll come back to you again, if God wills." Then he set sail from Ephesus.

²²On landing at Caesarea, he went up to Jerusalem and greeted the church, then went down to Antioch.

²³After spending some time there, he set out, traveling through one place after another in the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

²⁴Now a Jew named Apollos, a native Alexandrian, an eloquent man who was competent in the use of the Scriptures, arrived in Ephesus.²⁵ He had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately about Jesus, although he knew only John's baptism.²⁶ He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. After Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the way of God to him more accurately.²⁷When he wanted to cross over to Achaia, the brothers and sisters wrote to the disciples to welcome him. After he arrived, he was a great help to those who by grace had believed.²⁸For he vigorously refuted the Jews in public, demonstrating through the Scriptures that Jesus is the Messiah.

19 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the interior regions and came to Ephesus. He found some disciples² and asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?"

"No," they told him, "we haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

³"Into what then were you baptized?" he asked them.

"Into John's baptism," they replied.

⁴Paul said, "John baptized with a baptism of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Jesus."

⁵When they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.⁶ And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began to speak in other tongues and to prophesy.⁷ Now there were about twelve men in all.

⁸Paul entered the synagogue and spoke boldly over a period of three months, arguing and persuading them about the kingdom of God.⁹ But when some became hardened and would not believe, slandering the Way in front of the crowd, he withdrew from them, taking the disciples, and conducted discussions every day in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.¹⁰ This went on for two years, so that all the residents of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the word of the Lord.

¹¹God was performing extraordinary miracles by Paul's hands,¹² so that even facecloths or aprons that had touched his skin were brought to the sick, and the diseases left them, and the evil spirits came out of them.

¹³Now some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists also attempted to pronounce the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I command you by the Jesus that Paul preaches!"¹⁴ Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish high priest, were doing this.¹⁵ The evil spirit answered them, "I know Jesus, and I recognize Paul—but who are you?"¹⁶ Then the man who had the evil spirit jumped on them, overpowered them all, and prevailed against them, so that they ran out of that house naked and wounded.¹⁷ When this became known to everyone who lived in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks, they became afraid, and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high esteem.

²¹After these events, Paul resolved by the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia and go to Jerusalem. "After I've been there," he said, "It is necessary for me to see Rome as well."²² After sending to Macedonia two of those who assisted him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

²³About that time there was a major disturbance about the Way.²⁴ For a person named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Artemis, provided a great deal of business for the craftsmen.²⁵ When he had assembled them, as well as the workers engaged in this type of business, he said: "Men, you know that our prosperity is derived from this business.²⁶ You see and hear that not only in Ephesus, but in almost all of Asia, this man Paul has persuaded and misled a considerable number of people by saying that gods made by hand are not gods.²⁷ Not only do we run a risk that our business may be discredited, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis may be despised and her magnificence come to the verge of ruin—the very one all of Asia and the world worship."

²⁸When they had heard this, they were filled with rage and began to cry out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

²⁹So the city was filled with confusion, and they rushed

all together into the amphitheater, dragging along Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul's traveling companions.³⁰ Although Paul wanted to go in before the people, the disciples did not let him.³¹ Even some of the provincial officials of Asia, who were his friends, sent word to him, pleading with him not to venture into the amphitheater.³² Some were shouting one thing and some another, because the assembly was in confusion, and most of them did not know why they had come together.³³ Some Jews in the crowd gave instructions to Alexander after they pushed him to the front. Motioning with his hand, Alexander wanted to make his defense to the people.³⁴ But when they recognized that he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

³⁵When the city clerk had calmed the crowd down, he said, "People of Ephesus! What person is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is the temple guardian of the great Artemis, and of the image that fell from heaven?"³⁶ Therefore, since these things are undeniable, you must keep calm and not do anything rash.³⁷ For you have brought these men here who are not temple robbers or blasphemers of our goddess.³⁸ So if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a case against anyone, the courts are in session, and there are proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another.³⁹ But if you seek anything further, it must be decided in a legal assembly.⁴⁰ In fact, we run a risk of being charged with rioting for what happened today, since there is no justification that we can give as a reason for this disturbance."⁴¹ After saying this, he dismissed the assembly.

20 After the uproar was over, Paul sent for the disciples, encouraged them, and after saying farewell, departed to go to Macedonia.² And when he had passed through those areas and offered them many words of encouragement, he came to Greece³ and stayed three months. The Jews plotted against him when he was about to set sail for Syria, and so he decided to go back through Macedonia.⁴ He was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia.⁵ These men went on ahead and waited for us in Troas,⁶ but we sailed away from Philippi after the Festival of Unleavened Bread. In five days we reached them at Troas, where we spent seven days.

⁷On the first day of the week, we assembled to break bread. Paul spoke to them, and since he was about to depart the next day, he kept on talking until midnight.⁸ There were many lamps in the room upstairs where we were assembled,⁹ and a young man named Eutyclus was sitting on a window sill and sank into a deep sleep as Paul kept on talking. When he was overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead.¹⁰ But Paul went down, bent over him, embraced him, and said, "Don't be alarmed, because he's alive."¹¹ After going upstairs, breaking the bread, and eating, Paul talked a long time until dawn. Then he left.¹² They brought the boy home alive and were greatly comforted.

¹³We went on ahead to the ship and sailed for Assos, where we were going to take Paul on board, because these were his instructions, since he himself was going by land.¹⁴ When he met us at Assos, we took him on board and went on to Mitylene.¹⁵ Sailing from there, the next day we arrived off Chios. The following day we crossed over to Samos, and the day after, we came to Miletus.¹⁶ For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus to avoid spending time in the province of Asia, because he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, for the day of Pentecost.

¹⁷ Now from Miletus, he sent to Ephesus and summoned the elders of the church. ¹⁸ When they came to him, he said to them: "You know, from the first day I set foot in Asia, how I was with you the whole time, ¹⁹ serving the Lord with all humility, with tears, and during the trials that came to me through the plots of the Jews. ²⁰ You know that I did not avoid proclaiming to you anything that was profitable or from teaching you publicly and from house to house. ²¹ I testified to both Jews and Greeks about repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus.

²² "And now I am on my way to Jerusalem, compelled by the Spirit, not knowing what I will encounter there, ²³ except that in every town the Holy Spirit warns me that chains and afflictions are waiting for me. ²⁴ But I consider my life of no value to myself; my purpose is to finish my course and the ministry I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of God's grace.

²⁵ "And now I know that none of you, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, will ever see me again. ²⁶ Therefore I declare to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all of you, ²⁷ because I did not avoid declaring to you the whole plan of God. ²⁸ Be on guard for yourselves and for all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has appointed you as overseers, to shepherd the church of God, which he purchased with his own blood. ²⁹ I know that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. ³⁰ Men will rise up even from your own number and distort the truth to lure the disciples into following them. ³¹ Therefore be on the alert, remembering that night and day for three years I never stopped warning each one of you with tears.

³² "And now I commit you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all who are sanctified. ³³ I have not coveted anyone's silver or gold or clothing. ³⁴ You yourselves know that I worked with my own hands to support myself and those who are with me. ³⁵ In every way I've shown you that it is necessary to help the weak by laboring like this and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, because he said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'

³⁶ After he said this, he knelt down and prayed with all of them. ³⁷ There were many tears shed by everyone. They embraced Paul and kissed him, ³⁸ grieving most of all over his statement that they would never see his face again. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21 After we tore ourselves away from them, we set sail straight for Cos, the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. ² Finding a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we boarded and set sail. ³ After we sighted Cyprus, passing to the south of it, we sailed on to Syria and arrived at Tyre, since the ship was to unload its cargo there. ⁴ We sought out the disciples and stayed there seven days. Through the Spirit they told Paul not to go to Jerusalem. ⁵ When our time had come to an end, we left to continue our journey, while all of them, with their wives and children, accompanied us out of the city. After kneeling down on the beach to pray, ⁶ we said farewell to one another and boarded the ship, and they returned home.

⁷ When we completed our voyage from Tyre, we reached Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and sisters and stayed with them for a day. ⁸ The next day we left and came to Caesarea, where we entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the Seven, and stayed with him. ⁹ This man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.

¹⁰ After we had been there for several days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹ He came to us, took Paul's belt, tied his own feet and hands, and said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says: 'In this way the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and deliver him over to the Gentiles.'" ¹² When we heard this, both we and the local people pleaded with him not to go up to Jerusalem.

¹³ Then Paul replied, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

¹⁴ Since he would not be persuaded, we said no more except, "The Lord's will be done."

¹⁵ After this we got ready and went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶ Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us and brought us to Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to stay.

¹⁷ When we reached Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters welcomed us warmly. ¹⁸ The following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. ¹⁹ After greeting them, he reported in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

²⁰ When they heard it, they glorified God and said, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law. ²¹ But they have been informed about you — that you are teaching all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to abandon Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or to live according to our customs. ²² So what is to be done? They will certainly hear that you've come. ²³ Therefore do what we tell you: We have four men who have made a vow. ²⁴ Take these men, purify yourself along with them, and pay for them to get their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that what they were told about you amounts to nothing, but that you yourself are also careful about observing the law. ²⁵ With regard to the Gentiles who have believed, we have written a letter containing our decision that they should keep themselves from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from what is strangled, and from sexual immorality."

²⁶ So the next day, Paul took the men, having purified himself along with them, and entered the temple, announcing the completion of the purification days when the offering would be made for each of them. ²⁷ When the seven days were nearly over, some Jews from the province of Asia saw him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd, and seized him, ²⁸ shouting, "Fellow Israelites, help! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people, our law, and this place. What's more, he also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." ²⁹ For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

³¹ As they were trying to kill him, word went up to the commander of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in chaos. ³² Taking along soldiers and centurions, he immediately ran down to them. Seeing the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. ³³ Then the commander approached, took him into custody, and ordered him to be bound with two chains. He asked who he was and what he had done. ³⁴ Some in the crowd were shouting one thing and some another. Since he was not able to get reliable information because of the uproar, he ordered him to be taken into the barracks.³⁵ When Paul got to the steps, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd,³⁶ for the mass of people followed, yelling, "Get rid of him!"

³⁷ As he was about to be brought into the barracks, Paul said to the commander, "Am I allowed to say something to you?"

He replied, "You know how to speak Greek?³⁸ Aren't you the Egyptian who started a revolt some time ago and led four thousand men of the Assassins into the wilderness?"

³⁹ Paul said, "I am a Jewish man from Tarsus of Cilicia, a citizen of an important city. Now I ask you, let me speak to the people."

⁴⁰ After he had given permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned with his hand to the people. When there was a great hush, he addressed them in Aramaic:

22 ¹ "Brothers and fathers, listen now to my defense before you."² When they heard that he was addressing them in Aramaic, they became even quieter.³ He continued, "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia but brought up in this city, educated at the feet of Gamaliel according to the law of our ancestors. I was zealous for God, just as all of you are today.⁴ I persecuted this Way to the death, arresting and putting both men and women in jail,⁵ as both the high priest and the whole council of elders can testify about me. After I received letters from them to the brothers, I traveled to Damascus to arrest those who were there and bring them to Jerusalem to be punished.

⁶ "As I was traveling and approaching Damascus, about noon an intense light from heaven suddenly flashed around me.⁷ I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'

⁸ "I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?'

"He said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, the one you are persecuting.'⁹ Now those who were with me saw the light, but they did not hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me.

¹⁰ "I said, 'What should I do, Lord?'

"The Lord told me, 'Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told everything that you have been assigned to do.'

¹¹ "Since I couldn't see because of the brightness of the light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me, and went into Damascus.¹² Someone named Ananias, a devout man according to the law, who had a good reputation with all the Jews living there,¹³ came and stood by me and said, 'Brother Saul, regain your sight.' And in that very hour I looked up and saw him.¹⁴ And he said, 'The God of our ancestors has appointed you to know his will, to see the Righteous One, and to hear the words from his mouth,¹⁵ since you will be a witness for him to all people of what you have seen and heard.¹⁶ And now, why are you delaying? Get up and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on his name.'

¹⁷ "After I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance¹⁸ and saw him telling me, 'Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about me.'

¹⁹ "But I said, 'Lord, they know that in synagogue after synagogue I had those who believed in you imprisoned and beaten.²⁰ And when the blood of your witness Stephen was being shed, I stood there giving approval and guarding the clothes of those who killed him.'

²¹ "He said to me, 'Go, because I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'

²² They listened to him up to this point. Then they raised their voices, shouting, "Wipe this man off the face of the earth! He should not be allowed to live!"

²³ As they were yelling and flinging aside their garments and throwing dust into the air,²⁴ the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, directing that he be interrogated with the scourge to discover the reason they were shouting against him like this.²⁵ As they stretched him out for the lash, Paul said to the centurion standing by, "Is it legal for you to scourge a man who is a Roman citizen and is uncondemned?"

²⁶ When the centurion heard this, he went and reported to the commander, saying, "What are you going to do? For this man is a Roman citizen."

²⁷ The commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?"

"Yes," he said.

²⁸ The commander replied, "I bought this citizenship for a large amount of money."

"But I was born a citizen," Paul said.

²⁹ So those who were about to examine him withdrew from him immediately. The commander too was alarmed when he realized Paul was a Roman citizen and he had bound him.

³⁰ The next day, since he wanted to find out exactly why Paul was being accused by the Jews, he released him and instructed the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to convene. He brought Paul down and placed him before them.¹ Paul looked straight at the Sanhedrin and

23 said, "Brothers, I have lived my life before God in all good conscience to this day."² The high priest Ananias ordered those who were standing next to him to strike him on the mouth.³ Then Paul said to him, "God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! You are sitting there judging me according to the law, and yet in violation of the law are you ordering me to be struck?"

⁴ Those standing nearby said, "Do you dare revile God's high priest?"

⁵ "I did not know, brothers, that he was the high priest," replied Paul. "For it is written, You must not speak evil of a ruler of your people."⁶ When Paul realized that one part of them were Sadducees and the other part were Pharisees, he cried out in the Sanhedrin, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. I am being judged because of the hope of the resurrection of the dead!"⁷ When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.⁸ For the Sadducees say there is no resurrection, and neither angel nor spirit, but the Pharisees affirm them all.

⁹ The shouting grew loud, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees' party got up and argued vehemently: "We find nothing evil in this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?"

¹⁰ When the dispute became violent, the commander feared that Paul might be torn apart by them and ordered the troops to go down, take him away from them, and bring him into the barracks.¹¹ The following night, the Lord stood by him and said, "Have courage! For as you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so it is necessary for you to testify in Rome."

¹² When it was morning, the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves under a curse not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul.¹³ There were more than forty who had formed this plot.¹⁴ These men went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have bound ourselves under a solemn curse that we won't eat anything until we have killed Paul.¹⁵ So now you, along with the Sanhedrin, make a request to the commander that he bring him down to you as if you were going to investigate his case more thoroughly. But, before he gets near, we are ready to kill him."

¹⁶ But the son of Paul's sister, hearing about their ambush, came and entered the barracks and reported it to Paul.¹⁷ Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander, because he has something to report to him."

¹⁸ So he took him, brought him to the commander, and said, "The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, because he has something to tell you."

¹⁹ The commander took him by the hand, led him aside, and inquired privately, "What is it you have to report to me?"

²⁰ "The Jews," he said, "have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin tomorrow, as though they are going to hold a somewhat more careful inquiry about him."

²¹ Don't let them persuade you, because there are more than forty of them lying in ambush — men who have bound themselves under a curse not to eat or drink until they have killed him. Now they are ready, waiting for your consent."

²² So the commander dismissed the young man and instructed him, "Don't tell anyone that you have informed me about this."

²³ He summoned two of his centurions and said, "Get two hundred soldiers ready with seventy cavalry and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea at nine tonight."²⁴ Also provide mounts for Paul to ride and bring him safely to Felix the governor."

²⁵ He wrote the following letter:

²⁶ Claudius Lysias,
To the most excellent governor Felix:
Greetings.

²⁷ When this man had been seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them, I arrived with my troops and rescued him because I learned that he is a Roman citizen.²⁸ Wanting to know the charge they were accusing him of, I brought him down before their Sanhedrin.²⁹ I found out that the accusations were concerning questions of their law, and that there was no charge that merited death or imprisonment.³⁰ When I was informed that there was a plot against the man, I sent him to you right away. I also ordered his accusers to state their case against him in your presence.

³¹ So the soldiers took Paul during the night and brought him to Antipatris as they were ordered.³² The next day, they returned to the barracks, allowing the cavalry to go on with him.³³ When these men entered Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.³⁴ After he read it, he asked what province he was from. When he learned he was from Cilicia,³⁵ he said, "I will give you a hearing whenever your accusers also get here." He ordered that he be kept under guard in Herod's palace.

24 Five days later Ananias the high priest came down with some elders and a lawyer named Tertullus. These men presented their case against Paul to the governor.² When Paul was called in, Tertullus began to accuse him and said: "We enjoy great peace because of you, and reforms are taking place for the benefit of this nation because of your foresight.³ We acknowledge this in every way and everywhere, most excellent Felix, with utmost gratitude.⁴ But, so that I will not burden you any further, I request that you would be kind enough to give us a brief hearing.⁵ For we have found this man to be a plague, an agitator among all the Jews throughout the Roman world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.⁶ He even tried to desecrate the temple, and so we apprehended him. By examining him yourself you will be able to discern the truth about these charges we are bringing against him."⁹ The Jews also joined in the attack, alleging that these things were true.

¹⁰ When the governor motioned for him to speak, Paul replied: "Because I know you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I am glad to offer my defense in what concerns me.¹¹ You can verify for yourself that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to worship in Jerusalem.¹² They didn't find me arguing with anyone or causing a disturbance among the crowd, either in the temple or in the synagogues or anywhere in the city.¹³ Neither can they prove the charges they are now making against me.¹⁴ But I admit this to you: I worship the God of my ancestors according to the Way, which they call a sect, believing everything that is in accordance with the law and written in the prophets.¹⁵ I have a hope in God, which these men themselves also accept, that there will be a resurrection, both of the righteous and the unrighteous.¹⁶ I always strive to have a clear conscience toward God and men.¹⁷ After many years, I came to bring charitable gifts and offerings to my people.¹⁸ While I was doing this, some Jews from Asia found me ritually purified in the temple, without a crowd and without any uproar.¹⁹ It is they who ought to be here before you to bring charges, if they have anything against me.²⁰ Or let these men here state what wrongdoing they found in me when I stood before the Sanhedrin,²¹ other than this one statement I shouted while standing among them, "Today I am on trial before you concerning the resurrection of the dead."

²² Since Felix was well informed about the Way, he adjourned the hearing, saying, "When Lysias the commander comes down, I will decide your case."²³ He ordered that the centurion keep Paul under guard, though he could have some freedom, and that he should not prevent any of his friends from meeting his needs.

²⁴ Several days later, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and listened to him on the subject of faith in Christ Jesus.²⁵ Now as he spoke about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix became afraid and replied, "Leave for now, but when I have an opportunity I'll call for you."²⁶ At the same time he was also hoping that Paul would offer him money. So he sent for him quite often and conversed with him.

²⁷ After two years had passed, Porcius Festus succeeded Felix, and because Felix wanted to do the Jews a favor, he left Paul in prison.

25 Three days after Festus arrived in the province, he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.² The chief priests and the leaders of the Jews presented their case against Paul to him; and they appealed,³ asking for a favor against Paul, that Festus summon him to Jerusalem. They were, in fact, preparing an ambush along the road to kill him.⁴ Festus, however, answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to go there shortly.⁵ "Therefore," he said, "let those of you who have authority go down with me and accuse him, if he has done anything wrong."

⁶ When he had spent not more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to Caesarea. The next day, seated at the tribunal, he commanded Paul to be brought in. ⁷When he arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him and brought many serious charges that they were not able to prove. ⁸Then Paul made his defense: "Neither against the Jewish law, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I sinned in any way."

⁹But Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favor, replied to Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to be tried before me there on these charges?"

¹⁰Paul replied: "I am standing at Caesar's tribunal, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as even you yourself know very well. ¹¹If then I did anything wrong and am deserving of death, I am not trying to escape death; but if there is nothing to what these men accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

¹²Then after Festus conferred with his council, he replied, "You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you will go."

¹³Several days later, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived in Caesarea and paid a courtesy call on Festus. ¹⁴Since they were staying there several days, Festus presented Paul's case to the king, saying, "There's a man who was left as a prisoner by Felix. ¹⁵When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews presented their case and asked that he be condemned. ¹⁶I answered them that it is not the Roman custom to give someone up before the accused faces the accusers and has an opportunity for a defense against the charges. ¹⁷So when they had assembled here, I did not delay. The next day I took my seat at the tribunal and ordered the man to be brought in. ¹⁸The accusers stood up but brought no charge against him of the evils I was expecting. ¹⁹Instead they had some disagreements with him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, a dead man Paul claimed to be alive. ²⁰Since I was at a loss in a dispute over such things, I asked him if he wanted to go to Jerusalem and be tried there regarding these matters. ²¹But when Paul appealed to be held for trial by the Emperor, I ordered him to be kept in custody until I could send him to Caesar."

²²Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow you will hear him," he replied.

²³So the next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the auditorium with the military commanders and prominent men of the city. When Festus gave the command, Paul was brought in. ²⁴Then Festus said: "King Agrippa and all men present with us, you see this man. The whole Jewish community has appealed to me concerning him, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he should not live any longer. ²⁵I found that he had not done anything deserving of death, but when he himself appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him. ²⁶I have nothing definite to write to my lord about him. Therefore, I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this examination is over, I may have something to write. ²⁷For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner without indicating the charges against him."

26 Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak for yourself."

Then Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense: ²"I consider myself fortunate, that it is before you, King Agrippa, I am to make my defense today against all the accusations of the Jews, ³especially since you are very knowledgeable about all the Jewish customs and controversies. Therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.

⁴"All the Jews know my way of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning among my own people and in Jerusalem. ⁵They have known me for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived as a Pharisee. ⁶And now I stand on trial because of the hope in what God promised to our ancestors, ⁷the promise our twelve tribes hope to reach as they earnestly serve him night and day. King Agrippa, I am being accused by the Jews because of this hope. ⁸Why do any of you consider it incredible that God raises the dead? ⁹In fact, I myself was convinced that it was necessary to do many things in opposition to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. ¹⁰I actually did this in Jerusalem, and I locked up many of the saints in prison, since I had received authority for that from the chief priests. When they were put to death, I was in agreement against them. ¹¹In all the synagogues I often punished them and tried to make them blaspheme. Since I was terribly enraged at them, I pursued them even to foreign cities.

¹²"I was traveling to Damascus under these circumstances with authority and a commission from the chief priests. ¹³King Agrippa, while on the road at midday, I saw a light from heaven brighter than the sun, shining around me and those traveling with me. ¹⁴We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice speaking to me in Aramaic, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

"And the Lord replied: 'I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting. ¹⁶But get up and stand on your feet. For I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you as a servant and a witness of what you have seen and will see of me. ¹⁷I will rescue you from your people and from the Gentiles. I am sending you to them ¹⁸to open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a share among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

¹⁹"So then, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. ²⁰Instead, I preached to those in Damascus first, and to those in Jerusalem and in all the region of Judea, and to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works worthy of repentance. ²¹For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple and were trying to kill me. ²²To this very day, I have had help from God, and I stand and testify to both small and great, saying nothing other than what the prophets and Moses said would take place — ²³that the Messiah must suffer, and that, as the first to rise from the dead, he would proclaim light to our people and to the Gentiles."

²⁴As he was saying these things in his defense, Festus exclaimed in a loud voice, "You're out of your mind, Paul! Too much study is driving you mad."

²⁵But Paul replied, "I'm not out of my mind, most excellent Festus. On the contrary, I'm speaking words of truth and good judgment. ²⁶For the king knows about these matters, and I can speak boldly to him. For I am convinced that none of these things has escaped his notice, since this was not done in a corner. ²⁷King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you believe."

²⁸Agrippa said to Paul, "Are you going to persuade me to become a Christian so easily?"

²⁹"I wish before God," replied Paul, "that whether easily or with difficulty, not only you but all who listen to me today might become as I am — except for these chains."

³⁰The king, the governor, Bernice, and those sitting with them got up, ³¹and when they had left they talked with each other and said, "This man is not doing anything to deserve death or imprisonment."

³²Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar."

27 When it was decided that we were to sail to Italy, they handed over Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Imperial Regiment. ²When we had boarded a ship of Adramyttium, we put to sea, intending to sail to ports along the coast of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us. ³The next day we put in at Sidon, and Julius treated Paul kindly and allowed him to go to his friends to receive their care. ⁴When we had put out to sea from there, we sailed along the northern coast of Cyprus because the winds were against us. ⁵After sailing through the open sea off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we reached Myra in Lycia. ⁶There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy and put us on board. ⁷Sailing slowly for many days, with difficulty we arrived off Cnidus. Since the wind did not allow us to approach it, we sailed along the south side of Crete off Salomone. ⁸With still more difficulty we sailed along the coast and came to a place called Fair Havens near the city of Lasea.

⁹By now much time had passed, and the voyage was already dangerous. Since the Day of Atonement was already over, Paul gave his advice ¹⁰and told them, "Men, I can see that this voyage is headed toward disaster and heavy loss, not only of the cargo and the ship but also of our lives." ¹¹But the centurion paid attention to the captain and the owner of the ship rather than to what Paul said. ¹²Since the harbor was unsuitable to winter in, the majority decided to set sail from there, hoping somehow to reach Phoenix, a harbor on Crete facing the southwest and northwest, and to winter there.

²¹Since they had been without food for a long time, Paul then stood up among them and said, "You men should have followed my advice not to sail from Crete and sustain this damage and loss. ²²Now I urge you to take courage, because there will be no loss of any of your lives, but only of the ship. ²³For last night an angel of the God I belong to and serve stood by me ²⁴and said, 'Don't be afraid, Paul. It is necessary for you to appear before Caesar. And indeed, God has graciously given you all those who are sailing with you.' ²⁵So take courage, men, because I believe God that it will be just the way it was told to me. ²⁶But we have to run aground on some island."

²⁷When the fourteenth night came, we were drifting in the Adriatic Sea, and about midnight the sailors thought they were approaching land. ²⁸They took soundings and found it to be a hundred and twenty feet deep; when they had sailed a little farther and sounded again, they found it to be ninety feet deep. ²⁹Then, fearing we might run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight to come. ³⁰Some sailors tried to escape from the ship; they had let down the skiff into the sea, pretending that they were going to put out anchors from the bow. ³¹Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." ³²Then the soldiers cut the ropes holding the skiff and let it drop away.

³³When it was about daylight, Paul urged them all to take food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have been waiting and going without food, having eaten nothing. ³⁴So I urge you to take some food. For this is for your survival, since none of you will lose a hair from your head." ³⁵After he said these things and had taken some bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all of them, and after he broke it, he began to eat. ³⁶They all were encouraged and took food themselves. ³⁷In all there were 276 of us on the ship. ³⁸When they had eaten enough, they began to lighten the ship by throwing the grain overboard into the sea.

³⁹When daylight came, they did not recognize the land but sighted a bay with a beach. They planned to run the ship ashore if they could. ⁴⁰After cutting loose the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosening the ropes that held the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and headed for the beach. ⁴¹But they struck a sandbar and ran the ship aground. The bow jammed fast and remained immovable, while the stern began to break up by the pounding of the waves. ⁴²The soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners so that no one could swim away and escape. ⁴³But the centurion kept them from carrying out their plan because he wanted to save Paul, and so he ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. ⁴⁴The rest were to follow, some on planks and some on debris from the ship. In this way, everyone safely reached the shore.

28 Once safely ashore, we then learned that the island was called Malta. ²The local people showed us extraordinary kindness. They lit a fire and took us all in, since it was raining and cold. ³As Paul gathered a bundle of brushwood and put it on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened itself on his hand. ⁴When the local people saw the snake hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "This man, no doubt, is a murderer. Even though he has escaped the sea, Justice has not allowed him to live." ⁵But he shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no harm. ⁶They expected that he would begin to swell up or suddenly drop dead. After they waited a long time and saw nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

⁷Now in the area around that place was an estate belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius, who welcomed us and entertained us hospitably for three days. ⁸Publius's father was in bed suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went to him, and praying and laying his hands on him, he healed him. ⁹After this, the rest of those on the island who had diseases also came and were healed. ¹⁰So they heaped many honors on us, and when we sailed, they gave us what we needed.

¹¹ After three months we set sail in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered at the island, with the Twin Gods as its figurehead. ¹² Putting in at Syracuse, we stayed three days. ¹³ From there, after making a circuit along the coast, we reached Rhegium. After one day a south wind sprang up, and the second day we came to Puteoli. ¹⁴ There we found brothers and sisters and were invited to stay a week with them. And so we came to Rome. ¹⁵ Now the brothers and sisters from there had heard the news about us and had come to meet us as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage. ¹⁶ When we entered Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

¹⁷ After three days he called together the leaders of the Jews. When they had gathered he said to them: "Brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. ¹⁸ After they examined me, they wanted to release me, since there was no reason for the death penalty in my case. ¹⁹ Because the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar; even though I had no charge to bring against my people. ²⁰ For this reason I've asked to see you and speak to you. In fact, it is for the hope of Israel that I'm wearing this chain."

²¹ Then they said to him, "We haven't received any letters about you from Judea. None of the brothers has come and reported or spoken anything evil about you. ²² But we want to hear what your views are, since we know that people everywhere are speaking against this sect."

²³ After arranging a day with him, many came to him at his lodging. From dawn to dusk he expounded and testified about the kingdom of God. He tried to persuade them about Jesus from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets. ²⁴ Some were persuaded by what he said, but others did not believe.

²⁵ Disagreeing among themselves, they began to leave after Paul made one statement: "The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your ancestors through the prophet Isaiah ²⁶ when he said,

Go to these people and say:
You will always be listening,
but never understanding;
and you will always be looking,
but never perceiving.

²⁷ For the hearts of these people have grown callous,
their ears are hard of hearing,
and they have shut their eyes;
otherwise they might see with their eyes
and hear with their ears,
understand with their heart
and turn,
and I would heal them.

²⁸ Therefore, let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen."

³⁰ Paul stayed two whole years in his own rented house. And he welcomed all who visited him, ³¹ proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.

ROMANS

1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called as an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God — ² which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures — ³ concerning his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who was a descendant of David according to the flesh ⁴ and was appointed to be the powerful Son of God according to the Spirit of holiness by the resurrection of the dead. ⁵ Through him we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the Gentiles, ⁶ including you who are also called by Jesus Christ.

⁷To all who are in Rome, loved by God, called as saints. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁸ First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you because the news of your faith is being reported in all the world. ⁹ God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in telling the good news about his Son — that I constantly mention you, ¹⁰ always asking in my prayers that if it is somehow in God's will, I may now at last succeed in coming to you. ¹¹ For I want very much to see you, so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you, ¹² that is, to be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine.

¹³ Now I don't want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that I often planned to come to you (but was prevented until now) in order that I might have a fruitful ministry among you, just as I have had among the rest of the Gentiles. ¹⁴ I am obligated both to Greeks and barbarians, both to the wise and the foolish. ¹⁵ So I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, first to the Jew, and also to the Greek. ¹⁷ For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith, just as it is written: The righteous will live by faith.

²⁴ Therefore God delivered them over in the desires of their hearts to sexual impurity, so that their bodies were degraded among themselves. ²⁵ They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served what has been created instead of the Creator, who is praised forever. Amen.

²⁶ For this reason God delivered them over to disgraceful passions. Their women exchanged natural sexual relations for unnatural ones. ²⁷ The men in the same way also left natural relations with women and were inflamed in their lust for one another. Men committed shameless acts with men and received in their own persons the appropriate penalty of their error.

²⁸ And because they did not think it worthwhile to acknowledge God, God delivered them over to a corrupt mind so that they do what is not right. ²⁹ They are filled with all unrighteousness, evil, greed, and wickedness. They are full of envy, murder, quarrels, deceit, and malice. They are gossips, ³⁰ slanderers, God-haters, arrogant, proud, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, ³¹ senseless, untrustworthy, unloving, and unmerciful. ³² Although they know God's just sentence — that those who practice such things deserve to die — they not only do them, but even applaud others who practice them.

2 Therefore, every one of you who judges is without excuse. For when you judge another, you condemn yourself, since you, the judge, do the same things. ² We know that God's judgment on those who do such things is based on the truth. ³ Do you really think — anyone of you who judges those who do such things yet do the same — that you will escape God's judgment? ⁴ Or do you despise the riches of his kindness, restraint, and patience, not recognizing that God's kindness is intended to lead you to repentance? ⁵ Because of your hardened and unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath for yourself in the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment is revealed. 6 He will repay each one according to his works: ⁷ eternal life to those who by persistence in doing good seek glory, honor, and immortality; ⁸ but wrath and anger to those who are self-seeking and disobey the truth while obeying unrighteousness. ⁹ There will be affliction and distress for every human being who does evil, first to the Jew, and also to the Greek; ¹⁰ but glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does what is good, first to the Jew, and also to the Greek. ¹¹ For there is no favoritism with God.

¹² All who sin without the law will also perish without the law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law. ¹³ For the hearers of the law are not righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified. ¹⁴ So, when Gentiles, who do not by nature have the law, do what the law demands, they are a law to themselves even though they do not have the law. ¹⁵ They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts. Their consciences confirm this. Their competing thoughts either accuse or even excuse them ¹⁶ on the day when God judges what people have kept secret, according to my gospel through Christ Jesus.

¹⁷ Now if you call yourself a Jew, and rely on the law, and boast in God, ¹⁸ and know his will, and approve the things that are superior, being instructed from the law, ¹⁹ and if you are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light to those in darkness, ²⁰ an instructor of the ignorant, a teacher of the immature, having the embodiment of knowledge and truth in the law — ²¹ you then, who teach another, don't you teach yourself? You who preach, "You must not steal" — do you steal? ²² You who say, "You must not commit adultery" — do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob their temples? ²³ You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law? ²⁴ For, as it is written: The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you.

²⁵ Circumcision benefits you if you observe the law, but if you are a lawbreaker, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. ²⁶ So if an uncircumcised man keeps the law's requirements, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision? ²⁷ A man who is physically uncircumcised, but who keeps the law, will judge you who are a lawbreaker in spite of having the letter of the law and circumcision. ²⁸ For a person is not a Jew who is one outwardly, and true circumcision is not something visible in the flesh. ²⁹ On the contrary, a person is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart — by the Spirit, not the letter. That person's praise is not from people but from God.

3 So what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the benefit of circumcision? ² Considerable in every way. First, they were entrusted with the very words of God. ³ What then? If some were unfaithful, will their unfaithfulness nullify God's faithfulness? ⁴ Absolutely not! Let God be true, even though everyone is a liar, as it is written:

That you may be justified in your words and triumph when you judge.

⁵ But if our unrighteousness highlights God's righteousness, what are we to say? I am using a human argument: Is God unrighteous to inflict wrath? ⁶ Absolutely not! Otherwise, how will God judge the world? ⁷ But if by my lie God's truth abounds to his glory, why am I also still being judged as a sinner? ⁸ And why not say, just as some people slanderously claim we say, "Let us do what is evil so that good may come"? Their condemnation is deserved!

⁹ What then? Are we any better off? Not at all! For we have already charged that both Jews and Gentiles are all under sin, ¹⁰ as it is written:

There is no one righteous, not even one.

¹¹ There is no one who understands; there is no one who seeks God.

¹² All have turned away; all alike have become worthless. There is no one who does what is good, not even one.

¹³ Their throat is an open grave; they deceive with their tongues. Vipers' venom is under their lips.

¹⁴ Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

¹⁵ Their feet are swift to shed blood;

¹⁶ ruin and wretchedness are in their paths, and the path of peace they have not known.

¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are subject to the law, so that every mouth may be shut and the whole world may become subject to God's judgment. ²⁰ For no one will be justified in his sight by the works of the law, because the knowledge of sin comes through the law.

²¹ But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been revealed, attested by the Law and the Prophets. ²² The righteousness of God is through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe, since there is no distinction. ²³ For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. ²⁴ They are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. ²⁵ God presented him as an atoning sacrifice in his blood, received through faith, to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his restraint God passed over the sins previously committed. ²⁶ God presented him to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so that he would be righteous and declare righteous the one who has faith in Jesus.

²⁷ Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By one of works? No, on the contrary, by a law of faith. ²⁸ For we conclude that a person is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. ²⁹ Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too, ³⁰ since there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. ³¹ Do we then nullify the law through faith? Absolutely not! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

4 What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has found? ² If Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about — but not before God. ³ For what does the Scripture say? Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him for righteousness. ⁴ Now to the one who works, pay is not credited as a gift, but as something owed. ⁵ But to the one who does not work, but believes on him who declares the ungodly to be righteous, his faith is credited for righteousness.

⁶ Just as David also speaks of the blessing of the person to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

⁷ Blessed are those whose lawless acts are forgiven

and whose sins are covered.

⁸ Blessed is the person

the Lord will never charge with sin.

⁹ Is this blessing only for the circumcised, then? Or is it also for the uncircumcised? For we say, Faith was credited to Abraham for righteousness. ¹⁰ In what way then was it credited — while he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? It was not while he was circumcised, but uncircumcised. ¹¹ And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while still uncircumcised. This was to make him the father of all who believe but are not circumcised, so that righteousness may be credited to them also. ¹² And he became the father of the circumcised, who are not only circumcised but who also follow in the footsteps of the faith our father Abraham had while he was still uncircumcised.

¹³ For the promise to Abraham or to his descendants that he would inherit the world was not through the law, but through the righteousness that comes by faith. ¹⁴ If those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made empty and the promise nullified, ¹⁵ because the law produces wrath. And where there is no law, there is no transgression.

¹⁶ This is why the promise is by faith, so that it may be according to grace, to guarantee it to all the descendants — not only to those who are of the law but also to those who are of Abraham's faith. He is the father of us all. ¹⁷ As it is written: I have made you the father of many nations. He is our father in God's sight, in whom Abraham believed — the God who gives life to the dead and calls things into existence that do not exist. ¹⁸ He believed, hoping against hope, so that he became the father of many nations according to what had been spoken: So will your descendants be. ¹⁹ He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body to be already dead (since he was about a hundred years old) and also the deadness of Sarah's womb. ²⁰ He did not waver in unbelief at God's promise but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, ²¹ because he was fully convinced that what God had promised, he was also able to do. ²² Therefore, it was credited to him for righteousness. ²³ Now it was credited to him was not written for Abraham alone, ²⁴ but also for us. It will be credited to us who believe in him who raised

Jesus our Lord from the dead.²⁵ He was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

5 Therefore, since we have been declared righteous by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.² We have also obtained access through him by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God.³ And not only that, but we also rejoice in our afflictions, because we know that affliction produces endurance,⁴ endurance produces proven character, and proven character produces hope.⁵ This hope will not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

⁶ For while we were still helpless, at the right time, Christ died for the ungodly.⁷ For rarely will someone die for a just person — though for a good person perhaps someone might even dare to die.⁸ But God proves his own love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.⁹ How much more then, since we have now been declared righteous by his blood, will we be saved through him from wrath.¹⁰ For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, then how much more, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.¹¹ And not only that, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received this reconciliation.

¹² Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, in this way death spread to all people, because all sinned.¹³ In fact, sin was in the world before the law, but sin is not charged to a person's account when there is no law.¹⁴ Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin in the likeness of Adam's transgression. He is a type of the Coming One.

¹⁸ So then, as through one trespass there is condemnation for everyone, so also through one righteous act there is justification leading to life for everyone.¹⁹ For just as through one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so also through the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.²⁰ The law came along to multiply the trespass. But where sin multiplied, grace multiplied even more²¹ so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace will reign through righteousness, resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What should we say then? Should we continue in sin so that grace may multiply? ² Absolutely not! How can we who died to sin still live in it? ³ Or are you unaware that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴ Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too may walk in newness of life. ⁵ For if we have been united with him in the likeness of his death, we will certainly also be in the likeness of his resurrection. ⁶ For we know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body ruled by sin might be rendered powerless so that we may no longer be enslaved to sin,⁷ since a person who has died is freed from sin.⁸ Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him,⁹ because we know that Christ, having been raised from the dead, will not die again. Death no longer rules over him.¹⁰ For the death he died, he died to sin once for all time; but the life he lives, he lives to God.¹¹ So, you too consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

¹² Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, so that you obey its desires.¹³ And do not offer any parts of it to sin as weapons for unrighteousness. But as those who are alive from the dead, offer yourselves to God, and all the parts of yourselves to God as weapons for righteousness.¹⁴ For sin will not rule over you, because you are not under the law but under grace.

¹⁵ What then? Should we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? Absolutely not!¹⁶ Don't you know that if you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of that one you obey — either of sin leading to death or of obedience leading to righteousness?¹⁷ But thank God that, although you used to be slaves of sin, you obeyed from the heart that pattern of teaching to which you were handed over,¹⁸ and having been set free from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness.¹⁹ I am using a human analogy because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you offered the parts of yourselves as slaves to impurity, and to greater and greater lawlessness, so now offer them as slaves to righteousness, which results in sanctification.²⁰ For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with regard to righteousness.²¹ So what fruit was produced then from the things you are now ashamed of? The outcome of those things is death.²² But now, since you have been set free from sin and have become enslaved to God, you have your fruit, which results in sanctification — and the outcome is eternal life!²³ For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Since I am speaking to those who know the law, brothers and sisters, don't you know that the law rules over someone as long as he lives?² For example, a married woman is legally bound to her husband while he lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law regarding the husband.³ So then, if she is married to another man while her husband is living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law. Then, if she is married to another man, she is not an adulteress.

⁴ Therefore, my brothers and sisters, you also were put to death in relation to the law through the body of Christ so that you may belong to another. You belong to him who was raised from the dead in order that we may bear fruit for God.⁵ For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions aroused through the law were working in us to bear fruit for death.⁶ But now we have been released from the law, since we have died to what held us, so that we may serve in the newness of the Spirit and not in the old letter of the law.

⁷ What should we say then? Is the law sin? Absolutely not! On the contrary, I would not have known sin if it were not for the law. For example, I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, Do not covet.⁸ And sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me coveting of every kind. For apart from the law sin is dead.⁹ Once I was alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life again¹⁰ and I died. The commandment that was meant for life resulted in death for me.¹¹ For sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me.¹² So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good.¹³ Therefore, did what is good become death to me? Absolutely not! On the contrary, sin, in order to be recognized as sin, was producing death in me through what is good, so that through the commandment, sin might become sinful beyond measure.

¹⁴ For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh, sold as a slave to sin.¹⁵ For I do not understand what I am doing, because I do not practice what I want to do, but I do what I hate.¹⁶ Now if I do what I do not want to do, I agree with the law that it is good.¹⁷ So now I am no longer the one doing it, but it is sin living in me.¹⁸ For I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my flesh. For the desire to do what is good is with me, but there is no ability to do it.¹⁹ For I do not do the good that I want to do, but I practice the evil that I do not want to do.²⁰ Now if I do what I do not want, I am no longer the one that does it, but it is the sin that lives in me.²¹ So I discover this law: When I want to do what is good, evil is present with me.²² For in my inner self I delight in God's law,²³ but I see a different law in the parts of my body, waging war against the law of my mind and taking me prisoner to the law of sin in the parts of my body.²⁴ What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?²⁵ Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with my mind I myself am serving the law of God, but with my flesh, the law of sin.

8 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus,² because the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and death.³ What the law could not do since it was weakened by the flesh, God did. He condemned sin in the flesh by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh as a sin offering,⁴ in order that the law's requirement would be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.⁵ For those who live according to the flesh have their minds set on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit have their minds set on the things of the Spirit.⁶ Now the mind-set of the flesh is death, but the mind-set of the Spirit is life and peace.⁷ The mind-set of the flesh is hostile to God because it does not submit to God's law. Indeed, it is unable to do so.⁸ Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.⁹ You, however, are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. If anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to him.¹⁰ Now if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit gives life because of righteousness.¹¹ And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, then he who raised Christ from the dead will also bring your mortal bodies to life through his Spirit who lives in you.

¹² So then, brothers and sisters, we are not obligated to the flesh to live according to the flesh,¹³ because if you live according to the flesh, you are going to die. But if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.¹⁴ For all those led by God's Spirit are God's sons.¹⁵ For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear. Instead, you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry out, "Abba, Father!"¹⁶ The Spirit himself testifies together with our spirit that we are God's children,¹⁷ and if children, also heirs — heirs of God and coheirs with Christ — if indeed we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

¹⁸ For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is going to be revealed to us.¹⁹ For the creation eagerly waits with anticipation for God's sons to be revealed.²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility — not willingly, but because of him who subjected it — in the hope²¹ that the creation itself will also be set free from the bondage to decay into the glorious freedom of God's children.²² For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together with labor pains until now.²³ Not only that, but we ourselves who have the Spirit as the firstfruits — we also groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.²⁴ Now in this hope we were saved, but hope that is seen is not hope, because who hopes for what he sees?²⁵ Now if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with patience.

²⁶ In the same way the Spirit also helps us in our weakness, because we do not know what to pray for as we should, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with unspoken groanings.²⁷ And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

²⁸ We know that all things work together for the good of those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.²⁹ For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he would be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters.³⁰ And those he predestined, he also called; and those he called, he also justified; and those he justified, he also glorified.

³¹ What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us?³² He did not even spare his own Son but offered him up for us all. How will he not also with him grant us everything?³³ Who can bring an accusation against God's elect? God is the one who justifies.³⁴ Who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is the one who died, but even more, has been raised; he also is at the right hand of God and intercedes for us.³⁵ Who can separate us from the love of Christ? Can affliction or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?³⁶ As it is written:

Because of you
we are being put to death all day long;
we are counted as sheep to be slaughtered.

³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.³⁸ For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers,³⁹ nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I speak the truth in Christ — I am not lying; my conscience testifies to me through the Holy Spirit —² that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.³ For I could wish that I myself were cursed and cut off from Christ for the benefit of my brothers and sisters, my own flesh and blood.⁴ They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the temple service, and the promises.⁵ The ancestors are theirs, and from them, by physical descent, came the Christ, who is God over all, praised forever. Amen.

⁶ Now it is not as though the word of God has failed, because not all who are descended from Israel are Israel.⁷ Neither are all of Abraham's children his descendants. On the contrary, your offspring will be traced through Isaac.⁸ That is, it is not the children by physical descent who are God's children, but the children of the promise are considered to be the offspring.⁹ For this is the statement of the promise: At this time I will come, and Sarah will have a son.¹⁰ And not only that, but Rebekah conceived children through one man, our father Isaac.¹¹ For though her sons had not been born yet or done anything good or bad, so that God's purpose according to election might stand — ¹² not from works but from the one who calls — she was told, The older will serve the younger.¹³ As it is written: I have loved Jacob, but I have hated Esau.

¹⁴What should we say then? Is there injustice with God? Absolutely not! ¹⁵For he tells Moses, I will show mercy to whom I will show mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.¹⁶ So then, it does not depend on human will or effort but on God who shows mercy.¹⁷ For the Scripture tells Pharaoh, I raised you up for this reason so that I may display my power in you and that my name may be proclaimed in the whole earth.¹⁸ So then, he has mercy on whom he wants to have mercy and he hardens whom he wants to harden.

¹⁹You will say to me, therefore, "Why then does he still find fault? For who can resist his will?"²⁰ But who are you, a mere man, to talk back to God? Will what is formed say to the one who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"²¹ Or has the potter no right over the clay, to make from the same lump one piece of pottery for honor and another for dishonor?²² And what if God, wanting to display his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience objects of wrath prepared for destruction?²³ And what if he did this to make known the riches of his glory on objects of mercy that he prepared beforehand for glory — ²⁴ on us, the ones he also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles?²⁵ As it also says in Hosea,

I will call Not My People, My People, and she who is Unloved, Beloved.

²⁶And it will be in the place where they were told,
you are not my people,
there they will be called sons
of the living God.

²⁷But Isaiah cries out concerning Israel,
Though the number of Israelites is like the sand of the sea,
only the remnant will be saved;

²⁸since the Lord will execute his sentence completely and decisively
on the earth.

²⁹And just as Isaiah predicted:

If the Lord of Hosts had not left us offspring,
we would have become like Sodom,
and we would have been made like Gomorrah.

³⁰What should we say then? Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained righteousness — namely the righteousness that comes from faith.³¹ But Israel, pursuing the law of righteousness, has not achieved the righteousness of the law.³² Why is that? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone.³³ As it is written,

Look, I am putting a stone in Zion to stumble over
and a rock to trip over,
and the one who believes on him
will not be put to shame.

10 Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and prayer to God concerning them is for their salvation.² I can testify about them that they have zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.³ Since they are ignorant of the righteousness of God and attempted to establish their own righteousness, they have not submitted to God's righteousness.⁴ For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes,⁵ since Moses writes about the righteousness that is from the law: The one who does these things will live by them.⁶ But the righteousness that comes from faith speaks like this: Do not say in your heart, "Who will go up to heaven?" ⁷ that is, to bring Christ down? or, "Who will go down into the abyss?" ⁸ that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.⁹ On the contrary, what does it say? The message is near you, in your mouth and in your heart. This is the message of faith that we proclaim:⁹ If you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.¹⁰ One believes with the heart, resulting in righteousness, and one confesses with the mouth, resulting in salvation.¹¹ For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes on him will not be put to shame,¹² since there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, because the same Lord of all richly blesses all who call on him.¹³ For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

¹⁴How, then, can they call on him they have not believed in? And how can they believe without hearing about him? And how can they hear without a preacher?¹⁵ And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news.¹⁶ But not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed our message?¹⁷ So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the message about Christ.¹⁸ But I ask, "Did they not hear?" Yes, they did:

Their voice has gone out to the whole earth,
and their words to the ends of the world.

¹⁹But I ask, "Did Israel not understand?" First, Moses said,
I will make you jealous
of those who are not a nation;
I will make you angry by a nation
that lacks understanding.

²⁰And Isaiah says boldly,

I was found
by those who were not looking for me;
I revealed myself
to those who were not asking for me.

²¹But to Israel he says, All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and defiant people.

11 I ask, then, has God rejected his people? Absolutely not! For I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin.² God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. Or don't you know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah — how he pleads with God against Israel?³ Lord, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars. I am the only one left, and they are trying to take my life!⁴ But what was God's answer to him? I have left seven thousand for myself who have not bowed down to Baal.⁵ In the same way, then, there is also at the present time a remnant chosen by grace.⁶ Now if by grace, then it is not by works; otherwise grace ceases to be grace.

⁷What then? Israel did not find what it was looking for, but the elect did find it. The rest were hardened,⁸ as it is written,

God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that cannot see
and ears that cannot hear,
to this day.

⁹ And David says,

Let their table become a snare and a trap,
a pitfall and a retribution to them.

¹⁰ Let their eyes be darkened
so that they cannot see,
and their backs be bent continually.

¹¹ I ask, then, have they stumbled so as to fall? Absolutely not! On the contrary, by their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel jealous.

¹² Now if their transgression brings riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their fullness bring!

¹³ Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. Insofar as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, ¹⁴ if I might somehow make my own people jealous and save some of them. ¹⁵ For if their rejection brings reconciliation to the world, what will their acceptance mean but life from the dead? ¹⁶ Now if the firstfruits are holy, so is the whole batch. And if the root is holy, so are the branches.

¹⁷ Now if some of the branches were broken off, and you, though a wild olive branch, were grafted in among them and have come to share in the rich root of the cultivated olive tree, ¹⁸ do not boast that you are better than those branches. But if you do boast — you do not sustain the root, but the root sustains you. ¹⁹ Then you will say, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.”

²⁰ True enough; they were broken off because of unbelief, but you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but beware, ²¹ because if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either. ²² Therefore, consider God’s kindness and severity: severity toward those who have fallen but God’s kindness toward you — if you remain in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. ²³ And even they, if they do not remain in unbelief, will be grafted in, because God has the power to graft them in again. ²⁴ For if you were cut off from your native wild olive tree and against nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these — the natural branches — be grafted into their own olive tree?

²⁵ I don’t want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers and sisters, so that you will not be conceited: A partial hardening has come upon Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶ And in this way all Israel will be saved, as it is written,

The Deliverer will come from Zion;
he will turn godlessness away from Jacob.

²⁷ And this will be my covenant with them
when I take away their sins.

²⁸ Regarding the gospel, they are enemies for your advantage, but regarding election, they are loved because of the patriarchs, ²⁹ since God’s gracious gifts and calling are irrevocable. ³⁰ As you once disobeyed God but now have received mercy through their disobedience, ³¹ so they too have now disobeyed, resulting in mercy to you, so that they also may now receive mercy. ³² For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that he may have mercy on all.

³³ Oh, the depth of the riches
both of the wisdom and of the knowledge of God!
How unsearchable his judgments
and untraceable his ways!

³⁴ For who has known the mind of the Lord?
Or who has been his counselor?

³⁵ And who has ever given to God,
that he should be repaid?

³⁶ For from him and through him
and to him are all things.

To him be the glory forever. Amen.

12 Therefore, brothers and sisters, in view of the mercies of God, I urge you to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God; this is your true worship. ² Do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may discern what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God.

³ For by the grace given to me, I tell everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he should think. Instead, think sensibly, as God has distributed a measure of faith to each one. ⁴ Now as we have many parts in one body, and all the parts do not have the same function, ⁵ in the same way we who are many are one body in Christ and individually members of one another. ⁶ According to the grace given to us, we have different gifts: If prophecy, use it according to the proportion of one’s faith; ⁷ if service, use it in service; if teaching, in teaching; ⁸ if exhorting, in exhortation; giving, with generosity; leading, with diligence; showing mercy, with cheerfulness.

⁹ Let love be without hypocrisy. Detest evil; cling to what is good. ¹⁰ Love one another deeply as brothers and sisters. Outdo one another in showing honor. ¹¹ Do not lack diligence in zeal; be fervent in the Spirit; serve the Lord. ¹² Rejoice in hope; be patient in affliction; be persistent in prayer. ¹³ Share with the saints in their needs; pursue hospitality. ¹⁴ Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. ¹⁵ Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. ¹⁶ Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud; instead, associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own estimation. ¹⁷ Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Give careful thought to do what is honorable in everyone’s eyes. ¹⁸ If possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. ¹⁹ Friends, do not avenge yourselves; instead, leave room for God’s wrath, because it is written, Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says the Lord. ²⁰ But

If your enemy is hungry, feed him.

If he is thirsty, give him something to drink.

For in so doing

you will be heaping fiery coals on his head.

²¹ Do not be conquered by evil, but conquer evil with good.

13 Let everyone submit to the governing authorities, since there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are instituted by God. ² So then, the one who resists the authority is opposing God’s command, and those who oppose it will bring judgment on themselves. ³ For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is good, and you will have its approval. ⁴ For it is God’s servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, because it does not carry the sword for no reason. For it is God’s servant, an avenger that brings wrath on the one who does wrong. ⁵ Therefore, you must submit, not only because of wrath but also because of your conscience. ⁶ And for this reason you pay taxes, since the authorities are God’s servants, continually attending to these tasks. ⁷ Pay your obligations to everyone: taxes to those you owe taxes, tolls to those you owe tolls, respect to those you owe respect, and honor to those you owe honor.

¹¹ Besides this, since you know the time, it is already the hour for you to wake up from sleep, because now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. ¹² The night is nearly over, and the day is near; so let us discard the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³ Let us walk with decency, as in the daytime: not in carousing and drunkenness; not in sexual impurity and promiscuity; not in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴ But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and don't make plans to gratify the desires of the flesh.

14 Accept anyone who is weak in faith, but don't argue about disputed matters. ² One person believes he may eat anything, while one who is weak eats only vegetables. ³ One who eats must not look down on one who does not eat, and one who does not eat must not judge one who does, because God has accepted him. ⁴ Who are you to judge another's household servant? Before his own Lord he stands or falls. And he will stand, because the Lord is able to make him stand.

⁵ One person judges one day to be more important than another day. Someone else judges every day to be the same. Let each one be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶ Whoever observes the day, observes it for the honor of the Lord. Whoever eats, eats for the Lord, since he gives thanks to God; and whoever does not eat, it is for the Lord that he does not eat it, and he gives thanks to God. ⁷ For none of us lives for himself, and no one dies for himself. ⁸ If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. ⁹ Christ died and returned to life for this: that he might be Lord over both the dead and the living. ¹⁰ But you, why do you judge your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. ¹¹ For it is written,

As I live, says the Lord,
every knee will bow to me,
and every tongue will give praise to God.

¹² So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.

¹³ Therefore, let us no longer judge one another. Instead decide never to put a stumbling block or pitfall in the way of your brother or sister. ¹⁴ I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself. Still, to someone who considers a thing to be unclean, to that one it is unclean. ¹⁵ For if your brother or sister is hurt by what you eat, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy, by what you eat, someone for whom Christ died. ¹⁶ Therefore, do not let your good be slandered, ¹⁷ for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸ Whoever serves Christ in this way is acceptable to God and receives human approval.

¹⁹ So then, let us pursue what promotes peace and what builds up one another. ²⁰ Do not tear down God's work because of food. Everything is clean, but it is wrong to make someone fall by what he eats. ²¹ It is a good thing not to eat meat, or drink wine, or do anything that makes your brother or sister stumble. ²² Whatever you believe about these things, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves.

²³ But whoever doubts stands condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith, and everything that is not from faith is sin.

15 Now we who are strong have an obligation to bear the weaknesses of those without strength, and not to please ourselves. ² Each one of us is to please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. ³ For even Christ did not please himself. On the contrary, as it is written, The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me. ⁴ For whatever was written in the past was written for our instruction, so that we may have hope through endurance and through the encouragement from the Scriptures. ⁵ Now may the God who gives endurance and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, according to Christ Jesus, ⁶ so that you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ with one mind and one voice.

⁷ Therefore accept one another, just as Christ also accepted you, to the glory of God. ⁸ For I say that Christ became a servant of the circumcised on behalf of God's truth, to confirm the promises to the fathers, ⁹ and so that Gentiles may glorify God for his mercy. As it is written,

Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles,
and I will sing praise to your name.

¹⁰ Again it says, Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people! ¹¹ And again,

Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles;
let all the peoples praise him!

¹² And again, Isaiah says,

The root of Jesse will appear,
the one who rises to rule the Gentiles;
the Gentiles will hope in him.

¹³ Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you believe so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

¹⁴ My brothers and sisters, I myself am convinced about you that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another. ¹⁵ Nevertheless, I have written to remind you more boldly on some points because of the grace given me by God ¹⁶ to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest of the gospel of God. My purpose is that the Gentiles may be an acceptable offering, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷ Therefore I have reason to boast in Christ Jesus regarding what pertains to God. ¹⁸ For I would not dare say anything except what Christ has accomplished through me by word and deed for the obedience of the Gentiles, ¹⁹ by the power of miraculous signs and wonders, and by the power of God's Spirit. As a result, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum. ²⁰ My aim is to preach the gospel where Christ has not been named, so that I will not build on someone else's foundation, ²¹ but, as it is written,

Those who were not told about him will see,
and those who have not heard
will understand.

²² That is why I have been prevented many times from coming to you. ²³ But now I no longer have any work to do in these regions, and I have strongly desired for many years to come to you ²⁴ whenever I travel to Spain. For I hope to see you when I pass through and to be assisted by you for my journey there, once I have first enjoyed your company for a while. ²⁵ Right now I am traveling to Jerusalem to serve the saints, ²⁶ because Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem.²⁷ Yes, they were pleased, and indeed are indebted to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual benefits, then they are obligated to minister to them in material needs.²⁸ So when I have finished this and safely delivered the funds to them, I will visit you on the way to Spain.²⁹ I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

³⁰ Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, through our Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in fervent prayers to God on my behalf.³¹ Pray that I may be rescued from the unbelievers in Judea, that my ministry to Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints,³² and that, by God's will, I may come to you with joy and be refreshed together with you.

³³ May the God of peace be with all of you. Amen.

16 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a servant of the church in Cenchreae.² So you should welcome her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints and assist her in whatever matter she may require your help. For indeed she has been a benefactor of many — and of me also.

³ Give my greetings to Prisca and Aquila, my coworkers in Christ Jesus,⁴ who risked their own necks for my life. Not only do I thank them, but so do all the Gentile churches.⁵ Greet also the church that meets in their home. Greet my dear friend Epaphroditus, who is the first convert to Christ from Asia.⁶ Greet Mary, who has worked very hard for you.⁷ Greet Andronicus and Junia, my fellow Jews and fellow prisoners. They are noteworthy in the eyes of the apostles, and they were also in Christ before me.⁸ Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord.⁹ Greet Urbanus, our coworker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.¹⁰ Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus.¹¹ Greet Herodion, my fellow Jew. Greet those who belong to the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.¹² Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who have worked hard in the Lord. Greet my dear friend Persis, who has worked very hard in the Lord.¹³ Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord; also his mother — and mine.¹⁴ Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters who are with them.¹⁵ Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.¹⁶ Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ send you greetings.

¹⁷ Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, to watch out for those who create divisions and obstacles contrary to the teaching that you learned. Avoid them,¹⁸ because such people do not serve our Lord Christ but their own appetites. They deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting with smooth talk and flattering words.

¹⁹ The report of your obedience has reached everyone. Therefore I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise about what is good, and yet innocent about what is evil.²⁰ The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

²¹ Timothy, my coworker, and Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my fellow countrymen, greet you.

²² Tertius, who wrote this letter, greet you in the Lord.

²³ Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus greet you.

²⁵ Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the proclamation about Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery kept silent for long ages²⁶ but now revealed and made known through the prophetic Scriptures, according to the command of the eternal God to advance the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles — ²⁷ to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ — to him be the glory forever! Amen.

1 CORINTHIANS

1 Paul, called as an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, and Sosthenes our brother:

²To the church of God at Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called as saints, with all those in every place who call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord — both their Lord and ours.

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I always thank my God for you because of the grace of God given to you in Christ Jesus, ⁵that you were enriched in him in every way, in all speech and all knowledge. ⁶In this way, the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you, ⁷so that you do not lack any spiritual gift as you eagerly wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you will be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God is faithful; you were called by him into fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁰Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say, that there be no divisions among you, and that you be united with the same understanding and the same conviction.

¹¹For it has been reported to me about you, my brothers and sisters, by members of Chloe's people, that there is rivalry among you. ¹²What I am saying is this: One of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." ¹³Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in Paul's name?

¹⁴I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so that no one can say you were baptized in my name. ¹⁶I did, in fact, baptize the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I don't recall if I baptized anyone else. ¹⁷For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel — not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ will not be emptied of its effect.

¹⁸For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but it is the power of God to us who are being saved. ¹⁹For it is written,

I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
and I will set aside the intelligence of the intelligent.

²⁰Where is the one who is wise? Where is the teacher of the law? Where is the debater of this age? Hasn't God made the world's wisdom foolish? ²¹For since, in God's wisdom, the world did not know God through wisdom, God was pleased to save those who believe through the foolishness of what is preached. ²²For the Jews ask for signs and the Greeks seek wisdom, ²³but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to the Jews and foolishness to the Gentiles. ²⁴Yet to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God, ²⁵because God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

²⁶Brothers and sisters, consider your calling: Not many were wise from a human perspective, not many powerful, not many of noble birth. ²⁷Instead, God has chosen what is foolish in the world to shame the wise, and God has chosen what is weak in the world to shame the strong. ²⁸God has chosen what is insignificant and despised in the world — what is viewed as nothing — to bring to nothing what is viewed as something, ²⁹so that no one may boast in his presence. ³⁰It is from him that you are in Christ Jesus, who became wisdom from God for us — our righteousness, sanctification, and redemption, ³¹in order that, as it is written: Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.

2 When I came to you, brothers and sisters, announcing the mystery of God to you, I did not come with brilliance of speech or wisdom. ²I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. ³I came to you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. ⁴My speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power, ⁵so that your faith might not be based on human wisdom but on God's power.

⁶We do, however, speak a wisdom among the mature, but not a wisdom of this age, or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. ⁷On the contrary, we speak God's hidden wisdom in a mystery, a wisdom God predestined before the ages for our glory. ⁸None of the rulers of this age knew this wisdom, because if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹But as it is written,

What no eye has seen, no ear has heard,
and no human heart has conceived —
God has prepared these things for those who love him.

¹⁰Now God has revealed these things to us by the Spirit, since the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. ¹¹For who knows a person's thoughts except his spirit within him? In the same way, no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. ¹²Now we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who comes from God, so that we may understand what has been freely given to us by God. ¹³We also speak these things, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual things to spiritual people. ¹⁴But the person without the Spirit does not receive what comes from God's Spirit, because it is foolishness to him; he is not able to understand it since it is evaluated spiritually. ¹⁵The spiritual person, however, can evaluate everything, and yet he himself cannot be evaluated by anyone. ¹⁶For who has known the Lord's mind, that he may instruct him?

But we have the mind of Christ.

3 For my part, brothers and sisters, I was not able to speak to you as spiritual people but as people of the flesh, as babies in Christ. ²I gave you milk to drink, not solid food, since you were not yet ready for it. In fact, you are still not ready, ³because you are still worldly. For since there is envy and strife among you, are you not worldly and behaving like mere humans? ⁴For whenever someone says, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," are you not acting like mere humans?

⁵What then is Apollos? What is Paul? They are servants through whom you believed, and each has the role the Lord has given. ⁶I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. ⁷So then neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. ⁸Now he who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. ⁹For we are God's coworkers. You are God's field, God's building.

¹⁰ According to God's grace that was given to me, I have laid a foundation as a skilled master builder, and another builds on it. But each one is to be careful how he builds on it. ¹¹ For no one can lay any other foundation than what has been laid down. That foundation is Jesus Christ. ¹² If anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or straw, ¹³ each one's work will become obvious. For the day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire; the fire will test the quality of each one's work. ¹⁴ If anyone's work that he has built survives, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵ If anyone's work is burned up, he will experience loss, but he himself will be saved — but only as through fire.

¹⁶ Don't you yourselves know that you are God's temple and that the Spirit of God lives in you? ¹⁷ If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, and that is what you are.

¹⁸ Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a fool so that he can become wise. ¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, since it is written, He catches the wise in their craftiness; ²⁰ and again, The Lord knows that the reasonings of the wise are futile. ²¹ So let no one boast in human leaders, for everything is yours — ²² whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or things present or things to come — everything is yours, ²³ and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

4 A person should think of us in this way: as servants of Christ and managers of the mysteries of God. ² In this regard, it is required that managers be found faithful. ³ It is of little importance to me that I should be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I don't even judge myself. ⁴ For I am not conscious of anything against myself, but I am not justified by this. It is the Lord who judges me. ⁵ So don't judge anything prematurely, before the Lord comes, who will both bring to light what is hidden in darkness and reveal the intentions of the hearts. And then praise will come to each one from God.

⁶ Now, brothers and sisters, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us the meaning of the saying: "Nothing beyond what is written." The purpose is that none of you will be arrogant, favoring one person over another. ⁷ For who makes you so superior? What do you have that you didn't receive? If, in fact, you did receive it, why do you boast as if you hadn't received it? ⁸ You are already full! You are already rich! You have begun to reign as kings without us — and I wish you did reign, so that we could also reign with you! ⁹ For I think God has displayed us, the apostles, in last place, like men condemned to die: We have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to people. ¹⁰ We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonored! ¹¹ Up to the present hour we are both hungry and thirsty; we are poorly clothed, roughly treated, homeless; ¹² we labor, working with our own hands. When we are reviled, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it; ¹³ when we are slandered, we respond graciously. Even now, we are like the scum of the earth, like everyone's garbage.

¹⁴ I'm not writing this to shame you, but to warn you as my dear children. ¹⁵ For you may have countless instructors in Christ, but you don't have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. ¹⁶ Therefore I urge you to imitate me. ¹⁷ This is why I have sent Timothy to you. He is my dearly loved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you about my ways in Christ Jesus, just as I teach everywhere in every church.

¹⁸ Now some are arrogant, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹ But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk, but the power of those who are arrogant. ²⁰ For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power. ²¹ What do you want? Should I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and the kind of sexual immorality that is not even tolerated among the Gentiles — a man is sleeping with his father's wife. ² And you are arrogant! Shouldn't you be filled with grief and remove from your congregation the one who did this? ³ Even though I am absent in the body, I am present in spirit. As one who is present with you in this way, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who has been doing such a thing. ⁴ When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus, and I am with you in spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁵ hand that one over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.

⁶ Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little leaven leavens the whole batch of dough? ⁷ Clean out the old leaven so that you may be a new unleavened batch, as indeed you are. For Christ our Passover lamb has been sacrificed. ⁸ Therefore, let us observe the feast, not with old leaven or with the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

⁹ I wrote to you in a letter not to associate with sexually immoral people. ¹⁰ I did not mean the immoral people of this world or the greedy and swindlers or idolaters; otherwise you would have to leave the world. ¹¹ But actually, I wrote you not to associate with anyone who claims to be a brother or sister and is sexually immoral or greedy, an idolater or verbally abusive, a drunkard or a swindler. Do not even eat with such a person. ¹² For what business is it of mine to judge outsiders? Don't you judge those who are inside? ¹³ God judges outsiders. Remove the evil person from among you.

6 If any of you has a dispute against another, how dare you take it to court before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? ² Or don't you know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the trivial cases? ³ Don't you know that we will judge angels — how much more matters of this life? ⁴ So if you have such matters, do you appoint as your judges those who have no standing in the church? ⁵ I say this to your shame! Can it be that there is not one wise person among you who is able to arbitrate between fellow believers? ⁶ Instead, brother goes to court against brother, and that before unbelievers!

⁷ As it is, to have legal disputes against one another is already a defeat for you. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? ⁸ Instead, you yourselves do wrong and cheat — and you do this to brothers and sisters! ⁹ Don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit God's kingdom? Do not be deceived: No sexually immoral people, idolaters, adulterers, or males who have sex with males, ¹⁰ no thieves, greedy people, drunkards, verbally abusive people, or swindlers will inherit God's kingdom. ¹¹ And some of you used to be like this. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

¹² "Everything is permissible for me," but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissible for me," but I will not be mastered by anything. ¹³ "Food is for the stomach and the stomach for food," and God will do away with both of them. However, the body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.¹⁴ God raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by his power.¹⁵ Don't you know that your bodies are a part of Christ's body? So should I take a part of Christ's body and make it part of a prostitute? Absolutely not!¹⁶ Don't you know that anyone joined to a prostitute is one body with her? For Scripture says, The two will become one flesh.¹⁷ But anyone joined to the Lord is one spirit with him.

¹⁸ Flee sexual immorality! Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the person who is sexually immoral sins against his own body.¹⁹ Don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God? You are not your own,²⁰ for you were bought at a price. So glorify God with your body.

7 Now in response to the matters you wrote about: "It is good for a man not to use a woman for sex."² But because sexual immorality is so common, each man should have sexual relations with his own wife, and each woman should have sexual relations with her own husband.³ A husband should fulfill his marital duty to his wife, and likewise a wife to her husband.⁴ A wife does not have the right over her own body, but her husband does. In the same way, a husband does not have the right over his own body, but his wife does.⁵ Do not deprive one another — except when you agree for a time, to devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again; otherwise, Satan may tempt you because of your lack of self-control.⁶ I say this as a concession, not as a command.⁷ I wish that all people were as I am. But each has his own gift from God, one person has this gift, another has that.

⁸ I say to the unmarried and to widows: It is good for them if they remain as I am.⁹ But if they do not have self-control, they should marry, since it is better to marry than to burn with desire.

¹⁰ To the married I give this command — not I, but the Lord — a wife is not to leave her husband.¹¹ But if she does leave, she must remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband — and a husband is not to divorce his wife.¹² But I (not the Lord) say to the rest: If any brother has an unbelieving wife and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her.¹³ Also, if any woman has an unbelieving husband and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce her husband.¹⁴ For the unbelieving husband is made holy by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy by the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is they are holy.¹⁵ But if the unbeliever leaves, let him leave. A brother or a sister is not bound in such cases. God has called you to live in peace.¹⁶ Wife, for all you know, you might save your husband. Husband, for all you know, you might save your wife.

¹⁷ Let each one live his life in the situation the Lord assigned when God called him. This is what I command in all the churches.¹⁸ Was anyone already circumcised when he was called? He should not undo his circumcision. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? He should not get circumcised.¹⁹ Circumcision does not matter and uncircumcision does not matter. Keeping God's commands is what matters.²⁰ Let each of you remain in the situation in which he was called.²¹ Were you called while a slave? Don't let it concern you. But if you can become free, by all means take the opportunity.²² For he who is called by the Lord as a slave is the Lord's freedman. Likewise he who is called as a free man is Christ's slave.²³ You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of people.²⁴ Brothers and sisters, each person is to remain with God in the situation in which he was called.

²⁵ Now about virgins: I have no command from the Lord, but I do give an opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is faithful.²⁶ Because of the present distress, I think that it is good for a man to remain as he is.²⁷ Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife.²⁸ However, if you do get married, you have not sinned, and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But such people will have trouble in this life, and I am trying to spare you.

²⁹ This is what I mean, brothers and sisters: The time is limited, so from now on those who have wives should be as though they had none,³⁰ those who weep as though they did not weep, those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, those who buy as though they didn't own anything,³¹ and those who use the world as though they did not make full use of it. For this world in its current form is passing away.

³² I want you to be without concerns. The unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord — how he may please the Lord.³³ But the married man is concerned about the things of the world — how he may please his wife —³⁴ and his interests are divided. The unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But the married woman is concerned about the things of the world — how she may please her husband.³⁵ I am saying this for your own benefit, not to put a restraint on you, but to promote what is proper and so that you may be devoted to the Lord without distraction.

³⁶ If any man thinks he is acting improperly toward the virgin he is engaged to, if she is getting beyond the usual age for marriage, and he feels he should marry — he can do what he wants. He is not sinning; they can get married.³⁷ But he who stands firm in his heart (who is under no compulsion, but has control over his own will) and has decided in his heart to keep her as his fiancée, will do well.³⁸ So then he who marries his fiancée does well, but he who does not marry will do better.

³⁹ A wife is bound as long as her husband is living. But if her husband dies, she is free to be married to anyone she wants — only in the Lord.⁴⁰ But she is happier if she remains as she is, in my opinion. And I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

8 Now about food sacrificed to idols: We know that "we all have knowledge." Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.² If anyone thinks he knows anything, he does not yet know it as he ought to know it.³ But if anyone loves God, he is known by him.

⁴ About eating food sacrificed to idols, then, we know that "an idol is nothing in the world," and that "there is no God but one."⁵ For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth — as there are many "gods" and many "lords" —⁶ yet for us there is one God, the Father. All things are from him, and we exist for him. And there is one Lord, Jesus Christ. All things are through him, and we exist through him.

⁷ However, not everyone has this knowledge. Some have been so used to idolatry up until now that when they eat food sacrificed to an idol, their conscience, being weak, is defiled.⁸ Food will not bring us close to God. We are not worse off if we don't eat, and we are not better if we do eat.⁹ But be careful that this right of yours in no way becomes a stumbling block to the weak.¹⁰ For if someone sees you, the one who has knowledge, dining in an idol's temple, won't his weak conscience be encouraged to eat food offered to idols?¹¹ So the weak person, the brother or sister for whom Christ died, is ruined by your knowledge.¹² Now when you sin like this against brothers and sisters and wound their weak conscience, you are sinning against Christ.¹³ Therefore, if food causes my brother or sister to fall, I will never again eat meat, so that I won't cause my brother or sister to fall.

9 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? ² If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you, because you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

³ My defense to those who examine me is this: ⁴ Don't we have the right to eat and drink? ⁵ Don't we have the right to be accompanied by a believing wife like the other apostles, the Lord's brothers, and Cephas? ⁶ Or do only Barnabas and I have no right to refrain from working? ⁷ Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not drink the milk from the flock?

¹⁵ For my part I have used none of these rights, nor have I written these things that they may be applied in my case. For it would be better for me to die than for anyone to deprive me of my boast! ¹⁶ For if I preach the gospel, I have no reason to boast, because I am compelled to preach — and woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! ¹⁷ For if I do this willingly, I have a reward, but if unwillingly, I am entrusted with a commission. ¹⁸ What then is my reward? To preach the gospel and offer it free of charge and not make full use of my rights in the gospel.

¹⁹ Although I am free from all and not anyone's slave, I have made myself a slave to everyone, in order to win more people. ²⁰ To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win Jews; to those under the law, like one under the law — though I myself am not under the law — to win those under the law. ²¹ To those who are without the law, like one without the law — though I am not without God's law but under the law of Christ — to win those without the law. ²² To the weak I became weak, in order to win the weak. I have become all things to all people, so that I may by every possible means save some. ²³ Now I do all this because of the gospel, so that I may share in the blessings.

²⁴ Don't you know that the runners in a stadium all race, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way to win the prize. ²⁵ Now everyone who competes exercises self-control in everything. They do it to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable crown. ²⁶ So I do not run like one who runs aimlessly or box like one beating the air. ²⁷ Instead, I discipline my body and bring it under strict control, so that after preaching to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

10 Now I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, all passed through the sea, ² and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. ³ They all ate the same spiritual food, ⁴ and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and that rock was Christ. ⁵ Nevertheless God was not pleased with most of them, since they were struck down in the wilderness.

⁶ Now these things took place as examples for us, so that we will not desire evil things as they did. ⁷ Don't become idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and got up to party. ⁸ Let us not commit sexual immorality as some of them did, and in a single day twenty-three thousand people died. ⁹ Let us not test Christ as some of them did and were destroyed by snakes. ¹⁰ And don't complain as some of them did, and were killed by the destroyer. ¹¹ These things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our instruction, on whom the ends of the ages have come. ¹² So, whoever thinks he stands must be careful not to fall. ¹³ No temptation has come upon you except what is common to humanity. But God is faithful; he will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation he will also provide a way out so that you may be able to bear it.

¹⁴ So then, my dear friends, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵ I am speaking as to sensible people. Judge for yourselves what I am saying. ¹⁶ The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? ¹⁷ Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, since all of us share the one bread. ¹⁸ Consider the people of Israel. Do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar? ¹⁹ What am I saying then? That food sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? ²⁰ No, but I do say that what they sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons! ²¹ You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot share in the Lord's table and the table of demons. ²² Or are we provoking the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

²⁵ Eat everything that is sold in the meat market, without raising questions for the sake of conscience, ²⁶ since the earth is the Lord's, and all that is in it. ²⁷ If any of the unbelievers invites you over and you want to go, eat everything that is set before you, without raising questions for the sake of conscience. ²⁸ But if someone says to you, "This is food from a sacrifice," do not eat it, out of consideration for the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. ²⁹ I do not mean your own conscience, but the other person's. For why is my freedom judged by another person's conscience? ³⁰ If I partake with thanksgiving, why am I criticized because of something for which I give thanks?

³¹ So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. ³² Give no offense to Jews or Greeks or the church of God, ³³ just as I also try to please everyone in everything, not seeking my own benefit, but the benefit of many, so that they may be saved.

11 ¹ Imitate me, as I also imitate Christ. ² Now I praise you because you remember me in everything and hold fast to the traditions just as I delivered them to you. ³ But I want you to know that Christ is the head of every man, and the man is the head of the woman, and God is the head of Christ. ⁴ Every man who prays or prophesies with something on his head dishonors his head. ⁵ Every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, since that is one and the same as having her head shaved. ⁶ For if a woman doesn't cover her head, she should have her hair cut off. But if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, let her head be covered. ⁷ A man should not cover his head, because he is the image and glory of God. So too, woman is the glory of man. ⁸ For man did not come from woman, but woman came from man. ⁹ Neither was man created for the sake of woman, but woman for the sake of man. ¹⁰ This is why a woman should have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels. ¹¹ In the Lord, however, woman is not independent of man, and man is not independent of woman. ¹² For just as woman came from man, so man comes through woman, and all things come from God.

¹³ Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴ Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair it is a disgrace to him, ¹⁵ but that if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her as a covering. ¹⁶ If anyone wants to argue about this, we have no other custom, nor do the churches of God.

¹⁷ Now in giving this instruction I do not praise you, since you come together not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸ For to begin with, I hear that when you come together as a church there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. ¹⁹ Indeed, it is necessary that there be factions among you, so that those who are approved may be recognized among you. ²⁰ When you come together, then, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper. ²¹ For at the meal, each one eats his own supper. So one person is hungry while another gets drunk! ²² Don't you have homes in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you? I do not praise you in this matter!

²³ For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took bread, ²⁴ and when he had given thanks, broke it, and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

²⁵ In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, and said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." ²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

²⁷ So then, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sin against the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸ Let a person examine himself; in this way let him eat the bread and drink from the cup. ²⁹ For whoever eats and drinks without recognizing the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself. ³⁰ This is why many are sick and ill among you, and many have fallen asleep. ³¹ If we were properly judging ourselves, we would not be judged, ³² but when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined, so that we may not be condemned with the world.

³³ Therefore, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, welcome one another. ³⁴ If anyone is hungry, he should eat at home, so that when you gather together you will not come under judgment. I will give instructions about the other matters whenever I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts: brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be unaware. ² You know that when you were pagans, you used to be enticed and led astray by mute idols. ³ Therefore I want you to know that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus is cursed," and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴ Now there are different gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵ There are different ministries, but the same Lord. ⁶ And there are different activities, but the same God produces each gift in each person. ⁷ A manifestation of the Spirit is given to each person for the common good: ⁸ to one is given a message of wisdom through the Spirit, to another, a message of knowledge by the same Spirit, ⁹ to another, faith by the same Spirit, to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ¹⁰ to another, the performing of miracles, to another, prophecy, to another, distinguishing between spirits, to another, different kinds of tongues, to another, interpretation of tongues. ¹¹ One and the same Spirit is active in all these, distributing to each person as he wills.

¹² For just as the body is one and has many parts, and all the parts of that body, though many, are one body — so also is Christ. ¹³ For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body — whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free — and we were all given one Spirit to drink. ¹⁴ Indeed, the body is not one part but many. ¹⁵ If the foot should say, "Because I'm not a hand, I don't belong to the body," it is not for that reason any less a part of the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear should say, "Because I'm not an eye, I don't belong to the body," it is not for that reason any less a part of the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸ But as it is, God has arranged each one of the parts in the body just as he wanted. ¹⁹ And if they were all the same part, where would the body be? ²⁰ As it is, there are many parts, but one body. ²¹ The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" Or again, the head can't say to the feet, "I don't need you!" ²² On the contrary, those parts of the body that are weaker are indispensable. ²³ And those parts of the body that we consider less honorable, we clothe these with greater honor, and our unrespectable parts are treated with greater respect, ²⁴ which our respectable parts do not need.

Instead, God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the less honorable, ²⁵ so that there would be no division in the body, but that the members would have the same concern for each other. ²⁶ So if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ, and individual members of it. ²⁸ And God has appointed these in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, next miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, various kinds of tongues. ²⁹ Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all do miracles? ³⁰ Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in other tongues? Do all interpret? ³¹ But desire the greater gifts. And I will show you an even better way.

13 If I speak human or angelic tongues but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so that I can move mountains but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ And if I give away all my possessions, and if I give over my body in order to boast but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind. Love does not envy, is not boastful, is not arrogant, ⁵ is not rude, is not self-seeking, is not irritable, and does not keep a record of wrongs. ⁶ Love finds no joy in unrighteousness but rejoices in the truth. ⁷ It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

⁸ Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. ⁹ For we know in part, and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰ but when the perfect comes, the partial will come to an end. ¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put aside childish things. ¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, as I am fully known. ¹³ Now these three remain: faith, hope, and love — but the greatest of these is love.

14 Pursue love and desire spiritual gifts, and especially that you may prophesy. ² For the person who speaks in another tongue is not speaking to people but to God, since no one understands him; he speaks mysteries in the Spirit. ³ On the other hand, the person who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouragement, and consolation. ⁴ The person who speaks in another tongue builds himself up, but the one who prophesies builds up the church. ⁵ I wish all of you spoke in other tongues, but even more that you prophesied. The person who prophesies is greater than the person who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets so that the church may be built up.

⁶ So now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in other tongues, how will I benefit you unless I speak to you with a revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? ⁷ Even lifeless instruments that produce sounds — whether flute or harp — if they don't make a distinction in the notes, how will what is played on the flute or harp be recognized? ⁸ In fact, if the bugle makes an unclear sound, who will prepare for battle? ⁹ In the same way, unless you use your tongue for intelligible speech, how will what is spoken be known? For you will be speaking into the air. ¹⁰ There are doubtless many different kinds of languages in the world, none is without meaning. ¹¹ Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the speaker, and the speaker will be a foreigner to me. ¹² So also you — since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek to excel in building up the church.

¹³ Therefore the person who speaks in another tongue should pray that he can interpret. ¹⁴ For if I pray in another tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. ¹⁵ What then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with my understanding. I will sing praise with the spirit, and I will also sing praise with my understanding. ¹⁶ Otherwise, if you praise with the spirit, how will the outsider say "Amen" at your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying? ¹⁷ For you may very well be giving thanks, but the other person is not being built up. ¹⁸ I thank God that I speak in other tongues more than all of you; ¹⁹ yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, in order to teach others also, than ten thousand words in another tongue.

²⁰ Brothers and sisters, don't be childish in your thinking, but be infants in regard to evil and adult in your thinking. ²¹ It is written in the law,

I will speak to this people
by people of other tongues
and by the lips of foreigners,
and even then, they will not listen to me,

says the Lord. ²² Speaking in other tongues, then, is intended as a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers, while prophecy is not for unbelievers but for believers. ²³ If, therefore, the whole church assembles together and all are speaking in other tongues and people who are outsiders or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your minds? ²⁴ But if all are prophesying and some unbeliever or outsider comes in, he is convicted by all and is called to account by all. ²⁵ The secrets of his heart will be revealed, and as a result he will fall face down and worship God, proclaiming, "God is really among you."

²⁶ What then, brothers and sisters? Whenever you come together, each one has a hymn, a teaching, a revelation, another tongue, or an interpretation. Everything is to be done for building up. ²⁷ If anyone speaks in another tongue, there are to be only two, or at the most three, each in turn, and let someone interpret. ²⁸ But if there is no interpreter, that person is to keep silent in the church and speak to himself and God. ²⁹ Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should evaluate. ³⁰ But if something has been revealed to another person sitting there, the first prophet should be silent. ³¹ For you can all prophesy one by one, so that everyone may learn and everyone may be encouraged. ³² And the prophets' spirits are subject to the prophets, ³³ since God is not a God of disorder but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, ³⁴ the women should be silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak, but are to submit themselves, as the law also says. ³⁵ If they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home, since it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church. ³⁶ Or did the word of God originate from you, or did it come to you only?

³⁷ If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, he should recognize that what I write to you is the Lord's command. ³⁸ If anyone ignores this, he will be ignored. ³⁹ So then, my brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in other tongues. ⁴⁰ But everything is to be done decently and in order.

15 Now I want to make clear for you, brothers and sisters, the gospel I preached to you, which you received, on which you have taken your stand² and by which you are being saved, if you hold to the message I preached to you — unless you believed in vain. ³ For I passed on to you as most important what I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴ that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵ and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. ⁶ Then he appeared to over five hundred brothers and sisters at one time; most of them are still alive, but some have fallen asleep. ⁷ Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. ⁸ Last of all, as to one born at the wrong time, he also appeared to me.

⁹ For I am the least of the apostles, not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me. ¹¹ Whether, then, it is I or they, so we proclaim and so you have believed.

¹² Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say, "There is no resurrection of the dead"? ¹³ If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised; ¹⁴ and if Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation is in vain, and so is your faith. ¹⁵ Moreover, we are found to be false witnesses about God, because we have testified wrongly about God that he raised up Christ—whom he did not raise up, if in fact the dead are not raised. ¹⁶ For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised. ¹⁷ And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; you are still in your sins. ¹⁸ Those, then, who have fallen asleep in Christ have also perished. ¹⁹ If we have put our hope in Christ for this life only, we should be pitied more than anyone.

²⁰ But as it is, Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹ For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also comes through a man. ²² For just as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

²³ But each in his own order: Christ, the firstfruits; afterward, at his coming, those who belong to Christ. ²⁴ Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, when he abolishes all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵ For he must reign until he puts all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶ The last enemy to be abolished is death. ²⁷ For God has put everything under his feet. Now when it says “everything” is put under him, it is obvious that he who puts everything under him is the exception. ²⁸ When everything is subject to Christ, then the Son himself will also be subject to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

²⁹ Otherwise what will they do who are being baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, then why are people baptized for them? ³⁰ Why are we in danger every hour? ³¹ I face death every day, as surely as I may boast about you, brothers and sisters, in Christ Jesus our Lord. ³² If I fought wild beasts in Ephesus as a mere man, what good did that do me? If the dead are not raised, Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die. ³³ Do not be deceived: “Bad company corrupts good morals.” ³⁴ Come to your senses and stop sinning; for some people are ignorant about God. I say this to your shame.

³⁵ But someone will ask, “How are the dead raised? What kind of body will they have when they come?” ³⁶ You fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. ³⁷ And as for what you sow—you are not sowing the body that will be, but only a seed, perhaps of wheat or another grain. ³⁸ But God gives it a body as he wants, and to each of the seeds its own body. ³⁹ Not all flesh is the same flesh; there is one flesh for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish. ⁴⁰ There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the splendor of the heavenly bodies is different from that of the earthly ones. ⁴¹ There is a splendor of the sun, another of the moon, and another of the stars; in fact, one star differs from another star in splendor. ⁴² So it is with the resurrection of the dead: Sown in corruption, raised in incorruption; ⁴³ sown in dishonor, raised in glory; sown in weakness, raised in power; ⁴⁴ sown a natural body, raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵ So it is written, The first man Adam became a living being; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶ However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, then the spiritual.

⁵⁰ What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor can corruption inherit incorruption. ⁵¹ Listen, I am telling you a mystery: We will not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed, ⁵² in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. ⁵³ For this corruptible body must be clothed with incorruptibility, and this mortal body must be clothed with immortality. ⁵⁴ When this corruptible body is clothed with incorruptibility, and this mortal body is clothed with immortality, then the saying that is written will take place:

Death has been swallowed up in victory.

⁵⁵ Where, death, is your victory?

Where, death, is your sting?

⁵⁶ The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷ But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

⁵⁸ Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the Lord’s work, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

16 Now about the collection for the saints: Do the same as I instructed the Galatian churches. ² On the first day of the week, each of you is to set something aside and save in keeping with how he is prospering, so that no collections will need to be made when I come. ³ When I arrive, I will send with letters those you recommend to carry your gift to Jerusalem. ⁴ If it is suitable for me to go as well, they will travel with me.

⁵ I will come to you after I pass through Macedonia—for I will be traveling through Macedonia—⁶ and perhaps I will remain with you or even spend the winter, so that you may send me on my way wherever I go. ⁷ I don’t want to see you now just in passing, since I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord allows. ⁸ But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, ⁹ because a wide door for effective ministry has opened for me—yet many oppose me. ¹⁰ If Timothy comes, see that he has nothing to fear while with you, because he is doing the Lord’s work, just as I am. ¹¹ So let no one look down on him. Send him on his way in peace so that he can come to me, because I am expecting him with the brothers.

¹² Now about our brother Apollos: I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers, but he was not at all willing to come now. However, he will come when he has an opportunity.

¹³ Be alert, stand firm in the faith, be courageous, be strong. ¹⁴ Do everything in love.

¹⁵ Brothers and sisters, you know the household of Stephanas: They are the firstfruits of Achaia and have devoted themselves to serving the saints. I urge you ¹⁶ also to submit to such people, and to everyone who works and labors with them. ¹⁷ I am delighted to have Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus present, because these men have made up for your absence. ¹⁸ For they have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore recognize such people.

¹⁹ The churches of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Priscilla send you greetings warmly in the Lord, along with the church that meets in their home. ²⁰ All the brothers and sisters send you greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹ This greeting is in my own hand—Paul. ²² If anyone does not love the Lord, a curse be on him. Our Lord, come! ²³ The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you. ²⁴ My love be with all of you in Christ Jesus.

2 CORINTHIANS

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, and Timothy our brother:

To the church of God at Corinth, with all the saints who are throughout Achaia.

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort. ⁴ He comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any kind of affliction, through the comfort we ourselves receive from God. ⁵ For just as the sufferings of Christ overflow to us, so also through Christ our comfort overflows. ⁶ If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you patient endurance of the same sufferings that we suffer. ⁷ And our hope for you is firm, because we know that as you share in the sufferings, so you will also share in the comfort.

⁸ We don't want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, of our affliction that took place in Asia. We were completely overwhelmed—beyond our strength—so that we even despaired of life itself. ⁹ Indeed, we felt that we had received the sentence of death, so that we would not trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead. ¹⁰ He has delivered us from such a terrible death, and he will deliver us. We have put our hope in him that he will deliver us again ¹¹ while you join in helping us by your prayers. Then many will give thanks on our behalf for the gift that came to us through the prayers of many.

¹² Indeed, this is our boast: The testimony of our conscience is that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you, with godly sincerity and purity, not by human wisdom but by God's grace. ¹³ For we are writing nothing to you other than what you can read and also understand. I hope you will understand completely—¹⁴ just as you have partially understood us—that we are your reason for pride, just as you also are ours in the day of our Lord Jesus.

¹⁵ Because of this confidence, I planned to come to you first, so that you could have a second benefit, ¹⁶ and to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and then come to you again from Macedonia and be helped by you on my journey to Judea. ¹⁷ Now when I planned this, was I of two minds? Or what I plan, do I plan in a purely human way so that I say "Yes, yes" and "No, no" at the same time? ¹⁸ As God is faithful, our message to you is not "Yes and no." ¹⁹ For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we proclaimed among you—Silvanus, Timothy, and I—did not become "Yes and no." On the contrary, in him it is always "Yes."²⁰ For every one of God's promises is "Yes" in him. Therefore, through him we also say "Amen" to the glory of God. ²¹ Now it is God who strengthens us together with you in Christ, and who has anointed us. ²² He has also put his seal on us and given us the Spirit in our hearts as a down payment.

²³ I call on God as a witness, on my life, that it was to spare you that I did not come to Corinth. ²⁴ I do not mean that we lord it over your faith, but we are workers with you for your

2 joy, because you stand firm in your faith. ¹ In fact, I made up my mind about this: I would not come to you on another painful visit. ² For if I cause you pain, then who will cheer me other than the one being hurt by me? ³ I wrote this very thing so that when I came I wouldn't have pain from those who ought to give me joy, because I am confident about all of you that my joy will also be yours. ⁴ For I wrote to you with many tears out of an extremely troubled and anguished heart—not to cause you pain, but that you should know the abundant love I have for you.

⁵ If anyone has caused pain, he has caused pain not so much to me but to some degree—not to exaggerate—to all of you. ⁶ This punishment by the majority is sufficient for that person. ⁷ As a result, you should instead forgive and comfort him. Otherwise, he may be overwhelmed by excessive grief. ⁸ Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love to him. ⁹ I wrote for this purpose: to test your character to see if you are obedient in everything. ¹⁰ Anyone you forgive, I do too. For what I have forgiven—if I have forgiven anything—it is for your benefit in the presence of Christ, ¹¹ so that we may not be taken advantage of by Satan. For we are not ignorant of his schemes.

¹² When I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, even though the Lord opened a door for me, ¹³ I had no rest in my spirit because I did not find my brother Titus. Instead, I said good-bye to them and left for Macedonia.

¹⁴ But thanks be to God, who always leads us in Christ's triumphal procession and through us spreads the aroma of the knowledge of him in every place. ¹⁵ For to God we are the fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing. ¹⁶ To some we are an aroma of death leading to death, but to others, an aroma of life leading to life. Who is adequate for these things? ¹⁷ For we do not market the word of God for profit like so many. On the contrary, we speak with sincerity in Christ, as from God and before God.

3 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, like some, letters of recommendation to you or from you? ² You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone. ³ You show that you are Christ's letter, delivered by us, not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God—not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

⁴ Such is the confidence we have through Christ before God. ⁵ It is not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything as coming from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God. ⁶ He has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

⁷ Now if the ministry that brought death, chiseled in letters on stones, came with glory, so that the Israelites were not able to gaze steadily at Moses's face because of its glory, which was set aside, ⁸ how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious? ⁹ For if the ministry that brought condemnation had glory, the ministry that brings righteousness overflows with even more glory. ¹⁰ In fact, what had been glorious is not glorious now by comparison because of the glory that surpasses it. ¹¹ For if what was set aside was glorious, what endures will be even more glorious.

¹² Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness. ¹³ We are not like Moses, who used to put a veil over his face to prevent the Israelites from gazing steadily until the end of the glory of what was being set aside, ¹⁴ but their minds were hardened. For to this day, at the reading of the old covenant, the same veil remains; it is not lifted, because it is set aside only in Christ. ¹⁵ Yet still today, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their hearts, ¹⁶ but whenever a person turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸ We all, with unveiled faces, are looking as in a mirror at the glory of the Lord and are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory; this is from the Lord who is the Spirit.

4 Therefore, since we have this ministry because we were shown mercy, we do not give up. ² Instead, we have renounced secret and shameful things, not acting deceitfully or distorting the word of God, but commending ourselves before God to everyone's conscience by an open display of the truth. ³ But if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. ⁴ In their case, the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelievers to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵ For we are not proclaiming ourselves but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus's sake. ⁶ For God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of God's glory in the face of Jesus Christ.

⁷ Now we have this treasure in clay jars, so that this extraordinary power may be from God and not from us. ⁸ We are afflicted in every way but not crushed; we are perplexed but not in despair; ⁹ we are persecuted but not abandoned; we are struck down but not destroyed. ¹⁰ We always carry the death of Jesus in our body, so that the life of Jesus may also be displayed in our body. ¹¹ For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus's sake, so that Jesus's life may also be displayed in our mortal flesh. ¹² So then, death is at work in us, but life in you. ¹³ And since we have the same spirit of faith in keeping with what is written, I believed, therefore I spoke, we also believe, and therefore speak. ¹⁴ For we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you. ¹⁵ Indeed, everything is for your benefit so that, as grace extends through more and more people, it may cause thanksgiving to increase to the glory of God.

¹⁶ Therefore we do not give up. Even though our outer person is being destroyed, our inner person is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷ For our momentary light affliction is producing for us an absolutely incomparable eternal weight of glory. ¹⁸ So we do not focus on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

5 For we know that if our earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal dwelling in the heavens, not made with hands. ² Indeed, we groan in this tent, desiring to put on our heavenly dwelling, ³ since, when we have taken it off, we will not be found naked. ⁴ Indeed, we groan while we are in this tent, burdened as we are, because we do not want to be unclothed but clothed, so that mortality may be swallowed up by life. ⁵ Now the one who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave us the Spirit as a down payment.

⁶ So we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. ⁷ For we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸ In fact, we are confident, and we would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹ Therefore, whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to be pleasing to him. ¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may be repaid for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.

¹¹ Therefore, since we know the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade people. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your consciences. ¹² We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity to be proud of us, so that you may have a reply for those who take pride in outward appearance rather than in the heart. ¹³ For if we are out of our mind, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ For the love of Christ compels us, since we have reached this conclusion: If one died for all, then all died. ¹⁵ And he died for all so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for the one who died for them and was raised.

¹⁶ From now on, then, we do not know anyone from a worldly perspective. Even if we have known Christ from a worldly perspective, yet now we no longer know him in this way. ¹⁷ Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, and see, the new has come! ¹⁸ Everything is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation. ¹⁹ That is, in Christ, God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and he has committed the message of reconciliation to us.

²⁰ Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us. We plead on Christ's behalf: "Be reconciled to God." ²¹ He made the one who did not know sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

6 Working together with him, we also appeal to you, "Don't receive the grace of God in vain." ² For he says: At an acceptable time I listened to you, and in the day of salvation I helped you.

See, now is the acceptable time; now is the day of salvation!

³ We are not giving anyone an occasion for offense, so that the ministry will not be blamed. ⁴ Instead, as God's ministers, we commend ourselves in everything: by great endurance, by afflictions, by hardships, by difficulties, ⁵ by beatings, by imprisonments, by riots, by labors, by sleepless nights, by times of hunger, ⁶ by purity, by knowledge, by patience, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love, ⁷ by the word of truth, by the power of God; through weapons of righteousness for the right hand and the left, ⁸ through glory and dishonor, through slander and good report; regarded as deceivers, yet true; ⁹ as unknown, yet recognized; as dying, yet see — we live; as being disciplined, yet not killed; ¹⁰ as grieving, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet enriching many; as having nothing, yet possessing everything. ¹¹ We have spoken openly to you, Corinthians; our heart has been opened wide. ¹² We are not withholding our affection from you, but you are withholding yours from us. ¹³ I speak as to my children; as a proper response, open your heart to us.

¹⁴ Don't become partners with those who do not believe. For what partnership is there between righteousness and lawlessness? Or what fellowship does light have with darkness? ¹⁵ What agreement does Christ have with Belial? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? ¹⁶ And what agreement does the temple of God have with idols? For we are the temple of the living God, as God said:

I will dwell
and walk among them,
and I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

¹⁷ Therefore, come out from among them

and be separate, says the Lord;
do not touch any unclean thing,
and I will welcome you.

¹⁸ And I will be a Father to you,
and you will be sons and daughters to me,
says the Lord Almighty.

7 So then, dear friends, since we have these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from every impurity of the flesh and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God.

² Make room for us in your hearts. We have wronged no one, corrupted no one, taken advantage of no one. ³ I don't say this to condemn you, since I have already said that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together. ⁴ I am very frank with you; I have great pride in you. I am filled with encouragement; I am overflowing with joy in all our afflictions.

⁵ In fact, when we came into Macedonia, we had no rest. Instead, we were troubled in every way: conflicts on the outside, fears within. ⁶ But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the arrival of Titus, ⁷ and not only by his arrival but also by the comfort he received from you. He told us about your deep longing, your sorrow, and your zeal for me, so that I rejoice even more. ⁸ For even if I grieved you with my letter, I don't regret it. And if I regretted it — since I saw that the letter grieved you, yet only for a while — ⁹ I now rejoice, not because you were grieved, but because your grief led to repentance. For you were grieved as God willed, so that you didn't experience any loss from us. ¹⁰ For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret, but worldly grief produces death. ¹¹ For consider how much diligence this very thing — this grieving as God wills — has produced in you: what a desire to clear yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what deep longing, what zeal, what justice! In every way you showed yourselves to be pure in this matter. ¹² So even though I wrote to you, it was not because of the one who did wrong, or because of the one who was wronged, but in order that your devotion to us might be made plain to you in the sight of God. ¹³ For this reason we have been comforted.

In addition to our own comfort, we rejoiced even more over the joy Titus had, because his spirit was refreshed by all of you. ¹⁴ For if I have made any boast to him about you, I have not been disappointed; but as I have spoken everything to you in truth, so our boasting to Titus has also turned out to be the truth. ¹⁵ And his affection toward you is even greater as he remembers the obedience of all of you, and how you received him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶ I rejoice that I have complete confidence in you.

8 We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that was given to the churches of Macedonia: ² During a severe trial brought about by affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. ³ I can testify that, according to their ability and even beyond their ability, of their own accord, ⁴ they begged us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in the ministry to the saints, ⁵ and not just as we had hoped. Instead, they gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us by God's will. ⁶ So we urged Titus that just as he had begun, so he should also complete among you this act of grace.

⁷ Now as you excel in everything — in faith, speech, knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love for us — excel also in this act of grace. ⁸ I am not saying this as a command. Rather, by means of the diligence of others, I am testing the genuineness of your love. ⁹ For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ: Though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰ And in this matter I am giving advice because it is profitable for you, who began last year not only to do something but also to want to do it. ¹¹ Now also finish the task, so that just as there was an eager desire, there may also be a completion, according to what you have. ¹² For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have. ¹³ It is not that there should be relief for others and hardship for you, but it is a question of equality. ¹⁴ At the present time your surplus is available for their need, so that their abundance may in turn meet your need, in order that there may be equality. ¹⁵ As it is written: The person who had much did not have too much, and the person who had little did not have too little.

¹⁶ Thanks be to God, who put the same concern for you into the heart of Titus. ¹⁷ For he welcomed our appeal and, being very diligent, went out to you by his own choice. ¹⁸ We have sent with him the brother who is praised among all the churches for his gospel ministry. ¹⁹ And not only that, but he was also appointed by the churches to accompany us with this gracious gift that we are administering for the glory of the Lord himself and to show our eagerness to help. ²⁰ We are taking this precaution so that no one will criticize us about this large sum that we are administering. ²¹ Indeed, we are giving careful thought to do what is right, not only before the Lord but also before people. ²² We have also sent with them our brother. We have often tested him in many circumstances and found him to be diligent — and now even more diligent because of his great confidence in you. ²³ As for Titus, he is my partner and coworker for you; as for our brothers, they are the messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. ²⁴ Therefore, show them proof before the churches of your love and of our boasting about you.

9 Now concerning the ministry to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you. ² For I know your eagerness, and I boast about you to the Macedonians: "Achaia has been ready since last year," and your zeal has stirred up most of them. ³ But I am sending the brothers so that our boasting about you in this matter would not prove empty, and so that you would be ready just as I said. ⁴ Otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we, not to mention you, would be put to shame in that situation. ⁵ Therefore I considered it necessary to urge the brothers to go on ahead to you and arrange in advance the generous gift you promised, so that it will be ready as a gift and not as an extortion.

⁶ The point is this: The person who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the person who sows generously will also reap generously. ⁷ Each person should do as he has decided in his heart — not reluctantly or out of compulsion, since God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸ And God is able to make every grace overflow to you, so that in every way, always having everything you need, you may excel in every good work. ⁹ As it is written:

He distributed freely;
he gave to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever.

¹⁰ Now the one who provides seed for the sower and bread for food will also provide and multiply your seed and increase the harvest of your righteousness. ¹¹ You will be enriched in every way for all generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us.¹² For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God.

¹³ Because of the proof provided by this ministry, they will glorify God for your obedient confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone.¹⁴ And as they pray on your behalf, they will have deep affection for you because of the surpassing grace of God in you.¹⁵ Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

10 Now I Paul, myself, appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I who am humble among you in person but bold toward you when absent.² I beg you that when I am present I will not need to be bold with the confidence by which I plan to challenge certain people who think we are behaving according to the flesh.³ For although we live in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh,⁴ since the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but are powerful through God for the demolition of strongholds. We demolish arguments⁵ and every proud thing that is raised up against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive to obey Christ.⁶ And we are ready to punish any disobedience, once your obedience is complete.

⁷ Look at what is obvious. If anyone is confident that he belongs to Christ, let him remind himself of this: Just as he belongs to Christ, so do we.⁸ For if I boast a little too much about our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for tearing you down, I will not be put to shame.⁹ I don't want to seem as though I am trying to terrify you with my letters.¹⁰ For it is said, "His letters are weighty and powerful, but his physical presence is weak and his public speaking amounts to nothing."¹¹ Let such a person consider this: What we are in our letters, when we are absent, we will also be in our actions when we are present.

¹² For we don't dare classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. But in measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves to themselves, they lack understanding.¹³ We, however, will not boast beyond measure but according to the measure of the area of ministry that God has assigned to us, which reaches even to you.¹⁴ For we are not overextending ourselves, as if we had not reached you, since we have come to you with the gospel of Christ.¹⁵ We are not boasting beyond measure about other people's labors. On the contrary, we have the hope that as your faith increases, our area of ministry will be greatly enlarged,¹⁶ so that we may preach the gospel to the regions beyond you without boasting about what has already been done in someone else's area of ministry.¹⁷ So let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.¹⁸ For it is not the one commending himself who is approved, but the one the Lord commends.

11 I wish you would put up with a little foolishness from me. Yes, do put up with me!² For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy, because I have promised you in marriage to one husband—to present a pure virgin to Christ.³ But I fear that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your minds may be seduced from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ.⁴ For if a person comes and preaches another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or you receive a different spirit, which you had not received, or a different gospel, which you had not accepted, you put up with it splendidly!

⁵ Now I consider myself in no way inferior to those "super-apostles."⁶ Even if I am untrained in public speaking, I am certainly not untrained in knowledge. Indeed, we have in every way made that clear to you in everything.⁷ Or did I commit a sin by humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you free of charge?⁸ I robbed other churches by taking pay from them to minister to you.⁹ When I was present with you and in need, I did not burden anyone, since the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my needs. I have kept myself, and will keep myself, from burdening you in any way.¹⁰ As the truth of Christ is in me, this boasting of mine will not be stopped in the regions of Achaia.¹¹ Why? Because I don't love you? God knows I do!

¹² But I will continue to do what I am doing, in order to deny an opportunity to those who want to be regarded as our equals in what they boast about.¹³ For such people are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.¹⁴ And no wonder! For Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.¹⁵ So it is no great surprise if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. Their end will be according to their works.

¹⁶ I repeat: Let no one consider me a fool. But if you do, at least accept me as a fool so that I can also boast a little.¹⁷ What I am saying in this matter of boasting, I don't speak as the Lord would, but as it were, foolishly.¹⁸ Since many boast according to the flesh, I will also boast.¹⁹ For you, being so wise, gladly put up with fools!²⁰ In fact, you put up with it if someone enslaves you, if someone exploits you, if someone takes advantage of you, if someone is arrogant toward you, if someone slaps you in the face.²¹ I say this to your shame: We have been too weak for that!

But in whatever anyone dares to boast—I am talking foolishly—I also dare:²² Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the descendants of Abraham? So am I.²³ Are they servants of Christ? I'm talking like a madman—I'm a better one: with far more labors, many more imprisonments, far worse beatings, many times near death.

²⁴ Five times I received the forty lashes minus one from the Jews.²⁵ Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I received a stoning. Three times I was shipwrecked. I have spent a night and a day in the open sea.²⁶ On frequent journeys, I faced dangers from rivers, dangers from robbers, dangers from my own people, dangers from Gentiles, dangers in the city, dangers in the wilderness, dangers at sea, and dangers among false brothers;²⁷ toil and hardship, many sleepless nights, hunger and thirst, often without food, cold, and without clothing.²⁸ Not to mention other things, there is the daily pressure on me: my concern for all the churches.²⁹ Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

³⁰ If boasting is necessary, I will boast about my weaknesses.³¹ The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is blessed forever, knows I am not lying.³² In Damascus, a ruler under King Aretas guarded the city of Damascus in order to arrest me.³³ So I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped from his hands.

12 Boasting is necessary. It is not profitable, but I will move on to visions and revelations of the Lord.² I know a man in Christ who was caught up to the third heaven fourteen years ago. Whether he was in the body or out of the body, I don't know; God knows.³ I know that this man—whether in the body or out of the body I don't know; God knows—⁴ was caught up into paradise and heard inexpressible words, which a human being is not allowed to speak.⁵ I will boast about this person, but not about myself, except of my weaknesses.

⁶ For if I want to boast, I wouldn't be a fool, because I would be telling the truth. But I will spare you, so that no one can credit me with something beyond what he sees in me or hears from me.⁷ Especially because of the extraordinary revelations. Therefore, so that I would not exalt myself, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to torment me so that I would not exalt myself.⁸ Concerning this, I pleaded with the Lord three times that it would leave me.⁹ But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is perfected in weakness."

Therefore, I will most gladly boast all the more about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may reside in me.¹⁰ So I take pleasure in weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and in difficulties, for the sake of Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

¹¹ I have been a fool; you forced it on me. You ought to have commended me, since I am not in any way inferior to those "super-apostles," even though I am nothing.¹² The signs of an apostle were performed with unflinching endurance among you, including signs and wonders and miracles.¹³ So in what way are you worse off than the other churches, except that I personally did not burden you? Forgive me for this wrong!

¹⁴ Look, I am ready to come to you this third time. I will not burden you, since I am not seeking what is yours, but you. For children ought not save up for their parents, but parents for their children.¹⁵ I will most gladly spend and be spent for you. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?¹⁶ Now granted, I did not burden you; yet sly as I am, I took you in by deceit!¹⁷ Did I take advantage of you by any of those I sent you?¹⁸ I urged Titus to go, and I sent the brother with him. Titus didn't take advantage of you, did he? Didn't we walk in the same spirit and in the same footsteps?

¹⁹ Have you been thinking all along that we were defending ourselves to you? No, in the sight of God we are speaking in Christ, and everything, dear friends, is for building you up.²⁰ For I fear that perhaps when I come I will not find you to be what I want, and you may not find me to be what you want. Perhaps there will be quarreling, jealousy, angry outbursts, selfish ambitions, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorder.²¹ I fear that when I come my God will again humiliate me in your presence, and I will grieve for many who sinned before and have not repented of the moral impurity, sexual immorality, and sensuality they practiced.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. Every matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.² I gave a warning when I was present the second time, and now I give a warning while I am absent to those who sinned before and to all the rest: If I come again, I will not be lenient,³ since you seek proof of Christ speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but powerful among you.⁴ For he was crucified in weakness, but he lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by God's power.

⁵ Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith. Examine yourselves. Or do you yourselves not recognize that Jesus Christ is in you? — unless you fail the test.⁶ And I hope you will recognize that we ourselves do not fail the test.⁷ But we pray to God that you do nothing wrong — not that we may appear to pass the test, but that you may do what is right, even though we may appear to fail.⁸ For we can't do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.⁹ We rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. We also pray that you become fully mature.¹⁰ This is why I am writing these things while absent, so that when I am there I may not have to deal harshly with you, in keeping with the authority the Lord gave me for building up and not for tearing down.

¹¹ Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice. Become mature, be encouraged, be of the same mind, be at peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

¹³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

GALATIANS

1 Paul, an apostle — not from men or by man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised him from the dead — ² and all the brothers who are with me:

To the churches of Galatia.

³ Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴ who gave himself for our sins to rescue us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father. ⁵ To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

⁶ I am amazed that you are so quickly turning away from him who called you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel — ⁷ not that there is another gospel, but there are some who are troubling you and want to distort the gospel of Christ. ⁸ But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach to you a gospel contrary to what we have preached to you, a curse be on him! ⁹ As we have said before, I now say again: If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what you received, a curse be on him!

¹⁰ For am I now trying to persuade people, or God? Or am I striving to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

¹¹ For I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel preached by me is not of human origin. ¹² For I did not receive it from a human source and I was not taught it, but it came by a revelation of Jesus Christ.

¹³ For you have heard about my former way of life in Judaism: I intensely persecuted God's church and tried to destroy it. ¹⁴ I advanced in Judaism beyond many contemporaries among my people, because I was extremely zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. ¹⁵ But when God, who from my mother's womb set me apart and called me by his grace, was pleased ¹⁶ to reveal his Son in me, so that I could preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone. ¹⁷ I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who had become apostles before me; instead I went to Arabia and came back to Damascus.

¹⁸ Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to get to know Cephas, and I stayed with him fifteen days. ¹⁹ But I didn't see any of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother. ²⁰ I declare in the sight of God: I am not lying in what I write to you.

²¹ Afterward, I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ²² I remained personally unknown to the Judean churches that are in Christ. ²³ They simply kept hearing: "He who formerly persecuted us now preaches the faith he once tried to destroy." ²⁴ And they glorified God because of me.

2 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along also. ² I went up according to a revelation and presented to them the gospel I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to those recognized as leaders. I wanted to be sure I was not running, and had not been running, in vain. ³ But not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he was a Greek. ⁴ This matter arose because some false brothers had infiltrated our ranks to spy on the freedom we have in Christ Jesus in order to enslave us. ⁵ But we did not give up and submit to these people for even a moment, so that the truth of the gospel would be preserved for you.

favoritism) — they added nothing to me. ⁷ On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel for the uncircumcised, just as Peter was for the circumcised, ⁸ since the one at work in Peter for an apostleship to the circumcised was also at work in me for the Gentiles. ⁹ When James, Cephas, and John — those recognized as pillars — acknowledged the grace that had been given to me, they gave the right hand of fellowship to me and Barnabas, agreeing that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. ¹⁰ They asked only that we would remember the poor, which I had made every effort to do.

¹¹ But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face because he stood condemned. ¹² For he regularly ate with the Gentiles before certain men came from James. However, when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, because he feared those from the circumcision party. ¹³ Then the rest of the Jews joined his hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. ¹⁴ But when I saw that they were deviating from the truth of the gospel, I told Cephas in front of everyone, "If you, who are a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel Gentiles to live like Jews?"

¹⁵ We are Jews by birth and not "Gentile sinners," ¹⁶ and yet because we know that a person is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we ourselves have believed in Christ Jesus. This was so that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law, because by the works of the law no human being will be justified. ¹⁷ But if we ourselves are also found to be "sinners" while seeking to be justified by Christ, is Christ then a promoter of sin? Absolutely not! ¹⁸ If I rebuild those things that I tore down, I show myself to be a lawbreaker. ¹⁹ For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live for God. ²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. ²¹ I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died for nothing.

3 You foolish Galatians! Who has cast a spell on you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified? ² I only want to learn this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law or by believing what you heard? ³ Are you so foolish? After beginning by the Spirit, are you now finishing by the flesh? ⁴ Did you experience so much for nothing — if in fact it was for nothing? ⁵ So then, does God give you the Spirit and work miracles among you by your doing the works of the law? Or is it by believing what you heard — ⁶ just like Abraham who believed God, and it was credited to him for righteousness?

⁷ You know, then, that those who have faith, these are Abraham's sons. ⁸ Now the Scripture saw in advance that God would justify the Gentiles by faith and proclaimed the gospel ahead of time to Abraham, saying, All the nations will be blessed through you. ⁹ Consequently those who have faith are blessed with Abraham, who had faith.

law, because the righteous will live by faith. ¹² But the law is not based on faith; instead, the one who does these things will live by them. ¹³ Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, because it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree. ¹⁴ The purpose was that the blessing of Abraham would come to the Gentiles by Christ Jesus, so that we could receive the promised Spirit through faith.

¹⁵ Brothers and sisters, I'm using a human illustration. No one sets aside or makes additions to a validated human will. ¹⁶ Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say "and to seeds," as though referring to many, but referring to one, and to your seed, who is Christ. ¹⁷ My point is this: The law, which came 430 years later, does not invalidate a covenant previously established by God and thus cancel the promise. ¹⁸ For if the inheritance is based on the law, it is no longer based on the promise; but God has graciously given it to Abraham through the promise.

¹⁹ Why then was the law given? It was added for the sake of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise was made would come. The law was put into effect through angels by means of a mediator. ²⁰ Now a mediator is not just for one person alone, but God is one. ²¹ Is the law therefore contrary to God's promises? Absolutely not! For if the law had been granted with the ability to give life, then righteousness would certainly be on the basis of the law. ²² But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin's power, so that the promise might be given on the basis of faith in Jesus Christ to those who believe. ²³ Before this faith came, we were confined under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith was revealed. ²⁴ The law, then, was our guardian until Christ, so that we could be justified by faith. ²⁵ But since that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, ²⁶ for through faith you are all sons of God in Christ Jesus.

²⁷ For those of you who were baptized into Christ have been clothed with Christ. ²⁸ There is no Jew or Greek, slave or free, male and female; since you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹ And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's seed, heirs according to the promise. ¹ Now I say that as long as the heir is a child, he differs in no way from a slave, though he is the owner of everything. ² Instead, he is under guardians and trustees until the time set by his father. ³ In the same way we also, when we were children, were in slavery under the elements of the world. ⁴ When the time came to completion, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, ⁵ to redeem those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. ⁶ And because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba, Father!" ⁷ So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, then God has made you an heir.

⁸ But in the past, since you didn't know God, you were enslaved to things that by nature are not gods. ⁹ But now, since you know God, or rather have become known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elements? Do you want to be enslaved to them all over again? ¹⁰ You are observing special days, months, seasons, and years. ¹¹ I am fearful for you, that perhaps my labor for you has been wasted.

¹² I beg you, brothers and sisters: Become like me, for I also became like you. You have not wronged me; ¹³ you know that previously I preached the gospel to you because of a weakness of the flesh. ¹⁴ You did not despise or reject me though my physical condition was a trial for you.

On the contrary, you received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus himself.

¹⁵ Where, then, is your blessing? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me. ¹⁶ So then, have I become your enemy because I told you the truth? ¹⁷ They court you eagerly, but not for good. They want to exclude you from me, so that you would pursue them. ¹⁸ But it is always good to be pursued in a good manner — and not just when I am with you. ¹⁹ My children, I am again suffering labor pains for you until Christ is formed in you. ²⁰ I would like to be with you right now and change my tone of voice, because I don't know what to do about you.

²¹ Tell me, you who want to be under the law, don't you hear the law? ²² For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave and the other by a free woman. ²³ But the one by the slave was born as a result of the flesh, while the one by the free woman was born through promise. ²⁴ These things are being taken figuratively, for the women represent two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai and bears children into slavery — this is Hagar. ²⁵ Now Hagar represents Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. ²⁶ But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. ²⁷ For it is written,

Rejoice, childless woman, unable to give birth.
Burst into song and shout,
you who are not in labor,
for the children of the desolate woman will be many,
more numerous than those
of the woman who has a husband.

²⁸ Now you too, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of promise. ²⁹ But just as then the child born as a result of the flesh persecuted the one born as a result of the Spirit, so also now. ³⁰ But what does the Scripture say? "Drive out the slave and her son, for the son of the slave will never be a coheir with the son of the free woman."

5 For freedom, Christ set us free. Stand firm then and don't submit again to a yoke of slavery. ² Take note! I, Paul, am telling you that if you get yourselves circumcised, Christ will not benefit you at all. ³ Again I testify to every man who gets himself circumcised that he is obligated to do the entire law. ⁴ You who are trying to be justified by the law are alienated from Christ; you have fallen from grace. ⁵ For we eagerly await through the Spirit, by faith, the hope of righteousness. ⁶ For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision accomplishes anything; what matters is faith working through love.

⁷ You were running well. Who prevented you from being persuaded regarding the truth? ⁸ This persuasion does not come from the one who calls you. ⁹ A little leaven leavens the whole batch of dough. ¹⁰ I myself am persuaded in the Lord you will not accept any other view. But whoever it is that is confusing you will pay the penalty. ¹¹ Now brothers and sisters, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been abolished. ¹² I wish those who are disturbing you might also let themselves be mutilated!

¹³ For you were called to be free, brothers and sisters; only don't use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but serve one another through love. ¹⁴ For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement: Love your neighbor as yourself. ¹⁵ But if you bite and devour one another, watch out, or you will be consumed by one another.

¹⁶ I say then, walk by the Spirit and you will certainly not carry out the desire of the flesh. ¹⁷ For the flesh desires what is against the Spirit, and the Spirit desires what is against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you don't do what you want. ¹⁸ But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness, and self-control. The law is not against such things. ²⁴ Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. ²⁵ If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit. ²⁶ Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

6 Brothers and sisters, if someone is overtaken in any wrongdoing, you who are spiritual, restore such a person with a gentle spirit, watching out for yourselves so that you also won't be tempted. ² Carry one another's burdens; in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. ³ For if anyone considers himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. ⁴ Let each person examine his own work, and then he can take pride in himself alone, and not compare himself with someone else. ⁵ For each person will have to carry his own load.

⁶ Let the one who is taught the word share all his good things with the teacher. ⁷ Don't be deceived: God is not mocked. For whatever a person sows he will also reap, ⁸ because the one who sows to his flesh will reap destruction from the flesh, but the one who sows to the Spirit will reap eternal life from the Spirit. ⁹ Let us not get tired of doing good, for we will reap at the proper time if we don't give up. ¹⁰ Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us work for the good of all, especially for those who belong to the household of faith.

¹¹ Look at what large letters I use as I write to you in my own handwriting. ¹² Those who want to make a good impression in the flesh are the ones who would compel you to be circumcised — but only to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ. ¹³ For even the circumcised don't keep the law themselves, and yet they want you to be circumcised in order to boast about your flesh. ¹⁴ But as for me, I will never boast about anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. The world has been crucified to me through the cross, and I to the world. ¹⁵ For both circumcision and uncircumcision mean nothing; what matters instead is a new creation. ¹⁶ May peace come to all those who follow this standard, and mercy even to the Israel of God!

¹⁷ From now on, let no one cause me trouble, because I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. ¹⁸ Brothers and sisters, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

EPHESIANS

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will:
To the faithful saints in Christ Jesus at Ephesus.

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³ Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavens in Christ. ⁴ For he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless in love before him. ⁵ He predestined us to be adopted as sons through Jesus Christ for himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, ⁶ to the praise of his glorious grace that he lavished on us in the Beloved One.

⁷ In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace ⁸ that he richly poured out on us with all wisdom and understanding. ⁹ He made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he purposed in Christ ¹⁰ as a plan for the right time — to bring everything together in Christ, both things in heaven and things on earth in him.

¹¹ In him we have also received an inheritance, because we were predestined according to the plan of the one who works out everything in agreement with the purpose of his will, ¹² so that we who had already put our hope in Christ might bring praise to his glory.

¹³ In him you also were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and when you believed. ¹⁴ The Holy Spirit is the down payment of our inheritance, until the redemption of the possession, to the praise of his glory.

¹⁵ This is why, since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, ¹⁶ I never stop giving thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. ¹⁷ I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, would give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him. ¹⁸ I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened so that you may know what is the hope of his calling, what is the wealth of his glorious inheritance in the saints, ¹⁹ and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the mighty working of his strength.

2 And you were dead in your trespasses and sins ² in which you previously lived according to the ways of this world, according to the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit now working in the disobedient. ³ We too all previously lived among them in our fleshly desires, carrying out the inclinations of our flesh and thoughts, and we were by nature children under wrath as the others were also. ⁴ But God, who is rich in mercy, because of his great love that he had for us, ⁵ made us alive with Christ even though we were dead in trespasses. You are saved by grace! ⁶ He also raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, ⁷ so that in the coming ages he might display the immeasurable riches of his grace through his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. ⁸ For you are saved by grace through faith, and this is not from yourselves; it is God's gift — ⁹ not from works, so that no one can boast. ¹⁰ For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared ahead of time for us to do.

¹¹ So then, remember that at one time you were Gentiles in the flesh — called "the uncircumcised" by those called "the circumcised," which is done in the flesh by human hands. ¹² At that time you were without Christ, excluded from the citizenship of Israel, and foreigners to the covenants of promise, without hope and without God in the world. ¹³ But now in Christ Jesus, you who were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ. ¹⁴ For he is our peace, who made both groups one and tore down the dividing wall of hostility. In his flesh, ¹⁵ he made of no effect the law consisting of commands and expressed in regulations, so that he might create in himself one new man from the two, resulting in peace. ¹⁶ He did this so that he might reconcile both to God in one body through the cross by which he put the hostility to death. ¹⁷ He came and proclaimed the good news of peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. ¹⁸ For through him we both have access in one spirit to the Father. ¹⁹ So then you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with the saints, and members of God's household, ²⁰ built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. ²¹ In him the whole building, being put together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. ²² In him you are also being built together for God's dwelling in the Spirit.

3 For this reason, I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles — ² you have heard, haven't you, about the administration of God's grace that he gave to me for you? ³ The mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I have briefly written above. ⁴ By reading this you are able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ. ⁵ This was not made known to people in other generations as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit. ⁶ The Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and partners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. ⁷ I was made a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the working of his power.

⁸ This grace was given to me — the least of all the saints — to proclaim to the Gentiles the incalculable riches of Christ, ⁹ and to shed light for all about the administration of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things. ¹⁰ This is so that God's multi-faceted wisdom may now be made known through the church to the rulers and authorities in the heavens. ¹¹ This is according to his eternal purpose accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. ¹² In him we have boldness and confident access through faith in him. ¹³ So then I ask you not to be discouraged over my afflictions on your behalf, for they are your glory.

¹⁴ For this reason I kneel before the Father ¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named. ¹⁶ I pray that he may grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with power in your inner being through his Spirit,¹⁷ and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. I pray that you, being rooted and firmly established in love,¹⁸ may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the length and width, height and depth of God's love,¹⁹ and to know Christ's love that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

²⁰ Now to him who is able to do above and beyond all that we ask or think according to the power that works in us — ²¹ to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

4 Therefore I, the prisoner in the Lord, urge you to live worthy of the calling you have received,² with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love,³ making every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.⁴ There is one body and one Spirit — just as you were called to one hope at your calling — ⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism,⁶ one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

⁷ Now grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ's gift.⁸ For it says:

When he ascended on high,
he took the captives captive;
he gave gifts to people.

⁹ But what does "he ascended" mean except that he also descended to the lower parts of the earth?¹⁰ The one who descended is also the one who ascended far above all the heavens, to fill all things.¹¹ And he himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers,¹² equipping the saints for the work of ministry, to build up the body of Christ,¹³ until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of God's Son, growing into maturity with a stature measured by Christ's fullness.¹⁴ Then we will no longer be little children, tossed by the waves and blown around by every wind of teaching, by human cunning with cleverness in the techniques of deceit.¹⁵ But speaking the truth in love, let us grow in every way into him who is the head — Christ.¹⁶ From him the whole body, fitted and knit together by every supporting ligament, promotes the growth of the body for building up itself in love by the proper working of each individual part.

¹⁷ Therefore, I say this and testify in the Lord: You should no longer live as the Gentiles live, in the futility of their thoughts.¹⁸ They are darkened in their understanding, excluded from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them and because of the hardness of their hearts.¹⁹ They became callous and gave themselves over to promiscuity for the practice of every kind of impurity with a desire for more and more.

²⁰ But that is not how you came to know Christ,²¹ assuming you heard about him and were taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus,²² to take off your former way of life, the old self that is corrupted by deceitful desires,²³ to be renewed in the spirit of your minds,²⁴ and to put on the new self, the one created according to God's likeness in righteousness and purity of the truth.

²⁵ Therefore, putting away lying, speak the truth, each one to his neighbor, because we are members of one another.²⁶ Be angry and do not sin. Don't let the sun go down on your anger,²⁷ and don't give the devil an opportunity.²⁸ Let the thief no longer steal. Instead, he is to do honest work with his own hands, so that he has something to share with anyone in need.²⁹ No foul language should come from your mouth, but only what is good for building up someone in need, so that it gives grace to those who hear.³⁰ And don't grieve God's Holy Spirit. You were sealed by him for the day of redemption.³¹ Let all bitterness, anger and wrath, shouting and slander be removed from you, along with all malice.³² And be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving one another, just as God also forgave you in Christ.

5 Therefore, be imitators of God, as dearly loved children,² and walk in love, as Christ also loved us and gave himself for us, a sacrificial and fragrant offering to God.³ But sexual immorality and any impurity or greed should not even be heard of among you, as is proper for saints.⁴ Obscene and foolish talking or crude joking are not suitable, but rather giving thanks.⁵ For know and recognize this: Every sexually immoral or impure or greedy person, who is an idolater, does not have an inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

⁶ Let no one deceive you with empty arguments, for God's wrath is coming on the disobedient because of these things.⁷ Therefore, do not become their partners.⁸ For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light — ⁹ for the fruit of the light consists of all goodness, righteousness, and truth — ¹⁰ testing what is pleasing to the Lord.¹¹ Don't participate in the fruitless works of darkness, but instead expose them.¹² For it is shameful even to mention what is done by them in secret.¹³ Everything exposed by the light is made visible,¹⁴ for what makes everything visible is light. Therefore it is said:

Get up, sleeper, and rise up from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you.

¹⁵ Pay careful attention, then, to how you live — not as unwise people but as wise — ¹⁶ making the most of the time, because the days are evil.¹⁷ So don't be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is.¹⁸ And don't get drunk with wine, which leads to reckless living, but be filled by the Spirit:¹⁹ speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making music with your heart to the Lord,²⁰ giving thanks always for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,²¹ submitting to one another in the fear of Christ.

²² Wives, submit to your husbands as to the Lord,²³ because the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church. He is the Savior of the body.²⁴ Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives are to submit to their husbands in everything.²⁵ Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself for her²⁶ to make her holy, cleansing her with the washing of water by the word.²⁷ He did this to present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and blameless.²⁸ In the same way, husbands are to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.²⁹ For no one ever hates his own flesh but provides and cares for it, just as Christ does for the church,³⁰ since we are members of his body.³¹ For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.³² This mystery is profound, but I am talking about Christ and the church.³³ To sum up, each one of you is to love his wife as himself, and the wife is to respect her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, because this is right.² Honor your father and mother, which is the first commandment with a promise,³ so that it may go well with you and that you may have a long life in the land.⁴ Fathers, don't stir up anger in your children, but bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.

⁶ Don't work only while being watched, as people-pleasers, but as slaves of Christ, do God's will from your heart. ⁷ Serve with a good attitude, as to the Lord and not to people, ⁸ knowing that whatever good each one does, slave or free, he will receive this back from the Lord. ⁹ And masters, treat your slaves the same way, without threatening them, because you know that both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.

¹⁰ Finally, be strengthened by the Lord and by his vast strength. ¹¹ Put on the full armor of God so that you can stand against the schemes of the devil. ¹² For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this darkness, against evil, spiritual forces in the heavens. ¹³ For this reason take up the full armor of God, so that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having prepared everything, to take your stand. ¹⁴ Stand, therefore, with truth like a belt around your waist, righteousness like armor on your chest, ¹⁵ and your feet sandaled with readiness for the gospel of peace. ¹⁶ In every situation take up the shield of faith with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. ¹⁷ Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit — which is the word of God. ¹⁸ Pray at all times in the Spirit with every prayer and request, and stay alert with all perseverance and intercession for all the saints. ¹⁹ Pray also for me, that the message may be given to me when I open my mouth to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel. ²⁰ For this I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I might be bold enough to speak about it as I should.

²¹ Tychicus, our dearly loved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me so that you may be informed. ²² I am sending him to you for this very reason, to let you know how we are and to encourage your hearts.

²³ Peace to the brothers and sisters, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴ Grace be with all who have undying love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

PHILIPPIANS

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus:
To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, including the overseers and deacons.

³ I give thanks to my God for every remembrance of you, ⁴ always praying with joy for all of you in my every prayer, ⁵ because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. ⁶ I am sure of this, that he who started a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. ⁷ Indeed, it is right for me to think this way about all of you, because I have you in my heart, and you are all partners with me in grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. ⁸ For God is my witness, how deeply I miss all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus. ⁹ And I pray this: that your love will keep on growing in knowledge and every kind of discernment, ¹⁰ so that you may approve the things that are superior and may be pure and blameless in the day of Christ, ¹¹ filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ to the glory and praise of God.

¹² Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually advanced the gospel, ¹³ so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard, and to everyone else, that my imprisonment is because I am in Christ. ¹⁴ Most of the brothers have gained confidence in the Lord from my imprisonment and dare even more to speak the word fearlessly. ¹⁵ To be sure, some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of good will. ¹⁶ These preach out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel; ¹⁷ the others proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, thinking that they will cause me trouble in my imprisonment. ¹⁸ What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is proclaimed, and in this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice ¹⁹ because I know this will lead to my salvation through your prayers and help from the Spirit of Jesus Christ. ²⁰ My eager expectation and hope is that I will not be ashamed about anything, but that now as always, with all courage, Christ will be highly honored in my body, whether by life or by death.

²¹ For me, to live is Christ and to die is gain. ²² Now if I live on in the flesh, this means fruitful work for me; and I don't know which one I should choose. ²³ I am torn between the two. I long to depart and be with Christ — which is far better — ²⁴ but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for your sake. ²⁵ Since I am persuaded of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, ²⁶ so that, because of my coming to you again, your boasting in Christ Jesus may abound.

²⁷ Just one thing: As citizens of heaven, live your life worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or am absent, I will hear about you that you are standing firm in one spirit, in one accord, contending together for the faith of the gospel, ²⁸ not being frightened in any way by your opponents. This is a sign of destruction for them, but of your salvation — and this is from God. ²⁹ For it has been granted to you on Christ's behalf not only to believe in him, but also to suffer for him. ³⁰ Since you are engaged in the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I have.

2 If then there is any encouragement in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, ² make my joy complete by thinking the same way, having the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose. ³ Do nothing out of selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility consider others as more important than yourselves. ⁴ Everyone should look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

⁵ Adopt the same attitude as that of Christ Jesus,

⁶ who, existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God as something to be exploited.

⁷ Instead he emptied himself by assuming the form of a servant, taking on the likeness of humanity.

And when he had come as a man,

⁸ he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death — even to death on a cross.

⁹ For this reason God highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name,

¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus every knee will bow — in heaven and on earth and under the earth —

¹² Therefore, my dear friends, just as you have always obeyed, so now, not only in my presence but even more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. ¹³ For it is God who is working in you both to will and to work according to his good purpose. ¹⁴ Do everything without grumbling and arguing, ¹⁵ so that you may be blameless and pure, children of God who are faultless in a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine like stars in the world, ¹⁶ by holding firm to the word of life. Then I can boast in the day of Christ that I didn't run or labor for nothing. ¹⁷ But even if I am poured out as a drink offering on the sacrificial service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. ¹⁸ In the same way you should also be glad and rejoice with me.

¹⁹ Now I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon so that I too may be encouraged by news about you. ²⁰ For I have no one else like-minded who will genuinely care about your interests; ²¹ all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. ²² But you know his proven character, because he has served with me in the gospel ministry like a son with a father. ²³ Therefore, I hope to send him as soon as I see how things go with me. ²⁴ I am confident in the Lord that I myself will also come soon.

²⁵ But I considered it necessary to send you Epaphroditus — my brother, coworker, and fellow soldier, as well as your messenger and minister to my need — ²⁶ since he has been longing for all of you and was distressed because you heard that he was sick. ²⁷ Indeed, he was so sick that he nearly died. However, God had mercy on him, and not only on him but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸ For this reason, I am very eager to send him so that you may rejoice again when you see him and I may be less anxious.²⁹ Therefore, welcome him in the Lord with great joy and hold people like him in honor,³⁰ because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up what was lacking in your ministry to me.

3 In addition, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord. To write to you again about this is no trouble for me and is a safeguard for you.

⁷ But everything that was a gain to me, I have considered to be a loss because of Christ. ⁸ More than that, I also consider everything to be a loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. Because of him I have suffered the loss of all things and consider them as dung, so that I may gain Christ ⁹ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own from the law, but one that is through faith in Christ — the righteousness from God based on faith. ¹⁰ My goal is to know him and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to his death, ¹¹ assuming that I will somehow reach the resurrection from among the dead.

¹² Not that I have already reached the goal or am already perfect, but I make every effort to take hold of it because I also have been taken hold of by Christ Jesus. ¹³ Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and reaching forward to what is ahead, ¹⁴ I pursue as my goal the prize promised by God's heavenly call in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵ Therefore, let all of us who are mature think this way. And if you think differently about anything, God will reveal this also to you. ¹⁶ In any case, we should live up to whatever truth we have attained. ¹⁷ Join in imitating me, brothers and sisters, and pay careful attention to those who live according to the example you have in us. ¹⁸ For I have often told you, and now say again with tears, that many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. ¹⁹ Their end is destruction; their god is their stomach; their glory is in their shame. They are focused on earthly things, ²⁰ but our citizenship is in heaven, and we eagerly wait for a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ. ²¹ He will transform the body of our humble condition into the likeness of his glorious body, by the power that enables him to subject everything to himself.

4 So then, my dearly loved and longed for brothers and sisters, my joy and crown, in this manner stand firm in the Lord, dear friends.

² I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to agree in the Lord. ³ Yes, I also ask you, true partner, to help these women who have contended for the gospel at my side, along with Clement and the rest of my coworkers whose names are in the book of life. ⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! ⁵ Let your graciousness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. ⁶ Don't worry about anything, but in everything, through prayer and petition with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸ Finally brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable — if there is any moral excellence and if there is anything praiseworthy — dwell on these things. ⁹ Do what you have learned and received and heard from me, and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

¹⁰ I rejoiced in the Lord greatly because once again you renewed your care for me. You were, in fact, concerned about me but lacked the opportunity to show it. ¹¹ I don't say this out of need, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I find myself. ¹² I know both how to make do with little, and I know how to make do with a lot. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being content — whether well fed or hungry, whether in abundance or in need. ¹³ I am able to do all things through him who strengthens me. ¹⁴ Still, you did well by partnering with me in my hardship.

¹⁵ And you Philippians know that in the early days of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving except you alone. ¹⁶ For even in Thessalonica you sent gifts for my need several times. ¹⁷ Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the profit that is increasing to your account. ¹⁸ But I have received everything in full, and I have an abundance. I am fully supplied, having received from Epaphroditus what you provided — a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. ¹⁹ And my God will supply all your needs according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. ²⁰ Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

²¹ Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send you greetings. ²² All the saints send you greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household. ²³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

COLOSSIANS

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, and Timothy our brother:

²To the saints in Christ at Colossae, who are faithful brothers and sisters.

Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

³We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, ⁴for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all the saints ⁵because of the hope reserved for you in heaven. You have already heard about this hope in the word of truth, the gospel ⁶that has come to you. It is bearing fruit and growing all over the world, just as it has among you since the day you heard it and came to truly appreciate God's grace. ⁷You learned this from Epaphras, our dearly loved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, ⁸and he has told us about your love in the Spirit.

⁹For this reason also, since the day we heard this, we haven't stopped praying for you. We are asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, ¹⁰so that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God, ¹¹being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, so that you may have great endurance and patience, joyfully ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the saints' inheritance in the light. ¹³He has rescued us from the domain of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son he loves. ¹⁴In him we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation.

¹⁶ For everything was created by him, in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities — all things have been created through him and for him.

¹⁷ He is before all things, and by him all things hold together.

¹⁸ He is also the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything.

¹⁹ For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him,

²¹Once you were alienated and hostile in your minds expressed in your evil actions. ²²But now he has reconciled you by his physical body through his death, to present you holy, faultless, and blameless before him — ²³if indeed you remain grounded and steadfast in the faith and are not shifted away from the hope of the gospel that you heard. This gospel has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and I, Paul, have become a servant of it.

²⁴Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and I am completing in my flesh what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for his body, that is, the church. ²⁵I have become its servant, according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, ²⁶the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. ²⁷God wanted to make known among the Gentiles the glorious wealth of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. ²⁸We proclaim him, warning and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ. ²⁹I labor for this, striving with his strength that works powerfully in me.

2 For I want you to know how greatly I am struggling for you, for those in Laodicea, and for all who have not seen me in person. ²I want their hearts to be encouraged and joined together in love, so that they may have all the riches of complete understanding and have the knowledge of God's mystery — Christ. ³In him are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

⁴I am saying this so that no one will deceive you with arguments that sound reasonable. ⁵For I may be absent in body, but I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see how well ordered you are and the strength of your faith in Christ.

⁶So then, just as you have received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, ⁷being rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, and overflowing with gratitude.

⁸Be careful that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit based on human tradition, based on the elements of the world, rather than Christ. ⁹For the entire fullness of God's nature dwells bodily in Christ, ¹⁰and you have been filled by him, who is the head over every ruler and authority. ¹¹You were also circumcised in him with a circumcision not done with hands, by putting off the body of flesh, in the circumcision of Christ, ¹²when you were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. ¹³And when you were dead in trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made you alive with him and forgave us all our trespasses. ¹⁴He erased the certificate of debt, with its obligations, that was against us and opposed to us, and has taken it away by nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵He disarmed the rulers and authorities and disgraced them publicly; he triumphed over them in him.

¹⁶Therefore, don't let anyone judge you in regard to food and drink or in the matter of a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath day. ¹⁷These are a shadow of what was to come; the substance is Christ. ¹⁸Let no one condemn you by delighting in ascetic practices and the worship of angels, claiming access to a visionary realm. Such people are inflated by empty notions of their unspiritual mind. ¹⁹He doesn't hold on to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its ligaments and tendons, grows with growth from God.

²⁰If you died with Christ to the elements of this world, why do you live as if you still belonged to the world? Why do you submit to regulations: ²¹"Don't handle, don't taste, don't touch"? ²²All these regulations refer to what is destined to perish by being used up; they are human commands and doctrines. ²³Although these have a reputation for wisdom by promoting self-made religion, false humility, and severe treatment of the body, they are not of any value in curbing self-indulgence.

3 So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ² Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. ³ For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

⁵ Therefore, put to death what belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desire, and greed, which is idolatry. ⁶ Because of these, God's wrath is coming upon the disobedient, ⁷ and you once walked in these things when you were living in them. ⁸ But now, put away all the following: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and filthy language from your mouth. ⁹ Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old self with its practices ¹⁰ and have put on the new self. You are being renewed in knowledge according to the image of your Creator. ¹¹ In Christ there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all.

¹² Therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and dearly loved, put on compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, ¹³ bearing with one another and forgiving one another if anyone has a grievance against another. Just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you are also to forgive. ¹⁴ Above all, put on love, which is the perfect bond of unity. ¹⁵ And let the peace of Christ, to which you were also called in one body, rule your hearts. And be thankful. ¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell richly among you, in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another through psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts. ¹⁷ And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

¹⁸ Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. ¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives and don't be bitter toward them. ²⁰ Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord. ²¹ Fathers, do not exasperate your children, so that they won't become discouraged. ²² Slaves, obey your human masters in everything. Don't work only while being watched, as people-pleasers, but work wholeheartedly, fearing the Lord. ²³ Whatever you do, do it from the heart, as something done for the Lord and not for people, ²⁴ knowing that you will receive the reward of an inheritance from the Lord. You serve the Lord Christ. ²⁵ For the wrongdoer will be paid back for whatever wrong he has done, and there is no favoritism.

4 Masters, deal with your slaves justly and fairly, since you know that you too have a Master in heaven.

² Devote yourselves to prayer; stay alert in it with thanksgiving. ³ At the same time, pray also for us that God may open a door to us for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains, ⁴ so that I may make it known as I should. ⁵ Act wisely toward outsiders, making the most of the time. ⁶ Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you should answer each person.

⁷ Tychicus, our dearly loved brother, faithful minister, and fellow servant in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me. ⁸ I have sent him to you for this very purpose, so that you may know how we are and so that he may encourage your hearts. ⁹ He is coming with Onesimus, a faithful and dearly loved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you about everything here.

¹⁰ Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, sends you greetings, as does Mark, Barnabas's cousin (concerning whom you have received instructions: if he comes to you, welcome him), ¹¹ and so does Jesus who is called Justus. These alone of the circumcised are my coworkers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me. ¹² Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, sends you greetings. He is always wrestling for you in his prayers, so that you can stand mature and fully assured in everything God wills. ¹³ For I testify about him that he works hard for you, for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis. ¹⁴ Luke, the dearly loved physician, and Demas send you greetings. ¹⁵ Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters in Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her home. ¹⁶ After this letter has been read at your gathering, have it read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and see that you also read the letter from Laodicea. ¹⁷ And tell Archippus, "Pay attention to the ministry you have received in the Lord, so that you can accomplish it."

¹⁸ I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you.

1 THESSALONIANS

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy:
To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace to you and peace.

²We always thank God for all of you, making mention of you constantly in our prayers. ³We recall, in the presence of our God and Father, your work produced by faith, your labor motivated by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴For we know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that he has chosen you, ⁵because our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, in the Holy Spirit, and with full assurance. You know how we lived among you for your benefit, ⁶and you yourselves became imitators of us and of the Lord when, in spite of severe persecution, you welcomed the message with joy from the Holy Spirit. ⁷As a result, you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸For the word of the Lord rang out from you, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place that your faith in God has gone out. Therefore, we don't need to say anything, ⁹for they themselves report what kind of reception we had from you: how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God ¹⁰and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead — Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.

2 For you yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our visit with you was not without result. ²On the contrary, after we had previously suffered and were treated outrageously in Philippi, as you know, we were emboldened by our God to speak the gospel of God to you in spite of great opposition. ³For our exhortation didn't come from error or impurity or an intent to deceive. ⁴Instead, just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please people, but rather God, who examines our hearts. ⁵For we never used flattering speech, as you know, or had greedy motives — God is our witness — ⁶and we didn't seek glory from people, either from you or from others. ⁷Although we could have been a burden as Christ's apostles, instead we were gentle among you, as a nurse nurtures her own children. ⁸We cared so much for you that we were pleased to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own lives, because you had become dear to us. ⁹For you remember our labor and hardship, brothers and sisters. Working night and day so that we would not burden any of you, we preached God's gospel to you. ¹⁰You are witnesses, and so is God, of how devoutly, righteously, and blamelessly we conducted ourselves with you believers. ¹¹As you know, like a father with his own children, ¹²we encouraged, comforted, and implored each one of you to live worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

¹³This is why we constantly thank God, because when you received the word of God that you heard from us, you welcomed it not as a human message, but as it truly is, the word of God, which also works effectively in you who believe. ¹⁴For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of God's churches in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, since you have also suffered the same things from people of your own country, just as they did from the Jews ¹⁵who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets and persecuted us. They displease God and are hostile to everyone, ¹⁶by keeping us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. As a result, they are constantly filling up their sins to the limit, and wrath has overtaken them at last.

¹⁷But as for us, brothers and sisters, after we were forced to leave you for a short time (in person, not in heart), we greatly desired and made every effort to return and see you face to face. ¹⁸So we wanted to come to you — even I, Paul, time and again — but Satan hindered us. ¹⁹For who is our hope or joy or crown of boasting in the presence of our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you? ²⁰Indeed you are our glory and joy!

3 Therefore, when we could no longer stand it, we thought it was better to be left alone in Athens. ²And we sent Timothy, our brother and God's coworker in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you concerning your faith, ³so that no one will be shaken by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are appointed to this. ⁴In fact, when we were with you, we told you in advance that we were going to experience affliction, and as you know, it happened. ⁵For this reason, when I could no longer stand it, I also sent him to find out about your faith, fearing that the tempter had tempted you and that our labor might be for nothing.

⁶But now Timothy has come to us from you and brought us good news about your faith and love. He reported that you always have good memories of us and that you long to see us, as we also long to see you. ⁷Therefore, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and affliction, we were encouraged about you through your faith. ⁸For now we live, if you stand firm in the Lord. ⁹How can we thank God for you in return for all the joy we experience before our God because of you, ¹⁰as we pray very earnestly night and day to see you face to face and to complete what is lacking in your faith?

¹¹Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you. ¹²And may the Lord cause you to increase and overflow with love for one another and for everyone, just as we do for you. ¹³May he make your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. Amen.

4 Additionally then, brothers and sisters, we ask and encourage you in the Lord Jesus, that as you have received instruction from us on how you should live and please God — as you are doing — do this even more. ²For you know what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

³For this is God's will, your sanctification: that you keep away from sexual immorality, ⁴that each of you knows how to control his own body in holiness and honor, ⁵not with lustful passions, like the Gentiles, who don't know God. ⁶This means one must not transgress against and take advantage of a brother or sister in this manner, because the Lord is an avenger of all these offenses, as we also previously told and warned you. ⁷For God has not called us to impurity but to live in holiness. ⁸Consequently, anyone who rejects this does not reject man, but God, who gives you his Holy Spirit.

⁹About brotherly love: You don't need me to write you because you yourselves are taught by God to love one another.¹⁰ In fact, you are doing this toward all the brothers and sisters in the entire region of Macedonia. But we encourage you, brothers and sisters, to do this even more,¹¹ to seek to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you,¹² so that you may behave properly in the presence of outsiders and not be dependent on anyone.

¹³We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, concerning those who are asleep, so that you will not grieve like the rest, who have no hope.¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, in the same way, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep.¹⁵ For we say this to you by a word from the Lord: We who are still alive at the Lord's coming will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep.¹⁶ For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the archangel's voice, and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.¹⁷ Then we who are still alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord.¹⁸ Therefore encourage one another with these words.

5 About the times and the seasons: Brothers and sisters, you do not need anything to be written to you.² For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come just like a thief in the night.³ When they say, "Peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, like labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.⁴ But you, brothers and sisters, are not in the dark, for this day to surprise you like a thief.⁵ For you are all children of light and children of the day. We do not belong to the night or the darkness.⁶ So then, let us not sleep, like the rest, but let us stay awake and be self-controlled.⁷ For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, get drunk at night.⁸ But since we belong to the day, let us be self-controlled and put on the armor of faith and love, and a helmet of the hope of salvation.⁹ For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,¹⁰ who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with him.¹¹ Therefore encourage one another and build each other up as you are already doing.

¹² Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to give recognition to those who labor among you and lead you in the Lord and admonish you,¹³ and to regard them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.¹⁴ And we exhort you, brothers and sisters: warn those who are idle, comfort the discouraged, help the weak, be patient with everyone.¹⁵ See to it that no one repays evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good for one another and for all.¹⁶ Rejoice always,¹⁷ pray constantly,¹⁸ give thanks in everything; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.¹⁹ Don't stifle the Spirit.²⁰ Don't despise prophecies,²¹ but test all things. Hold on to what is good.²² Stay away from every kind of evil.

²³ Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely. And may your whole spirit, soul, and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.²⁴ He who calls you is faithful; he will do it.²⁵ Brothers and sisters, pray for us also.²⁶ Greet all the brothers and sisters with a holy kiss.²⁷ I charge you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the brothers and sisters.²⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 THESSALONIANS

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy:
To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴ Therefore, we ourselves boast about you among God's churches — about your perseverance and faith in all the persecutions and afflictions that you are enduring. ⁵ It is clear evidence of God's righteous judgment that you will be counted worthy of God's kingdom, for which you also are suffering, ⁶ since it is just for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you ⁷ and to give relief to you who are afflicted, along with us. This will take place at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with his powerful angels, ⁸ when he takes vengeance with flaming fire on those who don't know God and on those who don't obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. ⁹ They will pay the penalty of eternal destruction from the Lord's presence and from his glorious strength ¹⁰ on that day when he comes to be glorified by his saints and to be marveled at by all those who have believed, because our testimony among you was believed. ¹¹ In view of this, we always pray for you that our God will make you worthy of his calling, and by his power fulfill your every desire to do good and your work produced by faith, ¹² so that the name of our Lord Jesus will be glorified by you, and you by him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him: We ask you, brothers and sisters, ² not to be easily upset or troubled, either by a prophecy or by a message or by a letter supposedly from us, alleging that the day of the Lord has come. ³ Don't let anyone deceive you in any way. For that day will not come unless the apostasy comes first and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction. ⁴ He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he sits in God's temple, proclaiming that he himself is God.

⁵ Don't you remember that when I was still with you I used to tell you about this? ⁶ And you know what currently restrains him, so that he will be revealed in his time. ⁷ For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, but the one now restraining will do so until he is out of the way, ⁸ and then the lawless one will be revealed. The Lord Jesus will destroy him with the breath of his mouth and will bring him to nothing at the appearance of his coming. ⁹ The coming of the lawless one is based on Satan's working, with all kinds of false miracles, signs, and wonders, ¹⁰ and with every wicked deception among those who are perishing.

They perish because they did not accept the love of the truth and so be saved. ¹¹ For this reason God sends them a strong delusion so that they will believe the lie, ¹² so that all will be condemned — those who did not believe the truth but delighted in unrighteousness.

¹³ But we ought to thank God always for you, brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because from the beginning God has chosen you for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴ He called you to this through our gospel, so that you might obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold to the traditions you were taught, whether by what we said or what we wrote.

¹⁶ May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us eternal encouragement and good hope by grace, ¹⁷ encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good work and word.

3 In addition, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you, ² and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil people, for not all have faith. ³ But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen and guard you from the evil one. ⁴ We have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will continue to do what we command. ⁵ May the Lord direct your hearts to God's love and Christ's endurance.

⁶ Now we command you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from every brother or sister who is idle and does not live according to the tradition received from us. ⁷ For you yourselves know how you should imitate us: We were not idle among you; ⁸ we did not eat anyone's food free of charge; instead, we labored and toiled, working night and day, so that we would not be a burden to any of you. ⁹ It is not that we don't have the right to support, but we did it to make ourselves an example to you so that you would imitate us. ¹⁰ In fact, when we were with you, this is what we commanded you: "If anyone isn't willing to work, he should not eat." ¹¹ For we hear that there are some among you who are idle. They are not busy but busybodies. ¹² Now we command and exhort such people by the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and provide for themselves. ¹³ But as for you, brothers and sisters, do not grow weary in doing good.

¹⁴ If anyone does not obey our instruction in this letter, take note of that person; don't associate with him, so that he may be ashamed. ¹⁵ Yet don't consider him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

¹⁶ May the Lord of peace himself give you peace always in every way. The Lord be with all of you. ¹⁷ I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand, which is an authenticating mark in every letter; this is how I write. ¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 TIMOTHY

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope:

²To Timothy, my true son in the faith.

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³As I urged you when I went to Macedonia, remain in Ephesus so that you may instruct certain people not to teach false doctrine ⁴or to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies. These promote empty speculations rather than God's plan, which operates by faith. ⁵Now the goal of our instruction is love that comes from a pure heart, a good conscience, and a sincere faith. ⁶Some have departed from these and turned aside to fruitless discussion. ⁷They want to be teachers of the law, although they don't understand what they are saying or what they are insisting on. ⁸But we know that the law is good, provided one uses it legitimately. ⁹We know that the law is not meant for a righteous person, but for the lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinful, for the unholy and irreverent, for those who kill their fathers and mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰for the sexually immoral and homosexuals, for slave traders, liars, perjurers, and for whatever else is contrary to the sound teaching ¹¹that conforms to the gospel concerning the glory of the blessed God, which was entrusted to me.

¹²I give thanks to Christ Jesus our Lord who has strengthened me, because he considered me faithful, appointing me to the ministry — ¹³even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and an arrogant man. But I received mercy because I acted out of ignorance in unbelief, ¹⁴and the grace of our Lord overflowed, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵This saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance: "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners" — and I am the worst of them. ¹⁶But I received mercy for this reason, so that in me, the worst of them, Christ Jesus might demonstrate his extraordinary patience as an example to those who would believe in him for eternal life. ¹⁷Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

¹⁸Timothy, my son, I am giving you this instruction in keeping with the prophecies previously made about you, so that by recalling them you may fight the good fight, ¹⁹having faith and a good conscience. Some have rejected these and have shipwrecked their faith. ²⁰Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered to Satan, so that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

2 First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, ²for kings and all those who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. ³This is good, and it pleases God our Savior, ⁴who wants everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

⁵For there is one God and one mediator between God and humanity, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶who gave himself as a ransom for all, a testimony at the proper time.

⁷For this I was appointed a herald, an apostle (I am telling the truth; I am not lying), and a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

3 This saying is trustworthy: "If anyone aspires to be an overseer, he desires a noble work." ² An overseer, therefore, must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, self-controlled, sensible, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, ³not an excessive drinker, not a bully but gentle, not quarrelsome, not greedy. ⁴ He must manage his own household competently and have his children under control with all dignity. ⁵ (If anyone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of God's church?) ⁶ He must not be a new convert, or he might become conceited and incur the same condemnation as the devil. ⁷ Furthermore, he must have a good reputation among outsiders, so that he does not fall into disgrace and the devil's trap.

⁸ Deacons, likewise, should be worthy of respect, not hypocritical, not drinking a lot of wine, not greedy for money, ⁹holding the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. ¹⁰ They must also be tested first; if they prove blameless, then they can serve as deacons. ¹¹ Wives, too, must be worthy of respect, not slanderers, self-controlled, faithful in everything. ¹² Deacons are to be husbands of one wife, managing their children and their own households competently. ¹³ For those who have served well as deacons acquire a good standing for themselves and great boldness in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴ I write these things to you, hoping to come to you soon. ¹⁵ But if I should be delayed, I have written so that you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶ And most certainly, the mystery of godliness is great:

He was manifested in the flesh,
vindicated in the Spirit,
seen by angels,
preached among the nations,
believed on in the world,
taken up in glory.

4 Now the Spirit explicitly says that in later times some will depart from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and the teachings of demons, ²through the hypocrisy of liars whose consciences are seared. ³ They forbid marriage and demand abstinence from foods that God created to be received with gratitude by those who believe and know the truth. ⁴ For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, ⁵since it is sanctified by the word of God and by prayer.

⁶ If you point these things out to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished by the words of the faith and the good teaching that you have followed. ⁷ But have nothing to do with pointless and silly myths. Rather, train yourself in godliness. ⁸ For the training of the body has limited benefit, but godliness is beneficial in every way, since it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come. ⁹ This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance. ¹⁰ For this reason we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

¹¹ Command and teach these things. ¹² Don't let anyone despise your youth, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in purity. ¹³ Until I come, give your attention to public reading, exhortation, and teaching. ¹⁴ Don't neglect the gift that is in you; it was given to you through prophecy, with the laying on of hands by the council of elders. ¹⁵ Practice these things; be committed to them, so that your progress may be evident to all. ¹⁶ Pay close attention to your life and your teaching; persevere in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and your hearers.

5 Don't rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father, younger men as brothers, ² older women as mothers, and the younger women as sisters with all purity.

³ Support widows who are genuinely in need. ⁴ But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn to practice godliness toward their own family first and to repay their parents, for this pleases God. ⁵ The widow who is truly in need and left all alone has put her hope in God and continues night and day in her petitions and prayers; ⁶ however, she who is self-indulgent is dead even while she lives. ⁷ Command this also, so that they will be above reproach. ⁸ But if anyone does not provide for his own family, especially for his own household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

¹⁹ Don't accept an accusation against an elder unless it is supported by two or three witnesses. ²⁰ Publicly rebuke

those who sin, so that the rest will be afraid. ²¹ I solemnly charge you before God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels to observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing out of favoritism. ²² Don't be too quick to appoint anyone as an elder, and don't share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure. ²³ Don't continue drinking only water, but use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent illnesses. ²⁴ Some people's sins are obvious, preceding them to judgment, but the sins of others surface later. ²⁵ Likewise, good works are obvious, and those that are not obvious cannot remain hidden.

6 All who are under the yoke as slaves should regard their own masters as worthy of all respect, so that God's name and his teaching will not be blasphemed. ² Let those who have believing masters not be disrespectful to them because they are brothers, but serve them even better, since those who benefit from their service are believers and dearly loved.

Teach and encourage these things. ³ If anyone teaches false doctrine and does not agree with the sound teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ and with the teaching that promotes godliness, ⁴ he is conceited and understands nothing, but has an unhealthy interest in disputes and arguments over words. From these come envy, quarreling, slander, evil suspicions, ⁵ and constant disagreement among people whose minds are depraved and deprived of the truth, who imagine that godliness is a way to material gain. ⁶ But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷ For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out. ⁸ If we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. ⁹ But those who want to be rich fall into temptation, a trap, and many foolish and harmful desires, which plunge people into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰ For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and by craving it, some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

¹¹ But you, man of God, flee from these things, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness. ¹² Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of eternal life to which you were called and about which you have made a good confession in the presence of many witnesses. ¹³ In the presence of God, who gives life to all, and of Christ Jesus, who gave a good confession before Pontius Pilate, I charge you ¹⁴ to keep this command without fault or failure until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ God will bring this about in his own time. He is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings, and the Lord of lords, ¹⁶ who alone is immortal and who lives in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or can see, to him be honor and eternal power. Amen.

¹⁷ Instruct those who are rich in the present age not to be arrogant or to set their hope on the uncertainty of wealth, but on God, who richly provides us with all things to enjoy. ¹⁸ Instruct them to do what is good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and willing to share, ¹⁹ storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of what is truly life.

²⁰ Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you, avoiding irreverent and empty speech and contradictions from what is falsely called knowledge. ²¹ By professing it, some people have departed from the faith.

Grace be with you all.

2 TIMOTHY

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, for the sake of the promise of life in Christ Jesus:

²To Timothy, my dearly loved son.

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience as my ancestors did, when I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day. ⁴Remembering your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. ⁵I recall your sincere faith that first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and now, I am convinced, is in you also.

⁶Therefore, I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is in you through the laying on of my hands. ⁷For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but one of power, love, and sound judgment.

⁸So don't be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, or of me his prisoner. Instead, share in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God. ⁹He has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began. ¹⁰This has now been made evident through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who has abolished death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. ¹¹For this gospel I was appointed a herald, apostle, and teacher, ¹²and that is why I suffer these things. But I am not ashamed, because I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that he is able to guard what has been entrusted to me until that day.

¹³Hold on to the pattern of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴Guard the good deposit through the Holy Spirit who lives in us. ¹⁵You know that all those in the province of Asia have deserted me, including Phygelus and Herogenes. ¹⁶May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains. ¹⁷On the contrary, when he was in Rome, he diligently searched for me and found me. ¹⁸May the Lord grant that he obtain mercy from him on that day. You know very well how much he ministered at Ephesus.

2 You, therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. ²What you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, commit to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

³Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

⁴No one serving as a soldier gets entangled in the concerns of civilian life; he seeks to please the commanding officer. ⁵Also, if anyone competes as an athlete, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. ⁶The hardworking farmer ought to be the first to get a share of the crops. ⁷Consider what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

⁸Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead and descended from David, according to my gospel, ⁹for which I suffer to the point of being bound like a criminal. But the word of God is not bound. ¹⁰This is why I endure all things for the elect: so that they also may obtain salvation, which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. ¹¹This saying is trustworthy:

For if we died with him,
we will also live with him;

¹² if we endure, we will also reign with him;
if we deny him, he will also deny us;

¹³ if we are faithless, he remains faithful,
for he cannot deny himself.

¹⁴Remind them of these things, and charge them before God not to fight about words. This is useless and leads to the ruin of those who listen. ¹⁵Be diligent to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who doesn't need to be ashamed, correctly teaching the word of truth. ¹⁶Avoid irreverent and empty speech, since those who engage in it will produce even more godlessness, ¹⁷and their teaching will spread like gangrene. Hymenaeus and Philetus are among them. ¹⁸They have departed from the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and are ruining the faith of some. ¹⁹Nevertheless, God's solid foundation stands firm, bearing this inscription: The Lord knows those who are his, and let everyone who calls on the name of the Lord turn away from wickedness.

²⁰Now in a large house there are not only gold and silver vessels, but also those of wood and clay; some for honorable use and some for dishonorable. ²¹So if anyone purifies himself from anything dishonorable, he will be a special instrument, set apart, useful to the Master, prepared for every good work.

²²Flee from youthful passions, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. ²³But reject foolish and ignorant disputes, because you know that they breed quarrels. ²⁴The Lord's servant must not quarrel, but must be gentle to everyone, able to teach, and patient, ²⁵instructing his opponents with gentleness. Perhaps God will grant them repentance leading them to the knowledge of the truth. ²⁶Then they may come to their senses and escape the trap of the devil, who has taken them captive to do his will.

3 But know this: Hard times will come in the last days. ²For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, proud, demeaning, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, ³unloving, irreconcilable, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, without love for what is good, ⁴traitors, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, ⁵holding to the form of godliness but denying its power. Avoid these people.

⁶For among them are those who worm their way into households and deceive gullible women overwhelmed by sins and led astray by a variety of passions, ⁷always learning and never able to come to a knowledge of the truth. ⁸Just as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so these also resist the truth. They are men who are corrupt in mind and worthless in regard to the faith. ⁹But they will not make further progress, for their foolishness will be clear to all, as was the foolishness of Jannes and Jambres.

¹⁰But you have followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, and endurance, ¹¹along with the persecutions and sufferings that came to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured — and yet the Lord rescued me from them all. ¹²In fact, all who want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. ¹³Evil people and impostors will become worse, deceiving and being deceived. ¹⁴But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed. You know those who taught you,¹⁵ and you know that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are able to give you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and is profitable for teaching, for rebuking, for correcting, for training in righteousness,¹⁷ so that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.

4 I solemnly charge you before God and Christ Jesus, who is going to judge the living and the dead, and because of his appearing and his kingdom: ² Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; rebuke, correct, and encourage with great patience and teaching. ³ For the time will come when people will not tolerate sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, will multiply teachers for themselves because they have an itch to hear what they want to hear. ⁴ They will turn away from hearing the truth and will turn aside to myths. ⁵ But as for you, exercise self-control in everything, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

⁶ For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time for my departure is close. ⁷ I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. ⁸ There is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me, but to all those who have loved his appearing.

⁹ Make every effort to come to me soon,¹⁰ because Demas has deserted me, since he loved this present world, and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹ Only Luke is with me. Bring Mark with you, for he is useful to me in the ministry. ¹² I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³ When you come, bring the cloak I left in Troas with Carpus, as well as the scrolls, especially the parchments. ¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith did great harm to me. The Lord will repay him according to his works. ¹⁵ Watch out for him yourself because he strongly opposed our words.

¹⁶ At my first defense, no one stood by me, but everyone deserted me. May it not be counted against them. ¹⁷ But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that I might fully preach the word and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. ¹⁸ The Lord will rescue me from every evil work and will bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

¹⁹ Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰ Erastus has remained at Corinth; I left Trophimus sick at Miletus. ²¹ Make every effort to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters.

²² The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you all.

TITUS

1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth that leads to godliness,² in the hope of eternal life that God, who cannot lie, promised before time began.³ In his own time he has revealed his word in the preaching with which I was entrusted by the command of God our Savior:

⁴To Titus, my true son in our common faith.

Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

⁵The reason I left you in Crete was to set right what was left undone and, as I directed you, to appoint elders in every town.⁶ An elder must be blameless: the husband of one wife, with faithful children who are not accused of wildness or rebellion.⁷ As an overseer of God's household, he must be blameless: not arrogant, not hot-tempered, not an excessive drinker, not a bully, not greedy for money,⁸ but hospitable, loving what is good, sensible, righteous, holy, self-controlled,⁹ holding to the faithful message as taught, so that he will be able both to encourage with sound teaching and to refute those who contradict it.

¹⁵To the pure, everything is pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; in fact, both their mind and conscience are defiled.¹⁶ They claim to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

2 But you are to proclaim things consistent with sound teaching.² Older men are to be self-controlled, worthy of respect, sensible, and sound in faith, love, and endurance.³ In the same way, older women are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not slaves to excessive drinking. They are to teach what is good,⁴ so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands and to love their children,⁵ to be self-controlled, pure, workers at home, kind, and in submission to their husbands, so that God's word will not be slandered.

⁶In the same way, encourage the young men to be self-controlled⁷ in everything. Make yourself an example of good works with integrity and dignity in your teaching.

⁸Your message is to be sound beyond reproach, so that any opponent will be ashamed, because he doesn't have anything bad to say about us.

⁹Slaves are to submit to their masters in everything, and to be well-pleasing, not talking back¹⁰ or stealing, but demonstrating utter faithfulness, so that they may adorn the teaching of God our Savior in everything.

¹¹For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people,¹² instructing us to deny godlessness and worldly lusts and to live in a sensible, righteous, and godly way in the present age,¹³ while we wait for the blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.¹⁴ He gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people for his own possession, eager to do good works.

¹⁵Proclaim these things; encourage and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

3 Remind them to submit to rulers and authorities, to obey, to be ready for every good work,² to slander no one, to avoid fighting, and to be kind, always showing gentleness to all people.³ For we too were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, enslaved by various passions and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, detesting one another.

⁴But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love for mankind appeared,⁵ he saved us — not by works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy — through the washing of regeneration and renewal by the Holy Spirit.⁶ He poured out his Spirit on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior⁷ so that, having been justified by his grace, we may become heirs with the hope of eternal life.⁸ This saying is trustworthy. I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed God might be careful to devote themselves to good works. These are good and profitable for everyone.⁹ But avoid foolish debates, genealogies, quarrels, and disputes about the law, because they are unprofitable and worthless.¹⁰ Reject a divisive person after a first and second warning.¹¹ For you know that such a person has gone astray and is sinning; he is self-condemned.

¹²When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, make every effort to come to me in Nicopolis, because I have decided to spend the winter there.¹³ Diligently help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey, so that they will lack nothing.

¹⁴Let our people learn to devote themselves to good works for pressing needs, so that they will not be unfruitful.¹⁵ All those who are with me send you greetings. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with all of you.

PHILEMON

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother: To Philemon our dear friend and coworker, ² to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church that meets in your home.

⁴ I always thank my God when I mention you in my prayers, ⁵ because I hear of your love for all the saints and the faith that you have in the Lord Jesus. ⁶ I pray that your participation in the faith may become effective through knowing every good thing that is in us for the glory of Christ. ⁷ For I have great joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

⁸ For this reason, although I have great boldness in Christ to command you to do what is right, ⁹ I appeal to you, instead, on the basis of love. I, Paul, as an elderly man and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus, ¹⁰ appeal to you for my son, Onesimus. I became his father while I was in chains. ¹¹ Once he was useless to you, but now he is useful both to you and to me. ¹² I am sending him back to you — I am sending my very own heart. ¹³ I wanted to keep him with me, so that in my imprisonment for the gospel he might serve me in your place. ¹⁴ But I didn't want to do anything without your consent, so that your good deed might not be out of obligation, but of your own free will. ¹⁵ For perhaps this is why he was separated from you for a brief time, so that you might get him back permanently, ¹⁶ no longer as a slave, but more than a slave — as a dearly loved brother. He is especially so to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

¹⁷ So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would me. ¹⁸ And if he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. ¹⁹ I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it — not to mention to you that you owe me even your very self. ²⁰ Yes, brother, may I benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ. ²¹ Since I am confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. ²² Meanwhile, also prepare a guest room for me, since I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

²³ Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you greetings, and so do ²⁴ Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my coworkers.

²⁵ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

HEBREWS

1 Long ago God spoke to the fathers by the prophets at different times and in different ways.² In these last days, he has spoken to us by his Son. God has appointed him heir of all things and made the universe through him.³ The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact expression of his nature, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.⁴ So he became superior to the angels, just as the name he inherited is more excellent than theirs.

⁵ For to which of the angels did he ever say,
You are my Son;
today I have become your Father,

or again,

I will be his Father,
and he will be my Son?

⁶ Again, when he brings his firstborn into the world, he says,
And let all God's angels worship him.

⁷ And about the angels he says:

He makes his angels winds,
and his servants a fiery flame,

⁸ but to the Son:

Your throne, O God,
is forever and ever,
and the scepter of your kingdom
is a scepter of justice.

⁹ You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;
this is why God, your God,
has anointed you
with the oil of joy
beyond your companions.

¹⁰ And:

In the beginning, Lord,
you established the earth,
and the heavens are the works
of your hands;

¹¹ they will perish, but you remain.

They will all wear out like clothing;

¹² you will roll them up like a cloak,
and they will be changed like clothing.
But you are the same,
and your years will never end.

¹³ Now to which of the angels has he ever said:

Sit at my right hand
until I make your enemies your footstool?

¹⁴ Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve those who are going to inherit salvation?

2 For this reason, we must pay attention all the more to what we have heard, so that we will not drift away.² For if the message spoken through angels was legally binding and every transgression and disobedience received a just punishment,³ how will we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? This salvation had its beginning when it was spoken of by the Lord, and it was confirmed to us by those who heard him.⁴ At the same time, God also testified by signs and wonders, various miracles, and distributions of gifts from the Holy Spirit according to his will.

⁵ For he has not subjected to angels the world to come that we are talking about.⁶ But someone somewhere has testified:

What is man that you remember him,
or the son of man that you care for him?

⁷ You made him lower than the angels
for a short time;

you crowned him with glory and honor
and subjected everything under his feet.

For in subjecting everything to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. As it is, we do not yet see everything subjected to him.⁹ But we do see Jesus — made lower than the angels for a short time so that by God's grace he might taste death for everyone — crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death.

¹⁰ For in bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was entirely appropriate that God — for whom and through whom all things exist — should make the source of their salvation perfect through sufferings.¹¹ For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. That is why Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,¹² saying:

I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters;

I will sing hymns to you in the congregation.

¹³ Again, I will trust in him. And again, Here I am with the children God gave me.

¹⁴ Now since the children have flesh and blood in common, Jesus also shared in these, so that through his death he might destroy the one holding the power of death — that is, the devil —¹⁵ and free those who were held in slavery all their lives by the fear of death.¹⁶ For it is clear that he does not reach out to help angels, but to help Abraham's offspring.¹⁷ Therefore, he had to be like his brothers and sisters in every way, so that he could become a merciful and faithful high priest in matters pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people.¹⁸ For since he himself has suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

3 Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession.² He was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses was in all God's household.³ For Jesus is considered worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder has more honor than the house.⁴ Now every house is built by someone, but the one who built everything is God.⁵ Moses was faithful as a servant in all God's household, as a testimony to what would be said in the future.⁶ But Christ was faithful as a Son over his household. And we are that household if we hold on to our confidence and the hope in which we boast.

⁷ Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says:

Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts
as in the rebellion,

⁸ on the day of testing in the wilderness,
where your fathers tested me, tried me,
and saw my works¹⁰ for forty years.

Therefore I was provoked to anger
with that generation
and said, "They always go astray
in their hearts,
and they have not known my ways."

11 So I swore in my anger,
"They will not enter my rest."

¹²Watch out, brothers and sisters, so that there won't be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God. ¹³But encourage each other daily, while it is still called today, so that none of you is hardened by sin's deception. ¹⁴For we have become participants in Christ if we hold firmly until the end the reality that we had at the start. ¹⁵As it is said:

Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts
as in the rebellion.

¹⁶For who heard and rebelled? Wasn't it all who came out of Egypt under Moses? ¹⁷With whom was God angry for forty years? Wasn't it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, if not to those who disobeyed? ¹⁹So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

4 Therefore, since the promise to enter his rest remains, let us beware that none of you be found to have fallen short. ²For we also have received the good news just as they did. But the message they heard did not benefit them, since they were not united with those who heard it in faith. ³For we who have believed enter the rest, in keeping with what he has said,

So I swore in my anger,
"They will not enter my rest,"

even though his works have been finished since the foundation of the world. ⁴For somewhere he has spoken about the seventh day in this way: And on the seventh day God rested from all his works. ⁵Again, in that passage he says, They will never enter my rest. ⁶Therefore, since it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news did not enter because of disobedience, ⁷he again specifies a certain day — today. He specified this speaking through David after such a long time:

Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts.

⁸For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day. ⁹Therefore, a Sabbath rest remains for God's people. ¹⁰For the person who has entered his rest has rested from his own works, just as God did from his. ¹¹Let us then make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall into the same pattern of disobedience.

¹²For the word of God is living and effective and sharper than any double-edged sword, penetrating as far as the separation of soul and spirit, joints and marrow. It is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³No creature is hidden from him, but all things are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give an account.

¹⁴Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens — Jesus the Son of God — let us hold fast to our confession. ¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has been tempted in every way as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶Therefore, let us approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in time of need.

5 For every high priest taken from among men is appointed in matters pertaining to God for the people, to offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. ²He is able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and are going astray, since he is also clothed with weakness. ³Because of this, he must make an offering for his own sins as well as for the people. ⁴No one takes this honor on himself; instead, a person is called by God, just as Aaron was. ⁵In the same way, Christ did not exalt himself to become a high priest, but God who said to him,

You are my Son;
today I have become your Father,

⁶also says in another place,

You are a priest forever
according to the order of Melchizedek.

⁷During his earthly life, he offered prayers and appeals with loud cries and tears to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. ⁸Although he was the Son, he learned obedience from what he suffered. ⁹After he was perfected, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, ¹⁰and he was declared by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

¹¹We have a great deal to say about this, and it is difficult to explain, since you have become too lazy to understand.

¹²Although by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the basic principles of God's revelation again. You need milk, not solid food. ¹³Now everyone who lives on milk is inexperienced with the message about righteousness, because he is an infant. ¹⁴But solid food is for the mature — for those whose senses have been trained to distinguish between good and evil.

6 Therefore, let us leave the elementary teaching about Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, faith in God, ²teaching about ritual washings, laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³And we will do this if God permits.

⁴For it is impossible to renew to repentance those who were once enlightened, who tasted the heavenly gift, who shared in the Holy Spirit, ⁵who tasted God's good word and the powers of the coming age, ⁶and who have fallen away. This is because, to their own harm, they are recrucifying the Son of God and holding him up to contempt. ⁷For the ground that drinks the rain that often falls on it and that produces vegetation useful to those for whom it is cultivated receives a blessing from God. ⁸But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and about to be cursed, and at the end will be burned.

⁹Even though we are speaking this way, dearly loved friends, in your case we are confident of things that are better and that pertain to salvation. ¹⁰For God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you demonstrated for his name by serving the saints — and by continuing to serve them. ¹¹Now we desire each of you to demonstrate the same diligence for the full assurance of your hope until the end, ¹²so that you won't become lazy but will be imitators of those who inherit the promises through faith and perseverance.

¹³For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater to swear by, he swore by himself: I will indeed bless you, and I will greatly multiply you. ¹⁵And so, after waiting patiently, Abraham obtained the promise. ¹⁶For people swear by something greater than themselves, and for them a confirming oath ends every dispute. ¹⁷Because God wanted to show his unchangeable purpose even more clearly to the heirs of the promise, he guaranteed it with an oath, ¹⁸so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to seize the hope set before us. ¹⁹We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain.²⁰ Jesus has entered there on our behalf as a forerunner, because he has become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, met Abraham and blessed him as he returned from defeating the kings,² and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, his name means king of righteousness, then also, king of Salem, meaning king of peace.³ Without father, mother, or genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God, he remains a priest forever.

⁴ Now consider how great this man was: even Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth of the plunder to him.⁵ The sons of Levi who receive the priestly office have a command according to the law to collect a tenth from the people — that is, from their brothers and sisters — though they have also descended from Abraham.⁶ But one without this lineage collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed the one who had the promises.⁷ Without a doubt, the inferior is blessed by the superior.⁸ In the one case, men who will die receive a tenth, but in the other case, Scripture testifies that he lives.⁹ And in a sense Levi himself, who receives a tenth, has paid a tenth through Abraham,¹⁰ for he was still within his ancestor when Melchizedek met him.

¹¹ Now if perfection came through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people received the law), what further need was there for another priest to appear, said to be according to the order of Melchizedek and not according to the order of Aaron?¹² For when there is a change of the priesthood, there must be a change of law as well.¹³ For the one these things are spoken about belonged to a different tribe. No one from it has served at the altar.¹⁴ Now it is evident that our Lord came from Judah, and Moses said nothing about that tribe concerning priests.

¹⁵ And this becomes clearer if another priest like Melchizedek appears,¹⁶ who did not become a priest based on a legal regulation about physical descent but based on the power of an indestructible life.¹⁷ For it has been testified:

You are a priest forever
according to the order of Melchizedek.

¹⁸ So the previous command is annulled because it was weak and unprofitable¹⁹ (for the law perfected nothing), but a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.

²⁰ None of this happened without an oath. For others became priests without an oath,²¹ but he became a priest with an oath made by the one who said to him:

The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind,
“You are a priest forever.”

²² Because of this oath, Jesus has also become the guarantee of a better covenant.

²³ Now many have become Levitical priests, since they are prevented by death from remaining in office.²⁴ But because he remains forever, he holds his priesthood permanently.²⁵ Therefore, he is able to save completely those who come to God through him, since he always lives to intercede for them.

²⁶ For this is the kind of high priest we need: holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.²⁷ He doesn't need to offer sacrifices every day, as high priests do — first for their own sins, then for those of the people. He did this once for all time when he offered himself.²⁸ For the law appoints as high priests men who are weak, but the promise of the oath, which came after the law, appoints a Son, who has been perfected forever.

8 Now the main point of what is being said is this: We have this kind of high priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,² a minister of the sanctuary and the true tabernacle that was set up by the Lord and not man.³ For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; therefore, it was necessary for this priest also to have something to offer.⁴ Now if he were on earth, he wouldn't be a priest, since there are those offering the gifts prescribed by the law.⁵ These serve as a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, as Moses was warned when he was about to complete the tabernacle. For God said, Be careful that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain.⁶ But Jesus has now obtained a superior ministry, and to that degree he is the mediator of a better covenant, which has been established on better promises.

⁷ For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion for a second one.⁸ But finding fault with his people, he says:

See, the days are coming, says the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah —

⁹ not like the covenant that I made with their ancestors on the day I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt.
I showed no concern for them, says the Lord,
because they did not continue in my covenant.

¹⁰ For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel
after those days, says the Lord:
I will put my laws into their minds and write them on their hearts.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

¹¹ And each person will not teach his fellow citizen,
and each his brother or sister, saying,
“Know the Lord,”
because they will all know me,
from the least to the greatest of them.

¹² For I will forgive their wrongdoing,
and I will never again remember their sins.

¹³ By saying a new covenant, he has declared that the first is obsolete. And what is obsolete and growing old is about to pass away.

9 Now the first covenant also had regulations for ministry and an earthly sanctuary.² For a tabernacle was set up, and in the first room, which is called the holy place, were the lampstand, the table, and the presentation loaves.³ Behind the second curtain was a tent called the most holy place.⁴ It had the gold altar of incense and the ark of the covenant, covered with gold on all sides, in which was a gold jar containing the manna, Aaron's staff that budded, and the tablets of the covenant.⁵ The cherubim of glory were above the ark overshadowing the mercy seat. It is not possible to speak about these things in detail right now.

⁶ With these things prepared like this, the priests enter the first room repeatedly, performing their ministry.⁷ But the high priest alone enters the second room, and he does that only once a year, and never without blood, which he offers for himself and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance. ⁸The Holy Spirit was making it clear that the way into the most holy place had not yet been disclosed while the first tabernacle was still standing. ⁹This is a symbol for the present time, during which gifts and sacrifices are offered that cannot perfect the worshiper's conscience. ¹⁰They are physical regulations and only deal with food, drink, and various washings imposed until the time of the new order.

¹¹But Christ has appeared as a high priest of the good things that have come. In the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands (that is, not of this creation), ¹²he entered the most holy place once for all time, not by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, having obtained eternal redemption. ¹³For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a young cow, sprinkling those who are defiled, sanctify for the purification of the flesh, ¹⁴how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works so that we can serve the living God?

¹⁵Therefore, he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance, because a death has taken place for redemption from the transgressions committed under the first covenant. ¹⁶Where a will exists, the death of the one who made it must be established. ¹⁷For a will is valid only when people die, since it is never in effect while the one who made it is living. ¹⁸That is why even the first covenant was inaugurated with blood. ¹⁹For when every command had been proclaimed by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, along with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled the scroll itself and all the people, ²⁰saying, This is the blood of the covenant that God has ordained for you. ²¹In the same way, he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the articles of worship with blood. ²²According to the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

²³Therefore, it was necessary for the copies of the things in the heavens to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves to be purified with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made with hands (only a model of the true one) but into heaven itself, so that he might now appear in the presence of God for us. ²⁵He did not do this to offer himself many times, as the high priest enters the sanctuary yearly with the blood of another. ²⁶Otherwise, he would have had to suffer many times since the foundation of the world. But now he has appeared one time, at the end of the ages, for the removal of sin by the sacrifice of himself. ²⁷And just as it is appointed for people to die once — and after this, judgment — ²⁸so also Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

10 Since the law has only a shadow of the good things to come, and not the reality itself of those things, it can never perfect the worshipers by the same sacrifices they continually offer year after year. ²Otherwise, wouldn't they have stopped being offered, since the worshipers, purified once and for all, would no longer have any consciousness of sins? ³But in the sacrifices there is a reminder of sins year after year. ⁴For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵Therefore, as he was coming into the world, he said:

You did not desire sacrifice and offering, but you prepared a body for me.

⁶ You did not delight in whole burnt offerings and sin offerings.

⁷ Then I said, "See — it is written about me in the scroll —

I have come to do your will, O God."

⁸After he says above, You did not desire or delight in sacrifices and offerings, whole burnt offerings and sin offerings (which are offered according to the law), ⁹he then says, See, I have come to do your will. He takes away the first to establish the second. ¹⁰By this will, we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all time.

¹¹Every priest stands day after day ministering and offering the same sacrifices time after time, which can never take away sins. ¹²But this man, after offering one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God. ¹³He is now waiting until his enemies are made his footstool. ¹⁴For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are sanctified. ¹⁵The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. For after he says:

¹⁶ This is the covenant I will make with them after those days,

the Lord says,

I will put my laws on their hearts and write them on their minds,

¹⁷ and I will never again remember their sins and their lawless acts.

¹⁸Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

¹⁹Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have boldness to enter the sanctuary through the blood of Jesus — ²⁰he has inaugurated for us a new and living way through the curtain (that is, through his flesh) — ²¹and since we have a great high priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water. ²³Let us hold on to the confession of our hope without wavering, since he who promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us watch out for one another to provoke love and good works, ²⁵not neglecting to gather together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging each other, and all the more as you see the day approaching.

²⁶For if we deliberately go on sinning after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷but a terrifying expectation of judgment and the fury of a fire about to consume the adversaries. ²⁸Anyone who disregarded the law of Moses died without mercy, based on the testimony of two or three witnesses. ²⁹How much worse punishment do you think one will deserve who has trampled on the Son of God, who has regarded as profane the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and who has insulted the Spirit of grace?

³⁰For we know the one who has said,

Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, and again,

The Lord will judge his people.

³¹It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

³²Remember the earlier days when, after you had been enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings.

³³ Sometimes you were publicly exposed to taunts and afflictions, and at other times you were companions of those who were treated that way. ³⁴ For you sympathized with the prisoners and accepted with joy the confiscation of your possessions, because you know that you yourselves have a better and enduring possession. ³⁵ So don't throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. ³⁶ For you need endurance, so that after you have done God's will, you may receive what was promised.

³⁷ For yet in a very little while, the Coming One will come and not delay.

³⁸ But my righteous one will live by faith; and if he draws back, I have no pleasure in him.

³⁹ But we are not those who draw back and are destroyed, but those who have faith and are saved.

11 Now faith is the reality of what is hoped for, the proof of what is not seen. ² For by it our ancestors won God's approval.

³ By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

⁴ By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was approved as a righteous man, because God approved his gifts, and even though he is dead, he still speaks through his faith.

⁵ By faith Enoch was taken away, and so he did not experience death. He was not to be found because God took him away. For before he was taken away, he was approved as one who pleased God. ⁶ Now without faith it is impossible to please God, since the one who draws near to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

⁸ By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed and set out for a place that he was going to receive as an inheritance. He went out, even though he did not know where he was going. ⁹ By faith he stayed as a foreigner in the land of promise, living in tents as did Isaac and Jacob, coheirs of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

¹¹ By faith even Sarah herself, when she was unable to have children, received power to conceive offspring, even though she was past the age, since she considered that the one who had promised was faithful. ¹² Therefore, from one man — in fact, from one as good as dead — came offspring as numerous as the stars of the sky and as innumerable as the grains of sand along the seashore.

¹³ These all died in faith, although they had not received the things that were promised. But they saw them from a distance, greeted them, and confessed that they were foreigners and temporary residents on the earth. ¹⁴ Now those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. ¹⁵ If they were thinking about where they came from, they would have had an opportunity to return. ¹⁶ But they now desire a better place — a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

¹⁷ By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac. He received the promises and yet he was offering his one and only son. ¹⁸ The one to whom it had been said, Your offspring will be called through Isaac. ¹⁹ He considered

God to be able even to raise someone from the dead; therefore, he received him back, figuratively speaking.

²⁰ By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. ²¹ By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and he worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff. ²² By faith Joseph, as he was nearing the end of his life, mentioned the exodus of the Israelites and gave instructions concerning his bones.

²³ By faith Moses, after he was born, was hidden by his parents for three months, because they saw that the child was beautiful, and they didn't fear the king's edict. ²⁴ By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter ²⁵ and chose to suffer with the people of God rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasure of sin. ²⁶ For he considered reproach for the sake of Christ to be greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, since he was looking ahead to the reward.

³⁹ All these were approved through their faith, but they did not receive what was promised, ⁴⁰ since God had provided something better for us, so that they would not be made perfect without us.

12 Therefore, since we also have such a large cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us lay aside every hindrance and the sin that so easily ensnares us. Let us run with endurance the race that lies before us, ² keeping our eyes on Jesus, the source and perfecter of our faith. For the joy that lay before him, he endured the cross, despising the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

³ For consider him who endured such hostility from sinners against himself, so that you won't grow weary and give up. ⁴ In struggling against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. ⁵ And you have forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons:

My son, do not take the Lord's discipline lightly or lose heart when you are reproved by him, for the Lord disciplines the one he loves and punishes every son he receives.

⁷ Endure suffering as discipline: God is dealing with you as sons. For what son is there that a father does not discipline? ⁸ But if you are without discipline — which all receive — then you are illegitimate children and not sons. ⁹ Furthermore, we had human fathers discipline us, and we respected them. Shouldn't we submit even more to the Father of spirits and live? ¹⁰ For they disciplined us for a short time based on what seemed good to them, but he does it for our benefit, so that we can share his holiness. ¹¹ No discipline seems enjoyable at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

¹² Therefore, strengthen your tired hands and weakened knees, ¹³ and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated but healed instead.

¹⁴ Pursue peace with everyone, and holiness — without it no one will see the Lord. ¹⁵ Make sure that no one falls short of the grace of God and that no root of bitterness springs up, causing trouble and defiling many. ¹⁶ And make sure that there isn't any immoral or irreverent person like Esau, who sold his birthright in exchange for a single meal. ¹⁷ For you know that later, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, even though he sought it with tears, because he didn't find any opportunity for repentance.

¹⁸ For you have not come to what could be touched, to a blazing fire, to darkness, gloom, and storm, ¹⁹ to the blast of a trumpet, and the sound of words. Those who heard it begged that not another word be spoken to them, ²⁰ for they could not bear what was commanded: If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned. ²¹ The appearance was so terrifying that Moses said, I am trembling with fear. ²² Instead, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God (the heavenly Jerusalem), to myriads of angels, a festive gathering, ²³ to the assembly of the firstborn whose names have been written in heaven, to a Judge, who is God of all, to the spirits of righteous people made perfect, ²⁴ and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood, which says better things than the blood of Abel.

²⁵ See to it that you do not reject the one who speaks. For if they did not escape when they rejected him who warned them on earth, even less will we if we turn away from him who warns us from heaven. ²⁶ His voice shook the earth at that time, but now he has promised, Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens. ²⁷ This expression, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of what can be shaken — that is, created things — so that what is not shaken might remain. ²⁸ Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful. By it, we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and awe, ²⁹ for our God is a consuming fire.

13 Let brotherly love continue. ² Don't neglect to show hospitality, for by doing this some have welcomed angels as guests without knowing it. ³ Remember those in prison, as though you were in prison with them, and the mistreated, as though you yourselves were suffering bodily. ⁴ Marriage is to be honored by all and the marriage bed kept undefiled, because God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers. ⁵ Keep your life free from the love of money. Be satisfied with what you have, for he himself has said, I will never leave you or abandon you. ⁶ Therefore, we may boldly say,

The Lord is my helper;

I will not be afraid.

What can man do to me?

⁷ Remember your leaders who have spoken God's word to you. As you carefully observe the outcome of their lives, imitate their faith. ⁸ Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. ⁹ Don't be led astray by various kinds of strange teachings; for it is good for the heart to be established by grace and not by food regulations, since those who observe them have not benefited. ¹⁰ We have an altar from which those who worship at the tabernacle do not have a right to eat. ¹¹ For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the most holy place by the high priest as a sin offering are burned outside the camp. ¹² Therefore, Jesus also suffered outside the gate, so that he might sanctify the people by his own blood. ¹³ Let us then go to him outside the camp, bearing his disgrace. ¹⁴ For we do not have an enduring city here; instead, we seek the one to come. ¹⁵ Therefore, through him let us continually offer up to God a sacrifice of praise, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. ¹⁶ Don't neglect to do what is good and to share, for God is pleased with such sacrifices. ¹⁷ Obey your leaders and submit to them, since they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account, so that they can do this with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you. ¹⁸ Pray for us, for we are convinced that we have a clear conscience, wanting to conduct ourselves honorably in everything. ¹⁹ And I urge you all the more to pray that I may be restored to you very soon.

²⁰ Now may the God of peace, who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus — the great Shepherd of the sheep — through the blood of the everlasting covenant, ²¹ equip you with everything good to do his will, working in us what is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

²² Brothers and sisters, I urge you to receive this message of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly. ²³ Be aware that our brother Timothy has been released. If he comes soon enough, he will be with me when I see you. ²⁴ Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those who are from Italy send you greetings. ²⁵ Grace be with you all.

JAMES

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ: To the twelve tribes dispersed abroad.

Greetings.

² Consider it a great joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you experience various trials, ³ because you know that the testing of your faith produces endurance. ⁴ And let endurance have its full effect, so that you may be mature and complete, lacking nothing.

⁵ Now if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God — who gives to all generously and ungrudgingly — and it will be given to him. ⁶ But let him ask in faith without doubting. For the doubter is like the surging sea, driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷ That person should not expect to receive anything from the Lord, ⁸ being double-minded and unstable in all his ways.

¹² Blessed is the one who endures trials, because when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him.

¹³ No one undergoing a trial should say, “I am being tempted by God,” since God is not tempted by evil, and he himself doesn’t tempt anyone. ¹⁴ But each person is tempted when he is drawn away and enticed by his own evil desire. ¹⁵ Then after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin, and when sin is fully grown, it gives birth to death.

¹⁶ Don’t be deceived, my dear brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, who does not change like shifting shadows. ¹⁸ By his own choice, he gave us birth by the word of truth so that we would be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

¹⁹ My dear brothers and sisters, understand this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger, ²⁰ for human anger does not accomplish God’s righteousness. ²¹ Therefore, ridding yourselves of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent, humbly receive the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

²⁶ If anyone thinks he is religious without controlling his tongue, his religion is useless and he deceives himself.

²⁷ Pure and undefiled religion before God the Father is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

2 My brothers and sisters, do not show favoritism as you hold on to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ. ² For if someone comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring and dressed in fine clothes, and a poor person dressed in filthy clothes also comes in, ³ if you look with favor on the one wearing the fine clothes and say, “Sit here in a good place,” and yet you say to the poor person, “Stand over there,” or “Sit here on the floor by my footstool,” ⁴ haven’t you made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

⁵ Listen, my dear brothers and sisters: Didn’t God choose the poor in this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? ⁶ Yet you have dishonored the poor. Don’t the rich oppress you and drag you into court? ⁷ Don’t they blaspheme the good name that was invoked over you?

⁸ Indeed, if you fulfill the royal law prescribed in the Scripture, Love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. ⁹ If, however, you show favoritism, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. ¹⁰ For whoever keeps the entire law, and yet stumbles at one point, is guilty of breaking it all. ¹¹ For he who said, Do not commit adultery, also said, Do not murder. So if you do not commit adultery, but you murder, you are a lawbreaker.

¹² Speak and act as those who are to be judged by the law of freedom. ¹³ For judgment is without mercy to the one who has not shown mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

¹⁴ What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but does not have works? Can such faith save him?

¹⁵ If a brother or sister is without clothes and lacks daily food ¹⁶ and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, stay warm, and be well fed,” but you don’t give them what the body needs, what good is it? ¹⁷ In the same way faith, if it doesn’t have works, is dead by itself.

¹⁸ But someone will say, “You have faith, and I have works.” Show me your faith without works, and I will show you faith by my works. ¹⁹ You believe that God is one. Good! Even the demons believe — and they shudder.

²⁰ Senseless person! Are you willing to learn that faith without works is useless? ²¹ Wasn’t Abraham our father justified by works in offering Isaac his son on the altar? ²² You see that faith was active together with his works, and by works, faith was made complete, ²³ and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness, and he was called God’s friend. ²⁴ You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone. ²⁵ In the same way, wasn’t Rahab the prostitute also justified by works in receiving the messengers and sending them out by a different route? ²⁶ For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

3 Not many should become teachers, my brothers, because you know that we will receive a stricter judgment. ² For we all stumble in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is mature, able also to control the whole body. ³ Now if we put bits into the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we direct their whole bodies. ⁴ And consider ships: Though very large and driven by fierce winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. ⁵ So too, though the tongue is a small part of the body, it boasts great things. Consider how a small fire sets ablaze a large forest. ⁶ And the tongue is a fire. The tongue, a world of unrighteousness, is placed among our members. It stains the whole body, sets the course of life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell.⁷ Every kind of animal, bird, reptile, and fish is tamed and has been tamed by humankind,⁸ but no one can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.⁹ With the tongue we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people who are made in God's likeness.¹⁰ Blessing and cursing come out of the same mouth. My brothers and sisters, these things should not be this way.¹¹ Does a spring pour out sweet and bitter water from the same opening?¹² Can a fig tree produce olives, my brothers and sisters, or a grapevine produce figs? Neither can a saltwater spring yield fresh water.

¹³Who among you is wise and understanding? By his good conduct he should show that his works are done in the gentleness that comes from wisdom.¹⁴ But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and deny the truth.¹⁵ Such wisdom does not come down from above but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic.¹⁶ For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there is disorder and every evil practice.¹⁷ But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peace-loving, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering, without pretense.¹⁸ And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who cultivate peace.

4 What is the source of wars and fights among you? Don't they come from your passions that wage war within you?² You desire and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and wage war. You do not have because you do not ask.³ You ask and don't receive because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it on your pleasures.

⁴You adulterous people! Don't you know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? So whoever wants to be the friend of the world becomes the enemy of God.⁵ Or do you think it's without reason that the Scripture says: The spirit he made to dwell in us envies intensely?

⁶But he gives greater grace. Therefore he says:

God resists the proud,
but gives grace to the humble.

⁷Therefore, submit to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.⁸ Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.⁹ Be miserable and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom.¹⁰ Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

¹¹Don't criticize one another, brothers and sisters. Any one who defames or judges a fellow believer defames and judges the law. If you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.¹² There is one lawgiver and judge who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor?

¹³Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will travel to such and such a city and spend a year there and do business and make a profit."¹⁴ Yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring — what your life will be! For you are like vapor that appears for a little while, then vanishes.

¹⁵Instead, you should say, "If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that."¹⁶ But as it is, you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil.¹⁷ So it is sin to know the good and yet not do it.

5 Come now, you rich people, weep and wail over the miseries that are coming on you.² Your wealth has rotted and your clothes are moth-eaten.³ Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up treasure in the last days.⁴ Look! The pay that you withheld from the workers who mowed your fields cries out, and the outcry of the harvesters has reached the ears of the Lord of Hosts.⁵ You have lived luxuriously on the earth and have indulged yourselves. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.⁶ You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous, who does not resist you.

⁷Therefore, brothers and sisters, be patient until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth and is patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains.⁸ You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, because the Lord's coming is near.

⁹Brothers and sisters, do not complain about one another, so that you will not be judged. Look, the judge stands at the door!

¹⁰Brothers and sisters, take the prophets who spoke in the Lord's name as an example of suffering and patience.¹¹ See, we count as blessed those who have endured. You have heard of Job's endurance and have seen the outcome that the Lord brought about — the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

¹²Above all, my brothers and sisters, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath. But let your "yes" mean "yes," and your "no" mean "no," so that you won't fall under judgment.

¹³Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone cheerful? He should sing praises.¹⁴ Is anyone among you sick? He should call for the elders of the church, and they are to pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.¹⁵ The prayer of faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up; if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.¹⁶ Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is very powerful in its effect.¹⁷ Elijah was a human being as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the land.¹⁸ Then he prayed again, and the sky gave rain and the land produced its fruit.

¹⁹My brothers and sisters, if any among you strays from the truth, and someone turns him back,²⁰ let that person know that whoever turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and cover a multitude of sins.

1 PETER

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ:
To those chosen, living as exiles dispersed abroad in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, chosen² according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to be obedient and to be sprinkled with the blood of Jesus Christ.

May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Because of his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead⁴ and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you. ⁵ You are being guarded by God's power through faith for a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶ You rejoice in this, even though now for a short time, if necessary, you suffer grief in various trials⁷ so that the proven character of your faith — more valuable than gold which, though perishable, is refined by fire — may result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ⁸ Though you have not seen him, you love him; though not seeing him now, you believe in him, and you rejoice with inexpressible and glorious joy,⁹ because you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰ Concerning this salvation, the prophets, who prophesied about the grace that would come to you, searched and carefully investigated. ¹¹ They inquired into what time or what circumstances the Spirit of Christ within them was indicating when he testified in advance to the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow. ¹² It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you. These things have now been announced to you through those who preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven — angels long to catch a glimpse of these things.

¹³ Therefore, with your minds ready for action, be sober-minded and set your hope completely on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ¹⁴ As obedient children, do not be conformed to the desires of your former ignorance. ¹⁵ But as the one who called you is holy, you also are to be holy in all your conduct; ¹⁶ for it is written, Be holy, because I am holy. ¹⁷ If you appeal to the Father who judges impartially according to each one's work, you are to conduct yourselves in reverence during your time living as strangers. ¹⁸ For you know that you were redeemed from your empty way of life inherited from your fathers, not with perishable things like silver or gold,¹⁹ but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of an unblemished and spotless lamb. ²⁰ He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was revealed in these last times for you. ²¹ Through him you believe in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

²² Since you have purified yourselves by your obedience to the truth, so that you show sincere brotherly love for each other, from a pure heart love one another constantly,²³ because you have been born again — not of perishable seed but of imperishable — through the living and enduring word of God. ²⁴ For

All flesh is like grass,
and all its glory like a flower of the grass.

The grass withers, and the flower falls,
but the word of the Lord endures forever.

²⁵ And this word is the gospel that was proclaimed to you. Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all slander. ² Like newborn infants, desire the pure milk of the word, so that you may grow up into your salvation, ³ if you have tasted that the Lord is good. ⁴ As you come to him, a living stone — rejected by people but chosen and honored by God — ⁵ you yourselves, as living stones, a spiritual house, are being built to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶ For it stands in Scripture:

See, I lay a stone in Zion,
a chosen and honored cornerstone,
and the one who believes in him
will never be put to shame.

⁷ So honor will come to you who believe; but for the unbelieving,

The stone that the builders rejected —
this one has become the cornerstone,

⁸ and

A stone to stumble over,
and a rock to trip over.

They stumble because they disobey the word; they were destined for this.

⁹ But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his possession, so that you may proclaim the praises of the one who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. ¹⁰ Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

¹¹ Dear friends, I urge you as strangers and exiles to abstain from sinful desires that wage war against the soul. ¹² Conduct yourselves honorably among the Gentiles, so that when they slander you as evildoers, they will observe your good works and will glorify God on the day he visits.

¹³ Submit to every human authority because of the Lord, whether to the emperor as the supreme authority¹⁴ or to governors as those sent out by him to punish those who do what is evil and to praise those who do what is good. ¹⁵ For it is God's will that you silence the ignorance of foolish people by doing good. ¹⁶ Submit as free people, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but as God's slaves. ¹⁷ Honor everyone. Love the brothers and sisters. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

¹⁸ Household slaves, submit to your masters with all reverence not only to the good and gentle ones but also to the cruel. ¹⁹ For it brings favor if, because of a consciousness of God, someone endures grief from suffering unjustly. ²⁰ For what credit is there if when you do wrong and are beaten, you endure it? But when you do what is good and suffer, if you endure it, this brings favor with God.

²¹ For you were called to this, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps. ²² He did not commit sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth; ²³ when he was insulted, he did not insult in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten but entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. ²⁴ He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree; so that, having died to sins, we might live for righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. ²⁵ For you were like sheep going astray, but you have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

3 In the same way, wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands so that, even if some disobey the word, they may be won over without a word by the way their wives live ² when they observe your pure, reverent lives. ³ Don't let your beauty consist of outward things like elaborate hairstyles and wearing gold jewelry or fine clothes, ⁴ but rather what is inside the heart — the imperishable quality of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God's sight. ⁵ For in the past, the holy women who put their hope in God also adorned themselves in this way, submitting to their own husbands, ⁶ just as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. You have become her children when you do what is good and do not fear any intimidation.

⁷ Husbands, in the same way, live with your wives in an understanding way, as with a weaker partner, showing them honor as coheirs of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

⁸ Finally, all of you be like-minded and sympathetic, love one another, and be compassionate and humble, ⁹ not paying back evil for evil or insult for insult but, on the contrary, giving a blessing, since you were called for this, so that you may inherit a blessing.

¹⁰ For the one who wants to love life and to see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit,

¹¹ and let him turn away from evil and do what is good.

Let him seek peace and pursue it, ¹² because the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are open to their prayer. But the face of the Lord is against those who do what is evil.

¹³ Who then will harm you if you are devoted to what is good? ¹⁴ But even if you should suffer for righteousness, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear or be intimidated, ¹⁵ but in your hearts regard Christ the Lord as holy, ready at any time to give a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you. ¹⁶ Yet do this with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience, so that when you are accused, those who disparage your good conduct in Christ will be put to shame. ¹⁷ For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil.

¹⁸ For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh but made alive by the Spirit, ¹⁹ in which he also went and made proclamation to the spirits in prison ²⁰ who in the past were disobedient, when God patiently waited in the days of Noah while the ark was being prepared. In it a few — that is, eight people — were saved through water. ²¹ Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you (not as the removal of dirt from the body, but the pledge of a good conscience toward God) through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²² who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same understanding — because the one who suffers in the flesh is finished with sin — ² in order to live the remaining time in the flesh no longer for human desires, but for God's will. ³ For there has already been enough time spent in doing what the Gentiles choose to do: carrying on in unrestrained behavior, evil desires, drunkenness, orgies, carousing, and lawless idolatry. ⁴ They are surprised that you don't join them in the same flood of wild living — and they slander you. ⁵ They will give an account to the one who stands ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶ For this reason the gospel was also preached to those who are now dead, so that, although they might be judged in the flesh according to human standards, they might live in the spirit according to God's standards.

⁷ The end of all things is near; therefore, be alert and sober-minded for prayer. ⁸ Above all, maintain constant love for one another, since love covers a multitude of sins. ⁹ Be hospitable to one another without complaining. ¹⁰ Just as each one has received a gift, use it to serve others, as good stewards of the varied grace of God. ¹¹ If anyone speaks, let it be as one who speaks God's words; if anyone serves, let it be from the strength God provides, so that God may be glorified through Jesus Christ in everything. To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

¹² Dear friends, don't be surprised when the fiery ordeal comes among you to test you as if something unusual were happening to you. ¹³ Instead, rejoice as you share in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may also rejoice with great joy when his glory is revealed. ¹⁴ If you are ridiculed for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. ¹⁵ Let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or a meddler. ¹⁶ But if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed but let him glorify God in having that name. ¹⁷ For the time has come for judgment to begin with God's household, and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who disobey the gospel of God?

¹⁹ So then, let those who suffer according to God's will entrust themselves to a faithful Creator while doing what is good.

5 I exhort the elders among you as a fellow elder and witness to the sufferings of Christ, as well as one who shares in the glory about to be revealed: ² Shepherd God's flock among you, not overseeing out of compulsion but willingly, as God would have you; not out of greed for money but eagerly; ³ not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock. ⁴ And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. ⁵ In the same way, you who are younger, be subject to the elders. All of you clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble.

⁶ Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you at the proper time, ⁷ casting all your cares on him, because he cares about you. ⁸ Be sober-minded, be alert. Your adversary the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion, looking for anyone he can devour. ⁹ Resist him, firm in the faith, knowing that the same kind of sufferings are being experienced by your fellow believers throughout the world.

¹⁰ The God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, establish, strengthen, and support you after you have suffered a little while. ¹¹To him be dominion forever. Amen.

¹²Through Silvanus, a faithful brother (as I consider him), I have written to you briefly in order to encourage you and to testify that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it! ¹³She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings, as does Mark, my son. ¹⁴Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 PETER

1 Simeon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ: To those who have received a faith equal to ours through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ.

²May grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

³His divine power has given us everything required for life and godliness through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. ⁴By these he has given us very great and precious promises, so that through them you may share in the divine nature, escaping the corruption that is in the world because of evil desire. ⁵For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with goodness, goodness with knowledge, ⁶knowledge with self-control, self-control with endurance, endurance with godliness, ⁷godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. ⁸For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being useless or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹The person who lacks these things is blind and shortsighted and has forgotten the cleansing from his past sins. ¹⁰Therefore, brothers and sisters, make every effort to confirm your calling and election, because if you do these things you will never stumble. ¹¹For in this way, entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be richly provided for you.

¹²Therefore I will always remind you about these things, even though you know them and are established in the truth you now have. ¹³I think it is right, as long as I am in this bodily tent, to wake you up with a reminder, ¹⁴since I know that I will soon lay aside my tent, as our Lord Jesus Christ has indeed made clear to me. ¹⁵And I will also make every effort so that you are able to recall these things at any time after my departure.

¹⁶For we did not follow cleverly contrived myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; instead, we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷For he received honor and glory from God the Father when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, saying “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased!” ¹⁸We ourselves heard this voice when it came from heaven while we were with him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹We also have the prophetic word strongly confirmed, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. ²⁰Above all, you know this: No prophecy of Scripture comes from the prophet’s own interpretation, ²¹because no prophecy ever came by the will of man; instead, men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

2 There were indeed false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, and will bring swift destruction on themselves. ²Many will follow their depraved ways, and the way of truth will be maligned because of them. ³They will exploit you in their greed with made-up stories. Their condemnation, pronounced long ago, is not idle, and their destruction does not sleep.

⁴For if God didn’t spare the angels who sinned but cast them into hell and delivered them in chains of utter darkness to be kept for judgment; ⁵and if he didn’t spare the ancient world, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others, when he brought the flood on the world of the ungodly; ⁶and if he reduced the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes and condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is coming to the ungodly; ⁷and if he rescued righteous Lot, distressed by the depraved behavior of the immoral ⁸(for as that righteous man lived among them day by day, his righteous soul was tormented by the lawless deeds he saw and heard) — ⁹then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment, ¹⁰especially those who follow the polluting desires of the flesh and despise authority.

Bold, arrogant people! They are not afraid to slander the glorious ones; ¹¹however, angels, who are greater in might and power, do not bring a slanderous charge against them before the Lord. ¹²But these people, like irrational animals — creatures of instinct born to be caught and destroyed — slander what they do not understand, and in their destruction they too will be destroyed. ¹³They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. They consider it a pleasure to carouse in broad daylight. They are spots and blemishes, delighting in their deceptions while they feast with you. ¹⁴They have eyes full of adultery that never stop looking for sin. They seduce unstable people and have hearts trained in greed. Children under a curse! ¹⁵They have gone astray by abandoning the straight path and have followed the path of Balaam, the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of wickedness ¹⁶but received a rebuke for his lawlessness: A speechless donkey spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet’s madness.

¹⁷These people are springs without water, mists driven by a storm. The gloom of darkness has been reserved for them. ¹⁸For by uttering boastful, empty words, they seduce, with fleshly desires and debauchery, people who have barely escaped from those who live in error. ¹⁹They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption, since people are enslaved to whatever defeats them. ²⁰For if, having escaped the world’s impurity through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in these things and defeated, the last state is worse for them than the first.²¹ For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy command delivered to them.²² It has happened to them according to the true proverb: A dog returns to its own vomit, and, "a washed sow returns to wallowing in the mud."

3 Dear friends, this is now the second letter I have written to you; in both letters, I want to stir up your sincere understanding by way of reminder,² so that you recall the words previously spoken by the holy prophets and the command of our Lord and Savior given through your apostles.³ Above all, be aware of this: Scoffers will come in the last days scoffing and following their own evil desires,⁴ saying, "Where is his 'coming' that he promised? Ever since our ancestors fell asleep, all things continue as they have been since the beginning of creation."⁵ They deliberately overlook this: By the word of God the heavens came into being long ago and the earth was brought about from water and through water.⁶ Through these the world of that time perished when it was flooded.⁷ By the same word, the present heavens and earth are stored up for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

⁸ Dear friends, don't overlook this one fact: With the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day.⁹ The Lord does not delay his promise, as some

understand delay, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish but all to come to repentance.

¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come like a thief; on that day the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, the elements will burn and be dissolved, and the earth and the works on it will be disclosed.¹¹ Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, it is clear what sort of people you should be in holy conduct and godliness¹² as you wait for the day of God and hasten its coming. Because of that day, the heavens will be dissolved with fire and the elements will melt with heat.¹³ But based on his promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.

¹⁴ Therefore, dear friends, while you wait for these things, make every effort to be found without spot or blemish in his sight, at peace.¹⁵ Also, regard the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our dear brother Paul has written to you according to the wisdom given to him.¹⁶ He speaks about these things in all his letters. There are some matters that are hard to understand. The untaught and unstable will twist them to their own destruction, as they also do with the rest of the Scriptures.

¹⁷ Therefore, dear friends, since you know this in advance, be on your guard, so that you are not led away by the error of lawless people and fall from your own stable position.

¹⁸ But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity.

1 JOHN

1 What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have observed and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life — ² that life was revealed, and we have seen it and we testify and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us — ³ what we have seen and heard we also declare to you, so that you may also have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. ⁴We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

⁵This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light, and there is absolutely no darkness in him. ⁶If we say, "We have fellowship with him," and yet we walk in darkness, we are lying and are not practicing the truth. ⁷If we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. ⁸If we say, "We have no sin," we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we say, "We have not sinned," we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, I am writing you these things so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father — Jesus Christ the righteous one. ²He himself is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours, but also for those of the whole world.

³This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commands. ⁴The one who says, "I have come to know him," and yet doesn't keep his commands, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. ⁵But whoever keeps his word, truly in him the love of God is made complete. This is how we know we are in him: ⁶The one who says he remains in him should walk just as he walked.

⁷Dear friends, I am not writing you a new command but an old command that you have had from the beginning. The old command is the word you have heard. ⁸Yet I am writing you a new command, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. ⁹The one who says he is in the light but hates his brother or sister is in the darkness until now. ¹⁰The one who loves his brother or sister remains in the light, and there is no cause for stumbling in him. ¹¹But the one who hates his brother or sister is in the darkness, walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he's going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

¹² I am writing to you, little children, since your sins have been forgiven on account of his name.

¹³ I am writing to you, fathers, because you have come to know the one who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have conquered the evil one.

¹⁴ I have written to you, children, because you have come to know the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you have come to know the one who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, God's word remains in you, and you have conquered the evil one.

¹⁵ Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

¹⁸ Children, it is the last hour. And as you have heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. By this we know that it is the last hour. ¹⁹They went out from us, but they did not belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. However, they went out so that it might be made clear that none of them belongs to us.

²⁰ But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of you know the truth. ²¹I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie comes from the truth. ²²Who is the liar, if not the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This one is the antichrist: the one who denies the Father and the Son. ²³No one who denies the Son has the Father; he who confesses the Son has the Father as well.

²⁴What you have heard from the beginning is to remain in you. If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you, then you will remain in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵And this is the promise that he himself made to us: eternal life.

²⁶ I have written these things to you concerning those who are trying to deceive you. ²⁷As for you, the anointing you received from him remains in you, and you don't need anyone to teach you. Instead, his anointing teaches you about all things and is true and is not a lie; just as it has taught you, remain in him.

²⁸ So now, little children, remain in him so that when he appears we may have confidence and not be ashamed before him at his coming. ²⁹If you know that he is righteous, you know this as well: Everyone who does what

3 is right has been born of him. ¹See what great love the Father has given us that we should be called God's children — and we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it didn't know him. ²Dear friends, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that when he appears, we will be like him because we will see him as he is. ³And everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself just as he is pure.

⁴ Everyone who commits sin practices lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness. ⁵You know that he was revealed so that he might take away sins, and there is no sin in him. ⁶Everyone who remains in him does not sin; everyone who sins has not seen him or known him.

⁷ Children, let no one deceive you. The one who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous. ⁸The one who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. The Son of God was revealed for this purpose: to destroy the devil's works. ⁹Everyone who has been born of God does not sin, because his seed remains in him; he is not able to sin, because he has been born of God. ¹⁰This is how God's children and the devil's children become obvious. Whoever does not do what is right is not of God, especially the one who does not love his brother or sister.

¹¹For this is the message you have heard from the beginning: We should love one another, ¹²unlike Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous.

¹³Do not be surprised, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you. ¹⁴We know that we have passed from death to life because we love our brothers and sisters. The one who does not love remains in death. ¹⁵Everyone who hates his brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him. ¹⁶This is how we have come to know love: He laid down his life for us. We should also lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. ¹⁷If anyone has this world's goods and sees a fellow believer in need but withholds compassion from him — how does God's love reside in him? ¹⁸Little children, let us not love in word or speech, but in action and in truth.

¹⁹This is how we will know that we belong to the truth and will reassure our hearts before him ²⁰whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows all things.

²¹Dear friends, if our hearts don't condemn us, we have confidence before God ²²and receive whatever we ask from him because we keep his commands and do what is pleasing in his sight. ²³Now this is his command: that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another as he commanded us. ²⁴The one who keeps his commands remains in him, and he in him. And the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he has given us.

4 Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see if they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

²This is how you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, ³but every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming; even now it is already in the world.

⁴You are from God, little children, and you have conquered them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. ⁵They are from the world. Therefore what they say is from the world, and the world listens to them. ⁶We are from God. Anyone who knows God listens to us; anyone who is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of deception.

⁷Dear friends, let us love one another, because love is from God, and everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸The one who does not love does not know God, because God is love. ⁹God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his one and only Son into the world so that we might live through him. ¹⁰Love consists in this: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. ¹¹Dear friends, if God loved us in this way, we also must love one another. ¹²No one has ever seen God. If we love one another, God remains in us and his love is made complete in us. ¹³This is how we know that we remain in him and he in us: He has given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴And we have seen and we testify that the Father has sent his Son as the world's Savior. ¹⁵Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God — God remains in him and he in God. ¹⁶And we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us.

God is love, and the one who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. ¹⁷In this, love is made complete with us so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment, because as he is, so also are we in this world. ¹⁸There is no fear in love; instead, perfect love drives out fear, because fear involves punishment. So the one who fears is not complete in love. ¹⁹We love because he first loved us. ²⁰If anyone says, "I love God," and yet hates his brother or sister, he is a liar. For the person who does not love his brother or sister whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. ²¹And we have this command from him: The one who loves God must also love his brother and sister.

5 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father also loves the one born of him. ²This is how we know that we love God's children: when we love God and obey his commands. ³For this is what love for God is: to keep his commands. And his commands are not a burden, ⁴because everyone who has been born of God conquers the world. This is the victory that has conquered the world: our faith.

⁵Who is the one who conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? ⁶Jesus Christ — he is the one who came by water and blood, not by water only, but by water and by blood. And the Spirit is the one who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷For there are three that testify: ⁸the Spirit, the water, and the blood — and these three are in agreement. ⁹If we accept human testimony, God's testimony is greater, because it is God's testimony that he has given about his Son. ¹⁰The one who believes in the Son of God has this testimony within himself. The one who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony God has given about his Son. ¹¹And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. ¹²The one who has the Son has life. The one who does not have the Son of God does not have life. ¹³I have written these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life.

¹⁴This is the confidence we have before him: If we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. ¹⁵And if we know that he hears whatever we ask, we know that we have what we have asked of him.

¹⁶If anyone sees a fellow believer committing a sin that doesn't lead to death, he should ask, and God will give life to him — to those who commit sin that doesn't lead to death. There is sin that leads to death. I am not saying he should pray about that. ¹⁷All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin that doesn't lead to death.

¹⁸We know that everyone who has been born of God does not sin, but the one who is born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him. ¹⁹We know that we are of God, and the whole world is under the sway of the evil one. ²⁰And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding so that we may know the true one. We are in the true one — that is, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

²¹Little children, guard yourselves from idols.

2 JOHN

The elder:

To the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth — and not only I, but also all who know the truth —² because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us forever.

³ Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

⁴ I was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, in keeping with a command we have received from the Father. ⁵ So now I ask you, dear lady — not as if I were writing you a new command, but one we have had from the beginning — that we love one another. ⁶ This is love: that we walk according to his commands. This is the command as you have heard it from the beginning: that you walk in love.

⁷ Many deceivers have gone out into the world; they do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. ⁸ Watch yourselves so you don't lose what we have worked for, but that you may receive a full reward. ⁹ Anyone who does not remain in Christ's teaching but goes beyond it does not have God. The one who remains in that teaching, this one has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰ If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your home, and don't greet him; ¹¹ for the one who greets him shares in his evil works.

¹² Though I have many things to write to you, I don't want to use paper and ink. Instead, I hope to come to you and talk face to face so that our joy may be complete.

¹³ The children of your elect sister send you greetings.

3 JOHN

The elder:

To my dear friend Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

² Dear friend, I pray that you are prospering in every way and are in good health, just as your whole life is going well. ³ For I was very glad when fellow believers came and testified to your fidelity to the truth — how you are walking in truth. ⁴ I have no greater joy than this: to hear that my children are walking in truth.

⁵ Dear friend, you are acting faithfully in whatever you do for the brothers and sisters, especially when they are strangers. ⁶ They have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God, ⁷ since they set out for the sake of the Name, accepting nothing from pagans. ⁸ Therefore, we ought to support such people so that we can be coworkers with the truth.

⁹ I wrote something to the church, but Diotrefes, who loves to have first place among them, does not receive our authority. ¹⁰ This is why, if I come, I will remind him of the works he is doing, slandering us with malicious words. And he is not satisfied with that! He not only refuses to welcome fellow believers, but he even stops those who want to do so and expels them from the church.

¹¹ Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God. ¹² Everyone speaks well of Demetrius — even the truth itself. And we also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true.

¹³ I have many things to write you, but I don't want to write to you with pen and ink. ¹⁴ I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face.

¹⁵ Peace to you. The friends send you greetings. Greet the friends by name.

JUDE

Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James: To those who are the called, loved by God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ.

² May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

³ Dear friends, although I was eager to write you about the salvation we share, I found it necessary to write, appealing to you to contend for the faith that was delivered to the saints once for all. ⁴ For some people, who were designated for this judgment long ago, have come in by stealth; they are ungodly, turning the grace of our God into sensuality and denying Jesus Christ, our only Master and Lord.

⁵ Now I want to remind you, although you came to know all these things once and for all, that Jesus saved a people out of Egypt and later destroyed those who did not believe; ⁶ and the angels who did not keep their own position but abandoned their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains in deep darkness for the judgment on the great day. ⁷ Likewise, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns committed sexual immorality and perversions, and serve as an example by undergoing the punishment of eternal fire.

⁸ In the same way these people — relying on their dreams — defile their flesh, reject authority, and slander glorious ones. ⁹ Yet when Michael the archangel was disputing with the devil in an argument about Moses's body, he did not dare utter a slanderous condemnation against him but said, "The Lord rebuke you!" ¹⁰ But these people blaspheme anything they do not understand. And what they do understand by instinct — like irrational animals — by these things they are destroyed. ¹¹ Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, have plunged into Balaam's error for profit, and have perished in Korah's rebellion.

¹² These people are dangerous reefs at your love feasts as they eat with you without reverence. They are shepherds who only look after themselves. They are waterless clouds carried along by winds; trees in late autumn — fruitless, twice dead and uprooted. ¹³ They are wild waves of the sea, foaming up their shameful deeds; wandering stars for whom the blackness of darkness is reserved forever.

¹⁴ It was about these that Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied: "Look! The Lord comes with tens of thousands of his holy ones" ¹⁵ to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly concerning all the ungodly acts that they have done in an ungodly way, and concerning all the harsh things ungodly sinners have said against him." ¹⁶ These people are discontented grumblers, living according to their desires; their mouths utter arrogant words, flattering people for their own advantage.

¹⁷ But you, dear friends, remember what was predicted by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ They told you, "In the end time there will be scoffers living according to their own ungodly desires." ¹⁹ These people create divisions and are worldly, not having the Spirit.

²⁰ But you, dear friends, as you build yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹ keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting expectantly for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ for eternal life. ²² Have mercy on those who waver; ²³ save others by snatching them from the fire; have mercy on others but with fear, hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

²⁴ Now to him who is able to protect you from stumbling and to make you stand in the presence of his glory, without blemish and with great joy, ²⁵ to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority before all time, now and forever. Amen.

REVELATION

1 The revelation of Jesus Christ that God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John, ² who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, whatever he saw. ³ Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep what is written in it, because the time is near.

⁴ John: To the seven churches in Asia. Grace and peace to you from the one who is, who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits before his throne, ⁵ and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To him who loves us and has set us free from our sins by his blood, ⁶ and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father — to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

7 Look, he is coming with the clouds,
and every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him.
And all the tribes of the earth will mourn over him.

So it is to be. Amen.

⁸ "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty."

⁹ I, John, your brother and partner in the affliction, kingdom, and endurance that are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. ¹⁰ I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard a loud voice behind me like a trumpet ¹¹ saying, "Write on a scroll what you see and send it to the seven churches: Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

¹² Then I turned to see whose voice it was that spoke to me. When I turned I saw seven golden lampstands, ¹³ and among the lampstands was one like the Son of Man, dressed in a robe and with a golden sash wrapped around his chest. ¹⁴ The hair of his head was white as wool — white as snow — and his eyes like a fiery flame. ¹⁵ His feet were like fine bronze as it is fired in a furnace, and his voice like the sound of cascading waters. ¹⁶ He had seven stars in his right hand; a sharp double-edged sword came from his mouth, and his face was shining like the sun at full strength.

¹⁷ When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man. He laid his right hand on me and said, "Don't be afraid. I am the First and the Last, ¹⁸ and the Living One. I was dead, but look — I am alive forever and ever, and I hold the keys of death and Hades. ¹⁹ Therefore write what you have seen, what is, and what will take place after this. ²⁰ The mystery of the seven stars you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lampstands is this: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

2 "Write to the angel of the church in Ephesus: This says the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand and who walks among the seven golden lampstands: ² I know your works, your labor, and your endurance, and that you cannot tolerate evil people. You have tested those who call themselves apostles and are not,

and you have found them to be liars. ³ I know that you have persevered and endured hardships for the sake of my name, and have not grown weary. ⁴ But I have this against you: You have abandoned the love you had at first. ⁵ Remember then how far you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first. Otherwise, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent. ⁶ Yet you do have this: You hate the practices of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

⁷ "Let anyone who has ears to hear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.

⁸ "Write to the angel of the church in Smyrna: This says the First and the Last, the one who was dead and came to life: ⁹ I know your affliction and poverty, but you are rich. I know the slander of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. ¹⁰ Don't be afraid of what you are about to suffer. Look, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison to test you, and you will experience affliction for ten days. Be faithful to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life.

¹¹ "Let anyone who has ears to hear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who conquers will never be harmed by the second death.

¹² "Write to the angel of the church in Pergamum: This says the one who has the sharp, double-edged sword: ¹³ I know where you live — where Satan's throne is. Yet you are holding on to my name and did not deny your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas, my faithful witness who was put to death among you, where Satan lives. ¹⁴ But I have a few things against you. You have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to place a stumbling block in front of the Israelites: to eat meat sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality. ¹⁵ In the same way, you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. ¹⁶ So repent! Otherwise, I will come to you quickly and fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

¹⁷ "Let anyone who has ears to hear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name is inscribed that no one knows except the one who receives it.

¹⁸ "Write to the angel of the church in Thyatira: This says the Son of God, the one whose eyes are like a fiery flame and whose feet are like fine bronze: ¹⁹ I know your works — your love, faithfulness, service, and endurance. I know that your last works are greater than the first. ²⁰ But I have this against you: You tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and teaches and deceives my servants to commit sexual immorality and to eat meat sacrificed to idols. ²¹ I gave her time to repent, but she does not want to repent of her sexual immorality. ²² Look, I will throw her into a sickbed and those who commit adultery with her into great affliction. Unless they repent of her works, ²³ I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am the one who examines minds and hearts, and I will give to each of you according to your works. ²⁴ I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who haven't known "the so-called secrets of Satan" — as they say — I am not putting any other burden on you.²⁵ Only hold on to what you have until I come.²⁶ The one who conquers and who keeps my works to the end: I will give him authority over the nations —

27 and he will rule them with an iron scepter; he will shatter them like pottery —

²⁸ just as I have received this from my Father. I will also give him the morning star.

²⁹ "Let anyone who has ears to hear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

3 "Write to the angel of the church in Sardis: Thus says the one who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars: I know your works; you have a reputation for being alive, but you are dead.² Be alert and strengthen what remains, which is about to die, for I have not found your works complete before my God.³ Remember, then, what you have received and heard; keep it, and repent. If you are not alert, I will come like a thief, and you have no idea at what hour I will come upon you.⁴ But you have a few people in Sardis who have not defiled their clothes, and they will walk with me in white, because they are worthy.

⁵ "In the same way, the one who conquers will be dressed in white clothes, and I will never erase his name from the book of life but will acknowledge his name before my Father and before his angels.

⁶ "Let anyone who has ears to hear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

⁷ "Write to the angel of the church in Philadelphia: Thus says the Holy One, the true one, the one who has the key of David, who opens and no one will close, and who closes and no one opens:⁸ I know your works. Look, I have placed before you an open door that no one can close because you have but little power; yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.⁹ Note this: I will make those from the synagogue of Satan, who claim to be Jews and are not, but are lying — I will make them come and bow down at your feet, and they will know that I have loved you.¹⁰ Because you have kept my command to endure, I will also keep you from the hour of testing that is going to come on the whole world to test those who live on the earth.¹¹ I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no one takes your crown.

¹² "The one who conquers I will make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will never go out again. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God — the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God — and my new name.

¹³ "Let anyone who has ears to hear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

¹⁴ "Write to the angel of the church in Laodicea: Thus says the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the originator of God's creation:¹⁵ I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were cold or hot.¹⁶ So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am going to vomit you out of my mouth.¹⁷ For you say, 'I'm rich; I have become wealthy and need nothing,' and you don't realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked.¹⁸ I advise you to buy from me gold refined in the fire so that you may be rich, white clothes so that you may be dressed and your shameful nakedness not be exposed, and ointment to spread on your eyes so that you may see.¹⁹ As many as I love, I rebuke and discipline. So be zealous and repent.²⁰ See!

I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me.

²¹ "To the one who conquers I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne.

²² "Let anyone who has ears to hear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches."

4 After this I looked, and there in heaven was an open door. The first voice that I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this."

² Immediately I was in the Spirit, and there was a throne in heaven and someone was seated on it.³ The one seated there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian stone. A rainbow that had the appearance of an emerald surrounded the throne.

⁴ Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones sat twenty-four elders dressed in white clothes, with golden crowns on their heads.

⁵ Flashes of lightning and rumblings and peals of thunder came from the throne. Seven fiery torches were burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.⁶ Something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal, was also before the throne.

Four living creatures covered with eyes in front and in back were around the throne on each side.⁷ The first living creature was like a lion; the second living creature was like an ox; the third living creature had a face like a man; and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.⁸ Each of the four living creatures had six wings; they were covered with eyes around and inside. Day and night they never stop, saying,

Holy, holy, holy,
Lord God, the Almighty,
who was, who is, and who is to come.

⁹ Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to the one seated on the throne, the one who lives forever and ever,¹⁰ the twenty-four elders fall down before the one seated on the throne and worship the one who lives forever and ever. They cast their crowns before the throne and say,

¹¹ Our Lord and God,
you are worthy to receive
glory and honor and power,
because you have created all things,
and by your will
they exist and were created.

5 Then I saw in the right hand of the one seated on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides, sealed with seven seals.² I also saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?"³ But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or even to look in it.⁴ I wept and wept because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or even to look in it.⁵ Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Look, the Lion from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered so that he is able to open the scroll and its seven seals."

⁶ Then I saw one like a slaughtered lamb standing in the midst of the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent into all the earth.⁷ He went and took the scroll out of the right hand of the one seated on the throne.

⁸When he took the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and golden bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹And they sang a new song:

You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals,
because you were slaughtered,
and you purchased people for God by your blood from every tribe and language and people and nation.

¹⁰ You made them a kingdom
and priests to our God,
and they will reign on the earth.

¹¹Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels around the throne, and also of the living creatures and of the elders. Their number was countless thousands, plus thousands of thousands. ¹²They said with a loud voice,

Worthy is the Lamb who was slaughtered to receive power and riches
and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing!

¹³I heard every creature in heaven, on earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them say, Blessing and honor and glory and power
be to the one seated on the throne,
and to the Lamb, forever and ever!

¹⁴The four living creatures said, "Amen," and the elders fell down and worshiped.

6 Then I saw the Lamb open one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, "Come!" ²I looked, and there was a white horse. Its rider held a bow; a crown was given to him, and he went out as a conqueror in order to conquer.

³When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come!" ⁴Then another horse went out, a fiery red one, and its rider was allowed to take peace from the earth, so that people would slaughter one another. And a large sword was given to him.

⁵When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come!" And I looked, and there was a black horse. Its rider held a set of scales in his hand.

⁶Then I heard something like a voice among the four living creatures say, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius, but do not harm the oil and the wine."

⁷When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come!" ⁸And I looked, and there was a pale green horse. Its rider was named Death, and Hades was following after him. They were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill by the sword, by famine, by plague, and by the wild animals of the earth.

⁹When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered because of the word of God and the testimony they had given. ¹⁰They cried out with a loud voice: "Lord, the one who is holy and true, how long until you judge those who live on the earth and avenge our blood?" ¹¹So they were each given a white robe, and they were told to rest a little while longer until the number would be completed of their fellow servants and their brothers and sisters, who were going to be killed just as they had been.

¹²Then I saw him open the sixth seal. A violent earthquake occurred; the sun turned black like sackcloth made of hair; the entire moon became like blood; ¹³the stars of heaven fell to the earth as a fig tree drops its unripe figs when shaken by a high wind; ¹⁴the sky was split apart like a scroll being rolled up; and every mountain and island was moved from its place.

¹⁵Then the kings of the earth, the nobles, the generals, the rich, the powerful, and every slave and free person hid in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶And they said to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb," ¹⁷because the great day of their wrath has come! And who is able to stand? "

7 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, restraining the four winds of the earth so that no wind could blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. ²Then I saw another angel rising up from the east, who had the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were allowed to harm the earth and the sea: ³"Don't harm the earth or the sea or the trees until we seal the servants of our God on their foreheads." ⁴And I heard the number of the sealed:

144,000 sealed from every tribe of the Israelites:
⁵ 12,000 sealed from the tribe of Judah,
12,000 from the tribe of Reuben,
12,000 from the tribe of Gad,
⁶ 12,000 from the tribe of Asher,
12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali,
12,000 from the tribe of Manasseh,
⁷ 12,000 from the tribe of Simeon,
12,000 from the tribe of Levi,
12,000 from the tribe of Issachar,
⁸ 12,000 from the tribe of Zebulun,
12,000 from the tribe of Joseph,
12,000 sealed from the tribe of Benjamin.

⁹After this I looked, and there was a vast multitude from every nation, tribe, people, and language, which no one could number, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white robes with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰And they cried out in a loud voice: Salvation belongs to our God, who is seated on the throne,
and to the Lamb!

¹¹All the angels stood around the throne, and along with the elders and the four living creatures they fell facedown before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying,

Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and strength
be to our God forever and ever. Amen.

¹³Then one of the elders asked me, "Who are these people in white robes, and where did they come from? "

¹⁴I said to him, "Sir, you know."

Then he told me: These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁵ For this reason they are before the throne of God, and they serve him day and night in his temple. The one seated on the throne will shelter them:

¹⁶ They will no longer hunger;
they will no longer thirst;
the sun will no longer strike them,
nor will any scorching heat.

¹⁷ For the Lamb who is at the center of the throne will shepherd them;
he will guide them to springs of the waters of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.

8 When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.² Then I saw the seven angels who stand in the presence of God; seven trumpets were given to them.³ Another angel, with a golden incense burner, came and stood at the altar. He was given a large amount of incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar in front of the throne.⁴ The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up in the presence of God from the angel's hand.⁵ The angel took the incense burner, filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it to the earth; there were peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

⁶ And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to blow them.

⁷ The first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire, mixed with blood, were hurled to the earth. So a third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

⁸ The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain ablaze with fire was hurled into the sea. So a third of the sea became blood,⁹ a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰ The third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star, blazing like a torch, fell from heaven. It fell on a third of the rivers and springs of water.¹¹ The name of the star is Wormwood, and a third of the waters became wormwood. So, many of the people died from the waters, because they had been made bitter.

¹² The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day was without light and also a third of the night.

¹³ I looked and heard an eagle flying high overhead, crying out in a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe to those who live on the earth, because of the remaining trumpet blasts that the three angels are about to sound!"

9 The fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to earth. The key for the shaft to the abyss was given to him.² He opened the shaft to the abyss, and smoke came up out of the shaft like smoke from a great furnace so that the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the shaft.³ Then locusts came out of the smoke on to the earth, and power was given to them like the power that scorpions have on the earth.⁴ They were told not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green plant, or any tree, but only those people who do not have God's seal on their foreheads.⁵ They were not permitted to kill them but were to torment them for five months; their torment is like the torment caused by a scorpion when it stings someone.⁶ In those days people will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, but death will flee from them.

⁷ The appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. Something like golden crowns was on their heads; their faces were like human faces;⁸ they had hair like women's hair; their teeth were like lions' teeth;⁹ they had chests like iron breastplates; the sound of their wings was like the sound of many chariots with horses rushing into battle;¹⁰ and they had tails with stingers like scorpions, so that with their tails they had the power to harm people for five months.¹¹ They had as their king the angel of the abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

¹² The first woe has passed. There are still two more woes to come after this.

¹³ The sixth angel blew his trumpet. From the four horns of the golden altar that is before God, I heard a voice¹⁴ say to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels bound at the great river Euphrates."¹⁵ So the four angels who were prepared for the hour, day, month, and year were released to kill a third of the human race.¹⁶ The number of mounted troops was two hundred million; I heard their number.¹⁷ This is how I saw the horses and their riders in the vision: They had breastplates that were fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow. The heads of the horses were like the heads of lions, and from their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulfur.¹⁸ A third of the human race was killed by these three plagues — by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur that came from their mouths.¹⁹ For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails, because their tails, which resemble snakes, have heads that inflict injury.

10 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud, with a rainbow over his head. His face was like the sun, his legs were like pillars of fire,² and he held a little scroll opened in his hand. He put his right foot on the sea, his left on the land,³ and he called out with a loud voice like a roaring lion. When he cried out, the seven thunders raised their voices.⁴ And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven, saying, "Seal up what the seven thunders said, and do not write it down!"

⁵ Then the angel that I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven.⁶ He swore by the one who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it: "There will no longer be a delay,⁷ but in the days when the seventh angel will blow his trumpet, then the mystery of God will be completed, as he announced to his servants the prophets."

⁸ Then the voice that I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, "Go, take the scroll that lies open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."

⁹ So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, "Take and eat it; it will be bitter in your stomach, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth."

¹⁰ Then I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I ate it, my stomach became bitter.¹¹ And they said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

11 Then I was given a measuring reed like a rod, with these words: "Go and measure the temple of God and the altar, and count those who worship there.² But exclude the courtyard outside the temple. Don't measure it, because it is given to the nations, and they will trample the holy city for forty-two months.³ I will grant my two witnesses authority to prophesy for 1,260 days, dressed in sackcloth."⁴ These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.⁵ If anyone wants to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and consumes their enemies; if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way.⁶ They have authority to close up the sky so that it does not rain during the days of their prophecy. They also have power over the waters to turn them into blood and to strike the earth with every plague whenever they want.

⁷When they finish their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war on them, conquer them, and kill them. ⁸Their dead bodies will lie in the main street of the great city, which figuratively is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. ⁹And some of the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations will view their bodies for three and a half days and not permit their bodies to be put into a tomb. ¹⁰Those who live on the earth will gloat over them and celebrate and send gifts to one another because these two prophets had tormented those who live on the earth.

¹¹But after three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them. ¹²Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." They went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched them. ¹³At that moment a violent earthquake took place, a tenth of the city fell, and seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake. The survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴The second woe has passed. Take note: The third woe is coming soon!

¹⁵The seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven saying,

The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom
of our Lord and of his Christ,
and he will reign forever and ever.

¹⁶The twenty-four elders, who were seated before God on their thrones, fell facedown and worshiped God, ¹⁷saying,

We give you thanks, Lord God, the Almighty,
who is and who was,
because you have taken your great power
and have begun to reign.

¹⁸ The nations were angry,
but your wrath has come.

The time has come for the dead to be judged and to give the reward
to your servants the prophets,
to the saints, and to those who fear your name,
both small and great,
and the time has come to destroy
those who destroy the earth.

¹⁹Then the temple of God in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant appeared in his temple. There were flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder, an earthquake, and severe hail.

12 A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head. ²She was pregnant and cried out in labor and agony as she was about to give birth. ³Then another sign appeared in heaven: There was a great fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads were seven crowns. ⁴Its tail swept away a third of the stars in heaven and hurled them to the earth. And the dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she did give birth it might devour her child. ⁵She gave birth to a Son, a male who is going to rule all nations with an iron rod. Her child was caught up to God and to his throne. ⁶The woman fled into the wilderness, where she had a place prepared by God, to be nourished there for 1,260 days.

⁷Then war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels also fought, ⁸but he could not prevail, and there was no place for them in heaven any longer. ⁹So the great dragon was thrown out — the ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the one who deceives the whole world. He was thrown to earth, and his angels with him. ¹⁰Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say,

The salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ
have now come,
because the accuser of our brothers and sisters,
who accuses them
before our God day and night,
has been thrown down.

¹¹ They conquered him
by the blood of the Lamb
and by the word of their testimony;
for they did not love their lives
to the point of death.

¹² Therefore rejoice, you heavens,
and you who dwell in them!
Woe to the earth and the sea,
because the devil has come down to you
with great fury,
because he knows his time is short.

¹³When the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who had given birth to the male child. ¹⁴The woman was given two wings of a great eagle, so that she could fly from the serpent's presence to her place in the wilderness, where she was nourished for a time, times, and half a time. ¹⁵From his mouth the serpent spewed water like a river flowing after the woman, to sweep her away with a flood. ¹⁶But the earth helped the woman. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river that the dragon had spewed from his mouth. ¹⁷So the dragon was furious with the woman and went off to wage war against the rest of her offspring — those who keep the commands of God and hold firmly to the testimony about Jesus.

¹⁸The dragon stood on the sand of the sea.

13 And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads. On its horns were ten crowns, and on its heads were blasphemous names. ²The beast I saw was like a leopard, its feet were like a bear's, and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. The dragon gave the beast his power, his throne, and great authority. ³One of its heads appeared to be fatally wounded, but its fatal wound was healed.

The whole earth was amazed and followed the beast. ⁴They worshiped the dragon because he gave authority to the beast. And they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to wage war against it?"

⁵The beast was given a mouth to utter boasts and blasphemies. It was allowed to exercise authority for forty-two months. ⁶It began to speak blasphemies against God: to blaspheme his name and his dwelling — those who dwell in heaven. ⁷And it was permitted to wage war against the saints and to conquer them. It was also given authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation. ⁸All those who live on the earth will worship it, everyone whose name was not written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who was slaughtered.

⁹ If anyone has ears to hear, let him listen.

¹⁰ If anyone is to be taken captive, into captivity he goes. If anyone is to be killed with a sword, with a sword he will be killed.

This calls for endurance and faithfulness from the saints.

¹¹ Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; it had two horns like a lamb, but it spoke like a dragon. ¹² It exercises all the authority of the first beast on its behalf and compels the earth and those who live on it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. ¹³ It also performs great signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth in front of people. ¹⁴ It deceives those who live on the earth because of the signs that it is permitted to perform in the presence of the beast, telling those who live on the earth to make an image of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived. ¹⁵ It was permitted to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast could both speak and cause whoever would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶ And it makes everyone—small and great, rich and poor, free and slave—to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, ¹⁷ so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark: the beast's name or the number of its name.

¹⁸ This calls for wisdom: Let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, because it is the number of a person. Its number is 666.

14 Then I looked, and there was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him were 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. ² I heard a sound from heaven like the sound of cascading waters and like the rumbling of loud thunder. The sound I heard was like harpists playing on their harps. ³ They sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders, but no one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. ⁴ These are the ones who have not defiled themselves with women, since they remained virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were redeemed from humanity as the firstfruits for God and the Lamb. ⁵ No lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless.

⁶ Then I saw another angel flying high overhead, with the eternal gospel to announce to the inhabitants of the earth—to every nation, tribe, language, and people. ⁷ He spoke with a loud voice: "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come. Worship the one who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

⁸ And another, a second angel, followed, saying, "It has fallen, Babylon the Great has fallen. She made all the nations drink the wine of her sexual immorality, which brings wrath."

⁹ And another, a third angel, followed them and spoke with a loud voice: "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰ he will also drink the wine of God's wrath, which is poured full strength into the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the sight of the holy angels and in the sight of the Lamb, ¹¹ and the smoke of their torment will go up forever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and its image, or anyone who receives the mark of its name. ¹² This calls for endurance from the saints, who keep God's commands and their faith in Jesus."

¹³ Then I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on."

"Yes," says the Spirit, "so they will rest from their labors, since their works follow them."

¹⁷ Then another angel who also had a sharp sickle came out of the temple in heaven. ¹⁸ Yet another angel, who had authority over fire, came from the altar, and he called with a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle, "Use your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the vineyard of the earth, because its grapes have ripened." ¹⁹ So the angel swung his sickle at the earth and gathered the grapes from the vineyard of the earth, and he threw them into the great winepress of God's wrath. ²⁰ Then the press was trampled outside the city, and blood flowed out of the press up to the horses' bridles for about 180 miles.

15 Then I saw another great and awe-inspiring sign in heaven: seven angels with the seven last plagues; for with them God's wrath will be completed. ² I also saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had won the victory over the beast, its image, and the number of its name, were standing on the sea of glass with harps from God. ³ They sang the song of God's servant Moses and the song of the Lamb:

Great and awe-inspiring are your works,
Lord God, the Almighty;
just and true are your ways,
King of the nations.

⁴ Lord, who will not fear
and glorify your name?
For you alone are holy.
All the nations will come and worship before you because your righteous acts have been revealed.

⁵ After this I looked, and the heavenly temple—the tabernacle of testimony—was opened. ⁶ Out of the temple came the seven angels, with the seven plagues, dressed in pure, bright linen, with golden sashes wrapped around their chests. ⁷ One of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of God who lives forever and ever. ⁸ Then the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of God's wrath on the earth." ² The first went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and severely painful sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped its image.

³ The second poured out his bowl into the sea. It turned to blood like that of a dead person, and all life in the sea died.

⁴ The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood. ⁵ I heard the angel of the waters say,

You are just,
the Holy One, who is and who was,
because you have passed judgment
on these things.

- ⁶ Because they poured out
the blood of the saints and the prophets,
you have given them blood to drink;
they deserve it!

⁷ I heard the altar say,
Yes, Lord God, the Almighty,
true and just are your judgments.

⁸ The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun. It was allowed to scorch people with fire, ⁹ and people were scorched by the intense heat. So they blasphemed the name of God, who has the power over these plagues, and they did not repent and give him glory.

¹⁷ Then the seventh poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple from the throne, saying, "It is done!" ¹⁸ There were flashes of lightning, rumblings, and peals of thunder. And a severe earthquake occurred like no other since people have been on the earth, so great was the quake. ¹⁹ The great city split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the Great was remembered in God's presence; he gave her the cup filled with the wine of his fierce anger. ²⁰ Every island fled, and the mountains disappeared. ²¹ Enormous hailstones, each weighing about a hundred pounds, fell from the sky on people, and they blasphemed God for the plague of hail because that plague was extremely severe.

17 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me: "Come, I will show you the judgment of the notorious prostitute who is seated on many waters. ² The kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and those who live on the earth became drunk on the wine of her sexual immorality." ³ Then he carried me away in the Spirit to a wilderness.

I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns. ⁴ The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, adorned with gold, jewels, and pearls. She had a golden cup in her hand filled with everything detestable and with the impurities of her prostitution. ⁵ On her forehead was written a name, a mystery: BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE DETESTABLE THINGS OF THE EARTH. ⁶ Then I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the witnesses to Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly astonished.

⁷ Then the angel said to me, "Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast, with the seven heads and the ten horns, that carries her. ⁸ The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up from the abyss and go to destruction. Those who live on the earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will be astonished when they see the beast that was, and is not, and is to come. ⁹ This calls for a mind that has wisdom: "The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated. They are also seven kings: ¹⁰ Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come, and when he comes, he must remain for only a little while. ¹¹ The beast that was and is not, is itself an eighth king, but it belongs to the seven and is going to destruction. ¹² The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they will receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour. ¹³ These have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴ These will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings. Those with him are called, chosen, and faithful."

¹⁵ He also said to me, "The waters you saw, where the prostitute was seated, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. ¹⁶ The ten horns you saw, and the beast, will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, devour her flesh, and burn her up with fire. ¹⁷ For God has put it into their hearts to carry out his plan by having one purpose and to give their kingdom to the beast until the words of God are fulfilled. ¹⁸ And the woman you saw is the great city that has royal power over the kings of the earth."

18 After this I saw another angel with great authority coming down from heaven, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor. ² He called out in a mighty voice:

It has fallen,
Babylon the Great has fallen!
She has become a home for demons,
a haunt for every unclean spirit,
a haunt for every unclean bird,
and a haunt for every unclean
and despicable beast.

- ³ For all the nations have drunk
the wine of her sexual immorality, which brings wrath.
The kings of the earth
have committed sexual immorality with her,
and the merchants of the earth
have grown wealthy from her sensuality and excess.

⁴ Then I heard another voice from heaven:
Come out of her, my people,
so that you will not share in her sins
or receive any of her plagues.

- ⁵ For her sins are piled up to heaven,
and God has remembered her crimes.

⁶ Pay her back the way she also paid,
and double it according to her works.
In the cup in which she mixed,
mix a double portion for her.

- ⁷ As much as she glorified herself and indulged her sensual and excessive ways,
give her that much torment and grief.
For she says in her heart,
"I sit as a queen;

I am not a widow,
and I will never see grief.”

⁸ For this reason her plagues will come in just one day —

death and grief and famine.
She will be burned up with fire,
because the Lord God who judges her is mighty.

⁹The kings of the earth who have committed sexual immorality and shared her sensual and excessive ways will weep and mourn over her when they see the smoke from her burning. ¹⁰They will stand far off in fear of her torment, saying,

Woe, woe, the great city,
Babylon, the mighty city!
For in a single hour
your judgment has come.

¹¹The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo any longer — ¹²car-go of gold, silver, jewels, and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet; all kinds of fragrant wood products; objects of ivory; objects of expensive wood, brass, iron, and marble; ¹³cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, and frankincense; wine, olive oil, fine flour, and grain; cattle and sheep; horses and carriages; and slaves — human lives.

¹⁴ The fruit you craved has left you.

All your splendid and glamorous things are gone;
they will never find them again.

¹⁵The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand far off in fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, ¹⁶saying,

Woe, woe, the great city,
dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet,
adorned with gold, jewels, and pearls;

¹⁷ for in a single hour

such fabulous wealth was destroyed!

And every shipmaster, seafarer, the sailors, and all who do business by sea, stood far off ¹⁸as they watched the smoke from her burning and kept crying out: “Who was like the great city?” ¹⁹They threw dust on their heads and kept crying out, weeping, and mourning,

Woe, woe, the great city,
where all those who have ships on the sea
became rich from her wealth;
for in a single hour she was destroyed.

²⁰ Rejoice over her, heaven,
and you saints, apostles, and prophets, because God has pronounced on her the judgment she passed on you!

²¹Then a mighty angel picked up a stone like a large millstone and threw it into the sea, saying,

In this way, Babylon the great city will be thrown down violently
and never be found again.

²² The sound of harpists, musicians,
flutists, and trumpeters
will never be heard in you again;
no craftsman of any trade
will ever be found in you again;
the sound of a mill
will never be heard in you again;

²³ the light of a lamp
will never shine in you again;
and the voice of a groom and bride
will never be heard in you again.
All this will happen

because your merchants
were the nobility of the earth, because all the nations were deceived
by your sorcery.

²⁴ In her was found the blood of prophets and saints,
and of all those slaughtered on the earth.

19 After this I heard something like the loud voice of a vast multitude in heaven, saying,
Hallelujah!

² Salvation, glory, and power belong to our God,
because his judgments are true and righteous,
because he has judged the notorious prostitute
who corrupted the earth
with her sexual immorality;
and he has avenged the blood of his servants
that was on her hands.

³ A second time they said,

Hallelujah!

Her smoke ascends forever and ever!

⁴ Then the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God, who is seated on the throne, saying,

Amen! Hallelujah!

⁵ A voice came from the throne, saying,

Praise our God,
all his servants, and the ones who fear him,
both small and great!

⁶ Then I heard something like the voice of a vast multitude,
like the sound of cascading waters, and like the rumbling
of loud thunder, saying,

Hallelujah, because our Lord God, the Almighty, reigns!

⁷ Let us be glad, rejoice, and give him glory,
because the marriage of the Lamb has come,
and his bride has prepared herself.

⁸ She was given fine linen to wear, bright and pure.

For the fine linen represents the righteous acts of the saints.

⁹ Then he said to me, “Write: Blessed are those invited to the marriage feast of the Lamb!” He also said to me, “These words of God are true.” ¹⁰Then I fell at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, “Don’t do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers and sisters who hold firmly to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, because the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

¹¹Then I saw heaven opened, and there was a white horse. Its rider is called Faithful and True, and he judges and makes war with justice. ¹²His eyes were like a fiery flame, and many crowns were on his head. He had a name written that no one knows except himself. ¹³He wore a robe dipped in blood, and his name is called the Word of God.
¹⁴The armies that were in heaven followed him on white horses, wearing pure white linen. ¹⁵A sharp sword came from his mouth, so that he might strike the nations with it.
He will rule them with an iron rod. He will also trample the winepress of the fierce anger of God, the Almighty. ¹⁶And
he has a name written on his robe and on his thigh: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

¹⁷Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he called out in a loud voice, saying to all the birds flying high overhead, “Come, gather together for the great supper of God, ¹⁸so that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of military commanders, the flesh of the mighty, the flesh of horses and of their riders, and the flesh of everyone, both free and slave, small and great.”

¹⁹Then I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to wage war against the rider on the horse and against his army. ²⁰But the beast was taken prisoner, and along with it the false prophet, who had performed the signs in its presence. He deceived those who accepted the mark of the beast and those who worshiped its image with these signs. Both of them were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. ²¹The rest were killed with the sword that came from the mouth of the rider on the horse, and all the birds ate their fill of their flesh.

20 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven holding the key to the abyss and a great chain in his hand. ²He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. ³He threw him into the abyss, closed it, and put a seal on it so that he would no longer deceive the nations until the thousand years were completed. After that, he must be released for a short time.

⁴Then I saw thrones, and people seated on them who were given authority to judge. I also saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony about Jesus and because of the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and who had not accepted the mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. ⁵The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed.

This is the first resurrection. ⁶Blessed and holy is the one who shares in the first resurrection! The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him for a thousand years.

⁷When the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison ⁸and will go out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle. Their number is like the sand of the sea. ⁹They came up across the breadth of the earth and surrounded the encampment of the saints, the beloved city. Then fire came down from heaven and consumed them. ¹⁰The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet are, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

¹¹Then I saw a great white throne and one seated on it. Earth and heaven fled from his presence, and no place was found for them. ¹²I also saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life, and the dead were judged according to their works by what was written in the books. ¹³Then the sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them; each one was judged according to their works. ¹⁴Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. ¹⁵And anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

21 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ²I also saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.

³Then I heard a loud voice from the throne: Look, God's dwelling is with humanity, and he will live with them. They will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them and will be their God. ⁴He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; grief, crying, and pain will be no more, because the previous things have passed away.

⁵Then the one seated on the throne said, "Look, I am making everything new." He also said, "Write, because these words are faithful and true." ⁶Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will freely give to the thirsty from the spring of the water of life." ⁷The one who conquers will inherit these things, and I will be his God, and he will be my son. ⁸But the cowards, faithless, detestable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars — their share will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death." ⁹Then one of the seven angels, who had held the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues, came and spoke with me: "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." ¹⁰He then carried me away in the Spirit to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, ¹¹arrayed with God's glory. Her radiance was like a precious jewel, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal. ¹²The city had a massive high wall, with twelve gates. Twelve angels were at the gates; the names of the twelve tribes of Israel's sons were inscribed on the gates. ¹³There were three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west. ¹⁴The city wall had twelve foundations, and the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb were on the foundations.

¹⁵The one who spoke with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. ¹⁶The city is laid out in a square; its length and width are the same. He measured the city with the rod at 12,000 stadia. Its length, width, and height are equal. ¹⁷Then he measured its wall, 144 cubits according to human measurement, which the angel used. ¹⁸The building material of its wall was jasper, and the city was pure gold clear as glass. ¹⁹The foundations of the city wall were adorned with every kind of jewel: the first foundation is jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, ²⁰the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst. ²¹The twelve gates are twelve pearls; each individual gate was made of a single pearl. The main street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.

²²I did not see a temple in it, because the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. ²³The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, because the glory of God illuminates it, and its lamp is the Lamb. ²⁴The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. ²⁵Its gates will never close by day because it will never be night there. ²⁶They will bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. ²⁷Nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or false, but only those written in the Lamb's book of life.

22 Then he showed me the river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb ²down the middle of the city's main street. The tree of life was on each side of the river, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree are for healing the nations, ³and there will no longer be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will worship him. ⁴They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. ⁵Night will be no more; people will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, because the Lord God will give them light, and they will reign forever and ever.

⁶ Then he said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place."

⁷ "Look, I am coming soon! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

⁸ I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had shown them to me. ⁹ But he said to me, "Don't do that! I am a fellow servant with you, your brothers the prophets, and those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!"

¹⁰ Then he said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, because the time is near. ¹¹ Let the unrighteous go on in unrighteousness; let the filthy still be filthy; let the righteous go on in righteousness; let the holy still be holy."

¹² "Look, I am coming soon, and my reward is with me to repay each person according to his work. ¹³ I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

¹⁴ "Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates. ¹⁵ Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

¹⁶ "I, Jesus, have sent my angel to attest these things to you for the churches. I am the root and descendant of David, the bright morning star."

¹⁷ Both the Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" Let anyone who hears, say, "Come!" Let the one who is thirsty come. Let the one who desires take the water of life freely.

¹⁸ I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book. ¹⁹ And if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share of the tree of life and the holy city, which are written about in this book.

²⁰ He who testifies about these things says, "Yes, I am coming soon."

Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

²¹ The grace of the Lord Jesus be with everyone. Amen.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

If God exists, why isn't his exact identity more obvious?

That God exists is a fact most people have agreed on throughout history. It is the exact identity of God that causes disagreement. Why is the exact identity of God not more obvious? Perhaps God's identity is more obvious than you think. Jesus told a parable about a man who died and went to Hades, a place of permanent suffering. The condemned man insinuated to Father Abraham that God's identity was not as obvious as it should have been, otherwise he wouldn't have ended up in Hades. He begged Father Abraham to send someone from the dead to warn his brothers about Hades so they would avoid it by repenting. Father Abraham responded: "If they don't listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded if someone rises from the dead" (Lk 16:31). God has made his identity clear. Our problem is that we are like children who cover their ears and shout, "I can't hear you!" In our sinfulness we are not so eager to learn truth about God after all because it costs us some of the things we love best: our independence, our opinions, and our sinful ways. The Christian poet T. S. Eliot once said, "Humankind cannot bear very much reality." Similarly, we could say that sinful humanity cannot bear very much reality about God.

Has science proven there is no God?

The existence of an immaterial and eternal God is beyond the purview of science, which studies material reality and the laws and forces that help explain the structure and function of the universe. But science has its roots in biblical teachings. First, the Bible says God created humanity in his image. One implication is that our minds are ready-made for understanding the world if we will bother to investigate it. Second, God commanded Adam to "be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it." This is a call to stewardship of the earth. Such stewardship requires us to observe the law-like regularities and exquisite complexities in nature, not to exploit the creation but to take care of it. It is no accident that many of the pioneers of science held a biblical worldview that expects the orderly, law-like phenomena that enables life to flourish.

Has science proven miracles are impossible?

The idea that science has proven the impossibility of miracles stems from a faulty understanding of the relationship between God and science. This mistaken view, held by Christians and agnostics alike, gives the laws of nature a status that they don't have in reality. The biblical understanding is that phenomena that function in a law-like manner, as well as those for which we have yet to identify regularities, all owe their being to God moment by moment. A meteorologist might well have given a thorough scientific explanation of the parting of the Red Sea during the exodus. The Bible hints at that possibility when it says, "The LORD drove the sea back with a powerful east wind all that night and turned the sea into dry land" (Ex 14:21). In this case the miracle was not that a scientific explanation was lacking. It was the timing of the Israelites being at the edge of the Red Sea when the strong east wind dried up the Sea. God is not beholden to scientific law. Scientific law is our attempt to make sense of what God is doing all the time.

If God is good, why does he allow evil to exist?

Scripture affirms God's unlimited power (Mt 19:26), his perfect goodness (Hab 1:13), and the reality of evil (Gn 6:5-6). God doesn't give a comprehensive account of why he allows evil. For those who will follow and read the evidence carefully, God sets forth a pattern that shows his purposes are perfectly good. Where he allows evil, he turns that evil to a greater good (Gn 50:15-21). The greatest example of this pattern is the death of Jesus, through whom God's enemies are made his children (Rm 5:6-11).

How important is it that we believe the right things about God?

When you board a jet, you do so because you believe the jet is air-worthy and it will get you to your destination safely. If you did not believe that, you would not board. If your belief in the jet's safety were mistaken, you would want someone to tell you so. Our beliefs about the jet and the reality about the jet are not necessarily lined up in agreement. Clearly it is important that our beliefs about the jet line up with realities about the jet. How much more is at stake when it comes to beliefs about God! God is our maker and judge. If what you believe about God turns out to be false, you have staked everything on a faulty foundation. "What does it benefit a man to gain the whole world yet lose his life? What can a man give in exchange for his life?" (Mk 8:36-37)

Am I personally at odds with God? What is sin?

Human beings are naturally at odds with God (Rm 3:10-18). This aversion to God may be hidden by a veneer of respectability, but given the right circumstances it becomes evident in each of us. As a school boy, Jean-Paul Sartre, one of the leading atheist thinkers of the twentieth century, was playing with matches and burned a small rug. As he tried to cover up his misdeed he felt the gaze of God. Young Sartre fell into a rage against God. By Sartre's account, "He never looked at me again." In reality, it is Sartre who never looked at God again. Sin is a refusal to live humbly under God's reign and acknowledge our obligations to him; we are all guilty of this and thus need forgiveness.

What is the reason anyone is sent to hell?

Sin violates God's law, which expresses his righteous character. Sin thus involves rebellion against the Creator-King whose throne is founded on righteousness and justice (Ps 97:2). Sin incurs a debt of guilt and punishment (Col 2:14). The crucifixion of the innocent and eternal God-Man, Jesus Christ, is the only possible satisfaction of divine justice, but it is only for those who "attach" themselves to Christ by faith. Others must endure their own punishment for their offenses against the infinite and holy God.

How can God send devout Buddhists, Muslims, etc. to hell?

Only one God is the Creator and Ruler of all. Sin violates his laws, summarized as "Love the LORD your God with all your heart, . . . soul, and . . . strength" (Dt 6:4). Such love has no room for other gods (Dt 5:7). Worship of false gods, no matter how devout your worship, involves rebellion against the true God who provided salvation only through his Son, Jesus Christ (Ac 4:12). Imagine the pain and offense your parents would feel if you identified someone else as father and mother. In a similar way, it is painful and offensive to God when we misidentify him, saying things of him that are not true and which conflict with his eternal nature.

Why cannot God just annihilate those who die in unbelief?

Scripture says that God is both perfectly just and loving, and that the penalty for living in rebellion against God is eternal punishment (Mt 25:46; Lk 12:4-5; Jn 5:28-29; Rv 9:5-6; 16:10-11). Annihilation would not satisfy God's perfect justice because the offense of our sins is infinite. Just as the reward for faith-righteousness through Christ is eternal fellowship with God, the penalty for rebellion against him is eternal ruin and separation from God.

If there is one God, why are there so many religions?

God has made himself known to everyone through creation and the conscience (Rm 1:18-19). This knowledge of God has not been well received by human beings. Rather than acknowledging who God is and being grateful to him, we have suppressed this original knowledge. The result is a darkening of the mind. People create gods they prefer rather than worshiping God as he is (Rm 1:23). Given the diversity of people and cultures, it is no surprise that there are a variety of religions.

What makes Jesus different from other religious teachers?

If a man told you that he is both God and a humble human, you would recommend a psychiatric evaluation. Jesus, in effect, made those very claims simultaneously. "All things have been entrusted to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son desires to reveal him" (Mt 11:27). "I am lowly and humble in heart" (Mt 11:29). Jesus differs from other religious teachers in being able to make both paradoxical claims truthfully. His words are vindicated in his well-documented bodily resurrection from the dead (1Co 15:1-19).

How did Jesus make it possible for us to go to heaven?

That sense of justice that arises in you when you are wronged or when you see others treated unjustly may be one of the most important clues to understanding yourself and your relationship to God. Wrongs cry out to be righted. But who can right them? When we are honest, we realize that in thought, word, and deed we have wronged God and others. We have failed to love God with every fiber of our being and have not come close to caring for our neighbors as for ourselves. The good news is that God's Son, Jesus the Messiah, has taken the consequences of our sins on himself in his death on the cross. He calls us simply to trust him. A criminal who died next to Jesus asked Jesus to remember him when he came into his kingdom. This man realized he could not make right the wrongs he had done. But his faith in Jesus brought this response from Jesus: "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise" (Lk 23:43).

How do I become a Christian?

It's simple, but not easy. First you must confess that you are sinful and have failed to honor God as you should. Next you must repent—turn away from sin and selfishness—and trust God. Then you must believe Jesus's sacrifice is sufficient to save you and invite him to be your Lord and Savior (Ac 20:21; Rm 10:9). That's it. Reading the Bible, praying, and going to church naturally follow from your decision to follow Christ.

Isn't the Bible full of mistakes?

Jesus trusted the Old Testament Scriptures (Mt 26:54; Jn 10:35). His endorsement is important, especially given his miracles and resurrection from the dead. In Matthew 22:29, Jesus told the Sadducees, "You are mistaken, because you don't know the Scriptures or the power of God." The Bible is the standard of what is correct and what is mistaken. And before Jesus was crucified, he promised his disciples they would have the Spirit's guidance in preaching and writing the New Testament revelation (Jn 14:26; 16:13).

Hasn't the Bible been altered a lot since it was written?

The New Testament is by far the best attested text from the ancient world. Thousands of manuscripts produced between the second and fourteenth centuries provide strong evidence for the reliability of the New Testament. There are some 20,000 handwritten manuscripts of the New Testament written in a variety of languages, 5,500 of which are ancient Greek manuscripts. A dozen of the Greek manuscripts date from the second century, 64 from the third century, and 48 from the fourth century. Being able to compare manuscripts enables scholars to achieve a high level of confidence in what the original text said. Scholars have found 200,000 errors or variants in 10,000 different places in the New Testament. Not one of these variants affects an essential doctrine of Christian faith. Between 97 and 99 percent of the New Testament text can be recovered with certainty.

If Christianity is true, why do Christians disagree about so much?

True Christians agree on the essentials: sinful humanity needs a Savior; Jesus died and rose again to redeem people (1Co 15:3-4). Naturally, those who claim to be Christians but really aren't will disagree with true Christians on many points (Rm 16:17-18). But even genuine Christians tend to quarrel about nonessential matters because we are imperfect, fallen human beings beset by temptation (Jms 4:1-4) and prone to read Scripture with bias and closed hearts. Further, on some topics the Bible does not present enough evidence to ensure a unified conclusion is reached among believers. About these topics there should be mutual tolerance for differing opinions.

Does the Bible reflect bias against women?

Scripture honors single women, widows, wives, mothers, homemakers, businesswomen, and spiritual leaders like Deborah, Anna, Phoebe, Priscilla, Lois, and Eunice. The Bible granted women greater rights and dignity than did other contemporary cultures (Jos 17:3-4). Jesus valued and affirmed women so much that he shocked his disciples (Jn 4:7-27). Women are co-image-bearers (Gn 1:27), key persons in the Messiah's genealogy (Mt 1:5), and coheirs of eternal life (Gl 3:28-29).

Is the God of the Bible hateful and self-centered?

It is only reasonable to conclude that God is the most valuable of all beings. After all, his power, knowledge, and virtue eclipse those of all other beings. If God were to set his highest love on anything other than himself, he would be guilty of idolatry. So it is fitting that God insists on being honored as the greatest value in the universe. And yet he loves us and offers us forgiveness through faith in his Son, Jesus Christ. Those who reject God and his offered mercy in Christ justly encounter divine wrath.

Why does God allow Satan to tempt us?

Mankind gave Satan authority to continue tempting us when Adam and Eve took the serpent's bait in the garden (see Nm 33:55). Satan's aim is to convince us that God is not trustworthy, not worthy of worship, and that we should praise God only when he is blessing us (Jb 1:9-11). In the same way that God allowed Satan to tempt Job, he allows us to be tempted in order to demonstrate that he deserves our worship for who he is, no matter what our life circumstances are.

What church should I attend?

In individualistic North America, church affiliation has come to be seen as a matter of "take it or leave it." But the idea of "just Jesus and me" is foreign to the Bible. Those who trust Jesus as Savior and Lord are incorporated into the fellowship of the church. Deciding on a particular church is not a matter to be taken lightly. Seek a church that worships God in spirit and in truth, that takes the Bible seriously and teaches its whole counsel, that seeks and welcomes those who need to be reconciled to God, and that helps all members of the body identify and use their unique spiritual gifts.
